Five Per Cent Salary Tax
May Be Levied For Arms

WASHINGTON, March 13 (AP)—Congressional fiscal experts, casting about for new revenue sources to help pay for the $7,000,000 British aid program, were reported considering today the possibility of imposing a 5 per cent tax on the weekly pay of most of the nation's workers.

If such a 5 per cent "earned income" tax, should be levied, that amount would be deducted for the government each week from the pay envelopes of a large proportion of job-holders. Thus a worker now receiving $40 weekly would get, instead, $38 and a tax receipt for $2. Small wage earners—possibly those receiving $25 weekly or less—would be exempted.

Although it was emphasized that this proposal was merely in the discussion stage and might never mature, responsible individuals who have been studying the plan said they had received estimates that a 5 per cent levy of this nature would raise $3,500,000,000 yearly.

Acknowledging that the proposal might arouse a storm of protest from wage earners, advocates said it would have to be accompanied by commensurate increases in taxes upon incomes from investments, rentals and other sources so that there could be no discrimination.

It would entail, they pointed out also, a reversal of previous administration policy of easing taxes on wage earners as much as possible and for that reason was expected to elicit little support at the treasury or White House.

O'Daniel Seeks
Anti-Strike Law

AUSTIN, March 13 (AP)—Efforts to pass immediately a bill prohibiting strikes and lockouts were made in the house of representatives today shortly after the bill was personally submitted by Governor W. Lee O'Daniel.

The house refused to adjourn or recess although several speakers urged delay to permit public hearings.

AUSTIN, March 13 (AP) — Asserting that any labor violence during the current national defense emergency was entirely out of place, Governor W. Lee O'Daniel asked the legislature today for quick enactment of a law prohibiting strikes or lockouts in defense industries without 60 days advance notice.

The governor, who had been in Corpus Christi yesterday for dedication of the large new naval air base there, went before the legislature personally to deliver the message.

The recommended bill also would prohibit the use of more than two pickets at any one plant and make unlawful "the use of force and violence, or threats thereof, to prevent any person from engaging in any lawful vocation."

"I am wholly opposed," O'Daniel declared, "to those academic 'liberals' who seek to show by scientific percentages that only a small percentage of our national defense factories are idle on account of strikes. I am reminded of the old saying that:

"For the want of a nail the shoe was lost,
For the want of a shoe the rider was lost,
For the want of a horse the rider was lost,
For the want of a rider the battle was lost."

The address won a standing ovation when the governor concluded. House and senate members and the gallery audience had listened intently.

O'Daniel said that "we owe a duty to these noble mothers of Texas and other states whose sons are steadily advancing toward the front."

"I do not intend," he stated, "that they shall be short a gun or a drop of oil for that gun, or anything they need, be it large or small, and be it only one-one-thousandth or less of our whole national defense production. If this is an all-out-defense program, let us quit quibbling about percentages, let us make it 100 per cent, with no industries shut down which are indirectly or indirectly contributing to our national defense program."

Hearings on the naval appropriations bill, introduced today in the house, disclosed also that four additional sites for such bases yet were to be picked in the Louisiana-Texas Gulf Coast area.

WASHINGTON, March 13 (AP)—Airplane manufacturers delivered 972 planes during February, a decrease of 84 from the January total.

William S. Knudsen, director of the office of production management, announced the figures today and said that of the February deliveries 879 planes went to the British and to the United States army and navy. He did not disclose how many the American armed services received, nor how many of the planes were combat craft and how many were other types.

McCasland Marks
Up High Score

TAMPA, Fla., March 13 (AP)—Harry W. Reeves, one of the ace marksmen of the Detroit police force, yesterday captured the 32 calibre crown in the National mid-winter pistol championships at the Tampa police pistol range, when he had an aggregate of 867, a total 13 points higher than the 1940 winner.

Other high scorers included L. F. McCasland, Big Spring, Tex., 848.

COWS RESPOND TO MUSIC AS SUNG BY LAWRENCE TIBBETT

SEATTLE, March 13 (AP)—Lawrence Tibbett met an amateur music lover today who agreed with him that classical music has charm for cows.

Or possibly it should be chronicled, in reverse, that the amateur music lover found a famous baritone who agreed with his theory on music and the dairy business.

Arthur John Herbert, professional chauffeur for Tibbett on the latter's appearance here for a concert, told the singer of the ecstatic reception of symphonic music by cows being milked at a large farm near here.

"Why, Mr. Tibbett," said Herbert, "when they listen to a Bach air they sturdily give and give and give! Heaven only

Roosevelt And Defense Heads
Discuss Labor

New Federal Board
May Arise To Handle Problem

By The Associated Press
President Roosevelt conferred today with Secretary Perkins, and William S. Knudsen and Sidney Hillman, director of the office of production management, on defense labor problems.

Stephen Early, presidential secretary, told reporters the White House conference was called for a "further study on the question of labor in relation to national defense," but he said he could not amplify that statement.

The president recently suggested that the administration might set up a labor board to adjust all labor problems of major significance arising in connection with the defense program.

No details of what they had suggested were announced but Miss Perkins told reporters that the idea of mediation board was taking "definite" shape.

Hillman said several propositions were under consideration, including boards with 11, 7 or 5 members. He added that no names of prospective members had been brought into the conference with the president, which he described as "just a discussion of principles."

Another major development today, in New York, was rejection by the nation's soft coal operators of CIO union demands for a blanket $1-a-day wage increase. The operators proposed that the present contract, which covers 450,000 miners, be extended another two years.

The present contract, expiring March 31, provides $6 a day for miners in the north and $5.90 in the south.

Firemen Battle
$3,000,000 Fire
In New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, March 13 (AP)—An estimated $3,000,000 worth of foodstuffs and choice whiskey burned in the biggest fire in recent years here which today left a block-long section of the Bienville Warehouse Corporation, Inc., a mass of charred debris and fallen brick walls.

It required intensive efforts of 350 firemen and 35 fire companies three hours to bring the spectacular blaze under control and save buildings on surrounding blocks from destruction. Many of them were damaged by heat and flames which at times leaped wide streets to the dense warehouse section of the old French quarter.

The fire burned all night and was still smouldering at midnight, while firemen roped off the section and continued to play streams upon burning sacks of sugar and fallen debris.

Among foodstuffs destroyed were a revised estimated 200,000 sacks of sugar of 100 pounds each valued at about $4.75 per sack, together with a half million dollars worth of whiskey and large stores of coffee, rice, canned goods and cylinders of gas used in air conditioning.

Eight firemen were slightly injured in fighting the blaze.

19 Trainees
Leave 18th

Nineteen trainees will leave Big Spring on March 15 for one year's military duty under the selective service act as Howard county's share of the state's quota. Of this number, one man, Fernin Penner, is a transfer from New Braunfels.

City General
Fund Balance
Shows Drop

Payments for land pending sale of the $25,000 airport bond issue hammered the city's general fund cash balance down to $1,413 at the end of February, the regular monthly report of H. W. Whitney, city comptroller, showed Thursday.

At the end of the month a total of $23,117 of the general fund had been tied up in the land purchase in order to have required space ready for the CAA-WFA expansion program at the port.

Sale of the bonds will mean reimbursement of the fund in the amount of purchases for the port. General fund revenue from all sources reached $15,649 for February, of which $45 was in current taxes, $1,688 in delinquents and $1,043 in paving contracts. The latter item cut the outstanding paving balance to $28,385.

Water billed to consumers amounted to $8,965, a decline of $13 from January and $568 under the amount for February of last year.

Expenditures, exclusive of the airport land purchases, included $1,021 transferred to the interest and sinking fund, and $19,177 for operating purposes and capital outfit, being $3,989 less than the budget allotment for the month.

For the first 11 months of the fiscal year expenditures aggregated $244,978, under the budget by $9,860. Thus, it was almost a certainty that the budget would be underrun by a substantial amount when the fiscal year ends March 31.

For the month the airport showed the only sizeable over-run, it being $1,220 above allotments for the period. For the year the fund was under. The NYA center expense of $335 was over since no budget appropriation for this purpose had been made.

In non-tax revenue funds, the swimming pool and park system unit saw its balance drop to $46 with revenues of $162 (all from golf and locker rentals) against expenses of $116. Cemetery revenues were held to $10 against expenses of $6, leaving a balance of $1,375.

One-Armed Man Saves Self
Leg Broken While Alone In Woods

BLACK DIAMOND, Wash., March 13 (AP)—A dramatic story of how a one-armed man lay in the woods with a broken leg, fearing death in a fire he had started to draw attention, was related here today.

The man was John Crivello, 30. He fell while patrolling a water line. A pistol in his pocket discharged, breaking his leg.

Air Offensive
By English Is War's Largest

New Types Bombers
Probably American,
Take Part In Raids

LONDON, March 13 (AP)—Swarming over the continent from Boulogne to Berlin and from the low countries to Norway, the RAF has launched its greatest offensive of the war. The British declared they had been freed of worry over plane replacements by passage of the United States' aid to Britain bill.

British planes sped across the English Channel this afternoon to follow up "very successful" raids yesterday and last night on Berlin, industrial plants at Bremen, naval shipbuilding yards at Hamburg, airdromes in Norway and the Netherlands, and at Ostend, Belgium.

With new and more powerful bombers thrown into the assault, a well-placed source declared today that as a result of passage of the British aid bill, "we now are able to launch a really offensive war."

Britain, he added, is in a position to open up with everything she has because she does not have to worry now about where she is to get more war equipment or how she is going to pay for it.

"We were not able to risk exhausting our reserves before because we had quite frankly reached the point where we just didn't have the money for replacing on a cash-and-carry basis," the informant added. "It kept us penuriously defensive."

His assertion was borne out further by the fact that, within 48 hours after President Roosevelt signed the bill, the British also counter-punched German night attackers with hordes of new night fighters, heavier barrages and secret weapons described only as "other devices."

