Crowds gather around a downtown office building in Bakersfield, Calif., which suffered damage in a severe earthquake. Part of the roof edging has crashed to the street while part of it still clings to the side of the building. There were two known dead in the quake with an undetermined number injured. # Weaver, Slaughter Win In County's Top Races

Stallings, Proctor, Nabors Are Elected

Howard County voters Saturday called for new faces in two of the county's top offices. R. H. Weaver, a young attorney, was swept into the county judgeship in the Democratic runoff primary, and Jess Slaughter was sent back to the sheriff's office he held for 12 years prior to 1940. Weaver bested Walter Grice 3,425 to 2,274. Slaughter won over J. B. (Jake) Bruton by 3,045 to 2,643. Both Grice and Bruton were denied their bids for a second term in their respective offices. The electorate of Commissioners Precinct 3 returned A. J. Stallings to a second term, Stallings defeating Murph Thorp by 1,237 to 809.

A new county commissioner, from Precinct 1, will be Ralph Proctor, who won over P. O. Hughes by a count of 426 to 342. The incumbent, Walter Long, did not seek re-election. In the other contested race in the county, Cecil (Cy) Nabors was named as Justice of the Peace, Precinct 1, by 2,670 votes to 1,845 for W. O. Leonard. Leonard was another incumbent who went down to defeat. Weaver, a 29-year-old graduate of Big Spring schools and the University of Texas law school, has lived in Howard County most of his life. A veteran of World War II, he has been a practicing attorney here for the past two years. Jess Slaughter's name is a familiar one on the county's Democratic ballots, since he was retained in the sheriff's office here for six terms beginning in 1925. He made an unsuccessful bid for the office in 1948, and again returned to the lists two years ago, to be defeated by Bruton. In that year, it was Bruton by 2,503 to Slaughter's 2,387. Weaver was a strong leader in all but four of the county's 15 boxes, and he carried all the boxes in Big Spring.

Bruton led in seven precincts, but Slaughter was a winner in four out of the five city boxes, and had wide margins in all precincts he did carry. The sheriff's campaign had generated considerable feeling on the political front during the last few days of vote hustling. Both Weaver and Slaughter Saturday night made informal statements of appreciation for their support. "This is sort of overwhelming to me," said Weaver. "But I want the people to know I am grateful, and that I will do the best I know how as the next county judge."

Slaughter, too, expressed his gratitude. "I think I know how to do the job right," he said, "and with the people's help, I will be a good sheriff." Howard County went strong for Frank P. Culver of Fort Worth over Spurgeon Bell of Houston, in the one state contest, that for Place No. 1 on the State Supreme Court. The local vote was 3,097 for Culver to 2,110 for Bell.

The name of Martin Dies was unopposed on the ticket, and Howard County gave him a vote of 4,923 for Congressman-at-large. The total vote was 5,752. This was under the record poll of July, but was more than 800 votes better than the August runoff of 1950.

Three candidates were on the ballot for committeeman in the third precinct. They were Otto Bearden who received 39 votes, James Jones 38 votes and Bonnie White 27 votes. In the Supreme Court race Spurgeon Bell of Harris County received 295 votes and Frank P. Culver of Tarrant County received 609.

Colorado City, Aug. 23 — Martin Dobbs won the Democratic nomination for tax collector-assessor in light but close voting here Saturday. Dobbs polled 1,132 votes, while his opponent, Tom Glover, got 985. The unofficial results were complete. In other balloting, Frank Culver got 1,176 votes to 713 for Spurgeon Bell for supreme court justice. Martin Dies, unopposed on the ballot for congressman-at-large, had 2,953 and L. L. Armor, Sweetwater, also unopposed for state legislative representative, had 2,044. There were 2,115 votes cast.

STANTON, (SC)—Dan Saunders, a former state highway patrolman, won the Democratic nomination for Martin County sheriff in a closely contested race with a veteran peace officer, Deputy Sheriff W. P. (Bill) Pinkston in Saturday's runoff primary. Saunders' majority was 33 votes with the totals standing at 682 for the winner and 649 for Pinkston. Stanley L. Lewis defeated incumbent D. E. Bloomer by 289 to 193 for the nomination for county commissioner in precinct 2; while Martin Gibson defeated Lynn White for justice of the peace in Precinct 3 by 315 to 188.

Quake Damage Being Counted

BAKERSFIELD, Calif., Aug. 23 (AP)—The quake-battered Bakersfield community swept up the rubble today and counted damage estimated tentatively at 20 million dollars from yesterday's sharp shock. Two lives were lost and 32 persons injured.

Meanwhile, the epicenter of a tremor which shook Los Angeles early today was placed at only 25 miles northeast of Pasadena. It caused no damage but woke thousands of persons in the middle of the night. City Manager C. Leland Gunn said that the damage from yesterday's shock will be greater than that of the July 21 quake. He placed Bakersfield's loss in the earlier shock at 15 million dollars.

Other sources have placed it as high as 20 million dollars. Conservative estimates of earthquake loss in the month following July 21 place total damage at 40 million. Yesterday's quake would boost that to 60 million or more.

All stores and offices, scores of them, in a six-block area of the downtown sector were closed. The drop in commercial activity added another intangible loss, impossible to estimate immediately. Police Chief Horace V. Grayson said the six-block heart of the downtown section will remain closed until at least Monday.

"It might even take until Wednesday to get all shaky walls down and bricks and glass out of the street," Grayson said. Gunn said that preliminary inspection shows at least 100 buildings badly damaged. Some, weakened this year are being urged to place to total damage at 40 million. Yesterday's quake would boost that to 60 million or more.

Schools and churches were particularly hard hit. City School Superintendent John Compton said there is doubt whether all students could be accommodated at the opening of the fall semester, scheduled in two weeks. Five churches cracked by the tremor planned emergency services elsewhere, the ministers announced. Churches made unsafe are Catholic, Presbyterian, Congregational, Seventh Day Adventist and Church of Christ. Mayor Frank E. Sullivan called an emergency City Council meeting tomorrow to discuss what civil defense and other aid should be asked. The Kern County Supervisors held a curbside meeting and asked the state of California for emergency aid.

Gov. Earl Warren, in Sacramento, promised that all help desired will be made available. Still on the governor's desk are a batch of bills aimed at helping Kern County areas stricken by the first big quake. One of these calls for three million dollars in loans for reconstruction or repair of public buildings. Kern County officials have termed this "just a drop in the bucket compared with what we need."

Killed yesterday were George T. Cozby, 67, Bakersfield, and Mrs. Edna Ledbetter, 26, McFarland, Calif. Nine of the 32 injured remained in hospitals today. The July 21 quake took 14 lives, 11 of them at Tehachapi, 35 miles east of here.

Shivers Declares He Can't Support Adlai

AUSTIN, Aug. 23 (AP)—Gov. Allan Shivers said tonight he could not personally support Gov. Adlai Stevenson for the presidency in view of Stevenson's stand on tidelands.

But he called on the people of Texas to tell him what action they want taken with respect to determining the next president. "My recommendations to the State Democratic Convention meeting in Amarillo on Sept. 9 will be based on the people's decision, made to me by their letters and telegrams," Shivers told reporters shortly after returning from his conference with Stevenson in Springfield, Ill.

Stevenson Against A 'Blanket Cession'

By DON WHITEHEAD SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 23 (AP)—Gov. Adlai Stevenson today declared himself against any "blanket cession" of tidelands oil to the states but said that he favored some sort of compromise solution to break the present stalemate in the fight.

Taking his first clear cut stand on this hot political issue, Stevenson issued a statement in which he said he accepted the Supreme Court decision holding the federal government has "paramount rights" to the rich off-shore oil deposits.

He also said he agreed with President Truman's veto of legislation, which would have given complete control of the tidelands to the states. But then he added as a qualification of this stand: "At the moment there is a legislative stalemate, however, which is harmful to both the states and nation. It should be broken by enactment of legislation providing equitable arrangement for administration of these lands and the disposition of their proceeds. . . . I think we should continue to work in the direction of this kind of a solution which is mindful of the respective interests of the states and the federal government."

Stevenson issued the statement after he had talked with Gov. Allan Shivers of Texas for more than five hours. Shivers told reporters, "I can't concur in the statement."

And then Shivers said: "I'm going to report to the people in Texas and do whatever they want to do. I'll make my report through the press."

Shivers immediately left the mansion and headed for the airport to return to Austin, Texas. Following an earlier meeting today, Shivers told newsmen Stevenson was trying to find a "morally and politically honest" solution to the problem.

Shivers came here this morning and spent almost four hours discussing the problem with Stevenson, who has said he wanted more information before reaching a firm decision on the issue. "About an hour and a half later, Shivers returned for a second session. "The governor and I had a most enjoyable visit," Shivers said after the first conference. He listened very patiently and attentively to my discussion of the tidelands oil question.

White Is Apparent Glasscock Winner

GARDEN CITY, Aug. 23—A. W. White apparently had bested Sam Childress, incumbent, in a nip-and-tuck commissioner race Saturday. Complete unofficial returns showed White with 69 votes and Childress with 64 in the commissioner of Precinct No. 3 race. In the only other contested race on the super-short ballot here, Frank P. Culver of Fort Worth edged Spurgeon Bell of Houston 67-63 for a supreme court place. Martin Dies, whose name appeared unopposed on the ballot as congressman-at-large, polled 106 votes. Balloting was at about one-third the July primary rates.

X-Ray Totals Surge Upward

Saturday was the current X-ray survey's biggest day as 934 persons reported to the X-ray center for free chest examinations. The run pushed the survey total to 3,767 and it appears certain that at least 5,000 persons will have taken the X-rays by the time the survey ends Tuesday afternoon.

All Howard County residents who have not had the chest pictures made this year are being urged to get the X-rays Monday or Tuesday. Hours the X-ray center at R & R Jewelry will be open are 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. each day. Saturday winners of theater passes being given persons participating in the survey were Max Stokes, Lee Nuckles, Leroy Chatham, Alvin H. Smith, Mrs. Nora Arnold, and Alvin Bates.

R & R Theaters will give four passes each day of the survey to persons selected from among those registering for the X-rays.

Pond Leads Field In Write-In Votes

Joe Pond led the field of write-in candidates in the Howard County runoff primary Saturday. Pond didn't get any more votes—other than any of the other write-ins—but he was for the highest office—congressman-at-large. Other write-ins were Reed Collins, Doyal Grice and James Underwood, one each for sheriff, and Tommy Gage, one for justice of peace.

Three Americans Detained By Russians For 36 Hours

BERLIN, Aug. 23 (AP)—Three members of an American military mission working in the Soviet zone with diplomatic immunity from arrest were detained 36 hours by the Russians and then released. It was disclosed tonight. They were accused by the Russians of spying and their removal was demanded. SHIP notes over the incident have been exchanged by the U. S. and Soviet commands. A U. S. Army spokesman at Frankfurt said the three were taken in custody Aug. 15 on a road about 90 miles from Berlin. A military source suggested they may have gotten too close to the bustling Baltic area to the north, where the Soviet command has been super-sensitive about approaches by foreigners on both sea and land. Soviet security measures there have been severe. The Baltic Sea is within 30 miles of Berlin. The U. S. Army charged in a protest to the Soviet command Aug. 19 that the Russians violated mutual agreements on the status of military missions by detaining the Americans. The Russians replied two days later that the three were taken out of bounds while on spy missions. The three were identified by the spokesman as Lt. Col. Gerald H. Dain, Capt. William R. Croucher and Pfc. Arnold P. Swenson.

Reds Propose Big 4 Parley

MOSCOW, Sunday, Aug. 24 (AP)—Russia proposed today a big four-power meeting on a German peace treaty to be held not later than October.

The Soviet government called for the meeting with Britain, France and the United States to consider a peace treaty, formation of an all-German government, and a time limit for withdrawal of occupation forces by the Big Four powers.

The Soviets said they would discuss a German elections commission as proposed by the three Western Powers but only following the discussion of the peace treaty and formation of an all-German government.

The Soviet proposals were contained in notes handed the three Western ambassadors in Moscow by Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky late yesterday.

The Soviet note outlined at length serious objections to the Western Power proposals as contained in their notes of July 10 and concluded by declaring: "Nevertheless the Soviet government is prepared to discuss at a meeting of the four powers the question proposed by the governments of the three powers on a commission for investigation of conditions for carrying out free elections in all Germany."

The Soviet note added immediately: "But the Soviet government at the same time considers that the meeting cannot and must not limit itself to a discussion of this question alone. "The Soviet government considers it necessary that the meeting in the first place should discuss such important questions as the peace treaty with Germany and the formation of an all-German government. ## Sabre Jet Pilots Claim Most 'Clear Cut' Victory

By SAM SUMMERLIN SEUL, Sunday, Aug. 24 (AP)—U. S. Sabre jet pilots today claimed probably "the most clean cut victory" of the Korean War, shooting down 26 MIGs and damaging 29 at a cost of one Sabre in only 22 days of August.

A Fifth Air Force spokesman said the nearest comparable performance to the blazing air battles of August was last June. In that entire month, 22 MIGs were shot down and one U. S. Sabre was lost.

How high the Sabres might boost their August total was in doubt. MIG jets which offered battle at great cost to themselves early in August have been shy lately. And rains now are hampering operations.

For example, the total for the 22 days include, but three MIGs shot down in the seven-day period ended Friday. Daily totals often exceeded three when the going was hot and heavy earlier in the month. The Air Force said that six Allied planes failed to return to base last week. Two were shot down by Red ground fire. Four others, including two Sabres, were lost to "other causes," presumably bad weather. A typhoon hampered air operations during the period. Rains whipped across the Korean front most of Saturday, holding back both air and ground operations.

On the Western Front, a small Chinese force tested the bristling defenses of Bunker Hill but was chased away. A staff officer said the Reds might try to regain the height, where the Communists lost 4,000 in dead or wounded in a week of savage battle. At the opposite end of the front, Allied raiders operating along the East Coast reported they killed or wounded 30 Red troops. The air war was relatively tame. Sabre pilots who went aloft could find no MIG jets. Fighter-bombers cratered at nine points the main rail line leading down from Manchuria to Pyongyang, the North Korean capital. Marine fighter-bombers reported they knocked out a key bridge on the West Coast rail line some 50 miles or so west of Pannunjom, the armistice site.

NO LONGER A CURIOSITY

Teletype Machines Are Now Being Used In Many Fields

From an early day newspaper curiosity, teletype machines are finding use in many fields here today.

No longer are they devices which practically terminated the old school of telegraphers. Instead, they are in use by private industry, the government, military and media of communication.

Virtually all of the machines are operated on a leased wire basis through Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. The exception, naturally, is the Western Union which maintains its own facilities devoted exclusively to transmission of telegraphic messages.

Approximately a dozen machines are in use here, according to Bell Telephone reports. Several others are maintained out of this office. They handle everything from oil information to news copy and weather reports.

The teletype machine resembles the ordinary typewriter in a great many respects. It has a keyboard, not unlike the typewriter, and what is "punched" on this keyboard comes out the same on another machine even though it be hundreds of miles away. This is possible because it operates on a fixed number of electrical impulses. Various combinations of openings and closures on these impulses result in causing certain keys to strike the ribbon and paper, or the carriage to return, the machine to feed another line, or make figures or letters.

There are different types of services. One is the TWX, a selective sort. The Veterans Administration Hospital, Coaden Petroleum Corporation, and Webb Air Force Base headquarters all employ this type. It involves passing through a switchboard which will afford connection with a machine or machines at certain stations. Operators thus can send messages or carry on written conversations with only those with whom they have business.

Another kind is the regular network such as Pioneer Air Line's maintains. The machine here is hooked together with all others on the PAL system, and when a message is punched at one point, all receive it.

Similar to this, the Weather Bureau and the Air Force weather service operate a quartet of machines which receive and send weather information. Usually, sending is on a fixed schedule of fixed sequence.

Also on a network plan but powerless to send messages are machines at radio stations KTXC and KBST. The Herald has an Associated Press teletype machine on which it transmits and receives sports news within certain time intervals.

Outside of Big Spring but maintained by the Big Spring office are teletype machines for the West Texas Weather Improvement District. These are at Lamessa, Western Union, of course, was one of the first to abandon the old "pounding" method—the dot and dash code—in favor of the more rapid machine. Instead of printing on a sheet of paper, messages from these machines come out on small strips which are run through a contraption which applies glue and sticks it to paper.

Hadacol Corner Gets Some Dignity

HADACOL CORNER, Midkiff, Tex., Aug. 23 (AP)—Please refrain from referring to this bustling West Texas oil community as Hadacol Corner. The Postoffice Department, in the interests of dignity, in the mail, says that from now on it's officially Midkiff.

The community sprouted—store by store—a couple of years ago in a spot strategically picked to serve new oil field camps in Upton County. The first settlers and the oil workers started calling it Hadacol Corner, after the patent medicine of the same name.

The name stuck until the Postoffice Department decided the settlement deserved a fourth-class (not fourth-rate) postoffice.

"They frowned on the name of 'Hadacol Corner,'" reported Congressman Ken Regan. "And thought the name Midkiff, after the well-known ranching family in this area, would be more appropriate."

Aluminum Plant Is Due In Alaska

MT. MCKINLEY NATIONAL PARK, Alaska, Aug. 23 (AP)—Aluminum Company of America said today it will build a 400-million-dollar aluminum smelting plant in Alaska. The company said the project hinges on the purchase of land and government approval.

Leon E. Hickman, vice president and general counsel for ALCOA, said the plant initially will be capable of producing 300,000 tons of aluminum annually.

Hickman said the plant will be built in the Talya Valley district, near Skagway. It will be financed entirely with private capital.

He estimated the Talya development will require about four years to complete and will eventually offer employment for approximately four thousand workers.

Pretty Slick

Not just the operator, Barbara Lytle, but the machine, too. Miss Lytle is operator of the teletype machine at the Veterans Administration hospital. This is one of a dozen machines which operate here to keep Big Spring in constant written communication with almost any point in the nation.

who employ telephone to a great extent, are the main defenders of the hand sending technique. However, printers (teletype machines) have been installed at El Paso, Fort Worth, Dallas and Marshall and one is on order for Big Spring.

The Herald employs a peculiar refinement on the teletype machine—it is a teletypesetter. There are two units to this; one which types the copy on paper, and one which simultaneously perforates tape. This tape, with the impulse combinations reflected as holes in the narrow strip of paper, is run through a linotype machine much the same as the old piano player roll was played. As a result the linotype machine turns the tape into actual type.

While the ability to utilize combinations of impulses to square out typewriting through a tiny wire is little short of a miracle, it is no less miraculous than the ability to operate a number of machines over the same wire at the same time. This is done by changing the frequencies from the machines so that each is different. Only the equipment at the other end of the line attuned to that exact frequency will pick up the impulses. It is not unusual that 12 or more messages may go over the same wire at the same time. With use of ultra-high frequency equipment, the number of messages may be multiplied many times over.

Maintaining this sometimes becomes a ticklish problem, because operation is based on such precise margins that the least mal-adjustment or weakness in signal (electrical impulse) may throw things out of kilter. Wire trouble can cause copy to garble and when anything goes wrong, the SOS goes out immediately for Bell men to pull a rabbit out of the hat quickly.

