In Memory of Opal Phillips

At three o'clock on Saturday morning, A message reached our home; That little Opal Phillips

Was dying at break of dawn.

Friends soon gathered round her bedside. Loved ones watched each suffering breath

Till the day wore on in anguish, And her spirit went to rest.

Then they measured her sleeping form, For a casket white as snow;

- Folded her hands like broken tillies,
- On her breast now still and cold.

Twelve glad years her life had brightened, A home that loved her dear;

'Tis so sad to be thus parted, When her voice we cannot hear.

But God needed one more Angel, Among his shinning band; So he came down in loving kindness, And took little Opal by the hand.

Led her away to realms of gladness, Where her suffering no more she'll know, But dear Opal, how we miss you; And our hearts are aching so.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

With the exception of black ink, all raw materials used in manufacture of a newspaper have advanced in cost during the past twelve months approximately 100 per cent. This means that it will cost your publisher practically double to supply you with a newspaper the coming year.

Under stress of these unusual conditions, The Star-Telegram has been forced to increase its "Bargain Days" rate from $3.25 to $3.65. An increase of 40c per year (3 1-3c per month) or 12 per cent. Based on the conservative estimate increase in production cost of 100 per cent, under this price the division of added expense will be as follows:

This situation means that after "Bargain Days" the regular rate of $6.00 per year must be strictly enforced. We have battered the price to the very bottom in order to protect our Annual Subscription Cheap Rate Period, which has been in effect since the establishment of The Star-Telegram.

Do not take chances, save the $2.35, by ordering before Bargain Days expire. Take advantage of the $3.65 rate.

The high standard of The Star-Telegram will be maintained as long as there is a Star-Telegram regardless of any war burdens.

Bring Your Order to This Office.

Now our hearts are tilled with sadness, Your place is vacant in your home: But your memory sweet we cheerish, Tho far away your spirit roams.

Many friends had little Opal, She was kind to all she knew; Everyone was made to love her, Tho her days on earth were few.

Through her suffering she never murmered Alwa's looking for the good; But death robbed us of our treasure. And she's sleeping 'neath the sod.

Yes, she's gone from earth and loved ones, Her friends no more her face will see; But we know her soul is resting, Where all from pain and death are free.

Tho we miss her smiles of gladness, She is tree from care and pain; And from the flowery realms of heaven, We cannot wish her back again.

She is singing with the Angels, Her little tongue will always praise Him who gave his life blood for us, When he on calvrary was slain.

When the six-seals in Heaven are opened, When God's trumpet sounds in the air: With the Angels and all our loved ones, O Father may we meet her there. -Contributed by a friend.

Officers Break Up Nice Little Gameof Poker

Card Dealers in Their Hurry to Get Away, Leave Sixshooter And $2.25

Local officers Mitchell and Reynolds, broke up a nice quiet little game of poker last Thurs day night, which was being carried on by some three or four parties, around the light of a little coal oil lamp, on the the inside of the Gibbons ice house, near the Orient tracks.

The card shufflers were wise to the fact that the officers of the town have their eyes open on a lookout for their kind. So they placed a pal a short distance from where they were gaming to be on the lookout for the law. When the guard saw the officers approaching, he gave a shrill little whistle, as a signal to the players to get away, and in a few seconds time, Constable Mitchell says, "they were scattered like a flushed bunch of quail".

Many Attended Simmons-Harden Wedding Sunday

118 Dined at Nuptial Spread of Local Groceryman And Miss Mamie Harden

Something along the order of an old style wedding, such as you have read of, or been told of by your grardmother or grandfather; occured last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Harden, a few miles north-east of town. The marriage was that of Tom Simmons, and Miss Mamie Harden, a daughter of the family we have just mentioned. Theirs was a nuptial affair, where relatives and friends of the matrimonial ones, gathered at the home of the bride's elect before the noon hour. And all were happy and gleeful over the thought of dinner-time. Because each knew that chickens and hams, cakes, and pies, and cranberry sauce galore, had been prepared days before hand. Near eleven o'clock the happy couple were united in the Holy Bonds of Wedlock, by Rev. W. J Darnall, and arrangements to feed the wedding guests were then begun. Counting the Harden family, in all, it is reported that 118 present who partook of the feast preparad for the occassion. According to a report given this paper, the families mentioned below were among those who were present at the wedding: S. B. Starr and family, R J. Stowe and family, C. M. Kester and family, T. J. The Reporter joins the friends

The boys in their hurry to get away, left $2.25 in money, which amount is presumed to have been their pot, or a part of it at least, and a six-shooter was also forgotten and lay close by where the game was being carried on.

Con. Mitchell says, the game he ended Thursday evening was not the first one he had disturbed this fall. As the country now is full of transcient cotton pickers and they are after each others Odell, ten or twelve head of cat money at night.
