Area Farmers Welcome Sunny Days

After rains ranging from 2 to 4 inches fell around the Slaton area the past week, the sun finally started drying things off Tuesday -- and old Sol was as welcome as Santa Claus.

Unofficial rainfall measurements in Slaton showed almost 2.5 inches the past week -- 1.2 inches Wednesday of the past week, .8 of an inch Saturday night, and .30 or more Monday night.

Some areas around Slaton reported heavier amounts of moisture in some of the showers. Some hail damage was reported west of Slaton near the Woodrow area.

A brilliant lightning display accompanied the thunderstorm here Monday night, while areas in Lamb County reported a twister and heavy rain and hail. The twister moved across open farmland southeast of Hart Camp and no injuries were reported.

Farmers in the area breathed a sigh of relief Tuesday with a forecast of some dry weather. The effect of the prolonged rainy spell was a cause for concern. Young cotton has been hurt pretty bad, according to an official of the Lubbock Cotton Exchange.

Many farmers report their cotton is in "surprisingly" good shape following the lengthy period of moisture. However, are worried that wilt some might hurt the cotton, even if it was planted early and has made good progress. A delay in har-vest has been the main effect on grain crops.

Prospects at the start of the month pointed to the largest South Plains cotton crop since an output of 2.2 million bales in 1965. The Sept. 1 estimated for the 23-county Lubbock area was for 1,939,000 bales. The crop last year totalled year totalled

1,568,000. The final production, however, will still be greatly influenced by the date of the first killing frost, farm observers point out. A new crop estimate will be given the first of Oct ober.

Areas south and southwest of Slaton missed most of the moisture which fell Saturday night, however the Mondaynight showers appeared to be very general over the region.

The Monday - night rain caused considerable damage to a Slaton firm. The Gift Gallery, on the west side of the square. was flooded when the roof of the building caved in and water covered the store.

Tigers Make Home Debut Friday

Slaton's hustling Tigers -surprising even some of their own fans -- make their 1969 debut in Tiger Stadium Friday night when they host the tough Tornadoes of Lamesa.

Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m. in the inter-zone battle of the two District 3-AAA teams. Both teams boast 2-0 records on the season, but Slaton will again be cast in the underdog's role. The defense - minded Tors own victories over Snyder (7-6) and Levelland (14-0). Lamesa held Levelland to a total offense of 16 yards last week, after edging Snyder in the opener. Snyder came on last week to tie the No. 1 rated Estacado team. The contest could draw a near capacity crowd in Tiger Stadium, with a large number of Lamesa fans expected to follow the Tors to Slaton. And, with their Tigers unbeaten in two starts, Slaton supporters are expected to turn out strong. Coach Ernie Davis told Tiger Club members Monday night that the squad "gave 150 percent effort" against Kermit last week. "We've got some young boys and they'll make mis takes, but I promise you they've got heart and will hang in there all the way," he proudly added. Davis said the scouting report on Lamesa indicates they are not as big as Kermit, but have quickness and great pursuit on defense. Lamesa lost quarterback Brent Minnix, who broke a wrist in the Levelland game, but Davis point is not for this.

Lubbock County Commiss -ioners have called for bids on voting machines, over-riding a motion by Precinct 1 commissioner Arch Lamb to delay the action.

The question of purchasing voting machines for Lubbock County has been a controversial one for years. In a 1962 referendum, county voters rejected an issue on the voting machines. However, that issue was connected with a bondelection.

Lamb has waged a continuing war against the machines, contending the lever-type machines are too costly and the new punch-card types have not been proven satisfactorily in all cases.

Max Arrants, Precinct 2 commissioner from Slaton, favors the new punch-card type voting units. He said Wednesday he felt the units would be the bids are opened and we know what the prices will be." The League of Women Voters have supported the move to obtain voting machines for Lubthe Tors had been using two signal callers frequently. Ricky Corley (10) will probably get the call against Slaton.

Tailback Bennie Williams and fullback Aaron Manuel have been the big ground gainers for Lamesa. The Tors didn't show much passing in their first two games. Manuel was a leading rusher when the Tors downed Slaton by 34-0 last year.

Slaton came out of the Kermit victory with no serious injuries, but plenty of bumps and bruises. Guard Ronnie Howard had a severely bruised leg, but Davis hopes the senior lineman will be ready by Friday.

Davis declined to single out outstanding performers in the Kermit triumph. "It was a great team effort. . .several of the players performed great in key positions, but it took them all to come back and win the game."

The starting lineups are expected to be the same for the first home game. On offense, that would be Robert Englund and Jimmy Rogers at ends. Allen McDonald and Dennis Rushing at tackles, Ollie Rainwater and Louis Scott at guards, Charlie Geer at center, and Terry Mosser, Nick Farrell, Alan Fondy and Larry Moore in the backfield.