Tremendous fires and explosions were declared by the air ministry to have been started at Berlin, Hamburg and Bremen and a German destroyer was reported torpedoed in the Skagerrak, arm of the North sea between Norway and Denmark.

Matching the massive offensive operations, informed sources said Britain now was prepared also to fill the skies over England with night fighters to fend off the Luftwaffe's destructive dusk-to-dawn assaults.

The effectiveness of the reinforced defense set-up was demonstrated by a one-night record last night when at least nine German bombers were shot down as they attacked the Mersey estuary, important shipping area concentrated at Liverpool.

Further proof was offered in the declaration that the ratio of one bomber downed out of 39 heretofore had been reduced now to a one-to-20 ratio.

At Bremen, it said direct hits were scored on "a target of great importance" in the industrial area of the city and that at Hamburg "many fires and explosions" were started in shipyards and the industrial section.

"In addition to the older type of aircraft of the bomber command, several new and more powerful types were again in action and carried very heavy bombs."

(These may have included new four- and five-engine American-made bombers which have been flown across the Atlantic by the British.)

R. D. Garner Dies
After Brief Illness

Successing to a brief illness, Raymond Denton Garner died in a local hospital at 5:15 o'clock Thursday morning. Funeral services are pending arrival of relatives.

Garner, who was 20 years old, was born April 29, 1920 in Delta county, coming to Big Spring about five years ago. He was employed by the Big Spring Metal and Iron Works.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Edna Garner and daughter, Valois, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Garner, Lake Creek, Tex., a brother, Charles A. of High Rolls, N. M., and a sister, Susie, of Watson, Ark.

Sterling County Boys Enter Calves
In Big Spring's Livestock Show

Big Spring began to turn on the steam Thursday for its fourth annual club boy livestock show—one that promises to be smaller in numbers but better in quality.

Entry lists were still at a low figure with only Sterling county definitely committing itself. H. P. Malloy, county agent at Sterling City, advised he would have two calves and eight lambs shown by his boys. Martin county is sending over a batch of drylot calves and for the first time Fisher county 4-H club boys are entering the show. Neither of the latter counties have listed entries, but their participation is a settled fact.

Howard county, of course, will have many entries. Dawson may have a few, and Glascock county is almost sure to have several animals in both the lamb and calf classes. Borden county may have some animals.

The show this season, for the first time, is being restricted to drylot animals in the calf classes. The show will be held in the Howard county warehouse, scene of the last year's successful affair. Prize awards will total approximately $160.

R. M. Milhollin of San Angelo, district supervisor of the soil conservation program, has been named judge of stock, according to an announcement by livestock show officials.

1,500 Schoolmen
To Convene Here

With hotel reservations and pre-convention surveys indicating a near-record attendance, the city prepared today to entertain between 1,500 and 2,000 school administrators, teachers and trustees here Friday and Saturday for the annual gathering of the West Texas Teachers association.

W. C. Blankenship, city school superintendent, anticipated at least 1,500 would come from the 26 counties in the district (comprised of the 30th senatorial district plus Glascock and Mitchell counties). In addition, Scurry county was prepared to send its administrators and teachers and delegations were expected from Midland and points west.

Over the association territory Friday was to be a school holiday. Big Spring schools, of course, will be dismissed Thursday afternoon until Monday.

General sessions will be held in municipal sessions will be held in the municipal auditorium, and will be open to the public. Banquet meetings will be limited only to the capacity of the halls. Besides the assembly sessions, there will be a series of sectional meetings.

Education's part in national defense and democratic security will be stressed in almost every phase of the conclave.

Among outstanding speakers will be Maj. Gen. Claude V. Birkhead, Camp Bowie, commander of the 36th division; Dr. George S. Counts, New York, of the Columbia university teachers faculty; Dr. A. J. Stoddard, superintendent of the Philadelphia schools; Jeff Williams, Chickasha, Okla.; Dr. L. A. Woods, Austin, state superintendent; Dr. W. B. Irvin, Lubbock, president of the Texas State Teachers association; Dr. A. W. Birdwell, Nacogdoches, president of Stephen F. Austin State Teachers college; Robert A. Manire, state director of agricultural education; Dr. Barry Holton, Dallas, Southern Methodist university; Dr. Archie Jones, Austin, Texas university; and Dr. Doyle Jackson, Texas Tech.

Luncheon affairs will be held for these groups with the following presiding officers: Homemaking and vocational agriculture, Esther Sorenson, Texas Tech; administrators, Walter Travis, Floydada; primary, Mrs. R. M. Parker, Big Spring; intermediate, Mrs. Ivy B. Savage, Lubbock; music, Mrs. H. F. Atwell, Plainview; high school, F. T. McCollum, Lamesa.

RETURNS HOME
Mrs. A. Swartz returned to her home Wednesday from the Big Spring Hospital where she has been for the past week following injuries received in an automobile accident near Midland.

PRIVATE LIFE OF PRODUCER
AIRED BY LADIES WHO KNOW

NEW YORK, March 13 (AP)—Three attractive young ladies from Hollywood told the federal court yesterday about Joseph M. Schenck's costly entertainment and costlier gifts.

The government accuses the film financier of deducting the cost of such entertainment and gifts from his tax returns for 1935, 1936 and 1937 as "business expenses."

In all, for these items, other similar ones and alleged gambling winnings, Schenck is charged with having evaded tax obligations by approximately $412,000 during the three years on a total income of $2,000,000.

Heading the parade of witnesses was a milk-coated Grace Fogg, a twice-married professional dancer, who testified

House Subcommittee Takes Up Seven Billion Aid Appropriation

Floor Debate May Begin On Next Monday

WASHINGTON, March 12. (AP)—With speed the keynote, congress started work today on the biggest peacetime appropriation bill in the nation's history—President Roosevelt's request for $7,000,000,000 to produce "the tools of defense" for Britain, Greece and China.

The measure started its legislative journey before an 11-man house appropriations subcommittee which has passed on the bulk of this country's multi-billion dollar defense plans since the collapse of France last spring.

Although the magnitude of the aid program was enormous, its announcement created few ripples on Capitol Hill. One informed legislator said that the size of President Roosevelt's request had a definite purpose—"to demonstrate that Uncle Sam means business."

This congressman, who participated in the conference at which the request was drafted, reported that originally the plans were to ask only about the present amount in cash and the other half in authorizations. Subsequently, however, it was decided to seek the full $7,000,000,000 in cash, he said, because of the psychological effect that might have on the axis powers.

Secretary Hull was the first on the list of high administration officials called to appear before the house appropriations subcommittee for brief, secret testimony. Rep. Woodrum (D-Va.), the acting chairman, said the state department head would be followed by secretaries Morgenthau, Stimson; Knox; Gen. George C. Marshall, army chief of staff; Admiral Harold R. Stark, chief of naval operations; and William E. Knudsen, defense production chief.

Woodrum said he planned to close the hearings Saturday, if possible, so as to bring the bill to the house floor for debate early next week.

Remember Speck Williamson, who used to scoop 'em up around shortstop back in the days when Big Spring had a red hot semi-pro team? He and Mrs. Williamson are visiting here, taking time out from their trip from Rock Island, Ill. to El Paso where he is manager of the El Paso baseball club.

Can't tell just what the police will run into next Wednesday a pleading voice enticed officers to a place on Runnels street. There a frightened negro told how he was afraid because another negro, one Rufus, was waiting for him. Officers accompanied him past said Rufus and to the safety of his home.

Then later they had a woman appear at the station with a request that she be locked up to guard against a good husband whipping at home. The request bore the distinct odor of spiritus frumenti, so officers obliged her. Not long afterwards, they made a call to a house where neighbors complained a man was abusing his wife. She told officers never mind, but at 1 a. m. Thursday she threw in the sponge. They threw the offending swain in the calaboose.

The Rev. J. E. Shebest, pastor of the Methodist church, Loraine, and district missionary secretary, will deliver the missionary sermon.

There will be a fellowship supper at 7:45 p. m. The Rev. H. A. Dooley is pastor of the Courtney Methodist church.

Jailed Addicts To Miss Opium 'Spiked' Coffee

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah—Narcotic addicts usually suffer considerable torture when they are jailed and drugs are denied them. But in Salt Lake City's jail numerous known addicts remained serene, apparently far from unhappy behind bars.

When Police Chief Reed Vetterli, a former G-man, began an investigation, he discovered jailers were obliging prisoners by dropping out to obtain them an occasional cup of coffee.

The coffee was obtained from a Chinese restaurant — and it was heavily spiked with opium.

Detectives raided the restaurant and found a large quantity of the drug.

Greeks Repulse Big Fascist Drive

ATHENS, March 12. (AP)—Dispatches from the Albanian front today said that the large scale offensive presumably ordered by Premier Mussolini himself from field headquarters had failed before powerful Greek resistance.

An earlier report said that Mussolini had given his generals until Saturday to "do something."

The Italians, dispatches from the front said, have been unable to gain a single inch of ground and in the last six days their losses unofficially have been placed at more than 10,000, including 2,000 dead. These figures do not cover the 3,500 prisoners listed by the Greeks.

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE

Many of those gnawing, nagging, pinched backaches people blame on colds or rheumatism are often caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved when treated in the right way. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 quarts a day.

If the 16 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. This poisonous matter starts backaches, rheumatic pains, loss of gas and energy, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sensations show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 45 years. They give happy relief and will help the 16 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisons out waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

THE RECORD... Facts That Concern You

A few weeds grow in every garden

Among the thousands of decent brew-abiding beer retail establishments in America there may be a few disreputable "joints."

While it is the brewers' responsibility to brew good beer and the retailers' responsibility to sell beer under wholesome conditions, nevertheless the brewing industry is concerned about these undesirable places and wants them cleaned up.

We want them cleaned up because they endanger your right to enjoy good beer... and our right to make it.

