Reds Drive On Key City Of Kremenchug

LONDON, Sept. 29 (AP)—Investment of Kremenchug, one of the few remaining escape bridgeheads across the broad Dnieper available to the battered legions of Adolf Hitler in their retreat from the Ukraine, appeared imminent today as Red army troops pressed a three-pronged drive on the city from the east, south and north.

Capture of this important city on the east bank of the Dnieper would pave the way for a westward surge of Soviet forces across the 1,000-yard wide river, carrying with them an obvious threat to German concentrations on the western bank behind Dnepropetrovsk to the south, also under siege by the Red army troops.

A Russian communique placed Soviet troops nine miles from Kremenchug in the east, while other columns were said to have reached the Dnieper at points north and south of the city.

While the situation around Kiev, less than 200 miles to the northwest on the great bend of the Dnieper, was comparatively static with the Russians consolidating their positions on the east bank across from that great German defense bastion, Soviet armies far to the north were plunging forward in a movement that threatened the early collapse of Germany's upper Dnieper line.

The Moscow war bulletin recorded the capture of more than 1,000 villages and towns in this drive into White Russia toward the Baltic states and the old Polish border.

Lodge Asserts Soldiers Want Franker News

PEARL HARBOR, Sept. 29 (AP)—Greater frankness in war news presentation today will prevent cynicism and lack of confidence in our leaders later, U. S. Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr. (R-Mass.) said in an exclusive interview after war front visits where "I saw the reaction of our fighting men to habitually optimistic news reports."

He will report to congress that "our fighting men are mad because of the false optimism of our news."

It's a general condition of our news reporting, our commentaries and our desk writers," he said.

He noted that censors perhaps overlook the fact that, unlike the last war, the news they censor gets back by radio within 24 hours to the men who make the news, who are wounded and who have fallen comrades.

"Our present news censorship as I saw it at the front enrages and disillusiones our fighting men in the truthfulness of their leaders and at home it breeds apathy," Senator Lodge said.

Whom our rosy censorship and propaganda helps I do not know. If anything, it helps the enemy by getting us to underestimate him. Our fighting men rapidly are learning that our propaganda which makes all our Allies good and all our enemies bad is bunk."

He told of seeing American soldiers befriend Italian and German prisoners but said no such camaraderie exists in the Pacific.

"Our fight with the Japs is a fight to the finish," he said.

"The Japs made it that way. They tortured our prisoners, shot down our parachutists, executed our Doolittle fliers in cold blood and our litter bearers are their favorite targets."

"These truths of the Japs should be driven home, too."

One Jap Air Strip Is Left At Wewak

SOMEWHERE IN NEW GUINEA, Sept. 27 (Delayed) (AP)—American fliers returning from an attack by more than 200 planes on Japanese airdromes and shipping at Wewak, New Guinea, today agreed that the enemy base had suffered a severe blow, but reported at least one air strip was still serviceable.

Mitchell medium bombers from bases on both sides of the Owen Stanley mountains joined heavy bombers and fighters in making up one of the heaviest forces sent out on a raid in this sector.

B-25's accounted for most of the more than 60 enemy planes destroyed, and played a major part in sinking seven ships and 29 barges.

SOLDIER DROWNED GALVESTON, Sept. 29 (AP)—Pvt. Fred Hill, 27, of Des Moines, Ia., drowned in the gulf yesterday while swimming. He was attached to the army air base here.

As the liquor flowed away some of the by-standers dropped to the ground and lapped it out of the gutter without the aid of utensils.

Solons Seek Check On Government Workers

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29 (AP)—Spurred by debate over the Wheeler bill to postpone drafting of pre-war fathers, congressional demands for a new over-all scrutiny of government payrolls gained momentum today.

While Senator Wheeler (D-Mont) carried on an apparently futile fight to head off the induction of fathers which is due to start Friday until Jan. 1, action aimed at a re-shuffling of federal personnel went ahead on two fronts.

Wheeler talked for nearly four hours yesterday, charging that the administration had failed to drive "draft dodgers and slackers" from government and war industry payrolls, and said he expected to talk almost as long today.

Senator Bailey (D-NC), whose proposed substitute for the Wheeler bill would forbid government employment of able-bodied, draft-age non-fathers, as well as Washington assignments for most draft-age childless officers, said he would take the floor for his amendment later in the week.

"I'm opposed to the Wheeler bill," Bailey declared, "but the American people are entitled to every assurance that the federal government is not being made the haven for draft dodgers."

Senator Byrd (D-Va), who, like Bailey, believes the Wheeler bill might interfere with military plans, prepared to start a new inquiry into government payrolls from the economy angle.

"Every single agency of the federal government is overmanned," Byrd declared.

"In my judgment, the best way to get production is to have a definite support price that will last throughout the season. It should be high enough to cover the added risks and hazards that go with in-brilliant example of "how to obstruct the conduct of the war" and of "the vices of that whispering gallery journalism into which we seem to be sinking."

In addition to the editorials on his desk there was a copyright story by William K. Hutchinson, chief of the Washington bureau of the International News Service. Passages had been underlined, and the president read the first part of the article, after emphasizing that it was written by the head of one of the great news agencies.

It was obvious to his listeners that he objected to some parts of it. Behind efforts to "kick Marshall upstairs" to global command of Anglo-American forces, the story said, was a plan of influential White House advisors to give Lt. Gen. Brehon B. Somervell, chief of the army supply forces, control of the spending of $22,000,000,000 in the coming year through reorganization of the army production front.

Hutchinson credited informed sources with saying the motive was to use the army's production program, except aircraft, as a political weapon in the 1944 presidential campaign.

Another wartime job for Uncle Sam is ahead—the collecting of additional scrap metal—and plans for an October salvage drive in Howard county will be manned at a meeting called for 7:30 this evening at the Settles hotel.

Urged to be present by B. L. LeFevre, chairman of the county's industrial salvage committee, are all members of that committee and any other persons interested.

To be shown at the meeting will be a navy film heretofore restricted. It is called "The Life and Death of the Hornet" and tells the entire story of the famous aircraft carrier which took Jimmy Doolittle's fliers on the Tokyo raid from its launch to the time it went to a glorious end.

KILLED BY CAR HOUSTON, Sept. 29 (AP)—Dorchester Baker, 45, of Paris, Tex., was found dead at an intersection today by shipyard workers. Justice Tom Maes, who conducted the inquest, said Baker apparently was struck by a hit and run driver and left on the street.

Fifth Army Is Near City As Nazis Retreat

Allies Possess Peninsula Between Bay And Gulf

By NORLAND NORGARD ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, Sept. 29 (AP)—The Fifth army has driven the Germans from their last mountain position above Salerno and is pursuing the enemy on the plain within a few miles of Naples, the fall of which was expected at any moment.

The Germans routed out of the mountain strongholds in six days of heavy fighting, were in general retreat, leaving the allies in complete possession of the Sorrento peninsula, which separates the Bay of Naples from the Gulf of Salerno.

American and British troops of Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark began the final attack on the enemy's extremely strong mountain positions at dawn yesterday and by noon had captured Nocera, vital road center at the beginning of the coastal plain leading to Naples.

Castellammare, important naval base on the southern shore of the Bay of Naples, also fell quickly into Allied hands as the Germans withdrew in a flight that may not cease until they reach the River Ventura line, well north of Naples.

(In London, the authoritative British Press Association said it had learned Fifth army forces had entered historic Pompeii at the foot of smoking Vesuvius and only 13 airline miles from the heart of Naples.)

The break through on the extreme western end of the front extending across Italy from coast to coast was accompanied by a general advance on the entire Fifth and Eighth army line.

American troops on the Fifth army's right flank smashed their way six miles northward against crumbling enemy opposition and were within seven miles of Avellino, road and rail junction which is the key to inland communications east of Naples.

The capture of Avellino would constitute a threat to any German effort to make a new stand anywhere east or south of Naples.

The British Eighth army, meanwhile wiped out the deep

Mistrial In Rape Case Jurors in 70th district court in the case of Paul Harris, charged with rape by force, after a session lasting from 2:20 p. m. until 9:30 p. m. Tuesday reported themselves unable to agree on a verdict and Judge Cecil Collins declared a mistrial. A new trial was set for the November term of court by the judge.

