

Pilots Destroy Red Jets; Old Baldy Retaken

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — The U. S. Fifth Air Force said United Nations pilots shot down three Communist jets and damaged two over North Korea today as clearing weather brought renewed intensity to the war.

The U. S. Eighth Army said bayonet-wielding Allied infantrymen recaptured the crest of Old Baldy Hill in a bloody eight-hour fight on the Western Front.

The Russian-made MIG-15 jets were shot down in the first all-jet battle since July 23. Planes from a flight of 32 U. S. Sabre jets battled elements of more than 60 MIGs for more than 10 minutes near the Korea-Manchuria border.

Milo Farnell reported from the front that Allied fighter bombers swooped in on Chinese positions all morning. A frontline officer said Chinese sniper and mortar fire hampered evacuation of Allied dead and wounded.

U. N. soldiers took advantage of the light from a half-moon to break the Reds' hold on the hill which has been the object of bitter fighting for a month.

To preserve the element of surprise, Allied big guns held their fire until the foot soldiers began clawing their way up the slippery slopes from two directions.

This Performance Not Rehearsed

Here is Hoyt Hefner in action and the bull is in action, too. None of these performances are ever rehearsed, and every time a clown and a bull meet something different is going to happen. Clowning is one of the most dangerous of all rodeo professions, and no man is more essential to the success of the show. He entertains the crowds and he keeps the bullriders from harm while at the same time putting his own life in danger. The clown is one of the greatest specialists in the world.

Riding THE GRUB LINE With Franklin Reynolds

The clown or bullfighter is one of the most important men in the rodeo arena, and during the Big Spring Cowboy Reunion Rodeo, at 8 p.m. the evenings of August 6-7-8-9 the people of this area are going to have an opportunity to see the king of rodeo clowns in action. He is Hoyt Hefner, an old-timer, who has faced no telling how many mad Brahma bulls in the arena. He has had his share of spills, too, but has lived to tell the story. A strange thing about Brahma bulls is that they can be the gentlest cattle on earth or the most viciously dangerous and with the exception of the Grizzly Bear there probably isn't a more dangerous animal on the North American continent than an infuriated bull. Bulls of the dairy breeds are sometimes among the dangerous of all bulls, but rarely is one of them found that can top the Brahma on the prod. And other characteristics that make the Brahma more dangerous than other bulls are their running speed and their quickness of foot. The Brahma is a much faster bull in stopping and turning than bulls of nearly any other breed unless it be the old-fashioned Longhorn.

wouldn't do so well riding the bull and certainly average the bull-rider is far from being able to fend for himself once he is on foot and the bull attacks. Hence the clown or bullfighter is more the life saver than a comedian to entertain the crowd. His foot work must be faster than that of the bull, and he must understand the bull's way of thinking well enough to outguess the bull in figuring on just what the animal will do next. Moreover, he must be a man of monumental courage, because in a split second of weakness, or in making a bad guess, or even a partly bad guess he is likely to become the victim of a ton of aroused Brahma bone and flesh and blood. Some of the breeders of fine Brahmas who raise bulls for herd improvement and for crossbreeding for beef production have built into a pen of which a small child may wander without fear of harm. In India, the native home of these cattle, they are used for beasts of burden and for milk production as well as for beef, and are among the gentlest of all animals. But in the rodeo arena it is a different story. Registered Brahma breeders would rather see Guernsey and Jersey bulls used in the arena for bull riding. They feel that a greater number of different bulls than a man could handle in a lifetime, and he faces them alone unless with a companion clown. At the same time the Brahma bull is far more unpredictable in his performance than the Spanish fighting bull, but equally as vicious when aroused and because of his fast foot work and weight more formidable. Bull riding would be more than twice as hazardous without the clown and the clown isn't likely to let a Brahma outguess him more than once. Hoyt Hefner who has faced thousands of these bulls always turns in a superb performance that alone is worth the admission price. At the same time the spectator shouldn't judge all Brahma bulls by those seen in the rodeo arenas. To do so is to be unfair to the males of a great family of cattle.

Stevenson may Reveal Purpose Of Conference

By ROGER LANE
SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (U.P.)—Gov. Adlai Stevenson may reveal today the significance of his lengthy conference with Wilson Wyatt, former federal housing expediter. The Democratic presidential nominee conferred with Wyatt throughout yesterday afternoon and evening—with only one major interruption. Some political sources have reported Wyatt may play an important role in the Democratic national campaign—that Stevenson may be considering him as a possible successor to Frank McKinney, Democratic National Committee chairman. Stevenson's office did not immediately comment on the reports. William I. Flanagan, the governor's press secretary, said the mystery of the Stevenson-Wyatt meetings probably would be cleared up today, after the two meet for an early-morning conference.

Wyatt hunched with Stevenson yesterday in the Illinois executive mansion. They then went to the governor's office for discussions that were interrupted for about an hour while Stevenson met with Sen. Kerr (D-Okla.). Kerr was a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination. Stevenson and Wyatt dined together last evening, then continued their conferences. Wyatt, former mayor of Louisville, Ky., and national housing expediter in 1946-47, spent the night at the executive mansion. The Stevenson-Wyatt friendship began when both were holding federal administrative posts in Washington. Kerr told newsmen he and Stevenson had "a little pep meeting for the Democratic cause and a little memorial meeting for the Republican cause."

He said the agriculture plank of the Democratic platform had been discussed but declined to go into detail. In reply to a question, he said he didn't consider himself an advisor to Stevenson on farm problems or on anything else.

Smith said he told her to think of the other two, and asked her if he could hold her hand for a minute. "Then a fireman came up and helped, because I couldn't hold her alone," he said.

Small Plants Will Get More Contracts
WASHINGTON, Aug. 1 (U.P.)—The Small Defense Plants Administration has worked out an agreement with the armed forces to increase defense contracts going to small manufacturers.

Following the lead of the Navy and Air Force, the Army Department yesterday agreed to co-operate with SDPA specialists in earmarking certain military orders exclusively for small companies.

The Air Force entered the program in April, but the other services delayed until, early this month, the SDPA administrator complained to President Truman.

The tardiness of the Army and Navy, he said, was a "serious obstacle" to achievement of the congressional mandate that a fair share of government contracts be awarded to small concerns. The Navy announced its co-operation a week ago.

THINKS IKE STRONG Sen. Long Pledges His Support To Regular Democratic Ticket

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON
WASHINGTON (U.P.)—Sen. Russell B. Long of Louisiana today pledged his support for the regular Democratic presidential ticket today but said Republican nominee Dwight D. Eisenhower could crack the Solid South. "I like that (Democratic) ticket and I'm going to be for it," Long told a reporter. Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois and Sen. John Sparkman of Alabama head the ticket as nominees for President and vice president. Asked if Eisenhower might crack the South, Long said:

"I think that Eisenhower stands a very good chance in several Southern states." He refused to list them. Long was the second Dixie senator to announce for the Stevenson-Sparkman ticket. Sen. A. Willis Robertson of Virginia announced yesterday that he will "vote the straight Democratic ticket next November"—but was critical of the present administration. Robertson contended that the new platform civil rights stand "is less threatening to the Southern viewpoint than the 1948 plank."

He added that Sparkman "felt so strongly about the Southern position on civil rights legislation that he bolted the national ticket in 1948." In a separate interview, Sparkman quickly explained: "Technically, I did not bolt." As a Senate candidate in 1948, Sparkman said he was pledged to support Alabama presidential electors who later joined in the States' Rights bolt. This gave him no chance as an Alabama Democrat to vote for Truman, he said, adding that in 1950 "I led a fight to restore party loyalty in Alabama."

Harry F. Byrd, senior senator and regarded as Virginia's most influential Democrat, usually trends the same political path as Robertson. But after Robertson's statement, Byrd quickly announced he was taking no stand on either presidential candidate at this time. Long's promise of support for Stevenson and Sparkman was in line with his move at Chicago when he refused to join other Louisiana delegates in a walkout. Putting his political future at stake, Long, who is the youngest senator—he will be 34 Nov. 3—announced he would stay in the convention even if he were the lone Louisiana delegate. ## Medal Winner Is Still Hero

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—A Congressional Medal of Honor winner proved yesterday he was still a hero by risking his life to save a grief-stricken young mother from the ledge of a six-story building. Mrs. Lucille Womble, 21, mother of two small children and despondent over the death of a third last week from pneumonia and heatstroke, had climbed to the ledge of the downtown YWCA Building. Maynard H. "Snuffy" Smith, who during World War II fought a single-handed battle over the English Channel to save a burned-out bomber, saw her and inched his way along the ledge as a crowd watched tensely below. He said later she screamed at him that she didn't want to live, that she had just lost her 5-month-old child.

Smith said he told her to think of the other two, and asked her if he could hold her hand for a minute. "Then a fireman came up and helped, because I couldn't hold her alone," he said.

IN TENNESSEE Wall Street Takes Machine, Reds Say

By EDWARD E. BOMAR
WASHINGTON (AP)—The word from Moscow is that Wall Street has taken over the "Tennessee politics given in a Moscow radio up the money to buy governors, mayors and congressmen."
A Soviet version of Tennessee politics given in a Moscow radio broadcast recorded by United States official monitors said that Memphis Boss Ed Crump runs the whole show for the Mellons and Rockefeller.
The description came from Vladimir Morev, a one-time Soviet news correspondent in the United States, who recently has been giving Russians his version of conditions in various American cities and states.
Dismissing the idea of democracy in American politics as a "demagogic lie," the Russian writer gave this account of how the "machine" buys votes and then sees that they stay bought:
"Money flows in a wide stream into the machine's coffers and into the pockets of its bosses from the funds of Rockefeller and Mellon monopolies, railway companies, and individual industrial magnates. With this money, votes are purchased which elect the men needed by these monopolies such as governors, mayors, and congressmen."
"On election day in the town of . . . for instance, the local sheriff sits in the school in the room facing the polling booth. Before him is a pile of filled-out voting forms and another of dollar bills."
"The elector receives one of the former and several dollars and then goes across to the official polling booth where he is handed another, clean voting paper."
"Having sold his vote, the elector drops into the ballot box the form he has received from the sheriff and takes back to him the clean form he has received. Woe to the elector who fails to do this!"
"In another part of the town, in the local courtroom sits the sheriff's wife, protected by his brother and other members of his family armed with revolvers. They see to it that no elector, having sold his vote, tries to deceive them."
Morev said the Crump regime holds back vote totals in Shelby County so figures can be manipulated to control state election results.

