Texas Boys Ranch Goes to The Races Recently

Youngsters from the Texas Boys Ranch enjoyed a day of fun as the South Plains Racing Association hosted an open House at Arena Park Raceway.

Jim Lindsey, local Wynns dealer gave each boy his own racing jacket. The boys were also given spending money by the South Plains Racing Association. The hit of the day was when all the boys went for a ride around the race track with their favorite race driver.

The purpose of the open house was to raise money for the Saturday Night Telethon which in turn raises money for the Boys Ranch. The presentation was organized by Tom Cox, president of the South Plains Racing Association and $530.11 was raised by drivers and spectators. Randy Phumphrey gave $100 toward the Boys Ranch.

American Bank of Commerce Victim of Holdup Wednesday

Three men have been charged with the aggravated robbery of the American Bank of Commerce of Wolfforth. A fourth suspect in the robbery is believed to have escaped with an estimated $39,000.

Bonds of $100,000 each were set for the three suspects Tuesday by Justice of the Peace Wayne LeCroy.

Charged with aggravated robbery were Joe Carroll Jackson, 29, of 2118 26th St., Danny Floyd, 21, of Carrizozo, N.M., and Jerry Wayne Trusell, 37.

The suspects were quickly picked up by police less than 90 minutes after the hold-up at about 7:45 a.m.

Advance knowledge of a possible hold-up aided police in the arrest. One suspect was arrested shortly after 9 a.m., two blocks east of Slide Road on 59th St.

Two other suspects were arrested near 88th Street.

The robbery began when vice president of the bank Bruce Miller was jumped by four men who then took all visible money from the bank's vault and escaped to two waiting vehicles at a gin northeast of Wolfforth.

The robbers then apparently abandoned the getaway car, paired off and headed to Lubbock. Two men were in a pick-up while the others were in a car.

The fourth man who escaped is still free despite several tips on hitchhikers.

Free Lunch Policy

Ropes Independent School District has long recognized the need for helping meet the nutritional needs of its students. The Ropes School serves a well balanced nutritious lunch each school day. The charge to students who can pay is 50 cents in the elementary school and in the high school, reduced price meal is .20. However, since some families find it difficult to pay this price, the school will provide these lunches free of charge to those children determined by the principal of each campus to be unable to pay the price for their lunches.

Families who feel that their children may be eligible for free lunches are urged to apply. Copies of the application form were sent home in a letter to parents earlier this week. Additional copies may be obtained at the principal's office. The completed application, signed by an adult member of the family should be sent to the principal's office, Ropesville, Texas, 79358. Such applications will be reviewed promptly and within three days the family will be notified in writing as to the decision made. All information provided on the application will be held in the strictest confidence.

Any unusual circumstances or hardships which affect the family's ability to pay for school lunches, such as prolonged illness in the family, unexpected expense due to fire, flood, or any other disaster of this nature; seasonal unemployment and similar emergency situations, will also be considered.

If a family is not satisfied with the decision made on their application, it may request a hearing to appeal the decision. This request may be made orally or in writing to the superintendent of schools, P.O. Box 7, Ropesville, Texas, who will review the application with them and see if different arrangements can be made.

The school district's formal free and reduced price policy statement and the procedure that will be followed when a decision is appealed are on file in the superintendent's office and may be reviewed by any interested person. No child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color, or national origin.

This application is being made in connection with the receipt of Federal funds. School officials may verify information on the application. Deliberate misrepresentation of information subjects the applicant to prosecution under applicable State and Federal penal statutes.

The long-awaited joint meeting between Texas Tech regents and Lubbock County Hospital District board to discuss operation of the $22 million teaching hospital here should be scheduled sometime in September.

Former regents chairman Clint Formby told the West Texas Times that Sept. 30 is the target date for the joint session. During that meeting, members of the two groups will review results of a study to establish "community rates" on costs of shared services between the Health Sciences Center Hospital and Tech Medical School.

At Friday's meeting with Lubbock County Commissioners Court, the regents and LCHD board signed a document agreeing to share services between the teaching hospital and the med school at a "rate not greater than community costs."

The regents and hospital district also agreed to hire the firm of Caraway, Howard and Spikes as independent and outside consultants to aid in establishing the "community costs."

According to Formby, the regents LCHD board also have discussed possibilities of conducting a "town hall" type of meeting during which local citizens could ask questions about the medical school and teaching hospital.

