

Jury Ponders Rogers' Fate In Arson Case

Jury for the J. S. Rogers arson case retired here at 11:35 p.m. Saturday for the night after five hours of deliberation.

The case reached the jury's hands at 6:25 p.m. following summation by counsel.

Should the jury reach a verdict today, it will be received, Judge Charles Sullivan indicated.

There had been some speculation that a verdict could not be received on Sunday, but a case in point indicates that this has no bearing upon its legality.

The 118th District Court room was about three-fourths filled with spectators as Eldon Mahon, 32nd District Attorney from Colorado City, and Elton Gilliland, Big Spring, 118th District Attorney, summed up for the state, and Del Barber and Perry Barber, Colorado City, for the defense.

The case was transferred here on a change of venue from Mitchell county where the jury was unable to agree on the first trial last October. Rogers is charged with arson in connection with the burning of the Connelly Hotel on June 16, 1951 in Colorado City.

The trial has been in progress since Monday, setting a record for length of any case yet heard in the court here since the 118th district was set up.

During a seven and a half hour session, the jury heard testimony from 14 witnesses.

JOHNSON REVEALS Probe Of Air Power Slowdown Coming

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—An intensive investigation into the administration decision to slow down the pace of U.S. air power expansion was announced tonight by a Senate subcommittee.

Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Texas) announced the inquiry by an Armed Services Subcommittee on preparedness which he heads, and he said the public will be told "every fact that can be revealed without endangering a national security."

He said hearings, which will probably start March 31, will be open to the public as far as security permits. One chief purpose, he said, will be to get all the facts available on the relative production capacities of Soviet Russia and the United States.

Last Nov. 29 Johnson's watchdog group protested a "dangerous lag" in production of aircraft, tanks, ships, guns and other military items, Johnson urged "more guns and less butter."

Several other congressional committees, however, endorsed the mobilization program and said it was proceeding satisfactorily.

Charles E. Wilson has defended it and so has Secretary of Defense Lovett, who testified last month that "in preparation against the dangers of a hot war, we must not be trapped by our own efforts into losing a cold one."

Johnson noted that the Truman administration has announced a decision to postpone from 1954 to 1955 the target date for reaching present air power goals. Commenting that his group had already criticized the rate of the air power building, he added in a statement: "Within the next few months, Congress will be faced with a responsibility of passing upon these decisions. We must determine whether the state of the national security will permit us to cut down even further on plans to expand air power."

Johnson said his group's investigation will cover these major points:

1. Aircraft inventory when the Korean War started and deliveries of "flyable" aircraft since that date.

2. Aircraft losses through enemy action and through obsolescence.

3. U.S. aircraft production as compared to Soviet aircraft production.

4. Quantity and quality of aircraft now in production and future prospects for production.

5. Operations of the current production program and steps that have been taken to break bottlenecks.

Johnson said committee investigation will cover these major points:

1. Name, rank, organization and serial number.

2. Outstanding achievements and incidents which are the basis for the recommendation.

In other words, you simply may write a letter, properly identifying the person whose name is being submitted, and detail circumstances and reasons for the honoring of that person.

Six Czechs Make Dramatic Escape

By RICHARD O'REGAN VIENNA, Austria, March 8 (AP)—Inspired by the "Freedom Train," a party of six Czechoslovaks has arrived in Austria after a dramatic escape across the Morava River in an amphibious jeep.

They reached the Russian zone of Austria Feb. 17 and fled through the woods just as a pursuing party of Communist border guards reached the Czech bank of the river.

"The pressure was too great to stay," they said in Vienna before they left this city and reached safety in the Western zone of Austria.

The party was led by Lovet Ollarek, 35, former millionaire owner of a Bratislava construction company, who was dispossessed in 1948 by the Communists and put to work in the Czech National Bank.

Texas Guard Unit Wins Ike Trophy

AUSTIN, March 8 (AP)—Gov. Shivers presented the Eisenhower trophy to the 36th Quartermaster Company of the 36th National Guard Division in a brief ceremony at the capitol today.

The award, made each year to the most outstanding company-sized Army unit of the National Guard in each state and territory, was received by 1st Lt. Stanley Stout of Austin and Maj. Gen. H. Miller Ainsworth of Luling, company and division commanders, respectively.

Truce Talkers Set Record For Shortest Meet

Only Agreement Is To Meet Today As New Dispute Arises

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN MUNSAN, Korea, Sunday, March 9 (AP)—Staff officers arguing truce supervision set a conference record for brevity today—they met for only two minutes.

The only agreement was to meet again tomorrow.

Col. Don O. Darrow, Allied staff officer, said, "I opened the meeting by saying that I had nothing to bring up this morning and that the U.N. Command views were clearly explained and well known to them."

"He replied with the same sort of answer and I suggested a recess and they agreed."

Darrow jokingly told a newsmen at Panmunjom the short meeting set "a new indoor record."

The Red demand that Russia be invited to help police a Korean armistice has lightly snarled the item 3 discussions.

A new and bitter dispute cropped up in a neighboring tent Saturday.

Rear Adm. R. E. Libby, chief Allied negotiator of the prisoner exchange issue, bluntly—and in detail—accused the Reds of secretly imprisoning Americans and other Allied troops in Manchuria.

Quiet Day In Korean War Zone

SEOUL, Korea, Sunday, March 9 (AP)—Snow, rain and a dense overcast resulted Saturday in one of the quietest days of the Korean War.

Allied patrols moving out from front-line positions made only a few light contacts with the Communists. A three-line communique from the Fifth Air Force reported only 36 missions were flown during daylight hours.

Patrols probing Red positions on the Western Front, in the Korangpo sector, fought two brief skirmishes with Communist platoons.

On the Eastern Front, a patrol of Republic of Korea marines was hit by 30 rounds of mortar fire and withdrew under cover of Allied artillery.

PUBLIC CAN NOMINATE

Seek To Name Base For Local AF Hero

The Big Spring Air Force Base is in line for a permanent, appropriate name.

It may carry the name of a local military man whose record was such that it is deemed by the proper authorities worthy of memorialization.

The local public may help in submitting nominations, and such nominations hereby are invited.

If proper arrangements are concluded, plans are to have a memorialization ceremony as a part of the formalities in connection with the dedication of the Base, probably in May.

Briefly, the Air Force Regulation covering this states that "primary consideration will be given to Air Force heroes who have performed heroic feats in the air and/or whose outstanding services have brought honor to the Air Force."

Recommendations for memorialization may include outstanding deceased military personalities, officers and enlisted men. Nominations which might be received will be evaluated by a special committee, with final designation being made under direction of Headquarters, USAF, in Washington.

In order that nominations might come up for consideration, Col. Ernest F. Wackwitz Jr., commanding officer of the Base here, has requested that names be submitted through The Herald.

Each recommendation should include the following:

(1) Name, rank, organization and serial number.

(2) Outstanding achievements and incidents which are the basis for the recommendation.

In other words, you simply may write a letter, properly identifying the person whose name is being submitted, and detail circumstances and reasons for the honoring of that person.

Letters should be sent promptly to the Editor of The Herald. They will be turned over to the proper military authorities for due consideration.

Rearmament Test Seen In New Reich State's First Vote

STUTTGART, Germany, March 8 (AP)—Socialist opposition to rearmament gets its biggest public test in the first election of West Germany's new Southwest State tomorrow.

Created Dec. 19 by a plebiscite merging Baden, Wuertemberg-Baden and Wuertemberg—Hohenzollern, the new state is the Republic's second largest in area and third in population.

About 4,500,000 voters from its six million people will elect a constitutional assembly which in all likelihood will appoint itself the state's first parliament.

Van Fleet Says UN Can Halt Any Push

SEOUL, Korea, March 8 (AP)—Gen. James A. Van Fleet disclosed today the Chinese and Korean Reds have built up a force of about 900,000 men in Korea, but there is no indication of a spring offensive.

The U. S. Eighth Army commander said in an interview the Reds had more men, weapons and planes, but that the Allies have enough to stop any attack. He said about 450,000 Reds are in the front lines.

Van Fleet added that he would be "surprised" if the Communists attempted an offensive similar to their costly but unsuccessful major drives in April and May of last year.

"I am confident we could stop any attack the Communists might throw at us," he said. "It would be a good thing if we could get these people out of their foxholes and dugouts to mow them down the way we did last April and May."

"We still have an intense desire to do it. We have enough equipment, men and ammunition available. We could do it just as effectively as we did last year."

It has been a difficult task for this general of action to become accustomed to the change of pace the Korean conflict took last November when action across the front slowed to a snail's pace. If Van Fleet had the decision to make, it seems certain he would have preferred to continue offensive maneuvers such as "Operation Rolling" and "Operation Killer" tactics that cost the Communists heavily in men and equipment.

But with the armistice talks, political considerations weighed as heavily as Allied military operations.

"It was thought we could arrange an armistice if we slowed down in accordance with the wishes of the people back home who did not want heavy casualties when there was a chance for peace," he said.

"The future operations of the Eighth Army are still on the conference table at Panmunjom."

Van Fleet said the Chinese and North Koreans have twice as many artillery pieces as the United Nations strung along the 155-mile battlefield and in reserve.

"They are throwing a lot more artillery shells than they ever have. There are points on the front where they think nothing of throwing in concentrations of 1,000 rounds and more. In other words, they are being pretty liberal with their shells so they must have plenty of them."

Van Fleet said Allied artillery is better, however, "and that is where we feel we have the advantage."

He reported the enemy is using Chinese, American and Japanese field pieces and has some new Chinese and Russian guns.

A disconcerting fact for the Allies has been that the Chinese and North Korean units are now at near full strength.

"It wasn't that way before when we were inflicting heavy casualties on the Reds that cut deeply into their combat strength," Van Fleet observed, recalling the crushing blows his army delivered the Communists last year.

Opposing GOP Factions Clash After Taft Remarks About Ike

CONCORD, N. H., March 8 (AP)—Opposing Republican factions clashed today in bitter pre-election arguments, stirred by remarks of Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) about his principal opponent, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

In a speech Friday Taft had demanded that Eisenhower "call a spade a spade" and state his position on vital domestic issues at the risk of incurring the displeasure of officials of the present Democratic administration.

Taft in another speech today said he had not meant it as a personal attack.

However, Gov. Sherman Adams, head of the Eisenhower movement in New Hampshire, sharply criticized Taft tonight. He said, "I reject as baseless and grossly unfair the accusation that Eisenhower is under any obligation whatever to the national Democratic administration and further, that he is in sympathy with its foreign policy."

Adams' statement was a rejoinder to Taft's remarks at Manchester inquiring where Eisenhower stands on the Taft-Hartley law, the civil rights program, the conduct of the Korean War and other domestic and international issues.

Adams described the present campaign, in which Eisenhower is absent, as "a political miracle."

Eisenhower and Taft are the principal contenders in an all-out battle for 14 Republican convention delegates — and more important, the popular vote — in the New Hampshire primary election next Tuesday.

Polls are giving Eisenhower a slight edge at this point but indicate Taft's whirlwind campaign may have closed the gap.

The Ohio senator has drawn the largest crowds of any speaker in his three-day tour. At some points he stopped traffic in the streets when his motorcade halted for a brief appearance.

Taft swept through the state for three days stopping at every major city and in many little towns. He talked himself hoarse with 30 speeches, stormed over mountain roads, only recently cleared of heavy snow, went into distant backwoods hamlets, and kept going between 12 and 14 hours a day.

Correspondents a c/o mpanying him clocked his handshaking at a rate of 25 persons per minute whenever he stopped.

Harold Stassen, another GOP entry in the preferential section of the primary ballot, and Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, campaigning against President Truman for the state's eight Democratic convention votes, also have been motorcading through New Hampshire.

Eisenhower's campaign has been conducted by his spokesmen, a team of senators, congressmen and prominent state leaders.

Taft denied tonight the descriptions of his Manchester speech Friday as a "personal attack on Gen. Eisenhower."

Appeals Court Approves Martin Ban On Liquor

STANTON—Martin county's dry status appeared Saturday to be clarified in ruling from the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals.

Although the case of Julio Mara Barrera, convicted of transporting liquor in a dry area, was reversed, the Court ruled out the possibility that Martin county's prohibition against sale and transport of liquor was invalid.

The reversal, said County Attorney Tom Adams, was as to the form of verdict. He said that County Judge James McMorris had brought back a copy of the opinion dated Feb. 27 from Austin.

One of the points upon which an appeal had been based was that the State had failed to prove publication of the order canvassing the returns and declaring results according to law. They were, it was contended, part of the same order and did not satisfy time requirements.

Justice Tom Beauchamp, writing the opinion, said that the order appeared to be sufficient proof and that it appeared that the certificate of publication had been appended to the minutes.

"As so construed," the opinion said, "the certificate presents prima facie evidence of publication of the order putting local option into effect."

The Commission Court order was dated March 14, 1953 and the election prohibiting the sale of intoxicating beverages was held in Martin county on March 3, 1953.

Adams said that Barrera, a Big Spring resident, would be retried. He said that "we also have half a dozen other liquor cases on which we are going right ahead."

Angry Accusations Fly Over BIR Plan

WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—Angry accusations of "political patronage" and "graft" echoed in the Senate today over President Truman's disputed plan to revamp the government's tax collection agency.

Sen. Monroney (D-Okla.), who supports the reorganization plan, told a reporter it may be killed "by the votes of patronage-hungry Republicans."

Sen. Mundt (R-S.D.), who is against the Truman revision of the scandal-larred Internal Revenue Bureau, said in a separate interview that the necessary 49 votes—more than half the 96 senators—can be mustered to kill the plan.

Reviewing The Big Spring Week

With Joe Pickle

The Howard-Glasscock chapter of the American Red Cross had no less personality than Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright to kick off its roll call drive last week. While response has been good, we'll have to step up the tempo to make the general feel it was a wholly rewarding visit. With the Air Base and VA Hospital, as well as the regular load, the chapter urgently needs your generous help.

Both clouds and snow flurries were forecast last week, along with the possibility of "occasional showers." That did it! Scared them clear away! It ought to be a pent-tentative offense to forecast an overcast until this drought is broken.

For the high school student body, the week was a historic one. The top three grades occupied the modern and spacious plant, and all the youths seemed properly thrilled. The movie made it possible for seventh graders to go into the junior high unit (formerly the high school), and thus relieve pressure on the elementary plants. Building-wise, we are in fair shape except that something will probably have to be done in the Airport area before too long.

Speaking of schools, speakers for two important dates were announced. Dr. J. W. Edgar, commissioner

Packing Plant Shuts Down After Dispute

OMAHA, March 8 (AP)—The Cudahy Packing Plant shut down today when its 2,400 workers belonging to the CIO Union Packing-house Workers failed to report for work.

Ole Johnson, chairman of the union's Local 60, charged the company had discharged workers "without proper cause" and in violation of contract.

A. P. Hurwitz, manager of the Cudahy plant, said the dispute involved only one employe. That employe he said was discharged for a just cause.

Red Cross Drive Is Over Mid-Way Goal

The fund campaign for the Howard-Glasscock Red Cross chapter is going splendidly. It will click on through to a successful conclusion within a week if the volunteer solicitors will just follow through on their calls.

That was the observation Saturday of Campaign Chairman Adolph Swartz, who reported that the fund was past the half-way mark. He accounted for $8,467.47 turned in against the goal of $15,000.

"This is most encouraging, considering that the drive has been under way only this week," Swartz said. "We are finding the people most responsive, most generous. However, there are some loose ends that need tying up. Not all the workers have completed their calls many others have not reported their activities. We are urging again that solicitations be made at once, and a proper accounting made. If we can just get each one to do what was asked of him, we will have this campaign finished—in a big way—in another week."

Swartz gave particular praise to the teams of women who have been canvassing the residential district, under leadership of Mrs. E. V. Swift. They have already turned in more than $1,200, he said.

"This is most gratifying," the chairman said, "and we are grateful to Mrs. Swift and her workers for real effort. We hope all other divisions will match this in results."

Swartz said additional reports are still to come from the rural area, from Glasscock County, from the employe groups.

Pinay Gets Cabinet That Reaffirms French In Pact

PARIS, March 8 (AP)—Conservative Premier Antoine Pinay succeeded today in forming a cabinet that reaffirms the place of France in the Western world's defense. Now his big problem is to get the National Assembly to approve his selections.

Sixteen of the 17 men in the major jobs are veteran ministers, mostly of the middle-road type. The one newcomer is a 46-year-old independent, Pierre Garet, assigned the labor portfolio.

If the National Assembly indorses the selections, in a vote due Tuesday, the Cabinet will become France's 20th government since France was liberated from the Germans in 1944

Around $1,500 Of County Rain Share Received

Approximately $1,500 of Howard County's rainmaking quota of $8,500 for participating with 10 other West Texas counties in forming a district to contract for an increase in precipitation, had been subscribed at noon yesterday, with the contributions just beginning to come in.

Many farmers and ranchers didn't receive the letters inviting their participation until yesterday morning. While neither the Howard County Farm Bureau, nor the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce has officially endorsed the project, both have offered the facilities of their offices for receiving the enrollment of land, at the rate of one cent an acre for range, and three cents an acre for cultivated lands.

Subscriptions may also be left with R. V. Middleton, one of the county's two delegates to the district meetings, at the First National Bank. The funds will be held in escrow at a Lamesa bank until the district has been formed as a non-profit corporation under Texas law, and a contract with the Water Resources Development Corporation of Denver has been negotiated.

The delegates, or directors, from the 11 counties will meet for another conference with the precipitation-increasing organization in the Mesa Room of the Green Hut Cafe at Lamesa tomorrow evening at 7:30, at which time the signing of the contract may be in order.

Representatives of the Denver organization have indicated they are prepared to commence operations within about three weeks after the contract is signed.

Subscriptions to the program, Middleton and J. I. White of Ackerly, the other county delegate, have pointed out, are not limited to land owners but may also be made by interested business and professional men who want to join the effort to break the drought by artificial means.

Other counties in the proposed district are reporting steady progress in raising their shares of the total fund.

Dibrell Seeks Post On School Board

John L. Dibrell, Jr. has filed as a candidate for the office of member of the board of trustees of the Big Spring Independent School District.

Operator of a sporting goods store here, Dibrell is a former faculty member of the system and was for several years coach and athletic director. He and Mrs. Dibrell have two children, one of them in school.

He filed a letter of application with Dan Conley, secretary of the board. Two terms, those of Justin Holmes and Dewey Martin, expire in April, and Holmes has said that he did not plan to seek re-election.

In announcing, Dibrell said that he offered for the office only in the hope that he may be of service to the district and particularly to the children. Having devoted most of his adult life to them, schools and school children still constitute a major concern of his, he said.

And that's when they'll be here, the General said.

Defense Housing Project Here Might Be Re-Submitted By FHA

Two officials of the Housing & Home Finance Agency were in Big Spring Friday to survey status of the city's Defense Housing project, and to confer with various interests regarding this project.

They were W. H. Sindt, Fort Worth, regional representative of the H&HFA, and A. F. Seward, Washington, D. C., commissioner of community and special operations for the same agency.

E. E. Cloer, general contractor of Fort Worth, holds a certificate from the Federal Housing Administration for a 300-rental-unit project, and under the agency's requirements has 60 days from date of issuance of this certificate to complete. This time will expire in about two weeks. Although no start on the project has been made, the housing officials said they did not know what the contractor's plans are.

Cloer's project was listed for a tract on the Wasson land south of the airport, an area which brought objections from the city because of difficulty in serving it with utilities. Sindt and Seward, after talking with city authorities, utility company officials and representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, indicated that if the present certificate expires, the FHA will ask for new applications. In this program, FHA acts as agent for H&HFA.

It would further by the policy, in all probability, they indicated, to break down the 300 defense houses into several units, so that different contractors might handle different projects in different parts of the city. Such a procedure would be more acceptable locally, the government men were told, since matters of utilities, transportation, and schools could be more easily met.

The 300 rental units have been authorized under the critical housing area designation which has been applied to Howard County. Construction is assisted by suspension of real estate credit restrictions and by aid's authorized through the new and more liberal form of FHA mortgage insurance under Title IX of the National Housing Act.

Among survivors here are four nieces, Mrs. Gene Crenshaw, Mrs. Dee Foster, Mrs. Lester Anderson, Mrs. J. H. Coots, and a sister-in-law, Mrs. H. N. Cauble.

Attending rites this afternoon at 2 o'clock in Breckenridge will be Mr. and Mrs. Gene Crenshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Coots, Mrs. Tom McAdams and Mrs. Ruth Wilson.

102 Persons Placed In Non-Ag Positions

One hundred and two persons, out of a total of 127, referred to non-agricultural jobs, were placed in employment during the week through the Big Spring office of the Texas Employment Commission, according to Leon M. Kinney, manager.

There were 547 visits to the office listed during the week and 45 new applications for employment were received.

Initial and continued claims for unemployment compensation totaled 26 for the week, Kinney said.

Residential Registration Is Extended By Area Rent Unit

Extension of the deadline for registration of residential units in the rent stabilization program was announced Saturday by R. H. Weaver, area rent director.

Owners of residential rental property now have until April 2 to register, he said. The extension is being made because start of registration was delayed. Weaver said, but he stressed that there will be no further extension, and that property owners should register immediately.

He said approximately 3,000 residential units have been listed with his office since registration was started Feb. 18. It is estimated, Weaver said, that a substantial number of other units have not been registered.

Those who have properties that were rented on Dec. 1, 1951, or have been rented since that date should file information with the rent office. Early registration will be advantageous in that penalties can be avoided, Weaver said. Those who desire adjustment increases or certificates relating to eviction penalties are required to register the property in compliance with regulations before either will be granted, Weaver said.

Weaver also announced Saturday that the Office of Rent Stabilization now accepts maximum legal rents on FHA-insured housing, the rents being currently certified by FHA.

Under this new provision, owners of these housing accommodations must register their FHA-certified rents with the rent office by April 2.

The FHA office in this area is currently issuing a certification of rent schedule to the landlord which sets forth the basic rent which FHA had approved for each type of dwelling unit in the area.

Biggest Budget For Russians Approved

LONDON, March 8 (AP)—The Supreme Soviet, Russia's rubber stamp parliament, tonight approved the biggest budget in Russian history, including the largest peacetime appropriation for military purposes.