We want them cleaned up because they endanger the 31,165 jobs and $21,076,183 payroll created by beer in Texas since re-legalization. Beer contributed $2,273,968.64 last year in taxes in this state.

These benefits are worth preserving. You can help us, if you will, by (1) patronizing only the reputable, legal places that sell beer and by (2) reporting any law violations to the duly constituted law enforcement authorities.

Elimination Of Limps Nears As Medicos Advance

RICHMOND, Va., March 13. (AP) Modern surgery was declared today to offer almost complete elimination of deformities resulting from broken bones.

Dr. Walter G. Stuck and Dr. Charles E. Venable of San Antonio, Texas, told the Southeastern Surgical Congress today that by the use of modern techniques there is little reason for persons to emerge from a hospital with a bad limp or inability to use a hand or arm normally.

Forecasting the possible use of the new methods in military surgery of compound fractures as well as in accidents in civil life, they declared that by the use of the new metal vitallium for splinting and nailing bones together and the sprinkling of the open compound wounds with sulfanilamide complete recovery has been attained in 90 per cent of the cases treated.

Vitallium is a metal alloy which has come into widespread use in the treatment of fractures because it does not cause damage to the bone and in many cases the nails and screws used to keep the broken bones together have been left in place even after the bones have completely united.

In operating on a compound fracture, the Texas surgeons declared the wound is cleaned thoroughly, the bone is put back into normal position and nailed, screwed, or plated together, and then dusted with sulfanilamide before being sewed up.

Crop Conditions Generally Good

AUSTIN, March 13. (AP)—Crop conditions in Texas generally are favorable, the United States department of agriculture reported today.

"Soil moisture ranges from slightly below normal in western panhandle counties, through ample in western, central and extreme southern sections, to excessive in the greater remaining portions of the state embracing the major part of the cropped areas," the department said.

Additional damage was caused in wheat fields of the western panhandle by wind and dust storms March 2, but light rain and snow brought relief, the report continued.

"Data were almost at a standstill and much in need of sunshine."

Preparations of fields for spring grains has been delayed.

Practically all winter vegetable crops and early spring plantings have been adversely affected by cool weather and wet fields.

Early spring range feed prospects were said to be exceedingly favorable, and cattle were making good gains except in the eastern part of the state. Sheep also were doing well. Some hog cholera was reported in several eastern and southeastern counties.

Turkey production in Texas will be on a slightly lower level in 1941 than in 1940 if producers carry out intentions, the report added. Texas turkey production in 1940 was estimated at 3,536,900, about eight per cent less than in 1939. In 1938 production was 3,285,000.

Dollar's Worth Of Stone Makes Walls Of $60,000 Ranch House In Crane County

By TONY SLAUGHTER Associated Press Staff

The Glen Allen ranch home in northwestern Crane county, headquarters for the 35,000-acre Allen ranch in Crane, Ward, Winkler and Ector counties is one of the most palatial in all West Texas, yet the material that went into its walls cost only an even dollar.

The home is valued at $60,000, with its elaborate furnishings and spacious rooms paneled in pine. These dollar walls are made of red sandstone blocks quarried near the Pecos river at the turn of the century.

The blocks were from the Ector county courthouse at Odessa. When county commissioners made plans to build their new modernistic concrete and steel courthouse, they had to get rid of the old public building.

They called for bids. Only one was received. It was for $1 and the commissioners accepted the lone offer.

The home is known to West Texans as Casa Loma, or the house on the hill. There isn't much of a hill but it is quite an upgrade for the flat cat-claw covered plains country.

Casa Loma is 30 miles west of Odessa on the Bankhead highway. Unusual for a West Texas ranch house is the front lawn of thick Bermuda grass where native lizards and horned toads sneak through a hedge to bask on the green carpet of sod in a bright West Texas sun.

The hedge keeps the hundreds of white face Herefords, the 30 registered bulls, stock and saddle horses and a small herd of buffalo from trespassing to a range animal's paradise.

Plans for Casa Loma were drawn by the late Mrs. Allen. Allen's son-in-law, Bud Williams, a Rice engineering graduate, was the architect and Allen was the contractor.

The home is 82 feet wide at the front. It has two baths, a living room 24x28 feet, a dining room 16x16 feet, a kitchen 16x18 feet, a bedroom 18x25 feet, another bedroom 16x25 feet and Allen's den, which is also a bedroom, 14x30 feet.

All of the rooms except the den, are paneled in pine, some painted and others stained. The den is rustic with native rock as the wall, house.

In each room and in a spacious hallway, Allen exhibits his collection of oxen yoke, cattle brands, used in the early days of the west, and numerous pieces of hard made wagon iron found near the scene of an Indian massacre at a water hole called Flag in Ward county.

Two of the large oxen yokes were brought to the home by friends from Lufkin. A small calf yoke hangs over the den fireplace. In the early days a small yoke was placed over two calves' heads, their tails were tied together, and they were turned into the pasture, so they would become domesticated.

Among the Allen collection are matates and minsons from the Davis and Diablo mountains. Also in the den is a huge home made iron rim from the oxen wagon found at Flag Mill, now a watering hole on the Earl Vest ranch nearby, and a muzzle loading rifle, bullet mold and powder horns brought by friends from Knott county, Ky.

Many iron fire brands of pioneers in this section are in the collection. Among the old irons that line the wall are the "W" brand used by the Johnson Brothers about 1890 on the Pecos river, and the H. I. Pegasus buckle brand from the Odessa country.

To add color is a large collection of sun glow glass. The glass is purple, darker than amethyst, and it took 30 years of direct rays from the West Texas sun to color the clear glass to the darkest colors.

There's always a welcome awaiting visitors at Casa Loma. Mr. and Mrs. Williams live with Mr. Allen. Mrs. Williams, a daughter, is the official greeter, and her autograph book of visitors contains names of celebrities from coast to coast. She's never too busy with her young son, Bud Jr., to stop and show visitors what West Texas can do with material that cost only $1.

Fabulous Pay In Hollywood Limited To Few

HOLLYWOOD, March 13. (AP) — Want to be a movie star? It's a profitable business for a chosen few, which could pay you up to $300,000 a year. Or, even if you're a featured player, you might earn less than $50.

The financial uncertainty of an acting career in Hollywood—even if you are out of the extra class—is graphically illustrated in a survey by Dr. Leo C. Roeten of the motion picture research project.

His findings, mentioning no names, are published in the current issue of Screen Actor, magazine of the screen actors' guild. Dr. Roeten's study involved 800 of the guild's approximately 2,000 class A members.

The survey showed: The highest salary paid during 1939 to a single individual was $300,000; the lowest "less than $50." Two thousand dollars a week, and up, was paid to 6.1 per cent of those polled; 42.7 per cent earned $500 a week or less, averaging $3,048.

Actors have a better chance of making big money than actresses. Fifty-eight per cent of those in the $2,000 and up class are males. Sixty-one per cent of those earning less than $250 weekly were actresses.

Pull the Trigger on Lazy Bowels, with Ease for Stomach, too

When constipation brings on acid indigestion, stomach upset, bloating, dizziness, gas, coated tongue, sour taste and bad breath, your stomach is probably "crying the blues" because your bowels don't move. It calls for Laxative-Senna to pull the trigger on those lazy bowels, combined with Syrup Pepsin for perfect ease to your stomach in taking. For years, many doctors have given pepsin preparations in their prescriptions to make medicine more agreeable to a touchy stomach. So be sure your laxative contains Syrup Pepsin. Insist on Dr. Caldwell's Laxative-Senna combined with Syrup Pepsin. See how wonderfully the Laxative-Senna wakes up lazy nerves and muscles in your intestines to bring welcome relief from constipation. And the good old Syrup Pepsin makes this laxative so comfortable and easy on your stomach. Even finicky children love the taste of this pleasant family laxative. Buy Dr. Caldwell's Laxative-Senna at your drug store today. Try one laxative combined with Syrup Pepsin for ease to your stomach, too.

Music Study Club Has Program On Neo-Classics

Ultra modern music and the neo-classic methods were discussed by members of the Music Study club when they met Wednesday at the Settles hotel with Miss Elsie Willis as leader.

Mrs. King Sides played "Brouillards" by Debussy and Mrs. Omar Pittman played "Little Chimesmen" and "The Sailing Boat Reflected in the Pond," from the twelve short piano pieces on the twelve tone technique by Krenek.

Mrs. Harry Hurt gave "Berenice" and "Bolero" from "Once Pieces Enfantines" by Casella. Miss Willis gave the selections, "Prelude in C Major," and "March," from "The Love of Three Oranges" by Prokofeff.

Plans for music week to begin May 4th were discussed. Others present were Mrs. R. E. Blount, Mrs. R. L. Carpenter, Mrs. D. W. Conley, Mrs. V. H. Fiewellen, Mrs. H. G. Katon, Roberta Gay, Mrs. J. P. Kenney, Mrs. J. H. Kirkpatrick.

Mrs. Bernard Lamun, Mrs. L. S. McDowell, Mrs. G. H. Wood, Mrs. Herman Williams, Mrs. A. Holmberg, Mrs. F. J. Gibson.

Have heard more compliments on Mrs. K. H. McGIBBONS' window at her home than we just thought it ought to be passed along. She has a large double window on the front of her house fitted with shelves and filled with little vases, figurines, and plants. Folks driving by always stop to look. She lives at 108 Cedar Road.

Ran into Mrs. DOUGLAS ORME downtown and she introduced us to her guest, Mrs. C. S. EDMONDS of Fort Worth, who is visiting her and Mrs. C. S. EDMONDS, JR., here for a few days.

Met up with Mrs. SAM PETTY at a party the other night and she looked awfully nice. Had on a beige and brown coat and her accessories were beige.

Up and about after an appendectomy is Mrs. VORDA TAYLOR. She looks just fine and says she feels like a million.

