The Atlantic coast region, the Texas Gulf coast and a group of interior states were visited by very severe and destructive storms during the past week. Millions of dollars worth of property was destroyed and many people were driven from their homes on account of high waters. It is fortunate that we have a splendid storm-warning system that broadcasts the approach of dangerous storms to the people in time for them to seek shelter and very likely due to these broadcast there were very few lives lost during the recent dangerous equinoctial period.

Hall Roosevelt, brother of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, died September 25 and all appointments of the President were cancelled until after the funeral. The Duke and Duchess of Windsor were scheduled for a visit at the White House on 25th but this, too, was postponed. Mr. Roosevelt's death was the second of the family circle to occur during the month. The President's mother, Mrs. Sarah Roosevelt, died earlier in the month on September 7.

Here is good news for the entire world if successful and there is every reason to believe it will be. The Institute of Medical Research located at Cape Town, South Africa, has announced that the influenza germ, that we all dread and has been the cause of much suffering and death for many years, has at last been isolated.

Dr. E.A. Culfer, director is absolutely certain we have isolated the germ. A vaccine soon will be prepared and we hope it will be wholly successful.

Mr. O. R. Rodden, local manager for the Texas State Employment Service, has announced that 2,000 cotton pickers are needed in the area around Big Spring. It is said that the cotton crop in that section promises to be one of the largest in the history of the industry. It is also reported that cotton pickers are in demand in the Lamesa section of the state. There are always folks in and around the towns of this part of the state out of work and this is a good opportunity for them.

There is "much ado about nothing" going on nowadays concerning the movie industry and their alleged war propaganda as we see it. The truth of the matter seems to be that the majority of these movie producers are Jews and a small minority of our people are stirring up all this trouble because they do not like the Jews.

We should all remember that one Adolph Hitler is a hater of the Jewish race and just about his very first act in beginning his terrible and disgraceful war was his persecution of the Jews in Germany. The Jewish race has a gift for making money it seems and a few Gentiles are jealous of them. We are glad that there are only a few of this class of people in free America where every one is privileged to make all the money he can.

Preacher:—"And when I have finished the sermon I will ask those of the congregation who want to contribute five dollars towards the mortgage on the church to stand up and I will ask the organist to play appropriate music."
Organist:—"Just what do you mean by appropriate music in this instance?"
Preacher:—"The Star-Spangled Banner will be all right."

According to recent reports Lieutenant Robert Montgomery, film star, has arrived in London to take up his duties as assistant United States naval attaché at the U. S. Embassy. He served in France early in the war as an ambulance driver and said he is delighted with his new assignment to London as he has many friends there. He added that he will not return to Hollywood until after the war is over.

The town of Denton, Texas recently observed its seventieth birthday. It was founded in 1872 with the coming of the M. K. & T. railroad. It has since prospered growing from a population of 500 to over 17,000 since the coming of the railroad and is said to have a monthly payroll of more than $1,000,000.

Charlie Davis Had Hand Badly Mangled
In Gin Saturday

Charlie (Stinkey) Davis had his left hand badly mangled Saturday afternoon. Cotton had caught in the lower part of gin breast or ribs and Davis had a pine stick trying to push the cotton out of the ribs, when the saws caught the stick and jerked his hand in to the saws. Before he could be rescued his second finger on his left hand was pulled off, and his hand pretty badly mangled. He was taken to the County hospital for treatment of wounds.

J. P. Purvis Visits
News Office On His Return From Baird

J. P. (Red) Purvis of the Atwell community had been to Baird, Saturday morning to get a permit to sell his cotton and on his way back home stopped in Putnam and made the News office a short call. He said he only planted seven acres in cotton and thought he would make about 1 bale. He sold his peanut allotment was only eight tenths of an acre and he did not plant any.

Mr. Purvis doesn't think very much of the AAA program and thinks that all it has done was to destroy the small farmer who was making a living and put him on relief and made the big farmer richer. He said it did not make much difference about the price as the small farmer did not have anything to sell at any price and why should he worry about the price.

