MRS. DON WENDEL

Recipe Of The Week

A winner of one blue ribbon and two red ribbons for entries in the Panhandle South Plains Fair this year is sharing one of her winning recipes with us this week. Mrs. Don Wendel is pictured above holding a jar of pickled beets for which she won the blue ribbon. She had 11 entries, and this was her first year to enter.

Mrs. Wendel's husband is a native Slatonite and Mrs. Wendel has called Slaton home for the past 13 years. They are the parents of two daughters -- D'Ann, 2, and a married daughter, Mrs. Ricky Brush, who also lives here. The Wendels are members of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Mr. Wendel is employed in the mechanical department for Santa Fe Railway.

Mrs. Wendel is a member of Slaton's Home Demonstration Club. She enjoys gardening, caring for potted flowers and sewing. She said, "My only problem is there's just not enough hours in the day to do all the things I'd like to do". Following is Mrs. Wendel's recipe for Pickled Beets and in keeping with a Thanksgiving taste for pumpkin, a recipe for Pumpkin Bread.

Jr. C & C Members See Fashion Show

Fashions from Charlene's and music by Don Edwards set the mood when the Junior Civic and Culture Club held their annual guest night event Friday at the Slaton Club House.

Miss Marcell Childress, president, and Mrs. C. R. Bivens, vice-president, greeted the fifty guests who registered.

Hostesses for the affair were Mmes. J. A. Wright, Virgie Hunter and E. B. Morgan.

Centering the serving table was a silver Cambridge Arms which held a pyramid arrangement of fall fruits, surrounded by burning green tapers. Mrs. Wright presided at the table which had silver and crystal appointments.

Holiday fashions from Charlene's in Lubbock were modeled with Charlene Finkner serving as commentator. Background music was provided by Mr. Edwards.

Models included Violet Wright, Judy Hood, Jan Johnson and Barbara Privett, all of Lubbock; and Mmes. J. L. Tims, H. Lasater, Yates Key, C. E. Hogue, Hunter and Bivens, all of Slaton.

Piano selections played by Edwards were pre-recorded for use later in the evening when he sang to his own accompaniment. Numbers included "Almost Like Being in Love", "What Kind of Fool Am I?", and "Come Back To Me".

Mrs. Wright introduced Don who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Edwards. He is a graduate of North Texas State University, and has also studied in New York and Europe.

Gifts were presented to those providing the entertainment. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Covington of Odessa.

The centerpiece was won by Ikey Kuback; the star quilt by Walter Bednarz; and the cross-stitch quilt by Mrs. Joe Schnell. Mrs. C. G. Heinrich was winner of the cedar chest filled with linens, and the bale of cotton was won by Joe Schnell.

The Polaroid camera, given by the Home-School Association, was won by Roman Verkamp.

"Dost thou love life? Then do not squander time, for that is the stuff that life is made of." -- by Franklin

My intentions were to work real hard today (Monday), get alot of writing done and have plenty of time tonight to write a well planned, well worded Thanksgiving column, but as I sit here, it is getting rather late, and I find myself thankful that I have just completed writing a dozen stories tonight (including one very well written sports story).

I kept telling myself all day that "today is Tuesday and you must not loaf, because press day has been moved up a day", but it didn't seem to work. Things like the Tech ballgame HAD to be discussed over and over again.

For the first time this year, the Raiders outshined that "Gotn Band from Raiderland," and I am thankful I was there to see it. (So there's two things I'm thankful for).

Well Earned Sleep--Make a rule, and pray God to help you to keep it, never, if possible, to lie down at night without being able to say, "I have made one human being, at least, a little wiser, a little happier, or a little better this day". -- by Charles Kingsley.

I'm sure most of you, as Thanksgiving draws near, have thought of the many things you are thankful for. I guess the things I am most thankful for are two healthy children, an understanding God who is near me at all times, and my husband -- probably the only man in the world that could possibly show me as much patience and understanding as he does.

If our plans aren't changed, the Niemans plan to travel to Hamlin to spend Thanksgiving day in my sister's home. We have a rather small family, but for the first time since our marriage, all are planning to be there.

