Record Breaking Show Indicated

LUBBOCK, Texas, March 8.—Preliminary entries indicate a record breaking show here March 24 and 25 when the second annual Panhandle South Plains Fat Calf, Pig and Meats show will be held.

More entries have already been received than last year, Dr. I. E. Barr, chairman of the general committee, has announced.

In the calf division, of which A. L. Smith, Beef Specialist of Texas Extension Service, is superintendent, 147 entries have already been received.

E. M. Regenbrecht, Swine Specialist of the Texas Extension Service, is superintendent of the pig division which already has 155 entries.

Friday afternoon, March 25, a sale will be held for the exhibitors who wish to sell their calves and pigs. Col. Earl Gartin will have charge of this sale. Last year the grand champion calf brought 50c per pound.

Roy Snyder, Meat Specialist of the Texas Extension Service, is superintendent of the cured meat division, which has over 500 entries of hams, bacon, shoulders, sausage and lard. The best products from 6 or more county shows will be entered here.

County shows have already been held in Hale and Swisher counties, and shows are yet to be held in Dickens, Floyd, Hoekley, Lamb and Shackelford counties.

From 600 to 800 entries of canned meats are expected. Miss Zetha McAnnis, Home Industry Specialist, has announced.

"In addition to encouraging the live at home program, the Meat Show here goes a step farther in attempting to create a market for surplus home cured and canned meats," Dr. I. E. Barr states.

Mr. J. N. McReynolds left Thursday night for Fort Worth, to attend the Stock Show.

FORT WORTH, March 8.—Wilfred P. Harmon, graduate Bible student in Texas Christian University, traveled 62,000 miles in order to get his A. B. degree.

He covered this mileage during his four years as an undergraduate student in going out each Sunday to preach.

He is still adding to his record while working on the second degree, as he preaches full time at Terrell. Taxes, making the trip out regularly from Fort Worth.

Slaton Schools Present Pageant

The Slaton schools, probably in conjunction with several of the neighboring rural schools, will commemorate San Jacinto day, April 21, with a gigantic pageant portraying the history of Texas, according to an announcement by A. R. Ellis, superintendent of the Slaton schools. Mr. Ellis did not say just what school would be asked to take part in the program, but intimated that all the rural schools in the vicinity of Slaton would be asked to join in the celebration of this great event in Texas history.

The details of the program have not been worked out, but according to present plans, the entire cast will include several hundred students from the Slaton and near by schools, and probably many adults.

This will probably be one of the most stupendous programs of this nature ever attempted by the Slaton schools, and if the plans as announced by Superintendent Ellis are carried out without alteration, this pageant will have one of the largest, if not the largest cast ever to take part in a single program in Lubbock county.

"Texas Under Six Flags," the name of the pageant, will reveal a brief history of our great Lone Star State under each period of its rapid development, beginning with days when wild Indians once roamed the almost limitless plains and coming on through the history until the present.

The Slatonite will have more to say about this gigantic program in a later issue.

Lorene McClintock To Broadcast Today

Miss Lorene McClintock will broadcast Friday, March 11, at 3:15 P. M. over K. R. L. D.—S. M. U. College of the air. The College of the air programs are broadcast each Monday and Wednesday at 2:30 P. M. and each Friday at 3:15 P. M. The programs consist of addresses given by members of the faculty of S. M. U. and of musical recitals by the members of the faculty and students of the School of Music.

Miss McClintock will give a recital consisting of three numbers: "Valse in A Major by Rachmaninoff; "Homage a Rameau" by Debussy and "by the Sea" by Arensky.

Miss McClintock has appeared on a number of recitals this year and she will appear on a recital Tuesday night March 15. She played at the "Van Katwijk Club" on Saturday February 27. (She is secretary of this organization.)

Miss McClintock is making an unusual record at S. M. U. where she is studying piano with Dean Paul Van Katwijk, and voice with Ivan Dneproff, head of the voice department. Besides her regular studies she is accompanying for Mr. Dneproff a great deal. She is planning to receive her Bachelor of Music Degree in three years. This is very unusual, however, regardless of the heavy courses she is carrying, she made seven "A's" last semester.

The school of Music of S. M. U. has recently been accepted as a member of organization of "National Conservatories and schools of Music."

Mrs. J. W. Hood was called to Fort Worth to attend the bedside of her father, Mr. O. C. Mathews, who has bronchial pneumonia.

Mrs. S. L. Rosser who has been visiting in the W. B. Montague home, and taking treatment at the Mercy Hospital, has returned to her home in Kress.

SHALL SLATON DIE?

(An Editorial)

Like a clap of thunder out of a clear sky came the announcement last week that an apparently serious movement is on foot in Slaton to amend the city Charter by striking therefrom the provision creating the Board of City Development and levying the insignificant tax of two mills to carry on civic development and publicity.

