WATER TROUBLE IN CUSHING WELL

Work And Boston Oil Men Favorably Impressed With Outlook Here—Other Oil News

At The Enders-Cushing Test

The fact that they were unable to successfully cope with the water in the 2000 foot level it was impossible for the Enders-Cushing test on the Cushing ranch, twenty miles south of Big Spring, as was anticipated Thursday.

Drilling through the concrete the water broke thru again.

It has been decided to put in six one-eighth inch casing to overcome the water trouble. The casing has been ordered and work will be started as soon as it arrives.

E. Enders, of Boston, president of the Cushing Ranch Drilling Association, who was here to witness the test, while disappointed because the water trouble interfered, is not discouraged and is confident that Cushing No. 1 is going to be brought in a matter of days.

Enders has as his guests this week the Enders of New York and the Enders of Boston, and they were impressed with the prospect in this section.

Enders, who is a noted engineer and geologist, after a visit to the various wells now being made in this section believes that it is only a question of time before deeper to secure big production in this field.

Oil Realization Company

According to a telegram received by the field manager for the Realization Company in West Texas, the company brought in a 60 inch barrel gusher on their lease at Eldorado yesterday.

The telegram received by Mr. Popp is as follows: "The well on Carroll lease at Eldorado in last night flowing fifteen barrels through three-eighth inch tubing. Lease location in section one township eighteen South 32 East west."

Popp also informs us that as arrangements are completed the Texas & Pacific Railway for the track west of Midland, rig will be immediately shipped and installed and six contractor, E. M. Leff will immediately begin work on construction of the rig and bunk house. Preparations are also being made for a second rig on the completion in Martin County which will be constructed by Mr. LaBeff.

Arrangements are to be held this afternoon between several mining engineers, Mr. Popp, regarding the extension to be used in the sinking of shaft on the company's potash lease. It being understood that Mr. Popp has instructions to push this shaft all speed, as soon as necessary have been prepared.

In The Llanos Section

Work of finishing up the derelict second test well of the Colorado Company Oil Company is now completed and well No. 2 can be used in some.

Improved pump to be installed on the No. 1 to increase the production.

Those interested in drilling arrangements to drill a well near Llanos.

Drilling in San Angelo Well

Work on reliable parties a good well has been encountered in the well of the San Angelo Oil Co., on the Harris ranch about one-half miles north of San Angelo. This well is now at a depth of 3500 feet and arrangements will be made to complete it to a depth of 3500 feet.

Oil Company

The Sand Hill test has been suspended and other work awaits the return of A. B. Johnson who has been in Houston on business the past week.

W. A. Hicker Entertains

A. Hicker delightfully entertained the members of the Rock and Roll Club at a luncheon Thursday evening.

Games of interesting games of pool were enjoyed combined to make a most enjoyable and complete pleasure party.

In honor of making high scores, the visitor's high score was made by J. N. Bine and the club high score by J. N. Bine.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday and the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery.

Elect County Democratic Chairman

A meeting of the County Democratic Executive Committee was held at the county court house Saturday August 22, and the following business transacted.

W. W. Satterwhite was selected as chairman of the meeting by unanimous vote.

G. B. Cunningham was elected Precinct chairman in Precinct No. 3, to fill the vacancy created by O. T. Lacey's resignation.

R. D. Matthews was elected County Democratic Chairman to fill the vacancy created by S. A. Penix's resignation.

Following is a list of County and precinct chairmen for Howard County: R. D. Matthews, County Chairman.

PRECINCT CHAIRMEN:

- S. P. Dally, No. 1
- C. A. Johnson, No. 2
- G. B. Cunningham, No. 3
- W. W. Inkman, No. 4
- W. M. Reed, No. 6
- G. W. Davis, No. 7
- D. C. Riley, No. 9
- W. W. Satterwhite, No. 11
- W. F. Cook, No. 13
- J. D. Castle, No. 14

Man Found To Be Insane

C. R. Predgen of Hattiesburg, N. C., who was taken in charge last week after jumping from a T. & P. passenger train near Midland was tried on an insanity charge Monday, and was adjudged insane. He will be sent to the State Insane Asylum as soon as necessary arrangements can be made. Since being confined in jail here the afflicted man attempted to commit suicide by cutting his neck with a piece of glass.

Inquiry made of relatives in North Carolina are to the effect that Predgen is a single man and has been absent from home several months. We understand a sister is the only near relative that the officials, and others interested in the case could reach and she informed them that she was not financially able to take care of her brother.

Eight-Hour Day Wins Recognition

In a "middle of the road" decision the United States Railroad Labor Board settled the overtime controversy between practically all of the railroads of the country and the Federated Shop Crafts, representing nearly 600,000 union shop men.

The employes were granted continued time and a half overtime after eight hours; overtime on Sundays and holidays, except where regularly assigned to Sunday work; and complete recognition of the eight-hour day.

The railroads won important modifications of seven of the most important working rules granted shop men during Federal administration of the railroads, part of which were enjoyed by the employes before government control.

J. D. Biles Rents Lester Fisher Bldg.

J. D. Biles has closed a deal with Lester Fisher for a long lease on the Lester Fisher building at the corner of Main and West Third streets. This building is now occupied by the B. B. Fox & Son grocery and they will retain possession of same until January 1, 1922.

Mr. Biles will move his drug store from its present location to the new location about the first of the year.

The Fisher building will certainly prove an ideal location for a drug store and Mr. Biles may consider himself fortunate to secure possession of same. Handsome new fixtures will be purchased when the Biles drug store is moved into its new home.

Buy Farm South of Big Spring

W. H. Lewis of South Bend, Texas, after an investigation of conditions in the Big Spring Country decided this section had a dependable future and decided to become a citizen of our county.

While here he purchased of T. H. Johnson a two hundred and fourteen acre improved farm ten miles south of town. The purchaser secured a fine farm in a dependable farming section of our county and his is indeed a good investment.

Mr. Lewis expects to move his family here next January at which time he will begin cultivating his farm.

J. H. Tuik Dies in Garden City

J. H. Tuik, more familiarly known as Grandpa Tuik, aged seventy-nine years, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. A. George at Garden City, Texas, Wednesday night, August 24th.

Decceased had made his home with his daughter and family for some time and was loved and esteemed by everyone who knew him.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday and the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery.

METHODIST REVIVAL MEETING

A Big Revival Meeting To Be Held By The Methodist Church Starts Next Sunday

A cordial invitation is extended everyone in Big Spring and Howard County to attend the revival meeting which begins at the Methodist church in this city next Sunday.

Bro. Robert E. Huston of Greenville, will assist in the meeting. He will preach at the morning services; conduct the young people's meeting and have charge of the singing at the night services. The pastor Ben Hardy will preach at the night services.

All members of the church, and friends are urged to attend. The pastors and members of other churches are requested to attend and assist in the meetings.

Come to Sunday school next Sunday and stay for preaching.

Puget Sound to Gulf Highway Boosters

The Annual State Convention of the Puget Sound to Gulf Highway Association will be held at Fredericksburg, Friday, Sept. 2nd. This will be the first time Fredericksburg is honored with this meeting, and judging by the manner in which this city is taking matters in hand, it will be the most successful meet this association ever held. Various committees of the local Chamber of Commerce are making unusual preparations to entertain the visitors in a most typical way.

Alto the business-meeting will take up only one day, the people of Fredericksburg have planned a big outing to the Enchanted Rock, a 160 acre solid granite dome over 500 feet high, located 16 miles north of the town on a site rich in Indian legends, where a big free barbecue will be given to the visitors on Saturday, September 3rd. Arrange to stay over and take in this unique celebration.

Everybody go! Help make this convention the best one in the history of the association. Take your families—special entertainments will be given the ladies. First: business meeting—then military band concert, dancing, barbecue, etc. Get in touch with the local office and let them report the number of delegates going. If you want to keep this highway you should help "boost it up." Free camping grounds provided for those who wish to camp out.

Take your kodak and field glasses.

Alvin Agnell's Injuries Serious

Alvin Agnell who had the misfortune to have been seriously injured last Thursday when he was run over by a loaded truck near Sterling City, is doing as well as could be expected considering the seriousness of his injury.

