Allied Leaders To Receive Plans From Chiefs Of Staff Tonight

President Says Most Of Our Men In Pacific

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP) — President Roosevelt disclosed today that the British-American chiefs of staffs would submit some preliminary recommendations tonight to him and Prime Minister Churchill and he said probably final decisions on them would be made next week.

At the same time, the chief executive told a press conference it is absolutely true that a large majority of American forces outside the United States are in the Pacific.

The British prime minister had mentioned that in a speech to congress Wednesday, and the president said it is particularly true of the army and navy. About half of our air force is in the Pacific, he asserted.

Mr. Roosevelt also issued a statement hailing national maritime day tomorrow. Paying tribute to the men who sail and build the merchant vessels, he told reporters that they were helping to maintain a ring that is slowly and surely being closed around the axis powers.

Asked if he could give a progress report on his conferences with the prime minister, the president replied that so far most of the work has been done by the combined chiefs of staff—the top military, naval and air advisers who flank the two consultants.

Tentative recommendations are expected to be made at a meeting here, with Dr. T. V. Soong, Chinese foreign minister, Mr. Roosevelt said he had taken up nothing special with the minister. Getting war materials of all kinds, including medicines, into China, is going along pretty well, he remarked.

Floods Increase, 100,000 Homeless

By The Associated Press Spreading waters from the rampaging Mississippi and Missouri rivers brought added concern to southern Illinois and Missouri today as other smaller streams in six mid-west states rose relentlessly, causing further widespread destruction in the flood stricken zone.

As the two big rivers joined together early today some 10 miles northwest of the normal confluence near Aiton, Ill., the number of persons driven from their homes by the disastrous floods was close to 100,000—as estimated by Red Cross officials and other observers.

Hundreds of civilian recruits labored throughout the night in towns regarded as in imminent danger, aiding engineers and soldiers in the struggle to hold back the surging waters.

Red Cross officials rushed relief to the stricken families and government engineers and soldiers aided civilians in evacuating homes in hundreds of towns and cities and farms. The Red Cross office at St. Louis said that in Illinois, Missouri, Arkansas and Oklahoma, more than 80,000 were homeless, while in Indiana official and unofficial observers estimated 12,000 were forced to flee their homes by the floods.

While thousands of farm lands were inundated crop experts in Chicago expressed a degree of optimism concerning the crop situation. A loss of between 5 and 15 per cent of the oats crop in some states was indicated, the experts said, but they added that winter wheat in much of the southwest had not been touched by rain.

At St. Louis, Lt. Col. W. F. Lawlor of the army engineers' office revised the previous crest for the Mississippi upwards to 37 to 37.5 feet expected Sunday or Monday.

The latter figure would be the highest mark since the 38-foot level of 1903 and the second highest on record.

At Beardstown, Ill., the Illinois river reached 27.1 feet, an all-time peak and boys and girls worked with citizens and soldiers placing 20,000 sandbags along the mile-long seawall.

Six Billions Sought For Lend-Lease

By ALEX H. SINGLETON WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—A $6,273,529,000 lend-lease supplemental appropriations measure, representing in part the coming sweat-and-self-denial-contribution of the home front, was sent to the house today with the assurance that it would shorten materially the mutual aid march of the United Nations "to complete victory."

With that message to congress, the house appropriations committee laid on the line a mass of testimony—edited carefully to prevent military secrets from reaching the enemy—to demonstrate how lend-lease and lend-lease in reverse is operating to whip the enemy through food, machinery and weapon production.

The amount would boost to approximately $24,000,000,000 the total approved by congress since the lend-lease program was inaugurated.

Previously scheduled to expire May 31, the three processed foods stamps will be good through June 7.

Coupon Expiration Dates Are Extended

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—To avert an end-of-the-month buying rush, the Office of Price Administration today extended for one week the expiration date of blue stamps G, H and J in war ration book No. 2.

Previously scheduled to expire May 31, the three processed foods stamps will be good through June 7.

OPA at the same time made the next three sets of blue stamps—K, L and M—good beginning Monday, May 24, and extended their expiration date from the end of June to July 7.

Mr Lewis Goes To Washington

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP)—United Mine Workers officials announced today that UMW President John L. Lewis would go to Washington during the day and that headquarters of the union in New York would be closed immediately.

There was no immediate explanation of the move nor was there any indication that Lewis' trip to Washington meant that he might have agreed to consult with the War Labor Board which he has ignored since the soft coal wage dispute was referred to it several weeks ago.

Sardinia And Italy Hit By New Air Force

Good Rains Break Serious Drouth

General, soaking rains, amounting to more than an inch and a half, fell over this area Thursday night and Friday morning to break the most tenacious spring drouth since 1909.

From every section farmers reported ample planting moisture and ranchers breathed easier in the knowledge that parched ranges, turned green by three days of mist, now had seasoning to hold them. Too, showers had put out some stock water.

No reports were available immediately from the city's Moss Creek and Powell Creek lakes, although increased turbidity indicated there was some increase in the supply.

The U. S. department of commerce weather bureau at the airport reported an inch and a half of moisture, with 1.19 of it falling up to 7:30 a. m. At the U. S. Experiment Farm, the gauge showed 1.04 on its early morning measurement, and F. E. Keating, superintendent, said it boosted the total for "this spell" past the inch and three-quarter mark.

North and south from Coahoma, ranches and farms soaked in the heaviest precipitation with some spots estimated to have received up to two inches.

Lamesa reported an inch and a quarter of moisture and the fall was general in that area. Stanton and Martin county, according to estimates, received around an inch and a half of rain, virtually all of it in a heavy drizzle.

Rain which stopped early this morning in Garden City put an inch and a quarter of precious moisture into the suffering ranges of Glascock county and gave sheep and cattlemen a new lease on life.