Iran Reducing Brass In Army; Generals Retire

By MATE POLOWETZKY

TEHRAN, Iran, Aug. 23 (AP)—The high brass of Iran's 130,000-man Army was thinned today by the retirement of 15 generals, including one dismissed from the military governorship of Tehran after his troops fired on rioters here July 21.

Many other officers were reported, without official confirmation, to be marked for retirement by the Nationalist government of Premier Mohammed Mossadeq, who is now his own defense minister.

One source said the Supreme War Council would submit the names of more than 30 to Mossadeq before the shakeup ended.

Officially, an Army spokesman said all the 15 men retired today—ranging in rank from brigadier to lieutenant general—were being withdrawn from active duty and pensioned because each had served as an officer more than 30 years, the legal limit.

The move came on the heels of criticism from Nationalist sources of the size of the Army's command and its actions in Iran's July crisis, when rioting ousted Premier Ahmed-Qavam and restored Mossadeq to power.

The ex-military governor who was retired was Gen. Alavi Moghaddam. His troops fired on rioters during clashes reported to have led to the death of 35 or more persons. Blamed by Nationalists for the bloodshed, he was dismissed from the military governorship the following day.

Mossadeq is known as a "weak army" man, regarding the troops as a sort of national police rather than as a combat force for attack. He resumed the premiership only on condition he head the Defense Ministry, a wish Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi once denied him.

Nationalist speakers have joined Communists and others in demanding the withdrawal of U. S. missions which have trained and helped equip Iranian troops since World War II.

One shipment of American military aid supplies, the first since Mossadeq and the U. S. State Department settled a dispute last spring over mutual security terms, arrived last week. Another is expected early in September.

Details Added To Scoutmaster's Encounter With Strange Object

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Aug. 23 (U.P.)—A deputy sheriff and two Boy Scouts today added details to a scoutmaster's story of his encounter with a strange object in a rural wooded area Tuesday night.

They told of scorched grass, strange lights and showers of sparks in the area where D. S. Desvergers said he was "blasted by a ball of fire" from the object when he investigated flashes of light near a country road.

Desvergers, 30, hardware salesman and former Marine, said he was questioned last night at the West Palm Beach International Airport by officers from Washington, whom he refused to identify.

The scoutmaster has described the object he encountered as an "object like half a rubber ball," about three feet thick at the edges and high enough at the center for men to stand erect inside.

He told a Palm Beach reporter today that he knows what the object was, but added "it's better for me not to go any further for the public good because it might cause a panic."

Desvergers reported he was taking three scouts home Tuesday night when he stopped to investigate the lights in nearby woods. He said when he flashed his light on the object, he was blasted by the ball of fire and overcome.

Deputy Sheriff Mott N. Partin, summoned by the scouts, said the hair was singed, off Desvergers' arms and three tiny holes were burned in his cap. He also said he found evidence of scorched grass where the scoutmaster said he encountered the object.

One of the scouts, Charles Stevens, said the group saw a "big glowing white light come down out of the sky" and "there were about six reddish lights around it when it neared the ground."

David Rowan, another scout, said that soon after Desvergers entered the woods, something "went off and showered sparks all over the area like a Roman candle."

In Washington, an Air Force spokesman said an officer was sent to check on the incident.

He said the officer flew from Air Technical Intelligence Center, Dayton, O. The center has the responsibility of analyzing the reports of unusual aerial objects.

The Air Force spokesman said "we cannot tell yet just what it was there." He added:

"We spoke to the man, but we had nothing up to now upon which to base a conclusion.

"We are going to continue to check up and to get all the facts together."

Service Is Held For Mrs. Banowsky

Mrs. Iva Johnson has returned from Rising Star where she was with her mother, Mrs. Melinda Arnold Banowsky, 90, in her last illness.

Mrs. Banowsky, a pioneer resident of Big Spring, passed away Wednesday and was interred in a sunset burial service on Thursday. Burial was in the Long Branch cemetery with the Church of Christ minister officiating.

For the past 15 years Mrs. Banowsky had been bedfast and for five years prior to that she was a partial invalid.

Born in Hamilton County, she came with her first husband to Mitchell County in the late 1870's. As the railroad pushed westward, they left their cattle in Mitchell County and settled in a dugout near the Big Spring while Mr. Arnold gathered buffalo bones which were shipped when the railroad was established. Later they returned to Mitchell County and then to Eastland where they bought a farm on Saban Creek. It was there that they reared their family of 10 children, eight of whom survived. Mr. Arnold died 52 years ago and his wife was buried beside his grave.

Insects May Be Winning Battle Against People

By OVID A. MARTIN
WASHINGTON, Aug. 23 (U.P.)—Man's age-old battle to conquer his insect enemies is making little if any headway. In fact, the bugs may be winning.

Secretary of Agriculture Brannan said today the picture is "disturbing" and urged scientists to "push on to new horizons" in the quest for weapons to keep insects from getting the upper hand.

Writing the foreword in a whopping new 952-page yearbook entitled "Insects," published by the Agriculture Department, Brannan said that despite the development of revolutionary new insecticides, the struggle against bug pests is still a long way from victory.

He said insects are costing this country approximately four billion dollars a year in damage to crops and property.

Brannan made no attempt to estimate how the see-saw conflict is going in relation to predictions by some scientists that the fast-breeding insect world will eventually dominate the earth, but he declared:

"Although the science of entomology has made great progress in the last two decades, the problems caused by insects seem to be bigger than ever.

"We have more insect pests, although we have better insecticides to use against them and better ways to fight them."

Brannan said at least part of the blame can be attributed to foreign pests which slip through U. S. quarantines. The problem, he said, requires vigorous attention.

C-C Managers Of Region Gather Here For Parley

Managers of eight Chambers of Commerce in this area met with local chamber officials Saturday for an informal, three-hour discussion of topics of common interest.

The discussions, which followed a luncheon at the Settles Hotel, revolved for the most part about Chamber of Commerce membership—how to enlarge it and keep members engaged in chamber work. Also talked were problems involved in organization and completion of community chest drives and the collection of membership dues.

The group decided to make the informal discussions quarterly affairs and accepted an invitation to hold their next meeting in Kermit in November.

Loyd Wooten, projects manager for the local chamber, presided at the meeting. J. H. Greene, local C-C manager, was unable to attend due to illness.

Managers attending were Jess L. Owens, Odessa; Mrs. Ella Weather, Stanton; H. C. Kyle, Seminole; Leon M. Huff Jr., Snyder; DeWayne Davis, Lamesa; A. C. Green, Kermit; and John B. Zachry, Monahans. Also present were L. A. Chapman, Colorado City, secretary of the Highway 80 Association; and Edith Gay, local chamber secretary.

Clarendon Death Is Called Murder

CLARENDON, Aug. 23 (U.P.)—Officers said today that blows on the head killed an unidentified man whose body was found here yesterday.

"It was definitely murder," said Texas Ranger Kelly Rogers, who is helping Clarendon officers in the case.

Officers described the man as 30 to 40 years old and about five feet, eight inches tall. He had been dead two or three weeks. There were no identification papers on the body, which was found in a weed patch by two farmers who were returning to Clarendon after feeding their cattle.

City Court Fines Hit $802 Total

Offenses ranging from improper parking to the destruction of public property contributed to the total of $802 in fines assessed in Corporation Court during the past week.

The improper parking charges resulted in two fines of $5 each. Three persons were fined a total of $50 as a result of the destruction of property charges which grew out of the breaking of windows in the Kate Morrison school.

Five persons were fined $25 each on conviction of gaming charges. Ten paid fines totalling $102.50 for speeding and three were assessed an aggregate of $60 for driving without license.

Twenty-four drunkenness fines totalled $243. In addition, five persons forfeited bonds amounting to $85 when they failed to appear in answer to intoxication complaints.

Two fines for a total of $15 were assessed for affray; three for $26 were levied for vagrancy; one for $25 resulted from a charge of indecent exposure; one for $15 was assessed for reckless driving; a $3 fine resulted from prohibited left turn charges; a $7.50 levy was made for running a red light; and a fine of $5 was assessed for violation of a stop sign.

Traffic Deaths In July Hit 207

Capt. Harrison Is Going To New Post

Capt. James A. Harrison, commanding officer of the Big Spring Salvation Army Corps for three and a half years, is being transferred to a similar post in Birmingham, Ala.

Capt. and Mrs. Harrison and children will leave Big Spring Monday for Birmingham. He will assume duties as commander of the Ensley Salvation Army Corps in that city Wednesday.

Taking over Harrison's duties here Wednesday will be Lt. Robert Hall, now commanding officer of the Salvation Army Corps in Littlefield. New assignments of the two officers were announced Saturday by Col. John Morrison, Dallas, commander of the Texas division of the Salvation Army who was in Big Spring for a survey of local Corps records.

Transfer of Capt. Harrison is a promotion for the officer who has led the Big Spring Corps through a period of considerable growth in the past three years. The Ensley Corps is a much larger unit, being one of Birmingham's two Salvation Army establishments.

Capt. and Mrs. Harrison moved to Big Spring early in 1949 from Abilene where he was connected with the Salvation Army Corps there. He also instructed several courses in sociology at Hardin-Simmons University and was a student in H-SU.

Since coming to Big Spring, he has improved and expanded the Westside Youth Center, a project started by his predecessor, Capt. Olney Sheppard. Transient facilities at the Dora Roberts Citadel also have been enlarged and improved. An average of 1,500 youngsters per month take advantage of the Salvation Army youth center at present and some 4,000 transient persons receive overnight lodging and other assistance at the transient center each year.

Capt. and Mrs. Harrison have two children, Pamela, four, and James H. Jr., one. Lt. and Mrs. Hall have one daughter, Jeannette, about five years of age. The Halls are expected here early this week and will take over supervision of the SA Corps Wednesday.

Senior High Roll Due To Increase

Enrollment in Big Spring High School will be nearly 10 per cent larger than in 1951, pre-enrollment figures released Saturday by Principal Roy Worley indicate.

A total of 529 sophomores, juniors and seniors have been pre-registered for classes this fall, Worley said. Senior high school registration for the start of school a year ago was 516.

Registered so far are 105 seniors, 204 juniors and 220 sophomores.

The senior class is approximately 25 students smaller than in 1951-52. Small graduating class this year is due to the changeover to a 12-grade schedule in 1947-48, Supt. W. C. Blankenship explained. Addition of the extra grade at that time resulted in division of the starting class which consequently has been smaller than following and preceding groups.

Polio Case From Outside County Is Treated Here

One case of polio, which originated outside Howard County, was listed on the communicable diseases report of the Big Spring-Howard County Health Unit Saturday.

Victim of the disease is Bill Lightfoot, 15-year-old Crase youth. He is receiving treatment in a local hospital for the infection.

Fifty-four cases of 36 other diseases were reported. Most prevalent was tonsillitis with 14 infections. There were 12 cases of gastro-enteritis.

Others were virus pneumonia, nine; gonorrhoea, seven; strep throat, four; bronchial pneumonia, three; acute hepatitis, two; and measles, chicken pox and mumps, one case each.

Entertainment Set For Vet Hospital

A baseball game, movies, variety show and bingo party fill the VA Hospital entertainment card this week.

The Military Order of Cooties from Lubbock will initiate the week's activities at 2 p.m. today when the organization stages a variety show in the hospital auditorium. Patients will be guests of the local baseball club when the Bronco and Rowell Rockets tangle in Silver Park Tuesday evening. The VFW post of Odessa will present the bingo party at 7 p.m. Thursday.

Movies are scattered among the other events. "Happy Go Lovely" will be projected at 2 and 7 p.m. Monday. "I'll See You in My Dreams" will be shown at the same hours on Wednesday and at 2 p.m. Thursday and 7 p.m. Friday.

Tire, Wheel Stolen

Jack Griffin, 1400 State Park Drive, reported theft of a spare tire and wheel from his automobile. Griffin said the items were taken from the car while it was parked at the Skyline Supper Club on East Third Friday night.

Junior High Registration Will Begin Here On Monday

Registration at the Big Spring Junior High School will begin at 9 a.m. Monday, when ninth graders are scheduled to report.

Eighth grade registration is set for Tuesday, while seventh graders will register on Wednesday. Hours for registration are from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on each of the three days.

Regular class work at Junior High will begin Sept. 2.

The Junior High School employs a faculty of 41 members, in addition to James H. Johnson, principal; C. E. Wilburn, supervisor of instruction, and John A. Freeman, director of guidance.

The Junior High school, which was established in 1951, has experienced rapid growth. At first only eighth and ninth grades were assigned to the Junior High. The seventh grade was shifted there last winter when the Senior High School moved into its new building.

THE GRUB LINE With Franklin Reynolds

One of the most encouraging messages ever brought to the people of Howard County has been that delivered by Jimmy Greene following his attendance at Governor Shiver's drought relief conference at Austin this week.

Greene, who is manager of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce, through questions propounded to the state director of the Farm Home Administration, brought to light the fact that Howard County and many other counties in Texas have already been declared drought disaster counties and are therefore eligible to receive drought disaster loans through the FHA, which are loans in addition to the conventional loans made through that agency.

And the name of this agency with some emphasis placed on the word "Farm" has been misleading to many West Texans because it is an agency set up to provide funds for ranchers as much as for farmers.

Unfortunately, too, much misunderstanding and some bitterness has been stirred up because the administrators of the Farm Home Administration have not seen fit heretofore to clearly and completely explain the facilities of the drought disaster feature of their program to the farmers and ranchers, and probably not even to the county-level administrators of the plan.

The small investment necessary to send Jimmy Greene to the Austin conference can be calculated to pay enormous dividends to ranchers and farmers all over Texas as well as those in Howard County, and the explanation of the program made by the state director in answering Greene's questions probably furnished some county FHA administrators with news they had never heard before. It is also in order to mention the point that this information would still probably be unknown generally to Texas farmers, ranchers, bankers and others but for the fact that Jimmy Greene drew it out of the state director.

For example, Greene got an admission from the state director that the "drought disaster" portion of the FHA loan program provides funds for a rancher to prevent his loss of a grass lease; it provides funds for a rancher to buy another foundation beef breeding herd if he loses his herd to drought; it provides a loan for a farmer of good reputation as a farmer and good character even if he doesn't own a single chattel subject to a lien, and it provides for other ranchers and farmers distressed for other drought-induced reasons.

This drought disaster loan program has been in effect in Howard County and other Texas counties since last year. The state FHA director also assured Greene there is plenty of money available and that there is no limit on the amount that any single farmer or rancher can borrow so long as he needs it and cannot get it elsewhere. The interest rate is three per cent. According to the explanation made to Greene (and to the others present at the governor's conference) there probably isn't a farmer or rancher in Howard and the adjoining counties who isn't eligible for one of these loans.

Under the law the Department of Agriculture had full authority to declare these counties drought disaster areas, and no intervention from either the governor or the President was needed.

The only thing that could be obtained by the governor asking the President to declare the entire state a disaster area would be to have the feeding of this would be restricted to producing dairy herds (not just herds of dairy cattle) and to such indefinable things as beef breeding herds and sheep breeding herds. This program would not provide for protein feeds.

As this is written Governor Shiver has not announced his decision but it is obvious that not all of Texas is "drought disaster" area. Also to be taken into account is the fact that Governor Shiver knows there are Texas farmers and feed dealers who have large stocks of hay for sale and who will be hurt if outside hay is shipped into the state to undermine their potential market.

Also to be considered is the fact that with this shipped-in hay may come weed seeds that will develop into a great future nuisance and there is always the possibility of other objectionable features.

One of the great needs of West Texas farmers right now is cover crop seed that will produce enough growth, even if not a mature crop, to help save topsoil from wind erosion this winter and next spring.

The Junior High faculty is as follows: Letha Anderson, Mrs. W. J. Anderson, Mrs. Bernice Acker, Mrs. Bert Butard, Roland Baumhardt, Velma Blagrove, Agnes Currie, Billie Marie Clyburn, Mayme Clanton, Mrs. Clara Coffee, Jack Everett, Lorena Huggins, Pat Jones, Blanche James, J. W. King Jr., Mrs. Ols Karsteter, Mrs. Mabel Logan, Daniel J. Lewis.

Also, Edna Norrington, Clara Pool, Lynn Porter, Earl W. Peeler, Mrs. Edith Russell, Mrs. Zolite M. Rawlins, Clara Secrest, Anna Smith, Edna Stokes, Mrs. Roberts Wiley, Betty Earl Webb, Jimmy R. Walker, M. Lorine Williams, Mrs. Alice Wroughton, Avon Wilcke, Mrs. Dorothy Winder, Mrs. Valera West and Mrs. Miriam Wilcox.

One of the most helpful things the FHA can do will be to provide this seed, or the money to buy it, immediately through the supervisors of the Soil Conservation Districts and the Soil Conservation Service. There is no greater need in West Texas at this time than for cover crops for soil conservation. This program would also be economical for the FHA because protected land will be much more economical to put into cultivation next year than blown land. Moreover the green fertilizer or crop residue will bring about the production of a stronger and heavier crop in 1953.

Anyway, Jimmy Greene has come home with a message of great hope and there is now "no reason on earth why the farmer or rancher who needs one of these disaster loans should not make application for it. These loans are specifically designed to provide such assistance as feed, seed, fertilizers, insecticides, tractor fuels and essential home operating expenses to include food, clothing, drugs, fuel and whatever else is truly necessary to maintain the farm and home operation. Special provisions have been set up for dairymen and other livestock men, including breeders of swine.

Expecting Ike To Help Demos In Farm Belt

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON
WASHINGTON, Aug. 23 (AP)—Sen. Allen J. Ellender (D-La.) said today he is counting on Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the Republican presidential candidate, to keep Midwest farm belt states in the Democratic column again this fall.

"The more General Eisenhower talks on the subject of farming, the more he displays his ignorance of farm problems," Ellender, chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee, said.

"He already is in hot water with Republican leaders and the Republican platform on farm issues," he added. "I hope he keeps on talking."

Ellender disputed a claim by Sen. George D. Aiken of Vermont, top Republican on the Senate Farm Committee, that five Midwest farm states which went Democratic four years ago would switch to the Republican ticket this time.

Aiken listed the five states as Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Ohio and Wisconsin and pointed out that the Democrats would have lost the presidency four years ago without their 86 electoral votes.

Ellender, back from an automobile tour of the South and Midwest, said he found most farmers "pretty well satisfied with the farm program developed under Democratic (presidents)."

The senator said Eisenhower is "in hot water with Republicans because he is drifting toward the Democratic platform (promise of 90 per cent of parity supports for basic crops instead of the sliding scale farm price pegs favored by the Republican platform)."

Ellender said the South, including his home state of Louisiana, will line up for the regular Democratic ticket of Gov. Adlai Stevenson and Sen. John J. Sparkman of Alabama.

Louisiana was one of the four states that bolted the regular Democratic ticket in 1948.

"I made a complete tour of the state (Louisiana) and there is very little Eisenhower sentiment outside of a few large centers and some large planters and landowners," he said. "The rank and file of Democrats just won't vote for a Republican. Before doing that they will stay away from the polls."

WHY STARVE TO TAKE OFF FAT?

