Frenship Junior High Teams Place Well in Tournament

by Cindy Sewell

Both the junior varsity Tigers and the JV Kittens had an almost perfect day last Thursday as they braved opening 1 point losses to Post JV teams to win consolation prizes in the New Deal Tournament.

The JV Kittens had battled back in the 4th quarter of the opening game to tie the score when regular time ran out. In overtime however, Post came out on top 57-56. Dawn Hutcheson contributed 16 points to the Kitten effort while Cindy Sewell and Sherri Pittman scored 12 points each.

The JV Tigers also opened against Post, losing a close contest 36-35. Doug Townsend scored 14 points.

The Tigers came back in the second game to defeat Crosbyton 49-43. David Gilbert led the Tigers with 14 points while Rodney Parker contributed another 11.

After advancing to the consolation finals, the Tigers received a 29 point combined effort from David Gilbert and Doug Townsend to defeat Idalou for second place by a score of 40-35.

In the second game of the tournament, the Kittens beat Crosbyton 47-26. Sherri Pittman contributed 11 points to the victory while Dawn Hutcheson added another 10. On defense, Sheryl Harkness and Rita Stiger combined for 13 rebounds as the Kittens advanced to the consolation game.

The Kittens came from behind in their consolation game to defeat the Roosevelt squad 21-17. Sheryl Harkness grabbed 14 rebounds, and blocked 3 shots while Jolene Schroeder and Rita Stigers combined for another 13 rebounds in the defensive battle.

South Plains College Country Jamboree Set for Saturday Night

The best in country and western, bluegrass and gospel music will be heard Saturday night, January 31, at the monthly "South Plains College Country Jamboree."

More than 20 country and western musicians from the Levelland area will perform for the jamboree, slated at 7:30 p.m. in the SPC Auditorium in Levelland. Admission is $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children. All proceeds will be used to provide scholarships for students in SPC's country and western music program, said John Hartin, program director.

Featured performers will include members of the country and western band at SPC, Marty Beth Ashburn, bass guitar and vocals; Jeff Redman on mandolin; Gary Perkins bass guitar and vocal; Debbie Wells, guitar and vocals; Tim McCasland, banjo and guitar; Rick Dennington, guitar and vocal; Lewis Hise, guitar and vocal; Preston Perkins, drums;

Christi Brock, piano and vocals; Danny Crunk, guitar and vocals; and Hartin on guitar.

Other performers will include Randal Blackledge, Cater Casey, Gail Willis, Gene Welch, Gene Barry, James Baird, Sonny Mullins and several others.

The monthly jamboree is being sponsored by the SPC country and western music department, which broadcasts a daily radio show at 1 p.m. on KLVT Radio.

Ropesville Lassoos Federal Grant

Congressman George Mahon announced Monday that the city of Ropesville has received a $4800 grant from the Department of the Interior for the construction of a city park with a ballfield, picnic units, and a "tot lot."

The money will also be used for landscaping, fencing, irrigation, and for signs.

You might find Arthur Garcia in the late afternoons running through some of the local fields with his young Irish Setter, Scarlet.

But when he is not training the six month old puppy, the city's newest businessman is usually found in the offices of Tilecraft of Wolfforth, located on Main Street.

Arthur Garcia and his wife of four months, Mary, opened their ceramic tile and carpeting business in partnership with Joe Rosales, a month ago, though planning for the young business stretches back to August.

"We try to cater to the people in Wolfforth and the surrounding area," Garcia said, though much of their current business originates from Lubbock.

The shop sells and installs items ranging from carpet and linoleum floors to ceramic, tile, and marble countertops. In their spare time, employees also renovate small tables and other household items to sell to the public.

Besides himself and his wife, Garcia employs one full-time worker and subcontracts additional work out to two other employees.

The 21-year-old Frenship High School graduate has virtually grown up in the tile business. His father has been installing tile and carpeting since 1958. Working with his father, he learned many of the techniques involved in installing the many styles of tile the business carries.

