Industrial Development Planned

Two-Night Workshop Conducted To Establish Working Group

Approximately 21 Slaton citizens, including city officials and Chamber of Commerce directors, attended the Industrial Development Workshop held in the Junior High Cafeteria Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

Basically designed to acquaint persons with the correct ways and means of inducing industry to the community, the workshop is furnished through the Industrial Economics Research Division of A & M College.

Conducting the two sessions were James R. Bradley, and B.R. Shelton. Shelton formerly lived in Slaton and is the son of H. D. Shelton, Santa Fe official, who was previously superintendent of the Slaton branch.

Highly Competitive It was pointed out early in the first session that the problem of acquiring industry in communities has become highly competitive. Cities must have informed committees to initially know what types of industries to seek, and then what steps must be taken to locate them.

Industrial Development contributes in many ways toward the economic prosperity of communities. It not only injects the payroll of its employees into the retail economy, but substantially adds to taxes, and results in periodic job openings for young people.

From a U. S. Chamber of Commerce report, it was indicated that 100 manufacturers workers would mean the following to a town: 296 more people; 112 more households; 51 more school children; $590,000 more personal income per year; $270,000 more bank deposits; 107 more passenger cars registered; 174 more workers employed; four more retail establishments; and $360,000 more retail sales per year.

With vast benefits such as these involved, it is easily conceivable that the field of industrial development is competitive, and also essential to the continued growth of cities. It also points to the necessity of having trained and informed men working toward the goal of gaining new industry. This is the basic purpose of the workshops.

SLATON'S CHANCES GOOD Relative to the needs of industries, it was determined that Slaton is ideally located in many ways. The accessibility to a major railroad is a prime factor, and unlimited available land is also desirable.

Industries generally locate for one of three principal reasons. These include the utilization of a raw material; the available local market; or the availability and skill of prevailing workers.

It is to these primary needs that the future industrial committee will concentrate in the seeking of additional industries to Slaton.

11 IMPORTANT STEPS In the second session of the workshop, eleven steps toward successful industrial development were discussed, along with information concerning the ways to achieve them. These include: 1. The organization of an industrial committee. 2. The gathering of facts concerning the town and qualifications. 3. An analysis and evaluation of the industrial potential. 4. The training of an industrial committee. 5. The securing of risk capital. 6. The preparation of industrial sites. 7. The unanimity of local support. 8. A complete program of community and civic support. 9. A complete program of community and civic improvement. 10. The determination of the industrial program. 11. The determination of the industrial program.

An Early Tribute

Contributing toward the attainment of any worthy goal generally involves a great amount hard work and sacrifice. This is true regardless of whether the effort is group or individual.

Slaton residents first saw the Tiger football squad Monday evening in a scrimmage with Crosbyton. Next week they'll see the opening game.

All the players who constitute the Slaton football team began practice on the 14th of this month. Since that time they have worked twice a day in the heat, getting bumps, bruises, blisters, and sore muscles.

They do this simply because it is the price they pay to participate in the game they love. Football is an institution in the high school, and it would not be so if it weren't for the many long hours that boys put in to make it so.

The fans watch the coordinated effort of these boys once a week for two hours, and many times pass judgement solely on this. But it's only half the story. In between the weekly contests come the grinding, gruelling, hard days of practice. It takes a man-sized will on the part of the players to keep up the pace.

And when Slaton loses a game, the burden of effort on the boys is increased. They lose because the opposing team might perhaps be endowed with a little more talent, or a few more pounds. They won't lose because they had any less courage or any less of the will to win.

And the same is true for the individual players. There will be 11 on the field because they are endowed with more talent and pounds, but with no more desire to play than the boys who sit them out.

It takes a lot of work, and a lot of giving for a boy to be a successful member of a successful team. And we'd like to take this early opportunity to give them all a big vote of "thanks" for their contribution to their school and community.

And if you see any of the boys, you might give them a slap on the back and tell them how you, also, appreciate it. They deserve it!

"GRASS ROOTS CAPITALISM"

The newspapers recently ran a story that I thought was pretty significant. It gave real insight into our American economic system. The story reported that, for the first time, an American business had 2,000,000 owners. This important "first" was achieved by the Bell System, of which my company is a part.

Hugh and Irene Polson of Wichita, Kansas, are the two millionth shareowner. Pictured with them above are their two youngsters -- Kay Louise, 9, and Stephen Hugh, 7. The Polsons own and run their own pharmacy. And, even though they keep plenty busy with the drug store and duties at home, they take part in church, PTA and community activities.

Mr. and Mrs. Polson own ten shares of stock. They bought it as part of an investment plan to send their children to college. Like the Polsons, a great many investors -- 335,000, in fact -- have fewer than 10 shares. Of the two million shareowners, nearly 850,000 are women and 300,000 are telephone employees.

This is real evidence of "grassroots capitalism," and I think Mr. and Mrs. Polson typify many of today's "grassroots" investors, who come from all walks of life, from all sections of the country.

As I said before, here is a truly significant story. Here is the nation's largest business, the Bell System, now owned by 2,000,000 people. Here is a dramatic testimonial to the American economic system. Here is democracy at work -- with all the world to see.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

Tigers Show Promise In Early Scrimmage With Petersburg

Slaton's Tigers showed promise of some rough and tumble football Monday evening in a hard scrimmage with Petersburg that lasted two hours.

With a young team short in experience, the Tigers scored once while Petersburg crossed the goal twice. However, five offensive drives by the Tigers were lost within short distance of pay dirt.