Just ask your druggist for four ounces of liquid Barcostrate. Pour into pint bottle; add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple easy way to get rid of the extra pounds, return the empty bottle for your money back. Year after year this amazing product increases in popularity. Over four and a quarter million bottles have been sold in Texas in nine years. No starvation diet with Barcostrate. Rigid diets are a great deal of harm and really should never be undertaken except under the supervision of a physician.

16 Pounds Lost
"I am an invalid and was about 90 pounds overweight," reports Mrs. Mary Russell, 1008 W. Broadway, Fort Worth, Texas. "After meals I was always miserable with a stuffy feeling; just would have to gasp for breath. Since taking Barcostrate, I have already lost 16 pounds and do not have those distressing breathless spells and burning in my stomach. I think Barcostrate is wonderful."

Officer Freed After Shooting

CHIPLEY, Fla., Aug. 23 (AP)—A coroner's jury returned a verdict of justifiable homicide today in the killing of a Negro sought for questioning about an alleged attempted rape. The Negro, James Sullivan, alias James Couch, 25, was killed by a volley of shots fired by Chipley Police Chief F. J. Jones and Deputy Sheriff Howard Roche. Sheriff Dan Brock said a hysterical Chipley housewife reported she was raped in her bedroom about 2 a.m. by a Negro man who chloroformed her husband and robbed him. Medical examination showed later that it was a case of attempted rape, the sheriff said. Names of the woman and her husband were withheld. The jury finding said the shooting of Sullivan was justified on the basis of testimony that the Negro opened fire on Roche and Jones first with a pistol. Neither was hit. The shooting took place in a swamp where Sullivan had been trailed by prison bloodhounds. The police chief said that while the Negro was lying critically wounded in the swamp, he admitted being in the house where the rape attempt was alleged to have taken place but he denied attempting to rape the woman.

DROUGHT CONTINUES

Warm Air Pushes Back Cool Front

By The Associated Press
Texas' entrenched heat wave chased off a breath of cool northern air that brought splatters of rain to the state Saturday, leaving drought-stricken farmers and ranchmen again crying futilely for relief. In Washington, meanwhile, the White House received Gov. Shivers' reluctant request for designation of the state as a drought disaster area. Shivers had said he was dubious about the merits of asking for more federal help during an election year but wouldn't block any possible help for desperate farmers and ranchers. White House aides passed Shivers' telegram along to the Agriculture Department. A front which pushed into North Central Texas Friday was thrown back Saturday by the stifling hot air. Turbulence caused by the atmospheric clash brought a few thunderstorms. An electric storm struck near

Rider Trampled In Final Show Of C-City Rodeo

COLORADO CITY, Aug. 23 (AP)—Twenty-eight hundred people attended the final performance of Colorado City's 17th annual Rodeo and Round-Up Saturday night. One of the performers, Bud Clark, Sterling City, was trampled by Blue Jay, his mount, in the saddle bronc contest and suffered a broken collar bone and pelvis. He was under treatment in the Rodeo Memorial hospital here. In the opening event, Billy Kerley of Ft. Huachuca and Robert Watts of Corpus Christi were able to stay with their mounts in the tie-down roping contest. Walton Poole of Rankin posted low time at 13.2 seconds. Next was Bill Edwards of Crane and third was Billy Bynum of Silver. In the saddle bronc contest three riders stayed with their mounts. They were Bill Lewis, Glen Rose, Bill Barton, Clyde and Russ Mathers. Following Saturday night's cutting horse contest, results for the four-night competition were announced. Hollywood Snapper, ridden by Elmo Flavors and owned by Dr. H. G. Strlie, Abilene, was crowned champion. Second was Little Tom W. ridden by Phillip Williams, Tokio; third was Smokey C, ridden by Bob Beal, Gail. James McElrath, Coleman, topped the cowboy steer wrestling contest in 7.3 seconds, followed by Roy Martin of San Angelo and Jo Neff Colorado City. D. L. Pruitt was first in the Mitchell County calf ropers division, with 18.3 seconds. Robert House was second and Billy Hammond was third. Jimmy Calvert was given award as champion of the event which was restricted to Mitchell County ropers. He won a saddle. Clay Smith received a rope for the best time on one calf. In the cowgirls barrel race, Betty Dusek, Vancouver, Wanda Harper, Mason, tied with 16.8 seconds. Pat Bynum, Silver, was second. In the Brahma riding contest, only Paul Loring of Kileen stayed around for the whistle.

Seven Questioned In Armed Robbery

Seven Negroes were being interrogated Saturday in three widely separated cities in connection with the $130 armed robbery of the Reed Oil Company service station here Thursday morning. Local police held two of the men who were arrested here Friday night for investigation after their actions aroused suspicions of officers. Three were in custody of Abilene authorities who reported they were arrested Friday night. One of the latter group was armed with a pistol and all three carried cheesecloths which officers thought might have been used as masks. Big Spring police also requested San Antonio officers to question two men being held in that city for a possible connection with the Big Spring robbery. The service station was robbed by three masked men about 2:30 a.m. Thursday. The trio escaped in a stolen car which later was found abandoned at Fifth and Good.

NO DECISION ON 'UNDERS'

Whether "unders" may be taken in certain areas is still undetermined, W. C. Blankenship, superintendent, said Saturday. However, he asked that parents of children who are under age (those who have not quite attained their sixth birthday on or before Sept. 1) were asked to register the children on Sept. 2 if they hope to have them attend school. Enrollments, available classrooms and other conditions will govern the ability to handle some unders. If they are taken by the system, tuition will be charged. This has not been fixed, but it may approximate $10 a month.

Bomb Found In Midland County

Big Spring police and Webb Air Force Base were called on Friday night to help "demolish" a 250-pound bomb reportedly discovered near the community of Spraberry about 16 miles south-east of Midland. Both groups declined the invitation, explaining they know nothing about the demolition team. Officers here or in Midland didn't know Saturday night what disposition had been made of the explosive. The bomb was described by a man who called Midland police as a 250-pounder, about three feet in length and eight inches in diameter. The unidentified caller said the bomb had been found near the Garden City-Midland highway.

Mitchell Says Ike 'All Things'

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23 (AP)—Stephen A. Mitchell, Democratic national chairman, said tonight Dwight D. Eisenhower, the Republican presidential nominee, is "trying to be all things to all people." "The result has been that he has reflected with dramatic clarity the confusion and conflict within the Republican party," Mitchell said in a statement. "Gen. Eisenhower apparently attempted this week to say something to please all his advisers," Mitchell added. One of Eisenhower's statements, Mitchell said, was intended "to please his pre-convention supporters by a perfunctory slap at McCarthyism." Mitchell added: "But Gen. Eisenhower hastened to placate McCarthy and the Republicans who had opposed the Eisenhower nomination by saying he would support McCarthy if he were nominated." In an earlier statement, Mitchell said Eisenhower and the regular Republican leadership are "two loud speakers" who gave the public "exactly opposite messages."

Legion Commander Arrives For Meet

NEW YORK (AP)—American Legion National Commander Donald B. Wilson flew into town yesterday to help get things rolling for the start of the legion's 34th convention here Sunday. Wilson, of Clarksville, W. Va., told newsmen the legion would discuss a "more vigorous" foreign policy and the question of applying "the strength that America is endowed with to bring about victory by military means in Korea." An estimated 100,000 or more Legionnaires are expected for the week-long convention at which the Democratic and Republican presidential candidates will speak. Dwight D. Eisenhower will speak Monday and Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson Wednesday.

Watered-Down Turkeys Found

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23 (AP)—A Food and Drug Administration official told today about the break-up of a scheme by which he said frozen turkeys were "pumped up" with water and retail dealers lost money when the birds thawed and the water ran out. Consumers didn't lose much money, he said, because they generally bought the turkeys after the thaw and run-off. But flavor and other qualities of the meat drained out with the water, he said.

Eisenhower Schedules An Early Conference With Senator Taft

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
DENVER, Aug. 23 (AP)—Dwight D. Eisenhower and Sen. Robert A. Taft—who was the general's chief rival for the top presidential nomination—will confer soon, Eisenhower's political chief of staff said today. The staff chief, Gov. Sherman Adams of New Hampshire, told a news conference there is a possibility the meeting may take place in New York next week if the Ohio senator should decide to cut short his vacation in Murray Bay, Quebec. Otherwise, the general and Taft will get together early in September in New York or Ohio, Adams indicated. "I am sure you can look forward to a meeting of Gen. Eisenhower and Sen. Taft in the near future on some mutually convenient date," Adams said. Eisenhower and Taft have not met since the general called on the senator in Chicago July 11 a few minutes after Eisenhower was nominated at the party convention. At that time, Taft promised the general wholehearted cooperation in the campaign. The forthcoming meeting probably will determine just how active a role Taft may play. Some Eisenhower supporters reportedly are not anxious to have Taft closely identified with the general during the campaign because of the sharply differing views the two men hold on some issues. Other backers of the general feel he must have as much help from Taft as possible to win in November. At his news conference, Adams said: "I said it has been necessary to 'thoroughly revise' plans for Eisenhower's Sept. 2-3 swing into traditionally Democratic Dixie. Instead of flying into 10 or 12 Southern cities as the proposed original schedule provided, a fair guess is that he will visit only five or six cities, Adams said. He added that the original itinerary "covered more territory than possibly could be covered" in two days. But he said there probably will be one or more additional forays into the South during the campaign. Adams declined to disclose the new itinerary, but said it will be announced in a day or so. 2. Said Eisenhower, who flies to New York tomorrow and addresses the American Legion Convention in Madison Square Garden Monday, will confer in Manhattan with "various important individuals." Adams said the general's visitors probably will include House public congressional leaders who have not been able to get out in the nominee's Denver headquarters. He mentioned House Minority Leader Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts and Sen. Styles Bridges of New Hampshire, the Senate GOP leader.

Texans Hope To Get Funds For Canadian Dam Project

By TEX EASLEY
WASHINGTON, Aug. 23 (AP)—Texans hope to get money from Congress next year to build the proposed Canadian River Dam. The $5 million dollar project at Sanford, Tex., was authorized in 1950. But no money was voted to start work. Authorization was obtained after Texas legislators agreed not to seek construction money so long as the then recently-started Korean conflict continued. Rep. Walter Rogers (D-Tex.) told a reporter today a move is underway to get this emergency period ban lifted. Commitments not to ask for an appropriation were made then to senators who were objecting to passage of the authorizing bill, Rogers said, and required introduction of a new bill, with loss of all progress made. The dam would store runoff of the Canadian River in a reservoir at Sanford. The water then would be delivered through aqueducts to about a dozen West Texas towns. "Efforts are now being made to satisfy senators that the project is necessary and to seek release from our commitments," Rogers said. He said he is contacting senators who are here for their support. "We certainly will honor our commitments," he said, "but we are hopeful that in view of our dire need for more water the senators will voluntarily agree to appropriate funds." Cities which would be served include Amarillo, Borger, Pampa, Plainview, Lamesa, Littlefield, Tahoka and Slaton. The Interior Department has conducted recently a preliminary survey for the project. Correspondents who came here today to cover a staff officers' meeting were surprised to see Chinese carpenters at work. The brick and concrete foundation had been laid for a single large room, 24 by 36 feet. Walls of white pine and Chinese plywood were going up. Some diamond-shaped windows with Chinese glass already were installed. American tents housing the Allied delegation show little signs of wear. But the big tent the Communists furnished for the actual negotiations was in bad shape. Apparently, rather than put up a new tent and lose face, the Chinese decided to raise a building that will last for years.

Reds Looking For Long Talks

PANMUNJOM, Korea, Aug. 23 (AP)—How long will the Korean armistice talks last? The Communists apparently think they will run on for a long, long time. While the talks are in recess until Tuesday, the Communists are building a permanent negotiating house to replace the old circus tent where the arguments have dragged on for many a weary month. ## Polio Claims Another Life

By The Associated Press
Polio claimed another Texan's life Saturday. Cecil Weldon Rouse, 18, died of the disease en route to Amarillo from Dumas. Houston reported two new cases—one each from the city and county. In addition, hospitals there also reported two "possible" patients. Houston's city victim was a 24-year-old expectant mother, Mrs. Maurine Schilder. Houston's city total stood at 369 cases and 12 deaths compared to 112 cases and six deaths for the same period last year. The county total thus far in 1953 was 235 cases and eight deaths compared to 29 cases and no deaths for the similar 1952 period. Non-resident cases at Houston were 214 and 11 deaths compared to 21 and no deaths during the same time last year. Meanwhile, Barry Bishop Jr., 20-year-old University of Texas student who was treated with a drug imported from Mexico City, was reported "resting comfortably" at Houston's Hedgcock Hospital. His father is the press attaché at the U. S. Embassy in Mexico City. Thursday young Bishop's attending physician halted injections of the drug, anidole, which a Mexico City scientist claims has cured some polio cases. The physician decided the drug had not helped the youth.

Sam Rayburn Gives McFarland Sendoff

CASA GRANDE, Aug. 23 (AP)—Rep. Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.), speaker of the U. S. House of Representatives, last night gave U. S. Sen. Ernest W. McFarland of Arizona a rousing sendoff on his kickoff campaign for re-election. The outdoor gathering here attracted about 3,500 Democratic adherents. Rayburn, after extolling the ability of McFarland, said the Democrats "brought the country from the lowest point of despair to prosperity." The House speaker predicted the Democrats would receive a solid South vote in the forthcoming presidential election. ## Gliders Pilot Sets Down Near Forsan

FORSAN — William S. Evans, a glider enthusiast who holds the international glider altitude record of 42,100 feet set his glider down near here shortly after 6 p.m. Friday. He landed about two miles west of Forsan in sight of an oil field camp, where he said he had been in Grand Prairie attending the national soaring contest. He said he left there about 11 a.m. with Odessa as his destination, but that flying conditions forced him to land here. Evans, who lives in La Mesa, California, said he is on his vacation and that glider flying is his hobby. He identified himself as an electrical engineer employed by the Consolidated-Vultec plant at San Diego. He said the highest elevation he reached Friday was 10,000 feet.

SPARRING ABOUT FINISHED

Gloves Due To Come Off Next Week In Presidential Race

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON, Aug. 23 (AP)—The political sparring is over and the gloves come off next week for what is beginning to look like a rowdy, free-swinging campaign for the presidency.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois, the rival nominees, have been relatively soft-spoken gentlemen since their nominations in Chicago.

Both have avoided indulging in what is politely called "personalities." Each has referred to his opponent only by indirectness as if through some accident—neither had a score card carrying the names and numbers of the players.

Both said they intend to continue a "high level" campaign. They probably mean that sincerely, but how long they can remain aloof from the political head-busting tactics adopted by their close associates remains problematical.

To date, President Truman and Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy of Wisconsin are the chief targets for the warring campaign camps. Their critics are busily engaged in attempting to wrap these two controversal gentlemen around the political necks of their respective party's nominees.

Anybody who gets within a block of the White House is likely to come away with the idea that Truman isn't at all satisfied by the kind of campaign Stevenson has conducted thus far.

An advocate of the sock-'em, rock-'em school, Truman may take matters into his own hands with a whirl at whistle stopping on his way to a scheduled Labor Day speech in Milwaukee Labor Day.

If he gets the crowds and enthusiasm he had in 1948, there will be strong demands that Stevenson follow suit.

Criticism of inactivity among the Republicans has got to the point where Sen. Richard M. Nixon, the vice-presidential nominee, felt it expedient in an interview to say that the GOP high command had planned it that way.

"I am completely confident that when Gen. Eisenhower opens up in major speeches after Sept. 1 that criticism will melt away as he continues to increase his support until Nov. 4," Nixon said.

He asserted the Republicans have been holding back so that their drive will be climaxed in the last two weeks before the election.

Eisenhower and Stevenson kick off next week in their New York addresses a campaign that is designed by both parties to reach more Americans than ever before. But both the Republican and the Democratic nominees propose to hit this goal with fewer appearances than Truman put in on his rounds of the country four years ago when he popped out on the rear platform of a train at all hours of the day and night.

The trick now will be to cover a lot of ground, depending on local committees to round up crowds at airports in a couple of big cities in each state. As a time-saver, the candidates will avoid the 30-minute ride into town that goes with the average airport stop.

Television coverage will be the political parties' answer to the problem of getting to the maximum number of voters.

The Democratic National Committee already has contracted for more than 1 1/2 million dollars in TV and radio time and expects to spend more before it is through. The Republicans probably will match the Democrats' outlay.

Aluminum Nails Get Little Response From Local Users

"They have their advantages but we don't have enough calls for them to pay to keep them in stock," is the general attitude taken and the answer given by a majority of lumber companies in Big Spring concerning aluminum nails.

Aluminum nails first reached the market during the war years although aluminum was as scarce as steel—principal material used in making nails.

Service In Wink Will Be Set For Denton B. Woods

STANTON, (SC)—Funeral services for Marine Pfc. Denton B. Woods of Stanton, a Korean War victim whose body arrived at San Francisco over the week-end will be held at Wink, at a time to be announced, and burial will be at Lubbock, his widow said yesterday.

Pfc. Woods was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Woods of Stanton. The father is associated with the McClatchey Brothers Trucking Co., in Stanton. The Stanton Marine, who observed his 21st birthday anniversary three days before his death, July 20, had been on front line duty only 12 days.

Both he and Mrs. Woods graduated from the Wink High School where he played football for four years, being named all-district end in District 5-A in the 1949 season. He attended Texas Tech before being inducted into the Marine Corps in October last year. At the time of his induction they were living in Big Spring where Mrs. Woods was employed at the Webb Air Force Base and he was engaged in the trucking business.

At present the widow, who is expecting their first child in September, is living with his parents here.

country, they have found little use here, a survey of establishments handling nails revealed.

Only one lumber yard in Big Spring stocks the item and they report they have had only a few calls for them in the three or four years they have carried them.

Another stocks them only in roofing nails.

Chief reason for the low saleability of the nail is the high price, the lumber yards seem to think. The cost of aluminum nails ranges from 80 cents to $1.20 per pound—about four times that of steel nails.

The prices tend to equalize, though, lumbermen agree, when the quantity of aluminum nails per pound is compared with the count in a like weight of regular nails.

One lumber yard manager reported they occasionally ordered some for oil companies in keg lots. Thus they did not have to stock them.

Another dealer commented one flaw in the use of aluminum nails is the fact that when bent and the user attempted to straighten them, they would usually break—something that will happen only occasionally with steel or galvanized nails.

But he added, they will not rust—a very good point in their favor. But one manager just replied that not only did he not stock aluminum nails; he had never seen any.

Fourteen Apply At Employment Office

Only 14 new applications for employment were filed during the week at the Big Spring office of the Texas Employment Commission, according to Leon M. Kinney manager.

He said 35 persons were referred to jobs and that of these 28 were placed in employment.

An unusually low number of office visits, only 335, were listed he said. Nineteen claims for unemployment compensation were filed during the week.

MANY FROM THIS AREA West Texans Flock To Popular Resort

By TOM JAY GOSS II
RUIDOSO, N. M., Aug. 23—With West Texas baking under a dry sun, hot weather just doesn't bother some at all.