After high school, Garcia worked for a while with Kelly Tile and Supply Company in Lubbock before going out on his own to do contract work. He recently returned from Amarillo where he had gone "to learn the tile business" and how it operates in other areas.

If a customer is interested in buying new flooring, or in purchasing covering for cabinets, a representative from the business goes out to the person's home to make an estimate. Mary, an interior decorator of sorts, helps the customer select the coloring and style which goes best in the customer's particular environment. Then the company arranges a convenient date with the customer to do the installation.

"We try to work them in the schedule and give them a date on which day we will be out there," he said. The company does both domestic and commercial business, he added.

Customers who wish to see displays of the new company's work can visit the home of Joe Rosales. Garcia has laid new carpeting, installed an entry, and redone the ceramic in the master bathroom.

To see the various products the company offers, people can travel to the main street office.

Though his first business venture has been "hard work," Arthur Garcia has his feet—and his business plans—firmly on the floor.

Frenship Junior Varsity Teams Win New Deal Consolation at Tournament

The 7th grade Kittens battled back from an opening loss in the Christ the King Jr. High Tournament last week, winning their remaining games while the 8th grade Kittens went to the finals before losing to Slaton.

Both teams took home a second place consolation prize in the tournament.

The 8th grade Tigers meanwhile won handily in the finals against Abernathy in the boys section to bring home a first place trophy.

Both Byron Bitner and Jeff Joiner were named to the all-tournament team.

The Tigers first victim was Idalou whom they defeated 34-25. Jeff Joiner contributed 12 points to the winning effort while Byron Bitner added another 10.

The second game was closer, but the Tigers came out on top, defeating Lubbock Christian 33-27. Byron Bitner led the scoring with 16 points and Jeff Joiner connected for another 8.

The Tigers advanced to the finals against Abernathy. In that game Jeff Joiner scored 20 points as the 8th graders came from behind to beat the team 40-31. Byron Bitner added 12 points in the winning effort.

The 8th grade Kittens began the tournament well with a close 28-27 victory over Idalou. Mary Patterson, who was named most valuable player in the tournament contributed 13 points, followed by Dana Dowgar who scored 8.

In the second game, Mary Patterson scored 17 points as the Kittens defeated Roosevelt Jr. High 24-20. The victory allowed the Kittens to go into the finals against the Slaton team.

In the championship game, Mary Patterson added 10 points for the Kitten effort, but the 8th grade team fell short, losing 43-20.

The 7th grade team started the tournament with a loss to Idalou. Pat Gaston scored 10 points and Sylvia Gomez scored 6 as the Kittens lost 38-20.

The second game found the Kittens again on the road to victory as they defeated Shallowater 25-23. Maureen Sewell and Pat Gaston combined for 19 points in the winning effort.

The Kittens then advanced to the consolation where they defeated Christ the King by a score of 40-17. At halftime, the Kittens maintained a slim 21-17 lead. But Christ the King might as well have gone to the showers as they were held scoreless for the rest of the game.

Pat Gaston was named to the all-tournament team for the 7th grade Kittens.

Drama Class Takes to Stage

by Ronda Newsome

Mrs. Hamilton's drama class presented "The Mice Have Been Drinking Again" last Tuesday for students at Frenship High School.

Those performing in the play were Robert Gregoreic as Jerry, Debbie DeRoss as Julie, Patty Johnson as Roxanne, and Tommy Ellena as the Guru.

This was the students' first performance on stage.

On February 10th, the drama class plans to present "The Wife of Bath" from Chaucer's Canterbury Tales.

Kittens Defeat Cooper in Overtime

Although having led throughout most of the game, it took a 3 minute overtime for the Frenship Kittens to defeat the Cooper girls in a game played Friday in the Frenship gym. The Kittens led after the 1st quarter 20-14 as Cissy Beaver scored 16 points. The score was 33-29 at halftime, but the score was 46 all after 3 quarters.