Little BOBBY BRYAN, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. BRYAN called me up today to tell me he was going to Stanton, by bus, and that seemed to be the most important thing in the world. He was plenty thrilled and could hardly wait to get off.

Talked with Mrs. GERALD ANDERSON and she tells me her son, DOPEY, who is a student at McMurry College in Abilene is now taking flying lessons with the CAA.

If the women of the Senior High P.T.A. try to sell you a magazine this week, you'll know that they are working on a drive to raise funds for the children. They voted to take this method at an executive session the other day.

Stanton P-T.A. Elects Its Delegates

STANTON, March 13 (Sp1)—The P.T.A. met in regular session Tuesday night in the home of Mrs. V. M. C. Jones, presiding and elected delegates to attend the P-T-A. conference to be held in Big Spring, the first week in April. Mrs. Earl Powell, Mrs. Arlo Forrest, Mrs. Sam Wilkinson, Mrs. A. R. Houston, and Mrs. A. W. Keisling will be representatives.

Officers for next year were elected and include Mrs. Earl Powell, president; Mrs. Arlo Forrest, vice-president; Mrs. A. R. Houston, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. H. C. Burnam, 3rd vice-president; Mrs. James Jones, secretary; Mrs. Edmund Morrow, treasurer; Mrs. P. L. Daniell, publicity; Mrs. A. W. Keisling, historian.

Town Enjoys Prosperity Under Communal Project

WARE, Mass.—This town of 8,000 persons faced ruin three years ago when its principal industry, a mill company, moved south. Undismayed, the townspeople adopted the slogan—"The town that can't be licked"—and banded together in a communal enterprise under the name of Ware Industries, Inc.
Four new industries located in the town last year and two already there doubled their space. Payrolls have tripled since organization of the project. The 962 stockholders recently received 8 per cent dividends totaling $3,807. Officials reported a $27,000 surplus after taxes and other local 1941 costs had been anticipated.

Committee In House Favors New Measures

AUSTIN, March 13 (Sp) — Two bills reaching the house of representatives' working calendar today forecast controversy reminiscent of oldtime legislative battles over the hoary prohibition issue.
Intended to make dry counties drier, the proposals, one limiting a doctor's liquor prescriptions to 100 for 90 days and the other abolishing prescription liquor sales entirely, were recommended for passage by a committee yesterday after a public hearing.
The house already has placed in its $90,000,000 omnibus tax bill a provision levying a 50-cent tax per prescription and estimated to yield $3,486,000 annually.
Argument overwhelmingly favored the bills but one witness asserted it would increase bootlegging and another declared the prescription limitation might handicap physicians fighting an epidemic. Still another expressed doubt the legislature would abolish prescription sales.
Also expected to arouse debate on house floor consideration was a committee-approved bill which would put a crimp in an old Texas custom—running for one public office while holding another.
The proposal would prevent a person elected or appointed to office for more than four years seeking another post before expiration of his term. It was endorsed by Railroad Commissioner Jerry Sadtler, defeated candidate for governor, who told the group he had learned a lesson and favored a statute thus "protecting the taxpayers."
The senate finance committee heard a prediction that unless the state provided for certifying eligible workers to the federal government, WPA projects in Texas would collapse. The group was considering a proposed appropriation of $950,000 annually for the purpose.
Counties currently are performing this work but limited facilities keep them weeks behind applications, the senators learned. H. P. Drought, WPA administrator in Texas, asserted the federal government preferred to deal with a central state agency.
A scheduled house committee, hearing on a proposed constitutional amendment to abolish child labor, was cancelled after a quorum of members failed to appear. A large number of witnesses waited more than half an hour.
Approved in a senate committee was a bill readjusting truck registration fees to levy 70 cents per 100 pounds in excess of 10,000 pounds instead of the current $4 in excess of 22,000 pounds.
The house state affairs committee heard without acting arguments for and against bills extending for two years from Jan. 3, 1939, the date of state assumption of county road bonds. The hearing also covered a bill which would not extend the date and would compel counties to apply state, county and road district fund moneys to amortization of road bonds before putting it to other uses.
A bill regulating practice of chiropractic was sent to a house sub-committee after a hearing.

I. O. Shaw Forsan Trustee Nominee

FORSAN, March 13 (Sp)—I. O. Shaw, Humble Oil Co. employe, is listed for re-election as trustee of the Forsan common school district when the annual trustee election is held here April 5.

Shaw is finishing out his first term as a member of the local board. Other trustees are O. S. Butler, whose term expires in 1943, and E. J. Grant, whose term runs until 1942.

Soldiers, Too, Get Ill, Need Liquor Cure

(Herald Austin Bureau)

AUSTIN, March 13 — Just like many an ordinary citizen in dry counties, soldiers in Uncle Sam's army are susceptible to that peculiar illness which only liquor can cure.

Or so you would guess from a comparison of figures on prescription whiskey sales this year and last.

Take Brown county for instance. During the first three months of 1940 (before the establishment of Camp Bowie), the total number of prescription whiskey sales was 15,072. During January this year, latest figure compiled by the Texas liquor control board shows a total of 46,827 prescriptions for whiskey were issued in that county.

The trend is not so marked in Taylor county, where Camp Barkley is located, or in Tom Green county, where the new air school has been established. The movement into Taylor county was not under way until after the completion by the liquor control board. But the comparison shows that the "illness" was more prevalent this year in those counties too. Here are the figures:

Taylor county — 56,844 prescriptions in January, 1941; 90,888 during the three month period, January-March, 1940.

Tom Green county—11,073 in January, 1941; and 26,231 for the first quarter of 1940.

No figures are available on the amount of whiskey prescribed in each case, but a pint average is a good guess.

Sweetwater Airport Bids Are Requested

SWEETWATER, March 13 — Deadline for bids on the $190,000 municipal airport project here has been set for March 21, according to City Manager Roy Duckett. Contracts will be let immediately, he said, and work is due to start by April 1.

Grading, drainage, a concrete runway 4,500 feet long and 150 feet wide, beacons, fencing and other improvements are included in the plans. The developments will give the port a class three rating, next to highest given by the CAA.

Cash Prizes For Livestock Show Sought

COLORADO CITY, March 13 (Sp)—Canvassing of Colorado City business and professional men to raise funds to pay cash prizes in the annual Mitchell county fat stock show, March 24-25, was begun this week by the stock show committee of the Colorado City chamber of commerce.

The show will be held in the livestock pavilion at the Colorado City Frontier Roundup grounds with divisions provided for all livestock fed by 4-H club boys and FFA boys of the county. The pavilion is to be cleared for the show, it was said this week.

Dr. J. D. Williams is general chairman of the chamber of commerce stock show committee.

Approximately 112,000 umbrellas are turned in at the lost property office in London annually during normal times.

Co-Eds Win Right To Go Stockingless On Campus

EAST LANSING, Mich.—A ban which prohibited co-eds at Michigan State college from appearing on the campus without stockings no longer is in effect—but before it died, Elizabeth Conrad, dean of women, entered a final opinion on the records.

"Any woman who wishes to cheapen herself and the appearance of this institution," Dean Conrad said, "by not wearing stockings will be permitted to be a cheapening element in the college." Previous attempts to enforce the ruling, including "late minutes" and disciplinary notes, have been abandoned. Public opinion, it was said, killed the regulation.

Fish During Lenten Season Can Be Made Tasty And Different

Filet of fish, Waliki, with pineapple sauce, a suggestion for varying fish dishes during Lent.

By MRS. ALEXANDER GEORGE AP Feature Service Writer The things you can do with fish would fill a book. Remember that and you won't get into trouble with your family even though you include fish in your menus several days each week.

Here are some suggestions for varying your fish dishes during Lent:

FISH RING is smart enough to grace any luncheon or dinner table. Mix 1-2 cups savory white sauce with a pound can (2 cups) of your favorite fish—salmon, tuna, or white fish will do. Add 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon minced parsley, 1-4 teaspoon each

FILET OF FISH, WALKIKI

(See picture) 2 tablespoons butter 4 finely chopped shallots 6 filets of sole (or any other white fish)

1 teaspoon finely chopped parsley, salt and pepper 1 cup canned unsweetened pineapple juice 1 cup clam broth (canned) 1-2 teaspoon mixed herbs Pineapple Sauce 4 tablespoons butter 2 tablespoons flour 1 egg yolk Broth from fish

Spread a shallow baking pan with two tablespoons butter. Slice the shallots and place fish on top of them in the bottom of the pan. Sprinkle with parsley, salt and pepper and the herbs, tied in a piece of cheesecloth. Bring the pineapple juice and clam broth to boiling and pour over the fish. Place in a moderate oven (350 degrees) and simmer until fish is tender. Remove to a platter before sauce is prepared as follows: Melt butter, add flour and stir until smooth. Add broth from the fish (adding enough extra broth or water to make two cups) and cook at least five minutes, stirring constantly. Then add slightly beaten egg yolk and cook one minute more. Pour sauce over the fish, sprinkle with chopped parsley, and garnish with lemon slices, sprinkled with chopped parsley.

of celery salt and paprika, 2 tablespoons lemon juice and 3 eggs. Four into well buttered ring and bake an hour in a pan of hot water at about 325 degrees. Unmold and pile creamed peas, mushrooms or hard-cooked eggs in the center. Tuck in cress or parsley for garnish.

If it is luncheon you are worrying about, try FISH SURPRISE. Melt 1-2 cup sliced cheese in 2 cups cream, cream of mushroom soup—heat in double boiler. Stir well and add 1 cup soft crumbs, 3 beaten eggs, 1 cup cooked fish—shrimp or tuna suggested—1 tablespoon each chopped celery, parsley and pimientos, 1-4 teaspoon salt, a speck of paprika and 2 tablespoons melted butter. Bake an hour in buttered baking dishes or custard cups, in pan hot water at about 325 degrees. Serve in the baking dishes. This makes a fine dish to serve the bridge club or an informal get-together. The recipe is enough for 4 or 5.