Trust Counts Filed On Denver Carriers

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—Attorney General Biddle announced today a federal indictment at Denver charging that seven organizations and 29 individuals conspired in violation of the anti-trust laws to prevent independent rates making by motor carriers through "intimidation, boycott and other coercive practices," and thus deprived the shipping public of low cost freight transportation by truck in 14 states.

Soviets Smash Nazi Attempts To Span Sea

MOSCOW, May 21 (AP)—The movement of German self-propelled barges across the Black sea and attempts of Nazi infantry to fight its way through the Russian attack arc northeast of Novorossisk have been smashed by Soviet artillery and planes, reports from the front said today.

The Soviet midnight communiqué said that ships and planes patrolling the Black sea sank six of the enemy barges, filled with troops, near the Port of Anapa and near Kerch.

There was no immediate indication whether the boats were attempting to reinforce the Axis troops or whether this marked the beginning of an Axis attempt at an evacuation.

Four German infantry regiments attempted to storm the Red lines northwest of Novorossisk after laying down a heavy barrage, but were thrown back with heavy losses.

In one sector, a Russian unit was hit on the flanks by superior enemy forces. On the left bank the Germans were reported to have come on until the Red army men were fighting them off with fists, bayonets and point-blank pistol fire.

Reinforcements arrived in time to turn the tide of battle. (The noon communiqué, recorded by the London Soviet radio monitor from a Moscow broadcast, said that Russian artillery pounded more German blockhouses out of commission during the night, that four German planes were shot down and that Nazi gun positions were silenced.)

FD Against Full Year Abatement

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—The possibility of a presidential veto of any current tax collection legislation which abates a full year's liability plagued senate and house conferees today, and they broke up into separate groups after a stormy, hour long session.

The president's letter to Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the senate finance committee and Doughton (D-NC) of the house ways and means committee, in which Mr. Roosevelt inveighed against what he termed the senate bill's "unjust and discriminatory enrichment of thousands of taxpayers in the upper income groups," was read to the group as they disputed the amount of tax cancellation that should be authorized in instituting a pay-as-you-go system.

The president's attitude was reported to have prompted an assertion by Senator Clark (D-Mo.), champion of the modified Ruml "skip a year" plan, that the conferees apparently have the alternative of agreeing on something Mr. Roosevelt would sign or permit to become law without a veto or of abandoning their efforts to obtain a bill this year.

It is obvious, Clark was reported to have told the group, that no tax measure could be passed over a veto.

Yamamoto, Hater Of U. S., Killed

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP)—The Tokyo radio announced today that Admiral Isoroku Yamamoto, commander in chief of the combined fleet, while directing general strategy on the front line in April of this year, engaged in combat with the enemy and met a gallant death on a war plane. A subsequent broadcast set the locale of his death in the south.

Presumably the "very front lines of the south" referred to the waters north of Australia, in the New Guinea or Solomon Islands area where there have been frequent naval encounters.

Yamamoto was possessed of a consuming hatred of the United States, acquired in his youth when his father told him of the "barbarians" who had come in their black ships, broken down the doors of Japan, threatened the son of heaven, trampled upon ancient customs, demanded indemnities x x x.

His military training started at the age of six, but he later switched to the navy because, he said he wanted to "return Commodore Perry's visit."

A Domei dispatch broadcast by the Tokyo radio after Pearl Harbor quoted him as writing: "Any time war breaks out between Japan and the United States, I shall not be content merely to capture Guam and the Philippines and occupy Hawaii and San Francisco, I am looking forward to dictating peace to the United States in the White House at Washington."

Yamamoto spoke English fluently. It was Yamamoto who planned the treacherous attack on Pearl Harbor, which set off the Pacific war, and the Japanese Navy Minister Shigetaro Shimada paid tribute to this trickery today as an operation "which amazed the world."

The Tokyo broadcasts said Emperor Hirohito had bestowed posthumously on Yamamoto the rank of fleet admiral and had decreed a state funeral for him.

GERMANS REPORTED PUTTING NETS OVER OTHER BIG DAMS

LONDON, May 21 (AP)—Shocked by the success of the RAF's one-night smashing of the Moehne and Eder dams, Germans were reported today rushing anti-aircraft protection and protecting nets for their remaining big dams, parties for their remaining big dams, parties for their remaining big dams, parties for their remaining big dams.

The ministry of economic warfare has estimated that 25 per cent of German electricity is produced by water power.

Calm Those War Jitters

By DR. MARTHA M. ELIOT
Associate Chief, Children's Bureau, U. S. Department of Labor
AP Features

Are you taking care of your child's emotional health? Does he find in the home you make for him a sense of strength, confidence and good cheer? Is it a home in which no other child is set above him in affection, and where he is set above no other?

Unless you can answer "yes" to all these questions, something needs to be changed. Maybe you feed him well and give him cod liver oil daily and follow all the other rules. But if you neglect the rule of calm-and-gappy-home life, soon you will discover your child is not thriving as he should. Soon you will be coming to tell me he is bad or uncontrollable, or lies, or steals, or is "terribly nervous about the war."

In World War I General Pershing discovered that some men went to pieces even before they saw a battlefield. Others broke very soon under the strain of fighting. Men who had seemed physically perfect had to be sent home, helpless victims of "shell shock." Today we have enough knowledge of emotional health factors to eliminate most "shell shock" victims before they get into uniform.

When we come to study more closely these men who go to pieces before the fighting begins, we discover something very curious about them. They are the very boys who back in school days had a record of being maladjusted. They are the boys who came from homes where trouble, grief, temper, or some other disturbing element was a regular boarder. These soldiers looked physically healthy, but all of them were emotional invalids.

Your child who is "nervous about the war" is not so very different from the soldier with shell shock. Give him time and, he would be that soldier. I am going to tell you this fact: his war fears are only an intensification of something already there. For your child's body I would prescribe food, sunshine and play. For his emotional development he needs love, joy, and a sense of belonging to people who are confident and calm. Give him these things and war will not trouble him.

