Interest Is High In Novel Weekly Football Contest

Response to the Slatonite Football Contest has been greater than anticipated by even the sponsors, and first announcement of weekly cash winners will be made next week, followed by weekly winners told for 10 successive weeks of the football season.

A new list of teams (those meeting the weekend of Sept. 21-22) appears in the page ad this week, and added spice is provided the contestants by inclusion of a number of Southwest Conference college games.

With the contest deadline on Tuesday of each week, casual observation of first week ballots reveals a wide divergence of football favorites.

Though names of the contestants cannot be told until after the game, the general trend of forecast can be revealed.

Domit seems to be substantial favorite over Lockney.

Abernathy is given slight edge by contestants over Petersburg, the Slaton foe of last week in that 8-8 encounter. The same day Abernathy squeaked past Olton 8-7.

Morton is prophesied to outclass Frenship, a team that sea-sawed with Tahoka on a muddy track Friday to finally lose, 8-0. Morton was tied by Sudan, 6-6.

Hale Center is given the nod, by large majority of contest entrants, in the forthcoming bout with Sundown. Both teams were on the little end of "first game" battles, Hale Center losing to Lockney, 16-7, and Sundown bowing to Idalou, 16-0.

O'Donnell should have little trouble with Ralls, though reasoning here might also be obscure. Ralls having handed Post a 20-6 win, and O'Donnell favoring Crosbyton with the 14-6 opener.

Crosbyton is picked to drub Tahoka, the team that edged Frenship.

The Slaton-Idalou prophecy? The editors reserve the right to keep this a secret until after the game... but ballots can be said to indicate belief that a real tussle is in the offing.

Enrollment Sets 1st Week Record

Slaton Public School enrollment reached an all-time high at the end of first week sign-up Friday, Dr. Lee Vardy, superintendent, has announced.

A total of 1931 students were registered during the week, surpassing the 1961-62 first week figure of 1847.

The record was foreseen after the first day registration of 1827 students with school officials stating at that time the probability of between 1925 and 1950 scholars.

By schools the enrollment was: West Ward, 592; Stephen F. Austin, 228; Slaton Junior High, 409; Slaton Senior High, 389; and Evans school with 313 students.

Participation Urged In Second "Polio Sunday"

Second step of the "Stop Polio in Slaton" program is on the agenda for this Sunday when the 4500 people taking the first Sabin oral vaccine dose on August 5th are urged to follow through with second of the three program phases.

George Willis, president of the Lions Club, asks the public to report at the West Ward School between the hours of 1 p.m. and 6 p.m. Sunday for this painless but effective preventative. Ample personnel is promised to speed service, with the Lions members, their wives, the Jaycee-ettes, Centurettes, Sisters of Mercy, local and local pharmacists participating.

No charge is made for receipt of the dosages, nations of 25c up are urged to assist in defraying of purchasing the vaccine.

As true with the initial dosage, the second is no but merely a cube of sugar on which three drops vaccine have been placed.

Officials point out that no registration forms completed, as these were submitted earlier and they are on file. Only those individuals who have taken first dosage elsewhere than Slaton are asked to file their record to the clinic.

Proponents of the all-out effort to eliminate polio that success is possible only by complete, mass participation.

Salk vaccine, widely used in the past, is a kill vaccine. Although three types are combined in vaccine, four shots are given over a period of months. With Sabin oral vaccine, each type is separately by mouth, four to eight weeks apart. I cine works fast, usually within a week, laboratory point out. The oral vaccine acts to produce an ir barrier against poliovirus as well as antibodies blood-stream. Thus, it is expected that the vaccine help prevent vaccinated persons from carrying ease as well as help protect them against poliovirus.

By JOHN H. KING II

Rev. Rollo Davidson, pastor of the First Methodist Church, informed me at Rotary last Thursday that he didn't think it was fair for me to give the impression that Rev. Fred Ryle always ends his Sunday services at the First Presbyterian Church promptly at 12:00 noon, because "Fred will have the entire Slaton church population at his church on Sunday if they think they will be dismissed on time." I'm sorry, Rev. Davidson, but Fred is usually very punctual.

I've been aware of the growing disease of apathy for quite some time, but an incident that was reported in The Abilene Reporter-News last Friday utterly shocked me. The Abilene City Commission reduced the city tax rate from $1.44 to $1.00 per $100 valuation. The vote by the city commission "followed a public budget hearing at which not a single citizen appeared." You would think that tax payers of any size town would have enough interest in the way that their money would be spent to appear at such important meetings, but it is downright shocking to know that a city with a 100,000 population did not have one citizen who was interested enough to take a few minutes to attend the budget hearing.

Furthermore, I'm betting that if the city commission had voted to increase the tax rate, which is usually the case in these days of inflation, that immediately after the story appeared in the local paper about the jacked up tax rate there would be more people crowded into city hall complaining than there would be at a college football game.

It's my opinion they wouldn't have a gripe coming since they didn't take any interest in the matter beforehand.

Recently, we were handed some booklets that used to appear in a product that was sold in grocery stores several years ago. These booklets contained children's stories, jokes, etc. No one around our office will admit they are old enough to remember these little "gems". So... do you remember these? "What does a cat have that no other animal has?—Kittens." "Why shouldn't a little boy study arithmetic when he first goes to school?—It is so full of bad examples."

"Why do men's whiskers turn gray before the hairs on their head?—Because they work their jaws more than their brains."

If you remember the product that distributed these booklets and approximately the years they were published, drop us a note with a little history of how things in general were at that time.

A couple of weeks ago in an ad that was paid for by the 4 Operating Railroad Brotherhoods of Slaton, a figure appeared that was erroneous. It should have read, "American Railroad Companies would save $99,000,000 (six hundred million dollars)."

Awards and Rules Re-Told

Enter every week!

The large number of ballots brought to the Slatonite office before the Tuesday noon deadline this week indicates that the fun has just begun!

Three weekly cash prizes are to be given for 10 weeks. First place weekly winner gets $5; 2nd — $3; 3rd — $2; and two Cotton Bowl tickets will go to each of the two top season winners.