This proposal is to be voted on by Slaton citizens in April. Our view of the matter is that the real issue is, "Shall Slaton Die?"

Heretofore this paper has remarked editorially that Slaton has but one real enemy and that is Slaton herself. Slaton has had more than her share of internal dissension, and by this time we should have learned the lesson that a town divided against itself cannot prosper. It is to be borne in mind that this present proposal comes from within our town, and not from without. Slaton has no outside enemies to fear so long as she maintains internal harmony and recognizes her own true interests.

The Slatonite has never considered it within its proper sphere to pass judgment upon anybody's motives. It is, however, always concerned with results, and we know that the present proposal if adopted, whatever the motive for its inauguration,—with which we refuse to concern ourselves—will have the inevitable result of doing irreparable injury to Slaton. We shall therefore to the last oppose striking down our Board of City Development. The Board has abundantly justified its existence and the wisdom of those who created it.

When our city Charter was adopted a few years ago, one of the prime objects in view was to get a Board of City Development, and that matter received long and painstaking consideration. It was one proposal about which Slaton people pulled together with near approach to unanimity, and a fine work was accomplished. If we would all continue to work together in harmony it would be no big job to put Slaton on the map.

We feel that this latest proposal finds its birth in a spirit of unrest that was begotten of the depression. We know that Slaton has been hit hard, but not harder than has many other communities, and not nearly so hard as some. But Slaton has many real natural advantages and resources, and the ability to recoup her losses. We have a fine agricultural background, and the advantage of being a railway division point with a big payroll. When economic conditions over the world begin to improve, as they are bound to do at no distant date, Slaton will be among the first to experience a return of prosperity.

We know how great the temptation is in times like these to try experiments, and to fly to remedies that may prove more baneful than are the conditions we wish to overcome. For this reason we have counselled that all should keep a level head. We have warned against becoming panicky, making hasty and unwise choices, and experimenting with nostrums, and quack remedies that are potential of harm. Wisdom in times like these consists in choosing remedies cautiously, and in first making sure that the remedy is not more injurious than is the supposed malady. The individual in distress always, of course, has a quick way out by the suicide route, if he is foolish enough to take that view of it, and just so a town may cut the gordian knot of its supposed ills by committing town suicide if at any hysterical moment a majority of its citizens so far forget themselves as to pursue that course. We do not want Slaton to commit suicide and that is the sole reason for this editorial.

The Board of City Development is at once the head and the heart of our city. It is the civic center around which all progressive and public spirit-

Girl Basketball Team Need Help

Would you like to have Slaton well advertised in a statewide way—Your best bet along that line right now is the girls basketball team. The state basketball tournament for girls is to be held next Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, at Celeste. Slaton has a good chance to win it.

The girls this year have attended four tournaments where very strong teams have been represented, and the results have been:

Slaton tournament—First place Slaton.

Brownfield tournament—First place, Slaton.

Ralls tournament—First place, Slaton.

County tournament—First place, Slaton.

Why not send this championship team on to state? The girls want to go. They want to win. They have been practicing hard; they are in good condition, and they will assuredly put Slaton on the map.

How about it? They are asking your support and as much money as you want to give to help on their expenses. Here is a team as good as any football team we ever had. What are we going to do about it?

Dr. Clinton Lockhart Upholds Athletics

FORT WORTH, March 8.—Little credence is given to the continual charges of overemphasis of college athletics by Dr. Clinton Lockhart, professor of Old Testament at Texas Christian University and former president of the school.

"Intercollegiate athletic contests add a spice to college life that is invaluable," he says. "College life in the old days, without athletics, was a dull one. I think educational institutions would make a great mistake in abolishing athletics."

Dr. Lockhart recently celebrated his 74th birthday, and bases his opinions concerning athletics on more than a half century's association with colleges and universities.

"I think the modern youth is fully as intellectual, moral, honorable, courteous and aspiring as the students of former days," he says. "The modern emphasis on extracurricular activities is of great benefit to most students. It prepares them for the many activities of life, and gives them the disposition to discern the trends and take part in worldly affairs. Their interest in practical questions is awakened."

School District Seek $6,130.80.

Suit for $6,130.80, allegedly the amount the Slaton independent school district had on deposit in a sinking fund in the First State bank when the bank closed Jan. 28, was filed Thursday of last week in 99th district court against the First State and Amarillo First National banks.

