Iowa Park Youth Decapitated By Train Here

The Retail Merchants Association, which, as everyone hereabouts knows has been developed into one of the largest and most useful agencies of its kind in the southwest by L. A. Eubanks, is to be heartily thanked by the community for providing a Free Employment Bureau on exchange here.

The need for cotton pickers is becoming acute. Every effort is being made to provide employment for home people first. However, it is obvious that if the farmers' needs cannot be met locally they will be forced to go elsewhere for hands.

It now appears 25,000 bales of cotton will be gathered in Howard county this season. Figuring 75¢ per bale as the cost of picking a total of $1,875,000 will be expended. To keep this money in the county would be of material benefit. This added to the sums that will be kept in circulation due to operation of gins, the compress, and other plants allied with the cotton industry, means much.

Let us not overlook opportunities of providing employment other than cotton picking. Every one who needs anyone for any kind of work should file his needs with the Free Bureau, telephone No. 67L.

The state of Texas, it now appears, will have an opportunity to learn whether statutory control of cotton acreage will work; whether it is wise or unwise; whether it will show the price upward over a period of years or merely cause a temporary hike.

The legislature will late today or tomorrow pass finally the conference committee's compromise bill providing reduction to 30 per cent of the cultivated area.

It is our hope, of course, that the ills of the cotton farmer will be alleviated by this method. But, we have come to the conclusion that only the most extreme emergency merit legislative control of the production of farm products. As a last straw it is justifiable. But it is unfortunate when conditions bring about sentiment for such a method.

Today we had the pleasure of meeting Harry Galbraith, pioneer newspaper man of Terrell, Kaufman county, Keen-eyed and active—he plays golf every day—Mr. Galbraith has seen 40 years of service to the people of Kaufman and neighboring counties. When the final roll is called and Harry Galbraith must quit the walks of men many a man and woman will say that he left behind him riches beyond computation in dollars and cents—he served his fellow man long and wisely and well.

Family Ties Hinder Romance In Freeman Lincoln's Novel "Sam"

Freeman Lincoln doesn't like the idea of being known chiefly as the son of Joseph C. Lincoln—but there isn't much he can do about it. Lincoln the elder has been writing popular novels and short stories almost beyond the memory of this generation, but the son wants the world to know he does things on his own.

Freeman Lincoln's first novel, "SAM," a romance will appear in The Herald, beginning Tuesday, September 27. He previously collaborated with his father on "Blair's Attie."

30 Get Work Via Bureau

300 Cotton Pickers Needed At Once; Agencies Cooperate

With requests for approximately 300 cotton pickers on file the Free Employment Bureau, 111 Main street, being conducted by the Retail Merchants' Association, reported a total of 31 persons had been employed through it in the two and one-half days of operation ending Monday noon.

Nineteen were sent to cotton fields Monday morning. An auto mechanic was given employment.

Several men who had an opportunity of going to the country with their families expressed their desire of finding work in town if possible, in order to keep their children in school. One farmer asked for three men to head maize while their families pick cotton.

Arrangements were being made Monday afternoon by L. A. Eubanks, manager of the Retail Merchants' Association, to send a truck load of pickers out each morning.

Applications for cotton pickers continued to be received at the Chamber of Commerce offices Monday morning, said C. T. Watson, manager. He expressed the hope that those wishing employment would file their names with one of the active agencies here, either in the Chamber's offices or the Free Employment Bureau.

"The main thing is to get work for those who need it and provide the farmers with pickers to gather their crop without delay," he said.

Of 214 men registered with a committee that has been acting for the unemployed here 200 are engaged in picking cotton, the committee said Monday.

Trucks hired from funds of the committee, which are collected in dues of 10 and 25 cents for each person registered with it, are carrying families, as well as single men.

It is expected to hold the production between 350,000 and 375,000 barrels daily for each field. No trouble was expected in the enforcement of the law but National Guardsmen kept a close watch over the fields.

CARMEN PRINCE'S CADDY BIARRITZ, (INS)—Carmen the Prince of Wales while he was the house-guest of Lord Ednam at the Chateau de Matignon, which lies on the lovely Basque coast between Bayonne and this famous seaside resort. Carmen is considered the very best of all the lady caddies on the coast—all the caddies are women around here. She is plump and middle-aged, a native of the region, with a curious Spanish inflection to her French. About all the English she knows is a long-drawn out "goodoooo" for a fine shot, followed by a rapid fire of French, all of which never fails to encourage any player on the links.

