49 Dead In Havoc Left By Hurricane

BOSTON (AP)—The northeast states surveyed devastation and havoc of hurricane Carol today as the death list mounted to 49 and unofficial estimates placed property damage at from 300 to 500 million dollars.

New England was hardest hit by the season's third hurricane which spent itself in Canada after its fierce whirl up the Atlantic coast yesterday.

Carol's greatest fury was spent along the Rhode Island and Massachusetts coast line. Cape Cod beach areas were littered with splintered cottages.

National Guardsmen patrolled Cape Cod towns to prevent looting. A major problem for householders and food handlers was lack of refrigeration. Scores of cities and towns were without power. Ice and dry ice were at a premium.

streets of some Cape Cod towns as evacuees slept in public buildings and at homes of the more fortunate.

The Providence River in Rhode Island spilled over into the state capital's downtown area, a half hour before high tide. Within an hour the entire business district was under four feet of water.

In Westerly, R. I., automobiles parked on the main street were covered completely by flood waters.

About 200 summer homes were reported swept away by the hurricane at Atlantic Beach, Westerly.

Damage in Newport, R. I., alone, was estimated in the millions. The famed Newport Casino was wrecked. So were many buildings on Bailey's Beach and Easton's Beach.

The casino was only one of many New England landmarks destroyed.

In Boston, the steeple of the Old North Church from which lanterns were hung to send Paul Revere on his famous midnight ride—crashed to the ground. Elms on Boston Common were blown down.

The Massachusetts Department of Agriculture reported the hurricane blew more than 1 1/2 million bushels of apples, nearly ready to be picked, from trees. Heavy damage to the apple crops also was reported in Maine.

An Agriculture Department spokesman said the corn crop in Massachusetts was destroyed, half the peach crop was damaged and the tomato crop suffered heavy loss. Crop damage was estimated at 15 million dollars in Massachusetts alone.

Adolph Hitler Began Second World War 15 Years Ago Today

FRANKFURT (AP)—Adolph Hitler started World War II 15 years ago today.

In the chilly dawn of Sept. 1, 1939, his troops invaded Poland plunging Europe into war.

Within six years Hitler was dead and the defeated German armies had surrendered unconditionally to the Allies.

Now, 15 years after it all began, West Germany is nearly back on its feet.

It still waits for sovereignty, however.

Only two days ago, Germany's dream of early independence were shattered when France, an old military and political foe, killed the European Defense Community.

German newspapers soberly reminded their readers today of the military conflict that "Hitler alone wanted" 15 years ago. They discussed with evident uncertainty the crisis now facing the country today.

New Motions In Batchelor Case Are Turned Down

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—New motions for dismissal of charges against Cpl. Claude Batchelor today delayed the expected start of testimony in the Army's general court-martial against the Texas soldier.

Defense attorneys again asked the charges, which allege Batchelor informed on his fellow prisoners in Korea, be dropped. Attorney Joel Westbrook claimed the charges were vague and indefinite.

He said they were based on articles of the uniform code of military justice which went into effect after Batchelor became a prisoner.

The trial judge turned down the motion and three others—making 14 motions denied so far. All the motions were for dismissal of charges or a delay in the trial.

Batchelor first chose to stay with his Red captors in Korea but later changed his mind and came home.

Polio Vaccine Reports Range From Optimistic To Cautious

By The Associated Press

Preliminary reports on effectiveness of the Salk polio vaccine range from "very encouraging" to "much-too soon" to tell.

These are the comments of medical men in counties across the country where the vaccine was administered to school children in the second grade, most of them 7 years old.

County health officers showed a general tendency to keep their fingers crossed until complete returns are in, even though a majority said they so far had discovered no cases among those vaccinated.

In some counties, there have been polio cases among those vaccinated. But health authorities said the patients could have contracted the ailment before receiving all three Salk shots.

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is withholding comment on effectiveness of the vaccine until it gets a report on a survey conducted independently at the University of Michigan.

A spokesman for the foundation said the polio season has not yet reached its peak and counseled against any premature findings.

The "very encouraging" report came from Dr. Leon Banov of Charleston, S. C., Charleston County health director.

"As health officer for the county, I am very much impressed with the vaccine," he said.

He said there had been 27 polio cases in the county since Jan. 1 and that not one child who received the vaccine has contracted the disease.

He noted that the only two 7-year-olds who contracted polio had not been vaccinated. He noted also that one 8-year-old contracted polio while his brother, 7, who had received the vaccine, remained unaffected.

The opinion that it is "much too soon" to determine results was given by Dr. Russell E. Teague of Harrisburg, Pa., state health secretary.

"The incidence of polio in Pennsylvania is usually at its highest in late August and early September," he told a newsman.

No cases have been reported in Pennsylvania among children who received the vaccine.

In New Jersey, Wallace B. Edgerton, state chairman of the National Foundation, said there had

President To Ink Social Security Bill During Day

FRASER, Colo. (AP)—President Eisenhower planned to sign into law today the big bill to extend the social security program and increase both benefits and payments.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said the Chief Executive would approve the measure, one which he urged Congress to enact, at his vacation ranch here.

The bill, the last major legislation passed by the 83rd Congress, increases present and future benefits, boosts taxes to foot the bills and extends coverage of the system to 10 million additional persons.

The higher benefit checks for 6 1/2 million persons now on the rolls will go out in early October, a month before the fall elections.

All the five million retired persons now on the social security rolls will get a minimum increase of $5 a month effective with their September check. The average payment for these persons is expected to go up $6 to about $57. The 1 1/2 million survivors and dependents will receive proportionate raises.

The benefit formulas are rewritten so that future benefits will increase considerably. For instance, the maximum payment for an individual will be $108.50 instead of $85 as at present. For a couple the new maximum will be $162.75 instead of the present $127.50.

The salary tax base will go up from $3,600 to $4,200 yearly effective next Jan. 1. Thus individual earnings $4,200 or more a year will have to pay $12 in additional taxes starting in 1955; his employer must do the same. For self-employed persons earning at least $4,200, the tax boost will be $18. The 2 per cent rate for employed workers and the 3 per cent rate for self-employed do not change until 1956.

The new compulsory coverage provided in the bill will extend to 3,600,000 farm operators, 2,100,000 farm hands, 100,000 engineers, architects, accountants and undertakers, 250,000 domestic workers, 100,000 home workers and 50,000 persons in the fishing industry.

Voluntary coverage is provided for 3,600,000 state and local government workers who must decide in referendums whether they wish to come in, 260,000 ministers and Christian Science practitioners, and 100,000 American citizens employed outside the United States by foreign subsidiaries of American companies.

McCarthy Loses First Round In New Probe

Senator's Lawyer Tries New Tactic

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The lawyer for Sen. McCarthy launched a new legal offensive today aimed at throwing out some of the charges against the Wisconsin senator.

Edward Bennett Williams turned to this after losing an attempt to get the special Senate committee investigating the charges to direct its vice chairman, Sen. Edwin C. Johnson, to clarify his personal stand on McCarthy.

Williams argued that the committee ought to drop a charge that McCarthy was contemptuous of a Senate Rules subcommittee which investigated McCarthy in 1952. He contended the subcommittee was "acting outside the scope of its authority from the first day" and hence it was impossible for McCarthy to be in contempt of it.

Chairman Watkins (R-Utah) did not rule on this immediately. He said he would order the committee staff to check into the points raised by Williams but also told the lawyer:

"We are not out on a wild goose chase in this inquiry."

Earlier, Watkins ruled firmly that Sen. Johnson (D-Colo.) has a right to sit in on the hearings regardless of what he might have said about McCarthy in the past.

Sen. Stennis (D-Miss.), another committee member and one of its three former judges, asked if Williams was arguing that the "Hennings subcommittee . . . was totally lacking in authority, and had no legal authority and no right to call Sen. McCarthy or anyone else" as a witness. Sen. Hennings (D-Mo) was the subcommittee chairman at the conclusion of its work, succeeding Sen. Gillette (D-Iowa) who resigned from the subcommittee.

"My feelings on that are dual," Williams said, explaining:

1. "The expulsion resolution was never passed on" by the Senate.
2. The subcommittee "deported" themselves in a manner that was contrary to all precedents of the Senate."
3. "They denied the accused the right to confront and cross-examine his accusers."
4. "In their mission they were outside the scope of their authority."

Once the legal argument was put aside, the hearing got its first witness.

They were B. L. Livingston and Joseph W. Hall, Associated Press reporters, who testified they had taken comments from McCarthy about Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) and Hendrickson (R-N.J.).

Flanders is the author of the censure resolution.