Remember — judging will be on basis of number of winners picked each week from the area and Southwest Conference games listed on the page ad published by the sponsoring merchants. The indicated scores will be considered only as "tie-breakers" in instances where two or more contestants guess the equal number of winning teams.

Procedure is simple: just fill out the coupon, sign it and have it validated by any of the sponsoring firms, then get it in the hands of the Slatonite by Tuesday noon of the following week.

Watch for the first winners next week! Your name may head the list!

Litter Receptacles Are In Plans for City Sidewalks

Water Rate Adjustments Looming In Face of Canadian Water Use

Downtown Slaton is promised sidewalk litter receptacles by virtue of contract authorized Monday evening at the regular meeting of the Slaton City Commission.

The private firm of Litter Maids of America was represented at the Monday session by Winn Buck of Hereford who explained the proposal of his company. No cost was involved for the city with exception of periodic emptying of the containers. Financing is to be by lease of the metal containers to individual local advertisers at a lease of $2.50 per month. Commissioner Davis made a motion, seconded by Commissioner Eckert, for the city to enter into contract with the firm for a three year period. The motion carried by unanimous vote. The supplying firm is to furnish liability insurance on the containers and to assume all responsibility for proper maintenance. The receptacles will be anchored to the sidewalk with 2-inch pipe, and installation is anticipated within two weeks, according to assurances made to City Secretary Maxey.

-WEATHER-

Farmers hardly could ask for better seasonal weather than experienced the past two weeks. Rains of a week ago brought needed moisture, with the new week emerging with clear weather, moderate daytime temperatures and cool nights.

Last moisture of consequence was Friday of last week when the city gauge measured .5 inch.

Temperature readings from the Pioneer Natural Gas Co. records revealed a daytime average temperature of 71 degrees this week, nighttime average of 54.

Day to day readings, maximum and minimum, were:
Thursday 70-56
Friday 66-58
Saturday 66-54
Sunday 66-54
Monday 75-46
Tuesday 85-60

High Wednesday was near 90; and little temperature change is forecast for the weekend.

cities of the compact, with exception of Slaton and Lubbock, already have had at least one increase in water rates.

WARNING ISSUED

Warning was issued at the meeting that representatives of the city-county health unit would in the immediate future contact all citizens not connected to the sanitary sewer facilities of the city. These already have been contacted by city officials.

County Demos to Rally Sept. 20th in Lubbock

Slaton Democratic Party leaders are spreading the word this week of plans for "one of the largest Democratic Party get-togethers in the history of West Texas", scheduled at the Fair Park Coliseum in Lubbock on Thursday, Sept. 20th, commencing at 7 o'clock in the evening.

County chairman Ralph Brock has been quoted as saying "all the Democratic nominees on the ticket — from the state level through the county level in the 19th Congressional District and the surrounding territory—have been invited to be on hand".

Heading the list will be gubernatorial nominee John Connally, Lt. Gov. nominee Preston Smith, Atty Gen. nominee Waggoner Carr, State Sen. nominee H. J. (Doc) Blanchard and many, many more. U.S. Congressman George Mahon will also be on adding to the jovial atmosphere evident throughout the program. John Schmidt, Chamber of Commerce president, welcomed the guests, with response given by B. A. Darby who gave assurance that "we farmers know affairs of this type don't just happen, they are worked for and planned for". Invocation was given by Roy Verner, minister of the Church of Christ.

Hosts of door prizes were awarded, with cheer leaders of the local school, dressed western style, delivering the prizes. The prizes ran the gamut from gift certificates to skillsaws, gas and oil for the family buggy, free bowling, anti-freeze and a large variety of other valuable gifts.

Free Inspection, Registration Of Bikes — Saturday

Ride a bicycle?

Then you are in for a free safety check, free installation of reflector tape, free registration, etc. at the city-wide Bike Safety Check slated this Saturday by joint endeavor of the Slaton Junior Chamber of Commerce and the city Police Department.

Don Kendrick, project chairman for the Jaycees, announces that all bike operators are invited and urged to avail themselves of the free safety check to be conducted Saturday, 2 p.m., at the West Ward School.

The number of the bike, make and owner's name will be recorded on police files here, aiding in recovery of lost or stolen bikes.

More than 200 bicycles were inspected in a similar check here last year.

Tax Refund Claim Due in September

Annual claims for refund of federal excise tax paid on gasoline, used on a farm or ranch for farming or ranching purposes, must be filed with the Internal Revenue Service district director by October 1.

According to IRS Dallas District Director Ellis Campbell, Jr., refund claim should be made on Form 2240 for gasoline used between July 1, 1961, and June 30, 1962.

Forms and a helpful booklet, "Farmer's Gas Tax Refunds," are available at IRS, or County Agricultural Agent offices.

Tiger-Buffalo Test Was Dead Heat with 8-8 Score

Idalou Game Expected To Provide Acid Test

A loyal and enthusiastic crowd following from Slaton outnumbered the host Petersburg crowd in the football season opener for both teams Friday, a game that Monday morning quarterbacks of both towns deemed disappointed with its 8-8 final score.

Though the field was relatively fast, with only light showers prior to the starting whistle, play was ragged for both teams in their initial test.

Petersburg found paydirt in the second stanza when Gary Loyd plunged over the goal line from three yards out. Stanley Self ran the two points across.

The single Slaton thrust came late in the final quarter when Ronnie Jones connected with Jerry Teffertiller on a 9-yard scoring pass, followed by Bruce Pember passing to Jones for the two tying points.

Each team had touchdowns called back, Slaton suffering when a Pember-Jones pass and 62-yard play was nullified by a clipping penalty at the 20 yard

Despite Vociferous Demands

Voting Booth Question Tables Until After November Election

Reminder that the question of voting machines for Lubbock County will be placed in the hands of the voters at November elections was emphasized Monday morning when county commissioners were faced with demands that voting booths be immediately provided.