Spiced fruit or jellied relish salad should accompany this. Melba toast will appeal to the calorie counters. A fruit tart, frozen dessert or fresh fruit and cookies will give the proper sign-off.

It's the sauce that is fishy in VEGETABLE SUPREME, a cold dish that is grand with hot coffee, corn bread or hot rolls for luncheon. Fill a platter with chilled asparagus, sliced cucumbers, cooked peas, sliced radishes and minced celery. Put cress around the edges and sprinkle all with a tart French dressing. Return to the refrigerator for extra chill. The secret of this main dish is its iciness.

For the sauce: Mix a cup of mayonnaise with 2 tablespoons chopped sweet pickles, 2 hard-cooked eggs, cubed, 1 teaspoon minced parsley, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1-2 teaspoon salt and 1-3 cup minced sardines. Cook FILETS AU VEGETABLES in one dish and save extra work for the housewife. Half-fill a buttered casserole with cooked peas and potatoes, cover with a well seasoned white sauce and top with fish filets. Sprinkle with flour, salt and paprika and spread generously with butter. Bake 25 minutes in a moderate oven, then scatter buttered crumbs over the top and bake 10 minutes. Cabbage salad is just right with this meal.

Refinery Market Shows Strength

TULSA, Okla., March 12 (AP)—The mid-continent refinery market showed continued signs of strength during the week with some companies reporting sales as much as 15 per cent over a year ago.

Increased activity because of the defense program was given as the major reason for the better demand. Some market sources were predicting higher prices might not be far away.

Prices for natural gasoline have stiffened a quarter to a half cent in Oklahoma and Texas in the past month, and reports from the Texas gulf area told of a better movement of gasoline coastwise.

The crude oil market was strong with a somewhat better demand being felt in Kansas and Oklahoma.

In the field, the Oil and Gas Journal reported 470 completions for the week, compared with 456 the previous week, and 521 a year ago.

A new pool opener near Guthrie, Logan county, Oklahoma, made 2,180 barrels of 47 gravity oil on test after completion. Northern Archer county, Texas, got a new pool, and California's Ingleswood field appeared due for more development following completion of a good well in the northwestern end of the field outside of present production. Extension of fields along the central Kansas uplift, continued by new wells at Kraft, Neidenthal and Silica. Illinois operators began developing some of the newly discovered small pools, such as Mount Carmel.

Herefords Average $475 At Ft. Worth

FORT WORTH, March 12. (AP) The 53 animals in the Texas Hereford Association annual criterion sale at the Southwest Exposition and Fat Stock Show brought an average of $475 yesterday.

Top price on females was $800, paid for two different animals, both purchased by Wheelock Hereford Farms, Corsicana, one consigned by Dr. Charles H. Harris, Fort Worth, and the other by Bianco Hereford Farm, Wimberly.

WHERE DEFENSE PROGRAM'S BIG MONEY IS SPENT

Marks Due Fall In Ft. Worth Track Show Sat.

FORT WORTH, March 13 (AP)—At least two records are expected to fall and a flock of others will be in danger here Saturday in the Southwestern Exposition track and field meet.

Most prominent in the anticipated assault will be W. L. Clapham of Oklahoma A. and M., and Jack Hughes of Texas, broad jumper and discus thrower respectively.

The record in the broad jump is 24 feet 5 1/2 inches. Clapham has already leaped 24 feet 11 1/2 inches this season.

Hughes holds the mark in the discus throw—163 feet in 1938. The Texas star flipped the plate 158 feet at San Antonio last Saturday.

The 100-yard and 440-yard dash records also appear in much danger what with Fred Ramsdell of Texas making 9.7 seconds in the century last week and Morris (Red) Barfield of Texas with a 48.8 quarter. The present marks here are 9.8 in the 100 and 49.5 in the 440.

The individual entry list for the five divisions has gone above 1,100 with new names pouring in hourly.

Smith's First In Pro-Am Tilts

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., March 13 (AP)—Horton Smith, who didn't have a victory because he was invited, was the lead-off man today to defend the national pro-amateur best ball title he won last year with Marvin Ward of Spokane, Wash.

He was teamed with Charles Sheldon of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., up against Ed Brooks of Marton, Fla., and Tommy Aycock of Jacksonville who shot a 70-67—137 in the qualifying round yesterday.

The medal was taken with a smashing 64-65—129 by Leo Walper, Washington, D. C., pro, and Dick Chapman, amateur from Greenwich, Conn., over a windy course.

Ftu Puts Dampner On Chisox Training

PASADENA, Calif., March 13 (AP)—Influenza has put a serious dampner on the training program of the Chicago White Sox.

Six members of Manager Jimmy Dykes' squad were down in bed today, victims of the flu germ. Latest to be felled was Mike Tresh, who barely had recovered from a head injury sustained last Sunday in a benefit game in Los Angeles.

Tito Schipa Likes Jazz, Is Kept In Right Place

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah.—Tito Schipa, tenor of the Metropolitan Opera company, says he likes jazz—but with qualifications.

Here on a concert tour, the noted Italian singer remarked: "I like jazz—but it is a little child that must be kept in its place."

The opera, said Schipa, will always be popular.

He's A Good Boy Now—Proclaims Boots Poffenberger

BATON ROUGE, La., March 13 (AP)—Elwood Cleus (Boots) Poffenberger, passed over in the draft because of his reputation although his 1940 record was exceptional, today joined Van Lingle Mungo as a reform candidate for the big leagues.

The former eccentric pitcher for Detroit and Brooklyn, now training here with the Nashville Volunteers of the Southern Association, drew up a simple one-plane platform.

"I'm through with that bad boy stuff," he said.

Like Mungo, the Brooklyn fire-baller who was banished Sunday from the Dodgers' training camp at Havana for breaking training and ordered to join Montreal, Poffenberger declared he was pointing for the big time again.

But the Baron has been away longer.

His troubles began with the Detroit Tigers in midseason 1938, when he felt he wasn't being given the right sort of chances.

He had won six and lost seven before Detroit shipped him to Toledo. He was sold in March 1939, to Brooklyn, where he pitched only seven innings in two and a half months.

In the middle of the season the Baron jumped the Dodgers in Cincinnati and went home. With accumulated fines totaling $800, he was banished from baseball in June.

Larry Gilbert, a master at handling problem players, obtained Poffenberger's reinstatement at Nashville, and last year with the Vols Boots won 28, lost 9, and was rated the best fielding pitcher in the Southern Association.

"It's up to the majors now," declared Poffenberger.

Nat'l Indoor Net Meet Delayed By Grapplers

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 13 (AP)—Professional wrestlers, well trained in numerous feats of strength—pushed the entire national indoor tennis tournament right out into the cold last night.

While some of the nation's brightest net stars quietly twiddled their thumbs, the grapplers took over the coliseum for their weekly show.

It was all prearranged, the tournament site having been rented to the wrestling promoters for every Wednesday night, weeks before the United States Lawn Tennis association awarded the meet to Don McNeill's home town.

The lull not only provided a much-needed rest for some of the worn-out athletes; it gave the townspeople a chance to find out what tennis players do when they aren't playing tennis.

"About all tennis players ever do is play cards and wave at girls," declared Jack Kramer, the Rollins college star from Los Angeles who teamed with Ted Schroeder of Stanford to win the national outdoor doubles crown last year. "But I'm not interested in girls."

Defending champion Bobby Riggs of Chicago told newsmen he hated Kramer as the tournament's dark horse. Kramer, seeded No. 5, is paired with Riggs in the doubles.

"He's kidding," Kramer assured all those within hearing. "I chaffered Mr. and Mrs. Riggs from Pensacola, Fla., to Oklahoma City, non-stop, but I'm not fast enough to win this one."

"This is a tough field," admitted Riggs, who meets Tommy Higgins, former Oklahoma municipal champion, in a third-round singles match today, adding that "I'm playing better tennis than when Frank Kovacs beat me for the Oklahoma indoor cup" last Tuesday.

Some of the visiting net stars spent the evening "just looking around." Others were sought for radio interviews.

McNeill, the national outdoor champion, took advantage of the recess to spend the evening in his home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McNeill.

All eight seeded players were still in the running today, each scheduled to meet one of the eight other survivors in the third round of singles play.

A single round yesterday reduced the doubles field to the quarter-finals. The four matches in that division will be squeezed in tomorrow.

Junior 4-H Club At Knott Holds Picture Program

KNOTT, March 13 (Sp) — The Knott Junior 4-H club met in the home economics room at the school, with the new sponsor Mrs. George Brashears in charge.

The program was on "Pictures for My Room" by Lora Farnsworth. She suggested buying pictures with sturdy plain frames and changing the picture subjects for variety.

There were fourteen members present and two visitors, Mrs. E. H. Jessup, Seattle, Washington, and Mrs. Brashears from Valley View.

The patrons of the Browns school met recently and organized a P.T.A. Officers elected were Mrs. Lee Castle, president, Mrs. J. H. Burrow, vice president; Mrs. R. C. Stark, secretary; J. E. Griffin, treasurer.

The Rev. Howard Hollowell, Methodist minister of Ackery, was speaker for the occasion. The meeting dates was set for the 1st and 2nd Thursday of each month.

Thursday, March 13, a district official will be at the meeting to help complete the organization. Fourteen members will pay their dues for affiliation with the state unit.

Mr. and Mrs. Reggie Castle of Corpus Christi have arrived here to spend several weeks visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ocie Shortes of Odessa were visiting Mrs. John Shortes, his mother, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, and other relatives the early part of the week.

C. C. Harris is suffering from a broken heel. The accident occurred when he fell through scaffolding while employed on army camp construction work at Abilene.

Mrs. Core James is reported to be on the sick list.

Mrs. Mattie Phillips of Graham, Mrs. Truett Thomas, Mrs. Earl Phillips and Mrs. J. W. Phillips of Big Spring were visitors of Mrs. Lee Castle Thursday afternoon.