Livingstone said that during a

Sen. Maybank Dies From Heart Attack

WASHINGTON (AP)—Veteran Sen. Burnet R. Maybank (D-SC) died unexpectedly early today in Flat Rock, N. C., of a heart attack. He was 55.

A member of the family said Maybank was stricken without warning late last night. He said a doctor was called, but the senator died at 12:15 a.m.

His death cuts the number of Democrats in the Senate to 46. There are 48 Republicans and 1 Independent.

However, in traditionally Democratic South Carolina there was no doubt a Democrat would be named to succeed him.

Maybank first was elected to the Senate in 1941 to fill an unexpired term created by the resignation of James F. Byrnes, now governor of South Carolina. He was re-elected in 1946 and in 1948.

A native of Charleston, S. C., he served as his state's governor in 1939-41. In private life he was a cotton exporter.

He was a member of the Senate's Banking and Appropriations committees and was particularly active in the field of housing legislation.

During his 13 years in the capital, the genial, ruddy-faced senator gained a reputation for his ability to put through the Senate the many varieties of legislation produced by the Banking Committee.

Maybank is the eighth senator to die in the 83rd Congress.

Four others have died this year: Hugh Butler (R-Neb.), Clyde P. Hoey (D-NC), Lester C. Hunt (D-Wyo) and Dwight Griswold (R-Neb).

Three died last year: Willis Smith (D-NC), Charles W. Tobey (R-NH) and Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio).

Maybank was a staunch supporter of the late President Roosevelt, but like many other Southern senators he broke with the Truman administration over civil rights. He voted also to override President Truman's veto of the Taft-Hartley Act.

On the other hand, he voted consistently for the Truman administration's farm policy and the Marshall Plan for European recovery.

He stuck with the national Democratic party in 1952 when Byrnes supported President Eisenhower

Schedule Set Up For Highway 80 Property Talks

DALLAS (AP)—When E. M. McDonald's car was stalled on railroad tracks at the western outskirts of nearby Grand Prairie yesterday, a Santa Fe passenger train struck it.

McDonald's car was knocked into the next county—Tarrant.

About that time, a Texas & Pacific passenger train, going in the opposite direction, appeared.

McDonald, who had jumped from the auto before the first train hit it, thought he was going to see his car knocked back into Dallas County.

But crewmen on the first train used short wave radio to warn the second train and what would probably have been history's first two-train-one-car crash was avoided.

A schedule has been established by county commissioners for negotiations with property owners for the purchase of freeway right-of-way in the eastern half of the county.

The commissioners court will meet each Tuesday and Thursday to discuss right-of-way terms with property owners. The sessions will start at 10 a.m.

Commissioners ask that all owners of property to be incorporated in the Highway 80 expansion prepare estimates of the value of their land and damages to buildings and other structures expected to result from the highway widening.

The property owners are requested to meet with commissioners at any of the Tuesday or Thursday sessions regarding sale of property.

Officials are anxious to complete the acquisition of the freeway right-of-way and will conduct the Tuesday and Thursday meetings until all of the additional roadway has been secured.

Commissioners announced last week that stepped-up efforts to acquire right-of-way would result from receipt of additional deed forms and access agreements.

Judge R. H. Weaver said today that numerous contracts have been made and that one trade was completed yesterday. Negotiations are under way on several others.

Milton Brown, Coahoma, and commissioners agreed on a price of $1,200 for two lots and for relocation of a house in Coahoma.

The State Highway Department has allocated funds for construction of the freeway from Big Spring to the Mitchell County line and contract will be let as quickly as right-of-way is acquired and cleared.

Construction is progressing rapidly on the freeway across the western half of the county and work also is under way on the opening and widening of Fourth Street through Big Spring as a part of the new highway system.

U.S., British Set Deadline On Bonn Pact

LONDON (AP)—Diplomatic officials today said the United States and Britain have set a secret deadline for starting West German rearmament.

France and West Germany will be informed of this in the next few days along with another British-American agreement for restoring sovereignty to Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's Bonn government, the officials added.

This was reported as Prime Minister Churchill's Cabinet met in emergency session to consider the consequences of the French rejection of the European Defense Community project, devised as a means of using German troops in the defense of Western Europe under strict international safeguards.

The United States and Britain, said the diplomatic informants, intend warning France they will consider rearming the Germans on their own unless France formally and finally accepts:

1. That a German defense contribution to the West is essential.
2. That it must be launched within a fixed period—probably by mid-1955 at the latest.
3. That the shape and size of the German contribution, and the safeguards accompanying it, must be the subject of quick international negotiations—presumably by the foreign ministers of the 14 Atlantic pact partners.

The United States and Britain want these provisions written into a formal agreement between themselves, France and West Germany.

Officials said it is the British-American belief that such an agreement, with its statement of fixed intention, will pin down France to join the search for a quick alternative to EDC.

Demo, GOP Reports Both Rap Cohn, Army

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senators who spent 36 turbulent days probing the McCarthy-Army row split last night on whether Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) was at fault, but all of them aimed harshly at Roy M. Cohn and two high Army officials.

Republicans and Democrats diverged in parceling out responsibility in the controversy. Republicans absolved McCarthy of improper conduct but said he had been lax. Democrats attributed "inexcusable actions" to both the senator and Cohn, former chief counsel to the Senate investigations subcommittee McCarthy headed.

And both sides said Secretary of the Army Stevens had sought to appease McCarthy and Cohn and had failed to stand up for what he regarded as his rights. Both were critical too of Army Counselor John G. Adams.

Cohn, 27, who bore the sharpest criticism from both sides, commented that, apparently, anyone who seeks to expose communism "has to contend not only with the smears of Communists but with partisan politics as well." Cohn is a Democrat.

As for McCarthy, the Republicans said in their report that he had not tried personally to bring improper pressures to bear on the Army in behalf of Pvt. G. David Schine, an unpaid subcommittee consultant before he was drafted last November. The four GOP senators, however, said McCarthy should have exercised "more vigorous discipline" on his staff.

The three Democrats' report, on the other hand, said McCarthy deserved "severe criticism" and contended he had "fully acquiesced in and condoned" what they described as Cohn's improper tactics.

The Democrats also said that Stevens and Adams, as well as McCarthy and Cohn, merited "severe criticism." They said Stevens in the Schine affair had "pursued a course of appeasement" and had demonstrated "an inexcusable indecisiveness and lack of sound administrative judgment."

The Republicans, in somewhat similar language, held that Stevens "followed a course of placation, appeasement and vacillation throughout the period leading up to this controversy when he should have asserted himself by protesting promptly any efforts in Schine's behalf which he regarded as improper."

The Republicans said Cohn was "unduly aggressive and persistent" in behalf of Schine, a wealthy New Yorker and his close friend.

More bluntly, the Democrats said Cohn "misused and abused

Whitaker Dies In Electric Chair

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — His death house bravado gone, a dejected Walter E. Whitaker Jr. went to his death today at 12:06 a.m. in the Texas prison system's electric chair.

Whitaker was convicted and sentenced to death for the 1953 slaying of Joyce Fern White, 18, Lubbock, Tex., High School senior he courted while he was an Air Force cadet in her home town.

Joyce Fern's body was found in a shallow grave on the prairie west of Lubbock two weeks after she disappeared from the kitchen of her widowed mother's home.

Whitaker, during the long search for the girl, offered his aid and visited her grieving relatives to offer sympathy.

He was arrested after transfer from Reese Air Force Base at Lubbock but stubbornly denied any connection with the girl's disappearance. Then suddenly he decided to lead officers to Joyce Fern's strangled body.

At his trial in Lubbock, there was testimony that Whitaker drove a borrowed automobile down an alley to the rear of the White home. Joyce Fern was washing her hair in the kitchen, testimony said, but left hurriedly with the cadet to go to Clovis, N. M., to be married.

She was never seen alive again. Whitaker, 23, entered the death chamber at 12:02 a.m. (ST), received the first bolt of electricity at 12:04 a.m. and was pronounced dead two minutes later.

"I want to thank everybody who has helped me in any way," Whitaker said as he was being strapped into the electric chair.

He hesitated and added: "Well, I guess that's about it." Then he turned to C.R. Shepherd, prison superintendent of buildings, and said:

"Capt. Shepherd, thank you for being good to me." Those were his last words.

Rotary Fellowship Student Reports On Year In England

Britain still can be counted on as the firmest of any U. S. ally, in the opinion of a young woman who has studied for a year in England.

She is Miss Flossie Jones of Sweetwater, who was granted a scholarship at the University of Manchester under the Rotary International Fellowship program.

