20,000 Addition To School Is Approved

Primary plans for a $220,000 addition to the Slaton school building were discussed and approved by the School Board at their regular meeting Tuesday.

The addition will include a total of five new teaching classrooms, two science laboratories and a gymnasium which will have a seating capacity of about 250, Superintendent Lee Vardy told the board Wednesday morning.

The gym floor is designed for the largest type of high school basketball court. Rest rooms will be built on the east end of the gymnasium and the gym will face to the east where additional parking space will be constructed. It was estimated that the cost of this addition and some remodeling to be done to the present building will run about $220,000.

The addition will have the same general type of construction as the present building," Vardy said. "It will have tile wainscoting in the halls, terrazzo floors in the hallways and all classrooms will have asphalt tile floors."

Slaton Girl Scouts Mark Anniversary

Four troops of Girl Scouts are going all out in helping to celebrate the 48th Anniversary of Girl Scouts.

Among the three troops are the three troops of the Girl Scouts of Slaton. Their theme: "You Can't Count on Her To Be Present."

The troops have been busy as bees selling cookies and raising proceeds from which to help send underprivileged girls to camp and to give the camps.

Girls observed "Church Day" on Sunday, and then on Monday all four troops had a neighborhood picnic and people from surrounding towns visited to discover what girls had been doing.

The Girl Scout Week celebration on Friday was a "Play Day" at the Slaton City Park.

The picnic included a giant picnic supper and a picnic basket contest. The picnic was a success and all girls had a good time.

Members of the award committee are Don Kendrick, John Schmidt, and Joel Combs. Ted Swanner is to be the emcee.

Lipscomb and a number of other top Lion dignitaries were in hand at Bruce's Cafe last Friday night when the Slaton Lions Club received its charter.

There were about 130 enthusiastic Lions and their wives present.

Nine different clubs in this area were represented at the banquet, and a total of 14 dignitaries ranging from District

Governor to a representative from Lions International were on hand for the birth of a new club.

Glen Jones, the District Governor, presented the charter to Bland Tomlinson, the Slaton Lion's new president. A bell, gavel and flag were presented to the local club by R. A. Lamb and Theo Campbell of the Wilson Club.

In addition the Lubbock Hub Club presented the Lions here with a check for $100.

Following the banquet a highly successful reception was held and the wives were presented with orchids.

The Slaton Lions Club with 26 members' names to go on the charter, got started here in earnest just last month.

John Hansard, the deputy district governor, called the meeting to order, and after the meal, Mayor Clark Self, Sr. greeted those in attendance.

The introduction of guests was handled by Jack Strong, zone chairman.

Officers of the club are as follows: Tomlinson, president; "Hack" Lasater, first vice president; J. D. Perkins, second vice president; John Locke, third vice president and W. T. "Tommy" Davis, secretary-treasurer.

Directors are Cecil Williams, Elbert Wilson, Orvil Brummett, Jerry Holt, and Kirby Dunlap. Lion Tamer and Charles Marriott, Tail Twister.

Tigerettes Lose In Regional Play

Coach Paul Boswell's Tigerette basketball team came to the end of the trail last Saturday in Lubbock when the Coleman girls defeated them 54-48 in the first round of the regional tourney.

But the end came after a highly successful season in which the Slaton girls chalked up a 21-8 record and won both district and bi-district.

The Tigerettes led Coleman nearly all the game before dropping behind in the final two minutes. The local girls were in the lead at the end of the first three quarters. They led 15-11 at the end of the first period, 30-28 at the half and 40-39 going into the home stretch.

Outstanding defensive play Saturday was turned in by guards Jeanette Price, Patty Clark and Judy Dunn.

Lettermen this season were Donna Wilke (2 yrs.), Judie

Judy Bishop was high scorer for the Tigerettes with 33 points. Donna Wilke counted for 10 points. For Coleman, Sondra Dority was the high point girl with 34 points.

Coleman went to the finals of the tournament but was defeated finally by Friona.