An examination has disclosed that four fractures of the pelvic bone have resulted, and it will be several months at least before the little fellow can hope to leave his bed.

Midland Rodeo Sept 1-2-3

The annual Rodeo and Barbecue will be held at Midland, September 1-2 and 3rd. An extensive program for the three days has been arranged.

A free barbecue will be served on the second and third days.

In addition to the rodeo stunts and barbecue, a registered cattle show and auction sale of fifty head of fine registered Hereford cattle is scheduled.

First Bale Received Monday

The two first bales of cotton of the 1921-22 crop arrived this week, the first bale being brought in Monday and the second bale on Tuesday.

M. Gonzales, who farms on the A. L. Wasson place south of town, brought in the first bale. The weight of this bale was four hundred and fifty pounds and same was purchased by Dell Hatch, who paid 12 1-2 cents per pound, a premium above the market price being paid. In addition a prize of thirty dollars was paid M. Gonzales for bringing in the first bale. His bale weighed five hundred and of the season. A total of $55.50 was donated by the business men to be paid the growers of the first two bales.

Y. K. Brown who resides northeast of Big Spring brought in the second bale and was awarded a prize of $22.50, eighty-five pounds.

Following is a list of those who made donations for the first and second bales of cotton and the amounts donated:

First National Bank, West Texas National Bank, First State Bank, five dollars each; the following, one dollar each, J. D. Biles, Big Spring Co-Operative store, W. S. Clough Jewelry Co. Jas. Campbell, J. & W. Fisher, Cook & Foley, H. H. Hardin, Stokes-Hughes, Harry Lees, S. A. Hathcock, Rix Furniture & Undertaking Co., B. G. Bly & Son, West Texas Electric Co., John W. Pike, Gary & Son, Cunningham & Phillips, Empire Candy Kitchen, Elite Confectionery, Pool-Red Co. Wooten Grocery Co., Hall Tire & Top Co., W. R. Purser, A. P. McDonald, Garrett Style Shop, Victor Mellinger, Gooch Grocery, Austin & Jones, J. L. Ward;

The following donated fifty cents each: Michael Michaelopoulos, B. Reagan, Levi Robinson, J. P. Northington, Overland Garage, Mrs. C. M. Estes, Big Spring Produce Co., Scott Grocery Company, Palace Studio, V. H. Ewellen, Royal Coffee Co, C. T. Tucker, F. B. Blalack, Elite Hat Shop, W. J. Flowers, L. E. Coleman, G. C. Dean, M. Gensberg, W. W. Inkman, D. Price, Variety Store, Stone Variety Store, J. M. Barley, B. H. Fox & Son, B. U. Bell & Son

Business Property Changes Owners

Some large transactions in business property have been made the past week wherein Lester Fisher sold a two-story brick building fronting 25 feet on Main street to an Abilene man, and purchased a two-story brick building fronting 50 feet on Main street from L. S. McDowell.

The building on the east side of Main street now occupied by the Empire Candy Kitchen is the building Mr. Fisher sold to A. Williams of Abilene; and the McDowell building, on the opposite side of Main street, occupied by the Garrett Style Shop and the Garrett-Branon Furniture Co., is the property he purchased from L. S. McDowell.

As Mr. Williams expects to come here at once to engage in business he will be compelled to rent a building as the Empire Candy Kitchen has a lease on their quarters until next May.

Mr. Williams, of Abilene, certainly secured a valuable piece of business property and Mr. Fisher also made a wise move as he secured a building just twice the size of the one he sold.

It is a pretty good sign that Big Spring is looked upon with favor by citizens of other sections when they will make such heavy investments in business property with conditions anything but favorable.

Miss Bernice Moore Dead

Miss Bernice Moore, aged nineteen years, five months and one day, died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Y. Moore in this city at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening, August 19th.

She had been ill the past year, suffering from an attack of tuberculosis. This malady followed an attack of influenza.

The death of this noble young woman brings sorrow to many hearts as she was loved and esteemed by a wide circle of friends in this city.

She is survived by her father, her stepmother, three sisters and a brother, and to these who mourn for one deeply beloved is extended the deepest sympathy of many friends in this city.

The remains were sent to Walling, Tenn., on Saturday's evening passenger train to be laid to rest beside her mother and sister who had preceded her to the Great Beyond.

County Judge James T. Brooks received word from Austin this morning that the state apportionment for scholastics this year will be $13.00. As the schools were expecting an apportionment of at least $14.50, the same as last year, the expenses for the year will have to be cut or a shorter term inaugurated in many school districts.

GOOD ROADS MEETING HELD

At A Meeting Held Thursday Night Delegates Were Appointed To Attend Annual Meeting

A meeting of good road boosters of Big Spring was held at the court house Thursday night for the purpose of selecting delegates to represent our county at the annual meeting of the Puget Sound to Gulf Highway Association at Fredericksburg, Texas, Sept. 2nd.

T. H. Johnson, vice president of the association, presided at the meeting and after he had explained the purpose of the meeting a motion prevailed that the chair appoint the delegates.

Mr. Johnson appointed the following: Judge James T. Brooks, E. F. Springman, Judge J. B. Littler, C. A. Merrick, L. S. Patterson, J. S. McCright, M. L. Musgrave, Fox Stripling, Sam Hall, A. P. McDonald, L. E. Lomax, W. F. Cook, J. W. Curtis, M. H. Morrison, P. G. Stokes, John Pike, Bob Piner, Wm. Fisher, Joe Fisher, J. E. Mundell, J. W. McCutchan, H. L. Rix, Bob Austin, W. G. Hayden.

It was moved that a meeting of the delegates appointed be held at the courthouse, Monday evening August 27th at 7:30 and with every delegate prepared to say whether or not he will go to the big meeting at Fredericksburg. If others, not appointed, can arrange to go to Fredericksburg they are requested to meet with the delegates next Monday night.

Rousing talks were made in which the necessity of our city being well represented at all state road meetings was stressed. It was pointed out that we were fortunate in landing two state highways through the persistent and untiring efforts of a small bunch of boosters and we should continue to keep up the good work they started by working faithfully to help make these highways the best in Texas.

The fact that Big Spring lacked the true booster spirit was pointed out in the way we permitted other towns to divert the tourist travel from the designated highway without any effort on our part to correct the wrong reports that continued to be circulated regarding road conditions thru our section.

Among the speakers urging a large delegation being sent to Fredericksburg were Judge Brooks, J. E. Mundell, S. H. Morrison, J. B. Littler, H. L. Rix, J. W. McCutchan, S. H. Hall, Wm. Fisher.

A motion prevailed that a committee be appointed to consider the feasibility of securing a tourist auto camp nearer town and to conduct same in addition to the camp at the city park.

Backing Up Our Ball Team

All but two or three of the business houses in our city readily agreed to close at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon, to boost for the Big Spring Elks baseball team in their efforts to give Big Spring a ball team our town might be proud of. It requires all the cooperation possible to keep a ball team going and any city would have cause to be proud of the team that has represented us this year. They have played good, clean baseball, and have been consistent winners. While we are not exactly certain as to the number of games won we are satisfied the Big Spring Elks team has won nineteen or twenty out of twenty-eight games played—and they have met any and every team that has bobbed up—with none being barred.

Most cities would go to any lengths to support such a team—and while we dislike to think Big Spring folks short it is a clutch that we have not accorded our baseball boys the encouragement and financial support they are entitled to. We have not been slow to criticize and "rawhide" them from the grandstand when they happen to make a "hobble," however. The first real evidence of sportsmanship on the part of the fans was making up donations for the 3 homeruns made by two of our players in the first game with Clyde.

Most of the boys on our team are making a sacrifice, losing time and money by being on the team, and for that reason we really ought to not only boost for them but see that they do not "come out in the hole" at the end of the season.

T. W. Angel Will Be In Charge of the Cotton Yield in Big Spring the Coming Year, a Deal Having been Made Whereby T. W. Huddlestone Disposed of his Holdings in Connection Therewith to Mr. Angel, who is Now on the Job.

The contract is to be let this week for digging a cesspool at the High

Take Two Games From Clyde

Baseball fans thoroughly enjoyed the series of games between the Big Spring Elks and the Clyde team played here Sunday, Monday and Tuesday of this week; the big end of the series going to the Big Spring team.