She came to Big Spring Tuesday night to report to the local Rotary Club on her year's experience, at a Ladies Night program at the Settles Hotel.

Miss Jones detailed interesting highlights of her activities and observations in the British Isles and short trips into Europe. She put great stress on the warm hospitality and genuine friendliness of the British people, she said.

The struggle between conservatism and socialism goes on, the young woman reported, and she regarded as one major British problem the growing tendency of the laboring class to depend upon government welfare.

The British people are most critical of the U. S., she reported, on such matters as (a) McCarthy (b) our educational system (they regard theirs as much better) and (c) our racial prejudices.

Miss Jones related personal details in such things as seeing the royal family, attending a garden party at Buckingham Palace, attending a Rotary convention of England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales, making trips to such European points as Barcelona, Madrid, Rome and Florence, seeing the rebuilding going on in German cities.

Despite all these thrills, she said it was good to return to America to see the big retail stores again, to "eat a hamburger," and to enjoy the warm dry climate of West Texas.

Club President Bill Crook presided for the meeting, and Miss Jones was introduced by Elma Wasson, a past District Governor of Rotary. Mrs. Don Newsom and Miss Margie Keaton entertained with vocal duets, accompanied by Mrs. Ike Robb.

Freedom is still the dearest thing England possesses, she said, and she felt this factor meant that the empire always could be counted on as a U. S. ally. Their foreign policy, she thinks, is tied inescapably with U. S. friendship.

Livingstone said he believed Flanders did. Williams said he wanted to establish what speech it was because its context might have a relation to the "remark that was promoted."

Flanders also quoted McCarthy as describing Hendrickson as "a living miracle without brains or guts."

DOG TROUBLES TROUBLE COPS

These must be dog days at the police station. Complaints are mounting concerning the canine population.

In one instance, police were asked to rush a "sick" dog to the city pound. He was, too, for the police blotter marked it up DOA (dead on arrival).

Another case involved a pup in the 600 block on Caylor. He was reported foaming at the mouth. This dog was taken to the vet-hospital for observation.

There were distress calls from the 100 block on NE 10th and NE 12th streets. One woman said dogs had barked all night; a man complained that dogs were worse than usual, and that they were bad enough as usual.

Officer Said Traitor, Pal

FT. SHERIDAN, Ill. (AP)—Varying testimony pictures Lt. Col. Harry Fleming as a leader who did all he could to make life easier for his comrades and a POW compound boss who threatened other prisoners in Korea with punishment if they did not cooperate with the Communists.

The different versions were told to an 11-member military court trying the career Army officer on charges of collaborating with the enemy during his 34 months as a prisoner of the Reds.

The Army general court-martial resumed today with Lt. Chester W. Van Orman of Gardiner, Maine, who was billeted in the same room with Fleming in a North Korean POW camp—still on the stand. It is the third day of the trial.

Fleming, 46, of Racine, Wis., faces a maximum sentence of life imprisonment, separation from the service and loss of all pay and allowances if convicted. Fleming has denied the Army charges.

Yesterday, while Fleming stared impassively at the witness with his hands clasped together on the table before him, Van Orman and another former prisoner, Sgt. Joseph T. Gardiner, of Iron Mountain, Mich., told varying stories about his actions in prison camps.

Gardiner testified Fleming threatened "on two or three occasions" to see that he was sent to the "caves"—a Communist punishment camp—"if I didn't straighten out."

Van Orman said that as the elected leader of prisoners in Camp 12 near Pyongyang, Fleming enforced health rules and tried to provide food and medical treatment for the prisoners.

At Center Point, the staff includes M. G. Kilgore, Mrs. J. W. Arnett and Ruth Haggard. The Midway faculty consists of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. McFall, Mrs. Swan F. Cramer and Mrs. Eleanor Garrett.

Teachers at Elbow are Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Bass, Mrs. True Dunagan and Mrs. W. O. Averett. The Vealmore staff is composed of R. C. McFerran, Mrs. Edith McBride and Mrs. Neva Springfield.

'Salesman' Turns Into Bank Robber In Harris County

HOUSTON (AP)—An "office supply salesman" turned into a shotgun-brandishing bank robber and escaped with about $10,000 from the Humble State Bank yesterday.

The middle-aged man left the scene of his quick change in a black Ford automobile and police road blocks, hurriedly thrown up, failed to get him.

Nine persons, including the bank's president, were left behind—locked in a vault. Maurice Burns, the president, managed to trip a safety bar about 10 minutes after the robbery and freed himself and the other eight persons.

Humble is a small oilfield town about 15 miles north of Houston. The man had been referred to Burns' office after entering the bank and asking, "Who buys all your office supplies?"

"Let me leave you some samples," he said to Burns, and pulled a sawed off shotgun from his "sample case."

"Get in there and fill that up," the "salesman" said to Burns. Burns did. "Everybody in the vault," the man ordered. "Don't anybody make a sound or I'll kill you."

Police were still looking today.

Judge Broadfoot Leaves Duval Post

AUSTIN (AP)—Judge A. S. Broadfoot returned to retirement today from a 5-month assignment as acting judge of the 79th District Court in South Texas.

The North Texas jurist's resignation was announced yesterday by Supreme Court Justice J. E. Hickman.

Hickman had called Broadfoot back to the bench March 20 to fill the judgeship from which Dist. Judge C. Woodrow Laughlin of Alice had been ousted by the Supreme Court.

Broadfoot said in his letter of resignation he wished to retire because he felt "physically unable to take care of the position as it should be cared for."

Hickman said he understood another judge may be named by Gov. Allan Shivers sometime after Sept. 15. If that is not done, he said, he will try to find another retired judge to take the post.

The court, however, did not preclude Laughlin's running for re-election, and the ousted judge sought and won the Democratic nomination.

Elevation was 3,190, depth 9,591, the 5 1/2-inch casing set at 8,591, and perforated from 8,564-74. Gas-oil ratio was 275-1, and tubing pressure was 105. A packer was used and completion was natural.

Howard

Texas & Pacific No. 1 Ruby Graham, 660 from the south and east lines of section 15-32-2n, T&P, drilled below 3,798 in lime.

Texas & Pacific Coal and Oil No. 1 Edward Simpson, C NE SE 3-32-2n, T&P, prepared to perforate the oil string at 9,925-28 feet and to test in the Siluro-Devonian. The casing is set at 9,904 and bottom of hole is 9,905. East week on a drillstem test it flowed at the estimated rate of 52 barrels per hour.

Winkler

J. C. Barnes and S. Lyman of Midland No. 1 Kerr, a scheduled 13,000 Ellenburger test in central Winkler County, five miles south of Kerritt, has developed considerable gas. The tool was open for 1 hour and 15 minutes. Recovery was 7,000 feet of free gas in the drillpipe and 1,000 feet of water blanket plus 20 feet of drilling mud. Flowing pressure was 500 pounds and the 15 minute shut-in pressure was 2,200.

The wildcard is drilling below 11,180. The prospect earlier indicated as a discovery gas and distillate producer in the Devonian. Location is 660 from the north and east lines of section 25-B, PSL.

Vietminh Release Captured Airmen

SAIGON, Indochina (AP)—French officials announced today the Vietminh have released the five U. S. Air Force and Army technicians captured last June in central Indochina.

The French said the men were freed yesterday in South Viet Nam at Qui Nhon, near Tourane. They were taken prisoner while swimming near the French air base at Tourane.

The men were part of an American mission of 200 technicians rushed to Indochina to help the French service their planes during the critical battle of Dien Bien Phu last spring.

Youth Rescued Alive From Cave-In In Ditch

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP)—Shoveling frantically for an hour and a half, a gang of sewer line diggers yesterday rescued a 16-year-old youth trapped under six feet of earth.

John Ricco, a member of the digging crew, was working alone at the bottom of a 14-foot ditch when the cave-in started.

Mishap Listed

One minor collision was reported at 100 Main Street on Tuesday to police. Involved were Robert Donald Brunk, Webb AFE, and Joe Veasour Nixon, 1104 Pickens. The mishap occurred at 8:13 p.m. and resulted in slight damages.

Two Men Assessed 10-Day Jail Terms

Jail terms were assessed against two persons in County Court Tuesday.

Joe Burge was sentenced to 10 days in the county jail after he pleaded guilty to charges of theft. He was charged with stealing a jacket, valued at more than $5, from Huey Birdwell.

Clyde Bevier, who also pleaded guilty to theft charges, received an identical sentence. Bevier was charged with theft of a radio, also valued at more than $5, from Julie Mae Jackson.