Van Mungo Decides To Follow Orders

MACON, Ga., March 13 (AP)—Van Lingle Mungo, Brooklyn pitcher who was fined $300 for breaking training and banished from the Dodgers' camp at Havana last Sunday, is busily engaged in surprising everybody.

Ordered to join Montreal, Dodgers' farm club now training here, he said everyone expected him to "go to my Pageland, S. C., home and sulk."

"Well, I'm not doing that. I'm doing just what they told me to do at Havana." He added that his orders were to "remain here very quietly, say nothing and get in shape."

CARDS' PILOT ADMITS HE HAS GOOD OUTLOOK

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 13 (AP)—Manager Billy Southworth of the St. Louis Cardinals admits that he has more good-looking young players than he knows what to do with for the time being. "And it's a comfortable sort of problem to have," he adds.

The Cards, after a disastrous start, came like the wind in the second half of the 1940 National league campaign under Southworth's leadership. They are bound to be stronger this year, and a couple of their rookie pitchers come through they should give the champion Cincinnati Reds a genuine battle.

"We might be better," Southworth hedged, "but I'm not going to do any talking about beating Cincinnati—not as long as they have that pitching staff. As I see it, we're going to be in a three-cornered race with Cincinnati and Brooklyn, and I have a feeling Jimmy Wilson will whip those Chicago Cubs into a contender."

"I had an infield problem when we started training, but it's all straightened out now since this Steve Mesner from San Diego took over third base. He's a little over-weight, but he looks great. Martin Marston is set as short and Jimmie Brown will make us stronger at second. Johnny Mize, of course, will take over first when his hold-out is settled, but in the meantime I'm using Don Padgett there."

"Elias Slaughter will continue in right field and Terry Moore in center, with Ernie Koy and Harry Walker fighting it out in left. Walker (who hit 313 for Columbus last year) looks very good. Probably I'll use him and Koy to give Moore an occasional rest in center."

"We have the nucleus of a good pitching staff in Lonnie Warneke, Mort Cooper, Clyde Shoun and Max Lanier. And two of the youngsters look great—Spud Kist and Gene White. But lots of the young pitchers have a chance to stick and I am going to give them all a chance to make good."

Fairview Troop Takes Awards At Court Of Honor

COLORADO CITY, March 13 (Sp) — Members of Troop 76, Fairview, took the lion's share of honors at a court of honor held Tuesday night in the junior high school auditorium for the Lone Wolf Boy Scout district, which includes all of Mitchell county.

Rev. John J. Mueller, district court of honor chairman, presided.

John L. Dibreil, high school coach, presented Life Scout awards to Wendell Willis and Floyd Pond of troop 76, Fairview, a Star scout award to Noel Morgan of the same troop, and second class awards to J. F. Morgan, Jr., and J. P. Jameson, also of troop 76.

Merit badges were awarded to the following by James K. Polk: Francis Winn and Allen Bibby of troop 20, Colorado City; Aubrey Lee Benson and Audra Carey of troop 23, Colorado City; Bobbie Kidd, Wendell Willis, L. A. Strain, Jr., Floyd Pond, Charles Womack, and Noel Morgan, all of troop 76, Fairview.

Koch Named Asst. Baylor Grid Coach

WACO, March 13 (AP) — Bochey Koch returned today to the scene of his first football triumph—as assistant coach of his alma mater, Baylor university.

Koch, 33, last year was line coach at Tulsa university. Previously he had tutored the line at George Washington university, but staying out in the coaching profession in 1931 he had served as freshman mentor and line coach at Baylor, working two years at each.

Texas Wesleyan Tussles With San Diego Tonight In Featured Affray

KANSAS CITY, March 13 (AP)—San Diego State, always leaving things to the last minute like an income tax payer, is at it again.

The team which won three games in the final seconds last year while fighting its way to the title round of the national intercollegiate basketball tournament needed five extra minutes last night to defeat Culver-Stockton, 46 to 41, to reach the quarterfinals.

California's Aztecs jerked approximately 6,000 dribble daffy spectators out of their seats by squandering a four-point halftime lead and allowing the Canton, Mo., Wildcats to pull into a 38-all deadlock on Dale Love's basket 30 seconds before the final gun.

In the extra session Andy Echles, an all-America center in 1939 but a substitute in 1941, pointed a goal, Harry Hodgetts added another and Ken Hale got two.

Tonight the Californians won't dare relax if they wish to continue their record of always reaching the finals. Their opponents are the whitewind Rams of Texas Wesleyan who have outplayed every college foe they encountered all season.

The Fort Worth club downed Louisiana State Normal although the southern team's star forward, Charles (Red) Thomas won the crowd's approval by playing with his broken nose taped securely to his face.

Other quarterfinals games pit West Texas State, seeded No. 1, against Delta, Miss. State; Murray, Ky. Teachers against the Maryville, Mo. Teachers and Santa Barbara, Calif. State as the opponent for Appalachian State of Boone, N. C.

Golf Greats Tangle Sat.

MIAMI, Fla., March 13 (AP) — Golf's golden twenties will be resurrected Saturday when four old-timers, who have won every championship worth owning, get together in Nassau for a Red Cross benefit match sponsored by the Duke of Windsor.

Bobby Jones and Tommy Armour will team against Walter Hagen and Gene Sarazen in a four-ball match sufficient to fire the imagination of every man who ever swung a golf club.

During the decade beginning with 1921 and ending with Jones' 1930 grand slam, these four monopolized golf titles in a manner that probably never will be equaled.

Over that ten-year period they collectively won 77 major championships out of a possible 80.

Eighteen holes are scheduled at Nassau Saturday, with the final 18 Sunday. The duke will referee.

Tarleton's Title Bid Is Undecided

TYLER, March 13 (AP) — John Tarleton either will win the state junior college basketball championship or the race will end in a three-way tie when the Plovboys clash with Tyler college here Saturday night.

Tyler last night defeated Lee college of Goose Creek 80-53 to climb back into the battle for the title.

Lee now has two victories and two losses, Tyler has one win and two losses and Tarleton has two victories and one defeat.

Midland-Big Spring Golf Match Planned For Sunday

Plans are on foot to inaugurate the 1941 golf season at the Big Spring Municipal course with a Midland-Big Spring match on Sunday afternoon.

Nothing definite has been decided but Harold Akey, Muni pro, said Wednesday that he expected to receive confirmation of the proposed matches later this week. Akey said he expected ten to twenty men to enter from Midland from that city's country club.

Play probably will be based on three-point matches—one point for the front nine, one for the back, and one for the game, Akey said.

Akey announced that all local golfers who felt a yen to open up regular match competition are invited to get in touch with him. Probable players from here include Glen Hancock, Obie Bristol, Charles Watson, M. K. House, Gene Gardner, Tommy Neal, Sammy Sain, Arch Brimberry and Claude Wilkins, according to Akey.

'Miss Pearl' Votes Asked Of All Texans

"Why leave everything to the experts?" That's the sentiment expressed by the Pearl Brewery of San Antonio, in announcing the inauguration of a statewide poll of nine beautiful models from among whom one will be chosen to symbolize "Miss Pearl" for Texas.

The voting will start on March 1st, with the Pearl Brewery's official statewide announcement in Texas newspapers, on the radio, and by means of dealer display pieces of the nine entries. Attractive dealer displays, to be exhibited wherever Pearl beer is sold, will include large, full-color portraits of the nine contestants. Voters may secure special voting cards from their Pearl beer dealers, or may vote by letter or card and mail same to the Pearl Brewery, San Antonio. Cooperation of the voters is being asked to the extent that they express only one choice, and vote only one time. The polls will close April 10th, by which time voters are asked to have their selections in, to give ample time for counting and tabulating the final results for May 1.

A Detroit promoter went before Bowling Commissioner John J. Hettche to get an o.k. for a Buddy Walker-Nick Florentine match. "But who is this Florentine?" asked Hettche. "Who is he?" screamed the promoter. "He's only the guy who licked Jim Thompson, who licked Abe Simon who this commission says is good enough to fight Joe Louis right here in Detroit." Mr. Hettche passed.

Fire Department Operates Outside Law 65 Years

DES MOINES, Iowa.—The Des Moines fire department has been operating "illegally" for 65 years, but the city has taken steps to legalize it.

The fact came to light when the city legal department checked through original copies of old ordinances. It learned, surprisingly, that the 1864 ordinance establishing the fire department had never been signed by the mayor.

While rummaging the legal experts discovered several other unsigned ordinances. One was that of 1933, which set up precincts in Des Moines. However, this system was made safe from attack by the recent adoption of a new ordinance.

Alsop and Kintner—

French Threats Present Ticklish Situation

WASHINGTON, March 12—Two interpretations can be put on Admiral Darlan's threat to use the French fleet to convoy food ships if the British refused to permit wheat to enter unoccupied France.

Admiral Darlan, however, devoted his first talk with Leahy to an embittered denunciation of the British and all their works.

At that time he was outraged by the British decision that France was gone, and that it would serve no purpose to risk in France the air strength so desperately needed for the defense of the British Isles.

That Darlan hates the British, particularly after Mers El Kebir, Oran and Dakar, no one doubts.

The armistice status quo. Thus also it is strongly hoped that if the British can be induced to relax the blockade to allow passage to a stated number of Red Cross wheat ships, for supervised distribution in unoccupied French territory, Darlan will not carry out his threat to convoy French merchantmen through the blockade.

The question is vitally important. For if Darlan begins by convoying French merchantmen, he is almost certain to end by fighting the British fleet.

The truth is that at the state department and in circles close to the White House, the British are thought to have been far from active in their dealings with France since last spring.

Perhaps, she went on, "Roger has some silly notion about some new girl he's met. But he must think of the families—we must all do that. We can't have a scandal. We couldn't just tell every one that Roger had changed his mind and found he was fond of someone else. Things aren't done that way. No one would believe it. They'd think the most unpleasant things."