Hurt pitched big league ball for the Elks team in the first game and the Clyde boys only made two scores off the seven scattered hits. Barry pitched a fine game, but Bedford parking two for home runs prevented his winning his game. Preacher True was on base both times Bedford rapped out his home runs. Four additional scores were made by the Big Spring team; the game ending eight to two. A large crowd thoroughly enjoyed this game.

In Monday's contest there was a different ending to the story as Clyde's pitcher was effective at every stage of the game while Steppe, pitching for Big Spring got off to a bad start due to lack of control. Preacher True pitched the last two innings, holding the Clyde boys in great shape and securing four strike-outs in the two innings. The big thrill for the home fans came in the shape of a ninth inning rally and when the home team had made three scores in this inning and had another man on base it looked as though the old ball game could be saved but it was not to be and Clyde won by a score of 7 to 5.

In Tuesday's game Hurt for Big Spring and Barry for Clyde had a real pitchers' duel with the argument in favor of Hurt, but both pitchers deserve credit for one of the classic games ever staged here.

Hurt only had one hit charged against him after the second inning and the Clyde batters only secured a total of five hits. Barry for Clyde pitched a game that would have been a winner nine times out of ten. Only eight were secured off him, while he only gave one base on balls and fanned five batters. Hurt gave one base on balls and fanned six batters. The game ended six to one in favor of Big Spring.

The Clyde bunch proved one of the fastest little teams that has appeared here this year. They were all clean players and the fans would like to witness another series between those two teams.

Garden City Rodeo a Success

The Rodeo and Celebration at Garden City last Friday and Saturday attracted quite a few visitors to see the roping and riding contests, and everybody reports a big time.

The barbecue Saturday was the big drawing card and a much larger attendance was in evidence. The fine cats were there in abundance and everybody had all one could possibly crave and it certainly was fine.

The affair was a success in every way as all knew it would be for Garden City folks have a habit of doing everything they set out to do in a big way.

The big dance each night attracted many. Quite a number from adjoining counties were to be noted among the visitors and Big Spring and Howard County folks were well represented.

T. S. P. Shops Re-employ 39 Men

Thirty-nine employes of the Texas & Pacific Railway shops here, who were laid off several months ago were put back to work Thursday.

In the list were included six machinists, six helpers and two apprentices; six boiler-makers, six helpers and two apprentices; one blacksmith and two helpers; one coppermith, one helper, and one apprentice; four car men.

It is indeed pleasing to note the return of this number of men to their old positions and it is to be hoped that the entire number let out several months ago will be re-employed in the near future.

Roscoe Team Coming Aug. 23-29-30

The Roscoe baseball team will be here for a series of three games, Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, August 28, 29, and 30th.

The Roscoe boys are going to bring a strong team as they recognize the fact that the Big Spring Elks team is one of the fastest teams in West Texas.

Three interesting games of baseball are assured and our folks should turn out in force to show that we appreciate the efforts of the players to give Big Spring a real baseball team.

If you have some agricultural product that would do our county credit, bring it to the office of the Chamber of Commerce to be added to the exhibit that is to be secured for the Dallas Fair and Waco Cotton Palace. A good exhibit at these fairs would certainly give our county some worthwhile advertising, and especially so this year.

Mrs. Charles Eberley spent Sunday with her parents in Sweetwater.

Invest in Government Securities

Condemning the fake stock seller, decrying the practice of selling shares in oil wells that do not end well, and calling for a return to safe, sane and conservative saving and investing, President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor has written Governor R. L. VanZandt of the Dallas Federal Reserve Bank endorsing the efforts that are being made to protect the small investor and put him in possession of government securities. In this communication, the labor chief advised that the American Federation of Labor in National Convention adopted a resolution calling upon the government to continue the sale of War Savings Stamps and Registered Savings Securities and through their sale protect the saver and investor from concerns with "blue sky" leanings.

Records of the government Savings Division, of which Dinsmore W. Hume is director, show that Labor Union men, to a large extent, have adopted the practice of saving funds away in government Savings Securities. These the government make obtainable at all postoffices and from the Federal Reserve banks.

R. F. Vaught of the Lees community was in Monday and presented the Herald force with two dandy watermelons. They were certainly fine flavored melons and you can be sure the bunch enjoyed them. R. Mr. Vaught states that he secured seventy loads of maize heads from sixty acres. At one time this field looked good for a ton to the acre and thirty acres did average this amount. Mr. Vaught states that a good soaking rain right soon would certainly help his cotton.

WHEN plastered ceilings begin to crack and sag—it is time to make them new with Upson Board!

Upson Board is the nearest perfect lining! It makes walls and ceilings that should last as long as the building. It is "refined lumber," being simply shredded wood fibre compressed into big, sturdy panels.

Upson Board is not like other wall-boards—it is nearly twice as strong, stiffer, easier to cut and handle. That is why we recommend it and put our own good name behind every panel.

It's not expensive!

Anger, The Destroyer

According to The Herald's way of thinking the Cisco Round-Up has solved the problem of why men fight like brutes and murder people who have done them no wrong. It is that self-importance which makes one think that when he or she passes the wheels of progress will stop and the whole universe come to a standstill. The Round-Up puts it this way:

Not very long ago a young fellow shot his sister, fired five shots at her husband, and then killed himself with the remaining cartridge. Men might assume that some profound cause was behind this tragedy of passion and murder. It wasn't. The boy killed himself and his sister as the climax of a quarrel over a dog. He had given the dog to her some months before, and when he wanted to go hunting he asked for it again. She refused, and he shot her. He didn't do this because he loved the dog so dearly that he couldn't live without it. He had probably beaten and kicked the animal many times in his life. And he didn't kill his sister because he hated her. He probably loved her, and in a gentler mood would have given a thousand dogs—all the dogs in the world—to save her life if necessary. He killed her because in that moment there was nothing so important in the world as having his own way.

Almost every quarrel among men is like this—because one of the combatants wants nothing so much as his own way. Men rarely quarrel for possessions, or for "the principle of the thing." These are merely excuses for passion. What they want is self-indulgence—and they mean to have it at whatever cost. They quarrel over things that were of no importance a little while before and that will shrink to their proper insignificance after the fighters' passions cool. Men see "red", lose all possession of reason, and do things for which a life-time of remorse and penitence can never make up when they are angry.

It follows that we should, at all times, endeavor to hold ourselves from becoming angry. Anger has no reason, no soul, and oftentimes makes a monster out of otherwise good man or woman. Self importance is really at the root of anger, and if we can only grasp the truth that no one of us is so important that the world needs us or will miss us, there is little danger that we shall ever permit ourselves to become angry.

Credit Men Get Line On Personal Life

The credit man of one of the largest business houses in the country, one having customers in every city and town in every State, was asked the other day what was his main rule in granting credit. "I try to get a line on the personal life of my customer," he replied. "I want to know whether he leads a clean life or a dissipated one; I want to know if he is economical and prudent in his business affairs. My information on that line has more to do with granting credit than almost anything else."

A banker in a neighboring city has the same views. Not long ago a man came to him for a loan. He had securities worth eight or ten times the amount of money he wanted to borrow, but the loan was refused. One of the bank directors heard about the incident and asked about it. "Yes," returned the old banker, "the man had ample security, and the loan no doubt would be safe. But I happen to know that he is leading a very wicked life; he is doing things which will involve him in disgrace sooner or later and I would much prefer that some other bank handle his business."

A man's good character is his best asset. Reputation is based upon character, and business men judge a man by his reputation. This has always been the case, but never more so than now. A man's good character tried and proven, is his best asset and his best friend.—Ex.

The Citizen and Jury Duty

Slackers from jury duty are far more numerous than slackers from military duty. Yet the service which they dodge is equally important to the safety and welfare of the nation. In fact the American habit of deserting the jury box is one of the elements contributing to the increase of lawlessness and the growing disrespect of the judicial system.

Of course business is important and the almighty dollar is valuable, more so today than for many years. But the administration of exact justice, the maintenance of law and order and of public safety are vastly more important. They affect the very safety and life of every man and woman and child in the nation.

