Voter Signup Climbs, Candidates Shy

Candidates are a little shy on the local political scene, but voter registration picked up the past week as the Jan. 31 deadline neared.

No candidates have announced as yet for city commission posts or for school board seats. However, deadlines for filing in these elections are not until March 4 for the school district and March 6 for the city.

A report on Lubbock County voter registration Wednesday showed a total of 34,215 had become eligible by 5 p.m. Tuesday. Officials say there is a potential of 72,500 -- indicating that less than half of the citizens have registered.

An unofficial count reveals that about 2,000 persons had registered in Slaton's three voting boxes. Last year there were 3,131 eligible voters. A volunteer worker on voter registration reported this week that some 2,500 persons in Slaton and Justice Precinct 2 had signed up. Another 500 had signed up in the tax substation here.

This would indicate about 3,000 voters in Justice Precinct 2, compared to a total of 4,218 eligible voters last year. The voter signup, however, is expected to increase sharply this week as the Saturday deadline approaches.

The only local candidate to announce has been Max Arants, who is seeking re-election as Lubbock County Commissioner of Precinct 2. The term of Justice of the Peace, Precinct 2, Place 2 expires this year, with no candidates as yet. Mrs. Pearl Lawrence currently holds the post here.

Three state representatives are seeking re-election. They are State Reps. Delvin Jones, Elmer Tarbox and R. B. McAllister. Tarbox will be opposed by Horace McCueen. Feb. 2 is the filing deadline for precinct, county, state and national offices.

Others who have filed for re-election include U. S. Rep. George Mahon, 19th Congressional District; Judge Denzil Bevers, County Court-at-Law No. 2; Jane Rieger, county treasurer; Roy Boyd, county school superintendent; and Alton Brazzell, commissioner of Precinct 4. Brazzell is being opposed by Robert Porter and H. D. White.

On the local scene, terms of three school board members expire. They are Ted Swanner, Dr. M. J. McSwain and Jack Clark. Trustee terms are for three years. Terms of Otis Neill and Rudy Dominguez, Wards 2 and 4, expire on the city commission. City terms are for two years.

Texas once again will have a choice between Preston Smith and Paul Eggers for Governor of Texas. Gov. Smith was first to announce. Next day, Eggers -- Smith's Republican opponent in 1968 -- said he would make the race again.

Another race of general interest will be U. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough's bid for re-election after being challenged by U. S. Rep. George Bush, a Republican.

Both political parties and a number of civic groups are putting on registration drives throughout the state, seeking a goal of more than 4 million registered voters this year.

Officials remind young people who will become 21 during 1970 that they can register before their 21st birthday. Tax office will mark on their registration certificate the date on which they will become 21 and, therefore, eligible to vote.

NO GENERATION GAP--Even though there are 70 years difference in the ages of O. C. Clark, 79, and his grandson, Brad, 9, they still find plenty to talk about while they ride their bicycles. Brad is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clark. Since his retirement, Clark says he enjoys riding his bike downtown to play dominoes in the old Higginbotham-Bartlett building. He rides his bike almost every day in the year. (SLATONITE PHOTO)

SIDFI Elects Smith, Bownds

Bill Smith and Truett Bownds were elected as directors when Slaton Industrial & Development Foundation, Inc. held a stockholders' meeting last week in the Reddy Room.

Smith, current board president, was re-elected as a director while Bownds succeeds Harold Tucker as one of the seven directors.

Fourteen stockholders attended the meeting and discussed the Foundation program for the coming year. Several industrial prospects for the area were discussed, and a financial report was given.

Directors are expected to meet soon for the election of new officers, according to secretary Hack Lasater. Other directors include Clark Self Sr., Tommy Wallace, and Carroll McDonald.

Chamber Holds Planning Meet

Slaton Chamber of Commerce directors held their first meeting of the new year last Thursday morning with Robert H. Davis presiding.

An audit was approved by directors, and manager Earl Bartley read a list of proposed policies and procedures outlined by him and the president. The board approved the office procedures.

Davis discussed a decrease in number of committees for the year, along with seeking more involvement on the different groups. Committee assignments are to be made in the near future.

Bartley announced several banquet invitations from area Chambers, and directors are making plans to represent Slaton at some of the events. The breakfast session was held at The Carnation House.

Warm Weather Recorded Here

Spring-like temperatures highlighted the weather scene around the Slaton area the past week, but cooler weather was forecast the next few days.

The mercury climbed to a record 86 degrees Saturday and remained near 80 through Tuesday. Low reading the past week was 26 degrees last Thursday night. High minimum was 48 degrees Wednesday morning.

