Gov. John Connally has proclaimed Nov. 8 to 15 as Texas Education Week. The classroom teachers of Slaton met Tuesday after school, and it was reported that all the teachers in the Slaton school system are members of the Texas Classroom Teachers. Mrs. Willard Childers is president of the local chapter.

Any teacher will welcome the opportunity of telling you more about the professional growth and professional advancement of our schools and teaching during Texas Education Week. One question you might be interested in asking is "How do Texas schools compare to those of other states?" Almost all Texans know how we stand in the football ratings, but do we know what we should about our schools?

Next week might be a good time to call on some teacher or school official to speak to your club or group. Check with Mrs. Childers...she'll work with you on arrangements. You might be interested in asking them how salaries, sick leave and working benefits of Classroom Teachers here in Slaton compare with other jobs.

Texas Education Week would be a good time to get better acquainted with your school and its teachers.

While on the subject of visiting schools, the women working in our cafeterias invite any student's parent to visit in the cafeterias. The cafeteria women here have formed a club, where they meet with the Southland cafeteria women and exchange ideas. At their meeting Monday night, a film was shown, and one of the women expressed that she wished every parent could have seen it. She said it would help make parents realize how important a balanced diet is to each child, and make us proud that we have places like our school cafeterias in America.

As some of you know, last Wednesday several fire prevention experts were in Slaton for "Town Inspection Day", and inspected businesses around town for fire hazards. The last report I had, Phil Brewer's insurance office ended up as the biggest fire hazard in town. They tagged every thing in sight, his golf trophy, mounted trout, and even his pretty secretary.

Tuesday was a happy day at our house and also an unhappy one.

It was our son Stevie's 10th birthday. I can remember back when he was just a little one-year-old and he and his daddy purchased a little black dog from the dog pound. He wasn't any sort of a special kind of dog, but we grew to love him, even though he never learned any tricks and certainly wouldn't have won any sort of a dog contest.

He lived with us for nine years, and Tuesday he was hit by a car and killed. You dog lovers know how we feel around our house now.

That ole' dog, Bimbo, is sure gonna be missed.

Carnivals Big Success Here

A centerpiece was given as the door prize at West Ward School, and Carolyn Biggs was the lucky winner.

AUSTIN— Anyone who is under the impression that glue sniffing gives a fellow a few harmless kicks is sadly mistaken. Serious damage may be caused by the solvents in glues. Exactly how serious or extensive the damage can be is not yet known.

But it is a fact that nine recent deaths are attributed to this practice. Six of these involved glue sniffing while the victim's head was covered with a plastic bag.

Some of the "sniffing" symptoms reported to poison control centers ranged from headache, dizziness and breathlessness to intoxication, unconsciousness, blurred vision and paleness.

Apart from the physical injury produced by the inhalation of the solvents from glues, incalculable harm can be done while youngsters are under its influence.

One youngster described his sensations: "I saw two of everything, and everything far away looked real near. I had noise in my ears like a fire-cracker going off, and then I BLACKED OUT."

One boy in his early teens was so exhilarated by glue sniffing that he assumed a fighting stance before an oncoming freight train, narrowly escaping death.

A 12-year-old who had never been known to steal, robbed a florist shop while under the influence of glue. Another young glue-sniffer jumped off a low building, convinced he could fly.

Inevitable, the question must be asked: What can be done? Some local jurisdictions have passed legislation aimed at combating the problem. Researchers are searching for a method of eliminating toxic vapors and thereby eliminating the glue-sniffing practice.

Unfortunately, there seems to be no single, simple answer. Recommendations from the National Clearinghouse for Poison Control Centers include advising parents and children as to the potential risk of sniffing, making glues and related substances less available in self-service stores, and substituting less toxic ingredients in glue products.

It is important not to consider glue sniffing as amusing nonsense. A little sniffing may cause serious consequences.

age was bought the same year at 920 S. 15th St.

In 1955, a building committee composed of W.B. Flores, Pat Patterson, Ray Belt, Melvin Johnson and George Green started plans for a new auditorium. This building was completed and dedicatory services held May 27, 1956.

Succeeding Rev. Ross, the church has been pastored by Rev. C.M. Fields, Rev. Dwight E. Lusk, and Rev. Eastman, who accepted the pastorate Dec. 9, 1962.

Westview's music directors have been David McPherson, Maurice Fawcett, Ronnie Boswell, Vernon Stokes, Dennis Oliver, Kenneth Bennett, Joe Webb, Don Chastain, Don Reed, and Myron Kattner, current director.

The church caught fire about 3 a.m. on Dec. 14, and an hour later the auditorium and offices burned to the ground.

