BEST SOME THOUGHTS —

And it blew — and it filled the cracks and the crevices — and the ruts — and the floors and the cars — and the windows — and everything else around. That's the famous West Texas sandstorms.

They've been sneaking up at nights instead of in the daytime all this past week. We looked out our window one night, and we didn't see a thing. It was too sandy.

Just before the sand hit the other night we heard the spraying machine going to foul up the mosquito population. Then the sand hit with a bang. The mosquitoes joyfully rode on the wings of the sand and settled down to continue to populate Ropes, but the City Dads were determined. About two o'clock in the morning after the sand had blown to El Paso, they started the sprayer again, and there were few of the little pests who survived this second time around.

Each day we have had rain forecast, and each day the sun has won out. But Tuesday morning failed to dawn. It was cloudy. Then the clouds moved in, and as this is being written, it looks like we are in for it again.

Our poodle, Tony, is very unhappy this week, and has been pouting as our mother is dog-setting with Pete the poodle, Tony's cousin of Lubbock. He runs outside, digs a hole in the sand, which was formally the ruts, and buries his head. To top it all off, Pete got his favorite bone, and regardless of all the talk and reassurance, he could not be convinced that he was given a choicer bone to take the place of the well-chewed one.

If you don't think there has been madness at our house this week, you should live there awhile. We opened the refrigerator the other night to get some milk, and there lay the phone book. Figure our little daughter was keeping the numbers on ice until she returned.

There is also sadness in the Thomas household this week as our little grandson, Jeff, moved to Lubbock. Who ever heard of a daily life without the joys of a grandson after being exposed for a year.

Always had a horror of being called grandmaw, but can find nothing wrong with it now.

"Sides, we and the better half marked the 23rd year of marriage last Sunday. We're in agreement with the Ben Stephens' of Levelland — we'd just rather fight than switch.

Seems that time really has sprouted wings anymore. Every time we turn around we are tearing another page off the calendar. Here 1969 is half gone, and we are still dating everything 1965. We're not far behind.

We're beginning our 32nd year in the big City of Ropesville, and can't think of anywhere else we'd rather be. We feel that the advantages far outweigh the disadvantages.

Did you hear the version of this latest so-called music? When the daughter played her new record and asked her father if he had ever heard anything like it, he replied, "No really. Guess the closest thing to it I ever heard was when a big truck loaded with empty cans ran into another truck full of hogs."

Enjoyed an unusual and very welcome card from Mrs. Luphia Lane of Haskell this week.

Mrs. Lane has just returned home from a trip to New York City and Westfield, New Jersey where she had been visiting and seeing the sights. The card she sent came

Seniors Make Trip

THE ROPES SENIOR CLASS TRIP OF 1968-69

The Senior of Ropes High School left Friday night, May 23rd for their senior trip. Sponsors for the trip were Noel Dean and Betty Flowers, Sandra and Ronnie Ayers.

After so very many tiresome hours we finally arrived in Galveston around 4:00 p.m. Saturday afternoon. Everyone was assigned to their rooms and they hit the pool or the beach. It was very hot and humid there. Sunday afternoon we went to see the "250 Speed Classic" at Offatts Bay. We saw a good race and it was exciting also. Later on we went to see the Sea-Arama. We saw a porpoise show and the swimming mermaid swim among the many different fish in the big pool.

During our stay at the Galvez Hotel in Galveston Patty Duke was staying there while making a movie. Some of the boys had the privilege of having their picture made with her and talked to her.

Monday we went on a fishing trip. A lot of fish were caught by the students. Betty Flowers caught a big one. It was 19 inches long and a drum fish. This was very exciting since this was her first fishing trip. Mary McNabb also caught a drum fish. Russell Arp finally got a bite after so long a time and it was a small one. David Bradshaw caught the most fish of the group. He caught ten.

Tuesday, we went on a tour of Galveston in a small train. We saw very many old and beautiful homes on the tour. Then more playing and swimming on the beach and pool.

