"KING AND QUEEN OF HEARTS"

"King and Queen of Hearts" for Slaton's 1960 Heart Fund Drive, which lasts all during the month of February, will be officially named. They are King Tom Davis, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Davis, Jr., and Queen Shirley Kay Magouirk, 2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Magouirk. The two will lend "moral support" at least to a group of local volunteers who have the goal of $1,900 set for contributions to the Heart Fund during the month of February.

Sewer, Drainage Work Discussed By City Commission Monday Night

The extension of sanitary sewer service to an additional area of the city was okayed at Monday night's meeting of the Slaton City Commission. Drainage problems also came in for discussion but action was postponed.

Jaycees To Honor Bosses Feb. 9

One of the highlights of "Jaycee Week in Slaton," Feb. 1 through 13, will be the club's annual "Bosses Night Banquet." Employers of Jaycees will be fed by their employees on that night, Tuesday, February 9th, as well as entertained and given a chance for fine fellowship.

The affair will be held this year in the new Bruce's Cafe banquet room and will start promptly at 7:30 p. m. District Attorney George Gilkerson will give the featured address of the evening on a subject in line with the club's interest in juvenile delinquency,

Two March Of Dimes Activities This Week

Two March of Dimes activities are on tap for Slaton this week. First, the annual Mothers' March will be staged Thursday, today, between the hours of 5 and 7 p. m., and then on Saturday night, a "March of Dimes Dance" will be held in the VFW Hall.

Slaton's Jaycee-Ettes are heading up the Mothers' March, under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Bennie Moeller. Other organizations which will be helping with the drive include the Catholic Daughters, Centrettes, Athenian Study Club, Junior Civic and Culture Club, Senior Civic and Culture Club and the Slaton Art Club. The Mothers' March against cripping birth defects, arthritis and polio will be a house-to-house visitation. The event traditionally climaxes the January March of Dimes appeal.

This year's efforts are dedicated to The National Foundation's patient aid program, which is being expanded to include financial aid to patients through 18 years of age suffering from rheumatoid arthritis and three types of birth defects. Aid will also be offered to paralytic polio patients of all ages. Anyone interested in helping on the March should call Mrs. Moeller at VA 8-4267.

Slatonites will "dance for dimes" Saturday night beginning at 8:30 at the VFW Hall as the local VFW chapter and Auxiliary sponsor the first "March of Dimes Dance" in many years for Slaton.

All proceeds from the affair will be donated to the local March of Dimes drive, and the public is invited and urged to attend by the sponsors.

Alfred Kuss and His Five Kussins will provide the music for the gala event, which will continue until the last dancer vacates the floor. Tickets, selling at $1.50 per couple, are now available at Slaton Pharmacy, Mosser TV, or they may be purchased from any member of the local VFW or Auxiliary.

Lubbock, engineers, presented estimates to the commission on the cost of installing additional sewer lines in the east part of the city. The commission voted to extend sewer service through block 123 of the East Park Addition, when property owners along the proposed route have paid their tapping charges.

The tapping charge is $15.00. The extension, which will lie between 2nd and 3rd Streets, south of Kent, will cost in the neighborhood of $500.00.

Reaves also reported that Hemphill Construction Company had completed its contracted work on the new lift station and extension of sewer along Railroad Avenue from the Union Compress east. The firm also did some sewer work in the "flats" area of Slaton.

On Reaves' report the commission voted to pay Hemphill Construction as contracted.

The engineer had previously been asked to survey and make recommendations as to drainage on 12th, 13th and 14th Sts. Reaves said to facilitate proper drainage in the area, the intersection at 13th and Dayton would have to be torn out and lowered, several other intersections need valley gutter work and they must be kept clean. The commission voted to table any action on the project until property owners are willing to pave Dayton Street, between 13th and 14th.

Some drainage work was approved, however. The culvert at 9th and Railroad Avenue will be replaced with a longer, larger apparatus and a culvert will be put in at Dickens and 16th Street. Street and Sanitation Department Superintendent Grady Elder will oversee this work.

Other activity included authorizing the Police Department to put up a stop sign at 20th and Panhandle, renewal of a lease to Slaton Motor Company on lots just west of the water tower and north of the company's shops for five years with a five-year option.

A group of Negroes visited with the commission on naming some heretofore unnamed streets in the "flats" area. The group will return before the commission with some suggested names in the near future.

The city will provide transportation for surplus commodities distribution to the community's needy through the City Judge's office, it was decided. A pickup will go to Lubbock twice monthly to pickup the commodities and bring them to Slaton for distribution, it was decided. The project is in cooperation with the City-County Welfare Board and the commodities will be distributed to an already-prepared list of local persons who have not been able to go to Lubbock to pick up the items.