Cooper tied the game at 60 all with 13 seconds to go. A lay-up by Frenship with 2 seconds left didn't fall and the overtime ensued. The Kittens outscored Cooper 12-6 in the overtime to take the game 72-66.

Beaver continued her hot shooting throughout the game and finished with her season high of 42 points. Jacque Howard tossed in 18 points and Jeananne Jones added an important 8 points.

The guards played an outstanding game for the Kittens. Sheryl Hart hauled in 10 rebounds and 3 steals, Kathy Laney pulled in 6 rebounds and 8 recoveries. Betty Howell added 8 rebounds and 2 steals.

All in all, the game was one of the Kittens finest. It was a team victory as the forwards shot 60 percent from the field and scored a season high of 72 points. The guards did an outstanding job of defending Cooper's 3 high scoring forwards.

Tigers Win Christ The King Tourney

The 7th grade Tigers traveled to Lubbock on Wednesday, Jan. 21, to participate in the 3rd annual Christ the King Tournament. The Tigers first game was with the Idalou Wildcats. The Tigers defeated Idalou by a score of 40 to 23. This gave them the opportunity to play Shallowater in the second round. Leading the scoring for the Tigers was Pat Gaston with 14 points. This brought their season record to 10 wins and 2 losses.

In round 2 of the tournament, the Tigers had to play the Shallowater Mustangs. The Tigers defeated the Mustangs by a score of 32 to 17. Leading the scoring for the Tigers was Nicky Schmidt and Pat Gaston who had 8 points each. This gave the Tigers a 11-2 season record and a chance to play Christ the King in the finals of the tournament.

In round 3 (the championship round) the Tigers defeated the Trojans of Christ the King by a score of 40 to 36. This gave them first place in the tournament and a season record of 12 wins and 2 losses. Leading the scoring for the Tigers was Mike Rodriguez with 11 points. Tigers making the All Tournament team were Mike Rodriguez and Pat Gaston. The

Kittens Fall To Slaton

Tuesday night in Frenship gym, the Kittens had the upper hand for 3 quarters in a closely played game. Slaton's overall depth and experience won out in the 4th quarter as the Kittens were defeated 52-42 in a district 5-AA encounter.

The Kittens held a first quarter lead 14-12, a half-time lead of 26-25, and a 3rd quarter lead of 36-35. The Kittens went cold and suffered turnover problems in the 4th quarter. They went from a 36-33 advantage to a 42-36 deficit before they scored again. Cissy Beaver scored 20 points in the first 3 quarters but had only one point in the 4th quarter as Slaton outscored the Kittens 17-6 to take the victory. Jacque Howard added 19 points to the Kittens total.

The Frenship guards played another fine game. Kathy Laney pulled in 11 rebounds and 3 recoveries, Betty Howell had 8 rebounds and 1 recovery.

Slaton won the first half of District 5-AA play and may be on the way to winning another district championship. The Kittens made a valiant effort, but they just couldn't pull it out. The Kittens are now 14-12 for the year and 4-4 in district play. The Kittens face Lubbock Christian in Lubbock Friday, and Olton at home next Tuesday. They then close out the season with Post at home and Tahoka on the road.

Ropes Eagles

The Ropes Eagles defeated the Meadow Broncos 69-31, with Gary Means netting 15 points to lead the Eagles to the victory. Behind Gary's 15 points were Monte Moore with 13, Randy Melton with 9, Jeff Arnwine with 8, Dicki Arant with 7, Riky Streety with 6, Brad Pettiet and Chris Hobbs with 4 each, and Scott Drake with 3.

Leading the rebounds was Randy Melton with 14.

The Eagles downed the Sundown Roughnecks in overtime 59-57. Gary Means led the scoring with 19 points. Others scoring were Monte Moore with 16, Randy Melton and Riky Streety with 8 each, Jeff Arnwine and Brad Pettiet with 5 each, and Monte Moore led in revounds with 13.

Eaglettes

The Eaglettes lost to Meadow 73-39 with Sherry Means making 18 points for the high of the evening. LaWana Smith had 10 points, Elizabeth Trevenio had 8, Josie Ponce had 2 and Gail Stephenson scored one point.