When the so-called "good citizen" avoids his reasonable jury service he does not think his action matters much. But when he and many others of the more experienced and more educated citizens dodge the jury box they rob the system of just so much wisdom and understanding, and in the end bring the courts to a pass where many juries are made up of ignorant men, many of them professional hangers-on who have little conception of the importance of the task before them.

The problems decided by American juries are vital ones, large properties, great principles even life itself are in the scales of justice which the jury may move up or down. Can anyone claim that such causes are entitled to anything less than the very best jury-men who can be found?

Those who are alarmed at the prevalence of crime, those who believe that the law should be more strictly enforced, those who say that justice must be impartially, wisely, and relentlessly done can attain those ideals much more quickly by bringing about a sense of responsibility for honest jury service than by all the extra-legal methods that have been proposed.—Fort Worth Record.

From 150,000 to 200,000 superfluous employees of the United States government are always just on the point of being removed from the payrolls but do not get quite over the edge. So it goes on from week to week and month to month. It takes a common sense private business two weeks to dispense with jobs that have no work for the job holders to do. It takes a government machine, trying to operate on a business basis, but not knowing how to get down to the brass tacks of it, anywhere from four months to four years to eliminate public jobs that have no excuse for existence. At an average of $150 a month 200,000 needless names on the federal payrolls lift a million dollars a day out of the taxpayers' pockets virtually every day in the year. This is approximately what the transportation tax directly and immediately costs the tax burdened American public. The shippers and receivers of freight, struggling under this load every day, know what such a tax means. The traveling public, handing over the tax at every passenger ticket office in the country, knows what it means. But all of it is only about enough to pay 200,000 useless employees. Think what a colossal revenue machine is built on the tariff law and duty system. Yet thus far the maximum of custom receipts from tariff duties have averaged about $300,000,000 a year. Here again the whole of those tariff duties would be something short of enough to pay the salaries of government clerks and other employees whose services are not now needed and for the most part never have been needed.—Adopting government economy programs is one of the favorite amusements of public life. Getting government economy action is rare enough to class with miracles.—New York Herald.

Shifting The Burden

An effort is being made by those who represent "Big Business" to shift the burden of taxes from the profiteers to the masses. First, they demand the repeal of the excess profits tax and the substitution of other taxes that burden all. The excess profits tax is the most just tax there is—it is collected from those who collect EXCESS profits—that is, larger profits than they should. It is the only tax that a taxpayer can avoid by his own act—let him stop stealing and he will not have to divide with the government. And yet this is the one tax that the reactionaries want repealed. The next demand is for the lowering of taxes on big incomes, and an increase in the rate on smaller incomes—as bold a piece of pravity as was ever proposed. The Democrats in Senate and House should oppose both of these attempts. W. J. BRYAN.

When Henry Ford purchased a 280 mile railroad, he found enough material along the right-of-way and around the shops going to waste to practically pay the initial cost of the road when salvaged. If other railroad owners would follow Mr. Ford's example there might be a chance for a reduction in freight and passenger rates.—Farm & Ranch.

The High School Loafers

According to last week's Big Spring Herald, "The Loafers is just about our worst pest, for he has been standing around on our streets for years, finding fault with everybody and everything. He does his dirtiest to block every improvement our town has made, and when he quits walking around to save funeral expenses, he will be missed, just like a boll."

From the August School Board Journal we quote the following:

"Yakima, Washington.—The school board has adopted a rule giving the high school faculty authority to drop pupils from classes who fail to pass in three subjects, at any time within or at the close of a quarter. The rule provides that a month's warning shall be given, but failure to improve means that the pupil may be dropped at the close of the next month for the remainder of the term. The rule has been adopted as the first step toward the elimination of laggards and loafers in the high school."

Mr. Thomas A. Clark, Dean of men, University of Illinois, after more than ten years' experience with high school and college boys, has undertaken to show what constitutes a school loafer, what his influences are, and what disposition should be made of him.

He, or they, were out late the night before, and therefore got up too late for breakfast, so they go by town and "hit a coke" and are now on the way to school cigarets in the mouth and an unopened bundle of books across his shoulder.

If you make a careful investigation you will likely discover that this loafer likes the girls, at least one, that he can tell you about the latest dance step, the last bills at the picture show, especially the vaudeville kind. If he has an ambition, it is not likely to be valedictorian of his class. If his mother were asked about him and his work, she would likely tell you that he had never been required to have any regular home duties or responsibilities, that his parents had had a hard time when children and that they were anxious for the boy to have a good and easy time while growing up. He is not a natural student, and has never been very strong, so that we have not pushed him nor wanted him to OVER-STUDY. In this connection some few parents will be honest and frank enough to tell you that the boy's trouble is due to home indulgences and not the school's fault, while others will indicate that the school, in a few hours for a part of a few months is more responsible for their boy than are his parents.

Another stock defense for a boy is, "The Boys He Runs With." This position is doubtless well taken, except that it is the same one used by the parents of the other boy also.

Those three boys who went to town and returned promptly with an orange box early in the morning and then worked all day in the shade in the back yard, making three wagons, are also having an influence on each other, but of a vastly different kind to that of those on the streets loafing down town.

If your boy or girl either loaf most of the time when not in school, why should you be surprised at their loafing in school? You need not be uneasy lest your boy will not get an education. He is getting that every day just the same. What we learn from books is a very small part of education as compared with the habits and likes and dislikes developed while growing up.

School should be pleasant, but it is more than simply a getting together for a good time and place to kill time. School is more than a time and place to prepare for life, it is real life itself, from which loafers, like drones in a bee hive, should be driven or forced to work.

If loafers lived unto themselves they would be perfectly harmless. The trouble is that a very few loafers infect the whole high school. The high school loafer naturally gets behind with his work, as a result, he is called into conference with different members of the faculty, and as a result of these conferences and efforts to get up to standard, he represents to his friends, in and out of school, and his parents that the teachers are partial and have it in for him. In this way he becomes not only a loafer in his school work, but a positive knocker and disturbing element in school, dissatisfied and seeking every opportunity to deprecate and use every chance to strain every written and unwritten regulation necessary for the government of large numbers of pupils. In this condition he requires more time and attention than a hundred thoughtful working pupils. In the end he falls in practically all of his subjects, and thus is a burden on the tax payers, for it costs just as much, and even more, to care for his wants, than if he had put forth some effort and made his credits.

This may sound rather harsh, but it is not so intended, and whatever censure is meant, is mostly to be charged to parents. But be the fault what and where it may, it does not prevent the question, what shall be done with the loafer? The one who is doing nothing for himself and is a positive disturbing force in the student body both in and out of school. What shall be done with the pupil causing more wear and waste of teacher force and time than ten to a hundred times his equitable share? What shall be done with the pupil who is constantly seeking opportunities to strain class and school conditions just a little short of some single act that would justify his expulsion?

It is evident that dimes make dollars. Is it also true that a great many little and petty premeditated class failures, discourtesies, disturbing acts and deprecations can constitute just reason for eliminating a pupil from school?

The business world will answer that whenever an article, commodity or person, ceases to give or receive any profitable returns, and becomes an injury or detriment in any way, that it should be gotten out of the way and give room for that that is useful. The school is for the pupil, but he must line up with its activities and thus make it possible for the school to accomplish its work.

During this next year each pupil will get his record card showing all his grades. This card will be given out each Wednesday following the close of each nine weeks. Just four weeks previous to this time in each quarter each pupil will get a notice indicating the quality of his work for that period. This last mentioned notice will not show grades, but it will show "SATISFACTORY" or "UNSATISFACTORY" work in each subject taken. "A" and "B" work will be called Satisfactory work and any work below these grades will be called Unsatisfactory work.

By making this report to every pupil on every subject taken and all at the same time, there will be no excuse for any parents not keeping an exact check on each child. So that in this way no parent can say I did not know my child was falling down with his work and deportment. This will furnish ample warning for all parties concerned.

Mr. Clark says, "There is no success, there is no ultimate salvation for any except through hard, persistent regular work; and for that reason, it seems to me there is no place in school for the loafer. Every wash woman, laborer, artisan, farmer, clerk and merchant in the community is paying a part of the pupil's education, and is doing this with the thought that the pupil should become a better citizen. A high school is no place for loafers; it is a place for young people with ambitions, with a purpose, with willingness to work and a desire to make the most of themselves and to do what they can for their high school and community and for the communities into which they go. The quicker a school gets rid of its loafers the better it is for the loafers and for the school."