Charges against the two were filed Monday on information furnished by the police department. Mrs. H. A. Mills, charged with defrauding with worthless check, was fined $20 after she entered a plea of guilty.

County Asks Bids On Sprinkler System

Bids are being asked by county commissioners on the installation of an automatic sprinkler system for the courthouse grounds.

Proposals will be accepted until 10 a.m. Monday, Sept. 20. County Judge R. H. Weaver announced to inspect. Plans and specifications may be inspected at the judge's office, second floor of the courthouse.

Bids earlier were requested on two other phases of the courthouse square beautification project. Proposals will be opened Sept. 10 for the construction of walks, etc.

Bids have been asked by Supt. 13 for landscaping work. Plans for each of these projects also are available at the judge's office.

WINGS PRESENTED Individual Duties In Free Life Stressed

A challenge for each individual to meet his responsibility in preserving the freedom of the world was issued by Harley Sadler in an address Tuesday to a Webb Air Force Base graduating class.

It was Class 54-Q, and had the distinction of including on its roster six Cubans, first jet pilots in that country's history to be graduated from a U. S. base. Three mothers and the wife of one of the Cubans were flown here for the ceremony.

The officers will name a board of directors at the next session. Members voted to sponsor a ring candidate for the next Texas Temple Shrine Ceremonial, which will be held in Midland Nov. 12-13.

Anyone desiring to enter the local Shrine can contact Jimmy Dean by dialing 4-5316 or writing him, care Box 1168.

McCARTHY

(Continued From Page 1) noon recess of the McCarthy-Army hearings on June 11, McCarthy told him and other reporters, in commenting on a speech by Flanders, that "I think they should get a man with a net and take him to the good quiet place."

The quote had been cited by Flanders. Williams asked Livingston if Flanders, in the speech on which McCarthy commented, spoke of "civilization coming to an end" and if Flanders "drew parallels between Sen. McCarthy and Hitler."

Livingstone said he believed Flanders did. Williams said he wanted to establish what speech it was because its context might have a relation to the "remark that was promoted."

Flanders also quoted McCarthy as describing Hendrickson as "a living miracle without brains or guts."

Hendrickson was the only Republican member of the Elections subcommittee which investigated McCarthy in 1952.

Hall testified that on the night the report was issued McCarthy commented by telephone that Hendrickson was "a living miracle in the world who has lived so long without brains or guts."

Williams asked Hall whether McCarthy had not also said that if the senators who made the report "believed these things to be true, it behooved them to challenge" the seating of McCarthy at the opening of the new Congress the next day.

Hall replied that the story he had written at the time showed McCarthy had commented to that effect.

In the ruling on the Johnson matter, Watkins said: "I can't see how any legal objection of any shape or form can be made (to Johnson's sitting on the committee) that could be maintained as a matter of law or a matter of fact."

Watkins was affirming a ruling he made yesterday. McCarthy and his attorney, Edward Barrett Williams, had circulated to committee members a memo asking that the ruling be reversed and that Johnson be directed to say whether he was correctly quoted in a Denver Post article last March.

The memo said that statements attributed to Johnson, Colorado Democrat, "show a predilection and predisposition on his part" regarding the censure case against McCarthy.

Watkins said he believed he had the unanimous backing of the six-man committee in his stand. Sen. Ervin (D-N.C.) said he agreed 100 per cent with the chairman.

The Denver newspaper quoted Johnson March 12 as saying "in my opinion there is not a man among the Democratic leaders of Congress who does not loathe Joe McCarthy."

Johnson said at yesterday's public hearing that he had never said he "personally loathed" McCarthy, and expressed belief he could consider the issues impartially.

Declining to reverse his earlier ruling, Watkins said the committee is satisfied that Johnson can do what he said he could—consider the issues fairly.

Watkins said he wanted to expand on the reasons for yesterday's ruling because the country doesn't understand the situation.

The Constitution, he said, provides that the Senate or House shall be the judge of the qualification of its own members, and this has been construed as giving either branch the power to determine its own rules and to discipline its own members.

The committee, he said, does not "render any final decision. We do not find the accused innocent or guilty."

It merely gets all the facts and submits them to the Senate, which serves as a kind of court.

In the Senate, he said, a member can't be challenged or disqualified from passing judgment on a fellow senator even though he has said the fellow senator is a disgrace to the Senate.

If that were possible, and all Senate members had taken a position in advance, there "could be no trial."

Williams, in asking that the memorandum go into the record, said: "All I want is to have our position preserved in the record."

Watkins told him his position was preserved already.

It Happens Every Year

Wherever the American Legion gathers in annual convention, there is always the startled woman and the "growler"—a tin can and rosin string noisemaker. There's no doubt about the results in Washington of an Ohio Legionnaire's "growler" treatment of a pretty Washington girl—it apparently was a howling success. (AP Wirephoto.)

Legionnaires Settle Down To Business After Parade

By RUSSELL BRINES
WASHINGTON (AP)—Tired but still exuberant Legionnaires turned back to serious convention business today after staging one of the longest parades in the nation's history. Up for decision were a bushful of resolutions on important subjects—such as universal military training, foreign policy and medical treatment for veterans. And once again, on this third day of the American Legion's annual get-together, some of the country's leading figures were on hand to address the country's largest veterans' organization. One scheduled speaker was AFL president George Meany, who criticized President Eisenhower's foreign policy. He declared in prepared remarks that Eisenhower has told the country to stop thinking in terms of world leadership—an attitude, Meany said, which "can lead only into the blind alley of defeat." Veterans Administrator Harvey V. Higley, in another prepared address, figured that the government's potential obligation to future veterans is climbing at the rate of 45 million dollars for each month the Korean emergency stays on the books. Higley said those who would curb federal benefits to veterans are using this fact—that the state of emergency has never legally been declared ended—to further their arguments. Many a blue-eyed Legionnaire was still rubbing the sleep from his eyes as he hurried to today's convention business—a few scant hours after the mammoth 11 1/2-hour parade of some 125,000 down historic Pennsylvania Avenue. That was the largest procession ever of drum majorettes, Legionnaires, ladies' auxiliary members and fun-poking 40-and-6ers. The old record was 70,000 plus at New York in 1947. Washington Police Chief Robert V. Murray, who hovered along the 1 1/2-mile route in a helicopter, estimated the number of watchers at 750,000 to a million. He said it was Washington's biggest crowd since the nation's championship two-day parade at the end of the Civil War.

IT HAPPENED

Way To Lose Lunch

DALLAS (AP)—A Dallas housewife has filed a claim against the city for spoiling her lunch. Mrs. Genevieve Chandler's car recently was towed to the city auto pound for an alleged parking violation. Mrs. Chandler said that in checking property in the car, police dropped her picnic lunch basket, ruining the lunch and breaking dishes. She itemized her bill yesterday in a letter to City Secretary Harold C. Shank. "Two fried chickens $4, two bowls $3, potato salad $1.50, three glasses 30 cents, three plates $1.50—total $10.30."

Forgetful 'Chutist

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (AP)—Parachutist Ralph Rodriguez bailed out, but he forgot an important item of equipment—a parachute. Ralph is only nine, and in demonstrating the technique of the paratroopers to his girl friend, Lorraine Nielsen, 10, he simply leaped from the second story back porch of her house yesterday. He landed on the back fence. At San Pedro Emergency Hospital doctors took 15 stitches in his back.

Daring Bootlegger

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Oklahoma, a constitutionally dry state, has brazen bootleggers in abundance but there's one officer would like to lay hands on. This gent was so full of daring that he cooked off a batch of old-fashioned corn whiskey and burned his barrels right on the shore of Lake Hefner, a popular Oklahoma City fishing spot and a source of the city's water supply. "He apparently moved to the lake for a water supply when the drought ran him out of the woods," Deputy Sheriff Frank Lynch said.

'Cry Wolf' Too Often

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.—A little boy rushed in and told his parents "somebody's robbing the supermarket." "Aw, go on out and play," they scoffed, knowing how he loved to play cops and robbers. Out he trudged, crestfallen. His first big case and nobody believed him. T. J. Hubbard, manager of the market, yesterday reported to police that a safe had been opened the night before and $112 stolen.

Bible Quotes No Case

CINCINNATI (AP)—"Blessed are the merciful who can forgive false testimony," quoted Fred C. Bingham, 29, in Criminal Court yesterday. "Blessed are the merciful who give mercy," chorused Lawrence Collins, 31. Judge John M. Renner listened to their pleas and then said: "I don't know how you had time to read the Bible with your criminal records." He then sentenced the pair to one to five years in the Ohio Penitentiary for housebreaking.