At Sundown the Eaglettes fought hard but the Sundown girls varsity defeated them by a score of 59-41. Sherry Means scored 24 points for Ropes, Josie Ponce had 13 and Elizabeth Trevenio and Gail Stephenson both had 2.

The JV girls lost to Sunday 50-26 with Rebecca Guzman making 16 of those points.

JV Tourney

The Ropes JV boys brought home second place in the Whiteface JV Tournament, Jan. 22-25.

On Thursday the boys defeated Three-Way 43-40. John Cowan was high point with 16. For first, they played Whiteface JV on Saturday night. They lost 49-40. John Cowan was high point with 13 points.

Ropes Youth Wins Award

Jeff Arnwine, a senior at Ropes High School, received high honors with his essay on "Conserving Our Soil After 200 Years." The essay was sponsored by the Land and Soil Conservation in Levelland.

Jeff competed against four other students for the award from Ropes. He won a $25 bond for the Ropes win and also a $25 bond for being the district winner. His essay will now compete at the state level.

Ropes Students Of the Month

Seniors Wesley Cox and Suzann Lowrie were elected to serve as February Students of the Month.

Wesley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T.J. Cox. He is band president, student council president, senior class vice president, and senior class favorite.

Suzann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Lowrie. She is a twirler and drum major of the Eagle band, National Honor Society treasurer, student council reporter, and FHA secretary.

Both are active in All Region Band.

STAR-SPANGLLED HISTORY

HISTORICAL DRAWINGS BY JOSEPH BOGGS BEALE (1841-1926)

NATHAN HALE

Twenty-one year old Nathan Hale had volunteered for a special assignment: he was to obtain information on the British position for General Washington. Disguising himself as a Dutch schoolmaster, Hale had successfully crossed British lines and was returning to the American side when he was captured. Many believe he was betrayed by a cousin. Before being hanged as a spy by the British, he made himself a place in history when he said, "I only regret that I have but one life to lose for my country." SPORTS

by Joe Kelly

It was on the amusing side, really. Here was SMU Coach Sonny Allen saying that it was a big win for Tech, that they had to have this game. And, Gerald Myers said the same thing.

In reality, it was a game that both teams had to win, and obviously, one of them wouldn't be able to do it. A victory for the Ponies would have tied them with Tech, kept them in the thick of the fight. Now, SMU is fighting for survival.

A second home loss would have been disastrous for the Raiders, virtually eliminated them for title consideration. Instead, Tech went into first place, tied in losses with A&M, but in front by virtue of two more victories than the Aggies.

In the end Tech won because it went into the one and one sooner, had better success at the free throw line. The Raiders picked up six of nine on the bonus situation, SMU only two of three.

Tech shot better the second half, but SMU had one more field goal. Turnovers the last half were even at eight. And Tech held an edge in rebounds the last half, 25 to 22.

It was the type of game you have come to expect when SMU and Tech meet, and the margins were so thin you couldn't slip a cigarette paper in between them. It was a classic battle and, in the final analysis, the Raiders seemed to want it a little more.

Ira Terrell and Rick Bullock are entirely different types of players and their head-on meeting resulted in another virtual standoff. Neither played up to his potential, but both were important to their teams.

Bullock got a key tipin with 74 seconds left that gave Tech an important five-point edge. SMU was trying to go to Terrell at the end and he just couldn't respond.

There's no rest this week. The Raiders have a pair of tough games, Arkansas last night and Houston there Saturday. And the race is such that the lead may well see-saw the rest of the way.

But Tech and the Aggies have one thing in their favor. Five teams are bunched closely together behind them and, even if they knock off a leader, they will be beating each other. So it really is coming down to a two-team race with half the season to go.

In this first half, six of the teams played their eighth game Monday night—SMU, Arkansas, Houston (all 4-3) and Baylor (3-4), Texas (2-5) and Rice (0-7).