Both Formby and LCHD board chairman Marshall Pennington voiced optimism about the agreement signed by their respective groups and the atmosphere of cooperation now existing in the effort to solve shared services problems.

Formby termed Friday's session a "positive step" in the negotiations. He said the agreement will lead to the dissolution of at least one problem between the regents and LCHD board—and should bring on the solution of other problems and development of a tremendous opportunity offered the university and the people of Lubbock.

According to Formby, the personal contact between the two boards in the past two or three months is an indication of the future. He said both boards need to make their staffs aware of the intention to move forward.

The personal contact between boards also has let to assurances that Lubbock's Health Sciences Center Hospital will be the primary teaching hospital for the Tech Medical School, Pennington noted. He said the agreement signed Friday relieves fears that Lubbock would suffer because of med school programs in existence in Amarillo and El Paso and one planned for the Permian Basin area.

The agreement on shared services that will be reached based on the study results will be for one year, the regents and hospital district board said. After that time, it can be renegotiated either up or down.

Formby and Pennington indicated there is still a possibility that the university will take over the teaching hospital sometime in the distant future. But before this can be accomplished, a large number of financial and legal problems will have to be solved.

by Georgia Doherty
Small Appliance Improvements
For Fall

If you are shopping for small appliances, you will see some big improvements—and some new versions—along with old favorites back again this fall.

Predictions from manufacturers indicate that "Ethnic" appliances, such as crepe pans and woks, will be big sellers.

New on the market will be a small deep fat fryer with capacity to cook one or two servings at a time. This appliance will be marketed as a companion for the popular burger cooker. For singles or youngsters, these two appliances can solve meal problems quickly.

Some burger cookers will come as two-burger models; others will have a reversible surface to double as a small griddle for eggs or sandwiches. Some cookers will provide for hot dogs as well as hamburgers.

One new appliance to look for will be a portable indoor grill that duplicates outdoor charcoal flavor. A built-in power exhaust system can be vented through a window or used with a regular vent on the kitchen range.

New toaster-oven combinations will feature broiling capabilities not recommended in many older models, and some new ones are even self-cleaning and can be pre-set for starting and stopping.

New with slow cookers will be a model that supplies a base to be used as a grill (two pancake size). The same appliance then can be used to grill, bake, roast, stew and serve.

With all these new features on the market, you need to be even more alert to comparison shopping. Manufacturers will compete with prices, guarantees and extras. Compare several brands in different stores before purchasing.

It's the beginning of a new school year for Lubbock area youth and also the beginning of a new 4-H year. After a fun filled summer of camping and travel, 4-H clubs are ready to begin meeting again.

4-H welcomes all youth between the ages of nine and nineteen. I don't know of an organization that offers more than 4-H does in learning about various subjects, participating in a variety of activities and gaining leadership abilities. To learn more about the 4-H program, please call the County Extension office (763-5351, Ext. 235).

The Lubbock County 4-H Fair will be held on September 11 at the Merchant's Building on the South Plains Fair Grounds. Projects will be exhibited in foods, clothing, crafts, rabbits, horticulture, electricity, poultry, dog care and training, agriculture and others. Judging begins at 1:00 p.m. with open viewing at 2:30. A series of skits and talent acts will be performed by 4-H'ers beginning at this time. Please try to come!

Overall superintendents for the Fair will be Mrs. Jerry Caddel and Steve Lee, both of Lubbock.

SPORTS

by Joe Kelly

It wasn't, in my book, the type of scrimmage that would send me hustling down to the corner bookie to bet a bob or so on Texas Tech to win the Southwest Conference title.

But—it wasn't bad at all and it had a number of bright spots. Steve Sloan is a more astute football mind than the one boasted here and when he says that it was probably the best scrimmage since he and his staff have been at Tech, he might be right.

Still, being the best scrimmage since he's been here and the caliber of squad that will win the conference are two different things. The Raiders have a way to go.

For one thing, we saw Texas on TV the other night and the Longhorns once again have the size that makes King Kong look like a rookie in muscle building school. Either Steer players are abnormally big, or else they have air inflated padding under their jerseys.

Take heart, Tech fans. The Raiders may not be that big, but they do have size and they are hitting. In fact, the way they hit Saturday might be an indication of things to come.

The Raiders also retained elements of the offense that last year led the SWC. The passing game augments the run and the combination Saturday moved the ball well. Experience makes a big difference and the Raiders have a lot of that on offense.

At the same time, the defense looked stronger than it did a year ago. I particularly liked the lateral pursuit and the containment that allowed that pursuit to catch up.