The commission also voted to send Water and Sewer Superintendent George Willis to a Water and Sewer Meeting at Texas A&M, Bobby Lee Moore of the Water Department successfully completed a course January 8th at A&M on Water Meter Service and Repair.

Dr. Mayer is a graduate of Luther College and Seminary, St. Paul, Minnesota. He and Mrs. Mayer first went to India in 1925. The Mayers have three sons, the oldest of whom, Rev. Joel Mayer, is also serving as a missionary in India. In recognition of his outstanding service as missionary, Wartburg Seminary, Dubuque, Iowa, bestowed an honorary Doctor of Divinity Degree on Missionary Mayer in the spring of 1957. During the years which Dr. Mayer has served as missionary in India he has been active in the organization and development of the South Andhra Lutheran Church, daughter church of the American Lutheran Mission in India, which has a baptized membership of approximately 13,000. Twenty-one ordained Indian pastors serve the Church's program, along with 22 American missionaries including the wives of missionaries.

The public is invited to hear Dr. Mayer when he speaks at Grace Lutheran Church tonight.

Tigerettes Win Again

Donna Wilke scored 20 points Tuesday night as the Slaton High School Tigerettes won another conference game, this one over Tahoka, 39-31.

The girls are undefeated in conference play. Kay Halamie led Tahoka's scoring, garnering 23 points.

In the boys game, the Tigers fell, 40-38, after leading in the final quarter. The Tahoka Bulldogs came from behind in the last quarter, in a game played at Tahoka, to get their first win in conference 3-A play. The Tigers still are looking for conference win number one, but could get back in the race with a couple of victories.

Tahoka led after the first quarter, 12-11, and it was all

Contracts Awarded For Junior High Addition Work

Contracts for the construction of an addition to the Junior High School facilities are awarded at a meeting of the Slaton Board last week.

The new addition will join the present Junior High building on the west and extend nearly to the present gymnasium. Work on the present facilities at the school will include remodeling the first floor and refinishing the building in order to "blend" it with the new building.

Present facilities will house a library, band room, science room, offices, etc. General construction contract went to J.

over $9.00 per square foot, a good figure in comparison with current construction costs across the country.

D. Bell and Company of Lubbock for $140,297.00. Bell heads the company which constructed Evans School of this city.

O. W. Chisum Plumbing Company of Lubbock was awarded the mechanical contract for $27,640.00. The contract on electrical work went to Clark Electric of Lubbock for $12,980.00.

This work is part of a larger Slaton schools expansion project, for which funds were provided in a bond election last summer.

Slaton Lions Club Completes Organization With Elections

Amid abundant "Oo-wahs" and clamor, the Slaton Lions Club completed its organization at a noon meeting here Tuesday.

The club, which held its first meeting last week, now has a full set of officers and, if interest increases as much during the next week as the week just past, plenty of members.

Officers of the organization are Bland Tomlinson, president; Tommy Davis, secretary-treasurer; "Hack" Lasater, first vice president; J. D. Perkins, second vice president; Charles Marriott, tail twister; Kirby Dunlap, Lion tamer; Lasater and Ed Williams, two-year directors; and Elbert Wilson and Orville Brummett, one-year directors.

The club will have a charter night banquet, to which wives will be invited, sometime in the near future. The exact date has not yet been announced.

The Slaton Lions Club is responsible in a large part to the Wilson Lions Club for its formation. Members of the Wilson Lions put in plenty of time and work on getting the organization formed here.

This club is a separate organization from the Lions Club which formerly was active here, and will be issued a new charter and "given new life."

President Tomlinson, who has been a member of the Wilson Lions Club since the first Slaton club folded, appointed a committee to work with him during the year on ways and means of building Lionism in Slaton. Members of the committee are Melvin Tudor, Orville Brummett, Elbert Wilson and Jerry Holt.

The club will meet each Tuesday at 12 noon at Bruce's Cafe and, Boss Lion Tomlinson said, try to be out promptly at one o'clock. Anyone interested in becoming a member of the club can contact any of the officers mentioned here or, just come on out to a club meeting, as prospective members are welcome guests.

How Many Slatonites??

Work on getting information on the 1960 national census is in various stages in many parts of the country, although it has not been started in Slaton.

It is reported that many personal questions besides how many people make up your family are among those that will be put to you and that many of the answers could be used for other purposes besides counting you and the members of your family as citizens of the United States.

What is the population of Slaton? Billy Ball, Slaton Chamber of Commerce manager, estimates it is 6,500 or slightly more. "Doc" Castleberry, manager of the Slaton Savings and Loan Association says 7,000 or better and there are some, Lon Porter among them, who credit Slaton with 8,000. The final count can affect the prosperity of the area for the next ten years to a considerable extent.

When the work of counting the citizens of Slaton begins every one who makes Slaton home should help in every way possible to get as many names listed as possible because the number on the published census list will either encourage or discourage many Government as well as private investments in the future.