PORT ARTHUR, Sept. 21. (AP)—The body lay face upward and a .45 revolver was near the left hand. Though Holstein was right handed he was shot through the left temple. The body was badly seared.

The house ignited first under a staircase, and the fire was too far advanced to kill how it originated, but Chief La Rose said it was probably arson. The police remained on duty until a coroner's verdict had not been returned.

Companion Of Victim Tells Of 'Last Ride'

Body Accompanied To Home By Youth; Head Completely Severed

Jessie Isaac McCelvey, 20, of Iowa Park was decapitated here last night while attempting to alight from the Sunshine Special. His foot slipped and he fell beneath the train.

McCelvey and his companion, Loy Nichols left their home Sunday morning at eight o'clock on their way to Long Beach, Calif., according to Nichols.

McCelvey told Nichols, who was riding the blinds of the coach just behind him, to be ready to jump when the train reached Big Spring. Nichols said this morning:

"I saw him start to get off and I jumped. I ran along the side of the train and falling to see Jessie I went back to look for him. Under the fourth coach behind the one he was riding I found his body crushed between the coach and the platform." Nichols declared in a statement this morning. McCelvey's head was completely severed from his body.

McCelvey is survived by his widowed mother, one brother and several sisters.

The body was taken to the Eberly Funeral Home where it was prepared for burial. Nichols accompanied his friend on his last ride today when he left on the noon train for Iowa Park with the body.

Ex-Secretary Of Treasury Says Idle Money Cause Of Woes

BEAUMONT, Sept. 21. (AP)—Idle money, and not lack of money, is what has been back of the depression, according to Carmel Thompson, former secretary of the United States treasury, who visited here on an inspection tour of his company's branches, the International Stacy Company.

"People have been hoarding their money instead of putting it to work out in the world," Thompson said. "This fact is substantiated by the response Mellon received when he asked for a loan." Smaller business is beginning to recover from the slump, but larger business is slower in getting started again, in the opinion of Thompson.

Thompson makes his home in Cleveland, Ohio, his home state, which he served as secretary of state in 1911. He then served as assistant secretary of the interior under President Taft, and later as secretary to the president. He then assumed his highest office, that of secretary of the treasury, in November 1921 and served until April, 1923.

Correction

Incorrect information was published in Sunday's Herald concerning a fire Saturday evening in a dwelling at 511 W. Fifth St.

The statement was made that gas jets had been left open in the house. Jem Heffernan, city fire marshal, after regular inspection, said that a hose from a jet to a two-burner hot plate in the house was burned, leaving the well jet open. This was closed by firemen. Later, when a second alarm was turned in from the same place, firemen returned to find flames had broken out from embers left after the first trip to the house.

AFTER SLOW DRIVERS SACRAMENTO, CALIF. (INS)

California's highway patrol has launched a statewide drive against the slow driver. Classified as a menace to safety and a hindrance to the normal movement of traffic on congested highways, the slow-moving motorist is subject to arrest as a result of new motor vehicle laws passed by the last legislature and now in effect. Warnings already issued to tardy drivers by Captains Charles Loomis, John Pecheo and John Payton in San Luis Obispo, Santa Clara and Santa Cruz counties have greatly facilitated the movement of traffic on the highways of those districts. E. R. Cato, highway patrol chief, is advised.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 21.—The Cardinals could do little with Southpaw Bill Clark's offerings and the Brooklyn Dodgers took the series opener from the champion Cardinals 6 to 1 here Sunday.

A first inning error by Hendrick robbed Larry Benton of a shutout in the first game, the Cincinnati right hander allowing the Braves to get five hits in the remaining eight innings. The Braves drove St. Johnson from the mound in the nightcap, but five of their own pitchers could not stop the Reds.

Ex-Bank Attache To Stand Trial

AMARILLO, Tex., Sept. 21. (UP)—Victor L. Blakely, former auditor and assistant cashier of the Continental National Bank of Fort Worth, will face trial in federal court here today on charges of embezzling approximately $38,000 of funds, money and credits of the bank.

He was indicted yesterday on the charges, on ten counts. At the same time, the grand jury indicted Mrs. Jeannette Harter, former teller of the S'n Angelo National bank, on three counts alleging embezzlement of $5,400.