Chairman Korniyets of the Budget Committee of the Council of the Union—lower house of the parliament—claimed the budget "testifies to a peaceful policy," the Moscow radio said in a broadcast recorded here.

The budget was approved unanimously after Supreme Soviet members heard some sharp criticism of governmental agencies, the broadcast said.

Korniyets reported 64 per cent of the appropriations are earmarked for "national economy and social measures." At the same time, he added, U.S. appropriations for national defense in 1952-53 "exceed by 65 times the expenditure for the same purpose on the eve of World War II."

(That war started Sept. 3, 1939; the U.S. was drawn into it unprepared by the Japanese blow at Pearl Harbor Dec. 7, 1941.)

Analysis of the Soviet budget is difficult for Westerners because many items which Western countries would include under military appropriations are buried by Soviets under other headings. U.S. State Department experts estimate that at least half Russia's budget goes directly or indirectly for military purposes.

Korniyets said that Soviet defense appropriations are "considerably lower than in the prewar year of 1940" and added:

"Whatever aspirations may be cast upon our country by the enemies of peace, the figures speak for themselves. They testify to the peaceful policy of the Soviet state."

The main reason for the size of the 1940 Soviet budget was that the USSR concluded her first war with Finland that year.

The budget estimates total expenditures during the coming year at 477 billion rubles (119 1/2 billion dollars at the valuation of the ruble fixed by the Soviet government) and revenues at 509 billion rubles (127 1/2 billion dollars). Appropriations listed for the armed forces totaled 113,800,000 rubles (about 28 1/2 billion dollars).

Korniyets' report was highly critical of some Communist-sponsored industries, blaming them for inefficiency.

ANGERED AT CONNALLY Hawaiians Arrive To Protest Words

By MARTHA COLE
DALLAS, March 8 (AP)—A Hawaiian delegation with their leis wilting themselves still staunch in their aim to make Sen. Connally (D-Texas) realize they're good Americans landed on Connally's home soil today.

They were confronted immediately with (in this order):

1. Photographers and television cameramen who kept them standing on the ramp of their plane waving their hands for at least five minutes.
2. A red carnation lei sent over from neighboring Fort Worth.
3. A small Dallas girl dressed in a coconut hat and a "mumu"—the flowered mother Hubbard of the islands.
4. A petition demanding the resignation of Senator Connally.

The mimeographed petitions appeared among the crowd that gathered at the airport. They had space for 30 signatures and written at the bottom was "Mall to Recall Connally."

"Do Texans really feel this way?" was the remark of one of the Hawaiians, Matsuo Takabuki. Asked for comment, Takabuki said:

"I certainly think that Senator Connally's remarks were inimical to the people of Texas and to the people of the United States because he is chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee."

Senator Connally's remarks, the Hawaiians said, were the sole reason for their being here. It was on Monday in the Senate that Connally, arguing to get the tideland bill up for debate before the Hawaiian statehood bill, remarked that many Hawaiians were not of "American ancestry or descent" and he was a better American than they.

Takabuki is president of the 442nd Club, composed of veterans of the 442nd Unit that served with Texas' 56th Division in Italy during World War II. He was a sergeant in Italy.

"We have no hatred for Connally," he said. "We're just indignant. When he spoke of race as the basis of citizenship, what he said was against democratic principles. I didn't see the 36th protesting about our race when we served with them."

Solon Will Seek Probe Of Surplus Property Disposal

WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—Sen. Ken (R-Mo) said today he will propose an investigation of the disposal of surplus government property which, he declared, would probably "hook at least one Truman administration big fish and a lot of small fry."

"My information is that the big fish appears in connection with the disposal of a part of the old Jefferson Barracks Reservation in my own state of Missouri," Ken said in a statement. He did not name the man he described as a "big fish."

The senator said that on Monday he will offer a resolution to authorize a "long overdue" inquiry into disposal of billions of dollars worth of surplus government property.

Highway Projects Slated For Area

AUSTIN, March 8 (AP)—The Texas Highway Department today announced the calling of bids on 1,202 miles of highways and roads.

It will be the second largest amount of mileage ever offered for contract in Texas in one month.

Bids will be opened March 18 and 19, and low offers are expected to total approximately $8,750,000.

"The major part of the mileage is reconditioning work to preserve existing highways," State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer said in announcing the projects.

Some 325 miles of farm to market roads make up the bulk of new highways listed for construction.

The record mileage put under contract in a single month was 1,262 in April, 1950.

A large number of the projects are in West Texas, one of them in Howard County, on the Snyder highway. Work is called for on 12.5 miles from Big Spring northeast.

Mitchell, Kent, Nolan, Fisher, Taylor, Scurry, Sterling, Coke, Tom Green and Reagan also are listed to receive work.

Truman Shows More Interest In Florida

KEY WEST, Fla., March 8 (AP)—President Truman today displayed more outward interest in the Florida weather, which was changeable, than in the New Hampshire political weather, due to be tested on Tuesday.

On this first full day of his Florida vacation, the President swam in the warm Atlantic for 15 minutes and then lollied in the sand on the enlisted men's beach for an hour and 45 minutes before rain drove him back to the "Little White House."

gators are seeking all available facts from both military officials and the aircraft industry.

Secretary Lovett has testified that at the time of the Communist invasion of South Korea in June 1950 the Air Force had about 48 combat wings and 411,000 men. He said it now has expanded to about 90 wings and 900,000 men and is building toward a goal of 143 wings.

President Truman announced in January that a decision had been made to move back for a year the target date for reaching 143-wing strength. (The size of a wing varies, depending upon the type of plane, from about 18 to 75.)

The performance of U.S. planes has taken on increased significance in Korea, where Russian-built MIG jet fighters have shown an acknowledged superiority to U.S. fighters in some respects although officials say the MIGs are inferior in others.

Secretary of the Air Force Finletter has said the MIGs are excellent aircraft but that this country now has better planes in test, although not yet in production or combat.

called the charge a lie and countered that the United Nations Command was using "infamous instructors" from Nationalist Chinese Formosa at UN prison camps.

Apart from that wrangle, the negotiators appeared almost hopelessly deadlocked on two big issues and several lesser ones. The big issues were:

1. Whether Russia should be permitted to help supervise an armistice as a "neutral." The Allies insist Russia is not neutral.
2. Whether "troops should be forced to return, as demanded by the Reds, or given a choice of repatriation, as asked by the Allies.

Morris Denies Any Activity In Commie Fronts

By G. MILTON KELLY
WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—Government cleanup boss Newbold Morris, denying he was active "in Communist fronts," told Sen. Mundt (R-SD) in a letter made public today:

"I am really not a subversive individual and I am really very careful about my associations."

Mundt promptly fired back a letter declaring:

"I sincerely hope you have better success in securing specific answers" in the investigation of corruption in government "than I have had with my specific questions to you."

"Please know that I have never indicated I thought you to be a subversive individual," the senator wrote. "My concern grew out of the disturbing indications that you had been associated with a number of Communist front organizations without ever publicly denouncing and repudiating them at whatever time you may have learned of their disloyal purposes and policies."

Mundt made public both letters, which bristled with polite phrases and sharp gibes. He ordered them published Monday in the Congressional Record.

The exchange was a prelude to Morris' scheduled testimony Tuesday before the Senate Investigations Subcommittee to explain his role as a lawyer for two shipping firms which hauled goods to Red China before and after the start of the Korean War in June, 1950.

2,000 COMMIE CASUALTIES IN THE LAST WEEK

SEOUL, Korea, Sunday, March 8.—Communist troops suffered nearly 2,000 casualties in the first week of March, the U. S. Eighth Army said today.

A briefing officer said the evaluated totals were 1,683 killed, 920 wounded and 41 captured.

This is about the weekly average since the twilight war started last November.

Stolen Car Returned To Its Parking Place

J. D. Thomas, 401 Benton, called police at 1:11 yesterday afternoon to report that his maroon 1949 Ford had been stolen from its parking place at 509 Johnson.

At 7:40 last night he called again to report that the car had been returned to the place from which it had been taken. It had been wired around the ignition switch, he said.

Three Cars Involved In Traffic Accident

A traffic mishap at 2nd and Runnels yesterday afternoon involved three vehicles, according to police reports. The drivers were listed as Charles Ray, Route 1, Big Spring, Peggy A. Parvin, Coleman, and Joseph F. Roberts, Snyder.

No injuries were reported. Police said Roberts was driving a hotball truck. The other vehicles were passenger cars.

Man Treated For Injuries Received In Auto Collision

C. E. Ashbrook, 209 W. 18th, an employee of the Norwood Drilling Co., received emergency treatment at the Malone and Hogan Clinic Hospital yesterday afternoon for injuries sustained in an automobile collision at Garden City. He was returned to his home later in the afternoon.

Witnesses said Ashbrook was a passenger in a '46 Mercury driven by C. O. Kent, also of Big Spring, and a Norwood employee, and that the car was traveling Ranch Road 33 toward Big Spring. At the Garden City intersection with Highway 158 Kent's brakes failed as he attempted to stop for through traffic, and his car collided with one driven by Mrs. Ora Rodriguez of Midland, who was accompanied by her two daughters, Hortensia, 8, and Olga, 10. Neither Mrs. Rodriguez nor her daughters were injured although the children were brought to a Big Spring hospital for examination.

Also passengers in the Kent car were Ray Young and H. L. Barker, also Norwood employees, and Big Spring residents, and V. L. Young of Coshamo, another Norwood worker.

Only Ashbrook required first aid treatment.

Special Mission To Seek Bases From Franco

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER,
WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—A special United States mission with a 100-million-dollar bankroll will go to Madrid in a few weeks to negotiate with Generalissimo Francisco Franco for naval and air bases in Spain.

Officials said today the bases are desired on a standby basis for use if and when needed. Large installations such as the United States is building in French Morocco, North Africa, are not planned. But even the limited facilities to be negotiated will require extensive highway and rail development and probably considerable harbor dredging.

Indications are that whether the United States provides arms for Franco's military force probably will depend on what the Spanish leader insists on, from his side of the bargaining table. But American experts say that available American funds could most profitably be spent to meet more basic Spanish needs, such as roads. Certainly it appears that the United States will urge that arms deliveries should not get first priority.

Conferees on the United States' negotiating position have been going on for weeks among the State and Defense Departments and the Mutual Security foreign aid administration. These three agencies are trying to determine precisely what the United States will want and what it will propose that Franco get, and obtain approval of the agreed position from President Truman. What the President approves will provide the instructions for the mission to be assigned.

Officials said the group will be headed by a military man but will include State Department representatives and other civilian officials.

Negotiation of a two-way military alliance with Franco was described as out of the question; what is planned rather is a practical, working agreement between Spain and the United States covering their extension of aid to each other.

er for the Texas Education Agency, is to bring the high school dedication address on March 23. Dr. Blake Van Leer, a BSHS graduate of 40 years ago and now Georgia Tech president, will be the commencement speaker, probably May 27.

A couple of 10-year-old Bobbies from Martin County were hotter than a snake in a stove last week on the livestock circuit. Bobby Sale, whose breed making it tough for young showmen for a couple of years, achieved a phenomenal "daily double," winning the Abilene and Amarillo grand championships the same day. This probably has never happened before in club annals. Next day, Bobby Joe Kelly took up the banner and grabbed the Sand hills championship at Odessa.

Must have been the Ides of March. Our athletic hopefuls had a rough week. Instead of coping off the state junior college basketball title for the second consecutive year, as hoped, the HCJC Jayhawks got clipped in two close ones. Then, the undefeated girls volleyball team got dethroned the first rattle out of the tournament box here Friday.

A new pay zone was reported in Vealmoor pool last week. A well depleted in the Canyon reef, from which the pool produces, plugged back and got a small well in the Cisco. That could prove a rather significant development.

Explorer Post No. 196 broke up its Scout meeting just in time to do a good turn the other evening. A house at 900 Goliad had burst into flames. The youngsters quickly cleared the premises of its furnishings.

Several reports of characters attempting to molest girls were received by police last week. These things come in cycles, but it would be a good idea for parents to repeatedly caution daughters, and to report all such incidents promptly.

Housing plans had moved into an area of calm last week, but there were signs that within a fortnight new activity may be expected.

CONTRARY TO PRESENT POSITION Policy-Makers Have A Tough Time With 'War Now' Backers

By DON WHITEHEAD
WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—The nation's policy-makers today are fighting persistent arguments of a "war now" group which believes the United States should launch a sudden attack on Red Russia in an all-out war to destroy communism.

For more than a year there have been clear signs that some military men and civilians are convinced war with Russia is inevitable—and therefore the United States should strike first.

Each time, President Truman or his lieutenants have taken quick action to slap down this line of thinking. It runs directly counter to the administration's announced policy of trying to force an understanding with Russia without war.

But despite this opposition, the war talk persists beneath the surface by those whose thinking goes like this:

"Russia is determined to dominate the world. When Russia is strong enough, the Red leaders will send their armies and those of their satellites against the Western World. This war of conquest will come like Pearl Harbor—without warning."

"This being true, then the United States should strike first in a 'preventive war' to beat Russia to the punch."

In capsule form, this is the situation now spotlighted by the famous diary of Maj. Gen. Robert W. Grow which somehow was stolen from him by the Communists last year.

Grow wrote the diary while U.S. military attaché in Moscow. The Army says parts of the diary are being used in the Red propaganda drive against the United States. Excerpts from it have been reproduced in a book being circulated in Red-controlled East Germany.

One extract quoted Grow as writing: "Wait as soon as possible! Now!"

It seems to me the time is ripe for a blow this year. . . . We must start by hitting below the belt. This war cannot be conducted by Marius of Queensbury rules."

The Army has said Grow is now "reassigned" to Washington while an investigation is being made.

The viewpoint expressed in the diary recalls that in the summer of 1950 an Air Force general was rebuked for offering publicly to destroy Russia's A-bomb centers.

In this case, Maj. Gen. Orvil Anderson—then head of the Air War College—gave an interview to the Montgomery, Ala., Advertiser, in which he was quoted: "Give me the order to do it and I can break up Russia's five A-bomb nests in a week, and when I went up to Christ . . . I think I could explain to him that I had saved civilization."

It was reported at the time that Anderson had argued for a "preventive" war against Russia during lectures at the Air War College.

A few days earlier, the secretary of the Navy (then Francis P. Matthews) had made a speech in which he said he United States should be ready if necessary to start a war to "compel cooperation for peace." The statement was disavowed by both the White House and the State Department.

Reporters were told that Truman had talked with Matthews and had "straightened him out" on the government's peace policy.

But this line of thinking persists even though government and military leaders have rejected it time and again.

period on the stand Friday and Friday night, Rogers denied emphatically that he set fire to the hotel. Furthermore, when asked about glass jugs containing liquids, which had been introduced into evidence, Rogers said he never saw them before the fire, and that he had no knowledge that the jugs were in the hotel until after the fire.

When the fire was discovered, Rogers said he called to fire department. He said he called No. 20 and the person who answered said that firefighting equipment would be sent to the hotel immediately. It had been developed that No. 20 was the telephone number of the Colorado City police department.

Rogers said he thought that dispatching services for police and firemen were handled at the same place. He said he didn't take time to consult a telephone directory.

Rogers said firemen arrived while he was still at the hotel switchboard attempting to alarm all guests in the hotel.

The defense put three character witnesses on the stand Friday night. They were Fred B. Walker, Raleigh, Miss.; clerk of the chancellor court of Smith County, Miss.; A. E. Bounds of Raleigh, sheriff and tax collector of Smith County; and Robert Alexander, Bay Springs, Miss., former sheriff and tax collector of Jasper County, Miss.

Dick Hickman, former police chief at Colorado City, told of a telephone call he received on Thursday before the fire. Hickman said the person calling asked if an old building north of the Council Hotel belonged to his sister. When he answered "yes," Hickman said the person then asked if the building was insured. Then, when he told the person the building was insured, Hickman said the person "hung up" without identifying himself. He said the person who called definitely did not sound like Rogers.

Virgil Miller, deputy state fire marshal, was on the stand again late Friday and early Saturday, as the state launched rebuttal testimony. Miller identified some ledgers as being those he took from the Gossell Hotel when he investigated the fire. According to calculations he made from those books, Miller said revenues at the hotel decreased from $4,355.25 in the month of January, 1950, to $1,556.50 for the month of January of 1951.

Later, the defense recalled Mrs. Bruce Hart, former employe of the hotel, who said she compiled figures used in computing an income tax return for the hotel for the year of 1950. This return, she said, also covered the month of December, 1949, the first month Rogers owned the hotel, making a total of 13 months. She said she took the hotel revenue figures from individual registration cards. The revenue for that 13-month period, as shown on the income tax return, was $37,709.15. A net profit of $2,529.62 was shown, not counting improvement made to the hotel during that period in the amount of $9,468.61.

The state called Mrs. J. C. Crossman to the stand Saturday morning. She said that Rogers and her husband were business associates at the time the hotel was purchased from Mr. J. W. Gossell. At one time the hotel deal was being negotiated, she said her husband planned to take a "all interest" in it. She said her husband withdrew because Rogers had obtained a number of small loans, instead of one large loan to cover the entire deal.

She said that Rogers employed her as manager of the hotel, and that she and her husband did have an interest in the hotel. A dispute arose, she said, in early February, 1950, when Rogers refused to recognize their interest. She said she and her husband left on Feb. 11, 1950 and returned to their home in Monroe, La. She said they were in Monroe at the time of the fire.

Mrs. Crossman denied that she or her husband made any threats to Rogers, but said they did tell Rogers that they intended to collect $4,000 for their interest in the hotel.

T. L. Baker New Secretary For Local YMCA

Tolly L. Baker had accepted appointment as associate secretary of the YMCA in Big Spring and will be assigned to program.

Grover C. Good, general secretary, said Saturday that Baker would arrive here Friday and would be on the job the morning of March 17.

Virtually all program details will be under his direction, said Good. Baker has resigned his position as instructor of sociology and psychology at Graham High School. He took that position, he said, with the understanding that he could leave, as soon as replaced, in event an opening in YMCA work occurred.

He is a native of Mullen, Texas, is 31 years of age, is married, and is a graduate of The University of Texas in 1950 with a major in psychology and sociology. He has had experience supervising intramural athletics in supervising a swimming pool program. Baker also has done welfare and community service work.

From 1941-42 he was in the maritime service and later in the U. S. Army, from which he was separated in 1946.

"We have been searching for a man to direct our rapidly expanding programs," said Good, "but we delayed until we found the one we believed to be the right man. Tolly Baker will fill a great need and is so doing will help us better serve the community," said Good.

Political Conventions Will Be Sponsored In 'Dignified' Way

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—The major party national committees announced agreement today on a limited and "dignified" commercial sponsorship of radio-television coverage of the national political conventions at Chicago in July.

Two conditions laid down in a code worked out with the radio and television networks are that no commercial announcements will be permitted from the convention floor and the type of sponsor shall be approved by the political parties. The committee announcements did not elaborate, but officials had said previously they would object to sponsorship by firms which sell, for example, beer or deodorants.

Three other conditions provided: 1. That commercial messages may be made only during recesses or during "long pauses" in actual convention proceedings.

2. Commercial must meet the "highest standards of dignity, good taste and length."

3. At the start and end of each broadcast period, an announcement shall make it "perfectly clear" (A) that the client is sponsoring the network's coverage of the event, and (B) that such coverage does not imply in any manner an endorsement of the product of the sponsor by the political party. This clause also provides that all commercials shall be written, programmed and delivered in such a way as to be "clearly and completely separated from convention proceedings, political parties, issues and personalities."

The Democratic and Republican National Committees have been working on the convention code with industry representatives for several months. They made simultaneous announcements of the agreement today and said it had been accepted by the American Broadcasting Company, Columbia Broadcasting System, Dumont Television Network, Liberty Broadcasting System, Mutual Broadcasting System, and National Broadcasting Company.

The committees said the networks requested permission to sell their coverage of the Republican (July 7) and Democratic (July 21) conventions due to "substantially increased programming, engineering and other costs" in connection with the coverage. Without commercial sponsorship, the networks would have to bear all the costs themselves.

The networks, it was said, agreed to construct their own booths, studios and control rooms at the International Amphitheater, scene of the conventions.

"None of the commercial revenue will be paid to the national political committees," said the announcement.

Past conventions have been aided largely on a non-commercial basis. Committee officials said the restrictions would apply to local

IN ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS

12 Half-Day Groups Will Meet Full Time

Effects of more space through occupancy of the new senior high school will be felt in elementary levels this week.

Twelve half-day sections are being moved to regular full-day sessions, said Dean Bennett, elementary supervisor. This leaves only eight half-day sessions in the system.

Not in more than a decade has there been any comparable figure, despite a gain of more than 1,000 in the enrollment in the interim. As of Friday evening, the enrollment of the system showed 4,192 White and 175 Negro, a total of 4,366, said W. C. Blankenship, superintendent.

Virtually all the schedule kinks has been ironed out at the new Senior High plant at the end of the week. Enrollment there was 486 at the close of school Friday. Only the top three grades (10th, 11th and 12th) are included in the Senior High.

While this number vacated the former high school plant, which now becomes Junior High, the Junior High unit picked up 334 seventh graders from the various elementary schools of the city. Together with 296 eighth graders and 275 ninth graders, this accounted for a total enrollment of 905 in the school.

Truett Johnson, Junior High principal, said that the seventh graders were oriented Friday and will be on regular schedule Monday. There will be an assembly of the seventh graders Tuesday when class officers will be chosen. This will open the way to the completion and organization of the Junior High student council, he said.

A first grade and a second grade half-day section are going on full-day at East Ward; two second grade sections at North Ward; two first grade sections at Kate Morrison, two second grade sections at Airport; two second grade and two third grade sections at West Ward. All will be in effect Monday except for North Ward, which will change over probably on Tuesday.

Half-day sessions left include: two first grades at North Ward, two first grades at Airport, three first grades and one second grade at West Ward. Because the weight of the half-day sessions was on the first two grade levels whereas the space was provided at the seventh grade level, considerable furnishing problems have arisen. The lower grades use tables normally and the upper grades desks.