O'Dwyer Hits Discrimination

MATAMOROS, Mex., Aug. 1 (AP)—A blistering attack against racial discrimination was leveled here last night by William O'Dwyer, U. S. ambassador to Mexico.
Speaking in Spanish before a group of Mexican newspapermen, O'Dwyer urged them to "join a crusade of two brotherly peoples against the roots of discrimination."
O'Dwyer spoke at a meeting of the "united American newspapermen," an organization of co-operating Mexican provincial newspapermen.
Of discrimination, the ambassador said:
"I think we should confront the problem and condemn it, imitating the example of all great thinkers, Jesus, Buddha, the renaissance humanists, Thomas Aquinas and Locke were among those who fought discrimination."
O'Dwyer reviewed joint programs of the U. S. and Mexico aimed at discrimination.
For example, Texas is a place "where two institutions backed by the government are fighting: The Council of Human Relations and the Good Neighbor Commission," he said.
"Discrimination is a leprosy which threatens the bonds of democratic institutions," O'Dwyer declared. "It must not be hidden. It must be stripped and thrown naked before the light of truth, knowledge and understanding. In this, you newspapermen can take an active part in the fight."

Autos Leading In Credit Purchases

WASHINGTON (AP)—The lifting of controls on installment buying last May 7 has pushed credit business to a new high. The biggest time payment boom was in autos.
The Federal Reserve Board announced yesterday that installment buying during June jumped 593 million dollars on top of a 447 million rise in May.
The total debt of installment buyers on June 30 stood at $13,767,000,000, better than the previous record of $13,510,000,000 set during the heavy Christmas buying last December.
The big rush for automobiles was attributed to fear that the steel strike would make new cars hard to get for a long time.
The installment buying plus a 50 million dollar rise in non-installment credit brought overall consumer credit to $20,238,000,000. Only last December's record of $20,644,000,000 was higher.

Over 5,000 Aliens Taken In Round Up

McALLEN, Aug. 1 (AP)—More than 5,000 Mexican aliens were rounded up in this vicinity during the last two days.
Most of the aliens were illegal entrants into the U. S. About 2,500 were taken into custody yesterday and about 2,000 were rounded up Wednesday.
All the webbacks, illegal aliens, were to be returned to Mexico.

Ike Maps Plans For A White House Bid

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
DENVER (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower meets today with his campaign high command to map plans for his White House bid and perhaps decide the role of a citizens' group seeking a major assignment.
In advance of the closed session, the Republican presidential nominee was reported to be determined to give the national Citizens for Eisenhower Committee an important place in the campaign organization.
The question was, just how to do it without causing friction between the professional politicians—the regular Republican organizations around the country—and the self-described amateurs of the citizens group.
That matter, however, was only one phase of the discussions scheduled to continue over the week end. Issues, campaign itinerary and general strategy also were on the docket.
Those called to the huddle by the general include his running mate, Sen. Richard Nixon of California, and the new chairman of the GOP National Committee, Arthur E. Summerfield, who also will manage Eisenhower's campaign.
Among others on hand for the first big policy conference since Eisenhower was nominated are Gov. Sherman Adams of New Hampshire, the general's political chief of staff, and Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, who managed the general's campaign for the nomination. Lodge, seeking re-election to the Senate, has given up his more active role to head the campaign Advisory Committee.
Expected tonight is Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, chairman of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee. At the GOP National Convention, Dirksen sharply criticized Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York—a key Eisenhower supporter—and placed in nomination the name of Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, the general's chief rival.
Two days ago Summerfield named Dirksen to an Eisenhower strategy board in an obvious move to close party ranks behind the general.
Taft himself is vacationing in Canada but has promised Eisenhower wholehearted co-operation in the campaign.
Present for today's session were Walter Williams of Seattle and Mrs. Oswald B. Lord of New York, co-chairmen of the Eisenhower Citizens Committee—a group which played a leading part in winning the nomination for the general.
Williams and Mrs. Lord asked Eisenhower yesterday to give the citizens group the job of rallying to his support 10 million more voters than now are enrolled as Republicans. They said the recruits are needed if the general is to win in November.
The committee's leaders also asked the general to give the citizens group independent status, although they proposed "a working relationship" with the GOP National Committee.
Eisenhower advisers reportedly are divided on whether the Citizens Committee should have independent status.
Jack Porter, the new GOP national committeeman from Texas, predicted Eisenhower will carry the Lone Star state against the Democratic presidential nominee, Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois. Porter, leader of the pro-Eisenhower Texas delegation at the national convention, said after a conference with the general that Texas Republicans are organizing in his behalf "right down to the precinct and block levels."

Federal Reserve Report Bright

DALLAS, Aug. 1 (AP)—One of the most optimistic and brightest monthly reports of the 11th Federal Reserve District has just been released.
The five-state area, the report says, enjoyed its best department store sales in history during June, the third consecutive month to establish such a record.
Sales in the first three weeks of July were 12 per cent over year-ago figures, the bank said. Total sales in the first six months of 1952 were 5 per cent higher than for the same period last year.
The review also noted that average daily oil production was lower than in any of the previous 37 months except May. But it added: "A substantial increase in Texas allowances for August, however, foreshadows a rise in production."
In painting a bright picture for agriculture, the review said the five states of the district are growing 5 per cent more acreage than was harvested in 1951. Acre yields at present, the bank added, appear good with most crops expected to show production gains in 1952.
An exception, however, was cotton. Cotton acreage was reported down 9 per cent, against a national decline of 7 per cent.
Range and pasture feed supplies were reduced further by dry, hot weather during July, the review said, but added that rains past mid-month helped in many sections.
Increases were shown in loans, investments and deposits of the weekly reporting member banks. Total deposits were about 49 million dollars larger during the five weeks ended July 23. Loans outstanding rose 25 million dollars and investment holdings were up around 120 million dollars.

Price Charged With Price Violations

HOUSTON, Aug. 1 (AP)—The Office of Price Stabilization yesterday charged the Best Fertilizer Company of California with charging higher than ceiling prices.
In a suit filed in the federal district clerk's office OPS sought to recover $1,065,908 in triple damages and asked an injunction restraining Best from further alleged OPS ceiling price violation.
The company produces synthetic sulphate of ammonia. Officials of the firm were not available for comment.

Fire Spreads From Trash To Trailer

Fire which spread from a pile of burning trash damaged a trailer and a few bottle cases at the Dr. Pepper Bottling Company, 1005 W. 3rd, Thursday afternoon.
The blaze was roaring up the side of the building when Police Chief E. W. York and Patrolman M. L. Kirby turned in the fire alarm. The officers were passing and noticed the fire. Three units of fire fighting equipment rushed to the scene to extinguish the blaze.

Many Thanks To You

Official returns have confirmed that voters of Precinct No. 3 put me in the run-off. I appreciate the clean vigorous race of my opponents, just I appreciate the fine vote I received. I am hopeful that those whose first choice was another of my opponents will now make me their choice, and that friends who did not vote in the first primary will go to the polls Aug. 23. I will be thankful for every support toward me.

Texas Still Leads Nation In Number Of Polio Cases

By The Associated Press
Faced by hard-hit Harris County, Texas led the nation Friday in 1952 polio cases, far ahead of second-place Ohio.
Sorrow, tragedy, heartbreak and death followed in the wide path the crippling disease cut across the state.
Dallas and Waco reported deaths Thursday. At Dallas it was little three-year-old Martin Rowland of Pleasant Grove. In Waco it was David Davis, 16, of McGregor.
Four new polio cases reported from Houston, four new Harris County cases and two non-resident cases being treated in Houston shot the totals there to 310 city cases and 11 deaths this year, 197 county cases and seven deaths, and 175 out-of-county cases and eight deaths.
The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis reported that Texas led the states in number of victims last week with 259 new cases, compared with only 91 during a similar period a year ago.
Nearest to Texas was Ohio with 179 cases.
The 19-year-old mother of three children, Mrs. Evelyn Lankston, was the fifth case of polio in Wichita Falls this week. She was admitted to the isolation ward at Wichita General Hospital Thursday.
No deaths from polio have been reported this year in Wichita Falls. About 29 cases have been treated this summer at Wichita General Hospital, where officials said Thursday they were not overcrowded.
The Rowland child was the eighth Dallas County death from the disease during July. Three other persons from outside Dallas County died of polio in Dallas during the month.
Thursday's admission of three girls and one boy to Parkland Hospital's polio ward at Dallas pushed the Dallas County case total for July to 103, far ahead of any previous month in history. The girls were from Farmersville and the East Dallas and Oak Cliff sections of the city. The boy was from Dallas' Oak Lawn section.

Total cases for the year stood at 199 as Dallas County's worst polio month ended.

A Bible Thought For Today—

It is wrong to make the whole the principal actor in the tale of Jonah. The essential teaching is that God is not a tribal God but an universal one, loving Assyrians as well as Jews. Do not miss the point. "The men of Nineveh . . . repented at the preaching of Jonas." — Matt. 12:41.

