Two Big Elections In The Next Five Days

Monday, December 13th, City Can Vote Its Future Supply Of Water

Qualified property holders, who have rendered property for City taxation, go to the polls Tuesday, December 13th, to vote on a contract with the Canadian River Municipal Water Authority.

The election carries the completion of the delivery system, is expected to take approximately seven years, so it would be at least that long before Slaton could get water from the Canadian for local consumption. The dam is expected to provide a water supply for 50 years and engineers have said that, at that time, it can be added to and provide water for still another 50 years with its potential still not depleted.

At last report, there had been no absentee votes cast in the election. Those who will be out of the city next Tuesday can vote absentee through tomorrow. Qualified voters are those persons residing within the City Limits of Slaton who have property rendered for City taxation. The polls will open at 8 a. m. and close at 7 p. m. Phil Brewer will be election judge.

Open House' Set By Savings Association

The "Open House" will be observed Saturday at Slaton Savings and Loan Association. The day will commemorate the anniversary of the establishment of the institution in 1911. The general public is invited to attend between the hours of two p. m. as guests of the members' board of directors. Refreshments for $50.00 will be served and a free $50.00 savings account for some lucky guest.

Canadian Dam Talked Before Rotary Club

The Slaton Rotary Club met last Thursday at the Club House. Guest speakers were two men who are affiliated with the Federal Reclamation Department.

The speakers gave a report on the Canadian River Project. They described the dam site and outlined the cost to the member cities and the expected water rates.

Census Counts 6,568

The U.S. Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, has placed Slaton's population as of April 1, 1960 at 6,568.

The advance report of the final population count showed the community had grown over 1,500 since the 1950 census, which reported Slaton as slightly over 5,000.

The population of the state of Texas was set at 9,579,677 as of April 1st, or a gain of 1,868,483 persons since 1950, when the census set Texas' population at 7,711,194 inhabitants. This is a gain of 24.2 per cent. Slaton's growth was a little above this in percentages, at approximately 32 per cent. The entire area has shown much growth since 1950 with Lubbock County jumping up to 156,271.

The Slaton division of the county report had 7,912 inhabitants with the city totaling 6,568.

Slaton's trade territory would well over 15,000 inhabitants with the division know as Lubbock South adding 1,843; the Wilson division of the Lynn County report adding 1,743; and what would be an undetermined portion of Lubbock County's Idalou division, which totaled 4,724, and the Post division of Garza County, which totaled 6,611. Post itself registered 4,663.

The town of Wilson itself registered 403 inhabitants on April 1st. Southland showed 153 inhabitants.

Slaton's trade territory would also include hundreds of inhabitants of Crosby County.

quo III, president; Dr. Lee Vardy, vice-president; "Doc" Castleberry, Rush Wheeler and Robert Hall Davis. They are all eligible for nomination and reelection to the board.

Justice Of The Peace Precinct Two Liquor Election Is Saturday

Once again, and possibly the last time for a while, Slaton voters will go to the polls Saturday to vote in a liquor election.

Saturday's vote will be "for" or "against" the sale of all alcoholic beverages for off premises consumption in Justice of the Peace Precinct Two.

The polls will open at 8 a. m. Saturday and close at 7 p. m. at Box 19, McClung, James F. Davis Jr., judge; Box 24, Cooper W. T. Lemon, Judge; Box 25, Posey, Paul Kitchens, judge; Box 26, northwest Slaton City Hall, J. C. Smith Jr., judge; Box 27, east Slaton City Hall, Charlie Whalen, judge; and Box 28, southwest Slaton City Hall, Joe Walker Jr., judge.

There have been a total of 3) absentee votes in the election with a few ballots which were mailed out not yet returned to the County Clerk's office in Lubbock. They will be counted if they arrive at the Clerk's office by 1 p. m. election day. Both sides have submitted closing statements, each explaining why they feel the election should carry in their favor.

Statement from legal sale advocates Clarence and Norbert Kitten:

"The question before the voters of Precinct Two on Saturday is not a question of "wet" or "dry." Liquor is sold here now and will continue to be sold regardless of the outcome of this election. The real question to be decided is between legal sale or a continuation of illegal sale.

