FROM THE EDITOR'S WINDOW

Wedding at News Office
The Putnam News office was the scene of a wedding Sunday morning at 12:15 a. m., at which time J. F. Martin and Mrs. Velma Williamson of Merkel were united in marriage, with Justice of the Peace J. S. Yeager performing the ceremony.

The bride was attired in a tan swaggar suit with brown accessories. Witnessing the ceremony were Mr. Martin's two daughters, Dorothy and Helen, his cousin, Miss Nina Morgan and nightwatchman Sam Maynard.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Goodman of Merkel and has been employed by Dr. Grimes for some time. Mr. Martin is the eldest son of Lon Martin of Trent. He is a nephew of Mrs. J. R. Morgan of Zion Hill. After spending Saturday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan, they returned to Merkel to make their home 3 miles west of that city, where Mr. Martin will engage in farming.

The above is the first time the News office has rendered the service of being the scene of a wedding, but we should like to say that we are very glad for it to be used for such occasions. Also speaking for the good Justice we are quite sure he is glad to perform the ceremony at any hour. If the next couple desiring to use the office will notify the editor, we will promise a bouquet of flowers for honoring our office in this manner. Mr. and Mrs. Martin will receive the Putnam News for the coming year, as one of their wedding gifts.

Reverend Joe R. Mayes says there is a difference between his name and the crop of maize. He says the maize heads are cut off and fed to the chickens and that the chickens' heads are cut off and fed to Brother Mayes.

W. A. Buchanan and a Sheep
W. A. Buchanan was in the News office this week and stated to the writer that he thought he was some scrapper until one day last week he matched one too heavy for him. While in the Scranton community he drove up to L. W. Morgan's place and went out to the cow pen not paying much attention to what was going on. He was standing figuring what he could pay for a few head of cattle when something struck him and knocked him down. He, not knowing what had happened, made an effort to get up and before he could get straight he was knocked down again and he looked up and discovered that he had made connection with an over grown ram. Seeing what he had to contend with he jerked up a piece of plank; but before he could get into action he decided that he had better run and he made a run for the fence and the sheep missed him, hitting the fence. About this time one of the boys at the house screamed to his mother and told her the ram had a man down in the lot. About this time the boys at the house went or started to rescue Mr. Buchanan; but by the time they got out there Mr. Buchanan had gotten outside of the fence and was looking back at the sheep making all kinds of threats as to what he was going to do to the ram if attacked again. Mr. Buchanan says that he will put this ram against that negro prize fighter any day and will bet on the ram.

In a country newspaper appeared the following advertisement:
"The man who picked up my wallet in Fore Street was recognized. He is requested to return it."
The next day this reply was published:
"The recognized man who picked up your wallet requests the loser to come at any time and collect it."

"Do you think your husband will support me?" he inquired of one lady.

"Well," she answered doubtfully, "if he does, it'll be something he hasn't done for me this last ten years."

The good priest had come to his parishoner after the funeral of the latter's mother-in-law to express condolences.

"And what complaint was it, Pat?" he asked sympathetically, "that carried the old lady off?"

"Kumphant, did ye ask, father?" answered Pat. "Thir wuz no kumphant from anybody. Everybody wuz satisfied."

PUTNAM ENTERS DISTRICT ELEVEN

Oliver Davis, Sports Editor
There has been many changes in Class B football districts throughout the state of Texas. The surrounding districts are the most important to Putnam. District 17 was changed into District 11, which Putnam is a member. The following schools will participate in District 11 next year: Baird, Putnam, Clyde, Colony, May, Moran, Olden, Pioneer, Woodson and Caddo. A total of ten teams in district 11, one of the largest class B districts in Texas. There are three teams that were in this district but have been transferred into other districts. Cross Plains and Rising Star were transferred into district 23 which consists of Ballinger, Bangs, Coleman, Santa Anna, Winters and Rising Star and Cross Plains. Albany has been transferred to district 9, which consists of Anson, Aspermont, Hamlin, Haskel, Munday and Albany. These changes were made by the Interscholastic League members last week. This change will make many districts larger and many districts with much more competition which the football fans love to see. It will also give other schools a chance to win the district title which in the past has had no chance.

The Putnam Panther schedule for this football season is still unknown, however the schedule is expected to be worked out soon.

