One-Way Block Now in Effect

A block of West Panhandle became a street for northwest traffic Monday, after the change had been scheduled. Signs were placed on the south side of the street facing southbound traffic at the intersection of Lynn and 10th streets. Chief Walter Head urges motorists to obey the street until drivers accustomed to the change. He said signs have been placed at Lynn and 10th intersections with Panhandle. The one-way street by Slaton City was upon recommendation of City Engineer Morton. The northwest corner square had long been considered a dead end. It was difficult for motorists coming off Panhandle on the street to determine their right of way.

Father's Day Contest Set

Do you think your Dad is the greatest? Slaton firms are sponsoring a Father's Day Contest and will offer rewards to the best three Dads who are "turned in" by their children. Rewards will be merchandise certificates for $30, $15 and $10. Judges will select the three best entries in the contest. The contest will be held at the Slatonite for all participating firms. The "Father's Day Contest" page in the Slatonite for full details and to enter the contest. Boys and girls 10 years of age and under are eligible to enter the contest. Parents must fill in a form and explain in 50 words or less "I reward my Dad because..." The contest will be held on any of the 12 sponsors.

Miller on Division Street says the contest will be a pleasant surprise for many people.

Register for Slaton's monthly dollar-day, otherwise known as Blue Star Friday. You'll find many bargains in today's Slatonite, and you'll have an opportunity to win valuable "Blue Star Bucks" by registering with participating firms.

Check the special ads in today's paper, for the Blue Star on windows or doors of participating merchants, and take advantage of money-saving bargains Friday!

Wilson Lions are joining other Lions in a campaign to encourage citizens to support their nation and officials. The drive was initiated at a district convention in Lubbock where a resolution was endorsed to back "unregistered loyalty oath."

The club is sponsoring an ad in today's Slatonite with copies of the loyalty oath. They request you to sign the form, clip it from the paper and mail it to Mayor David Hughes, or include the form with any correspondence.

Wilson Lions Club will sponsor the ad as an effort to reach as many citizens as possible. Similar campaigns also have been well received, according to officials there.

A resolution for the "oath" reads, in part: "We, the President, the Governor, the Mayor, consider it a blessing, an honor and a privilege to live in the United States of America. I pledge to loyally support the President, the Governor, the Mayor, the Police Chief, and all other officials in their respective offices, and to abstain from all acts of violence, promote peace, and bring about the freedom, concord and unity for which our nation was founded and made as bulwark in a world threatened by chaos."

Call for the mayors to forward the oath to the Governor, who will present them to the President. Officials are hoping that all Slatonites may attend the All-American Game in Lubbock June 27.

Mothers: We hope you'll show your appreciation for the Father's Day Contest page in the Slatonite. They probably won't need encouragement to enter their Dad, once they see about the special contest.

How much discussion these days about "generation gap," but I don't think it's any-

SWIM POOL NOW OPEN

Slaton Municipal Swimming Pool opened Tuesday afternoon, and the "splash" business was expected to increase quickly with warmer weather this weekend. Jerry Gentry is the pool manager this summer, and hours will be from 1 to 7 p.m. each day except Sunday, when hours are 1 to 5 p.m. Admission is 35 cents for children through 11 years of age, and 50 cents for 12 and up. The city pool is under the supervision of Slaton Chamber of Commerce.

Beard-Growing Contest Starts For July 4th

A beard-growing contest is to be conducted in connection with Slaton's July 4th Celebration, and officials announced this week that a "clean" start is required for contestants. The July 4th Celebration committee, headed by chairman Jim Newhouse, announced that all males will be required to grow beards or purchase a shaving permit.

Those who desire to be in the contest must sign up with clean-shaven faces at KCAS Radio or the Slatonite starting today. This assures all contestants for the prize money of an even start!

July 4th "marshals" will start checking June 20 for beards or permits, and "jail" will be placed on the city square to hold violators. Those nabbed without beards or permits will be jailed and must pay a fine or face a Kangaroo Court (all bearded) before being freed. Members of the Slaton Fire Department will serve as marshals.

The second annual citywide July 4th Celebration will be conducted in the City-County Park with most civic clubs and organizations participating in numerous projects and events for the day. A giant fireworks display will climax the day.

Lion Officers Installed

Arvin Stafford was installed as president of Slaton Lions Club for 1970-71 during a "ladies night" banquet at the Community Clubhouse Monday night.

Stafford succeeds Glen Akin as club president. Installing officer was Vern Carrothers, president of Lubbock Lions Club.

