4-H Club Has First Meeting of the Year

The Ropes Starlight 4-H Club opened its first meeting of the new year with Scott Drake leading the pledge.

During the business meeting Pam Ream gave a report on Rally Day and Paula McCormick told about the County camp held at Lake Thomas. Marcia Ream gave the Council Report in which she reported that Hockley County 4-H Clubs would have a parade in Levelland September 30 at 2:30. This parade will help emphasize National 4-H Week.

A committee was appointed to work on the Ropes float. They are Pam Ream, Paula McCormick, John Mac Hewlett, Tony Streety, and Becky Carpenter.

It was announced our club would have a poster contest to be completed by September 20. The 4-H member may work as an individual or with other 4-H members of his family. The posters may be about National 4-H Week or ways that 4-H has helped you. When your poster is completed you may turn it in to Becky Carpenter.

It was also voted that our club would pull weeds in the yard of the Community Building next Saturday, September 16 at 9:30. 4-H members please come help. This building is made available for our meetings and we certainly want to help beautify the grounds.

ATTENTION BOYS!

Circle October 9th on your calendar, for that will be our next 4-H meeting and Glen Hewlett would like to talk to you about your animals for the fat stock show which will be held in March.

Those present at the meeting were Danny, David, Denise and Becky Carpenter, Marcia and Pam Ream, Paula McCormick, John Mac Hewlett, Tony Streety, Larry Shannon, Scott and Jerry Drake. Leaders were Assistant Agent Jean Smity and her husband Gay Smith, Mrs. J. C. Pointer, Mrs. John Ream, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carpenter and Glen Hewlett.

Also present were Mrs. Wanda Drake, Mrs. Shirley Streety, Melanie Carpenter, Monica Ream, Shebra Hewlett and Mrs. Glen Hewlett.

New Post Office To Be At Wolfforth

Plans to acquire a new post office building in Wolfforth, Texas were announced recently by Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien.

"The new building," Mr. O'Brien said, "is designed to carry out the Post Office Department's objective of a more efficient postal service combined with improved working conditions for our employees."

"President Johnson has asked us to exercise frugality in conducting our Governmental operations, and we are doing so. New construction, therefore, is being authorized only when it is demonstrated that the need is urgent and no other alternative is available."

The alternatives, Mr. O'Brien explained, would involve remodeling of the post office quarters or moving into another suitable building in the same community.

The building in Wolfforth will be located at the northwest side of 5th Street between Cedar Avenue and Delta Avenue. Preliminary plans call for 2,000 square feet of floor space, with an area of 5,500 square feet for parking and movement of postal vehicles.

The Postmaster General said the building will be constructed under the Department's Lease Construction Program, with the Government's capital investment limited substantially to postal equipment. While leased to the Government the building will remain under private ownership and the owner will pay local real estate taxes.

Plans and specifications for the new building, as well as bidding forms and other pertinent data, will be made available to prospective bidders at an early date, at which time the Department will advertise for bids.

The site option will be assigned to the successful bidder, who will purchase the land, construct the building and lease it to the Department.

Postal space in the present post office quarters will be available for other purposes.

Catholic Priest To Speak Sunday Night

This Sunday evening at 8:00 p.m. at First Methodist Church, the Reverend James Fitzgerald of the Christ the King Catholic Church in Lubbock will be the guest speaker for a Service of Witness and Prayer for Christian Unity. Such services are being held across the world in order that Protestants and Roman Catholics may come to understand each other better in sharing that which already unites them, their common faith in Jesus Christ. The service will include hymns, prayer, Scripture reading and a sermon by Rev. Fitzgerald.

All persons of whatever denomination are cordially invited to attend the service. Following the service, there will be an informal time during refreshments for discussion with the speaker and for questions. The intention of this service is not to hold up the doctrines of any church or denomination but to emphasize the brotherhood of all Christian peoples. Roman Catholics in the community are especially invited to share in this occasion.

TED WEAVER ANNOUNCES FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE

Please accept this as my formal announcement of candidacy for office. I seek the office of State Representative for District 75. As you know this is composed of Hockley, Bailey, Cochran Terry and Yoakum Counties and was brought about by Jesse George's resignation.

I am 26 years of age, married with a 17 month old son. The past two years, I have taught school in Muleshoe where I have been active in Chamber of Commerce, Jaycee, School and Church work.

I served in Austin as Legislative Assistant to Jesse T. George and also worked with him here in the district. This, I feel, will be very valuable in continuing the office of State Representative.

I am a native of Levelland, being the son of Woody Weaver of Levelland since 1926.

This district is my home and only interest — I therefore pledge FULL TIME representation to you, the people of Ropesville, and the 75th District.

I have farmed, taught school, worked as a carpenter, auto salesman, grocery store operator, oil field man, etc. I want to represent our district in Austin!

Sincerely yours,
Ted Weaver

ROPE YOUNG HOMEMAKERS' NEWS

The Ropes chapter of Young Homemakers met Monday, September 11, at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Gerald Ward. Linda Burns gave the opening devotional and President Mary Ann Jones presided at the business meeting. She announced that the National Young Homemakers Week will be September 17 - 23. In keeping with the spirit of the week, the Ropes chapter will decorate the homemaking showcase at the high school, visit Heritage Manor in Levelland, and host an informal open house at the school cafeteria for all women of the Ropes community.