About an hour after the church caught fire and burned last December, the pastor and deacons began plans for rebuilding. The next day a building committee was named. It was composed of A.L. Romines (Chairman), M.E. Cagle, R.H. Stone, Pat Patterson, Mrs. Lillie Harper, Mrs. George Gamble and Mrs. C.E. Williams.

A number of subcommittees assisted in the work and a contract was awarded the Bob Hunter Construction Co. Arnold Maeker was chosen as architect for the structure. Total assest of the church now stand at well over $125,000.

Westview at present has 356 resident members and 81 non-resident members with 415 enrolled in Sunday School and 197 in training union.

Legion Slaton Veterans Day Observance

Next Wednesday has been proclaimed as "Veterans Day" in Slaton by Mayor Jonas Cain, and the Luther Powers American Legion Post 438 will hold its annual breakfast in observance of the event.

Mayor Cain, in his proclamation (published on an inside page), urged citizens to display their U.S. flags during the day.

Local Legionnaires will meet at 6:55 a.m. Wednesday for a flag raising ceremony at the Legion Hall, and the breakfast will follow. Members will be reminded of the meeting when the fire siren sounds about 6 a.m. Wednesday.

Post Commander Ellis Schmidt also announced that the local Post will be distributing special Pledge of Allegiance cards to all Slaton school children and other surrounding schools next week.

In a meeting Monday night, Legionnaires elected Ray Dickey, Luther Gregory, Claud Cravens, Bobby J. Reynolds, S.W. Clark and Schmidt as delegates to the district convention in Lubbock Nov. 14-15.

HOW CHARLIE MADE A PILE OF DOUGH!

You can, too! Here's how he did it. Charlie called a friend down at the paper. Told him he was expanding. Needed a new man. The paper helped him write a real hum-dinger of an ad. Charlie got a fire-ball. Then he had, a great buy on some new material. The paper helped him write a real puller. The material sold fast at a cozy profit. Charlie's happy and so are we!

Charlie's our big booster now, tells everybody our circulation's BIG... our readers love news, sports, columnists, want ads, cooking, fashions, comics. Charlie says that's coverage... attracts the right payroll and the paying customers!

Police Checking Two Break-Ins

Slaton police were investigating two burglaries Wednesday morning, a pair of break-ins which netted thieves about $37 in change and merchandise.

A snack bar at 345 N. 9th was broken into, and a service station at 305 N. 9th was entered and vending machines burglarized. About $15 was taken in the first break-in and about $22 loss was estimated at the station.

Police reported a relatively quiet Halloween night Saturday, although a number of "water balloons" and eggs were confiscated after complaints were lodged. One man reported that windshields had been smashed from his car, parked near his home.

The usual number of "trick-or-treaters" were roaming the streets, but malicious mischief was apparently light.

Singers Will Convene Here

The 14th annual session of the Great Plains Caprock Singers Association will meet Saturday night and all day Sunday at the Church of God in Slaton.

This is the largest convention in West Texas and attracts singers from a wide area of Eastern New Mexico and West Texas.

Lonnie B. Combs and Dwight Brock of Stamp-Baxter Music Company, Dallas, will attend along with The Gloryland Quartet, Roswell, N.M.; the Portales Quartet, Portales, N.M. Campbell Family, Bailey Family Quartets, Slaton Quartet, Lorraine Quartet, Stanton Quartet.

Current convention books will be used, and the public is cordially invited to attend. Persons are at liberty to come and go as they desire. This singing is not denominational. It is just an "old fashioned singing convention" with "dinner on the ground" that the singers of this area are trying to perpetuate.

Farm Bureau Hits Corn Dumping As Price Depressant

WASHINGTON — Corn prices would be substantially higher if it were not for the influence of the federal government's feed grain program, the American Farm Bureau Federation charges.

Charles B. Shuman, president of AFBF, declared in a recent speech that the dumping of government-owned stocks of corn is seriously depressing market prices.

The Department of Agriculture, Mr. Shuman said, has dumped more than 1.6 million bushels of corn from Commodity Credit Corporation stocks, equal to one half of this year's crop.

PENALTY DRIVE

"If it were not for the past action and declared intention of the Secretary of Agriculture to hold down the market price of corn to penalize farmers who refuse to participate in the feed grain program, corn prices would unquestionably rise as a result of this year's short crop due to the drought," he said.

The farm leader also pointed out that the feed grain program stimulated an excessive expansion of livestock feeding and breeding operations which resulted in unsatisfactory hog and cattle prices.

"The feed grain program can be properly labeled as a multi-billion dollar blunder," Mr. Shuman said. "The record for the first three years shows a cumulative expenditure of $2.5 billion, with payments for 1964 likely to hit $1.2 billion for total payments reaching $3.7 billion."