Twenty-three indictments were returned in all, with liquor law violations the basis for most of them. Jimmie G. Vines and his pretty wife Dovey, of Plainview, were indicted on charges of possessing and circulating counterfeit currency in the panhandle and eastern New Mexico. The two were alleged to have circulated $10 bills, believed made in Juarez, Mex., and sold to Americans at ten cents on the dollar.

ROASTING OF COFFEE MORE IMPORTANT THAN THE BLEND

Under-roasting and Over-roasting Produce an Unsatisfactory Flavor

It is a fact that two lots of coffee from the same blend can be given entirely different flavors by different degrees of roast. A delicious, uniform flavor in coffee depends upon a uniform roast.

Hills Bros. invented and patented controlled Roasting—a process that roasts perfectly all the time. Hills Bros. Coffee always has the full charm of the flavor that Nature puts in the coffee berries.

As the accuracy of the hour-glass depends upon an even, continuous flow... a little at a time... so a perfect, uniform flavor is secured in Hills Bros. Coffee by Controlled Roasting—the patented process that roasts evenly, continuously... a little at a time. There is automatic control of heat—thereby eliminating guesswork, which is the constant problem when coffee is roasted in bulk.

Vacuum cans preserve the wonderful flavor of Hills Bros. Coffee. Air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, is removed and kept out of these cans. Ordinary, "air-tight" cans don't keep coffee fresh. Order Hills Bros. Coffee today. Ask for it by name, and look for the Arab trade-mark on the can.

Carriers Tell I.C.C. Duty Binds It To Grant Hike In Rates

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21. (UP)—The interstate commerce commission, under the transportation act, is in duty bound to provide additional revenues for the country's railroads, according to the recently filed petition of the carriers for a 15 per cent freight rate increase, which was made public.

The filing of the brief, through a special committee of counsel representing eastern, western and southern rail groups, marked the final chapter in the railroads' revenue case, which has been before the commission since June 27. Oral arguments are scheduled to start Sept. 21.

Containing that the financial needs of the railroads have been clearly established, the brief stated that if the commission does not agree with this method of providing additional revenues "the matter does not end there." It is then the duty of the commission to decide on a different method, the brief maintained.

Pursuing a plan adopted in 1925, at the beginning of the revival in business which led to the prosperity of the subsequent years, the railroads, according to the brief, from that year to and including 1930, made improvements and additions that cost, in gross, $6,742,000,000.

Germany's sales of industrial machinery to New Zealand in the first four months of this year were greater than those for the entire year of 1929.

The extent to which athletics occupy the time of Americans is revealed by a survey conducted by the National Recreation Association. This group found that more than 500,000 people took part in municipal league athletic activities last year and upwards of 35,000,000 people watched them.

The Spread Of Farm Tenantry

TEXAS was not the only state in which farm tenantry increased during the last decade, census bureau figures indicate. In 43 of the 48 states the number of rented farms gained between 1920 and 1930. Mississippi had the largest percentage of rented farms, three out of every four being operated by tenants.

MOON OF DELIGHT by Margaret Bill Houston

STORIES: First, Juanita Basara, a stowaway brought to Divitt's gambling house. A cigarette girl—then Divitt's social wedge into the homes of the New Orleans elite. There with the marquis, Divitt's criminal partner, she had been the innocent aid to his robberies—fearing to run away because of some mystery in her past, conscious only of the deception in her assumed name—Senorita Flores—of Kirk Stander's love for her and her's for him. Now, with Divitt and his henchman, Umberto arrested, the parlors raided and the marquis flown, she is her true self—Beatriz Montega, voluntarily a prisoner in New Orleans to answer to a charge of murder in Vera Cruz. Kirk, beside her, hears her strange story.

some to Divitt—my mother's eldest brother, the one who most ardently opposed her marriage. I thought he had come to find me. You had brought him, and I thought you, too—" "I remember that night," said Kirk. "I knew you were in trouble. You said you—hardly looked at me." "I knew you were in trouble," he repeated. "But now—now it's all over." "The hunt, you mean. Yes. It is worse than capture. . . . If only Pedro has said nothing." "His eyes widened. You know? He is safe?" "Pedro is safe. I have a paper here, an old paper." Kirk took it from his pocket. "It was not Pedro who killed de Banos." "Conchita. . . . Could it have been Estrella? Do you know?" "They know Did you ever hear of a dancer named Lolita Guyea?" She nodded quickly. "It was to her he gave the banquet—while my mother lived." "Lolita came that night," said Kirk. "She found him with Estrella. It is all here in this paper that Gabriela's mother gave me. . . ."