The "Lion of the Year" award was presented to Carroll McDonald, who was recently transferred to Hereford. McDonald was chairman of the club's queen contest this year, as well as working on numerous Lion Projects.

Other officers installed included Bill Adams, first vice president; J.C. McCleskey, 2nd VP; J.W. Holt, 3rd VP; Joe Miles, secretary-treasurer; Dean Robertson and Don Kendrick, directors; Dick Hartman, Lion tamer. Holdover directors are Truett Bownds, Jim Newhouse and John Thornbury. Before installing the new officers, Carrothers reminded Lions of the international scope of the service organization, and reviewed the objectives and code of ethics of Lions Club members.

McCleskey, superintendent of Slaton Schools, made an impromptu talk when a scheduled musical program had to be cancelled prior to the banquet. He recalled some humorous events in his teaching career, and extolled the virtues of being an active Lion.

Akin presented 100-percent attendance pins to 13 members who made every meeting the past year. Hack Lasater was singled out for 29 years perfect attendance. Stafford presented Akin with a plaque for his service as club president the past year. Stafford was first vice president the past year and was also secretary for several years before moving up to the president's post. He has also served on the District 2-T2 cabinet.

Radio To Give Emergency Data

Police Chief Walter Head announced this week that KCAS Radio will start an "emergency signal report" in cooperation with the police department.

When a siren sounds for an emergency ambulance run, or for a fire alarm, the police station will immediately notify the radio station so that a report can be made to the public.

Head said the police telephone lines have been "tied up" on many occasions by persons calling to ask about ambulance or fire truck runs. He requested citizens to tune in the radio station to find out the nature of the emergency runs.

After eight straight days of evening thunderstorms and turbulent weather, Slaton and area residents looked forward to warm, dry climate this week.

Storm-weary residents, along with area farmers, breathed a sigh of relief after cool temperatures helped clear out the turbulence and prospects of summer weather were anticipated.

It will be planting time again for many farmers, who had their cotton hauled out or "washed out" from the violent weather of the past week. A Sunday-night thunderstorm left heavy crop damage south of Slaton, with about 10 square miles reported hit by the storm.

Slaton recorded from 1.5 to 2 inches of rain Sunday night, and the moisture was heavier to the South—between Wilson and Southland. A quick-hitting downpour had left about .30 of an inch here Saturday night.

The week-long siege of thunderstorm activity last as much as 5 inches of rain in some areas. Apparently more rainfall was recorded to the south and southeast of Slaton during this period.

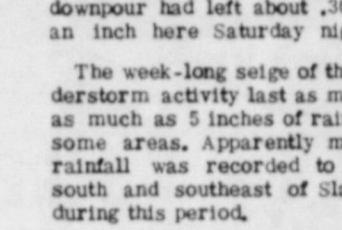

The turbulent weather Saturday night brought numerous reports of funnel clouds, including sightings near Brownfield, north and northwest of Lamesa, and near Tulia. No damage—except from strong winds—was reported from "twister" activity, however.

The temperature dipped to an unseasonable low of 50 degrees here on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings. The high Monday was only 68 degrees, just a few degrees off the low maximum of 62 set in 1967. The mercury was expected to climb back into the 80's Wednesday as a warming trend started.

Strong winds buffeted the area Monday as the cold front moved in from the Rockies. The cool front moved through the area Tuesday and was strong enough to push the unstable air out of the state, replacing it with drier air.

Dust storms accompanied the storm activity to the west of Slaton Saturday evening. A rash of swirling dust columns in the western and southern portions of Lubbock County had officials "on edge" Saturday as they kept a close watch on the weather developments.

DAVID JAYNES

Bronze Star Medal Awarded to Jaynes

David Jaynes, son of Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Jaynes, was awarded the Bronze Star Medal in May of 1969 and it "finally caught up with him" this May, one year later.

A student at Texas Tech, Jaynes is majoring in wild life and biology. He joined the service in 1967 and was in the infantry. He spent a year in Vietnam. His discharge was effective May 22, 1969.

In an announcement about the award, the following reason was given: "For heroism in connection with ground operations against a hostile force in the Republic of Vietnam, Sergeant Jaynes distinguished himself by exceptionally valorous actions on 12 May 1969 while serving with Headquarters and Headquarters Company, 196th Infantry Brigade. On that date, Landing Zone Baldy came under an enemy ground attack. Learning that the insurgents had penetrated the perimeter, Sergeant Jaynes moved to a bunker position to make an estimate of the situation. Acting immediately, Sergeant Jaynes placed heavy volumes of machine gun fire on the advancing enemy soldiers. When the reactionary force arrived, Sergeant Jaynes joined with them in an on line assault. With complete disregard for his personal safety, he exposed himself to the enemy barrage to provide covering fire for his comrades. Through his timely and courageous actions, he contributed greatly to the defense of the friendly position and the subsequent defeat of the enemy force.