Gusty winds accompanied the warm weather Tuesday, and lighter winds of 15 to 25 MPH were forecast Wednesday.

Slaton Man Killed, Ex-Officer Charged

Norberto (Bart) Diaz, 30, who had been a Slaton patrolman until Friday afternoon, was charged Tuesday morning with murder in connection with the fatal shooting of Anselmo Garcia Jr., also of Slaton.

The shooting incident occurred about 1 a.m. Saturday outside a pool hall in southeast Slaton. Garcia, 22, died shortly before 3 a.m. Saturday in a Lubbock hospital. He was buried Monday. Diaz was released Tuesday after posting $5,000 bond set by Justice of the Peace Charles Smith.

County law officials were called in to investigate the shooting. It was reported that a scuffle between Garcia, Diaz and others broke out in a cafe on New Mexico street, and the altercation ended later in the street where Garcia was wounded by a pistol shot in the abdomen.

Slaton Police Chief Walter Head said Diaz submitted a letter of resignation Friday morning, citing low pay and criticizing a sergeant in the department.

Due to the remarks about a fellow officer, Head said he dismissed Diaz Friday afternoon and notified him about 3 p.m. Diaz had been with the department almost four years.

Since Diaz had been a patrolman here, Head said he requested county authorities to conduct the investigation. It was reported that statements were taken from Diaz and several other men involved in the incident.

Counselor Workshop Held

Two Slaton counselors and Slaton's school superintendent attended a day-long Counselors Workshop Monday, sponsored by the Region XVII Education Service Center in Lubbock.

Attending were Mrs. Charlene Davis, Mrs. May Belle Kern and J. C. McClesky.

The workshop was primarily concerned with measuring interests and values and evaluation of case presentation submitted by several of the over 100 participants. Dr. Weldon E. Day, director of planning and research for the ESC, said.

Dr. Donald Super, an internationally-known educator-psychoanalyst from Columbia University, conducted the sessions and served as mediator for the discussions. Dr. Super is presently professor of psychology and education at Columbia and has written extensively in the area of vocational counseling.

St. Joseph H-SA Hears McClesky

The St. Joseph Home-School Association met last Wednesday evening at the school to hear J. C. McClesky, superintendent of Slaton schools, discuss the various aspects of student-parent relationship. He and Mrs. McClesky were special guests.

Joe Kitten, president conducted a business meeting during which a nominating committee was appointed. Members of this group are Clarence Kitten, Allen Mourer, Raymond Buskemper, Mrs. Walter Bodnarz and Mrs. Lee Mourer. They will present a list of candidates for next year's officers at the March meeting.

Members of the hospitality committee, Mrs. Harold Stefens and Mrs. Walter Heinrich served refreshments. This committee is now appointed to serve for a full year rather than alternate at each meeting.

There has been much talk about how to alleviate the cause of poverty of the underprivileged, but one of the best solutions heard of is the following editorial in the Wisconsin Press Association:

Slaton Nursing Home Personalities

... FEATURING MRS. MARY SIDES

This is the first in a series of articles which will be published about residents at Slaton Nursing Home. Most of the information will be supplied from an interview between Bobbie Greer and the resident.

Visiting with residents at Slaton Nursing Home can be very rewarding and this is the case when meeting Mrs. Mary Alena Sides. Mrs. Sides is a native Texan. She was born in Williamson County at Taylor in 1882 and was the tenth child in the family. She had nine brothers.

She was raised on a farm and as she reminisced over her childhood days, she didn't remember there being a serious illness in her large family. She did recall that the worse accident was when one of her brothers got his front teeth kicked out by a mule. He was still young enough to grow another set though.

She said her father was the doctor in the family and kept all kinds of medicines in a little box. A trip to grandmothers house was one of the highlights of her childhood days. Her grandmother lived 150 miles away in San Saba and it took them two days by wagon to get there.

Mrs. Sides recalls attending community parties about once a month. There were "Pound Suppers" where everyone took cakes and there were "Candy Breakings" that were a lot of fun. A boy and a girl would draw a piece of candy from a box and if they got the same color, they got to eat it. If they were different colors, they put the candy back into the box.

She said she started dating when she was 14 years old and had a nice "hope" was filled with... She married a little... He was first... then a salesman... Miss King is Guild Hostess

Miss Gertrude King was hostess for the Wesleyan Service Guild when it met in her home Thursday evening.

Mrs. Bill Layne led the opening prayer and Mrs. Douglas Wilson conducted the business meeting.

The Guild made plans to serve the evening meal to the Crusade team on Feb. 17. They also made a contribution for a honorary life membership for Mrs. Evelyn Kirby, conference chairman.