Diversion Of Revenues On Paid Out Jobs To New Ones Is Questionable

The American Automobile Association has reaffirmed a policy statement it first issued in 1930, in which it urges that "whenever toll bridges are necessary, they should be financed from public bond issues and shall remain as toll bridges only so long as may be necessary to defray the cost of construction."

The manner in which the new 7.73-mile Chesapeake Bay Bridge between Annapolis and Stevensville, opened to traffic Wednesday, was financed clearly clashes with this view. It was financed by toll revenue bonds bearing interest of 2.5 and 3.2 per cent, but that is only part of the story. To help pay for the bridge, tolls from other Maryland bridges across the Susquehanna and Potomac Rivers will be pooled and applied to paying off the debt on the new giant. Excess toll revenues from these other bridges, which have already been amortized, in the amount of $3,466,000 were paid into the construction fund of the new Bay bridge. In other words, people who paid tolls and retired the cost of the other bridges are now helping to pay for the new bridge.

New York's Port Authority, which operates tunnels and bridge facilities between New York and New Jersey, indulges in this same questionable practice, using the toll surpluses on these facilities to plan and pay for entirely different new projects. The same situation is found in Connecticut.

This is one painless way of creating new trafficways, all right, but the effect is to burden motorists and other highway users in a roundabout but nonetheless less painful manner. Habitual toll-payers on one bridge or highway should not be held responsible for paying the cost of similar but possibly remote projects of like nature.

This diversion of revenues to other purposes than intended is encountered in many guises. Much of the revenue from Texas' gasoline tax is diverted to other uses, though motorists pay it all. Revenues from Abilene's water and sewer departments were diverted for years to other uses, but that is now illegal under a new charter provision.

Recognizing Good Drivers Fine, But Why Not Penalize Bad Ones?

There are various privately-supported gimmicks for rewarding good auto, truck and bus drivers, usually consisting of a medal and scroll. Anybody who can operate a motor vehicle for 100,000 miles, or for ten years or more, without an accident is entitled to recognition and should have it.

The reverse side of this pleasant custom is a system of demerits whereby an accident-prone driver is deprived of the privilege of driving when he accumulates more than the specified number of demerits.

New Jersey has such a law. The other day a young driver in one spurge used up all his allowable demerits and had his driving license snatched. He drove through a red light in Jersey City at 60 m.p.h., failed to heed the warning of a cop, and kept on going. The cop gave chase, overtook the driver after awhile, but had to fire six bullets into the man's tires before he would stop. The fellow claimed he was listening to the radio and hadn't heard either the whistle or the shots.

That availed him nothing, however. By the time his demerits for this episode in reckless driving were totted up, they numbered thirteen, whereas the law's limit is 12.

So his driving license was taken away for three years, and when he recovers it at the end of 36 months it will be printed on a red card, signifying that he is a driver to be watched.

This is pretty drastic, all right, but what can be said in defense of a driver who drives through a red light at sixty miles an hour, then refuses to stop when the cop whistles him down, has to be chased and finally is brought to heel by shooting off his tires?

Our attitude toward the reckless driver is entirely too soft. Nobody has the right to endanger the lives and property of other people by making a race track out of our streets and highways. New Jersey has hit upon a sensible way to curb such people. They are allowed to write their own ticket by their deeds. If their deeds pile up enough demerits, they get scotched.

Daughter Of Teddy Roosevelt Finally Jumps Off Taft Wagon

WASHINGTON—Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth, daughter of Teddy and one of the rulers of Washington society, is either getting benign or else has fallen for the Eisenhower charm.

After Wilkie was nominated, Alice remarked, "He springs from the grass-roots of the country clubs of America."

After Dewey was nominated, she cracked: "How can you vote for a man who looks like a bridegroom on a wedding cake?"

Both men had defeated Mrs. Longworth's close friend, Bob Taft. But of the man who defeated Taft for the third time, Alice is more tolerant.

"Naturally, I am sorry that Bob didn't make it," she tells friends. "But that's the way it was and I am willing to accept it."

She admitted that she watched the Eisenhower demonstration. "But," she added, "conventions aren't what they used to be. Television is spoiling them."

Summerfield, also showed that at least one prominent Michigan Congressman was in Summerfield's corner.

In the end, it will be recalled that Summerfield switched Michigan's big block of votes to Eisenhower, despite the fact that at the Michigan state convention he had worked to block Eisenhower.

NOTE—Summerfield has already been rewarded by appointment as GOP National Chairman. It will be interesting to see whether he gets the selection of a man for Secretary of the Treasury too.

While Governor Stevenson was hanging back on the Chicago draft, his sons were doing their best to push the draft.

One day, youngest son John Fell Stevenson turned up at the draft-Stevenson headquarters at the Hilton Hotel wearing a "we need Adlai badly" button as big as a flying saucer. Immediately Dr. Walter Johnson, University of Chicago professor who masterminded the draft, grabbed him by the arm, pulled him into a room, and told him that if he wanted to upset the draft this was the best way to do it. Young Stevenson departed.

Shortly thereafter, second son Borden Stevenson with some young friends, arrived, all wearing Stevenson buttons. This time, Johnson took them to the back stairs of the hotel and walked them most of the way to the ground floor, for fear they would be seen by the press.

"Can't we even come into the hotel?" asked one of the boys.

"Only if you go to Harrison or Russell headquarters," replied Johnson. "And only if you take off those buttons."

He knew that if the newspapers showed the Stevenson boys as part of the draft movement, either the public would think it was a phony draft, or the governor would get mad and call the whole thing off.

Though the Democrats probably got more publicity focused on their hectic backstage wire-pulling than the Republicans, some of the latter's deals are just coming to the surface.

One of them, sure to be denied, sheds light on why Arthur Summerfield of Michigan, long a vigorous Taft supporter, switched over to Eisenhower. Summerfield, a Chevrolet dealer, was under heavy pressure from General Motors to switch. But there was more to it than that—according to the story told by Summerfield's close friend, Congressman Jesse Wolcott of Michigan.

Wolcott says that during the GOP discussion over seating the Southern delegates, he got a frantic phone call from Summerfield to come to Chicago immediately.

Arriving in Chicago, Summerfield told him he was being pressured by Tom Coleman, GOP leader in Wisconsin and Taft's floor manager, to back Taft. He was also under pressure from Senator Ferguson and Congressman Schaefer of Michigan, likewise vigorous Taft boosters.

On the other hand, General Motors, for whom he operated a dealership, demanded that he support Eisenhower.

Therefore, he asked Wolcott to act as a buffer—a sort of mediator in deciding the seating of the Southern delegates.

He also told Wolcott that, in return for supporting Ike, he had been promised the right to fill one spot in the Eisenhower cabinet, and he had chosen the Treasury Department. His choice for Secretary of the Treasury, he said, would be Congressman Wolcott.

In relating this to friends, Wolcott has said that he did not feel qualified to be Secretary of the Treasury, though he was glad to help Summerfield out, and did so.

His help came when Summerfield, after listening to the Georgia delegates present their case, remarked that he wanted his friend Congressman Wolcott to pass on the merits of the matter. Whereupon Wolcott recommended a vote with the Eisenhower group. This helped to take the heat off

The inside story of the bogged-down Korean truce talks is that we have been impaled on our own figures—figures that we issued boastfully at the time we were capturing Communists and wanted to impress the enemy.

We announced to the world last December, for instance, that we held 20,000 Chinese. But now we have told the truce negotiators that all we can turn back is 6,400. This is chiefly because the balance of the Chinese don't want to go back.

With North Korean prisoners, however, some of our Army people padded the figures by including some South Korean refugees with the North Korean prisoners. Now, having announced them, they are stuck with those figures. The Reds won't believe anything else.

Though an impression got out through the press that we were only 9,000 prisoners apart in reaching an agreement, this is not exactly true.

At the start of the talks, we estimated that about 10,000 prisoners could be returned. After careful screening, however, we said only 12,000 could go back.

Candidates Of Both Parties Content To Travel Down Middle Of The Road

WASHINGTON (AP)—This is the year when the middle of the road seems cozy. The politicians indicated they thought so when they picked Gen. Eisenhower and Gov. Stevenson.

The arguments this year between the parties and the candidates will be over government expenses and corruption, the handling of foreign policy, and other issues which the politicians will have no trouble dredging up.

But the voters, not in peril now, will not have to choose between a stand-patter and a man with a gleam in his eye and a key to issues which the politicians will the promised land.

Both are middle-of-the-roads. The general is a little to the right of the governor, Stevenson, apparently, is a little to the right of President Truman. Neither man is an apostle of change, socially or economically. Although both are internationalists, that's usual now, not radical.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1 (AP)—There is always one day when no one on the office staff calls in sick. That is the day the ghost walks—payday.

It is a touching tribute to the durability of the average worker that, no matter how restless a bed of pain he has lain in all week, he will rise from it on payday and trudge into the office to get his paycheck.

That is one day he simply refuses to let the boss down.

Payday is a great American institution, and eternity is regarded by most citizens as "that vague, endless period of enforced hibernation between paydays."

All horses may approach their oats in much the same manner. But the characters in the ordinary office react to their rewards in different ways. You will probably recognize some of the following payday characters in your office:

1. The nervous Nellie—"What happened?" "They should have passed out the checks half an hour ago," she mumbles. "Do you think the firm has failed?"
2. The conveyor belt—the office has been mailing his check home for years. "Pay days don't mean anything to me," he whines. "My wife won't even tell me how much I'm making."
3. The human leech—as each fellow employee comes up from the bank after cashing his check, he borrows from $1 to $5 from each and says, "Don't worry—I'm putting it down in my 'little black book I won't forget.'" When he re-appears five years later, the man who starts figuring—how long is it until the next payday?
4. The coward—instead of cash-ing his check, he sneaks into the men's room and hides it between his sock and the sole of his foot, so no one can rob him.