"The outcome of the election will determine if the alcoholic beverages will be placed in the hands of a licensed citizen who must declare a business address, who is supervised by the State Liquor Board and approved by our own County Judge, a citizen who has a reputation and a business to protect.

"The other choice we have is to leave liquor sales in the hands of a person who does not have to list a business address, may move around as much as he likes to escape detection, and need not care whether his customers are age 17 or 35 because the penalty is the same if he should happen to be caught.

"We, the voters will decide whether we will have legal sale, where our law enforcement officers will have the right to enter the front door of an established business where they will be welcome or whether they will be forced to continue to seek evidence of violation by various means, then if suspicion warrants they must obtain a signed search warrant, present it to the owner of the property involved and then try to find evidence in a hostile atmosphere with no cooperation from the owner.

"We oppose 'legal sales' because we believe every citizen has a right to live in a society free from the damaging effects of alcohol where the innocent suffer and pay the toll for the effects the industry is unwilling to pay."

THOUGHTS FOR THURSDAY
By H. M. Baggaly

NOT LONG AGO a comprehensive survey was made in which thousands of college seniors most from life. A compilation of most from life. A compilation of all the answers indicated that the typical student, about to complete his formal education and take his place in society, wanted a good wife and two children, a home in the suburbs of a large city, a good job with opportunity for advancement, the normal comforts and conveniences provided by science, and several other ingredients of modern life in America.

—Thoughts For Thursday—

WHILE ALL THESE desires are legitimate and somewhat reasonable, it is noteworthy that only in rare instances did one of those interviewed suggest a desire to serve humanity through the medium of a service organization, a church, or public office. In fact, service of any kind was mentioned of infrequently that it was not considered of sufficient importance to be named as a part of the typical or composite student.

It seemed that the typical college senior was interested altogether in the things life could give him, not in what he could contribute to humanity. Perhaps many of these students misunderstood the questions asked, perhaps it was an oversight that they neglected to consider the necessity for service, free service, to civilization which is the obligation of every person born on this planet. But more likely, these students are only representatives of all people.

—Thoughts For Thursday—

WHO ARE WE to assume that we have a right to accept the contributions of civilization while giving nothing in return? Is life merely a sponge in which we only receive?

If we are enjoying something brought about through the efforts of a service club, have we no obligation to join a service club and leave something for others to enjoy?

VOTE

TUESDAY, DECEMBER - 13th

WHO — All eligible voters of City of Slaton

WHERE — At the City Hall

WHAT ABOUT — Whether or not the City of Slaton shall enter into contract with Canadian River Municipal Water Authority

FACTS

Your City Commission has studied our present water supply, with the aid of Competent engineers of Parkhill, Smith and Cooper, and has arrived at the following facts

1. At present we have 20 wells, all small and some very small and failing, a few of these have to be abandoned each year, and new small ones drilled. For our present population, we can get by for a few more years by drilling additional wells, but the water level is lowering and wells getting more scarce each year.

2. Our present water rates, which are over than any comparative or neighboring towns, are not realistic, and do not cover the entire cost of producing and distributing the water, therefore are going to have to be raised in any case.

3. Our distribution system is insufficient to handle our present demands, and we will have to add considerable large mains in order to handle our present water, maintain satisfactory water pressure to residences and satisfy the Fire Insurance Commission at Austin.

4. We have already been warned by the Insurance Commission that it will be necessary to secure additional overhead storage and increase size of our mains in order to even maintain our present fire insurance rates, to say nothing of furnishing sufficient water to prevent a large fire spreading.

ALTERNATIVE

We can do nothing except continue to drill small wells adjacent to town. We might possibly get by with this method for another five or six years, provided the City does not grow any and provided we do not have any extremely dry summers, or large fires. The extreme risk to this method, however, would be the danger of our running out of places to drill these small wells, and the fact that this is only temporary. Also when we ran out of water, it would come all at once, it would be too late to get into the Canadian River Project, and we would be hurt bad.