Putnam Enters Tournament

The Putnam high school boys' basketball team and the tennis team entered the invitation tournament at Oplin last Friday. There were only five basketball teams entered in the tournament but it was bad weather, which did not permit some teams to make the trip. The first game of the tournament was between Oplin and Potosi, in which Potosi won. Clyde drew a bye which made the next game between Oplin-A and Putnam. Oplin-A won by a score of 26 to 30. Jack Everett was high point man for Putnam, with 9 points. Oplin-A won from Clyde and Oplin-A and Potosi entered the finals and Oplin came out the champion.

The tennis team consisting of Gordon Young and Jodie Isenhower played Clyde but lost, both singles and doubles. Gordon Young played singles and lost. Gordon and Jodie played doubles and lost.

It has been discovered that the singles player cannot play both singles and doubles. This will make three players necessary for the team. Mr. Overton also made the trip as tennis coach. The boys that made the trip to Oplin were: Chris Sunderman, Jack Everett, J. L. Rayson, Eugene Brandon, Franklin Shackelford, Raymond Jobe, Dwight Triplett and Floyd Burnam and Coach Bill Wright.

Wins From Union

The Panthers won from the Union quintet last Thursday by a score of 23 to 07. There was some good playing by both teams. This was the Panther's first appearance. Gunn, from Union, was high point man.

THINK ON THESE THINGS

One of the most difficult problems the early Christians had, was to convince the Jews that Jesus was the promised Savior.

They were familiar with the prophecies that "Moses and prophets did write concerning Him that was to be born of a virgin" and upon whom "was laid the iniquity of us all."

Notwithstanding when he came just like the prophets predicted, He was rejected, because he was "humble" and "meek and lowly in heart" and because he did not come with pomp and worldly ambition to set up a temporal kingdom.

They wanted a temporal ruler, but he came "As the Savior of the world," not to set up, or disturb the kingdoms of this world in their governments. (That will be done at His second coming.)

The Apostle John in the beginning of his gospel said, "He came unto His own, but His own received Him not."

Then near the close of his gospel he said: "This book is written that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God."

Anyone that admits the above, is "not far from the Kingdom of heaven."

But for our salvation to be completed we must have personal contact with Christ, and this personal contact comes by believing and accepting what he has done for us, which enables us to say: "I have received him." "I am trusting Him for salvation." "I have submitted the keeping of my soul to Him." I have accepted the "Gift of God, which is eternal life, through Jesus Christ, my Lord."

J. H. Cunningham has been ill at his home in Putnam recently.

SMITH'S SPEECH AT WASHINGTON

Ex-governor Alfred E. Smith, of New York, spoke in Washington Saturday evening to more than 2,000 people at a Liberty League meeting and would have spoken to ten thousand if space had permitted. It was a rip-roaring Smith crowd and removes any doubt to any unbiased man about the Administration popularity, as every state in the union was represented and the applause seemed to be unanimous at every thrust the speaker made at the Administration. The speech was logical, sound and to the point without any abuse of anyone. He discussed principles and only mentioned the name of one man in his entire discourse and that was William Jennings Bryan, which he credited with being honest and going before the American people with a platform calling for what he intended to do if elected.

Smith took up the Democratic platform and discussed it, showing that the present administration had thrown it in an ash heap and had gone off on a tangent of Socialism, and Communism instead of doing what they were pledged to do by the Democratic platform adopted at Chicago. This is well known by every person that is keeping up with current events, that the platform has been ignored and if they had gone before the American people on a platform advocating what they have done they would not have received a million votes, such as taxing the people, killing off the hogs, plowing up the cotton, and killing the stockman's cattle giving them twice as much as they could be sold for and then taxing all the people to raise the price of what they had left. That is worse than socialism as none of their long-haired orators ever advocated anything of the kind and the present administration has been charged with being communist and repudiation of the Democratic platform and convicted of the offense. This calls to mind a certain negro who was being tried for stealing chickens and after the evidence was in and the negro saw that he would be convicted he arose and said to the trial court:

"Judge your honor I want to plead guilty and put myself on de ignorance of dis here court."
 The evidence is all in and the present administration is guilty and the only thing that they can do is to plead guilty and put themselves on the ignorance of the county, as that is the only way that they can be elected if elected at all. They will tell you there has been nothing offered but when this alibi is used the Chicago platform is still unused and to go back and take up where they left off, as that was what the President promised the people and every congressman was elected on the same platform and there has been no effort to put these demands and promises into effect and there has been nothing else demanded by the people.

