Wives for County Officials Monday by Commissioners

County officials, the County Commissioners Court voting at regular session to give public notice of intention of such raise. Final action on the salary raise (netting $83 per month for each affected official) will be taken at the September 9th meeting of the Court, with increases to become effective Sept. 15.

Receiving benefit of the increases will be the county and district clerks, county and district attorneys, county judges, judges of county courts-at-law No. 1 and 2, county commissioners, county tax assessor-collector, sheriff and county treasurer.

All these officials, with exception of commissioners, presently receive $8,910 annually the commissioners getting $6,490. In addition to regular salary, the tax assessor-collector receives $900 from the state for handling vehicle titles and registrations. Salaries for district judges were increased only recently when the court voted increases in the county's portion of these salaries.

Opposition to the increase was voiced at the meeting by Houston Boyd who appeared in person asserting the officials were being sufficiently paid already and also asking if the increase would come from tax sources. The court explained that officials' salaries, with exception of commissioners' pay, comes from the Officers Salary Fund which is derived from fees collected by the various offices. Commissioners are remunerated from their respective Road and Bridge Funds which are supplied by county taxes.

Slaton Office
County Judge Davis was authorized by commission action to sign a lease agreement with the City of Slaton for use of office space in the Slaton City Hall or office and courtroom for the justice of peace, Precinct 2. Terms were $600 for one year and $35 per month thereafter.

Slaton Delegates to Attend Austin Meet Called by Attorney General

Four Slaton young people will leave tomorrow to attend the Attorney General's Youth Conference in Austin, a meeting called by Attorney General Waggoner Carr in his program for curtailing youth crime, a concept in which Texas youth aid in bearing the responsibility, becoming "partners in fighting young adult crime."

Dr. J. Davis Armistead of Lubbock area conference chairman states that some 1,000 youths from over the state will be in attendance at the 2-day conference, August 17-18.

Local delegates and their sponsors are Steve Haliburton, sponsored by the school; Betty Cole, First Baptist Church; Jan Scott, First Methodist Church; and Dean Hatchett, Rotary Club. Sponsoring organizations are paying expenses for the trip. The local youths will leave with an area group via special bus, departing from Lubbock at 8:30 a. m. Friday, returning Sunday night.

Betty is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Cole, 155 South 6th; Steve the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Haliburton, 630 South 11th; Dean the son of Dr. and Mrs. Don Hatchett, 955 S. 19th; and Jan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Scott of 900 West Lynn.

The group was hosted Monday evening at an ice cream supper given by Dr. Armistead at his home in Lubbock.

Two Patrolmen Added; Fire Equipment Bought

Employment of two additional city patrolmen, one on full-time basis and the other a part-time employee, was authorized Monday evening at meeting of the Slaton City Commission.

Addition of these two patrolmen brings the local police department force to a total of nine employees, including Chief Joe Martin, five patrolmen, one secretary and two dispatchers.

Martin appeared before the Commission and requested the employment of Lawrence Wayne Luker, 22, on a full-time basis, and Tony David Valadez on part-time use. Martin cited the heavy load now carried by the police department, reporting that since August 1 the department had made 43 arrests, issued 25 traffic tickets and had investigated six accidents. He further stated that the present force had worked 71 hours overtime since July 27th, pointing out that when patrolmen are on duty 14 to 16 hours per day that they are not as alert as would be desirable.

Mayor Cain, in discussion of the request stated that he wondered if the city could afford these additional salaries. Commissioner Bownds said he felt the amount of overtime being paid was amounting to more than a full time salary.

After lengthy discussion, Bownds made the motion to follow Chief Martin's recommendations, with Commissioner Gonzales seconding; unanimous approval followed.

The two patrolmen commence their duties today, Luker at a beginning salary of $300 per month, increased to $335 after the 90-day probation period. Valadez will work on week-ends.