Mrs. Theo Conner was program chairman and spoke on "American Indians, A Forgotten Minority". Taking part in the program was Mrs. H. H. White and Mrs. Layne. Reasons were given why the American Indian life has changed so slowly and to consider the need for new forms of relevant ministry to the American Indians.

Miss King served refreshments to Mmes. Vera Drewry, Mary Gilmore, Cora Smith, Bruce Parks, Sammie Hitt, Opal Rose, Conner, Wilson, Layne, White and one guest, Mrs. A.S. Yandell.

BILL BALL

BY KATHIE MITCHELL

One of the most prominent men in Slaton is Bill Ball, Mr. Ball, the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Z. Ball, was born February 28, 1921, in Slaton and grew up here.

He was graduated from Slaton High School but confessed that he had too many honors to remember them all. One he did remember was being editor of the Tiger's Cage.

Mr. Ball married the former Evelyn Meading on October 23, 1942. They have three charming sons: Steve, Mike, and Bobby.

Mr. Ball attended Texas Tech and Cal Tech but regretted that he had to leave college to fight for Uncle Sam in World War II. He now works for O. Z. Ball and Company.

Mrs. Ruby Barton returned to her home in Plainview Monday after spending several days here with her sister, Mrs. George Evans, recuperating from eye surgery. Other guests of Mrs. Evans Sunday were her brother, H. L. Henderson of Amarillo, her niece, Mrs. J. W. Blake, and children, Melanie and Keith of Lubbock, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rogers of Plainview.

Auxiliary Seeks New Members

Mrs. Carter Shaw, President of American Legion Auxiliary Unit 438 in Slaton said that ONE MILLION members working for the welfare of veterans and their families, serving in their communities and striving for the peace and security of America is NOT just a dream-it is the GOAL of the American Legion Auxiliary for 1970.

"We do need one million members in our organization?" she said, "Because ours is a program not only of service but for keeping alive the ideals for which Americans have sacrificed so much in the past and are defending so bravely in Vietnam today."

"The American Legion Auxiliary is putting special emphasis on enrolling the wives of the Viet-time veterans," Mrs. Shaw explained, "We are anxious to have these young women join us, not only because we think they would enjoy having the new friends they would make as a member of the Auxiliary but because in an organization like ours, there is always need for volunteer workers."

"Our program of service to the hospital confined veterans," Mrs. Shaw continued, "is an interesting and certainly rewarding program. The men are so appreciative of the attentions they would not otherwise receive were it not for our volunteers. We know that so many V.A. patients are forgotten and neglected in the busy world's rush! Attention from the pretty young wives of Vietnam veterans on hospital rounds could do so much to lift their morale. There are so many other projects that the new members could give time to - projects that they would find interesting and worthwhile."

"So," Mrs. Shaw concluded, "we are making a special appeal to any interested eligible woman to join the American Legion Auxiliary in Unity and Service for America."

Tax Man Sam Sez

Use a check or money order to pay your 1969 Federal income tax Ellis Campbell, Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue for North Texas, said today.

Unlike a cash payment, a check or money order gives you a record of payment in case of loss or misdelivery.

Campbell pointed out that payment can be stopped on a misplaced check or money order and a new payment made. Checks or money orders should be made payable to the Internal Revenue Service. Write your social security number on the check or money order and state the exact purpose of the payment to help assure your payment is properly credited.

For a quick serving of Eggs Benedict, place slices canned luncheon meat on toasted English muffins. Add a poached egg to each. Top with a quick mushroom-cheese sauce made by blending 1/2 cup milk into one can of cream of mushroom soup. Heat, then add one cup grated processed American cheese and stir until cheese melts.

FAMILY POT LUCK

You can bake meat loaf in half the time by cooking in a 9 inch square pan in flat layer or in muffin pans instead of shaping in one large loaf.

Leftover roast beef can go into sandwich filling. Grind or chop finely the cooked meat, then mix with one-fourth cup of chopped cabbage, three tablespoons chopped pickle and one tablespoon finely chopped onion, all moistened with one-third cup of mayonnaise.

A tasty frosting for ham slices combines apple butter made tangy with grated orange rind.

Leftover roast beef can be ground or chopped and blended with mayonnaise and seasonings for sandwiches of dip. Leftover meat can also be cubed or cut in julienne strips for use in a chilled salad.

Story-Time Hour Changed

Among the new books which arrived at the Slaton Branch Library last Thursday are "First Papers", "The Gentleman from California", "Garden On the Moon", "The Extreme Occident", and a number of mystery books in the adult division.

