I HAVE A CANDIDATE

—John E. Drawhorn

I have a candidate! No, His name will not be on the ballot next Tuesday; but His influence will determine whom I vote for. Therefore, He's really my candidate choice.

It is strange, indeed, that He will influence me next Tuesday because you wouldn't expect a man of His background to have any power of influence at all. Why what has He ever done? He never traveled over a hundred miles from home in His entire life. He never wrote a book, owned a business, or held public office. He came from as far or the "other side of the track" as you can possibly come

When men first listened to Him speak, they exclaimed: "Can anything good come out of that town?" There was never a statue made of Him nor any eloquent ceremony to celebrate His accomplishments. He dressed in the simple way of the common people, toiling daily among them with big, brawny, calloused hands; hands made rough from the splinters of a Carpenter's shop.

When He did finally try to influence people's thinking they laughed at, spat upon, and humiliated Him. And as if that were not enough, the government of His day put Him to death in ultimate shame as a traitor hung on a cross between two common thieves.

What has He ever done? Oh nothing much, really. People were oppressed and He gave them hope of release; not so much from prison cells or iron bars, but from themselves. People were hungry and He fed them with an eternal manna. People were bruised, tired, ill, broken-hearted and dejected; He brought them comfort. People crumbled at the fear of death; He brought them hope that springs eternal.

How strange then that such a man could possibly be my candidate or influence my vote. But look at the alternatives!!!

"Where does He stand on the major issues," you ask? Taxes, for instance? His entire life was lived under the burden of the tax. When He was yet a fetus in His mother's womb, His parents had to make a long, hard trip to the nation's capital in order to meet a tax deadline. Do you think then that He would burden people down with more taxes? He gave up His life in order to release people from the injustice of tax crazy governments. Poverty, for instance? This man was born in a barn where domestic field animals were boarded for the night. He spent His entire life among the poor and similar backgrounded people.

His poverty program was this: "If a man asks for your sweater, give him your overcoat too."

War and Peace? He lived in a military province, occupied constantly by a foreign government's troops. And once He answered the entire question when He said: "Love your enemies, do good to those who would use you, or for spite hurt you and take advantage." To a teeming mass He stated: "Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God."

Race? You dar eto even ask the question??? The strands of His life are covered with chords of compassion for the oppressed and downgraded. Maybe we ought to remember that He was not a Caucasian; that His skin was not lily white like yours, and mine. In fact, His own race of people is olive skinned and still hated by a lot of other nations. Have you forgotten that over six million of them were killed, or should we say murdered, by Hitler and his comrades during World War II? It was this man whose people spent their entire life in bondage to other men and only in 1946 became a free nation again. You really can't be serious about asking such a question; His answer would be so obvious.

By now, maybe you think I have really lost my mind, or that this late October heat has caused my brain to falter. But tell me honestly, friend, how does your candidate qualify? Does he have hate in his heart? Is he racially prejudiced or narrow minded? My candidate could not possibly identify with such a man. And most of you who read this call yourselves followers of my candidate.

Well, maybe you'd like to ask me finally: "What happens to this country if my candidate wins?" I don't know really. But maybe a better question would be: "What happens if He loses?" Are you ready for the consequences?

I have a Candidate! One who was willing to die for the principles He believed in. Do you?

United Fund

Al Gardner, publisher of the Levelland Daily Sun News and County Chairman for the United Fund was a pleasant visitor at the Plainsman office on Monday of this week.

Mr. Gardner stated that the United Fund has failed to reach its goal in Hockley County for two years, and an all-out effort is being made this year to push it over the top.

The United Fund is a very worthy cause. You are contributing to the support of several organizations when Jones; of Lubbock; Allen and you make your donation to this one drive.

Among the organizations, to list only a few, are the Red Cross, the Salvation Army and the Boy Scouts.

Accepting the task as Drive Chairmen for the Fund for this part of the County are Mrs. Tyree Martin and Mrs. L. S. Rosser. Mrs. Martin said she would appreciate the help of any citizen or organization that would assist in the drive.

Much of this particular fund finds its way back to the Ropes community.

Card of Thanks

We would like to express our deep appreciation for the beautiful flowers which said "Ropesville Friends" ones who called at the house, and the many cards at the time of the loss of our beloved mother and sister, Mrs. George Fry. Your expressions of sympathy will always be treasured.

During a time like this, we learn how much our friends really mean to us.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Fry Yvonne, Sherry and Theresa Mrs. Opa Pierce

News of Area Men in Service

Amarillo — Airman John W. Roberson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Roberson of Route 1, Ropesville, has completed basic training at Amarillo AFB, Texas. He is now assigned as a security policeman with a unit of the Strategic Air Command at Griffiss AFB, New York.