Sergeant Jaynes' personal heroism, professional competence, and devotion to duty are in keeping with the highest traditions of the military service, and reflect great credit upon himself, the America Division, and the United States Army.

Lutherans Set Vacation School June 8 - 19

Grace Lutheran Church has scheduled its annual Vacation Church School for June 8 through 19. Classes for children ages three through six will meet each morning, Monday through Friday, at 9 a.m. and dismiss at 11:15 a.m.

This year's study will be "Neighbor". This series of courses will help the children examine their attitudes and feelings towards other people. These sessions will make the children aware of the joy and excitement of living together with all of God's people and help them to accept with joy the vast variety and differences in people as he accepts them.

The children will experience what it means to be a "Neighbor", in a world growing even smaller, as they experience the meaning of Jesus' words, "Love one another".

Want Hot Biscuits? Try This

A department store in Illinois recently advised husbands who had forgotten to buy their wives a box of their franchise brand of candy to try this regimen:

- 1-When someone tells you the children are beautiful...say they take after their mother.
- 2-With your arms around your mother-in-law say you know why her daughter is such a dream.
- 3-Fed her the first bite of our candy... at the same time look into her eyes.
- 4-When you're holding her chair while she sits down...don't forget a gentle squeeze of her waist... as she gets seated.
- 5-Be sentimental...call her baby, darling, pussycat, honey-baby.
- 6-Watch her closely at parties... interrupt any man who spends more than ten minutes with her.
- 7-Once in a while, unobserved, take out the garbage. 8-Tell her you never believed it could be like this. 9-Tell her not to wear her skirts, "that short"...say what she has is for you alone.

10-If you're both in shape, carry her across the room. 11-On the day the repairman is coming...get terribly jealous.

BIG CATCH--Milton Paul and son, Melvin, caught this yellow catfish weighing 19 pounds and 40 pounds of dressed fish last week at Caddo Creek at Possum Kingdom while staying at the Earl Reasoner cabin.

Specialist Says Cotton Insect Control Has New Book Of Rules

Each grower must know the situation on his farm. Thomas points out that at least 10 species of insects and mites have developed resistance to one or more of the organic insecticides and cites the bollworm - budworm situation as one of the toughest problems to solve. He emphasizes the importance of insect counts in the fight against these two pests.

Early season pest control should be practiced on the basis of infestation rather than as a routine measure, he says. In areas where thrips perennially cause damage, systemic insecticides can be used to good advantage, he notes.

As the plants begin to square, heavy infestations of fleahoppers can cut yields. When populations reach the damaging stage, they must be controlled. The choice of insecticide is very important since beneficial insects may be working in the field and they will be needed later in the fight against bollworms and tobacco budworms, explains the entomologist.