Action on the booths was postponed, with Commissioner Arch Lamb observing "If the voting machines are defeated, then I will personally start beating the drums for voting booths. If we are going to change the method of holding elections here, we have to consider the people, and since as many persons have told me they are opposed to voting machines as have told me they favor them, we must wait for the results of the election. We cannot presume to come into the court here and decide to do as we please." Syd Moore, county can party chairman, a party members, after Monday morning court session, demand chase of booths prior general election. A lenient lack of past voting machine the county was lauded Mrs. Charles H. Gibbs further questioned need ing bonds for the machine, stating that "I meant on the county improvement fund. We the same fund be used chase the voting machine. The commission explain long-time planning enal jail improvements, and same planning would be (Continued on Back 1

EDITORIAL SPEAKING

Observations and Potpourri

International politics hardly is the forte of a weekly paper. The big publications are covering the front more than adequately, what with their editors, analysts, foreign correspondents and syndicated lists.

There are only a few weekly community papers, with the exception of the Tulsa Herald, Texas Observer and a handful of others, that purport their responsibility to the masses.

The Slatonite prefers to follow a more difficult road, discussing issues closer to home (issues on which we can be checked!).

This week we'll digress, just long enough to show that we do read other publications, that we are aware of newsworthy events transpiring far and wide, and that we are not oblivious to the election year overtures from both our Democratic and Republican contacts in Capital Territory.

World events seem to be breaking on schedule.

In the November elections looming on the horizon, basic issues again are coming into the head-line. We even hear the chest beating of Senator Phogey, et al, proclaim defense of the Monroe Doctrine, a study of military aid to countries with question-begging ties, and (perish the thought) revision of the budget.

Blood pressure isn't getting any higher regarding the Cuba fiasco. For the simple reason that we have been apprehensive and alarmed for years at the situation there. Now, in the shadow of the 1962 elections, the solons are talking, and talking good. So our 20-20 vision has been unable to discern any promise of action to support the belated outcries.

One day the situation is bound to explode, on a scale of Uncle Joe's making, not ours. Things are bad in Cuba. We submit that for much too long the tail has been wagging the dog; Mr. Castro and his Cuban uncle have aggravated hemispheric tranquility beyond the point of return.

Now or later we must act, the task compounded by our dilatory (or naive) attitude that has permitted a thicket to grow into a bramble bush. Worldwide conflagration would be set off as we attempt to rectify a situation that yesteryear would have demanded only honest words or a skirmish at the most.

As we cast our editorial glances toward Cuba, we must remember another situation, just a little farther from whence come rumblings of Puerto Rican revolt for statehood. And, personally, we believe that it is eminent, at least in some future time.

Reason for the desire from that Caribbean territory to become a state is obscure to us. Already they have established communications and transportation links with the United States; they have representation (without voting power, however) in the congressional halls at Washington, and they have ready access to the Yankee dollar.

There is nothing amiss with that group's desire for independence. In fact we are flattered. But we do see some error in acceptance of Puerto Rico into the close embrace of the United States. As much as we love our Alaskan friends, Hawaiian music and our Puerto Rican beverages, we question the advisability of expanding our boundaries over the waters. We are aware of certain results which could ensue from the trend.

There are those who sincerely believe the trend will continue. We have our bases throughout the world; we should back up our investment by open addition of the territories. Time will tell.

It would be the first to roar if Russia openly declared Cuba as a Russian state.

World politics no longer make sense to us. The crazy, conflicting patterns are confusing. To say the least, a challenge faces the new generation, and we can only pray it looks no more forbidding to them than did our stage of world problems.

Our grandchildren may well be studying, without sentiment, the 63 states of the Union, the Russo-American stalemate on moon territories, and the fact of the World government.

Are we to have par-fetched hallucinations? Who knows?

What is a Friend? I'll tell you. A friend is a person with whom you dare to be yourself. A friend is one with whom you dare to yourself. A friend is one with whom you dare to yourself.

The dollar today is like a Texas Panhandle quarter — built for speed, not endurance.

In the olden days the family spent considerable time waiting for granny's glasses. Nowadays she just leaves them where she empties them.

Ideas are like children — wonderful if they're your own!

LOOK HOW CLEAN MODERN ELECTRIC HOME HEATING IS!

EVEN A SNOW WHITE HANKERCHIEF STAYS CLEAN WITH ELECTRIC HEAT

From home after home where electric house heating has been installed, you hear comments like these:

"Dusting is practically unnecessary..."
"Drapes just never seem to get dirty."
"We haven't had to redecorate in years."
And, then, electric heat homeowners volunteer information like,
"There just aren't any cold drafts or hot blasts."
"We've never felt so completely comfortable."
"It's amazing, there's just no maintenance to pay for or worry about."
Clean and comfortable — that's electric heat. And more economical than you believe possible. Ask your Public Service manager about electric heat — including a special heating rate.

Notes from Neighbors: Events and Opinions

From the Exchanges of the Slatonite

(Editor's Note: The following article comes to us via way of the Petersburg Journal, a lively little paper whose editor, Tom Suits, begins his pithy column each week with the caption, "The Listening Post — uncensored — we cut our timber where we find it, and let the chips fall where they may!")

Never Underestimate Us Farmers!

Mrs. George A. Burns, Milan, Minn., farm wife, is just an ordinary person, she says. But she's no ordinary writer. In a letter recently sent to her Governor, Elmer L. Anderson, she vigorously voices her views, to which we say, "Amen." Here is her letter.

"I don't know about the rest of you farmers, but I am getting fed up with the way we are blamed for doing a good job. Every time we pick up a paper or a magazine, hear a radio or TV broadcast, we are told that the farmers are creating a terrible problem for the country. I think it is time for us farmers to start telling our country how lucky it is that we are doing a good job.

"It is ridiculous that we have allowed our wonderful talent for producing food to be turned into a criminal act. We farmers actually have guilt complexes because we are superior artists in our profession. Instead, we should be proud of it. The whole country should be proud of it. We have increased our productivity many times more than any other business in this country in the last 10 years, and it is productivity that creates wealth and progress. I think the country should set up statues in every town honoring the farmers.

"Can you think of anything better in this world than a thick, juicy steak and flaky potatoes, hot buttered rolls and apple pie? And how would you like it if you couldn't get a meal like that? Now I don't care whether the statue is a farmer mounted on a tractor or a steer with a baked potato on its back, but I think it is time that this country starts appreciating its good fortune in having talented farmers instead of cutting them to bits with sharp words.