Massive teams, like Texas, A&M or Oklahoma State will give Tech trouble, but the margin isn't as big as last year. And Tech should have beaten the Okies. No, the Raiders have fair size, seem to have alertness and definitely showed desire Saturday.

Probably the most impressive thing about the scrimmage last Saturday was the intensity shown. Here was a squad that has been going through hard paces for 10 days or so. And yet the hitting was hard and the players really put out.

It will be a conditioned squad and, against Colorado, this could be a difference. The Raiders will have this week in which to work hard and then a week to install polish.

One of those officiating Saturday was Jim Schiermeyer. James once labored in the baseball vinyard at Tech, where he blocked many a wild pitch. Some of his detractors, and they fortunately aren't legion, claim he halted the errant flight too often with his head.

Be that as it may, Jim generally officiates Tech junior varsity football games and the coaches feel more confident with him in position. No one ever accused him of coming from a foreign land.

Anyway, with the reserves on the field and Jim sitting on a bench (with a reserve in for him), we sidled over and, by way of getting things rolling, asked how long it would be before there was more than one SWC from Lubbock.

At the present time, the only official from this area is Tim Hatch, a former Raider halfback, who is listed as a back judge and has been rewarded with some top games.

Schiermeyer's answer was no long in coming than a West Texas sandstorm in March.

"You tell me!" he exploded. "We've got a number of qualified officials, but they can't get hired. We've worn out a path to the conference office trying to get them on board."

"J.T. (King) has gone to bat with Hal Lahar (supervisor of officials) and can't get anywhere. It's politics and we don't have the time or money to spend hanging around the conference office."

That brought on a discussion of officials in general and we remarked that the Southeastern Conference used to have the worst—old, fat and slow.

"That used to be true," Jim agreed, "but no more. They have probably the best, along with the Big 8 and Western Athletic Conference. After that it's in a descending scale and there's not much to choose between the others."

Then Jim turned to the subject of Jim Carlen. We could have talked all weekend without having to bring up that name.

"I don't know how you feel about him," Jim declared, "but I still like the guy because he's a heckuva coach. You watch, he'll have South Carolina in the top 10 and he could win a national championship."

Jim opined that Tech had traded a winning coach for a nice guy—and there's no argument there. The argument is in the inference.

Steve Sloan is a nice guy, but I happen to think that, with time, he's going to be a winning coach at Tech, too. And when it comes to personality, that's like comparing Irish Setters with Bulldogs, ice cream with ice water or roses with prickly pears.

South Plains College Gets West Texas Hospital Facilities

LUBBOCK—The former West Texas Hospital facilities at 1302 Main today (Tuesday, Aug. 31) became the property of South Plains College in Levelland.

Dr. James G. Morris, chairman of the West Texas Hospital board, turned the keys to the seven-story structure over to Dr. Marvin L. Baker, SPC president, in brief ceremonies at the hospital. The facility, recently appraised at $1.87 million, will become headquarters for SPC's regional occupational center known as SPC at Lubbock. SPC at Lubbock, which began offering technical, vocational and occupational programs in Lubbock in 1973, currently has offices at 2404 Ave. Q.

"We look forward to becoming a full-fledged partner with industry and the city of Lubbock," said Dr. Baker in accepting the property, "and will continue to serve their needs in employe training and education."

Dr. Baker explained that the facility will be renovated and hopefully will open for classes in the fall of 1977. The renovation project is expected to cost between $500,000 and $600,000.

Allied health programs such as radiologic technology, respiratory therapy and vocational nursing will be the main programs offered at the facility. Secretarial training and distribution and marketing programs also will be emphasized. And other programs will be added as the need arises.

"We can see the day when SPC at Lubbock will be open 24 hours a day," said Frank Hunt, dean of the Technical-Vocational-Occupational Division at SPC. "We hope to be able to operate on a shift basis to coincide with Lubbock industry. And with 600 people a shift here, we could serve as many as 1,800 people a day at the facility."

Legal Secretarial Courses Offered

A basic and an advanced course in legal secretarial skills are offered this fall through the Division of Continuing Education at Texas Tech University.

Both six-week courses will be taught by a Lubbock attorney, Yvonne Faulks. Each will meet weekly from 7 to 9 p.m. in room 203 in Texas Tech's School of Law.

The basic course, starting Sept. 7, will cover legal terminology, paperwork procedures, time elements in litigation, wills and probate, real estate transactions, operation of the law office and legal ethics.