The school district's petition sets out that deposits totaling $7,363.88 were placed in the sinking fund in the First State bank from Dec. 18 to Jan. 18, and that checks, in payment of interest on bonded indebtedness, were drawn on Dec. 18, 1931, Jan. 7, 1931, and Jan. 18, 1932. The plaintiff alleges the last two checks, for $3,127.80 and $3,003, were not paid by the Amarillo bank, which was expected to forward the payments to New York banks. Feb. 2, the petition sets out, the Amarillo bank notified the plaintiff the First State bank had insufficient funds on deposit in Amarillo to meet the checks.

Anne Ford Out For Re-Election

ANNOUNCES FOR RE-ELECTION TO THE OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER OF LUBBOCK COUNTY.

She wishes first to express her sincere thanks and appreciation for the wonderful support given her by the citizens of this community in her former election. The people then, by a large majority vote, expressed confidence in her ability and her integrity to handle the public funds properly, and she has earnestly tried to be faithful to that trust.

Owing to her experience in the office, she feels that she is now far better qualified than formerly. She has installed and is now operating a new and highly modern system of accounts.

To those who may care to investigate before voting, she refers to her books and records which are open to inspection at all times, and hereby tenders every personal courtesy to those who may call.

By this announcement she is asking the people to permit her to again serve them in the capacity of County Treasurer, promising and pledging to give them her undivided time and attention and the best efforts and ability within her power.

Wilke Enters Precinct Race

Resident Of New Hope For Past Twenty-Two Years To Seek Precinct Two Post; For High Citizenship

Yielding to an inclination of several years and the overture of many friends, I have decided to announce as a candidate for commissioner of precinct two, Lubbock county," L. W. Wilke of New Hope said Saturday in making his announcement for the office. "I am fully mindful of the many and important duties of the office," Mr. Wilke said.

A resident of New Hope for the past twenty-two years, Mr. Wilke is engaged in practical farming. He is fifty-two years of age.

His announcement said:

"During my citizenship in Lubbock county and in the New Hope community at all times I have endeavored to be cooperative with my neighbors and the people generally for the betterment of the general interests such as agriculture, educational and religious conditions. As to the success attained, let my neighbors speak and those who know me best. Fully realizing that a high standard of agriculture, education and religion reflect the character of citizens. At the same time and at all times I have been intensely concerned and interested in road building and conserving the financial interests of my county and country, believing it to be a bad policy to expend the people's money unless the expenditure appeals to the common interests of the people.

"In the event the voters should see fit to elect me to the office sought, in return for the confidence reposed and commission placed in my hands, I promise faithful and untiring service at all times, having uppermost in my mind, the common welfare of the people, and to exert every effort possible to minimize the expenses incident to conducting the affairs of our county. I shall at all times favor a property assessment such as to make the present heavy burdens of taxes as low as conditions will justify.

"I make this announcement subject to the Democratic Primary and invite an investigation of my life and activities as a citizen. I shall appreciate your support."

Farmers Need Higher Prices For Products

Agriculture is being hailed as showing some of the most definite signs of returning health displayed by any industry in a long while. Perhaps agriculture is recovering sooner from the depression because it has had it longer.

Agriculture is literally the business bread and butter of our country. If the farmer isn't getting enough for his products to pay for the feed he must use, the machinery he must buy, to have anything left over to replace these things and a surplus to provide comforts and clothing for his family, who is going to support the local merchant—to say nothing of the banker, the baker, and candlestick maker?

A newer and more dangerous development of the economic situation in which we find ourselves is evidenced by such outbreaks as milk price wars which have been raging around large city markets. It is in times like these that the consumer is able to appreciate the value of a great stabilizing force, such as the Dairywomen's League Co-operative Association of New York. The lower drops the price of a commodity like milk—the more imperative quality control methods, as practiced by organized dairymen, become.

No one benefits, in the long run, from profitless prices for farm products—and organized effort through strong, loyally supported cooperatives has proven to be the farmer's best economic ally.

BOARD OF CITY DEVELOPMENT: The City Commission shall appoint what shall be known and designated as the Board of City Development, which shall be composed of not exceeding fifteen (15) members, who shall serve without compensation; and the City Commission shall appropriate annually from the General Fund of said City two mills on each one dollar of the assessed value of all taxable property in the City of Slaton, said fund to be used for the support of the work of said Board, and to be handled and expended as such Board may see fit, the Board appointed by the Commission shall draw lots for the terms of their office, five of whom shall serve for a period of one year, five for a period of two years, and five for a period of three years. Upon the expiration of the terms of office of the various groups of members of said Board, the remaining ten members shall elect persons to fill such vacancies."

In testimony whereof, Witness my Official hand and seal of said City of Slaton, Texas, at my office in said City this 2nd day of March, A. D. 1932.

"What is Happiness?" You ask. Is it within the reach of all? Does it grow from the daily task Or is good fortune may befall?