KEY ISSUES RESOLVED

Two key issues that perpetually plague government and state officials are unemployment and mental health. And for good reason; until recently no one seems to have known exactly the best methods of dealing with them.

One of the most impressive records compiled on these issues is Illinois governor Otto Kerner's. Since he took office in 1960, the state's unemployed has declined sharply from 7.7 per cent in February 1961 to a record low of 3.5 at present.

As a result, manufacturers received a payment of $16 million in unemployment tax last year, and Illinois was able to compile the highest employment figures of all the industrial states.

How was it done? Simply by taking advantage of the Federal Area Development Act—which includes industrial loans, public facilities, loans and grants, technical assistance and retraining—Kerner was able to create more than 7,000 new jobs or training positions.

Further, a planning committee formed by Governor Kerner established an Early Warning System to sound a warning when layoff or shutdown threatens 25 or more people for six months or longer. The Early Warning permits the governor—working with state employment and economic development agencies—to assist citizens immediately at the time or before unemployment occurs.

The increase of public aid services represents an important advance in the state's war on poverty, as well as helping to relieve unemployment.

turned the problem to the community. Treatment is now being personalized and decentralized—much along the lines of public school systems.

In the past, society's "put them away" attitude isolated mental patients in remote fortress-style hospitals that were, in reality, prisons. Now, in Illinois, new cottage-style clinics provide a bright home-like atmosphere. Communication and interaction between patients and community are constant. As a result, states all over the country will soon be adopting mental health programs patterned after those in the Land of Lincoln.

The Slaton School Board met in regular session Tuesday. After taking care of regular business, the board outlined the purchase of glass backboards for gymnasium in the Slaton High School.

In other action, four new teachers were approved. They are Mrs. Audrey Curran, fifth grade; Mrs. Annette Hocker, high school English and commercial; Mrs. Ethelda Yates, fifth grade; and Mrs. Pat Lacey, junior high science. The tax collector's bond of $40,000 was authorized.

At the meeting, a letter was presented from the Westview Baptist Church extending their appreciation for the use of the high school during the time their new church was being built.

Principal M.W. Kerr this week announced that students of Slaton High School wished "to thank all of the people who gave wood for our bonfire and those who gave their time to help us."

when you call Grandmother

...YOU DON'T EXPECT TO REACH TIMBUKTU

Naturally, when you call Grandmother's phone, that's the one you expect to get, and you do. But that's not as easy as it sounds.

Your call must work its way through all sorts of interconnections, wires, cables, switches and so forth until, finally, it picks the right phone out of some 83 million in the U.S.

Yet, out of all the possible chances for mistakes, your call goes where you send it . . . in town or out-of-town, to Grandmother, wherever she is. This sort of reliability is the result of service improvements that keep increasing the convenience and personal value of your telephone.

IT'S THE LAW IN TEXAS

LEGAL RESEARCH

Much of the work a lawyer does has the effect of preventing law suits. By foreseeing a situation which may go bad, a lawyer can protect his client. All of this means great emphasis upon legal research.

Much of your lawyer's time goes into looking up the law. He must check statutes, codes, reports of decisions, commentaries, and often technical books outside the law. He can then advise his client what to do and to keep his client from getting into situations that may lead to litigation. This stress on prevention is relatively new, as compared with the lawyer's traditional role as trial advocate.

In general the longer a rule of law based on precedent has been used, the more persuasive a court is likely to find it. Following precedent is called the doctrine of stare decisis ("The decision stands"). Because of "stare decisis", lawyers are able to count upon the law's stability in helping their clients to plan their estate, personal, or business affairs.

But law also changes as conditions and attitudes change. And these are days of change.

Lawyers want to predict legal results reliably for their clients. Some law changes little for example, in the fields of property, contracts, wills, and trusts. But in other fields such as civil rights and labor law, for example, the law changes rapidly these days.

IT'S THE LAW IN TEXAS

In order to keep up with change, for example, Texas lawyers have pooled their research and talents to conduct a program of Continuing Legal Education. During the past year there were more than 2,000 registrants in the program. They have kept up to date through hundreds of lectures and the publication of several new volumes of law books. The program is a project of the State Bar of Texas begun in 1948. It is fully financed by Texas lawyers and judges at a cost of several thousand dollars a year. The various law schools in Texas also conduct a number of post graduate seminars each

WHICH WILL IT BE, SON?

YOUTHS NEED REAL JOBS

Despite the assault on poverty by the Administration, some of the programs suggested may not be effective.

For instance, make-work jobs in the non-profit area are no substitute for the challenge of getting and holding a job on one's own merits. They are more likely to encourage dependency on others than the self-reliance and self-discipline which enable a young person to find his own place in the world.