"Agriculture used to be called the backbone of this country, but in recent years, it has slipped south a little. Of course, we farmers have been sitting back on our tractors and letting ourselves be pelted from all sides instead of telling our story. And I mean our real story, not the distorted one that makes popular reading. Our wonderful astronauts are honored for their great courage and bravery. And if you don't think it takes bravery to be a farmer these days, you aren't a farmer.

"We farmers have earned the right to hold our heads high and tell our attackers to go eat a big steak. These same attackers never stop to wonder, out loud or in print, what would happen to the price of food if we farmers weren't efficient.

"If I sound as though I think our farmers are practically Einsteins, it's because I think they are. If you don't agree, take a look at the Russian farmers. Russia, with her supposed superiority in scientific advancements, isn't in the same league with us when it comes to farming. I say that our farmers aren't a problem; they're a blessing.

"I know how much hard work, mental and physical, it takes to be a good farmer these days, and I am very proud to be a farmer. So, to all the farmers in this country, I salute you."

Spur Considers Water Use Penalties

The water problem, which is still critical, came in for a good portion of discussion by the City Council in their regular meeting Tuesday night.

Spur residents have apparently ignored warning by the City that the water situation was serious, and are continuing to water lawns.

Drastic measures were discussed by the Council to impress upon the people that the water is low in the City reservoir. A fine was discussed, and it was also suggested that the water might be shut off at night at a certain hour and then turned on again before morning.

"If the people will bear with us, I think the situation will clear up in another week," said Spur Mayor Buddy Hoover. "By that time most of the farmers will be through irrigating and the City wells should come back to full capacity," he said.

The wells were pumping only 210 gallons per minute Tuesday. Water Superintendent Jewel Steele said the City would have run out of water last week end if a couple of lines had not broken.

When residents noticed the muddy water, they shut off the water thinking the supply was diminished.

Dickens is also low on water according to a report from Dickens Mayor Watt Holley. He advised Dickens service stations to stop washing cars early this week.

First Bale Again Burned

After a fire Tuesday night about 9:30 in the first bale of cotton for the year, the night after the bale was brought in and placed in front of the Chamber of Commerce office, the police department requested O'Neal Spencer, owner of Pleasant Hill Gin, to take it back out to the gin because it was a fire hazard.

This is the third year in a row the first bale has caught fire. Last year, there were 3 alarms on the night the first bale was brought in, Fire Chief E. L. Hill said. —DENVER CITY PRESS

Now It's Ice-Sitting!

There must have been some records set Saturday afternoon at the City Natatorium, although not for swimming. Feature event for the afternoon was ice-sitting and 16 youngsters tried their balance and endurance on blocks of ice placed in the pool by Mike Watson, manager, and his assistants.

Tying for first place in the girl's division with one hour and 35 minutes sitting time were Blair Coker and Susan Faires. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Coker, 2401 Bryan, and Mr. and Mrs. James O. Faires, Cooper Highway.

The winner perched on the ice for one hour and 53 minutes to top championship for the boys' division.

Flattery for the Rotarians

Imagine the combination of dismay and pride which members of the Austin Rotary Club must have felt Tuesday when an FBI agent told them that they were given "top priority" by that vast shadowy legion of Soviet spies lurking around the country.

Dr. Fern C. Steukenboeker, according to the Austin Think-majig, "has been personally appointed by J. Edgar Hoover to appear throughout the U.S. as an FBI speaker on communism." His startling revelation to the Rotarians: official Soviet diplomats were assiduously trying to cultivate the friendship of U.S. businessmen in order to wrest vital classified information from them.

World Leaders Featured in Tech Course Offered Via Way of TV

A list of distinguished guests, including the president of the United States and a former president, will headline the College of the Air economics course sponsored by Texas Tech's economics department this fall.

The course, entitled "The American Economy," will seek to provide at least the minimum degree of economics literacy recommended for all Americans. It will begin Tuesday, Sept. 25. President John F. Kennedy and former President Dwight D. Eisenhower will be two of the 46 guest lecturers on the five half-hour lessons each week on television. The weekly sessions on KLBK-TV will be from 6:30 to 7 a.m., with a one-hour Saturday class scheduled at Tech at 11 a.m.

Jarvis Witt of Tech's economics department will coordinate the campus class, with Dr. John R. Coleman of Carnegie Institute of Technology as the national television teacher.

The Economics 231 course, which carries three hours of residence credit at Tech, is being sponsored by the American Economic Assn., the Joint Council on Economic Education and the National Task Force on Economic Education. Twelve non-profit organizations, who are members of the Learning Resources Institute are also sponsors.

Transit students may also receive credit for the course at another school, Witt pointed out. The CBS-network class will be devoted to economic content four days of the week, with the teaching of economics in the secondary school curriculum scheduled on the fifth day of the week. Dr. John H. Haefner, associate for teacher education, will conduct the teaching class.

Aims of the course are to help today's citizens understand the economic world in which they are everyday participants and to help tomorrow's citizens by furthering the economic education of their teachers.

Summer Camp Well Attended

Among the 1,206 girls and boys attending the Hermann Sons Youth Summer camp at Comfort, Texas, this summer were five Slaton youths, Helen and Linda Kahlich, John Franke and Wayne and David Kahlich.

Attendance was an all-time record. The previous record, set in 1961, had been 989 campers.

The camp is free on a merit basis to junior members of the statewide fraternal order. Built in 1954 and expanded several times in ensuing years, the camp has been exclusively for girls for half of each summer, and exclusively for boys the other half. During the first part of this summer, 92 cities and towns were represented by 710 girl campers in six sessions of one week's duration each. Sixty-eight communities were represented by 496 boys who each enjoyed a week of camp life during the second half of summer.

Legend of "Madonna of the Chair" Is Related by Slaton Contributor

By IRA R. KEYS

Madonna meant "my lady", many hundreds of years ago, to the Italians addressing women. It is most suggestive of mother love, and expresses much respect. Artists call pictures of the Christ Child and his mother "Madonnas" largely because of the meaning of the word. "Sculptors in oil" usually take their own ideal of womanhood for their model. They transpose a sister, mother, or wife into beauty and dignity of motherhood, as well as the innocence and purity of childhood.