"'Tis relative," the wise men say. "Not poverty nor wealth," But find the man who's found the way, To Happiness without Health!

HAPPINESS goes hand in hand with good health. Vim, vigor and vitality may be dissipated or conserved according to our mode of living, but they largely determine our capacity for genuine happiness. Fortunately, most of us are endowed with healthy bodies. Keeping them healthy requires strict observance of a few simple rules of right living. This applies to young and old and, particularly, to homemakers entrusted with the care of growing children.

Fresh air, exercise, cleanliness within and without, and correct eating are essential to good health. Regular habits in work, play, exercise, correct eating and personal hygiene should be formed. Scrupulous care of teeth, hair and clothes are merely a matter of habit while correct posture in sitting, standing or walking will do much to correct or eliminate such common disorders as nervousness and constipation.

Balanced diets are neither complicated nor expensive. When we consider that minerals, vitamins, fats, carbohydrates and proteins are abundant in the cheapest foods, it becomes readily apparent that a healthy life is as cheap as an unhealthy one. Human beings are largely what they eat and if their diet is not properly balanced or is insufficient for their needs, they suffer accordingly in health and happiness.

Milk, eggs, cheese, meat and other tissue-building foods are important in the human diet. Energy-producing foods, such as cereals, potatoes, breads, sugar, butter and cream, should be liberally supplemented by plenty of fresh fruits and vegetables. A quart of milk per day for each growing child is recommended by most authorities while fresh fruits and vegetables are necessary for the vitamins, minerals and roughage they provide.

Bread has been recognized for centuries as man's "staff of life." Homemade quick breads made with self-rising soft wheat flour also contribute to health through diet because they contain calcium and phosphorus in the leavening which are essential minerals.

Bread of this type is easily and economically made at home. It requires no elaborate preparation, no long-drawn-out leavening process or kneading, and has the added advantage of palatability, freshness, digestibility and uniform high quality. Homemakers will find bread, made according to the following recipes, light, nourishing and genuinely satisfying.

Nut Bread

3 tablespoons fat 1 egg milk 1/4 cup sugar 1 cup nut meats, 1 egg broken in small 1 1/2 cups self-rising pieces flour

Place the sugar, fat, and egg in a bowl; beat until thoroughly blended; add the flour and liquid alternately, then add the nuts; pour into a greased bread pan, and bake in a slow oven (300° F.) about 50 minutes.

Sour Cream Nut Bread

4 cups self-rising 1/2 cup of milk or flour enough to make 1/4 cup sugar moist dough 1 egg 1/2 cup of chopped 2 cups thin, sour nuts cream

Sift the flour. Beat the eggs, combine with milk and add to flour to form a moist and fairly stiff dough. Add nuts and more milk if needed. Turn into two well-greased pans, set the pans in a cold oven, heat gradually to a temperature of 300 to 225 degrees, and bake about 50 minutes or until the bread is light brown and firm to the touch. The bread should be allowed to cool partially, then wrapped in a towel or several thicknesses of paraffin paper and kept in a bread box 24 hours before cutting. The crust will be soft and need not be removed when making sandwiches.

Well, Ma had a right to propose, didn't she? This Leap Year, isn't it?

And now that Ma has proposed we wonder if Texas will be disposed.

Honest, Mr. Hoover, we swear it, in fact we lament it! We haven't hoarded any gold a-tall.

Baseball practice is starting under southern skies, and when the umpire calls out "Play Ball!" watch those hoarded dollars appear!

By the way, if you have not been able to conquer the depression any other way, suppose you try thumbing your nose at it.

We cannot be accused of being a slacker in this anti-hoarding campaign. Months ago we brought forth and spent the dollar we had.

Do you believe in dreams? The other night we had the most beauti--fullest dream. It was that this de-pression exists only in the imagina-tion.

We are with Mr. Hoover, so much so in fact that if he is able to coax gold from its hiding place we hope it won't see its shadow when it em-erges.

But in spite of it all we see signs of improvement. We are certain that someone has gotten rid of the de-pression, because it seems we have some other fellow's share in addition to our own.

We believe that if we were Tam-many Hall we would reform, at least to the extent of changing our name.

Did you notice that Senator Robin-son while searching the Secretary of Agriculture in the Senate the other day figuratively took the Hyde off?

Senator Robinson roars that mis-appropriation of public funds cannot be justified by anyone, no matter whether he be Democrat or Republi-can. Well, now, to say the least that does sound plausible.

Of every one hundred people we meet we watch ninety-nine of them because they need watching, and the other one because he is worth emulat-ing.

Did you ever stop to consider that it would be an inestimable boon to your neighbors if you would translate some of your Amens into Amends?

We know that politics are now puri-fied because when we were young we were taught they would be when we got the ballot.

