COUNTY COMMISSIONER'S RACE HOLDS SPOTLIGHT

ISSUE NO. 30

Slaton and area voters go to the polls Saturday for important elections, with the primary Precinct 2, Lubbock County commissioner contest holding the spotlight on the local level.

Lubbock County has a record 67,612 eligible voters, and it has been estimated that about 17,800 are registered in Precinct 2. Even with the crowded governor's race, the local commissioner race, and straw votes on liquor - by - the drink and horse race betting, observers anticipate only half, or less, of the voters to turn out.

The Precinct 2 commissioner's race has drawn two candidates in both party primaries. Demo incumbent Max Arrants, seeking his first elective term after appointment 16 months ago, is challenged in the primary by Marvin McLarty Jr. of Lubbock. Bo Becker of Slaton and Phillip O'Jibway of Lubbock are opponents in the GOP primary.

The change in precinct boundaries has added six boxes in the Lubbock city limits to Precinct 2. There are an estimated 12,500 votes in these boxes, and about 5,300 in the other seven boxes in the southeast Lubbock County precinct.

Absentee votes totaled 975 Tuesday, the final day, with 108 being cast in the Slaton box at Kertan Studio. In the 1966 Demo primary, 12,098 votes were cast with 2,995 counted in Precinct 2. The total may be nearer 5,000 or 6,000 in the precinct this year.

Polling places in Slaton for both parties are precinct 36 -- Slaton Clubhouse; precinct 37 -- West Ward School, and precinct 38, Stephen F. Austin School. Precinct conventions are set for 2 p.m. at the same

The State Representative, Place 3 race has some voter attention in Lubbock, Hockley and Terry counties. R. B. (Mac) McAlister, Robert Mansker and John J. Kendrick are vying for the Demo nomination. GOP hopeful Eddie Paxton is unopposed. Two district judge contests are set in Lubbock, Judge Robert H. Bean, 140th district, is opposed by Alton Griffin; and Judge William R. Shaver, 72nd district, is opposed by

Mrs. Pat S. Moore. Tom Purdom and Jack Layne are waging a spirited battle for the Demo nomination as county attorney. The sheriff's race is also hotly contested, with incumbent Grady Harristopposed by C. H. (Choc) Blanchard and Melvin T. Ward. Slaton has two unopposed candidates in the Constable, precinct 2, race -- Allen Meurer on the Demo ballot and C. C. Weaver on the Republican bal-

Other candidates unopposed in the primaries include tax collector Russell Hardin, and D. A. Blair Cherry Jr.

Other area polling places include precinct 33, Woodrow School west; precinct 34, Cooper School east; box 35 Posey; box 39, Roosevelt; box 40, Acuff.

Voters of a minded that only members of an organized political party are permitted to participate in that party's precinct convention. You become a member of your party when you vote in its primary election, and your voter registration receipt will be stamped with the name of the party at that time.

The stamped voter registration is your ticket to your party's precinct convention, Delegates to the county convention must have participated in the precinct convention.

Party county conventions are scheduled May 11 -- the Demos meeting at 2 p.m. in the O. L. Slaton School Auditorium in Lubbock, and the Republicans at 2 p.m. in the Wilson Junior High at Lubbock.

The war in Vietnam moved closer to home this week with the report that Pvt. Freddie Miller had been killed in action. He was the first Slaton service man to lose his life in Vietnam. Freddie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Miller. They had received word earlier this week that he was missing in action, but Wednesday morning they were notified personally by officials from Reese Air Force Base in Lubbock that he had been killed. A 1961 graduate of Slaton High School, Freddie was 25

The Millers have eight sons and two daughters. One son, Richard, volunteered into the service last week and is stationed at Fort Bliss for his basic training.

Two sons, Glenn and Bobby, live at home with the Millers. A sister, Mrs. Bobby Reynolds, and Jerry Miller, a brother, both live in Slaton, Mrs. Miller said they would receive a telegram in two or three days giving more details of their son's death and funeral arrangements.