Important as education and training are in making an individual a more attractive employee, they do not make jobs—which are what is needed. The jobs that are now unfilled require people with different aptitudes and different training from what is contemplated in the programs for youths.

In the final analysis, youths need jobs in industry, not temporary government-generated jobs. And to employ youths, industry needs greater profit opportunities and fewer restrictive practices of government that dampen the business climate.

year, attended by hundreds of members of the profession. Also, monthly and weekly publications of the State Bar covering late developments in the law go to each of the 15,000 lawyers belonging to the organization.

Opponents Warn Medicare Ban Is Only Temporary

WASHINGTON — Fearing complacency, Congressional opponents of Medicare have warned that the failure of the bill's passage in the 88th Congress was by no means a final defeat and that opposition efforts must be redoubled when the legislation is re-introduced, in January.

As one means of arousing the public to the harmful economic effects of the Medicare bill, Rep. Garner Shriver, (R-Kan.), has pointed out that the increased Social Security taxes the legislation would impose would wipe out the recent tax cut benefits for a married man with two children who is in the $5,600 income bracket.

BIG INCREASE

The Social Security deductions, he said, would increase by $64—from $174 this year to $238 in 1966—which is equal to the amount of the tax cut for the year.

"In addition," said Representative Shriver, "further tax increases are provided (in the Medicare bill) so that by 1971 an individual will be paying $291.20, an increase of $117.20 over 1964. Employers would pay similar amounts on behalf of their employees."

"By 1971, the Social Security tax would be 10.4 per cent of the employee's gross salary up to $5,600 shared equally by the employee and employer."

Pointing out that there are 20 million people today who depend on the Social Security System for retirement benefits, the Congressman warned that the system could be jeopardized by an overloading of demands upon it, such as that which would result from passage of the Medicare legislation.

November 10, 1917—One of the most widely publicized women's suffrage demonstrations was held outside the White House. Forty-one women from 15 states were arrested, drawing sentences ranging from six days to six months.

November 14, 1832—The first streetcar in the world made its appearance in New York. It was called "horse car" because it was drawn by two horses on tracks laid out for its route. The streetcar had three compartments with seats for 30 persons.

November 20, 1923—Critical of the growing trend of employment for women, an article in Pictorial Review chided the maiden aunt, once the mainstay in the American home, for seeking employment. The article reported that 8,549,511 women had jobs.

November 22, 1906—The SOS distress signal was adopted as the official warning for disabled ships by delegates to the International Radio Telegraphic Convention meeting in Berlin.

The Texas Highway Department is known as the largest landscape gardener in the State of Texas. More than 800,000 acres are planted in grass and wildflowers along the Texas highway right of way each year.

The rural population in Texas—2.4 million—exceeds the total population of 25 other states, yet the total rural population of Texas dropped 30 per cent between 1940 and 1960. Seventy-one Texas counties in 1960 had their entire populations classified as rural and more than half of the Texas counties—147 of them—had more rural residents than urban. Texas ranks fourth among in rural population. The Boy Scout Movement is found in all parts of the world.

Rally Sponsored By Young GOP's

The Slaton Young Republicans sponsored a rally last Saturday afternoon for three Republican candidates- Nita Gibson, Bill Neel, and Joe Phillips.

A crowd of approximately 100 gathered around the city square to hear a short talk given by each candidate. Free coffee and a chance to personally meet the people of Slaton was next on the list for the candidates. During this time members of the Young Republicans were distributing literature on most Republican candidates.

Young Republican President, Chuck Space, said that he felt the rally was very effective and successful and expressed his sincere thanks to all who helped in any way.

Flame King, Queen Named

The homecoming bonfire Thursday night was a big success. Johnny Hennington and Sharon Williams were named Mr. and Miss Flame.

Other candidates were: freshmen Thomas Etheridge and Cheryl Keese; sophomores Joe Olague and Jan McCoy and juniors, Oscar Henderson and Nancy McSweeney.

Both Johnny Hennington and Sharon Williams are senior candidates. After the bonfire there was a "Snakedance" to the Square with yells urging the Tigers on to victory against Frenship.

Mary B. Wood Crowned As Grid Sweetheart

Miss Mary Beth Wood was crowned Football Sweetheart of the Slaton Tigers at the pregame ceremonies Friday night. Mary Beth is a senior cheerleader.

Mary Beth was escorted by Larry Gamble, Barbara by Mike Ball, and Robin by Bobby Brake. The flowers and crown were carried by Robin and Gary Kerr. They were presented by Larry Smith.

