Pray For Peace

by Carrol M. Jones

On Sunday morning, November 28, 1971, Christian and Jewish leaders gathered in front of the White House in Washington to pray for peace and to invite people everywhere to join in a period of PRAYER FOR PEACE. Many churches and their ministers have received information and publicity on this Ecumenical Witness. It is to continue throughout the Advent and Christmas season and well into the new year.

Delegates from Protestant, Orthodix and Roman Catholic church people, together with representatives from the Jewish Community, will gather in Kansas City, Mo., on Jan-uary 13 - 16 to lend their strength to this movement. These representatives will come not only from the United States, but from Europe, Asia, Africa, Latin America and Canada as well. The Conference in Kansas City will be followed by an ecumenical witness in various places around the world calling on people to pray for peace and work for peace.

This is the season of "peace on earth and good will to men". It is a time, following so much of long years of war in which we have witnessed the utter futility of war, when people everywhere are hungry for peace. The time is right, and the impetus is strong for peace. Let us all in our various church activities, in our homes, in our daily activities, and wherever we may be join our prayers with those of many others for PEACE, LASTING PEACE.

Hobbs celebrate 50th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Hobbs will be honored on their 50th wedding anniversary from 2 until 4 p.m. Sunday, December 12, in the School Cafeteria in Ropes, at a reception.

Hosting the event will be the couple's children and grandchildren, Darwin and Lela Hobbs and children of Seagraves; Merlin and Nell Hobbs and children of Ropesville; J. C. and Joyce Dorsett and boys of Brownfield; and Lillian Gryder and boys of Brownfield.

The former Miss Mabel Freeman and Emory Hobbs were married December 24, 1921, in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Freeman at Fluvanna. The couple moved to Ropes in 1939 from Union, southeast of Brownfield. They are members of the Primitive Baptist Church in Brownfield.

Hobbs was born in Clay County, Texas in 1899 and Mrs. Hobbs was born in Scurry County in 1905. They have 17 grandchildren.

Residing in Wellington, they moved to Ralls in 1925 where they remained one year before moving to Fluvanna where they stayed until 1930. They then moved to Seagraves until moving to Union, southeast of Brownfield, in 1935. Their next move was in 1939 to the farm they presently occupy west of Ropes.

DALLAS, Tex., Dec. 6-Gary Don Means of Ropesville, Tex., shows the passing form he used in the 11-year-old Dallas area Punt, Pass & Kick championship competition at Texas Stadium here Saturday. Although Gary did not win in his age group, he retains his title as North and Central Texas PP&K 11-year-old champion. PP&K area winners now advance to the national semi-final competition Dec. 18 in Dallas. Gary was sponsored in the PP&K competition by Ernest Gentry Ford of Levelland, Tex.

This world has seen enough of war, and hate, and devastation by war. Let us all petition God first, and then humanity to have done with this greatest enemy of humanity. It must be later than we think!

The Order of the Eastern Star will meet Thursday, December 9, at 7 p.m. All members are urged to attend and bring a $1.50 to $2 gift to be given to the OES home. This will be the annual Christmas party.

There will be a 4-H meeting Monday, December 13, right after school in the cafeteria.

Each member is to bring homemade candy to sell in order to finance their upcoming projects.

The candy will be sold after the meeting, and members will return to the cafeteria for refreshments and games.

ELECTS OFFICERS

The South Plains Topperett Twrilling Club met recently and elected new officers. They are Mrs. Jane Gillit, president; Mrs. Loveta Ream, vice president; Mrs. DeLois Jordon, secretary; Mrs. Nell Hobbs, treasurer; and Mrs. Sandra Leach, historian.

The club members are the students of Mrs. Carolyn Green and their mothers.

Members from Ropes are Mrs. Nell Hobbs and Melody, Mrs. Carolyn Chaney and Debbie, Mrs. Von Dalton and Sharon, Mrs. Loveta Ream and Monica, and Carolyn Riney and Barbie.

The girls will appear on the Early Bird Show Dec. 23 on KSEL T.V. at 4 p.m. At this time there will be a drawing for a red tandem Everyone in the Ropes community has a special invitation to attend the reception.

bike to be given away by the Topperetts.

Each girl will be selling a pencil that says "Twrilling is fun." If you buy the pencil for a dollar, they will give you a free chance on the bicycle. The money will be used to finance the Little Miss and Miss LaPetite contest to be held in Wolfforth Feb. 5. Entry blanks will be available soon.

Directors are Mrs. Jane Gillit, Wolfforth, 806-866-4498 and Mrs. Carolyn Chaney of Ropes, 806-562-3677.

Marguerite Morris was in Leander, near Austin, visiting over the Thanksgiving holidays in the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Junior Creamer, Clark, Marcie and Chris. JORDANS TO PRESENT PROGRAMS-The Jordans, Jerry and Bruce, and wives, Marilyn and Colleen of Chattanooga, Tenn., will appear at the Church of the Nazarene in Ropesville at 2:30 p.m. Dec. 12 and at the Baptist Church in Tokio the same day at 7 p.m. Originally from West Texas, they resided in Brownfield. Bruce formerly sang tenor for Whitey Gleason and the Jubilee Quartet. Their travels lead them from Canada to California in a full-time ministry. "We try to present Christ in the most spiritual kind of program possible," says Bruce. The public is cordially invited to attend both services.

ADVENT ACTIVITIES

Next Sunday the worship service will center in an Advent Communion Service which will be in keeping with the type of worship practiced by the primitive church. Every member who is able to be up and around is urged to participate. That evening we will go as a body to St. Luke United Methodist Church to share in their Christmas music festival beginning at 6:30 o'clock. This will feature the Carols of Christmas.

The following Sunday evening we have our regular Sunday before Christmas program celebrating the birth of Jesus Christ. Everyone is invited to attend and worship with us beginning at 6 p.m.

Sunday, December 26, will remind us that Christmastide has begun. Christmas will not be over for the Christian; but just beginning, for Christmastide continues

Let us be in preparation for Christmas now. Then let us keep Christmas through Christmastide and its spirit all year long.

BAPTISMAL SERVICE FOR HALLIE LYNN JONES The sacrament of Holy Baptism was celebrated for Hallie Lynn Jones in the evening worship service of First United Methodist Church Sunday, December 5. Hallie Lynn is the baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shelley K. Jones of Lubbock and the granddaughter of Reverend and Mrs. Carrl M. Jones of Ropesville. Reverend Jones, pastor of the church, administered the sacrament for Hallie Lynn who was presented in baptism at the chancel by her parents accompanied by Mrs. Carrol M. Jones. Lay leader, Travis White, assisted in the service and represented the congregation, leading it in the re-