PARITY INCOME WITH 1909 TO 1914

We are still taking the position that the Southern farmer has not reached a parity with the income for the years 1909 to 1914. Taking the income for that period it shows that the farmer had an average income of $496.00 without any aid from any source, and his production was an average of a fraction more than 8 bales and brought him 12.04c per pound, against an average of 5.1 bales in 1936 sold at an average price of 11 cents, making the average income to 2,146,000 farmers of $280.50 or a reduction of $216.00 from his income on the average from 1909 to 1914; not taking into consideration the subsidies paid by the tax placed on the entire population in the way of higher prices, to pay subsidies. Taking the benefit payments and add to the price, the farmer still has less buying power than in this period. The individual farmer has not been benefited by this program outside of destroying employment for millions of other people. Then there could be no justification for the continuance of the program. Remember the income for the farmer on a ten year average was $714,000,000 more from 1923 to 1932 inclusive than it was in 1935 after six years of regulation. The average income for 2,146,000 farmers for the ten years was about $550.00 against $280.00 in 1936 or a difference of $890.00 in income.

THE BONUS WILL BE PAID

After seventeen long years the World War veterans will be paid. It will take about $2,491,000,000 to pay the bill; but it is estimated that it will take about $1,500,000,000 for immediate use. This debt was not due until 1945; but due to the fact that billions of dollars have been spent in an extravagant way in the last three years there was no reason why this debt should not have been paid last year. We think the Patman bill was the best way which provided for issuing $2,500,000,000 in no interest bearing bonds instead of going the bond route; but they shouted themselves hoarse that the Patman bill was inflation. We fail to see the difference as $1,500,000,000 in bonds sold to the Federal Reserve Banks for cash to pay the bonds is just as much inflation as the Patman bill, and the only difference that we can see is the 3 1-2 per cent interest.

CLYDE GARRETT ANNOUNCES FOR CONGRESS

Honorable C. L. (Clyde) Garrett of Eastland officially announces that he is in the race for congress from this, the 17th Congressional District, and that his formal announcement will be made within the near future.

Clyde Garrett comes from an old pioneer family, was born in this county 50 years ago, in a log cabin, which still stands. He is the youngest son in a family of eleven children. His father was a Confederate Veteran and Clyde has always been a loyal Democrat. In his young manhood he worked on a farm and taught school.

He served Eastland county six years as County Clerk, and is now serving his fourth term as County Judge of Eastland county, and would have had no opposition had he chosen to run for that office again. He engaged in the banking business at one time and also served the City of Eastland as city manager. In 1934 he was elected president of the West Texas County Judges Association, comprising 130 counties and in 1935 was elected president of the state association of county judges and commissioners, a position which he now holds. Mr. Garrett has a wife and five children and is deeply interested in all manner of educational and religious movements. A rather significant feature of his political life is that every candidate he has ever defeated is now his personal friend and supporter. He has presided over the commissioners' court of this county all through the depression and this county has always been on a cash basis, with ready money to pay jurors and all employees of the county, as well as for county hospital and charitable purposes.

The Weekly Record and his hundreds of friends gladly commend his candidacy to the electorate of this district and assure them that this county will roll up a majority of ninety per cent for him when the ballots are counted in July. Clyde Garrett is safe, sound and conservative. His public and private life is as clean as a lund's tooth and he is equipped in every way to make us the finest congressman we have ever had. He has received much encouragement from every part of the district and will wage a clean but vigorous campaign for the office. We confidently predict his election by a large majority.—Weekly Record, Eastland.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON
 by Charles E. Dunn

JESUS ENLISTS HELPERS.
 Lesson for February 2nd. Luke 5: 1-11.
 Golden Text: Luke 5:11.

We are impressed, as we study Jesus seeking followers, with the fact that most of the disciples were commonplace men. What the Master did was to inspire these ordinary individuals to glorify their mediocre attainments. So Peter, James, John, Andrew and the rest were emboldened, despite their lowly origin and slender gifts, to conquer a world.