The probable defensive lineup is Englund and Allen Walters or Paul Payne at ends, Mc-Donald and Scott at tackles, Charles Thomas and Howard at guards. Don Smith and Ted Dixon at linebackers, Glen Akin and Bruce Schuette at halfbacks, and Frank Self at safety.

Both teams have relied on their running games to chalk up the two victories. Moore has carried the ball 47 times for 257 yards in two games, while Fondy has added 119 yards on 23 trips with the ball. The Tigers have completed only 3 of 14 passes.

Although both teams are in District 3-AAA, this will not be a conference game. The big district was divided into zones this year, and the two zone winners will pay for the district championship, Slaton is in zone A with Snyder, Sweetwater, Brownfield, Levelland and Littlefield. Lamesa is in zone B with Estacado, Dunbar, Colo-rado City and Lake View, Tickets are $1.50 for adults and 50 cents for students to the home games. Some reserved season tickets are still available at the school tax office on S. 9th street.

DEFENSIVE TIGER VETERANS --- Helping lead the Tigers to two straight victories this season have been these five returning defensive starters from 1968. The five seniors are Allen McDonald (73), Louis Scott (61), Robert Englund (81), Don Smith (33) and Ronnie Howard (64). Slaton has three returnees on offense--backs Larry Moore and Nick Farrell, and tackle Dennis Rushing. (SLATONITE PHOTO)

Three Women Win Grid Prizes

College football games proved to be the "toughies" in last week's football contest, but Mrs. Joe (Kelly) Sparkman was one of four entrants to guess 18 of the 24 games winners and take first place on the basis of the tie-breaker score.

Mrs. Sparkman won first place in the previous week's contest, and captured the $10 first prize again to show the men they don't have a monopoly on the game.

In fact, all three of the prize winners this week were women! Oneita White took second place, and Norma Tumlinson won the third prize. Pete Williams was the fourth entrant to miss six games, but he was further off the tie-breaker total score.

Mrs. Sparkman, who missed the tie breaker by only four points, won the contest the first week on the basis of the tiebreaker total, She was inadvertently listed in second place last week, but took first and Bobbs Meeks was second.

Entrants who missed seven games included Steve Mosser, Mike Peterson, Marilyn Meeks, Al Clary, Harley Martin, Lou Gamble, Tony Privett, Sue Davis, Jimmy Respondek, Bradley Kitten and Ann Partain.

You could be a lucky winner of a cash prize this week! Turn to the contest page sponsored by local merchants, follow the easy rules and get your entry in this week.

LIONS BROOM SALE SLATED

The annual Broom Sale of the Slaton Lions Club is scheduled to climax with a door-to-door sales project this afternoon, it was announced by chairman Weldon Self.

The project is an annual fundraising drive for the Lions, with proceeds going to the blind and to other worthwhile club activities here.

Roger Evans, Slaton Municipal Airport manager, was guest speaker at the Lions' regular weekly luncheon meeting Monday in the Community Clubhouse. He reported on the progress of airport construction and announced that a formal open house ceremony is being planned for sometime in October.

Evans said 10 new T-hangars have been completed at the airport, and 5 are already occupied. An east-west dirt runway has been cut and wheat is growing on that strip. Rain has held up a black-top project around the hangars.

The manager said there had been "much activity" at the maintenance building this summer. The office and restrooms are also complete. Evans said he was striving for "complete facilities" for a small airport.

ford B. Hardin's "listening conference" at College Station September 18 was an interesting exercise.

The Secretary was exposed, and most observers seem to think he listened, to statements from representatives of four national farm organizations and 14 commodity groups, plus dissertations on adult education, resource conservation, nutrition, farm credit, rural area development, and of all things "A New Approach to Solving the Long Term Problems of Agricultural Production in South America."

A lot of work and sincere thought went into the preparation of the 30 or more presentations made. Some 2,000 agricultural leaders from Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico and Oklahoma were on hand.

Only time will tell whether the day at Texas A&M was and qualities, there must be a time well spent or an exercise in futility.

The only directional signal flashed by the Secretary came in his opening remarks when he said "The Administration is still interested in long range land retirement but it may not be a major part of the program."

He also confirmed the feelings of many that he will offer no specific farm pro gram when he testifies before the House Committee on Agriculture on September 24 or thereabouts.