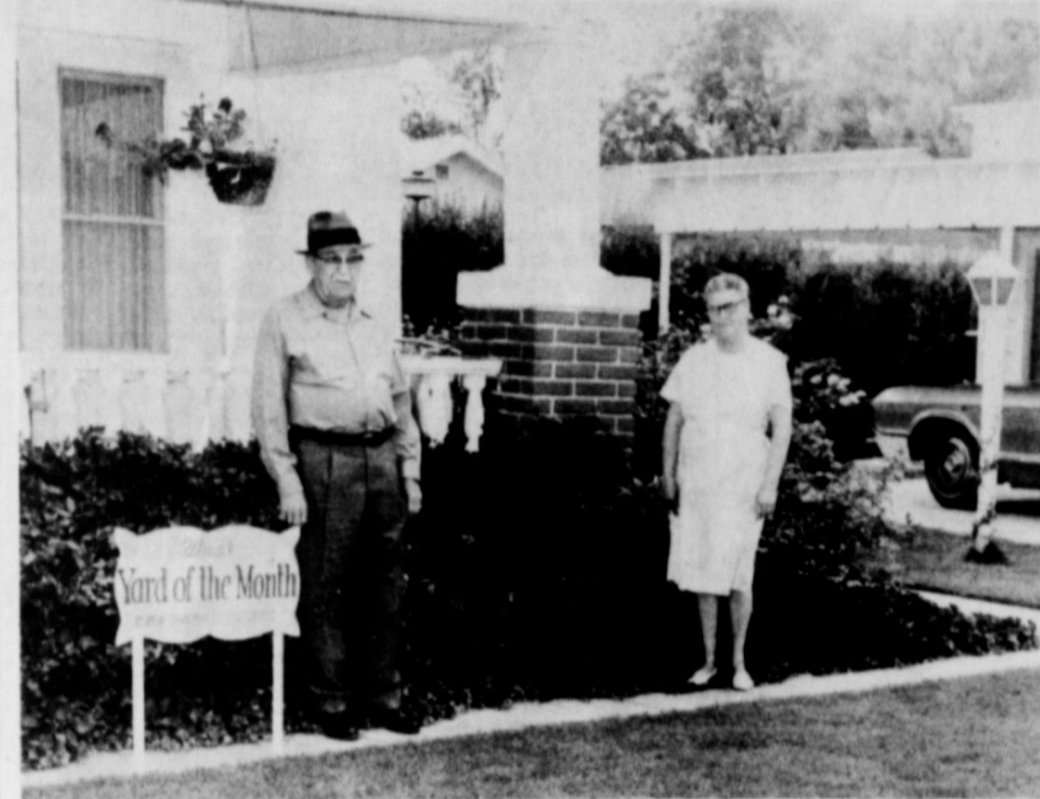

Rev. Prentice feels that the young people of today have basically the same problems as young people of the past. He feels that the basis of the problems of youth is sin. He feels that the young people can be helped by guiding them to the Lord.

Rev. Prentice feels that a good pastor must have a love of the Lord and of the people. If a pastor has this love, it will lead him in his other pastoral duties.

His advice to someone making plans to enter the ministry is to get a good education from the secular standpoint, but the most important thing is a good Christian education.

On Monday and Tuesday, June 15 and 16, South Plains Electric Cooperative, Inc. will host another Activity Day for Future Homemakers of America who are enrolled in summer home-making programs.

Activity Day, this year, will be devoted entirely to a Craft Workshop and will feature Tissue Paper Collage Wall Plaques, a simple craft involving an unusual technique of applying colored tissue paper in a design to a wooden plaque. Additional surface materials and uses of tissue paper for constructing other crafts will be discussed by the instructors, Mrs. Joe McKay and Mrs. Sam Ribble of Lubbock.

IN BABE RUTH PLAY

Cubs, Henzler Top Standings

The Cubs won two games the past week to move on top of the Slaton Babe Ruth League standings, while Henzler Grocery and Citizens State Bank each won one and lost one. Henzler's Flyers scored a controversial run in the last frame to take a 6-5 win over CSB Tuesday night, and the triumph put Henzler in second place. The Cubs were scheduled against the Montgomery Comets Wednesday night. Henzler meets the Slaton Co-Op Gin tonight, and CSB takes on the Cubs Friday night. A makeup game between the Gingers and CSB is set Saturday afternoon at 4 p.m.

Highlights of the week included a two-hit pitching performance by Curt Woolever of the Cubs and the season's first home run by Steve Nieman of CSB.