Incidentally, Coach Boswell pointed out that Friona would be the team to beat next year as they are losing only two girls from their squad. Slaton will lose only one member of the team, Donna Wilke, a co-captain this year.

The objective of the Distributive Education program is to help the boys manage or own their own business. This is the third year the class has been held at high school, and the first year it has been offered on a fulltime basis.

There are presently 41 students enrolled in the program, Smoot said.

The four boys will give the program for the Lions Club next week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Bradford, Terry, and Sherry and Judy Boyd just returned from Crowley where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Bradford's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Waymon Muse left to go to Jacksonville, Fla., to a electronic and electricity school after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Foster.

Seven Candidates Enter City Race—Negro, Mexican, Whites

Slaton's political pot gave notice this week that it may be boiling full-blast by the April 5 City election date. Filing for the post of City Commissioner in Ward Four were seven men—a Negro, a Mexican and five Anglos. The names came in an avalanche of last minute filings shortly before the filing deadline of Saturday, March 5. It had seemed for a while that nobody wanted the post.

Prospects seemed pretty good that Slaton will have its first Negro city commissioner, especially since there will be five whites to split the vote. And a plurality vote is all that is necessary to be elected. That is, the man who has the most votes the first go-round wins - no runoff will be held and a majority of votes is not required.

L. L. Dixon, a Baptist preacher, is the Negro running for election. Others in the race include Roy Martinez, a Latin American, and Albert Grigsby, J. C. Champion, Key Ely, A. A. Gartman, and R. J. Clark all Anglos.

The incumbent Ward Four Commissioner, T. A. Worley, is not running for reelection. Meanwhile things were quite a bit quieter in Ward Two where H. G. Stokes is uncontested for that post. The incumbent there, Howard Swinner, is not seeking reelection.

Slaton's Ward Four in the south part of town includes a sizeable—if not majority—group of Negro and Mexican voters. In the past upwards of 400 voters have turned out in good elections, and prospects for a record vote in this election as poll tax receipts in that ward are very high. Estimates of as many as a 600 vote in that ward have been made.

Dixon, in an apparent effort to consolidate the Negro and Latin American voters in Ward Four, is campaigning with Fernando Gonzales—a Latin American who is seeking a position on the School Board of Trustees.

Rumors have it that the two were named at an informal political caucus last month in which Negroes and Mexicans of Ward Four met to unite and win a position on the city commission.

However, Roy Martinez also filed for the post and thus could be a treat to the unity.

Meanwhile back at the city hall, the present City Commissioner passed a resolution last week giving notice of a city amendment which would change the method of electing the city commissioners.

Under this proposal the commissioners would be elected from the city at-large rather than one from each of the four voting wards as is the practice now.

This move, of course, would devalue the voting power of minority factions-racial or otherwise-to win a seat on the commission, and in this instance would almost insure an all-Anglo commission.

The present commission gave notice last week that they intended to pass an ordinance on March 28 for the purpose of submitting the above mentioned city charter amendment to the voters in an election. The mention city charter amendment to the voters in an election. The amendment will probably be voted on here in May.

The commission passed this resolution unanimously in a called meeting March 5.

At any rate the coming city election in Ward Four will likely be one of the hottest political fights in a long time, many observers feel.

Water And Slaton . . .

A customer in a restaurant once called the proprietor to his table and asked if they always served muddy water to their customers and held out the glass of water that had been served him.

The proprietor examined the glass of water carefully and said, "Sir it is not the water that is muddy, the glass is dirty."

The purpose of this weak-kneed joke is to introduce the subject of water and its relation to Slaton.

In recent years, so far as the public knows, there has been no shortage of water, but as most everyone who lives in Slaton must realize, the supply of water will have to be increased if the town is expected to grow in population. From past experiences, dependence of wells is, sooner or later, certain to bring on a crisis. A prolonged drought would probably cause trouble most any time and, unless some other plans have been worked out, the only place Slaton could hope to secure water would be from the long overdue Canadian River dam, which, from all appearances, after ten years planning, seems to be no nearer a reality than it was ten days after its initial planning stages.