Hennington Top Ground Gainer For Grid Team

Johnny Hennington is the Tiger rushing leader through the non-conference season. Hennington has carried the ball 58 times and has gained a total of 386 yards. Following close is Billy Cass, with 277 yards on 59 attempts. Sixty-nine of these yards came through the air. Sparky Stephens has rushed for 197 yards on 40 carries.

Bobby Brake is leading the rest of the Tiger rushers with 137 yards. Larry Gamble is next with 105 yards and he is followed by Phil Goad with 35, Victor Christian with 6, Oscar Henderson 6, Roger Buckemper 2.

The Tigers as a team rushed for a net total of 943 yards, and passed for 222 yards more, for a total of 1,165 yards and 65 first downs through a total of 284 plays.

Bobby Brake, doing the punting for the Tigers, has punted 25 times for 883 yards and a 35-yard average.

Tigerettes Anxious For Coming Season

As the Tigerette team gets ready for its big season this year, the members feel, along with the coach Miss Ivey, that they have greatly improved.

The coach tells of nine senior lettermen this year and a host of juniors with added strength. All of the defensive players are back and a few girls that are showing up good are coming along for us.

We have two starting forwards back with a host of juniors trying to "knock" them of their positions. All of the B-team girls are experienced from last year for they won all their games. The coach reported that we lost two seniors with one of them having a lot of experience.

"Everybody will be pretty tough but we have a shortage of girls' basketball teams in our district," said Miss Ivey. A Tiger Cage reporter made the remark that Mr. Jackson thinks the team will go all the way this year and her answer was, "Guess I'll have to agree with him this time."

Refreshments were served to the students after which Mr. Mahon spoke to the students on the departments of our government.

After he had spoken, he asked that the students come and ask him any questions they would like to know about.

Mahon Receives Plaque From Extension Service

LUBBOCK (Spl) Congressman George H. Mahon was honored here Saturday by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service for distinguished service to Texas agriculture.

Mahon received a plaque, known as the "Knapp-Porter Award," as a part of Extension's celebration of its 50th Anniversary Year. Gov. Connally had previously proclaimed this week as "Texas Agricultural Extension Service 50th Anniversary Week."

The award, one of two presented this week, honors men who have projected the visionary aims of Dr. Seaman A. Knapp, originator of Extension methods, and Walter C. Porter, pioneer farm demonstrator. The other award was made to Congressman Olin E. Teague on the Texas A&M University campus earlier this week.

Agricultural Extension work was born sixty-one years ago on the Walter Porter farm near Terrell Texas. The first cooperative farm demonstration ever was conducted on this farm under the direction of Dr. Knapp. With the success of this first demonstration proven, the U.S. Department of Agriculture was quick to adopt methods used on the Porter farm.

Called a highly selective award by Extension Director John E. Hutchison, the award was established this year. Hereafter the award shall be made only when an outstanding nominee is eligible to receive it, and not necessarily on a regular basis, Hutchison said. Purpose of the award, he said, is to provide recognition to individuals who have made truly significant contributions to Texas Agriculture and family living through support of informal educational programs for both adults and youth.

Mahon, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, has been a vital force behind the growth of both Texas and U.S. agriculture. He was elected in 1934 to the 74th Congress and has been reelected to each succeeding Congress.

Wilson Lad Inspiration To Friends, Community

BY MRS. TED MELUGIN

A first-grade Wilson student, Donnie Lee Crowson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Crowson, smiles at the world each day. To know him is to love him, and it makes those who know him see their troubles more lightly.

Donnie was born on August 8, 1958 at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. He is the youngest of four boys and one sister. His sister, Mrs. Linda Thomas, lives in Houma, La., and his married brother, Bobby, lives in Albuquerque, N.M. His other brothers are Sammy, a senior at Wilson High School, and Danny, a fourth-grade student.

Donnie has been crippled since infancy and his mother said it might have been polio. He had leg surgery on Sept. 6, 1962, and now can walk. Before this he had been carried everywhere he had gone. He and his parents are most grateful for him to be able to walk. This little Wilson boy has been a great inspiration to not only his age of friends, but to everyone. His pastor, Rev. W.A. Rucker, Jr., of the Wilson Methodist Church, states "No matter how many problems arise, we look at INSPIRATION—Donnie Lee Crowson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Crowson of Wilson, has been crippled all his life. He is an inspiration to all the people who know him, by going about his happy way each day of the week. He will be riding on the fire truck in the homecoming parade in Wilson today.

Donnie, with his angelic smile, and it will wipe all our problems away."

Donnie enjoys being in the first grade and being with his classmates. His teacher, Mrs. Ruth Nelson reported that he does exceptionally well in all his subjects.

The Wilson community is proud of Donnie, for they have seen his determination and courage in the several painful operations he has undergone. And, also, for his positive attitude toward life, and his learning to walk for the first time at 4 1/2 years old.