Just when the census count will start has not yet been revealed for Slaton but the date cannot be far distant. When the solicitation does start be sure you and all the other members of your family are listed, even if you have to hunt the census taker up to get your family among those present.

Our City Menaced . . .

Now is a good time to get a paper bag and make the rounds of your trees and shrubs to gather the bag worm sacks, reports Mr. Chas. Hill, the tree man who sprays and trims trees here in Slaton.

At this time, when the leaves are off many of the trees and shrubs, it is easy to find the sacks and to pull them off. After gathering the sacks they should be burned so as to kill the eggs that have been left to hatch out next spring.

The infestation of bag worms has been increasing steadily for the last few years and last year they caused severe damage to a vast amount of the trees and shrubs in our town, which also grown to be one of the most attractive towns on the South Plains when it comes to vegetation and its care.

Bag worms are partial to evergreens and will completely destroy evergreen shrubs and trees if neglected. A number of the evergreens in the City-County park and at the Cemetery were lost last season on account of the bag worms and many more damaged.

Picking the bags off is some help but the surest way to rid your plants of them is to have them sprayed in the spring. The scourge can be reduced by the method suggested of picking the bags off now while the eggs are dormant and while the trees are free of leaves or the growth is dormant on the evergreens.

Bag worms will live on most any kind of tree or shrub but the evergreens suffer most.

The home owners of Slaton are more conscious of the attractions of flowers and vegetation than ever in history and this interest should be encouraged to help make Slaton an attractive place where visitors, who might become future citizens, will be attracted. Unless the bag worms are stopped, some way or another the good start will soon be cancelled by the hordes of bag worms that has increased every season.

Will Rogers was a man who could take a spanking gracefully. When he had recently returned from Russia, Arthur Brisbane, famous editor, wrote some strong opinions about Russia. In his newspaper column Will chided his friend for talking about Russia without having been there. The next day Brisbane replied that one Leonardo had painted an immortal picture of the Lord's Last Supper, and that the painter not only was not at the supper, but was not even invited. Will did not reply.

"Justice," wrote Margaret Morrison, "is never one-sided. Its demands are made equally upon all. Justice demands equality of responsibility, equality of service with equality of reward according to service, equality of obedience to the laws of righteousness."

ANOTHER SPACE RACE

The Sounding Board

(Editor's Note: Editor Griffith of the Canyon News, like many other newspaper and insurance men of Texas, does not like the new Texas Safe Driving Insurance Plan. Here is what he has to say. He is probably spitting against the wind.)

Senator Grady Hazlewood's assault on the Texas Safe Driving Insurance Plan apparently will have little effect on the three-week-old plan in 1960.

A two-day hearing on the subject was concluded Friday, and it depends on which news report you read, listen to, or watch as to the results of the hearing. There appears to be about as many different meanings to the hearing as there were news reporters covering the event.

Under the Texas Safe Driving Insurance Plan, drivers' insurance rates are based on the number of accidents and moving traffic violations recorded during a 39-month period.

The State Insurance Board estimates 57 percent of Texas autos and 70 percent of its motorists will have their rates reduced 20 percent, another group will pay the same rates as in 1959, and the remainder will pay increases of up to 100 percent.

Most of the state legislators opposing the plan at the hearing threw support to Senator Hazlewood and denounced that part of the plan which would penalize drivers for receiving tickets for moving traffic violations.

Another feature of the plan hit hard was that which uses the past 39 months of driving as the basis for the merit plan.

The state Insurance Board has stood steadfast in its refusal to even consider removing the moving violations from the plan, saying that experience has shown them that the more tickets a motorist gets the more accident-prone he is.

Some opponents of the plan have disputed this assertion by the board. Senator Hazlewood has said this part of the plan is like "sending all the people in here to the penitentiary to get one guilty person."

We fail to see the logic in either argument. But why should the insurance companies in Texas be allowed to penalize Texas motorists for violating the traffic laws in this state?

If the state wishes to abdicate its power to fine for violation of the statutes, then there might be some reasoning behind the state allowing the insurance companies to penalize motorists.

Or an alternate plan would be for the insurance companies to pay their clients' fines for violating the traffic laws. In this way the insurance companies would have a legitimate reason for wanting the rates to increase with every violation.

However, since the State Insurance Board says it can prove that the more accident-prone in the state receive the most traffic tickets, why not wait until these accident-prone people have that accident before sticking them with an even higher insurance rate than Texans are now paying?

The Readers' Angle

Editor,

I believe "Crossroads" is a daily feature of the Amarillo News-Globe. At any rate, I think it is one of the best and I'm glad to see it in The Slatonite.

Thanks,
C. L. Tanner

(Dear Mr. Tanner . . . thanks for your comments. We like "Crossroads" too. Mr. Scott always makes a point and injects a little humor. Thanks again. Ed.)