The FIRST "Madonna of the Chair" is circular. Like most famous paintings, it has been copied and slightly changed many times since its original. The premier shows a mother seated in a chair, clasping the Christ Child, while St. John stands near with his hands clasped in devotion, admiration, or prayer. She wears a scarf of many colors around her shoulders and another around her head, the custom of the women of Italy in Raphael Sanzio's (the painter) time. The coloration of the picture shows to the world, the artist's vivid imagination.

According to the legend; a hermit lived in the hills of Italy whose name was Father Bernardo. The hermit was kind and well loved by the peasants who much respected him for his advice and kind counsel. Loneliness must have been a large part of his life, for he often spoke of his two children, the daughter of a vine dresser and a large oak tree whose branches shaded his little home. Mary often brought him joy as she shine while he carried with his other "daughter".

The oak tree was beset decay after many years but protected by the old hermit the woodmen who wanted it.

Father Bernardo climb oak tree to escape the rage of the water from the rains down the mountain. Mary him clinging to it's branches after the water had receded and took him to her home. He had recovered from the deal he often prayed for his children, Mary and the that blessing might come them for saving his life.

In the years to come, was married and was the father of two healthy baby boys the proud oak was cut down. Mary's father to be made wine casks.

While Mary was sitting the two sons, the great Raphael Sanzio, happened and was so carried away by setting, he immediately set painting the three on the back of the wine cask made the mighty oak. The desecrated Father Bernardo had come and his two daughters made famous for all time come.

A good thing to remember in these days of confusion is that there is going to be a tomorrow as well as a day and yesterday.

The history of the U.S. is changed by a pocketknife. Geo. Washington's motto gave him a pocketknife to join the British Navy.

A home is hardly a home unless it contains food for the mind as well as the body.

Teachers are prophets who can look into the future and see the world of tomorrow into which the children of today must fit.

The vocation of every man and woman is to serve people.

We really enjoy... Come... You?

There's a Friendly Church Near You

"Going Somewhere?"

To you who may not know: this is a horse and buggy!

Doubtless, the man with the reins selected the best in quality and style. That meant good transportation for a long time to come; and satisfaction with it.

But it wouldn't quite fill the bill today. Transportation has changed—from horses to horsepower; from steel rims to chrome trim; from weight to wings. Oats have given place to jet fuel. We're really on our way! Are we? Where are we going?

Man needs guidance today more than ever—superior guidance beyond himself. He needs fuel and energy, too, that afford more "get up and go"—in the right direction—than the finest of octane fuels. MAN NEEDS GOD!

You have heard that before, but have you heeded?

The church still stands with its open door; with its spire pointing heavenward. Its friendly invitation and marvellous message are yours for the taking. Take them and you have God. Having Him, you have everything. Not only will you be on our way; you will get there.

Jaycee-ettes To Resume Meetings

Slaton Jaycee-ettes garnered nearly $30 in their bake sale Saturday at Teague Drug, getting their new year off with a financial lift.
Regular meetings of that group will now be resumed after the summer intermission, with the sessions to be held the fourth Thursday evening of each month. Next meeting will be in the home of the president, Mrs. L. H. King, at Southland.
Officers are Mrs. King, Mrs. Wayne Banks, vice president; Mrs. Jerold Darper, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Bill Ware, historian. The leaders urge all wives of Jaycee members to attend this first meeting with view to becoming active members of the organization.

Mrs. Draper, reporter, has asked that appreciation of the club be extended all those buying at the bake sale, those preparing it and to the firm furnishing the location.

FOSTERS RETURN FROM TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Foster have returned home after visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Waymon Muse and small son, Wayne Odell, of Imperial Beach, California. Muse is an electronic instructor, stationed at Ream Field, Naval Air Base. Mrs. Leonard reports the visit with the grandson, 3 1/2 months of age, was the most rewarding part of her trip while the highlight for her husband was winning the jackpot for catching the largest fish while deep sea fishing off the coast of Imperial Beach.

One out of each 143 school age children have crossed eyes.

Teamwork Prevents Accidents

Railroad Events..

By JUNE S. SPIKES

HERE AND THERE It's mighty nice to see Mr. E. W. Pike back on the job after several months illness. Emory is the Assistant Supervisor of Diesel Engines and is taking over again from Tom Kelton who has been relieving him during his illness. Another face we are real glad to see back on the division is the pleasant one of Special Agent E. A. Nelson who is back to work after having had surgery in the Topeka Hospital, and we know Elmer is mighty glad to be back. Trainmaster's Clerk J. E. Miles and family believe Santa Claus is making his trip early this year — they had a surprise housewarming given them by a few of their many friends last week to make them feel more comfortable in their new home. Relief Clerk Billie Pitts has been cut off in force reduction and has moved to Tulsa, Oklahoma — we of the Division Office are all hoping Billie will be back occasionally to help us out during vacation times — we are all going to miss her.

Merton, one of our stations on the "Orient" was closed effective August 31st. We are sorry to report six of our brakemen and two of our switchmen have been cut off in force reduction — but we're hoping to get them back on soon. File Clerk Vivian Williams attended the Annual Homecoming at Hamlin, Texas, this past weekend, and a number of other railroaders got there, I am sure (they always seem to have quite a ball!).

Visitors around the Division Office this past week include Henry Green, who has been back on the Slaton Division helping with some signal work around Abernathy — Henry is located in Amarillo now, but it is always nice to have these old friends come back for a spell.

Air Brake Supervisor Cecil Ray also was around with some of his Colleagues doing some special work on our little old Division. There is a rumor by way of the grapevine that Williams Cooper will be back with the Mechanical Department at Slaton again soon — be nice to have he and Almo back in Slaton as well as on the railroad.

Vacations just seem to have played out — like I said last week, everyone must be getting their young ones settled back in the old school routine or else they are waiting for bird season or deer season or whatever it is these railroaders are always going "huntin' for"!

Our sick list is a little short this week too which is mighty fine — We are glad to report that Superintendent J. P. Spears, Newton, is doing nicely after having had surgery at Topeka. Also on the improving list is Mrs. Gus Seel who is home now and convalescing from quite a stay in the hospital following a car wreck.