Donny makes a trip to Lubbock twice a week for therapy. He and his family live across from the Little League Field at Wilson and in the summer he enjoys watching the boys play ball and pitches in as a helper. When he falls down, he jumps right up, which is a fine example that he doesn't plan to let anything get him down.

When asked what his ambitions are, he said he'd like to be a doctor or a radio man. He also like to imitate a preacher and plays on the organ when he can sneak a chance.

Sammy, Donnie's big brother, is a star football half-back on the Wilson team, and Donnie really enjoys watching Sammy play, especially when Sammy makes a touchdown.

Donnie's dad is fire-chief at Wilson and runs the Crowson Garage. It thrills Donnie to get to ride on the fire truck, and he has been promised a prize position on the truck for the homecoming parade today.

Roosevelt News

BY DORIS THOMAS

This week I am back up on my little soap box, talking about some more of our teachers at Roosevelt. The sixth grade teachers are the topic of my lecture. Each of them, in their own way, are helping to further our children's education. When our children have finished this year in school, they step into a new world, not of learning, but into Jr. H. but that there is an even bigger responsibility they will be undertaking, as they go on to this new adventure of life. Your child may think these teachers are being too hard on them in the classroom and the home-work is even harder. Yes, it seems that way to the student and to some of the parents, too. BUT THINK, your child is getting older and if they can't do the things that are required of them in the sixth grade, are they ready for the big step next year, and the even bigger one they will take in just two more years? Give your child and his teacher all the cooperation they ask for or need in helping them to understand each other. The teacher will welcome a visit from you, the parent, if your child is having trouble with his school work. Something that might seem so small to a teacher or parent may be a big problem to a child at this age. When parent and teacher get together and compare notes, big problems can turn into little or no problem at all, just another happy child, waiting for tomorrow, another day to learn more new things.

Mrs. Muriel Brann lives in Lubbock with her husband, Lowes, who is a lawyer. She has 14 years teaching experience, 13 of these at Roosevelt. Her hobbies are her 12 grandchildren and sewing for the granddaughters. She has four children. The Branns attend St. Paul's Episcopal church. Mrs. Brann's greatest interest is her students, both present and past. Some of her students have thought that she was a harsh and not understanding teacher, until they learn that she wants to teach them the things they must have, to go forward, so she continues to (hammer) until each student gets something of what she is trying to teach them. A secret about this gracious lady, that I think you should know is, that her children are just a little bit jealous of her students. She talks more about her students when they have a family get-together than she does about her own family. Her children have told her that the way she praises all of her "Roosevelt Children" they must be the best kids in the county and she loves every one of them in her own special way.

Mr. C.C. Manzingo, whose wife, Emily, is a nurse at Taylor Hospital, live in Lubbock and they have two daughters. He has had 14 years of teaching, seven of them in Roosevelt. They go to Christ the King Catholic church. When I ask about his hobbies, his answer was, "washing dishes, fishing and laying around." I asked how he wanted to spell the laying; with an "a" or an "ie"? His answer was I had expected, knowing him as I do, "Either way, I am about as good at one as I am the other."

Mrs. Lura Smith, whose husband, Elmo, is the principal of our high school has eight years of teaching experience. This is her first year teaching full time in Roosevelt. She has been substitute teaching here until the youngest of her two daughters, Patti, was old enough to start to school this year. Debbie, her oldest, is in the sixth grade. They go to Roosevelt Baptist church. Her hobbies are her children and reading when time permits.

SPORTS
The high school football team had a rest this past week and the Jr. H. teams played Slaton. The seventh grade Eagles won 20-0 while the eighth grade Tiger's won 16-0.

Monday was the first game of the basketball season for the Jr. H. girls and they came out the winners in both games. The losers were Frenship. Seventh grade team won 35-18 and the eighth won 38-22.

Tuesday the high school girls will travel to Sundown for their first game of the season. This news will have gone to press before the score is out. Good Luck Girls. Thursday night these girls will play Hart at Roosevelt, those of you that are not going to Spur for the Jr. H. football game be out at 6:30 to cheer our girls on to victory. Who knows, this may be another year that we will go to state.

The high school football team plays Spur at home Friday night at 7:30. Come out and support these Eagle's. They may not win, but for a second year team, they make a pretty dog-gone good showing up against the teams with experience.

our community were pulled up and damaged during the Halloween weekend, much to my sorrow. If any of you readers see a sign down, please call me at 2572 and I will be over with my hole diggers and get them put back up as soon as possible. These signs beautify our community, as well as helping people to give directions in finding their home. I hope such an emergency never arises in a home in this community, but if it should, it will be much easier to give the name of the road sign for an ambulance or a fire truck to follow than to try to tell them how many miles to go right and then turn left and go so many more miles ect.