Included in our bunch are us four, my sister, her two daughters and husband (who, like Speedy is an only child), his parents, my parents, and Speedy's parents. That only makes 14, so we'll probably all be around the same table to say our blessings on Thanksgiving day.

Here's hoping you also have a happy Thanksgiving!

Acquisition of the necessary land for the project, along with approval of purchase by the Public Housing Administration, has been a problem in the program. Tentative sites were selected in the southeast portion of town.

The housing would be available to low income families--below $3,000 per year, with 40 of the units designed for the elderly. Rent would be based on the number in the family and the income.

Apolonio Arias, 28, of Slaton appeared before the commission with a Lubbock attorney to lodge a complaint concerning his arrest here recently. Arias claimed that he was mistreated by the arresting officer, Sgt. Gene Carpenter.

According to Police Chief Robert Breedlove, Arias was charged with four traffic violations, making alcoholic beverages available to a minor, and drunkenness. A charge of illegal transportation of alcoholic beverages was also lodged in county court.

The commission agreed to investigate the incident, and Arias is expected to appear at the next commission meeting. Breedlove stated Monday that he had checked the case and found "no basis for such a complaint in this case." He added that he had invited the FBI to investigate.

Alton Edwards and his attorney appeared at the meeting to discuss a curbing Edwards had put on one of his cemetery lots. The city has filed an injunction against Edwards "to prohibit the maintaining of curbing" in the cemetery in violation of the rules and regulations of the city cemetery.

Commissioner Curly Martindale was not present due to illness.

Foundation Is Explained For Rotary Club

Rex Webster, past district governor from Lubbock, presented a program on the Rotary Foundation during a regular weekly luncheon meeting of the Slaton club last Thursday.

Webster outlined the history of the Foundation, including information about fellowships and awards granted under the program. He also introduced Muneo Nishimura of Japan, who is attending Texas Tech under a PROPOSED ADDITION--An architect's drawing shows how the Lubbock County Courthouse would look with a new annex on the east side, between the new courthouse and old structure. The view, from the southeast corner of Broadway and Ave. H, shows the four-story addition which would be 60 feet wide and 212 feet long. The move would close the west leg of Ave. H around the courthouse.

NO BOND ISSUE OR TAX HIKE

Courthouse Annex Set

Plans for expansion of the Lubbock County Courthouse were revealed during a special Commissioners Court meeting Friday, and bids were expected to be called for at a special Tuesday morning session.

According to building plans, the project can be carried out without a bond issue and without an increase in county taxes.

County Judge Rod Shaw pointed out that the need for additional space began to be apparent as early as 1960. At that time, commissioners began setting aside funds for the eventual enlargement program.

Royal Furgeson, county auditor, reported that as a result of past action by the court, $1,030,000 is on hand in time deposits for the Permanent Improvement Fund, while an additional $250,000 is provided in the 1967 county budget.

Total estimated cost of the project is $1,280,000. Construction cost of the courthouse addition is estimated at $847,350. Other costs include $242,500 for acquiring the present main post office building and land; $60,000 for remodeling and furniture for the post office building; $75,000 for furniture and landscaping the courthouse addition; $43,000 for the architect's and other fees, and $12,150 for contingencies.

Judge Shaw pointed out that the old courthouse, which contains 20,000 square feet of floor space, was built in 1916 at a cost of $100,000, and the new courthouse, which contains 60,000 square feet, was built in 1950 at a cost of $1 million.

The courthouse annex will contain 70,000 square feet of usable floor space in four floors with provision for future addition of four more floors and another 70,000 square feet.

The addition will extend 60 feet east from the existing building and will be 212 feet long from north to south. The new addition will necessitate closing the west or southbound leg of Ave. H around the old courthouse.

Future plans call for the demolition of the old courthouse as soon as the county can acquire the present main post office and can move state offices now in the old courthouse into that structure.

The space occupied by the old courthouse probably will be used for a multilevel parking facility. No definite plans have been made, however, and a bond issue would be needed to finance a parking building project.

GI Forum Names Slaton Officers

Two Slaton members were installed as officers of District 13 GI Forum in Lubbock Sunday.