By schools, enrollment figures Friday were: Washington Place 273, College Heights 266, Central 288, East Ward 224, North Ward 288, Kate Morrison 451, South Ward 126, Park Hill 148, Airport 359, West Ward 398; total 2,801. Colored elementary enrollment at Lakeview is approximately 155.

By grade levels, enrollment showed 517 in the first, 516 in the second, 530 in the third, 432 in the fourth, 394 in the fifth, and 352 in the sixth.

Christian Western To Be Shown Today At Stanton Church

STANTON—The motion picture "Mr. Texas," the first Western with major Christian emphasis, will be projected as the major portion of the evening worship today at the First Baptist Church here.

Featured are Redd Harper and Cindy Walker. When Billy Graham, the evangelist who is producer of the movie, and Harper and Miss Walker appeared in person with the picture in its premiere, there were more than 400 persons who used the occasion as an opportunity to make a public profession of their faith.

Virtually everywhere the film has been shown, it has resulted in professions.

Some of the scenes were made for the picture on location at Fort Worth and at Hardin Simmons University in Abilene. The stars of the show, which pivots on a rodeo and cowboy theme, are recent converts to Christianity.

Westbrook Council Deadline March 15

WESTBROOK.—Deadline for filing for a place on the city council ballot here is March 15.

Mayor W. E. Rucker said that city legal resident citizen of Westbrook is entitled to file. Applications should be left with him prior to the deadline. There will be two councilmen and a mayor to be chosen in the balloting on April 1.

Reports from the operating committees and plans on various events were aired at the monthly meeting of the Lone Star Boy Scout District Friday evening at Morales.

Highlights included reports on the leadership training course which started last Thursday at the HCJC auditorium annex. Al Dillon, leadership and training chairman, said that there were about 50 leaders, evenly divided, who participated.

Plans are being pushed for the annual Big Spring Round Up, April 17-19, said Wesley Deats, camping and activities chairman.

Courts of Honor are showing a marked increase in interest and attendance and the new merit badge counselor system is working

Jim Will Cox Pulls Up His Stakes; Leaves For Miss.

GARDEN CITY—After 45 years, Jim Will Cox developed a case of wandering fever which was brought on by a rain vitamin deficiency.

Cox pulled up stakes last week and he and Mrs. Cox, a native of Glascock County, moved to West Point, Miss. They will reside on a ranch they have bought four miles west of that place in partnership with their son-in-law, Bernard (Dan) Houston, Garden City.

"I guess I just got the wandering fever," said Cox. "But to tell the truth, I just wanted to know what it would be like not to have to be continually worrying for fear it wouldn't rain. I have spent half my life in praying for rain and feeding stock. They tell me I won't have those troubles in Mississippi."

He is shipping his stock from his ranch near here to West Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox have ranches five miles southeast of Garden City since their marriage in 1920. She was born in 1901 at a place just a mile and a half from where their present ranch house now stands.

Mrs. Cox is the daughter of Mrs. Ben Lovelace, Big Spring, and a granddaughter of Mrs. B. M. Lovelace, Big Spring. Jim Will Cox came here in 1907 from Swisher County with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Cox. He is a graduate of the Garden City schools.

They have five children, Mrs. Dan Houston, Fern Milton Cox, Bonnetta Cox, Ben Cox of Garden City and Mrs. H. B. Hallmark, Sierra Blanca. Penny Hallmark is their only grandchild. One son, Kenneth, who died at the age of 14, is buried here.

Estah's Flowers Purchased By Dorothy Ragan

Announcement of the purchase of Estah's Flowers is being made by Mrs. Dorothy Ragan, who has assumed charge of the operation.

The floral establishment was acquired from Mrs. Jessie Lee Townsend, who has been proprietor for the past five years.

Mrs. Ragan, member of a pioneer Big Spring family and well known in the area, said the establishment will continue to function under the present name. She issued an invitation to all her friends as well as old patrons of Estah's to call any time and inspect the greenhouses, designing rooms and floral stocks at the 1701 Scurry Street location.

Delegates, Sponsors To State Hi-Y Meet Get Together Monday

With leaders and transportation arranged, delegates and sponsors to the annual state Hi-Y conference in Wichita Falls will hold a special meeting at 7:30 p.m. Monday at the YMCA.

Grover C. Wood, general secretary and leader of the delegation, will outline the program for the parley which begins on Friday afternoon and terminates Sunday with an inspirational meeting.

The Big Spring Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs have been asked to present the opening devotional. Sandra Swartz will preside; Hollis Harper give the invocation; Ann Gray read the Scriptures; Robert Angel and Benny Compton present the devotional thoughts; and John Lawrence the closing rites.

Good is to be in charge of the confabs for club advisors and has sessions set up twice the opening afternoon and twice on Saturday.

Among the adults who are accompanying the two-score young people and taking cars are Ted Phillips, Bill Sheppard, Mrs. Truman Jones, Mrs. C. W. Norman, Mrs. A. Swartz, Mrs. Shelby Reed, H. C. Stipp, Charles Girdner and Good.

Four Lambs Missing From Feeding Pen

Four Big Spring FFA Chapter lambs that were ready for the Howard County Show opening Tuesday, have disappeared from their feeding pen at the Big Spring Livestock Auction Company, and the three owners were making a diligent search for them yesterday afternoon, hardly hoping to find them still in top-show condition.

Any person knowing the whereabouts of the lambs is asked to call Robert Mereworth at 3710-J, or Warren Lee Cooper at 1735, and the boys will hurry out and pick them up.

Burke Grabs St. Pete Lead; Fires 65 To Go 6 Strokes Up

Middlecoff Wilts Under Pressure Of Texan's Hot Round

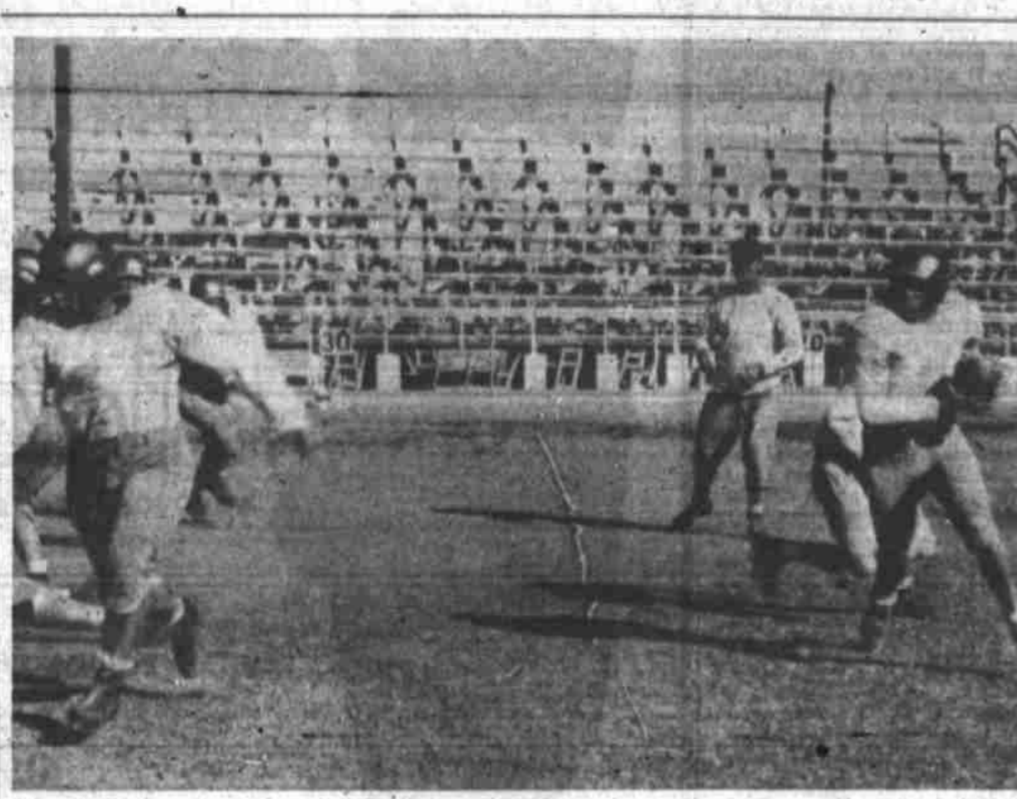

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 8 (AP)—Jack Burke Jr., Houston, the sensation of the winter golf circuit, had a fourth straight tournament conquest almost in the bag tonight.

The consistent Texan playing a near perfect tune with his irons and putter, sped around the 6,233-yard Lakewood Country Club Course today in 65, seven under par. That gave him a 54-hole total of 200 and a fat six-stroke lead with just 18 holes to go.

Yesterday's leader, Gary Middlecoff of Memphis, wilted under the torrid pace, taking a 71 for 206 to fall into a second place tie with Al Bessellink of Chicago.

Thus Burke stood within seemingly easy reach of his fourth consecutive $2,000 first prize. In the three weeks before coming to Florida, the 29-year-old Texan had swept the Texas Open, Houston Open and Baton Rouge Open to shoot to the top of the PGA money winning list with $6,720.

He was in trouble only once today as he wiped out the two-stroke margin Middlecoff had gained in yesterday's second round. At the short par 3 seventh, Burke over-shot the green and then putted twice for a 4.

As Donald Mack Richardson, charging at left, leads the way, Doyle Maynard (with ball) starts out on a tour into enemy lands in the Blue-White battle in the Big Spring High School football camp Friday. Maynard ripped for a sizeable gain but the Blues won a 13-12 verdict. The official is Coach Roy Baird. The game ended spring drills for the Steers.

ANTI-TRUST ACTION

Pro Boxing Facing Suit; Third Sport Threatened

NEW YORK (AP)—Professional sports faced an attack on another front today following a federal grand jury recommendation that the government take anti-trust action to end "restraint of trade and broadcasting of championship fights."

This boxing became the third major sport to be threatened with an anti-trust suit since the last world war.

An anti-trust suit is pending against the National Football League for its restriction of television on professional games. Baseball's reserve clause was challenged by the Danny Gardella suit but it never reached the courts.

Baseball also is confronted with an anti-trust suit. On Feb. 21 the Liberty Broadcasting System filed a $2 million dollar anti-trust suit in Chicago against 13 major league clubs and the presidents of the National and American Leagues.

Liberty claimed it had been frozen out of the 13 ball parks. The action against boxing was made yesterday in a short presentation to Federal Judge William Bondy by the grand jury, which has been probing the sport since last October.

No specific organization or person was mentioned in the presentment. And Melville C. Williams, head of the Anti-Trust Division of the office of U.S. Atty. Myles J. Lank, declined to say whether the exclusive-service contracts of the International Boxing Club with champions were involved.

Although the IBC was not mentioned, the organization took cognizance of the action. The IBC controls the sport in the big arenas of New York, Chicago, Detroit and St. Louis.

Harry Markson, managing director of IBC, said officers of the organization had appeared before the grand jury "but our understanding is that virtually every major promoter in the country also appeared."

Sugar Ray Robinson, middleweight champion, also was among those who testified. Jim Norris, IBC president, declined comment until he could examine the jury's recommendations. Broadcasting companies and fight sponsors also declined immediate comment.

Rutherford, one-time North Texas State College star, scored in 24 points as he led the Midland club to a 75- victory over Brownfield.

Hooper Beats Own Record In Border Shot Put

LAREDO, March 8 (AP)—Big Darro Hooper of Texas A&M and slender Javier Montes of Texas Western furnished the major punches in the Border Olympics today as the big track and field carnival pushed into its final session.

Hooper wiped out his own record in the shot put of the University class with a heave of 53 feet 7-8 inches and Montes edged the mile in 4:17.8 to not only beat the record in the College class but set an overall record.

Hooper beat his mark of 51 feet 10-1/2 inches he hung up last year. Montes bettered the College division record of 4:22.5 set by Blaine Rideout of North Texas State in 1938 and the University division mark of 4:18.7 set by J. D. Hampton of Texas A&M in 1949.

Seven records were set and tied during the day as the high school and junior college divisions ran off their finals and there were a smattering of finals in the University and College classes.

Amarillo won the High School division championship with 25 1/2-43 points, beating out defending champion Odessa, which had 24 1/2-45. Galena Park was third with 21.

Victoria easily swept up the Junior College title, scoring 774 points. Edinburg was second with 20 and Schreiner third with 15.

Tribe Signs Four More Baseballers

MIDLAND—Four more players have signed Midland baseball contracts, bringing the number to 11 who have signed pacts.

Outfielder Stan Wilcox, Pitcher Keith Nichols, Catcher-Outfielder Edwin Mennepepe and Second Baseman Bill Crumley are the latest to come into line.

Previously signed were Bruce Blumenthal, Billy Reed and Israel Ten, pitchers; Hayden White and Rudy Escobar, outfielders; Infielder Julio Delatorre and Catcher Gordon Tanner.

Rutherford Paces Midland To Win

Senior Rutherford, basketball coach at Howard County Junior College, left for L. Has and a weekend stint in the Naval Air Corps program but not before he got in his heels with the Midland team in the State TAAF Tournament at Odessa.

Rutherford, one-time North Texas State College star, scored in 24 points as he led the Midland club to a 75- victory over Brownfield.

WILLIAMS ON SECOND

Charles Warren On All-State

Charles Warren, HCJC freshman from Big Spring, was named to the all-tournament team chosen at the Texas Junior College Conference basketball tournament at Waco earlier this past week.

The first team consisted of Roy West, Allen Academy; James Wilson, Allen Academy; Bill Gandy, Lon Morris; and Raymond Hall, South Texas JC of Houston, in addition to Warren.

Named to the second team were Bobby (Dallas) Williams of HCJC, along with Dick Wheeler, South Texas; Jim Delaney, Allen Academy; Bill Chambers, Allen Academy; and Royce King, Lon Morris.

Raymond Hall was named the tournament's outstanding player. King is a product of Lamesa High School. Williams, as his nick-name implies, hails from Dallas. He, too, is a freshman at HCJC.

Hogan, Maxwell Head Entry List In Colonial Tourney

FORT WORTH, March 8 (AP)—Ben Hogan of Fort Worth and Billy Maxwell of Odessa—current National Open and amateur champions—head the classy entry list for the Colonial National Invitation golf tournament here May 21-25.

Fifteen of the top 25 money winners of 1951 are included in the first 21 entries for the seventh annual, fifteen thousand dollar tournament. Twelve of the top money winners of 1952 are also among the 21.

Maxwell, the only amateur entry, will be making his first try in the Colonial. Other entries include Colonial's own defending champion and runner-up of 1951, Cary Middlecoff and Jack Burke Jr. between them these two golfers hold all current major Texas tournament titles.

Besides Hogan, Maxwell, Middlecoff and Burke, the six other champions of 1951 and 1952 among 1952 Colonial entries announced today and the titles they won are: Tommy Bolt, 1951 North and South and 1952 Los Angeles Open; Jimmy Demaret, 1952 Bing Crosby invitation; Jim Ferrier, 1951 St. Petersburg, Miami Beach, Jacksonville, Canadian and Fort Wayne opens; Marty Furgal, 1951 Houston and Western opens; Byron Nelson, 1951 Bing Crosby Invitational; and O'Neal (Buck) White, 1951 Sioux City and Empire State opens.

The complete list of the first 21 Colonial entries for 1952 is as follows: Jerry Barber, Tommy Bolt, Julius Boros, Jack Burke Jr., Jimmy Clark, Jimmy Demaret, Jim Ferrier, Doug Ford, Marty Furgal, Fred Haas Jr., Fred Hawkins, Ben Hogan, Billy Maxwell, Cary Middlecoff, Bill Nary, Byron Nelson, Ed (Porky) Oliver, Johnny Palmer, Earl Stewart Jr., Bob Toaki and O'Neal (Buck) White.

Benefit Game Set Tuesday

COAHOMA—The fund for the proposed community center here will be left from the proceeds of a basketball game between the Coahoma Bulldogs, District 23-B champions, and an adult Coahoma team captained by W. T. Barber.

The contest will be played at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Coahoma gymnasium. Admission prices have been pegged at $1 adult and 25 cents student.

The Bulldogs went through the 1951-52 season with a 17-6 record. They were undefeated in district play. Most of the team will be eligible again next season.

Several of the adult team being lined up by Barber have played for Coahoma High School in the past.

Isleng Again Named No. 1 Skeet Shooter

DALLAS, March 8 (AP)—Three men, including Grant Isleng of Houston who won his fourth straight honor, repeated on the All-America team of the National Skeet Shooting Association.

The team, announced today by the association headquarters, is an 11-man affair. Normally it has 10 men, but was increased this year to accommodate Benjamin di Iorio Jr. of Utica, N. Y., who qualified in every way except that his total of 28-gauge targets fell 50 short of the required 1,000 minimum.

Repeating along with Isleng were Charles W. Shilsett of Joplin, Mo., and Ed Castagnetto of San Francisco.

Five shooters who never before made the team, are included in this year's lineup. They are Francis L. Ellis, national high-over-all and sub-small gauge champion, Jacksonville, Fla.; Henry L. Adler, Dallas, who boasted one of the highest combined gun averages in skeet; Tom Santillo, San Francisco, one of the year's most consistent winners in big time competition; Sgt. Cecil B. Jones of Bergstrom Air Force Base, Austin, another high average shooter and consistent winner, and John C. Dalton Jr. of Chevy Chase, Md., whose championships in 10 big Eastern tournaments earned him recognition as a standout on the Atlantic seaboard.

All-Americans from previous years who forged back into the top bracket were Herman Eher of Dallas and Cpl. Mickey Michaels of Bergstrom Air Force Base.

Eagles Retain Bowling Lead

Eagles Club took it on the chin from Cabot Carbon in three straight games last week but managed to hold onto first place in Men's Bowling League standings the past week.

In other tests, Team 5 rapped Phillips Tire Company, 3-0; Gregg Street Health Clinic won, 2-1, over Big Spring Herald; the same margin by which Lee Hanson's nipped Clark Motor Company.

E. B. Dozier, Jr., led scorers in individual games with 211; Virgil Long had high aggregate with 560, despite the fact that he limped home with a 148.

Other '200 games' were bowled by T. T. Thompson, Tony Reinhardt, James Kilgore and Bob Birch.

Eagles Club has now won 45 and lost 30, followed by Clark Motor with 42-33, Phillips Tire and Gregg Street Health Clinic, tied for third with 41-34; Lee Hanson's with 39-36; Cabot Carbon with 37-38; Team 5 with 29-48; and Big Spring Herald with 26-49.

Lehman Sinned By Rocket Nine

ROSWELL, N. M.—The Roswell Rockets of the Longhorn Baseball League now have 22 players under contract.

The last to sign was Stewart (Whitey) Lehman, 19-year-old rookie infielder. He will try to win Manager Al Monchak's second base job.

Lehman was spotted in the Joe Stripp Baseball School in Florida by Monchak himself. Whitey lives in Lennard, N. J.

Monchak expects to have around 25 players in camp when the Rockets report to spring workouts at Pecos, Texas, March 17.

The business office of the Roswell club has announced that all 211 box seats have been sold for the season.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

He isn't saying much about it but Carl Coleman, the local football coach, is pleased as punch over the progress his charges have made in spring drills. "If they think it, they'll win some ball games next fall," says Carl. Coleman feels he has at least 11 boys in camp who want to play football.

The team is going to be shy of experienced linebackers and defensive halfbacks but improvement has been noted even in those positions. All in all, it doesn't look as if the 1952 season will go on and on and on, as it did in 1951. When he was at ACC as head mentor, Tonto Coleman had his own method for de-emphasizing the grid game. Once a stand-out Wildcat athlete came to him with the story that an area school was offering him so much more to change than had ACC, including spending money. To which Tonto replied, "That seems too good to pass up. You better take it."

P. S.: The youngsters remained at ACC and played some sterling ball for the Cats. The girls' volleyball tournament held here the past week almost became a swimming tourney. A steam valve broke in the girls' dressing room and flooded the place, soaking Arah Phillips' records, among other things.

The Odessa baseball club has signed a rookie named Joe William Criswell who hails from the same town that gave Barney Batson to the diamond world, Springfield, Mo. The local coaching staff expects San Angelo's Bobcats to deal them more misery in a football way, next autumn than will Breckenridge, and the Buckies only won the 3A state championship in 1951.

Jones Was The Best, Says Corcoran

George Tillinghast Jr., a former Big Spring resident, is a member of the Odessa High School links team. They say his long iron game is what is keeping Bobby Maxwell off of Big Spring off the North Texas State College golf team. Maxwell placed tenth in competition for a berth on the five-man squad recently. Brother Billy, you know, is the National Amateur king and top player on the Eagle squad.

Fred Corcoran insists that Bobby Jones is the greatest golfer of all times, says scores of current standouts like Ben Hogan and Sam Snead are lower only because equipment and courses have been improved. The Augusta Masters, Bobby Jones' brain-child, is the tournament where the big names of golf usually return to competition, as results generally show.

Can you recall when anyone but an established star won it? No one here, that I know of, is shuddering over the football schedule booked by Big Spring High School next fall, though it is one of the toughest in the school's history. Most of those who have committed themselves think it will help the local gridders' morale for them to meet the best. Larry King, the Midland scribe, says Midland's Bulldogs will be lighter but faster than they were last fall. The Bulldogs should have some of the best ends in the state. I expect Jimmy Ellison, the Steers' huge tackle, to really arrive this fall. Tifty will be a junior this fall and will be after his third Steer numeral. Four South Texas junior colleges are retiring from the double-tough South Texas Conference to form their own athletic league and will call it the Rio Grande Athletic Conference. Edinburg, Uvalde, Brownsville and Laredo are the seceding members.

A Real Iron Man Was Laredo Cager

Sixty-eight of the 84 boys out for spring drills at LSU are native sons. Only two hail from Texas. This state used to do better by the Baton Rouge school. You've often heard of basketball teams finishing games with only four and sometimes three men active but pipe this: When Laredo's Cohen Sports played the Cabanas Filers in the South Texas Invitational Tournament at Corpus last week, it played the last 15 seconds with only one player on the court, yet won the decision, 60-59. Four of the athlete's mates fouled out and Laredo had no subs. The athlete, one Dario Hinojosa, must have been a cool customer because he kept bouncing the ball off the opposition's legs from throwing the ball in from out of bounds, in order to run out the clock. He had four fouls on him at the end of the game.