CITY LIMITS

Extension of the Slaton city limits was discussed, with Mayor Cain instructed on commission vote to contact the Texas League of Municipalities, asking for interpretation of new laws regarding annexations. No further action was taken.

Mayor Cain Tuesday received word from the League that after August 28th the city may extend its city limits by one mile without service commitments.

FIRE EQUIPMENT

After request by Fire Marshal Don Kendrick, the commission voted for purchase of two oxygen masks and 400 ft. of hose, representing total expenditure of $540, for fire department use.

Unanimous approval came on.

Added interest this year is centered around invitation of the local group to perform in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas on Oct. 8. One band from each Interscholastic League region in the state was extended invitation to play at the State Fair on "Music Day."

Registration Is Set on 27th, 3rd

Death Toll : 3; Others Injured in Highway 84 Head-on Crash Friday

THREE MET DEATH, three more were injured Friday evening in a near head-on collision near the Slaton city limits. At upper left an injured driver is shown still pinned within one of the vehicles, onlookers lifting the car from the dead and dying. Upper right reveals awed spectators to rescue efforts; and at lower left Highway Patrolmen and ambulance attendants prepare to rush the "still living" to Mercy Hospital. Note clothing items strewn in the foreground.

Highway 84 was utilized late Friday afternoon in snuffing out the lives of three women, injuring three men in another vehicle, and leaving four young children motherless.

Pronounced dead at the scene of the wreck near Triangle Manufacturing Co. just northwest of Slaton at 6:40 o'clock Friday evening was Miss Nancy Lee Thatcher, 18, of Spur. Dead on arrival at Mercy Hospital was Mrs. Alice M. Buck, 32, of Lubbock; and dying only a few hours later at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock was Mrs. Gaylyn Atkinson, 22, Lubbock resident who recently moved from Spur, and a onetime resident of Slaton.

The trio of women, according to reports of Investigating Patrolman James Johns, was driving toward Lubbock in a late model Pontiac, striking near head-on with a '63 Thunderbird in which three men were en route to Post. Donald N. Whittenburg, 24, Rt. 2, Levelland, was driver of that vehicle, with passengers James Williams in front seat and Fred James Webb in the rear, both of 2410 7th Street in Lubbock. All were hospitalized, Webb and Williams given emergency treatment at Mercy Hospital and released, Whittenburg transferred to a Lubbock hospital.

According to officers soon on the scene, the collision occurred in the southbound lane of the highway, with the car in which the three women were traveling "apparently going out of control" before the impact.

All three women were thrown from the car by the impact, their inert forms found underneath or near the other vehicle.

Mrs. Buck was the wife of J. W. Buck Jr., Lubbock, owner of the Buck Construction Company. Mr. Buck and a 12-year old son survive.

Mrs. Atkinson and Miss Thatcher were sisters, and the Thatcher girl had been visiting in the Lubbock home of Mrs. Atkinson, reported planning to move from Spur to attend school or work in Lubbock. Three children, ages 4 years, 2 years, and 9 months were left in the Atkinson home. Mr. Atkinson works for the Buck firm. Miss Thatcher was a '63 graduate of the Spur schools.

Lightning Scored Near Miss Sunday For Slaton Girl

Though not struck directly by lightning, Debbie Busby, 12-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brannon Busby of Union Road, suffered momentary paralysis of one arm Sunday night during the electrical display that accompanied the rain here.

Debbie, with her family, was just leaving the evening service at the First Baptist Church, wading water and with one hand on the car door as she prepared to enter the car, when the bolt struck in the vicinity. She was taken back into the church where emergency treatment was given by Dr. Locke.

No lasting ill effects ensued from the narrow escape, according to her mother later this week.

18. A full page of local news, a page of national news, several pages of sports and comics, one page on divorces and three pages on all the domestic troubles we are having in town.
19. Less stuff about how cute everybody else's kids are. My kids are better looking than those you rave about.
20. A complete biographical sketch about the "most important citizen in town," and be sure you spell my name right.