Open Letter To A Teenager

(An editorial by Judge Philip B. Gilliam of Denver, Colo.)

Always we hear the plaintive cry of the teenager: What can we do? . . . Where can we go? The answer is GO HOME!

Hang the storm windows, paint the woodwork, rake the leaves, mow the lawn, shovel the walk. Wash the car, learn to cook, scrub some floors. Repair the sink, build a boat, get a job.

Help the minister, priest or rabbi, the Red Cross, the Salvation Army. Visit the sick, assist the poor, study your lessons, and then when you are through . . . and not too tired . . . read a book.

Your parents do not owe you entertainment. Your city or village does not owe you recreational facilities. The world does not owe you a living . . . You owe the world something. You owe it your time and energy and your talents so that no one will be at war or in poverty or sick or lonely again.

In plain, simple words, GROW UP; quit being a cry-baby. Get out of your dream world and develop a backbone, not a wish-bone, and start acting like a man or a lady.

You're supposed to be mature enough to accept some of the responsibility your parents have carried for years. They have nursed, protected, helped, appealed, begged, excused, tolerated and denied themselves needed comforts so that you could have every benefit. This they have done gladly, for you are their dearest treasure. But now, you have no right to expect them to bow to every whim and fancy just because selfish ego instead of common sense dominates your personality, thinking and requests.

In Heaven's name, GROW UP and GO HOME!

Jan. 21, 1960

Dear Editor:

I see where the attorney general wants a Federal law against payola, so as to stop phonograph record makers from buying disk jockey friends.

But my mixed-up neighbor says a law against using money to influence friends would just about ruin the foreign aid business.

Says, too, folks would have to quit paying the preachers, on account of the danger of getting thrown into a Federal jug for trying to corrupt the Almighty's agents.

Several S.H.S. students are not only studying school subjects but Inter-scholastic League Contests as well.

Mr. Jackson will be in charge of journalism and shorthand contest. Carolyn Etter, Tommie McCall, Ronnie Bagby, Lola Hopkins, Maxine Moore and Suzie Cooper plan to try out for journalism. This contest will begin at regional and will be held in April at Lubbock. The shorthand contest, for which no one has been selected to participate in, will be held in March at Floydada.

Debate and spelling contests will be conducted by Mrs. Brown. For the debate contest the freshmen team will be Lundy Roch and Dene Brooks. The sophomore teams are Jim Haile and James Mangum, Ronda Eanes and Janice Hill. The Jr. and Sr. debate teams and the spelling contestants have not been selected.

Band contest will be held in April. Individual student contests include: solos, quartets, trios, quintets, mixed ensemble, student directing and twirling. Among the students who are entering are: George Privett, Roger Cummings, Jim Hille, Ronald Mangum, Howard Hoffman, Charlotte Bland, Deluan Wilson, Roy Strube, Dick Martin, and Eugene Townsend. The band will enter contests which include inspection, concert, and sight reading.

The choral contest will be March 12 in Lubbock. Those who plan to enter solo contest are Sue Liles, Jan Smith, June Johnson, Dana Heaton and Kay Short. A trio will also be entered which will consist of Harriet Perkins, Jan Smith and Sue Liles. The entire choral group will be judged on concert and sight reading. The Chorales have won Sweepstakes for three years, which is a one rating in concert and sight reading, and are working toward this goal for the fourth consecutive year.

Mr. Jay will be responsible for number sense contest, Mrs. Gilmore for one-act play, poetry reading, declamation, and extemporaneous speech, and Mrs. Martin will be in charge of the essay contest.

If any student is interested in entering these contests please see these teachers right away. Let's all participate and help Slaton to win many trophies and ribbons this year. —Tiger Cage.

Donna Wilke Wins Homemaker Award

The 1960 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow in our school is senior Donna Wilke. She received the highest score in a 50-minute written examination on homemaking knowledge and attitudes taken by graduating senior girls. She will receive an award pin, manufactured by Jogens and representing the slogan, "Home is Where the Heart Is." Her examination paper will be submitted for competition with other high school winners to name the state Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow.

Donna is active in various school affairs. She has been a member of the Tigerettes for the past our years, and is presently co-captain of the team. She received her State FHA degree last May. She is also a member of the Slaton Pep Club.

The test which was prepared and judged by Science Research Associated of Chicago, was taken by a record number of 379,018 girls in 12,597 schools, an increase of 29,868 girls and 337 schools over last year.

Total enrollment in the six-year-old $110,000 scholarship program sponsored by General Mills has neared the two million mark (1,800,152). Alaska and Hawaii are participating for the first time this year.