Wednesday morning a petit jury was summoned to hear a contested divorce suit styled M. N. Brown versus Jossie Lee Brown, negroes. Other jurors were dismissed for the term as no other jury cases are scheduled to come before the court during the September term.

Witnesses in the Brown divorce suit were heard Wednesday morning and the jury was recessed until 1:30 p. m.

Jurors are C. J. Russell, C. V. Warren, Ira Minchew, Charles D. Read, Jr., Ernest Box, D. J. Sheppard, Carl Blomshild, F. W. White, Iva Huneycutt, Lloyd Watson, M. C. Grigsby and H. C. Harrington.

A divorce was granted Wednesday to Margaret Pederson from M. O. Pederson and custody of a minor child was awarded the plaintiff with defendant ordered to pay for the support of the child.

Martelle McDonald, district attorney, said that the grand jury would report back to court Thursday to consider two or three new cases to be presented.

City Buying $50,000 Bonds

The City of Big Spring threw its support behind the Third War Loan drive Tuesday evening when the city commissioners voted to purchase $50,000 in war bonds.

Funds for the purchase have become available through increased revenues and savings in administration and operation.

At the same time, commissioners asserted that every effort would be exerted to collect delinquent tax and paving accounts. B. J. McDaniel, city manager, said instructions had been given to tabulate old personal tax accounts which would never be collectable, and that these probably would be purged from the roll.

Also voted at the meeting was a contract to the Federal Projects Housing Administration for hauling garbage from the Ellis Homes unit adjacent to the airport. McDaniel said the contract was accepted for reasons of sanitation involving the city as well as the homes.

At the previous meeting commissioners had set the tax rate at $1.70, but neglected to pass an ordinance levying the tax. In order to give force to their rate, they passed the enacting ordinance.

Commissioners devoted considerable time to a thorough discussion of the water situation. McDaniel reported on trips to San Angelo and Austin in connection with a search for a permanent and an immediate, supplemental supply. The city fathers were agreed that this continued as the foremost problem and continued their survey of the situation.

SEVEN DIE IN CRASH PUEBLO, Colo., Sept. 29 (AP)—Seven men were killed today in the crash of an army four-engine bomber 10 miles north of Pueblo, Maj. John G. Hatfield, public relations officer at the army air base here announced.

A divorce was granted Wednesday to Margaret Pederson from M. O. Pederson and custody of a minor child was awarded the plaintiff with defendant ordered to pay for the support of the child.

Martelle McDonald, district attorney, said that the grand jury would report back to court Thursday to consider two or three new cases to be presented.

Yugoslavia's Young King In London CAIRO, Sept. 8, (delayed) (AP)—King Peter of Yugoslavia has arrived here from London with his staff.

King Peter's departure from London was disclosed yesterday in an announcement saying he was en route to the middle east but it did not indicate when he had left. His presence in the middle east stirred speculation that events affecting the Balkans might be in the offing.

Bloody Battle For Finschhafen Rages Toward End Today

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN THE SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, Sept. 29, (AP)—The bloody battle for Finschhafen roared toward its finish today, with Australian soldiers exacting a heavy toll among the Japanese defenders and the supporting bases of the enemy for 300 miles to the northwest along the New Guinea coast bombed into impotence.

More than 60 planes were destroyed at Wewak by Allied bombers and fighters Monday. Three tankers and four merchant ships, just arrived in the Wewak harbor with supplies which could have been interdicted for overland movement south, were blasted to the harbor bottom. The coastal road leading from Wewak down to Finschhafen was strafed at Hansa bay by Allied fighters.

Less than a mile north of Finschhafen, veteran Australian ground troops struck hard at Japanese positions on high ground, inflicting heavy casualties. Other Australians have fought their way to the banks of the Illebbe creek west of Finschhafen. The enemy's air and supply base, which is separated by only 70 miles of water from Japan's strategic island holding of New Britain, is virtually encircled.

Bond Deficit Pushed Down To $475,000

Howard county was pushing along with its Third War Loan efforts and had managed to get its "yet-to-go" figure below a half-million dollars by Wednesday.

But there remained to be subscribed, if the assignment asked by the treasury is fulfilled, more than $475,000. And everybody conceded that the last lap is the hardest.

Sales were reported very good at banks Wednesday morning, so that by Thursday night, the deficit may be down to $250,000.

But there will be only two days to raise that amount.

The answer is, said Drive Chairman Ted Groehl, for every individual, every business institution, every source of money, to re-examine pocketbooks and bank accounts and come forth with extra subscriptions.

"We have an obligation to fulfill—a sacred obligation," said Groehl. "The national campaign for 15 billion dollars undoubtedly is going over the top. The state of Texas will subscribe its quota. But the fact that the ultimate goal will be met does not relieve Howard county of its own assignment. It would mean, rather, that we sat back and let others carry our load. The good Americans of Howard county will not permit that to happen."

"I say again, and again: the word now is SACRIFICE."

Editor Faces Trial On Libel Charge PRINCESS ANNE, Md., Sept. 29, (AP)—Indicted by a grand jury and held under $500 bail, Rives Matthews, editor and publisher of the weekly Somerset News, awaits trial next week on a charge of criminal libel arising from stories published in his paper concerning Maryland Comptroller J. Millard Tawes.

The grand jury—in handing down the indictment yesterday, said Matthews had "intended to vilify and defame" Tawes in articles published in the newspaper last June in connection with Matthews' accusations that Tawes had misused gasoline ration coupons.

House Group To Study Added Family Funds

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29 (AP)—With a general draft of fathers due to start Friday, the house military committee today opened hearings on legislation to boost family allowances of enlisted men.

Called to testify was Major General Miller G. White, assistant chief of state in charge of army personnel, who was expected by committee members to endorse the principle of legislation which would increase substantially the payments to dependent wives and children, without, however, effecting any marked increase in the allowance for a wife only.

Passed by the senate Jan. 8, the measure would leave unchanged the present total payment of $50 to a dependent wife of an enlisted man but would boost from $62 to $68 the allowance for a wife an one child, with an increase from $16 to $11 for each additional child. None of the increased payments would be taken from the service man's contribution, which would remain at $22 monthly for class one dependents, or wives and children.

The senate bill also ups the allowances for secondary dependents, such as brothers, sisters, and parents, provided the service man involved has been their chief support. It curtails the payments to secondary dependents who receive a "substantial" part of their support from a soldier but of whom the soldier is not the chief support.

Atlanta Banker Killed By Prowler ATLANTA, Sept. 29, (AP)—Henry C. Heinz, 63, Atlanta banker and past president of Kiwanis International, was shot to death by a masked prowler at his home last night, and his son-in-law, Dr. Bryant K. Vann, 40, rushing to the Heinz home in answer to a call for help, was seriously wounded in a gun battle with police when each apparently mistook the other for the slayer.

Police Capt. L. J. Carroll said radio patrolmen W. M. Miller and M. W. Blackwell reported they answered the alarm shortly after Heinz, vice president of the Citizens and Southern National Bank, was slain.

Blackwell went to the rear of the house and Miller entered the front. The former said a man began firing at him from a woods back of the house and he returned the fire, Miller, hearing the shots, raced outside and joined his partner. In the exchange of shots, Dr. Vann, a dentist, was wounded, the officers said.

salient on its western flank, previously reported, and established a straight line between San Angelo and Malif, while along the Adriatic Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's forces stormed northward from Margherita Di Savoia and occupied the town of Zappanetta on the Gulf of Manfredonia, due east of the great Fogoria air base.

British troops on the extreme southwest end of the Allied front began the final shove against the enemy in the mountain line north and northwest of Salerno and encountered the bitterest kind of fighting at the town of Sala which already had changed hands many times in recent weeks of the furious struggle.

This time Clark's troops seized it for keeps and swept on triumphantly. The Germans, realizing that any further attempt to make a stand in that area was futile, began to retreat.

Reports from the front emphasized that the enemy's withdrawal was orderly and there was no suggestion that the Allies were taking any large number of prisoners.

The Germans appeared to have realized far ahead of time that they must ultimately yield before the A-1's hammer blows and accordingly made plans well in advance for a swift retreat.