Mine Workers Cut Aid, Have Surplus

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United Mine Workers welfare fund reported last night that the discontinuance of two emergency programs helped it to amass a surplus of 1 1/2 million dollars in the year ended June 30. This compares with a deficit of 7 1/2 million dollars for the preceding year. The discontinued programs provided temporary maintenance for miners' widows and orphans and special maintenance for families of miners undergoing rehabilitation.

South Texas harvesting crews are moving into this area in larger numbers these last few days, according to Leon Kinney, manager of the Big Spring office of the Texas Employment Commission, and Calmon Williams, the TEC's local farm labor specialist. The Big Spring Labor Camp was filled up Monday night. The camp, which had gotten in bad repair, has been ordered put in first class shape, Kinney said he had been told by County Judge R. H. Weaver. Under the law the TEC cannot certify the need for Braceros until every effort has been made to find employment for native farm workers, and all TEC offices have been so instructed. "Native workers" include such harvest hands as can be brought into this West Texas area from parts of South Texas and East Texas where there isn't any work for them, because of a short, and disappointing, cotton crop, or perhaps for other reasons. Farmers out here in West Texas aren't any too happy about this situation. These "native workers," the farmers say, want to pick only the best (and easiest harvested) of all the cotton and then move on while the Braceros will gather it all, the worst as well as the best. The pay rate is $1.55 for pulling, $2.05 for picking and from 25 to 35 cents for weighing and hauling. The TEC which reports the cotton ginned for the Department of Agriculture, and the other concerned federal departments, will begin these reports next Tuesday, and these will be the reports used by this column this year, as last year, for the state, because of their accuracy and less risk of duplication. These reports will come from all gins in all counties and will include crop and employment conditions throughout the harvest season. The TEC was due to make its initial crop estimate yesterday (Tuesday).

As to getting South Texas crews into this area, Kinney said he and Williams put in an order for workers to the San Antonio office of the TEC Friday, and had the crews here ready to go to work Sunday morning. "It looks like we can get them moved in here pretty fast," Kinney said. But neither at the TEC office, or at the office of the Howard County Farm Bureau, where Cecil Leatherwood is looking after hands hired through the Bureau, does the impression seem to prevail that there will be enough of these "native workers" to complete the job. Everybody, farmers included, takes the view that eventually it is going to be necessary to bring in Mexican Nationals or Braceros to bring about a complete harvest. Crews that reached Big Spring have come from Encino, Brenham and Bryan, with one large crew dropping down this way from Lubbock to work in this section until there is more work available on the High Plains. But presently, even with the larger crews of "native workers" moving in there still aren't enough workers here to satisfy the immediate demand of the farmers. Some farmers have reported the "natives" reluctant to take the pulling and picking jobs with the farmers themselves doing the weighing and hauling and thus cutting down the crew's income by from 25 to 35 cents per hundred pounds.

Yesterday in the "Around The Rim" column on the editorial page of this newspaper, we told the story of the annual observance of "Sucker Day" in Wetumka, Oklahoma, an occasion on which the citizens of that community annually recall, with much humor and fun, the time a fake circus advance agent hit that town and took the whole community for a nice roll of cash and much entertainment and free board. After this story was written and handed in it went to a Linotype operator by Bill Rigby of the Herald staff. Bill reported to this desk immediately—and with his credentials. "I wish I had known you were going to write that story," he said, "look here!" And he handed us those credentials proving that he was one of the organizers and first presidents of the Wetumka Sucker Club. Bill was a newspaperman in Wetumka when the fake circus man came there. And Bill was really one of the suckers. He printed up a lot of circus posters and ran some newspaper space advertising for the circus that existed only in the fake promoter's imagination. And, like all those other Wetumkans, all Bill got for it was experience and some laughs at the other suckers while these same other suckers laughed at him.

We are glad to see back in her home again, and fully recovered, a Big Spring lady who was hospitalized, seriously ill, when she accidentally vaccinated herself against smallpox, on the neck. When she first went to the hospital she certainly had medical science puzzled. They'd never seen an infection just like it on the throat, but finally they figured it out and then confirmed their findings by checking her memory of just what happened. This lady had her son vaccinated so he would be ready to enter school. She had never been vaccinated herself. One day he came in and asked her to pull the loose scab off this vaccination. She did and about that time there was an itching on her throat. Without thinking she scratched this itching with the same fingers she had used in removing the scab from her son's arm. She didn't scratch her neck hard, but just hard enough. She vaccinated herself on the throat.

Play-Offs Are Set In School Piano Salesmen's Dispute

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—The play-offs of the Anne Arundel school teachers' piano dispute will be held Friday at Glen Burnie High School. Music teachers will get a chance to tickle the ivories of four anonymous pianos to see which they like the best. The dispute reached a crescendo when Donald O. Keeney complained he could sell pianos to the county school system cheaper than a competitor but that the specifications had been rigged to exclude the brand he handles. Dr. David S. Jenkins, county superintendent, arranged the play-off and two new entries yesterday promised a quartet. "We'll put all the pianos in a room and number them 1, 2, 3 and 4," Dr. Jenkins said. "Their names will be blanked out." "The music teachers will file past and play around with them. Each school will get the kind of piano its teacher wants. There will be no sales talks."

Mary Margaret McBRIDE SAYS

This fascinating new trend in name-calling has one clear-cut virtue: It sends people to the dictionary who haven't gone there since their school days. I think Clare Boothe Luce may have started the whole thing with "globaloney" some years ago. You couldn't find that word in any dictionary then for she made it up, but it's there now. So is gobbledegook, which is onomatopoeic and largely self-explanatory. A former vice president prodded reporters toward their lexicons by calling somebody a "troglodyte" which sounds worse than it is since it means merely a cave dweller or a person living in seclusion. There was a pause for ammunition-gathering until last December when an ex-president termed his political enemies "snollygosters," a fine-sounding word with a sneer in it. Snollygoster caused considerable argument, though, for while a dictionary defines it as "a pretentious boaster," the son of the Civil War Georgia editor credited with coining the word "political" means a "political also-ran, a little man always trying for an office too big for him and never getting anywhere."

How, for instance, would you like to be called a "lanugineous gowk?" (Meaning half-covered fool or simpleton.) Or an "opernose googly?" (Industrious bowled ball that swerves first one way and breaks in the other, thus interpretable as a determined fence-sitter.) Would you be angry if somebody said you had the brains of a planula (a ciliated free-swimming larva of a ciliate characterized by the solid interior)? Or the bite of a snailpalm (mustard plaster)? You could call your adversary a fair-ant (idler), a lansuquet (mercenary footsoldier armed with a lance or pike), or a saury (snout-nosed fish). This trend may start a saucy put in the Washington book stores which no publisher would wish to minify. But when you're playing at being even a part-time orismologist you must be darned. Fabian lest you indulge in either a lapsus lingue or a lapsus calami. Aw, I'm sick and tired of the whole thing — look these up for yourself!

However that may be, snollygoster SOUNDS belittling, which was the ex-President's intent. A speechmaking New England senator was the one who came up with "gallimaufry," used as a noun to describe a certain kind of a trip. Faithful Webster's defines gallimaufry as a hash of liver-and-lights or any absurd medley. But gallimaufry is such a pretty word that I'd like to see it taken out of the invective category and used for a stage name: Jeannette Gallimaufry, soprano, for instance. It seems likely that after Mr. Truman's and Senator Flanders' successes, many of our more vocal statesmen have been curling up with good unabridged in the hope of dredging up something headline-worthy and interesting. I went on such an expedition myself today, and in a short time found between a and t some very interesting expletives. How, for instance, would you like to be called a "lanugineous gowk?" (Meaning half-covered fool or simpleton.) Or an "opernose googly?" (Industrious bowled ball that swerves first one way and breaks in the other, thus interpretable as a determined fence-sitter.) Dior Shape

Here are two of the most important silhouettes from the controversial Paris collection of Christian Dior, who created the furor among buyers and the press when he introduced the flattened bustline as his "new new look." At left is a dinner ensemble in black nylon velvet, consisting of skin-tight sheath dress and flared tunic; right, evening costume in yellow matte velvet of nylon, cotton and silk blend, with full-skirted gown drawn tight across the bosom, and matching loose jacket banded in wild mink. The bustline is achieved by means of a foundation with half cups, which raises and minimizes the bosom.

Anti-Red Issue Is Soft-Pedaled By GOP Chiefs

By JACK BELL
CINCINNATI (AP) — Republicans soft-pedaled the anti-Communist issue today as they prepared to wind up in conferences with Vice President Nixon a strategy-planning session for the November election battle over control of Congress.