5. The conscience-stricken vasal—in 1937 the bookkeeping department added $2 to his check by mistake, and has been making the same error ever since. He suffers the tortures of the damned as he fears they have found his blunder and will make him pay up.

6. The glib blade—he starts writing checks to his books, checks the stenographer under her chin and asks her for a date, and comes back from lunch smoking a foot-long cigar and smelling like an empty martini glass.

7. The anarchist—he stares at his paycheck moodily and grumbles, "another insult. How long are we going to put up with it?"

8. The spinster secretary—this romantic old maid blushes dreamily as she wonders what else she can buy for her hope chest, the contents of which now overflow three warehouses.

9. The I-remember-when philosopher—looks at the figures on his check and breaks out crying, "If I only got this when money was money," he sobs.

10. The lonely boss—he walks out into the office feeling proud he has managed to meet another payroll, and he is a little hurt because no one claps him on the back and says gratefully, "Chief, you've done it again!"

By nightfall the office elation is gone, and as they all depart each one looks at the calendar and starts figuring—how long is it until the next payday?

They can't wait until the ghost walks again—and they only wish he would break into a run.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A top Republican money expert says taxes can be cut safely if there is no all-out war.

Rep. Daniel Reed of New York, who is in line to become chairman of the tax-handling House Ways and Means Committee if the Republicans dominate the next Congress, said in a statement yesterday (taxes can be cut—but Democrats "won't do it

Jet Would Have Caused Stir Once Like Saucers Do Today

The opinions contained in this and other articles in this column are solely those of the writers who sign them. They are not to be interpreted as necessarily reflecting the opinions of The Herald—Editor's Note.

Somewhere on the radio says they are campaign buttons flung high in the air by losers at political conventions.

Hal Boyle, the Associated Press columnist suspects that Tom Swift has come up with a new invention after all these years of inactivity.

The Air Force says some of them are simply ice crystals high in the sky which register on radar.

Others, the Air Force says, may be nothing at all but conflicting layers of warm and cold air, which also make their presence known when caught in the focus of radar.

Somewhere else has said that strange objects at this season of the year should not cause surprise, it being rodeo season—cowboys and others are sighting a lot of bull around these days.

Meanwhile, many flying saucers are being reported all the way from Garden City to Washington, and it's fairly well established that most of the people making such reports actually are seeing things.

Those who have not been fortunate enough to witness one of the modern saucers often can remember times when other strange sights were observed flitting through air.

I've seen a few 'falling stars' and meteors myself, but never a flying saucer. But I've been told that my grandfather saw one many years ago.

He didn't call it a flying saucer, of course, since that modern term had not worked itself into the country's vocabulary. But he saw a strange sight in the air, and forthwith predicted that the time was not too far removed when the Bible's prophecy about men flying through the air would come to pass. He lived to see some of the first crude air planes, but certainly never suspected that aviation would develop to its present status.

If he had glimpsed one of the modern jets, or one of the mammoth B-36s in flight, his imagination might have been taxed to a far greater extent than flying saucers carry our speculation today.

Gallup Poll

Democrats Have Advantages At Start Of Big Campaign

PRINCETON, N. J., July 31 — This week, throughout the country, interviewers for the Institute are polling the presidential preferences of the nation in one of the most exciting political contests of the century.

The polling will be repeated at approximately weekly intervals up to two days before the election. More than 1,200 interviews will be used to conduct these vital tests of popular attitudes toward General Eisenhower and Governor Stevenson and their respective parties.

While the interviewing is in progress, latest poll figures on party strength point to the problem facing General Eisenhower in his attempt to unseat the Democrats after their 20 years in power.

Although he starts the campaign far better known to the public than Stevenson is, these two facts remain:

- 1—The Republicans are the minority party.
- 2—To the extent that self-interest, or the "pocketbook nerve," governs the attitude of voters, the Democrats have an advantage at the outset.

More people say the Democratic party is best for their interests than say the Republican party is.

Just prior to the Democratic convention, Institute interviewers put two questions to a cross-section of the nation's voters. The first was:

"In politics, as of today, do you consider yourself a Republican, Democrat or Independent?"

When compared with the vote in a similar survey in March, results show that all the campaigning and politicking that went on this spring and early summer caused little change in basic party loyalty. Here are the latest figures:

41% regard themselves as Democrats.
34% regard themselves as Republicans.
25% regard themselves as Independents.

Taking an arbitrary estimate of 55 million as the likely turnout of voters in November, here is the party percentage as applied:

Democrats . . . . . 22 1/2 million
Republicans . . . . . 18 1/2 million
Independents . . . . . 14 million

These findings highlight the Republican problem. To win, Eisenhower must win the support of a large number of Independents or cause a large switch of Democratic voters away from their party.

Party Best for Self?

The second question in the survey was this:

"Looking ahead for the next few years, which political party—the Republican or Democratic—do you think will be best for people like yourself?"

In three foreign countries—Great Britain, Norway and Holland—polling organizations affiliated with the Institute have found this type of question to be an accurate method of forecasting elections.

The findings in today's survey are:

Democrats best . . . . . 41%
Republicans best . . . . . 37%
No difference and no opinion . . . . . 22%

Eliminating the undecided group, the vote would be 52% per cent that the Democrats are best and 47% per cent that the Republicans are best.

Both of the above polls serve to emphasize the likelihood that this year's election will be a hard-fought close contest, with Eisenhower starting off with a handicap.

Another index of basic party sentiment is how people say they plan to vote in the Congressional races this year. Results of a new poll on this will be reported Sunday (Monday).

Samuel, Judge and Prophet

HE BROUGHT A GREAT SPIRITUAL REVIVAL IN ISRAEL.

Scripture—1 Samuel 4:16-8:22.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

IN AMERICA today many new churches are being built. Almost all of our newspapers tell of the dedication of a newly-built religious edifice. Are we repeating of our sins and having a revival of religious faith, or are we merely frightened because of talk of war of the dreadful new modern weapons, and pleading with God to help us, as the Israelites did in olden times?

He will help if we do our part in helping Him, and are sincere and whole-hearted in our repentance.

Briefly we are told what happened to the priest, Eli, and his sons. The Philistines were the oppressors of the Israelites at this time. They prevailed against them, so that as a last resort the Israelites decided to take their Ark of the Lord from Shiloh to offered sacrifice. So curious to see the gifts it contained were men of Bethshemesh, that they opened the coffer containing them, and looked inside and for this they were smitten.

Samuel gathered all the people together after the Ark had been placed in the house of Ahinadab where, incidentally, it remained for 20 years, and said to them, "If ye do return to the Lord with all your hearts, then put away the strange gods and Asherah from among you, and prepare your hearts unto the Lord, and serve Him only; and He will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines."

The children of Israel did put away the idol worship and served the Lord. When the Philistines again gathered against them, the Lord caused a great storm of thunder to fill the heavens, and the battle front, hoping it would help them to win.

Alas! The battle was lost, thousands of men of Israel perished, and worst of all, the Ark was taken. Eli's sons died in battle, and when a messenger came to poor old Eli, seated watching and waiting for the outcome, and he was told his sons were dead and the Ark taken, he fell over and died of a broken neck.

The Philistines took the Ark to the house of their god, Dagon, and set it up there. Next morning they found the idol overturned. They set Dagon up again, but the next day not only was he cast down, but the head and palms of his hands were cut off, and only the stumps remained.

As long as the Ark stayed with the Philistines disasters came upon them. So they gathered all the lords of the land and decided to send back the Ark, for fear they would all perish if it stayed with them.

Seven months the Ark abode with the Philistines, and then it was put upon a new cart, drawn by two milk kine, and containing golden gifts, and taken to Israelite territory. Men working in the field saw it coming and they rejoiced.

The Levites took down the Ark, and set it on a great stone and, based on copyrighted outlines produced by the Division of Christian Education, National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U. S. A., and used by permission. Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

so frightened the enemy that they were smitten before Israel, and "came to no more into the coasts of Israel; and the hand of the Lord was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel."

Now when Samuel was old he made his sons judges over Israel, but, sad to say, his sons "walked not in his ways, but turned aside after lucre, and took bribes, and perverted judgment." The elders came then to Samuel and told him they knew his sons were not good judges, and they wanted him to give them a king to reign over them.

Samuel was displeased, and consulted the Lord, who told him to listen to the people, but to point out to them the disadvantages of a king to rule over them.

Samuel did as the Lord told him, and gave the people a long list of things a king would demand of them, taking their sons and daughters for his service, also a tenth of their harvest, and of their livestock, and ending his talk with the words, "and the Lord will not hear you in that day."

Nevertheless, the people demanded that Samuel get them a king, and the Lord said to him, "Hearken unto their voices, and make them a king." In our next lesson we will learn about the beginnings of the kingdom of Israel.

SYMBOL OF SAFETY

You never mistake the meaning of a Church spire.

Even to those who are cold to the ideals for which the Church stands, that finger of faith always points to something that is comforting, reassuring, safe.

The very presence of a Church, whether in a crowded city street or on a quiet country road, is a benediction to all, including those who are not conscious of worship.

Such an influence, with what it means to those who open their hearts to truth, is worthy of a second thought. It merits acceptance as a refuge. It commands confidence as a port in time of storm.

The Church deserves your support—your membership—because it affords real protection for the family whose welfare it is your duty to defend and whose proper upbringing is your solemn obligation.