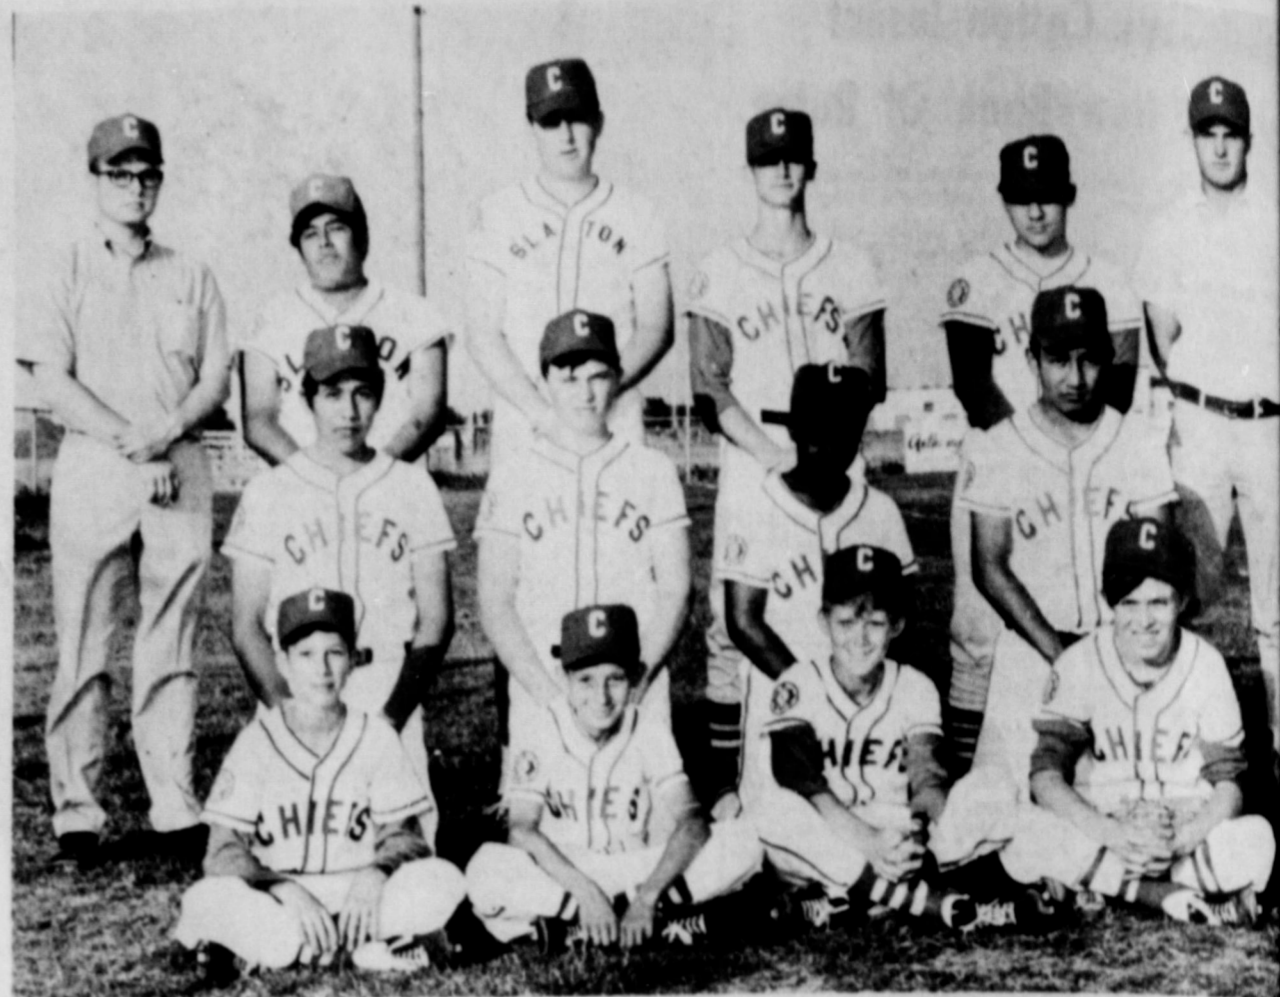

The Cubs scored a close 3-2 win over the Flyers last week as Woolever pitched the two-hitter. The Cubs had five hits, including two doubles by Bobby Higshower, Danny Pinkert and Eddie Jones had the hits for Henzler.

The Cubs came back to outscore the Gingers, 15-12, in a four-inning game Friday. Each team took advantage of 10 walks and the other team's errors. Isaih Whaley had two hits for the Cubs, and Ray Pequeo rapped a pair for the Gin.

The Bankers rolled by Montgomery, 15-1, last Thursday as Steve Nieman pitched a three-hitter in the five-inning game and socked a home run. CSB had 14 hits off three Comet hurlers. Nieman, Gilbert Escobar, David Magallanes, Raymon Gonzales and Thomas Heinrich each had two hits. Mike Busby, Mark Mosser and Don Kendrick had the Comet hits.

The Bank team lost to Henzler Tuesday night when an unearned run scored on an overthrow by the pitcher, Nieman, who had held the Grocers hitless for 5 2/3 innings in relief. The runner scored all the way from first on the play.

The CSB team had eight hits to only three for the Flyers, but the Chiefs committed nine errors. Max Martinez, Brad Robison and Kenneth Scott had the three hits for the winners, and Jim Alba got credit for the win. Ronnie Smith and Craig Nieman had two hits each for CSB.

Nursing Home News

BY BOBBIE GREER

Special meetings for each department were held for staff members Tuesday afternoon at the home.

We have two new residents, Rebecca Swint and John Thomas. We welcome them and hope they enjoy our home.

The first of the week was spent doing routine duties at Slaton Nursing Home and then on Friday Mrs. Ben Davis and I spent the afternoon in Lubbock at hobby shops. We also visited at Lakeside Nursing Home and saw what they were doing for their craft projects. We not only got many craft supplies but also got a lot of ideas.