Scores of Texans from Odessa, San Angelo, Midland, Big Spring, Trent, Abilene and other points shiver under blankets these nights only a few hundred miles from the parched home pasture.

These are the summer residents of the narrow valley of the Ruidoso River. They live at 7,000 feet altitude with tall pines and white aspen of the Lincoln National Forest and with the tiny Ruidoso (translated it's "noisy") rumbling through their back yards.

In addition to other charms, it rains almost every day. Texans who have almost forgotten the pitter of raindrops, look forward to that 30-minute shower at noon. "It's God's way of making things fresh and clean," said one.

A prominent member of the Texas delegation is A. C. Cooper, 79-year hotel owner from Stamford. He bought two acres in 1945 and spends more than half the year at "Stamford Inn Retreat." He and his wife take off for the retreat in April, in time occasionally to see it snow in the mountains, and stay until it starts snowing again in November. Cooper feeds his pet speckled and rainbow trout and tends his garden and fruit trees. Mrs. Cooper goes in for flowers and sends them to the hospital.

Another hotel family taking to the mountains is that of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Douglass Sr. of Big Spring. They spend most of their time now at their home here since he retired from operating the hotel which bears his name.

A year round resident is Joe McLaurin, trailer court operator who hails from O'Donnell. He came in 1945. He's a booster, too, and thinks that the resort town is turning away lots of business through inability to handle it.

"Old timers" in Ruidoso are Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Scott. They came to the canyon 22 years ago and bought their cabin. Since then they have spent their summers here, often with their grandchildren. However, it's only since 1945 that he has been able to enjoy the full summer's season there. One of their relatives is Joe Dave Scott, Snyder newspaper photographer who is now in Mexico on a magazine assignment. Scott gave up fishing due to a heart flutter and now sticks to dominoes, canasta, etc.

Knock on any door along the valley cut by this pin-sized river, and like as not you'll find some refugee from Texas heat. There's a regular colony of them.

Another Red Leader Is Killed in Malaya
KUALA LUMPUR, Malaya, Aug. 23 (AP)—Northern Malayan security forces aided by Thai police killed another leader in the Malayan Communist Party today. The death of Wong Loke Kium, 44, a district committee member in Northern Trengganu, brings to five the number of Communist leaders killed by security forces this week.

Everything Grows Tall

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cooper point out to a young friend that even the weeds grow tall at "Stamford Inn Retreat" near Ruidoso.

Clergyman Says He Has Located Fabled Atlantis

HAMBURG, Germany, Aug. 23 (AP)—A German clergyman claimed today he has found the fabled land of Atlantis in the North Sea off Helgoland.

The Rev. Juergen Spanuth of Bodelum said a diver from his expedition saw the remains of the legendary kingdom at a depth of 30 feet. These included walls six to eight feet high and 270 feet long of stones up to six feet in circumference. The ruins, the pastor said, covered at least 60 acres on the sea floor.

Spanuth has been looking for years for Atlantis, convinced that writings of the Greek philosopher Plato and inscriptions in ancient Egyptian temples indicated the sunken land was located in what modern man calls the North Sea. Other persons have claimed in the past to have located Atlantis. A German professor said in 1926 he had determined it was the Sahara Desert south of Tunis.

Spanuth said the ruins are five nautical miles from Helgoland in the direction of the German Coast at a spot known to sailors as "Stone Ground." He said he would outfit a new expedition soon to return there with special diving equipment and dredges.

Although legends refer to Atlantis as a "lost continent," Spanuth worked on the theory it was of modest size.

Russia Still Behind In Industrial Surge

LONDON, Aug. 23 (AP)—Russia is still running far behind the West in industrial production, a study of the newly-announced Soviet five-year plan indicated this week.

Many Western European observers believe optimistically that Russia is fully aware of the West's industrial supremacy and for this reason will be content to wage a cold war instead of a hot one.

Britain's influential Weekly Economist said that judging by Russia's new five-year plan, announced by Moscow last Wednesday, "it looks as if the Russians are planning not for peace or for war but for what the West calls cold war."

London's conservative Daily Telegraph suggested that "since Soviet production, with that of the satellite states, will be considerably less than that of the 'capitalist' world, it is unlikely that the Soviet government will embark on any adventures which might involve it in a war."

Russia announced a few years ago it was out to catch up and overtake the industrial potential of the West.

But figures of past Soviet production plus the new goals—given only in percentage of increase—show that by the end of 1953 Russia will still lag far behind the West.

If the 1955 goals are met, yearly Soviet production should be about: Oil, 70,000,000 tons. (The United States in 1950 produced nearly 500,000,000 tons of oil—about seven times the new Russian goal.) Steel 44,000,000 tons.

The United States in 1950 produced 96,836,075 tons of steel—more than double the Soviet goal. Pig iron, 34,000,000 tons. The United States in 1950 produced 64,585,907 tons of pig iron—nearly double the Soviet goal.

Coal, 372,000,000 tons. The United States in 1950 mined about 536,000,000 tons of coal—about 40 per cent more than the Soviet goal.

Western Europeans may take some comfort in these comparative figures but the Russians are still building up what the Economist called "a formidable potential for the future to be used as they think fit."

Native Flowers To Be Exhibited

Austin is the only city west of Chicago that has been asked to participate in the London show.

Alcohol Problem Is Up For Study

Company, Union In Complete Agreement

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 23 (AP)—Cruible Steel Co. of America reached complete agreement with the CIO United Steelworkers today, leaving U. S. Steel Co. the only major steel producer yet to reach a formal contract with the union.

Yanks Win Little League Title Over Tribe, 8-7

D. R. Gartman's Yankees got maximum mileage out of two hits and five enemy misplays to defeat the Indians, 8-7, here Friday night.

The verdict earned for them the 1952 Little League championship.

The Warriors, who clubbed two Yank hurlers for ten hits, trailed three runs going into the final inning but Wilson Bell clubbed his third home run in three nights in that round to push the Tribe to within one run of the Yanks.

The Yanks worked enemy pitching for six bases on balls, which they also used to excellent advantage.

The Yanks led from the first inning on. They got one in the first and then crowded four tallies across the dish in the second.

Travis Anderson started on the mound for the Yanks but the winning hurler was Billy White, who worked the last four innings.

Julian Trevino labored on the hill for the Warriors and did very well, with the exception of his wildness. The only Yanks to solve his offerings for base hits were Bernard McMahan and Lefty Morris.

Bell paced the losers' attack with three hits.

Billy White, who pitched part of the game for the victorious Yankees in their game with the Indians here Friday night, plants a big kiss on the baseball after the final man had been retired. The Yankees copped the Little League title.

Little League Party Stated

Little League baseball players, their managers and coaches will be treated to a banquet at the Settles Hotel at 7:30 p.m. next Friday night.

The five sponsors of league teams are financing the banquet, which is being staged to honor the youngsters in their first year in Little League play.

Those sponsors are Cosden Refinery, Hack Wright, the Eagles Club, Big Spring Athletic Club and Obie Bristow.

The Little League 1952 season drew to a close at Steer Park Friday night. Plans are being made for a bigger and better league in 1953.

Boosters Club Meets Sept. 4

The Big Spring Football Boosters Club will take shape at an open meeting in the new High School Auditorium at 7 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 4.

Omar Jones, who is launching the drive to form the organization, met with several other supporters over coffee last week and from that meeting grew plans for the club.

Jones said each of the men present promised to bring five men each to the Sept. 4 session.

Jones emphasized that the club was being formed to boost football at the local high school and "certainly not to try and dictate to Coach Carl Coleman and his assistants how to run things."

Coleman has given the Booster Club a hearty endorsement and says such an organization can do a lot of good in building better public relations for football here.

On Thursday, Sept. 11, at 7 p.m., Booster Club members will meet with the high school gridders in the High School Cafeteria for a football rally. The Steers open their season on the following night in Breckenridge.

Estrada Limits Roswell Rockets To Five Blows

ROSSELL, N. M.—Bert Estrada authored a neat five-bitter as Big Spring trounced the Roswell Rockets, 8-1, and sweep a three-game series here Friday night.

Estrada, who achieved his ninth win of the year, missed his shut-out when he walked in a run with two out in the ninth.

In winning, the Steeds gave the ace of the Roswell mound staff, Andy Alonso, a going-over. Alonso was seeking his 18th victory of the year but had to accept his tenth loss.

Alonso contained the Bronc power until the eighth, when the Big Springers broke loose for seven runs. The Steeds combined seven hits with three Roswell boots to break the game wide open in the eighth.

Pat Stacey again wielded the big willow for Big Spring, getting three hits. He drove in a pair of runs.

Al Costa accounted for the initial Big Spring tally in the second when he plated Stacey with a one-baser.

The triumph was Big Spring's fifth on its trip into New Mexico and enabled them to gain a game on Midland in the battle for second place in Longhorn League standings.

Cook's Appliance Store ganged up on Tex Haverman for eight runs in the sixth and went on to defeat Webb Air Base, 15-5, in a YMCA Fastball League game played here Friday night.

The Cook's nine could manage only ten hits off Haverman but used them to good advantage. Cook's had a 5-4 lead when they went to bat in the sixth, then batted around in that stanza.

Haverman led his team's attack with a home run, double and single. James Watts had two doubles for the winners, James Tidwell one while Cotton Mize hurtled six-hit ball.

Brooks forfeited to Henderson Plumbing in what was to have been the other game.

Broncs, Artesia Take A Respite Until Monday

The Big Spring Broncs and the Artesia Drillers take a day of rest today, gridding for the double donkeybrook Monday night. The two teams tangled in two seven-inning contests, the first of which begins at 7 p.m.

Gil Guerra is due to see action in one of the games for Big Spring while Bertie Baer could toss the other one.

The two teams split a pair of games here Saturday night. The Steeds copped the opener, 2-1, as Aramis Arancibia bested Mike Rodriguez in a mound duel. The Drillers fought back to win the nightcap, 5-0, behind the expert pitching of Erwin Armin.

The afterpiece was close until the seventh round, when the Drillers broke loose for four runs. Armin had put his troops ahead in the fifth, however when he plated Jim Ackers with a single into right. Ackers had doubled.

Paul Halter clouted a three-run homer for Artesia in the seventh to put the game on ice for the visitors.

Mike Rodriguez went after his 21st victory of the season for Artesia in the opener but ran head-on into a superlative mound job by stout-hearted Aramis Arancibia, who ran up his 15th victory of the year.

Arancibia yielded a bases-empty home run to Vince Sarubbi in the fifth inning but that was all. The Drillers put runners at first and second after two were out in the seventh but Arancibia got Johnny Alonzo on a fly to right.

The Broncs used an unearned run to beat Rodriguez for the first time this season. After Juan Visteur had tripled and scored on a single by Buddy Grimes, Grimes was caught napping at first for the second out but Costa singled and Reggie Corrales walked. Arancibia dispatched a ground ball to Halter at short and Paul threw erratically to Bauman at first to allow the run to come home.

After Juan Visteur had tripled and scored on a single by Buddy Grimes, Grimes was caught napping at first for the second out but Costa singled and Reggie Corrales walked. Arancibia dispatched a ground ball to Halter at short and Paul threw erratically to Bauman at first to allow the run to come home.

Arancibia yielded a bases-empty home run to Vince Sarubbi in the fifth inning but that was all. The Drillers put runners at first and second after two were out in the seventh but Arancibia got Johnny Alonzo on a fly to right.

The Broncs used an unearned run to beat Rodriguez for the first time this season. After Juan Visteur had tripled and scored on a single by Buddy Grimes, Grimes was caught napping at first for the second out but Costa singled and Reggie Corrales walked. Arancibia dispatched a ground ball to Halter at short and Paul threw erratically to Bauman at first to allow the run to come home.

A Moment For Exultation

The grey mists cleared and the birds were singing for the Indians, Little League team, when this picture was snapped at Steer Park Friday night. Wilson Bell, shown arm in ar with No. 5, was on his way back to the dugout after hitting a home run in the sixth inning. The Yankees won, however, 8-7, to reign as champions. The tall fellow in the background is Manager Harold Rosson.

EVEN IN SUMMERTIME

Work Of Grid Coach Never Ends - Ask Carl Coleman

If you are of the opinion the busy season for a football coach extends from Sept. 1 through the last week in November, you should have been following in the footsteps of Coach Carl Coleman and his aides for the past couple of weeks.

Coleman has been going at a trot, getting things ready for the opening of fall drills at the local high school on Sept. 1.

Getting all old equipment ready and ordering new gear has been one thing which has occupied Coleman's time. The Steer varsity will be outfitted in new togery this year and Coleman and his aides had to see to it that the right sizes were ordered.

Old equipment, of course, takes a terrific beating in season and in spring drills and part of Coleman's time was taken up in seeing that it was repaired.

In addition, several new assistants had to be hired and Coleman spent more than a little time conferring with applicants and seeking out men he thought might help in the program.

Coaches, or men who have some contact with football were also needed in each of the grade schools. It'll be Carl's job to set up a workable football program for the city's school within the near future, too.

Getting all his gridders together for their annual physical examination is the responsibility of the head coach, too. That chore was taken care of the past week and all the lads came through with flying colors, incidentally.

Coleman has also had to spend more than a little time at the football field, making sure that the dressing rooms are in order and the playing field is playable.

The drought has hurt the turf but school officials have managed to keep it alive by watering it down once a week.

Coleman and his assistants took time off to attend the coaching school in Fort Worth earlier this month. That may seem like a vacation to some, and the local men enjoyed every minute of it, but the mentors kept busy in the dead-serious business of learning new plays and picking up other bits of information that would help them in their trade.

The football season may not officially get underway here until Sept. 12 but the work associated with a team knows no season. It's a year-around job. Ask any coach.

Joe Bauman Widens Lead In Batting

Joe Bauman, huge Artesia first baseman, has pulled away in the battle for individual batting honors in the Longhorn League with a .378 mark.

Charley Buck, Sweetwater who trailed Joe by only one point last week, is now third behind Rudy Briner of Artesia with a .370 average, one point behind Briner.

The averages include games through last Monday, with the exception of Big Spring's double header with Vernon Aug. 4, both of which were won by Gil Guerra, and the Broncs' game with Artesia Aug. 18.

Bauman is still leading in home runs with 42, two shy of the all-time Longhorn League record and in runs batted in with 128.

Buck is out front in total hits with 173. Briner is tops in doubles with 50 and Roman Loyko, Odessa, in triples with 22.

Leo Eastham, Odessa, has scored the most runs, 134.

In team fielding, Roswell has replaced Big Spring as the leader with .854, two percentage points more than the Broncs.

Artesia is first in hitting with .301, Big Spring sixth with .285.

Annual Golf Tourney Is Scheduled Friday

Bob Wortman Is Due Back

Golfers from West Texas will begin flocking to Big Spring this week for the 21st annual Big Spring Invitational Golf tournament starting Friday. Indications are that over 150 linksmen will compete for the titles.

Bob Wortman of Midland, defending champ of the title flight, probably will be among the group reporting. No word has been received that he definitely won't appear.

Qualifying for the tourney begins today but those golfers competing for medalist honors must post their qualifying cards Friday.

In addition to the medal-seeking aspirants qualifying Friday there will be a team of visiting golfers headed by James Prichett of Colorado City and a group of Big Spring linksmen led by Earl Reynolds battling for possession of the Hall and Bennett trophy for another year.

Thirteen years Big Spring has met a visiting team for the trophy. Five times the trophy has rested in Big Spring; seven years in surrounding towns; and once—1951—the two teams have tied.

From the qualifying scores recorded this week and Friday, the flights will be set up with the low 32 qualifiers being herded into the championship flights and 16 in each other flight. Last year's total of 132 entrants required seven flights, plus the championship.

Wortman won the title last year with a 3-1 win over Marvin Wright of Big Spring. Wortman had qualified with a four-over-par 76 and Wright claimed a 73 on the day of qualifying. Jake Morgan of Big Spring topped the qualifiers with a 71—one stroke under par.

Entries in the championship flights will play two matches each Saturday and Sunday with a 36-hole championship September 1—Labor Day—and the remaining flights will play only one match per day.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Longhorn League hurlers are none too happy over the report that another New Mexico city will gain a franchise in the wheel . . . It's harder to make the ball bend out that way and, for that reason, the hitters hold the edge over the hurlers . . . Vernon club officials have come out with the customary denial that their franchise hasn't been sold to Carlsbad, or any other city . . . Nothing will develop along these lines, of course, until the 1952 season ends, but the fund raising campaign is progressing at Carlsbad . . . Midland's front office is expecting an overall turnout of 70,000 fans there this season . . . The recent three-game Midland-Odesa series drew 6,200 fans . . . Witty Quintana has now hit more home runs over the course of a season than any Big Spring Bronco in history but Pepper Martin and Potato Pascual . . . And Gil Guerra has won more mound decisions within one year than any Steed but Jose Cendan and Julio Ramos . . . W. E. Ramsey, the Ozono golf pro, was to come up to Big Spring this week end on a two-fold mission: to see the Broncs in action and find himself a partner for the Odesa Pro-Am Tournament, which comes up shortly . . . He would like to interest Elton Dozier, Jr., in the Odesa meet . . . Eddie Ellis, who pitched for Ballinger in the Longhorn League several years ago, is hurling fine ball for a Key West, Fla., Navy team these days . . . There's increasing talk Denver will join the Pacific Coast League in a year or two . . . Denver wanted in the Texas League a few years back but the club owners frowned on it . . . Last year, Denver drew 440,000 paid admissions while Shreveport of the Texas League attracted only 76,673, Oklahoma City 109,181 and Beaumont 109,853.

Throats Of Clubs Cut Last Winter

Israel Ten, the Midland hurler, isn't the only Puerto Rican doing business in the Longhorn League. Ben Quintana of the Odesa mound staff also hails from there. He'll re-enter the University of Puerto Rico this winter to complete work on a business administration degree . . . Bob Adams of the Midland paper says Warren Sliker, the Sweetwater first sacker, has been sold to Beaumont of the Texas League; delivery to be made in 1953. Johnny Tayan, San Angelo's hard-hitting infielder, used to play ball down in Alabama with Jim Rhodes, who is now playing regularly in the New York Giants' outfield . . .

Baseball Attendance Sadly Down

The Wall Street Journal has reported the sober fact that organized baseball will draw over 22,000,000 less fans this year than it did in its peak year in 1948. The Longhorn League's aggregate will be better, though it isn't as evenly distributed as it should be. Fred Benner, the SMU passing whiz, completed one more pass last year than he did in 1950. J. LeFever, who pitched one inning for the Yankees in that recent Little League championship series here, is only nine years of age. He's a nephew to Cliff Patton, the ex-Big Spring High School grid-

Lions To Field All-Vet Eleven This Autumn

BROWNWOOD — The Brownwood Lions, who play a non-conference football game with Big Spring here Sept. 28, lost six lettermen via graduation from last year's club but prospects are about the brightest in the school's history this year.

Back from the eleven that won seven and lost only three games in 1951 are 19 lettermen, including Leondrus Fry, a 172-pound tailback who is one of the most highly-rated players in the entire state.

Coach Abe Houston can field an all-letterman club. Five of the players have won two numerals each, including Fry.