DESIGNING WOMAN
Decorate Bad Features If Impossible To Ignore

By ELIZABETH HILLIER

When a bad feature of the room is impossible to get rid of and too big to ignore, decorate it. This is one answer to the question asked by Mrs. O. B. G. "Two doors in the living room of our small apartment used to conceal a pull-down bed," she writes. "They make it hard to hand pictures and arrange furniture. Would you make a suggestion as to how the doors can be made to seem to belong in the room?" Since the doors you sketch are paneled, Mrs. G., why not use the panel squares as picture frames? Set small pictures into the four upper panels of the doors and give them mats of fabric or wallpaper to match curtains or draperies. Use the same fabric without the pictures for the lower panel squares. The fabric or wallpaper for the mats might be checks or cross bars if the room is informal, and match simple tier curtains. Or the mats might be wallpaper in rich plain color to match draperies in a more formal room.

Schiaparelli Designs Show 'Grasshopper' Silhouette

By NADEANE WALKER

PARIS (U. S. P.) — Elsa Schiaparelli pepped up the Paris fashion scene last night with a gay "grasshopper" collection full of the first real fashion news this season.

Taking the grasshopper as a "design of near perfection," she borrowed the wings and put them on suit lapels, coat tails, under the arms and on the shoulders. Her motif, pinned on or embroidered, hopped about from the arm to the middle of the back, to just anywhere.

The grasshopper silhouette featured a "smoothly round, sleek and slender body, swelling back, bouffant skirt and jut-out wings." Some short jackets had a pointed and split tail. There was a hornet sting hat and hornet coat tail with a jutting point.

Other fanciful headgear imitated crickets — feathered or embroidered singing and courting. Then there was a stocking cap effect made by pulling the end of a tubular stole collar on the head. This versatile trapping had still another use—a hand warmer. There also was a morning glory hat in blue satin and a burst of blue feathers which looked like New Year's fun.

Schiaparelli had a dramatic setting for her new creations, the show of her Paris home just off the Champs Elysee.

Sleek Styles Available In Budget Furs

If you can't afford a mink coat—there, little girl, don't cry.

Eather Dorothy knows as designer of some of the world's most fabulous furs, says there's a smart fur coat to fit any budget—and it doesn't have to be imitation mink. Says she:

"Our alert young career girls nowadays don't want to look like their mothers, in mink. They want to pay for their own fur coats, and they want them young and gay. They prefer a bleached muskrat coat or one frankly dyed red or green, to one of the so-called 'mink-dyed' variety. They're clever, because a dyed muskrat never looks like a mink, anyway."

Among budget-priced furs available today in sleek, youthful styles, says Miss Dorothy, are: American broadtail (processed lamb), clipped fox, American nutria, shearer opossum and, of course, muskrat.

In her fall collection Miss Dor-fabric gloves, made of long-staple green and lined in red taffeta—so right for city streets as it is for the football stadium.

A little spencer jacket of nutria has a matching beret and muff, for endless uses. The jacket may be worn with either day or evening clothes, the beret and muff may be worn separately with a tailored suit or coat. And the beret may be crushed into various shapes, to suit the mood of the wearer.

Miss Dorothy, whose own home has fur bath mats and blankets, thinks all furs have a place in the current fashion picture—and that all can be beautiful and useful, if they don't try to imitate something else. Says she:

"During the last war, all the housemaids wanted to look like their mistresses, and bought mink with their war factory earnings. Today you don't have to wear mink to be smart."

Flying Saucers Are A Nuisance, Air Force Hints

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force didn't exactly say so, but it left the impression those flying saucers are becoming quite a nuisance.

So much time is being spent answering saucer queries that it's interfering with regular intelligence work, Maj. Gen. John A. Sanford, Air Force Intelligence director, said yesterday.

Coast Guard Has A Photo Of 'Objects'

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1 (AP)—Coast Guard headquarters today made public a photograph of "unidentified aerial phenomena" taken by a 25-year-old Coast Guard photographer.

The photo clearly shows four round objects. Each appears to have two identical shafts of light extending across its center and protruding at the forward and rear ends.

The Coast Guard said it has no opinion as to the cause or source of the "objects" and is releasing the picture only because of the widespread public interest in aerial phenomena.

The Coast Guard said Alpert sighted several brilliant white lights through the air station's photo lab window at 9:35 a.m., July 16.

Alpert watched the lights, which "seemed to be wavering," for five or six seconds before attempting to photograph them.

By the time he had focused his camera the lights were "considerably dimmed down."

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Utah Republicans opened a two-day state nominating convention today, with the spotlight on Sen. Arthur V. Watkins and Martin S. Eccles, former chairman of the Federal Reserve Board.

The convention was scheduled this afternoon to pick two candidates to run in the Sept. 9 primary for the GOP nomination for the Senate seat now held by Watkins.

It was expected Watkins and Eccles would win convention approval. Third man in the race was Bill Baker of Orem, Sen. Watkins' primary opponent in 1948.

Eccles' chances were believed enhanced by the withdrawal from the race of C. Cash Rampton, a Salt Lake City banker.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—Southern Bell workers here returned to their jobs today after a hot weather strike of approximately 750 employees.

Kefauver Man Asks Return Of His Money

FORT WORTH, Aug. 1 (AP)—E. O. Gillam, state campaign manager for Senator Estes Kefauver, contributed $100 to the Democratic National Committee B. C. (before Chicago).

Today he said he wanted the money back.

It was obtained through "misrepresentation and error," the Fort Worth soap manufacturer declared in a pithy demand on National Chairman Frank McKinney for a refund.

It's not the money, Gillam said. He once headed the Roosevelt Thousand Dollar Club and has given about $1,500 annually to the national committee. He also spent about $6,000 in the Kefauver nomination campaign.

He says he is unhappy about the national convention. A broken promise by President Truman "not to interfere" and the presidential word that an "open" convention would be held are cited as reasons for discontent.

Gillam referred to nominee Adlai Stevenson as having "venerated piety" and as "an unwilling self-admitted incapable man who insists he does not want the job."

Gillam says he will support the Democratic ticket through the governor's level but vote for Eisenhower.

"You cannot frighten me into believing that if the Democrats are not returned to power this country will collapse," he wrote McKinney. "You have been too long in office. We need a change."

Glasscock Area Receives Showers

GARDEN CITY, Aug. 1—Capricious showers played around in Southwestern Glasscock County Friday afternoon.

Biggy Corners, in Southwest Glasscock, had "good rains." Bill Currie, to the east of Garden City, had none. Jim Ratliff on the north and John Henry Cox on the south had only light showers.

INFANT FLYERS TO GET SHOES

Baby need a new pair of shoes? Well, if he can fly, he's got it made. Pioneer AirLines will present a pair of Curtis baby shoes to each infant passenger who boards one of the company's Pacemaker planes in Texas and New Mexico.

For a year prior to the beginning of the Korean War, Pioneer and Curtis Shoe Company of Temple presented each baby with a pair of shoes. With the outbreak of war, the gifts were suspended. Now they are being resumed.

Actual cost of the improvements was pegged at $144,000 by an architectural firm. However, school board members decided to call the election for $200,000 and leave the residue in the school's building fund.

The board's proposed improvements include enlargement of restroom and washroom facilities, installation of new heating systems in both high and elementary school buildings, re-spacing of classrooms, and overhaul of the structures.

Space now occupied by the administrative offices will be converted into classrooms and a new administrative wing will be constructed if the bond issue is approved.

Polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Stanton School Bond Vote Set

STANTON—Voters of the Stanton School District Saturday will determine the fate of a proposed $200,000 bond issue for elementary and high school building improvements.

Ballots will be cast at the Home-making Cottage at the high school. Supt. O. W. Winstead of the Stanton schools has appealed for passage of the issue. He has arranged for an open house today and Saturday at the school buildings, and the superintendent will be on hand to point out places where the bond money would be applied.

Actual cost of the improvements was pegged at $144,000 by an architectural firm. However, school board members decided to call the election for $200,000 and leave the residue in the school's building fund.

Commissioners In Talks With Highway Officials

District Highway Engineer J. C. Roberts of Abilene and Sam McComb, local highway engineer, conferred with members of the county commissioners court and other officials here Thursday in connection with a by-pass route from west Highway 80 around the southwestern edge of Big Spring to Highway 87.

Also dismissed were the State Highway Department's plans for opening of Fourth Street as a part of Highway 80 through Big Spring and widening of the transcontinental route west to the Martin County line.

Roberts suggested to the commissioners court that work probably could be started this summer on the by-pass route if right-of-way were available immediately.

Howard County, which is attempting to secure the additional land needed for the road, is stymied by a dispute over exact location of a section line paralleling the route, he was informed.

Conflicting surveys raise the question of who is owner of some of the needed land. However, county officials said they would renew efforts to unsnarl the problem.

Breakdown was given on the $520,000 outlay needed for widening Highway 80 through Big Spring from a point 0.7 of a mile east of the city to 1.8 miles west of the city.

It was shown that $488,000 will be required for improving the Fourth Street route through Big Spring. In addition, an expenditure of $120,000 will be needed to widen the highway to four lanes from the east city limits to connection with the present four-lane road east of the city; and $90,000 would be required to widen pavement from the west city limits westward to the northwest corner of Webb Air Force Base.

Conferring with Roberts and McComb during the afternoon were County Judge Walter Grice, County Commissioners Pete Thomas and Earl Hull, City Manager H. W. Whitney, City Commissioner Willard Sullivan, and Chamber of Commerce Manager J. H. Greene.

Farouk Still Dines Richly

ISLE OF CAPRI, Italy (AP)—Roly-poly ex-King Farouk of Egypt, who claims he is "no longer a rich man," dined richly with his family last night at one of this pleasure island's most exclusive night clubs.