Defensively, the Tigers showed exceptional strength during some periods.

From the early outlook of the first skirmish the Tigers will be short mainly in depth and experience, but displayed plenty of desire to play hard football. Linemen showing exceptional ability were John George, Tommy Simmons, Greg Nowlin and Ronnie Edwards. Defensively, Billy Patterson also proved to be a stalwart in the forward wall.

Outstanding among the backs were Steve Ball, Webber Tefertiller, and Kelly Bownds. With more practicing remaining prior to the opener with Canyon there, the Tigers should field a capable squad in spite of their lack of games under their belt.

The Tiger roster is as follows:

PLAYER	POSITION	WEIGHT	GRADE
Webber Tefertiller	back	145	Junior
Ronney Jones	back	140	Junior
Bruce Pember	back	140	Sophomore
Steve Ball	back	170	Junior

Your City Government
by J. J. Maxey, City Secretary

My subject for this week is probably the most important and the least talked about of any phase of city business. One takes for granted the things that come under the heading of public health until the flies or mosquitoes get bad or some obnoxious odor begins to come in through your air conditioner.

For many years before his death Dr. W. E. Payne served this community as city health officer and you can take it from any of the city officials or city employees that served with him that he did a remarkable job. Dr. Payne was a strict sanitarian and had no scruples about alleviating any health hazard that came to his attention.

The city health officer checks to see that all purveyors of food or drink have a health certificate. He also keeps a constant watch on the city water supply and is notified immediately when coliform organisms are found in the water. He works with the water and sewer superintendent in seeing that people connect to the sanitary sewer when the sewer is available to them. He works with the sanitation superintendent when premises are found to be in unsanitary condition and the owner refuses to clean them up. He advises with the city and county regarding the control of harmful insects such as flies and mosquitoes. The city health officer does all of these things and many more as a civic duty. His pay is the same as a city commissioner or the mayor and he feels public responsibility in the same degree.

At the death of Dr. W. E. Payne the city commission, knowing that the job of city health officer was continually getting bigger and taking more time, met with the medical group here in Slaton and discussed with them the possibility of passing this job around to the various doctors on a two year basis. Since that time Dr. Talbert, Dr. Glen Payne, and Dr. E. L. Schmidt have served as city health officer. At the present time Dr. M. Jay McSweeney, Jr. is serving in that capacity.

The citizens of Slaton have been very fortunate in that there has not been any epidemic of any kind for as long as I can remember. This is due in part to the efforts of our health officer, our sanitation superintendent and the city commission. For the past three or four years the Lubbock City-County Health unit has been working very closely with the city of Deana Ward of Wilson received her bachelor's degree in English from the University of Oklahoma on August 26 at a ceremony in Norman, Okla.

In communications at Omaha, Neb., immediately after graduation. Upon completing this course, she worked for San Francisco International Airport for Pan American World Airways.

Miss Ward enrolled at Texas Tech in January 1958. During the summer of 1958 she was a Girl Scout counselor for Caprock Council at Buffalo Lakes. In the summer of 1960, she was a Girl Scout counselor at Camp Seligman in New Mexico.

Miss Ward will be at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Ward until January, when she plans to return to Airline work as a stewardess.

The president of the local bridge club enjoyed showing off her young son's store of scientific knowledge to her fellow members.

One day she urged, "Go on and tell them, John, what it means when steam comes out of the spout of the kettle."
"It means," John replied, "that you are about to open one of father's letters."

The successful carrying out of an industrial foundation in Slaton will involve many months. However, communities that have experienced success in their development efforts have begun with workshops similar to the one held in Slaton. As future details are worked concerning the committee, etc., more reports will be made.

Do you frame your prescription?

When you have a Prescription filled do you take a few pills or a few spoonfuls and then put it on the shelf and forget about it? If you do, you are jeopardizing your health. Follow your Doctor's instructions to the letter—take all of the Prescription. Then go back to your doctor. He'll tell you whether or not to have the Prescription re-filled. There are too many half-filled bottles in medicine chests, mute testimony that YOU PAID for your doctor's advice and didn't follow it. You might as well frame your doctor's Prescription as to take only a part of it. The most important business we have is filling your Doctor's Prescription. Your most important job is taking it.

"I Believe In God, The Father"

"Believe in the Lord your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper," 2 Chronicles 20:20

The halls of unbelief ring loud today with the shallow claims of Atheism, Communism, Humanism, Agnosticism and Materialism. Many people are so caught up in the whirlpool of life's activity in social and business affairs that they never take the time to think through to the quietness and solitude where God reveals himself. Thus they juggle the many ideas thrown up in these halls of unbelief without ever being able to come to a conclusion. If ever the world needed to heed the invitation, "Be still and know that I am God," it is today.

The Bible says, "And many false prophets shall rise and shall deceive many. And because iniquity shall abound the love of many shall wax cold." This should startle the "has been" Christian into a return to his faith and Christian living, but it seems to not get through to him. I hope to give a few thoughts that will help the person who wants to believe in God, but somehow has not found the bed rock upon which he may establish his faith.