On the Eighth army front a military spokesman reported German parachute troops who were captured complained bitterly that their only job had been to fight a rearguard action. One said that only 17 men were left in his company as the result of recent fighting.

With the advance moving ahead from the south and east, there was adequate evidence that Field Marshal Albert Kesselring long ago decided that Naples would be undefendable once the heavy, drawn-out mountain fighting ceased.

The capture of Castellammare gives the Allies a valuable shipping center and naval base capable of handling warships up to 330 feet long. The town has a population of 45,000.

The air offensive against troop concentrations and supply lines of the retreating Germans was hampered by bad weather, although some Allied squadrons which carried out offensive patrols encountered a few enemy fighters and shot down one of them.

Fighters and fighter-bombers attacked a train and a small motor transport convoy, the communiqué said, while other Allied airmen continued to patrol the battle area. No Allied planes were lost.

Between 60 and 70 per cent of the Soil Conservation payment applications have been signed by Howard county farmers, M. Weaver, AAA administrative officer said Wednesday. Farmers were sent cards last week advising them that the applications for payment were ready at the office to be signed.

The remainder is expected to be completed promptly in order that all may receive payments on time.

The tire panel approved a certificate for a new car to be purchased by R. L. Cook in a session Tuesday at the ration board.

Also approved were 51 Grade I tires; 63 Grade III tires, 83 passenger tubes; 24 truck tires, and 22 truck tubes.

Four tractor tires and 13 truck retreads were also okayed by the board.

School children will have an opportunity to hear Capt. J. O. Musick of the highway patrol talk on highway safety during National Safety Week beginning October 3rd to last through October 10th.

Capt. Musick will present a film and lecture at Knott school on October 4th at 10 a. m. The film will also be shown on Wednesday, October 6, at 9 a. m. at Forsan school and at 11 a. m. and 1 p. m. at the Big Spring high school auditorium. Coahoma pupils will view the film at 2:30 p. m. the same afternoon.

The pupils of Martin and Dawson county schools are also on the schedule to hear the talk and see the film on highway safety.

Texas Rural Letter Carriers set a goal of selling $300,000 in war bonds during the Third War Loan drive, and by Tuesday the total bonds sold by carriers stood at $432,232.25, according to an announcement from W. E. Suddarth, chairman of the committee, of which Paul Attaway, Big Spring, is a member. Carriers promptly set a new goal of $1,000,000 sold by Oct. 31.

Washington, Sept. 29 (AP)—A senate foreign relations subcommittee decided today to pigeon-hole the house-approved Fulbright "lasting peace" resolution and to draft its own declaration of post-war foreign policy.

Without specifically mentioning the Fulbright proposal, Chairman Connally (D-Tex) announced that the subcommittee of eight, which he heads as well as the full committee, would "draft a resolution expressive of its attitude" and recommend it to the full committee.

Connally did not say when the subcommittee would act, but both he and Senator George (D-Ga) recently have said they did not think discussion of post-war policies in the senate should come at this time. Connally has indicated that action likely would be delayed until after an American-British-Russian conference in Moscow.

The Fulbright resolution, approved by an overwhelming house vote, would put congress on record as favoring American participation, through this country's constitutional processes, in "appropriate international machinery" to preserve future peace.

Sends Christmas Gifts To Soldiers

Washington, Sept. 29 (AP)—Four hundred soldiers in all sorts of out of the way places will receive Christmas boxes from an unidentified little old lady in blue gingham dress.

"I want to buy a Christmas present for a few of the boys overseas who would not get one otherwise—boys in the most remote and lonesome places," she told the Washington Post.

A trembling hand held out a certified check for $1,000.

"I only wish I knew how long I will live. I am 76 now. I think I will ask my banker what to do," she said on her return the next day by appointment. In an hour she was back again with a second check for $1,000.

The Post asked permission to use her name and take her picture but she declined.

"I like it better this way," she said.

The requested $500,000,000 additional borrowing power would give CCC around $1,000,000,000 to finance next year's farm program. The agency already has $500,000,000 available for this purpose.

In connection with expected higher farm production costs next year, Jones pointed out the government was attempting to prevent further increases in food prices.

Jones also asked a change in the present Commodity Credit Corporation law which prohibits the sale of any government-owned commodity except grain for feeding at less than parity price.

Jones outlined his views as congress and the administration broke off a three-months admittance of food subsidies with the farm bloc rallying behind a new drive to forestall use of government money for direct price reductions.

Bond Appeal Is Taken To Club

Ted Groehl, chairman of forces pushing to raise Howard county's Third War Loan quota, expressed confidence at the Lions club meeting today that people of the county would rise to the occasion and subscribe the amount needed to go over the top.

"We need more workers to contact prospective buyers of bonds," he said. "If we get people to volunteer their time in this capacity, I think we can raise our quota. If everybody will work at the job, I know we will."

President K. H. McGibbon announced that the club had accepted sponsorship of a tin can salvage program and he ordered a committee meeting following the meeting to confer with an official of the WPB.

Talk for the day was brought by Joe Pickle, who gave examples of types of Axis propaganda. He also urged members to analyze all stories of questionable sources and to not circulate any tale of which they were uncertain or which originated with a foreign source.

Further Cut Fixed On Newsprint Use

Washington, Sept. 28 (AP)—The War Production Board today ordered a further cut in consumption of newsprint by newspapers during the fourth quarter of the year.

Donald M. Nelson, WPB chairman, predicted the new reduction in a recent letter to the congressional committee investigating the newsprint situation.

H. M. Bitner, director of WPB's printing and publishing division, said the reductions in permissible total usage would become effective Oct. 1. Required reductions will be figured on a sliding scale in combination with previously ordered slashes.

Of 12 persons referred to him, he hired 10, nine of them welders and the other a steamfitter.

Lend-Lease Total Over 15 Billion

Washington, Sept. 29 (AP)—Lend lease supplies to the Allied Nations now total nearly 15 1/4 billion dollars.

The overall figure was disclosed yesterday by President Roosevelt with his announcement that supplies for August set a new peak at $1,261,000,000—$211,000,000 over the July figure of $1,050,000,000.

The president's announcement of the August totals came after a hint of the possible trend of next year's invasion campaigns implied in the disclosure by Lieut. Col. William S. Gaud, Jr., of the army general staff that 10 per cent of military lend lease shipments for 1944 have been earmarked for such countries as France, Belgium, Norway and Greece.

The year's Victory gardens are expected to produce 10 1/2 billion pounds of food, compared with 7 1/2 billion pounds in 1942.

Badoglio Government Not Treated As Ally

By EDWARD KENNEDY
SOMEWHERE IN ITALY, Sept. 26, (delayed) (AP)—Despite the Badoglio government's obvious desire for recognition as a full-fledged British-American ally, it now seems possible that Italy may be accorded the status of a co-belligerent and that any concessions she may receive will be measured by the aid she delivers.

There have been indications during the past week that Premier Badoglio has been on the verge of declaring war upon Germany in an effort to line Italy up with the Allies.

This would be purely an independent action, however, and it is expected that Italy's new war role and her relations with the United Nations will be fixed shortly through negotiation.

Many difficulties lie in the way of granting Italy anything even approaching United Nations status. One is the reluctance of the troops who have been fighting the Italians to accept them as allies—a feeling doubtless shared by a large part of the public in the United States and Britain.

The attitude of Washington and London, on the other hand, seems to be that since the Ital-

Ollen Turner Wins Medal For Heroism

In the Tuesday issue of the Fort Worth Star Telegram was an item concerning Maj. Ollen Turner, Jr., husband of the former Chessie Miller of Big Spring, who has won the Soldier's Medal for heroism in the rescue of crewmen from a burning plane at a bomber station in England.

He has already received the Air Medal and participated in the major American raid on the Nazi U-boat base at St. Nazaire June 29th. His squadron is credited with destruction of a factory at Kiel and the sinking of two submarines.

His citation for the Soldier's Medal, dated Aug. 21, preceded by one day his promotion to the rank of major.

His fortress is named "Skipper" in honor of his wife, the former Chessie Miller of Big Spring, who now resides in Dallas, where Turner was employed by a contractor before entering military service. They were married July 5, 1942.