Additions to the juvenile book section are Junior Science books on "Stars - Rock Collecting and Sound" and "Philomena". For young adults, new books include "Mathematical Puzzles and Pastimes", "The Pigman", "Little Dorrit", and easy books are "Tico and the Golden Wings", "The Puppy Who Wanted a Boy", and "Peter Piper's Alphabet".

Story-time hour has been changed from Saturday morning to the first Saturday afternoon of each month from 3-4 p.m., according to Mrs. R. C. Hall Jr., story-time chairman.

Pre-school children and those up to the fourth grade are especially urged to attend, said Mrs. Polly Melugin, Slaton librarian. Stories are read to the children and then film strips are shown. Mrs. Melugin stated that, heretofore there has been a good attendance for the story-time, and it is hoped that the change will be more convenient and thus increase the number of children.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rhea Pierce last week were Mrs. Gertrude Mote of Whiteface and Mr. and Mrs. Lois Rogers of Slaton.

Mrs. Harley Martin is a patient in West Texas Hospital, Lubbock, after undergoing foot surgery Monday.

Mrs. Bobby R. Norris is a patient in Methodist Hospital after undergoing surgery last week.

who are able to attend. Seven requests to the Inter-Library Loan System in Lubbock were made through the Slaton Branch during the month of December. Since this is a free service, it was pointed out by an official that patrons should not feel as if their requests were too numerous; rather that they had not been taking full advantage of the service by requesting too few. Books obtained through this system may be requested from 2-5 p.m. on weekdays, and 100% participation is encouraged by the library staff.

A number of magazines may be checked out from the library, and on hand for reference are several daily papers and the Slatonite.

Gresley Sanders, president of the Slaton Friends of the Library was one of three new library board members appointed to the Lubbock City-County Libraries in December.

Sanders will serve a three year term replacing Mrs. Bob Kern. A plaque was presented to Mrs. Kern at the December meeting for her service to the libraries.

Visions Of Spring So Soon ?

Greetings to all our readers. Say, how about this weather? Hasn't it been pretty for the past several days? Makes a person start digging through the "junk drawer" to see what kind of seeds might still be there from last year! I don't believe that I have ever seen so many birds---ducks, sandhill crane, and just birds! But talking about seeds---well, I had rather be talking about a fishing pole and a lake filled with bass and crappies. Oh la-la!

If there is harmony in the home, there will be order in the nation. If there is order in the nation, there will be peace in the world.

SUPER DUPER SCOOPER---This mobile scoop, which will be operated by Sonny Gossett, seated, was rebuilt and made to work by Coy Biggs, standing. The scoop, which is located on the front of the machine, will be used to scoop up manure on the floors of Gossett's chicken houses and dump it outside. (SLATONITE PHOTO)

Thingamajig Is Rebuilt

A "conversation piece" that has been at Biggs & Son Machine Shop for the past four months is ready to be moved and put in operation. When your eye first meets the "con-traption", you wonder "what in the world?"

It's not a new invention, but it was a real challenge to Coy Biggs, owner of Biggs & Son Machine Shop, when his cousin, Sonny Gossett, first showed it to him and asked if he could rebuild it and get it to work.

The machine is a mobile scoop for cleaning out chicken houses... or as Biggs says, "a super duper scooper". Gossett farms 80 acres of land on the Taboka highway out from Post and has 17,400 layers in his chicken houses. He said he was hiring a man to come from Afton twice a year to clean his houses and paying him $225 each trip. It was either that or hand clean the houses and carry out the manure in wheelbarrows.

Gossett found out about the old machine that wouldn't work and - being a crippled man, he thought how nice it would be to have it in operation to use as often as he wanted. He figured if anyone could rebuild and get it to work, Biggs could.

A new machine such as this retails for approximately $4,500 and some are as high as $7,000.

Wilson Trustees Renew Contracts Of Principals

Wilson's two school principals' contracts were renewed when the Wilson School Board met in regular session Monday, Jan. 19, in the home-making cottage. Three new teachers were also employed. The contracts for Dale Sides and Kenneth Baker, principals, were renewed for another year. The board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Anita Gregg as fifth grade teacher and employed Mrs. Dorothy Durham to take her place. The board also approved Mrs. Janice Vacek as a second and third grade teacher and Mrs. Jo Ann Cook as a teacher aide. The board approved the date of Saturday, April 4, for the trustee election. Those desiring to file for one of the two places must do so by March 4 with Mrs. Stegemoeller in the tax office. Only registered voters are allowed by law to file for this office.

 In other action, the board set the date of Tuesday, Feb. 17, as the date to open bids on tearing down the old elementary school building.
 Members present for the meeting were Dale Zant, James Savell, Curtis Wilke, Reuben Sander, Roy L. Kahlich, and Loyd R. McCormick, Jr.