In Seminary our professor drew two hills naming one Theism and the other Atheism and put the question, "Where shall I pitch my tent?" He listed the things that would grow on each hill.

| Theism <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Personal God.</li> <li>2. Life at Fullest.</li> <li>3. Liberty under law.</li> <li>4. Love, atonement, help.</li> <li>5. Faith, joy.</li> <li>6. Peace, fellowship.</li> <li>7. Assurance, hope.</li> <li>8. Responsibility.</li> <li>9. Heaven to gain.</li> <li>10. A great challenge.</li> <li>11. Providence.</li> <li>12. Grace, sufficient, abounding.</li> </ol> | Atheism <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. No God at all.</li> <li>2. Existence-life cheap.</li> <li>3. Bondage of superstition.</li> <li>4. Fear, no atonement.</li> <li>5. Doubt, uncertainty.</li> <li>6. No peace, no fellowship.</li> <li>7. No assurance, no hope.</li> <li>8. No responsibility.</li> <li>9. No immortality.</li> <li>10. No challenge.</li> <li>11. No providence.</li> <li>12. No grace, but Despair.</li> </ol> |

I chose to pitch my tent on the hill of Theism and find these reasons for doing so.
1. God reveals himself in nature. Wordsworth expressed it in the lines: "I have felt a presence that disturbs me with the joy of elevated thoughts, a sense sublime of something far more deeply interfused, Whose dwelling is the light of setting suns and the round ocean, and the living air, And the blue sky -- and in the mind of man; A motion and a spirit that impels all thinking things, all objects of all thought, and rolls through all things."

2. God reveals himself in Conscience.
Paul said: We also are men of like passions with you and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, which made heaven and earth and the sea, and all things that are therein: who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways. Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, and FILLED OUR HEARTS WITH FOOD AND GLADNESS."

3. God reveals himself in a revelation to men.
Moses, Ex. 3:4 "And when the Lord saw that he turned aside to see, God called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, 'Moses, Moses,' And he said 'here am I,' And he said, 'Draw not nigh hither; put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.'"

Isaiah, "I saw the Lord high and lifted up, Whom shall I send and who will go for us?"
Jesus, "If ye had known me ye should have known my Father also, and from henceforth ye know him and have seen him."

4. In the revelation of himself to man we find these attributes:
(1). "God is a spirit and they that worship him must worship in spirit and in truth." John 4:23
(2). "God is light and in him is no darkness at all." Psalm 139:12 "For thou wilt light my candle; the Lord my God will enlighten my darkness."

(3). God is love. 1 John 4:8, "He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love." 16 "And we have known and believe the love that God hath to us. God is love. And he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him."

This is the God we find if we search for Him. The way to find Him is given in Hebrews 11:6 "He that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him."

Announced For Dorm Lubbock Christian College

Federal Housing and Agency at Dallas has announced a grant of $330,000 to Lubbock Christian College for construction of a men's dormitory.

The construction will double existing facilities for students. Capacity of the dormitory will be 130 beds.

W. Mattox, LCC president, said the loan is selfliquidating, in that it will be repaid from rental of students who live in the dormitory.

Furnishings Not Included

The loans does not include furnishings that will be needed for the rooms, college officials said. A campaign to raise money for furnishings, including beds, desks, chairs, and mirrors, will be conducted, development of-officials said.

The fire-proof, all-brick structure will be similar to Katie Rogers Hall, the women's dormitory, completed in 1960.

Plans for the new men's hall already have been drawn by the same architectural firm which designed the women's hall. Bids will be invited when specifications are completed.

The new dormitory will be located west of the Administration Building on the LCC campus.

Man who run red light will soon create gruesome sight.

Cerebral Palsy Clinic Scheduled In Lubbock On September 14th

Dr. Esther E. Snell, Director of the Lubbock Cerebral Palsy Treatment Center, has announced the next clinic for Thursday, September 14, according to information received by the Slaton Slatonite.

The Center was founded by the Lubbock County Society for Crippled Children and the Lubbock Rotary Club in 1948, and is located at 3502 Avenue N in quarters planned to meet the needs of the treatment program and built by community effort. Through the generosity of interested individuals and organizations, the Center offers treatment without charge to all cerebral palsied children regardless of race or creed. Cases must be referred by their local physicians for admission to the center and must register at the Center prior to the clinic date. Qualified physicians and dentists, donating their services, are present at all clinics to examine patients and prescribe treatment. Parents are given instruction for exercises and care, and appointments are made for future visits to the Center.

One of the top attractions of the 1960 Panhandle South Plains Fair was the I. Q. Zoo. Due to its overwhelming popularity, Fair officials resigned a larger I. Q. Zoo this year. It will feature two more acts than in 1960 and a stage show which is being introduced this season. Also scheduled is an antique auto show, the parade of bands, the Bill Hames midway, and children's barnyard, just to name a few.

Then there were the two fellows who were stranded on a desert island when a bottle washed ashore. In it was a note that almost drove them crazy. It was a message from two girls stranded on a desert island.

The patient complained of being brought on by "boredom." He explained, "Every time I close my eyes I see a mosquito or trying to steal my hat." "One remedy has been effective for centuries," the analyst said, "Why don't you try a beautiful girl in your hat? The fan interrupted, "What, And miss my hat?"

Program Outlined For Youngsters Entering First Grade This Term

Children entering the Slaton Schools in the first grade will go to school for one-half day for the first two weeks. And they are required to have a birth certificate and be vaccinated for small-pox, diphtheria, and polio shots are recommended. The afternoon will be utilized by the teacher to visit in the homes of the pupils in her room. This policy has been in effect for the past several years and it has proven to be effective in maintaining good teacher-pupil relations. It is hoped that every parent will make it possible for this visitation to be completed in the first two weeks. After these two weeks these children will attend school the entire day. Parents of the first grade pupils who live in the country should make some arrangements to get their children each day at noon as the buses will not operate on these days prior to four o'clock which is the regular time scheduled for the return run to the homes of pupils.