The veterans back with the team this fall will be Bobby Carlsie, Jimmy Ellis, Marshall Gregory and Bob Stewart, ends; Ronald Adams, Howard Davis, Larry Piser and Ben Woodson, tackles; Bob Hutchinson and Bill Morgan, guards; Elton Sliker and Bobby Jim White, centers; Leo Blecker, blocking back; Bill Bullard and Don Earp; wing backs; Johnny Kemp and Ray Masters, fullbacks; and Fry and Bobby Wayne White, tailbacks.

The Lions will run off the Single Wing. The team has three tackles who will go more than 200 pounds each. The heaviest is Woodson, at 205.

The Brownwood club defeated Coleman, Lamesa, North Side (Fort Worth), Midland, El Paso Austin, Graham and Cleburne last year while losing to Stephenville, Weatherford and Breckenridge. It scored 235 points; to 152 for the foe.

Earp, over injuries he suffered last year, is the shiftest man on the team and should combine with Fry to give the Lions a fine running game.

Fry is working on his third mile in total yardage gained. In two years, he has picked up 3,562 paces. He averaged 4.53 yards per carry in 1951, completed 125 of 182 passes thrown. His average total gain per game came to 194.1 yards. He punted 44 times for an average of 33.4 yards, did all the team's kicking off. His fastest time in the hundred is 10 seconds flat.

Houston, in his seventh year as Brownwood coach, will be assisted by Roland (Slim) Warren, Gus Snodgrass and Bob Wright.

Plans for the 1952 Longhorn League playoffs are due to be discussed at a business session of the circuit's executive committee at the Settles Hotel at 10:30 a.m. today. League Prexy Hal Sayles will preside.

Six teams will probably be represented. They are Odesa, Big Spring, Midland, Artesia, Roswell and San Angelo.

The latter two teams are given scant chance to rate the first division.

The regular season ends Sept. 8 and the playoffs will probably begin on Sept. 9, which falls on a Tuesday. The first and second place clubs have the option of playing host in first round games.

HAMMAN AT PARK

Famed Comic Here Tomorrow

A man who is called baseball's greatest clown, Ed Hamman, stages his famous act at the Big Spring baseball park Monday evening, at which time Artesia winds up its stay here.

Hamman has had numerous offers from vaudeville troupes and circuses but turned them all down to stay in baseball.

Not very long ago, Hamman entertained 86,288 fans in Cleveland's huge stadium. He attracts capacity crowds practically everywhere he goes.

Hamman, who does most of his act in a clown suit, has a small duck to serve as his straight man. The bird's name is "Susie," which Hamman has trained to do numerous things.

At one time, Ed traveled with the Harlem Globe Trotters, world famed basketball team.

Oilers Wind Up 1952 Campaign

FORSAN—Last scheduled Concho Basin League game for the Forsan Oilers will be unveiled in Robert Lee today as the Oilers wind up their summer's activities.

Lefty Shelton's crew did not reach the playoffs and their season ends today. Shelton is slated to pitch.

In the two other games in the league today, Ballinger-Winters plays Big Lake-Texon in Big Lake and Bryan Electric faces Miles.

Californian Cops Caddie Golf Title

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 23 (AP)—A 16-year-old Californian today captured the PGA-national caddie golf championship and a $1,500 college scholarship with a putter that acted like it already had been to college.

Al Chandler of Hawthorne, Calif., just outside Los Angeles, smothered Jim Lucius of Northfield, Minn., 8 and 6, in the 36-hole finale over the scarlet course of Ohio State University.

LAKE J. B. THOMAS MAY BE STOCKED THIS FALL

Initial steps toward stocking Lake J. B. Thomas may be taken this autumn if rains come.

Cecil W. Reid, former Big Spring and assistant chief aquatic biologist for the Texas Game and Fish Commission, said that one type of fish might be put into the waters this fall.

In a letter to E. V. Spence, general manager of the Colorado River Municipal Water District, Reid said that "it is quite possible that we can stock your lake with channel catfish this fall provided you have had sufficient rainfall."

As for largemouth black bass, crappie and redear sunfish, they will not be available until next spring, he said.

Reid was here recently for an inspection of the lake site and a study of anticipated conditions.

He suggested that it would be highly desirable to destroy all fish in the now existing pools on the watershed in order that the new water will not become infested with rough fish.

In setting rules and regulations governing the types of baits, Reid said his division urged that the CRMWD prohibit the use of live carp, buffalo, shad, sunfish (other than redear and bluegill), bullhead catfish, suckers and gar as bait-fish.

Texas Gridders Win Again, 18-6

WICHITA FALLS, Aug. 23 (AP)—Oklahoma still seeks a victory in the Oil Bowl football game. The Sooners last night lost to Texas 18-6, their eighth straight defeat. It came about because they just couldn't cope with the Lone Star State's brand of passing.

A crowd of 18,000 turned out to see the Oklahomans put up a rugged scrap but only in one quarter were they able to fight the Texans on even terms.

Ronald Robbins of Breckenridge was the man who sent Oklahoma back home winless. He was almost the whole offensive show. He scored the first touchdown, passed for the second and set up the third with his passing.

Up She Goes

A giant concentration column dwarfs a man (white arrow) as the 135-ton benzene concentrator was transported from Dallas, where it was fabricated, to Houston on three flat cars. As part of a platforming unit, it is similar to columns erected recently at the Cosden BTX plant here.

Part Of Cosden's New Plant Due To Begin Operation

Part of the BTX plant of Cosden Petroleum Corporation's refinery may go into operation Monday. This unit, which combines a platforming process with extraction of certain chemicals (benzene, toluene and xylene) which supplies it with a name, has been under construction for approximately a year. The platformer will be the first portion to be put into operation. Straight run gasoline from the present refinery will be cut to the new plant and through a process which utilized platinum as a catalyst, the molecules will be reformed so that the gasoline will return to the plant in upgraded quality. Subsequently, perhaps in two or three weeks, the BTX extraction processes will be put on a shake-down run. By subjecting straight run materials from the refinery to solvents, certain aromatics will be absorbed. Then, by fractionation, etc. they will be taken from the solvents and separated into benzene, toluene, and xylene. These chemicals are much in demand for a great variety of uses and some of them are needed in the defense effort.

Last week P. C. Weinert, manager of the service department of Universal Oil Products of Chicago, which licenses the process, was here for an inspection of the new plant.

Small Discovery Finals In Irian

Humble has completed a small pumping discovery from two sets of perforation in the Wolfcamp sand in the extreme southeastern part of Irian County.

Humble No. 2-B Pearl Williams made a 24-hour pumping potential of 20.25 barrels of 30.8 gravity oil plus six per cent salt water. Gas-oil ratio was 1,152-1, and pay was coming from perforations from 6,450-6,474 and from 6,488-6,500. Both sets were treated with acid and had been fractured.

Ellenburger Well Slated In Fisher

Mar-Tex Realization Corp. of Dallas No. 1 Robert Martinez-Mary K. Kennedy has been announced as a Fisher County wildcat.

It will be at some point in the northeast quarter of section 203-2, H&TC, five miles west and two north of Rotan. Contracts call for 7,000 feet to the Ellenburger at a lesser depth. Operations will start within 10 days.

Mar-Tex is being supported in this venture on its 610-acre lease by Rancho Oil, Elm Oil, Sinclair Oil & Gas, and So. Production Company.

Andrews Discovery Flows Strongly To Clean Out, Test

Texas No. 1-Z State was flowing to cleanout and take potential Saturday as a discovery from the Devonian. The casing had been perforated from 12,530-590 and that section washed with 1,000 gallons of mud acid. After being shut in for several days while the rotary was moved off the test was opened Friday. In 21 hours it flowed 351 barrels of oil and no water through 20-64 choke. No other details were available immediately.

This exploration is 17 miles northeast of Andrews and 600 from the west and 1,800 south lines of section 22-6, University. Total depth was 13,275 in the Ellenburger, which made only water.

Student Laborers Barbecue Honorees

Student laborers who have been working at the Cosden refinery during the summer were honored at a barbecue dinner Friday evening. W. A. Laswell barbecued the chickens for this affair at the tank car department, and company officials, headed by R. L. Tollett, president, attended.

The young men feted at the barbecue are all sons of regular Cosden employees. Under a company policy, they are provided with jobs between college terms.

Deepening Is Due In Borden

Deepening was underway in a Southeastern Borden exploration after only mud was returned in a test in the Pennsylvania top.

Another deep wildcat, in Southwest Borden, was plugged and abandoned after finding the reef barren.

C. I. Herring No. 1 Mack, 600 from the south and west lines of section 130-25, H&TC, 15 miles southeast of Gail, was at 7,663 in lime, preparing to drill ahead. It had a drillstem test from 7,424-60 with the tool open 45 minutes. Recovery was five feet of mud. Top of the Dean was pegged at 6,070, top of the Pennsylvania at 7,415. No elevation has been announced for this test which is 3 1/4 miles northwest of V. Roeder production. Ada Oil Company No. 1 Clayton & Johnson, C SE SE 20-32-4n, T&P, 20 miles southwest of Gail, three miles from the Good pool and five miles north of the Vealmoor pool plugged and abandoned at 8,200 in barren reef lime.

Stephens Petroleum No. 1 Bacon, C SE SE 49-25, H&TC, a mile northwest of the Hobo field and two miles northeast of the East Vealmoor field, drilled at 5,915 in shale.

Superior Oil No. 13-596 Florence Lanham, 600 from south and west lines section 536-596 Florence Lanham, 600 from south and west lines section 536-97, H&TC, was below 7,562 in shale.

Superior and Intex No. 14-398 Jordan, C SE SW 596-97, H&TC, four miles north of Fluvanna, drilled at 2,447 in lime.

WEEK'S REVIEW

Upton, Crane Final Pair Of Discoveries

By JOHN B. BREWER
SAN ANGELO, Aug. 23—Upton and Crane Counties finalized discoveries in West Texas oil activity this week as Ector County came up with a pair of indicated discoveries and a wildcat in Andrews indicated additional pay.

Flowing oil from the Fusselman of the Silurian, Phillips No. 1-B Millard (Millard Edison) appeared to be the opener of the fourth pay in the Penwell field in southwestern Ector County.

The test, 600 from north, 665 feet from east line of section 24-B-15-psl, flowed 44 barrels of 43 gravity oil in one hour on a drillstem test from 7,387-497 feet. Drilling was continuing to the projected 8,900 feet or the Ellenburger.

No. 1-B Millard is in the north part of the Penwell field which has production from the San Andres, Clear Fork and Ellenburger. Earlier, on a 65-minute drillstem test in the lower Permian from 6,560-750 feet, No. 1-B Millard flowed 43 barrels of oil and 38 barrels of salt water and reversed out 210 feet of salt water-cut mud.

Herman Brown (Formerly V. A. Brill) No. 1 Sallie Ratliff and others, Northeastern Ector County wildcat, flowed oil for 24 hours at an average rate of 11 barrels hourly from the Wolfcamp. Production was from casing perforations from 9,690-700 in the Wolfcamp following acidization with 300 gallons.

As Brill No. 1 Ratliff, the wildcat had shown prospects of discovery production in the Atoka lime of the Pennsylvania but on drillstem tests, the section was acidized through perforations without success. Location is the C NW NW 11-42-1a-T&P, three miles east of the North Cowden field.

Ector gained a late-week wildcat location, Cixilyn Drilling Co. No. 1-A Sallie Ratliff, contracted to 10,000 feet, will be 467 feet out in the northeast corner of section 4-42-1a-T&P, 11 miles north of Odessa and 1 1/2 miles northwest of Brown No. 1 Ratliff and others.

A Tubb lime discovery in the Sand Hills, West field of Crane County, Gulf No. 11-B Estes, completed for a flowing potential of 576.4 barrels of 32.7 gravity oil plus 57 barrels of water in 24 hours. Completion was from perforations between 4,620-700 feet on a plugged-back total depth of 4,712 feet.

Location is 1,980 from north, 660 feet from east lines of section 4-B28-psl. Phillips No. 1-CC University, prospective Devonian strike in Northeastern Andrews, was preparing to drill 50 feet and test again after logging an additional 50 feet of pay.

On a three-hour, 45-minute drillstem test from 12,541-591 feet, the test flowed 32 barrels of oil to tanks in one hour. It was 43.7 gravity cut with 3-10 of one per cent mud. Open flowing bottomhole pressure was 3,525 pounds; 15-minute shut-in pressure was 5,300 pounds. Location is C SE SE 42-5-U.

Magnolia No. 1-P TXL was completed as a flowing Ellenburger discovery in Upton County. Completion was for a daily potential of 290 barrels of 33.5 gravity oil, gas-oil ratio of 1,241-1. Location is 660 from south, 1,960 feet from west lines of section 9-41-5a-T&P, 1 1/4 miles north and slightly east of the one-well Davis (Ellenburger) field. Production was through a quarter-inch choke from open hole at 13,144-187 feet, following acidization.

Re-Definition On Oil Imports Sought

AUSTIN, Aug. 23—A re-defining of policy on oil imports is predicted when directors of Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association hold their mid-year meeting here Oct. 20.

TIPRO President Bryan W. Payne of Tyler said he anticipated a redefinition "in the light of growing world oil surplus." He also expects consideration of price decontrol for crude oil and other commodities not in short supply.

SE Glasscock Explorer May Miss New Zone

Fred Turner No. 1 S. C. Currie, 4 1/2-mile northeast outpost to a recent Wichita-Albany discovery in Southeast Glasscock, may have missed that zone.

Saturday the venture was reported at 6,340 in lime. Seaboard No. 1 Bishop, the discovery, had picked up its pay from 6,130-6,211 on an elevation of 2,686. Elevation on the Turner No. 1 Currie was not available immediately. Location is C SW SW 4-32-5a, T&P.

A half-mile east extension to the Weiner-Floyd area of Spraberry production in extreme southwestern Glasscock County was reported. Sohio No. 1-B X. B. Cox, C SW NE 18-30-3a, T&P, also is a mile northwest of the Williams portion of the pool in Northern Reagan.

On a 24-hour flowing potential test it made 619 barrels of 39.3 gravity oil through 7-16 choke. Gas-oil ratio was 599-1. Pay was from perforations 6,806-6,860 which were fractured with 4,000 gallons.

Plugging Due Dawson Venture

Plugging is in prospect for a Huddle-Manning test near Lamesa.

Malco No. 1 Mitchell, bottomed at 8,075 in Spraberry sand and shale, swabbed to test. Operator located the hole with 234 barrels of oil and had fractured the section above total depth. After swabbing started, the well kicked off and flowed out some of the load oil but no new oil. Operator still had about 89 barrels of load oil to recover, and indications Saturday were that the well may be plugged soon.

It is located 1 1/2 miles southwest of Lamesa and is 596 from the west and 660 from the south lines of the northeast quarter of section 11-36-5n, T&P.

Drillstem Test Now Underway In Howard

A drillstem test in the Clear Fork was in progress Saturday on Cosden No. 1 Read, Northeast Howard wildcat.

The well was bottomed at 4,575 and is sampling a porous section above the point. Location is C NE NE 22-30-1a, T&P.

Two miles east of Vincent, Cosden No. 1 Chester Jones was about 100 feet above the anticipated top of the lower Canyon reef. Saturday it drilled at 7,350 feet in shale. Location is C SE NW 5-25, H&TC.

Gas Drilling Takes Lead Over Texas

AUSTIN, Aug. 23—Light oil drilling and heavy gas drilling activity marked the week in Texas, the Railroad Commission reported today.

Operators brought in 178 oil wells to run the year's total to 7,300 compared with 7,652 a year ago. They drilled 50 gas wells to jump the year's total to 602 compared with 525 last year.

Dry holes numbered 133. Wildcat drilling found 19 oil wells and 77 dry holes. Plugging of 126 dry wells and 51 oil wells was reported.

The total average calendar day crude allowable as of today was 2,974,186 barrels, up 9,972 from a week ago.

More Royalty Owner Signatures Needed For Scurry Unitization

In an effort to acquaint lessees, royalty owners, surface owners to approve a unitization plan, SACROC has issued a pamphlet entitled "More Oil for Scurry."

Application of conservation methods to the Diamond M and Kelly-Snyder pools awaits the green light now from the royalty owners. There has been a near perfect response from operators to the proposed unitization plan of the Scurry Area Canyon Reef Operators Committee.

So far, required majority of royalty owners is lacking.

Unitization, the pamphlet explains, is a term applied to a plan under which an entire field may be produced as a whole to promote ultimate recovery and conservation.

The SACROC proposal is to inject water and return gas through certain wells. This will maintain pressure and force more oil into the wells.

Over a 40-year period, according to estimates of 200 engineers who contributed to the SACROC plan, the recovery of oil would amount to well over one billion barrels. Under natural methods, considerably less than half a billion barrels may be recovered, they estimated.

Indication of the problem is that of falling pressure. When oil was discovered in 1948, pressure was 3,122. Two years later it had dropped to 2,850 pounds and now it is down to 1,675.

Operators want to get at the application of a uniform program to maintain the gas pressures before all the "fizz" is gone. At the outset of production, the pool made one barrel of oil for every 870 cubic feet of gas produced. Today, 1,163 cubic feet of gas come up with every barrel of oil.

With the area mostly drilled up according to spacing patterns, there are 1,229 producing wells on 47,000 acres. In 1950 the daily allowable was 108,000 barrels for the pool. Now the total is 80,000 despite presence of more wells. Originally, the railroad commission allowed each well to make 300 barrels per day. Progressively, as pressure declined, this has been cut until it is now 100 barrels per day and the number of production days cut to 18 per month.

The pamphlet pointed out that lessees and royalty owners frequently fear loss of revenue through unitization participation. Ultimately, it said, they would receive vastly more money through doubled or tripled recovery. The importance of this to the county, schools and area as well as the individual was stressed.

KEY MAN

Dispatcher Is Heart Of Transmission

By WILBUR MARTIN
HOUSTON, Aug. 23—Hundreds of thousands of persons in the teeming cities of the east are using Texas, more than a thousand miles away.

With never a thought of how it gets to her home, a housewife in New York will use this gas to cook her supper, heat her house and, perhaps, refrigerate her food.

Gas pipelines stretching from the vast fields near the Mexican border, from the Texas Panhandle—and from Louisiana—daily carry millions of cubic feet of natural gas to consumers as far away as New England.

Whole companies have bloomed into new industrial giants as they pushed the slender pipelines across woods, rivers and mountains.

In the complex operation that is a pipeline company, one man is the heart. He's not the highest paid, isn't the owner, or even the man who owns the gas wells. But the day by day, minute by minute responsibility for the movement of the gas rests squarely with the dispatcher.

Dispatchers at one company—Transcontinental Gas of Houston—sit in a tiny air conditioned room. Their tools are sharp pointed pencils, a communication system of telephones, radio and micro-wave, huge, lined report sheets and an intricate knowledge of the 1,800-mile, 30-inch pipe that stretches from the Rio Grande Valley to the Hudson River in New York City.

What is the basic description of a dispatcher? Cary Link, superintendent of gas control, passed the question to Chief Dispatcher William C. Thrallkill, who said: "Buy the proper amount of gas each day, transport it under proper pressure, and supply the market demand."

A dispatcher never turns a valve, lays a pipe, or sits in a lonely line station. But he translates a fantastic array of figures into a spur of gas when a housewife in New York City turns a stove handle.