DIBRELL HAS TWO Four Teams Place Men On Y Quintet

Two players of Dibrell's Sporting Goods and one each from Forsan, Knott and American Legion were named to the Daily Herald's 1951-52 YMCA City Basketball League All-Star team.

Dibrell players honored were Bill Fletcher and Gil Barnett. Fletcher is the former HCJC star who didn't join the Sportsman until mid-season. However, he was brilliant from the start.

Barnett was eagle-eye and quick. His lack of feight didn't seem to handicap him in the least.

Frank Hardisty was the lone Legion player honored on the first team but others gained much support in the voting. The talent on the Legion club seemed to be very evenly spread.

Sobby Beall, Knott, also rated the club, along with Ken Cowley, Forsan.

Beall was the league's top scorer and very difficult to guard. Cowley never slowed down in a game. Oftentimes he came charging down the court like a ball but he likely as not came up with the ball and led the Forsan team in scoring.

FIRST TEAM Bill Fletcher, Dibrell's; Gil Barnett, Dibrell's; Frank Hardisty, American Legion; Sobby Beall, Knott; Ken Cowley, Forsan.

SECOND TEAM Wayne Brown, Legion; Bill Davis, Texas and Pacific; Targe Lindsay, Garden City; Wayne De Vany, Texas and Pacific; John Cline, Garden City.

THIRD TEAM Randall Miller, Coca-Cola; Al Cluck, Ackerly; More Madison, Legion; T. L. Davis, Gulf Research; Jim Bedwell, Cabot Carbon.

Huge Field Due In Fort Worth Track Carnival

FORT WORTH, March 8 (AP)—More than 1500 athletes from five states will swarm over Farrington Field and Z. Iba Golf Course this week for the 29th annual Southwestern Recreation Track, Field and Golf Meet.

Competition in the big cinder carnival gets under way Friday, March 14, when high school preliminaries begin. Prelims in all other divisions—university, college, junior college, and freshmen—follow Saturday morning. Finals in all divisions are set for Saturday afternoon.

All golfing events will be held at the West Side Z. Iba layout under direction of Pro Doug Higgins. Meet director R. D. Evans announced Saturday that 1,145 entries already have been received, and several hundred more are expected before the Monday night deadline.

Evans predicts one of the biggest meets in history. For most of the teams, the Fort Worth meet will provide the first organized competition of the year.

Defending champions will be back in at least three divisions in attempts to repeat as victors. Abilene Christian, College division winner in 1951, Victoria, last year's Junior champ, and University of Texas Yearlings, defending Freshmen winners, all have submitted entries.

By far the largest crop of entries is in the High School class, where 65 schools and 615 boys already are represented. Eight universities, eight colleges, nine junior colleges and nine freshmen teams complete the current track lineup.

AGGIES BEAT BUFFS LAS CRUCES, N. M., March 8 (AP)—New Mexico A&M goes to the NCAA basketball tournament in Kansas City March 21 after downing West Texas State 62-51 Friday night in a battle between Border Conference co-champions.

Antelope Is Winner Of Net-Ball Meet

Here She Is, The Queen

Beauty reigned supreme at the Big Spring Girls' Volley Ball Tournament, which closed Saturday night. Judged Tournament Queen, in a split decision, was 18-year-old Shirley Sehon of Odessa (above). She's the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Sehon Jr., Box 3789, Odessa. She's been a resident of Odessa for the past seven years, lived in Midland, Denver City and Pampa before moving to Odessa. She's 5 feet 4 1/2, weighs 125. The girls pictured below all finished high in the balloting.

Beats Monahans In Last Round

A dead-serious Antelope (Jack County) sextet entered the throne room of the seventh annual Big Spring Girls' Volley Ball Tournament here Saturday night by winning a 38-12 verdict over Monahans in the finals.

As a record crowd of over 1,000 looked on, the Antelopes—coached by C. J. Hughes—jumped into the lead at the start and were never headed. They were out from by a count of 21-3 at half time.

Antelope got into high gear after receiving a forfeit from Levelland in the opening round, breezing past Andrews, 58-10; Paint Rock, 48-11; and Fort Stockton, 32-8, in that order.

Monahans blasted Abilene, 40-14, then pulled the biggest upset of the meet in ousting Big Spring in the second round, 21-20. Iraan fell before the Lobos in the quarterfinals, 22-14, after which the Green Wave toppled Imperial, 30-18.

Antelope succeeds Big Spring as the champion, which saw its 46-game winning streak come to an end in the Monahans game.

The Tournament Queen was Shirley Sehon of Odessa, a senior in high school.

The All-Tournament team was composed of six set-ups and six spikers. They were:

SET-UPS—Nora Maxey, Antelope; Alicia Nunez, Fort Stockton; Janice Jones, Imperial; Jackie Gibbs, Midland; Jan Burns, Garden City; and Laura Clerihew, Antelope.

SPIKERS—Nell Glover, Big Spring; Sherry Sinek, Antelope; Jo Ann Stoneking, Monahans; Betty Knox, Monahans; Esther Bueno, Fort Stockton; and Charlene Wilson, Big Spring. The latter was chosen for the second straight year.

The best set-up of the tournament was judged to be Elouise Carroll of Big Spring, the best spiker Mary Maxey of Antelope.

Aggies Repeat As Champions

LAREDO, March 8 (UP)—Texas A&M repeated as champion of the Border Olympics University class tonight while North Texas State dethroned Abilene Christian in the College Division.

The Aggies had little trouble sweeping to their triumph but it required the final event—the mile relay—to give North Texas its title. The Eagles placed second to make their total 41 points while ACC, which won the relay, was second with 38. The Eagles had clinched at least a tie for the title before the relay and would have to have been shut out entirely for ACC to gain a deadlock for first.

Texas A&M rolled up 60 points in winning the University class title. Oklahoma A&M and Texas tied for second place with 40 points each.

Paddy Young Wins In Durando Bout

By MURRAY ROSE
NEW YORK (UP)—Paddy Young, a decisive winner over hard-hitting Ernie Durando last night, was ready and eager to take on Ray Robinson in a title bout May 16 if the busy Harlem Sugar man still has his middleweight crown by then.

The 23-year-old Young won the right to meet Ray in Madison Square Garden in a Heart Fund show by his second triumph over the stocky Durando in the Garden.

But before Young can step into the ring with the 160-pound king, he'll have to wait and see how Robinson fares in his title fights with C. C. Bobo Olson in San Francisco next Thursday and with Rocky Graziano in Chicago April 19.

The giant-killing Poly Parrots reached the finals berth when they upset pre-tourney favorite Borger in the Class AAAA title tilt.

Borger who had lost but once previously, was the second highest-scoring victim of the Cinderella Fort Worth crew. Poly eliminated undefeated Sunset of Dallas in bi-district play.

Borger held a 33-27 halftime lead, but fell victim to a sensational third-quarter shooting spree by Poly's Dick O'Neal. O'Neal tallied 12 markers in the torrid third stanza to put the Parrots ahead, 48-43 as the fourth quarter opened.

The Parrots held onto their lead after O'Neal fouled out early in the final stanza, despite the efforts of Borger's Mack Carter, who poured 27 points through the lacings.

Alamo Heights gained the Division I final round when they outlasted Gladewater, 49-45, in the finals of Class AAA.

Bowie made the Division II finals when it whipped a good Levelland five, 65-59, in the Class AA finals.

Members of the team were Dr. L. B. Andrew, Leonard Morgan, Milas Woods, Tunney Goodson and E. B. Desier Jr.

The Big Springers had an aggregate score of 1,155 pins for 45 games (15 each).

ARCADIA, Calif., March 8 (UP)—Infant won the $50,000 San Juan Capistrano Handicap at Santa Anita today.

All For Naught

LOCALS PLAY TUESDAY

Jayhawks Await Opening Of Regional Tournament

The Region V Basketball Tournament, winner of which becomes eligible for the National Junior College Tournament in Hutchinson, begins in Amarillo Monday night.

Howard County Junior College, which recently won Western Zone laurels, will compete as one of the favorites. The Hawks drew a first round bye and will not make the trip to Amarillo until Tuesday, at which time it plays the winner of the Eastern Oklahoma A & M-Claarendon game.

First round games, in addition to that contest, finds Conners of Oklahoma tangling with Frank Phillips of Borger at 4 p.m. Monday, followed by a 7 p.m. bout between Eastern Oklahoma and Claarendon and a 9 o'clock joust between Decatur Baptist and Amarillo.

Amarillo, which is always hard to beat at home, will not be at full strength, since three of its better players—including big Jim Burris—will not be eligible for the meet.

HCJC has beaten all of the teams in a meet but the Oklahoma clubs. They are of unknown strength.

Howard Jones, who suffered an injury recently that kept him out of the state meet, may possibly be ready to play in Amarillo. He was sorely missed at Waco.

Jones has been taking chiropractic treatments on his arm and says it has been responding.

In 30 games this season, HC has emerged victorious 22 times. Counting the two points they picked up in a forfeit by Frank Phillips, they've scored a total of 1735 points to 1516 for the foe.

Exclusive of the forfeit, the locals have averaged 59.9 points a game, compared to 54 for the opposition.

Down Under' Girl Better Record

SYDNEY, Australia, March 8 (UP)—Marjorie Jackson, the 20-year-old "Lithgow Flash," twice bettered her own world record for the 100-yard dash today in the New South Wales track meet.

At the Sydney sports ground, Miss Jackson was timed in 10.4 seconds, compared with her old mark of 10.7. She beat Erica Wells, 17-year-old Newcastle, New South Wales, by eight yards.

Bosox Score Shutout

SARASOTA, Fla., March 8 (UP)—Rookie Ralph Brinkner, Randy Gumpert and Maury McDermott held the Cincinnati Reds to just two hits today as the Boston Red Sox opened the Grapefruit season with a 5-0 victory.

Colorado City Wolves Win Three-Way Track Carnival

COLORADO CITY.—Track teams from Roscoe, Loraine and Colorado City vied in Wolf Stadium, Friday afternoon, with the thinny clads from Colorado City outpointing the other teams. The practice meet was run off in goose-simply weather, which cut the size of the crowd. The Wolf team scored 71 points, Roscoe 61 and Loraine 18.

One of the biggest thrillers came in the mile, when Joe Ed Colde-way, of Loraine, held a 59-yard lead until the last lap, when Manuel Herrera of Roscoe, closed rapidly and won going away. Winning time was 5:46.1. Colde-way was second, and Arturo Herrera of Roscoe was third.

The Roscoe team won the mile relay, with the winning team, Jessie Ratliff, Bucky Nix, Cliff Burnett and Jimmy Cantrell. Colorado City was second.

Colorado City took the 440-yard, with Hollis Gaine, Don Maynard, Berman Corbell and George Swann carrying the baton. Another Colorado City team was second and Loraine was third.

In other events, listed as first, second and third and winning time or distance given.

Broad Jump: Bud Windham, Colorado City, 19 feet and 3/4 inch.

FROGS AND AGGIES ARE OFF TECH GRID CARD

LUBBOCK.—Two Southwest Conference teams and two inter-sectional foes are on a ten-game Texas Tech football schedule for 1952 announced Saturday by DeWitt Weaver, athletic director and head football coach.

Tech meets Rice Institute in Houston and Baylor University in Lubbock. The Red Raiders will travel to Stockton, California, to meet College of Pacific and will entertain North Carolina State.

Added to the 1951 slate are Rice, COP, and North Carolina State. Tech lost a 13-7 game to Rice in 1950 and defeated COP 25-14 in the 1951 Sun Bowl. North Carolina State and Tech have never met before on the gridiron, although Raider basketballers nipped the NC State quintet 63-62 in December.

Missing from the 1951 card are Texas Christian University, Texas A&M, and New Mexico University. Homecoming will be with University of Houston Nov. 1.

Six games are scheduled at home. Thirty-three lettermen return from the team that won six and lost four games and captured the Border Conference title en route to the Sun Bowl. It was Weaver's first year as a head coach. He came to Tech a year ago from an associate coaching spot at University of Tulsa.

Complete 1952 schedule, with 1951 scores in parentheses:

- Sept. 20—West Texas State, Lubbock, N. C. (46-7)
- Sept. 27—Rice, Houston, N. (DNP)
- Oct. 4—College of Pacific, Stockton, Calif., N. (25-14), Sun Bowl
- Oct. 11—Texas Western, Lubbock, N. C. (27-7)
- Oct. 18—Baylor, Lubbock, N. (20-40)
- Oct. 25—Open
- Nov. 1—Houston, Lubbock, (homecoming) (0-6)
- Nov. 8—Open
- Nov. 15—Hardin Simmons, Abilene, BC (28-21)
- Nov. 22—Arizona, Tucson, BC, (41-0)
- Nov. 29—Tulsa, Lubbock, (14-21)
- Dec. 6—North Carolina State, Lubbock, (DNP)
- BC—Border Conference game.
- N—night. Tech score listed first.
- Also played in 1951—Texas A&M (7-20), Texas Christian (23-19), New Mexico (60-14).

Mary Faulk Wins Florida Tourney

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., March 8 (UP)—Mary Lena Faulk, 23-year-old Thomasville, Ga., golfer, won the Florida East Coast Women's Golf Tournament for the second straight year here today.

The Georgian defeated Bea McWane, Birmingham, Ala., 5 and 3 in the 18-hole finals over the Ponce de Leon course. Miss Faulk was three strokes over men's par.

Miss Faulk won the crown by defeating the top players in tournament. First she eliminated the medalist, Marjorie Lindsay of Decatur, Ill., 3 and 2, and defeated Polly Riley, Fort Worth, 4 and 2 in the semi-finals.

Longhorns Launch Workouts Monday

High School baseball workouts will officially get underway here Monday-afternoon under the direction of Roy Baird.

Baird succeeds Conn Isaacs as the diamond mentor.

A large squad of hopefuls is due to be on hand, including such lettermen as Oakie Hagood, Frank Long, Jimmy Montgomery, Gene Gross, Billy Mack Sheppard, Jack Sparks and others.

Baird is attempting to line up several practice games for the locals before the District 1 season gets underway March 28. At that time, Big Spring goes to Lubbock.

The Steers play their first home game within the conference on April 1, at which time Odessa will be here.

The south half of the district is composed of but three teams—Lubbock, Odessa and Big Spring.

Champion of the division will meet the northern half titlist for the right to represent the conference in bi-district wars.

Chiropractic-Arts Paces Standings

Despite the fact that it suffered a 2-1 licking at the hands of Dibrill's Sporting Goods last time out, Chiropractic Arts retained the lead in Women's Bowling League standing by a single game.

A 3-0 triumph over Lone Star Chevrolet the previous week turned the trick.

Lone Star overwhelmed Texas Club in last week's other matches, 2-1.

Dibrill led single game scoring with 696 and was second in aggregate point-getting with 1889. First in that department was Lone Star with 1897.

Jinx Dozier of Dibrill's led individual scoring with 199, followed by Mary Ruth Robertson of Texas Club with 197. Mary Ruth collected a 534 for high aggregate, followed by Mrs. Dozier with 476.

The previous week, Janie Barnett of Chiropractic Arts set the pace in individual games with 199 and was runner-up to Mrs. Robertson's 554 aggregate with a count of 534.

Chiropractic Arts has now won 16 and lost 8, Dibrill's 15 and 9, Lone Star 9 and 15 and Texas Club 8 and 18.

MENASCO SIGNS
NEW YORK, March 8 (UP)—Don Menasco, former all-America at the University of Texas, has signed a contract with the New York Giants of the National Football League.

Illinois Surges To Track Title

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., March 8 (UP)—Four Big Ten indoor track and field records were blasted today, two of them by Illinois in a surge to its second successive team championship.

The Illini, in a great drive for honors against Michigan, compiled 59 2-5 points for their 15th indoor title in the long series.

The Wolverines, who were after their 18th crown, finished second with 52 points while Iowa stepped into third place with 29 and donated a one-mile relay mark.

Ohio State, whose defending mile and 880-yard champion, Len Truess remained at home with 15 points.

Illinois and Michigan each won five events.

Braves Drop Dodgers

MIAMI, March 8 (UP)—The Boston Braves turned back the Brooklyn Dodgers, 5-2, in the opening exhibition game for both clubs before a crowd of 7,547 today.

Dawson Gains Deep Wildcat

Another deep wildcat has been scheduled for Dawson County. This one will be the Cities Service No. 14 Dupree, 550 from the north and west lines of the south-east quarter of section 67-34, EL&R.R. in the Welch pool. However, projected depth is 12,500, which should take it into the Ellenburger. Operator plans to take a drillstem test of all formations encountered including the Ellenburger. The venture is approximately 15 miles northwest of Lamesa.

Finding Vacancies Rewarding Twist

By MAC ROY RASOR
AUSTIN, March 8 (U) — Next best to discovering oil under land might be discovering land over the oil. That's what they're doing in big, spacious Texas. You might think in the 130 years since Stephen F. Austin brought his first colony to Texas, all land claims would be pretty well settled. But in the past three weeks the state has upheld claims to land vacancies turned up smack in the middle of rich Lonestar oil lands. On one of the claims were eight producing wells. There is no particular trick to discovering vacant acreage. All you need to do now is scramble through dusty old land survey records, turn up some uncorrected errors, run new surveys to prove there is more land than the old surveys covered — and you have yourself a vacancy claim.

It helps, of course, if you're a lawyer, a civil engineer, or both. But amateurs have also hit pay dirt. It was a 75-year-old survey line that gave rise to a recent claim by Fort Worth Attorney James C. Wilson Jr. to 580 acres in the heart of West Texas' Tex-Harvey Oil Field. The old survey had run two nearly-parallel lines along a 40-mile stretch in the area and then abandoned one of them. Later surveys frequently tied into the abandoned line, leaving the area between the abandoned line and the adopted line unrecorded in existing deeds. Wilson's claim gathered up 13

Rutherford Spots Well

P. R. Rutherford, et al of Houston, No. 1-B J. C. Davis will be an outpost test in the Von Roeder field of Southeastern Borden. This venture will be located 660 from the south and 560 from the east lines of section 68-25, H&T.C. and it is projected to 7,500. It is three-fourths of a mile south of a producer and 1 1/2 west of a producer in the Von Roeder pool, and two miles east of nearest production in the Retenacke pool.

Ashland Oil & Refining No. 2-13 W. A. Hutchison, 1,984 from the north and 666 from the west lines of section 18-3-45, T&P, will be one of the tests projected to 8,100. Amerada Petroleum Corp. No. 2-H-35 TXL, will be 660 from the south and west lines of the northeast quarter of section 35-37-45, rotary to 7,500. El Capitan Oil No. 4 Whitehouse, 1,980 from the south and west lines of section 47-37-45, T&P, has been amended to be deepened from 7,895 to 8,000.

Continental Establishing Fort Worth Region Office

HOUSTON — Establishment of regional headquarters in Fort Worth for Continental Oil Company, effective April 1, was announced in Houston Saturday by President L. E. McCollum. Formerly an area office, Fort Worth will become headquarters for the newly created southwestern region, with supervision over all exploration, production, manufacturing, marketing and allied operations throughout North Texas, and New Mexico, said McCollum. It was announced simultaneously that H. H. Hinson, Houston, formerly assistant manager of Continental's production department, has been promoted to regional general manager of the southwestern region, and that George W. Evans, Houston, formerly manager of transportation and purchasing, has been promoted to assistant regional general manager. Coincident with establishment of the new southwestern region, S. J. Larson, Houston, now general marketing manager of Continental's southern region, will move to Fort Worth as general marketing manager of the southwestern region. P. W. Higgins, manager of the Fort Worth marketing division miles northeast of Ackerly, took a drillstem test in the San Andrews. The interval was 3,620-3,725 and the tool was open two hours and 15 minutes. Recovery was 2,000 feet of sulphur water, with no shows of oil or gas. Operator was drilling ahead. Seaboard No. 1 Deab, C SW SW 29-34-50, T&P, half a mile south of Midway, had drilled past 4,230 in lime and shale. Seaboard No. 1 Weaver, C NE NE 68-35-60, T&P, three miles northwest of Lamesa, progressed to 6,650. Seaboard No. 1 Woodul, C SE SW 24-34-50, T&P, 10 miles south-east of Lamesa and a mile and three-fourths northwest of the Deep Spraberry pool, had re-run rods and resumed pumping after it had flowed 51 barrels of fluid in six hours and died.

Wasson To Take Test

Texas No. 1 Wasson, Northeastern Howard wildcat, was taking another drillstem test during the weekend. The venture, located C SW NW 4-26-10, T&P, 10 miles northeast of Coahoma, was bottomed at 7,850 in shale. Using dual packers, a lime section from 7,935-40, was to be tested. Earlier a test was run from 7,805-817 with recovery of 30 feet of drilling mud and 120 feet of slightly gas-cut drilling mud in 90 minutes. Rutherford No. 1 Binie White, C SE SW 36-25, H&T.C. on the east side of the East Vealmoor pool, drilled below 3,400 in shale.

Phillips No. 3 Mashburn extended the Germania field 1-3-mile north with a daily flow of 396.24 barrels of oil from open hole between 7,079-578 feet following hydraulic fracturing. Location is 660 feet from north and east lines of north-west quarter of section 6-36-25-T&P. A north offset to Tioga No. 1 McCaughey, recent extension to the Parks (Pennsylvanian) field final for a daily flow of 77.97 barrels of oil. No. 2 McCaughey flowed from acidized perforations at 10-10-505-560 and 10-245-286 feet. Location is 660 feet from north and east lines of southeast quarter of section 44, H. G. Purcell survey, on location north of No. 1 McCaughey.