No one is immune to such accidents happening in your home, so make a special note to look on your corner and see if the sign is up and if it isn't give me a call. Thanks until next week.

"Religion is the opiate of the people!"

That's what Karl Marx declared. And sometimes it seems that he may have been right. So many people, considering themselves "religious," use their worship as a tranquilizer—a pill taken once a week to remove "the pain of it all." Instead of looking for involvement with the great moral and spiritual issues of society, they look for ways to avoid involvement. They forget the first tenet of their Faith: Love thy neighbor.

That doesn't mean just the people down the block. It means being concerned with the poverty of Appalachia... or the problems of a Negro trying to get equal job opportunity... or the special difficulties of the elderly—and the young.

If you care, the place where you worship can become—with your help—a rallying point for action in solving the community, national and world problems where great issues are involved. Worship this week. More important, put your faith to work.

Community...And Boy Scouting

Boy Scouts begin its annual November 10th for the purpose of strengthening the minds and stresses moral values. The boys pay an annual national registration fee of fifty cents. This maintains the national work. He pays for his advancement literature, his personal equipment, basic camp cost, earned awards, special unit activities, and his unit dues from his personal funds, thus learning the lesson of self-reliance.

From members' dues and approved money earning projects that teach lessons of group responsibility, the scout unit pays for unit meeting equipment, program supplies, leadership tools and literature, camping gear, special unit needs and its special events.

Behind every Scout and his unit stands the chartered institution and there are 85,000 such local institutions sponsoring 129,000 units. The representatives of these institutions constitute the majority of voting power in the local Scout council.

These institutions—churches of all faiths, parent-teacher associations, service clubs, veterans groups, organizations of many kinds, use Scouting in serving the people and communities.

They furnish meeting place facilities, heat, light, leadership tools, special unit needs

Air Show, Displays Set For Reese AFB Open House

Reese Air Force Base opens its gates Saturday, Nov. 7, anticipating a crowd of more than 40,000 to celebrate its 15th anniversary since reactivation in 1949.

The open house has been officially designated as "founders' Day". Reese will have on display the Air Forces' newest and fastest tactical fighters, featuring at 3:30 p.m. a spectacular air show by the Thunderbirds, official Air Force aerial demonstration team.

Century series fighter aircraft are scheduled to be available for public inspection from 1 to 5 p.m. The aircraft expected for display are the F-100 Super Sabre, which flies 800 miles per hour; F-101 Voodoo, with a speed of more than 1,200 miles per hour; F-102 Delta Dagger, all-weather weapon's carrier, F-104 Starfighter, rocket carrier armed with a six-barrel, 100-shot-per-second version of the Gatling gun and a speed of 1,500 miles per hour; F-105 Thunderchief, supersonic fighter which is the most versatile tactical fighter in the Air Force inventory; and F-106 Delta Dart, delta-winged all-weather fighter which travels at 50,000 feet with nuclear or conventional warheads.

Also on exhibit for public inspection will be the T-33 T-37, and T-38 jet trainers used to train pilots in the undergraduate pilot training program, and the H-43B helicopter, assigned for rescue work and available in emergencies to aid in civilian rescue.

The famed Thunderbirds will demonstrate in the F-100 Super Sabres, flying a preplanned sequence of loops, rolls, whiffers, dills, corkscrew change-overs, and cloverleaf turns directly above the crowds.

Directly after the aerial show, members of the Thunderbirds will be with their aircraft on the Reese parking apron to sign autographs and talk with as many visitors as possible.

Other attractions of the day will be as follows: the 549th USAF Band from Amarillo AFB; ejection seat for the children, and recognition awards.

But after the boy, his unit and the chartered institution have done their part to make Scouting possible there are still some basic needs to be met to provide a total scouting program for each unit in every community.

Those needs must be provided by citizens of the local area. Through supporting the local council, which truly represents the entire community a powerhouse is provided to make effective the work to the adult volunteer leaders.

The local Council is made up of men of influence and vision who build budgets, men who emphasize health and safety factors, men who feel deep concern for the values that come to boys through participating in camping and outdoor activities, men dedicated to organizing additional units so effectively that they will enrich boys' life and provide satisfaction to adult.

A local program can not be operated by volunteers alone. The overall direction of the Council program, training of leaders, scheduling and coordination of functions in keeping the units active, well-informed, and organized requires the services of the professional Scout leaders—most of them who started as Boy Scouts themselves.