A. C. Benson wrote that the world's best work is to be found in "humble and individual ministries performed in a corner without tangible rewards." Such was the type of service rendered by the apostles in the primitive days of the Christian movement. Their major work was done behind the scenes, and its influence was distinctly limited. But it was none the less impressive for all that. For a great historical movement like Christianity must progress through individual contacts. William James, that most inspiring thinker, pointed out the significance of the invisible, molecular, moral forces that operate from individual to individual.

We must never forget that ordinary men and commonplace deeds induce planetary repercussions. St. Paul is a striking illustration. A relatively obscure figure who founded a few struggling churches of little influence, he is now considered one of the greatest Christians who ever lived. For a modern parallel consider Kagawa, the devoted and dynamic champion of the social gospel in Japan. An unwanted child, he was left to the care of relatives who did not love him. No one imagined that he would ever amount to anything. Yet today he's a mighty power for the Christian Cause both in his own land and in America, where he is now conducting a whirlwind crusade on behalf of the cooperative movement for the distribution of goods.

Emerson said that in all his lectures he had taught one doctrine only, "the infinitude of the private man." Jesus taught this also. Every individual to him was of supreme importance.

MUST PROVE AGE TO GET OLD AGE PENSION

AUSTIN.—Facing old-age assistance applicants will be the difficulty of proving their ages, Orrille S. Carpenter, executive director of the Old Age Assistance Commission, said today when asked what he thought the most difficult problem of old people making application.

Application forms will be distributed to cities and towns over the state and will be available to all who want them February 14, when the law goes into effect. As required by the new law, certain facts must be established by the applicant. The law grants assistance to the needy who are 65 years of age or more, and each applicant must definitely and conclusively prove his or her age.

"There are many ways by which a person can establish his age," Director Carpenter stated, "The Commission will consider any evidence that proves or helps to establish definitely the age of the applicant. However, it will be necessary in each case for the applicant to establish to the satisfaction of the Commission, by whatever means he can, that he is 65 years of age."

A number of kinds of evidence to be used in proving age are the following:

1. Birth certificates.
2. Marriage certificates giving the age of both parties.
3. Birth certificates of children giving age of parents.
4. Ages of sons and daughters when these are sufficiently advanced.
5. Naturalization papers giving age at time of applying for same.
6. Passports. Service books of immigrants.
7. County records. Baptismal certificates.
8. Insurance papers.
9. Employment records.
10. School records.
11. Records of trade unions, fraternal societies, or other organizations.
12. Federal or state records in the case of those who have been in civil or military service.
13. D.A.R., U.P.C., Daughters of Texas Revolution, etc.
14. Hospital records, or those of physicians.
15. Vaccination certificates.
16. Poll tax receipts that show the actual age of voter and not mere fact that he has passed a certain age.
17. Local census records which may give birthdate and place. National census records, Dept. of Census, Washington, D. C.
18. Old licenses of various kinds (such as hunting, fishing, and liquor licenses) sometimes carrying age.
19. Tombstone records when stones have been erected in anticipation of death.
20. Entries in a family Bible or other genealogical records or memoranda of families of applicants.
21. Bills of sale as a slave in the case of aged negroes.
22. Such other evidence as the Old Age Assistance Commission may approve.

Wife (heatedly) — "You're lazy, you're worthless, you're bad tempered, you're shiftless, and you're a thorough liar."
Husband (reasonably) — "Well, my dear, no man is perfect."

KIPLING IN AMERICA

The cables report that Rudyard Kipling, who died the other day at the age of 70, left an estate estimated at nearly $4,000,000. Every dollar of it he earned by his writing, and the greater part of it came from the American readers of his poems, stories and novels. And that is as it should be, because Kipling had a love and admiration for this country such as no other British writer has ever expressed. He knew and understood America. His "American Notes," written back to his newspaper in India when he was a young man looking for a newspaper job in this country, breath a spirit of understanding of this country in every line.

"Oh, be good to an American wherever you meet him," he adjured his readers back in India. He married an American girl, built himself a home in the Vermont hills and would have become an American citizen but for an unfortunate lawsuit begun by his brother-in-law over the title to a few acres of land, which disgusted him with that particular kind of Americanism.

Everybody is more or less familiar with Kipling's poem, "If," but few realize that the ideal man who inspired it was George Washington.

No writer of modern times has written so much quotable stuff as did Kipling. One hundred years from now the lovers of stirring poetry and penetrating prose will be reading Kipling.

FARM NOTES

(ROSS B. JENKINS, County Agt.)