Five met for a craft meeting Friday. They were Meses, Davis, Jeffie Dowell, Georgie Biggs, Helen Dunn and myself. We decided to meet each month about our craft program. We priced the craft we have completed so that we might sell it and replace some of the money we have been spending so we can purchase more supplies.

Besides these four women, there are several more that help with our craft program. They are Lois Chambers, Mary Ruiz, Tommy Doolley, Billie Walters and Lucille McMeek. Each lady has been assigned a certain day she will help with the program.

Our residents who are patients in Mercy Hospital are Dora Scudder, Lydia Butler and Nora Carnes. Ulen Gossett is still in Lubbock's Methodist Hospital.

We are happy to welcome Mr. and Mrs. James L. Drewry to Slaton Nursing Home. We hope they will be happy with us.

The Rev. R.A. Tomlin brought the service Sunday at the home.

ITEM: Meat is noted for being an excellent source of protein, but it has much more to offer nutritionally. It's an excellent source of B vitamins, including the "pep" vitamin, thiamin. Pork is the best source of this vitamin, but other meats also supply important amounts.

For pepper rice, toss 4 servings of cooked rice with 1/2 cup chopped green pepper which has been sauteed until tender in 1 tablespoon butter.

WASHINGTON AND SMALL BUSINESS

Enough's Enough

It seems inevitable that eventually the people of the United States will raise more of a clamor than they are presently voicing over the conduct of American foreign affairs.

In fact, it is quite possible that the people will demand an end to any foreign affairs, as the situation becomes more and more ridiculous.

Congressman H. R. Gross of Iowa, perhaps best stated the situation recently. He says "The United Nations never ceases to harp on the subject of minorities and in espousing the theory of 'one-man, one-vote.' Late last year the UN General Assembly's Trusteeship Committee voted independence for seven little territories, including Pitcairn Island with a population of 90. Antigua, population 61,064. Dominica, 68,501. Grenada 91,967. Nevis Anquilla 59,476. St. Lucia 110,142. and St. Vincent 88,451.

"Each of these" he continues, "including Pitcairn Island with its 90 persons, will have a vote in the UN equal to that of the United States with its more than 200,000,000 population. Through these votes and many others similar to them, U.S. taxpayers will be told how much they must cough up in support of the nefarious United Nations and its agencies, as well as when and how to dance to all its other tunes."

"If the connivers in the U.N." he continued, "really believed in 'one-man, one-vote' they would have long since taken action to either increase the one vote of the United States or decrease these small countries to a mere fraction of a vote. For far too many years has Uncle Sam been played for a sucker in the United Nations and the American people had better begin to realize it."

So far, the Senate has kept the U.S. from signing some of the treaties proposed by the UN, and thus have delayed the danger involved.

It is not generally known, but under the United States Constitution the provisions of a treaty override any law in this land. Federal, state, or local, even the Core Constitution.

Thus, for example, if a UN Treaty provided for censorship of what news shall be printed, the American guarantee of the free press would go out the window. The Pitcairn Island delegation to the UN would probably vote for such a measure, as undoubtedly there is no newspaper to serve the 90 people on the island.

In addition, the UN can vote measures which would reach even further into the pocket of every American.

It is most interesting that Pitcairn Island figures in all this, as the island was prominent in the Mutiny on the Bounty. Apparently part of this heritage has a lasting impact. They still believe in the bounty part of it, if they can collect that bounty from the American taxpayers.

Hey, Fatty!
An average of one person out of every five over 30 years of age in the United States is overweight.

editorially speaking - Another Knowledge Gap

At one time, most people were farmers. This, of course, has changed. One modern agri-businessman farmer, today, produces on the average enough to feed more than 40 people. Nowhere has there been a greater revolution than in the technology of agriculture. And, no revolution has brought greater benefits to more people. From the standpoint of the farmer, however, it has been a mixed blessing.

As more and more people have lost touch with the facts of life on the farm, public understanding of agricultural matters has declined. We hear a lot about high meat prices, for example. Yet, through technology and greater producing and handling efficiency, meat is a better buy today than ever before. A publication of the National Live Stock and Meat Board has observed, "For no more of their after-tax income took 20 years ago, Americans are getting 40 more pounds of meat per capita including a whopping 66 percent of beef. . . In the same period, the age disposable income in the U.S. jumped by more than 50 percent." This publication also notes that a pound of beef, or pork, or lamb in the counter, ounce-for-ounce, is an improved protein product.