Louis Quintero was named as representative, and Maxine Quintero was installed as secretary.

Pete Trevino of Lubbock was named chairman of the district, succeeding T. A. Trevino of Littlefield. Other officers include Albert Juarez of Floydada, vice chairman.

Lisa Merrett, chairman of the Texas State Auxiliary GI Forum, installed the new district officers.

Phone Prefixes Go All-Numbers Here in May

All telephone number prefixes in Slaton will change from VA8 to 828 in May.

This new telephone numbering plan is known as All Number Calling (ANC).

Bob Davis, manager for Southwestern Bell, said about three-fourths of the telephones in the United States have already been converted to All Number Calling. The change is necessary because of the tremendous growth in the number of telephones. Telephone companies would eventually run out of suitable numbers if they did not convert to All Number Calling, he said.

Davis explained that for Slaton customers the prefix is the only part of their telephone number that will change. The last four digits of the numbers will remain the same. He noted, too, that the location of the all number prefix on the telephone dial will be the same as the present prefix, meaning, of course, that telephone users will continue dialing exactly as they do now.

Telephone directories listing the new numbers will be distributed when the changeover is made.

Giving an example of the new all-number numbers, Mr. Davis said the Southwestern Bell business office number will change from VA8-4591 to 828-4591.

Persons who plan to order stationery and other printed material on which telephone numbers are carried should keep in mind that their number will change in May.

The changeover to all-number numbers in Slaton is part of a Southwestern Bell program to convert all telephones in the states served by the company to All Number Calling gradually over the next few years.

"With All Number Calling, telephone numbers in Slaton will be of the same type as most phone numbers throughout the country," Davis said. "This standardization makes it more convenient for the telephone user when he travels on business, makes vacation trips or moves to another city."

"Without All-Number Calling (ANC), Southwestern Bell and other telephone companies would eventually run out of telephone number prefixes," Davis explained.

"Within a few years the number of dial combinations using letters and five digits, such as present local numbers, will have been exhausted in many parts of the nation. Although this is not likely to be true in this immediate area, it is nevertheless a factor because no two telephone numbers can be alike in the same numbering plan area now that Direct Distance Dialing is in widespread use," he said.

He said All Number Calling is the best solution to this problem. "All number telephone numbers allow us to expand the possible combinations of dial pulls by about 50 percent in each numbering plan area," he said.

Davis noted that all-number numbers will eliminate dialing errors caused by confusion of the numeral "1" with the letter "I" and of the letter "O" with "zero".

All Number Calling is also a step toward worldwide dialing where the language problem negates the use of letters, he pointed out.

He said, too, that the trend in telephone instrument design is toward compactness. A dial with only numbers can be smaller, yet actually more readable and easier to use than a dial with both letters and numbers.

The first semi-monthly Cotton Quality Report issued Nov. 17 by Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., shows that the unusual mid-October freeze dealt a severe blow to the quality of this year's Texas High Plains cotton crop.

The quality reports are sent by PCG every two weeks during the harvesting season to interested parties throughout the U. S. and abroad. They serve textile mills and cotton buyers as a catalog of the quantities and qualities of cotton available on the Plains, and in addition are used as a gauge by cotton researchers attempting to upgrade the area's product.

One sample is taken from each sack delivered by gins to the classing offices at Lamesa, Brownfield and Lubbock. Testing is done on these by the Textile Research Laboratory at Texas Tech, and this data along with the information from the classing office is processed through the Computer Center at Texas Tech to give a complete and accurate picture of crop quality as the season progresses.

This year's first report covered classings through Nov. 9 of approximately 115,000 bales. Grade, staple and micronaire tests were made on 5641 of these and presaley and elongation tests were done on 1312.

Before a comparison of quality factors is made between the first quality report in 1965 and that of 1966, it should be pointed out that this year's report covers over twice as many bales and a much greater percentage of the total crop than did the first report last year. In 1965 the first report on quality was made on only 54,500 bales, a much higher percentage of which was hand harvested from fields planted to varieties that normally produce longer, stronger cotton.