Nixon flew into town last night with the observation that he would be "too busy with other things" even to read the reports of a Senate Investigations subcommittee which criticized in varying degrees the actions of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) and Secretary of the Army Stevens in their televised controversy.

Nixon told reporters he thinks a proposed GOP National Committee statement of issues stressing a "peace, progress and prosperity" theme offers "good objectives to emphasize in the campaign."

National Chairman Leonard W. Hall, who told Nixon party leaders are "confident but not overconfident" of retaining control of both houses in the November balloting, dismissed the McCarthy Army report as unlikely to have much, if any, effect on the outcome.

Hall said, with an air of not caring that he has no knowledge of any plans McCarthy may have to campaign for Republican senatorial candidates.

A conference subcommittee, headed by Harry Darby of Kansas, brushed aside the anti-Communist issue with three brief sentences in a 950-word campaign document which said the "basic issue" before the voters is: "The Eisenhower administration must have a Republican Congress to complete the Republican program of peace, progress and prosperity, now well under way."

Expected adoption of this slogan appeared to represent complete agreement by party organization leaders with President Eisenhower's contention that his legislative program — and not a continuing controversy with the Democrats over Communist hunts — represents the best bet for Republican candidates.

UNCLE RAY'S CORNER

The housewife places the garbage in a covered can until the time of collection.

In all advanced countries there are public health departments. Certain nations, including Great Britain and Sweden, have free medical and dental service for all people inside the boundaries.

Whether an advanced country has public or private medicine, it is sure to have a national health department.

Besides the officials in the national capital, there are local public health officers in various cities and towns.

In times gone by, many persons let their garbage gather for weeks at a stretch. At the opening of the present century, few families had covered garbage cans.

The public collection of garbage is a forward step of modern times.

When garbage was exposed outdoors (or inside a house) it was a center of interest for houseflies. A house of 40 or 50 years ago was likely to be the home of hundreds of flies.

Nowadays a city has special ways of taking care of garbage. Usually the garbage is collected once or twice a week. The housewife places the garbage in a covered can until the time of collection.

In the same way modern cities take special care of the public water supply. Health officers and their assistants make frequent tests of the water to make sure that it is

It Takes Time For Real Friendship--And Love

Play "cat and mouse." Use the jealousy angle. Food is always the best bait. Advice, advice! How much of it you've heard! Ninety-nine and forty-four one-hundredths per cent of it tells you how to be popular by "handling" your date with any one of a thousand lines and approaches.

While you're brushing up on your various smooth techniques, don't overlook the importance of handling yourself. A lot of drastic "bluffs" are made in that department.

When you're out with someone who makes you palpitate all over, then is when the trouble starts. You try so hard and get so carried away with emotion, you can't help being more nervous than usual, and consequently you make a mess of things.

Some people drift into the "confidential" mood and have a yen to tell their innermost secrets to the person who strikes them as being extra special. We all yearn to find someone toward whom we can feel as Emerson wrote:

"A friend is a person with whom I may be sincere. Before him I may think aloud...I may drop upon those undermost garments of dissimulation, courtesy, and second thought, which men never pure. Doctors say that impure water can spread typhoid and other dangerous diseases.

In their efforts to guard the public, city officials may direct their assistants to add chlorine to the water supply. This is done in many, but not all, cities.

A discovery of the past decade has led many cities to add something else to the public water, namely flourine (pronounced FLOO-reen or FLOO-rin). After long study, various scientists and dentists declared that flourine would save the children in a city from suffering so much decay of their teeth. As a result, small amounts of flourine are added to the water in scores of cities.

Prison Choir Takes Chance; 3 Escape

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (AP)—The nine-member choir of the Iredell Prison Camp sang at the Mt. Sinai Church of God near here.

After the service the congregation was host to the choir at a chicken dinner.

Soon Fair and Green disappeared. Guards are still looking for the three choristers.

Less Famed Napoleon's Heir Claims Title To Texas Land

AUSTIN (AP)—A descendant of Napoleon, but not the Napoleon you're thinking about, is reported on his way from Europe to Texas to claim a billion dollar oil fortune.

He claims to be a descendant of the Napoleon who fought for the Republic of Texas more than a century ago and was killed in the Goliad, Tex., massacre of March 19, 1836. The battle was part of Texas' struggle for independence from Mexico.

Recipe Of Baker Brings Sentence

KAISERLAUTERN, Germany (AP)—A U.S. Army baker has been convicted here of adding nails, bolts, bottles and a light bulb to bread dough.

Sgt. Leslie C. Keith of Rt. 3, Dalton, Ga., was sentenced to six months in jail and reduced to the rank of private by a general court-martial Monday.

Two loaves containing glass got as far as the GI consumers and were submitted as evidence.

Defense counsel contended that Keith acted to spite his superior, Sgt. J. G. Spioer of Hopewell, Va., and never intended that the bread leave the bakery.

WACO (AP)—CIO Transportation Union members yesterday accepted a pay raise of 5 cents an hour, thus averting a city bus strike set for midnight last night.

Frans Dempinski, 63, an East German refugee, is leaving soon to claim a share in the estate he says was left by a forebear he identifies as Louis Napoleon, killed in the Goliad battle.

Giles said land grants in Wichita, Dimmitt and Franklin counties were made to the heirs of an N. Dembriskie for his service in the army of the Republic of Texas and were patented in 1851 and 1875.

Whether Dempinski and Dembriskie are the same, or whether there are two Germans with dreams of wealth in Texas, was not clear.

What is clear is that the land has passed through a number of hands in the intervening century and it will take considerable litigation to establish title.

The state's General Land Office has on file an affidavit stating that Alexis and Annie Dembriskie of New York City were the parents of the man killed March 19, 1836, in the Goliad massacre.

Also on file is an 1887 decree of the probate court of Dimmitt County appointing L. N. Wathball as guardian of the minor heirs and a decree of the district court of Wichita County by which the sole heirs of N. Dembriskie recovered 1,920 acres in Wichita County.

But all records of subsequent transfers and title to these lands are in the county clerk's records in the counties where the land is situated.

Giles doesn't have information as to the land's present owners or the land's value.

Body Exchange Starts In Korea

By GENE KRAMER
PANMUNJOM (AP)—The bodies of 800 men killed in the Korean War, including 193 Americans, started home today in the first exchange of soldiers who died and were buried in enemy territory.

The 193 Americans were among 200 Allied bodies which eight dark green Russian-built military trucks delivered to the U.N. Command in a green valley of the neutral zone. The seven other bodies were not identified as to nationality.

U.S. Army trucks brought to the exchange point the bodies of 500 Koreans and 100 Chinese soldiers. The exchange is expected to continue more than a month. The Reds said they would turn over the bodies of 131 Americans, 3 Britons, 33 Koreans and 13 bodies unidentified as to nationality tomorrow.

The Allies will deliver 600 more Communist bodies. The bodies received yesterday were taken by U.S. Army trucks southward into territory for solemn ceremonies in which Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, 8th Army commander, and 40 chaplains of different faiths took part.

The bodies will be kept in a white quonset hut until Sept. 3, when they will be moved by train to Pusan and by ship to Kokura, Japan.

Although the Communists supplied a list of names, none of the bodies will be identified until after positive identification is made from Washington. This may take several months.

Arkansas Cattle Fed With Downed Trees

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Stock men and state drought representatives reported that "for the first time in their memory" they have seen trees on farms hacked down to feed cattle.

State Sen. Marvin Melton of Jonesboro, Ark., chairman of Gov. Francis Cherry's Drought Committee, said yesterday that "cattle are eating the leaves of the downed sassafras and small pine trees with relish."

Football's Fill The Air; Colleges Begin Practice

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP) — College football came out of the mothballs today when most of the schools across the country started their fall workouts—just two weeks before the first full Saturday program. The coaches, including more than half a dozen new ones at major colleges, wasted little time with formalities and got down to the problem at hand right away—how to teach their charges to win games. A few have only one week to prepare as there are a scattering of minor games a week from Saturday. Some have two weeks, while the majority will swing into action Sept. 25. On Sept. 18, the first nationally televised game will be California-Oklahoma at Berkeley and that one could properly come at the wind-up of the season because it will test two titans.

Of all the coaches who will be on the spot, young Terry Brennan at Notre Dame will have the most cause to worry. He will be filling the shoes of the departed master Frank Leahy, whose success at South Bend was fabulous.