WOMAN'S STUDY CLUB
HOLDS ENTERTAINMENT
SEPTEMBER 22ND

The Women's Study Club held its initial meeting of the year Monday, September 22nd in the home of Mrs. R. D. Williams with Mrs. L. A. Williams and Mrs. Mark J. Shurwin as co-hostesses. The course of study for the year is "Our American Heritage" with informal discussions from the program service of the Readers Digest. The following program was rendered:

Song, Star Spangled Banner, Club History and Meaning of Star Spangled Banner, Mrs. Fred Cook.

Preamble to the Constitution and Bill of Rights, Mrs. R. C. Ames.

Reading "America The Beautiful" Mrs. Wylie Clinton.

The members were then invited into the dining room where refreshments and table decorations carried the patriotic theme. The centerpiece was a large flag shaped cake decorated with stars and stripes. This was cut and served with punch, sandwiches and pickles. Miniature flag pins were given as favors.

Final Settlement
Made In Eastland
And Ranger Suits

Federal Judge, T. Whit Davidson entered final judgement in the cases of Eastland and Ranger, in debt adjustment of their bonded indebtedness which has been in litigation for several years.

The judgement effecting Eastland discharges it from all indebtedness except the refunding bonds in the amount of $872,370.

The judgement further states that all items of indebtedness effected by the plan which have not been presented for exchange for refunding bonds within six months after date of judgement September 23rd. Shall be barred, and refunding bonds remaining in the comptroller's office cancelled.

The City of Ranger was released from all of its debts dealt with in the plan of composition that was established by interlocutory judgement November 7th, 1940. The judgement authorized the State comptroller to cancel Ranger refunding bonds series 1940, in the amount of $71,840, which were unused on the date of judgement, September 24, 1941.

Cooks Recommend
Sage In Beans,
But I Say No

We clip from the Ford News which is of the nicest on our exchange the following: "Some cooks recommend sage in beans, but I say no. Keep things out of beans that don't belong in beans" well don't leave out that piece of fat pork. Gosh, how we used to enjoy just plain beans when we came in from our truant jaunts into hills in the old days, "a footbark" And you take a drive in your Ford up through the hills west from Tongaxole, and then home home to a supper of beans like we used to have 'em, and you will find life about perfect.

Joe Davis Dies In California Last Thursday Morning

All Car Accidents
Must Be Reported
Within 48 Hours

The last Legislature passed a law requiring persons that are in car wrecks to report within forty-eight hours. Under the law any person who is involved in a car wreck is required to make a written report upon proper forms to the department of public safety within 48 hours after the accident. The reports are to be made whether or not an officer investigated the accident.

Forms are available at department of public safety offices, police headquarters, automobile clubs, garages and service stations. The reports are confidential and cannot be used in any trial civil or criminal.

182 Bates Cotton
Ginned In Putnam
To Saturday Night

The Putnam gin had turned out 182 bales to the close of business Saturday night. Cotton has been coming in a pretty good rate this week, the gin turning out 126 bales which was an average of 21 bales per day for the week. Picking has been rushed this week with quite a number of farmers catching up or getting over the first time. However, the cotton is fast opening and they first picked is pretty white again; but most of the farmers will wait for it all to open before going over it again. Cotton is selling around fifteen cents per pound with seed selling at about $50 per ton.

Luke Below of the Scranton community was in Putnam Friday afternoon on his way home from Baird.

Dayton Seaton of the Atwell community was in Putnam Friday afternoon for a short while.

B. F. Russell was in Putnam Saturday morning looking after legal business in the justice court here.

NOTHING LIVES ON THE DEVIL'S TRAMPING
GROUND; CAROLINA

HIGH POINT, N. C. —The devils tramps nightly in the flatlands of North Carolina. He picked an eerie spot in western Chatham county here long years ago and to this day he tramps there every night.

Baloney? Maybe. And then, maybe not. There's testimony stronger than the awed natives' hushed voices when they talk of the subject. It is the testimony of the earth itself.

Travel 10 miles from Silver City to Harper's Cross Roads and you'll come to a narrow country road. Start down it. A scant 50 yards farther on you'll come upon a smooth cleared path forming a perfect circle about 40 feet in diameter. The circle is surrounded by trees. But the path which forms the circumference is bare as a billiard ball and inside the circle nothing grows save wire grass.