Wish some of you railroaders would keep me posted on the news — I am pretty nosey, but

What a man has in his heart is more important to his family than what he has in his pocket or bank account.

I am sure there is a lot of news that could go in this column which I am missing out on. How about it?

TELEPHONE TALK by Ken Garrett, Manager

SEPTEMBER SONG September, for many little ones in Slaton, means first day of school. Which brings to mind a story I heard recently. A young mother was patiently trying to teach her year-old daughter her home address in preparation for her coming kindergarten debut. After her daughter repeatedly omitted or forgot a portion of the correct address, the mother asked, "what will you do when the teacher asks you where you live, Debbie?" After a moment's hesitation, Debbie replied, "Michael answer first, then I'll tell my teacher that I live across the street from him." By golly, I'll bet Debbie does all right in school.

THOUGHT ON TELSTAR Recalling the millions of dollars the Bell System is developing and launching the highly-successful Telstar satellite, one of our engineers tells me it's a good thing the world is round. "Just think," he says, "what a square satellite would have cost!"

COOK'S BEST FRIEND What's the cook's best friend? Well, salt and pepper would rank high on the list, but for my money, a kitchen extension telephone would rate tops. A kitchen phone lets you feed the baby, check the grocery list, or stir the stew — and keep right when the phone rings. A kitchen extension costs less than four pennies a day — mighty low cost when you consider all the step-saving convenience it gives.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT In Japan, there are two ways to get telephone service. People who can wait three years for their phones to the Nippon Telegraph Corporation, a government subsidized company. They must buy a $450 bond, cannot be redeemed for 10 years, and also pay a stallation charge.

A quicker but more expensive way is to go to a phone broker. This costs from $500 to $1,500, and the customer is really in a hurry.

There are an estimated one million people on the phone waiting list in Japan — 210,000 in Tokyo alone. Like I said, it's something to think about.

Old Friends

By J. J. Maxey

One day last week our attention was called to the fact that we had inadvertently overlooked reporting an ex that had paid her dues during the reunion. I am afraid that there were several others whose names did not get in the paper but we can assure all that they have been credited with their dues. Mrs. Donald Webb (Norma Bickers), class of 1947, paid her dues while attending the reunion and it was turned in to Mrs. Shepard who deposited it in the bank and some way we never did get the name to publish. We are sorry Norma. Norma is now living in Dimmitt, Texas and gets her mail at P.O. Box 12.

My golfing neighbor, Phil Brewer, class of 1944, slipped off last week and went fishing. Phil reports he and Alex Webb caught trout until they slipped down. They were fishing on the Conejos River near Antonito, Colorado. It seems that Alex is a better than average camp cook.

Evelyn Dunlap (Evelyn Saage), class of 1938, just happened to meet an old Slatonite in Dave Sanders grocery store last week. Mrs. Kathryn Loewen (Kathryn Parks), class of 1924, was just passing through. She said that it was the first time that she had been in Slaton since her graduation from High School. She now lives at 1910 North Oak Street, Mineral Wells, Texas.

Pauline Scott (Pauline English), class of 1930, came to my rescue this week with quite a bit of information that we can pass on to you. First a list of our younger exes that will be away from home at college this year. Those attending Texas Tech from the class of 1962 will be Dana Heaton, Ann Wright, Catha Walker, Nancy Johnston, Olivia Sanders, Dick Martin, Dick Marriott and Sharon Perdue. I am sure that all of these kids will be missed at home and around town in almost everything that is going on. I know that Sharon Perdue will be missed at the First Baptist Mission since she has been playing the piano for us there since Patsy Pettigrew started to college last year. Randy Sanders, class of 1959, will also be attending Texas Tech this year. James Harlan Wright will be in Sul Ross College at Alpine, Texas, Don Edwards at North Texas State Teachers College, Denton, Dannie Edwards at San Angelo Junior College, Patsy Pettigrew, class of 1961, at Baylor University, Waco, Melinda Clifton and Joyce Gamble both of the class of 1962 and Steve Smith, class of 1961, will be at West Texas State Teachers College, Canyon. Cathy Smith will return to Wayland Baptist College at Plainview where she has made an excellent record the past two or three years.

Pauline also reports that Peggy Ray, class of 1958, has graduated from McMurray College in Abilene and will teach in Midland this year.

Tracy Crawford, class of 1956, was a recent visitor in Slaton. Tracy was visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Garrigues and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crawford. Tracy's present address is 1004 South 5th Street, Waco, Texas.

Pauline also told us an interesting thing concerning the ex-students news letter that is mailed to all exes that we have correct addresses for each month. It seems that one particular letter is addressed to an ex in care of the Santa Fe at San Angelo and this fellow is no longer employed there. The letter is passed around to all ex Slatonites employed by the Santa Fe there and they enjoy it very much.

I made the mistake of publishing the golf score of a relative

31st Annual State Prison Rodeo Will Feature Noted Guest Stars

A star-studded cast of the nation's topflight entertainment and sports personalities will make personal appearances at the 31st Annual Texas Prison Rodeo to be held at Huntsville in the State prison's $1 Million stadium each Sunday in October.

On October 7, the star attraction will be Rex Allen, better known as "Mr. Cowboy," and his famous horse, Koko. The celebrities to be featured on Oct. 14 include Anita Bryant, recording artist, who rose to fame with Bob Hope; and Ann Marston, a nationally-famous archer.

For the October 21 show, the star will be none other than Willie Mays, stellar baseball mainstay of the National League's San Francisco Giants.

For the final showing of the rodeo on Oct. 28, Dan Blocker, who portrays the role of "Hoss" Cartwright in the weekly Bonanza television series, will be here to round out a stellar two-hour show, beginning at 2 p.m.

Aside from the stars, there will be tough riders contesting tougher prison-produced rodeo stock in a number of thrilling events. These include the mad scramble, bareback bronc riding, saddle bronc riding, Brahman bull riding, wild horse race and the famous closing chariot race.

Prison musical groups will also be on hand to entertain the crowds expected at this year's prison rodeo. One of the groups is the Goree Girls, featuring Candy Barr, former Dallas night club entertainer.