Consequently, by the end of the season when the final figures are in, the comparison with last year may not be as bad as the comparison between the first reports for both years. However, there is no doubt that this year's crop quality has been hurt.

Quality was done significantly in each category excepting elongation, which invariably goes up as presaley, or strength, goes down.

Only 27.7 per cent of the crop graded white, and only 12.7 per cent of this carried a grade of middling or above. On the first report for 1965, white cotton accounted for over 66 per cent of the crop and over 50 per cent of that graded middling and above.

While 31 per cent of the 1965 crop was in the light spot category, this year's report shows 37.5 per cent in that class. Full spots for the early season report were 13.7 per cent, as compared to only .5 per cent in 1965.

Average micronaire for the first of the harvest period this year came to 3.6, with 57.9 per cent above the tenderable limit of 3.5. Corresponding micronaire figures for the 1965 crop were 4.1 and 88.9 per cent, respectively.

Staple length of the first 115,000 bales averaged 30.8 thirty - seconds of an inch, while the first report for 1965 showed an average length of 31.4 thirty - seconds. Cotton stapling one inch or more in the early tests this season came to only 18.8 per cent, compared to 43.1 per cent last year.

Interesting to note from the report is the fact that while both average staple and cotton one inch and above declined, here was an increase in cotton stapling 1-1/8 inches or over. Cotton in this length division so far this year has amounted to 5.5 per cent of the crop as opposed to 3.9 per cent for the corresponding period a year ago.

This, according to Donald A. Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, is the result of increased Del Cerro acreage planted on the Plains this year. Strength of the first ginmings from the 1966 crop also dropped from last year when the first quality report showed an average of 78,600 pounds per square inch. This year's average to date came to only 75,000 psi.

Elongation averaged almost the same this year as last, being 8.0 per cent last year and 8.1 per cent to date in 1966.

Johnson says many in the cotton industry have come to depend on the PCG quality reports each year. They have been published each year since the beginning of the 1958 harvest.

"Certainly we are not proud of our crop quality this year," he said, "but we can only report the facts, just as they are."

Concerning the ability to market this year's crop, local cotton merchant Raymond Tapp points out that low micronaire is the most damaging factor. It is his opinion that every bale of High Plains cotton which has micronaire of 3.5 or more will be sold.

But as of November 17 only about 25 per cent of the crop has fallen in this range. For the year, Tapp expects somewhere in the neighborhood of 30 per cent of the crop to carry micronaire readings of 3.5 or

$2,500 Raised For Band

I do hope that you will have as nice a holiday as I am planning. Several of my brothers and sisters will be having Thanksgiving dinner with me. We are a family with many things to be thankful for. At this time of year it is especially nice to be one of a large family and be able to have those that can come get together and just have a good time talking about all the things we did while we were growing up, our old friends, how times have changed and then sit back and look at our own children with pride and hope that they will profit by all the mistakes that each of us have made. I am sure that when one are two of my brothers read this they will say, "speak for yourself, I don't make mistakes". If you know any of my wonderful family, you know what I mean. Even though Daddy is not with us anymore we still have Mother, and this is just a few of the many, many things that I have to be so very thankful for.

AUCTION SUCCESS
The Roosevelt Booster Club auction and pancake supper was a big success last Friday night. We raised about $2,500 to help in paying for the band uniforms. To all of the merchants in the surrounding towns who gave articles for the auction and supper, along with you who gave money - A BIG THANKS - for without you, this could not have been. Everyone who had a part in getting the things together, worked very hard but it was all worth it when things got started and there was such a good turnout of people to do the buying. Both of our bands are doing very well with their playing. Mr. Bond is doing a very wonderful job with these two groups. As I sat, listening to these boys and girls play that night I couldn't help feel-better.

He believes that probably about half of the cotton below 3.5 will also sell, which would mean some 65 per cent of this year's crop moving into the market instead of the loan. This compares with only about 35 per cent of the area's crop that sold on the market from the 1965 crop.

Primary reasons for a higher percentage of the area's cotton being sold, according to Bob Poteet, Executive Secretary of the Lubbock Cotton Exchange, are price and supply.