Representative of Loan and Investment Company Here

A. D. Barber, of Dallas, arrived Thursday to spend several days in this city in the interest of the United States Loan and Investment Company, and while here will be the guest of M. B. Ermich at the Cole Hotel.

The United States Loan and Investment Company lend money on real estate on a new plan at three and four per cent interest. This company operates under the supervision of the State Insurance and Banking Commissioner on a plan similar to the old line life insurance companies.

They are not contemplating opening an office here at present but merely getting a line on our people so they can cooperate with them in securing cheaper money.

This company made a big loan to Mr. Ermich as a result of which he is enabled to save $1300 in interest annually and has the use of twice the sum he formerly paid interest on. Several other applications for loans have been received and Mr. Barber will make investigations while here which will determine whether or not the loans shall be granted.

The company is operated on a safe and sane basis and no loans are made until the company is thoroughly satisfied as to the worth of the property on which the loan is granted.

While here Mr. Barber will take pleasure in explaining to those interested the plan whereby his company is able to loan money on real estate at three and four per cent.

Worth Trying

In their intensive campaign to reduce loss and damage to freight shipments the railroads are not only increasing the efficiency of their employees in freight handling, but are also educating them to the importance of close cooperation with the shippers. Never before have the railroad companies and their employees been so ready to cooperate with shippers in the prevention of loss and damage as they are today for they recognize how great a factor the cooperation of the shippers is. The freight agents and other employees of the railroads are ever ready and willing to join with the shippers in any effort to reduce loss and damage to shipments.

It follows that the shippers on their part should educate their employees to cooperate with the employees of the railroads in the prevention of loss and damage. Such a course by the shippers will indubitably result in greater efficiency of their employees, which will more than pay the shippers for the efforts they expend in this cause. The filing and prosecution of claims and lawsuits for loss and damage to freight shipments necessarily causes a certain amount of extra clerical work and lost motion in the office of any firm, which could be reduced to a great extent if every precaution was taken to avoid shipping goods in such condition or manner as would result in damage or loss to them. Thus, by insisting upon the proper packing and marking of goods by their employees and educating them to cooperate with the railroad employees in the prevention of loss and damage to freight, the shippers will reap a twofold benefit, that of increasing the efficiency of their employees and that of eliminating, or at least reducing, an item of expense that is in itself a loss, which is the extra clerical work and time that the filing and prosecution of claims entails.

Getting to Work

Commerce and Finance recently had an article by Walter Bremond of Austin, which the Dallas News comments upon and endorses. Mr. Bremond asserts there are too many idlers in the world, and tells of a dream he thought he had. The dream ran as follows:

I thought there was some psychologic wave, and every man, woman and child woke up one morning with the desire and will to devote every leisure hour to some form of work. The Elks put aside their dominos and, meeting with the Lions, Kiwanians and Rotarians in their neighborhood streets, cleared the drains and gathered up the loose stones; the swarm of loafers at the Littlefield corner melted away, taking the best job that offered, cheerfully accepting one dollar if no one offered five; the League of Women Voters adjourned its meetings and the members found plenty to do in their own households; the moving picture censor closed his desk and went home to whitewash a chicken coop; the children pulled up the weeds in the school yard; the preacher talked about the dignity of labor, and made it clear that one could pray just as effectually in overalls as in pajamas; the ladies found the garden trowel just as useful to tired nerves as bridge, and the men that more could be accomplished with the hoe than with the golf club. Even the university professor quit his job of superintending the earth to mow the campus lawn. The great army of uplifters disbanded. Everybody was busy and there was nobody to reform. One afternoon the fire truck swung down the street, and not a single automobile chased after it. There was dog fight on Congress avenue and crowd gathered to see how it came out. A pretty girl got on the car, exposing a dimpled knee, but nobody saw it. The man who had stood on that corner was painting front gate. Everywhere was heard a wish of the paint brush and the cheerful music of the hammer and nail. After a bit a stranger came to town. He found the most cheerful, friendly and self-respecting people he had seen, and Austin became the most orderly and beautiful city in the world. A man who had been asleep sixty days woke up. He thought was in heaven.

There's a dream that is more than a dream. It's a prescription for our ills as says the News.

STOKES-MOTOR CO.

Big Spring, Texas

Big Spring Schools Open Sept. 12. Monday, September 12th, has been decided upon as the date for the opening of the Big Spring Public Schools. It was found impossible to complete all necessary arrangements for opening school at an earlier date. The building is being put in fine shape by Bert Fields, the efficient janitor who is working fifteen hours a day, painting the wood work, kalsomining the walls, repairing and painting desks, and obliterating the work of those who have been damaging this property. The walls and fixtures are going to be in nice shape and pupils should take a pride in keeping them looking nice. Parents should warn their children that it is a violation of the law for them to damage public property, and this is what they are doing when they write on desks, and wood-work of the buildings, deface the walls by writings, drawings, etc. The patrons of the school go to extreme lengths to provide money to maintain the school and should not be compelled to shoulder an additional heavy burden caused by the pupils willfully damaging building and fixtures. Pupils should remember that the school property belongs to all the people and when they damage it they are doing something their parents and friends will have to pay for. Let us all work together for upbuilding our school—the looter and destroyer should be weeded out.

Mr. Ewing is a representative of the U. S. Department of Horticulture and was here to ascertain if the pink boll worm had ever made its appearance in this section. His visit was in line to trace a shipment of cotton seed from Carlsbad, N. M., to this city, which cotton seed might have contained some of these pests. So far, however, the pink boll worm has not made its appearance here.
Mr. Karper is superintendent of the State Experiment Station at Lubbock and Mr. Dixon superintendent of the State Experiment Station at Spur.
Messrs Bugg and Debenport were interested in better farming and were greatly pleased with the fine work that is being accomplished by the Big Spring Experiment Station.

Secret of Happiness

"How prone we are to forget," says Editor Ransome of the Cleburne Enterprise. "We do not live alone. Each is dependent upon the other for something worth while and essential. We are all traveling to the same place. Why not travel in friendliness, why not go along the way with hand outstretched and with a willingness to be of service wherever we can?"

Shall we recognize this truth with the coming of the millennium, that perior to which the world looks forward with happy anticipations? It must attend that time, for it is a condition of mind, leading to actual reality, that will help bring on the millennium.

People are prone to forget favors, but not so likely to forget an ill deed. And yet the latter is frequently unintentional and often exists more in fancy than in fact. Failure to make allowance for the point of view of another, inability to know the other's thoughts and failure to remember that one's own thoughts are not known to the other, leads often to misunderstanding, and a friendship is broken or becomes estranged without real cause.

There is an old fable about two travelers, each carrying a full bag and an empty bag, one struggling under the weight of his burden and the other apparently being buoyed up by his load. The struggling man told how he put all favors done him in a bag with a hole in it, so they fell through the hole and were forgotten, while he placed all ill deeds and discourtesies in a sack which had no hole, and the weight had become very great. The other traveler reversed this order and his full bag acted like a balloon, proving no weight at all and lifting him over rough and difficult places.

It is easy to travel in friendliness, remembering favors and forgetting ill deeds, if the habit be formed. Recalling good deeds of others leads to the performance of good deeds. It brings friends closer together and makes more friends. It makes life more enjoyable for all, lightens the dark places and brushes away obstacles. One ill-humored person in a household will bring on gloom just as a handful of mud will darken a basin of water, and that gloom will be carried from the household into other households, into the school rooms, into the business offices, its ripple, like the ripple of a pebble cast into the water, traveling a long distance. It is forgetfulness of the friendship of others and thoughts of self alone that brings on such ill humor.

But a bright smile, a cheery word, a courteous act or a good deed will travel much farther. If it were not so the world would be cast down with gloom. People are learning this truth and more and more, for policy's sake if for no better reason, are adopting the smiling manner and cheering message. It is gaining headway even in the home where the frown has always seemed to claim a preferential right, and it is spreading over the world. The world is more friendly today than it was several centuries ago. Personal distempers are becoming less common and sympathy is more widespread. War has become so deadly that self-interest will require it be stopped. Certainly there is ever reason to look forward hopefully in firm belief that the world is steadily getting better and the people of the world are learning how to be happier.—Fort Worth Record.