Slaton Scout Earns Eagle

Richard L. (Dickie) Jones of Boy Scout Troop 125, Slaton, was among 40 new Eagle Scouts from troops in all seven districts of the South Plains Council to be recognized in councilwide Court of Honor at the Lubbock First Baptist Church Sunday.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hall, Jr., Dickie has been a Boy Scott since 1964 and before that was a Cu. Scout. Alex Webb, Dickie's Scoutmaster, said the troop now has six active Eagle Scouts. To earn the Scout's highest honor, a boy must earn at least 21 merit badges, including 11 specified and 10 alternates. He must also participate in various service projects. Dickie assisted with the Farmer-Merchant Barbecue here and helped build a dam at Camp Post.

A reception for the Eagle Scouts and parents was held in the Church Fellowship Hall immediately after the ceremonies.

Saturday is election day in Slaton -- and throughout the state -- and there is still doubt as to whether hard - driving candidates have aroused much voter interest in the May 4 primary elections.

THURSDAY, MAY 2, 1968

The forecast here and over the state is that about 50 percent of the total eligible voters will decide the outcome of the important elections.

Democrats are hoping that a wide - open governor's race, as well as some "scraps" in the precinct conventions Saturday, will help draw party members to the polls.

Dale Kitchens Receives Top Award

Dale Kitchens, who is serving as president of the Slaton Future Farmers of America for the second year, was named district Star Lone Star Farmer this week. He is the only Slaton FFA member ever to receive such an award.

Last year Dale was Star Chapter Farmer of the district and was named second in the area contest. He is serving in his second year as a district officer. Last year he was the only sophomore to be elected to a district office.

Dale started out with $150 during his first year in Vocational Ag. On April 10th of his third year he had a net worth of $5,900. This was all made from his project program in

To be decided in the Demo precinct conventions is the campaign by Gov. John Connally for favorite son presidential designation, leadership of the national convention delegation and binding of delegates under the unit rule.

Liberal opposition opposes both Connally as favorite son and the unit rule. Republican conventions Saturday will see strong efforts to name Sen. John Tower as their favorite son candidate.

Voters have been warned they cannot participate in affairs of the new American Party supporting George Wallace for president if they vote in either the Demo or GOP primaries Saturday or go to major party conventions. American Party needs 14,000 members to get Wallace on the November ballot.

The crowded Demo field in the governor's race includes strong runners Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, Waggoner Carr, Eugene Locke, John Hill, Don Yarborough, and Dolph Briscoe. Edward L. Whittenburg and Pat O'Daniel have campaigned extensively in recent weeks. Other candidates, Johnnie Mae Hackworthe and Alfonzo Veloz, have done little campaigning.

In the Republican primary, a warm gubernatorial contest features Paul Eggers, John R. Trice and Wallace Sisk.

Another hard - fought contest on the Demo ballot pits House Speaker Ben Barnes against Don Gladden and Gene Smith for lieutenant governor. There are two State Supreme Court races in the Democratic primary: Place 1 -- Matt Davis vs. Sears McGee, Place 2 --Tom Reavley vs. James G. Denton. Only other statewide contest on either ballot finds comptroller Robert S. Calvert opposed by Dallas Blankenship.

Sad news came to Slaton this week when Mr. and Mrs. Ray Miller received word that their son, Freddie, had been killed

When Freddie's body is brought home for burial, our President will not proclaim it a nation wide day to fly our flags at half mast. But in my opinion it would be more appropriate for Slaton residents to fly flags half mast in tribute to a Slaton boy who lost his life serving our country than in some cases where the flag is put half-mast. But, naturally, proper flag etiquette has to be upheld.

The Vietnam conflict has claimed thousands of the top young men of our country in the past few years. For, you see.... only the "cream of the crop" serve their country. The finest young men of America fight in the swamps and jungles and rot and filth of Vietnam each day, so that we might have peace on our home shores here in the USA. Yes, and too.... so that the stinking rioters may riot.

As I drove to work Wednesday morning I found myself thanking God that we still can fly our flags. Another big thanks go to the men and women of the VFW organizations for flying the many many flags on the main streets of Slaton on Loyalty Day and for sponsoring the Loyalty Day service when Slaton citizens could gather to publicly reaffirm their all-out dedication to American ideals, our government and support to U. S. fighting men in Vietnam.