Diploma Dresses: White waffle weave plaque is the top choice of 1943 girl graduates, who know their F's and G's in style as well as in Latin and geometry. Many high school seniors are choosing short graduation dresses this year, because they'll be so useful afterward. Here are his styles: Left, a crisp youthful dress with fitted bodice, slightly flared skirt, and pockets of white Irish croch; right, a style that will go places all summer—white plaque with slim torso line, gored skirt, square neckline and short sleeves trimmed in white cotton lace. It fastens at the side.

Downtown Stroller

Received a letter from Mrs. ERNEST BARBER, the former JANICE CARMACK, who is now living in Garden City, Kas. a "pretty little town" that she likes very much. She writes that she misses home and Big Spring though.

Also heard from Lieut. FRANK DULEY, who is now stationed at Rome Army Air Field, Rome, N. Y., where he has recently been transferred. He is another former resident and the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. DULEY of Big Spring.

SONORA MURPHEY, chief clerk at the ration board started on her vacation this week and she was really thrilled. Seems this will mark the first time off in three years and she was really looking forward to a lady of leisure.

Glanced through the new high school "El Rodeo" yearbook and in spite of war time shortages of films, paper and what have you, the editors, MINA MAE TAYLOR and WINNIE RUTH ROGERS did a bang up job. Cartoons drawn by members of the staff added a clever army touch to the book.

The program for the junior-senior prom tonight sounds like it is going to be fun and certainly different than the usual run of programs. But we promised not to give details away so you'll have to wait.

What really tickled us was L. H. THOMAS' expression when we asked him if he had gotten any rain on his place northwest of town. A smile spread over his face that wouldn't quit when he answered that they had enough rain now to begin planting. So, we squished on in the rain, not complaining.

Trains Wander Over The Midwest, Seeking Route Not Cut By Floods

CHANUTE, Kas., May 20 (AP)—Two orphans of the flood—a couple of passenger trains trying to get from St. Louis to San Antonio—wandered on from Chanute today in their roundabout odyssey, hopeful of achieving their destination in the near future.

The two trains—the Frisco Meteor and the Katy Texas Special—left St. Louis Monday night on a journey that normally would have put them in San Antonio the following night.

But then came the floods in Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Arkansas and today found the iron horses still plodding around through Kansas, far from home.

The two trains, carrying nearly 1,000 passengers, mostly soldiers on leave, panted into Chanute last night on the Santa Fe tracks and put up for the night.

Tuesday they were at Parsons, south of Chanute. They then advanced to Dewey, Okla., but fell back later in the day, a net loss of 30 miles in 24 hours.

Virtually all the passengers, particularly the soldiers who had passes for only four meals, were out of funds, hungry and a little sick of the flowing scenery.

Today, fortified by a hearty breakfast of eggs, doughnuts, coffee and sandwiches from Chanute's Red Cross canteen, they boarded their respective trains for another try at San Antonio.

Fascist Party Has Another Shake-Up

LONDON, May 21 (AP)—A new shakeup in Italy's fascist party was reported today by the Berlin radio, with Carlo Scorza, party secretary and Mussolini's right hand man, taking over leadership of the party's "organization of combatants."

DNE said also in a Rome dispatch heard by the Associated Press that Col. Alessandro Scala had been named chief of staff of the fascist youth organization, many of whose members have recently been reported in violent opposition to policies of the party leadership.

"ON TARGET"

Suddenly brilliant shafts of light stab the ink of darkness . . . Pinioned at the end of each beam are the terrors that fly by night . . . The men at their stations are quiet, tense . . . From the director comes an abrupt shout: "On target." Then pandemonium reigns as the big 90's go into action . . . Ack-Ack punctuates the sky . . . ONE reason for the excellence of the American artillery pieces is the recoil mechanism. Here a special recoil oil is used, refined to rigid specifications. Oil from the many fields of Texas plays other vital roles in the efficient operation of our heavy arms: greases and lubricants, paints, rust preventives, solvents and last but by no means least the toluene in the explosive shell itself. "Coney Island"

Twentieth Century-Fox presents Betty Grable, George Montgomery, Cesar Romero in a story of gay days in Coney Island with good supporting cast.

George criticizes Betty's cheapness of her costume which doesn't set well with Cesar, who once gypped George in a poker game.

George's plan for revenge comes when Charles Winninger is attacked in Cesar's place. Holding a fake funeral he makes Cesar accept him as a partner.

George makes Betty, against her will, change her act. He ties her to a tree on the stage and she is forced to tone down. The audience like her better.

Cesar discovers the trick that George has played. Betty is now a hit, Cesar arranges Broadway audition but she is now married to George who has to okay it.

Cesar does his best to break their marriage, then realizing his efforts are in vain, turns into a good Joe and confesses his dirty work.

Meet the Stars With Luis Rosado

Meet a nice guy, who almost became a nasty person—not willingly though.

James Craig is a very happy character these days. His joy is due to the fact that the press notices he has received for his work in "The Human Comedy" places him among the actors who have finally "arrived." But Jim has had the perseverance and the convictions that go with it, to lick whatever doubtful thoughts others might have had about his ability. Many people felt that he was high hat, but these same people never stopped to realize why Jim wouldn't accept their friendship. He is a plain spoken man, who gives out with the truth—therefore he never received the same from others, which he never received. There was that two-faced faculty among some of the people that claim he was high hat and Jim immediately recognized the trait. Naturally when he wouldn't accept their friendship they began to knock him. Those who were ignorant enough to listen to idle gossip accepted it, but others turned a deaf ear to it—the majority listened though, and that's why he has very few friends, but "I know they are real friends," said Jim on the set of "Lost Angel" at Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