As far back as man can remember that smooth, clear circle, free of vegetation, has stood there. As far back as man can remember nothing has grown inside the circle but wire grass. All efforts to transplant that grass elsewhere have failed. All efforts to plant any vegetation on the smooth circle have also failed.

Any obstacles placed by day across the path forms the circle's circumference are gone the following morning. Natives will tell you that hounds of hunters approaching the spot will suddenly hesitate, tremble and flee. In the area no birds sing, there is no wild life of any kind. These phenomena have been witnessed a thousand times—they say.

The tales are not new ones. They have been handed down from generation to generation. There have been many attempts to explain this mockery of nature. Some say Indian braves tramped down the section in great war dances, generations of moccasin-clad feet stamping the earth barren. Some say it is the burial place of the great Indian chief Croatan, watched over by Indian gods. Some believe that buried pirate treasurer is under the circle and many have dug for it in vain. Some say a sugar mill once stood there and horses' hooves beat down the earth in treading a circle to turn the machinery.

Yet there is no logical explanation of this circle — the path in which no vegetation will grow despite repeated efforts to plant it.

When the state highway commissioner recently erected sign pointing to the "Devil's Tramping Ground," pranksters placed a placard at the site with the ominous inscription: "The Devil Tramps Here." Who can say for sure that they are wrong?

EXPERTS LISTS
TEN POINTS IN HOME BUILDING

MADISON, Wis. — Ten major considerations must be worked into the plans for a home if it is to be a sound project for a buyer or a sound addition to the city in which it is built, Paul E. Stark, former president of the National Association of Real Estate Boards said.

"It must be built so as to give the buyer the advantage of every cost saving now possible through advance in materials or building methods and fitted to people's needs for modern living and to their current ability to pay," he said.

"It must be related correctly to the building site, fitted in character to the neighborhood, sound in construction and planned for modern family living.

"An architectural design that will be permanently pleasing is a major consideration. The home should have its production cost in the right relation to the expected use value over a sufficient period to amortize the investment.

"I would locate it in a neighborhood that is attractive for residence. It should be assured against any serious change in the character of the neighborhood.

"Other considerations include adequate transportation, public services, business services, schools, churches, libraries, recreational facilities and community life."

Miss Pearl Crosby of Abilene visited in home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Crosby Monday night returning early Tuesday morning.

Many a woman's notion of affluence is merely enough spoons to entertain her card parties without borrowing.

HIGH-DENSITY PLYWOOD
Of great importance to Texas timber owners are the new discoveries in the use of plywood in increasing quantity by various industries. Airplane bodies and wings are successfully fashioned and pressed into a tough light structure replacing steel and aluminum needed for other defense uses. Popular birch, redwood, beech and other veneers, cemented with soybean and other glues, are giving utmost satisfaction. There is no inherent reason why Texas airplane manufacturers should not be considering using Texas gum, hickory, cottonwood and probably post oak and blackjack oaks in shaping airplane bodies and wings. The wood is impregnated with a liquid synthetic resin, which may be made from casein of soybeans, casein of milk or phenol-formaldehyde resin. Latest experiments are in the direction of impregnating wood with weak acids under pressure and shaping the semifluid mass into desired patterns which on cooling retain their shape. The entire field of wood plastics and plywood is being critically examined by federal and private researchers in an effort to serve national defense.

MOST BEAUTIFUL GIRL... HALF SIZE

"Most beautiful girls in the world" applies not only to the chorus in Earl Carroll's Vanities when it is presented in the Auditorium for the duration of the State Fair of Texas. —October 4 to 13, 1941—

DEHYDRATED FOODS

One effect of the national defense program is expected to be a spur to the development of dehydrated foods. Of course, the drying of food for preservation is not new. The frontiersman had his jerked buffalo meat or beef, and some of the Army posts in the West nearly a century ago imported from the states dried vegetables that swelled to amazing proportions when used in soup or stew. But the modern dehydration of vegetables has recently awakened new interest.

Last year eight firms operating seventeen plants had a total output of nearly 5,000,000 pounds of dehydrated vegetables. This included pieces that could be rehydrated as recognizable and flakes and powder to be used in soup. The vegetables involved included potatoes, carrots, peas, beans, tomatoes, parsley, celery and spinach. California has been the leader in this industry, but there seems no reason why it should not be adopted extensively in Texas.