Younger Boys Wanted As Aviation Cadets

Youths, while still in high school, have been proven to have greater aptitude toward qualifying as aviation cadets than some older boys who have been away from their studies according to Col Marvin B. Durette, commander of the West Texas Recruiting and Induction District.

Thus, he directed a special appeal to young men to investigate the possibility of manning the increasing number of warplanes being turned out by American production lines.

Young men interested in securing full particulars on aviation cadet training should contact the U. S. Army recruiting sub-station in the postoffice basement, the cadet examining board at the Big Spring Bombardier School, or the recruiting office at Lubbock.

Do you get irritable easily?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Do you feel depressed—nervous?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Everybody knows that poorly digested food often causes a headache, sluggish condition.

But you may not know that Nature must produce each day about two pints of the vital digestive juices—liver bile—to help digest your food.

If Nature fails—food doesn't digest properly—you may get irregular. And the amount of this vital digestive juice may be still further reduced. Thus, digestive upset and sluggishness can follow each other in a vicious circle that keeps you feeling rotten. Therefore, take Carter's Little Liver Pills because they start bile flowing quickly—often within thirty minutes. When bile flow increases—you may help your digestion. You're on your way to feeling grand all over again. Remember—you can't get these same results from laxatives that fail to stimulate the flow of bile.

If you feel headachy, listless, irritable or depressed, get a 25¢ package of Carter's Little Liver Pills at any drugstore today. Take as directed. Tomorrow see how fit and alive you'll feel!

HOLC Apartment Units Ready Soon

The name of Duncan Drilling Co. has been added to the list of war establishments whose employees are eligible to rent converted HOLC apartments, L. S. Patterson, representative of HOLC for the lease-conversion program, reported Wednesday.

Firms now eligible are Duncan, Cosden Petroleum Corp., West Texas Sand and Gravel Co. and civilian employes of the Big Spring Bombardier School, who at first were the only ones eligible.

Patterson said that he now was in the process of renting three units which were turned over to him this week. As soon as plumbers finish their work, the remaining 13 units will be available for rent, he said. This will complete the list of 44 apartments made available under the program.

Have a Coca-Cola = Welcome, Short-Snorter

...or how to bring folks closer together

When short-snorters (trans-ocean flyers) meet and compare their autographed dollar bills, the invitation Have a "Coke" is fairly sure to follow. In three short words people strike the spark of comradeship. From the family fireside to far-flung fronts, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes—has become a symbol of those who see things in a friendly light.

Pass Defense Looks Better For Fri. Tilt

Another brisk scrimmage brought out an improved defense at Steer stadium Tuesday as Big Spring practiced setting a pattern against the expected Westerner attack Friday evening in Lubbock.

The Steers looked decidedly better, perhaps because Dibrell was stressing the importance of playing their particular assignments instead of maneuvering for a will-o-wisp ball carrier.

Also heartening was the degree of success experienced by the secondary in defense against passes. The small but speedy Steer backs were covering up fast and well. Since Lubbock is expected to have no hesitancy about taking to the air, what with a fine offense end like Jim Joe Reiger ready to snatch passes anytime he gets a finger on one.

Two Steer regulars were held out of the rough work Tuesday. Dewey Stevenson had a bruise on his hip and Dibrell didn't want to aggravate it. Gene Smith, with a sprained thumb, also was given a rest. "They will be worth a lot more to us Friday than they would have Tuesday," commented Dibrell.

Besides the scrimmage, the Steers put in an afternoon of blocking practice and in knocking off rough edges in timing of plays. But they finished in good shape, putting all they had into a couple of 100-yard sprints in full equipment as ordered by the coach. Today they get another session and then taper off on Thursday.

Dibrell Calls Meeting Of Ward School Gridders

Youngsters of six elementary schools who are interested in participating in the ward school grid league have been asked to meet John Dibrell, athletic director, at the high school gymnasium Thursday at 3 p. m.

Plans for the intra-mural competition will be explained by Dibrell, and arrangements made to issue uniforms the afternoon of Oct. 4.

Five of the six schoolboy coaches to be placed in charge of the ward school teams have been selected, said Dibrell, and the sixth will be ready for announcement by the time of the Thursday meeting.

Meanwhile, another "junior" grid outfit, the Yearlings, continue to maintain high interest. Instead of dropping off in number as expected, attendance at workouts under Wayne Matthews continues above the 60 mark. Billy Mims and Ernest Bostick, members of the 1942 Steer backfield, are helping Matthews, but Bostick took a trip to the induction center Tuesday and his coaching days may be over temporarily.

Pvt. Terry Moore Picks Cardinals

CARACAS, Venezuela, Sept. 20 (AP)—Pvt. Terry Moore of the U.S. Army, picks the St. Louis Cardinals to repeat the victory he helped them win in 1942 over the New York Yankees in the coming world series.

If the word "private" before Moore's name causes some confusion, remember that the captain of last year's Cardinals recently joined the army.

"Mort Cooper and Stan Musial will prove too much for the Yanks this year," Moore predicted while here playing for an army team from Trinidad against the local champions.

U.S. BEEF SHIPMENT STOPPED MEXICO CITY, Sept. 29 (AP)—Twenty carloads of cattle consigned to the United States were ordered stopped today at Ciudad Juarez, on the border, President Avila Camacho reported. Instead the shipment, which had not been authorized by the government, will be sent to Mexico City, where there has been a beef shortage.

Reds Spurt Into Runner-Up Slot

The Reds have had a couple of six game streaks earlier, but it took the late days of September for them to get really hot. They whipped the Phillies 4-3 and 3-0 with two seven-hit pitching performances by Ray Starr and Joe Beggs.

The Reds clinching of the runner-up spot was assisted by the Brooklyn Dodgers, who dropped a doubleheader to the Pittsburgh Pirates 3-2 and 4-2 and fell into fourth place as the Buccaneers took over third.

In the meantime the Cardinals split a doubleheader with the Boston Braves and did nothing to improve their prospects for next week's world series with the New York Yankees.

Mort Cooper, the Cardinals' ace pitcher, started the first game and was relieved in the sixth inning by lefty Harry Brecheen with the Braves ahead 4-3. Boston went on to win in the 13th 6-5 and the fact that another southpaw, Max Lanier, stopped the Braves in the second game 7-1 on six-hit hurling in the nightcap did little to camouflage Cooper's unsuccessful effort in the first game.

The Chicago Cubs took two games from New York, definitely interring the Giants in the cellar, 3-2 in ten innings and 2-1.

The New York Yankees were beaten 11-3 in their final conflict with the Cleveland Indians.

Manager Joe McCarthy gave Marvin Brewer his first starting assignment of the season and then sat in the stands to see what happened to his score-armed right-hander. What he saw was Brewer giving up nine hits in less than five frames, allowing a five-run rally in the fourth and letting another five-run flurry start in the fifth.

The Boston Red Sox trounced the Detroit Tigers 6-1 and the Philadelphia Athletics worked out on the St. Louis Browns 8-3 with rookie Lou Ciola scattering eight hits.

Courtney Joins 6-Man Gridders

Courtney, one of the original members of district No. 6 six-man football league, has been included in the district grid activities, it was announced here Tuesday.

The district committee was convened Saturday evening on a call from Joe Holladay, Forsan, chairman, to consider the request of Mrs. Alcorn, wife of the Courtney superintendent, for inclusion in the league plans.

Accordingly the league schedule has been revised. Holladay, who voted proxies for Sterling City and Water Valley, C. G. Parsons, Garden City Superintendent, and Mrs. Alcorn agreed that the games played last Friday would count in league standings and the new schedule was set up on the basis of giving Courtney an open date as of the past week.

The new schedule follows:
Oct. 1—Courtney at Water Valley, Forsan at Sterling City, Garden City open.
Oct. 8—Forsan at Courtney, Sterling City at Garden City, Water Valley open.
Oct. 15—Water Valley at Forsan, Garden City at Courtney, Sterling City open.
Oct. 22—Garden City at Water Valley, Courtney at Sterling City, Forsan open.
Oct. 29—Forsan at Garden City, Sterling City at Water Valley, Courtney open.
Nov. 5—Sterling City at Forsan, Water Valley at Courtney, Garden City open.
Nov. 12—Courtney at Forsan, Garden City at Sterling City, Water Valley open.
Nov. 19—Forsan at Water Valley, Courtney at Garden City, Sterling City open.
Nov. 26—Water Valley at Garden City, Sterling City at Courtney, Forsan open.
Garden City, Water Valley, Courtney, and Sterling City will play their home games each Friday at 2:30 p. m. while Forsan will schedule its home games for 4 p. m.