I have to live with myself, and so I want to be fit for myself to know. I want to be able, as days go by, Always to look myself straight in the eye. I don't want to stand at setting of sun And hate myself for the things I've done. I can never hide myself from me; I see what others may never see. I know what others may never know; I never can fool myself, and so Whatever happens, I want to be Self respecting and conscience free.

Fashions Again Scored

A few years back I wondered if women's fashion styles could get much worse than the sack dress. They did. If you haven't been jolted upright recently by a purple, red and magenta striped tent dress or a shift with orange dots, then, brother, you just haven't been associated with high society. I really admire these gals with the nerve to wear one of those awning colored dresses. If they were to illegally jaywalk across a city street during rush hours traffic would be tied up for the rest of the day. About as much further as these girls can go, as I see it, would be to come up with a bright orange job of some obscure lines, put a big black bow in front and paint a bull's eye on the back to add that final touch. I just hope the things don't become popular enough for the ladies to put them on when they get up of a morning. Think what that would do to the wake-up cup of coffee industry. On the other hand it might sell two cups to steady some poor soul's nerves.

Not Dumb, Not Dumb At All

Brooks Hays, one of Washington's best known wits, is now an assistant to President Kennedy and formerly was an Arkansas Congressman.

Just back from a trip to Africa for the President, Hays reports his Arkansas jokes went over well with English speaking leaders in Nigeria and Sierra Leone.

Best received, according to Hays, was this one: An Arkansas country boy was riding a train for the first time on his way to Memphis—when a city slicker struck up a conversation.

"How'd you like to make some easy money playing 'Quiz?'" the more worldly traveler said.

Zeke, right off a farm, asked what "Quiz?" was. "We take turns asking questions," said the citified one. "Every time I ask you a question you can't answer, you pay me a dollar. Everytime you ask me a question I can't answer, I'll pay you a dollar."

"Oh," said Zeke, "you've got a lot more education than I do, and you've been more places, I'll play if I have to pay only 50 cents when I miss an answer and if you pay a dollar when you do."

The city man agreed to let Zeke off for half price. He also let Zeke have the first question.

"What is it," Zeke began, "that has three heads, eight wings, warts on its stomach and can't fly a foot?"

The city man shook his head: "I don't know. Here's your dollar. What is it?"

"Here's your 50 cents—I don't know either!" declared Zeke.

President's Trip Evaluated

President Kennedy's European visit can not be evaluated until some time has elapsed. The homage paid the German people was a tribute to his personal and persuasive oratory.

It has been a political campaign, and approved by the heads of government. He made statements: to risk our cities to defend theirs; to keep Europe; and that Germany will be united. He called for multinational defense, and for a strong French fleet from NATO . . . and to snub the President.

He attacked De Gaulle indirectly for his disastrous can policy. This effort to isolate and circumvent him to be a mistake in view of the friendship recently between Germany and France. De Gaulle wants Anglo-American domination, and is determined to become the leader of Europe and to control the market. He chose Kennedy's visit as the moment to withdraw French fleet from NATO . . . and to snub the President.

The visit with Prime Minister Macmillan was completely private, to avoid being interpreted as interference in British domestic affairs. The sudden message in booting out the three Chinese ambassadors, diplomatic agreement necessary, since the U. S. and sending envoys to Moscow to discuss disarmament.

Russia does not want China to have a nuclear Germany to re-arm. England does not want a nuclear fleet. De Gaulle does want nuclear deterrents, even to defend France.

When the present excitement of Kennedy's visit somewhat, the old doubts may again rise. The European wonder if in event of attack, we really will risk our lives on their behalf. They should remember that within half a century the U. S. has twice come to the aid of Europe.

If President Kennedy has reassured the European statement clearly said for them and Moscow to help you freedom to protect ours," then his visit will much good for the U. S.