Compress Manager Talks to Rotarians

Milt Ardrey, manager of Union Compress, was guest speaker for the regular weekly luncheon meeting of Slaton Rotary Club last Thursday in the Community Clubhouse.

Ardrey, manager of the Slaton compress for about seven years, described the type of work done here and outlined some statistics on the operation. He was introduced by Chester Williams, program chairman for the week.

Union Compress receives "flat" cotton, samples and processes the bales, and stores and ships the bales after compressing them into standard or high density form. The compress itself owns no cotton or trucks, Ardrey explained.

The number of employees varies during the year, with about 49 on the payroll last week. The compress payroll amounted to some $120,000 last year and was $135,000 the year before.

Ardrey said about 146,000 bales were shipped from here in 1967-68, the best year on record. Most of the cotton is shipped to ports and mills, he explained. Cotton is received from all around the area, with about 30,000 bales coming from the immediate area.

High density bales are compressed to a smaller size, with most of them scheduled for overseas delivery, the manager said. The local compress can average about 100 to 125 bales per hour pressed to standard density, and about 90 to 95 and hour to high density.

Union Compress has some 400,000 square feet of warehouse storage space and owns eight houses for use of full-time employees. Ardrey invited Rotarians to visit the compress at any time and view the operations.

J. S. Edwards presided at the Rotary meeting, with several visiting Rotarians and guests being introduced at the luncheon. Clifford Kitten was introduced as "Junior Rotarian" of the month by O. Z. Ball.

Wayne Yearout has charge of the program this week.

Children Urged To Get Free Bike Sticker

For the third week, the Aaron Luman VFW Post #6721 will sponsor their thus far successful "Lite A Bike" program from 1-5 p.m. at the VFW Hall.

Children are encouraged to bring their bicycles to the VFW Hall and get a free reflective safety sticker and a cold drink. These stickers are reflective after dark and are highly recommended by the Department of Public Safety.

God's Help

"The Lord shall guide thee continually."
—Isaiah 58:11

When we come to a difficult crossroad along the pathway of life, how comforting it would be if God suddenly appeared to point to a road which would lead straight forward to happiness and security.

How satisfying it would be to know that any dark night could be lighted with but a single prayer.

But God's help does not come in the form of an instant rescue. It is spelled out in the life and teachings of Christ, and in the commandments of God. Life is not guaranteed perfect for all who follow the guide lines; it is only that challenges are more easily met and faith lends greater strength to every action and decision.

Local Farmers Use SCS Services Boost Conservation Practices

O.G. NIEMAN
 and water conservation

 by Lubbock County and the Soil Conservation Service. Many farmers servation program and the gram. Both are supervised by Conservation Service.

 example of the programs seen in two projects carried out by Slaton
 farmers. Johnny Melcher, just west of Slaton, contracted for a terracing project under the Great Plains program. A. A. (Buzz) Wimmer, who farms several miles west of Slaton, has a similar project started under the same plan.
 Hanna, conservationist with Lubbock SCS, is helping both projects here and explaining the provisions of both plans. The major difference lies in the cost-share arrangement and the contract terms.

 Under the Great Plains conservation program, the district cooperators signs a three-year contract with the Department of Agriculture in which he agrees to carry out a number of approved conservation practices.
 This is the type program which Melcher has adopted with the cost-share plan calling for him to pay 30 percent of the cost. Primary purpose of the terracing is for the conservation of water.
 Melcher will have some 30-000 feet of parallel terracing on a 145-acre tract just across the US-84 bypass and north of the Woodrow road. The land had some old standard-type terraces a number of years ago, but the system was gone after but the terraces had broken and gullies were formed after big rains.
 Parallel terracing has proven more efficient with modern equipment. Distance between the terraces varies with the slope of the land, and those on the Melcher farm range from 24 to 48 rows of space between the terraces.
 Melcher is a native of Slaton and has been farming the 145-acre tract west of town for two years. He currently farms a total of 461 acres of land.

 Wimmer will have about 70-
 000 feet of parallel terracing installed on his land under the ACP program, which has a cost-share plan of 50-50. No long-term contract is involved in this program—one of the other major differences from the Great Plains program.
 The land was being staked off last week, the first preliminary work in preparation for a topography map which is drawn up by the SCS office. The farmer or landowner selects his own contractor for the terracing work, and conservationists from the SCS office coordinate the project.
 Wimmer's land -- which has less slope than Melcher's -- will have 72 rows between terraces on the east side of his section. The other half section will have less rows since there is a little more slope.
 Wimmer moved to Slaton from Scurry County in 1946.
 He farmed a mile east of town for a year, then moved west of Slaton several miles. Wimmer now farms about 650 acres of land.
 The SCS office offers service to district cooperators on a number of practices -- including land leveling, pasture planting, construction of underground pipelines, stubble mulching, water diversions and brush control.