Pair Spotted In Glasscock

Two new locations were reported for the Driver-Spraberry area in southwestern Glasscock County. Ashland Oil & Refining No. 2-13 W. A. Hutchison, 1,984 from the north and 666 from the west lines of section 18-3-45, T&P, will be one of the tests projected to 8,100. Amerada Petroleum Corp. No. 2-H-35 TXL, will be 660 from the south and west lines of the northeast quarter of section 35-37-45, rotary to 7,500. El Capitan Oil No. 4 Whitehouse, 1,980 from the south and west lines of section 47-37-45, T&P, has been amended to be deepened from 7,895 to 8,000.

for the past 17 years, will continue in that position. Several key men on Continental's present executive staff in Fort Worth will assume new positions. D. D. Christner, area manager of exploration, will become regional manager of exploration; H. J. Johnston, area production manager, will become regional production manager; W. O. Hain Jr., area geologist, will become regional geologist; H. E. E. Prokesh, area geophysicist, will become regional geophysicist; C. M. Cady, area land superintendent, will become regional land superintendent, and G. R. Pate, general area attorney, will become general regional attorney. At the same time it was announced that Chas. A. Peritt, Jr., Houston, vice-president and director of Continental, will relinquish his duties as general manager of the present southern region to become a member of the company's executive management staff in Houston. Other promotions due to revision of the southern region include O. L. Fisher, formerly assistant manager, to regional general manager, Houston, and W. W. Brill, Denver, formerly manager of exploration in Continental's Rocky Mountain region, to assistant regional general manager, Houston.

Spraberry Trend Finals Two In East Midland

Four new locations and two completions were reported on the Spraberry trend on the eastern side of Midland County at the end of the week. Sharples Oil No. 4-E TXL will be 1,960 from the north and west lines section 43-7-45, T&P. Driver-Spraberry pool, rotary 7,400. Sharples Oil No. 4-F TXL will be 1,980 from the south and east lines of section 29-7-45, T&P, rotary 7,300. Gulf Oil No. 5 C. A. McClintic, et al, will be 660 from the south and west lines J. Lacy Survey No. 10, Tex Harvey pool, rotary 7,300. Ted Weiner, Trustee No. 1-5-A M. H. O'Daniel, et al will be 660 from north and west lines section 1-37-25, S. Wright, rotary 8,500. El Tec' No. 1-M. H. O'Daniel, et al, 663 from south and 663 from west lines section 1-37-25, S. Wright survey, flowed 24 hours through 9-16 choke after 6,000 gallons fracture. It made no water and 456 barrels of 37.6 gravity oil. Tubing pressure was 60, gas-oil ratio 775-1, elevation 2,658; top pay 7,150, total depth 7,328, the 5 1/2-in. casing on pay top.

Wildcat Stakings Dominate Picture

By JOHN B. BREWER
SAN ANGELO, March 8—Staking of wildcats predominated in the varied West Texas oil activity this week but Midland County came through with a completion of the largest well on the west side of Tex Harvey Spraberry production, a San Andres discovery was completed in Cochran County and Cisno pay was opened in the Vealmoor field of Howard County. A daily flowing potential of 877 barrels of 39 gravity oil from perforations in both upper and lower Spraberry was filed by Anderson-Prichard No. 1 H. L. Hunt, 3/4 mile south of production on the west side of the Tex-Harvey field, this giving it a record potential for the west side of that pool. Flow was from perforations at 7,110-173, from 7,195-215, 7,680-735 and from 7,906-810 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 658-1. Perforations were fractured with 5,000 gallons. Location is 660 feet out of the northeast corner of section 42-37-35, T&P. Three other Midland County fields were extended. The H. Lonesome multipay moved 3/4-mile south with completion of Texas No. 2-D Clarence Schaubauer for a daily flow of 124.5 barrels of 43.8 gravity oil plus 6.6 barrels of water from perforations between 10,682-716 feet in the Pennsylvanian. Location is 1,980 from south, 660 feet from west line of section 19-39-25-T&P. Phillips No. 3 Mashburn extended the Germania field 1-3-mile north with a daily flow of 396.24 barrels of oil from open hole between 7,079-578 feet following hydraulic fracturing. Location is 660 feet from north and east lines of north-west quarter of section 6-36-25-T&P. A north offset to Tioga No. 1 McCaughey, recent extension to the Parks (Pennsylvanian) field final for a daily flow of 77.97 barrels of oil. No. 2 McCaughey flowed from acidized perforations at 10-10-505-560 and 10-245-286 feet. Location is 660 feet from north and east lines of southeast quarter of section 44, H. G. Purcell survey, on location north of No. 1 McCaughey.

Sample Shows In Deep Test

Union Sulphur & Oil No. 1 Arnett, previously completed as a small producer and as a north outpost to the Germania field, has deepened with some shows. The test has been deepened from 7,245 and is now below 7,382 in lime and sand. Samples are showing some signs of oil. This well, C NW SW 30-36-14, T&P, had completed for 35.88 barrels per day plus 75 per cent water from 7,184-7,245. Operator determined that the water was coming from behind the casing and decided to carry it deeper in an effort to step up production. A Cochran County wildcat, Mid-Continent No. 1-3 Smith Ranch, completed as a San Andres discovery for a daily flowing potential of 23.94 barrels of 25 gravity oil, gas-oil ratio of 1,640-1. Production was from acidized perforations between 4,955-985 feet. Location is 660 feet out of the southeast corner of section 15-W-psi. Cisno pay was opened in the Vealmoor field of Howard County by completion of Seaboard No. 1

LEA COUNTY MOST ACTIVE IN DRILLING IN BASIN SECTION

Lea County, New Mexico forged to the lead as the most active spot in the Permian Basin on March 1, according to the semi-monthly rotary rig survey by Reed Roller Bit Company. Midland edged from third to second place and Upton fell out of the lead to third place. Activity sagged slightly in the period from Feb. 15, when there were 737 active rigs in operation in the Basin, to March 1 when there were 741. However, the March 1 figure was far greater than the 526 for the same date a year ago. Lea County had 121, a gain of nine over the previous report; Midland had 112 as against 105 previously, and Upton had 100 as against 123. Here is the way the totals stacked up on March 1 (with the Feb. 15 totals shown in parentheses): Andrews 30 (37), Borden 12 (9), Crane 10 (10), Coke 17 (15), Cochran 10 (12), Crockett 10 (11), Ector 35 (36), Gaines 26 (30), Glasscock 28 (24), Howard 10 (14), Kent 14 (15), Martin 6 (4), Pecos 10 (14), Reagan 53 (48), Scurry 32 (30), Schleicher 12 (20), Tom Green 12 (10), Winkler 14 (13), Ward 9 (9); total 741 (747).

Midland Publishes 212-Page Oil Paper

MIDLAND, March 8 (U)—The Reporter Telegram published a 212-page newspaper Sunday, its fifth annual Petroleum Progress Edition. It is the largest newspaper ever printed in Midland, headquarters city of the Permian Basin oil empire. The paper is published by the Midland Publishing Co., 107 E. 2nd St., Phone 799 or 3413-J. It is published by the Midland Publishing Co., 107 E. 2nd St., Phone 799 or 3413-J. It is published by the Midland Publishing Co., 107 E. 2nd St., Phone 799 or 3413-J.

Ryan Completes Stanton Venture As Small Well

Ryan Consolidated Petroleum Corporation of Dallas has completed its No. 1 Willie Peters, Southeast Martin County wildcat as a small pumping producer from the Spraberry. This project has been in process of completion for several months. Operator reported to the Railroad Commission of Texas that it pumped 8.25 barrels of 36.8 gravity oil plus one per cent formation water on the official potential test. The production was from open hole in the Spraberry between the bottom of the 5 1/2-inch casing, which is cemented at 7,000 feet, and the total depth at 7,187 feet. That section had been fractured and it had also been shot with 224 quarts of nitro-glycerin. Location is 660 feet from north and east lines of section 11, block 36, T-1-S, T&P survey. It is one mile north of the town of Stanton. This wildcat has been credited with having pumped as much as 40 barrels of oil per day, plus some water, on preliminary tests. These reports were not officially verified.

Union Recovers Mud From Reef

Union Sulphur & Oil No. 1 Erwin, C SE NW 1-25, H&T.C. Northwest Mitchell Strawn prospect, continued on pump in an effort to clean out. The latest report showed it making eight barrels of new oil and an unreported amount of mud and no water. Operator has indicated that it may take several weeks to recover the drilling mud lost in the soft Strawn formation which once flowed at the rate of 15 barrels per hour on a drillstem test. James P. George, Trustee No. 1 Mary E. Johnson, et al, C SW SE 4-26-10, T&P, five miles north of Colorado City, drilled at 3,112. Elevation on this wildcat is 2,196.

Mid-Continent President To Be At Midland Monday

MIDLAND, March 8—Permian Basin oil and gas operators will gather in Midland, March 10, to honor Robert F. Windfohr, President of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association, and to hear him present several current trends affecting the petroleum industry. H. E. Chiles Jr., Midland oil man and the Association's District vice president, said Windfohr would address oil men and civic leaders from the Permian Basin area at a reception and dinner at the Midland County Club, beginning at 6 p.m. Chiles and local directors of the Texas Mid-Continent will be hosts for the occasion. "Mr. Windfohr is making a swing over the state to discuss the Association's program with petroleum industry leaders in the various regions," Chiles said. "Because of his stature as President of the Texas Mid-Continent, he is looked to as a

Lobbyists, Strictly Neutral, Watching Tidelands Debate

By TEX EASLEY
WASHINGTON, March 8 (U)—Lobbyists for both major and independent oil companies are in the Senate galleries daily to hear the current debate over control of offshore oil production. They are careful to maintain neutrality in the state-federal controversy. If they should take sides, the opposition would seize upon it for ammunition. Even so, there have been occasional accusations that the major companies favor state ownership of the submerged lands. "Other listeners to the debate aren't as silent. In this group is Bascom Giles, Texas land commissioner. He will tell you that Texas gets more revenue from development of its off-shore oil lands, under state's claim to these areas was challenged, than the federal government has collected from the leases it has granted on public lands. This wildcat has been credited with having pumped as much as 40 barrels of oil per day, plus some water, on preliminary tests. These reports were not officially verified.

TEXAS BRANDS

SAW

By JOHN M. HENDRIX
The SAW brand was registered in 1885 by A. J. Sawyer and was selected because it was the first syllable of his name. The SAW was of most importance in the year 1912 when 2,800 cattle ran in Howard and Terry Counties. It is still being run by M. B. Sawyer in Lee County, New Mexico.

L. C. Underwood Rites Set Today

Last rites were held at 2:30 p.m. today at the First Methodist church in Norton for LeRoy Caswell Underwood, 77. Mr. Underwood, who had been visiting with his sons here, died suddenly at noon Friday. He was having luncheon at the home of one of his sons, Johnny Underwood, when he slumped suddenly and was dead. Three weeks ago he had suffered an attack of influenza but appeared fully recovered.

A native of Joplin, Mo., where he was born April 19, 1874, Mr. Underwood had farmed in Runnels County until his retirement.

His remains were carried in a Nalley funeral coach to the Spill Bros. chapel in Winters on Saturday morning. Burial was to be in the Fairview cemetery at Winters beside the grave of his wife who passed away in 1945.

Surviving are nine sons: W. C. Underwood, Dallas; Luther L. Underwood and Louis Underwood, Luther, D. B. Underwood and Pat Underwood, Winters; John Underwood, Big Spring; Arthur Underwood and Fred Underwood, Ballinger; and Austin F. Underwood, Los Angeles, Calif. He also leaves two daughters, Mrs. D. E. Compton, Norton, and Mrs. Ray Stark, Throckmorton; two sisters, Mrs. Patton Bailey, Itasca, and Mrs. Bill Waldrop, Norton; 26 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

$75 Fine Assessed In Corporation Court

Corporation court rates took a jump Saturday morning when City Judge W. E. Greenlee levied a $75 assessment on a defendant charged with disturbance, and fines totaling $135 were levied against eight persons charged with drunkenness.

Two guilty pleas of vagrancy each drew a $6 fine, and two motorists who admitted their failure to obtain an operator's license were each fined $25.

A speeding charge drew a $20 fine.

Engineer Talks At Irrigation School

More than 100 Martin County irrigation farmers and others attended the irrigation school sponsored by the Cap Rock Electric Cooperative at Stanton Thursday and participated in the all-day program.

John Box of Lubbock, irrigation engineer with the Agricultural Experiment Station there, and Bob Thurmond, also of Lubbock, and irrigation specialist with the Extension Service, both warned farmers against wasting water and depleting soil.

If the irrigation farmers expect to stay in business, these speakers said, they must design their farming on a soil improvement program, and not drain it of its crop-producing qualities year after year, without making some effort to return organic matter to it. In warning against the waste of water these specialists pointed out that the land should be properly and completely prepared before the pump is started. When irrigating, they stated, the farmer should do a complete and not just a half-way job.

James D. Eiland of the Cap Rock Co-op presided at the program which opened Thursday morning and continued through the afternoon.

Among other speakers on the program were J. H. Shanklin of Albuquerque, agricultural engineer with the REA; O. B. Bryan, manager of the Cap Rock Co-op at Stanton; Coy McDougald, REA field representative from Lubbock; J. H. Vendrick of Amarillo, representative of the General Electric Co.; Martin Vavra of the Stanton office of the SCS; Charles Daniel of the PMA office at Stanton; J. C. Mott of the Sprinkler Irrigation Equipment Co. of Stanton; R. W. Darrow of the Southwestern Irrigation Supply of Stanton; and Max Colbert, assistant regional head of the A&L division of the REA.

Also attending the meeting were W. S. Goodlett and Horace Mitchell, from the Big Spring office of the Soil Conservation Service.

Among the specific subjects discussed were the fundamentals of electric pump irrigation; electric rates for irrigation; REA loan program; electric motors; crops that can be economically irrigated in Martin and Midland counties; irrigated permanent pastures; and panel discussions of other problems.

Technicians at the meeting told the farmers that most frequently only about 40 per cent of the water used in an irrigation project is utilized for crop production, with a 60 per cent waste.

Sale Makes A Good Sale At Amarillo Show

As an Amarillo correspondent wrote Friday night: "A little Sale made a big sale."

The reference was to the $2,668, Bobby Sale, 10-year-old Martin County 4-H clubber received for his grand champion club calf at the Amarillo Fat Stock Show. This was at the rate of $2.90 a pound and was the second highest price ever paid for a grand champion steer at the Amarillo show. The purchaser was the Plains Chevrolet Company, which set the high price with a $4 bid for the 1949 grand champion.

The reserve champion sold for $2 per pound. This calf, previously declared the best Panhandle club calf at the show, was entered by Bill Kelly of Hereford, a three-letterman in sports at the Hereford High School.

The young Martin Countian was also presented with a gold watch by Newton Harrell, president of the Panhandle Livestock Association.

The 77 head of club calves which went through the sale ring with Col. Walter Britten as auctioneer, averaged a little better than 49 cents a pound.

The Sale calf was bred by J. C. Sale, Bobby's father. Within a few hours of this calf winning the grand championship at Amarillo, another of Bobby's calves, shown by Bobby himself, was declared grand champion of the Abilene show. Both calves were fed under the direction of Martin County Agent Ralph Jones who took the winning calf to Amarillo, where it was shown by Malcolm Tunnell, another Martin County 4-H'er and friend of Bobby Sale's.

Lamesa, Sweetwater Drivers In Mishap

A traffic mishap at 3rd and Main, Friday afternoon, involved cars operated by Henry Floyd Franks, Sweetwater, and E. G. Adams, Lamesa, according to police records.

A second accident occurred at 2nd and Gregg, Friday afternoon, and police listed the drivers as Claude Cleveland, 901 NW 2nd, and Allen Eaulkn, of Oklahoma.

A car owner reported to police that all four hubcaps were stolen from his '51 Ford Friday night.

Music In The Home

One of the arts most universally enjoyed, by young and old, is music. The setting for much of the pleasure music brings is in the home, where family groups while away many hours listening to the gifted and talented among them.

Pictured on this page are members of six Big Spring families whose love of music has made them outstanding examples of the pleasure a simple tune or a symphonic composition can add to their daily lives.

LISTENERS—The family of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dawes, above, spends many hours around this record player. The children are Joe, 14, Bobby, 7, in the chair with Martha, 3, and Jim, 5.

ORGANIST—Mrs. C. W. Norman, left below, who plays the pipe organ at the First Baptist Church, watches her daughter, Mary Frances, 17, in a session with the piano.

JIVE SESSION—The young man with the horn, right, is J. W. King Jr., band director at the high school for the past five years. Mrs. King plays the piano and both sing in the First Methodist choir.

EVENING PASTIME — The Chester Barnes family, above, could almost have its own orchestra. Mrs. Barnes and daughter, Sue, 13, both play the piano. Buddy, 11, has aspirations on the slide trombone.

MOTHER-DAUGHTER — Mrs. Omar Pitman, right, often plays the organ while her daughter, Nancy, plays the piano.

MRS. CALVIN RAY CLARK

Mildred Lorene Brown Becomes Bride Of Calvin Ray Clark Friday Evening

Mildred Lorene Brown, daughter of Mrs. J. E. Brown, 1801 Scurry, and the late Judge Brown, became the bride of Calvin Ray Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Clark of Prescott, Ark. Friday evening.

Dr. P. D. O'Brien, pastor of the First Baptist Church, performed the double ring, formal ceremony at the home of the bride's mother. The altar was centered with a large basket of white stock and gladioli and flanked by seven-branch cathedral candelabra and tapers. Jade fern trees formed the background and altar markers tied in satin ribbon marked the bridal path.

Mrs. H. M. Jarratt, pianist, played a medley of pre-nuptial selections, and Lohengrin's Wedding March; "Indian Love Call" during the ceremony; "Traumeri" as the candles were being lighted; and also accompanied Billy Rudd who sang, "O Promise Me" and "My Wonderful One."

The bride was escorted to the altar by her brother-in-law, Horace M. Battenfield, of Clovis, N.M. She was given in marriage by her mother.

Her gown was fashioned with a lace bodice and low, fitted waistline. The low sweetheart neckline was scalloped and attached to a yoke of net, and the long sleeves, outlined with net, extended to points over her wrists. The full net skirt fell into a short train and her fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a net tiara outlined with orange blossoms.

She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid and surrounded by cascading carnations and white satin ribbon. She wore as something old, pearl earrings belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. M. H. O'Daniel. Something new was a single strand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom, something borrowed was her wedding dress, belonging to her sister, Mrs. Horace Battenfield. She carried a blue handkerchief and wore a lucky penny in her shoe.

Jo Grant, college roommate of the bride, was maid of honor. She was attired in yellow chiffon gown styled with a shirred bodice and a stole neckline. She carried a bouquet of blue iris.

Fred Riddling, cousin of the bridegroom, of Prescott, Ark., served as best man.

Ushers were Roger and Wendell Brown, brothers of the bride. Jane Echols of Denton, the bride's cousin, lighted the candles. She wore pink marquisette with a wristlet of pink-fathered carnations.

For her wedding trip, the bride chose a navy linen suit dress with navy and white accessories and an orchid corsage.

They will make their home at 802 Nolan.

Mrs. Clark is a graduate of Hard-Simmons University and is employed by Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. Her husband attended schools in Arkansas and is a graduate of the Cale School. He is employed by the Donnell Drilling Co.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held. In the receiving line were the bride's mother, the parents of the bridegroom and members of the wedding party.

The entertaining suite was decorated throughout with arrangements of blue iris.

The refreshment table was centered with an arrangement of blue iris and yellow daffodils. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom and silver and crystal appointments were used.

Presiding at the table were Mrs. R. R. Rensau of Snyder, Mrs. T. L. Griffin and Isabel Clements. Mrs. Battenfield was in charge of the guest register.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brown wore a navy crepe dress with navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother chose a navy dress with a pink rose corsage.

HI-TALK

By Iva Hampton

The first day of school in the new building started off Tuesday morning with everyone meeting in the auditorium at 9 o'clock. W. C. Blankenship, superintendent, read a passage of scripture from I Corinthians and Harold Haynie lead the student body in prayer. Roy D. Worley, principal, then assigned guidance rooms. In guidance, lockers, auditorium seats, and rooms were assigned. After guidance everyone reported back to the auditorium to locate their chairs. Classes then resumed and moving day was over.

Every morning is started off with a devotional read over the public address system by a different student.

The debate teams left Friday morning to enter the San Antonio tournament. Jeff Hanna and Bud Whitney make up the boys team, Jody Miller and Barbara Smith, the girls. Jimmy Conley was taken as an alternate. They will enter two events, extemporaneous speaking and debate. They will return today.

The volleyball team held its seventh annual Volleyball Tournament Thursday, Friday and Saturday. There were 24 teams competing for honors. There was a 26-inch trophy for first place, 20 1/2-inch for second place, 13 1/2-inch for third place, and a 12 1/2-inch for consolation. Two awards were to be given to the best set-up and the best spiker throughout the tournament. Twelve gold volleyballs were to be given for all-tournament award with six spikers and six set-ups. Awards also were to go to the coaches of the four top teams.

The Key Club met Wednesday at dinner in the bookkeeping room. Plans were made to sell concessions at the volleyball tournament. President Bud Whitney adjourned the meeting.

The members of the Tri-Hi-Y are planning an assembly to be held Tuesday morning. It will be in the form of a "Truth or Consequences" show. Aimee Mary Gray will be master of ceremonies while Sandy Swartz, Libby Jones, Frances McClain and Margie McDougle will give the commercial. A skit will also be given featuring other Tri-Hi-Y members. Students will appear as contestants on the show.

A paid assembly was held Friday morning featuring Bobby Robertson, who is an outstanding expert in percussion instruments. All proceeds went to the junior class. The Student Council met Friday at noon in the cafeteria. Plans were discussed for Ranch Week and the date was set for the second week in April.

Shirley Wheat, Joyce Anderson and Jimmy Porter went to Midland Saturday, accompanied by Robert Dyer to attend a student council meeting. Plans are being made to attend a meeting in Odessa next week. The Student Council is planning to attend the State Student Council Convention in Corpus Christi March 27, 28 and 29.

The VIC basketball team beat the Hi-Y basketball team 43-38 Monday night in the Junior High gym. The VIC team consists of Calvin Jones, J. L. Claxton, Jimmy Stewart, Jimmy Cole and Leonard Hartley. The team was rewarded with a trophy from John Dibrell.

MRS. THOMAS ORAN VICK

Mary Louise Porter Wed In Church Rites Friday To Thomas Oran Vick

In a semi-formal single ring ceremony Friday evening, Mary Louise Porter, daughter of Mrs. R. E. Porter, 1607 State, and the late Mr. Porter, became the bride of Thomas Oran Vick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oran H. Vick of Coahoma.