The first teacher meetings will be conducted before school starts. These meetings will commence on Friday, Sept. 1. They will be continued through Monday Sept. 4. A special workshop on teaching the language arts in the elementary school will highlight these sessions. New teachers will be briefed on the policies and procedures of the Slaton Schools. Changes in the general operation of the schools will be explained. Emphasis will be placed on improved teaching techniques in other fields of school work. Resource people from outside the school will demonstrate some of these improved methods.

Aid to Education

From the Fort Lauderdale News

When you're talking to the people, keep their focus on those little boys and girls . . .

Keep them thinking about those little boys and girls . . .

This advice was given to the nation's school teachers by the National Education Association at its convention in Atlantic City.

The counsel came from Senator Wayne Morse (Ore.) as he spoke before the NEA's legislative commission and urged the educators to become "statedemen" in their communities to help ease pressure to pass President Kennedy's controversial aid to education bills in the House.

Morse was suggesting that the teachers become lobbyists for legislation that will give Big Government a stronger grip on educational matters in a rightfully local and state level government.

Abashedly, he was instructing the teachers to urge in appeals to emotions of the parents and voters to overcome the resistance of reason.

That's where the "little boys and girls" would be in handy for the cause which, basically, is to get the taxpayer for $4.3 billion for teacher pay, new schools and for the operation and maintenance of schools.

The logical inference to be drawn from Morse's speech is the suggestion that teachers hint to the voters and taxpayers the future of America will be if the Kennedy bills are not approved, because the education of the "little boys and girls" will be ruined.

"With all candor," Morse admitted, "getting the attention of general Federal aid to education at the primary and secondary levels into the statute books is our first and over-riding goal."

Once established in principle, the statute we feel should be modified over the years. I believe that the passage of the Prouty amendment strengthened the acceptance of the bill . . . We gained allies through a course of conspicuous compromise, and so, we gave up no matter of principle."

There is stark nakedness in the image of things done. Once the statute is on the books, it can be changed in detail over the years. As we all know, the Big Government modifies, it modifies in favor of the extension of Big Government.

Creeping Socialism

"We can do everything possible to encourage Federal intervention in the financing of medical care on a bit-by-bit basis. And, we can work to get such intervention so that if it isn't socialized medicine proper, at least it paves the way for socialized medicine."

—from a Socialist party pamphlet

HOW INCONSIDERATE TO MAKE ALL THAT NOISE

The Sounding Board

Taken from the Andrews News, concerning the return of an old Army buddy.

The last time we saw that impish grinning, courageous face it was bending over us in a cowbarn on the Anzio beach-head in Italy 17 years ago.

An artillery shell from a German tank had just exploded a few feet away from where we were sleeping, killing outright two members of our infantry squad, paralyzing us from the waist down, and ripping inot a lung and part of a hip from the slender body belonging to that face.

And the hands belonging to that face were busy stuffing sulfa pills down our throat and washing them down with rancid water from his canteen. The big push by the Germans to drive the invaders off the beachhead had begun that February morning in 1944.

Moments earlier he had tried unsuccessfully to drag us to the front door of the barn. His lips flecked with blood, he spoke a few words of encouragement, shook our hand, and crawled slowly out the door of the barn amidst the screaming of shells and the constant chattering of machine pistols.

That's the last time we saw him . . . until we looked up from our desk yesterday morning and saw the same impish grin the slightly fuller face, the traces of grey in the hair of our foxhole buddy of the Italian campaign, snuff-dipping Paul Rand of Mabank, Texas.

It is not our intention to get off on one of those wild wartime stories of "there we were at 30,000 feet, two engines and our fuel gone . . ." but it is not often that a friend of 17 years standing drops by . . . and there are few friends--or men--like our East Texas snuff-dipper.

Some men have inherent qualities that equip them for war . . . and Little Tex had more than his share of those abilities needed to wage war in the mountains, the cold, the rain of Italy.

He was small of stature yet he had legs of steel . . . legs that could power him, his equipment, and those 28-pounds of ammunition for our BAR, up and down those rugged mountains day after night when everyone else was too exhausted to move or care.

He had a wonderful sense of direction and some mystic sixth sense of where water could be found. Often we have followed him blindly as he weaved, turned, and twisted around the near-summit of a mountain in the pitch-darkness of an Italian night . . . and thanks to his sense of direction we never failed to find our way back, our canteens loaded with fresh water, and likely as not, our stomachs full with garlic or cheese, dried peppers, almonds, or rich, red grapes.

He was the type of fellow who, when everyone else was all thumbs and clumsiness from the bitter cold or from exhaustion, he could manage to dig the nearest hole, put up the tightest pup tent, heat the hottest coffee water, keep the cleanest weapon, the trimmest beard, and stand the most alert pre-dawn guard duty in the outfit.

He took a scared and trembling 19-year-old raw recruit from West Texas under his wing and mothered him through his first battle at Salerno . . . and what seemed to be years and years later was still mothering us during that last attack at Anzio.

Bonds are forged between men in the heat of battle that can never be duplicated elsewhere. In many ways, the bonds are stronger than those between man and wife, between brothers, or between father and son.

Our East Texas friend had two qualities that made him tops. He was a real soldier--gutsy, dependable, and honest . . . and he could pray. And as any combat soldier can tell you, one quality is about as important as the other.