The advanced course, for persons who have completed a basic course or those who have five years' legal experience, will cover substantive law in the areas of personal injury litigation, wills and probate, corporations and law office management.

Registration fee is $25. Books and workbooks will be available for purchase after the first class meeting.

Additional information is available by calling the Texas Tech Division of Continuing Education, 742-3739.

Sheridan's Ride

by Jack Sheridan

It's no wonder that Charles Bronson, that craggy-faced movie star, looks so craggy. If any one star (maybe Charlton Heston, too) makes as many pictures in so short a turnover time, it would be enough to make anyone craggy.

Now, one of the faults of being quite so energetic with one's talents is that the action requires a lot of screen properties and with that quantity putout the consumption is tremendous and the results can vary from excellent to ho-hum.

Well, the muscular star who acquitted himself well in recent outings in such vehicles as "Breakout" has yet another feature unspooling at the Fox 4 complex, this one called "St. Ives." It is one of the Bronson lesser entries.

This 93-minute film breaks away from the pure violence, gun-toting image, gets a PG-rating, and generates very little energy or enthusiasm. Bronson plays an ex-police reporter and he gets mixed up with John Houseman as a wealthy criminal type and Jacqueline Bisset. You see, Bronson is acting as a go-between to recover some paper stolen from Houseman and each time the ransom fails, somebody else gets knocked off. Most of this is never shown on the screen, which is probably just as well.

By the time that 93-minute deadline is reached, some points are being rehashed and the net result is not so good. There is one difference in this film; it gives Bronson a more in-depth approach to his usually formulaized, static characterizations but that is about the only innovation.

You'll see some good talent going down the drain in "St. Ives." Maximilian Schell is around as a kind of psychiatrist to Houseman, while veterans Harry Guardino and Harris Yulin are detectives as is Harry Elcar. There is a motorcycle cop tooling around occasionally, named Burr De Benning and a couple of other names that might stike responsive chords are Michael Lerner and Elisha Cook.

Well, so much for "St. Ives." That's the only film on tap at this time. The lengthy hold-overs in virtually all the city's movie houses have produced a kind of stalemate at the moment. But, hold fast for there are a spate of new ones on the way, including an X-rated children's story (I mean, remembered from OUR childhood), "The Great Scout and Cathouse Thursday," purported to be another spoof of the old Western era. Departing thence will be that cute and funny spoof, "Hawmps," the so-so "Harry and Walter Go to New York," the awful "The Sailor Who Fell from Grace with the Sea" and the corny Burt Reynolds effort, "Gator." Sticking around for a while are the successful "The Omen" "The Shootist," the John Wayne "different" movie, "Gus" the Walt Disney bit about the kicking mule on a professional football team, and the flashy, vulgar "Drum," okay in its own right. Oh yes, that recall of Errol Flynn and Burt Lancaster priate epics "Swashbuckler" holds a little longer, too.

With a brand-new 1000-seat theater to utilize, Texas Tech's University Center Cultural Events series for the upcoming 1976-77 season is a winner. They've set mime Keith Berger to open on Sept. 30, lecture and films by dance critic, teacher and writer John Mueller, modern dance company Mordine and Company, South American pianist Alfonso Montecino, the Paul guitarist (classical) David Grimes, John Houseman-directed "The Acting Company" from New York City and the Atlanta Ballet, one of the nation's foremost.

The two "biggies" on the list are the Broadway hit musical "A Little Night Music" taken from Ingmar Bergman's "Smiles of a Summer Night" film (that's on Nov. 19) and on Feb. 17, 1977, the return of the highly-regarded Houston Symphony Orchestra.

Not a bad line-up, certainly enough diversification to please the most exacting demands.

Texas Tech's University Theater always has an interesting and compelling season for all tastes and the 1976-77 season is quality. The first item opening Oct. 8 will be Edward Albee's moderate succes, "Seascape." Drama events continue with the stunning "The Royal Hunt of the Sun," an Inca spectacular, to be directed by Ronald Schulz, Tech's entry in the American College Theatre Festival. Comedy and music rule with "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum" and stark, classic tragedy will close the season with "Oedipus Rex" by Sophocles. Schulz again helms this one.