One of the big packing companies is preparing to market soon powdered eggs, which should prove useful to many housewives, as well as the commercial bakers, candy makers and mayonnaise manufacturers who now use them. The powdered eggs to be sold in household-size containers will be in three forms: albumen, yolks and mixtures approximating that of whole eggs. These eggs are evaporating almost instantaneously and are nonperishable. All that delays their general marketing apparently is the demand of the whole available supply for use in American Army camps and for shipment to Great Britain.

TUNG OIL CROP PAYS

America's largest tung oil crop—5,000,000 pounds— is now being crushed in the eight mills of the Southern States along the Gulf Coast from Florida to East Texas. Quality of the crop is excellent, federal inspectors report, and farmers and planters are well satisfied with their returns of $60 a ton, while mill operators got 30c a pound for the oil. To reduce the moisture content of the nuts before they can be economically crushed a new type of storage bin is being encouraged, made of 2x4 scantlings on the order of a corn crib with a projecting, slanting roof to keep off the rain. Nuts are penalized when moisture content rises above 13 per cent. Addition of zinc and manganese to the tung roots helps to increase yields and prevents a disease called bronzing. Gulf Coast tung nut meats of the present crop contain 61 to 74 per cent oil or 29 to 32 per cent for the entire tung nut.

Carroll to Bring Comics and Beauties

Through these portals pass the world's most beautiful women. This sign has hung over the stage door of Earl Carroll's productions for years and has made him famous as the world's greatest picker of feminine beauties. Pictures of some of his beauties who will grace the boards of the State Fair auditorium, Oct. 4 to 19, are shown above. Also two of his featured comedy acts.

JEWELL ELLIS HAS CLOSE CALL HIT ON HIGHWAY

Jewell Ellis has narrow escape from being seriously injured. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis has narrow escape from being seriously injured. He and Mrs. Ellis had been to Baird on account of illness of their baby and on their return when they had gotten about half way home they stopped and Mr. Ellis got out of the car and stepped out to a hole of water to wet his handkerchief to wash the baby's face, and in some way he failed to see a truck coming from behind and stepped out in front and was hit by the truck and knocked down on the pavement briding him more or less all over his body. Tuesday he was carrying his right arm in a sling, however, he did not think his arm had been broken as Dr. Griggs had made an examination and did not think any bones were broken but had not been x-rayed.

BALJ. PLAYERS MERE SOFTIES TO OLD TIMER

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah — The baseball fans who use to yell their throats out for Josh Clark in the majors some 25 to 30 years ago should see him now. He's calling 'em for the Pioneer league and he says the modern day ball player is a sissy. "They're gettin' soft, I tell ya," Clark says. The veteran saw service with St. Louis, Boston and Cleveland in the majors and was 21 years with Dreyfuss at Louisville in the American Association. "Why," says Clark, "in baseball today if the runner is slidin' into base and he spills the fielder, it's a race to see which fellow can get up first and dust the other off. In my day things were different." Clark says he gets a kick out of being the umpire. When he calls a player and the player begins the usual history as an excuse, Clark just draws off and says — "Listen, son, I was listening to that same excuse 20 years before you were even born. Take your cuts, or get off the field." He took up umpiring in 1926 and says he is going to stick with it until he is "lalled on strikes."

DEFENSE A BIG JOB

Forty miles of continuous cotton cord, hand-tied with more than 181,020 knots, were required to manufacture a gigantic net used by one American company working on defense. The huge net will be used to hold "blimp envelopes," or gas bags, during their original inflation preparatory to flying.

The reward of a thing well done is to have it done.—Emerson.

CROSS PLAINS WHEN NOT EXPECTED

Here's one to rattle your boot heels. Cross Plains most confirmed bachelor, Cleve Callaway, will trip to Hymen's altar in the very near future with a Comanche lady. The date has not been learned, however, friends say it won't be long.

ACIDS INCREASE CROPS

The Swedish and German Governments are experimenting with acids applied to seeds, especially grain, to increase yield per acre. The Soviet Government for several years has reported success with indole acetic acid applied to various seeds at planting time, resulting in increased yields of wheat, rye, barley, soybeans, vegetables and some fiber crops, such as hemp. Good results have been obtained also when the plants were sprayed with either a weak water solution of indole acetic or naphthalene acetic acid.