Perhaps if Jim hadn't taken a trip to the movie capital during his vacation from Texas, he never would have been struck with the idea of ever becoming an actor. Arriving in Hollywood he was struck with the hunch that he might have a future as a movie actor. Suiting action to the thought, he contacted Oliver Hinsdale, then a coach at MGM. Hinsdale saw possibilities in the handsome six-footer who was realizing that the young man needed some training. Jim followed his advice, although it took a great amount of self-talking to decide. Arriving in Texas, he went to a good fiction coach, joined a little theatre group and one year later he was back in Hollywood. When he came back to Hollywood, he had acquired polish and his accent had a slight trace. Hinsdale then was coach at Paramount. At that studio Jim was tested and signed his first contract. However, he got stuck in westerns and after a while he went to New York. There he made a success in the play "Missouri Legend," and he found himself in Hollywood again, this time under contract to Columbia. His luck wasn't any better. New York producers began to wire him for his services, and he was almost tempted to go, when RKO came along with a role in "Kitty Foyle." That picture brought him to the limelight, and the studio gave him a contract. However, the roles he was assigned weren't of the calibre he thought he would be given. Yet he kept plugging, never quibbling or protesting. MGM borrowed him for the picture "Omaha Trail," and his work pleased executives at that studio so much that negotiations were made to buy half of his contract from RKO. Today MGM owns his contract and Jim has played in two pictures which afford him a chance to express his versatility. At present he is working in "Lost Angel," an altogether different role than he has previously enacted.

Yes, Jim is a nice guy, whose knowledge of psychology played a part in keeping him from turning to a nasty guy and gave him success.

Fashion Scene

Good old-fashioned feminine pink will be one of summer-time's favorites this year in our wardrobes. Perhaps just our gloves and a bag, or a hat, or a dress, but watch for a touch of pink. There are many varieties of this delectable color such as sherbet pink, potent pink, primitive pink, a straw-toned pink and a few more variations but they all fall into the pink family.

Lupe Velez has a new outfit that combines pink and black in an interesting manner—a black sports dress, trimmed in bands of pink grosgrain ribbon and to top it off, a pink wool bolero. Of course Lupe's pink variation is Mexican pink.

Margaret McKay fit that combines pink and black in an interesting manner—a black sports dress, trimmed in bands of pink grosgrain ribbon and to top it off, a pink wool bolero. Of course Lupe's pink variation is Mexican pink.

Lynn Bari has a pink tansaler (new name for fascinator when it's made in sheer material) of organdy for wear at night. It is ruffled and outlines her piquant face with softest flattery.

Michele Morgan's favorite off-duty costume is with a camisole effect top laced with wide Navy blue ribbon. Bonita Granville has a pink dotted organdy blouse to wear with her tailored suits.

Attractive starlet Lucia Sargent designed herself a pink faille duffel bag with a matching pink faille layer-cake beret—about six tiny squared layers of faille silk corded. A long pink tassel hangs straight down the back and the match-mates look particularly fetching with black frocks.

Martha O'Driscoll's newest bonnet for afterdark wear is a black lace-straw sailor with an open crown in pink belting, all fringed with slimy black veiling.

So you see, it's a year when we'll all have to be in the pink!

BEST DRESSED GIRL OF THE WEEK: Dorothy Lamour in a sun tan color scheme designed for her by Paramount's designer, Edith Head. The suit dress is in light weight wool crepe in a sun beige color, with short sleeves and square yoke. A pique gilet adds a nice decorative note to the neckline and her matching pipe gloves carry out the theme in the same sun beige color. Her straw cartwheel hat and bag are also in the monotone color ensemble, all matching Dotty's sun-kissed skin.

AROUND TOWN: Ann Sheridan is being accused of letting the cat out of the bag for she has pinned a diamond studded cat on a draped faille afternoon bag, neat trick way of wearing jewelry. . . . If you are going to do your duds ranching in your own backyard this year, per the government's wish, you can still go "ki, yi yip-pee" in a western-inspired sports outfit as will Irene Manning, who has just had a knockout playdress designed for her. Her beige flannel skirt is topped off with a flannel cowboy vest of brilliant tangerine, and applied on one side of the vest and skirt are large brilliant colored flowers. She wears different blouses under the vest, but all in brilliant cowboy colors such as sky blue, sage purple and cactus green.

With her white slacks, Brenda Marshall, featured in Warner's "The Constant Nymph," models a sweater of looped cotton threads, with a high neck closing and shiny gold buttons down the front.

In an early sequence for M. G. M. "DuBarry Was a Lady" some fine feathers are displayed to excellent advantage by blonde and shapely leading lady, Lucille Ball.

Reviews of Previews

By Jerry Cahill

"This Land Is Mine" is a film for plain ordinary people, like you and me.

It tells how even a small person may become great—through courage and honesty and self-sacrifice—in a crisis.

The central character of this new RKO-Radio photoplay is a small and inconspicuous person. He is a school teacher in a little town of some unnamed country that has been taken over by the Nazis. He is even a timid person. He trembles at the mere sound of bombing. Even the children in his school classes believe he is a coward, and he himself thinks so.

But is he? To the very end of his story he insists that he really is. But somehow he has taken inspiration and courage from the plight of others about him. And when the crisis comes, not even the awful fear of death can deter him from doing his small individual part for the freedom of mankind.

It is Charles Laughton who plays this part in this fine new photoplay. Many fans will believe that it is the best performance Laughton has ever given, and many will think the film the best yet of all the dramas of the struggles of the people of occupied nations against their Nazi oppressors.

The locale of the picture is not named. It might be France. It might be Belgium, or Czechoslovakia, or Poland. It might be any country where freedom is in peril, and sometimes, indeed, it seems as if it might be our own. This is particularly so when the school teacher, in a last meeting with his now adoring pupils, tells them the true meaning of democracy. But it is so also, unfortunately, when he singles out and accuses some of those whose counterpart we may recognize in our own midst: the appeaser, the collaborator, the profiteer, and the black market operator.

Laughton dominates the film. But his is by no means the only well played role. There is another by the lovely Maureen O'Hara, as the girl with whom the timid teacher is secretly in love. There is another by Kent Smith as the doughty young foe of the Nazis, and still another by George Sanders as the industrial executive who learns too late that there is no peace in appeasement. Una O'Connor's portrait of the teacher's doting mother is one more histrionic highlight.