There are lots of families in this broad land who if they mislaid the can opener would lose their sole means of gaining a meal.

When a fellow gets drunk on his birthday is he celebrating the event or attempting to drown his memory of it?

The man who these past two years has attended strictly to his own busi-ness has as yet found no opportunity to complain of unemployment.

If you want to feel utterly alone just let it be known that you are in the market for a loan.

We never stopped until we got down to the very bottom of this money question—that is, down to our last dollar.

These spring-like days they drive us mad,

Perhaps we're hard to please,
But 'tis too warm for winter-
-weights,
Yet cold for B. V. D.'s.

The Police Gazette started out too que for respectable folks to read, In 1932 went into bankruptcy be-cause it was not risqué enough. Yes, -nes certainly do change. Tastes do, -o. Ditto morals.

In the heyday of the Gazette a girl in tights was shocking, but today not even the tight girl is.

All things have their compensations.
If the ultra moderns succeed in abolishing marriage they will, ipso facto, put the divorce court out of business.

We have decided not to take that correspondence course in memory training we see advertised, because we hope sometime to be able to for-get this depression.

What has become of the old fash-ioned town wag who jingled the coins in his pocket as he stood talking to you? And what has become of the coins?

The banker lent until the farmer went broke and the farmer borrowed until the banker went broke. Now the banker owns the farm and the farmer is acting as his own banker.

Did you ever stop to ponder that there would be no need for high-power salesmanship if someone was not am-bitious to sell you something you don't want and don't need?

It may be a compliment to be wait-ed on by a high-powered salesman, but give yourself a low intelligence quotient should you fall for his bunk--um.

Let thy resistance be at all times equal to the salesman's pressure.

A science item says that alcohol can be made with sulfuric acid and linen rags. The finished product should be, we suppose, handled with rubber gloves, and while drinking it be very careful not to spill any on the con-crete.

More and more we admire Nature's handiwork as we contemplate how nearly fool-proof she has made the human body, which really is a remark-able machine and lasts a long time considering that in so many cases it is navigated with a fool at the helm.

Soon all the cotton will have passed out of the farmer's hands and the time will be ripe for the price to make some measurable gains.

No, the mere fact that the com-munity around Shanghai is called the International Settlement doesn't ex-actly mean that the community is settled.

A writer says that to date neither Japan nor China has accomplished anything. We disagree. Look what measurable progress both have made toward solving the oriental over-population problem.

FOR SALE. At a liberal discount, one of those 1928 Hoover Luck Pieces. Much depreciated but is only three years old, and good as new. It bears the following inscription:
"Hoover Luck Pocket Piece—Good for four years of prosperity." Our reasons for selling: It cured us and we don't need it any longer.

The President has signed the Glas--Segall Bill that is designed to end this depression. Now, if and when per-chance this depression should quit depressing, there will be millions of good Americans who will asser that the Glas-Segall Law did it. That is the element of psychological accident.
This situation is comparable to that of a sick man who tries patent medicines and quack remedies one after the other in desperate effort to get well.
If in the course of nature he recovers from his malady the last of those quack nostrums he took will forever after receive credit and praise for having effected a marvellous cure—after all other remedies had failed, after the doctors had given the pa-tient up to die, after all hope was lost, the will made, etc.

In the Sino-Jap unpleasantness the Chinese casualties are reported as being some ten times heavier than those of the Jap. This may be explain-ed in two ways, first, the Chinaman is unable to shoot where he looks, and secondly a Jap doesn't make as big a target as a Chinaman does, anyway.

Individual deposits subjects to check in Texas banks greatly increased the past week, as shown by reports from all parts of the state, but no mention was made of deposits in Slaton banks, so we infer that the latter remained in status quo.

We suppose that if the assets of a closed bank prove sufficient to pay about two years of good, fat overhead liquidating expense the Department would consider it a highly successful failure.

Why could not the assets of the two failed Slaton banks be moved into one office, and the two institutions liqui-dated with only one overhead expense, and thereby save that much additional to this community and for Slaton de--positors?

What would you think of a Slaton business man if he should decide that hereafter he would do his best to suppress all publicity regarding his business, quit advertising, and start on a period of quiet stagnation? You would think him not only very unwise, would you not, but also a dead num-ber? Well, that is the proposal facing Slaton when it is proposed to amend our City Charter to do away with our Board of City Development.

The one remaining spark of life in Slaton is that which centers in our Board of City Development. If you vote next month to amend our City Charter as in now proposed, and do away with the tiny two mill tax for maintenance of the Board and whole-some publicity for our town, then you are voting to chloroform your own home town, and to snuff out its last breath of life. Do not do it. A vote AGAINST the proposed amendment is a vote for progress. It's a vote to re-tain the breath of life in your own home town.