All speakers at the conference were together on two points -- on the necessity for maintaining and improving farm income and in opposition to a limitation on payments to individual producers under farm programs. And if the Secretary and his people "listened and learned," as they said they were there to do, on those two points, the day was not wasted. The only speaker on behalf of cotton, per se, was Joe B. Pate, Jr. of Lubbock, who spoke on behalf of the Texas Associa-

Agriculture Secretary Clif- tion of Cotton Producer Organizations (TACPO), of which he is chairman. His remarks were finalized and approved by representatives of the six member - organizations, meeting in the office of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock, September 15. Midway through his statement Pate summarized the views of Texas cotton producers in three points:

(1) Cotton is an industry basic to the economy of Texas and to the economy of the Nation; (2) Cotton fiber is a commodity essential to the needs of the consuming public, being made available to the public at prices well below its cost of production, and

(3) If cotton is to continue its major contribution to the economy of our country, and if cotton is to continue to be made available to the consuming public in the desirable quantities continuation of government cotton programs.

Going on to the kind of cotton program that is needed, Pate said "First, it must help us to keep production in line with demand. It must provide the means to control production when there is a threatening surplus, and it must provide the means to control production when there is a threatening surplus, and it must provide the means to stimulate production when there is danger of an inadequate supply to meet market demands. "Second, it must provide a cost of production adjustment which will help to bridge the gap between the cost of producing cotton and the price at which circumstances force producers to sell their cotton. He received one of the rare outbursts of applause when he followed this with "It is our contention, Mr. Secretary, that these objectives have been achieved in large measure for the past four years, and that they can best be achieved in the years to come within the framework of the cotton program written into the Food and Agri-

Lubbock County Reports Rural Aug. Accidents

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 49 accidents on rural highways in Lubbock County during the month of August, according to Sergeant O. C. Guthrie, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area. These crashes resulted in three persons killed, 36 per-sons injured and an estimated property damage of $42,755.00. The rural accident summary for this county during the first eight months of 1969 shows a total of 288 accidents resulting in seven persons killed, 161 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $274,477.00. With the beginning of school, the sergeant reminds all motorists of the state law regulating traffic in regard to school buses. "The driver of a vehicle upon a highway outside of the limits of any incorporated city or town upon meeting or overtaking from either direction any school bus which has stopped on the highway for the purpose of receiving or dis-charging any school children shall stop the vehicle im mediately before passing the school bus, but may then proceed past such school bus at a speed which is prudent, not exceeding ten (10) miles per hour, and with due caution for the safety of such children."

said such improvement could be best accomplished through increased exports of U.S. cotton and expanded utilization and cost-cutting research under the auspices of USDA.

On the subject of a payments limitation, he said "To limit the total payment that can be made to any producer for his contribution to the national interest under farm programs is to deny him the fruits of his labor. It is to penalize him because of the size of his operation -- a size reached through hard work, management ability and enterprise."

He pointed out that a limit on payments would force many farmers to break up their land into smaller units and said "Such an upheaval in agriculture would amount to economically forced agrarian land reform. You can call it by any other name you please, but another name will not make it less onerous."

Concluding this portion of his testimony, Pate said "The imposition of a payments limitation would be a long step backward for farm programs and their effectiveness as supply management tools . . . a pay-ments limitation will be a broad, culture Act of 1965. Therefore we believe the present program

A 42-yard pass play got Kermit out of the hole, then the Jackets punted to the Tiger 4yard line. The Tigers moved the 96 yards in 14 plays, with Moore contributing key runs of 16 and 10 yards, and Fondy going 14 and 29 yards on big gainers. On a 3rd and 11 situation from the Kermit 25, Mosser fired a pass for Fondy in the end zone and a Jacket defender pushed the Tiger receiver just before the ball arrived. Pass interference was called and Fondy got credit for a 24-yard pass reception to the 1-yard line. Moore crashed over the left side on the next play for the winning touchdown. Mosser fell down on a try for two points, but the Tigers led by 19-14 with 2:10 left in the game. The Jackets managed one first down, then the passer was hit behind the line of scrimmage, fumbled and Slaton recovered on the Kermit 38. Mosser sat on the ball two plays and the game was over.

A GOOD TRY

Life isn't always easy. Even the most fortunate of us encounted a rocky road from time to time.

We may be tempted, sometimes, to look with envy toward a neighbor or friend, to believe that for some reason everything seems to go his way". In this, we often deceive ourselves.

There are among us individuals who possess an en-thusiasm for life that permits them to shrug off disappointment, to forget a failure, and to look for and work for a better tomorrow, always with a smiling face to the world.

Too many of us start each day worrying about the mistakes and the problems of yesterday. And we thus do not do our best for today.

Despite the success or the failures of an individual day, we should find it easy to sleep if we can honestly convince ourselves that we gave it a good. solid try. If we convince ourselves of this fact, we will be able to meet each new day with greater enthusiasm and effort.