Each state Homemaker of Tomorrow will receive a $1,500 scholarship and an education trip April 23-29 with her school advisor. The tour will include New York City and Colonial Williamsburg and will culminate with the American Table Banquet in Washington, D. C., on April 28, at the Statler Hilton Hotel where the All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow will be announced. The runner-up in each state will receive a $500 scholarship; the school of each state winner will be given a set of the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

The scholarship of the All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow will be increased to $500. The second, third, and fourth ranking Homemaker of Tomorrow in the nation will receive $400, $300, and $200 scholarships, respectively.

Some of the choices of topics were "Importance of Food on the Diet of an Adult and Teenager," "The Farm to Table Story," and "Food Industry in My Town."

The judges were headed by J. I. Bowling, from Hale Center, and a committee of six other judges. Several food and nutrition experts were included in this committee.

These editorials were judged on journalistic quality, originality, and content. There were twenty-four students selected to go to Austin and the two winners will go to Chicago.—Tiger Cage.

Johnson Wins Top Laurels

"Food For Health, Happiness And Achievement" was one of the top ten editorials entered in the state by June Johnson in the editorial contest sponsored by the Farm Bureau Organization of Texas. June and her sponsor, Mrs. Haile, attended a breakfast and meeting held at the Stephen F. Austin Hotel in Austin, Texas, January 8 and 9. The meeting consisted of an interview of the top ten candidates. There were also two distinguished speakers and guests.

The purpose of the contest was to emphasize the importance of food.—Tiger Cage.

County Demo Chairman Talks To Brotherhoods

The regular joint meeting of the Operating Brotherhoods Sunday afternoon, held at the American Legion Hall, was favored by an address by the County Democratic Chairman, R. E. (Bob) Dennis.

Dennis urged and stressed the importance of paying poll tax and voting for the party of your choice; taking part in the Precinct and County Conventions so the views of the average citizen will be expressed in the Party Platforms instead of being handed down from the Party Leaders.

He called attention to the new voting dates and laws in effect for the Democratic Primaries this year. He also noted a new trend the past few years in political advertising; that of picking out and talking against the character of opponent instead of basing a campaign on principles a candidate would promote. The new trend of the giant companies conducting expensive advertising campaigns against their employees before or during bargaining sessions was noted with interest and concern.

The meeting was well attended and many safety items were discussed.

"Most of the successful people I've known," observed "Elder Statesman" Bernard Baruch "are ones who do more listening than talking. If you choose your company carefully, it's worth listening to what they have to say. You don't have to blow out the other fellow's light to let your own shine."

UNLESS YOU HAVE MONEY TO BURN

Observe these Precautions when Cashing or Accepting Checks

1. Do not be afraid to ask questions about the check you are asked to cash . . . After all, it is your money that is being paid out.
2. Never cash a check for a stranger until positive identification is established. Insist on local references, then check them carefully.
3. Do not rely on Lodge Cards, Social Security Cards, Auto Licenses or letters of reference from out-of-town firms as positive identification. These can be forged or stolen.
4. Remember that the check passer always works fast, so take your time and investigate each check presented.
5. Do not cash pay checks or any other checks out of business or banking hours on Saturdays or holidays without investigation.
6. Do not issue or cash checks written in pencil as it is very easy to alter such checks.
7. Do not cash checks that show any alteration.
8. Always make sure that the endorsement on the check corresponds with the payee's name on the face of the check.
9. Always demand that the person presenting the check endorse it in your presence. Even though the check has already been endorsed, insist that he endorse it again.
10. Refuse to cash checks if they are on out-of-town firms or banks, unless you are absolutely certain of the presenter's identity and the validity of the checks themselves.
11. Refuse to cash checks signed with rubber stamps unless you personally know both the maker and the payee.
12. Do not cash checks for juveniles.
13. Do not cash bank counter checks. Such checks should be cashed only at the drawee bank.
14. Just because a check appears to be a cashier's check does not mean that it is. Use as much precaution before cashing a cashier's check as you would with a personal check.
15. The same is true of certified checks. Certifications are often forged and the checks may be stolen. Be just as careful in accepting certified checks as you would be in accepting a personal check.
16. Always remember that as long as safety paper can be bought in blank and there are printing presses and rubber stamps, it will be easy for crooks to produce counterfeit checks.
17. Do not endorse a check for a person unless he is well known to you, and you know he is responsible.
18. Do not leave blank checks or your checkbook lying on your desk as some "casual" visitor may pick them up. Bank statements with cancelled checks should also be safeguarded. The statement reveals your bank balance and the check can be used for specimen of your signature.
19. Do not leave your signature where it is accessible to the forger. Your bank signature should be different from your correspondence signature.
20. A clever stunt worked by the bad check artist is to enter a place of business and order a quantity of merchandise sent to a local address, then present a check for more than the amount of the purchase, receiving the difference in cash. When the merchandise is delivered, the address is found to be fictitious.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Nothing that has been out of state government recent months has caused as much of a ruckus as the merit plan insurance rates.

It is possible to take either side of the question and start an argument on almost any yet corner.