LaQuita Moore reported briefly on the Area Young Homemakers Convention held in Tulia on Saturday, September 9. Attending from Ropes were Anita Means, Shirley Streety, and LaQuita Moore.

Mrs. Roy Dopson reviewed 'Applesauce Needs Sugar' by Victoria Case. This delightful book traces the experiences of the Hammond family as they seek to make a living and to establish their home on Vancouver Island in British Columbia. Perhaps their most difficult job is bringing up Poppa, but Mama's great faith is the guiding light in the times of trial and hardship.

Refreshments were served by Genevieve Ward to members Mary Ann Jones, LaQuita Moore, Shirley Streety, Martha Pritchard, Betty Whitehead, Linda Burns and Rosemary Henderson; guests Barbara Barger, Velda Wilson, Martha Epperson, Mary Satterwhite, Elaine Odom and Mrs. Dopson; and sponsor, Darlene Caldwell.

Nola Knows

By Nola White

Dear Readers — The Complaint Department is always open at Nola's. Your letters are welcome even when you rake me over the coals. Here are some of the latest:

Dear Nola — I wrote you about a problem more than six weeks ago and asked that you publish your answer in the paper. In all this time I could have died and the problem solved itself. Why don't you answer quicker?
Impatient

Dear Imp — The mechanics of newspaper publication require that I send my columns to the editor a few weeks in advance of the date it appears. If your problem needs an immediate reply, I suggest you send a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Your personal reply will come quickly, and it will appear in the paper later.

Dear Nola - I am writing in regard to your column about your friend who drank a lot and accused her husband of making a pass at another woman. I'm surprised that you didn't tell her to stop drinking. Drinking is what causes most of the problems in the world today.

Sober Sixty

Dear S. S. — I would never defend drinking as much any more than I would defend over-eating. To have preached to Doris about this would not have accomplished anything either toward helping to re-establish her marriage or to 'reform' her. Doris recognized her need to limit her drinking. For her this is a giant step—and the longest journey must begin with a single step.

Dear Nola — When somebody complained that when a doctor and nurse were caught in an 'affair' you jumped in with both your left feet and agreed it was not right for them to fire the nurse but not the doctor. Aren't people supposed to get a fair trial before they are convicted?

At our hospital we have a hox-eyed little minx in a nurse's uniform who has tried to intrigue every one of our doctors into some cozy hanky-panky (and almost every ambulatory male patient too, I think). If any of our doctors were 'caught' with her, everybody would understand. She hasn't been fired yet only because nurses are so desperately needed, even man-crazy ones. You jumped to conclusions too fast on this one, Nola.

Dr. Chased But Chaste

Dear Chaste — I'm Chastized.

Dear Nola — I am 20 and have never even driven a car. My parents say I have to show enough responsibility before I can drive one. I know we have enough money to get me a car because my little brother was given a new car for his birthday. I go to an all-girl college, and I need a car lots more than he does. I have done everything in my power to convince them. You tell them, Nola.

Bewildered

Dear Be — The one thing you obviously haven't tried is a display of such an unquestionable sense of responsibility that your parents have no reason to refuse you a car of your own. My suggestion is just you make good grades this fall, assume your full share of family chores, be selective in your choice of friends, limit your social activities so that nobody can accuse you of all play and no work. An earnest effort on your part might convince your parents that your Christmas present should have an engine and four wheels.

Dear Nola — Seems like I don't get in the house before my wife or daughter pounces on me with a hand out for money. I'm buying a home, running three cars, paying insurance ad utilities, and can't save a dime. Is this living or is this a rat race?

ARTHRITIS-RHEUMATISM

Do claims and double talk make you doubt you can get any relief from arthritic and rheumatic pains? Get 100 STANBACK tablets or 50 STANBACK powders, use as directed. If you do not get relief, return the unused part and your purchase price will be refunded. Stanback Company, Salisbury, N. C.

STAY AWAKE ITCHING?

Let doctor's formula stop it. Zemo speeds soothing relief to externally caused itching of eczema, minor rashes, skin irritations, non-poisonous insect bites. Desensitizes nerve endings. Kills millions of surface germs, aids healing. "De-itch" skin with Zemo, Liquid or Ointment. Quick relief, or your money back!

Housebroke

Dear Housebroke — It must be the latter. The only people I know who are getting ahead are rats.

Dear Nola — Why do so many mothers hate their children? They say they love them, but then they turn around and treat them so mean. There's a young woman in our neighborhood who is so hateful to her little girl, always slapping her around, that I feel sorry for the child. I don't remember hating my children the way the young women seem to now.

Great-grandmother

Dear Great — Not all mothers hate their children, even during those times when they appear to. Children can be terribly tiring and annoying, and it is a rare woman who doesn't get cross with them at one time or another. It is a rarer man who sees to it that his wife has plenty of time away from the children for rest and relaxation.

True, there is an occasional disturbed person who actually hates her children, and your neighbor may be one of these. Watch for signs of actual abuse and take steps to protect the child if necessary.

When a child disobeys, it should be punished swiftly and surely. This is not being 'mean' but is teaching the child that society's rules must be followed. The crime news in every day's paper tells us what happens to children who have learned the rules don't apply to them. We need more spanking and less psychology.

Send your letters to Nola Knows, Box 411, Temple Texas. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