Every dogface in Italy learned how to pray--real quick like. And there's nothing unusual about men caught up in the emotional intensity of checkerboard artillery fire, the sucking whine of mortar shells, or the zip-sip of rifle fire, to pray loud, long, and earnestly.

But it was unusual for a soldier in the heat of battle to pray earnestly and sincerely for everyone in the platoon except himself. Little Tex prayed for all--and usually started by asking Divine Intervention for the worst, no-good bum in the outfit.

And somehow or other, when he started praying, you knew things were about as critical as they could get yet somehow or other, you felt that Little Tex had his own personal pipeline to the Man up there, and between the two of them, everything was going to work out all right.

He was--and is--that type of man. And if you're ever down around Mabank, drop in and see him--you'll never meet a better man.

Success of the individual under a socialistic government is achieved by the simple method of producing less than the value of benefits received.

Newest fad in circles of well-heeled cattlemen, is ostrich hide boots, costing about the equivalent of a year's pay earned by pioneer riders of the vast ranges. Present problem is that the supply of the big birds has been exhausted with the subsequent result that the price of the rare leather has increased. There is some consolation in remembering that the Russians also have shortages in certain items.

THE Peripatetic VIEW

BY C.R.C.

The title on the door reads "Vice-President of the United States," but Lyndon Baines Johnson has not forgotten the folks back home.

The former Texas Senator pulled the strings recently and in no time at all each man, woman and child in the little town of Wink, Texas, had received a grant of $478 from Uncle Sam.

When Johnson heard that the residents of Wink were not receiving as much in Federal urban renewal funds as they wanted, he got in touch with Robert C. Weaver, Housing and Home Finance Administrator.

Weaver stamped the Wink project "priority attention" and approval for the grant was rushed through a month ago.

To date the West Texas town (population 1,863) has received $427,451 from the urban renewal bureaucrats. Johnson's assistance helped Wink receive a "loan" of $1,034,758 to be backed up by an outright grant of $891,868.

This means that Federal aid already received or promised totals $1,034 for every soul in Wink, once an oil rich city of 20,000 that now qualifies as a full-fledged ghost town.

Grandiose plans have been approved for Wink, and the rebuilding project means that 72 families will be moved from their homes. The government has partially solved the problem of where to put these people by giving the town $211,000 for a 24-unit public housing project to be occupied by 24 families.

In addition to the $211,000 housing, Uncle Sam has given the town $144,000 to set up an urban renewal agency and another $72,451 to conduct the study which established Wink's eligibility for the government loan and grant.

Wink is only one of 18 Texas towns to have been showered with urban renewal funds. They have received more than $19 million from the Federal government. In contrast, the state's two largest cities, Dallas and Houston, have received virtually nothing.

Wink liquor store owner Dick Strawn is in the town minority when he voices his opposition to the project:

"I think it is one of the most un-American things that's ever been hatched up, myself. The government's got all the business it can attend to. This giving and giving and giving has to end."

His fellow Americans, smarting under an $80 billion annual budget might be inclined to agree.

Ramsey Appointment Has Political Implications

AUSTIN.--Ben Ramsey's appointment as Railroad Commissioner -- after a decade in which his name has been synonymous with the lieutenant governorship -- carries with it several major political implications.

First, it's a pretty safe bet that the quiet-spoken East Texan will not be in the field of contenders for the governor's chair. Pre-campaign speculation has had Ramsey in practically every gubernatorial race in recent years.

Second, it leaves the 1962 race for the Lieutenant Governorship wide open. At least a half-dozen likely prospects already have been mentioned. Third, it puts Sen. Bruce Reagan of Corpus Christi automatically in charge of the lieutenant governor's duties. He was elected by his colleagues as President Pro Tempore of Gov. Price Daniel's announcement of Ramsey's appointment.

There could be several "lieutenant governors" before the election this year. This depends on how many legislative sessions occur between now and then. Texas' Constitution provides that a President Pro Tempore shall be elected at the beginning and at the end of each session.

Governor Daniel has announced that he will call another special session before the end of the year. So it will be up to the Senate to elect a man who will assume the duties of lieutenant governor for that session. Then another will be chosen for the interim between it's windup and the beginning of the next one. And so on!

Meanwhile, Reagan is first in line of succession to the Governor's office.

Ramsey's appointment to the $17,500 a year railroad commission post came as no surprise in political circles.

Appointment is for the unexpired term of the late Olin Culberson, which runs until January 1, 1963. Then, if Ramsey desires a full six-year term, he will have to stand for election.

Ramsey joins Ernest O. Thompson and William J. Murray, the present chairman, on one of the most important agencies in the state government. The railroad commission not only regulates all Texas oil and gas production, but all highway and railroad freight and passenger rates in the state.

ANOTHER SPECIAL SESSION ASSURED--At the close of the called special session which voted a teachers' pay raise averaging $810 per year, Governor Daniel announced he will call another session sometime before the end of the year, to act on several matters.

He said he will submit such subjects as loan shark control legislation, a law to include banks in the recently-passed abandoned property act, juvenile delinquency legislation, and controls over municipal annexation.

The short session, in addition to the teachers' pay raise, also provided additional money for the operation and maintenance of school buses and for administration.

A law requiring runoffs in congressional elections when one candidate doesn't receive a majority was passed in the dying moments of the session.

Although the major objectives of the Texas State Teachers Association have been reached, there are more to come.