The unemployed monarch, who said at a news conference yesterday that he would "live simply" now that he has lost his throne, was a guest of British musical star Gracie Fields at her sumptuous "Canzone del Mare" restaurant.

Gracie, an old friend of the deposed ruler, invited Farouk and his family to her villa for cocktails. Later, the party—which included ex-Queen Nourmah and Farouk's three daughters by his previous marriage—joined regular customers at the restaurant.

It was learned that Nourmah brought only four pieces of luggage with her when she followed her husband into exile.

The young ex-Queen revealed this when she asked the wife of the owner of the hotel where Farouk and his family are staying to have her white suit cleaned "as soon as possible."

"I couldn't salvage much," she confided.

Previously it had been reported that the royal family brought 204 trunks with them on their voyage from Egypt into exile here.

Martin Co. Cotton Dusted By Planes

Approximately 1,000 acres of Martin County cotton have been dusted with insecticide by Farm Air Service planes, Bill Edwards, operator of the dusting business, reported Friday.

Edwards said his planes started the dusting operation last Monday. All of the crops dusted have been in the Stanton area.

Farm Air Service, which operated from Municipal Airport last year, moved to Menard when reactivation of the field by the Air Force got underway. Edwards is now operating from Hamilton Field, northeast of Big Spring.

FAS planes sprayed mesquite growths throughout West Texas during the spring and early summer, Edwards reported. That work was halted July 10, after the most effective spraying season was passed.

Bobby Shantz Gets 19th Hill Victory

Yankees Trim Chicago, 6-2

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer Little Bobby Shantz, leading candidate for the American League's most valuable player award, looks like baseball's "Man of the Year." With a dazzling 19-3 record, the little lefty is a sure thing to become the majors' first 20-game winner in '52. Barring a slump he should become the first to win 25 for the Philadelphia A's since Lefty Grove in 1932.

Even the 30-win mark. Lemon target nobody has reached since Dizzy Dean's great performance in 1934, is within reach for the A's still have 59 games to play. Shantz' 19th was a four-hitter against Detroit, 2-1, in the first game of a double header. He struck out seven and walked only two in outpitching young Billy Hoelt. The A's also took the second game, 3-2, with three in the ninth off Virgil Trucks. Homers by Trucks and Walt Dropo provided the only Tiger runs off winner Alex Kellner.

The twin Philadelphia wins helped tighten the American race a bit. Even the fifth-place A's, eight games back, remain in the race.

Vic Raschl, regaining his old place as New York Yankee ace, won his 10th straight and 12th of the season by a 6-2 score over Chicago to keep the Yanks three games ahead of the Indians.

Cleveland staged a six-run rally in the eighth to make it two out of three over Boston, 2-2. Joe Tip-ton's tie-breaking homer off Maurice McDermott, started the sprint that also included a two-run triple by Larry Doby and a double by Al Rosen. Bob Lemon earned his 12th victory with a seven-hitter, including a two-run homer by Del Wilber, his first of the year.

Washington remained 5½ games back of the Yanks by scoring five in the first inning before anybody was out to rip St. Louis, 10-5. Sandy Consuegra, relieving Randy Gumpert in the fourth, won his fifth in a row.

Brooklyn widened its National League lead to six games over New York by knocking off Pittsburgh in two games, 7-6 in 11 innings and 4-1. A walk by reliever Paul LaPalme with the bases loaded gave the Dodgers the first game. Rookie Joe Landrum, just advanced from the Fort Worth farm where he won 15, copped his first big league start in the second game with an eight-hitter.

Chicago went wild to score nine in the seventh and trim the Giants 11-8. Despite an 11-1 lead, the Cubs had to battle to stave off a late

Giant rally. Three in the seventh and four in the eighth on Jim Rhodes' grand slam homer made it close. The St. Louis Cards ripped into Vern Bickford for six in the fifth inning to thump the Boston Braves 5-3. Billy Johnson had two singles

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Earlier in the week, I wondered aloud why a baseball team, when an intentional pass is being given to an opposing batsman, didn't become ultra-conservative and place a player behind the catcher to guard against any passed ball or wild pitch.

Now I know, and the fellow who put me right was Umpire Bill Valentine, who is commissioned to become more than casually acquainted with such legislation.

According to Willyum, it's against the rules to put any player other than the catcher in foul territory.

You'd never guess which Vernon player is being followed around by the big league scouts. Lefty Lloyd Wallis.

That's the same fellow who earlier in the season had a record of one win and 11 losses. Even when he was losing, though, the opposition had great respect for him. His supporters long maintained all he needed was control.

ODESSA STILL GRABBING OFF LOCAL COACHES
The Odessa schools may have grown too big to compete against local teams but they still have great respect for the ability of Big Spring coaches.

First it was Johnny Malaise, who departed the high school job here to become head cage mentor at Odessa High. Now Larry McCulloch is going to Odessa JC from the Job John gave up here.

High school coaches within the area are most pleased to see McCulloch get the promotion. He was tough to beat at all times, even when the material was a bit lean. He'll be hard to replace in the local system.

Coach Carl Coleman, who handles football here, says Larry was as crafty a football mentor as we've had around here. Larry could see things going on out on a practice field other coaches overlooked. McCulloch much preferred the cage game, though.

TULANE GREENIES MAY BE MUCH BETTER
Tulane could have a much improved football team this season, they say. Bear Wolf, a Texan, has succeeded Henry Frnks as coach there.

The Greenies are supposed to have a faster outfit than the '51 club, with a more potent offense stressing a long passing game. Les Kennedy is a Tulane player about whom much will be written this fall. He throws football strikes in the manner of Vanderbilt's Bill Wade. Wolf will make good use of Dutch Meyer's spread formation.

Some are saying Lubbock will face Wichita Falls in the state 4A-1 football finals this year. I wouldn't be knowing.

Jay Haney's pay as boss of the Midland Indians is $500 a month, and his contract extends through 1953. He'll scout for the Tribe this winter.

Weill Steps Down As IBC Boss To Manage Marciano

NEW YORK (AP)—Al Weill steps down as International Boxing Club matchmaker, Sept. 1, to become full time manager of heavyweight contender Rocky Marciano.

With Marciano, unbeaten Brockton, Mass., slugger, ready to challenge Jersey Joe Walcott for the title in September, Weill decided to resume management of the fighter.

The announcement was made yesterday by Jim Norris, IBC

President, following a meeting with Weill and Bob Christenberry, chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission.

Weill told Christenberry he wanted to give Marciano the benefit of his many years of experience as a manager and realized he could not do so under state laws while serving as matchmaker.

Marty Weill, Al's stepson, has managed the fighter since 1948.

Russian Heavy Is Knocked Out By Al Nieman

By WILL GRIMSLEY

HELSINKI (AP)—The jaw of Russia's fabulous heavyweight was made of China instead of pig iron, so America's big Ed Sanders meets an angular South African carpenter tonight in the feature semi-final bout of the Olympic boxing tournament.

Sanders, 220-pound Negro giant from Los Angeles, led a contingent of five Americans into the next-to-last round last night by chilling Giacomo Disenigo of Italy in the third round.

Feverish Olympic ring fans had expected the sleep-dealing American next to catch the pride of the Soviet, Aljgirdas Siockias.

But Siockias, a 25-year-old southpaw with a soporific punch, was knocked out by South Africa's Alfred Nieman, in the major shocker of the tournament.

A lean left-hander with the kick of a mule, Nieman levelled the mighty, 230-pound Russian with a left to the chin in the opening round. Some 7,000 fans in the Mesuhalle went wild.

America's other survivors were light heavyweight Norvel Lee, 25, of Washington, D. C.; middleweight Floyd Patterson of Brooklyn, N. Y.; light welterweight Charles Adkins, 20, of Gary, Ind.; and flyweight Nate Brooks, 18, of Cleveland.

Patterson and Lee also scored knockouts. In the semi-finals Brooks meets Willie Toweei of South Africa, brother of world bantamweight champion Vic Toweei; Adkins takes Italy's Bruno Visintin. Patterson faces Sweden's Stig Sjolin, and Lee opposes Finland's Harry Sijlander.

Russia sent six of her fighters into the semi-finals.

Coaches Head For School

FORT WORTH, Aug. 1 (AP)—The vanguard of some 2,500 coaches was moving into Fort Worth today in preparation for the Texas Coaching School which opens Monday.

The school—the world's largest—will feature such "greats" as Jim Tatum of Maryland and Dutch Meyer of Texas Christian in football and Hank Hui of Oklahoma A&M and Vada Peterson of Utah in basketball to head the staff of instructors.

Seven clinics already were seeking the 1953 clinic. They were Odessa, Lubbock, El Paso, San Antonio, Austin, Houston and Beaumont.

Herbert Hooper, president of the Texas High School Coaches Association which sponsors the school, arrived yesterday.

Officers and directors of the association will hold their first meeting tomorrow. Coaches will start registering Sunday—the same day All-Star football and basketball squads are due to arrive.

New Lake On Boundary Line Being Readied For Fish

By L. A. WILKE

AUSTIN, Aug. 1.—Texas fishermen who for many years have flocked to lakes in Mexico for unusual thrills may now begin looking to a new lake that will be on the international boundary line.

Falcon Dam, across the lower Rio Grande, is now getting pretty well along, and if everything goes right in a couple of years there'll be a lake capable of impounding more than 4 million acre feet of fishing water. Work has been in progress on the dam for more than a year now, and much of the concrete super structure has been completed.

The dam is located 130 miles north of Brownsville and 75 miles south of Laredo. It is reached over a paved road directly to the dam, but much of the road now is being relocated so it will be above the highwater mark.