Water District Head Emphasizes Underground Water as Depletable

Now that in a High Plains region of Texas underground water is a depletable resource? For most of you who read this article, this is an elementary question. Nearly every adult who is capable of reading and who has lived in this area for any appreciable length of time knows that, for practical purposes, when underground water is pumped from the reservoir it is "mined" in much the same manner as coal, gold or oil is mined from its subterranean hiding place. Nature does not replace the water nearly so rapidly as it is pumped.

Knowing full well that these are the facts concerning the underground water supply with which we've been endowed, some irrigators still do not recognize a need for personal responsibility in the field of water conservation. An official with the High Plains Undergrnd Water Conservation District has been contacted and asked about the end results that wasteful practices will bring about. Tom McFarland, Manager of the Water District, was asked, "Why do some irrigators allow water to run off cropland into the road bar-ditches and dry lake beds?" His answer was enlightening. "In working with problems of waste, we're attempting to change a habit — we think a very bad habit — that has been formed during years of irrigating and allowing water to escape the land. In many cases fellow has been doing it that way so long that it's become second-nature to him. He may not even realize that he is actually wasting water. He may feel that losing water is just part of irrigating.

"Of Course, this is where our job enters the picture in convincing him that the water he wastes is water that brings absolutely no benefits to anyone and actually costs him money to pump."

We then asked McFarland about the power that the Water District has to enforce their rules against waste.

He said, "Under the provisions of the law, we have the right to initiate legal proceedings against those who waste water. If we can prove to the court that waste is occurring, then an order will be issued by the court ordering that it be stopped.

"Of course, this process is not only expensive but it is unpleasant. As a result, before we resort to legal action we attempt to convince the irrigator that too much is at stake for him to continue the practice of wasting water.

"We talk to him about declining water levels, about the economics involved in continued waste, and about the moral and political aspects concerned.

"Most people don't want to waste water for the pure pleasure of wasting it. They simply are taking the path of least resistance."

McFarland was then asked about progress that the Water District is making in alleviating waste. "Definite progress is being made," he said, "at least a third of our staff is devoting practically full time to waste problems. When a waste situation is called to our attention, we visit the locale and talk to the one who has the problem. Many times we can tell him about a similar problem that another irrigator has been confronted with and show him the steps that were taken in solving that problem. In most instances this is all that we have to do. With less conscientious farmers, it won't work so well. "Of course, all this consumes time, and with a limited staff we cannot stop all the waste overnight. However, progress is being made. Year by year the waste is less prevalent than it was the year before.

"With the continued cooperation of irrigators throughout the Water District, we will be able to continue progress toward the day when all water pumped from the underground reservoir is utilized in some beneficial endeavor."

JOHN SHEDD

D. E. Student Applicants Are Asked To Meet

John Shedd of Post has assumed duties as teacher of distributive education in the Senior High School at Slaton, and already is working with local merchants in planning the 1963-64 program for that department.

Distributive education, Shedd explains, is a training program designed to improve the job performance of workers engaged in the distribution of goods and/or services. Distributive education trains the high school student for vocations in retail, wholesale and service selling.

The D. E. student is required to spend three hours in the morning in class at school, then three afternoon hours on his training station where he is supervised by employer and counseled by Shedd.

High school juniors and seniors who are interested and who have not already applied for the D. E. course are asked to contact Shedd in room 157 of the high school, between 9 a. m. and 11:30 a. m. today or tomorrow. The instructor will be on hand to answer questions and further explain the program at that time.

Shedd holds a bachelors degree in Business Administration from North Texas State University. He previously was employed as a salesman with Mid-Continent Supply Company in Odessa. He recently has returned from a summer D. E. workshop in Dallas.

Police Activity

J. B. Young of the Santa Fe Railroad reported last Thursday that a metal tool box and numerous tools were taken from a Santa Fe truck parked in front of 30 N. 4th Street.

Report was received the same day that the telephone booth at the southeast corner of the city square had been burglarized at some time since last coin collection. The lock had been picked, with the coin box removed. Amount of cash taken was undetermined.