We saw Pansy Collins (the former Pansy Sloan of Slaton) at the Lions Convention in Littlefield Saturday, Having been raised in Slaton and visiting here often, she said we didn't have to go to all that trouble planting pansies just for her... but that she did appreciate the recognition,

After the story came out in the Lubbock Avalanche, she had many calls from Littlefield friends to let her know they didn't know she was so important over here.

And the pansy story even traveled all the way to San Antonio and was published in one of the newspapers there. So, whether our pansies grow or not (and some skeptics say they won't) Slaton h , already received recognition for its project. When news travels on the AP wire, there's no telling how many papers it will be in and that must have been what I hear Beverly Kercheval and Jo Ann Clark are having a contest to see who can grow the prettiest pansies, while there are some I've heard that don't even seem to be giving them a good chance. But that's the way it goes.

There isn't anything that can be sliced so thin that it has only one side.

It takes two nations to fight but it takes many more to keep peace of the world.

We hope the residents out around Roosevelt and Acuff will call their news into our new correspondent, Kathy Walter. This column can be just as good as YOU make it. Please don't be hesitant to let her know when you have visitors or go on a trip or whatever news you might have.

makes us pause a while and to think deeper than usual. I ran across such a story the other day. Made me stop and think for awhile. Made me regain some of the hope I had lost in mankind. Helped me to keep from giving up on some who seem hopeless.

One day an Archbishop of Paris stood in the pulpit of the world famous Notre Dame Cathedral. He went to preach the sermon and he began by telling a story. Thirty years ago there were three young tourists who came to this Cathedral, he said. They were cynical, uncouth, vulgar men who thought all religion was simply a puton, a show, a racket. They got to jesting with each other and two of them dared the third to go into the Confession Box and make up a confession and tell it to the priest as though it was the truth. They dared him to do it, bet him he didn't have the nerve. But he did it, to win the bet he did it.

He went into the Confession Box, made up the lie and told it to the old priest. The priest, with wisdom gained through the years, knew that what the boy was saying was a lie. He listened to the boy, saw through his arrogance, and then spoke to the boy. "Very well, my boy. Every confession requires a penance, and this will be yours. Go into the chapel, stand before the Cruifix, look into the face of the crucified Christ and say, "All this you did for me, and I don't give a damn."

The boy left the Confession Box, returned to his friends, and claimed

Sometimes we run across a story that the bet. But before the friends would agree they said he had to go through with the penance and do as the priest told him. He had to go into the chapel and look into the face of the Crucified and speak those very words.

> The young man went into the chapel, looked into the face of that Crucified Carpenter, and began to speak. "All of this you did for me, and I . . . " He couldn't say it. He lost the bet. He got up and walked away.

> We may or may not like that story, but there are countless thousands who are living it this very day. They look into the face of that Galilean as He hangs on His Cross and they utter those burning words - "All of this you did for me, and I don't give a damn.'

Most of us will fight back when the finger is pointed at us. Yet we dare not give too much to the Church, or spend any of our time in worthwhile projects, or help those less fortunate. We like to criticize the Church and those who are trying. We like to try to stop the Spirit of the Galilean from being loose in the world. Silently we speak the words, "All of this you did for me, and I don't give a damn.'

The Archbishop who told the story leaned over the pulpit and finished it "That young man," he said, "was this man who stands before you today to preach."

The story is true, both the part about the Archbishop and about the words we speak to the Crucified Carpenter -FIVE STAR FEATURES

Time For A Change

C.H. 'Choc' Blanchard

The present Sheriff of Lubbock County has been in the office 23 years. He is now 72 years old, well past retirement age. He is running for another four year term. I believe it is time for you to have a young, experienced and aggressive man take over. Good law enforcement in our County demands it.

I am 41 years old, married with 3 sons. I have lived here the past 17 years. I have 15 years of active law enforcement experience, 11 of those in your Sheriff's Department. I know how to meet the growing demands of the office I seek.

Our people have the right to expect this office to be a vital and active law enforcement agency. You have the opportunity on May 4th to make it what it ought to be. After examining all my qualifications, I believe you will select C. H. "Choc" BLANCHARD as your Sheriff.

The 10-hour course was sponsored by the Slaton Chamber of Commerce and was brought to Slaton business people by the Distributive Education Department of the University of Texas and the Texas Education Agency.