Tech (6-1) and TCU (3-3) played their eighth games Wednesday night and A&M plays its eighth Saturday night. For A&M, it's a rugged eight days, with four games—the double overtime loss to Arkansas and games Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.

The Raiders and Aggies are running neck and neck. Tech's loss to the Aggies here hurt and leaves it 3-1 at home, 3-0 on the road. A&M is 2-0 at home, 2-1 on the road, so the edge there is about equal.

Houston is 4-0 at home, but 0-3 on the road; Arkansas is 3-1 at home, 1-2 on the road; SMU is 3-0 at home, but 1-3 on the road. TCU is 3-0 at home and 0-3 on the road.

The race is far from over and it should be exciting for the fans right down to the wire—and tournament.

Back in the days when SMU ruled the conference and then when Tech came along to challenge, it was rare that either team used more than six players, sometimes a seventh.

It was nice to have a capable bench and depth, but these players seldom saw service, unless a regular wasn't doing well, or was in foul trouble. That seems, obviously, to be changing. Both Tech and SMU sent nine players into action.

Fortunately, Gerald Myers saw fit to go with his starters, primarily, in the last half, and it paid off. Even one substitute can upset the rhythm of a team.

That was obvious the first half Saturday, when Tech seemed on the verge of blowing the Ponies off the court. But subs came in, the Ponies got back in the game and when the regulars returned, they had lost their momentum.

Not quite two-thirds of the season has been played. The players ought to be in shape, certainly in good enough shape to play 40 minutes. And it was only Tech's second game of the week.

By all means replace players in foul trouble, or who aren't contributing, but it ought to be done cautiously. Let the top five play. It's hard to play hard, cool off and then come back with the same style displayed initially.

One last Cotton Bowl story. My wife and I were asked, along with Ish and Marylou Haley (Times-Herald) to escort the Arkansas players to the Gran Crystal Palace dinner-show theater. The two chartered busses were accompanied by the Arkansas State Police car. Regardless of lights, it blocked intersections and herded the buses straight through.

A couple of the Arkansas players were laughing and told us what had happened the first night the State Police car had been with them.

"We looked up and saw flashing red lights and Dallas police had pulled the state police car over. After a long talk, the Dallas police fell in and escorted us the rest of the way too!"

Denner cords went to Jerry Pack for Den 4, Den 3 was Tray Medlock, and Den 5 was Tim Chandler, and assistant Denner vords went to Larwence Brewer for Den 4; and Mark Usrey for Den 3.

The highest award received in Cub Scouting is the Arrow of Light and this evening we had two boys receive it, Joey Hickox and Joe Keith Brock. These boys also received their Boy Scout scarves and slides, and crossed over the bridge to Boy Scouts.

Joe Keith Brock received his three year pin.

The Webelos boys presented the colors and led the group in singing "This Land is Your Land", and "America." Den 4 gave the program on this months theme of "Knighthood", and Den 3 closed the evening with "The Knights Coat of Honor."

The February meeting will be the Blue and Gold banquet.

Sheridan's Ride

by Jack Sheridan

If you've been around anywhere in these parts during the last year, then you know that good old Roy Rogers, that Saturday afternoon movie favorite of all of us way back when, has emerged from the shadows of a kind of retirement and has gone back in front of the cameras.

You might say he's back in the saddle again, but that is only partially true. For in his new picture, "Mackintosh and T.J.," a Penland Productions release, his companion is a beat-up pickup truck, though he does get in some bronc busting during the course of the film. The picture, PG-rated and running 96 minutes, is the upcoming week's big excitement, for it has its world premiere at the Winchester Theater just a week from today, February 5, with a grand splashy Hollywood opening to-do. Roy and wife Dale Evans, will be on hand for the event which is a benefit that affects us all. Proceeds will go to the Ranching Heritage Center at The Museum of Texas Tech University.