Wednesday morning we headed to Houston. On our way we stopped to go on a tour of N.A.S.A. Since the astronauts were back home we couldn't go in because of the debriefing. We arrived at the Sheraton-Inn Astro World Motel in Houston and decided to take the tour of the astrodome. This was very interesting. It is so big and such a beautiful building. This was the first time we ran into rain and when we went into the astrodome to take the tour we all got soaking wet before we got into the building. That night we had reserved seats for the baseball game between the Houston Astros and the Philadelphia Phillies. The Astros won the game 7 to 6 in extra innings. We couldn't watch the game for the scoreboard always lighting up with something funny all through the game. After the game we all went back to the motel and got ready for the Astro Grad Party at the Astro World Park. This started at 11:00 p.m. until 5:00 a.m. This consisted of all the graduating seniors and their sponsors that were the area of Texas. The estimated crowd was 3000 seniors. This was enjoyed very much. However, our group left a 3:00 a.m. and went to our motel and got some sleep.

We arrived at the Hotel Menger Thursday evening. Thursday night we ate at the cafe on the river and then took a ride on the river boat. Friday morning we all went shopping and to see the Alamo and other things of interest. We enjoyed swimming and lounging around the rest of the time.

Friday we started home at 8:00 a.m. We ate our breakfast on the road at Kerrville. We arrived in Ropes at 6:30 p.m. Everyone enjoyed the trip very much and will always be remembered as a trip with lots of fun and excitement.

EXTORTION CHARGES FILED AGAINST LEVELLAND MAN

Extortion charges were filed in Levelland last Thursday against a Spanish man identified as Jose Baize who was apprehended about 6:00 p.m. Wednesday evening by Hockley County Sheriff Wier Clem and Ropes City Marshal O'Neal Fox. It was the first such charges ever to be filed in the county.

The man was alleged to have written a threatening letter to a resident of near Pettit demanding $3,000 or he and his grandson would be in danger.

The letter, postmarked May 20, and mailed in Levelland, was turned over to Sheriff Clem.

Instruction in the letter said to deliver the money to a roadside park between Levelland and Whitarral, at 5:00 in a red box.

Shortly before 5:00 Sheriff Clem and Marshall Fox perked the Marshall's pickup, which is equipped with a radio at a farmer's house located near the park.

Two other cars were concealed north and east of the park. Deputies Mark Benton and Lupe Mandez with the Hockley County Sheriff's Department was stationed east of the park while E. W. Wright and Guy Swain of Sundown were north. It was shortly after 6:00 p.m. when Sheriff Clem and Marshall Fox made their move to pick up the man retrieving the box.

Baize was arrested and is now in custody of Hockley County Jail in lieu of a $10,000 bail.

It was reported the prison sentence for a crime such as this could range from five to 25 years.

BRIDAL SHOWER

Mrs. Bobby Rowland will be honored with a bridal shower from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. Thursday, June 5 in the home of Mrs. T. J. Redman, Jr. Everyone has a cordial invitation to attend.

F. W. Reeves, of Dalhart, was a very pleasant caller at the Plainsman office last Saturday. Said we had his zip code wrong. We checked. Sure enough! It was wrong, so we righted it.

Mr. Reeves said they were passing through, so we appreciate his thoughtfulness.

Another Year is Gone . . .

And another year has passed. With the publication of this issue of the Ropes Plainsman we are beginning our thirty-first year in Ropesville, and the thirty-first year of the paper under the ownership of some of this family.

In May, 1938, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Morris and four children moved to Ropes from Levelland, and took up the Plainsman on a mere shoestring. Through the years, it has grown into a shop that will equal any plant in this size town. (Being Ropes is the smallest town in Texas to boast a newspaper.)

The paper was first located on Main Street in a building located where Riojas Department Store is now. Later the family and plant were moved to a house on the highway in north Ropes, and a press was installed that printed the paper a half page at a time. All the type was set by hand, and most of the time the two halves of the pages didn't quite match.

A few years later, a small two room house was purchased for the printing shop alone. This was moved to the lot where this editor now lives, and the family moved to the home now occupied by Mrs. Troy

Morris. For awhile after purchasing the house for the printing plant, the type was still set by hand, but a little larger press was acquired, and a full page was printed at one time.

In 1944, the first linotype was brought into the shop. What a joy!

A whole line of type, none of it loose and liable to fall out, and it could just be melted instead of being thrown back into the cases.