From scanty reports, most of the towns that were to help pay for, and use, the water, have cooled and it has boiled down to a slow wrangle between Lubbock and Amarillo with no real progress in sight.

Land and construction work is costly and getting more so every day and the longer Slaton postpones the water problem, the more expensive it will be to solve when the day comes where something will have to be done.

Growth and development could bring a crisis to us at most any time and those who are pinning their expectations on the Canadian River Dam project are most likely to be another ten years older and a lot wiser, before Canadian water reaches Slaton, if it ever does. A.M.J.

Jim Rucker, who has been gallivanting around Corpus Christi and other points with his wife, reports that it is mighty nice to be back home in Slaton where the weather can be depended upon, not very good, but dependable.

Like most of us, Mr. and Mrs. Rucker did not appreciate the advantages of being able to see twenty miles in the distance, being able to drive on even roads and to breathe air with plenty of sandy substance to it, until they got down in the soggy marshes where the sun goes into hiding and won't dare to come out until July. If you want to appreciate Slaton as a home town, take a trip to the warm, wet, soggy, Rio Grande Valley. A.M.J.

A gentleman traveling through Maine stopped at a small general store to buy some cigarettes. While waiting for his change, he noticed an old codger sitting by the counter. "Beautiful state, Maine," observed the visitor. "Yes, sir, really beautiful!"

"It's beautiful all right," the oldster agreed. "Only bad thing about Maine is the weather. There's three months in the year you just can't depend on the sleighin'—June, July, and August."—Sid Aronson.

The Scotchman, so the story goes, had just listened to a rendition of that beautiful war song—"There'll always be an England," and was heard to remark: "Why, to be sure there'll always be an England. No true Scot can doot it. For what is England, anyway, but the Southern tip o' Scotland. And, of course, everyone knows there'll always be a Scotland."

The Sounding Board

(Editor's Note: Humor creeps its way into the columns of some weekly newspapers on occasions. Here are two examples. And then a message on the serious side.)

From the column "Snooter Knows," in The Stanton Reporter:

A Texan was in a New York bar bragging long and loud about the virtues of his native state and all its products and progeny. The other customers listened almost to the breaking point and finally entered into a conspiracy with the bartender, who slipped the Lone Star braggart a mickey. Then, while he was unconscious they put him in a cab—and seized by an impulse—carried him to a funeral parlor. They laid his number body in a casket, carried it to a cemetery and deposited it in an open grave. Then they hid behind some shrubbery to see what the Texan's reaction would be when he came to.

Shortly, it was dawn. The Texan woke up, climbed out of the casket and the grave, looked around and said:

"Just like I figured—Resurrection morning, and the first guy on his feet is a Texan."

—sounding board—

From the column, "Just Talk" in the Knox County Herald:

It was Teddy's first day at school, and his teacher told him that the following day he would have to bring a note from his mother stating when and where he had been born.

The next morning, Teddy stopped to play awhile and lost the note his mother had written. As, sobbing, he made his way toward school, a passerby stopped and asked what was wrong.

Turning up his tear-stained face Teddy said, "I've lost my excuse for being born!"

—sounding board—

From an editorial in The Lockney Beacon:

At the risk of being called a pessimist, among other things, we were wondering if the socialistic trend which has gripped this country for the past 30 years, is not contributing greatly to a moral and spiritual breakdown of the people of our nation. Since socialism rewards laziness, puts a premium on the inability of one to provide for his own needs, and actually encourages lack of initiative, it seems to us that all this business of the government taking care of us from the cradle to the grave takes from those who benefit from it a sense of responsibility not only to themselves, their families, their state and nation but even to God Himself. A lack of a sense of responsibility naturally is followed by a breakdown in moral standards and conduct.

I see where President Ike says that anybody who don't agree with him on the matter of foreign aid is abysmally ignorant.

Says, though, he believes he deserves the honor, on account of only a special talent for ignorance could explain how come he voted like he did at times in the past.