THE AMERICAN'S CREED

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign States; a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice, and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes. I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it, to support its Constitution, to obey its laws, to respect its flag, and to defend it against all enemies.—William Tyler Page.

fastidious newly-married ladies of the town kneads bread with her gloves on. This incident may be somewhat peculiar, but there are others. The editor of this paper needs bread with his shoes on; he needs bread with his pants on, and unless some of the delinquent subscribers of this old rag of freedom pony up before long, he will need bread without a thing on, and this town is no Garden of Eden.

GOLD HUNTERS BROUGHT FIRST COWS TO TEXAS

Coronado, the Spanish explorer, noted because of his tremendous "wild goose chase" 400 years ago, left on the plains of Texas something for posterity more substantial than the Seven Golden Cities of the Cibola, which, incidentally, he failed to find.

According to the new Texas Almanac, published by the Dallas News, it was he who brought the first cattle to Texas. These, possibly, with the cattle driven to the early missions around San Antonio were the progenitors of the famous Longhorns whose hardy traits are bred into the present fine ranch animals.

In the number of these, Texas is the first ranking state of the Union, according to the census of 1940.

Screen Doors, Wire, Galvanized Corrugated Iron, Roofing of All Kinds, and anything to build everything

A good while back, the question was asked, Has any reader ever seen a boxball alley? The only responses came in the form of another question, what is a boxball alley?

It is—or was, as apparently there aren't any, any more—a 'gaffe' similar to bowling except that instead of 10 pins, there were five; and the pins were flat like paddles and had a rod running through the middle so you only flipped them out of position instead of knocking them galley-west; and they could be reset merely by pulling a lever; and the ball used was a lot lighter and smaller and—therefore—easier to handle, and you could roll flat-footed instead of making a running start. And you could hit not more than two pins at a time.

You got three rolls and, if you swept the board, you got an extra roll and could score as much as 30 in a frame—there were seven frames, or innings. Ninety was a good score and anything over 100 was very good.

When I was a small boy, my father's health was frail and he bought a boxball alley and installed it in a long tent. I ran the place, keeping score, collecting the money and frequently taking part in the game. I should have been a good player because there were periods in the morning and along in the middle of the afternoon when there was no patronage and so there was plenty of time to practice. I guess I was just about the champion boxball player of those parts. Modesty is all right but there is no use carrying it to ridiculous extremes.

The boxball alley saw service in several towns, among them Uvalde. It was located just across the street from where the big garage owned by Ross Brumfield (hunting and fishing associate of former Vice President John Garner) now stands. That spot was then occupied by an ice cream stand.

The cones in those days were cooked while you waited. The attendant poured out a little batter and, when it was done, he coiled it around a wooden cone-shaped pattern to give it the right shape, and then put in the ice cream. Cones in those days had flavor and freshness and people actually ate 'em. Personally, I'd as soon consume a piece of beerboard as one of the present-day cones.

I was one of the best customers the Uvalde ice-cream cone stand had. Incidentally, two Mexicans bought cones one day, carefully ate the ice cream and then handed the empty cones back, thinking they were some kind of new-fangled, gingo dish.

But what I started out to say, boxball would be a good game to revive.

Well, the Legislature did it—met in special session, accomplished the job and went home, all in 11 days—an example of democracy functioning at its best. It proves what can be done by harmony and co-operation. Governor Coke Stevenson demonstrated that there is a steady hand on the helm of the ship of state. It was a real emergency that brought the Legislature into special session as most of the counties were threatened with a heavy increase in taxes to pay bonds that the State highway department had received the benefit of, and the State had on hand the money to pay the bonds. It was a fine piece of work done by the legislators and Governor, it is agreed on all sides, and now with that emergency met, observers see nothing on the horizon to make another called session necessary.

Someone has said: "If we could get religion like a Baptist experience it like a Methodist, be positive about it like a Disciple, be proud of it like an Episcopalian, pay for it like a Presbyterian, propagate it like an Adventist, and enjoy it like a Negro—that would be some religion!"