A little later, the building where the shop is now located was bought, and the shop moved to town. A press which prints four pages at a time, and a folder, which was a real move toward progress. Pretty soon an automatic job press was acquired, and the work became easier.

In September of 1964, the Plainsman changed hands, a little bit. We bought the paper from our parents, while they moved to Levelland where he became editor of the paper there.

With our father's passing early in 1967, our mother worked at other places for a while, and is now back in Ropes helping on the Plainsman again. The past few issues of the paper would not have been possible without her help, as they have been larger than usual.

The plant is still growing, with the installation of a good linotype, and only recently an offset press was added for commercial work.

We've added about fifty years to our age in the past ten years, but thoroughly enjoy our work, the association with our advertisers, our readers, and our coffee drinkers.

With any kind of luck, the paper should be here another 31 years at least, an us, too.

Position of the Department of Agriculture on Payment Limitations as Proposed in the Findley Amendment to the Agricultural Appropriations Bill

The Department of Agriculture believes it is possible to design a sound farm program that limits the number of dollars that can be paid to any one farmer for programs following the 1970 crop year.

However, to make such a limitation effective, legislative changes are needed. With only the simple amendment that is possible in connection with appropriation bills, the so-called "snap-back" provision for cotton would come into effect. The cotton program would then become subject to a loan-and-redemption or a buy-and-sell-back arrangement that would increase costs while the large producers would escape the intent of the payment limitation.

A simple amendment to the appropriations bill will not suffice. The Department is ready to work with the legislative committees on basic changes in the legislation and has modifications to suggest.

The preferred time for considering these changes would be later in this session or early next session, when consideration must be given to the type of legislation that is to replace present laws. These laws are scheduled to expire after the 1970 crop.

Cancer Drive To Be In June For Ropes

An aura of hope pervades the American Cancer Society's offices. No claims of miraculous cancer cures are being made — or even predicted. But, nonetheless, there is a distinct feeling the battle against the dread disease is slowly and surely being won.

The reason for this hopeful feeling can be found in many areas. Last year, for example, the President was informed that the number of Americans alive and cured of cancer had grown to 1,500,000, a hundred thousand higher than the year before. To be considered cured of most types of cancer, a person must have been free from all evidence of the disease for five years after treatment.

Discoveries of new drugs have helped in the fight against leukemia; cancer of the blood forming tissues. These new drugs, together with more efficient utilization of earlier drugs, plus more specific techniques have helped a number of leukemia patients live beyond five years. This progress has convinced some scientists that a cure for leukemia may be found sooner than for many other types of cancer.

Other life-saving factors, the Society notes, are the increasing awareness by women of the value of the annual Pap test for uterine cancer and the slow but steady recognition by the public of the need for regular physical checkups.

These are but a few of the hopeful factors today which surround the whole subject of cancer. Yet, the battle still has a long way to go. Research must be intensified and carefully channeled, but there's a glimmer of light in the horizon. And we recommend the American Cancer Society's 1969 theme:

Help yourself with a checkup and others with a check.

The Cancer Crusade for the Ropesville area will be conducted in June. A house to house canvass is planned for the second week. Due to so many activities it has been impossible to conduct this drive sooner.

You are asked to mail or bring your contributions to the Plainsman office, should you be missed by those calling personally.

Your cooperation and donation to this very worthy and helpful cause which concerns all of us will be greatly appreciated. (It's also tax deductible!)

WHATSOEVER THINGS

—by Donald E. Wildmon I wish to dispute something you have heard all your life about the Galilean. And I want to do it in such a manner that you cannot possibly misunderstand me. I wish to make myself explicitly clear on the subject. I don't want you to think there is a misprint or that I don't mean what I say.

Now, with that as a foundation, brace yourself for the statement I am about to make. The Galilean did not come to get us into Heaven. There, now, I have said it. And I mean exactly what I have said. He did not come to get us into Heaven.

I know what you have heard all your life. I know what you have been led to believe. I know what some well-intentioned fellow has spent much time trying to tell you. But I still want you to know that this much is true — He did not come to get us into Heaven.

I had heard that this was the reason He came, to get us into Heaven. I had heard that all the days of my life. Every fellow on the radio, every fellow in the church building every fellow bringing me literature has been telling me that this was the reason He came — to get us into Heaven.