ALTERNATIVE

We can go four or five-miles southwest of town and buy either water rights or buy land outright in order to get water rights. There is some very good deep water available that would furnish the City with all they would need, at the present population, for maybe twenty or twenty-five years. However, the drawbacks to this method are the cost to secure the water, to build additional pumping and carrier systems, and the fact that this would also be comparatively temporary, and we would again be too late to get into the Canadian River Project.

ALTERNATIVE

We can vote to sign a contract with the Canadian River Authority. It would probably be seven years before we would begin getting water from them, and we can probably get by until then with our small wells, by adding to them each year. In this way we will be assured with a principle supply of water for at least fifty years, and probably much longer.

OUR RECOMMENDATION

We, as members of the Slaton City Commission, want the people of Slaton to decide which way they want to go, but our recommendation, both individually and as a body, is to vote For the Contract with the Canadian River Authority.

We know that our water rates will have to be increased materially, but they are going to have to be increased some in any case, and when you are out of water, no price is too steep.

Also, in any development we might make ourselves, we would have to finance the entire investment by issuing bonds. If we go to the Canadian River Authority route, the entire cost of the dam and conduit is handled through their bonds, and we will pay our part through the purchase of water only. Our only expenditures will be for a water treating plant and for additions to our distribution system, which latter expense we will have to do in any case.

THEREFORE, WE HEARTILY RECOMMEND THAT YOU

Vote Yes

LET US NOT PERMIT THIS LETTER
To Become A Possibility After The Election:
OPEN LETTER To the VOTERS:

Dear Voters of Precinct two,

I would like to extend my sincerest thanks to all the people who voted for me; now I will be able to stay in business. I'm glad to see that although you realize I may sell to your children, you also realize that without your vote I would have to get an honest job. I thought the point about keeping your family safe was real good. You are right you know, just don't give your children the money and I won't sell them a drop. Of course, if they have the money I'll sell them anything they want. My safest sale is to a minor. He can't be a Liquor Control Agent. Thanks again for your vote.

There's a reason why HOMEMAKERS OVERWHELMINGLY PREFER GAS RANGES

ROPER

ECONOMY...

The American homemaker is about as sharp as you'll find when it comes to dough (both kinds)! The more efficiently and economically she handles the family budget, the faster she can feed the piggy bank. When it comes to buying a new range, she knows she'll be way ahead with GAS because what other range gives such beauty and performance... for so little money? And when she can save more than $30.00 a year in operating costs over "coil" cooking... what else can a smart woman choose?

"Prohibition will work injury to the cause of temperance. It is a species of intemperance within itself, for it goes beyond the bounds of reason in that it attempts to control a man's appetite by legislation, and makes a crime out of things that are not a crime."

Without all these experiences his youth is incomplete!

A well-rounded person is one who grows to know all sides of life.

You wouldn't think of depriving your children of the countless uses of science... or of the beauty and pleasure in great art and literature... or of the healthy fun of play.

Then don't deprive them of the experience of religious training from which so many even richer and more valuable experiences result. Whatever your belief, give your children a chance to find the strength for broadening their lives through Faith.

Vote For Legal Sales (For Off-Premises Consumption Only)

DO YOU OWE THE BOOTLEGGER YOUR SUPPORT?

Let us restore our self-respect and our children's respect for law.

"The bootlegger is a better system plan" .. has seen a continuing decline in respect for law and order.

After another year to prove that BOOTLEGGING IS THE BETTER WAY, you are asked to continue this dangerous farce.

No responsive thinking citizen wants to see this decline of morals continue.

Emotional appeals to put your head in the sand and "close your eyes and the bootlegger menace will go away", WON'T WORK!

That's the PRESENT SYSTEM... where your children can buy a bottle DAY or NIGHT, WEEKEND or SUNDAY. You know how easy it is. So do your children.

Offer them protection... not bootlegger lures.

IF YOU FAIL to vote FOR LEGAL SALES, YOU are personally RESPONSIBLE for continuing the present bootlegging menace.

FHA Girls Hold 1960 Style Show

"I'll Be Home For Christmas" was the attitude homemaking I, II, and III girls took as they modeled in a sorority tea atmosphere in last night's FHA Christmas style show.