 The SCS has increased its services over the years, since it started with the giant task of doing something about the "dust bowl" in the 1930's. Elsewhere, the SCS was working on the problem of unchecked runoff-rain water.
 It called for a combination of soil conservation practices, and a new concept of partnership between owners of the land and the federal government in the conservation of the fertility of the soil.
 The real "dust bowl" days were licked--not quickly and not easily, but with cooperation that grew of necessity for all landowners.
 The partnership between the federal SCS and the landowners is firmly cemented, and is one that pays profits to all people of the world's most productive agricultural nation.
 The next step for the partnership appears to be in the field of conservation and development of recreation. The new concept is just starting in the southwest, but the demand for more recreation sites, fishing lakes and hunting areas seems sure to become a major conservation practice.

CONSERVATION WORK--Two Slaton-area farmers recently initiated terracing programs on their farms with the assistance of two federal programs--the Great Plains Conservation Program and the Agricultural Conservation Program. Both are supervised by the Lubbock County Soil

Seek Payments

Grain Sorghum Producers
 Association asked President Nixon and the Budget Bureau this week to reconsider their stand on not making advance payments to farmers, who comply with the 1970 Feed Grain Program.
 It has been the practice in the past for farmers to receive one-half of their diversion payment at the time they signed up in the program.
 In his letter to the President, Harp said, "The discontinuance of these payments and the tight money situation will prevent many of our banks from financing farmers for this crop year. This will force many of our farmers out of business."

NEW YEAR RESOLUTIONS LISTED, SOME SERIOUS

"New Year's resolutions are made to be broken." People say the same about rules, but this year many students of SHS intend to make their New Year's resolutions stick. The students wishing to reveal such resolutions are:

Gayla Smith - "To forget a certain person."
Jackie Barnes - "To stop doing evil things!"
Linda Thomas - "To stop cheating in civics."
Monte Polk - "To be as good as a little devil should be."
Patricia Qualls - "To do unto others as they do unto me; except I might slip 1/1000 of an inch."
Louie Scott - "To have more soul."
Glenna Smith - "To do better in journalism (no more cheating)."
Duane Cox - "To try and improve myself in everything I do, no matter what."
JoAnn Roberts - "To try to get along with everyone, especially R.C.S."
Gary Angle - "To leave booze and cigarettes alone."
Mary Helen Champton - "To pass civics and not to wear out the tires on my car so fast."

Jimmie Rogers - "Not to get kicked out of the National Honor Society."
Jane Webb - "To be nice to Mrs. Barrett."
Pete Peterson - "To lose about 25 more pounds, down to 200."
Sandra Blevins - "To get out of school as soon as possible."
Moose Barkley - "To try to pass chemistry and start doing my own work in journalism."
Laura Lynn Basinger - "Not to get caught parking at Horseshoe Bend with Chuck."
Jessie Diaz - "To do things the right way."
John Buskemper - "To pass English (both of 'em)."
Glen Brosch - "Not to make New Year's resolutions."
Darwin Belt - "To get to work on last year's resolutions."
Robert Englund - "To be on time where I go and to know when to come home."
Loyd Green - "To not get carried away and not stay out so late."
Wesley Fondy - "To grow eight inches."
Lomtie Kuss - "To make it through physics any way I can."

EDITORIALS

What is the "great American dream"? For most of us, it means the creation of our own home, having a family, and caring for that family in an atmosphere of happiness and love. Most of us want to have a nice, livable home, cars, fine clothes, excellent food, good education for our children, fun vacations, and recreation for all of the family.

Did you know that if you merely get a high school education that your chances of realizing this dream are nearly zero because this dream adds up to many, many dollars? A person who has only a high school education can never have the earning power it takes to make this dream come true. The jobs that are open to a person who has only a high school education are the unskilled jobs and are usually inferior in every way. These jobs pay the least, have little chance for advancement, and little or no fringe benefits. The good jobs go to the college graduates or the skilled craftsmen.

A college education means $250,000 - $300,000 more earnings in the course of an average lifetime. Think of that again--$250,000-$300,000 more earnings is that not worth the extra effort and sacrifice it takes to go to college. Think of the extra advantages that much money would mean to a family.

True, not everyone can attend college, but those who cannot should continue their education in a specialized field such as brick laying, mechanics, welding, steam fitting, nursing, electronics, airline operation, etc. The jobs open to skilled craftsmen such as these are many and excellent, featuring high pay and wonderful chance for advancement.