Airman Roberson is a graduate of Ropes High School.

Sewer on Way!

The Plainsman was very happy this week to receive a telegram from Congressman George Mahon stating that the loan had been granted to the City of Ropes for a sewer system.

This is a long awaited dream of citizens that dates back many, many years.

Visions of new business firms, new homes, and a rise in the economy of our little town dance through our head.

The main thing we have always felt caused Ropes to remain at a standstill was the lack of a sewer.

We know that Ropes would have had an automatic laundry long ago except for lack of a sewer. We feel sure other business firms will be attracted to our fair city when it becomes more modern.

Several families have built homes in surrounding towns instead of here due to this lack of facilities.

We are grateful several families have forseen the eventual progress of Ropes and moved in and built fine homes here.

The City Council reports that with the granting of this loan, the sewer system for Ropes is well on the road to becoming a reality instead of a seemingly impossible dream.

Our sincere thanks to George Mahon for seeing this project through.

JEST SOME THOUGHTS

So you are riding high on the hog, and perhaps better off than your neighbors; better be careful and have a dab of humility — this is just one life. Man, you may be on the other side of the fence your next reincarnation.

Another thought concerning reincarnation — if you are planning on your grandchildren paying off the heavy taxes incurred — you better think twice — you may be back to sweat it out yourself.

An interesting subject — reincarnation — and food for thought.

Governor John Connally's Committee on Public School Education is responsible for the law of trying to consolidate Class B schools with others, so it is alleged.

Most common subject of today since the Green Bay Packers licked the Cowboys Monday night, is the upcoming election to be held Tuesday next, November 5.

Main issue of the ballot is the fact that three major candidates are listed for President.

We can't figure this George Wallace bit out. The senators, congressmen, representatives etc. are all either Democratic or Republican. How can a man fit in that is of neither party. Seems kind of odd should he win to say we have a Democratic Congressman, a Republican Senator and, yes sir an American President. Now that could lead to confusion.

We shiver in our proverbial boots when we think of this man's potential as a dictator. A free country is not run by force.

Wallace had his hands full running a State. He may be a good man, in some opinions as a Governor, but we seriously doubt if he is man enough to fill the shoes of President of 50 States.

Besides being President, a man must also be a diplomat. Up to now, one doesn't just order a thing done.

Wallace doesn't even have a donkey or an elephant on his corner of the triangle.

Heard one woman remark she is going to vote Wallace because he is the best looking of the three hopefuls — No wonder women had such a time gaining the privilege of voting.

We did not receive a sample ballot this year. Also we were unable to get any information on the Ropes voting polls, but presume it will be at the Community Building. Tuesday, November 5th.

A question taken from some literature we received: Would you really want George Wallace's finger on the 'button'?

Amendment 3 would permit more of the Permanent University Fund to be invested in certain types of securities under the prudent man rule.

Amendment 4 pertains to County Road Bond elections in Dallas County only.

Literature on Amendment 6 says 'Join the Tax Rebellion. Vote against. It is alleged to be an outrageous tax-subsidy scheme.'

Nixon says: The next President must unite America

Paul Eggers says about Rural Texas: Income is lower than in our cities, education-

Booster Club

The next Booster Club meeting will be Tuesday night at 7:30 in the school cafeteria. All people in the Ropes are urged to attend and join the Booster Club.

We are striving for 150 membership. It is the intention of the Booster Club to generate a degree of support and enthusiasm unequalled by any other school on the South Plains.

We are very fortunate in having the finest bunch of young people in our high school of any place that we know of. They deserve our total support in all activities as well as football.

If we can reach our goal we have plans to purchase for the school to use at their discretion, traveling blazers for our boys and girls basketball teams. Also we might remind you that for our basketball program for our little guys to function and keep up the momentum we must have more members.

It is easy to support a winning team such as our football boys; so we should generate enough enthusiasm and school spirit to help carry us through when and if we should have a losing season. That is the time when our kids really need our support.

We are indeed lucky to have outstanding coaches as well as fine men such as Coaches Arthur and Spradling.

Starting Friday night and for the rest of the season how about joining the Booster Club members in forming two lines onto the field and give the team a little extra support.

As a final note, you will be approached soon by a Booster to support our Eagles through a Booster Club project. When you are approached your support will be greatly appreciated.

Join the Booster Club and help us determine projects activities, etc.
