77 Cent Tax Rate Expected For The Year

Maximum May Me Levied Following Veto Of 67-Cent Limit

AUSTIN, (UP)-Governor Miriam A. Ferguson's veto of the state ad valorem tax limit bill make a state ad valorem tax rate of 77 cents probable for this year. That The vetoed bill proposed a limit of 67 cents. The governor declar-ed it foolish to limi, the tax and at the same time make appropriations that would require more.

Formal setting of the rate will ccur when the state automatic tax board meets in July. It computes appropriations, deducts revenue rem other sources I then sets a tax rate on the property valua-tion sufficient to balance the difference.

Happily you no longer need bathe with strong-smelling soaps, whose after-odor is as offensive as the condition it is supposed to prevent. Here's why:

Research chemists have now discovered that the cause of body odor is stale perspiration—calcium, salt and particles of fat lodged deep in the pores. The thick and sticky lather of most ordinary toilet soaps is unsuited chemically to mix with this waste material and set it free. Instead, it hardens into clogging

LIMITING FEES

The day of the plutocratic political job in Texas has gone. The legthature adopted a bill which fixes the total income of a public official at a maximum of $6,500, and other bills throwing additional restricbills throwing additional restrictions around the fee system. It will require the governor's signature to become effective.

Under the bill the maximum salary parmitted in counties of less than 25,000 population would be $3,000; 25,000 to $37,500, $3,500; 37,500 to $60,000, $4,250; $60,000 to 100,000, $4,750, $00,000 to 100,000, $5,500, $5,500, $5,500, $5,500, $5,500, $5,500, $5,500, $6, 000, $4,750; 100,000 to 150,000, $5, 500; all above 150,000, $6,500.

Harris, the state's largest country, had three officials who last year made the ten maximum of $12,000. Several others scaled very close to that figure. These are fall figures for minor officials in a state that pays its governor only to the year and ome of its other officials only $2,000. Tales of $25-counted as soon as the police.

The law requires one election time to the counter during the police of the united states of t counties during boom times used to be quite common before the legislature tackled the fee system and began to place limitations on the amounts office holders were permitted to keep.

This legislature did quite a lot of eff tive work on the fee system, but it is still in existence and as long as the state operates on that basis, regardless of limitations there will continue to be abuses.

The best and quickest way to solve the problem would be to junk the system in its entirety.