The hoop-la will open with a reception for the premiere moviegoers in the lobby of the theater at 7 p.m., and "Mackintosh and T.J." will take over the screen at 8 p.m. Tickets are set at $10, $25 and $50, with the $50 holders in a special Golden Row section. These lucky ones will attend an after movie supper party with the Rogers.

The seats are all reserved and may be purchased at the Tech Museum out on 4th Street, or by writing P.O. Box 4612, Texas Tech University, Lubbock.

About 20 or so of us were given the chance to see an advance preview of "Mackintosh and T.J.," this past week, and let me go on record here to say, that all of you who have deplored violence, sex and all the rest of the current movie fare, can head for the Winchester Theater. You'll find a genial, warm family film that is not without its thrills and its threats—some baddies try to pin a murder on Roy but truth will and does win out in the end.

The plot tells of Rogers and 14-year old Clay O'Brien as Mackintosh and T.J. respectively, and the older man's task in making a man out of a rebellious, wayward youngster against the richly colorful and hard-living backdrop of the famed 6666 Ranch in Guthrie. There are a number of solid characterizations in support, Joan Hackett as a none too happy ranch wife, and Andrew Robinson as a peeping tom who kills Billy Green Bush after being surprised in the act of eyeing Bush's wife, Miss Hackett. A couple of nasties, played by James Hampton and Dennis Fimple, try to shift the blame to Roy, but are thwarted.

The plot is relatively simple, but what makes it readily tick, is a combination of factors. Primarily, it is the open simplicity that Rogers brings to his film comeback, an older, warmer, wiser, broader-in-beam, Rogers in his hold straw hat, cotton shirt and faded jeans. Complimenting the older man very nicely is young O'Brien who plays with a sureness and touching awareness. The aforementioned supporting players round out the portrait, aided by a number of stuntmen and 6666 personnel. The music by Waylon Jennings also ably enhances the West Texas scene, while the stunning photography by Terry Mead, of the open highway, the sweep of the ranch, and quick shots in Dickens and Matador, comprise some of the best and most realistic upper Texas backgrounds since the memorable shots in "Hud."

The director, Marvin J. Chomsky, had a rapport with the screenplay, but even more importantly, for his background and the characters of his cast, bringing to somewhat stereotype figures, a knowing kind of warmth that sets them off nicely.

It comes as a kind of shock to realize that it has been 24 years since Roy Rogers was seen in "Son of Paleface," and almost that long since his television series. Of course, we have had Roy and Dale Evans with us as rodeo entertainers, but to see him in the screen's larger-than-life portrayal again is a kind of gratifying nostalgia bit for many of us.

Tim Penland is the producer of this modest film. He is formerly out of Fort Worth and, I suspect, that his Texas background meant a considerable deal in capturing the land, the ranch, and the present times, in "Mackintosh and T.J."

So, Thursday coming up, February 5, is the Big Day at the Winchester Theater, and I can say that if you are counted among the premiere attendees you will gain two things. You will be making an important contribution to the most worthy Ranching Heritage Center at The Museum at Texas Tech, and at the same time, you will be right in the swing of real premiere excitement. And, you'll be watching a very nice piece of picture-making, an unusual treat in these callow days. "Mackintosh and T.J." is a bit of Americana that comes along just right in the Bicentennial scheme of things. And when the Ranching Heritage Center opens formally this July 2-5, "Mackintosh and T.J." will have had a good hand in contributing to the history of ranching in the western United States.

Who can you turn to?

When this Midwest town was struck by a massive tornado, Red Cross didn't have to be invited in. We were there.

To feed people. To house and clothe them. To make sure they got the right medical treatment.

And when extra help is needed, Red Cross has disaster teams in communities all over the country. We have flying squads of experts with long experience in disaster management. They're on their way from regional headquarters or Washington, D.C. in a matter of hours—to help local Red Cross volunteers cope with what often seems the uncopable.

Red Cross. It's working in your neighborhood. And it's ready to go to work anywhere in the country, when there's a disaster—doing all those things you'd do yourself, if you could.

Red Cross. Isn't it a good idea? Belong.