There is a thanking nod to be extended to Virginia Lott out at the studios of Ch. 5, KTXT-TV, the Public Broadcasting Service facility and the Texas Tech station. She has been supplying me with a full monthly line-up of the excellent fare that features the daily output of this facility and it is appreciated. If you don't watch Channel 5 on a regular basis, then you are the loser and I'm sorry for you. Such weekly episodic gems as "Great Performances," the weekly Saturday classic films, the absorbing, nostalgic conversations (with film clips) with noted film directors, the weekly delightful hours with the Boston Pops under the leadership of Lubbock's beloved (and Boston's, too, I'll concede) Arthur Fiedler, with outstanding guests, the fascinating "Nova" series, and, of course, such outstanding entries as "Shoulder to Shoulder," "Jennie" and the perennial favorite "Upstairs, Downstairs" are only a few of the class, tasteful and dynamic shows that belong high on everybody's list.

KTXT-TV, Ch. 5, gives as well as it gets and it should get the maximum support in every way from television viewers in this community. It's a cultural, scientific, entertainment installation that informs and pleases. So, Virginia Lott and John Lacy, program director, hats off to you and thanks.

Wolfforth Volunteer Fire Department Update

By Carol Drake
The WVFD held their annual Bar-B-Que Saturday night Aug. 14. Most of the department members and their families were present. Each family brought a covered dish, dessert, or ice cream. The department furnished bar-b-que chicken, ribs and sausage, and Mr. Harry Cooper of Cooper's Meat Market donated steaks for the entire group. He and part of his family joined the party late in the evening. The Cooper's are neighbors of the Ronald Drakes, where the party was held.

Members and guests played volleyball after dinner. Members and families present were Ricky and Kathy Drake, Ronald and Carol Drake and children, Junior and Trixie Gatlin, and Kelvin, Norma (Ma) and Frank Henry and Frank Henry III, Sandy Gilliam; Ricky and Shelley McWhorter, Danny and Pam Milligan and Allison, Jim and Roger Phillipps, and Johnny Joe and Blanca Rosales.

Invited guests attending were the Walter MacDonald family, Lubbock Fire Marshal A.C. Black and his wife Juanita, Arthur and Mary Garcia, and Harry, David, Russell and Cindy Cooper.

The members want to thank our guests for joining us, we enjoyed visiting with all of you and hope you had a good time too. Also our thanks go to Mr. Cooper for his generosity and to David Bucks of Ropesville for the use of his 'Super' grill.

Several people returned Sunday for an impromptu supper and more volleyball, and were joined by the Josi Rosales family upon returning from Ruidosa.

Our Volunteer Firemen (and firewomen) and their families enjoy spending time together like this, whether on a camping trip or sharing one another's homes. We welcome new members to join, or visit, anytime. The department meets the 2nd and 4th Monday of every month at City Hall at 7:30. We have projects planned for the near future and we appreciate the participation of our community.

We will have another rummage sale on Sept. 11-12 at the temporary fire station on Main Street. We have collected a wide range of items throughout the year to be sold. The department stores the items to be used in our sale, and anything stored there is also given to anyone in need throughout the year. The proceeds from the last sale helped to sponsor 3 handicapped children from our community to the Handicapped Olympics held in Austin last Spring. We have donated time and money to several projects and can only be done through the proceeds from our rummage sale, car wash, and the circus sponsored last April.

We want to remind everyone of our local "Toys for Tots" campaign. Last year department members donated toys and nonperishable items to families who otherwise would not have had much Christmas and we sincerely hope to be able to expand these efforts this year as the need is definitely here. Our membership is not large enough to provide everything needed so we really need help. Anything you have that can be used in the campaign will be greatly appreciated. Please contact department members and we will gladly pick it up. We will clean, paint and repair anything fixable for these kids. Toys and items for all age groups are needed. Also, if you know if anyone in need of anything that the department can help with, please contact us.

Also, the community activities calendars have arrived. We sponsored them this year and are selling them for $2.00 each. This contains most of our community activities, including all school athletic schedules and holidays for the 76-77 term. These may be purchased from department members, or call 866-4675, 4863, or 4294.

Labor Day

The first man to suggest a day be set aside in honor of labor—the working man and the spirit of industry in the nation—was probably Peter McGuire. He was President of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America in 1882 when his suggestion was adopted by the Central Labor Union in New York.

The first Labor Day, then, was observed in 1882. In 1884 the Federation of Organized Trades and Labor Unions, which later became the American Federation of Labor, adopted the suggestion and states (Oregon was the first) began to declare the first Monday in September a holiday.

In 1894 Congress declared the day a holiday in all federal offices and territories.