Critics have mounted a two-fronted attack: (1) to get the merit plan, which authorized the plan, to change it and to get the courts to declare it unconstitutional.

Board hearing to review the plan was called at the request of Sen. Grady Hazlewood of Arilla, one of the most vocal critics of the plan. Just before the hearing, a group of attorneys from the Harris County chapter of the Texas Association of Plaintiffs' Attorneys filed suit in an Austin district court seeking a permanent injunction against use of the plan.

Chairman Penn J. Jackson denied the Board would listen to all protests with an open mind. Most insurance rates, he said, are subject to frequent changes. However, Jackson emphasized that the Board is directed by law to consider safety incentives and driving records, past and prospective, in its rate making.

Under the merit plan, drivers with no accidents or moving traffic convictions on their records for the past three years would get lower rates. Compensating for this would be a sliding scale of higher rates to be paid by others according to the number and seriousness of the marks against them.

Loudest gripes are about the retroactive feature of the plan and the fact that any moving traffic violation, no matter how minor, counts against the motorist.

Because it does go back three years in effect, the plan is being labeled an "ex post facto law" (law against something that happened in the past) which is unconstitutional.

Some motorists complain that in the past they have paid fines on tickets when they were not actually at fault—just to avoid the trouble of going to court.

Sen. Hazlewood derided the idea of putting all violators in the same class—"those that go 23 miles an hour in a 20-mile zone and those that go 100 miles an hour." He charged, too, that much ticket giving is merely a money-raising proposition. Residents of cities where traffic is strictly policed and all accidents and violations faithfully reported to the Department of Public Safety will get it in the neck, said the senator. Small towns are generally less diligent in policing or reporting violators to DPS.

Hazlewood said he was and still is in favor of a "realistic" merit rating plan.

Defenders of the present plan say that if law enforcement is at fault, this, not the insurance plan, should be worked on.

With all the fussing and fuming, say proponents, it must be admitted that motorists are now giving more thought to careful driving than ever before. A traffic ticket costing $60 is a sobering thought.

Teacher Session Urged.—Texas teachers still hope to get a salary raise in a special session of the Legislature this year.

Leaders of public school teachers' organizations say they believe Gov. Price Daniel will call a session after Feb. 1.

Teachers want to see the matter come up at a special session rather than at the next regular session in 1961. In a regular session, they would face the same obstacles they faced in 1959, the necessity of taking care of regular money needs probably including a deficit, before any new appropriations will be considered.

Faculty Raises Proposed.—Commission on Higher Education recommends the Legislature raise salaries for state college professors by 12 per cent for 1962 and 18 per cent for 1963.

Commission said Texas colleges need to pay this much more to be able to keep up with other colleges in competing for the available supply of teachers.

During its last session the Legislature cut the Commission's requested college budget by 7 per cent.

Commission has agreed to hear the University of Houston's request for inclusion in

Country Club Salutes Slaton High Teenager

TEDDY HATCHETT
... all-American Boy

About 16 miles from Lubbock lives the typical "All-American Boy." Teddy, the tall, handsome eldest son of Dr. and Mrs. Don Hatchett of Slaton, Texas is extremely interested in... and very good at... all sports. He particularly excels in golf.

This 14-year-old freshman at Slaton High participates in all of the school activities and yet maintains a "B" average. He plays center on both the basketball and football teams. With great pride, he will tell you that, last year, their basketball team lost only one game out of 18 and lost only one out of eight in football. Teddy played in the All Star Little League and Pony League last year and won a trophy with the Pony League in Tahoka. Teddy also plays the saxophone in the high school band.

His interest in sports-all sports-is phenomenal. He bowls with the Axes team in Slaton and we are sure it is partially to his credit that this team is holding first place at the present time. Teddy is also an excellent swimmer, but this is the one sport he participates in merely for fun.

Teddy's an ardent fisherman, too, but says he believes the largest fish he has ever caught was a two-pound crappie. And oh yes, he likes to go quail and deer hunting with his Dad.

Teddy's particular forte, however, is golf. With his younger brother, Deanie, he has collected a total of 14 trophies. A member of the Junior Golf League at the Club, Teddy has won the Club Tournament three times and was runnerup on another occasion.

Teddy played with his father and two other men in the Pro Am at our Club and, with his handicap, beat Dow Finsterwald Dow, as you know, is one of the top 65 golfers in the country. Also, he recently received a trophy for his game at the West Texas Boy's Tournament in Athe world, Teddy grabbed a golf club and yelled "Fore!" And what good sportsman doesn't have a dog. Teddy has two... a bird dog named Rose and a toy rat terrier called Sputz. But how many people own a pet squirrel? Teddy is the proud master of four.

Surprisingly enough Teddy does not intend to become a professional golfer. His admiration for his father is so great that he particularly wants to emulate him. Teddy's plans for the future are Tech (naturally) and to become a dentist like his father.