Child Nutrition Favorite Topic of Herald Lecturer

About the most important problem in the average woman has to consider in her household is child nutrition. The "problem" begins early in the morning when little folks must be dressed, fed, and sent off to school, and ends only when the last sleepy head has been tucked in bed at night.

That is the reason Myra Olive Douglas, culinary authority who is to lecture before Big Spring women in a free cooking school sponsored by the Herald during the week of Sept. 28, devoting much of her time to the study of child nutrition during her intensive home economic training. Under scientific guidance she studied child physiology and psychology, the development of young bones and muscles, and the necessary nourishing foods.

Food is Problem

Food for the hungry child, both at meal time and "in-between," constitutes a problem which generally perplexes mothers, she states. The child must be satisfied and at the same time be given those foods which are nourishing and fattening. Vegetables, fruit, milk, bread and butter—these are popularly chosen by mothers as the most satisfying foods for their children, she states. But there is the child who will not eat carrots and spinach, pink milk, or lettuce, and who never enjoys a meal, but all must be fed.

Mrs. Douglas will endeavor to interest mothers in her audience in the scientific theories of child nutrition and her own original ideas on proper nutrition for children and the necessity for an understanding for such on the part of the mother.

Recreation Necessary

Proper recreation for the child plays an important part in his life as his food, the home economic authority believes. His mind must be occupied at the same time his body is given nourishment.

These topics are among the subjects of general interest to mothers which Mrs. Douglas will include in her lecture series, free from women readers of the Daily Herald.

North Carolinians Rout Depression By Living at Home

By W. J. DAVIS
RALEIGH, N. C. Sept. 21 (AP)—Whatever the south's attitude about cotton prohibition next year, North Carolina has plans of its own.

No cotton will grow on state-owned farms in 1932.

And that is just one of Gov. O. Max Gardner's ideas for making North Carolina's agriculturists the state's most independent class of citizens.

The "live-at-home" program, initiated in the south by Governor Gardner and inaugurated in North Carolina two years ago, has brought results that give the leaders a hopeful outlook.

"For the first time in history," Governor Gardner pointed out, "two bushels of wheat were raised on North Carolina soil for every man, woman and child in the state."

"North Carolina has grasped the live-at-home idea and for two years we have led the south in acreage reduction in cotton, having cut the crop 29 per cent this year."

Renewed Effort

Next year North Carolina will go forward with "renewed and redoubled efforts to reduce the acreage in cotton and tobacco and to grow all the food and feedstuffs necessary for the people of the state," if farmers follow the lead of their governor.

"Again," he said, "856,000 school children, together with the agricultural agencies of the state, agricultural college and department of agriculture, and county demonstration agents, the press and the pulpit will be called to take the lead."

William A. Graham, commissioner of agriculture, said the state is "steadily and surely emancipating itself from cotton bondage and turning toward production of food and feedstuffs."

He estimates that the revenue from diversified crops this year will increase the farm revenue of the state approximately $20,000,000.

Dr. E. C. Brooks, president of the state college, pointed out that his institution has fostered a program for cotton production that has been effective in reducing acreage, without any sign-up agreement. In two years the acreage reduction has been from 1,872,000 in 1929 to 1,336,000 in 1931.

More Reduction

"There is still opportunity for a continued reduction in this state," Dr. Brooks declared, "and undoubtedly there will be a considerable reduction in 1932 whether or not there is any concerted action on the part of other cotton growers."

Many North Carolina farmers have readjusted their programs and some have found it financially advantageous to abandon cotton altogether.

This year has seen a marked increase in preserving fruits. Pigs and chickens inhabit farms in large numbers.

The family cow is provided for, so agriculturists of the state assert they have little fear of any farm family going hungry regardless of the price of cotton, or what the county does about it.

men, to fields each day it was declared.

The committee expressed its willingness to cooperate with other local agencies in keeping a close check on employment conditions, to the end that local people be given preference. Transients are being directed to cotton fields, in some instances, it was said. The committee has called a public meeting at Camp Broadway Tuesday evening.

Polo Ponies Shipped From Brady To Mexico

BRADY, Sept. 21 (AP)—A shipment of seven thoroughbred race and polo ponies has been made to Mexican army stables by White and Strickland, owners of the Brady polo farms.