Jean Renoir, the Frenchman whose own people know the meaning of oppression, directed the picture from a scenario by the redoubtable Dudley Nichols. America's film fans will find it powerfully moving and appealing.

On the Sets

With Irwin Allen

Nothing induces a perfectly normal individual to a state of homicide more quickly than does the antics of a child prodigy. When calculus and mythology come slipping through a set of baby teeth, the passion to kill runs riot in the human breast. Add to the picture a slight glimpse of genius, the flow of chess, psychology and psychology and no matter what you do, you are at least certain of the alibi of self-defense. There are few people in America today who know more about such antics than does Isobel Lennart. At the age of one, Isobel had already divorced Santa Claus, the Boogey Man, and the Stork. Her second birthday made Technology and Socrates strictly "old hat." And at the grand old age of twenty she had already published more stories than do most writers in a lifetime. Which gives you a convincing argument why no one was better fitted than Isobel to write "Lost Angel."

Irwin Allen

Out at Metro Goldwyn Mayer, where more lost angels have come to rest than any other place in the world, Isobel pounds a typewriter and from that typewriter came the story of "Lost Angel." Margaret O'Brien plays the title role in the tale of a babe who was turned over to half a dozen scientists at birth for the purpose of acquiring some knowledge in a lifetime that any one that ever lived. More than that, her surroundings would be such as to make her believe only in the things that the graybeards decided would be good for her to believe in. The applicator is finally upset when the kid breaks out at the age of six and runs off to fall in love with a newspaperman, played by James Craig. The nine old guys, in the meantime, have developed a bad case of measles and the story becomes a runaway of laughs.

Margaret O'Brien is a new personality on the screen. You probably remember her fine performance in "Journey for Margaret" and in a short called "You, John Jones." She comes closest to being a child prodigy without actually being one. For her role in "Lost Angel," it was necessary to learn long passages from half a dozen advanced worlds of learning. She spouts with such conviction that it would take nothing short of a college professor to prove that she actually doesn't know what she's talking about. That's what makes Hollywood such a tangled land of make-believe. On twenty-four hours' notice, the town can turn out anything from a child prodigy to a ship that would take Henry Kaiser at least a week to build.

"Lost Angel" is such a perfect comedy that one gets the ghost of an idea that maybe Isobel was secretly laughing to herself when she wrote it. Laughing to herself over the fate of a lost angel she once knew very well—a lost angel named Isobel.

Quiz Box

Q. Shirley Edwards, 806 Plum St., Riverside, Calif.: What is Alan Ladd's next picture and who will he co-star with? Is he going into the Army?

A. Alan Ladd's next picture is "China" and he co-stars with Loretta Young. Alan is already in the Army.

Q. Mattie Griffith, 902 Howard Ave., Palestine, Texas: Is it true that Errol Flynn and Ann Sheridan are going together?

A. There have been more rumors to that effect, but no one has actually seen them anywhere in each other's company. The rumor started when both of them took a vacation after finishing "Edge of Darkness" and met there.

Q. June Haggerly, 2133 - 3rd Ave., Sacramento, Calif.: Could you give me a short biography on Van Johnson and a list of the pictures he has played in to date?

A. Van Johnson was born August 23 at Newport, R. I. His parents are Charles and Loretta Johnson. He came to Hollywood via the Broadway stage where he appeared in several musical comedies. Besides dancing, he sings baritone and plays the violin—although he'd much rather play the piano, which he doesn't. His personality reflects humor. He is six feet, two inches tall, weighs 135 pounds, has red-gold hair and very blue eyes that usually glisten with mirth. Among his pictures are "Murder in the Big House," "The War Against Mrs. Hadley," "The Human Comedy," "Dr. Gillespie Assistant," and as soon as he recovers from his automobile accident he will resume work in "A Guy Named Joe."

Inside Hollywood

With Edith Gwynn

Metro has given the go ahead sign for a glamour build-up of their newest star-material, Marylyn Maxwell. The blonde beauty just received rave notices for her work in the latest "Dr. Gillespie" picture. . . . Paramount will release "For Whom the Bell Tolls" as a roadshow attraction. The picture runs three hours and will be presented with an intermission. . . . Ann Sheridan is having sinus trouble. Which reminds me of the crack that she made when informed about the magazine stories coming out discussing her romance with Errol Flynn. When told about it, Ann said, "Poor Flynn, he gets blamed for everything!" . . . Robert Paige, who has always appeared in pictures labeled, from "B to Z," has been rewarded for his patience. Universal is starring him in their million-dollar production of "Fred Wife."

Susan Peters and Richard Quine may see the preacher sooner than you expect. The two kids are very deep in love. . . . Robert Taylor was sent home the other day from the set of "Russia" with ptomaine poison. . . . Roy Rogers has collaborated with song-writer Nat Vinson on composition of a new song titled, "Linda Lou," in honor of his new daughter. . . . Twentieth Century-Fox has changed the title of the Bonja Heine picture from "Winter Time" to "Wintertime." Notice the change? . . . There's talk around town that Charles Chaplin is trying to get Mae West to play in his next picture which is based on "Bluebeard." By the way, La West returns to the screen shortly in "Tropicana," at Columbia. . . . Speaking of returns to the screen, Pola Negri did her first scene for the screen in years the other day, and after she was through the crew gave out with a rousing applause. She was great, and I believe that when "Hi Diddie Diddle," is released, the fans will clamor for more films with Pola.

Because Bette Davis is vacationing in Mexico, the idlers are saying that she is getting a divorce from her husband Arthur Farnsworth. If you hear any more about it, disregard it. . . . It's just gossip. . . . Universal is making no secret about the gold mine they have in Maria Montez. . . . Red Skelton had his first physical the other day. . . . Paramount may resume making two-reel musicals. The first to go is "Mardi Gras" and co-stars Johnnie Johnston and Betty Rhodes. . . . Gloria Warren who created quite a stir when she appeared in "Always in My Heart" for Warners and later was dropped by the studio, is now at RKO where they will groom her to the stardom she deserves. . . . Mimi Chandler, daughter of Senator "Happy" Chandler, swings an accordion in "And the Angels Sing" at Paramount. . . .