It is evident that Teddy is unusually close to both his mother and father. Just the way he says "Dad and I" speaks volumes. We were fortunate enough to meet Mrs. Hatchett and you sense instantly the warm affection existing between mother and son.

There's nothing like a new car—and no new car like a Chevrolet. This is the Impala Sport Coupe!

GO '60 GO CHEVY!

NOW—THE CAR THAT STARTS THE SIXTIES WITH SO MUCH THAT'S NEW, SO MUCH THAT'S DIFFERENT...AND SETS THE PACE WITH LOWER PRICES!

Chevrolet speaks of the Sixties like no other car—with a broad accent on spaciousness, stirring new concepts in styling and strong emphasis on spirit and thrift.

Step inside this superlative '60 and look at the worlds of room around you: head room, hip room, shoulder-squaring room. Note how Chevrolet's engineers have further flattened and narrowed the transmission tunnel to give the middle man more foot room. Chevrolet's greater roominess is inside where you want it—not outside in useless body overhang.

You'll find economy teamed with performance in a new standard V8, engineered to deliver up to 10% more miles for every gallon, or the strapping Hi-Thrift 6.

And riding comfort in the new one is a never-ending treat, thanks to Full Coil spring suspension. There are also thicker, newly designed body mounts that filter noise and vibration to the vanishing point, more rigid frame and many other engineering advances.

But you'll have to drive the Sixty sizzler yourself—that's the clincher. Why not see your Chevrolet dealer now—for a drive and the happy details on Chevy's new lower prices.

Wilson Events ...

(By Mrs. Charles Berry) The "Red" Hutchinson family has recently been added to the population of Wilson. They are living in the G. L. Nelson rent house.

Rev. and Mrs. Hank Scott have been attending a convention in Fort Worth. Their son, Mark, stayed in the Grover Watkins home during his parents' trip.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moore on the birth of a son Monday at the West Texas Hospital. Harold is the former Karen Cooper of Slaton. Travis Carpenter was admitted to Methodist Hospital Wednesday for observation. He is having trouble with an old back injury.

Mr. and Mrs. Key and son, Harold, and daughter, Pauline Johnson, visited in Houston with another daughter, Mrs. Burgher, recently.

Raymond Holder has recently purchased Mr. Wiley's blacksmith shop. The Holder's are living in the Bill Corley rent house.

Manager Back From Workshop

Don Britt of Slaton, manager of the Forrest Lumber Co., has just returned from Austin, Texas where he attended the fifth Management Workshop conducted by the Lumbermen's Association of Texas.

Britt was one of the eighty selected top Management Lumber Executives who participated in its intensive five-day conference on modern management techniques.

The Wilson Mustang Cafe is now under new management. Mr. G. C. 'Lefty' Meador is the new owner. On the opening, Mr. Meador served free coffee and doughnuts. Flowers were presented to Mr. Meador for his opening by Wilson Cleaners, Wilson Oil Company, D. A. Brown Food Store, Campbell Grain Company, Peterson shop, and the Wilson Mercantile. Mr. Hill, the previous owner, is now operating a cafe in New Home.

The Chester Campbell's have taken to the country. They are living where the Aurthur Herzogs moved from. Chester will work that farm next year.

Carolyn Clary was in Slaton for medical attention this week. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Ira Clary, and Mrs. Mack Mahurin.

Mrs. Dewey Winsted was admitted to the West Texas Hospital with the flu. Mrs. Winsted is an aunt to Mrs. Luke Coleman.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe White are visiting their daughter, Jewel, in California. The White's left Wednesday and will be back in about a week.

Mrs. Bill Lumsden was entered in a bridge tournament in Lubbock Saturday.

Visiting in the Pat Campbell home over the weekend was Mr. Campbell's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Campbell of Fort Worth.

Mr. Theo Campbell and his Sunday School Class left Monday for a fishing trip in Del Rio. Also on the trip was Rev. Hank Scott.

Visiting with Mrs. Davidson over the weekend were her sons Mason Davidson and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davidson.

A birthday dinner was given for Charles Berry, Sunday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Coleman, Cathy, Chris and Kim Coleman and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bohall, all of Wilson.

Visiting in the Ray Craft home for the past week is Mrs. Craft's mother, Mrs. Hackney

"A good deal of our time," said Britt, "was devoted to a thorough study of the methods used by successful lumber and building material dealers throughout the United States, Canada, England, and Australia to give the people in their communities better values and better service."

"We learned through the

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	I John	2	9-12
Monday	I John	4	20-21
Tuesday	Romans	12	9-10
Wednesday	Proverbs	17	17
Thursday	I Corinthians	16	13-14
Friday	John	10	9-10
Saturday	Psalms	55	13-14

A man's got to look after his brother. That's what Timmy said the other day, as he stood beside our baby. And I told him he was right. "You are so much stronger than this tiny, little creature," I said. "From now on, you've got a real responsibility!"