These include a sick leave plan for teachers; provision for assistant superintendent units for large school systems; using average daily attendance, instead of scholastic census, as the factor for determining distribution of the state's available school funds to local districts; more driver education teachers; compulsory attendance for all children, six through 16, for the whole school year; and creation of regional film libraries.

Incidentally, the $810 teacher pay raise doesn't necessarily mean every teacher in the state will get such a raise. Some districts already are paying their teachers more than the state minimum. In such cases it's up to the district to decide whether a raise is in order.

SALES TAX EXPLAINED--Prime targets of the state's new two per cent sales tax, which become effective September 1, are furniture, household and kitchen appliances, clothing with some exceptions, household supplies, toys, restaurant meals and gas and electric utility bills.

But those are not all by any means, as you'll soon discover.

However, groceries, housing, medical and dental bills, insurance, and telephone service will not be covered by the new levy.

One break for the taxpayer came with the new tax bill. The three per cent tax which was on television sets, radios and air conditioners will be reduced to two per cent. Cosmetics tax will be lowered from 2.2 per cent to two per cent.

It should be some consolation, at least, to know that all sales taxes under the new law are consumer taxes and thus deductible from the federal income tax.

DANIEL ACCEDES TO SALES TAX--Governor Daniel filed the sales tax bill with the Secretary of State, unsigned. This permitted it to become law without his signature.

He said to veto it at this time, when appropriations must be met September 1, "would be disastrous to the State of Texas, its school children, state institutions, old age pensioners, and other programs which are dependent upon adequate revenue and appropriations."

"It is with considerable regret," he said, "that I feel compelled to permit this type of bill to become law. Among other inequities it contains a limited type of general sales tax which I have opposed for 22 years."

There is no time to "re-fight" the tax battle, he added. SCHOOL BUS PRICES FIXED?--An anti-trust suit has been filed by Atty. Gen. Will Wilson against 16 persons and firms. Suit alleges that bids on school buses sold to the state have been rigged.

Wilson said something like 5,100 buses costing $23,000,000 are involved. Allegation is that those named agreed to "fix, maintain and increase the price at which school buses are sold in the State of Texas."

Suit asks penalties up to $3,500,000 for price-fixing acts covering a period from January 1, 1955 to August 16, 1961.

DO'S AND DON'TS WITH STATE MONEY -- The Legislature says it's all right for the Governor to transfer funds from other appropriations into the Civil Defense and Disaster Relief appropriation if the President proclaims the national safety is in danger.

It also says he can purchase a $10,000 limousine for official use -- but Governor Daniel quickly announced he would not do so "as long as the state deficit continues."

Legislature says it's NOT all right for state money to be spent on embossed or engraved printing or stationary, except for the offices of Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Speaker of the House, members of the Legislature, and for degrees and diplomas from state institutions of higher learning.

SHORT SNORTS There will be no more game wardens in Texas after September 1. Thereafter they will be called "conservation officers." "Actually," says

Howard Dodgen, secretary of the Game and Fish Commission, "they spend more on prevention of violations than actually making arrests."

Advertizing of liquor in dry counties as long as it doesn't refer to liquor according to the General's opinion. In point, the name of the store didn't indicate it sells.

Big rhubarb is in the market in Texarkana, over the per cent sales tax. When Arkansas levied a per cent sales tax, Texarkana, was exempt because Texas had no sales tax.

There was a provision ever, that when Texas levied a sales tax, citizens of Kansas, Arkansas, maintaining the Arkansas tax.

Weekly Cotton Market Review

Prices continued during the week, according to the Department of Agriculture. Prices quoted for cotton in the markets average well above the season's support and remained only slightly above the volume of cotton reported to be in the CCC loan program.

When Arkansas and Texas cotton prices were quoted at levels ranging as high as 100 or more points over the loan. The parity price for Upland cotton was 38.70 cents per pound in mid-July.

Reported purchases in the fourteen markets totaled 68,300 bales against 129,500 bales a week earlier and 162,400 in the corresponding week a year ago. Cotton bought from CCC accounted for a large portion of both the preceding week's total and that of a year earlier. Trading continued slow in most spot markets. Offerings of old-crop cotton were limited. Most shippers seem content to carry current stocks into the new season. Farmers in active harvesting areas of south Texas were selling current ginings freely when prices offered were at or above applicable CCC support levels. Foreign mill inquiries increased somewhat for cotton for forward delivery. Sales for export remained only moderate in volume, as shippers were not selling freely at the level of prices being bid. CCC loan repayments on 1960-crop cotton were reported to have totaled 72,100 bales during the week ended July 28, leaving loans outstanding on 2,100 bales as of that date. In the same week, CCC loan entries of 1961-crop cotton were reported to have been 5,600 bales bringing total entries to 9,100 bales through July 28.

Accident Report Given For County During Month Of July

The Highway Patrol investigated 25 accidents on Rural Highways in Lubbock County during the month of July, according to Sgt. E. L. Stroud Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These wrecks accounted for thirteen persons injured, and a property damage of $97,600. The rural traffic accident summary for Lubbock County from January through July of 1961 shows a total of 167 crashes. As a result of these crashes there were 106 persons injured and 27 persons killed. The estimated property damage amounted to $95,603.00. This compares with the first seven months of 1960's total of 137 rural crashes injuring 90 people, killing ten persons and causing an estimated property damage of $95,562.00.