200 Callahan Farmers Hear A. & M. Soil Experts

Upwards of 200 farmers attended a meeting held Friday afternoon at Baird by invitation by the county agent, Ross B. Jenkins, and heard J. W. Chapman, secretary, State Conservation Board, explain Senate Bill No. 227.

Mr. Chapman pointed out that the great rain belts of Texas follow those sections which are the most heavily wooded and decrease directly as the vegetation decreases. He said that scientific experiments had proved that oak trees evaporate 150 to 600 gallons of water per day into the air which causes a greater amount of moisture to become available to form clouds which, in turn, will produce rain. He pointed out that cedar gives up moisture when an abundance is in the soil and reverses itself when the soil is dry; therefore, forming an extra dry condition to prevail in cedar belts during the summer. Mr. Chapman pointed out that Texas was in a semi-tropical condition in 1914 but within a period of ten years had entered the first phase of primary desert and had become semi-arid. He attributed these causes to two man-made conditions. Through extensive drilling of oil wells the water table had been lowered and through placing into cultivation timbered and grass lands evaporation had been checked and since it has been proved that only 60 per cent of the water that falls as rain comes from the evaporation of ocean water and fresh water it was made clear that the 40 per cent that must come from plants had been seriously checked in the central and western portions of Texas. Mr. Chapman showed that by terracing and by building innumerable dams that Texas could again raise the water table and start evaporation back to the elements and thereby more or less control rains during the summer.

He further stated that Texas loses annually some 100 to 200 million dollars value from the loss of fertility through evaporation.

Farmers who heard Mr. Chapman were convinced of the importance of terracing and contouring their lands at once. The commissioners' court assured Mr. Chapman that they would extend cooperation with the state to make terracing available to every farmer at nearly the cost of gasoline and labor to maintain the tractors. This cost now is $2.25 per hour.

On a farm terraced recently at Putnam by Mr. G. A. Brown on the Woods tract 35 acres were terraced at a cost of $22.00. This land had a slope of 3 feet to the 100. The county agent has found that on the average lands in Callahan may reasonably be expected to run not more than a dollar per acre for terracing. Of course, Extension agents run the lines at absolutely no cost to the farmer.

Turkey Raising
Now is the time for you to start your plans for another year's turkey crop. No doubt, you selected your breeders last fall before marketing the bulk of your birds.

Mating time will soon be here and let us caution you there, to make haste slowly. Be sure to check every bird carefully for all standard requirements and do not overlook vigor and vitality.

In other words, when choosing breeders, look for the kind of birds you would like to have for the show and market next fall. The old idea that any kind of bird is good enough for the market is all wrong. A bird with a long straight breast is always more desirable and commands a far better price in the end.

In view of the present market conditions it is all the more important to produce quality instead of mere quantity. Our slogan for 1936, therefore, might be BETTER TURKEYS and not more turkeys.

In fact, if very turkey raiser were to lower his production for 1936 at least 25 per cent and improve his quality at least 25 per cent, the tur-

In order to get early eggs and stronger poults, all breeders should be started on a high-quality egg mash in January and not later than early February. Keep this egg mash before the birds all the time and feed all the scratch grain easily consumed at night. Be sure to give every breeder a chance. Improper feeding means poor hatches.

LONE STAR GAS CO. TO HAVE HALL OF RELIGION AT THE TEXAS CENTENNIAL

DALLAS.—Lone Star Gas Company, through President L. B. Denning, announced Thursday that it would erect a $50,000 Hall of Religion at the Texas Centennial Central Exposition. Announcement of the project was made by Mr. Denning in the office of R. L. Thornton, chairman of the management committee of the exposition in the presence of W. A. Webb, general manager of the exposition, and Joseph Leopold, Dallas Supervisor of Public Utilities.

Mr. Thornton said that after numerous attempts to secure an appropriation for a Hall of Religion had failed, the committee asked Lone Star Gas System if it would construct and operate the building as its medium of participation in the exposition.

In explaining the company's decision to finance the structure Mr. Denning said: "I would like to have this one point made clear. No part of this expense is to be charged to consumers of gas. The building will be a contribution by the stockholders to the exposition. We have been requested to back such a project and are happy to do it."