Derringer Joins 200 Winner Class

CHICAGO, Sept. 29 (AP)—When the National league baseball season opened Paul Derringer and Lon Warneke were slated for regular pitching duty with the Chicago Cubs, thus improving their chances of moving into the select circle of hurlers who have won 200 major league games.

The veterans were within close range of getting into the coveted 200 class. But pitching for the second division Cubs they have found the home stretch a rather rocky road as the season progressed.

Derringer, who started the season with 190 wins, was used as a regular most of the season but his losses outnumbered his triumphs, although he edged toward the 200 figure. Yesterday Big Paul, who will be 37 next month, rang the bell. He beat New York, which gave the knock-down-the-favorite society a loud laugh over what might happen to Pensive and Booflans.

These two—Warren Wright's solidly-built unbeaten filer and Lt. Col. Sonny Whitney's fast little lady—figure to fight it out for the big end of the bankroll on the "dope," but a field containing as many as 17 is going to make it strictly crowded once they start their cavalry charge down the Widener straightaway.

As a result, the K-D-T-F society began picking out the outside threats from the potential field today and two brand new names among the baby stars got quite a play. These were Tambo, the son of Mr. Bones from Mrs. Payne Whitney's barn, who hung on for a head win in the futurity trial yesterday and George Widener's fillet, aptly-named son of Pilate and Let's Dine, who came zooming out of the pack in the final sixteenth of the same sprint to take fourth money.

FAST CIVILIAN
DURHAM, N. C., Sept. 29 (AP)—The Duke University football roster lists 21 backs — 20 navy and marine trainees and civilian Bob Mulligan. But that doesn't trouble the youngster. In the six times he has been permitted to carry the ball he has scamped 143 yards, an average of 23.8 yards a try.

Sports Writer Was One Of 20 Killed

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 29 (AP)—The public relations officer of the Fourth Ferrying Group said yesterday that Lt. Dale Johnson, named in a dispatch from India as one of 20 U.S. army officers and men killed in a plane crash, was from Corpus Christi, Tex.

Lt. Johnson, a graduate of the University of Missouri, worked on the San Antonio Evening News and was a sports editor for the Borger, Tex., Herald before entering the air force in 1941. He won his commission as a navigator at St. Joseph, Missouri.

A dispatch filed from U.S. Tenth Air Force headquarters in India said the 20 were killed in the crash of an army transport plane near Calcutta last Tuesday. All persons in the plane except Johnson were killed instantly. Johnson died two days later.

Lt. Johnson was the son of Mrs. Howard B. Johnson of Corpus Christi.

Players Scout Team For Coach

AUSTIN, Sept. 29 (AP)—They're giving part of the credit for Austin's defeat of Temple last week to members of the 1942 Maroon eleven that swept to the state schoolboy championship.

Not until Friday night had an Austin team ever won over Temple on the latter's home field.

Coch Stan Lambert took his squad there without having scouted the Wildcats. Assistant Coach Tony Burger was to have done it the week before when Temple played John Reagan in Houston. A storm threatened to rain out the Houston game, however, and Burger didn't make the trip.

So Burger and Lambert, upon finding that Temple and Reagan had played, got together and remembered a little incident of the 1942 season:

The Maroons had lost to Temple 7-0. Just after the game Lambert had each boy write down everything he had learned about the Wildcats. Thinking his team might meet Temple again in the state race, Lambert filed the information away.

So Lambert got the notes out of his file and pieced them together. They gave a good picture of Temple's style of play. And that was the scouting information Austin relied on.

Said Lambert: "Those boys were smart enough to pick up some pretty good stuff—stuff the coaches couldn't see from the sidelines."

Two Service Teams Have Perfect Record

By The Associated Press

Randolph Field and South Plains Army Air Field boast the only perfect records among Texas service football teams.

Randolph has the top record—unscored on in two games—and boasting a victory over Rice, Southwest conference team.

South Plains has played only one game, winning it 30-0 over the 51st General Hospital of El Paso.

Six of the teams are in action this week, Randolph Field meeting Ward Island Marines at San Antonio Saturday and Bryan Air Field playing Blackland Army Air Field at Waco and Lubbock Army Air Field clashing with South Plains Army Air Field at Lubbock Sunday.

The standings:

Team	W	L	Pts.	Op.
Randolph Field	2	0	36	0
South Plains	1	0	30	0
51st Gen. Hospital	1	1	18	30
Lubbock Army Air	Field	0	1	14	26

Lubbock Service Teams Play Sunday

LUBBOCK, Sept. 29 (AP)—One of the nation's hottest service team football rivalries will flare up again Sunday afternoon when South Plains Army Air Field's Winged Commandos clash with Lubbock Army Air Field's Fliers here.

Officials who have refereed games the two teams have played so far this season state that they are about as evenly matched as possible. That was definitely not the case last year when SPAAF hastily organized a team to play the Fliers one game on Armistice Day, losing 20 to 0 to the experienced LAAF gridders.

This season LAAF has been defeated 26 to 14 by Texas Tech and SPAAF has to its credit a 30 to 0 win over a Fort Bliss eleven.

The cross-town rivals will meet again on Armistice Day this year, but the game Sunday will be a hot encounter with SPAAF out for revenge.

Coach Tells About Prokop's 80-Yd. Run

ATLANTA, Sept. 29 (AP)—Coach Bill Alexander of Georgia Tech is telling the real story of Eddie Prokop's 80-yard touchdown gallop against North Carolina last week.

Alex said in Prokop to replace Tailback Frank Broyles. Broyles had been calling signals. Prokop couldn't. The team went into a huddle. Finally, an alert lineman asked who was calling signals. They guessed it was Quarterback Wilbur Stein.

Stein, speechless, couldn't even remember a signal, but blurted "off tackle to the right. So Prokop 'off tackled' for his spectacular run.

SEATTLE — A. J. Browning's bantam hens hatched five turkey eggs last spring.

It's proved quite upsetting. The turkeys try to huddle under the bantams' wings, and are so big they topple over the tiny mother hens.

But the bantam rooster crows with pride.

Navy Reports Heroic Actions Of Pilot Accredited With 3 German Submarines

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29 (AP)— Destruction of three German submarines and the damaging of a fourth by a single American plane flying from an escort carrier on Atlantic convoy duty was reported by the navy.

Lieut. Robert Pershing Williams, Snoqualmie, Wash., scored the heavy damage on three undersea raiders. He was flying a Grumman Avenger bomber with Morris C. Grinstead, radio man, Lettis, Ia., and Melvin H. Paden, machinist mate, Salinas, Calif., as his crew.

Three of the submarines went to the bottom and a total of about 65 German crewmen were rescued from the sea by destroyers. The fourth submarine left merely a huge oil slick on the surface and was recorded only as "possibly damaged."

The first of the series of attacks by Williams' bombing plane came in mid-afternoon when Paden sighted the wake of a large submarine. The raider was strafed by a fighter plane, piloted by Lieut. (jg) Earl H. Steiger, Buffalo, N. Y. Then Williams roared in on his bombing run and the bombs straddled the submarine about 25 feet forward of the conning tower. The raider was mortally wounded but the German crew crawled to the guns and began firing upon the planes.

Williams had used his bomb load. He called his carrier and other planes were sent out to finish the job.

Meantime Steiger continued strafing the German U-boat. On his third attack his Wildcat fighter suddenly swerved, its nose dropped and it plunged into the water 100 feet from the U-boat. Steiger is listed as missing in action.

Then aid came from the carrier. Lieut. Comdr. Charles W. Brewer, Tulsa, Okla., carried on the strafing and was followed by Lieut. (jg) James F. Schoby, Bode, Ia., in a bomber, who finished the job of sinking the submarine.

Approximately 35 survivors of the U-boat were seen struggling in the water and a destroyer rescued 33. One died a few minutes later. The others are prisoners.