Lloyd Connell, minister of the 14th and Main Street Church of Christ, read the ceremony at the church before an altar centered with an archway of candles and flanked by baskets of white stock and seven-branch candelabra. Jade trees and palms formed the background for the decorations and pews were marked with white satin bows.

A chorus composed of Elaine Boyd, Wanda Fox, Jean Hubbard, Edward Johnson, David Elrod, Woody Robbins and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Conley sang "Always" as the candles were being lighted. They also sang "O Promise Me," and "One Alone" and hummed the wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Jimmy Roy Porter, wore a white satin gown, made by her mother, fashioned with a gathered skirt. The tight-fitting bodice buttoned down the front with self-buttons. The collar points were trimmed with white lace flowers embroidered with tiny pearls, and the long sleeves came to points over her wrists and were embroidered like the collar points. The chapel-length veil of illusion was gathered to a tiera of orange blossoms.

She carried an arrangement of white roses and satin ribbon on a white Bible, the gift of the bridegroom.

For something old, the bride wore, around her neck, a gold wedding band that belonged to her grandmother, the late Mrs. M. E. Gobbel. Something new was her headress, borrowed were her white lace shoes belonging to Mrs. Charles Wash of Waco. Her name was embroidered in blue inside her dress.

Enola Faye Whitworth, cousin of the bride, of Wolfthorh, was maid of honor. She was attired in a rose satin dress made similar to that of the bride, styled with a low, rounded neckline and cap sleeves. She wore a halo of rope net and ribbon and carried a nosegay of pale pink gladioli tied with pink and green ribbon.

Paul West of Coahoma served as best man.

Ushers were Doyle Maynard of Big Spring and Paul Van Sheedy of Coahoma. Charlotte Williams and Rebecca Rogers lighted the candles. Miss Williams wore an ice blue satin dress fashioned with a full flared skirt and tight-fitting bodice. The low neckline was designed with a gathered berth. She wore a wrist corsage of yellow carnations and a matching hair arrangement. Miss Rogers was attired in a yellow gown designed like that of Miss Williams. Her flowers were blue carnations.

Mrs. Porter wore for her daughter's wedding a black faille suit with a white blouse and black accessories and a corsage of red roses. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a pink shantung suit with navy and white accessories and a white gladioli corsage.

When the couple left on a short wedding trip, Mrs. Vick wore a grey striped suit with a white blouse and red accessories. Her corsage was of white roses. They will make their home at 109 E. 18th.

The bride is a graduate of Big Spring High School and attended Howard County Junior College and Abilene Christian College. She is employed by the Big Spring Herald. Her husband is a graduate of Coahoma High School and is employed by the Sinclair Oil Co.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the church basement.

In the receiving line were the mother of the bride, the bridal couple and the bridegroom's parents.

The refreshment table was laid with a white organdy cloth designed with a full skirt. At each corner were clusters of lilies of the valley and white roses tied with white satin ribbon. The centerpiece was an arrangement of white roses, static and silver fern. The three-tiered cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom beneath a wedding bell.

Mrs. James A. Lewis of Lubbock, Miss Williams and Miss Rogers served.

Mrs. Everett P. Dobbs presided at the guest book. The register table was covered with an organdy cloth and held a vase of spring blossoms tied with satin ribbon and a cluster of flowers.

Other members of the house party were Mrs. J. C. Rogers and Mrs. C. B. Sullivan.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included Mrs. J. S. Caughey of Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Whitworth; Barbara and George of Wolfthorh; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hemmeline of Lamesa and James A. Lewis of Lubbock.

Roselle Appleton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Appleton of Vincent, became the bride of James Coates, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Coates of Rt. 1, Saturday evening.

Dr. P. D. O'Brien, pastor, performed the double-ring, informal ceremony in the parlor of the First Baptist Church.

Darrel Mock, pianist, played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride wore a purple, tuxedo style suit with a pink blouse and pink felt hat. Her other accessories were in purple.

Mrs. Billy Rusk was matron of honor. She was attired in a brown suit with green accessories and a natural straw hat.

W. D. Coates served his brother as best man.

After a wedding trip through the Davis Mountains, the couple will make their home in Coahoma.

Both are graduates of Coahoma High School. The bride is employed by the Howard County Draft Board and her husband is engaged in farming and ranching.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony.

The refreshment table was laid with a lace cloth over blue and centered with an arrangement of blue and white carnations. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Rusk served.

Among the pre-nuptial courtesies rendered the bride was a shower held recently in the home of Mrs. Edd J. Carpenter in the Vincent community.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Henry Ernst, Mrs. Claude Hodnett and Mrs. Jim Hodnett.

The refreshment table was laid with a cutwork cloth and centered with an arrangement of daffodils and iris. China and crystal appointments were used.

Approximately 60 guests called during the receiving hours.

HELENS' HINTS

---Where to shop for what---

"SHALEE-GO-SHEE" ... A little bit of heaven fell from out of the sky, and it turned out to be a saucy corsage or striking table arrangement in special honor of St. Patrick's Day, and at FAYE'S FLOWERS you'll find all the trimmings to please the heart of any colleen. You'll find decorated containers holding spring flowers and foliage as green as the Emerald Isle ... corsages accented with Harps of Tara ... and table arrangements featuring Paddy's Pipe, glorified with flowers and shamrocks. The Luck of the Irish will be with the giver as well as the receiver, if you choose for your chosen from Faye's.

ALL WRAPPED UP ... Your beau will be the Brummel of the beach, if you give him one of the terry cloth robes that have just arrived at ELMO WASSON'S. In comfortable wrap-around style, they'll show up well wherever he shows up ... at the pool, the beach, or just loungin' around the house. They're fine to throw on after showering or while shaving too. Skillfully tailored, by Rabbot, these robes are available in red, tan and grey, and they're marked by two outstanding features ... "Fit-right" collar—that lies flat and won't ride up ... "Toggle-tab"—that attaches sash by removable button, to keep it always in place. At $19.95, these suds-loving robes are keyed to solid comfort, and well educated along the lines of leisure.

FIRE THE COOK with enthusiasm for his job, and he'll be the life of the barbecue. With spring upon us, the weather is right again for yard parties and outdoor barbecues, and at the BIG SPRING HARDWARE you'll find the sayest array of barbecue plates and cups you've ever seen in many a day. Designed by Plas-tex, these jumbo plates and cups will be a boon to bigger and better parties. The plates are sectional, and there's a place for the cup to rest easily at $5.40, and it comes in a galaxy of gay colors ... coral, chartreuse, aqua and grey. You'll move in the right direction, if you move outside with these smart sets as your party companions.

BUY YOURSELF A BIT OF BREEZE ... for the coolest, crispest Spring-thru-Summer ever with one of the wonderful, whirl-away cotton skirts from ZACK'S Of Margo's. You'll find trim and tailored denims that answer every call to the rut-of-coors—ready to "rough it" for sunning and fun ... full swirling circle skirts that give emphasis to the tiny waist-line look. You'll find glowing solids and prints—prints, big and bold; small and dainty—prints with all the magical color of a child's book of fairy tales. For desk-to-date service-ability, these wonderfully washable fine-combed cotton captivators will stay crisp and cool the whole day through, and are destined to be seen at smart places by appraising eyes.

THE WAY TO A WOMAN'S HEART ... is a vacatin from her own cooking every so often, and eating out at the DOUGLASS COFFEE SHOP is a treat indeed. Especially appropriate during this Lenten season is their fine variety of sea foods. You'll find your choice of fish cooked the way you like it best, as well as a complete and tasty selection of sea food salads and cocktails. If you're not a fish fancier, you'll find that garcon fresh vegetables are always available. No matter what your choice in foods, the Douglass menu will always hold a delightfully delicious treat in store for you and your whole family.

A THRILLING PERFORMANCE ... Yma Sumac's sensational new album, "Legend of The Sun Virgin," and you'll find it now at THE RECORD SHOP. Yma Sumac was a new artist in a new country when her first album "Voice Of The Xibay" appeared. Since that time her success has made record history, and her amazing & active range has been heard in every corner of the civilized world. This unheard-of range of her remarkable voice has been called the greatest musical revelation of our times. A native Peruvian and direct descendant of the Inca Kings, she draws the inspiration for this new album from her colorful background and heritage, and the ancient Inca worship of the Sun God. It's an exotic musical experience to delight listeners of all ages.

BE A SPORT ... in smart, easy-going shoes for every hour of every day. Sportsters by Sandler of Boston. It's another smart, new style, and you'll find these handsome, hand-sewn moccasins at MARGO'S in Banana, the neutral that's a go-wither for any color you choose to wear. Styled with a little wedge low cut sides, and a square-cut throat, they're boldly piped in dark brown faile to give contrast at your feet. Priced at $9.95 it's a casual and functional fashion that's geared to the activities of your busy days, as well as your lazy loafin' hours. Around the clock, around the town ... they're shoes you'll live in and love—shoes that step out in smart comfort wherever you go.

THE EASTER BUNNY has already come to HARDESTY, DRUG, and he's waiting for you to take him home to delight and thrill the heart of your youngster. A regular old softie, he's of the long pink ear variety, and he's so soft and cuddly, he'll capture your heart just as much as he will the kiddos. Standing about a foot high, these plushy, plump bunnies are available in pink and blue, yellow and white, and blue and yellow, and they're priced at $5.00. You'll want to see them soon, because these snugly little rabbits are finding their way into the hearts and homes of more and more people every day. It's a gift your child will love, not only during the Easter season, but all through the year.

LOVELY TO LOOK AT ... when you picture your home with one or several of the delightful and decorative pictures from the GREGG STREET FURNITURE. In decorating your home, the accent is on accessories, and no matter what your theme, you'll find an appropriate picture to lend that extra bit of style. Particularly smart for Chinese modern decor—the small oriental prints for delightful groupings in any room of your house ... and for "wall flowers" that have no popularity problem, you'll find dainty floral prints, so effective in bedrooms and breakfast rooms. Besides a complete collection of pictures, you'll also find Binswager wall and door mirrors, that will reflect your good taste throughout your home.

SHURE AND BEGOURA ... It'll soon be time for the wearin' of the green, but the time is now for you to start thinking about getting those St. Patrick's Day greeting cards off in the mail. At HESTER'S you'll find a whole host of the cutest cards you could ask for in a variety of clever styles. You'll find one that's just right for family as well as friends, and there's no barny about it, when I say that it will be a thoughtful and appreciated gesture if you remember the day with a special greeting. Greet March 17 with a "Top O' The Mornin'" greeting, and Irish or not, recipient eyes will be smiling.

Wayne Matthews, instructor in the industrial education department, is collector of the Red Cross fund at HCJC. He attended the luncheon Monday in honor of General Wainwright.

Mildred Franks, head of the business education department, attended the meeting of the Junior College Association in San Antonio this week as did Marvin Baker of the mathematics department.

New books received at the library are "Mark Twain at Your Fingertips," edited by Caroline Thomas Harnsberger; "Cotton Production, Marketing and Utilization" by W. B. Andrews; "The Novel and The Modern World" by David Dabches; "All These People" by Rupert B. Vance; "The Complete Book of Garden Magic" by Roy E. Biles; "American Wild Flowers" by Moldenke; and "The Mature Mind" by H. A. Overstreet.

We would like to invite anyone to come out and visit the library at any time. Recent visitors were Jack Parrott and Mr. and Mrs. Elmo David, Big Spring; Jim Kelley of the Pollock Paper Corp. in Abilene and Dallas; W. C. O. Harrie, Plainview; Evelyn Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy David, an instructor in the evening school.

Mrs. Bill Thompson, formerly of Lubbock and now of Big Spring, was a visitor Tuesday. Dr. Thompson, her husband, began his work as instructor of English Monday.

A reasonable amount of labor is delightful. It is exhausting that is painful. We should all wish to bear our fair burdens, not push them onto other shoulders. "He shall put a yoke upon my neck." — Deut. 28:48.

Constant Church Attendance Is Means Toward Enduring Morality

Before long, in sermon and song we will be proclaiming the glories of Easter and making cracks about people who show up for church services once a year. This business of turning aside non-attendance in a jocular manner ought not to be. Too frequently it offends those whose tender conscience makes them susceptible to offense, and yet it avails nothing. Perhaps, if renewed emphasis were exerted all along the church front at this time, we might have a more wholesome effect on church attendance. At least we could base it upon principle and precept instead of pivoting it upon a single day which has become entwined with finery. In our time, we have seen very few people who were proud of a record of non-church attendance or of not being identified with spiritual movements in some manner. Man's innate sense tells him that he is the creature of a Greater Being and that he lives better and happier through constant regeneration and renewing of the spirit. Ordained agency for satisfying this longing of the heart is the Church. Here those of kindred mind and soul exercise their declarations of faith and love and hope together, realizing that there is strength in unity and in harmony. Church attendance then is not a church promotion. Rather, church attendance is a source of spiritual food and thus a necessity for man. To neglect it is to turn away from a personal enrichment which the Lord has provided for any and all. Aside from this, church attendance is a wonderfully good habit. It makes one feel good inside; it builds moral fibre; it buttresses our characters; it broadens our social horizons; it unearths our opportunities. Moreover, it protects us against that slow and deadly atrophy which gnaws away until someday we realize that our unenriched souls are poor indeed. Church attendance certainly fills us with a care for the church and its welfare. Only the small in heart and niggardly of spirit can be faithful in attendance without being faithful in support. Meant of all, church attendance is a contribution in energy and attention toward spreading the basic influence for good in our communities. We cry in vain for a moral and spiritual reformation in our nation if we fail to recognize the source of power. Our nation's morality cannot revive, much less sustain, if it is to be the product of the lip and intellect alone. Constant morality is the product of the soul, and the soul is the child of God. And where else would the children gather except in the home—the Church?

Gallup Poll

Ike Believed Better Than Taft For Conduct Of Foreign Affairs

By GEORGE GALLUP, Director, American Institute of Public Opinion (Last of a series.) PRINCETON, N. J. —How does the public appraise the relative abilities of Senator Taft versus General Eisenhower? On four major tests the score stands as follows: 1—Most voters think Eisenhower would get along better with Congress than would Senator Taft. 2—Democrats and Independents think that Eisenhower would do better at cleaning out government corruption, but Republicans voters think Taft would. 3—Republicans and Independents believe that Taft would do better at cutting government extravagance, while Democrats believe Eisenhower would. 4—A new survey just completed shows that on the issue of foreign policy Eisenhower definitely gets the nod of voters over Taft. An enormous majority of voters think that the General, if elected, would handle foreign policy problems better than Taft would as President. This opinion is shared by Republicans, Independents and Democrats alike. Institute interviewers personally questioned voters, selected to form a true cross-section or sample of the voting population, throughout the country. The question: "Sen. Robert A. Taft and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower are two of the candidates for the Republican presidential nomination. Which one do you think would handle this country's foreign policy better?" The national vote: Eisenhower 76%, Taft 18, Don't know 12. 100% No one really knows, of course, which man would do the better job, but when voters make up their minds as to the relative abilities of the two candidates, this point may enter into the thinking of many. In fact, the present series of surveys was designed by the Institute to find out the "why" of public opinion—to arrive at a better understanding of the ways in which voters analyze and appraise the qualities of each of the candidates. Partisan Attitudes General 'Ike' gets the nod particularly from Independent and Democratic voters in today's survey on which one could handle this country's foreign policy better. Among Republicans he also is given the advantage over Taft, but by a smaller ratio. Here are the figures: REPUBLICANS Eisenhower better 60%, Taft better 30, Don't know 10 100% INDEPENDENTS Eisenhower better 71%, Taft better 15, Don't know 14 100% DEMOCRATS Eisenhower better 78%, Taft better 9, Don't know 13 100% These results are further confirmation of a point that has often been shown in the Institute's surveys on Republican candidate popularity, namely, that General 'Ike' is more popular with Independent voters than he is with Republicans. In the present series of reports the Independents vote much more strongly for Eisenhower than for Taft on getting along with Congress, cleaning out corruption, cutting down government extravagance and handling foreign policy. In recent Institute tests in which Republican voters were asked which candidate they would prefer to see the G.O.P. nominate, Eisenhower and Taft ran neck-and-neck, with 33 per cent each. Among Independents, by contrast, Eisenhower ran 74-to-1 ahead of Taft.

Sunday Talk: Given Names

A High School Latin teacher, Miss Belle Gould, has written me about Latin Week. She says: "You were kind in writing a column about Latin last year, and the article was saved in scrapbooks. Do you suppose you could work up another article this year? You could give Latin another real boost." Latin is an interesting subject to me, and I am glad to write about it again. When I studied Latin in high school, it seemed a bit hard, but I gained a great deal of help from it in my later study of French. I also consider it has helped me ever since in speaking and understanding the English language. In many ways, Latin lives today. Thousands of English words are of Latin origin. Have you ever thought of the many "given names" which came down to us from ancient Rome, where Latin was the everyday language?

Some Latin names of boys end with the letter "s." Here are examples: Augustus, Claudius (Now usually Claude), Cornelius, Marcus, Rufus and Silas. Other boys' names which go back to the Latin language include: Adrian, Alan, Anthony, Calvin, Clare, Clement, Felix, Horatio, Horace, Leo, Maurice, Rex, Sylvester and Victor. We are likely to think of Patrick as an Irish name, but it had its origin in Latin. St. Patrick, Ireland's patron saint, was a "foreigner," but he was adopted in a sense by the Irish. Many given names of girls came from Latin, and more than half of these end with the letter "a." Here is a partial list: Alma, Amanda, Amy, Antonia, Aurelia, Avis, Beatrice, Carol, Celia, Clara, Constance, Cornelia, Diana, Doris, Faith, Gladys, Julia, June, Laura, Lelia, Lillian or Lillian, Lucy, Marcia, Miranda, Ruby, Stella, Sylvia, Theresa, Valeria, Victoria and Virginia. Eisenhower's Political Creed—9

Capital And Labor Considered Vital Partners In Great U. S. Enterprise

By KEVIN McCANN, President, The Defense College (These articles are based on the book, "The Man From Abilene," by Kevin McCann, to be published by Doubleday & Company.)

Throughout his life—which is a background of hard work and long, ungrudging hours—General of the Army Dwight D. Eisenhower has always rejected the Marxist "falsehood of an insuperable class warfare" and the "shibboleth of an unbridgeable gap between those who hire and those who are employed." He has always looked upon capital and labor as essential partners in a great enterprise, that of preserving and improving the American system of democracy. In the post-war strike year of 1946 he wrote: "...capital and labor would easily solve their very difficulties if both knew their very existence depended upon accord!" He has held the freedoms of our system indivisible, inseparable: "...all our freedoms—personal, economic, social, political—freedom to buy, to work, to hire, to bargain, to save, to vote, to ship, to gather in a convention or join in mutual association; all these freedoms are a single bundle. Each is an indispensable part of a single whole. Destruction of any inevitably leads to the destruction of all." Although he is a frank advocate of the middle of the road and a foe of Socialism and the encroachments of centralized government, Gen. Eisenhower holds that the Federal government could not be aloof in times of national economic distress. He wrote a few weeks ago to a friend in the United States: "Many of these restrictive laws applying to business and to industries, now accepted as necessary to an orderly and a measurably free life, go into much broader fields than that of mere personal department or conduct. Witness our anti-trust laws, social security plans, minimum wage scales, interstate commerce regulations, and communications laws. Many of them have been passed by the vote of both parties and with large majorities. "Over and beyond these, the country has welcomed in the past a host of laws enacted for the relief of economic distress and national catastrophe. It is safe to say that no American government of today would dare to stand idle if we should suddenly end, again, a depression like that of 1932. "On the contrary, the government would be expected to use the entire resources of the country to prevent disaster. The point is that this should be done without violation of our basic concepts of freedom, justice and right." He also pointed out the need "to stand watch to see that new financial despotisms do not arise, even though they could scarcely come into existence except with the consent of, or because of the weakness of the overall political organization. Weak government favors the predatory; too strong a government regiments us all. "In the mid-ground between the two extremes of complete laissez-faire and governmental control is found that condition which best satisfies the aspirations of man as a spiritual and intellectual as well as a material being. To attain that mid-ground is the ever continuing problem of free men."

Gen. Eisenhower's own youth of hard work and memories of his father's life have put his sympathies in line with the workers. In a forthright address to the C.I.O. at Atlantic City in 1946 he acknowledged the benefits that had been brought to working men by labor organizations, adding: "Men of my generation, familiar in their youth with the specter of insecurity that haunted many a family whose meager shelter and clothing and food depended on the father's prolonged hours of toil and sometimes miserably small pay, are living witnesses of what has been accomplished. My own work-week during the year before I entered the Army in 1911 was 84 hours." He looked upon soldiers and workers as a team, the soldier providing the protective shield—as in the NATO setup today—while the worker "has an equal responsibility for insuring internal health and social, economic, moral strength." In the strike year of 1946 he feared that some in labor were so abusing freedom that their acts endangered it; that the tactics of some labor leaders might provoke legal restrictions on unions that would destroy many rights and privileges of workers. So thinking, he wrote: "The only reason for freedom is to bring about a greater level of happiness and higher living standards to all the people; and the free system deserves to survive only as long as it progresses in this direction. Everyone now recognizes that individual freedom can be lost in the operation of complex economies just as surely as it can under political dictatorship. The freedom must be real as well as legal—the unions have been right to fight for this. All these things are of interest to all the people; not just the employers and the workers. "The immediate problem has become—how to handle the striking right and privilege in key industries so as to avoid paralyzing the nation but so as to preserve the inherent rights of individuals. "The answer is easy in generalizations; it is difficult only in practical application, because, although everyone believes in cooperation (the single key) as a principle, no one is ready to abandon immediate advantage or position in practicing cooperation. Moral regeneration, revival of patriotism, clear realization that progress in any great segment is not possible without progress for the whole; all these are necessary. "In a free system laws cannot fully answer the problem; just as written agreements could not satisfactorily meet the requirements of Allied Command in war. We must produce a healthy economy, raise living standards for all; and preserve individual liberty. "In one of his memorable addresses—that to the American Bar Association at St. Louis in 1949, Gen. Eisenhower asserted that "we miserably fail to challenge the lie that what is good for management is necessarily bad for labor; that for one side to profit, the other must be depressed. Such distorted doctrine is false and foreign to the American scene. "...the interests of management and labor in most situations are identical. Differences are centered almost exclusively in the annual bargaining conferences. But even here the true differences are far more apparent than they are real. For intelligent management certainly recognizes the need for maximum income to workers, consistent with reasonable return on investment. With equal clarity, labor cannot fail to recognize the need for increasing amounts of risk capital to provide jobs for our constantly growing population. "Above all, we need more economic understanding and working arrangements that will bind labor and management, in every productive enterprise, into a far tighter voluntary co-operative unit than we now have." On the broad issue of workers' security, Gen. Eisenhower had this to say at the New York Herald Tribune Forum a few weeks later: "So—as we consider measures designed to affect the status or security of the working man, we must ask these specific questions: 'Does the proposal push the worker one step closer to regimented labor? Does it ease the way to governmental control over his life and livelihood?' As we strive to lessen the shocks and privations incident to old age, to sickness, to unemployment, to natural disaster, let us choose among the several proposals that which best protects our heritage of freedom." Gen. Eisenhower has attacked the "shallow critics" of the profit motive in the American system, saying: "They ignore the fact that it is an economic support of every business right we possess, and that without it all rights would soon disappear." He defines the capitalist: "A capitalist, far from being someone to condemn, in this country is one who by his own efforts in the past has made it possible for this country to be what it is today."