Under the current government program, cotton is selling to over two cents per pound below last year. Poteet says Lubbock merchants are making more sales and getting more inquiries now than at this stage of the season a year ago, and he gives price as the explanation.

But he also points out that with production on the Plains now estimated at 1.4 million bales, cotton marketings need only equal those of last year to raise the percentage figure to over 50 per cent. Last year the area produced just over 2.2 million bales. Some merchants, Poteet says, are more optimistic than Tapp about the percentage of the crop that will sell. These he said are guessing up to 75 per cent.

ing just a little proud that I had helped in a small way, to do something for these students who would be representing our school in days to come.

GIRLS WIN
Our basketball girls beat Abernathy last week but were not so good in the two games before that. Here's hoping that you win over Jayton, Tuesday. The team will go to Jayton, on Tuesday and then Jayton will be here to play on the 29th. Good Luck girls!

Weekend guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Newton were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Norwood of Friona. Mrs. Norwood is Mrs. Newton's sister.

NEW FAMILY
A new family in the community is Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goff, Johnny and Susan from Jacksonville. Mrs. Goff is the daughter of the late Derringtons. Charles is working for Southwestern Irrigation and Helen is nursing at West Texas Hospital in Lubbock.

My brother, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny McCormick, Lynn, Melba, Connie and Johnny of Dallas will be visiting with me and other relatives through Thursday.

James H., myself, Jimmy, Randy, Rex and Tony, Johnny and family, Bob and Patsy Hopper, Bobby, Jerry, Susan and Ronnie Dean all enjoyed Sunday supper with my sister, Shirley and Harland Hairgrove, Candy, Matt and Melody in Lubbock.

careful in whatever you do so that you and your family are safe. Don't forget the Young Homemakers Saturday at the Ag Center.

Highest cotton carryover in history!

Lowest cotton acreage since 1872!

The carryover has hit an all-time record 16.7 million bales. Our acreage is the smallest in almost 100 years. And we will have more cuts unless we get more cotton products used. Make no mistake—acreage follows consumption as night follows day. If we want to keep on growing cotton at a profit, we must sell more cotton.

The only answer... Cotton Research and Promotion

Expanded research and promotion are cotton's only hope. With these same two tools, producers of higher-priced synthetic fibers have taken a total market now equal to nearly 7 million bales of cotton. They have gained over 2 million bales in the last 2 years . . . and new plants are scheduled with capacity equal to another 3.5 million bales.

Growers also can use these tools effectively. Experience has proved it. The only problem is to get enough money to use them on a big enough scale.

New legislation makes that possible. It enables farmers to vote, in a Beltwide referendum, on establishing a uniform assessment of $1.00 per bale for research and promotion. The law provides that individual farmers who do not want to participate can have their assessments refunded.

Funds from uniform collection will attract other money—more than two times as much on the average.

This plan originated with farmers. Thousands of growers and 61 cotton organizations across the Belt have endorsed it—overwhelmingly.

All projects must be initiated by grower trustees elected by cotton farmer organizations. Other provisions give equal assurance of producer control.

We, the undersigned, strongly endorse and recommend this uniform collection plan for research and promotion. We urge you to join us in working and voting for its approval in the upcoming referendum.

Tiger Statistics Given

Statistics for the Slaton team revealed an even season in the 10 games while also tallying 118 points. Opponents had the edge in the 10-game route, racked up more than 277 yards. Fisher averaged 4.4 yards a carry, while Doyle Ethridge got 215 yards on 50 trips for a 4.3 mark.

Sophomore quarterback Jim Williams hit only 37.5 percent of his passes (30 of 80), but the aerials accounted for 519 yards or 17.3 per toss.

Ethridge and Pickens were his favorite receivers, with Ethridge nabbing 13 for 314 yards -- an average of almost 25 yards per catch. Pickens hauled in 10 for 118 yards.

Ethridge also wound up with a fine 32.9 punting average on 39 kicks. Pickens led on kick-off returns, while Steve Harlan was tops in the punt return department.