Those taking the course were Mr. and Mrs. Bland Tomlinson, Jim Newhouse, Wayne Sartor, Stan Ratliff, Tom Weeks, W.O. Harrell, and Ricky Jones.

Others were Mmes. Nellie Taylor, Estelle Alderson, Francis Baker, H. H. White, Nell Brake, Cleo Green, Evelyn Dunlap and Betty Thorp.

Pat Batis, merchandising, advertising, and sales specialist for the University's division of extension, conducted the course in the Reddy Room at Southwestern Public Service.

Vets May Need To Change Life Insurance Forms

Six out of ten veterans may need to change the beneficiaries listed on their government life insurance to make sure that the right person gets the money, Jack Coker, Manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Wacoestimated

The VA must pay the proceeds of the insurance policy to the last beneficiary designated by the veteran even though it might be a divorced wife or a wealthy parent.

In far too many cases, the status of the original beneficiary is changed by marriage, divorce or death, and the veteran neglects to make the change in his insurance.

In a recent sampling it was found that six out of ten veterans probably need to update beneficiary information on their the goal. - (Phil. 3:13). policies, Coker said.

would be to close down all businesses during the time of the funeral, It's little to ask for a young man who gave his life in the service of his country ... it is all the tribute he or his family would receive. What do you

You, the Texas voter, have two opportunities to make your voice heard in the political party of your choice. First, by voting in the primary election of your party, you are helping to nominate the candidates at county and state levels that you wish to represent you. Second, by attending the precinct convention of your party, your voice will be heard in deciding the issues and policies of your

This is the reason your voter registration receipt is stamped by the party, It serves as your "ticket" to the precinct convention, and limits voters to participation in one party primary.

"Stop the publicity...with the amount of time and space given to America's kooky set, you would think they had a multi-million dollar a year budget for publicity purposes.

"It's time the hipsters, the odd-balls, the kooks, if you please, got off the front page and out of the TV and radio spotlights of the nation's mass media. I'm tired of reading their idiotic comments, seeing pictures of them smoking 'pot', demonstrating, burning draft cards, descrating the flag, and a million other

AND RESPECT FROM ALL

Police Chief's Goal: Be Fair, Firm, Honest

If he is to survive at all, a police administrator must be a hard - headed realist. He needs to know that the glamour of becoming a chief of police is an illusion. The quicker he gets rid of it, the better.

His job is one of trust, more than honor. He will be feared more than loved, hindered more than helped. Instead of running a popularity contest, he will be running a business where human life is often at stake and where human rights and human welfare are always at stake. It is a deadly serious business.

Perhaps the most he can hope to get out of this job is the satisfaction of doing it so well that someday the townspeople will be willing to say, "No matter what you think of our chief, you have to admit three things: He's fair, he's firm, he's honest," In the police profession there is no higher compliment or award.

As a realist, the new chief must recognize that he will pass through three stages: (1) the HONEYMOON, (2) the TEST PERIOD, and (3) the SUFFER-take an active role in airpollu-

tion control work."

The honeymoon period may be over in a week or it may last six months. It never lasts more than a year. It is the period when practically everbody seems to want to help and, for the most part, they do. TEST PERIOD

The test period follows. It starts when the press, the public, and the local officials begin probing the chief's character -- his firmness, his fairness and his honesty. If he holds his ground there will be "screams of protest" from certain segments of the community. In fact, he may be very surprised where the screams come from, Nevertheless, as a realist he must expect it. His job will be threatened, They may even get his job, but that's no disgrace so long as he is right. The test period is bitter, violent and vindictive.

SUFFERANCE The sufferance period is the armistice or truce which follows the test period. It is the public acceptance of the fact that the chief can't be bluffed, bullied, nor bribed, It doesn't mean that his job as chief is secure, but it does mean that he has gained the public's respect.

It means he has gained status, With it he has gained enemies, powerful enemies, but they too, in their own peculair way, grant him their respect. Respect, however, always contains an ingredient of fear and, with his enemies, the element of fear is strong. They will watch him for the slightest slip. They are out to get him if they can.