Line stations report hourly to the dispatcher, giving the pressure of the gas coming into the line at their points, the pressure as it goes on, the atmosphere pressure, the temperature.

It's the dispatcher's job to catch any danger signals from these pressure reports.

In case of a blowout—a break in the line—he has the immediate responsibility of deciding whether to shut down the line or let it blow.

Companies that supply domestic users report early each day the approximate amount of gas they'll need. The dispatcher takes these reports and decides how much gas to buy, how much gas will be used by the pumping stations along the line for fuel.

You can't become a dispatcher overnight and you can't learn how to be one from a book. It's a job where native ability and experience "on the job" makes the finished product.

Two Abandonments Seen In Vealmoor

Two abandonments in the Vealmoor pool were listed Saturday. Seaboard Oil No. 4 M. S. Veal, 1,984 from the north and 1,860 from the east lines section 40-32-3n, T&P, on the southwest side of the pool, was plugged at 3,082 in the reef without shows.

Barbany (Bishop) No. 1 Plunkett, et al, C SW NW 29-32-3n, T&P, was abandoned at 7,095 in dry lime. This venture was an edger on the northwest corner of the area.

Martin Wildcat Is Experiencing Some Trouble With Pump

Plymouth No. 1 W. R. Morris, C NW SW 7-35-1a, T&P, had considerable free oil in the hole Saturday; but the pump would not pick it up.

Operator pulled pump on this wildcat, which is located a mile and a half northeast of Stanton, and was reworking it. The pump will be re-run and the well put on test. Operator thinks that it will make a producer of some sorts. It is a mile and a half southeast of Ryan No. 1 Peters, a light producer, and 2 miles northwest of Plymouth No. 1 Davis which was abandoned but which had good shows.

DeKalb No. 1 Knox, 660 from the north and 2,777 from the west lines of league 253, Ward CSL, 3 1/2 miles north of Taran, continued making hole at 12,585 in unidentified lim and dolomite. It has had no shows.

Government's Compromise Plan On Tax Cases Due To Be Aired

By FRANK O'BRIEN
WASHINGTON, Aug. 23 (AP)—Some time next week a long-secret area of the government's dealings with the public—settlement of tax claims by compromise—will be made open to the public.

An executive order from President Truman last Wednesday authorized the Bureau of Internal Revenue to open its tax compromise files—a step long sought by newspapers, news agencies and some legislators, particularly Sen. Williams (R-De).

The idea behind the pressure was that most people have to pay their taxes in full, and that when a taxpayer is allowed to get off with paying only part of what he owes, the rest of the taxpayers should be told how and why.

A number of such compromises have come to light recently, most of them unearthed by Williams and other congressional investigators.

And taxpayers have been asking questions about the whole situation. Among them:

- 1. What is, and what is not, a compromise tax settlement?
- 2. Who can get a compromise settlement, and how is it done?
- 3. What cases does Truman's order cover—past—as well as current settlements?
- 4. Just how will the bureau make public accepted settlements?
- 5. To whom will the opened files be available?

Here are the answers, from Internal Revenue Commissioner

John B. Dunlap and other bureau officials:

1. A compromise settlement is one settled for less than the tax assessed because:

A. The taxpayer cannot, for some reason, pay the full taxes he owes and admits he owes.

B. The taxpayer did not owe all he was assessed.

C. The case is settled on the basis of an "offer in compromise" from the taxpayer—an offer to pay less than he is assessed.

2. Anyone can get a compromise settlement who is broke or in difficulty and cannot pay his taxes. Congress itself provided the compromise as an escape valve.

"What about a widow whose chief legacy is a tax debt?" says Dunlap. "It is the same for a man who has gone broke, and is trying to get re-established. Maybe he made a lot of money last year, but by tax time is broke."

"Do we have to sell up a small manufacturer, who employs people, but who is on the verge of bankruptcy, and drive him out of business—thereby throwing his people out of work? We can make a compromise settlement."

"The criterion is: what is best for the government, and that includes the people."

3. The bureau has interpreted the order opening compromise tax settlements as applying to all cases settled from the date of the order—Aug. 20, 1952. That means the thousands of cases already settled by compromise remain closed—unless the bureau makes some of them public on its own initiative.

This has been done when some of them became involved in public controversy.

4. The bureau public relations office plans to prepare files which will contain the name of the taxpayer, the amount assessed against him, the bureau's analysis of his ability to pay and of his tax liability, a brief history of the case, the taxpayer's offer of compromise, the compromise amount accepted, and the bureau's reasoning in accepting it.

5. A spokesman said the bureau does not interpret the order opening compromise files to mean that anyone who is curious about his neighbor's taxes can ask the bureau if a certain case was settled in compromise, and find out.

In the Aug. 7 order Dunlap said details would be divulged to "responsible members of the press who have a legitimate concern" with the case. The spokesman said inspection would be limited to the press, as outlined by Dunlap, and to congressmen and others with a "legitimate" interest, not just curiosity.

A Week's Salary Gone With Wind

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Aug. 23 (AP)—Two-year-old Alexis Polina spied a roll of pretty green stuff on a table.

To her father, Alex, it was $90; a week's salary. He had placed the money on the bedside table before stretching out for a nap.

To Alexis it was material for a new game.

Bill by bill, she happily threw the $95 out of a third floor window. A search by the family of the street below netted only $10.

DEAF CANINE IS MISSING

If you spot a limping, brown Spitz-Rat Terrier dog and you get no response if you whistle to him, that must be Wimpy.

He's lost and the reason he doesn't acknowledge your greeting, he's deaf as a fence-post.

He's taken his meals, off and on, with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wilson of 1209 Johnson Street for the past 17 years and they'd very much like to see him again. The telephone number is 1306.

The reason he limps is, he has arthritis. And he can't hear because, well, his hearing just wore plumb out.

GOP Hoping For Unity At Annual State Parley

By DAVE CHEAVENS
SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 23 (AP)—Texas' rip-snorting Republicans convene here Tuesday with some hopes of unity to swing this state to Eisenhower in the November election.

They may have to fight it out again to achieve a degree of outward harmony. The convention must name a new state chairman and a new state executive committee of 62 members.

Already in the saddle as National Committeeman from Texas is Jack

Porter of Houston, who rode in with the Eisenhower tide at the National Convention in Chicago.

Porter said that reports from county conventions all over the state indicated to him that Alvin H. Lane of Dallas would be overwhelmingly elected state chairman. Lane was closely allied with Porter in the successful fight for recognition at Chicago.

The Old Guard candidate is Carlos Watson of Brownsville.

The convention was called also to nominate candidates for state offices to oppose Democrats in November. This includes governor and United States senator. It was considered likely the resurgent Republicans would offer a full slate.

The Republicans must also work out a platform on which their state candidates will run.

Convention preliminaries begin Monday with a meeting of the State Executive Committee. It has before it 11 contests between rival county delegations seeking to be seated.

Porter called this a "minimum" number of contests, adding:

"I think they will be settled in a manner that will leave a good taste in everyone's mouth."

Porter said he hoped the convention would be the first step in a campaign with Republicans united to carry Texas with the help of Democrats for Eisenhower and Nixon.

Just what effect a movement by conservative Republicans to put up a separate party slate for the general election would have on the convention here remained to be seen. Edward B. Holman of Fort Worth said last week the group would call itself the Conservative Party and seek to place Eisenhower and Nixon at the head of their ticket.

If this convention gets by without a big battle, it will be in sharp contrast with the May meeting, where Taft and Eisenhower forces split into separate conventions. It was also a battle between the Old Guard party leadership headed by Henry Zweifel of Fort Worth, and the new leadership headed by Porter.

Minerals Under Wasteland May Be Future 'Gold Mine'

By ERIC GOTTEGETREU

TEL AVIV, Aug. 23 (AP)—The oil, the copper and the other minerals under the sandy wastes of the "Neg v" may be Israel's gold mine of tomorrow, some optimists hope.

The recent passing of an oil bill by Parliament in Jerusalem, the conclusion of various agreements with mineral-seeking local and foreign companies and the forthcoming dispatch of Negev mineral samples to the Bari (Italy) fair have added more fuel to the flames of great expectations.

Eng. M. Novomeysky, the founder and managing director of the former "Palestine Potash Company" and the honorary president of its successor firm, cautioned that much drilling, boring, probing and analyzing is still needed before the over-all economic profitability of large-scale Negev exploitation can be assessed. But even he seems to be a moderate optimist.

The geological evidence gives sufficient positive indication of the presence of oil in the country, Novomeysky says. Whether or not, however, there are large oil reserves in commercial quantities can only be proved by deep borings, and several are expected to start soon including the joint Am-pal (New York) and Mekorot (Tel Aviv) Oil Company.

As for copper, Eng. Novomeysky believes that the picture drawn by Dr. Nelson Glueck (former director of the American school of Oriental Research in Jerusalem) of King Solomon's industrial copper center at Biblical Etzion-Geber, the Red Sea port of the Gulf of Elath of today, is somewhat exaggerated by "the imagination of an archeologist."

But Novomeysky says that in a relatively small area there a copper ore-mass containing some 20,000 to 25,000 tons of metal has been ascertained, and he thinks that the average percentage of metal in the large deposits is not discouraging.

Industrial Boom Hikes Building

AUSTIN, Aug. 23 (AP)—A big week in industrial construction gave Texas a $39,385,226 building con-tract's total. Non-residential awards accounted for $33,942,719, of which $28,194,379 went for industrial buildings. Residential lettings totaled $3,927,200, and engineering, $1,515,307. The Texas Contractor, building trade magazine, reported the year's accumulative total was $676,432,270.

Carpenters Start Fund For Member

Members of the carpenters' union have started a fund to aid Vernon Milam, former member, whose family was all but wiped out in a highway mishap near San Angelo last week.

When the appeal was voiced originally at the meeting of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners Local No. 1634 on Thursday evening, those present responded with more than $45 cash.

Floyd R. Jones, financial secretary, and William L. Gamble, business agent, will continue to receive contributions through the week. They plan to contact members who were not at the meeting.

Milam lost his wife and their twin 15-month old daughters, Brenda Sue and Linda Lou in a collision and fire. Their other child, 8-year-old Jimmy Ross Milam, was injured critically and may suffer virtual loss of sight.

HI, NEIGHBOR — A dyed-in-the-wool gardener won't be frustrated, as evidenced in this dooryard garden of Mrs. L. C. Wilbanks, a native of Tyler, who has lived in a trailer for five years. Note the variety of plants, the picket fence, her post lantern and garden furniture. Her husband is fire prevention inspector at the air base and their son, Bob, 18, lives with them.

COLLECTORS' ITEMS — Mrs. J. P. Shawhan's window shelf holds Hummel figures, musical steins and other souvenirs from Germany, where she spent three years with her husband, a tech sergeant at the air base. Enjoying a radio session with their mother are Susan Diane, left, who was born in Germany, and Lora Elizabeth.

HOME WAS NEVER LIKE THIS — Or maybe it takes a good joke to make dishwashing so much fun. Anyway, Mrs. Dale Culp, at right, receives an assist with the drying from Doug but only moral support from Pam, who prefers dolls. Natives of Indiana, the Culp's have been parked in the same spot for two years.

Trailer Dwellers Like Living On Wheels

Along about this time of year one is apt to see more than the usual number of house trailers on the highways. For wanderlust usually seizes the trailer owner with the first warm days of spring and holds him in its grip until the first snow flies. Since the days of World War II, however, with the shortage of housing and mass migrations to military and industrial centers, a new breed of trailer dweller has cropped up. He is the homeloving man with a family whose job may necessitate constant moving, and his trailer is his happy solution of the unhappy housing problem. But these contented gypsies are more often found in trailer parks than on the highways. When they move to a new home they carefully select a site, often with more consideration than a prospective home owner gives to the selection of a lot, and there they may remain for two or more years, quite often longer. They settle in trailer camps, near their jobs, near schools or near the trailers of acquaintances. See TRAILER, Pg. 3, Col. 8

Lillian Rowe Weds Robert Gene Steele

Lillian Rebecca Rowe became the bride of A-3C Robert Gene Steele in a formal, double ring ceremony Saturday evening.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Rowe, 1105 Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Steele of Baxter Springs, Kan.

Dr. Alsie H. Carleton, pastor, performed the ceremony at the First Methodist Church at 8 p.m. The couple repeated their vows as they stood before an arch flanked by baskets of pink and white gladioli and white tapers in floor candleholders, and decorated with greenery.

Nina Fryar, organist, played the traditional wedding marches. She also accompanied Kathryn Steele, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, who sang "Because" and "My Hero."

Entering on the arm of her father, the bride wore a petal pink satin gown. It was designed with a strapless bodice topped with a pink lace bolero. The full skirt fell into a sweeping chapel-length train.

Her fingertip veil of pink nylon illusion was caught to a satin tiara covered with lace and decorated with orange blossoms.

The bride carried a white Bible topped with an orchid and showered with stephanotis.

Mrs. L. D. Chrane was her sister's matron of honor, and Twila Phillips of Lubbock and Barbara Sue Wilson were bridesmaids.

They were identically attired in frosty pink nylon organdy gowns designed with full ballerina-length skirts and molded bodices. Their shoulder-length veils were attached to pink organdy headpieces.

The attendants carried colonial bouquets of pink asters.

A-3C Johnny Bee of Pittsburgh, Penn., served as best man, and groomsmen were A-1C Joseph Bruzoo and A-3C Bob Haas of Honolulu, Hawaii.

Joe Tabor of Dallas and Dan

Hart of Fort Worth were ushers. Kennis Chrane was ring bearer. The candles were lighted by Evelyn Arnold and Jo Ann Gay. They chose pink organza dresses made similar to that of the other attendants.

When the couple left on a wedding trip to Missouri and Kansas, the bride wore a pink rayon suit with navy blue accessories.

The couple will make their home here.

Mrs. Steele is a graduate of Big Spring High School and attended Howard County Junior College where she was a member of the Lasso Club and the mixed chorus. Her husband is a graduate of Baxter Springs High School and attended Northwestern Oklahoma A&M. He is stationed at Webb Air Force Base.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlor.

In the receiving line were the mothers of the couple, the bride and the bride attendants.

The refreshment table was laid with a white organdy cloth and centered with the three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and decorated with pink orange blossoms.

Floor baskets of gladioli were placed at vantage points.

Mrs. Dan Hart, sister of the bride, and Bobbie Wallace served. Mrs. James Kimbrough, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the guest register, and other members of the house party were Mrs. Bernard Lamun, Mrs. S. R. Nobles and Mrs. T. J. Walker.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Tabor of New Mexico, Mrs. J. M. Tabor of Dallas, Mrs. V. W. Shepard, Vic Harwell, Mrs. George Benz of Denton and Miss Wallace of San Angelo.

Bridal Tea Friday Evening Compliments Lindel Gross

Among the pre-nuptial courtesies being given for Lindel Gross, bride-elect of Bill Fletcher of Dallas, was a tea given Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles L. Kee, 1405 E. 24th.

Hostesses were Mrs. Kee, Mrs. James W. Johnson, Mrs. J. H. Homan, Mrs. Leonard Coker, Mrs. Ross Boykin, Mrs. S. M. Winham, Mrs. Ervin Daniels and Mrs. O. B. Hull.

In the receiving line with Mrs. Kee were the honoree and her mother Mrs. Eugene Gross.

Doris Ann Daniels presided at the register table, which was decorated with a crystal epergne holding two candles with four vases of pink and blue carnations tied with pink and blue streamers.

The table was laid with a white imported organdy cloth and centered with a lace parasol on a styrofoam base showered with pink and blue rosettes. A corsage of pom-pom asters adorned the parasol handle, and a crystal punch bowl and hurricane lamps completed the appointments.

Mrs. Boykin and Mrs. Winham served, and Mrs. John A. Coffee, Mrs. Hull, Mrs. Daniels, Mrs. Homan and Mary Ann Attaway displayed the gifts.

Also in the house party were Ann Homan, Sarah Beth Homan, Margaret Katherine Hegner, Karen Kee and Betty Boykin, who were dressed in pastel floor-length formal.

The honoree wore a formal of champagne net with metallic trim, and her mother was gowned in white organdy. Mrs. Kee was attired in a black and gold embossed metallic ballerina-length formal.

Approximately 75 guests called. The bride-elect is a graduate of Big Spring High School and attended Howard County Junior College. The prospective bridegroom attended Sunset High School in Dallas, HCCJ and Lamar College in Beaumont.

The couple will be married Sept. 6 at 8 p.m. in First Baptist Church with Dr. P. D. O'Brien officiating. A reception will be held in the church parlor following the ceremony.

Newcomers Have 22nd Wedding Anniversary

"Home is where the heart is," an old quotation says, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sperrath, 1401 Stadium, would be the first to agree. Their home is their castle, their hobby and their pleasure. The couple moved here about a week ago from Austin, where he was traffic representative for the Missouri-Pacific railroad. Here he will represent the railroad as a commercial agent. The Sperraths have one son, Eddie, 21, who is in summer school at the University of Texas. Next week he will come home for a between-semester visit. Upon his return to school, he will be a senior civil engineering major. The Sperraths, who celebrated their 22nd wedding anniversary Sunday, met while she was in nurses' training in San Antonio. After a sojourn in Laredo, the couple moved to Austin 16 years ago.

While declaring that she likes to putter around the house, Mrs. Sperrath takes time out to make most of her own clothes. And for extra diversion she and her husband square dance and attend baseball games. Mr. Sperrath also served as a Boy Scout leader from the time Eddie was 9 until the family moved to Big Spring.

The Vice President's Kin

Stepdaughter Of The Vice President And Husband Make First Home Here

There was a normal courtship and they haven't been married long. But the Weldon Behrends will always remember their wedding day for more than the usual sentimental reasons. The bride walked down the aisle on the arm of her stepfather, Alben Barkley, vice president of the United States.

The former Ann Hadley of St. Louis met her husband when she was a political science major at Sophie Newcomb in New Orleans and he was studying education at adjoining Tulane.

They were married June 28 at a Methodist Church in Paducah, Ky., and a reception at the home of the bride's parents followed. Later the couple went to San Angelo to visit the bridegroom's mother.

He is now stationed at Webb Air Force Base and the newlyweds are living at 205 Edwards Blvd.

"I had already decided to major in political science before my mother married Mr. Barkley," the young daughter of the second lady smiled.

"Then after they married I worked in his office about a month one summer, typing, filing and running errands. He said I was efficient," she laughed.

Mrs. Behrend felt that her mother and the "Veep" were more than just friends long before the engagement was made public.

"I kept asking mother and she said they were only friends. Then while I was in California visiting my aunt and uncle they called to tell me of their engagement. I was so happy for them because I knew that they would be happy, the young bride added.

Anne's younger sister, Jane served as a page during the Democratic convention. But Anne was content to sit with an ear glued to the radio.

Mrs. Behrend reads avidly and hopes to learn to sew. While they visited in San Angelo, she made a sun dress.

"But please don't say that I can sew. I made the dress with my mother-in-law standing behind me constantly. However, I hope to learn before too long."

This is the first trip to Texas for the dark-haired, olive-skinned native of St. Louis and she's crazy about it.