Chapter 16 RUINED DINNER

Roger's father leaned forward a trifle as if he would have spoken, but Emily turned her attention to Roger's mother and spoke in a harsh, hard, too bright voice.

"You and I were afraid of a fire that Sunday when we asked Roger to go down and send those picknickers away. Well, there's a fire all right but not the kind we were thinking of."

The sound that issued from her lips was supposed to be laughter—but she walked in it. It was dry, crackling, lifeless and bitter.

"Emily," Roger said sharply, "this wasn't necessary! I don't like you in this brittle mood. It isn't becoming."

Emily was laughing then beyond control, still that harsh mirthless sound.

"He doesn't like it!" she said. "He doesn't like it!" Then, the laughter suddenly ceasing: "What difference does it make now whether you like my moods or not?" she asked.

"Let's put all the cards on the table. We can't go on with this wedding. I don't want to marry a man who's in love with another girl. And you wouldn't go through with the thing even if I wanted to. So it's off."

"Emily," Mrs. Perry was speaking after a stunned silence, "you're overreacting. I'm sure you're making a mountain out of a molehill. Roger's always been in love with you. He can't change suddenly now."

Mrs. Perry looked across at Roger as if she expected him to agree with her. But Roger couldn't lie with Emily's clear eyes on him in that penetrating way. It was as if they were reading to the very depths of his soul. He had never lied to Emily.

"I think we must be sensible about this," Marcia Cosgrave's clear voice was as beautifully poised and as assured as it always was. There could be no real difficulty. There never was.

"Perhaps," she went on, "Roger has some silly notion about some new girl he's met. But he must think of the families—we must all do that. We can't have a scandal. We couldn't just tell every one that Roger had changed his mind and found he was fond of someone else. Things aren't done that way. No one would believe it. They'd think the most unpleasant things."

silence as it so often did when Marcia felt everything had been said that need be, and things would happen exactly as she wished.

"Does it make any difference what people think when lives are at stake?" Roger asked suddenly. Marcia looked surprised.

Mr. Perry had gone terribly pale, and looked as if he was going to be ill.

"Roger!" Gentle rebuke in Marcia's voice.

"This wedding must go on," Mrs. Perry said forcefully. "I won't be disgraced! I tell you I won't."

Emily looked at her mother. Her young face was emotionless.

"I'm sorry mother," she said. "I felt that way too until I'd seen the girl—Lovely. Her name is Lovely."

She paused on that as if thinking. "I thought we could go on with the wedding and I could just wait until Roger got over this. But after I saw Lovely I knew there was no use. Men don't forget girls like her."

"What do you mean, Emily—girls like her?" Mrs. Perry asked her voice tight and brittle.

"I mean," Emily paused thoughtfully. "Well, she's the kind of a girl who could flip a coin about the man she loves. Sporting. Don't you see you can't beat a girl like that? I went up there—"

Mrs. Perry's shocked voice cut the words short: "You went up there? You mean you went to see this—this person?"

"Of course. How can you fight something you don't know anything about?" Emily paused a moment for answer. All eyes were on her but no one spoke. She added: "Not that I'm fighting."

Still No End

She went on again after a little silence: "I went up there prepared to outclass her, to make her seem ridiculous, beneath us, not our kind and all that. And then I couldn't. I saw how cheap all that would be of me. We're not playing a game. This is life. Real life. Roger's and hers and mine. And she's real. She's got something. You couldn't put artificial social standards, and things like that, against it."

"But Emily you can't let us down this way. You're engaged to Roger. You're going to marry him. There was a note of distraction in Mrs. Perry's voice that brought Roger's eyes to her face in puzzled wonder.

"I was going to marry him, you mean," Emily said quietly and slowly. "An engagement is such a frail thing. I never knew how frail till I saw Lovely Days. There are other things much stronger."

"But Roger'd never—" Mrs. Perry's voice trailed off into delicate

Defense Costs Too High— Rep. Sumners Points With Alarm To US Debt

WASHINGTON, March 12, (AP) Members of the house sat in solemn silence as Representative Sumners (D-Tex.), speaking during debate on the naval appropriations bill, asked his colleagues to ponder the future this country faced in an ever-increasing national debt.

The sober-minded Texan told the legislators that there was no apparent effort on the part of the government to economize, that the time had come to "stop to think, and, thinking, to right about face."

Gravely, after noting that the cost-per-unit of defense preparations now were "astounding" compared to that of the World War, the Dallas congressman observed:

"We cannot know where we are going, but we know we are moving out from where we are and into a situation that nobody knows where the end is to be. There is one thing we do know. We do know—it seems to me that any body with any intelligence ought to know—that we are moving with tremendous rapidity toward actual contact with this war, x x x

"Nobody knows, nobody can know whether by the time we become an actual belligerent, if we should do so, this country will be the only country able to fight against those who may be making common cause against us. We ought to know that the rapidly with which by reason of these high costs of preparedness we are drawing upon the nation's credit is one of the most dangerous things that is happening in this country.

"All persons with any sense ought to know that. The credit of the nation in our situation, as I said one time before, is a great deal like the food and water which people put in their lifeboats when they put out from a ship.

"We have been running along here for ten years drawing on that reserve in peace times. There is nothing in the picture which does not indicate that those ten years are the best ten years we can hope to have in a long time within which to pay the current expenses of our government."

Acknowledging that democratic and republican administrations alike were responsible for the situation, and that it was a thing of concern to the American people and not a partisan matter, Sumners warned that an end must come of "this notion that the treasury of the federal government is inexhaustible."

He criticized himself and his colleagues for the attitude that "if you can get anything out of the federal government and bring that money into a community, you are a sort of public benefactor." Such an idea, he added, was not limited to any section or any business, but was a general attitude which must be changed.

Railroad Conductor Pays Taxes To 2 Municipalities

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah—Railway Conductor W. P. Hayes lives in Salt Lake City, sleeps in Ogden, and pays taxes in both cities.

Hayes is rounding-out 40 years of service for Union Pacific, and in all that time he's been shuttling back and forth between the towns.

Every morning he boards the Los Angeles Limited and rides to Salt Lake City. That takes an hour. Every evening he serves as conductor for the eastbound Challenger from Salt Lake City to Ogden—another hour.

The distance between the cities is 38 miles. Double that and multiply by 40 years and it's evident Hayes has traveled a lot in his time, even though he hasn't gone very far.

Hollywood Sights and Sounds—

Hitchcock Is Hurt: He's Been Typed

By ROBBINS COONS

HOLLYWOOD — Roly-poly, extra-chinned Alfred Hitchcock has been hit where it hurts. He has been miffed.

"There's no reason," he said, aggrieved, "why a director should be typed. Just because..."

Many critics took exception to Hitchcock's "Mr. and Mrs. Smith." Many were disappointed (as was this glibless bystander) that "Mr. and Mrs. Smith" wasn't a "Rebecca" of comedy, a "Foreign Correspondent" of laughs.

"Directors do get typed," said Hitchcock, "but there's no reason to it. Right now John Ford is tied to the soil and the sea. Ernst Lubitsch is labeled the naughty sophisticate. When Lubitsch does something a little different, like 'The Shop Around the Corner,' he's away from type and some people are disappointed. I do mystery and suspense, so I can't do a comedy. It's silly. I don't really care, of course—Mr. and Mrs. Smith' is going fine at the box-office."

Hitchcock undertook the comedy, he said, more or less as an interlude—or a prelude—to his present work, "Before the Fact," or "Fright" as they're now calling it. It is decidedly not a comedy. The "cattle" in it—Hitchcock delights in labeling his actors "cattle"—include Joan Fontaine, Cary Grant, Nigel Bruce and Bruce's wife, Violet Shelton, Clive Brook's daughter, Faith, and another pretty young English actress named Carol Curtis Brown.

"I hope," said Hitchcock of his new film, "you will help to spread the word that it is awful. That it stinks."

He was referring to the too glowing advance reports on "Mr. and Mrs. Smith." He would rather have "Fright" surprise by its virtues, if any, than be held up as perfect of its genre—vaunted perfection making such a perfect target.

Then, forgetting his miff and his hurt, Hitchcock turned again to the scene—in which Misses Shelton, Brown and Brook on the steps of an English country church have just discovered that Fontaine and Grant, who started to services with them, are missing. "Fright" is the story of a wife who suspects her husband wants to murder her.

After the fourth take, Hitchcock pronounced with genial acidity: "In all confidence I can assure you it is getting worse" and the company, breaking into laughter broke for lunch.

Hitchcock sets usually are like that, once the "cattle" business is made clear. Cary Grant, a first-timer with Hitchcock, was mystified for the first week, as he later confessed to Hitchcock. You'd be liked, too, if you were a top-ranking star and after you'd done a scene your director called to an assistant: "Run over to the westerns and get me a cowpuncher to handle these cattle. Joan Fontaine was initiated in 'Rebecca.'"

Each man enters from 10 to 20 pictures. Plaques and similar honors are awarded to the winning contestants. Though no money is involved, it is one of the most enthusiastically and keenly followed exhibits of its kind.

The script writer for the Kate Smith show is a girl—Jean Holloway. . . . There is a new restaurant in 2nd avenue that has three corners. "Walking stools" are chairs, and all the milk you can drink is free—if you order a plate luncheon. There is also an honor-system restaurant in 42nd street. You go in, eat what you want—all items are priced—then tell the cashier how much you owe her, pay it, and walk out. Nobody checks up on anybody.

Crosby Gaige, who used to be famous as a Broadway producer (his last hit was "Accent on Youth") is now best known for his miracles of food that he cooks up in the kitchen. He practices this in the garage-kitchen of his country place, near Peekkill, N. Y., writes about it in the newspapers and magazines of the world.

Man About Manhattan—

Photographers Have Trouble Naming Pix

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Tony Camerano sat facing a typewriter. His face was tortured by thought. Typewriters are a little out of Tony's line, but if you hand him a camera—that is another matter.