The deal was consummated after Captain Rosendo Perea and Colonel Rosendo de Anda of Monterrey, Mexico, personally selected these ponies. The purchase was made by the Mexican officials through Sheriff Alonzo Taylor of Jim Hogg county, who acted as interpreter.

All of these seven horses are young Kentucky thoroughbreds, which constituted part of a string of Kentucky blue-bloods imported by the Brady farms last year. Cal Anac and Sporting Miss, two of the horses included in the deal, have won a number of races in the race meets of this section during the summer.

This is the second sale of thoroughbreds made by the Brady men to Mexican army officials in the past few months.

The horses were shipped by truck to Monterrey.

SOLD LAKE WATER AS ANTI-FREEZE FOR AUTOS

CHICAGO, Sept. 21 (INS)—Selling lake water for $5 a gallon is a profitable business, until you are caught. This is the discovery of nine racketeers. Six of them, Earl Fisher, L. us and Sam Ziv, Zigman Joseph David Baue and Adolph Pestel are under arrest and facing charges of conspiracy to violate the criminal section of the federal patent regulations.

In a raid on the headquarters of the ring, four agents found 600 one-gallon cans which were exact duplicates of a type distributed by the makers of a widely known anti-freeze preparation for use in automobiles. The cans contained water, which was colored to imitate the legitimate product.

Oil Withdrawn From Storage Increases 5,779 Bbls. Daily

Oil withdrawn from storage in the Permian Basin during the week ending Sept. 9 increased to a daily average of 10,671 barrels, a gain of 5,779 barrels daily over the preceding week. This means that daily average production in Lea county, New Mexico, was 42,990 barrels.

West Texas producing areas showed a shake-up. Winkler county reported 19 wells less and Upton six less than during the week ending Sept. 2 but Crane county reported 19 more, for a net gain of nine. The 2,894 wells, however, made a daily average of only 206,200 barrels, compared with 208,422 barrels the week before. On the other hand daily average distribution increased to 3,557 barrels to 258,871 barrels. This is $2,671 barrels in excess of West Texas' daily average production, but by figuring Lea county's daily average yield at 42,000 barrels the demand exceeded the supply by only 10,671 barrels.

Daily average pipe line runs during the week ending Sept. 9 increased 2,217 barrels to 232,573 barrels and daily average runs to refine within the region advanced 1,340 barrels to 24,998 barrels. Daily average tank car shipments remained the same, 1,200 barrels.

Ten West Texas counties registered production declines totaling 2,628 barrels while only four showed gains amounting to 306 barrels whereas during the week ending Sept. 2 seven counties had gains in daily average production totaling 5,797 barrels and six showed losses aggregating 1,885 barrels.

Counties in which daily average production decreased during the week ending Sept. 9 were as follows, the decrease being noted in parenthesis: Crane 391 wells, 16,945 barrels (336); Crockett 40 wells, 1,345 barrels (41); Ector 32 wells, 7,613 barrels (18); Howard-Glasscock 57 wells, 28,106 barrels (844); Mitchell 148 wells, 1,603 barrels (181); Pecos 546 wells, 72,250 barrels (296); Upton 246 wells, 5,041 barrels (106); Ward 77 wells, 3,023 barrels (20); Winkler 531 wells, 37,329 barrels (673 barrels).

Counties showing production increases were: Iron 9 wells, 32 barrels (1); Loving 47 wells, 3,957 barrels (45); Reagan 251 wells, 28,900 (288); Scurry 5 wells, 23 barrels (2).

That bully old slogan hits me just right—

...no bamboozlin' about that!"

SURE! When a word fits, you know it! "Satisfy" just fits CHESTERFIELD. A smoker picks up a package, and he likes its neat appearance—no heavy inks or odors from ink. That satisfies him.

Then he examines a Chesterfield. It is well-filled; it is neat in appearance; the paper is pure white. And that satisfies him.

He lights up. At the very first puff he likes the flavor and the rich aroma. He decides that it tastes better—neither raw nor over-sweet; just pleasing and satisfying.

Then he learns it is milder. That's another way of saying that there is nothing irritating about it. And again he's satisfied!

Satisfy—they've got to satisfy! The right tobaccos, the CHESTERFIELD kind, cured and aged, blended and cross-blended, to a taste that's right. Everything that goes into CHESTERFIELD is the best that money can buy and that science knows about. CHESTERFIELDS do a complete job of it. They Satisfy!