THURSDAY, MARCH 10

Read John 19:25-30

Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst. (John 19:28.)

We rightly think that the salvation of man means above all the salvation of his soul.

Christ is also the saviour of the body. He Himself had a body. When He lived in the flesh, He knew what it meant to be tired. He became hungry and thirsty. His words "I thirst" were not of little significance, but a part of His sacrifice for us.

We need not think, then, that the things we need for our bodies are sinful. It is not sinful to enjoy our meals. We may drink when thirsty. When we are tired, it is no sin to sleep.

However, we need not be, we must not be slaves to our bodies. If our spirits are being ruled over by our bodies, it is necessary to fight bravely against that tyranny. We have to subdue the power of our bodies, as Jesus subdued His when He lived in the flesh.

PRAYER: O God, I thank Thee for saving me, that I am Thine. May I remember that my body is the temple of the Holy Spirit. When the hour of my departure out of this world comes, let me with joy be clothed with a spiritual body, without spot or wrinkle. In the blessed Saviour's name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Christ redeems my life from destruction and makes my body a temple of the living God.

STIN—Texas adults by thousands are going back to school this year. The object is to learn what the war could mean to our country and what they can do to better their chances of winning it.

The Education Agency and State Division of Defense Disaster Relief are co-sponsors of the civil defense adult education program. Since the program got under way late last year, 2,816 persons over the age of 16 have taken the free course. Another 1,295 persons are attending 66 classes in progress, and 150 new ones are due to begin this year.

Classes are held at public schools and taught by public and junior college teachers who have been trained and certified by TEA's civil defense staff.

Seven new teacher training workshops are scheduled within the next few weeks. Eventual goal is to have civil defense classes in or near every Texas community.

Course material ranges from study of the effects of a nuclear bomb and probable capabilities of hostile powers to step-by-step instructions for personal survival preparedness.

Persons interested in having the course in their communities may contact their local school superintendent or write Civil Defense Education Director, Texas Education Agency, Austin.

No Session Before Primary— Gov. Price Daniel said he will not call a special legislative session to raise teacher pay before May 7—the first primary date. Conferences with lawmakers have convinced him, said the governor, that there is no hope of a successful session during the coming eight weeks.

However, the governor said he may call a session after the May 7 primary to submit the school improvement program as an emergency measure at the 1961 regular session. If he waits until 1961, Daniel said he would recommend an increased program to make up for money lost by delay.

Many observers have noted that a special session after the first primary election would pose many problems. As much as 25 to 30 per cent of the House could be made up of "lame ducks"—persons retiring from office or defeated at the polls. Incumbent legislators with run-off races would not want to leave their home districts to come to Austin.

Teachers would prefer to have the matter submitted at a special session. Regular session rules require that the budget be provided for before new spending can be considered. Last year approval of the budget was just about the last thing before adjournment.

Accident Study— A new study indicates that motor vehicles and heart attacks or similar difficulties were involved in more than half of Texas' fatal industrial accidents in the last fiscal year.

Industrial Accident Board reported on an analysis of 23,000 accident claims. In the group studied, it found that fatal accidents were most often connected with motor vehicles, 28 per cent; heart disease, 26 per cent; slips and falls, 10 per cent; striking or being struck by an object, 7 per cent.

Altogether, in the last fiscal year, the Board processed claims resulting from 195,000 non-fatal accidents and 497 deaths.

Annual cost of industrial accidents is estimated at $500,000,000 a year. Board plans to make an accident analysis every year to gain information for planning improvement programs.

Utility Payments Available— Cities and private utility companies can now get reimbursement for money spent moving utility lines to make way for new interstate highways.

State Highway Commission said it is now ready to begin making payments under a law that was held constitutional by the State Supreme Court earlier this year.

Cost of the utility moving, as well as construction costs for the interstate system, comes 90 per cent from federal funds, 10 per cent from state funds.

Bridle Paths Contested— Whether a person owning grazing rights in a state park area can bar the public from riding horseback in that area is at issue before the Supreme Court.