It's as simple as two and two adding up to four--"The American dream" belongs to those who are willing to put forth the effort to prepare for it. If you should be considering stopping your education at the high school level, it would be wise to have second thoughts and plan instead to continue your education in any of thousands of fields open to you.

Vol. 50, No. 6 Slaton High School, Slaton, Texas December 11, 1969

Two Named On Region Band

The Regional Band try-outs were held Jan. 17 in Lubbock at Texas Tech University. Two of the 10 students who tried out from Slaton made the Region Band. They are Tony Privett, who will play third chair French horn, and Pat Edwards, who will be an alternate trumpet player.

The songs the 10 students played were "Sinfonia Nobilissima," "The Tsar's Bride," and "The Entry March of the Boyars."

The other eight members who tried out are Lana Head, clarinet; Mary Browning, oboe; James Stevens, trombone; Darwin Belt, trombone; Jim Carnes, trombone; Curtis McCain, trombone; Clifford Kitten, baritone; and Loyd Green, baritone.

The students were competing with both AAA and AAAA schools.

The winners of the try-outs from all over the region will assemble in Lubbock Jan. 31, for a concert at Coronado High School.

GAINES TEAGUE

Winners Named In VFW Contest

Toni Longtin was announced as the winner of the Slaton VFW "Voice of Democracy" Oratorical Contest Jan. 12 at the awards ceremony held for the winners. She was presented a $50 savings bond and an award citation.

Mary Frances Browning was the second place winner and was awarded a $25 savings bond and a certificate. Clifford Summar placed third and received a trophy and an award citation. Nita Latham placed fourth and received a diary and a certificate.

CITIZENS OF MONTH

Two senior students of Slaton High School, Darlene Hlavaty and Gaines Teague, have been selected as Citizens of the Months for November and December, respectively.

Darlene is a member of the National Honor Society and the Student Council. She is presently serving as senior class secretary. She has been listed on Who's Who three years, served as Decca Sweetheart, a Girls' State alternate, and football queen candidate.

Gaines has been a member of the Student Council for four years. This year he is serving as president of the student body. He holds memberships in FTA and the National Honor Society. He was named Mr. Flame in the fall.

'Little Miss' Pageant Slated

The Slaton Little Miss -- La Petite Pageant will be presented Saturday, Feb. 7, at the Slaton High School auditorium.

The "Little Miss" contestants will range from ages 7-12. There will be two categories in the modeling events for this age group. Each contestant will model sports wear, party dress, and present a talent act. Each event will count one-third of their total number of points.

Ages are from 2-6 for "La Petite" competition. These girls will be modeling sports wear and party dress. In this group each event will count 50 per cent.

An entry fee of $10 is required. The girls are being sponsored by local business organizations or by their parents.

First place winners in both categories will get a $50 savings bond, a trophy, and a crown. Runners-up for second and third places in both divisions will receive a trophy and a crown.

Sponsoring the pageant are the Slaton cheerleaders, with Mrs. Pat Green directing.

Akin Wins First In Hog Judging

First place was won by Glen Akin and second by Bradley Kitten in hog judging when the Future Farmers of America of Slaton traveled to Tulla Jan. 22 for a team judging contest.

The other member in this team, Dick Davis, had the only perfect score in 150 boys in the steer division. As a team, they won first.

Other members who went were Walter Simmons, Gary Cook, Frank Menzel, and Frank Self.

Out of the 50 teams entered, Slaton won fourth in the overall judging of lambs, cattle, and swine.

The ag boys went to Midland Wednesday and will be going to Hereford Saturday," says Don Mitchell, vocational agriculture teacher.

ROTC Sponsors Assembly Program

The Slaton ROTC unit sponsored an assembly Dec. 17. The entertainment for the assembly was given by "The Faith." The band was composed of Terry Crosswell, Tate Fondy, Wesley Fondy, and Steve Meador from Wilson.

Any baseball team could use a man who plays every position superbly, never strikes out, and never makes an error -- but there's no way for the manager to make him lay down his hot dog and come out of the grandstand.

The following appeared in the personal column of a large daily news paper: "35-year-old farmer wishes to meet single girl or widow of similar age who has tractor. Object -- matrimony. Please send picture of tractor."

Sports Review

Slaton's varsity basketball teams found rough going as district competition started this month. The Tigerettes lost two and captured one, while the Tigers lost four of four through Monday.

The Tigerettes were to play Dunbar here Tuesday night, while the girls were at O'Donnell Monday.