Judge Landis says that the acquitted Black Sox are nevertheless through with organized baseball. If they were not through with it we suspect that a number of the patrons of baseball would be through with it. It would have been the end of decent interest in the game. Judge Landis took his baseball position to give organized baseball a character bath. With the Black Sox back in the game the bath would have looked worse than if it had been drawn from the Missouri river in flood time and the country would have been ready for a return to the old foot race game, the crookedest thing known in sport. Baseball is already hippodromed so that it is a circus rather than a sport. With Landis keeping it straight it may hold its place. If it goes crooked the organized part of it will be run out of existence by the semi-pro and amateur teams.—Chicago Tribune.

Firestone

Again Reduces Price

Extra Size 30x3 1/2 $16.65

Now $13.95

Firestone first made the low price of $13.95 on the Standard Non-Skid, May 2. Unusual purchasing power through big volume of business, and the great efficiency of its $7,000,000 Plant No. 2, manufacturing exclusively 30x3 1/2 size, made this possible. Now, the production of the Extra-Size 30x3 1/2 tire has been transferred to Plant No. 2. This permits the price reduction on this tire from $16.65 to $13.95. No such value has ever before been offered tire users. If your dealer hasn't the Extra-Size in stock ask for our Standard Non-Skid type at the same price. You will still be getting an unusual tire value.

Preferences

Rusk News: Why a Southern gentleman will wear Japan silk instead of Southern cotton is one of the hard things to understand. And why farmers will give mortgages on their cotton crops to buy silk clothes for their children is a problem too hard for the average man to solve. But mysteries do not stop there. These same people will wonder why there is no greater demand for cotton and blame somebody because silk is so high and cotton is so cheap.

Southern gentlemen sometimes prefer Japanese silk to Southern cotton for the same reason that some Southern gentlemen prefer French champagne to native mountain dew. Silk is more desirable for some purposes than cotton is, and champagne is often more desirable than corn likker. Silk indeed has become an active rival of cotton for dress wear. Silk is manufactured more cheaply than it used to be, therefore in very much greater volume. And as the standard of living rises, the number of people able to wear silk increases. Just at present, there are not many people, relatively, rich enough to ignore the difference between silk prices and cotton prices, but in our boom years the silk buyers crowded the cotton buyers to the curb. That is one thing that still ails the price of cotton. Literal millions of Americans bought silks and wools with their new money, and they still have them. Probably ten million silk shirts have been made over into children's garments—substituting for cotton. The people of the South must recognize the inescapable fact that cotton has now great rivals, the same being silk and wool. Considering their lasting quality, wools and silks are not much more expensive than cotton. The South can protect itself in only one way—by raising its own table and stable fare. Cotton, with heavy freight costs, does not bring enough to pay for imported groceries.—State Press in Dallas News.

Horse Sense News

Wills Point, Texas, Aug. article in The News under line of "Farmer for Governor" a responsive chord. The bosses have selected in the great captains of politics to battle. Is anyone satisfied result? Why not make a try some captain of industry corporal of the farm? A sense is more needed in today than any other sub that well known element due to be the property of our present chosen leaders. It is taken for granted that the plows should render no service except to pay taxes. He seems to be considered of serving his country except of war. May I inquire a stance is made and who is the dian? Must we teach our search for it only in law?

The farmer has been for political back number. Or compelled to choose between more evils. The chosen he told the farmers how to run the country and they obeyed orders. When the over they were told to hitch at the outside of the capital stay off the grass. While special interests were served, mountains of graft out of molehills of ancient politicians fought themselves standstill upon everything but agriculture. Agriculture down at the heels and all result of a lifetime of "principles."

Let us unite hereafter. Men who understand the farmer. If we elect we can inform him that "him" to stand hitched and hitching post has been using wood.—A. McDonald News.

Do You Love Boys and Girls

If you love boy and girl life, hopes and ambitions, won't you read the following story.

During the coming year, due to the short crops and small amount of cotton picking and other work, a number of worthy girls and boys of the state will need assistance if they are enabled to pursue their studies even in high schools. In one school alone it will be necessary to provide for at least forty students who are entirely without funds and dependent wholly upon their own labors and assistance of friends. A much larger number of other students will need one-third to one-half of their expenses met by friendly aid.

If these earnest, high spirited boys and girls are to derive the full return for their labors and make the best of the educational opportunities offered them by the State and other institutions, their friends and those of the institutions should raise a large fund by October 1st.

To secure aid for the boys and girls of the State who wish to push forward to the highest possible mark of efficiency and good citizenship is the purpose of the Student Aid Association.

A number of people in many of the large cities are already contributing liberally to this fund, but more will be needed this year.

Who will be leaders of clubs for contributing or raising amounts for $10, $25, $50, $100 and up to $500, naming the institution whose aid fund your contribution is to go?

Have you a mother or any other loved one or friend whom you will honor by giving a scholarship to some boy or girl?

Palo Pinto Votes $1 000 000 For Bankhead Highway

A one million dollar road bond issue was voted in Palo Pinto County last Saturday. The issue was for the building of the Bankhead National Highway thru Palo Pinto County.

The heaviest vote ever cast in the county was recorded in this election and the result was more than eight to one in favor of the $1 000 000 bond issue. In the city of Mineral Wells the vote was 1155 for to 77 against; in Strawn, 231 for to 72 against; the vote in other sections of the county was in about the same proportion.

The overwhelming vote in favor of the bond issue was the culmination of the most intense campaign ever waged for an issue of any sort in Palo Pinto County. The fight was participated in by all civic organizations, a strenuous battle being waged by the women in the interest of the bond issue.

Quite a few who have had occasion to visit practically every part of Big Spring recently report that it is surprising to note that there are very few vacant dwellings. With folks beginning to move in for school, the first of next month, there is sure to be a shortage of residences.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Billingsley and family left last Saturday for an auto trip to Palo Pinto and Young counties.

Dairy Country Prospers

Farm specialists are urging more and more that farmers of the country break away from the one-crop system, insisting that the southern dairyman prospers while the cotton growers are asking loans and that merchants in towns surrounding milk producing districts report business to be exceptionally good. This should be convincing proof, it is said, that greater farm prosperity, attained by a more permanent and constructive type of farming benefits the entire community.

The country about Fort Worth offers exceptionally fine opportunity for the dairying industry, as is attested by its steady growth in Tarrant county and other portions of North Texas. It is claimed, however, that the growth of dairying throughout the South is limited in a large degree by the willingness and ability of bankers and other moneyed interests to finance the cotton farmer of the past in buying cows and making the necessary changes in order to branch out in a new line.

Business people in a western Pennsylvania town which became interested in promoting dairying and improved agriculture generally have had an experience which should be illuminating to southern bankers who have not been converted to diversified farming. This experience dates back to 1915 when a creamery was organized in this Pennsylvania town and one of the two banks in the place became very active in promoting dairying and financing the industry. This bank took the initiative in bringing in cows to sell to the farmers at cost, and inconvenienced itself in many ways to accommodate the farmers. It is shown what this did for the community by the following report:

In five years there was built up a large membership in various dairying associations; 43 members in the cow-testing associations, 96 in bull associations, 187 in breeders' and 698 in creamery patrons' associations. A Young Farmers' club had a roll of 83, and there were 75 members of the Boys' and Girls' Dairy club. Thirty farmers became members of the Chamber of Commerce, thus making the farmers feel that town and country were inseparably bound together in one big community. The dairy herds, after five years, had 1,100 purebred cows, 232 purebred bulls, 1,300, purebred heifers, 4,513 tuberculin-tested cattle, and 176 accredited herds.

During the year ended June 30, 1920, the creamery paid out $410,125.15 to its patrons. The bank which had promoted the agricultural development made a gain in deposits of $968,847.12; while the older bank, which also gained because of the greater general prosperity in the town, showed a gain of $542,383.01. About $1,500,000 in these two banks was deposited by farmers, an increase of $1,000,000 in farmers' deposits in five years.—Fort Worth Record.