Just now her hopes are pinned on a visit from her mother and stepfather in the not too distant future. And her husband? He is recovering from a foot infection and the doctor's orders were to go to a high, dry climate.

"What could be drier than Big Spring," the former San Angelo High School football player chuckled.

The refreshment table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with the punch service. Appointments were crystal and silver and Mrs. Hale and Mrs. Bankston served.

Favors were miniature baby buggies.

The gifts were opened and displayed by the honoree assisted by her mother-in-law.

About 25 guests called during the receiving hours.

Rev. Lazenby To Attend Conference

The Rev. and Mrs. Hervey Lazenby and son, Kerry, left Thursday for Austin, where Mrs. Lazenby and Kerry will remain for the week end.

The Rev. Lazenby will attend a Sunday School Superintendent's Conference at Mo-Ranch near Kerrville during the week end and the group will return home Tuesday.

Betty Jane Barry Weds Roy Clifton Rayfield

COLORADO CITY.—Betty Jane Barry of Colorado City became the bride of Roy Clifton Rayfield of Tyler in a double ring ceremony Saturday at 7 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ari D. Barry of Colorado City, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rayfield of Tyler.

Wedding vows were said before Robert Alexander of Abilene Christian College, in the First Baptist Church in Colorado City.

Mrs. Bill Sellers, a cousin of the bride, from Edmond, Okla., was matron of honor; and Mrs. Brad Rowland Jr. of Hamlin, Norma Lee Parkhurst of Colorado City and Mrs. Austin O. McCloud of Wichita Falls were bridesmaids. Candlelighters were Stephen Carmichael of Hamlin and Tommy Watkins, a cousin of the bride, from Oklahoma City.

Carroll Rayfield of Lubbock, the bridegroom's brother, served as best man.

Candelabras and baskets of white gladioli flanked the altar before a background banked with greenery. Pews were marked with white satin ribbons and daisies.

Mrs. L. A. Chapman was organist and accompanied Romadene Alexander of Abilene, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a gown of imported Chantilly lace over satin in star white. A deep heart-shaped neckline was outlined with a Queen Anne collar. Long lace sleeves tapered to points over her hands and her floor-length skirt was worn over hoops and petticoats.

Her veil of imported illusion fell from a bonnet trimmed in a satin leaf design and scattered with pearls, and fell in tiers to her waistline. She carried white roses, encircled with stephanotis, on a white Bible belonging to Mrs. Brad Rowland Jr., who had carried it in her wedding. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom.

The matron of honor wore a ballerina-length dress of ice blue taffeta with a jacket of ice blue Chantilly lace fashioned with a stand-up collar. Her beehair and bouquet were of white daisies.

The bridesmaids wore dresses identical to that of the matron of honor and carried blue and white daisies.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Hale. Receiving were Mr. and Mrs. Hale, Mr. and Mrs. Rayfield, the honorees and members of the bridal party.

The houseparty included Mrs. Dwayne Feaster, Mrs. Jim Hale, Mrs. John Hale, Mrs. Sam Hale, Mrs. Jim Watson, Mrs. John Reese, Mrs. A. B. Parkhurst, Mrs. O. W. Gaul, and Mrs. F. B. Estes of Colorado City; Mrs. C. I. Gullbur and Mrs. B. J. Watkins of Oklahoma City and Mrs. R. Lee Hart of Ponca City.

The reception was held on the lawn, and the bride's table was centered with the traditional wedding cake on a mirror.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gullbur; L. Col. and Mrs. B. J. Watkins, Edmond, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Hart; Mr. and Mrs. Sellers, Wichita Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Digger McCloud and Mr. and Mrs. Carol Rayfield of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Rayfield, Tyler; Mrs. Robert Alexander, Abilene; Mrs. Holly Toier and son, Holly Pardue, Mr. and Mrs. Ari Carmichael, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Carmichael of Hamlin and Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Hale of Ackerly.

For travel, the bride wore white slanting with black faille duster fashioned with polka dot cuffs on three-quarter-length sleeves. Her hat was of white velvet with a trim of seed pearls and black velvet. Gloves were white with polka dot trim, and her other accessories were black.

After a wedding trip to Boulder, Colo., the couple will be at home in Dallas, where the bride will teach in the Dallas public schools.

Mrs. Rayfield was a member of the Gata Social Club at Abilene Christian College and a member of Kappa Kappa Kappa sorority at North Texas State College, where she was graduated in May.

The bridegroom attended Texas University as a medical student, and is a junior in the Southwestern Medical School at Dallas.

The group includes Mrs. Sam Armstrong of Coahoma, Mrs. Robert Brown of Knott and Mrs. O. D. Eagle of Fairview, delegates; Mrs. True Dunnagan of the Elbow Club and Mrs. W. H. Ward of Fairview, guests.

Mrs. Mildred Eiland, Martin County home demonstration agent, will accompany the women.

The convention will be held on the campus of Texas A&I College and most sessions will be held in Jones Auditorium.

Theme of the 26th annual meeting will be "United We Stand," and the program will include a major address by Dr. Ernest H. Potest, president of the college.

In addition to the election of state officers and their installation there will be workshops in education, legislation, marketing recreation, 4-H, THDA and "Messenger," which is slated to be the organization's plan of work.

A number of social and sightseeing events have been planned for the visitors, including a tour and barbecue on the King Ranch.

Mrs. Curtis Baker was organist, and Curtis Baker, soloist, sang, "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Last Call For Action On Proposal For Re-Precincting The County

The Commissioners Court has before it now a proposal for partial relief on a long over-due re-precincting reform. Because the statutes specifically mark such changes for July or August, the last chance for action this year is riding on the meeting of the court Monday. The court has exhibited some understandable reluctance in taking action on this matter in the face of a run-off election. Saturday settled that issue, and now the way should be clear for doing something constructive toward solving the problem of mal-adjustment in the commissioner precinct lines. As a matter of principle, all are agreed that something should be done toward correcting a situation in which one precinct has about half the voter strength as another. When it comes down to the actual cracking, reluctance and hedging frequently have cropped up. We often have thought that an "off" election year would be the proper time to take action on such a problem, but perhaps right after the run-off it still better. People will have two full years to become accustomed to the changes. Whether the blue print for shifting certain areas to cure the imbalance between commissioner precincts is the best or is adequate, we are not prepared to say. But it is the product of recommendations from an advisory committee which the court itself created, and it is something from which the court could work if it did not choose to embrace it in toto. The point we wish to make, and we believe all fair-minded citizens would want us to make, is not on an exact pattern of action but on action itself. The time has come to fish or cut bait, and we think that the court should fish continuously this week until it comes up with some sort of action to gain better balance among the commissioner precincts. Voting boxes, which involve only convenience and cost, can wait until next summer; the matter involving equal representation demands urgent attention now.

Business Outlook—J. A. Livingston

CED Economist Makes A Case For Inflation; Replies Coming?

WASHINGTON. — The telephone conversation with Herbert Stein, economist for the Committee for Economic Development, went like this: "Hello, Herb, this is Joe Livingston. Haven't talked to you in a long time. What are you doing these days?" "I'm writing a report on the bad effects of inflation."

That would defeat us in our ideological fight against Communist Russia. Our depression to cancel out the price rise, pressures would be visited on Great Britain, France, Germany, Belgium, Brazil and other countries. The Russians would pounce on that as proof that capitalism doesn't work, that it's basically unstable. Another Slichter point. Labor is too strong these days to permit price stability. Labor leaders will be constantly winning higher and higher wages. That would be all right if productivity would rise as much as wages. But labor leaders, being economically and politically powerful, would probably bargain for more than increased productivity. That would have the effect, if prices were stable, of increasing workers' living standards at the expense of everybody else. By letting prices rise, we'd flinch away these gains from workers and equalize the rise in the standard of living.

"I suppose you've seen Sumner Slichter's article in Harper's. He says inflation's not so bad after all. In fact, he says it's good."

Another Slichter point. Labor is too strong these days to permit price stability. Labor leaders will be constantly winning higher and higher wages. That would be all right if productivity would rise as much as wages. But labor leaders, being economically and politically powerful, would probably bargain for more than increased productivity. That would have the effect, if prices were stable, of increasing workers' living standards at the expense of everybody else. By letting prices rise, we'd flinch away these gains from workers and equalize the rise in the standard of living.

"Yes, I've seen it," said Stein. "Now I've got to write twice as hard."

Finally, Slichter says, we've got to import more goods to help other countries. However, unless business is expanding and prices rising, our protectionists, our high-tariff advocates, won't permit that. Admittedly, inflation would be hard on pensioners and annuitants. However, a little less buying power for them is not so bad as a lot of unemployment every so often for the rest of us. Furthermore, Slichter would control inflation at 2 per cent to 3 per cent a year—by credit restraint.

CED can't brush Slichter off. Sure, he has taken an unorthodox position, but he's in a position to be unorthodox. He has prestige. He is a past president of the American Economic Association, has honorary degrees from five universities, including Harvard, where he now teaches, and is widely sought as a speaker at business men's conventions.

He's sharply critical of the recent inflationary laxity of Congress: "Just as the expanding defense program is about to raise the outlays of government substantially above its income, the government has terminated the controls on installment credit and relaxed controls on real-estate credit."

Sunday Talk: More About Lincoln

Our series about the Lincoln country of Illinois was scheduled to end yesterday, but there are several items which I wish to add. While I was in Petersburg, I had several talks with Mr. Lyle Watkins, druggist and Lincoln expert. His ancestors lived in and around Petersburg while Lincoln was alive. He guided me to a cemetery, and there I saw the grave of Ann Rutledge, the young woman who Lincoln wanted to marry but who died before her time. A marker above her grave speaks of her as "beloved of Lincoln."

After she left, he found that he had charged her six cents too much, and walked three miles to her home to give the money back. The lady was pleased by his honesty, and invited him to take supper at her home. He accepted the meal. Lincoln was almost six feet and four inches tall. It would seem that the settlers in Sangamon County liked tall men. One year they elected nine members to the Illinois legislature, and they were called "the Long Nine." Their average height was six feet and one inch. A guide at Lincoln's New Salem pointed out a cabin at the spot where a cooper lived. The cooper had many shavings and other bits of wood left over from his work of making barrels. Lincoln often spent evenings in the shop, reading books by the fire while the leftover wood was burning. A flag with 24 stars flies at Lincoln's New Salem. This reminds us of the fact that there were 24 American states while Lincoln lived in the village.

Merry-Go-Round—Drew Pearson

Senator Morse Calls For Complete Investigation Of Foreign Lobbies

(Note: While Drew Pearson is on a brief vacation, the Washington Merry-Go-Round is being written by several distinguished guest columnists, today's being Sen. Wayne Morse, Republican, Oregon.)

By SENATOR WAYNE MORSE
EUGENE, Ore.—On July 6, 1952 the late Sen. Brian McMahon and I introduced in the Senate of the United States a resolution which proposed that the committee on foreign relations should make a "full and complete study and investigation for the purpose of determining (1) what attempts, if any, have been made by any individuals or groups of individuals representing the Chinese Nationalist government, the Chinese Communist government, or any other foreign government to influence the foreign policy of the United States since Dec. 7, 1941, and (2) the extent and means, including methods of financing, of any such attempts."

Repeated rumors, charges and countercharges that foreign agents representing foreign lobbies had been exercising improper and undue influences over American officials, both in the executive departments of government and the Congress had reached such widespread circulation in Washington that Senator McMahon and I decided that the American people were entitled to have the facts investigated.

Little did we realize when we introduced the resolution that we had touched upon what had become a political taboo in many circles of Washington officialdom. Judging from mysterious telephone calls, anonymous letters, and visitations which we received from some very remarkable characters, we sometimes thought we had become the innocent participants in a fantastic cloak-and-dagger game. The administration, through the Secretary of State, offered to make available any information contained in its files on foreign lobbies, if any authorized committee of the Congress asked for it. This of course was a grand gesture on the part of the administration, because, as we pointed out, the executive branch of the government has an equal and independent responsibility to check into the activities of foreign lobbies, if it has in its files any information which raises the slightest question as to the propriety of the conduct of foreign agents within the United States.

Bible Words to Live by

PSALM 118:24 — "This is the day which the Lord hath made. We will rejoice and be glad in it."

My favorite Bible verse daily gives me the strength and enthusiasm to pull what could be too heavy a load if I did not have that inspiration.

To the person who loves God, every day ought to be a red-letter day. Every day, begun with God, has a thrilling expectancy about it: what does God have ahead of me for these next hours? No matter what my circumstances, I spoil this day if I am afraid of what may come. The Lord has made this day for me. He is my great Senior Partner in this business of life, so I am never alone in it. He has invested everything that is dear to Him to make this day a thing of meaning for you and for me.

He tells me that I should not trudge alone, stooped and dragged out, trying to carry burdens that should have been laid down yesterday. He points out the futility of worrying about things that usually never happen — tomorrow. God has taken yesterday out of my hands; tomorrow is not mine until He gives it to me; today belongs to me! This is the day that God has given me.

Did you ever have the excruciating experience of having shopped long and carefully for some special gift, only to have it accepted half-heartedly? Think what we do to the heart of God when we fail to prove by our living that we are grateful for the new start He has given us in each recurring day! Let us accept today with enthusiasm.

As the gates of the heavens open into a new day, I receive it always as a very special gift from God to me!

You Might Live A Longer Life, But You Ain't Gonna Have Fun

Guy by the name of Fishbein, a doctor, no less, says that everybody could live to be 100 if they would observe a few simple rules.

First question is do you want to live to be 100, and if so, why? One reason why I'd like to stick around would be to see it rain.

Dr. F.'s formula is imperturbability, which is a big word meaning, keep your shirt on, boy. He says avoid raising your voice. Don't get angry and don't shout. Don't get crowded. Take things one at a time. Accept disturbances and annoyances as they are. Don't tear yourself apart because you are not succeeding in some given effort. Don't avoid trouble, but meet it with equanimity. Don't argue with stupidity. Walk away from arguments over trivial or futile matters.

He has some more advice, but this gives you the general idea.

Now I ask you about this Dr. F.: Has he ever had a hang nail? Has he ever witnessed the incredible imbecility of a baseball umpire? Has he ever placed a phone call to talk to Joe Dosaker, and has gotten instead some lady named Mrs. Moncompf (sounds like that) and keeps on getting the same lady for four consecutive phone attempts?

Has he ever had his auto engine die just as the light changed and have some stupe back of him sit down on the horn? Has he ever tried to get his wife up before 7 a.m.?

Has he ever gotten an estimate on how much it would cost to remodel his home—after the good woman got through with her day dreams?

Has he ever tried to find a certain pair of socks in his bureau drawer?

Has he ever lived with the water pressure in Big Spring? Has he ever turned on his faucet and watched that itchy bitsy drip?

Has he ever given a thought to that blankety-blank in the White House?

Has he ever gone with his wife to the grocery store, and paid the bill, directly, himself, lately?

Has he ever bought an appliance on the "little down, little bit a week" system.

Has he ever tried to find a contractor who "finished" a job all except a few odds and ends and promises to have a man attend to these "right away"?

Has he ever missed the last bus home by 30 seconds?

Has he ever been a private in the Army? Has he ever lived in 105-degree weather for three weeks at a stretch?

I say he hasn't. I say if he had been in some of these situations, he would know that his recipe for longevity is about as practical as shortening the day by four and three-fourths hours.

I say if you followed his pattern you would die at an extremely early age simply from having your boilers burst.

Survey Shows Union Workers Favoring Stevenson By 2-1

PRINCETON, N. J. —Despite the challenge of General Eisenhower and the Republican party, Governor Stevenson has the great bulk of the union labor vote on his side at present.

Eisenhower and Nixon have been reported as saying that the C.I.O. will not be able to swing votes of the organization's rank and file to the Illinois governor and that the G.O.P. is not ready to concede the labor vote to the Democrats.

The C.I.O.'s executive council recently recommended that its 6 million members cast their vote for the Democratic nominee, Governor Stevenson.

Results from the latest Gallup Poll survey reveal that, as of today, the Democratic party enjoys a substantial advantage among the nation's labor union members.

As one of its series of cross-country voter preference surveys, the Institute had its nation-wide corps of interviewers personally ask union members in the manual workers group this question:

"If the presidential election were being held today, which POLITICAL PARTY would you like to see win—the Republican party or the Democratic party?"

The vote of union members, or their wives, who indicated a definite preference or expressed a "leaning" toward one party is as follows:

groups in the population with a low voter turnout ratio.

Traditionally, members of the C.I.O. have been more Democratic than have members of the A.F.L.

Indications are that this continues to be the case today.

Here is the Republican percentage of the major party vote cast by C.I.O. and A.F.L. members, as measured in Institute surveys, in the last four presidential elections:

Year	PER CENT REPUBLICAN OF MAJOR PARTY VOTE IN 4 PREVIOUS PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS
	A.F.L. Members	C.I.O. Members
1948*	27%	22%
1944	31	24
1940	29	21
1936	20	15

Both presidential candidates are scheduled to speak to the A.F.L. convention in mid-September in New York and it is entirely possible that the sentiment among union workers may change.

It is expected that Eisenhower will make a strong bid for the support of organized labor and will expand his views on the controversial Taft-Hartley Act.

UNION MEMBERS ONLY

Democratic	63%
Republican	31
Undecided	6

Eliminating the undecided group, the two-party union member vote would be:

Democratic	67%
Republican	33

When the above figures are compared with the vote of labor union manual workers in the 1948 presidential election, as measured in Institute surveys, the G.O.P. has registered a gain of 7 percentage points.

Following is the Republican percentage of the major party vote cast by union members, as well as non-union labor, in the last four presidential elections:

Year	PER CENT REPUBLICAN OF MAJOR PARTY VOTE IN 4 PREVIOUS PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS
	Union Members	Non-Union Labor
1948*	26%	40%
1944	28	44
1940	28	36
1936	20	28

However encouraging this gain may be to Republican party strategists, the G.O.P. is still a long way from winning a majority of the labor union vote.

Even in the case of non-union manual workers, where Republican strength has been found to be consistently greater than among union labor, the G.O.P. still fails to achieve a majority.

The importance of the labor union vote can be seen from the fact that almost one-third of all families in America are "labor union families."

On the other hand, while they constitute one-third of the nation's families, a good many union workers in the past have not bothered to go to the polls. As a result, union members constitute one of the ROCHESTER, N. Y. —In addition to watching the scales, patrons of one market and butcher shop will have an opportunity to see a free art show.

Speed Curb Proposed

CARBONDALE, Ill. (U)—To slow down motorists several Carbondale residents proposed that their streets be graded like a roller coaster. Their formal petition to city council was taken under advisement.

Mayor John Wright commented that the same effect might be gained by allowing streets to deteriorate into ruts, making speeding impractical.

Runway Completed

MELBOURNE, Australia (U)—A Royal Australian air force construction group has finished a new 10,000-foot runway at Cocos Island, in the Indian Ocean.

The crushed coral runway is now ready for air service between Sydney and Johannesburg, South Africa, due to start in September.

they have made. Their compact little homes quite often have more comforts and conveniences than many conventional homes, and most of them feel that housekeeping is easier in a trailer than in a house or apartment.