Martha O'Driscoll and Bill Lundigan have laced. . . . Someone stole several heads of cabbage from Dennis Morgan's Victory Garden. He didn't mind their taking them, but in so doing they trampled all over his patch of tomatoes. . . . Van Johnson is making such rapid recovery that Metro expects him to resume his role in "A Guy Named Joe." . . . Margaret Sullivan returns to the screen after an absence of two years in "Cry Havoc." . . . There's a love wave hitting Rod Cameron and Tadd Sherman. . . . When Samuel Goldwyn took a visitor to see the Russian village he had constructed on the back lot of his studio for "North Star," he asked the visitor, "Isn't that just like a piece of Russia?" "Yes," replied the visitor. "But there's one thing wrong." Sam taken by surprise asked, "What's that?" The visitor smiled, then said, "The only thing wrong is that Russia belongs to the people and this village belongs to you."

After almost a year in preparation, "The Story of Dr. Wassell," is about ready for the camera. . . . Office of War Information chief Elmer Davis said that he still has "every hope that Frank Capra's film for the Army, "Prelude to War," will be shown for the public with minor changes. . . .

Lesser Samuels is writing the screen play of W. Somerset Maugham's "The Hour Before Dawn," for Paramount.

Twentieth Century-Fox has extended the contract of the writing team of Helen Logan and Robert Ellis for two more years.

Lucien Hubbard is writing a film tribute to the Second Marine Raider Battalion, which Walter Wanger will produce for Universal Pictures.

Barry Lyndon is adapting Mrs. Belloc Lowndes' mystery story, "The Lodger," to the screen for 20th Century-Fox.

Howard Koch has completed the screen story of "Rhapsody in Blue," based on the life of George Gershwin, for Warner Brothers.

Ardel Wray is writing the screen play of "The Amorous Ghost" for RKO Radio Pictures.

James Hilton has moved to the Warner studio from Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer to write the screen play of "The Time Between," Gale Wilhelm's story of an Army flier's furlough.

John Steinbeck has been divorced by his wife. He agreed to a $11,000 property settlement when she received an interlocutory decree a year ago.

Betty Jane Rhodes has just turned in a fine singing-acting performance in "Salute for Three" at Paramount Studio.

Struck By Lightning, Bomber Crashes; Six Bodies Are Recovered

HOUSTON, May 21 (AP)—Six army fliers were killed in the crash and explosion of an army bomber, tentatively identified as from the Greenville, S. C., airbase, in a pasture 18 miles north of Houston last night.

es, the 17th annual West-Coast Relays will be run off tomorrow in what may be the final of this outstanding track and field carnival for the duration. The 1943 renewal, however, will still be the big collegiate speed and muscle show of the far west. The bulk of the 600 entries, comparable to normal times, will represent the pick of universities, colleges and high schools of the state.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By RUGH FULLERTON, JR. NEW YORK, May 21 (AP)—George Washington U. has notified its opponents that it may cancel its 1943 football schedule, which would leave Washington sport's biggest boomtown, depending on Maryland for his college football next fall.

TOPSY TURVY Seeing the Braves in second place is a shock like trumping your partner's ace.

FUTURE BOOK Charley Parker, the 16-year-old San Antonio, Texas sprinter who ran the 100 in 8.5 and the 200 in 20.6 at the state high school meet, may come east to face big time competition this summer. Another kid who might be worth "importing" is Don Clayton of Fayetteville, N. C. High, who won nine firsts and a second place in a dual meet with Durham High and who took only four state titles because they wouldn't let him enter any more events.

TODAY'S GUEST STAR Dick Cullum, Minneapolis Times: "Big Ten representatives raked up all the rules they could find, tied them into a neat bundle and heaved them over at their spring meeting. Freshmen may play. Post graduates may play. Transferee soldiers may play. Just about the only way to become ineligible is to die or move to Attu."

SERVICE DEPT. Brig. Gen. Frank A. Yowling Cats Lead To Discovery Of Grave, Man Held

DENVER, May 21 (AP)—The yowling of cats and the mysterious disappearance of their mistress inspired a police investigation which resulted in the finding of her body in a shallow basement grave and the arrest of her husband. Officers found the body of Mrs. Mary Potts, 44, buried in a furnace room under her East Denver home last night. They took in custody her husband, Howard C. Potts, 40, an electric company warehouseman. Potts admitted he pushed his wife down the cellar stairs last April 3, during an argument which stemmed from her asserted failure to serve dinner on time, acting Detective Capt. O. A. Carter declared.

Old Pigtails Crowding For Third Place

By JUDSON BAILEY Associated Press Sports Writer The Philadelphia Phillies not only are standing on their own feet these days, they are tramping on the toes of a lot of other clubs in the National league.

Yesterday they: 1. Shut out the Chicago Cubs in both ends of a doubleheader 3-0 and 2-0, allowing the Bruins just four hits in each game. 2. Made the Cubs' plight so disturbing that Philip K. Wrigley, their owner, personally announced settlement of the club's contract struggle with Lou Newkoff. 3. Rejected the Brooklyn Dodgers' offer of two plays for Second Baseman Danny McHugh, causing the Dodgers to sell them Pitcher Newt Kimball and send Alex Kampouris to Washington for cash in order to get under the 25-player limit. 4. Threatened the third-place standing of the world champion St. Louis Cardinals.

The Phillies' winning string was stretched to five games and they moved within half a game of the Cardinals, who were beaten 5-3 at Brooklyn. In the American league Boston and Cleveland managed to get in a doubleheader for the only action the circuit has had since Sunday. Boston bagged both games 5-3 in ten innings and 7-4 to bump the Indians into third place behind the Yankees and Senators, who were idle. Cleveland used 20 players, including six pitchers, in a vain effort to win the second session after Oscar Judd's seventh-pitching had taken the opener for the Red Sox.