Pickens scored 5 touchdowns to lead the scoring with 30 points. Seven players took part in the scoring, with Fisher tallying four times and Ethridge and Richard Washington

VOTE YES

ON COTTON RESEARCH AND PROMOTION DEC. 5-9

- Because:
- ★ Higher-priced synthetics are taking our markets—over 2 million bales in last 2 years.
 - ★ New synthetic fiber plants are scheduled; additional manufacturing capacity equal to another 3.5 million bales of cotton by end of 1967.
 - ★ Carryover is at all-time high; acreage lowest since 1872.
 - ★ 1966 acreage cut averaged 30%; further cuts will come unless carryover is reduced.
 - ★ Research odds (5 to 1) and promotion odds (16 to 1) must be reduced if cotton is to survive.
 - ★ Farmers originated research and promotion proposal; farmers will run it.
 - ★ Plan is voluntary; any farmer not wishing to participate can get a refund.
 - ★ 42 cotton producer organizations have endorsed this approach—officially.
 - ★ All projects must be initiated and administered by producer trustees elected by cotton producer organizations.
 - ★ If we want to keep on growing cotton, we must sell more cotton.
 - ★ Most farmers put nearly $100 or more into growing, harvesting, and ginning a bale; can you afford not to spend $1 to sell a bale?

REP. POAGE SAYS CONGRESS WILL BE GUIDED BY GROWER DECISION ON RESEARCH-PROMOTION

(Reprint from National Cotton Council Letter)

Rep. W. R. Poage (D-Texas) said at his home in Waco... that attitude of Congress on cotton programs will be affected for better or worse by decision made in dollar-a-bale referendum on research and promotion.

"In my judgment, Congress will feel that it is very much worthwhile—if we can see genuine promise that there will be programs capable of putting cotton on its feet and making it self-sufficient within some reasonable period of time. If there is to be such an outlook, a greatly expanded program of research and promotion must be at the heart of it".

"If farmers show by their votes that they are ready to give up on cotton, I think the Congress will be ready to give up too," he said.

Compare. Be Thankful

In the United States, Thanksgiving is a day when we all pause to give thanks for our many blessings.

What does Thanksgiving really mean to Americans? It is essentially a harvest festival and owes its origin to the Pilgrim forefathers. Although the harvest of 1621 was very lean, the governor decreed a day of thanksgiving and rejoicing after the harvest.

Sometimes comparisons make us realize how much we have to be thankful for. Not so many years ago our modern conveniences were unknown. People never dreamed of the great improvements that have been made in our way of life.

Of all the blessings which have been showered on Americans, the blessing of health is one of the greatest. Through the extensive research of people, who dedicate their lives to improve health conditions, our chance of a healthy, happy life have been greatly improved.

Americans, who will spend their holiday at home, can be very thankful to be here instead of on some foreign battlefield, and we can hope for the safe return of American soldiers, especially in Viet Nam.

We can't fail to be thankful that we live in a country where we have an opportunity to work; where we have free elections and a voice in our government; where we can worship as we please.

City Behind Teams

Thanks to the citizens of Slaton, the school teams will soon be traveling in style. For the last month, many of Slaton's citizens have been working hard to raise about $4,500 needed to fix the athletic bus.

The cakes furnished by some of the students brought $184.50. The Friday-night chili supper sponsored by the Lions Club added another $300. Exes exhibition football games raised more than $800. The school board budgeted another $2,000. This raised more than $3,000 toward the goal.

The drive is continuing. The football team, varsity basketball girls, and others are selling light bulbs and the Lions Club had made the drive their project with the assistance of the Tiger Club.

We, as students, are grateful for the concern and support of the clubs, businessmen, and interested adults who are doing so much for us. The bus will be ready in about thirty days, less than two months after the project began.

This is the reason the Tigers are a winning team. The town is behind our school. We hope that in the future we can make Slaton even more proud of its school system and, thanks to you, we can.

SO IS AUCTIONEER Varsity Cake Sale Success

"Who'll give me $5! Five Dollars once, five dollars twice, ---sold!"
Wednesday morning, Slaton High School auditorium rang with these words spoken by M. W. Kerr, principal and auctioneer, as he auctioned off 19 cakes donated by the varsity football players, lettering basketball players, and coaches. Bids started at $2 and went as high as $11.25. The total amount gained for the athletic bus fund from the auction was $184.50. The profits were high and the spirit was higher. Everyone decided that Coach Kerr should have been an auctioneer instead of a principal and that school time should be spent eating cake with one's fingers. While it's simple to get into debt, no one has yet invented a simple way to get out.