The next morning Williams, again on patrol, spotted a periscope cutting through the water about eight miles away. He sped to the attack, and dropped one bomb in close. The U-boat disappeared trailing oil. This attack was listed as involving only "possible damage."

Two days later Williams made his third attack, this one a certain kill. One bomb exploded directly beneath the German submarine. Five men were thrown clear and debris and oil spread over the sea. Two of the Germans drowned before a destroyer reached the scene. The other three are held prisoner.

A series of routine patrols followed until Williams' radio man Grinstead spotted the next U-boat.

Williams dropped his bombs. The sub surfaced sharply. Black smoke trailed from its conning tower and it began to settle. Approximately 30 survivors were rescued by a destroyer that reached the scene.

New USO Director To Be Here Oct. 15

Howard Bell, who is to become USO director here, fell ill Sunday while enroute here and will be unable to take over his duties for at least two weeks.

Although he had made his plans to be relieved this weekend, Ross Clarke, director and who came here to organize the USO program and supervise construction of the club unit and subsequently its negro branch, Wednesday agreed to remain in charge here until Oct. 15.

However, he is to leave Monday for St. Louis for a conference with Red Cross officials and enroute home he hopes to be in on the Army-Navy-YMCA conference at Excelsior Springs for a day or two. Bell was seriously enough ill to require hospitalization, Clarke was informed. He was to have assumed the directorship after Sept. 25. Bell has been in charge of a USO unit at Baytown, one which has been liquidated.

Ratings Open In WAVES Corps

Storekeeper, yeoman, recruiting specialists and many other ratings are open at the present for those who can qualify in the ranks of the women's auxiliary to the Navy, better known as the WAVES.

Complete information can be had from navy recruiters who will be at the postoffice building here Thursday morning on their regular weekly visit. Women between 20 and 38 with at least two years of high school or business college are eligible for enlistment.

Navy recruiters also will welcome talks with 17-year-old boys and with men skilled enough in construction and mechanical trades to qualify for ratings as Seabees.

Liquor prices in Big Spring

There is a nation-wide shortage of whiskey.

The whiskey now on hand is in no sense a "reserve."

Whiskey is aged for years before it is bottled and marketed and the present supply was intended for sale in '43, '44, '45, '46 and later. And now this supply must be stretched through 1947 and 1948 . . . because distilleries are now making only alcohol for war.

That's why there isn't enough whiskey available to meet the public demand.

Yet since our plants stopped distilling whiskey last year there has been no change in the official prices of Hiram Walker brands except for the new federal excise tax in 1942 and the OPA adjustments in 1943.

The official OPA prices in this city are as follows:

Canadian Club

Blended Canadian Whiskey
90.4 proof. 6 years old

$4.80 $3.01
4/5 QUART PINT
OFFICIAL OPA PRICES

Signet

Bottled in Bond
Rye Whiskey, 100 proof

$3.57 $2.26
4/5 QUART PINT
OFFICIAL OPA PRICES

IMPERIAL

Blended whiskey, 86 proof
The straight whiskeys in this product are 4 years or more old. 30% straight whiskey—70% grain neutral spirits

$3.07 $1.93
4/5 QUART PINT
OFFICIAL OPA PRICES

Walker's Bourbon

Straight Bourbon Whiskey
90 proof
This whiskey is 4 years old

$3.59 $1.84
QUART PINT
OFFICIAL OPA PRICES

TEN HIGH Bourbon

Straight Bourbon Whiskey
86 proof
This whiskey is 4 years old

$3.42 $1.76
QUART PINT
OFFICIAL OPA PRICES

There will be times when your dealer cannot furnish the brand you request. But in fairness to him, please be patient and remember that the whiskey shortage is real . . . due to the war work of the distilleries.

Public Health Notes

J. A. Olean, M.D., Director
Big Spring - Howard
Midland-Ector-Howard County Health Unit

The following message was sent to the Judges and Commissioners Association during its recent meeting in Midland:

Members of the West Texas Judges and Commissioners Association, the Midland-Ector-Howard County Health Unit and our district sanitary engineers of the State Health Department welcome you to Midland. Dr. Cox, our state health officer, regrets his inability to be here with you but he asked me to convey his best wishes for a successful war conference.

As health officials—and what is more important than good community health—we are concerned with general sanitation, good water, clean, wholesome food, garbage and sewage disposal and the protection of our people against the possibility of such epidemic diseases as poliomyelitis, dysentery, typhoid fever, typhus fever, diphtheria and smallpox.

Poliomyelitis, dysentery and typhoid fever can and should be reduced thru fly control, restaurant sanitation, proper garbage and sewage disposal and thru the elimination of open privies and cesspools in both city and county areas.

Typhus fever, a disease of many rats, is spread to man thru the bite of the rat flea. The number of cases of typhus fever has been increasing throughout West Texas during the past two years. Feed stores, markets, grain bins, eating establishments and garbage-strewn alleys invite rats into close proximity to people. Rat destruction and rat-proofing such places must be carried on vigorously and continuously lest typhus fever reach alarming and epidemic proportions.

The dread diseases of childhood—smallpox and diphtheria—are controlled only thru preventive measures. These are vaccination against smallpox and toxoid injections for protection against diphtheria. All babies, pre-school and school children are entitled to such protection.

Your sustained interest and cooperation in the control of these potentially epidemic diseases will be greatly appreciated by local and state health officials and by the people of your jurisdictions who look to you and to us for leadership and action in matters which promote the public health.

"Evangelism, Our Primary Task" Is Theme Of Annual Presbyterial Parley To Be Held Here Thursday

DOWNTOWN STROLLER

Talked with Mrs. IRA THURMAN, who gave us a lift up the street the other afternoon and she was already beginning to make plans for the tuberculosis seal sale this fall. That is always a sure sign of the summer being gone when the TB society begins its drive.

ROSS CLARKE was visiting with us the other day and talked about the new negro USO which is due to be finished soon. Haven't seen it, yet, but CLARKE says when it is completed it is going to be really nice.

Another of the local girls announced her engagement the other day. SARA REIDY is to wed Lieut. DON JOHNSON on Friday night, October 15th, at the post chapel. Since SARA is one of our favorite people, we are certainly wishing her the best of everything.

The American Association of University Women organization got off to a start last night with a meeting in Mrs. J. B. MULL'S home. The women are anxious that any member from another chapter, now living in town, contact the club and come to the meeting.

The enlisted men's dance is scheduled for Saturday night at the post at 9 p. m. and the invitations state there will be "more fun, more men and good music." The invitations are always decorated with clever cartoons and the girls look forward to getting them.

MODERN ETIQUETTE

Q. I met a cadet who was stationed at AAFBS and dated him until he received his commission and was transferred to another field in South Texas. When he left he made me promise I would answer his letters, and assured me that he would write the minute he arrived at his destination. Well I'm still waiting for the letter, and I know his address. Do you think I should write him first?

RR. A. Remember that this column is not an 'advice to the love-lorn' item, but the above question does involve proper etiquette.

The best advice we can give a young girl who is about to write a man who did not begin the correspondence is DON'T. In case you disregard this and do write, never say anything which could not be printed in a newspaper with your name attached! Keep it on the level and friendly without sentiment regardless of how well you like the man.

Send your questions to Modern Etiquette, in care of The Herald. Letters or post cards must bear your signature, but names are not used in the paper.

Ceremony Read In Colorado

COLORADO CITY, Sept. 28.—In a candlelight ceremony Monday evening at the First Methodist church in Colorado City, Miss Ruth Elliott became the bride of Ensign Billy Spalding Cooper. The double ring vows were administered by the pastor of the church, the Rev. C. M. Epps, at eight o'clock.

The couple stood before an altar decorated with baskets of pink gladioli and cathedral candelabra holding wedding tapers. Mrs. Curtis W. Saunders, sister of the bride, and Miss Mary Louise Cooper, the bridegroom's sister, lighted the candles preceding the ceremony.

Mrs. Saunders wore blue crepe with black accessories. Miss Cooper, navy blue with pink trim. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Dayton Walston who gave a program of traditional wedding music and marches.

The bride, who is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis B. Elliott, wore a tailored suit of soft blue with black accessories and with a shoulder corsage of red rosebuds. Bearer here, she is a graduate of Colorado City high school and attended Texas State College for women in Denton for two years. She has been employed, until her marriage, in the bookkeeping department of the City National bank.