High court is to hear arguments March 30 stemming from a dispute over use of the Davis Mountains State Park.

Trial court upheld the right of the grazing lease holders to lock out horseback riders while the lease is in effect. Court of Civil Appeals held that riders should be kept out at least nine months of the year.

State contends that if a public park is locked, it is no longer any good as a public park and that any least is predicated on this assumption.

Bomb Law Attacked— A law prohibiting possession of a bomb or conspiracy to bring about a bombing is under attack in a case before the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Defendant in the case is accused of having masterminded a bombing of the premises of a non-striking employ of a Dallas industrial plant a union walk-out. Two persons who were convicted of having thrown the bomb in the victim's driveway said they were carrying out the defendant's instructions.

Attorney for the defendant called "dangerous" a law that makes it a felony to possess items from which a bomb could be made.

Crime Toll Mounts— An average day in Texas sees 3 murders, 3 rapes, 7 robberies, 32 aggravated assaults, 43 automobiles stolen, 266 thefts other than automobiles and 125 burglaries.

This is the end result of a crime increase that in the past ten years has brought a 73.2 jump in crime while the population increased only 24.4 per cent.

Department of Public Safety announced that in all categories, crime in 1959 was up 3.9 per cent from the previous year. Largest gain was in aggravated assault—up 22 per cent. Only robbery showed a decline.

DIFFERENCE IN A CHEVY WAGON!

Chevy wagons are widest where wagons should be—with the widest seating, the widest cargo space and the widest choice of power teams in the low-price field. Check any of the five handy, handsome new models at your dealer's. You won't find these versatile advantages in any other wagon near Chevy's size and price!

- Widest seating, front and rear—up to a full 3.1 inches wider in front, up to 4.2 inches in the rear.
- Widest cargo area—the load platform's a whopping 5 1/2 feet wide, designed for a wider variety of cargo.
- Widest area between wheel housings—allows more room for bulky loads. ■ Widest choice of engines and transmissions—24 combinations in all, to give you peak performance with any kind of load. ■ Full Coil springs that ride right loaded or light—no other wagon near Chevy's price and size gentles the bumps with coil springs at all four wheels. ■ More road and ramp clearance—you can take full loads over bumps and grades without scraping bumpers. ■ Truly practical 9-passenger model—with roomy rear-facing third seat and electric roll-down rear window.

WEST TEXAS GRANITE & MARBLE MONUMENTS is the only place on the South Plains, where the above operation is handled. This process is called glazing. It is started with the raw rock, to be ground down to a smooth surface. Then as shown above a mixture of water and assorted compounds are used with the wheel to polish the stone to a high gloss finish.

In the above picture you see some of the last minute touches put to a stone before the engraving is done. Afterward, rubber sheets are stuck to the surface of the stone, then the design is cut into the rubber of the engraving. From here the stone is placed into the sand-blasting room, where sand under air pressure cuts into the stone where the rubber has been removed. Now we have the finished product.

Second Biggest Crop In History

Despite delayed plantings and other obstacles, Texas High Plains cotton producers harvested their second biggest cotton crop in history for 1959, according to the latest ginning report figures released by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the Census Bureau.

For 1959 the 23 counties on the Texas High Plains harvested and ginned 1,869,353 bales of cotton. This production is second only to the all-time record crop of 1958 when 2,025,433 bales were produced.

Thus 1959 becomes the fifth time in the last 10 years when Texas High Plains cotton production topped the 1 1/2 million-bale mark. Other top years were 1957 with 1,572,389 bales; 1956 with 1,654,904; 1954 with 1,581,148. Also 1949 saw 1,760,840 bales produced on the Plains.

As to top ranking counties in cotton production, Lubbock county in 1959 ranked eighth in the nation with 209,790 bales. Other Plains counties included Hale with 180,274, tenth in the nation; Hockley with 178,398, eleventh in the country; and Lamb, 174,397, 12th.