Tigerettes Win Cage Opener

Basketball officially made the scene here Friday night when the Slaton Tigerettes hosted the New Home girls in varsity and B Team games starting at 7 p.m. in the junior high gym. We are still Pilgrims

We no longer give thanks around a rough wooden table in a forest clearing. Our problems and rewards have taken different shapes too, but they are basically the same.
 We are still making a pilgrimage, the same search for a fuller and more fruitful life under freedom of religion. And we are still thankful for the faith that sees us through adversity and guides us on that pilgrimage.
 Thanksgiving Day was named for its meaning--the day that we come together to give thanks for our faith and our full life . . . and to remember that we are still pilgrims.
 This Thanksgiving Day, give your thanks, strengthen your faith, enlighten your pilgrimage, at your place of worship.

FREUDIAN COINCIDENCE
When I was a young man, our country church held very spirited revival meetings in the summer months. The sermons were often long, loud and repetitious. One sultry evening in July the visiting revivalist had been preaching a fiery sermon against drinking. "Liquor is the downfall of man," he repeated several times, "and it should all be poured in the rivers."

After the sermon, he asked someone to direct a song. On this evening I had been dozing and, naturally, he called on me. The first thing that popped into my mind was to sing a familiar song. I called out the number of the page of a song and turned to it, with a very red face, I led the congregation in singing, "Shall We Gather At The River."

Grade Girls Capture Tourney

Grade girls place trophy in the Post Saturday girls Saturday tournament. The champion annual Junior Tournament was held Thursday night.

The Slaton Eighth grade boys had to settle for second place in the tourney when they were able to get ahead of the Shallowater five only once during the championship game Saturday night. The score ended 31-39.

To win the second place trophy, the Slaton boys defeated the New Home team, 34-17, when Roby Hartman made 12 points to lead Slaton, then they defeated Cooper, 39-16, with Alan Fondy scoring 12 points for Slaton. In the game with Shallowater, Fondy was again high - point man for Slaton with 16 points.

The boy's coach is R. G. Copeland.

Other trophy winners in the tourney were Post girls, second; New Deal girls, consolation; LCC Junior High boys, consolation. Other teams entered in the tournament were from Wilson, Cooper, Southland, and Slaton's seventh grade team.

Post Tackles Iowa Park Next

The Post Antelopes, winner of District 4-AA, will travel to Wichita Falls to play Iowa Park Friday at 8 p.m. in a regional contest. Iowa Park, rated No. 2 in the state and winner of District 2-AA, won its bi-district contest Saturday over Phillips, 24-16.

The Antelopes, trailing most of the game, rallied to edge past the Memphis Cyclones, 20-19, in the bi-district game Friday at Plainville. Memphis was the 3-AA champion.

Post is now 11-1 for the season, but the Antelopes will be the underdog when they tangle with the highly-rated Iowa Park team Friday. Post clinched the 4-AA title with its 27-7 victory over Slaton.

Speech Classes Hard at Work

In the past 11 weeks, the speech classes have been working on correct pronunciation and the preliminary arts of speaking.

they are working on vocabulary and "speech topic" activities, which will be quite valuable later on in the semester.

Through the use of tape recordings and oral speeches, class members have been studying the basics of speech making. At the present time,

Many of the students are working hard to enlighten themselves in the art of speaking and are preparing themselves for the speech plays, which are to be conducted early in the second semester.

A Thanksgiving Thought

... whether you are citizens of America or citizens of the world, ask of us here the same high standards of strength and sacrifice which we ask of you. With a good conscience our only sure reward, with history the final judge of our deeds, let us go forth to lead the land we love, asking His blessing and His help, but knowing that here on earth

"God's work must truly be our own"

Tigers Start Cage Action

The Slaton Tigers opened basketball action for the 1966-67 season Tuesday night, hosting the Lockney Longhorns here in a game played after the Slatonite went to press.