Slaton's Board of City Development is composed of fifteen public spirited citizens of our town, who plan and scheme to the best of their ability to put our town on the map, keep it alive, and make Slaton a worth while place in which to live. They get not a penny for their services, but they do have to have a little money to operate on, and that little is raised by the insignif-icant tax of one-fifth of a cent on the dollar of taxable property. It is the best investment Slaton can possibly make, and now there is a proposal for an election in April for the citizens of Slaton to stop all that good work. If you want to strike the final blow to murder your own home town, then you will vote for the proposed amend-ment to do away with the Board of City Development.

The quickest way to place Slaton in the same municipal class as South-land and Wilson, is to vote to amend our city charter to do away with the Board of City Development. You are given the opportunity to join in a movement to commit town suicide. We do not believe you will do it, because clearly it would be a vote against your own best interests.

THE LINDBERGH KIDNAPING

The kidnaping of the 20-months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Lindbergh has received unprecedented world-wide publicity only because of the worldwide renown of the father, and not because it was a more hein-ous crime to steal that baby than it would be to steal the only child, or any baby, of the humblest mother in the land.

This particular crime has served to bring home to Americans not alone the heinousness of such a crime but its prevalence. And in this particular case the fool-hardiness of the deed sluggers the mind. The very promi-nence of the parties, and the wide-spread publicity given to it, and the resources available in money, brains and man-power to detect it, renders it certain that those guilty cannot long go unapprehended. In fact it is possi-ble, and even probable that before the lines reach the reader the guilty one will be behind the bars. We devoutly hope so. Apparently the sole motive was money, to the tune of fifty thousand dollars. But the case has about it certain qualities of imbecility that border on insanity, not withstand-ing that it was cunningly executed, and, at this writing, seems to baffle the ingenuity of the police.

Such crimes shock the moral sense almost as no other crime can do. The child's life is necessarily put in jeop-ardy, and not infrequently in such cases the fiends, for revenge, or when about to be captured, will take the life of the victim. A shocking degree of depravity is usually attendant upon this class of crimes. In this instance there exists, as might naturally be supposed, an inordinate amount of morbid curiosity, but the heart of the world goes out in sympathy for the grieving and troubled father and mother. Mr. and Mrs. Lindbergh have our very sincere sympathy in this time of travail, but no more so than if they were any other father and mother in America, because after all parental love is of the same quality every-where and under all conditions, and to outrage mother love anywhere and at any time brings forth, and always will, the deserved resentment of all right thinking people.

PROHIBITION SENTIMENT

As is well known, The Literary Di-gest is engaged in taking a poll of the country on the subject of prohibition, and to this end is sending out twenty millions of ballots to every section, hamlet, city and crossroads in the nation, and including every trade, oc-cupation and profession.

The issue this time is sharply and squarely drawn, and goes to the heart and foundation of the question, name-ly, is the voter in favor of retaining or repealing the Eighteenth Amend-ment to the Federal Constitution. No middle ground, such as modification, is submitted this time.

The Digest has in the past conducted straw votes, and in all instances where the straw vote was followed up by a national election, as in the presiden-tial polls, its results have been accurate to an uncanny degree. Past polls, coupled with the high standing and in-tegrity of The Digest, compel all im-partial and thinking people to place high degree of confidence in the abili-ty of the Digest to ascertain precisely what American sentiment is at this time on the troublesome and unsolved liquor question.

The most startling thing about the poll thus far is the apparently enorm-ous change in sentiment as regards prohibition in recent years. The swing of the citizenship toward repeal is so great and startling as to be news of the first magnitude. What the true cause or causes of this may be is a debatable question, but the fact of the change in sentiment is an undebat-able fact.

The nation, and our legislative halls, seethe with unrest and demands for a change of policy. That the Eighteen-th Amendment stands in prospect of being eventually overthrown is indi-cated by this steady trend of public sentiment, and if and when that comes about, the next big and puzzling question is, what will be the nation's substitute policy in dealing with the liquor problem? Only time can tell.

THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT

The Congress of the United States has recently submitted to the legisla-tures of the states for ratification within the next seven years a new amendment to the Constitution, popu-larly known as "Lame Duck Amend-ment," and having for its purpose to change the time when the President and Congressmen shall take office.

When the present Constitution was adopted, news traveled slowly, and much time was required to hold an election and ascertain the result. Much time was therefore permitted to elap-se between the date of the elec-tion and the inauguration of the new President, and a very much longer period before a new Congress entered on their duties. The election is in November; the President is not in-augurated until March 4th, and the Congressmen elected in November do not take office until December of the year following. The proposed amend-ment intends to change this, and when it is adopted, as it is sure to be, Con-gressmen elected in Nov. will take office January 3rd following, and the President will be inaugurated January 24th, instead of March 4th. It is a wise and needed change, and renders the government more responsive to the popular will.