Sue Reasoner, Areta Privett, Canada Lee, and Bonnie Cole amused themselves with so many "Christmas" ideas as they planned this main event.

The style show couldn't have been produced without these beautiful young ladies: Jane Bounds, De Etta Buskemper, Thelma Coonstock, Sue Reasoner, Marilyn Gilmore, Janice Kahlich, Florida Orasco, Doretta Schuette, Linda Shelto, C. Buskemper, Melinda Clifton, Rhonda Eanes, Mary Lou Elliott, Joyce Gamble, Jeanette George, Linda George, Janice Hill, Carolyn Howell, Debra Kayser, Canzada Lee, Sheelah McCormick, Harriet Perkins, Rosemarie Phillips, Elaine Pickens, Carol Self, and Beatrice Smalley.

Saturday morning McAdoo defeated Slaton boys 60-57 to advance to finals while the Tigerettes defeated McAdoo girls 51-47 to advance to the finals.

FACE THESE FACTS

"PACKAGE STORES"

"Off-Premise Consumption Only" or "Package Stores" is a farce under present Texas law. House Bill 729, passed in the Legislature on April 30, 1959, has this puzzling statement:

"An applicant may designate a portion of the grounds, buildings, vehicles, or appurtenances which shall not be a part of the licensed premise."

A literal interpretation would mean that a portion of the same building can be designated as "licensed premise" and another portion as "off-premise." Because this is a new Bill neither the Attorney General nor the Courts have ruled on it. However, legal opinion believes that it might be possible for a dance hall, domino parlor, or a similar place to be adjacent to a Package Store for consumption.

STOP AND THINK! IS THERE A "RISK" HERE? Is this what YOU want for YOUR town? This is the "Real Issue."

BOOTLEGGING has increased 210% in POST since going WET

BOOTLEGGING has increased 132% in CASTRO COUNTY since going Wet

BOOTLEGGING has increased 166% in Dennison since going wet.

"smash bootlegging" is the cry of the Wets yet legal sales only promotes more bootlegging. Why is it that 300 plus cases of bootlegging, are reported in WET areas since January of this year in the Liquor Control Board Review?

Don't let bootlegging be the scarecrow. We will still have the evils of alcohol. It is alcohol, not bootlegging, that promotes crime. It is the product sold, not the one who sells it.

We can and have done much to control bootlegging by cooperating with local law enforcement officers. Why swap for something that is NO BETTER. There are promises but no guarantees.

A VOTE AGAINST IS A SAFE VOTE

These were presented by Principal Truett Babb. Reverend A. E. Wilbur of the First Christian Church was first to present a talk to the student body. "The True Meaning of Thanksgiving," was then given by Jim Lowry. Concluding the program, the Chorale sang three selections very appropriate for the Thanksgiving season. These were "O Taste and See," "Take My Hand," and "The Lord Bless You and Keep You." Students were then dismissed for lunch. —Tiger's Cage

Research on weed control by grain sorghum and many vegetables. Included will be a follow-up on the research that has been underway at the High Plains Research Foundation. Control of Root Rot Damage Is Investigated

North Texas blackland cotton farmers who lost heavy portions of their crops to root rot this year will be interested in results of Texas Research Foundation's long-time investigation of farming systems. Data obtained from the investigations show that cotton root rot damage can be cut appreciably by growing cotton in rotation with non-susceptible crops under the proper program of fertility management. Benny J. Simpson, Foundation soil scientist in charge of the investigation, has reported that the longer the rotation withholds repetition of cotton planting on the same soil, the better the control of root rot will be. We have held down root rot best with a rotation of wheat, cotton and grain sorghum, a system in which two years elapse before cotton is re-planted on the same soil," he said. This rotation has cut down the incidence of root rot by an acreage of more than a third during the four recent years in which the infection has been most severe.

LITTLE COLONEL By Bob McKinley

High Student-Car Ratio Discovered

The farming system investigations use continuous cotton, fertilized and unfertilized, as checks to determine the extent of control. During the growing seasons of 1955, 1958, 1959 and 1960, cotton root rot destroyed an annual average of 45.1 per cent of the unfertilized, continuous cotton, but only 6.9 per cent of the unfertilized, rotation cotton. Substantially the same control was obtained in the fertilized systems.