Be still

"And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us." Psalm 90:17

In a mountain valley air is clean
And long-leaved cottonwoods dot the scene.
There a dancing stream all day long
Sings to the wind a happy song.
Rainbow trout in this Alpine brook
Leap to swallow a baited hook —
Oh God, who made such beauty be,
In gratitude, we do thank Thee!

OPTOMETRY: The Art and Science of Visual Care

20/20 WAS good enough...

For Mr. Snellen, who invented that vision test in 1863. But not for today's needs, for much more is involved.

Children in school today do not learn at 20 feet but at near distances, 10 to 18 inches away. That's why testing for skillful vision at "near" is so important. Evidence shows that most children who fail the 20-foot test usually are in the UPPER fourth of their class.

Seeing problems increase as the grade advances. In grade school 9 per cent, in high school 24 per cent, and in college 40 per cent of the students have deficient vision.

Be sure YOUR child is examined for NEAR vision. That's important!

MERLE KING, SOCIETY EDITOR

The Slatonite Thursday, September 13, 1962

Mr. and Mrs. Max Arrants announce the marriage of their daughter, Barbara, to Delmar Wilke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Wilke of Southland, Texas, on August 21, 1962.

you a little about a lot of things.

Our trip: Our schedule worked out perfectly. The plane ride was thrilling, to say the least. We crossed the Atlantic without seeing it — Part of the time it was dark and then we were above the clouds, so could not see the ocean and didn't realize we had come so far. Becky was very pleased to get to use a seat belt on take-offs. Joe met us in Tunis and we stayed in the hotel one night before driving to Sfax. He had two dozen red carnations in our suite! It was a happy reunion for all of us.

Our home: We have an attractive two bedroom house with a nice yard — no grass, of course but flowers and trees. The only grass I have seen is in the cemetery and the public parks. We live near three other American families which is good, as I can walk to visit them. We have a refrigerator with a small freezer, a luxury here — many people display them in their living rooms. We use butane gas — does it ever cook fast? Sometimes I feel like a bride burning everything she cooks. Our neighbors have three little girls, age 9, 6, and 3 and Nancy and Becky play with them some when I can supervise. The Arabs don't think as Americans do, and we find them unkind at times. Other times the girls have fun playing, singing, and dancing together.

The climate: Lovely! We use no fans, but manage to stay comfortable most of the time. The temperature is usually around 85 degrees, I think, and as long as we are out of the sun, it is very pleasant. One day we had a wind off the desert and it was very hot. But actually we don't realize that we are near the Sahara since we get sea breezes.

The sea: A new and wonderful experience for us. As a dry-land girl all my life, I hadn't expected to take to this beach life. But I love it! We go to the beach 2 or 3 times each week, more or less, depending on how many afternoons Joe can get by without working. Joe has bought some skin-diving equipment and all of us are enjoying exploring the sea floor. He is even learning to spear fish. All of us look rather Arabic with our suntans.

Our maid: It didn't take me long to adjust to this new aspect of my life! Haven't mopped a floor since I have been here, have washed a few dishes and in general am getting too lazy to earn my keep. Plan to enjoy it while I can. Najee even turns our beds down at night. How about that? Of course, she doesn't do everything my way, but she tries awfully hard. She is just 17 years old, an Arab who speaks poor French, but she is quick to understand my sign language so we get along well. She works as many hours a day as we want her and earns $7.20 a week — good wages here.

Our food: This is an awfully broad subject, and of course, my main duty here, Najee isn't a good cook — few Arabs are. They eat couscous (cush-cush), the national dish made of steam-are as modern sights also as in Big Spring or San Angelo, etc. There are places down in town such as a children's park and little flower gardens that are breath-takenly beautiful.

Our church: There are 2 missionary couples here from the North African Missionary Society, an independent group from the U.S. (Protestant). However, one is on furlough in the States and the other is on vacation right now. Every other Sunday they have a service in French in the church (during the fall, that is) and the other Sundays they meet in their home and have a tape recorded sermon. This doesn't mean much to our girls, I am afraid. But Joe reads them the Bible and I have literature from S. S. for them. So, it works out as well as possible.

Schooling: Nancy and Becky are registered at a French school. Children here start at 5 years of age, so Becky may go if she wants to. She is undecided. We feel that she will be very lonely with Nancy away all day. School starts the 1st of October. Nancy and I are working on her 4th grade American lessons now.

Monday — Well, here it is Monday and I don't have this ready to mail. Since starting this, we have had some interesting experiences. We went to a French movie, "Ivanhoe" starring Robert and Liz Taylor and it seemed awfully strange hearing them speak French. The comedy was in English, so we had the first laugh there. Then we went to an International Circus Friday night. It was better than I had anticipated. There was a cowboy from Texas and we suspected that he had never seen a horse, much less Texas. We played bridge last night with the French couple I mentioned. He has played in tournaments and is an excellent player. They are a very charming couple, very quiet and polite and speak French with a beautiful French accent.

It is almost time for Debbie's birthday. Hope she has a very happy one and finds her new

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

Senator Culp Krueger of El Campo, a newspaper publisher and radio station owner, is planning to "put the big pot in the little one" sure - enough when he becomes Governor-for-a-Day on September 8.

Krueger not only is inviting all his friends and neighbors to help him celebrate the event at El Campo, but he is bringing a lot of state officials to show his hometown folks how government works.

At least a dozen state boards will have their September meetings in El Campo. For example, the State Highway Commission will be on hand to explain why by-pass loop highways are good for small towns.

Theme of the state agency meetings and exhibits will be "Progress of Progress for Small Towns of Texas."

Senator Krueger's aim is to show that rural districts like his can be, and are being, helped by the state government.

He has drawn fire from a colleague. Sen. Doyle Willis of Fort Worth, for having a lot of state officials and employees make the trek to El Campo for the day. But he's going ahead with his plans, and many state agencies are cooperating.

WHAT'S AN INDUSTRY?

School Land Board is going to have to decide before long what the Legislature meant when it said state-owned islands and submerged lands along the inland waters of Texas could be leased by the Land Board for "industrial purposes" only.

For example, Fort Aransas wants to lease some state land for a city airport. Is that an "industrial" use?

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler, chairman of the board, thinks it is. He wants to give a liberal interpretation to the term.