WE SEE BY THE PAPERS

The Illinois Legislative is trying to put a five cent tax on gasoline, and naturally, it is unpopular with auto-mobile owners. They say that if the State needs money, there are other ways to get it without taxing auto-mobile owners any more than they are already burdened. We would like to know how much money anybody could get if they had to depend on getting it from people who are not automobile owners.

It is claimed that, in the event of legalized beer, the barley to make the beer would boom the farming industry and the coal to cook it would boom the coal industry, and a million and a quarter of men would be put to work making beer, and Uncle Sam would get $6.00 a barrel out of it. We are not posted as to the amount of bar-ley, coal and men that it would take to make beer, but we firmly believe that if the beer manufacturers pay good money for barley, coal, labor and tax, they expect to sell their beer for enough to get their money back and a profit in addition. Now, how can the people buy beer while they are de-pending on congress to raise money to buy groceries for them?

Senator Fess is opposed to letting poor people have anything to eat be-cause he thinks that, after it is once started there will be no end to it.

We have often observed that such men as Mr. Fess don't worry much about establishing a precedent when there is anything to be done to swell the purses of the rich. It seems that they are not worrying about it in dropping the Mellon charges just be-cause Mr. Mellon is leaving the Cab-inet. Why didn't they drop the Fall charges when Fall left the cabinet?

The editor of the Times-Press of Streator Illinois says that a great deal of the present crime is due to laziness. Yes, we agree with him. Laz-iness, and greed for money. What causes this increased laziness and greed? You probably have observed that nearly all the criminals of which you read, when their age is given, are young lads under thirty years old, and many of them under twenty.
What does that signify? It shows that practically all this devilry is being pulled off by material that has been produced since the twentieth century methods of raising children came into practice.

Most of the children especially in the last quarter of a century, have been taught to expect to do just as they please, and have everything that they want for their pleasure, includ-ing all the spending money that they want, and expect to get it when they want it, without waiting for it, and without rendering any service or use-fulness, or anything of value in ex-change for it. In other words, parents have dealt with their children on the give and take system, that is, the parents have done all the giving and have permitted the children to do all the taking. Consequently, when the parents die, or go broke, the children can't find anybody else who is willing to deal with them as their parents did, and they don't know how to get the money any other way, and even if they try to learn to be useful, the money that they are capable of earn-ing is inadequate to pay for what they have been taught to regard as the American standard of decent liv-ing, and their only means of getting the money in big enough chunks is to resort to crime.

It seems that there are, in the Uni-ted States, some men who have the nerve and shamelessness to admit, "Right out loud in school," that they want legalized booze for the specific purpose of extracting a billion and a half dollars of revenue per year from the poor, unfortunate poverty stricken booze consumers, for the sake of mak-ing it possible to abolish the million-aires' income tax.

Never-the-less, their honesty and frankness have to be admired. It is more honorable than to try to conceal their real motives, as most of the booze advocates do, and resort to the illogical subterfuge of pretending that they don't want to make money through the suffering and misfortunes of others, and pretending to believe that the repeal of prohibition would automatically repeal the law of nature and eliminate the evils of booze, and say that they want prohibition re-pealed for that purpose, thus seeking to poison the minds of the unwary against righteousness, justice and truth, instead of telling the truth and saying that they want prohibition re-pealed because they love money more than justice, or because they love booze more than reason, or because their friends want it repealed.

Health Is At Your Open Window

Oxygen is necessary to breathing. Oxygen is taken from the air by a gas flame just the same as by any other kind of flame. Fresh air supplies oxygen.

So, for your health's sake, let a little fresh air in.

If you must have a fire to dress by, have it in another room. If you live in a small apartment and sleep in your living room, turn out the fire and raise the windows when you go to bed.

Water Heaters Without Flue Pipes Are A Menace

Many gas appliances, including some well-constructed room heaters, are safe to use without flue connections in WELL-VENTILATED rooms. However, it is advisable that all appliances using gas in considerable quantities should be connected with flues, for even the most efficient types may produce poisonous gas when the flame is first lighted.

If your water heater—or any other kind of a heater—is in the bath room, turn it out when you are ready for your bath. It requires approximately 10 cubic feet of air to supply sufficient oxygen to burn one cubic foot of gas—and there usually is little or no fresh air coming into the average bath-room.

Natural gas, when properly used, not only is efficient and economical, but it also is safe.

West Texas Gas Company places a higher value on the health, safety and good will of consumers than upon any revenue it might derive from gas that is not properly used.