Ensign Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben S. Cooper, was graduated from Kern high school and attended Texas Technological college for three years before his enlistment as a United States navy flier. He received his wings and commission as a navy pilot in Pensacola, Fla. The couple left immediately after the ceremony for San Diego, Calif., where the bridegroom will be assigned to duty.

Among the out of town guests here for the wedding were the bridegroom's aunt, Miss Louise Groseclose of El Paso; Mrs. Roy Edgar Jr., cousin of the bride from Dallas; Mrs. H. B. Wilson, her grandmother of Lorraine; Mrs. Arlie Martin, Mrs. Marshall Bruce, Mrs. Dan Butler, aunts of the bride from Lorraine, Patricia Martin, her cousin and Mrs. Clyde Wilson of Fort Stockton, also an aunt of the bride.

Christian Council Has Luncheon And Business Session

The First Christian Council met at the church Monday afternoon for a covered dish luncheon and regular monthly business session.

Mrs. T. E. Baker was chairman of the afternoon program, and Mrs. I. D. Eddins gave the invocation. Mrs. Bill Early gave the devotional on "Tithing" and the group sang "The Doxology. Mrs. Maurice Groves sang "Why Should He Love Me So" accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Bill Early. Mrs. L. A. Eubanks discussed "Giving, A Privilege."

Those attending the meeting were Mrs. Shelby Hall, Mrs. I. D. Eddins, Mrs. C. M. Shaw, Mrs. M. C. Lawrence, Mrs. Paul McCrary, Mrs. J. T. Allen, Mrs. J. H. Gray, Janice Rey, Muriel Groves, Tommie Groves, Mrs. J. H. Stiff, Mrs. T. E. Baker, Mrs. C. E. Manion, Mrs. Barbara O'Farrell, Mrs. Howard Kyle, Mrs. L. A. Eubanks, Mrs. Willard Read and Mrs. Bill Early.

Tricks For Brightening St. Nick's Pack Shown Leaders At Craft Class

Clever Christmas wrappings, original cards and unusual gifts for the Christmas season were demonstrated by Mrs. James Kidd, district Girl Scout worker, to scout leaders at the Big Spring high school each afternoon this week.

The group met in room 103 Tuesday for the second in a series of sessions which is being sponsored as a training course for local women interested in Girl Scout work.

Mrs. R. W. Currie, public relations chairman for the Girl Scout council, has announced that women may still enroll for the classes which are being held this week. Women are urgently needed to direct Girl Scout troops which will be organized when leaders are provided. The group meets at the high school each afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

In order that leaders may teach their scouts arts and crafts, Mrs. Kidd explained methods, and the group made lineoleum blocks, practiced potato block printing, spatter painting, wood craft and finger painting.

As timely gifts for Christmas, she demonstrated ways of making pens, wall plaques, etc., and showed how plain Christmas wrappings can be brightened with added designs.

Candlelight Wedding Service Read For Alva Powell And Lieut. Kinal

Couple Leaves For Visit In Buffalo, N. Y.

Miss Alva Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Powell and Lieut. Eugene Kinal, former resident of Buffalo, N. Y., were married in the parsonage of the East Fourth Baptist church Monday evening by the pastor, the Rev. R. Elmer Dunham.

The single ring ceremony was read by candlelight before an improvised altar banked with fern and ivy and ornamented with Anita Cates lighted the tapers preceding the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, U. G. Powell, was attired in teal blue three piece tailored suit with black accessories and her shoulder corsage was of white mums and red roses. Attendants were Lieut. and Mrs. Robert Catlin. Mrs. Catlin was attired in a red tailored suit with a corsage of mums and roses.

The bride's mother wore a black crepe ensemble with black accessories and a corsage of mums and roses. The bride was graduated from the Big Spring high school in 1942 and attended the Big Spring Business College.

Following the ceremony, the couple left for Buffalo, N. Y. where they will visit with the bridegroom's parents. Following their wedding trip they will be at home in Salt Lake City, Utah where Lieut. Kinal is stationed. He received his cadet training at the Big Spring Bombardier School.

Observance Continued At Church

The second program in the observance of state mission week of prayer was held at the First Baptist church Tuesday afternoon with members of the Woman's Missionary Society attending.

"Our Mexican and European Neighbors" was topic for the afternoon, and the program opened with the group singing "America." Mrs. Ross Clarke gave the devotional entitled, "Our Neighbors," and Mrs. R. V. Jones discussed "Europeans in Texas." Mrs. Roy Odum gave a paper on "Our Mexican Neighbors" and Mrs. W. J. Alexander concluded the discussion with a paper on "Growth and Development of the Mexican Baptist State Convention."

Special prayers were offered by Mrs. C. T. Clay, Mrs. W. R. Creighton, Mrs. Vernon Logan, Mrs. K. S. Beckett and Mrs. R. C. Hatch. Those attending the meeting were Mrs. W. B. Buchanan, Mrs. W. R. Creighton, Mrs. R. C. Hatch, Mrs. L. E. Hutchins, Mrs. W. E. Phillips, Mrs. W. J. Alexander, Mrs. K. S. Beckett, Mrs. C. T. Clay, Mrs. Vernon Logan, Mrs. Ross Clarke, Mrs. R. V. Jones, Mrs. R. D. Urey, Mrs. E. E. Bryan, Mrs. Carl McDonald, Mrs. Roy Odum, Mrs. J. A. Coffey.

The concluding program in observance of the season of prayer will be held this evening at the church with the young people in charge.

Periodic pain is no longer a forbidden topic. So learn about CARDUI, which may help in one of two ways: (1) as a tonic, it may pep up appetite, aid digestion, and thus help build energy for the "time" to come; (2) started 3 days before the time, and taken as directed, it may aid in relieving purely functional, periodic pain. CARDUI's 62-year record says: Try it!

Editorial - - We're Not Holding Our Quota-Line

The bond drive is almost over. Howard Countians have put up a good fight. They've bought a lot of bonds.

and said: "Give us time, we'll return to avenge the fallen defenders." In the meantime, the Army and Navy departments began sending out those cryptic little messages: "We regret to inform you . . . killed in action . . ."

question. The little messages still are coming in, to mother, a wife . . . waiting . . . waiting. But we all know we've made a good effort. We've put a lot of money in the Third War Loan. Almost a million and a half dollars. Next time we'll make up the difference.

In the meantime, you fellows in the South and Southwest Pacific, you battling your way through German armor in Italy, and you flying through the mist and the suns of far worlds, all of you keep slugging. Ma needed a new hat and we thought we'd cancel those last four bonds we'd planned for a short vacation. (We've been working pretty hard at the office lately.) But we won't let you down.

Washington Daybook - Gasoline Shortage The Worst On Civilian Front

By JACK STINNETT WASHINGTON - Unless we meet serious reversals on the continent, there is little likelihood that civilians will undergo any greater war hardships in the coming months than they have in the past.

chance civilians soon will resume acquaintance with a portershouse. As a matter of fact, except on some items in a few scattered sections, there's not much likelihood now of any shortages this winter. Of the essential foods, butter is the most critical, but WFA has cut the military's lay-away quota from 30 to 20 per cent for this month and will give them none at all next month.

Hollywood Sights And Sounds - Filmdom Feud, Viennese Style

By ROBBIN COONS HOLLYWOOD - Paul Lukas, the actor, and Michael Curtiz, the director and perpetrator of picturesque English phrases, once worked together as actors in the same theatre in Vienna. They worked, by all reports, amicably and with never a suggestion of a feud. Today, years later, they are moving toward a first-class musical chilliness, through courtesy of a couple of fun-loving kids you know as Humphrey Bogart and Peter Lorre.

At lunch one day Lorre and Bogart learned from Lukas of the old association, and brought back to Curtiz a few of Lukas's reminiscences. This awoke memories in Mike, and the fun-loving messenger boy hastened back to Lukas, emphasizing in their report a couple of Curtiz items about Lukas which were not as flattering as others. Lukas supplied a slightly barbed item or two on Mike, such as the incident when Mike forgot his lines and was shooed off the stage.

