JEST SOME THOUGHTS -

We think if we pause to take a nap or blink our eyes, Christmas will have come and gone.

We never saw anything move so rapidly before.

We're mighty afraid that while we're gazing toward the North a looking for the bearded gentleman, he will be disappearing in the South with his famous hi-ho.

hi-ho, but ho-ho. Brings to mind a silver horse instead of a red-nosed reindeer.

ple accomplish is the art of keeping sleigh bells. appointed time.

Tis the time of year for mysterious packages, red bows, gala trees,, mistletoe, jammed shopping centers, a visit to Santa, and the two most used words in the dictionary, "I want".

The Plainsman will bring you it's annual Christmas edition next week, so that we won't have to work all night on Christmas Eve.

ed with fruit, nuts and candy, and ing with. a surprise or too. Now the things desired by most kiddos would not even commence to fit into a stocking. We all move along with the times.

We received two very good items from Mattie Kinnison this week. She wrote them in 1954. Our thanks to Mattie for sharing them.

DEAR SANTA

Please don't forget, my little Sis For she is sweet and only three It would break her heart to miss A gift from you under our tree.

I'm a great big fellow of seven Not asking anything for me But she's too little to understand, It would break her heart, you see.

Dad works hard, trying to get us Lots of things like other kids, We kneel and pray each night to Jesus

Just before we crawl in bed.

Thank you, Santa, for reading my Dear Santa, letter. Your gift will bring a lot of joy.

Christmas, a little girl will feel better

And I'll be one big happy boy.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

May the Star of Christmas That shines from up above Remind you, God is near you And giving you, His Love. May all the added pleasure The joy that's in the air, Be yours, and always with you Each day, no matter where.

May our Loving Saviour Hear your every prayer, May He guide and guard you And keep you in His care. You, who follow in His way His Spirit amply bless Much loving joy and peace With success and happiness.

Make a wish of happy things You would want to come true; That is just the very wish We are making now, for you. A Merry Merry Christmas From us to all of you, A Merry Merry Christmas And a Happy New Year, too.

So, we roll off the page, and hope done before Christmas.