The building will be a permanent structure for religious meetings, air-conditioned throughout with a kitchen, a patio, reception and assembly halls in addition to eleven separate rooms in which different denominations may place exhibits. Work is to get under way within four weeks and will be completed by May 15.

ACCUSES T.C.U. PRESIDENT OF BEING TRAITOR

FORT WORTH.—President E. M. Waifs of Texas Christian University has been accused of being a traitor to his country in a letter received from a Louisiana woman. She makes the charge because he accepted the Sugar Bowl football trophy, which was made 100 years ago in England. The writer, "a descendant of one of the first converts to the religious principles of Alexander Hamilton," protests against the trophy on the grounds that it emanated from George IV of England.

"If America has fallen so low in patriotism as to accept such an insult to the memory of George Washington," the letter reads, "then you should have required that the loving cup of George be wrapped in a darling British flag."

The protestor further suggest that, "it would be far better that you accept a piece of Mayan pottery, Haile Selassie coccanuts, a vase from the ruins of Pompeii, or a bathtub from Greece, all of which would be less insulting to George Washington than a memento that dates back to the early struggles of a young republic."

SENIOR NEWS

Every member of the senior class is working diligently at the present either on tennis, basketball, declamation, debate or extempore speech. We are determined that each member has a particular part in the winning of the track meet held some time in March or the tournament which is the 7th and 8th of next month. We like a class with spirit so we really intend to possess that working, winning and sportsmanship spirit.

A few dollars were added to our senior fund last Friday night after the box supper. We cordially thank all the people who helped us to make those dollars and we truly hope you enjoyed the food. We would like for you, speaking to the people of Putnam, to attend every entertainment possible in the future that will benefit our class or any of the other classes. For as you have probably heard we are going to do all we can to attend the Texas Centennial and I think you will agree with me that this will be an educational as well as an enjoyable trip for us.

The Freshman class has been very busy this week. We have taken up the study of literature in English, which proves to be very interesting.

We have been studying about Rome in history. We have learned their success, failure, and the characteristics of the Roman people.

We have been studying stated problems with pretty stiff equations. We have been studying about the internal body in science.

SOPHOMORES SPEAK

Olive Davis
Sophomores on the air again, operating with only 15 kilocycles, as we left us this week, Eugene Brandon. Eugene left the first part of the week leaving the Sophs with a shock. He also left the Putnam High School a memory by leaving his fine supply of demerits. Eugene played on the Panther football team for the past two seasons. Also the basketball team. Eugene hated to leave for several reasons but the most important was the leaving behind of his junior girl playmate.

The Sophomores received the report cards last Friday and some were smiling because of making as high as C, and some were weeping because of making below C. Well, disappointments are in life even in English. Speaking of English everyone is very interested in the classic "Julius Caesar." At the present time we have finished the first act and have finished the first scene in the second act. This classic has proved to be very interesting. If you will picture yourself in Rome during the time of Julius Caesar and the time he is killed, will you have it? Mr. Webb is our teacher and he explains it as we progress along.

We have been begging and begging in Spanish, I mean Spanish, to learn the song entitled, "El Rancho Grande." We received this song last Friday, and so far we haven't missed a day singing it. Not bad, eh? We are learning a new kind of tense that was invented about the year 1491 in Spain. It has been in our Spanish class since. Well maybe not quite so long.

We had a test given by the state in history last week, and boy oh boy did we love the state? We all passed, nearly all I should say, or should I say a few? Yeah, that's it. We were very proud of our grades as we all made much higher this time than the last time we had one.

We are studying stated problems in algebra at present and they are what you would call medium. That is, they are not hard and they are not easy. We hope we catch onto them and hold on 'till the finish, if possible.

SOFT JOKES

Boss: "Why in the world did you ever write a policy on a man 98 years old?"
Bettie: "Well, I looked in the census report and found there were only a few people at that age who died each year."

"What kinda' woman did you get, Hugh?" asked J. B.
"She is an angel, J. B., dats what she am."
"Boy, you sho' is lucky. Mine is still living," J. B. muttered.

Glenn: "What are you looking for?"
Mr. Overton: "A solvent that will dissolve anything."
Glenn: "When you find it what are you going to keep it in?"
Station SOHS signing off, operating on 15 kilocycles.