The 26-year-old Brennan will have to rebuild more than half the 1953 team and his first opponent on Sept. 25 is Texas, no pushover for anyone. Two of his biggest problems are finding replacements for All America Johnny Lattner and fullback Neil Worden.

Other new faces at major schools include Hugh Daugherty at Michigan State, Steve Sebo at Penn State, Paul Bryant at Texas A&M, Frank Reagan at Villanova, Vince Di Francesco at Iowa State and Murray Warmath at Minnesota.

Daugherty, too, will have a big job. He is stepping into the place vacated by Biggie Munn, who led the Spartans to the Big Ten championship in their first year in the league. Then they won the Rose Bowl game. He has lost 16 players but has 20 lettermen returning.

Munn has been promoted to Spartan athletic director and promised he will have nothing to do with running the team. Sebo was Munn's backfield coach at Penn State. Bryant came from the University of Kentucky. Reagan was an assistant coach with the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League. Di Francesco coached at Western Illinois State last year. Warmath is from Mississippi State.

Point Of No Return In AL

The New York Yankees have lost their last chance to stop the Cleveland pennant dash singlehanded.

Unless somebody else is willing to help, the five-year New York monopoly in the American League is doomed to end this month. Only four games remain between the record-bound Indians and the second-place Yankees and the Yankees trail by 5 1/2 lengths. The point of no return was reached last night. The Yankees got only two hits as Cleveland roared down the warpath to a 6-1 triumph. Hurricane weather forced the postponement of the Chicago White Sox game in Boston.

TOTAL OF 964 DUCATS SOLD

A record of 964 season tickets for home football games of the Big Spring Steers has been sold here.

The mark tops by an estimated 64 the aggregate purchased last season by local fans.

There is every indication the number will top 1,000 before the first home game is played on Sept. 24. The ducats, priced at $6 each and good for five home games, are available at the School Tax Office.

Persons who have placed orders for tickets but who have not yet picked them up are urged to call at the Tax Office before noon Saturday. Those not paid for by that time will be placed on the open market.

Tickets for the Andrews game Sept. 10—1,000 of them, priced at $1.25 each—will arrive here Monday morning and be placed on public sale at the Tax Office.

They will remain available here until noon Friday, when those not sold must be returned to Andrews.

The seats sent here are in choice locations in the east stand at Andrews.

Tanner's Home Run Gives Pampa Win

By The Associated Press

Rudy Tanner blasted a three-run homer over the left field wall to bring Pampa from behind to a 5-4 victory over Plainview in the West Texas-New Mexico League Tuesday night.

The two-out blow kept the Oilers just one game behind league-leading Clovis which rolled past Amarillo, 16-8.

Ablene defeated Lubbock, 9-4, in the other game.

Plainview had scored twice in the bottom of the eighth to take a 4-2 lead in the final home game for the Ponies.

No 1 Green At Tournament Site
The Big Spring Country Club offers this sight to the golfer as he leaves the first tee and nears the green. Note the fine stand of grass on the fairways. The course is in great shape for its 23rd annual invitational tournament, which begins Friday and extends through Monday.

Zapp Ties Julio's Home Run Record

SAN ANGELO (SC) — Jim Zapp tied the all-time Big Spring record for home runs and Tito Arcebia won his 14th mound decision of the season as the Broncos split a double header with the San Angelo Colts here Tuesday night, 6-0 and 8-7.

Zapp rapped his 31st round tripper in the first game. He is now tied with Julio Delatorre, who set the standard earlier this season before departing for Amarillo. Zapp will try to break the Bronco record in the two-game Odessa series, which starts tonight in Odessa. He will also play in a two-game series against Roswell beginning in Big Spring Friday and wind up the season in a twin bill against Carlsbad at Big Spring on Sunday.

Zapp got his 31st home run in his 84th game with Big Spring. Delatorre was with Big Spring 105 games. Bob Vrucek and Audie Malone combined pitching talents in the night cap to enable the Colts to split a twin bill. Vrucek had a no-hitter going for four innings but after two walks, Bertie Baez broke the spell. The inning featured a four run frame and moved the Broncos within three runs at the time.

San Angelo scored four runs in the first inning off two Big Spring hurlers and two more in each of the third and fourth frames. A single by Bob Martin, an error and a walk loaded the sacks in the seventh for the Steers but Malone fanned Pete Simone to end the game.

All of the runs in the first game in the fifth inning off loser Russ Agne who had given up but one hit, that to leadoff man Louis Caballero in the first inning. After Bob Martin singled, Jim Zapp homered. Agne fanned the next two, but a single and two walks loaded the bases. Floyd Martin's high fly fell between Dub Graves and Paul Weeks for two runs and another pair came in on Bob Martin's double.

The Colts got only five singles off Arcebia, two infield hits and another blooper. FIRST GAME

STORMY EDWARDS. He's been handicapped by a broken leg suffered three years ago but in spring training he opened the eyes of the coaches with consistently good performances. Stormy is a fullback who has shown promise as a ball carrier and a blocker.

EDWIN FAUBION. The Steers almost lost Edwin recently but he decided to stay on because he loved the game. He's grown amazingly since last year and could make any back hustle for his job. The coaches like his attitude, too.

TRUETT NEWELL. Truett is a light-hearted but hard-working youngster who two years ago was playing six-man football. After moving here, he made the change-over to the 11-man game without a hitch. He's a great open-field tackler, which showed good coaching in the six-man game, and could become a real defensive bulwark in Coach Coleman's defensive scheme.

RONNIE PHILLIPS. A real comer as an offensive back. Ronnie is going to have to size before he gets out of school to wrestle with the giants. Very determined to make good now.

JAMES WASHBURN. He'll never be blessed with an over-abundance of size but he ranks with Barron as the best scrapper in camp. He suffered a broken shoulder blade last spring but was out as soon as he could watching the others drill. He'll meet you coming and going and is always looking for that clink in your defensive armor.

The above are by no means all who fall into the category of ambitious, "give no quarter, take none" gridder. Others will be mentioned here from time to time.

Al Vincent's Cats Close In On San Antonio Nine

Grim old Al Vincent, the Texas League's silver fox, had his Fort Worth Cats on the threshold of the first division today in a late-season drive that's the talk of the circuit. Downtrodden and forlorn most of the campaign, the Cats have caught fire down the stretch and today are just one-half game back of faltering San Antonio.

Last night the Cats scored in the ninth to beat Oklahoma City, 2-1, while San Antonio was idled by rain. Now the odds appear to be swinging toward Fort Worth. San Antonio must play two games tonight with Beaumont. Only seven games remain as the race rolls into its final stages with Shreveport resting on top by a margin of five games. Oklahoma City in second place and Houston third, just one game back of Oklahoma City.

Ev Jorney socked two home runs and Arnie Atkins pitched four-hit ball as Shreveport lashed Houston, 6-1 before 11,483 fans at Houston. It prevented the Buffs from drawing into a tie for second place with Oklahoma City. Tulsa scored in the 12th on a blooper hit by Bob Prentice to beat Dallas, 4-3, but a victory by Tulsa

Roden Replaces Buster Tuttle

Bill (Red) Roden, former member of the local Country Club but now a resident of Odessa, has replaced Buster Tuttle of Lamesa as the visiting captain for the Hall and Bennett Trophy matches, which take place on the first day of the Big Spring Invitational Golf Tournament Friday.

Tuttle informed Champ Rahwarter, local captain, that he could not be here Friday. Buster, however, will probably come down early to qualify for the 23rd annual tournament and return to compete in it Saturday.

The popular Roden, three times an invitational champion, readily agreed to replace Tuttle as visiting captain and said he would probably use Ernie Vossler, Fort Worth; Bob Brannon, Odessa; Bob French, Odessa; Bob Wortman, Midland; Bill White, Lamesa; and Arlyn Scott, Odessa, on the team.

It's considered definite that Vossler will be on hand for the tournament, along with Bobby Malone, ace lefthander. Both hail from Fort Worth. Ernie, a plumber by trade, has won seven tournaments across the state this year.

He started off by copping the Sweetwater Invitational, then sacking up the Wichita Falls Invitational crown; the Men's State Amateur; Men's West Texas; the Ranchland Hills Invitational at Midland; and Odessa Invitational. He also made a fine showing in national tournaments around the nation.

Roden will be one of the favorites to sack up the invitational championship. He is the only three-time winner in the history of the tournament. The Big Spring Invitational is one of seven tournaments being staged in the Southwest over Labor Day. However, the field may include as many as 150 players. Much more interest is being shown in this year's meet than in 1953, when 117 competed.