"Prior to August 1, throughout the state of Texas, there had been a total of 974 fatal crashes resulting in 1214 persons losing their lives needlessly," the Sgt. stated. This compares with 929 fatal crashes and 1134 lives lost for the same period in 1960. Therefore, in 1961 there have been 45 more fatal crashes resulting in 80 more lives lost, or a 7% increase.

With the summer vacation period in its final month and Labor Day approaching, many thousands of people will be crowding in their final visit, outing, etc., before their children start back to school. This means many people will be trying to travel too far in a short time. Many will be carefree and careless in their driving.

The Sgt. listed some facts about last year's Labor Day Weekend and some suggestions to remedy this. There were 22 fatal crashes resulting in 39 smashed out lives over the 1960 three-day Labor Day Weekend. In order to arrive alive at your destination start in plenty of time to allow for delays along the way. Give the right of way, don't take it. Be prepared for the other driver's actions; if he can't or won't stop at an intersection, YOU CAN REMEMBER, drive with caution so as not to arrive in a COFFIN!

Twenty Two Deaths Reported In Rural Lubbock County This Year

The number one killer (?) of accidental deaths forsees greater dangers ahead. Of all the causes of accidental death, traffic accidents are far out in front as killer number one.

In rural Lubbock County last year this killer took 22 lives, 178 injured, and an economic loss of $212,150.00. It cost the State of Texas 2,254 lives, 127,980 injured, and an economic loss of $350,023,500. And according to the National Safety Council, it cost the nation 38,200 lives, 1,400,000 injured, and an economic loss of $6,400,000,000.

The horizon ahead has greater potential dangers confronting us: more people, more drivers, more vehicles, more travel, which adds up to more chances for accidents.

Two sets of figures released by the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators show how we stand, and what we face:

In 1960, the nation had 90 million licensed drivers, and they drove nearly 74 billion motor vehicles an estimated 720 billion miles. While they were doing so, 38,200 of them were killed; despite the lowest mileage death rate in history, 5.4 persons were killed per 100 million vehicle miles (720 billion vehicle miles divided by 90 million licensed drivers).

In 1975, it is estimated that more than 111 million drivers will operate 110 million vehicles 1.2 trillion miles. If the current death rate were to continue, this would mean 65,000 traffic fatalities that year.

These figures point up the magnitude of the accident problem that looms before us as traffic volume and population

They make clear, also, the essentiality of expanded and intensified accident prevention activities being carried on throughout the states.

Through this kind of activity, a high level of traffic safety can be achieved and maintained. We have many weapons available to fight accidents, and the power of these weapons has been proved by those states and their citizens that have used them vigorously.

CAPROCK GOLF CLUB

month dues. Land purchased is amply adequate for an 18 hole championship golf course, with practice area, club house, and any other recreational facilities members may later desire to add. Terrain is of a moderate rolling nature.

The new Caprock Golf and Country Club, being constructed within 15 minutes' drive of Slaton, is nearing the "ready" mark for regional golfers.

Located one mile northwest of the intersection of the Union and Tahoka highways, the construction of the first nine grass green holes is nearing completion. After the first half of the links is completed, members of the club will utilize it while plans go forward to completion of an 18 hole course. The Caprock Club is uniquely built in the fact that it is paying its way. Fees from members comprised the funds which began the project, and as additions are made, they will be paid for by monthly fees and additional members.

The initial purpose of the club is to construct and maintain a first class golf course. Secondly is to assure all members the minimum cost of $12.00 per Operating on the membership of 150 persons, the first nine holes were built. The second nine will be started when 300 members have joined.

Charter membership is gained through a $250.00 payment, with the $12.00 monthly fees commensurate with the time that the first nine holes is payable. The initial $250.00 may be paid in full or over a 24-month period. If at any time

Club or other organizations wish to operate under the principals, the dues for the club will be the 18-hole course, the house, swimming pool, etc. A meeting will be held when further details will be outlined. Also at the meeting, $500.00 in golf equipment be given away. Each having signed up will have a chance at winning the present plans call for a first nine holes to be prior to October 1st.

"I Believe In God, The Father"

"Believe in the Lord your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper." 2 Chronicles 20:20

The halls of unbelief ring loud today with the shallow claims of Atheism, Communism, Humanism, Agnosticism and Materialism. Many people are so caught up in the whirlpool of life's activity in social and business affairs that they never take the time to think through to the quietness and solitude where God reveals himself. Thus they juggle the many ideas thrown up in these halls of unbelief without ever being able to come to a conclusion. If ever the world needed to heed the invitation, "Be still and know that I am God," it is today.

The Bible says, "And many false prophets shall rise and shall deceive many. And because iniquity shall abound the love of many shall wax cold." This should startle the "has been" Christian into a return to his faith and Christian living, but it seems to not get through to him. I hope to give a few thoughts that will help the person who wants to believe in God, but somehow has not found the bed rock upon which he may establish his faith.

In Seminary our professor drew two hills naming one Theism and the other Atheism and put the question, "Where shall I pitch my tent?" He listed the things that would grow on each hill.

|--|--|
| Theism <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Personal God.</li> <li>2. Life at Fullest.</li> <li>3. Liberty under law.</li> <li>4. Love, atonement, help.</li> <li>5. Faith, joy.</li> <li>6. Peace, fellowship.</li> <li>7. Assurance, hope.</li> <li>8. Responsibility.</li> <li>9. Heaven to gain.</li> <li>10. A great challenge.</li> <li>11. Providence.</li> <li>12. Grace, sufficient, abounding.</li> </ol> | Atheism <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. No God at all.</li> <li>2. Existence-life cheap.</li> <li>3. Bondage of superstition.</li> <li>4. Fear, no atonement.</li> <li>5. Doubt, uncertainty.</li> <li>6. No peace, no fellowship.</li> <li>7. No assurance, no hope.</li> <li>8. No responsibility.</li> <li>9. No immortality.</li> <li>10. No challenge.</li> <li>11. No providence.</li> <li>12. No grace, but Despair.</li> </ol> |

I chose to pitch my tent on the hill of Theism and find these reasons for doing so.