Makes You Lose Unhealthy Fat

Mrs. Ethel Smith of Norwich, Conn., writes: "I lost 16 lbs. with my first bottle of Kruschen. Being on night duty it was hard to sleep days but now since I am taking Kruschen I sleep plenty, eat as usual and lose fat, too."
To take off fat—take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—one bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a few cents—get it at any drugstore in America. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the SAFE and harmless way to lose fat—your money gladly returned.
Don't accept anything but Kruschen because you must reduce safely.

SHALL SLATON DIE?

ed citizens can rally in building a town and in making Slaton a better place in which to live. Through the B. C. D. Slaton speaks to the world, and receives and interprets the message which the outside world has for Slaton. The Board keeps a watchful eye on all city activities, stands for clean and honest government, economically administered. It is the people's big, fine watch dog. It fights for Slaton, gains publicity for Slaton, deals with our charity problems, and in no small sense is a manager of municipal affairs. It is the City' head, heart and conscience in a civic, industrial and economic sense. In these times of stress it has served as a beacon light, a rallying point, an inextinguishable spark of life, a watchman on the tower, a faithful watchdog at the gate. It is the chief organization in our midst that keeps Slaton from dropping to a mere village.

To remove the B. C. D. is to decapitate Slaton. We are opposed to that. We do not wish this calamity to befall our town. We do not want Slaton to take this long backward step. We are against such a course just as we would be against tearing up our paving, or impairing the efficiency of our public and private schools, or exchanging our waterworks for the old-fashioned windmill, or bartering our sanitary sewer for the old disease breeding cesspool. We favor growth, development and improvement. These things make life pleasant and worthwhile. They cost some money, of course, but our position is that their benefits far outrun their cost, and we are and always have been willing to bear our full share of the cost of getting and maintaining them.

Slaton needs the B. C. D. as never before. We need a bank, and new industries, and in time the B. C. D. will do a big part in getting these for Slaton. We need publicity, and the B. C. D. is prepared to get it. Our real efforts should be put forth, not to abolish the B. C. D., but to strengthen it, back it up, give it our cooperation, and assist it in putting Slaton on the map.

We are ready to go over the top in fighting for the things that vitally concern the welfare of our town. When the Charter was adopted and the B. C. D. created, we applauded the good work. We have found no reason to change our position. Throughout the Slatonite's existence we have stood staunchly for the progress, development and welfare of our town and community. We have endeavored at all times to give only sane and level-headed advice; we have battled for economy, efficiency, honesty, friendship, cooperation, toleration, broad-mindedness, truth and progress. We are doing so now to the best of our lights and understanding, and shall continue to do so with no axe to grind, and no selfish end to achieve. We are in the same boat with every progressive and public spirited man and woman in this community. The present proposal has, we are convinced, the inevitable tendency, if it succeeds, to do Slaton irreparable injury, put her in a rut, and retard her future well being and progress. Such proposals and such movements always pain us deeply.

To kill the B. C. D. can do no possible good, will not bring any additional benefit to Slaton, but will have a certain tendency to drive many families from our midst.

We therefore implore all far seeing, wide awake and progressive citizens of Slaton to think well and seriously on the matter. We beg you not to commit this folly—this town suicide. We urge you to use your influence to prevent and persuade all other who are improperly or imperfectly informed on the subject from doing so.

Shall we strike down the B. C. D.? We vote NO! Shall Slaton die? We vote NO!

Miss Norene Mangrum of Lubbock is spending this week with her mother Mrs. Jess Mangrum.

New Film Uses Coney Setting

"Dance Team" Shows James Dunn And Sally Eilers As Lovers At Famous Resort

Coney Island, that blaring, glittering playground of New York's millions, is the latest spot to be reproduced on the talking screen. A large area of the famous amusement park was copied in perfect detail at the Fox Film studio in Hollywood, and in it James Dunn and Sally Eilers spent several days during the filming of their new photoplay, "Dance Team," the former as a "hot dog vendor" and the latter as a ticket seller for a concession.

"Dance Team," which plays Wed.

and Thur. at the Palace Theatre, tells the heart appealing story of a young boy and girl whose fortunes were in their feet but whose heads, particularly that of the boy, were too unsteady to tame their success once they had captured it.

Advance reports are that Dunn and Miss Eilers even excel their "Bad Girl" performances. Two other "Bad Girl" celebrities had a hand in the making of the new film, Minna Gombell, who heads the supporting cast, and Edwin Burke, who wrote the screen play and dialog. Sidney Lanfield directed.

Briggs Robertson and son Briggs Jr. went to Fort Worth to bring Mrs. Robertson home, who has been attending the bedside of her sister Mrs. Tierney.