Henzler Grocery and Market on South 9th was victim late Monday when subjects took three or four No. 3 wash tubs and a scrub board. John Wesley Brown was charged in this matter with theft under $5. Charges were dismissed against another suspect.

The Montgomery & Schnell implement firm on North 9th was burglarized sometime Friday or Saturday, with entry gained through a window broken in the rear north corner. The cash drawer was taken from the register and left in a parts bin, some $2 in pennies taken. A new hammer was removed from a tool display and apparently used to batter a peanut vending machine, completely demolishing the machine, $2 more taken here. A soft drink machine was flipped with a key left in the lock, with about $3 taken there. Also missing were two sets of GilThor sockets, one set of Challenger tools, and sets of keys for a Chevrolet and Ford truck.

Speed Law Revision Effective On Texas Highways as of August 23

More than two-thirds of the Texas highway system will come under the new 70-miles-per-hour daytime maximum speed for passenger cars which becomes effective August 23, the Texas Highway Commission has revealed.

Under the speed control law passed by the Legislature this spring, all highways not zoned down by the Commission will automatically go to the new 70-mph speed August 23. This means that some 41,500 miles of the state-maintained highway system will be allowed to come under the higher maximum speed.

Brother's Rites In California

Funeral services were held Tuesday in Lomita, California, for Isaac Edward Carroll, 68, brother of Mrs. Effie Gentry of Slaton.

Gentry, who had lived at Torrance, Calif., for 21 years, died August 9th at his home. Interment was at Green Hills Memorial Park, San Pedro.

Surviving are the wife, two sons, two daughters, 14 grandchildren, one great-grandchild, two brothers and two sisters.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for all the acts of kindness shown us during the recent loss of our mother and grandmother. God bless you all. The F. H. Lowry family.

SOUTHLAND and GORDON NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morris, Slaton residents formerly of this community, have had their son and family visiting them, CWO Earl D. Morris and his family who have returned to San Antonio.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lancaster and sons, Kevin Lee and Jonathan Edgar, of Amarillo, visited Sunday with her parents, the Edgar Moseleys.

Mrs. Harley Martin and children and Mrs. Edward Moseley and girls spent Monday with Mrs. Roy Carpenter and family at Ropesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smallwood and children went to Six Flags at Dallas recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Blanton Martin and daughter Suzanne of Littlefield visited his mother, Mrs. Sam Martin, last Thursday.

They were accompanied by Molly, the girl they sponsored from the Baptist Orphanage in Beville, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Moseley and daughter Molly May of Marietta Georgia have returned home after visiting his brother.

Speed Law Revision Effective On Texas Highways as of August 23

The Commission has passed a Minute Order which zoned some 18,640 miles of the highway system at a maximum of 60 miles per hour daytime and 55 miles per hour at night for passenger cars, effective August 23. These highways will be restricted to the lower speed limit because engineering studies indicate they are inadequate to accommodate a 70-miles-per-hour maximum.

The Commission's action followed a series of engineering traffic studies conducted throughout the state by the Highway Department's 25 highway districts.

A large percentage of Texas' vast Farm to Market Road System will come under the 70-mph maximum, although some of these roads (and some of the older primary routes) will be restricted to the lower 60-mph maximum where conditions warrant.

"What it Means"

A CHURCH LAYMAN, speaking to a large assembly of other laymen, said, "When I trusted Jesus Christ as my Savior, I said to Him, 'Lord, here is my life. I give it all to thee, without reservation'. Then Jesus said to me, 'I gladly accept it as my own; but, I really do not need it for myself, so I hereby endorse it to the needs of humanity'".

"To me", continued the layman, "that is what it means to be a Christian, and to live the Christian life".

The church is designed as the medium through which your life, too, may be dedicated for the benefit of humanity and for the glory of God. The more faithfully you give yourself to this high purpose, the more satisfying will life become with all its intermingling experiences.