A man does have to look after his brother . . . especially when that brother is weak. But there are moments, too, when even the strongest man may need a brother!

In the eyes of the Church, all men are brothers, just as all men are equally beloved. As long as there is a church near you, you are not alone. You have only to open the door and walk in and you will be at one with your fellow man . . . and at home with your brothers.

JUST TALK

BY A. M. J.

Last week, along with my wife, I visited the City-County Library with hopes of stumbling onto something in the way of a book or two that I have not tried to read.

Having waded through several of the reported popular modern novels, including Lolita which is supposed to be a shocker, I told Mrs. J. F. Merrill, the capable Librarian, that I'd like to try some of the old timers that were not full of sex and such stuff and she referred me to a shelf of books that were on the suggested reading list for the school children.

Dog-eared and yellow with age, I found a great many of my old favorites, Huckleberry Finn, Girl of the Limber Lost, Cabbages and Kings, The Three Musketeers, The Virginian and oddies of others that I read while hiding from my mother when she wanted me to split wood for our kitchen stove or lug in coal for the old glutton of a fireplace in our living room.

It surprised me that many of the same books that were popular so many years ago are still acceptable. In fact, if my memory serves me right, there are many on that list that were considered wicked then which are now mighty thin soup when valued from a romantic angle. Most of those written by modern writers that I have tried to get some sense out of, are, I suppose, based on some of the new-fangled ideas that Freud made so popular, but I must be too dumb to understand.

For me they all end up right back where they started. Give me an old fashioned Captain Blood or a Treasure Island and I can get along without any of the misbehavior of the ball-rooms and the men and women with their queer ideas.

Have you ever tried to keep a diary? It is a task to do so but worth the trouble. There are many days that seem at the time hardly worth recording. But wait until next year and look back at what you recorded on the day one year back.

It has seemed extra cold and snowy the last few weeks and one might wonder if such severe weather were not unusual. A glance back will prove that almost the same pattern was true, perhaps not on the same days a year ago but often similar.

It is nice to know that you do not have a cold at this time when you did last year or that Mrs. S. did not break her ankle while stumbling along on the ice in high heel shoes this year as she did last year.

You might consider the fact that she is still wearing high heel shoes but has been more careful this year than last. It is sad to think that last year there were still some pecans left on the pecan trees and that this year the pecan trees did not bear at all.

It is real interesting if you can stick it out. Just to kill time I've been playing dominoes with C. E. Spence, C. L. Garrigues and Cecil Self. Mr. Garrigues and Mr. Spence have played partners and to tell the truth they have not done so well. Mr. Self, who has had to put up with my erratic playing as his partner, pointed out on several occasions that if I had played a domino some other way than the way I did, that we could have counted when we did not or that we could have counted more than we did the way I played.

In discussing the matter with Mr. Spence and Mr. Garrigues, they pointed out that it was probably my unorthodox way of haphazard playing that confused them and enabled us to win. They reported that it is wrong to down a double of the domino when you have a considerable number of dominoes in your hand that will play to it. If they have been following that advice themselves I believe I have figured out well, but it is my sneaking id that they think they have played some tricky, underhand suggestions in my mind that might come in any gam that might pay off in the future. "Watch out or you'll blow yourself out," is their advice.

For years I have diligently searched for a doctor who would prescribe something good to eat but there are no such doctors, at least among the who have pummeled me over Jello, skimmed milk, Cream Wheat, stale bread, mashed potatoes and very small pats of butter, these are the things that most folks sooner or later give up with.

What's wrong with hot tarles, chill, pop corn, corn bread collard greens, country sage, green onions and cocon pie? Ask any doctor about eating such foods and he'll hold his hands in horror. But I have a sneaking notion that these are the very kinds of foods you find on his table. Not so long ago I complained of a storr feeling in my midriff and a doctor said "Yes, I wonder what kind of pain it is myself when it gets me." Perhaps I could have told him because I have been eating coconut pie the d before.

A clergyman was in the ha of going up to his little gir bedside each evening and telling her a story before she went to sleep. One such evening he told a such a thrilling tale that a youngster sat up in bed, look at her father and asked, "Dad is that a true story or are y preaching?"

BANQUET IS HELD

The first banquet for Choraleers was held January in Lubbock at the Holiday Inn. The banquet was opened by invocation, which was given Harriet Perkins. This was followed with the welcome spee by Lola Hopkins, president the Choraleers. Next, every enjoyed the meal, which consisted of ham, sweet peas, ed, potatoes, salad, hot r eclairs, and tea. After the m Dr. Hemmie, who is head the music department of Te Tech, presented the progr and this concluded the banq. It was enjoyed by everyone all the girls are looking ward to another banquet year.—Tigers Cage.