As we stood on the bank of the Rio Grande last week and looked over this tremendous project our imagination went a little wild. Here will be a lake 40 miles long and seven miles wide, at the top of its conservation pool. It will cover 122 square miles with a 417-mile shore line. At the maximum flow line it will be 60 miles long, 11 miles wide, cover 177 square miles and have a 497-mile shore line.

Naturally the lake will be to provide power, both for the United States and Mexico, as well as irrigation water. However, the recreational possibilities will not be overlooked. Since Mexican streams already afford some fine fishing if the game department of that republic will join with Texas and the Federal government in stocking Falcon Lake, it should be a dandy.

There will be many problems, however, that must be solved. For instance, will there be a universal license and what will happen to fishermen who get across the boundary line?

This really shouldn't be a problem, though, because a look at the terrain of the shore line on the United States side of the river would indicate there will be all the fishing anyone would want on this side.

This lake should have a great deal of influence on the economy of the valley. At the present time there is a lot of talk about a highway the entire length of Padre Island. A person could cross to the island at Port Aransas or Corpus Christi, drive the length of the island to Port Isabel and across to Brownsville.

Col-Tex Nips Coahomans To Even Playoff Series

COLORADO CITY—Two walks and two wild pitches proved the undoing for Coahomans here Thursday night as Col-Tex scored their two runs that way to beat Coahoma 2-1 and even the series at one each in the championship of the Jaycee softball loop.

The third game of the best-three-of-five series will be played Saturday night.

Col-Tex got their runs in the first and third innings—both of the runs by the same player, Vernon Corbell. Corbell walked to start both innings, moved around to third and then came home both times on wild pitches by the Coahoma hurler, Leon Kirby.

Coahoma countered their lone tally in the top of the sixth as Baker singled, went to third and scored on a long fly by Kirby.

Gene Parkhill was the winning pitcher and Kirby the loser. Each pitcher struck out 10 men. Although losing, the Coahoma nine gave their pitcher more support, getting five hits while Col-Tex collected only three.

Each team has now won one each—Coahoma, the first-place team in the regular season, won the first contest 3-1.

Oilers Upset By Yankees

FORT WORTH, Aug. 1 (AP)—The Oilers scored their two runs in the fourth frame. Jerry White was the losing hurler. He gave up three hits.

Other scores: ARKANSAS Yankees 11, Oilers 2; DUNCAN Yankees 11, Oilers 2; QUARS Yankees 10, Oilers 2; HARRET Yankees 10, Oilers 2; THOMPSON Yankees 10, Oilers 2; MOSER Yankees 10, Oilers 2; KING Yankees 10, Oilers 2.

Ten players were bunched at 69, among them the year's second top money-winner Jack Burkner, and gay blazer Jimmy Demaret. A whopping group of 20 players were under 70, and anyone of them could walk off with the big money.

ONE STROKE AHEAD

Ex-Tank Sergeant Chicago Leader

CHICAGO (AP)—Dick Mayer, former Army tank sergeant who is seeking his first major golf title, today led a par-crunching array of pros into the second round of the $30,000 All-American tourney.

Mayer, 28-year-old St. Petersburg, Fla., pro of three seasons, shot a seven-under par opening 65, to take a one-stroke lead over national PGA Champion Jim Turnesa.

Turnesa in turn, had four 67 shooters on his heels after yesterday's opening drive over Tam O'Shanter's gay arive which produced 45 scores under par 72.

You could take your pick among solid performers and dark horses as to who might be winging ahead when the 72-hole chase for top prize of $3,420 ends Sunday.

Knotted at 67, two strokes behind Mayer, who whipped in eight birds yesterday, were Ted Rhodes, hunting the first top-drawer win by a Negro; Bob Gadja, another lesser light; and two well-tried hands, the incomparable Sammy Sneed and Johnny Palmer, recent Canadian Open winner.

There were four 68 gunners, including Defending Champion Cary Middlecoff, 1952's leading money winner; Ed Furgol, the crook-armed fairways Trojan; Henry Williams, 1950 national PGA runner-up; and Jack Isaacs, in his first Tam try.

Ten players were bunched at 69, among them the year's second top money-winner Jack Burkner, and gay blazer Jimmy Demaret. A whopping group of 20 players were under 70, and anyone of them could walk off with the big money.

In the concurrent All-American amateur, Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, who nearly has a monopoly on the title, was a two-stroke leader with two - under - par 70. Stranahan, seeking his fifth straight title, was chased by John Guenther, Jr., Reading, Pa.; Richard Norton, Grand Rapids, Mich.; and Jim McKeighen, Hobart, Ind.

Still a third place of the All-American merry - go - round, the Women's Open, was paced by Betty Jameson, charming San Antonio, Tex., pro. Betty's three-under-par 73 gave her a two-stroke lead over National Open Champion Louise Suggs and Betty Bush, also pros.

Among those teeing off in today's second round were the home club champion, Bill Flowers, Fort Worth city champion Ernie Vossler, state high school titlist Jimmy Powell of Dallas, medalist Buddy Sprague, an Airman stationed at Alexandria, La., and Joe Walser Jr., Chris Gers and Bob Goetz, all of Oklahoma City.

One of the milder reversals came yesterday when Gers knocked off J. H. (Doc) Brinkley, the tournament chairman who holds the 71-par course record of 60. Gers beat Brinkley 5 and 4.

Brinkley Loses Tourney Match

FORT WORTH, Aug. 1 (AP)—The 22nd annual Gers Garden Invitational Golf Tournament moved into the second round here today after most of the favorites advanced with ease yesterday.

But three of yesterday's victors were forced to 20 holes and three other results could be classed as upsets.

This would develop the two areas for perhaps the finest fishing possibilities in the United States and should attract many millions of dollars to Texas each winter season.

If you like to read about black bass fishing, you'd probably like the new book on that subject written by Robert Page Lincoln and just announced by the Stackpole Co., of Harrisburg, Pa. Lincoln is one of the greatest fishing writers of his time and he's done a swell job on this book.

Cayuses Gain On Leaders

Locals Defeat Braves Twice

Cayuses... Charley Buck, Sweetwater's leading hitter, picked up only one hit in the three-game set... He went to bat nine times.

The Big Spring Broncs scrambled the Sweetwater Braves twice here Thursday night to pick up valuable ground in the Longhorn League race.

Gil Guerra registered his 17th mound success of the campaign to floor the visitors in the first game, 6-3. Oscar Reguera was even better in the morningcap, blanking the Braves, 4-0, with a gorgeous five-hitter.

Guerra had his problems in the initial go. He spotted the guests two runs in the leadoff inning but tightened the rivets after that and coasted home after the Braves had assumed control of the situation in the third.

The mighty blow of the first game was struck by Bertie Baez, who picked one of Gil Grajeda's pitches in the third round for a two-run triple. The blast scored Al Valdes and Guerra and put the Braves ahead, 3-2.

Baez immediately put the locals further ahead when he spiked the dish on a fly to right by Ossie Alvarez.

Big Spring added insurance runs in the sixth when Pat Stasey doubled home Witty Quintana and then was propelled plateward by Buddy Grimes' single. The ball arrived there from center field about the same time as did Stasey but Catcher Tony Traspuesto dropped the ball.

The Braves emerged from their corner in the seventh bent on a knockout. After Charley Buck had walked, the Big Spring defense sagged to permit a run. Buck finally racing home on a bobble by Shortstop Al Costa. Guerra got Traspuesto on a fly to right to end the game, however.

All the drama in the second game was wrapped up in the first two innings, when the locals shelled Starter Marcelino Solis out of sight and continued to work on Relieff Dean Higgins.

Bertie Baez walked to open Big Spring's first and churned across on Alvarez's triple. After Alvarez had counted on an infield out, Solis lost his control and loaded the cushion.

Higgins came in to get the Braves out of the jam but the Big Springers ganged up on him for two runs in the second on singles by Alvarez and Quintana and a two-baser by Stasey.

Three double plays helped Reguera through as many rough spots.

TOUCHING ALL BASES—The win was Reguera's fourth, against one loss... The double triumph moved the locals to within 3½ games of the top, since Odessa lost to Vernon... Guerra wanted to pitch the second game for Big Spring but Stasey elected to give him a rest... The Steeds used three pitchers in the lineup, since Rick Gonzales did not suit out due to illness... Juan Visteur, out for several days with a bad tooth, still has not reported... Guerra, the Longhorn League's strikeout king, did not fan a man in the first game... The night's leading sticer was Sweetwater's Warren Sitter, who had four hits... The victory was the sixth in a row for the

Forsan To Invade Big Lake Sunday

Big Springers In Links Show At Amarillo

AMARILLO, Aug. 1 (UP)—Some of the hottest amateur golfers in Texas teed off today in the 18-hole qualifying round of the first annual Amarillo Invitational Partnership Tournament.

Approximately 75 two-man teams were competing.

It's expected a team score of 144—even par—or better will be needed to make the 16-team championship flight.

Most of the tournament's big names arrived yesterday in time for a practice round.

Tommy Hale, Border Conference champion from Hardin-Simmons University fired a four-under-par 68 over the Rosa Rogers layout. His tournament partner, John Farquhar, an Amarillo High School student, toured the course with a par 72 to give their team an impressive 140 score.

Other leading contenders included Bobby Maxwell, the young brother of U. S. Amateur King Billy Maxwell. Bobby's a regular par-buster himself.

Bobby's partner was Bobby Wright, a buddy from Big Spring.

McCORMICK SHINES

American Mermaids Play Leading Roles In Meet

HELSINKI (UP)—A trio of curvaceous California girls and an 18-year-old Hawaiian miss played the leading roles in the Olympic games today.

Mrs. Patricia McCormick of Long Beach, Calif., winner of the springboard diving title two days ago; Paula Jean Myers, a 17-year-old from Covina, Calif., and Mrs. Juno Stover Irwin of Los Angeles, played 1-2-3 after four qualifying dives in the women's platform diving competition.

