Jest some thoughts

And our Indian summer still holds—my isn't it pleasant.

Ropes has kinda looked like her old self the past two Saturdays, with more people in town than you could stir with a stick. Very unusual—but very welcome.

The little town needs more togetherness—much more.

Now it's almost Christmas once again, and we wonder where all that time went. It certainly doesn't seem like very long ago we were wondering what to buy everybody, and where the long green was coming from to make the purchases.

One more week until Thanksgiving. A day of rest and stuffing—turkey stuffing and people stuffing.

The Eagles are sure doing all right this season, being tied with Wilson for first place in the district. Though we understand if both win their games Friday night, Wilson will win district due to penetrations on the tied game.

The season of Fall is one of nature's greatest shows—the stage is set, and the props are in place, so sit back and take in the view. Each season has its beauty, and the crops in the fields to be harvested, the falling leaves and the beautiful starry nights of this season holds its own.

Money is not a measure of success by any lasting standard—you can't take it with you.

Many people look at others with envy—possibly of their position in life. The important thing, really the only thing that matters, is your disposition—not your position.

A happy person is usually one who feels good, and thus becomes an optimist. You may find the pessimist side when he doesn't feel well.

Some people apparently don't feel well all the time.

What makes life worth living is when your child does or says something that means "I love you", or to see the love-light shining in the eyes of little grandchildren.

Guess we're about out of space, so we won't go into that.

Booster Club garage sale

The Booster Club is having a big Garage Sale Saturday, November 20, 1971, in the Jackson Building in Ropes. Call Lovetta Bradshaw at 297-4581 or Laquita Moore, 562-4203, if you need someone to pick up your items. Especially needed are children's clothing and toys, and household articles.

Since the beginning of this school year, the Booster Club has purchased recording equipment and a cabinet to be used by the band, paid for the cheerleaders' instruction, bought a washing machine for the athletic department, voted to sponsor the Little Dribblers program again this year and several other projects. Also we have placed our bid to sponsor an area tournament in the Little Dribblers payoffs. If you are a member of the Booster Club, you are urged to attend the next few meetings, and make your ideas and opinions known as we will be unable to meet regularly when basketball season starts. We meet on Tuesdays at 7 p.m.

This Friday night our team meets Sundown for a very important game. Be sure to attend. Also at the time this goes to press, our Ropes Eagle Band is in Lubbock competing in the marching contests. We feel very confident they will bring back an award.

Five accidents in Hockley County

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated five accidents on rural highways in Hockley County during the month of October, according to Sergeant H. E. Pirtle, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in one person killed and two persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first ten months of 1971 shows a total of 81 accidents resulting in two persons killed and 60 injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for the 60 counties of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety Region for October, 1971, shows a total of 595 accidents resulting in 19 persons killed and 294 injured. This was 96 more accidents, 14 less fatalities, and 26 more injured than during September.

The 19 traffic deaths for the month of October, 1971, occurred in the following counties: Carson, four; Kent, Lubbock, Wise, Roberts and Wheeler, two each; Crosby, Hale, Parker, Stonewall and Hemphill, one each.

Funeral services held Tuesday for Tom Wall

Rites were conducted at 2 o'clock Tuesday from the Church of the Nazarene for Tom C. Wall, with the Rev. Sam Elrod, pastor and Travis Boyd, minister of the Ropesville Church of Christ, officiating.

Interment was in the Ropes Cemetery directed by Franklin Bartlett Funeral Home of Lubbock.

Pronounced dead on arrival about 4 a.m. Sunday at Lubbock Osteopathic Hospital, he had suffered a sudden illness. He was 77 years old.

A retired railroad employee, Tom had been a resident of Ropes for some thirty years. After his retirement from the railroad, he did yard work until the past several months. He was very well liked, and a friend to all in the community.

The cemetery was one of Tom's most ardent jobs. He worked there often, and kept his part up in A-1 condition.

He will be missed by his many friends, and could be seen walking to and from town many times a day. He always stopped by to see people on his way. Very concerned about the problems of the town, Tom did what he could to help.

We pause to say good-bye to a friend, and honor his memory. We will see him in our mind's eye for a long time to come, walking down the street, in the post office, or stopping by the office for a moment to chat.

His final resting place was prepared by his many friends in the community, which was his request.