Wealthy Annapolis Woman Is Convicted For Slaying Youth

ANNAPOLIS, Md., May 21 (AP)—Mrs. Helen Aileen Randle, 21-year-old wife of a wealthy Washington and Annapolis sportsman, was under conviction of manslaughter today for the fatal shooting of Allen Willey, 17, in a case which her attorney said was "redolent with passion." Mrs. Randle was found guilty last night by an all-male jury which deliberated for two hours and a quarter after hearing the attractive third wife of Ulimo S. Randle, 34, tearfully deny she had intentionally fired the shot which resulted in the death of the high school student. Chief Judge Ridgely P. Melvin of Anne Arundel county circuit court said he would pronounce sentence at 3:30 a. m. next Tuesday. Under Maryland criminal code the penalty for manslaughter is a prison term of from two to 10 years, or a fine not to exceed $500, or both. When she had been asked on the stand to tell specifically the names she contended Willey had called her, she sobbed, "I can't, I can't!"

Mascot Hair Apparent At A.&M.—Texas A. & M. College is perhaps the only military post in America where any boy can have a dog—and many of them do. Most celebrated dog at Aggieland is Reville, the official mascot, but the aging Reville has an understudy, Buckskin. Here is the hair apparent doing a little "politicizing" on the campus. There are approximately 40 dogs at A.&M.

Dogs Are Numerous At Aggieland; And Reveille Has An Understudy

COLLEGE STATION, May 21 (AP)—Texas A.&M. College, a virtual armed service institution these days, is perhaps the only military post in America where any boy can have a dog—and many of them do. Of course, there are hazards. For instance, veterinary students, needing dogs in their laboratory work, occasionally entice a stray canine indoors, and then there is one less pup to be fed. But the veterinary students also help the boys who own dogs and want their pets to lead vermin-free lives. As a result there are about 40 dogs on the campus and all are well-fed and in jubilant health, with no danger of rabies, as a result of inoculations given by the veterinary students. Neither blood nor breed means anything, judging from the mutts as well as the registered variety that stroll the wholly masculine campus. Some of the dogs proved pains in the neck for producers of the motion picture "We've Never Been Liked," which was filmed on the A. & M. campus. Reveille is the king of dogs at Aggieland—the mascot of the whole student body. Reveille was being featured in the picture but many scenes were ruined by Buckskin, Reveille's understudy, and the other lesser lights in persistently walking on stage at the most inopportune times. A big black and white spotted setter with a broken leg took a liking to Ann Gwynne, one of the Hollywood stars of the picture, and finally managed to saunter up for a pat on the head while the cameras were grinding. The director had shot the scene 20 times and the dog added to the final touch that made him say: "Cut, print it." So Reveille is not the only dog in the movie.

Eyewash, Ointment And Laxative Go Into New Glass

SOUTHBURIDGE, Mass., May 21 (AP)—The familiar eyewash, boric acid, the ointment, zinc oxide and the stomach ache remedy aluminum hydroxide, plus the jewel beryllium, are substituted for time-honored sand in making a new kind of glass announced today by the American Optical company. The company also announced a second new form of sandless glass made by substituting cadmium for the sine.

Jumping-Jack Va. Bobcat Bob Ex-Grid Star Given Medal

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP)—Downing Beau Jack and Bobcat Bob Montgomery collide tonight for the world lightweight championship. The Beau is a 5 to 11 choice in this 15-round fusa in Madison Square Garden, and most of the wise guys say that the one-time Georgia shoe-shine boy will put quite a high polish all over the Philadelphia challenger once he's turned loose at 9 p. m. (CWT).

On recent form, the Jumping Jack, who was handed this New York version of the lightweight championship last December after Sammy Angoit retired permanently to make his first "defense" a happy celebration. He not only has cleaned up among the lightweights, but he moved in among the welters and walloped Fritsac Zivic and Henry Armstrong more than a little bit. But Bobcat Bob has had his artillery aimed at a lightweight title shot for a long time now, after five non-title tussles with 135-pound bosses and he's confident he'll hit the bulls-eye in this battle between two negro swatters.

Nazis May Have Sunk Prisoners With Sub

RECIFE, Brazil, May 21 (AP)—A disabled German submarine which was scuttled off Brazil when overtaken by a British destroyer may have carried the captain of the torpedoed Greek freighter Edifots to his death as a manacled prisoner, it was reported here today. The sinking of the Africa-bound freighter on May 1, which became known here only yesterday, occurred in the same general area in which a British destroyer surprised a German submarine with insufficient fuel to reach port and unable to submerge because of engine trouble.

Cancer Research To Get Clinic Building

GALVESTON, May 21 (AP)—Priorities have been obtained for construction of a clinic building for the M. D. Anderson Cancer Research Hospital at Houston, Dr. Chauncey D. Leake announced today. Dr. Leake, vice president of the University of Texas and dean of the university's medical branch here, said the clinic was of major importance in the university's plans for a statewide health program.

Yeah, Ain't A Man Got Some Rights?

HOUSTON, May 21 (AP)—Dick Freeman, veteran sports editor of the Houston Chronicle, reads where a woman has invaded the sports writing field and poses these questions: "What's going to happen to the sacrosanct rule, in which we sports writers look down our noses at the gals and women who attempt to crash a press box now? "And what's going to happen to the rugged language that flows when a ball carrier on a favored team fumbles on the one-yard line? "Are we expected to say 'my goodness' and if we do, is that expected to relieve the tension as much as stag party language?" Freeman's comments were occasioned by the news that Betsy Ross had become chief sports writer for the Abilene Reporter News.

USO Ready To Release Items Loaned To Unit

Thankful for its use, the U.S.O. now is ready to release furnishings to owners who made the center a loan of the property.