Citation By Publication

THE STATE OF TEXAS To the Sheriff or Any Constable of Howard County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon M. J. Scroggins and unknown owners of Lot No. 7 in Block No. 30 in town of Big Spring in Howard County, Texas, by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 32nd Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest District to said 32nd Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Howard County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Big Springs, on the 1st Monday in September A. D. 1921, the same being the 5th day of September A. D. 1921, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 12th day of August A. D. 1921 in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 852, wherein Henry C. Read is Plaintiff, and M. J. Scroggins and unknown owners of Lot No. 7 in Block No. 30 in Big Springs, Howard County, Texas are Defendants said petition alleging That Plaintiff is the owner of Lot No. 7 in Block No. 30 in the town of Big Springs in Howard County, Texas, as shown by Deed duly recorded in Vol. 18, page 58 Deed Records of Howard County, Texas, having purchased same from Guss Brack and wife, L. E. Brack, May 29th, 1897. Plaintiff is informed that defendants are setting up some kind of a claim to said land but that their claim is of no avail and only tends to cast a cloud upon plaintiff's title to said land. Plaintiff has had peaceful and adverse possession of said land for more than ten years next preceding the date of the filing of this suit; that he has used and enjoyed same and paid taxes on same since 1897.

Suit is brought to remove cloud and quiet Plaintiff's title to same and for cost of suit and for such other relief that plaintiff may be entitled to, both legal and equitable.

Herein I do not but have before said Court, at its aforesaid regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

little surprised the other... Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mundell and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Smith of Marlin, Texas, were here this week for a visit with Mr. Mundell's brother, J. E. Mundell. Messrs Mundell and Smith have been on an auto tour of the western part of Texas and New Mexico the past three months and report a thoroughly delightful time. They have spent the greater part of the summer in the mountains so warm weather has not been bothering them, and they were prepared to make camp wherever they found surroundings to please them. It has been a great trip according to their verdict.

A. P. Clayton of Rogers, Ark., has purchased the S. D. Bainbridge home place on Gregg street. This is an ideal home place and the new owner is fortunate to secure same. Mr. Clayton who deserted Big Spring to make his home in Arkansas is cured for good and all and is coming back to old Big Spring for keeps. He will reenter the services of the Texas & Pacific Ry. as engineer. Mrs. Clayton and children are expected here about September first.

J. A. Moeley and family returned Thursday of last week from a visit with relatives and friends in Denver, Colo. J. A. says Denver certainly looks good to him. In fact he reports all the country between Amarillo and Denver as looking especially good.

Mrs. F. F. Gary and daughter Miss Lillian Frances left Saturday morning for a few days visit at the McElroy ranch, south of Odessa.

J. Y. Meller of Lorraine was here this morning.

G. E. Sutton of Abilene was a visitor here Thursday.

Mrs. J. O. Tamsitt spent several days in Dallas last week.

Miss Vera Willis left this morning for a visit in El Paso.

Miss Mary Johnston spent Sunday with friends in Sweetwater.

Thomas Dixon and John J. Goers of Sweetwater were visitors here Tuesday.

Mrs. Jno. W. Curtis and children have been visiting relatives in Lamesa this week.

Hermleigh Wins Series

After winning last Thursday's baseball game to the tune of nine to six the Big Spring Elks permitted the Hermleigh team to walk away with both games last Friday afternoon.

The Hermleigh bunch certainly swing a wicked bat, and had no mercy on the pitchers.

In the first game Holmes of Coahoma was on the mound for Big Spring during the first seven innings, and the Hermleigh batters landed on him rather hard, securing fifteen hits—two being for home runs. They practically won the game in the fourth inning when they secured two home runs and piled up a total of five scores. They made a total of eleven scores during the nine innings. The Big Spring club only secured seven hits off the Hermleigh pitcher, one of these being a home run made by Ben Bedford. Big Spring total number of scores for this game was five.

The second game only went seven innings and was won by Hermleigh by a score of six to two. In this contest the Hermleigh bunch outdid the home boys, and managed to bunch their hits so scores could be made. Canada was on the mound for Big Spring and pitched a good game.

Citation by Publication THE STATE OF TEXAS.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Howard County—Greeting: You are hereby commanded to summon Lloyd F. Hollenbeck by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 32nd Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest District to said 32nd Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term of the Honorable District Court of Howard County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Big Spring, on the 1st Monday in September A. D. 1921, the same being the 5th day of September A. D. 1921, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 10th day of August A. D. 1921 in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 851, wherein Lloyd F. Hollenbeck is Plaintiff, and Grace Hollenbeck is Defendant, and said petition alleging plaintiff is an actual bona fide inhabitant of Texas, and has been for a period of twelve months and has resided in Howard County, Texas, for a period of six months next preceding the filing of this suit; that plaintiff and defendant were married in Howard County, Texas on September 20th, 1920, and lived together as husband and wife till February 21st, 1921; that at no time when living together did plaintiff herein do anything to cause the omissions, conditions and acts of defendant complained of; and she conducted herself with propriety and treated defendant at all times with kindness and forbearance; that soon after the marriage, defendant began a course of cruel and harsh treatment, disregarding his obligation to treat plaintiff with kindness and attention, and often cursed her, and beat her with his fist, and threatened to kill her; and on one occasion used a butcher knife to emphasize his remarks; on divers occasions he beat her and on one occasion he beat her in the presence of their land-lady till stopped by her; and about the 21st day of February, 1921, in Big Spring, defendant beat her, bruised her, and got the shot-gun and told her he was going to kill her, and attempted to kill plaintiff, and threatened to kill plaintiff's father and family, declaring he would kill himself afterwards; which conduct lasted over a period of six months and got worse, and rendered their living together insupportable and unbearable; and plaintiff left defendant February 21, 1921, and has remained away from him and intends to remain away. Plaintiff prays for the restoration of her maiden name, and that she be known hereafter as Lady Grace Park; that there were no children of the said marriage and that there is no community property; plaintiff prays for judgment, after hearing the pleadings and evidence and for judgment annulling the marriage and for further and other relief both in equity and law, as may appear from time to time.

Herein Fail Not but have before said Court, at its aforesaid regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same. Given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in this the 10th day of August A. D. 1921. J. I. PRIOR, District Court, Howard County, Texas.

Hoover Warns Against Foreign Bonds

Washington, 23.—Secretary of Commerce Hoover yesterday sounded a warning against bond issues of some foreign municipalities, which he described as "loose guy" propositions. Hoover said that the public should be cautioned against subscribing to these securities, which call for investment of a small sum in American money, with a high face value in foreign money, payable in American money when exchange should return to parity.

When these foreign moneys have recovered their normal exchange rates Hoover said, the amounts of American dollars necessary to meet these bonds would be many times greater than the wealth of any of these municipalities. The case of a Warsaw bond was cited, where a bond purchased for about $20 would be redeemable, when exchange returns to normal, for some $3,000.

English As She Is Spoken In Japan

In Hawaii they have no traffic laws, in Russia they don't need any, but in Japan the tourist is greeted with a code of rules similar to those he finds at home, though the phraseology may be a little different.

A returning tourist has submitted a set of rules of the road, which he stated were published in just this form, in English, in a Japanese paper for the benefit of American and British tourists. They follow:

"At the rise of the hand of policeman, stop rapidly. Do not pass him by or otherwise disrespect him.

"When a passenger on the foot hove in sight, tootle the horn trumpet to him melodiously at first. If he still obstructs your passage, tootle him with vigor and express by word of the month the warning, 'hi, hi.'

"Beware of the wandering horse that he shall not take fright as you pass him. Do not explode the exhaust box at him. Go soothingly by or stop by the roadside till he passes away.

"Give big space to the festive dog that makes sport in the roadway. Avoid entanglement of dog with your wheel spokes.

"Go soothingly on the grease-mud, as there lurk the skid demon. Press the brake of the foot as you roll around the corners to save the collapse and tie-up."—The Can Opener.

A Long Face Never Earned a Penny!

And a frown never helped a human being. You can afford a smile even if you do not feel like it. A smile does not cost you anything, yet it has a business value. The chap who ducks up smiling when everybody is pulling long faces is the chap you want to do business with.