Kern County California was number one in the nation with 543,875 bales while Fresno County California was second with 483,878 and Tulare County California was third with 329,264. Maricopa County Arizona was fourth with 254,597. Another California county,

Ask a Little Child

Did you ever notice that small children talk about God with a faith so simple, so beautiful that you cannot question its sincerity? Ask them why they like the rain, for instance, and they may answer, "Because God made it, so the flowers will grow."

Unlike grown-ups, children accept God's order without a doubt. They believe in his love for them as naturally as they get up with the daylight and go to bed with the dark.

In God's eyes, we are all children . . . His children. And what we adults have lost in the way of vision, in the way of faith, must be renewed and replenished with each day and advancing year. We, too, can find God again—and, often, ourselves as well—by going to church, by praying, and by accepting the love He stands so ready to give us.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

JUST TALK

BY A. M. J.

Most every man in Slaton is now armed with a mechanical pencil and a ball point pen. Try to borrow either one and it is harder to get than a hundred dollar loan and it is a one hundred to one chance that the pen will not write until you have doodled on the back of an envelope for ten or fifteen minutes and the pencil point will break three times before it will make a scratch and the marks it will make will be so dim that they look like the writing on your great grandfathers will.

Not long ago I had the temerity to ask Ray Hickman to lend me his ball point pen and he wanted to tie a string onto it while I used it. If it had been fifty dollars he would have handed it over with just a few minor complaints. The pen had his own advertising on it and at the beginning of the year he was handing them out with the compliments of the firm. It just goes to show that people are losing their faith in money. What we want are gadgets that click, grumble, squeak and hardly ever do the job they are supposed to do.

There are very few days that go by that the squeeze is not put on for some cause that is supposed to be connected with charity. Along with everyone else, I feel mighty broke down because so many folks have heart trouble, water on their knees, loose screws in their belly and all the other diseases that have plagued men from long before Adam and Eve, but I fail to see how giving all the money in the world will keep all of these troubles from riding us down the corridors of time.

Perhaps a very small part of the money collected to combat these diseases has been spent to help some scientist experiment, but I have yet to read where one single one of them has done anything to combat these diseases. (What about Dr. Jonas Salg, A. M.?) Like most of the others I have usually coughed up a dollar or two but it's getting to be a sore subject with me.

My mother used to say that there was a rule that the Lord looks out for drunks, half wits and children.

There must be a lot of truth in the old adage for how else could you account for the fact that several hundred children have not been maimed, or killed, at the West Ward School on West Lubbock Street during the recent bad weather. The street in front of the school has been as big a mess as it is possible to make it with cars parked four deep and moving about at the hours when school lets out, or when classes start, and how in the world the children dodge through the matted-up traffic is past human understanding. The same condition is no doubt as rough around the other schools in Slaton, it just happens that I know about the West Ward because it is near my home. When I start out for town in the mornings I drive three blocks out of my way to keep from going in front of the West Ward School building.

The way some of the cars go gipping by our house with loads of youngsters I expect some of them to land in our living room most any day. It would be too bad if the Lord should take care of the school kids because they might get banged up by the Coca-Cola tin poles that were stationed in the middle of Lubbock street they got so beat up they don't stand up.

Things certainly have changed in Slaton in the last years and I am not at all that all of the changes have been for the best.

It has not been so long that considerable interest is evident in Slaton in politics when J. H. Brown several others were on County Democratic ticket. J. H. was the secretary of Lubbock County Democratic Committee for years and to it that Precinct 2 had representation of men at meetings. Now about the person interested in politics around here so I know is Claud Craven is a Republican.

It used to be that every County office had contestants for the job Sheriff, County Judge, etc., but now, so far as I tell, such jobs are chosen by having elections. Personally I miss the cardboard nail files, gaffs and free pencils used to hand out, and the extravagant promises to make to protect stars and stripes and from dant, debt and "Things are going to be there is no doubt about it."