Connally, Johnson Vote To Take Up Tideland Measure

WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—How Texa. members of Congress were recorded as voting on recent roll calls: Senate: On motion of Senator McFarland (D-Ariz.) to take up tidelands ahead of Hawaiian statehood bill, adopted 47 to 32. Connally and Johnson, for. House: (Speaker Rayburn of Bonham votes only in case of a tie) On motion to send Universal Military Training bill back to committee, thus shelving it; adopted 236 to 162. For recommitment — Ikard, Poage, Rogers. Against — Beckworth, Benisen, Burleson, Fisher, Kilday, Lucas, Lyke, Patman, Pickett, Teague, Thomas, Thompson, Thornberry, Wilson. Listed as not voting — Combs, Mahon, Regan.

69 Flu Cases Are Reported In Week

Only 69 cases of influenza were reported by Big Spring physicians during the week, according to the list released yesterday by the Big Spring-Howard County Health Unit. The report also included 19 cases of virus pneumonia and 10 cases of bacterial pneumonia. Other diseases reported were chicken pox, 17; gonorrhea, 3; measles, 14; acute strep throat, 6; whooping cough, 8; bronchitis, 8; tracheo-bronchitis, 3; and virus infection 3. While this report represents a decrease of 33 in the number of cases of influenza reported the previous week, it notes an increase of eight in the number of cases of virus pneumonia, and an increase of seven in the number of cases of acute strep throat.

The People Are Polled About Their Reaction To Smile Week

Thumbing through the clutter that accumulates on the desk and in adjacent corners, what do we find but some material announcing that this is Smile Week. Yesir, this very week, starting today. The material urges us all to be Joy Scouts. There will be no parades, no dinners, no special events, not even any charges. All we are to do is go about with a little smile of brightness on our faces; you may never know, the material says just how much it helps to lift someone's spirit. Now Smile Week seems to be something we can support, without fear of successful contradiction, as the saying goes. So, we take a poll, just to see how people in general will react to Smile Week. Results of the poll: We try first on our canasta-playing chums. "You gonna smile this week?" we ask. This question, doubtless ill-timed, comes just after I have gone out, leaving the opponents one card away from a clean canasta and with two jokers in their hands. They look at me, not with a smile, but with daggers. Hmph, I say, they need to be educated on Smile Week. We go next into a residential district, selecting a house at random, and knocking on the door. A wan, bedraggled lady of the household appears. "Would you like to help us observe Smile Week?" we ask brightly. "Y-a-a-a. I guess so," she answers forlornly. "At least I will when I get back from the hospital. You see, Junior knocked a pot of boiling beans off the stove, and they ran down his pants and burned him pretty bad, not to mention the mess they made on the kitchen floor. And Susie—that's his little sister—got scared and ran out the door, tripped over my leg. I called my husband—he's a traveling man and was away, but when I reached him he said that his car had just caught fire and burned up, and he couldn't get home. He asked me about the insurance policy, and it seems like it expired last week. But soon's we get these things straightened out, I'd like to help out on what you're talking about." We tip our hat to the lady and withdraw. We call next on a merchant. "Smile

Week, Boy," we say with animation. "Don't you feel like joining in?" "Oh, sure," he says. "And don't you feel like jumping in the lake? Seven employees I'm supposed to have and only three show up today. One calls to say he ain't ever coming back, and the other two just don't call. The OPS office writes that I must send in nine more copies of all invoices going back to each item I have purchased since January, 1945. The landlord says it's double or nothing. From the number of customers I've had, I think the word is out that there is bubonic plague in this store. Yeh, I'll smile with you—a smile that will run me to ear when I don't though cutting my throat." We ease out, to go next for a contact with a farmer. "Smile Week, you know," we say. "Surely you'll help observe it." "Some people might call it funny," he replies. "Been feeding my stock for the past five months, and guess I'll be the next five. No land broken, 'cause there ain't much land left around here. Can't pay the help, can't pay the tractor people, can't pay the bank, can't help pay the rain-maker. Wish you'd come back when it rains, Bud, and I'll figger with you." We say we appreciate his situation, and bow out. We accost next a fellow who we thought worked for the Bureau of Internal Revenue. "Surely you want to observe Smile Week," we suggest. "With you, it's everything coming in, and nothing going out, ha-ha." "Ha-ha, yourself," he retorts. "Don't you read the papers? I am a man who is looking for a job." That makes five people we have polled. The statistics say you can build impressive findings from such a number. We make only one more call, just for good luck. We go in to see a newspaper columnist. "This is Smile Week, as if you didn't know," we start out, but he interrupts. "Smile Week, eh? Bejabbers, that'll make a topic for my column. Thanks, fellow." And he grins a sort of fiendish grin and turns to his typewriter. Oh, well, a smile, a grin, what's the diff? BOB WHIPKEY

Senator Russell Boom May Veer Toward Ike At The Last Minute

WASHINGTON—Don't be surprised if you see the Senator Russell boom veering over toward General Eisenhower at the last minute. Though the Dixiecrats are hell-bent to have Russell stay in the race and even head up a splinter party, the senator from Georgia is too smart to do that. He is out not to split the Democratic party, but to accomplish two things: Block Truman and block civil rights. And close friends say that if President Truman bows out of the race, Senator Russell is more than likely to lead a drive to draft Eisenhower on the Democratic ticket. This is presuming, of course, that old-guard Republicans continue to treat Ike as if he had bubonic plague. A good many Democrats, including even the President, have been watching the battle inside the Republican party with interest, intermixed with glee. They remember the olive branches sent to Eisenhower months ago suggesting that he run as a Democrat. And even the President dropped a word the other day indicating that it was not too late to bring Eisenhower in to the Democratic fold—if the Republicans continued their isolationist foreign policy.

Ben Tate of Standard Brands, untiring promoter of Taft for President, says: "The only thing deceitful about Bob Taft is the way he combs his hair." Taft goes in for the MacArthur hair-do, letting his side hair grow long and combing it over the top of his dome to hide the sparse spots. Though Congressman Frank Boykin of Alabama is under investigation by the Justice Department in connection with RFC loans, about 400 fellow congressmen attended his birthday dinner at the Shoreham Hotel. Boykin still insists that "all is made for love." Clean-up-Man Newbold Morris is so intent on starting with a clean slate that he refused to accept used office furniture. The Army's Field manual 21-14, which cost several thousand dollars to publish, consists of twenty pages devoted to the subject of how, when and where to salute. Washington has a new problem: Trying to figure out whether Afghanistan, Greece or Spain produces the best sheep-herders. They're needed to increase our wool supply. The nickel shortage will soon be overcome as a result of new production at the U.S. government nickel plant at Nicaro, Cuba. Nickel is essential for jet engines. Senator Keat of Oklahoma has promised privately to support Senator Russell if Truman doesn't run.

Georgia friends of Senator George of Georgia who have watched his vehement opposition to reorganizing the Internal Revenue Bureau remember his battle with Franklin Roosevelt over the appointment of revenue collectors and other federal officers in Georgia. After Roosevelt's attempt to defeat Senator George in the Democratic primary in 1938, FDR appointed a committee of three men, Governor Ed Rivers, U.S. Attorney Lawrence Camp and State Democratic Chairman Gills to handle federal jobs in Georgia. The plan was to keep federal jobs away from George, thereby preventing him from building up a powerful local machine. In the end, FDR became engrossed in the war. Truman did not carry out Roosevelt's patronage policies and federal jobs in Georgia drifted back to the old-time tradition by which the senators recommend candidates and the White House accepts them. The collector of Internal Revenue is the most powerful political job in any state. As shown by the recent tax scandals, he

'Seoul City Sue' Is Said US Missionary

PUSAN, Korea, March 8 (AP)—The young Shanghai-born Korean identified as Anoo Wallace, about 43, a long-time resident of the Orient who was imprisoned by the Japanese during World War II, his report tended to confirm earlier tentative identification of Seoul City Sue.

The informant, who asked that his name be withheld because relatives still live behind the Red line, said she broadcast propaganda for the Communists because her Korean husband was a Red. Her first broadcast was heard the night of Aug. 7, 1950.

Only a few days before the Allies recaptured Seoul Anne and her husband, Suh Kyoo Chul, headed north on a truck, the informant said. Her melodious voice has been missing from the airways since then and there has been no report of her whereabouts.

Wanted: Someone To Clean Up Room
KINGSVILLE, March 8 —After several hours with two buddies in a local tavern, a Kingsville man walked out for some fresh air. He kept walking—right off the edge of a slush pit where railroad shops dump waste oil. He went in up to his ears. He returned to the tavern and persuaded his pals to accompany him to Kleberg County Hospital.

The oiled one drove the ear Enroute his oily hands slipped on the steering wheel, the car jumped a culvert, and the steering gear broke.

They called a taxi and finished the trip. The doctors' diagnosis: much oil, no hurts, and who is going to pay to clean up this hospital room?

Deputy Sheriff Bob Stevenson rounded up the trio and they paid $5 to cover cost of cleaning up the hospital room.

Ask Death For Spies
COPENHAGEN, Denmark, March 8 (AP)—Danish military leaders asked Parliament today to make spying punishable by death. The death sentence was abolished after World War II although it was temporarily re-introduced for war crimes committed during the German occupation.

Ex-Hitler General Becomes A Priest

AACHEN, Germany, March 8 (AP)—One of Hitler's World War Two generals became a Catholic priest today.

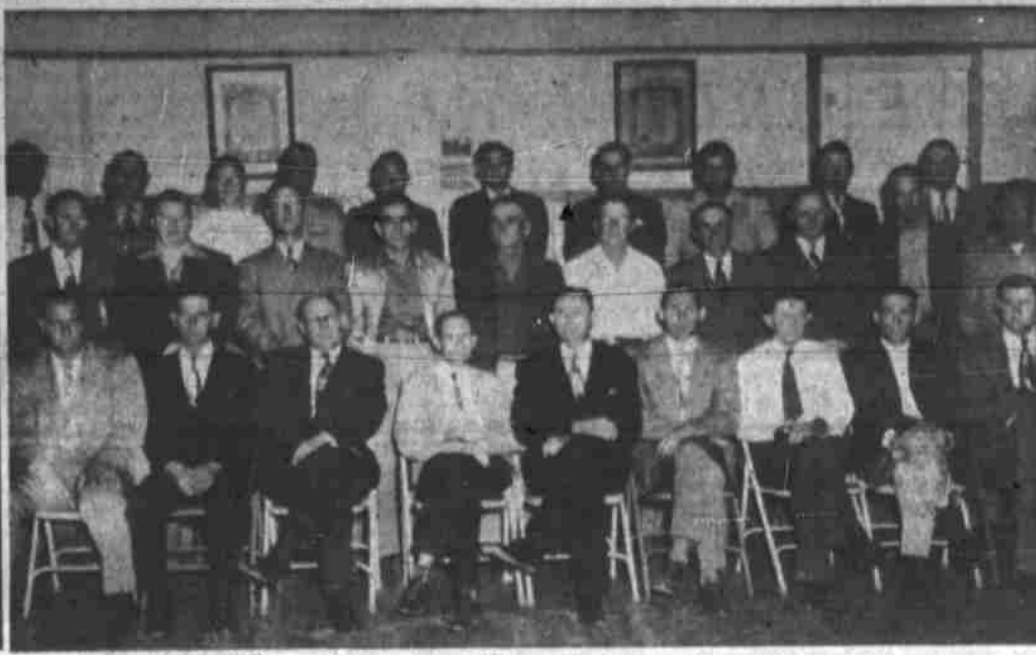

Former Wehrmacht General Paul Thelsen was ordained in a ceremony in the old cathedral of Aachen. Thelsen, 62, commander of a German army corps in Russia, decided to become a Roman Catholic priest after he lost his wife and children during the war.

Jet Fighters Sent To Italy Under Aid

ROME, March 8 (AP)—The first U. S. jet fighter planes were delivered to Italy today under terms of the Mutual Defense Assistance Program.

Besides teaching the Word of God, the classes all have one thing in common—they have coffee and doughnuts and a brief fellowship hour before the study period. Men seem to look forward to that with great eagerness.

Another class—and the longest established of all the groups—is that of the City Firemen. It meets each Sunday at 9:30 a.m. at the City Hall Fire Station. Teacher for approximately 10 years is George O'Brien, who frequently has in guest teachers. Pictured in this group (bottom) are left to right, H. H. Morris, H. W. Clawson, Fred Winn, George O'Brien, Alvie Harrison, J.

Sunday School Held In Places Other Than In City Churches

Sunday School is where you find it. And in the case of men, you may find it in a variety of places as well as in the churches. There are at least three classes now functioning independently but with specialized interests largely on an occupational basis. Largest of the three is the Businessmen's Bible class which meets each Sunday at 9:30 a.m. in the Settles, Ballroom. President is Murph Thorp, and the teacher is Rupert P. Ricker (extreme right). Average attendance is around 30-40, but around four score are on the roll. The class meets early enough that it may be dismissed well in advance of the morning worship services in various churches, to which the men are urged to go. Another non-denominational group, also with a special occupational appeal, is the Builders Bible Class which meets each Sunday at 8:30 a.m. at the Carpenter's Hall. Here again the actual study is completed well in advance of not only church but of other Sunday School services. The Builders Bible class was organized last year with five members and has enjoyed a steady growth. Men of every vocation and denomination are welcomed as members. Builders shown in the top right picture, left to right, are (first row) Raymond Hamby, Luther Coleman, secretary-treasurer, Walter Sweetser, president, Cecil Nabors, registrar, Fred Whitaker, chaplain, L. L. Miller, C. C. Brown, B. D. Walker, H. W. Reagan; (second row) Dick Lytle Truman Dennis, G. H. Briden, J. E. Seely, M. L. Hay-

OPENS ON TUESDAY

County Stock Show Is In New Building

The new exposition building at the Rodeo Grounds will be near enough completed for the 15th annual Howard County FFA and 4-H Club Fat Stock Show which opens Tuesday, according to County Agent Duward Lewter.

In any event, Lewter says, the show will have to be held because all arrangements for it have been completed, and it's show time in Big Spring.

The animals will be placed Tuesday and the judging will commence Wednesday morning, with the auction sale Thursday night closing out the event.

There will be approximately 30 steers in the show and sale, and all but two of these calves will be entered by 4-H clubbers. The two exceptions will be Jackie Fryer and John Danron from the Coahoma High School's FFA chapter.

There will probably be more than 120 lambs in the show, but under the rules each exhibitor will be limited to placing one in the sale. The lambs entries will come from 4-H members and members of the FFA chapters at Big Spring, Coahoma and Knott.

More than 40 of the FFA'ers and 4-H'ers will exhibit exons and some of them will probably have several entered in the show, but as with lambs they will be limited to sending only one through the sale ring.

The show and sale are being sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce with the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce co-operating. Members of both organizations have been engaged in soliciting attendance at both the show and sale, and indications are that this will be the largest event of its kind ever held in Big Spring.

Howard County 4-H clubbers and FFA chapter members who have had their animals at other shows this season have won a great many premiums and more than 20 of the Hereford steers reared by 4-H members have been sold on the season's show circuit. A number of the lambs have also been sold.

Committee members say they hardly expect the show building will have been wholly completed by the time of the show but that it will be sufficiently near completion for the show and sale to be held.

Some of the animals will probably be in place late tomorrow afternoon if the facilities are sufficiently ready at that time.

The catalogues of the sale have been printed and distribution of them was started yesterday. Persons wishing copies may obtain them at the County Agent's office.

Vet Benefits Are Tax Free

Payments to veterans for benefits administered by the Veterans Administration are tax-free and need not be considered in computing Federal income tax, VA reminded veterans.

Also, VA added, dividends which veterans have received on their GI insurance policies are exempt from taxation, and need not be reported.

Among the tax exempt VA payments are the following:

- Subsistence allowances for veterans training in schools, on farms and on-the-job under the GI Bill and Public Law 16 (for the disabled).
- Payments by VA to be applied to veterans' GI loans. Under the GI Bill, VA pays the lender an amount equivalent to four per cent of the guaranteed portion of the loan, which is credited to the veteran's account.
- Disability compensation and pensions paid to veterans for both service-connected and non-service-connected disabilities.
- Grants for seriously disabled veterans for homes designed for wheelchair living.
- World War I emergency officers' retirement pay.
- Death benefits to families of deceased veterans are also exempt from taxation, VA said. These include compensation, pension and all GI insurance payments.

Pact Forces Schedule Joint Maneuvers In Reich In Summer

PARIS, March 8 (AP) — Allied troops in Central Europe will hold their first coordinated maneuvers this summer in Germany, General Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters announced today.

The brief announcement from Supreme Headquarters Allied Powers in Europe (SHAPE) gave no indication of the number of troops that would be involved nor of the duration of the exercises.

Riding THE GRUB LINE With Franklin Reynolds

O. R. Bolinger, co-operator with the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District, put 20 head of cows on his Madrid and Hubam clover field in February. The clover is producing all the feed his cows get, Bolinger said.

He plans to drill 10 acres of alfalfa this fall as a part of his coordinated soil and water conservation program on his farm two miles northeast of Big Spring to increase his pasture.

Thad Hale ran 100 head of hogs last year on his eight-acre alfalfa patch on his farm northeast of Coahoma. Hale said the hogs couldn't keep the alfalfa down so he also put his cows on it part of the time. The alfalfa has already greened up this year and is making some growth in spite of the lack of rain.

Alfalfa on Charlie Robinson's farm at Midway is also green and making some growth.

Good Guggelline 13th, grand champion female of the Howard County-South Plains Hereford Association's sale here last month, consigned by Texas Technological College, Lubbock, and sold to Eldon Rosson of Sweetwater, at $1,500, was placed first as a two-year-old heifer at the Amarillo Fat Stock Show.

Tech reserved the right to exhibit her at Amarillo when she was sold here. She was bred on the Tech farm, and her sire, Texas Domino W7, was leased from T. R. Applewhite of Cotton Center. Her dam was Good Guggelline 4.

She won first as a summer yearling and was reserve champion at the Panhandle-South Plains Show at Lubbock in 1950, and won first in the two-year-old class at the same show in 1951. She was sixth in the two-year-old class at the National Hereford Show, Texas State Fair last fall.

Hereford breeding cattle at the Amarillo Fat Stock Show passed before a very distinguished cattle judge Monday.

He was Governor Dan Thornton of Colorado, himself a Hereford breeder, and declared to be one of the three governors in the history of the United States who has been qualified to judge a Hereford show.

The grand champion bull, was MW Larry Mixer 55, sired by MW Larry Mixer 63rd, and entered by Sellman Brothers at Watrous, New Mexico.

The reserve champion was B. Domino 9th, sired by Bob Domino 15th, and exhibited by Gerald Collier of Ralls.

The grand champion was first place junior bull calf in the New plon female was Miss Domino F 29th, owned by Meeks.

George Vance of Canyon again had the grand champion carload of bulls, and the grand championship for a group of six bulls went to entry of C. J. Napes of Dimmit.

One of three Milking Shorthorn field days to be held in Texas this year has been scheduled for the Littlefield Fair Grounds on March 26th, beginning at 9 o'clock that morning.

Approximately 60 animals from three of the largest herds on the South Plains will be exhibited.

A state convention for Texas Flying Farmers will be held in San Angelo, March 27th, 28th and 29th, and reservations must be sent to Roy Sims, Route 2, Miles, Texas. Thursday will be fly-in day and a buffet supper will be served that night. Saturday will be fly-out day, but there may be a stop to the Big Bend National Park on Saturday and Sunday.

Jeff Painter is maintaining his terraces on his farm in the Luther soil conservation group. Painter started plowing to his terraces last week using a breaking plow to build up the height and width. M. H. Ulmer also maintained his terraces this year by adding to them to make them higher and wider. Terraces need to be built up each year to keep them from breaking and to add to the width for easier farming.

Let's farm at Midway has kept sandy land from blowing this year. Alton Denton, who farms the Miller place, left a good stubble of maize on his field last fall to protect it from wind erosion. He has kept the field in feed for several years to build up the soil by adding organic matter.

T. M. Robinson, district cooperator in the Knott conservation group, has 15 acres of winter cover crop, planted last fall, to help control blowing.

In some of the wooded areas of New England, the wood stove continues to be used for household heating.

BUILDING CONSULTANT

When Bobby tries his hand at construction, Dad always has some worthwhile ideas . . . just as Mother so often helps Betty with her knitting.

Far more necessary, though, that Dad and Mother be expert "consultants" in the every-day problems of growing up. There are so many vital truths—moral and spiritual principles—which a child can hardly be expected to understand without the help and example of conscientious parents.

Recognizing this, every Church urges parents to BRING (rather than send) their youngsters to Church and Worship Services!

Parents who—with their children—study and practice the Christian Faith become the best parents . . . and see their children fulfill their own highest ideals.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Plans Move Ahead For 'Talent Test'

Preparations for Big Spring's "Talent Test," sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, are gradually nearing completion. Rehearsals are to begin Monday for the amateur show on March 21.