1. God reveals himself in nature. Wordsworth expressed it in the lines: "I have felt a presence that disturbs me with the joy of elevated thoughts, a sense sublime of something far more deeply interfused, Whose dwelling is the light of setting suns and the round ocean, and the living air, And the blue sky -- and in the mind of man; A motion and a spirit that impels all thinking things, all objects of all thought, and rolls through all things."

2. God reveals himself in Conscience. Paul said: "We also are men of like passions with you and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, which made heaven and earth and the sea, and all things that are therein: who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways. Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, and FILLED OUR HEARTS WITH FOOD AND GLADNESS."

3. God reveals himself in a revelation to men. Moses, Ex. 3:4 "And when the Lord saw that he turned aside to see, God called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, 'Moses, Moses,' And he said 'here am I.' And he said, 'Draw not nigh hither; put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.'"

Isaiah, "I saw the Lord high and lifted up. Whom shall I send and who will go for us?" Jesus, "If ye had known me ye should have known my Father also, and from henceforth ye know him and have seen him."

4. In the revelation of himself to man we find these attributes:
  - (1), "God is a spirit and they that worship him must worship in spirit and in truth," John 4:23
  - (2), "God is light and in him is no darkness at all," Psalm 18:28 "For thou wilt light my candle; the Lord my God will enlighten my darkness."
  - (3), God is love, I John 4:8, "He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love," 16 "And we have known and believe the love that God hath to us. God is love, And he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him."

This is the God we find if we search for Him. The way to find Him is given in Hebrews 11:6 "He that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him."

The loan is self-liquidating, in that it will be repaid from rental of students who live in the dormitory. Furnishings Not Included. The loan does not include furnishings that will be needed for the rooms, college officials said. A campaign to raise money for furnishings, including beds, desks, chairs, and mirrors, will be conducted, development of-officials said. The fire-proof, all-brick structure will be similar to Katie Rogers Hall, the women's dormitory completed in 1960. Plans for the new men's hall already have been drawn by the same architectural firm which designed the women's hall. Bids will be invited when specifications are completed. The new dormitory will be located west of the Administration Building on the LCC campus.

Cerebral Palsy Clinic Scheduled In Lubbock On September 14th

Dr. Esther E. Snell, Director of the Lubbock Cerebral Palsy Treatment Center, has announced the next clinic for Thursday, September 14, according to information received by the Slaton Slatonite. The Center was founded by the Lubbock County Society for Crippled Children and the Lubbock Rotary Club in 1948, and is located at 3502 Avenue N in quarters planned to meet the needs of the treatment program and built by community effort. Through the generosity of interested individuals and organizations, the Center offers treatment without charge to all cerebral palsied children regardless of race or creed. Cases must be referred by their local physicians for admission to the center and must register at the Center prior to the clinic date. Qualified physicians and dentists, donating their services, are present at all clinics to examine patients and prescribe treatment. Parents are given instruction for exercises and care, and appointments are made for future visits to the Center.

Attractions Being Planned For Panhandle South Plains Fair

With the opening of the Panhandle South Plains Fair about one month away, several crowd-pleasing attractions have already been signed, Fair officials said.

Feature attraction in the Fair Park Coliseum for the 1961

Fair will be the 21st edition of Ice Capades, which recently returned from a smash hit in Europe. The ticket office will be in the Pioneer Hotel in Lubbock and advance ticket information is available from the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce.

One of the top attractions of the 1960 Panhandle South Plains Fair was the I. Q. Zoo. Due to its overwhelming popularity, Fair officials resigned a larger I. Q. Zoo this year. It will feature two more acts than in 1960 and a stage show which is being introduced this season. Also scheduled is an antique auto show, the parade of bands, the Bill Hames midway, and children's barnyard, just to name a few.

Program Outlined for Youngsters Entering First Grade This Term

Children entering the Slaton Schools in the first grade will go to school for one-half day for the first two weeks. And they are required to have a birth certificate and be vaccinated for small-pox, diphtheria, and polio shots are recommended.

The afternoon will be utilized by the teacher to visit in the homes of the pupils in her room. This policy has been in effect for the past several years and it has proven to be effective in maintaining good teacher-pupil relations. It is hoped that every parent will make it possible for this visitation to be completed in the first two weeks. After these two weeks these children will attend school the entire day. Parents of the first grade pupils who live in the country should make some arrangements to get their children each day at noon as the buses will not operate on these days prior to four o'clock which is the regular time scheduled for the return run to the homes of pupils. The first teacher meetings will be conducted before school starts. These meetings will commence on Friday, Sept. 1. They will be continued through Monday Sept. 4. A special workshop on teaching the language arts in the elementary school will highlight these sessions. New teachers will be briefed on the policies and procedures of the Slaton Schools. Changes in the general operation of the schools will be explained. Emphasis will be placed on improved teaching techniques in other fields of school work. Resource people from outside the school will demonstrate some of these improved methods.