The frown only begets frowns and grouches. Look out you are not infected by the frown. His poison is more dangerous than bolshevism, mosquitoes and fake "hootch" combined. Smile when you mean it, and smile when you don't, and keep right on, with a cheerful mug. It is good business. It helps your digestion. And it makes you welcome everywhere, advises Sugarman's Indicator.

A friend of our observed the other day: "I notice the bankers are putting the farmers back on their feet again, since the slump in the price of farm products."

"How so?" we asked.

"Taking their flivvers away from them," replied he.—The Can Opener.

Presbyterian Church Notes

That was a fine Sunday school picnic our folks had last Thursday evening out at the auto camp grounds. The various committees did their work well and every one had an enjoyable time. Some of our folks were not present, and we missed them. Our folks are glad to note that Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lane have returned this week from their trip to the old home in Bloomington, Indiana, and we are sure the summer must have been a pleasant one at the old home with loved ones and with old friends. Such visits as these would do us all good.

We had a fine morning service last Sunday, with a good attendance for a hot August day. The Sunday school attendance was better last Sunday than for several weeks. September will soon be here, and the folks will all be at home for the opening of school, and this, with the coming of cooler weather will help us to get the work started up again with renewed interest after the summer season.

There will be no services in our church next Sunday morning, as the pastor will be out of town for a few days in the higher altitude and cooler climate of the mountains of New Mexico.

The Union services for Sunday evening will be held in the Methodist church, and this being the last Sunday of August this will conclude the series of Union services held by the Methodist, Christian, and Presbyterian congregations.

Our Sunday school will be held as usual at 9:45 next Sunday morning. On the first Sunday in September our Sunday school, morning, and evening preaching services will be held according to our former order of services.

J. W. Harrison, Pastor.

Becoming a Mosshack

Multitudes of people seem to be willing to plod through life, apparently content to eke out miserable existences, without a hope for the future or even a desire for advancement in either their mental or material condition. Having fallen into a narrow rut, or grove, they lack ambition to grow out of it.

In a few years retrogression is inevitable. Envy takes the place of energy, and but for such the world mosshack would never have been coined. This is the other extreme. Avoid extremes. Strike a happy medium and there will always be found ample latitude to satisfy any laudable ambition.

Mrs. E. H. Happell and daughters, Margaret, Mary and Catherine returned Tuesday morning from a two weeks' visit with friends at Ranger and Fort Worth.

CARDUI HELPED REGAIN STRENGTH

Woman Lady Was Sick For Three Years, Suffering Pain, Nervous and Depressed—Read Her Own Story of Recovery.

Rock, Ala.—Mrs. C. M. Stegall, here, recently related the following interesting account of her recovery. "I was in a weakened condition. I was sick three years in bed, suffering a great deal of pain, weak, nervous, depressed. I was so weak, I couldn't walk across the floor; just lay by and my little ones do the work. I was almost dead. I tried Cardui I heard of, and a number of others, but I didn't get any relief. I couldn't eat and slept poorly. I thought I would have died. I bought Cardui, after a neighbor told me she did for her. I began to eat and sleep, began to get strength and am now well. I haven't had any troubles since. I sure can testify to the fact Cardui did me. I don't believe there is a better tonic made. I am over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully, and the treatment of many womanly ailments. It may help you, too. E 85

New Guiding Policy for Labor

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 23.—The executive council of the American Federation of Labor today started work on the drafting of a policy to serve as a guide for the labor movement of America. A thorough and scientific investigation of the entire field of modern industry will be ordered, it is stated, and the results of this inquiry will form the basis of the new policy. The inquiry was ordered at the recent Denver convention.

"No investigators or students have undertaken a more fundamental inquiry or inquiry of greater meaning," said Samuel Gompers, president of the federation.

The council had before it today a report of a committee which conducted an investigation to determine the possibility of "coordinating the present educational institution and activities conducted under the auspices of organized labor."

This committee also investigated "the strength of the demand for a central labor university which may be developed among the affiliated unions."

Wage reductions, labor leaders say, are being accepted by the unions under protest and the question of encouraging the original workers to strike will not be considered.

We're a doomed country when we admit a vast army that proposes to bring over here the institutions, language and habits of a strange and distant land. To make this country free enough for that is making it too free for the rest of us.

Let Justice Be Done

Perhaps it is too much to ask of public servants whose jobs, in many cases, are at stake, but the people of Texas would like to see redistricting of the state accomplished by the present legislature along lines of simple justice rather than as a compromise between politicians who are thinking of their political future to the exclusion of the interests of the people.

The Thirty-seventh legislature has a chance to redeem itself right now. It can do much to wipe out a record which the people of Texas would be only too glad to forget if it will square itself with justice and fairness and redistrict the state in such a manner that a vote in the Panhandle counts as much in the state senate as a vote on the gulf coast.

Redistricting—in its just form—is a simple mathematical problem which any school boy could figure with pencil and paper if it were set before him. What makes it complicated is the desire of districts now over-represented to hold that unfair power despite the fact that great areas of the state are very much under-represented.

It is still more involved because legislators who will be moved from one district to another are fearful lest their qualifications and sterling abilities may fall to receive enthusiastic recognition at the hands of the voters in the newly created district into which they may be thrown. All these things make them pause when redistricting comes to a vote.

Vested rights are not given up without a struggle. Neither are vested wrongs. It takes effort and courage and determination to break from old traditions or old habits and square up with justice even though it hurts.

West Texas, North Texas, and the Panhandle generally called West Texas for short, are the chief sufferers from redistricting delays. But in a larger and more real sense the entire state is the sufferer from a public policy which nullifies the constitution, stultifies justice and makes an entire commonwealth the unwilling partaker in a political crime.

Lost

Somewhere in Big Spring in last 30 days an almost new brown coat. I may need it a little later. If the person who found it will return to my Tin Shop I will pay him $5.00 for his trouble. H. B. ARNOLD.

Many of the newspapers of the country are criticizing President Harding's selection of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge as one of the American representatives at the disarmament conference. "But for Henry Cabot Lodge the League of Nations would now be functioning and steps toward disarmament would be under way," says the Chattanooga News.

Fordson

TRADE MARK

$625 F. O. B. DETROIT

The Fordson saves from thirty to fifty per cent of the farmer's time.

The Fordson plows, harrows, drills as much ground in the same time as from four to six horses. (Many farmers say it does the work of eight horses.)

The Fordson does for the farmer just what machine power does for the manufacturer—it enables him to manufacture his product at less cost. And that is what the farmer wants to do; grow his crops more cheaply and make his margin of profit greater. And the Fordson will help him do it.

Let us prove this to you by a demonstration on your own farm. Just phone us or drop us a card.

"They Say!"

That phrase has blasted more character and wrecked more homes than any other in the language. Call a halt on the lecherous peddler who comes at you with his wares—"They Say!" Fire point blank at his cowardly heart. Put it straight—"Who Says?" That hits the spot. You cannot afford to miss. The person who circulates a scandal or peddles truth (one is just as good as the other), is a social vampire. He sucks life blood. No combination of words in the language has caused more trouble, pain and sorrow. Shadowy—it hits in the dark. It is anonymous. It has no personality. It cannot suffer any reaction. It is wholly irresponsible. The phrase ought to be put under the ban. It is this way: You speak to some one of a mutual acquaintance. There is a shrug of the shoulder, a lifting of the eyebrows. There is a lowering of the voice, with the preface—"They Say." Even when the gossip falls to give his authority he has put an evil idea into your mind respecting the person of whom he speaks. You cannot rid yourself of the suggestion. The impression stays. The suspicion lurks. A great wrong is done. "They Say." The ears that are eager for that always find a mouth to pass it on to other eager ears. The assassination of character has begun. What "They Say" may sometimes be a true message. But is it a necessary message? Will it make the old world better or worse by the telling of it? It is very plain that much suffering and sorrow might be prevented by cutting these ugly words clear out of your vocabulary. If a man or a woman won't cut them out, you cut them out. And be quick!

Gompers to Speak Labor Day

Washington, D. C., Aug. 23.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, will deliver the keynote for a campaign to increase the membership of the federation to $5,000,000, in an address to be delivered at Baltimore on Labor Day, it was stated today at labor headquarters.