Among the many things I cannot understand are plants, trees and vegetables regardless of how weather gets. With all the ing temperatures and we would suppose that the hyacinths, tulips, etc., not put out buds and are until some warm weather could get here. They are thing. Our fruit trees have no sense whatever are coming out just in June and if we keep a cold weather the kids are going to get from them do most every year were any way to do a dish out some mighty wise to the bulbs and have sweated so hard on the ground, but like people, they would not know if they could hear and stand.

The two seven-year-olds standing outside their one morning. "Do you it's possible for them projectiles to pierce a barrier?" asked one.

"No," replied the other. "Once a force of subatomic particles . . ."

At that moment, the station was interrupted by school bell. "There's a darn bell," complained the lad. "Now we'll have string beads."

A ROMP IN THE SNOW

Dubbin Englund, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Englund, left, and Ray Madison Ayers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ayers, had "a romp in the snow" last week in their sled. The two had only a brief chance to play in the snow, however, as most of it melted in a couple of days. It's still cold, icy and treacherous driving in the Slaton area, but sledding-type snow "just ain't" for right now.

Rural Motorcides In Highway Patrol District Show 20 Per cent Increase

"Rural Motorcides in this 29 county Highway Patrol district increased 20 per cent from 1958 to 1959," Captain E. L. Posey said today. Captain Posey, well known commander of this Highway Patrol district, said that during 1959 we had 155 people killed in rural traffic accidents compared to 124 rural traffic fatalities in 1958. Our patrolmen investigated a total of 2,738 rural traffic accidents during 1959. This traffic accident experience not only caused the death of 155 men, women and children, but also injured 1,599 people and caused an estimated property damage of $1,878,437. Fifteen of the 29 counties in this Highway Patrol district showed an increase in the number of Motorcides for 1959. The highest increase for any county was in Palo Pinto County with 17 rural traffic fatalities compared to only 7 in 1958. Lubbock County also had an unusual high increase with 19 fatalities recorded in 1959, compared to 12 in 1958. Four counties—Dickens, Haskell, Lynn, and Throckmorton—did not record a traffic fatality in 1959. "The real tragedy is our accident picture is the fact that the causative factors are well known," Captain Posey said. In 1959, as in 1958, too much speed at the wrong time and too much drinking while driving were the major contributing factors. When people start obeying the traffic law themselves and insist that other drivers obey the laws, then we will see a reduction in our traffic accident rate.

And He said unto them, Where is your faith? — (St. Luke 8:25) As Jesus Christ inquired of His disciples, so does He inquire of each of us this very day: "Where is your faith?" Without that faith, nothing is possible to us except frustration, unhappiness; with it, all good things are possible—for truly Faith is the Answer.

WHAT IS IN THINE HAND?

While Moses was keeping the flock of Jethro, his father-in-law, he received a call from God to fulfill the Will of God in his life. Moses, as many people today, tried to offer excuses to God in order to escape the conflicts, persecutions, and trials ahead. The little rod that he held in his hand seemed insignificant even as God transformed it into a serpent and again to a rod. Little did Moses realize that this rod when stretched forth witnessed the parting of the waters of the Red Sea. Let us consider what might be in our hands that God is wanting to use.

Time is an important factor in people's lives today. The way time is spent will be accounted for as one stands before the Great White Throne in judgement. The amusements of life, the hours that are passed in useless things, the time that could have been spent profitable in the service of Jesus Christ Our Redeemer. Time is in your hands to use, how are you using it?

Ability, God given graces, is often squandered away and often times people fail to receive blessing from God because they have failed to use the ability God has given them. Jesus gave parables concerning the use of what we have. The ability to teach, to lead others, to cause someone to turn from error to Jesus Christ constantly being abused and not used. No matter how small your ability is God is wanting you to use it at His command.

Possessions, truly blessing from the bountiful storehouse of God, will be accounted for also in the day of judgement. God, who created, and we the creatures, who have been a-warded stewardship of our possessions. God requires certain portions be returned unto Him. Are you the faithful steward? Time, ability, and possession when properly used will TAP the resources of Heaven for greater blessings. Use them and reap from the Lord.