Fortunately, by this time, the new chief will also have friends and these will be fighting friends, which are the only kind that count in the war against crime and corruption, Many of these friends the chief will never meet. He won't even know where they are, but he must not forget them. He must see that they are constantly given facts in speeches and press releases that will help them defend the

The sufferance period then, is the permanent professional status of a successful chief of police. This will be his lot the rest of his career, or at least until he retires, takes a bigger job or is toppled by his enemies. It requires all the zeal, energy and integrity a human being can muster, and it is a high compliment to a man if he can achieve it.

Conservative-moderate forces, rallying behind the governor, will offer resolutions backing Connally for favorite son and head of the 104-vote Texas national convention. In all probability, they, too, would require all of the state's 104 votes to be cast as a package, without consideration to pre-ferences of a minority viewpoint among the delegates.

That, in a nutshell, is the main issue to be decided in some 5,260 Democratic voting precincts May 4. In selected precincts, supporters of Sens. Robert F . Kennedy and Eugene McCarthy are ex pected to push resolutions seeking to commit delegates to their presidential candidacies. Neither of the senators at this point appears to have any substantial support over the state.

Some of the nation's Democratic governors at a St. Louis, Mo., conference last week gave Connally a boost by urging him to become a serious contender - - a sort of favorite son among the governors for vice-president. Connally said he has no aspirations for the job, and does not expect it to be offered, Nevertheless, he is expected to play a major role in charting the course of the 24 Democratic state chief executives at the nominating conven-

Meanwhile, although they are traveling widely and speaking frequently, the 13 candidates for governor of Texas continued to find themselves overshadowed by world, national and partisan events.

RECORD NUMBER OF VOTERS -- Total voter registration this year is a record 4,072,397—nearly a million more than the last presidential year (1964) but still shy of predictions.

Five biggest counties of the state alone account for nearly 1,633,000 of the total eligible voters, and if all major metropolitian areas are counted, city voters overwhelm the rural area residents. That statistical fact figures strongly in cam paign plans of gubernatorial candidates who are busily scouting the big cities during the windup weeks of their vote

Last county to report to Secretary of State Roy R. Barrera on registration was Harris (Houston) with 583,721 voters, Dallas County has 466,925, Bexar (San Antonio) 237,359, Tarrant (Fort Worth) 242,693 and Travis (Austin) 102,264.

Major emphasis in testimony by Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. before the House Agriculture Committee in Washington recently was on the urgency of extending the current cotton program during this session of congress, protection for producer income, expansion of export markets and provisions for incentives to produce for those markets.

PCG also urged the Committee to work for revisions in the law that would liberalize the regulations on sale and lease of allotments, return the industry to production from the legal minimum 16 million acre national allotment, correct projected yield inequities and provide producers with a guarantee against individual program benefit limitations.

PCG's efforts to influence cotton legislation this year has a double - barrelled approach. President Don Anderson of Crosbyton outlined to the House Committee the legislative policy adopted by the PCG board and at the same time endorsed the position of the Texas Association of Cotton Producer Organizations, presented by Joe B. Pate Jr. of Lubbock, TACPO Chairman.

TACPO is an affiliation of the six chartered cotton producer organizations in the State. Its policy statement was worked out by representatives of all six groups and is an almost exact parallel to PCG policy and that of the other five members.

This fact for the first time in history presents a united front in Washington from Texas cotton farmers who produce about one third of the Nation's cotton.

On the urgency of passing farm legislation this year it was pointed out to the Committee that farmers need the opportunity to plan as far in advance as possible and that the necessary reorganization of Congress after 1968 elections would delay and make more difficult passage of a farm program in 1969.

Congressman Bob Poage of Waco, House Agriculture Committee Chairman, is conducting the hearings and is known to favor enactment of a farm law this year. Senator Allen Ellender of Louisiana, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Agriculture, which has already completed preliminary hear ings, has said he will not push for legislation this year but will not be in opposition if it appears that is what Congress le calling for an extension of the present program, PCG and TACPO testimony said "Our experience under the program for the past two years has proven the Act (Agriculture Act of 1965) can provide the necessary flexibility to maintain adequate supplies of cotton without burdensome surpluses and can stabilize farm income."

The testimony sought to impress on the Committee the importance of retaining in law the "Ellender Amendment," which in the current program has afforded producers a guarantee of 65 per cent of parity on per-missible planted acreage.

