No wonder the New Freedom Gas Kitchens now coming off the designing boards have a particular appeal to the Southwestern Homemaker. Since, for so many years, she has used natural gas for cooking, she knows its matchless qualities. And to know its efficiency is being improved through a beautiful step-saving, work-saving, food-saving kitchen like one of the "New Freedom Gas Kitchens" is to start her thinking, planning and saving for a new world of ease and convenience. . . .