The rescue squad of the local fire department is completing special training on use of geiger counters in checking radioactivity in fallout shelters. Firechief Don Kendrick has announced.

Bill Caroes of the local schools is teaching the 3-hour course that had been requested by the Civil Defense program authorities.

Members of the rescue squad include Marvin Rushing, Lee Ham, Donald Spradley, Leon Herrin, Wayne Polk, Pete Williams, Don Kendrick and Bob Kern.

Fairyland of Floral Beauty Is Reputation Enjoyed by Tyler

ROSE CAPITAL — Municipal Rose Garden at Tyler is one of the finest in the nation with 26,000 bushes and 375 varieties which bloom from May until November. Upwards of 50,000 persons visit the garden each year. The 1963 Tyler Rose Festival will be held October 18, 19 and 20.

"Everything's coming up roses" at Tyler, that is. This East Texas city is sometimes referred to as the Rose Capital of America. Tyler's annual Festival of Roses staged each October at rosebush harvest time, transforms the city into a fairyland of floral beauty.

Here in the heart of the nation's rose land, in a city of enduring charm and beauty, a three-day festive tribute is paid the queen of flowers - the rose.

The 1963 Rose Festival will be held Oct. 18, 19 and 20.

Tyler is famous as the site of one of the nation's finest municipal rose gardens, with 26,000 bushes and 375 varieties, and is noted also for the springtime beauty of its camellias, azaleas, redbuds and dogwoods. Upwards of 50,000 visitors register each year at the Garden Center Building to see the Rose Garden which is in gorgeous bloom from May until November and may be seen free.

More than half the field-grown rosebushes in the United States come from the immediate vicinity of Tyler, and the city is surrounded by rose nurseries which in themselves present a picture worth driving many miles to see in spring or fall when they are in full bloom.

Tyler has been growing roses since shortly after the Civil War but it was not until 1933 that the first East Texas Rose Festival was staged. The public's reaction and acceptance of the initial festival inspired the local garden clubs, rose growers and civic leaders to make this an annual event.

Two big events stand out in the three-day celebration — the Queen's Coronation and the Rose Parade. The annual Rose Show, Art Show, Queen's Tea, Fiesta Night, and Rose Vesper Service on Sunday are open to the public. Rose field tours also are conducted on each of three days.

Tyler State Park, a 994-acre scenic playground located ten miles north of the city, is a mecca for East Texans and tourists seeking relaxation in this beauty spot of nature.

Camping, picnicking, fishing, swimming and boating may be enjoyed, and for the nature lover, the park provides one of the fine forest sections of Texas.

It is heavily timbered with native trees, preserved in their natural state. With protection from hunters, the park abounds in quail, mockingbirds, cardinals, woodpeckers, doves, thrasher, chapparral and many water fowl.

Tax Identification Numbers Needed For Both Husbands, Wives in Texas

In Texas both husbands and wives will need a taxpayer identification number for future income tax filing, according to John J. Sloan, the Administrative Officer at the Lubbock office of Internal Revenue Service.

creates many situations where both husband and wife have income that belongs to only one spouse in other states," Mr. John J. Sloan explained. "Quite a few wives feel that they do not need a taxpayer identification or social security number, because they file a joint return with their husband. There are times when it is to their advantage to file separate returns. Naturally, the wife can not report her share of dividends, interest and other income on a separate return without having a taxpayer identification number in filing a joint return because of the community property law in Texas."

Taxpayers who do not have an identification number should secure a Form SS-5 from their nearest Post Office, Internal Revenue Service Office, or Social Security Office, complete the application and get a number assigned.

Scout Den III Gets Royal Treatment On Clovis Train Trip

Club Scouts of Den III, led by Den Mother Mrs. Roche, were accorded royal treatment last Friday on their trip to Clovis, touring the train en route, and then receiving escorted tours to points of interest in the New Mexico city and area.