A study of the law by the Attorney General's department has provided no judicial interpretations by Texas courts of the term "industrial." But they can take their choice from courts of other states. There are interpretations range from "manufacturing only" to one case where the courts held that rice farming was an industrial activity.

CONVENTION TIME

Democratic and Republican leaders are busy planning their state party conventions to be held on September 18. Republicans meet in Fort Worth, Democrats meet in El Paso.

For the first time in many years careful attention is being paid to the party platforms.

Two big endorsements given to John Connally, the Democratic nominee for governor, hinge on what the platform says. The State AFL-CIO and Political Association of Spanish-Speaking Organizations both want to make sure the platform is not in opposition to some of their hoped-for legislation before their endorsements take effect.

Because many Texans remain undecided, both parties hope to gain votes by what they say in their platforms. But the problem is the same as usual. They have to keep the friends they now have, while trying to attract new ones. So, the careful, slow and demanding process of democracy goes on and on.

BRIBERY?

Headlines told of possible payoffs to former Texas Railroad Commission officials working in the East Texas Field as the House General Investigating Committee delved into the crooked-hole scandal at public hearings.

Legislators headed by Rep. Charles Ballman of Berger are trying to find out what new laws are needed to stop such things. They have found that it is not a violation of criminal law to ignore Railroad Commission regulations by taking oil from under a neighbor's lease. It is merely a civil offense for which the state can try to collect $1,000 a day for each day of violation.

Theft is of course against the law. Federal law prohibits the transportation in interstate commerce of illegally-produced oil. But even that is a fine legal point in this situation.

Bribery is an offense, but hard to prove. Reports to the Railroad Commission must be sworn to, but in the land and insurance scandals the courts held that if the notary public didn't make the swearer hold up his hand and take an oath, it was not false swearing.

Attorneys for some of the oil operators laid a predicate as a defense against possible contempt charges growing out of perjury of failure of some witnesses to appear, by contending that the investigating committee was illegal. Argument is based on the fact that three of its five members did not run for reelection to the House.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson, who headed the investigation, explained the legal short-comings to the committee. Previously, he had briefed district attorneys in counties in which crooked-hole drilling has been found.

So grand jury action may be expected next in this scandal which may make peanuts out of the Billie Sol Estes affair.

ANOTHER PARK

The poverty-stricken State Parks system, which doesn't have enough money to hire someone to pick up paper in some of its parks, is getting two more huge park areas. It will not be able to develop them unless the Legislature loosens the purse strings.

International Boundary and Water Commission, which is building a huge new reservoir on the Rio Grande near Del Rio, notified the Parks Board it will give a 550-acre tract for a state park.

Parks Board has hopes of getting 2,700 acres on Dam "B" in the Piney Woods country from the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. It wants to develop seven camping and boating areas around Dam "B", to be called Town Bluff State Park. Name comes from a town that was once the port through which supplies came to Tyler County before the railroads arrived.

SEWER PLANT GRANTS

A total of $3,200,000 in Federal grants to 46 Texas cities to improve their sewage disposal plants will be parceled out by the State Health Department and the Texas Water Pollution Control Board early this month. Congress has stepped up its efforts to help cities obtain health-protecting sewer systems. Federal grants, a maximum of 30 per cent of the cost, go up to $250,000.

SALTY WATER

Further supervision over oil operators was announced by the Texas Water Commission. It ruled that oilmen must get its approval before they inject salt water back into reservoirs from which it came.

Notice was given during hearings before the Railroad Commission at which oil operators asked permission to use oil wells for salt-water injection. Earlier, the Railroad Commission, informed by water people that oilfield salt-water disposal-pits were polluting the Colorado River, ordered oilmen to quit using the pits.

But Chief Engineer John Vandertulp said the water situation would not be improved if wells used to send the salt water deep underground had poor or faulty casings. He insisted that wells be checked to make sure the cure for one kind of pollution does not cause other types.

The Colorado River Municipal Water District, composed of Odessa, Snyder and Big Spring, joined in the questions. It has been forced to delay construction of another reservoir on the Colorado because the water in that area is so salty.

TEACHERS' NEST EGG

If teacher comes back to school smiling, it might be because she and the other 180,000 school and college faculties and employees have more than half a billion dollars in the bank. The state's teacher retirement fund ended its 25th year with $552,000,000 invested in stocks and bonds.

Investments are now advised by a group of leading bankers and investment experts. The Chase Manhattan Bank of New York is hired to advise on investments. Income from investments was almost $17,000,000 this year - enough to pay the retirement benefits to the 13,000 teachers or their survivors who are collecting from the fund. This year, 1,229 more retired.

The teacher retirement fund is larger than either the permanent school fund or the university permanent fund.

SLANT-HOLES AND LOOP-HOLES

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson says that in many cases present laws against false swearing on official documents "will not support prosecution," due to their weaknesses.

Wilson's conclusions reached as a result of drilling. In some cases false affidavits came from many as four different sources to the effect that the wells actually were not producing.

The Attorney General that definite proof of swearing offense is required. The notary public signed the oath after the employee of the accused had been interviewed.

JUST SUPPORT

Most popular among employees of Capitol dome is "just what would happen if a Republican were elected. It would mean that the state offices and GOP preponderance of government."

Most "political" expected that the Cox bid in November must be taken seriously to "ride the fence" after November election heard more frequently from long-time employees well as some members of Senate and House who are being realistic about strength of the Cox bid in their home-districts.

LIBY TEACHERS

Vice President Lyndon Johnson can always go to teaching school. J. W. Texas Commissioner of Education, has presented his lifetime certificate to either elementary or school.

Johnson started teaching grade school in Comal later taught high school in ton.

SPECIAL SESSION

Gov. Price Daniel has called to discuss the possibility of a special session of the legislature with the head of a House committee investigating slant wells.

Rep. Charles Ballman of Berger, chairman of the General Investigating Committee, has asked the Governor for a conference to discuss possible special session.

However, the governor has ed out to Ballman that he ready has authorized the road Commission to use additional available funds from sent appropriations to complete the commission's work in slant-hole probe.

Other state officials little support to the House committee's request for a special session.