TEXAS EDUCATION AGENCY DIVISION OF ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES SCHOOL LUNCH SECTION

Frenship Independent School District, Lubbock County, Texas, Co. Dist. No. 152-907.

CERTIFICATION OF AMENDMENT NO. II 1975-76

NATIONAL SCHOOL LUNCH PROGRAM
We certify to the Texas Education Agency that the above named school district's Free and Reduced-Price Lunch Policy Statement, which was approved for the 1975-76 school year, has been amended to include the below listed eligibility income scale in lieu of the previously adopted scale. We agree to use the income scale indicated below as a criterion for determining the eligibility of students for free and reduced-price meals beginning during the 1975-76 school year and thereafter or until subsequently amended.

SCHOOL BREAKFAST PROGRAM
We further certify that the income scale indicated below will also be used to determine the eligibility of students for free and reduced-price breakfasts in those schools, if any, in the above-named district which participate in the School Breakfast Program.

SPECIAL MILK PROGRAM
We also certify that students who qualify for a free meal under this income scale will also be eligible to receive an additional one-half pint of milk free-of-charge in those schools, if any, in the above-named district which participate in the Special Milk Program.

Price charged for Reduced Price Lunch 20¢
Reduced Price Breakfast _____ (Indicate N.A. if not participating in breakfast program.)

APPROVED BY: Charles A. Cole, State Director
J. Weldon Bennett, Superintendent

January, 1976.
The Frenship schools will offer a reduced-price lunch program in addition to its regular and free-lunch program. For those who qualify, the reduced-price lunches will be 20 cents. A copy of the guidelines has been given to each student with an application form. Parents should read the letter and return the forms to the school if they believe their children qualify. Children whose parents or guardians are unemployed are eligible for free or reduced-price lunches. Parents may apply at any time during the school year.

Rays of Hope

by Pat Stanton

King Solomon is known for his wisdom and great understanding. His writings from the Proverbs offer to man great truths of wisdom and riches.

We as Christian believers need to continually feed upon God's Word, and the Proverbs should be in our daily diet of spiritual food. Listed below are practical guidelines for our lives.

Prov. 15:13—A joyful heart makes a cheerful face, but when the heart is sad, the spirit is broken.

Prov. 15:32—He who neglects discipline despises himself, but he who listens to reproof acquires understanding.

Prov. 15:33—The fear of the Lord is the instruction for wisdom, and before honor comes humility.

Prov. 16:3—Commit thy works to the Lord, and your plans will be established.

Prov. 16:5—Everyone who is proud in heart is an abomination to the Lord; assuredly, he will not be unpunished.

Prov. 16:7—When a man's ways are pleasing to the Lord, he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.

Prov. 16:18—Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before stumbling.

Prov. 16:24—Pleasant words are a honeycomb, sweet to the soul and healing to the bones.

Prov. 16:32—He who is slow to anger is better than the mighty, and he who rules his spirit, than he who captures a city.

Prov. 17:27—He who restrains his words has knowledge, and he who has a cool spirit is a man of understanding.

True wisdom is found in Jesus Christ. Accept His life fully and receive of His wisdom and understanding. Col. 2:3: "In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge."

PERSONALS

CARD OF THANKS
Words cannot express my sincere appreciation for the many kindnesses extended during my recent surgery and stay in the hospital. For the many, many prayers that were said, for all the lovely flowers and cards that were sent, the phone calls and visits that I received were so deeply appreciated by me and my family. May God's richest blessings be your always is my prayer.
Mary Ruth Walker

CARD OF THANKS
The Jimmy Bartlett family wishes to express their sincere gratitude and appreciation to the many friends in Shallowater for the deep concern and consideration during the recent fire at their home. Special thanks to Harry Tipton for his quick action in extinguishing the fire, to the Volunteer Fire Dept. for their promptness and to our insurance agent, C.E. Pair. The many kindnesses are deeply appreciated.

Those perfectly contented with themselves are blinded by self satisfaction.