Evelyn Kawamoto of Honolulu won her semi-final heat in the women's 400 meter freestyle swim to lead two of the three Americans into the finals.

Except for these two women's events, things were rather quiet as the Olympic stage was set for tomorrow's big windup program. And, for once, there weren't any broken records.

Miss Kawamoto, who broke the Olympic women's 400 meter swim record in her trial heat yesterday, took the semi-final in the ordinary time of 5:21.3, beating Hungary's Eva Novak. Valeria Gyenge of Hungary took the other semi-final in 5:16.9.

Carolyn Green of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., placed second behind Miss Gyenge in 5:18.3 to qualify for the final. The eight fastest times qualified. Dellana Mueselkamp of Mill Valley, Calif., who was made a U. S. citizen by a special act of Congress just in time to compete in the Olympics, was left on the starting block when the gun went off and came in sixth.

In the platform diving competition, Mrs. McCormick scored 51.25 points for the four dives, putting her far ahead of Miss Myers, with 44.25 and Mrs. Irwin with 43.60. Two Russian girls were among the first eight.

Drillers Put In For Two Games With Big Spring

The Big Spring Broncs wind up their home stand this week end with the Artesia Drillers, a club still intent on grabbing the top spot in Longhorn League standings.

The Drillers, with mighty Joe Bauman and all, put in here tonight for a single and remain over Saturday for a game.

It's been a long home stand for the Steeds and they've profited handsomely by it. After losing the opener to Roswell, the Broncs have gained six straight triumphs to move within 3½ games of the top.

The Drillers come here twice this month. They'll be back for their final series in Steer Park on Aug. 23. That one will extend three games.

Aramis Arencibia, a 13-game winner will probably will toe the rubber for the Cayuses tonight.

The Drillers, trailing Big Spring by 7½ games now, must make the move or be lost in the wake of Odessa and Big Spring.

Ackerly Hosts Midland Team

Sanchez says he plans to start B. Tebeno catching, L. Gonzalez pitching, J. Rogers at first base, B. Parris at second, J. Molina at third, D. Sanchez at shortstop and P. Eredia, C. Williams and Junior Sanchez in the outfield.

Plan To Pay For Hog Slaughtering
 WASHINGTON, Aug. 1 (U)—The government may pay farmers for hogs slaughtered in the campaign to wipe out the disease vesicular exanthema.
 This disease is similar to foot-and-mouth disease but does not affect cattle, sheep or humans. Its spread has resulted in a quarantine being clamped on all of California and parts of 15 other states.
 An Agriculture Department spokesman said late yesterday the matter of indemnities was under consideration but a decision may be a long way off.
 The spokesman said such a program would have to be carried out in co-operation with the state affected.
 Department experts said there is no known treatment or cure for the virus. Underway now is a program to halt spread of the disease. Next on schedule is a research program to discover the cause, cure and control.

Nixon Opens Campaign With Talk At Ohio's Convention

By REED SMITH
 COLUMBUS, Ohio (P)—Republican Sen. Richard M. Nixon of California opened his vice presidential campaign last night with a call for prosperity based on peace and honest government.

The running-mate of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower delivered a fighting speech to a cheering state Republican convention. And he told and overflowed audience in the 2,845-seat Palace Theater that "Ike" will be a fighting candidate for President "right down to election day."

Ike was more determined than ever about that, Nixon said, "after he heard what the Democrats in the Chicago convention were saying about him."

It was the 39-year-old Nixon's first political speech since his nomination July 11. He flew here from Dallas, Tex., and left for Denver, Colo., conferences with Eisenhower today and Saturday.

Sharing the speaking program at the one-day convention were Arthur E. Summerfield of Michigan, the party's new national chairman; Sen. John W. Bricker of Ohio, nominee for re-election; and Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati, gubernatorial nominee and brother of Sen. Robert A. Taft.

Nixon, whose father came from Sinton County, Ohio, told Ohio Republicans still smarting over Sen. Taft's loss of the presidential nomination to Eisenhower, that Taft was "even greater in defeat than in victory."

Nixon said it was hard for Americans to enjoy their privileges and liberties while "our boys" are fighting and dying overseas.

"Why not prosperity built on peace rather than prosperity built on war?" he asked. "Why not prosperity and honest government in Washington at the same time?"

Nixon, who spoke without a prepared text, termed the Democratic presidential nominee a "captive candidate" of the CIO, big city bosses and President Truman.

"Despite his good intentions, and I do not question his good intentions," Nixon said, "Gov. Adlai Stevenson is a captive candidate."

"He is Jack Kroll's man. He is Jake Arvey's man and the man of all the other big city machines. He is Harry Truman's man."

Jacob Kroll of Cincinnati is national head of the CIO Political Action Committee. Jacob Arvey is man of Illinois, Stevenson's state, and a Chicago political power.

Nixon said Eisenhower knows that his first job in Washington is to clean up corruption. "The others can't do it," he said. He added that Eisenhower would clean the Communists out of Washington.

"If you want a change, you have no choice but to vote Republican in November," Nixon cried.

Motorists Are Warned To Heed Emergency Signals

Police Chief E. W. York and Fire Chief H. V. Crocker have joined in an appeal for local motorists to considerably bring their vehicles to a halt when faced by red traffic lights.

The practice would be a particularly good one to cultivate during periods of emergency—when all early good one to cultivate during traffic signals are red, the officials say.

Several times recently, fire trucks have been forced to swerve to avoid colliding with some indifferent or impatient driver who ignored the warning signal and drove his car into an intersection in the path of approaching trucks. Other motorists have driven on through the blocked intersections, apparently thinking the signals are out of order.

All lights are turned on red for emergency runs, the police chief points out. If someone ignores the stop signal and drives into the intersection, he may find a police car, ambulance, or fire engine bearing down on his broadside.

Officers usually don't have time to stop and issue tickets to red light runners during times of emergency, the police chief admits. However, he recommends a complete halt for safety's sake.

Lights normally are kept red for only a couple of minutes during an emergency. Safety officials have seen the sad results of scores of traffic mishaps. They're convinced it's better for every motorist to pull over to the curb for a couple of minutes than to run the risk of blundering out in the path of an ambulance or fire truck.

"Besides, we don't want to get mixed up in any wrecks ourselves," say the men who are called on in times of emergency.

Texas Airman Is Cited For Tests

WICHITA, Kans., Aug. 1 (P)—Airman I-C Floyd D. Trimble of Point Rains, Tex., was among ground crewmen singled out for praise yesterday for helping make a jet plane endurance experiment successful.

Crew Chief Trimble was a ground crewman for two T-33 jet training planes that set a new world record yesterday for the airborne in 30 days. The planes were flown in relays by some 60 pilots from Wichita Air Force Base.

They had piled up 385 and 355 hours, respectively, since the test began a month ago.

Col. H. B. Spicer, air base and training wing commander, gave full credit for the feat to the enlisted ground crewmen that kept the jets in the air.

Air base officials said the previous world mark for fighter-type craft was believed held by an F-80 Shooting Star, which logged 307 hours in the air in one month in Korea.

Hoof-And-Mouth Talks Uneventful

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1 (P)—A joint Mexican-United States commission meeting on hoof-and-mouth disease apparently went off without incident yesterday.

The session was to discuss preliminary details for declaring Mexico free of the disease.

Dr. B. T. Simms, chief of the Agriculture Department's Bureau of Animal Husbandry, told reporter that "nothing had turned up."

Secretary of Agriculture Brannan has said that unless there should be a new outbreak in the meantime Mexico will be declared free of hoof-and-mouth malady September 1.

According to Simms there has been only two isolated outbreaks of the costly cattle disease in Mexico in the past two years. The most recent outbreak occurred in August, 1951, Simms said.

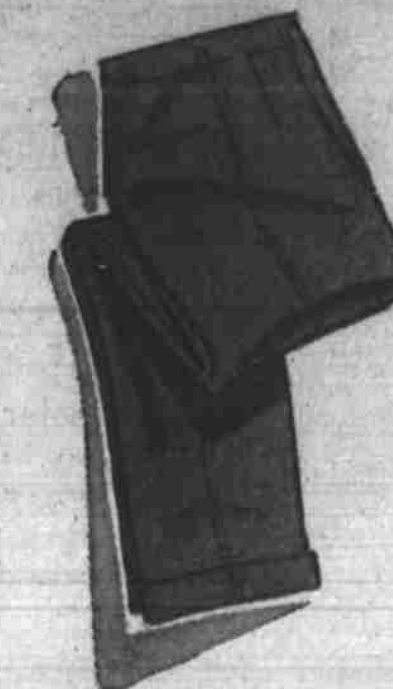

He described yesterday's meeting as "routine" and said it would be the last get-together of the joint commission until after the time set for lifting the five-year embargo on Mexican cattle.

New 'H' Bonds Are Ready For Delivery

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1 (P)—The Treasury announced yesterday that the new Series H savings bonds have been received from the printer and are now being delivered to buyers.

These bonds, on which interest is paid by check mailed each six months, went on sale June 1 in four denominations: $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

Buyers planked down 20 million dollars in June for interim receipts for H bonds, and officials said they expect the July figures, when available, to be higher.

Search Continuing For Would-Be Robber

CORSICANA, Aug. 1 (P)—Search continued today for a slightly-built, gun-wielding Negro who attempted to rob the First National Bank of Richland early yesterday.

The Negro was frightened away from about $3,000 in loot when a woman customer of the bank ran from the building screaming loudly.

The Negro was later seen at Streetman but late last night had eluded efforts to catch him.

State police and officers of Navarro, Freestone and Limestone Counties threw up road blocks to no avail.