They are unanimous in the assertion that they wouldn't trade their trailer homes for any other kind, and a visitor senses a feeling of permanency in the potted plants, figurines, pictures and other objects which they collect and use to decorate their homes.

Many of them even cultivate flower gardens in the areas around their doorways, where they entertain friends in the cool of the evening. Others erect fences to enclose play areas for the safety of their children. They have radios, electric refrigerators, air conditioners, double sinks, gas ranges, central heating, plumbing, innerspring mattresses and well-designed storage cabinets and closets. They may have picture windows, venetian blinds and door chimes, and their trailers may range up to 50 feet in length. They lack nothing the apartment dweller has except the worries of house-hunting, and when they are transferred to another city or state they can be off in a few hours time, and once they arrive they can set up housekeeping in the time it takes to connect to the utilities in another trailer park.

Once settled they enter into the activities of the community in which they park and are no different from its other residents, except, perhaps, a little more traveled.

Clean Vases Give Longer Life To Fresh Flowers

By ELIZABETH HILLIER

Vases keep their places twice as long in your decorating plans if they're kept fresh and shining. Now that they've held bouquet after bouquet all summer long, they are especially likely to need an extra dash or two of care. The best care of all is an ounce of prevention that begins when the flowers are ready for an arrangement. Strip leaves off the stems, all of them that might float under the water line in the vase. The bolder late summer flowers particularly leave rings of discoloration that can be avoided this way, and clearer water in vases not only looks nicer but is free of the leaf decay that shortens the life of cut blooms. Wash vases immediately after use with detergent, which is more effective than soap. An ammonia solution may remove stains that the detergent won't. If the stain is stubborn, try steel wool. A very fine steel wool can be used even on glass if it is lightly applied.

Just Imagine It

"We're Not Married," the comedy that opens today at the Ritz, tells of five families that were wed by a Justice of the Peace who, at the time, was not qualified to perform the ceremonies. Ginger Rogers and Fred Allen, one of the couples, star with Victor Moore.

Filmed in France

Glenn Ford and Geraldine Brooks star in "The Green Glove," the story of how a green glove is stolen from a statue in a church in southern France and how the bells of the church remain silent while the glove is missing. The movie was filmed in France and plays at the State today.

Romance On A Train

A train ride from Chicago to Los Angeles throws James Warren and Gloria Swanson together—the same bedroom, in fact—and romance is the outcome. It all takes place in "Three for Bedroom C," which opens at the State Theatre Tuesday.

Outcasts

Cameron Mitchell holds Anne Baxter and Dale Robertson at gun's point in this scene from "Outcasts of Poker Flat," playing at the Ritz Theatre beginning Tuesday. It is based on the short story of that name by Bret Harte.

Old Favorite, 'King Kong', Is Back Again

"King Kong" and "The Leopard Man," the double feature that comes to the Ritz Friday and Saturday, is a combination of fantasy-adventure and mystery-romance. Bruce Cabot and Fay Wray star in "King Kong," the story of a 50-foot ape that is fascinated by the beauty of Miss Wray. The sight of beauty leads him into battle with prehistoric monsters for her and it leads him to his doom when he tries to lay New York low, in the climactic scene of the fantastic Merian C. Cooper-Ernest B. Schoedsack production. Dennis O'Keefe and Margo star in "The Leopard Man," which appears with "King Kong." It is the story of an escaped black leopard and its use as an alibi for murder. The leopard gets loose in the night, to roam the streets of a resort town in New Mexico. Out of the darkness into which he has disappeared come feminine screams of terror. Mutilated bodies are found but no one sights the leopard. But O'Keefe, as the hero, wonders why the victim always a lovely young girl? He takes a desperate step to end the town's reign of terror—one that involves risking the life of the beautiful blonde cafe singer he loves. Based on Cornell Woolrich's "Black Alibi," Jean Brooks, James Bell, Abner Biderman and Isavel Jewell appear in the cast.

Cartoonist Frank Henry Temple Bellow, in 1852, drew the first picture of "Uncle Sam," whose original was Samuel Wilson, a U. S. Army inspector of provisions.

HIGHLIGHTS ON KBST News Commentator Honored By Legion

Paul Harvey, colorful newscaster for the ABC radio network, has been selected to receive the first annual Radio Award of the American Legion during the Legion's annual convention this week in New York City. Harvey's commentary is a daily feature on KBST. The Legion's recognition comes because of Harvey's militant Americanism and his continued interest in veterans' welfare.

TOWN MEETING
 Theodore R. McKeldin, Republican governor of Maryland, and Senator Blair Moody, Democrat of Michigan, will be speakers on America's Town Meeting of the Air this week. The program is on KBST Tuesday at 8 p.m. Their topic will be "How Can We Assure Integrity in Public Life?" Quincy Howe, associate professor of journalism at the University of Illinois, will be moderator for the discussion, to originate in New York City.

MELODY HIGHWAY
 Piano virtuoso Earl Wild, vocalist Stuart Foster and saxophonist Alfred Gallodoro will be featured soloists with the ABC Symphony Orchestra on Melody Highway. This is a Sunday feature to be heard over KBST this evening at 8:15. Milton Cross will be commentator on the program. Earl Wild will play Chopin's "Waltz in A Flat," Stuart Foster will sing "Somewhere Along the Way," by Adams, "Galway Bay," by Colahan, and "Dark Is the Night," by Brodsky. Saxophonist Alfred Gallodoro will play Chaminade's "Serenade."

Bret Harte's Popular Story Opens Tuesday

Bret Harte's famous short story, "The Outcasts of Poker Flat," comes to the Ritz Theatre for three days beginning Tuesday and stars Dale Robertson, Anne Baxter and Cameron Mitchell. Set in the lusty, violent California gold rush era, the Harte story narrates the account of four outcasts—a misguided girl, a professional gambler, the dance hall queen and the town derelict—who are expelled from the mining town of Poker Flat only to become the prisoners of a heartless murderer. Forced to rely on each other, they set about to conquer their adversary. Miss Baxter plays the wayward girl who seeks happiness in the arms of the gambler, Robertson. Billy Lynn is the drink-soaked derelict. Miami Hopkins plays the "Duchess," a bitter and resentful towards life. Mitchell enacts a pistol-whipping killer. As the four outcasts are about to seek shelter due to an approaching snow storm, they encounter two riders, a young man and a girl, who join them in abandoned old cabin. They soon find themselves stranded when Lynn accidentally stampedes all five horses into the blizzard. Included in the cast are Barbara Bates, Craig Hill and Dick Rich. "The Outcasts of Poker Flat" was produced by Julian Blaustein and directed by Joseph M. Newman.

Gloria Swanson Is Starred In 'Bedroom C'

Starring Gloria Swanson and James Warren, "Three for Bedroom C" comes to the State Theatre Tuesday and Wednesday and the story is built around a glamorous film star in a hurry to get to Hollywood. The comedy filmed aboard the Santa Fe Super Chief from Chicago to Los Angeles is in natural color. Miss Swanson helps herself to the compartment of a scientist, Warren, who proves to be a shy but handsome intellectual with little experience in the ways of the female. However, in trying to charm him out of his room, Miss Swanson winds up as much in love with him as he is with her.

COMEDY AT RITZ Problems Arise If Marriage Not Legal

Not one but five couples discover that after two years of married life they are not legally wed thanks to an over-anxious Justice of the Peace in "We're Not Married," the Twentieth-Century Fox production opening at the Ritz Theatre today. Victor Moore is the Justice of the Peace that brought about all the mixups and Ginger Rogers and Fred Allen in "Mr. and Mrs." radio team; Marilyn Monroe and David Wayne (a couple caught in the confusion of a "Mrs. America" contest) two of the couples involved. Paul Douglas and Eve Arden (a couple who relish the thought of single bliss again); Mitzi Gaynor and Eddie Bracken (who dodge the M.P.'s in a bid to make it all legal); and Zsa Zsa Gabor and Louis Calhern (sophisticates) also join in the fun when they are notified they are not legally married. Miss Rogers and Allen are the first couple that Moore marries and the story is built around them. They are supposedly the happiest pair on the air but are in reality fed up with each other. Each couple has different feelings toward each other and each ends differently. Producer-writer of the production was Nunnally Johnson and Edmund Goulding directed.

'Scandal Sheet' Dramatizes The Newspaper Biz

Broderick Crawford finds himself on the wrong side of the law in "Scandal Sheet," in which he is starred with Donna Reed and John Derek, at the Terrace Drive-In starting Tuesday. As a newspaper editor, Crawford, who has built his paper's circulation on headlines selling murder, sex and scandal, suddenly is confronted with the dark page of his own past when Rosemary DeCamp, playing his deserted wife, threatens to expose him. Crawford kills her and tries to make her death look accidental. Miss Reed, a feature writer on Crawford's paper, and Derek, ace reporter, get on the trail of the killer, though.

Real Thriller

A revival of one of moviedom's long-time favorite thrillers, "King Kong," brings the picture back here for showing at the Ritz Theatre Friday and Saturday. Fans will remember the phenomenal feats of the giant gorilla, and the thrills of his pursuit of the heroine, Fay Wray. "King Kong's" climax comes when a fleet of planes attack the beast trapped on top of the Empire State Building. The story concerns an ex-G.I. Ford, who returns to France six years after World War II, in search of a priceless jeweled gauntlet, called the Green Glove, once handed him during an air raid by a newspaperman, MacReady. MacReady is really an international art dealer who had stolen the priceless relic from an ancient church situated high in the mountains of Southern France. And since the glove was stolen, the bells in the church have been silent. Ford then decides to return the jeweled glove to the people of the church.

'Green Glove' Drama To Play At The State

A magnificent jeweled gauntlet, known as the Green Glove and dating back to the 15th Century, is stolen from an ancient church high on a mountain peak on the French Riviera and plays a dramatic part in "The Green Glove," coming to the State today. Top roles are played by Glenn Ford, Geraldine Fitzgerald, Sir Cedric Hardwicke and George MacReady. The production was filmed in Paris and Southern France, against such backgrounds as the Eiffel Tower, the Palace of Versailles, the famed Casino at Monte Carlo and the night clubs on the Riviera. The story concerns an ex-G.I. Ford, who returns to France six years after World War II, in search of a priceless jeweled gauntlet, called the Green Glove, once handed him during an air raid by a newspaperman, MacReady. MacReady is really an international art dealer who had stolen the priceless relic from an ancient church situated high in the mountains of Southern France. Prince Valiant IN THE DAYS OF KING ARTHUR by Harold R. Foster

Synopsis: PRINCE VALIANT RETURNS FROM A BUSINESS TRIP AND, IN ORDER OF IMPORTANCE, CARES FOR HIS HORSE, KISSES HIS WIFE, ROUGHS UP PRINCE ARN AND PLAYS WITH THE TWINS. THEN HE ALLOWS ALETA TO CARE FOR HIS WOUNDS.

NOW, RESTED AND RESTLESS, HE VISITS YOUNG ARN TO SEE HOW HIS HISTORY OF THULE IS PROGRESSING. "AND HOW CAN I WRITE OF YOUR DEEDS WHEN YOU GO RIDING OFF IN ALL DIRECTIONS?" COMPLAINS THE LAD. "NOW SIT DOWN AND TELL ME OF THE REGAINING OF THULE!"

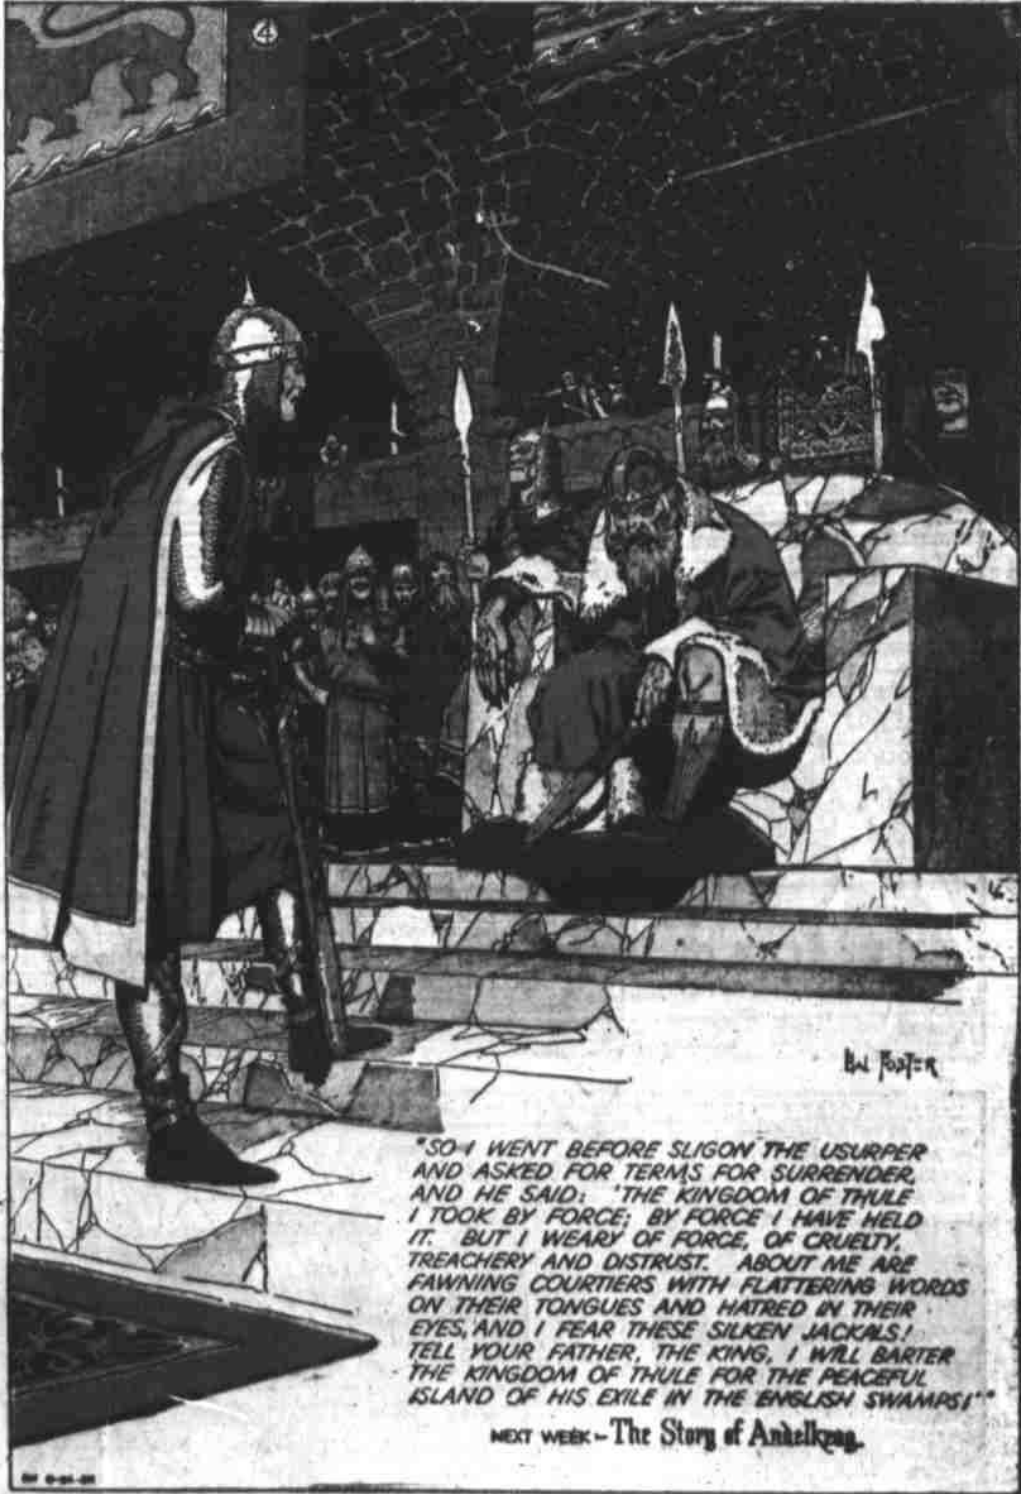

"T'WAS A SIMPLE MATTER," SAYS VAL CARELESSLY. "MY FATHER, KING AGUAR, GREW RESTLESS IN EXILE, SO WE SAILED FOR HOME."

"WE LANDED WITH BUT TWENTY WARRIORS. 'WE CONQUER OR DIE' SAID MY FATHER AS HE SET FIRE TO THE SHIP."

"WE RAISED THE BANNER OF THE CRIMSON STALLION, AND THE MEN OF THULE, WEARY OF SLIGON'S TYRANNY, FLOCKED TO THE SYMBOL OF JUSTICE!"

"SLIGON HAD WON HIS CROWN BY TREACHERY, AND HE SUED FOR PEACE AS HIS POWER MELTED AWAY BEFORE THE PROMISE OF FREEDOM."

"SO I WENT BEFORE SLIGON THE USURPER AND ASKED FOR TERMS FOR SURRENDER, AND HE SAID: 'THE KINGDOM OF THULE I TOOK BY FORCE; BY FORCE I HAVE HELD IT. BUT I WEARY OF FORCE, OF CRUELTY, TREACHERY AND DISTRUST. ABOUT ME ARE FAWNING COURTIERS WITH FLATTERING WORDS ON THEIR TONGUES AND HATRED IN THEIR EYES, AND I FEAR THESE SILKEN JACKALS! TELL YOUR FATHER, THE KING, I WILL BARTER THE KINGDOM OF THULE FOR THE PEACEFUL ISLAND OF HIS EXILE IN THE ENGLISH SWAMPS!"

TARZAN

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

TARZAN EXAMINED THE CARCASS AFTER THE FIGHT, AND WAS PUZZLED BY A BLACK, SLIMY SUBSTANCE THAT COVERED THE SHAGGY WHITE MANE. THE SURROUNDING AREA WAS DOTTED WITH POOLS OF OIL!

IMMEDIATELY HE CONCEIVED AN INGENUOUS PLAN. "THE OTHER LION MUST BE DESTROYED BEFORE YOU HAVE PEACE. COME, MY FRIENDS, LET US MAKE MANY BARRELS OF DEER HIDE!"

... LATER, THE APE-MAN AND HIS FELLOW RETURNED TO THE RICH SECTION OF OIL RESOURCE -- AND, WITH THE HELP OF A CRUDE PUMP, FILLED THEIR BARRELS.

THEN THEY CARRIED THEIR PRODUCE TO THE BANKS OF A FAST-FLOWING RIVER. "NOW," SAID TARZAN EXCITEDLY, "SOMEONE GET A FAT, LIVE GOAT FROM THE VILLAGE -- ONE THAT WILL TEMPT NUMA'S PALATE!"

WHEN THE GOAT WAS SECURED, TARZAN HAD THE NATIVES STAND BY THE BARRELS OF OIL. THEN HE CARRIED THE ANIMAL DOWNSTREAM AND JUMPED OVER TO A SMALL ISLAND.

QUICKLY, HE STAKED OUT THE BAIT FOR A NEW TRAP. "NOW, NUMA," HE MUSED, "WAIT FOR ME TO JOIN THE OTHERS -- THEN COME AND GET YOUR LAST MEAL!"