For Tony is one of the AP's crack news photographers, and, as all news photographers who belong to the Press Photographers Association of New York are doing now, he was sorting out the evidence of his work during 1940 for the 6th annual photo exhibit, to get under way during the closing days of March.

"What is the matter with you, Tony?" I ask him. He pointed to a stack of 11x14 news pictures—all beautifully printed on double-weight mat paper.

"Titles," said Tony, "it's titles. I'm having trouble."

He tossed me a picture of a blazing inferno on the Brooklyn waterfront—a lumberyard fire—which he had photographed last year. There were fatalities in that fire, if you will recall.

"What'll I call it?" This reporter was no help to him whatever. Finally he named it "Smoke clouds of death." Not bad. That is what they were. And a title was essential. All photographs must bear a title.

Another, perhaps the best sports shot he took all year, was a fist fight between Empire George Magerkurth, of the National league, and a Brooklyn fan. The story made headlines at the time, but the Brooklyn stories are always making headlines, and Brooklyn fans are always swinging. This unknown admirer of the Dodgers was incensed at one of Magerkurth's decisions. The Dodgers were playing Cincinnati. Finally the fan jumped Magerkurth, who, by the way, is very good with his fists. It is a fine informal shot of the many art, and Tony titled it "Lumps for the Ump."

Another of his sports specials was a close-up of Tony Galento and Max Baer in a hairy embrace, with Galento puffing pain and anguish and savageness through his puffed lips. This was called "Blow Me Down."

In all, some 150 New York news photographers will be represented.

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION

Notice is hereby given that the partnership lately existing between Dave Duncan of Big Spring, Howard County, Texas, and Fred Herchbach and John L. Herchbach of Dallas, Dallas County, Texas, under the firm name of AJAX DRILLING COMPANY, was dissolved by mutual consent on the 5th day of March, 1941, all parties convening and agreeing in the written instrument of dissolution that they nor none of them will use the name "AJAX" nor the name "AJAX Drilling Company" in any business venture in which they may hereafter become interested, either directly or indirectly.

The undersigned, Dave Duncan, has no connection with said company or the other parties named herein, from and after said date, and will not be liable for any debts contracted with or contracted in the name of said company, or in the name of or by E. Fred Herchbach and/or John L. Herchbach. All debts owing to said partnership are to be received by the said Dave Duncan, and all demands, except that of LUCY PRODUCTS CORPORATION are to be presented to him for payment.

Dated this 7th day of March, 1941.

DAVE DUNCAN.

ry stopped speaking and looked helplessly at Marla. And Roger felt that he had in her face more tragedy than should have been there.

"But a girl like that who'd come up to the country with a man," Mrs. Perry paused and then finished helplessly: "Men don't marry girls like that."

"Girls like that," Emily repeated the phrase thoughtfully. "Girls like that. Some things just don't seem to count. Oh, yes, I could say things about her being up there in the cottage—just coming up with Roger as she has; hard bitter things. But what good would it do me? No one answered so Emily repeated the question. "What good would it do me?" Still no one had an answer for her, so she said in a low tone: "And it wouldn't hurt her."

Old Peter continued to bring in the delicacies with which Amalia weighted her table for such occasions but no one ate very much.

Roger asked Peter for a second brandy after the coffee had been served. Emily looked at him, her eyes soft and gently again. She seemed to be saying inaudibly: "Don't mind so much. No one could help it. I don't hate you for it."

"Well," Amalia said as they left the table, "I didn't think I was asking you here for this. I thought it was going to be a happy occasion."

"I'm not your fault, Aunt Amalia," said Emily who seemed the most self-possessed of the little party. "It was a grand dinner. Amalia's bright eyes turned for an instant to Roger and then back to Emily.

"And I want you to know, Emily," she went on, "that this makes no difference in your being heir to half of all I possess. You may have to wait quite a while for it. We Coegraves have a way of living on. We can't let go of things when we should." Her eyes were on Roger.

Emily slipped an arm around the elderly little woman and kissed her cheek.

"Darling," she said sweetly, "I'd rather have you here than all of the money in the world."

Amalia was slightly embarrassed by the caress, so she was a little more brisk than usual when she turned to Roger and said: "And I hope Roger knows no one ever made a silk purse out of a sow's ear."

Roger was glad when Emily made the move to go and broke up the party. It was like her to do the thoughtful thing. In the hall he heard Mr. Perry's fretful voice saying again: "We should have told. There's been no point in all this covering up." And Roger was aware that Mrs. Perry shushed him effectively as she hurried him out.

In the car going home Marla said nothing. Roger felt a sort of silent sympathy emanating from his father. At the steps Roger hesitated. Instead of going on to the garage with the car, he swung around the circular drive and out into the road headed toward Crodin. There was hail in the night air for his troubled soul.

"Look, my pet," she said. "See what I've got!" Motioning to Joe. "See what I found in the bushes!" He's grand! Positively brilliant, darling! He can listen to me talk for ages and ages and never be the least bored!"

But Roger knew Joe was too stunned to react in any way. Love-ly had been cut from his life. It was like cutting the largest limb from an apple tree in spring and letting the sap run until the tree gradually died. Joe looked like that. Marla was talking again: "And isn't she stunning! A great big be-creature! I'm going to take him around and let all the girls see him!"

Something about it made Roger feel violently disgusted. He swiftly left the place.

As he turned from garaging his car a shadowy figure approached him. He paused, peering through the vague light.

"I waited up for you, Roger," Coegrave said simply to his son. "I'm sorry, Dad." And then they walked in silence to the house where the older man said: "Come into my study, Roger."

There Coegrave fumbled through the papers in a drawer that Roger knew had always been kept locked. Finally he found what he sought and turned to Roger.

Sadler Brothers Of Stanton Take Ft. Worth Show Honors

STANTON, March 13 (Sp)—Russell and Billy Sadler put another feather in their caps at the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock show in Fort Worth, winning two first and three second places as well as placing every calf they showed.

In the 4-H heavy class, Russell placed his calf, the Martin county champion, second. Another of his animals placed 30th and Billy's calf ranked 27th. Billy won 33 in the 4-H club light class.

Russell took first in the group of three calves fed by one boy and Billy won second, beating out entries from all over the state.

Virgil Sadler, father of the brothers, took first place in an open class with a calf that ranked fifth in the Martin county show, and second in another class with the Martin county fourth calf. The eight calves shown by the Sadlers at Fort Worth netted $168 in prize money. All Sadler calves shown were bred by E. B. Dickenson of Martin county.

Martin county boys still have 20 calves which they plan to show in three remaining West Texas events. Next week Elmer Anderson, Tom Estes and Billy Sadler will show calves at Sweetwater, and L. A. Baker, Leroy Baker, Marshall Yates and Tom Estes will show drylot calves at Big Spring March 25-26, and the remaining animals will be exhibited at the Sand Hills show in Odessa March 27-29.

France, and have made those judiciously.

For the first concession to be obtained at all, Lord Lothian had to go to London and use his personal influence. Last fall, when American diplomacy began to be aimed at keeping Vichy from too active pro-German moves, the state department urged the foreign office to allow the Red Cross to send milk ships and medicine ships for the French children. Through former ambassador to France William C. Bullitt, Lord Lothian was firmly converted to the American policy. In London, the ministry of economic warfare long resisted any concessions, and was only forced to give in when Lord Lothian entered the controversy in person.

Had Lord Lothian lived, further concessions might have been made before the situation became acute. Even now, however, always supposing that the American interpretation of Darlan's intention is accurate, there is an ample opportunity for sensible negotiation. All of which increases the likelihood of an American effort to make the British see the problem our way. (Copyright, 1941, New York Tribune, Inc.)

Georgia Co-Eds Favor Students In Uniform

ATHENS, Ga. — University of Georgia co-eds think "there's something about a soldier" and accordingly 60 per cent voted that the male students be required to take four years of compulsory military training.

The men, however, don't take to the idea with the zest of the females. Only 40 per cent voted for the four year training proposal.

Rain Shows Partiality In North Carolina Area

RALEIGH, N. C.—Towns having the heaviest and lightest rainfall in North Carolina are only 50 miles apart, a state conservation department survey showed.

Highlands, a mountain resort in western North Carolina, had the greatest precipitation, according to records covering 40 years, while Marshall had the lightest.

Pastors Pay Tribute To Dr. McConnell

Members of the Big Spring Pastors' association have paid a tribute to Dr. D. F. McConnell, First Presbyterian pastor, who succumbed here unexpectedly Monday.

Excerpts from the letter sent by the association to Mrs. McConnell follow:

"We feel his large physical stature had its counterpart in his strong, magnificent soul, devoted to right, kindness of words, a desire for God's endorsement, a gentleness that reminded us of the Apostle's words: 'For me to live is Christ, to die is gain.'"

"No member did more for the (pastors') association than did he. No member's absence would be missed more. He led the closing prayer at our last meeting and each member was deeply impressed by the prayer as coming from the lips of one that habitually walked with God..."

"We feel Dr. McConnell's time came when his labors were ended and God called him to his rest and reward. We shall miss his comradeship, fellowship and counsel. This loss to us is gain to him in the fellowship in the nobler band who shall be before the throne and serve Him day and night."

Tributes to his part in the association's work, which he once led as president, to his qualities of humility and wisdom were contained in the letter drafted by the Rev. J. O. Haymes, president, and the Rev. C. E. Lancaster, secretary pro-tempore.

Youth Kisses And Runs, Never Pauses For Second

DENVER—Denver police are on the lookout for a red-haired boy, about 17 years old, who's a kiss thief.

He darts up behind a pretty girl, claps her in his arms, gives her a kiss and runs.

The youth once ran between two girls and kissed them both before fleeing.

His victims report he is a silent red-haired boy, operating at night, who never kisses but once.
