Putnam Receives About Inch Rain During the Week

The rain this week to Wednesday evening had been about an inch, but it fell so slow that it did not give any relief to the water situation in the Putnam territory. The rain will be of considerable benefit to grain, as it was badly in need of moisture.

We have a Federal debt of 274 billion dollars. That is gross debt of approximately $2,000 for every man, woman and child in the United States. It's a gross debt of $5,330 for every employed person in America. The public debt of 274 billion dollars, the IOU's held by 85 million war bond buyers and other investors, represents a mortgage on the value of everything Americans own.

The people will have to pay in taxes the interest on this debt, amounting to perhaps 5 billion dollars annually, and will be liable also for the amounts of the debt as they become due.

The millions of investors in war bonds, for example, should be paid the interest and principal as guaranteed in these investments. This will be a big item in government budgets for years to come.

The United States has about as many payrollers as it has soldiers. The Army stands today at less than 2,600,000 men while the Federal civilian payroll, at last report carried 2,508,000 persons. The number of "payrollers" is declining too, but at about one-tenth the rate at which the Army is discharging men.

Senator Byrd, the outstanding authority on the subject of our prodigious bureaucracy, has said, we would do well with fewer than half of our present "payroll joyriders."

The demobilization of our vast army of experts, economists, researchers, typists and tabulators of trivial, would quickly improve the whole country's chances of stability and prosperity.

Editor: Over 17 billion dollars deficit spending this year to present time. Inflation is caused by inflating the dollar. When the value of the dollar becomes more than the value of the goods produced to buy, inflation sets in. Then in order to check inflation, production must increase to the point where it exceeds the dollars to purchase the goods produced and you will then have no inflation.

S. F. Smitty Watkins Junior High School Coach Back on Job

S. F. Smitty Watkins, coach in the William James Junior high school in Fort Worth, who used a shot gun to dispel some boys who were rocking his house one night a few days ago, is back on his job in the school by order of the board of education.

Superintendent Green said in talking of the episode that, "I regret both the cause and the incident, but both the stone throwing and the shooting took place off the school grounds and it is up to civil authorities to take action in the matter, not for the school to pass judgement on incidents affecting the citizenship."

The news story of the incident, showed that the boys had rocked his home before and had previously made plans to rock it again. Under the laws of Texas, the coach had a right to use any means that he had at his command to stop them if he could not quell them in any other way, and that is just what he did.

Ex-GI Pilot Starts Oil Test This Week On Newell Ranch

It is a long way from Fall River, New Guinea to a hillside on the Newell ranch seven miles west of Albany, but John T. Rundell Jr., of Wichita Falls made the trip, and is starting his first Texas oil test this week in center northwest quarter section 114, ETRR lands, after four years with the Army Air Forces.

August, 1942 he was a pilot with 8th Fighter Group in New Guinea and Australia, flying the old P-39, when the going was tough from Japanese fighters and bombers. He was later with 475th Fighter Group flying P-38s, which he says made them feel much better against the enemy. He was captain when discharged and was awarded Distinguished Flying Cross with Cluster, Air Medal with two clusters, Unit Citation with two clusters, and got credit for 3 Japanese aircraft, although he hit some more.

The new test is slated to see the Hope sand and is three-fourth mile northwest of the new Dean Bros. pool on the Newell ranch where seven new producers have been drilled the past year, and no dry holes, with 7-K Newell drilling below 1200 feet near south line section 114, ETRR.

Nine Counties Represented at Aggie Muster Saturday Evening at Fort Griffin Park

The 1946 Aggie Muster last Saturday evening at Fort Griffin State park was pronounced one of the most enjoyable and outstanding events of its kind ever held by ex-students of A. & M. college.

Shackelford county ex-students were hosts for the barbecue which was served under direction of W. C. Vines, chairman of the local group. A 4-H club calf which had been purchased several weeks ago for the occasion, was barbecued by John Smith who won loud praise for his culinary art in preparing the meat for the supper. All the trimmings that go to make up a regular ranch style dinner were included, with beans, potato salad, cokes, coffee, and other refreshments.

Nine counties were represented with 81 guests present. Classes dated from 1892 to 1949. W. G. Webb was master of ceremonies and opened the program with prayer, following with comments on the Memorial program set for Sunday morning at A. & M. college. He also gave a brief talk about old Fort Griffin State park.

A representative from each county brought greetings for their group and a special feature was the calling of the roll by years, to find that nearly every class had an Aggie to answer the roll. Each told of some outstanding event that happened while he was in A. & M. college.

During the short business session the group voted to hold the 1947 Muster in Stephens county. Carrying out a plan which was inaugurated at A. & M. last year to set up a fund called the Gold Star Fund, a collection was taken with about $40 contributed to the fund. The money is to be used to help boys whose fathers were killed in World War II.

Counties represented, names of Aggies, class year, and address, of those attending the Muster follows:

John Deere Sights Were Set High

In Designing New Farm Equipment

ALL during the war, the experimental departments in John Deere factories continued, without interruption, their development of new and improved machines.

Sights were set high . . . designers aimed at new and practical ways of making farm life easier, more profitable. And shortly, the farmers of America will see a parade of great equipment that will prove their aim was true . . . equipment matched to the 109-year-old John Deere tradition of quality manufacture—more value for the dollar invested.

Revolutionary is the new hydraulic power-control on John Deere tractors. A touch of the hand actuates a rock-shaft for integral equipment or a cylinder on drawn and power-driven machines—lifting, lowering, and maintaining them in any desired working position. It truly introduces the lever-less age in implement design.

Outstanding are new one-man Qwik-Tatch devices for cultivators, bedders, plows, and other integral equipment . . . time-savers that mean more hours in the field, less knuckle-scraping in the change-overs—one man does the trick.

There will be a new tractor for the small farm with outstanding new features that put it far ahead of the field. An important new machine is the John Deere Automatic Hay Baler, destined to cut baling costs to rock bottom. One man, instead of three or four, does the job. It's the only baler of its type that feeds the windrow directly into the baling chamber and ties with wire.

New and improved harvesting machines include a new self-propelled 12-foot combine and many new features on the famous John Deere No. 12-A. Lighter-weight, faster-working corn pickers will shorten and lighten the corn harvesting job. A new, really portable elevator not only handles corn, but baled hay as well. A simple new grain mover that will replace old-style small grain elevators.

Beet growers are enthusiastic about the new John Deere harvesters and loaders already in the field in small quantity. Potato growers will welcome the new double level-bed digger—a new, more practical two-row machine. The new cotton harvester is a major contribution toward cost-reduction in the growing of cotton.

New integral one- and two-bottom plows . . . a new two-bottom truss-frame plow . . . a new disk plow . . . a new land-leveler . . . a six-inch hammermill for small power . . . a low-cost, front-end manure loader . . . a plow-sole fertilizing attachment . . . new low-down, rubber-tired grain drills . . . an integral field cultivator—these and many other new and improved John Deere machines will be on their way to American farms.

Manpower and materials will be the only limiting factors in production during the coming months, so keep in touch with your John Deere dealer—be ready for the new day in farming with new equipment from the John Deere Full Line.