The Tigerettes had won the Tulla Tournament and had won two in the big Duncanville Tourney during the Christmas holidays before losing to Klondike, Marilyn Davis made the all-tourney teams in both meets, and Cynthia Akin was a finalist in the queen's contest at Duncanville.

The Tigers won one and lost two in the Tulla Tourney, then dropped three games in the tough Denver City tournament. Slaton lost to Lamesa, Morton and Denver City in that meet, with Larry Moore being named to the tournament team.

The Tigers junior varsity traveled to the Tulla B-Team tourney Jan. 10 and lost to Tulla and Dimmitt, Clyde Kitten and Tommy Taylor led Slaton's attack.

In other news, Charles Thomas was named to the South Plains Class AAA defensive football team. An all-district performer, he was one of four juniors on the all South Plains team. Larry Moore received honorable mention as a running back.

Junior Varsity Teams Capture Tourney Titles

Slaton's girls took the title in the Slaton "B" Tournament last weekend by overcoming Tulla, 46 to 30. Slaton's boys took consolation Downing Post, 47 to 32. Tommy Taylor got 16 points in the win. Floydada won the boys' title over Ralls, 51 to 43.

Slaton's girls dumped Tahoka, 34 to 23, and Idalou in reaching the finals. Joyce Heinrich was outstanding during the tournament.

The boys lost their opener to Ralls, 43 to 35, but came back to dump Littlefield, 50 to 41, and finally Post. Tommy Taylor was the outstanding player for the boys.

Petersburg won the girls' consolation title, 43 to 42, over Tahoka.

Payne Named VPO of District FTA

Paul Payne was elected vice-president of District 12 at the FTA District Convention held last month at Estacado High School. Nicky Farrell was runner-up in the election of the district representative for the state convention.

Coming Attractions

A magic assembly will be held in the auditorium at 11:15 a.m. Feb. 4. A Southern School assembly will be held Feb. 6 at 11:15 a.m. Ralph Melville, a master craftsman, will demonstrate the art of glass blowing and glass knitting. The majorettes will sponsor an assembly Feb. 11 at 1:15 p.m.

If at first you don't succeed, you'll get a lot of unsolicited advice.

ROTC Headquarters Added to Campus

The Slaton High ROTC group has acquired a building for ROTC Headquarters. The purpose of the newly-bought building is to alleviate crowded classroom conditions. This building was purchased in a bidding from Reece Air Force Base in Lubbock.

The ROTC program, which was started Sept. 2, has not had to secure funds for the program's or cadets' use; but as enthusiastic as the ROTC cadets are, each of the three companies are aiding in the purchase of the ROTC headquarters building. The cadets have had such successful money-raising projects as a car wash, a talent show, and an assembly; and there will be future projects during the year. A donkey basketball game has been planned for March.

Various businesses and organizations in the Slaton area plan to contribute funds for the completion of the building. Some of these are the VFW, American Legion, Citizens State Bank, and the Student Council of SHS.

This classroom building is located on the west side of the SHS campus adjacent to the football field house.

On Dec. 17, the building was set on the site. The building was bought, along with three air conditioning units, water heater, and water line. The cost for the building, foundation, building repairs, and foundation repairs was $300, thus totaling the purchase price, the room necessities supplied by the military at SHS has it that line and a cable to be installed.

CONNIE BALES

MID-TERM GRAD

Gary Angle, senior at Slaton High School, was the only person to graduate at mid-term. Angle plans to attend electronics college this semester.

Talent Show Winners Named

The Junior ROTC Talent Show presented an evening of entertainment on the night of Jan. 10. Approximately 40 participants supported the show with their individual talents.

The winners in the talent show are as follows: the senior division: first place, Clifford Kitten, who played a medley of 13 songs on the piano; second place, Margaret Durham and Jill Justice, folk singers from Lubbock High; third place, Susan Cagle, who sang "I've Got to Be Me."

The junior division: first place, Robin Kerr, who did a one-latin and two-baton twirling routine; second place, D'Ann Green, who did a dance-twirl solo; and third place, Leisa Rea, who twirled and did an acrobatic routine.

Trophies were given as prizes to the winners. Judges at the talent show were Coy Cook, of Wilson; Bill Ravey, of Lubbock; and Captain Welch from the ROTC unit at Texas Tech.

Approximately $200 was cleared from the admission charges. This will help to pay for the ROTC building.

FTA SELLS CAKES

The Slaton FTA Chapter has been busily selling cakes to earn enough money to go to the annual state convention in the spring.

A cake sale was held downtown Jan. 17. Approximately $80 was brought in. On Jan. 21, over $100-worth of cakes were auctioned off at a morning assembly.