JUNIOR CLASS SPORT NEWS

Esen Fields
Next year we will be in a new conference. The schools we play next year are Baird, Clyde, Caddo, Moton, May, Woodson, Colony, and Pioneer. Albany, Cross Plains and Rising Star have been transferred to another conference. We are all glad to have a new list of towns to play football with this year.

There has also been a change made in high school tennis. There will be two different classes of tennis games. There will be junior games and senior games for both boys and girls. The junior class is getting along fine in all the sports.

JUNIOR GOSSIP

By Lois Cherry
There is not very much news this week. Things have kinda' slacked up around Putnam High School lately. It must be this cold weather we are having. But in spite of the cold weather there was a smile on the faces of a few students Friday afternoon. The reason: They would not have to stay in detention that afternoon. We also got our report cards Friday. The ones who passed were joyful, the ones who failed were sad. We hope there were not very many who were sad. I really do think our report cards will be better next time.

What we consider a beautiful girl should have:
Hair like Dorothy.
Eyes like Kathleen.
Nose like Madeline.
Personality like Juanita.
Lips like Lois'.
And boy friend like Edna's.
We will stop our language 'till next week. So Long.

NEWS FROM THE DIGNIFIED SEVENTH GRADERS
By Roy Rutherford
Mid-term examinations are over. We now know what we have learned during this time. Some of our grades were passing while some were not. Our teachers have striven with us this last four and one-half months, but some of us have failed to take advantage of their help. We will have to pep up in our studying the rest of the year, for we all want to be sure to pass our work.

We finished our geography before mid-term. We are studying civics now. Mr. Webb is our teacher. We appreciate having him for a teacher.
We will now have a joke or two.

Miss Reece: "Curtis, you should have been here at eight forty-five."
Curtis: "Why, what happened?"

Sylvia: "There is a fly in my soup."
Mrs. Clark: "I wouldn't worry about it, darling, the fly won't drink much."

Miss Settle: "Ray, can you define nonsense?"
Ray: "Sure, an elephant hanging over a cliff with his tail tied to a daisy."

Frank: "Do you know that I began life as a barefoot boy?"
Wesley: "Well, I wasn't born with shoes on, either."

Miss Ball: "Donnie, if you had two dollars, gave your mother seventy-five cents and your brother twenty-five cents and your brother twenty-five cents?"
Donnie: "I wouldn't have any sense."

FROCK-TAIL COAT, WITH INDIAN BEADWORK, TO BE SHOWN AT CENTENNIAL

AUSTIN.—A white man's Prince Albert frock-tail coat lavishly decorated with intricate Indian beadwork furnishes one of the most unique and interesting objects in the collections recently loaned the division of anthropology for exhibit at the University Centennial Exposition on the campus of The University of Texas. The University exposition will open June 1.

Found in the shelter of a small over-hanging ledge in a cave-like retreat in Mason county about 1865, the beaded coat, along with a "medicine" pouch and moccasins of buckskin similarly decorated with colored beads, finally was added to the collection of Mrs. J. R. Banister of Santa Anna.

Mrs. Banister, mother of Nell E. Banister of Austin, has placed her fine collection of Comanche and Apache Indian artifacts with Prof. J. E. Pearce, supervisor of the division of anthropology. The assemblage was brought to Austin recently by A. T. Jackson, director of field activities under the supervision of Professor Pearce.

26TH SCOUTING ANNIVERSARY

States of America. Twenty-six years of Scouting in America.

ABILENE.—More than one million Boy Scouts and Scouters throughout America will celebrate the 26th anniversary of Scouting in American Feb. 7-13, and on February 8th, Anniversary Day, will congregate and listen to the broadcast of the Boy Scout programs. At 8:15 all will stand and repeat the Scout Oath. This will probably be a part of the broadcast program led by the President of the United States and James E. West, chief Scout executive of the Boy Scouts of America, who has just celebrated his twenty-fifth anniversary in Scouting.

Boy Scout troops of the Chisholm Trail Council will hold special celebrations including services on Boy Scout Sunday, Feb. 9th. The theme of Boy Scout Week, 1936, "Carrying On the Traditions of Scouting," has struck a popular note. From all over the country come echoes of enthusiasm and plans for local celebrations.

This year, for the first time in the Chisholm Trail Council, will witness the introduction of Cubs, the young boys of the ages 9-10-11. Cubbing is the Younger Boy Program sponsored by the Boy Scouts of America. January 1936, more than one million scouts registered in the United