Agriculture has become another of those basic industries that has direct contact with consumers. From not one consumer in a hundred has the remotest idea of the "blood, sweat and tears" required, from the range to retail counter, to place a meal on the family dinner table. One of the big jobs of agriculture is to try to close this knowledge gap.

"Living Textbooks"

The public schools and commercial newspapers of Texas are natural partners in a common cause — educating and informing the people.

The schools, traditionally, have done it with books.

Newspapers, traditionally, have waited for young people to grow into adulthood before claiming them as readers of anything more serious than sports and comic strips.

But times have changed, and many Texas teachers now are using newspapers in their classrooms as "living textbooks." So says an article in the March issue of Texas Schools, the quarterly newspaper of the 127,500 member Texas State Teachers Association.

The article states that newspapers, used in the lower grades through senior high, are bringing a new relevance to teaching, a new enthusiasm for learning, and a new response marked with "I think" rather than "the books says" answers from students. The article continues:

A growing legion of Texas teachers are sold on the use of newspapers as supplementary teaching material in language arts, social studies, mathematics, science, health and safety, art, music, history, home economics, public speaking. Whatever the course, somewhere in Texas there's a teacher who can tell you how she made it more meaningful through use of newspapers in the classroom.

Patsy Jean Leftage, a Houston teacher whose perceptive report of the use of newspapers in teaching was published in the Houston Chronicle, wrote:

"Educators saw that the newspaper was an incomparable tool for making learning relevant and encouraging student involvement, for the newspaper a product of the adult world which child seeks to enter. . . The newspaper offered a way of motivating student read. . . and a life-long educational

The TSTA article states that a group of leading education and journalism associations initiated the "Newspaper in the Classroom" program on a national basis in 1959.

Even before that, surveys show that about 40 percent of the nation's schools were already using commercial newspapers for instructional purposes.

Texas schools and Texas newspapers have made the most of the program. A number of Texas newspapers, schools and colleges will be working together this spring and summer to sponsor teacher workshops related to the "textbook" idea.

TSTA President Jewell Harris of Lene will be on the opening program for the Sixth Annual Living Text Conference of the Fort Worth Telegram June 10-12 at the University of Texas at Arlington.

The Austin American-Statesman which will hold a similar workshop an expected 225 teachers on June has developed a 25-minute color slide show of its "Newspaper in Classroom" program and a "Living Textbook" notebook for teachers.

COTTON TALKS

FROM PLAIN'S COTTON GROWERS, INC.

June 10 is the target date selected by House Agriculture Committee Chairman Bob Poage (D-Tex.) for getting a farm bill on the floor of the House. But many on the scene think June 15 or 16 is more likely.

Most provisions of the three-year bill were fairly well set as of Friday, May 29, with Poage's committee expected to make it official on June 2. But still to be determined is what the Committee will do about a limitation of payments to cotton, feed grains and wheat producers.

The cotton section of the bill to come from the Committee now seems certain to contain a loan at 18.7 cents per pound (basis 3.5 to 4.9 micronaire), a national base allotment of 11.5 million acres, a maximum set aside requirement of 33-1/3 percent of allotments, and an advance payment rate of 15 cents per pound to be supplemented later if necessary to bring the national average market price plus the payment up to 35 cents a pound.

The Administration earlier proposed a graduated scale of payment limitations that would make $110,000 the maximum any producer could receive on each of the three crops. But the strong proponents of limiting payments, such as Congressmen Findley of Illinois and Conte of Massachusetts, have tagged that proposal as "ridiculously high". They are also known to have approached Secretary of Agriculture Hardin in an attempt to get support for a much lower ceiling. So how firm the Administration will stand behind its original offering is not known.

Committee members, including Chairman Poage, are of the opinion that some form of limitation is mandatory if the bill is to have a chance for passage. But instead of including a payment limitation as a part of the bill it reports, the Committee may wait until the bill reaches the floor, then offer an amendment that would set the ceiling at the most favorable point they think can be passed.

Current talk is that the 15 cent payment would be made to producers on the projected yield from base allotments as soon as practicable after July 1. Any supplementary payment that was needed to make total producer income equal 35 cents per pound would be made after January 1 when the national average market price for the first five months of the cotton marketing year could be figured. For example if the market price average from August 1 through December 31 came to only 18 cents, producers would be due another payment of 2 cents per pound. How the bill will fare on the floor of the House is difficult to say. It is not entirely satisfactory to anyone and certainly not to the Administration. Therefore the "push" that will be necessary to get it through the House in recognizable form may or may not develop.