In growing up I read it in some of the literature. Becoming an adult I continue to read it in some of the literature. Some fellows have made an extensive search and have even listed the things I have to do if I want to go there. Without these things, they say, I can never make it to Heaven. Despite what they have wrote, despite what they have said, I still want to make one thing clear — He did not come to get us into Heaven.

Now somebody is heading to get their Good Book and are about to take pencil in hand and write and straighten me out. I already get quite a bit of their literature in the mail. Now I am about to be deluged wit hit. It will come in bundles. Letters telling me what I have to do, what steps are necessary, what rules I have to follow to get there. They are already quoting from the Good Book some words that they are going to put down on paper and help me get straightened out on this matter. But it matters not if I get ten thousand letters, it will not change the truth. Nor will it keep me from making one hing crystal clear—He did not come o get us into Heaven. You see, there is one fact that we always overlook. That is that we cannot get into Heaven unless Heaven first gets into us. And that is the reason He came — to get Heaven into us!

Memo From Mac:

R. B. (Mac) McAlister State Representative, District 76, Place 3

The long, hot summer of '69 will find us Legislators back in the saddle again, if present plans proceed. My guess is, on the morning of August 6th, we shall reconvene in a special session. This will follow the August 5th vote, when the people of Texas will have spoken, of the key Constitutional Amendments, including the annual session issue. It is well to remember, though, that when we meet and what we discuss will be up to Governor Smith. The most important amendment to be voted on August 5th, is concerning water.

We will be returning to Lubbock the week of June 1st and would like to visit with various groups in Terry, Hockley and Lubbock counties, when you desire.

Let me hear from you. —000—

TEXAS IS LEADER IN TORNADES

Texas is the Nation's leader in total number of tornadoes per year. In 1969, there were 140 tornadoes in our state. Knowing what to do when a tornado approaches may mean the difference between life and death for you and your family. A free circular outlining the seven basic tornado safety rules has been prepared by the Texas Department of Public Safety. For more information, contact your local city or county civil defense director.

Nola Knows
By Nola White

Dear Nola — How can I get rid of a person on the telephone without hurting their feelings?
(The Listener)

Dear Listener — Some people have a loose connection when it comes to the telephone. If talking too long is your friend's hang up, hang up.

Dear Nola — I, being a sophomore in college, assume that if I want to smoke it is my privilege. My parents don't particularly mind my smoking around them, but when relatives are visiting, they react violently. This has been a point of controversy in our domestic relations. Would you please take a side?

Put Out

Dear P. O. — Yes, but you won't like the side I take. Anybody who can walk a mile for a Camel can wait a silly millimeter longer. So smoke when your relatives leave.

Dear Nola — Our student council president can't talk clearly enough so that we who are members of the council can understand him. He mumbles and doesn't talk loudly enough. What can we do?
Eighth Grader

Dear Eighth — This year sit on the front row. Next year run for the office yourself.

Dear Nola — I have been friends with two very nice girls for a long time. Just lately these two girls have had a big disagreement and they really and truly actually hate each other now. They are always talking about each other around me, and it makes me feel bad because I want to be friends with both of them. The problem is how do I go about doing this without losing my friendship with either girl?
In the Middle

Dear Middle — Don't listen and don't talk.

Dear Nola — I have been married and divorced. I would like to date high school girls but the parents of the girls won't let the girls go out with me.

Ex

Dear Ex — Any man who has graduated from a bum marriage shouldn't date girls who haven't graduated at all. You need to find a hen, not a chick.

Dear Nola — I was invited to a private party and drinks were being served but I am not of age to drink. Should I drink or not?

Youth

Dear Youth — The law is like an egg shell; it's no good when it's broken. Don't drink 'til it's legal.

Dear Nola — I'm a guy who works hard and recently I hired a maid who does a good job but drives me crazy telephoning me to tell me what she does while I'm away. I am tired when I get home from work and do not want to be bothered by the phone calls. What should I do?
Hard Worker

Dear H. W. — The maid may be trying to tell you something besides how clean she got the floors. I'll bet you're marriageable and she's lonely. If she's good looking and you're interested, you might do like most men do — marry your maid instead of paying her.