In the Wake of MURDER By ADELIN McELFRESH

Chapter 3 Jane met Billingsley's gaze unflinchingly. "No, Mr. Billingsley," she said. "No one is missing." Chester Billingsley hesitated. Then one hand brushed across his eyes, like he was wiping away an unpleasant picture.

ahead of her to the elevator. "Yes," he said when she asked him to wait for her at the third floor. "Don't be long, though." Jane almost ran to the Billingsley offices. There was no sign of anyone having been there. Mr. Billingsley's desk was in order, precisely as he arranged it every night when he left.

From Inside Germany Loss Of Mobility Is Blow To Nazi Army

(Arvid Fredborg, for two years correspondent in Berlin for the Stockholm newspaper Svenska Dagbladet, has returned home with the most comprehensive independent report of what goes on inside Germany since American correspondents left the capital. This is another article based on his new book, "Inside the Steel Wall.")

The German navy has not been improved except in submarines. Since the rise of nazism there has been a lot of talk in and outside of Germany that the army should try to liquidate nazism. Years passed and only weak reactions were noted on the part of the German military.

By EDWIN SHANKE STOCKHOLM, (AP) - Germany still is a great war power but her army has lost mobility, one of its greatest weapons, according to Arvid Fredborg, Swedish newspaper correspondent who returned home recently after two years in Berlin.

aircraft reserve appears to consist of only about 3,000 planes, which is too small a margin. The German navy has not been improved except in submarines. Since the rise of nazism there has been a lot of talk in and outside of Germany that the army should try to liquidate nazism.

Half expecting Brad, she picked it up. "Miss Carter?" Chester Billingsley's voice came in answer to her "hello." "Miss Carter, I've got to see you." Jane started to speak, but he hurried on. "No, No, I can't explain now. It's . . . There was a decided click—then nothing but the humming of an empty line. To be continued

Also, U. S. production has far exceeded expectations and in spite of production lags in certain instruments of war, we've got more factory space than we know what to do with. If the manpower and a few critical materials could be found, that space could be put to production of civilian supplies.

Meat shortages may end any week now. For months the United States has been in the ridiculous predicament of having a surplus of meat on the hoof and a shortage in the larder. The War Food Administration is trying out the system of lifting slaughtering quotas. It is believed that may break out the bottleneck. If it doesn't something else will be tried. At least, there's a 50-80

The Unseen Audience

Mike is still turning in his quota of Curtizisms, or contributions to expressive speech. When Bogart coughed in the midst of a rehearsal, he said, "I'm awfully sorry, Mike." To which Mike generously replied, "That's all right, Bogey. Don't let it worry me."

For the second time that day, she closed the office door behind her, breathing freer as she almost ran down the dimly-lighted stairs. Jane patted her hat firmly on her dark curls as she stepped outside and the rising wind snatched at it. She pulled her coat closer, thinking that the air felt like snow even if every star in the heavens was twinkling down at her.

At lunch one day Lorre and Bogart learned from Lukas of the old association, and brought back to Curtiz a few of Lukas's reminiscences. This awoke memories in Mike, and the fun-loving messenger boy hastened back to Lukas, emphasizing in their report a couple of Curtiz items about Lukas which were not as flattering as others.

As though unaware of her scrutiny, the figure detached itself from the shadows and crossed the street. Jane caught her breath. There was something familiar about the old slouch hat and overcast shoulders. She pressed against the rough stone of the store building, glad for its cold support.

Now he was gone. The street was almost deserted. Only an occasional automobile and a very few pedestrians were in sight. Jane wondered what time it was. Almost 10, she guessed.

Inside Germany

men each, making 4,050,000 men; 25 armored car and tank divisions, each of 8,000 men, making 200,000 men; heavy artillery and special troops numbering 250,000 men; a reserve of 1,000,000; an anti-aircraft force of 1,000,000; police troops 500,000; non-combat reservists, 500,000; air force, 900,000; navy, 250,000; coast artillery, 150,000 and 2,000,000 in an organization to do labor service, etc., making a total of 10,800,000 under direct German control.

The Bulgarian army has 30 divisions totaling 650,000 men. The Rumanian army has 25 divisions half of which are only being organized. The Slovakian army has 100,000 men, the Croatian 100,000, Italian fascists 50,000 and volunteers from other countries amount to about 20,000.

Finland is counted as having 300,000 men, while the Hungarians could produce about 40 divisions in all 1,000,000 men.

The problem of supplying troops underscores the shortage of oil and gasoline to keep the motors, planes and transports moving. German experts state that the country needs 22,000,000 tons of oil and gasoline yearly for offensive warfare. Economical and defensive warfare, which the Germans have been concentrating on since the end of 1942, will hardly require more than 15,000,000 to 15,500,000 tons a year.

Germany's production of synthetic gasoline in the spring of 1943 was reported by reliable sources as 6,000,000 tons a year. From Rumania Germany got 4,500,000 tons a year before American airmen bombed the Ploesti oil fields. Oil also flowed to Germany from Austria, Hannover, Gallzein, Hungarian, Albanian and some Russian fields, but it barely fills Germany's needs despite economical warfare.

The Nazis yearly oil reserves probably do not exceed 2,000,000 tons.

Fredborg concludes that such a skimpy margin, added to shortage of transport equipment and raw materials for parts, is rapidly dulling Germany's once most powerful weapon, and now, perhaps, turning it into her biggest weakness—mobility.

creasing monthly; and chiseling on the part of civilian drivers has outstripped the estimates of the most pessimistic.

In the east, at least, the heating fuels situation will be certainly as serious this winter as it was last. That's the way it adds up at the moment and even a slight glance at the whole picture discloses that civilians here will have less to complain about than any peoples fighting this war, and some who aren't.

OAKY DOAKES

BY AUTHORITY VESTED IN ME AS KING I, ARTHUR, COMMAND YOU TO KNEEL BEFORE THE QUEEN! OAKY... PLEASE.

NO! A THOUSAND TIMES NO!!

PRETTY PLEASE!

THIS UNSEEMLY BICKERING IS UNBEARABLE! I THINK I'M GOING TO SWOON!

I MUST GO AND TAKE A POWDER!

NOW SEE WHAT YOU'VE GONE AND DONE, OAKY!

I'M GLAD I DONE IT!

DICKY DARE

SUPERMAN

"AND ALL BECAUSE I COULDN'T RESIST THAT PLEADING LOOK IN LOIS' SOFT BROWN EYES!"

DID I SAY "SOFT BROWN EYES"? SOFT BROWN EYES?!

I'VE BEEN VICTIMIZED! THAT WASN'T LOIS AT ALL! THAT GIRL HAD BLUE EYES!!!

BUT THE IMPOSTOR SUCCEEDED IN HER EVIL PLANS! I'VE DESTROYED THE BRIDGE—AND WHAT CAN I DO ABOUT THAT?!

GOSH, I WAS SO SURE WE HAD THE RIGHT LEAD... MAYBE WE READ THE MAP WRONG!

NOPE! THERE WAS SOMETHING IN THE CENTER OF THAT CIRCLE, EVEN IF IT COULDN'T HAVE BEEN WHERE THEY TOOK SCORCHY!

A MUNITIONS PLANT! NOW CERTAINLY THE NAZIS WOULD BE INTERESTED IN THAT! ... SOMETHING ELSE TO THINK ABOUT...

AN' THERE'S SOMETHIN' I'VE BEEN MEANING TO ASK YOU, TOO!... HOW DO YOU KNOW SO MUCH ABOUT NAZI ESPIONAGE? ... AND WHY ARE YOU SO INTERESTED IN SCORCHY?

Don't Tell These Men--- "I've Already Bought"

They've Already Fought, Too - - - And Are Still Fighting

These are American soldiers. Some day, if God is with them, they'll come home.

And when they do, you'll get the biggest thrill of your life if you can look them squarely in the eye and say, "I couldn't help you fight—but I did everything in my power to help you win."

There's only one way you can honestly say that. And that is to help these boys win now—when they need all the help you can give them.

Today's particular job is for you to scrape together every dollar you can—and buy MORE bonds in the Third War Loan!

It's not enough to say "I've already bought." You have to buy MORE. And you have to buy NOW—unless we are to fail.

Will The People Of Howard County Come Up Short Nearly $500,000?