The contribution you give goes to help maintain the Council Scout Camps at Tres Ritos, New Mexico, and Camp Post near Post, Texas and Camp Haynes near Silverton, Texas. The rest of the funds are used for administrative expenses and materials, professional service to the local Scouts units, education and leadership training. Most of the recognition and advancement awards are furnished also.

It is the personal and group contributions of citizens in each community that make possible this full program of scouting for every boy, regardless of race, color or creed. Here's an investment today that will pay off in tomorrow's citizens!

Fire Inspectors

West Texas Fire Prevention inspectors came to Slaton Wednesday Oct. 28, where they were in a parade sponsored by the Slaton public schools in down town Slaton. The inspectors later gave fire-prevention assemblies for grade school and sponsored fire drills in which the SHS students evacuated the entire building in 55 seconds.

In their assemblies, the inspectors used a material approach in order to show the students some home fire hazards such as hair spray, insect repellent and gasoline.

Official Communique:

BATTLE RECORD TO DATE

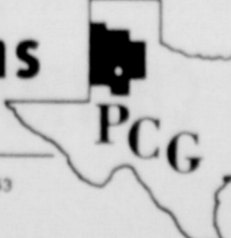

SPRAYING	ACRES SPRAYED	COMMENT
Number 1 (Beginning Sept. 15)	303,000 acres (Originally estimated 240,000 acres. Total includes Skip-row)	First application was hampered by rain, wind, etc. Migrating weevils caused increase in size of control zone. Extremely high adult and unemerged weevil populations encountered.
Number 2 (Beginning about October 4)	281,000 acres (Reduction due to acreage desiccated or harvested)	Field checks indicated effective kill of adult weevils but continuing emergence kept new weevil population up. Additional planes brought in to speed up sprayings.
Number 3 (Beginning about October 13)	230,000 acres (Continuing harvest and desiccation)	Field examination showed great reduction in number of adult weevils, with low occurrence of weevils in diapause stage. Also fewer unemerged weevils.
Number 4 (Beginning about October 21)	190,000 acres	Few unemerged and very young weevils left. Practically no weevils in diapause stage.

CONCLUSION: Remaining unemerged and young adult weevils will be kept from going into hibernation either by frost or a fifth spraying. Entomologists agree that hibernating weevils will have been reduced by more than 90 percent by end of this year's program.

Financial Arrangements

- Compresses to collect 50¢ per bale, and remit to a special boll weevil control fund in bank — no connection with P.C.G. regular funds.
- While compresses collect on all cotton, the contribution is voluntary for individual farmers who may request and receive refund.
- All funds are under direction of a Certified Public Accountant firm.
- Monthly financial reports by U.S.D.A. and Boll Weevil Steering Committee will be made — Complete audit will be published at the end of season.
- Any unexpended Steering Committee funds will be placed in interest bearing account for continuation of Boll Weevil Program next season. Unexpended U.S.D.A. funds must return to Treasury, as all appropriations are on annual basis only.

Area Youth Shows Grand Champion Steer At Fair

Bobby Rush, Rt. 2, Slaton, has room full of trophies for prize-winning livestock, but he won the "big one" recently at the State Fair of Texas in Dallas.

The Roosevelt senior, son of Mr. and Mrs. V.T. Rush, showed the grand champion steer with an 850-pound Hereford named "Nipper". The champ brought $3,500 for the 18-year-old 4-H Clubber and FFA member. La Tunisia restaurant of Dallas bought Nipper in the auction.

Bobby also showed the grand champion heifer in the Hereford competition and won first place in showmanship, receiving a $25 savings bond.

The Rush youth plans to use the $3,500 to help pay for his college education. He intends to enroll at Oklahoma State University next fall.

Taking stock into the winner's circle is nothing new for Bobby. He has a long string of successes dating back to the time he was 10 years old.

Recent winners Rush has exhibited included the grand champion animals in the Hereford categories at Houston in 1960, San Antonio in 1962, and reserve grand champion at Odessa in 1962. Young Rush also had the junior barrow show's champ in 1958.

The Rush family lives on a farm near Slaton--about 13 miles east of Lubbock--and cotton is their principal cash crop.

Revival Slated

A revival is set Nov. 9-13 at the First Nazarene Church located at 635 West Scurry. Reverend Marshall Stewart of Wichita Falls will conduct the revival services which will begin each evening at 7:30. Reverend Stewart is a former pastor of Slaton.

Chevrolet

"walks" right over bumps and trouble

Independent front suspension takes the "truck" out of truck ride. It smooths rough roads, protects truck, driver and cargo from excessive jolting. And on Chevrolet pickups it's a proved system with millions of miles of user experience behind it. Try it out on one of Chevrolet's great Fleetside or Stepside pickups. It's one of the big reasons that Chevrolet is first choice with pickup users from coast to coast.