Approximately 15 acts have signed up, all local talent, to vie for nearly $100 in prizes to be awarded top talent in Big Spring.

The show, which Jaycees hope will become an annual search for talent, is scheduled at the City Auditorium. The first rehearsal is set for 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at the auditorium. All acts that have signed up are urged to be there. Any others who have not yet made known their desire to appear in the show are also asked to attend this rehearsal for inclusion in the show.

Along with the local performers, Slim Willet, his band and entourage, are to put in an appearance. Willet will be master of ceremonies and his band will provide musical accompaniment. Along with Willet will be Shorty Underwood, a top-flight fiddle player; an ensemble, the Brush Cutters; Jean Stansbury and Vaughn O'Shields, recording artists with Four-Star Recording company.

Along with a cash award of $25 to the winner will go an all-expense paid air trip to Abilene to appear on the Big State Jamboree radio program there and possible recording contracts. Second place winner will receive $20 and the third place winner will get $15.

Talent already signed up to appear in the show include: Hollis Harper, vocalist; Thurber Tinkham, vocalist; Charles Ryerson, harmonica and accordion player; Dickie Snyder, vocalist; Mildred White, vocalist; Jo Ann Jackson, tap dance and vocalist; Anita Greenhill, tap dance and vocalist; Donale Everett, vocalist; Bingham Dance Studio, dancers; Jean Hammon, vocalist; Wanda Woods, vocalist; Gwyn McCalloch, vocalist; Bennie Compton, accordion; and Lobbie and Rosetta Flowers, vocalists.

Tickets for this show are priced at $1.20 for adults and 60 cents for children.

Warn Vets They Are Responsible For Home Loans

Veterans who sell their homes and let the purchasers assume the 4 per cent GI loans remain personally responsible for the payment of the loan, the Veterans Administration is advising.

VA said World War II veterans should not sell their property without making certain that their interests are protected. The best way to do that, VA stated, is to have the purchaser pay cash or arrange a loan in his own name.

VA points out that property is more easily sold with the favorable 4 per cent GI mortgage remaining in effect—a factor that should influence the selling price. However, a veteran selling his property with the GI loan intact runs the risk of later having to pay all or part of the debt resulting from a default by the new owner.

Should the new owner of the property fail to keep up the mortgage payments, the holder of the GI mortgage can foreclose.

When the proceeds of the sale resulting from the foreclosure do not cover the amount of the GI loan outstanding, the difference may remain a debt against the veteran. The VA has to pay the holder of the mortgage for the guaranteed portion of the debt. The veteran will then owe the government the next amount of that payment, plus interest.

George Farnham To Speak At Knife-Fork Club Meet

GEORGE FARNHAM

A well known teacher and public speaker, George Farnham, will be the lecturer before the local Knife and Fork Club at its meeting scheduled for Saturday night, March 15.

The dinner session will be at the Settles Hotel, beginning at 7:30. Members are urged to get reservations in to Secretary Tom Rosson by noon, March 14, as none will be accepted after that hour.

Farnham has been either teaching or lecturing all of his life. As a young man he taught school in the State of Oregon and later was a professor of public speaking in Iowa and in George Washington University, Washington, D. C. and in the American Banking Institute of that city.

He was in the United States Navy during World War I. In 1921, he entered the Yale Divinity School for graduate work and received his advanced degree in 1924. For ten years, thereafter, he was the pastor of the Cleveland Park Congregational Church in Washington.

In 1935, he founded the John Mason Country School in Mystic, Conn., and in 1937 he was called to the Mystic Congregational Church from which he resigned in the fall of 1950. During World War II he was on leave of absence while he served with the United States Maritime Service.

He did not lose his interest in public speaking while serving his country, and addressed many general and fraternal groups from coast to coast. He is especially interested in various phases of psychology and he has written a number of tracts including "Fifty Years a Fool" and "Beginning at the Beginning."

Report Vietminh Units Encircled

HANOI, Indochina, March 8 (AP)—Reliable sources reported today two battalions of Communist-led Vietminh troops have been encircled by French and Vietnam troops near Phuc Yen, 12 miles northwest of Hanoi. French artillery pounded the pocketed troops and planes were dropping napalm in the area, these sources said.

Four US Destroyers Arrive At Singapore On Way To America

SINGAPORE, March 8 (AP)—Four U. S. destroyers en route to their home base at Newport, R. I., after four months fighting in Korean waters arrived here today. They are commanded by Cmdr. William H. Groverman of Newport.

They will leave Sunday for the United States via the Mediterranean.

EAT PLENTY AND TAKE OFF UGLY FAT

Many people have reported amazing results with this home recipe. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. Just go to your drugstore and ask for 4 ounces of liquid Barcozolate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the slims, may way to lose belly fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves, if undesirable pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic, from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, thighs and ankles; just return the empty bottle for your money back.

LOST 45 POUNDS

"I want to tell you what Barcozolate did for me. I have lost 45 pounds taking it. It is just wonderful how it helped me to take off weight. I would not be without it, as it has helped me in other ways." Mrs. Tracy Freeman, 423 Dyer St., D & B Trailer Court, El Paso, Texas.

REDUCES 10 POUNDS

"It gives me pleasure to state that I have been gratified beyond my expectations using Barcozolate, which not only reduced my weight, but makes me feel much better." Lost 10 pounds. Mrs. W. A. Wilson, 1014 S. Hubbard, Mineral Wells, Texas.

AF Vet Directs Austin College Choir On Tour

The Austin College A Capella Choir of Sherman, which appears at Big Spring Air Force Base on March 22, will be directed by Air Force veteran, Dr. Robert W. Bedford.

Dr. Bedford, who served with the Air Force in World War II, joined the staff of Austin College on his release from the service and is responsible for the organization of the present music department and the renowned A Capella Choir.

The Austin College organization, a 48-voice choir of young men and women from seven states, is currently on tour of twelve bases of the Air Training Command in Texas. The tour is being sponsored by the Chief of Chaplains, USAF.

The current Air Base tour is the 10th such semi-annual affair for the singing group. Concert tours, such as this, represent the major portion of the choir's activities, but radio programs and oratorio productions are frequent.

Base Chaplain Grant Mann announced that arrangements were being completed for the choir's presentation in the auditorium of the new Academic Training Building at Big Spring Air Force Base.

In addition to the base military personnel attending, Chaplain Mann said, a limited number of civilian guests would be invited for the choir's appearance.

Pregnant Women Giving Egyptian Police Headache

By FRED ZUSY
CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—Pregnant women have been one of the biggest worries to Egyptian authorities under Cairo's strict night curfew.

For weeks only a few select persons with special passes were permitted to stir outside their homes during the 10 p.m. to 5 a.m. curfew following the Jan. 26 fire riots. The hours have been changed to 11 p.m. to 5 a.m., but the problems persist.

One British woman expecting a baby reported to the hospital at 9 p.m. every night for two weeks, just in case. She had no telephone at her home. She finally had her baby during daylight hours.

Authorities had many complaints from frantic women and their husbands.

To make the situation worse there is a shortage of telephones in this city of two million. There are only about 60,000 lines available, so many families had no telephones by which to summon doctors or ambulances.

Rifle-carrying soldiers who mount guard at street barricades soon got used to the sight of excited husbands summoning help. The problem finally was solved by issuing temporary passes to pregnant women and their husbands. Army jeeps were used sometimes for ambulances.

The curfew has made this great Middle East capital an early-to-bed town. There are no convivial parties stretching far into the night, except among friends living in the same apartment house.

Diplomatic black tie parties begin at 7:30 and end before curfew. This usually means a quickie cocktail before dinner, and one or two courses less on the table.

Crusade To Save The Human Race

VATICAN CITY, March 8 (AP)—Pope Pius lashed out today against what he described as the "intolerable contract between immoderate luxury and poverty that is sometimes shameful and always heart-breaking."

WRESTLER SAYS HE'LL RUN FOR THE PRESIDENCY

SAN FRANCISCO, March 8 (AP)—Gorgeous George, the perfumed and golden curled wrestler, stepped out in an orchid suit at a sports show last night and announced he will run for President of the United States.

George told an audience of 17,000 he would file as an independent and campaign through the nation's wrestling rings and television screens.

NEW HOME FOR AN OLD RESIDENT

THE HUMBLE Company began operations in West Texas in 1925, and two years later erected two adobe buildings in McCamey to house its West Texas Division office. Now, as if in celebration of a silver anniversary, the same West Texas Division has moved into a handsome new building at Midland, officially opened on March 7.

It has been a fine quarter-century for both West Texas and Humble. By various standards of measurement—population growth, farm income, petroleum production—West Texas has assumed a position of major importance in the economy of the State. Two facts show the importance of West Texas in Humble's operations:

As a purchaser of oil from hundreds of West Texas producers, and as a transporter, Humble, since 1925, has moved to market more than one-fourth of all the oil produced in the West Texas area. As a transporter, and as an increasing factor in the oil production of this area, Humble has spent many millions of dollars on West Texas.

So the Humble Building in Midland is more than an addition to Midland's skyline; it is headquarters for some 1100 West Texans who are actively participating in the orderly development of West Texas' richest natural resources; it is evidence of Humble's confidence in the future of West Texas. It is a new home for an old West Texas resident.

In Mystery Drama

William Lundigan and Valentina Cortesa are two of three stars who contribute romance, mystery and action in the drama, "House on Telegraph Hill." Richard Basehart is the other leading player in the picture that is playing today and Monday at the State Theatre.

In Emotional Roles

Van Johnson and Dorothy McGuire enact the young married couple who are faced with a seemingly insurmountable barrier to their happiness in "Invitation." This moving drama, with Ruth Roman as co-star, is at the Ritz Theatre today and Monday.

'INVITATION' AT RITZ

Unusual Marriage Bestirs A Drama

Emotional impact is the phrase to describe "Invitation," a moving drama of a strange marital problem showing today and Monday at the Ritz Theatre. Van Johnson, Dorothy McGuire, Ruth Roman and Louis Calhern are in the featured roles.

"Invitation" tells the story of a girl (Miss McGuire) who has been semi-invalid since childhood, who has regained herself to a life of splendor, but is unaware that her disease is fatal and that she is given no more than a year to live.

However, her devoted father, played by Calhern, does know this, and, determined to give his daughter a final year of happiness, contrives a secret arrangement with a personable young architect, Van Johnson, by which he will marry the girl. This brings on the wrath of Miss Roman, who is desperately in love with Van.

After almost a year of happiness, it seems that a new medical discovery might save the bride's life and it is then that the jealous girl makes her strike with an ingenious trick.

The reaction of the horrified wife, the steps taken by her husband, and the manner in which this

News Contributor Is Jailed In Panama For Disrespect To Prexy

PANAMA, Panama, March 8 (AP)—A newspaper contributor was sentenced to 15 days in jail yesterday after writing that President Alcibades Arosemena had pocketed $28,000 in deals over letting a contract to a newly formed cigarette company.

The writer is Roman B. Reyes whose article was published in Prensa Libre, a publication politically opposed to the president. He was arrested on a complaint by Paul de Roux, minister of government, and tried by Mayor Alberto Navarro on charges of showing disrespect to the president.

Oregon Trail Story Has Fast Action, Color

Super-spectacular background and a cast of prestige players something out of the ordinary in western fare for "Bend of the River," to show at the Ritz Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

James Stewart, Arthur Kennedy, Julia Adams and Rock Hudson have the principal roles in this Technicolor opus which boasts some of the outstanding scenic backgrounds yet captured by the camera.

It's a rugged action plot, too. Stewart, as a wagon train guide in 1847 Oregon, has a vital role, and Kennedy scores a hit as the villain who becomes a pal of Stewart's and then turns on him viciously. Miss Adams has the feminine lead and Rock Hudson wins new followers with a lead role. Others in the cast are Les Nelson, Jay C. Flippen, Henry Morgan, Howard Petrie, Chubby Johnson and the old-timer Stepien Feltch.

"Bend of the River" tells the dramatic tales of the fortunes and misfortunes of a pioneer trek into Oregon at the time of the gold rush. It benefits handsomely from the actual backgrounds in Oregon, where filming was centered against the dramatic backdrops of Mt. Hood, the Columbia River and other Northwestern skylines.

U. S. Military Aid Due Reich When It Joins EDC Program

BONN, Germany, March 8 (AP)—West Germany will receive military materiel from the United States to help equip its troops once they join the six-nation European Army, Ambassador William H. Draper Jr. said here today.

Draper, special representative of the Mutual Security Agency (MSA) in Europe, told a news conference: "The threat of aggression can really be deterred with Germany taking part in defense." Draper said he is "very hopeful" the six West European parliaments will approve the European army treaty "within a reasonable period."

COMING HERE FOR A VISIT

London Double-Decker Busses To Promote Britain In Tour

LONDON (AP)—Americans will rub their eyes soon and take a second amazed look when they see a genuine double-decker London bus rolling through their streets.

If you see one next month in Kansas City, don't hesitate! Climb aboard the British apparition and save an "oast to goodness" London cockney conductor punch your ticket for Piccadilly Circus, Westminster Abbey, or if you like, the Tower of London.

As a matter of fact, the tall red double-decker will not take you outside your city limits, but you will be doing what thousands of Londoners do daily. The difference is you will be joy-riding with the British government paying the fare.

It's a stunt of the British Travel and Holidays Association to encourage the tourist trade which last year poured 196 million badly needed U.S. dollars into British coffers. Three buses of the London Transport System will begin on March 16 a four-month coast-to-coast tour of the United States.

The bus fleet will be manned by eight Londoners, most of them cockneys (to be a real cockney, you should have been born within earshot of the bells of the famous Bow Church of London).

The rhyming slang of the cockney busmen is a 100-year-old language and here is some of the lingo you might hear on the bus:
A bus is a "tinkers cuss" and the passengers are "rabbits." A full bus is a "domino" and an empty one is a "store cold." Going up stairs is "going up the apples and pears."

The America-bound busmen are veterans of London's fleet of 7,250 double-deck diesel buses. Carefully selected, the busmen were put through a three-week training course to educate them in the quirks of American traffic. They drilled on London's one-way streets to drive on the wrong (right-hand) side of the road.

All are convinced London bus drivers are the best in the world and their narrow double-deckers lowering 14 feet, six inches in height are unbeatable. American bus commuters will certainly concede some points in favor of the London buses.

For one thing, only five standees are permitted even during rush hours on the lower deck which seats 26 passengers. No standees are allowed on the upper deck of the bus which seats 30.

Conductors on London buses—sometimes a pretty girl—charge fares according to the distance.

It's Amazing What Skirts Are Used For

CORAL GABLES, Fla. (AP)—J. R. Lawson, a chain store supervisor, couldn't believe his eyes. When he hollered "drop it" at two women, here's what he said fell out of their skirts:
Two steaks, two hams, two packages of sliced ham and four chickens.
The women were charged yesterday with shoplifting.

"My 'trouble and strife' (wife) and 'gawd forbids' (kids) still 'aven't got over the shock of me going,'" said one.

American prices are the busmen's chief worry. The senior driver, 51-year-old George Gwynn, who has threaded heavy London traffic for 27 years without an accident, appealed:

"Listen 'ere chum, please tell the Americans that when we come to New York, if they want to give us one of those paper throwin' parades, tell 'em to throw dollar bills instead of old newspapers."

The bus fleet sails March 8 from Liverpool for New York on the Cunard cargo vessel "Parthia."

There will be six bright red vehicles in the "come to Britain" convoy. A British-export Austin will lead the way. Then the three buses and two maintenance trucks. Leaving New York March 24 after an eight-day stay, the convoy will make consecutive stops in:

AND AT TIMES THE RIVER IS FRIENDLY, GLIDING SMOOTHLY THROUGH MILES OF DUSKY FOREST...

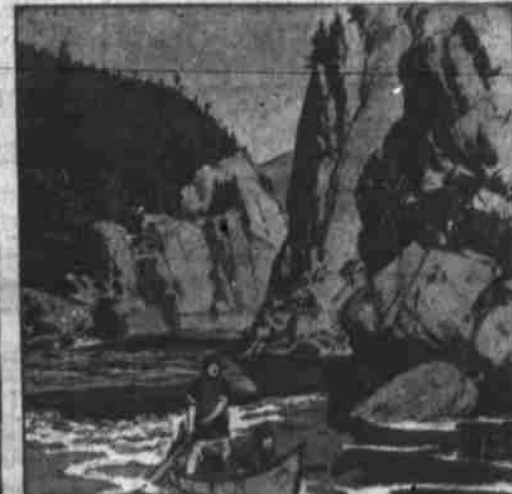

... WHILE AT OTHER TIMES IT RUSHES THEM AT DIZZY SPEED DOWN FOAMING RAPIDS.

BUT MOST OFTEN THEY HAVE TO CUT A PATH THROUGH THE FOREST AND PORTAGE THEIR CANOE AROUND THUNDERING CATARACTS.

THEY LIVE ON FISH AND BERRIES. ONCE A BLUE-BERRY PATCH IS DISPUTED AND THEY STAND FOR A LONG, BREATHLESS MOMENT WHILE AN ANGRY MOTHER TRIES TO MAKE UP HER MIND AS TO WHETHER HER CHILDREN ARE BEING ENDANGERED.

LATE ONE DAY THE RIVER CARRIES THEM INTO A NARROW CANYON. TOO LATE THEY HEAR THE OMINOUS ROAR OF TUMBLING WATERS.

NO CANOE COULD STAY AFLOAT IN SUCH A MAELSTROM, BUT VAL AND ARF CLING DESPERATELY TO IT, FOR THE BLADDERS AT EACH END KEEP IT FROM SINKING.

WHEN AT LAST THEY DRAG THEMSELVES ASHORE NIGHT HAS FALLEN. IN THE MORNING THEY WILL BE ABLE TO TELL WHETHER, OR NOT THEIR FRAIL BOAT IS DAMAGED BEYOND REPAIR. NEXT WEEK - The Deer Hunter.

I HAVE MADE A FEW NOTES - TWO WEEKS AGO ANNIE HAD HER FORTUNE TOLD BY THE ORIENTAL SEERESS THE PRINCESS ZELLIRA - RIGHT?

YES, SIR - I WAS TERRIBLE POLITE AN' ONLY ASKED HER ONE QUESTION -

I SAID I WANNA KNOW ABOUT A LITTLE GIRL THAT WAS LOST A YEAR AGO - EVERYBODY SEZ SHE'S DEAD - BUT HER MOTHER, MRS. MARTAN, THINKS SHE AIN'T DEAD -

THEN WHAT HAPPENED?

WHEN I SAID "MRS. MARTAN," THE PRINCESS JUMPED UP AN' YELLED, "WHAT DOES THAT SILLY SENSELESS FOOL KNOW ABOUT THE FUTURE? HER LITTLE GIRL IS NEVER COMING BACK - NEVER, NEVER, NEVER!" THEN I RAN OUT -

I DON'T KNOW WHY THE PRINCESS WAS MAD AT MRS. MARTAN, BUT I KNOW I SAW THE PRINCESS SOMEWHERE BEFORE SHE TOLD MY FORTUNE - BUT I DON'T KNOW WHERE IT WAS

YOU MIGHT HAVE SEEN HER IN A MOVING PICTURE - TELEVISION - OR IN A BOOK - OR -

IN A BOOK! GLORY DAY - NOW I KNOW!

GOOD HEAVENS! IT'S A PICTURE OF MY SISTER-IN-LAW AND MY LITTLE DORIS - THAT EXPLAINS EVERYTHING!

SOMETHIN'S WRONG - THE NICE LADY IN THE ALBUM HAS YELLOW HAIR - THE PRINCESS HAS BLACK HAIR!

THE PRINCESS COULD BE WEARING A BLACK WIG TO LOOK ORIENTAL - WE'LL SOON FIND OUT -

GRANDMA

By CHAS. KUHN

I DON'T BELIEVE YOU REMEMBER ME; DO YOU, GRANDMA?

OH, GRANDMA!

SURE I DO!! WE USED T' CALL YOU SPIDER, AN' YOUR FAMILY MOVED OUT WEST A FEW YEARS AGO. YOU WERE A LITTLE SHAVER THEN! GLAD T' SEE YOU AGAIN!!

GEE, WE USED T' HAVE SOME HIGH OL' TIMES, DIDN'T WE?

MEMBER WHEN I ACCIDENTALLY TRIPPED YOU AN' YOU SAT DOWN IN A BIG BASKET O' EGGS? HA-HA-HA!!

YEAH, I RECALL HOW MAD YOU GOT WHEN TH' HONEY SOMEONE SPILLED IN YOUR HAT GOT IN YOUR HAIR AN' TRICKLED DOWN YOUR NECK - HA-HA-HA!

REMEMBER WHEN YOUR MELON PATCH WAS RAIDED AN' YOU OFFERED A REWARD T' FIND OUT WHO DID IT?

THEN, THERE WAS TH' TIME SOMEONE TURNED A HOSE ON YOU THROUGH A HOLE IN TH' FENCE -- HA-HA-HA!!

LATER YOU GAVE LITTLE AL A SOUND THRASHING, THINKING HE WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL O' THOSE THINGS - HO-HO!!

YOU NEVER KNEW I WAS TH' FELLER WHO DID IT ALL! HA-HA-HA!!

YOU SCALAWAG!

A sweeter wash is a cleaner wash

Surf guarantees a sweeter wash than any soap, any detergent you now use

Prove it yourself — in your own linen closet.

THERE'S A GOOD REASON why we can make this guarantee so confidently. A Surf wash smells sweeter because it is so clean. Surf not only gets out the dirt and grime you can see in clothes—it also reaches deep into the fabric and gets out the soap scum and odor that other washday products leave in.

You can easily prove this yourself with a simple test. Use Surf the next time you do the family wash. Then compare the sweet smell of cleanness in your Surf wash with anything in your linen closet that was washed with the product you've been using. You'll be delighted with the new sweet, clean difference.

Today, or weeks away, your Surf-washed clothes will smell as clean as they look and look as clean as they smell. That's your proof that they're clean clear through.

UNCONDITIONAL GUARANTEE

The makers of Surf—Lever Brothers Company—guarantee you the sweetest wash you've ever had—regardless of the product you are now using, with or without rinsing—or your money refunded.

We guarantee, if you switch to Surf, you'll have the sweetest wash on earth!