He is survived by a son, Lloyd, of Ropesville; five daughters, Mrs. Pauline Holt of San Antonio, Mrs. Bonnie Baach of Oklahoma City, Mrs. Trixie Wright of Fresno, Calif., Mrs. Sarah Baach of Temple and Mrs. Tommie McGee of Lubbock; three brothers, Ace of Long Beach, Calif., Estel of Canon City, Colo., and Cap of Sweet, Idaho; 17 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Covenant Players appear At Ropes High Auditorium

This Sunday evening, the Ropes community will have the rare privilege of being a part of a rapidly expanding movement whose roots might be traced back to the ancient morality plays. The Covenant Players, like the best of the ancient morality plays, dramatize the best in our Christian heritage.

Their program consists of a series of humorous, but hard-hitting one-act plays, each of which points up a modern lesson. They represent no particular theological or political approach, but the plays focus attention on the modern complexities of life against the Christian background. They say of their productions, "Our mainstay is humor, but no area of dramatic form is left untouched, with light and heavy drama, mystery, intrigue, fantasy and science fiction all being used."

The players generally are of college age, nonprofessional and give their services and talents as a Christian ministry. They ordinarily stay in the homes of the community where they play or lay out their sleeping bags in some church hall to cut expenses to a bare minimum. They believe in Christian dynamics and represent a very practical expression of Christian principals in community living. They are to be commended for their lively, compelling and dramatic contribution toward a more wholesome way of life. Everyone will appreciate their message. (See Covenant on Page 2)

- OUR CHARGE CONFERENCE

This is the close-out conference of our fiscal year. The Lubbock District Conference will follow Tuesday evening, November 30, in one of the Lubbock churches.

Year-end reports will be given at the Charge Conference, and officials will be elected for 1972. This will be the first election of officials for 18 months due to a six-months year, and the first to be elected to serve a calendar year. Dr. Marvin Boyd, District superintendent of the Lubbock District, will be with us to conduct the conference which will open with a devotional message by him. Since we no longer hold Quarterly Conference every member is invited to be present at this yearly business meeting of the church under the direction of the Superintendent. This is every-member business.

REPORT FROM THE COUNTRY STORE

The Country Store closed out with a lively and humorous auction last Saturday afternoon, but it is not dead duck by any means. In an informal congregational evaluation session last Sunday evening it was decided that the Country Store would be back in business next Fall again.

The consensus of opinion in the evaluation session was that the project had been highly successful. Working together in this type of activity provided lots of fun and fellowship. It provided an opportunity for involvement of almost every member, and the response was extremely gratifying. Financially, it exceeded all expectations. So the Country Store has a vote of confidence for another run, and plans are now under way for a much improved version next year.

A genuine word of appreciation goes out to everyone who helped to make the project tick.

Immunization Clinic Wednesday

The monthly Immunization Clinic will be held in the Health Unit Office, Courthouse Annex on Wednesday, November 24, from 2 to 4:30 p.m.

The Clinic is held on the fourth Wednesday afternoon of every month for all LOW income families in this county.

The immunizations offered will be polio, smallpox, measles, diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus.

The records will be at the Health Unit only if the immunization was given in that office. Records are not available on clinic day.

CORRECTION—

In last week's Plainsman, we stated Jesse Guzman was selected favorite of the sophomore class. This was in error, it should have been Max Blackman. We were unable to acquire a picture of Max to run this week, but hope to soon. Sorry, Max.

Mrs. Ruby Drake was in Lubbock Friday night visiting her son, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Drake and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall were in Littlefield Sunday visiting Mrs. Wanda Hall and children.

Mrs. Emory Hobbs was in McAdoo recently attending funeral services for her cousin, M. C. Formby. She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Sid Freeman and Claude Freeman of Lubbock. The group saw cousins they hadn't seen in 20 or 30 years.

Steve Dorsett, Billy Gryder and Chris Hobbs visited over the week end with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Hobbs.

Mrs. Jesse Crow and granddaughter, Kimmi Jo Hern of Hobbs, visited Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Pointer.

Eagles wallop Meadow, 22 0

The Ropes Eagles came up with another win Friday night as they paced the Meadow Bronchos to a 22-0 finish.

This win puts the Eagles right up there in the running for District 4-B. At present, they are tied with Wilson, each having 3-0-1 records.

The Eagles held an 8-0 lead at the half on a 40-yard pass from Wes Bradshaw to Sammy Belew. Bradshaw carried over the conversion.

Ropes upped its lead to 14-0 after three quarters when they recovered a high snap in the end zone on a Meadow punt attempt.

Bradshaw iced the game in the fourth quarter, going in from six yards out. Belew scored the conversion points on an end run.

The Eagles will play Sunday Friday night, which is the final game of the season.

Mexican Supper

The Ropes Chapter of FHA will sponsor a Mexican supper preceding the Ropes-Sunday football game Friday, November 19, from 5 to 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children. Everyone is invited to attend.