SHS Bids Welcome To Four Students
Several new students have joined the student body of SHS this year. At this time we wish to welcome these students and hope they find their place among the approximately 330 other students. Sue Josey, a freshman, moved here this last summer from Frenship. Miss Josey has lived most of her life in Brownfield, but she was born in Alabama. Reading is a favorite pastime of Miss Josey's. Reading is also a favorite of Melba Fields, a new senior at Slaton High. Miss Fields moved to Slaton from Whitesboro, Oklahoma, but she has lived most of the time in Big Cedar, Oklahoma, where she was born. Miss Fields plans to marry after graduation. Bob St. Clair, born in Lubbock, moved here this fall from Almagordo, New Mexico. St. Clair is a junior, but he plans to become a senior at mid-term. Mr. St. Clair's favorite pastime is girls. Singing is a favorite of Mary Smith. Miss Smith moved to Slaton from Lubbock on November 7. At Lubbock she attended Carol Thompson Junior High. English is a favorite subject of this new freshman. —Tiger's Cage

Farm Facts

The U. S. farmer is the world's most efficient farmer. Because of this we are the best fed and best clothed people in the world and the most inexpensively in the proportion of our incomes it takes to obtain these items. Research and its adaptation to farming have brought virtual agricultural abundance to this country in a few years.

A U. S. farmer produces enough to feed himself and 23 others. Only a few years ago he produced only enough to feed himself and seven others.

In Russia a farmer produces only enough to feed himself and one other. It was not by accident that Khrushchev visited an Iowa farm when he came to the United States. He knows that farm productivity is one of America's greatest sources of strength. He realizes, too, that as long as it takes one Russian on the farm to feed one worker in industry, Soviet progress is greatly handicapped.

In the past 18 years, U. S. farmers have improved their efficiency more than in the preceding 120 years. They have increased their per-acre yield of 18 leading field crops by 71 per cent in less than 29 years. Production per man-hour has almost tripled since the early 30's.

Corn Can Tell What Soil Needs

Easy way to check the fertility of your soil is to examine the corn in your crib. They're Nature's own "Geiger counter" and will tell you if soil is lacking in certain major nutrients.

Are rows of kernels missing? Are tips twisted and rubbings small? These are some of the signs that indicate deficiencies, according to Ferguson researchers say.

Shortage is to be suspected when ears are small and rows or parts of rows of kernels aren't there. Lack of phosphorus is only responsible for improper pollination and barren ears that are loose on the cob, rubbings that are chaffy, and ears that don't fill out as they should, are usually the results of deficiency. Small ears with unfilled tips could indicate low nitrogen content, although dry weather might also have contributed to the problem.

Any of these irregularities show up in your corn, have a soil test for analysis. That's the best way to learn how much of each type of plant food are needed to step up corn yield and have ears that have healthy look.

Small ears are the tip-off to one or more of three things: low nitrogen, too thick a stand, or not enough moisture.

If the ears are big, weighing half a pound or more at maturity, they're much too large, of course, for best yields. To bring them to paying size, try planting more kernels per acre.

PROMISE A PRINCESS FOR CHRISTMAS

Well, it's that time of year again when the men of the house tackle the problem of selecting something for the "ay-of-the-house." Some men never know what to choose. So they end up with something that isn't really what they want and something she doesn't really like. (Ever happen to you?)

In any case, here's good news for Christmas shoppers. A Christmas surprise she'll use and treasure all year long... the new, streamlined Princess phone. It's little, the ladies love it, and it lights. The dial glows more softly than a light on your Christmas tree. When you lift the receiver, it shines brightly for you. It has a smart new oval shape, too.

So, why not "promise her" a Princess phone for Christmas? If you want to surprise her, we have a Christmas tree-shaped gift certificate to hang on the wall. It unfolds to show her the colors in which the Princess phone is available. White, pink, turquoise, blue or beige. After Christmas, we'll install the Princess phone in the color and place she likes best.

Call to order a Princess phone for your "Best Girl?" or call the telephone business office.