Arlie J. Hoover Gets Scholarship

Arlie J. Hoover Jr. received word this week that he was awarded the Woodrow Wilson Scholarship.

To win one of these, one must be an outstanding student intellectually far above average.

A Woodrow Wilson fellow is selected on their academic record. Arlie followed this pattern in his high school days. He was twice named Who's Who once as a sophomore and once as a senior. He was selected by his fellow students as being "Most Likely to Succeed." It is Arlie's desire to become a history teacher. He has gone to college in Tampa, Fla.

Two additional publications have been released in the series on Vertical Integration in Texas Agriculture. The new ones are L-474, Rice and L-483 Lamb and Wool. Copies are available from the offices of local county agents or from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

PATSY PETTIGREW

Pat Pettigrew Leads Future Homemakers

Before a group of 2,000 FHA Girls, teachers, and guests Miss Patsy Pettigrew, Slaton High School Junior, was installed Area I President of the Texas Chapter of Future Homemakers of America. With a radiant smile she accepted the gavel from this year's president, Miss Jan Barton of Matador.

Miss Pettigrew will preside at the Area I executive council meeting in the fall and the Area I meeting in the spring. She will attend the state meeting in Austin in late August. Miss Pettigrew will also attend the National meeting at a place not yet designated. She now becomes a member of the state executive council and will speak at the Area FFA Convention during the summer.

Miss Pettigrew has shown leadership in FFA work by serving as pianist, second vice president and fourth vice president. She has been a member of the Slaton Chapter for three years.

Other people receiving honors were: Mrs. W. A. Wilkie received area honors and will receive state honorary mention in April. Mrs. Pettigrew is now area sponsor and Mrs. Ima Dora Haile is area advisor. Sue Liles, another Slaton junior made a good showing last week by being a candidate for state officer. Miss Liles is also a candidate for one of three members to sing in the national choir. Ann Haddock is a candidate for pianist for this convention. June Johnson was elected to serve on the state nominating committee from this area.

Students Perform Government Duties

The model House of Representatives in third period civics class is brought to order each morning by raps of the gavel by Speaker June Johnson. Members rise to a prayer offered by Chaplain Mike Wheeler, Clerk Norma Jean Bednarz then reads the bills up for discussion.

Chairmen for the various House committees are: Appropriations Danny Winn; Armed Services, Peggy Gentry; Foreign Affairs, Roy Strube; Interstate and Insular Affairs, Mack Metts; Un-American Activities, Bob Bivens; Ways and Means, Tommie McCall.

The House expects some very interesting bills to be introduced this week. Some that have already been discussed are: lowering income tax, raising the age of enlistment and draft to 21 years of age and sending the Negro race back to their home land.

"ALL I KNOW IS WHAT I READ IN THE PAPERS"

America's best-loved humorist also was one of the best-informed persons in his time. Nothing, it seemed, escaped his notice. His comments on the passing scene are applauded and repeated by millions the world over. "All I know is what I read in the papers" became his trade-mark. Will Rogers recognized that newspapers, more than any other media, are the common source of information of all the people. The simple fact that everyone knew immediately what he was talking about provided an important basis for his fabulous popularity.

You can't help starting out in life as a baby, but you don't have to deep it up after.

The trouble with letting our young women speak first is our young men snort vomit.

There are no U-turns on the highway of life.

Speaking of Highways... you just shouldn't be on the highway unless you know your car has been properly checked and you know it is in condition for the trip... and keeping your car checked and filled is our business. Running a service station means more, to us, than just gas and oil. It means offering the kind of special care that will actually add mileage and years to your car's life. Drive in... we do the rest.

University. A second session at 4:30 p. m. with Mrs. Ethel K. Terrell of Lubbock presiding was held. Miss Helen Poe, World Traveler and Lecturer Travel and Cruise Service Company of Dallas gave a very interesting address.

After the General Sessions were over sectional meetings were carried on, each teacher in their individual fields attended the Sectional meeting according to their interest.