"This should be recognized as an absolute minimum income level for cotton producers," Mr Pate said, adding "We cannot make the sizeable investments required in today's farming operations without the expectation of a reasonable net re - program is known as the "snap back" provision, and both Anderson and Pate made a strong plea for its retention in future cotton programs.

Repeated efforts have been made for the past several years by some members of Congress to impose limitations. But PCG points out that such attempts are made by people who "do not realize the tremendous and ever - increasing investments required of commercial farmers for advanced technoligical production inputs that are our only chance for reducing perunit costs.

"And reducing production hope of reducing our need for government help."

The TACPO statement called attention to the fact that about 20 per cent of the Nation's cotton farmers supply 80 per cent of the needed cotton produc-

It said "These are the cotton farmers who fuel the cotton industry. To destroy the efficiency of their operations, as benefit limitations would do, would be to destroy the cotton industry. Without profit they cannot produce, and without the production the industry cannot survive."

as the only immediately avail-able cure for the economic ills that stem from a low level of production.

Among the means suggested for building greater foreign markets were the use of credit risk guarantees and lower interest rates through the Export-Import Bank, stepped - up use of PL 480 funds for cotton sales and informational and technical services to foreign cotton users and a continuation and expansion of cotton trade teams.

Two New Scout Executives In Area Council

Two men have been named to the executive staff of the South Plains Boy Scout Council, according to H. W. Oehler, Lubbock, Scout Executive of the organization.

Warren S. Green, McAlester, Oklahoma, has been appointed Program Director for the 20 county area. In this position, which has been vacant since September, 1967, Green will be responsible for the program support activities in the council. This includes overall supervision of the camping program, advancement, leadership training, activities, and public relations areas of the Scout Council.

A veteran of 23 years in career Scouting, Green has been Scout Executive of the Choctaw Area Council with headquarters at McAlester, Oklahoma since 1955.

Walter B. Neidert, Waukegan, Illinois, will become District Scout Executive for the Mackenzie Trail District, As such, he will work with Scouting leaders in the southeast part of Lubbock as well as Slaton, Woodrow, and Roose-

Neidert retired from the U.S. Air Force in 1965, and has been serving as District Scout Exec utive in the Waukegan area since his retirement. He is a native of San Antonio, and was stationed at Reese Air Force Base in 1952 and 1953. He replaces David Adkisson who left Scouting to enter private business. Oehler pointed out that the addition of these two men will bring the executive staff of the South Plains Council to its full complement of 10 qualified men. These men work with more than 3200 adult volunteer leaders throughout the 20 counties of the council. At the end of December, 1967, almost 9500 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Explorers were registered in Scouting in the South Plains

MAKE YOUR VOICE HEARD

It is only by attending a precinct convention that every individual voter has the opportunity and ability to be heard and to make his views known concerning his particular political philosophy and to give expression to those political concepts in which he believes.

The precinct convention is the very essence of "grass roots" participation of political and governmental affairs. At the precinct conventions, you and your neighbors select your delegates and voice your opinions.

It is the only place you can have a say in the presidential nominee of your party.

Precinct conventions are open to all voters who participate Saturday in the Party primary elections. They are the first step in a long journey to the national conventions and the nominations of presidential and vice presidential candidates.

We urge you and your neighbors to attend your precinct convention this Saturday.

Social Security For Clergymen

Social Security coverage has been extended to thousands of clergymen through a recent change in the Social Security

Liberalization of the Social Security Lawn now provides automatic coverage for clergymen for taxable years after 1967. Only those requesting exemption on religious grounds will not get social security credit.

Clergymen, considered to b self - employed, pay their social security tax with their income tax if their yearly profits from the ministry are $400 or more They must complete a Schedule "C" with each income tax return, indicating their ministerial gross income, expenses and net profit, according to John G. Hutton, district manager.

More information regarding this change in the law may be obtained from your local social security office.

Christians who rely on the mercy of God should not forget that God is also just. There are some who are inclined to give in to temptation, to go ahead with the wrong act, to turn against conscience, with the idea of seeking forgiveness tomorrow. When we turn against that which is right, we are at the same time turning our back on God. We are closing our eyes to truth and demanding more than we should from a merciful God.