Since the USO has no ready means for transporting the material, Ross Clarke, director, said Friday it would be appreciated if owners who desire to have their items of furniture returned would arrange to send for them.

If this is impossible, he said, "we will arrange somehow to return these pieces to their owners."

He added that "the USO is deeply grateful for the loan of these furnishings, for they came at a time when we had no other means of securing them. Some of the things were donated, and now to straighten matters, we are appealing to all who loaned articles to let us know as soon as possible."

AB Club Plans For Barbecue

Plans for a chicken barbecue to be held Thursday night at 8 p. m. at the city park were completed Friday at the American Business Club luncheon at the Settles hotel.

Harvey Woolen and Clyde McMahon were named on the food committee and Dwan Leonard and the Rev. W. L. Porterfield on the transportation committee. The Rev. J. E. McCoy, Ernest Wood and Eugene Thomas were named to the recreation committee.

Losers of the membership contest are scheduled to "pay tribute to the winners at the barbecue and will also dress the chickens for the barbecue, it was announced.

Sweethearts of the club were honored when members sang "Let's Call You Sweetheart" and presented gifts to Helen Duley and Mary Whaley.

The Rev. H. C. Smith was introduced by the Rev. McCoy, who had charge of the program, and the Rev. Smith talked on what will be the future of America after the war.

He pointed out that the first thing is to win the war, but when peace comes it will be America's opportunity to give the world a new philosophy and a new way of life.

Letter from Lieut. Fowler Fabian of the U. S. Navy was read by Roy Reeder to club members.

Cars Damaged In City Crash

Heavy property damage but no serious injuries were reported when a car driven by Dudley Coleman, Ackerly, was in collision with one driven by Mrs. J. C. Velvin, Thursday afternoon on Douglas street between Park Hill and Cedar Crest additions.

The cars met on the top of the hill in a head-on crash which sent the Coleman car rolling down the hill and turning it over three times, City Policeman L. W. Smith said.

The Coleman car was completely demolished and approximately $100 worth of damage was done to the Velvin car. Coleman and Alan Higgins, also an occupant of the Velvin car, were given treatment at Malone-Hogan Clinic-Hospital for bruises and Higgins was treated for a bruised shoulder. Olympic Team Picked To Represent Local School In Bombings

Three carefully chosen cadets of class 43-3 will represent the Big Spring Bombardier School Sunday, May 23, at the Army Air Forces Bombardier School at Childress when students from eight schools will compete in the army's first Bombing Olympic.

Cadets selected are Thomas H. Black, Jr., of Evansville, Ind., Gustaf Ernest Johnson of Brockton, Mass., and Lawrence Lieshus of Brooklyn, N. Y.

The Olympic has been devised by the army training command as a method of achieving even further precision in the unerring accuracy of America's "Hell from Heaven Men."

"Skip bombing" at a silhouette ship target on water, an aerial attack in force with tear gas, practice bombs and gliders on a cadet combat base on the Texas Cap Rock, will supplement the bombing.

Main event, however, will be the precision bombing from 10,000 feet by the cadet teams from the eight bombardier schools in Texas, New Mexico and California. Teams of pilot, student bombardier and student photographer will drop five bombs each at a 30 foot bulls-eye target using the famous Norden bombsight. Best scoring team will be awarded a trophy, a pickle barrel trophy of elaborate hue, symbol of bombardier accuracy. The school winning the trophy will retain it until others earn it in future competition. The bombing Olympic will be an adjunct hereafter to routine bombardier training.

Bomb releases will be scored by photograph and each school will be represented by a bombing instructor who will fly with a rival team as a judge. Competition will begin at 8 a. m. and continue until all teams have completed their missions.

Lieut. Col. John W. White, commanding officer of the Childress school and Lieut. Col. Dalton will be hosts.

Contesting teams from Childress, Midland, San Angelo and Big Spring will be pitted against West Coast training center teams from Victorville, Calif., and Deming, Albuquerque, and Alamo, N. M.

Parentage Of Abandoned Baby Still A Mystery

Local officers are still investigating the case of the abandoned baby found in a woman's rest room at a service station on East Third Street last Tuesday night but so far have been unable to establish identity of the mother.

Several tips on the case have led to dead ends, the sheriff's office advised, and anyone having any information was urged to contact either the city or county authorities. Such information will be kept confidential, said Sheriff Andrew Merrick.

Meanwhile the abandoned boy continued to "do nicely" at the Big Spring Hospital, where, if he had no mother, at least had several foster mothers among the nurses who were taking care of him.

Several inquiries concerning adopting the baby had been received but no one had actually taken definite action, it was understood.

Assembly Of God To Begin New Revival

A three-week revival meeting will be started Sunday at the Assembly of God church, W. 4th and Lancaster, the pastor, the Rev. Homer Sheats, announced Friday.

The evangelistic services will differ from others in that the evangelist and the singer are both women. Margaret Plunkett, San Bernardino, Calif., will preach each day at 8:30 p. m. and Gladys Pearson, also of San Bernardino, will direct the music. Next week they will conduct the morning devotionals over KBST the Rev. Sheats announced.

Chrysler Plant Strike Spreads

DETROIT, May 21 (AP)—Employees of a sixth war plant of Chrysler Corporation joined in a United Automobile Workers (CIO) strike today as regional War Labor Board officials entered a conference with management and union executives.

The walkout of day shift workers in the bomber plant of the Chrysler DeSoto division brought the number of strikers and other idle employees in the corporation's war factories to nearly 27,500. It was Detroit's most serious stoppage since Pearl Harbor.

Edwin E. Witte, regional WLB director, summoned Chrysler top executives and officers of the striking UAW-CIO unions to attend the closed conference and explain why work cannot be resumed immediately pending settlement of current disputes.

Before today's meeting Leo Lamotte, director of the union's Chrysler division, called on the strikers to return to work, and in a statement said "there are certain individuals within our own union who are ready to sacrifice the interests of the workers in the shop and endanger the nation at war, to advance their own political aggrandizement."