The group was met at the Clovis depot by city officials, and they then were taken to Cannon Air Base where they were given an extensive tour. They observed the sentry dogs and their handlers in a special demonstration on obedience, wall climbing, etc. Later they inspected a "flying boxcar" plane, examined parachutes and then ate at the air base cafeteria.

The group later was taken to the Clovis Zoo and park, spending a 2-hour fun period there. They were met at the Santa Fe roundhouse by T. W. Seery Jr. who conducted the group on a trip of the roundhouse and turntable, diesel engine inspection (where they were allowed to ring the bells and toot the whistle), and finally a visit to the yardmaster's observation tower.

Story Of Grandmother's Escape Is Read At Family Reunion Here

Death Claimed Mrs. Huldah Lemley Reasoner, pioneer resident of Erath county in 1933. She was extremely fortunate to live to be an adult, much less almost 94 years of age.

Huldah Lemley came to Erath County in the early 1950's from Illinois. In 1856, when she was 16 years old, she was taken prisoner by a band of Indian warriors who had been spreading terror on the frontier. At that time, her father was building a log house near Huckaby and the men had gone into the woods to cut logs, leaving the mother, three daughters and a neighbor, Mrs. Lucinda Woods at the Lemley home.

Mrs. Lemley left the house for a few minutes, and when she returned she found that her girls and Mrs. Wood were gone and the house had been wrecked. Everything in the house had been stolen or destroyed, Indians had rushed into the house in cyclone fashion, wrecked the furnishings and made prisoners of the four young women.

The Indians rode several miles with the three sisters and Mrs. Woods. When they reached a spot near the present site of Lingleville, they stopped, dismounted and helped the captive women to the ground. Huldah Reasoner was always of the opinion that her hair saved her from being murdered, because the Indians closely inspected their captives; than had a short consultation, pointing first at one of the girls and then another, making motions toward their hair. Shortly the Indians approached the girls, then while Huldah and her raven-haired sister looked on, the redmen murdered Ludia Lemley and Mrs. Lucinda Woods. Both had blond hair. The beautiful hair of Mrs. Woods attracted one of the warriors and he scalped her, taking the blond tresse with him as he galloped away with his band of marauders.

Mrs. Reasoner firmly believed that the Indians would not harm a person with dark, black hair. According to their legend, the Indians in this section accepted the belief that all persons with black hair were of Indian lineage. Left alone in the woods, Mrs. Reasoner (then Huldah Lemley) and her sister left the bodies of the two slain girls and followed wagon tracks back toward the settlement where they were rescued. Soon after the murder of the two young women and the escape of the other two, the Lemleys moved to Young county. Here, a brother was killed and another wounded by the Indians.

A few years later, about the time the Indians made their last stand in this section (Young County) of Texas, Huldah Lemley was married to Jesse Reasoner. She reared a large family and lived in the Thurber and Strawn area for many years. The care and devotion of her children and grandchildren in her declining years helped to soften the recollection of the tragedies of the hectic pioneer days in Erath County.

Thus it was that Saturday, over 100 years since her encounter with the Indians, seventy-five heirs of Mrs. Huldah Lemley Reasoner met to pay respect to a pioneer grandmother's courageous fight for life.

On Saturday and Sunday, August 10 and 11, descendants of Huldah Lemley Reasoner and Jesse Reasoner, gathered for a reunion at the Slaton club house, with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reasoner and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. "Doc" Reasoner of Slaton, as host couples.

Earl and Doc Reasoner are grandsons of Huldah L. Reasoner. Other grandchildren and their families attending were Floyd Reasoner, Seagraves; Breeze Reasoner, Smyer; Mrs. Woodrow Smith of Liberal, Kansas; Bryan Reasoner, Bates Reasoner, and C. B. Reasoner, all of Slaton; Mrs. Clinton Brown of Amarillo; Mrs. J. B. Terrell and Jarvis Reasoner of Floydada; Mrs. M. Page of Ralls; Mrs. Tom Brown of Lubbock; Mrs. Raymond Hale and Jim Hall of Big Spring.