The game marked the debut of Kenneth Housden as a new cage mentor for the Tigers. The Tigettes of Coach Gay Ivey also played a varsity game against Lockney's girls. Both the varsity and "B" team girls won opening games last Friday.

Housden will have the top two scorers from last season returning for the Tigers. They are Jack Mason, who averaged about 18 points a game last season as a junior, and Richard Washington, who hit for 12 a game as a sophomore. The next three leading scorers graduated -- Oren Smith, John Henry Johnson and Victor Cristan. Other returnees include Rodney Farrell, Pat Wheeler, Doyle Ethridge, Paul Hall, Larry Pickens and Jerry Burrell. Also on the varsity are Charles Fisher, Jimmy Williams, Tom Davis, David Tucker, Glen Montgomery.

Coach Housden expected to start Mason, Washington, Wheeler, Farrell and Hall in the opener.

The Tigers will have to go some to top last season's 20-5 record. However, four of the five losses last year came in District 4-AA as Slaton finished third behind Post and Denver City.

Crow Returns From Regional Meet in Dallas

Don Crow, Slaton Chevrolet dealer, recently returned from Dallas where he acted as spokesman for fellow dealers of this region at a meeting of the Chevrolet Regional Dealer Council.

Crow was elected to the council by Chevrolet dealers of this region under a nationwide program which the country's leading car and truck producer pioneered in the industry in 1937. The system operates as a medium for dealer representatives and company executives to discuss industry developments, retail selling conditions and other mutual business.

The Chevrolet National Dealer Council plan is organized at district, zone, regional and national levels. Dealers in each of the company's nearly 500 districts in the United States elect from their group a councilman to represent them at the zone level. Each of these 48 zone councils thus formed, elects a regional representative from their midst. Each of the nine regional councils then elects a member to serve on the national council which meets with company executives in Detroit. Zone, regional and national meetings and elections are held annually with a new council being formed each year.

Cotton Harvest Reaches Peak

The South Plains cotton harvest reached peak activity on Thursday and Friday, according to W. K. Palmer, in charge of the USDA Cotton Classing Office in Lubbock.

The three area USDA Classing Offices at Lubbock, Brownfield and Lamesa received samples from approximately 48,000 bales on Friday, Nov. 18 and received approximately 271,000 samples during the week ending Friday.

The three offices classed 258,000 samples during the same period, bringing the total classed this season to 433,000.

At this time last year 207,000 samples of the 1965 crop had been classed.

Estimates indicate that 50 to 60 per cent of this season's crop is now out of the fields. Middling Light Spotted was the predominant grade at Lubbock last week with 34 per cent of all cotton classed. Middling Spotted was next with 24 per cent. Strict Low Middling Light Spotted made up 18 per cent, Strict Low Middling Spotted 12 per cent, and all Tinged grades 4 per cent. Six per cent was reduced in grade because of bark. Average staple improved last week, averaging between 15/16 and 31/32 of an inch. Forty-four per cent of all cotton classed at Lubbock last week was 31/32 and longer compared to 29 per cent the previous week. Twenty-eight per cent of the cotton "miked" in the Lubbock Office was in the 3,5 and higher micronaire category, 14 per cent "miked" 3,3 and 3,4, 31 per cent was 3,0 through 3,2, 22 per cent 2,7 through 2,9 and 5 per cent 2,6 and below. The Consumer and Marketing Service of the USDA reported increased trading in the new crop cotton with prices steady. Average prices for the predominant qualities in the 3,5 to 4,9 micronaire range were: Middling Light Spotted 29/32 - 18,30, Middling Light Spotted 15/16 - 18,75, Middling Light Spotted 31/32 - 19,25, Strict Low Middling Light Spotted 29/32 - 17,30, Strict Low Middling Light Spotted 15/16 - 17,80, Strict Low Middling Light Spotted 31/32 - 18,20, Middling Spotted 29/32 - 16,60, Middling Spotted 15/16 - 17,05 and Middling Spotted 31/32 - 17,05. Prices paid farmers for cottonseed ranged from $60 to $74 per ton.
