LOOKING AFTER BUSINESS IN ROPES

Mrs. Nelma Walker was in Ropes on Tuesday of this week looking after property interests. She owns a four room modern house in north Ropes and is seeking a renter.

Mrs. Walker lives in Lubbock and while here subscribed for the Ropes Plainsman to visit her and her daughter, Mrs. Loyd McNabb, at their homes in that city.

WINDOWS BROKEN

Five windows were broken in the Junior High Building and the Shop on Friday and Saturday night, according to City Marshal Dub Riney, who investigated.

O. V. Fuller, superintendent of schools, told the Plainsman, "It seemingly was the work of youngsters. They threw rocks thourgh the windows."

GUSSIE WRIGHT

HAS OPERATION

Gussie Wright, who suffered injuries when he fell from the top of an elevator on which he was working several days ago, this past week underwent an operation on an injured ear. He is doing nicely.

SAMMY HARRIS

SAMMY HARRIS HAS THE MEASLES

Sammy Joe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Harris, is numbered among the ill this week. He is suffering from the measles.

VISITORS IN THE PLAINSMAN OFFICE

The grandaughters of the Troy Morris' visited here a short time Saturday. They were Winona and Darlene Shanklin of Lubbock, and were accompanied by Clayton Minter of Lubbock, and Dennis Simons of Wolfforth. The latter is a Navy "boy" and will soon be stationed in Hawaii.

Club Meets

The Ropesville Garden Club met Wednesday, November 8th, in the home of Mrs. W. W. Jones. The house was called to order by the president, Mrs. O. V. Fuller.

Mrs. L. S. Rosser, secretary, gave the roll call which was answered with, "What I have to be thankful for."

The president read an invitation from the Progressive Garden Club at Levelland to a showing of Christmas designs for 1961 by Bill Huffaker, of the College Avenue Floral, which will be held in the cafeteria of the South Plains College Tuesday, November 28, at 1:30 p.m.

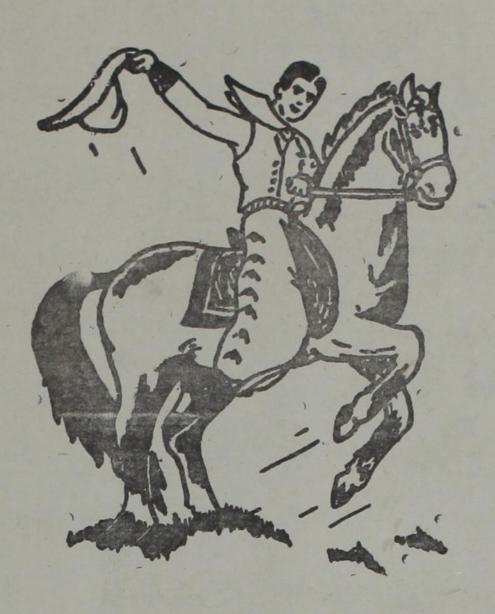

It was decided to have a Christmas meeting at Mrs. A. M. Armstrong's December 20. We will have Golden Agers as guests and will make a tour of homes to judge the Christmas decorations and arrangements. We are interested in getting invitations to homes at this time. Please call Mrs. O. V. Fuller, or any club member.

Mrs. Earl Gardner, of Sundown, was a guest and showed slides of her yard and flowers which were lovely. Also, slides were shown of Billiograph Gardens in Mobile, Alabama; Antibellium Home of Natchez, Miss. She had visited these places and the slides were very beautiful and entertaining. She also discussed growth and disbudding chrysanthemums. It was very interesting and enjoyed by all.

Refreshments were served to Mmes. K. P. Shannon, O. V. Fuller, L. S. Rosser, Jesse Young, A. M. Armstrong, Bob Thomas, J. W. Berry, Nell Smithee, Garner, J. C. Armstrong, and the hostess, Mrs. Jones. — Reporter.

GRANDCHILDREN VISIT

Mickey, Joe David and Clayton Dean, children of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Stephenson of Fort Worth, spent several days this past week in the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Stephenson.

Their mother was enroute to Seagraves to attend the funeral of a nephew, Sevie Huntley, who was killed when an automobile struck him north of Anton.

Church of the Nazarene

Dan D. Jones, Pastor We continue to have our regular services:

Sunday School 9:45 a.m

Morning worship 11:90

NYPS, Juniors 6:30

Evening Service 7:00

Wed. Evening Serv.

Come worship with us at the church where you are always welcome.

Have Visitors

Rev. and Mrs. Dan Jones had as their visitors during part of the weekend their son, Dan, wife, Jennie and Patricia, from Houston. They came in a plane with a friend, and attended the Texas Tech Homecoming game.

On returning home Sunday they flew to Austin, and went on to Houston by car because of low ceiling.