Other tournaments are scheduled at Hobbs, N. M.; Midland, Austin, Pampa, Marlin and Hamilton. W. R. Tuttle, brother of Buster, came down from Lamesa Tuesday and posted a 72, the lowest score of any qualifier yet. Ben Alexander, another Lamesan, had a 73. In all, 50 linksters had paid their entry fees this morning and more were scheduled to qualify today.

Texans Defeated In Softball Meet

SELMA, Calif. (AP)—Defending champion Long Beach, Calif. Nitehawks beat Longmont, Colo., 2-0, last night for its seventh consecutive shutout in two years of the International Softball League World Tournaments here. Arlington, Tex. lost to Paltville, Colo., 5-2, and was knocked out of the 10-day double-elimination tournament.

Gavilan Has Virus, Bout With Saxton Postponed

By MURRAY ROSE
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A virus infection sent welterweight champion Kid Gavilan to bed and once again put off his apparently fixated title fight with Johnny Saxton, this time until October.

The 28-year-old Cuban was stricken so suddenly yesterday that neither promoter Herman Taylor nor the co-promoting International Boxing Club could come up with a substitute fight for tonight's weekly Wednesday coast-to-coast boxing telecast. It was the first time that a live TV fight of some sort could not be staged as scheduled.

And Taylor said it was the first time in his 45 years in boxing that he could remember that a title fight ever was called off by illness on the eve of the contest. It was a first for Gavilan too. He said he never had a fight postponed before in his eight years in the United States, a record he had been very proud of.

Taylor said he would start re-funding about $30,000 starting Friday or Saturday, the veteran pro-motor said the twice-postponed scrap would be held sometime in October, probably in Convention Hall. Gavilan promised Taylor that he would fight then. Frank Wiener, chairman of the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission, who was summoned from his home at 9 p.m. last night, said that the champion would be placed on the "unavailable list" until he went through with the fight.

Gavilan's manager, Angel Lopez, said the Kid had a lump on the left side of his face Tuesday morning but that he had insisted on going through eight rounds of exercise to bring his weight down. Lopez said Gavilan had his dinner in the evening and then complained about 7 p.m. that he wasn't feeling well. Dr. Samuel Swetnick, his personal physician, was summoned.

He found that Gavilan was suffering from a virus infection, had a temperature of 101 degrees and an inflammation of the left parotid gland (near the ear). Two other physicians made independent examinations and agreed.

Andrews' Pass Artist

James Durbin, 145-pound, letterman quarterback for the Andrews Mustangs, practices handling the ball with the use of the mechanical center bought recently by the Andrews school system. Durbin will see much action against Big Spring in the opening football game for both teams a week from Friday night.

HAS 68 HOME RUNS

Joe Bauman Nears All-Time Record

ROSWELL, N.M. (AP)—Ponderous Joe Bauman, the Roswell Rocketeer, was within one home run of the all-time professional baseball record today and he has six games in which to smash it. Jarring Joe blasted four homers last night against Sweetwater to not only set a new Longhorn League mark for circuit clouts in one game but to bring his season total to 68.

He takes dead aim tonight against Midland for the two over-the-fence smashes that will wipe out the record of 69 set by Joe Hauser of Minneapolis in 1933 and tied by Bob Cruce of Amarillo in 1948. He now has 214.

Bauman has this mighty record for 132 games: 475 times at bat, 189 hits for an average of .338, 152 runs, 432 total bases, 33 doubles, 3 triples, 10 sacrifices, 4 stolen bases, 417 bases on balls. Bauman had been playing baseball since 1941 when he started in the Northeast Arkansas League. He was in semi-pro ball in 1942, in the Navy from 1943 and 1945, with Amarillo of the West Texas-New Mexico League in 1946 and 1947, with Hartford of the Eastern League in 1948, in semi-pro ball at Elk City, Okla., in 1949, 1950 and 1951, and with Artesia of the Longhorn League in 1952 and 1953, setting a new league home run record of 53 in the latter year.

In the Longhorn League they have a custom of pushing money through the wire screens to the players blasting homers or deciding hits. Last night they poked

Ruiz C. Assures World Mexico Is Against Commies
MEXICO CITY (U) — President Adolfo Ruiz Cortines told Congress today that Mexico "unmistakably rejects any interference by international communism in this hemisphere."
 This, he said in his annual State of the Union address, was Mexico's attitude at the Caracas Inter-American conference, Mexico and Argentina abstained from voting at that meeting which adopted the U.S. resolution branding the establishment of a Communist government in the new world as an aggressive act.

 Ruiz Cortines said that Mexico's relations with the United States, Mexico's biggest neighbor and customer, were marked by "cordial and frank friendship." He thanked the United States for help given during the Rio Grande floods and for its decision not to raise import duties on Mexican metals.

Three Generations Of Naval Duty End

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—Three generations—and 91 years—of naval service by a famous family come to an end today.

Comdr. Joseph K. Taussig Jr., Pearl Harbor hero and 1941 Naval Academy graduate, is being retired because of physical disability. He lost his left leg as a result of wounds at Pearl Harbor.

His grandfather was Rear Adm. Edward D. Taussig who entered the academy in 1863, fought in the Spanish-American War, and claimed Wake Island for the United States.

Taussig Jr.'s father commanded a destroyer division when the U.S. entered World War I.

Diplomats Wonder What Bonn Will Ask Now For Rearmament

By PRESTON GROVER

PARIS (AP)—The focus of the struggle to save the Western Alliance shifted today from France to West Germany. Allied diplomats pondered what new price the Germans would ask now in return for putting their soldiers on the defense line against Communist aggression.

One Western diplomat predicted that West Germany would demand—and get—the right to rearm without the restrictions the now-dead European Defense Community plan would have imposed.

France's rejection of the European army, which America especially had considered the foundation of West European defense, was described by one French leader as turning Germany loose to bargain with both East and West.

U.S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles' call for a meeting of the 14-nation NATO Council instead of the three occupying powers in West Germany was in itself taken as a new approach to European defense.

Americans here who have been in touch recently with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and other West German officials said the big problem is to determine what new terms Germany might demand for joining up with the West.

These sources considered that Adenauer's government now almost certainly would reject the Bonn agreement signed 27 months ago to restore restricted sovereignty to West Germany.

The Germans ratified that accord on the basis that the companion EDC treaty rearming them would also be approved, and that the six-nation organization would save democratic forces in Germany itself from a resurrection of overriding militarism.

"The West will offer partial sovereignty to Germany," said one Western diplomat, "but out of the negotiations almost certainly will come complete sovereignty"—including the right to unrestricted rearmament.

Former French Premier Paul Reynaud pin-pointed this prospect in the National Assembly yesterday during a bitter criticism of Premier Pierre Mendes-France for his failure to put EDC over.

"What will you do tomorrow if demands are made for return of German sovereignty?" Reynaud asked Mendes-France. "You will be obliged to agree to it without the advantages of EDC. It will be the reconstitution of the Wehrmacht that already has paraded down the Champs Elysees and in the cities of France."

Antoine Pinay, France's Premier

when the EDC treaty was signed, joined in the debate to quote Mendes-France as saying last April that the only choice was "EDC or rearmament of Germany without any controls."

The debate also aired another big worry: Now that EDC has been rejected, what is to prevent West Germany from inviting bids from the Russians.

"France now has placed Germany again in the tempting position to see-saw between the Communists and the West," said Pierre-Henri Tellegen, president of the Catholic, pro-EDC Popular Republican Movement (MRP). Mendes-France earlier had told the Assembly he hopes for the quick establishment of some other defense setup in which Britain would participate fully, rather than the "hearty cooperation" she promised EDC.

"Any pact in which Britain is missing is incomplete," he told the Assembly yesterday.

There was no indication from across the Channel, however, that Prime Minister Churchill's government was ready to abandon its traditional aloofness from such tight peacetime continental ties as Mendes-France wants.

U.S. Might Shift Its Defense Plans To Spain, Germany

WASHINGTON (AP)—Strong pressures are reported building up in the government to make Germany and Spain, rather than France, the mainstays of U.S. defense strategy for Western Europe.

It is not yet certain that Washington will take the lead in formally proposing German membership in NATO. Some officials say that as a matter of tactics it would be better for one of Germany's neighbors to make the move.

No move to write France off as a partner in West Europe's defenses against communism appears to be in the cards here.

What is more likely is that the United States and Britain, with other interested countries, will press for and eventually find some kind of plan for rearming Germany which will get at least grudging acceptance from the French.

Meanwhile, there may be some expansion of naval and air base facilities this country is building in Spain, and the assignment of greater importance to Spain's role in the eyes of American strategists.