Obviously if a farm bill can be gotten through the House in June it will be one giant step in the direction of a new program for agriculture. But farm people will have no firm indication of what the future holds until the Senate acts and a House-Senate conference committee irons out the differences that are sure to exist between the two bodies. So it will be a while yet before it's time to "count your chickens."

Letter to the President

Dear Mr. Nixon, Just wanted you to know that I'm leaving the ranks of the "silent majority," thanks to your speech last Thursday night. I am in complete agreement with your courageous decision to move into Cambodia and strike at the heart of the Communist headquarters in Southeast Asia.

At last we're moving off the defensive and taking a little initiative, a step that will put a lot more teeth into those endless peace talks that so far have gotten us nowhere. With this innovation, we are moving closer toward achieving an early peace in a war which should have ended long ago--and might have if we hadn't tied our military's hands. I've never gone along with those anti-war demonstrations, Mr. President, but I tolerated them as long as they harmed no one else. After all, they are entitled to their opinion. But now, their violence and degradation of all I hold dear has moved me past the point of toleration into utter contempt. They are tearing down strong institutions which America needs and needs badly. How in the name of freedom can they throw bricks at a law officer, try to destroy a school where others want to study, and desecrate their country's flag while displaying the insignia of a country with whom we are at war? Such acts used to warrant some time in jail or be equivalent to treason, but today we are more permissive--and it's getting us closer to ruin than we know. I don't want any more lives lost. No one does. But prolonging the agony won't insure any more safety for anybody. Please, Mr. President, don't back down. Don't lose faith just because some spineless militants, even some cooing Senators, won't back you.

I've quit betting and I know other betting just as fed the dissidents. We respect you stand and are all the way. I just hope we waited too long. Sincerely, Jean F.

The Whirlpool Service Training Center presented workshop courses on servicing all Whirlpool products and utilized the latest teaching methods so that the student may receive maximum benefit from the course.

WALTER HEAD
Slaton Police Chief

There is one position in the Police Department that requires a person who has some knowledge of all phases of the police operations.

In addition, this person must be extremely qualified in performing secretarial work, such as typing, shorthand and book-keeping. We, of the Slaton Police Department, feel very fortunate in having, as our girl "Friday", Miss Martha Elder.

Martha is a native of Slaton and resides at 855 S. 16th St. She started her career as a radio dispatcher with the Slaton

Police Department in January, 1969. Seven months later she was promoted to chief clerk.

Miss Elder is a graduate of Slaton High School. She has attended police radio dispatcher and police clerical short courses. In addition, she has completed the advanced course of instruction in first aid—which qualifies her as an ambulance attendant.

Martha has received personal commendations for superior performance of her duties as a radio dispatcher and chief clerk.

MRS. TOMMY WILKE

Reporter Requests Replacement

Greetings from your "roving reporter". Southland is still having bad weather just about every evening and night, as are most areas! We had about 1.4 inches of rain on Sunday night with a lot of wind, lightning and thunder! We are all so nervous over the weather, and we'll be glad when things clear up and the weather settles down. Crops are looking real good around here, if we can only keep them! Eight seniors, Gary Lester, David Mock, Stanley Abshire, Larry Bevers, Dessa Dodd, Norma Eckert, Rosemary Davilla and Sherri Wilke, accompanied by Rod and Beverly Callaway, Doris Lester and Yours Truly left Southland at about 6:20 a.m. Saturday morning, May 23, for "Six Flags Over Texas." We stayed at the Caravan Motel in Arlington and toured "Six Flags" in the late afternoon and night. We left Arlington early Sunday morning and drove to Houston where we visited the Astrodome and saw the baseball game between Cincinnati and the Astros which turned out to be a very exciting game!

From Houston we went to San Antonio and spent two days and nights there visiting places of interest. From there we visited in beautiful San Marcos. If you haven't been there, go, if you get the chance.

From San Marcos we went on to Austin and visited the Capitol and other places of interest, returning to Southland on Thursday afternoon.

ON KID'S SIDE
I argue with people who say that the young people of today are all bad or the majority of them are bad! I have always disagreed and after taking this trip with these eight young people, I disagree even more. I have never been out with a better group of kids. They never gave us a bit of trouble and were so congenial with each other! We didn't see many "long-haired" boys, not even at "Six Flags". Of course, there are always a few exceptions, but as a whole, I think our young people of today are good wholesome kids! Don't you agree?

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Klaus enjoyed a fish fry, followed with a progressive "42" party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Klaus at Wilson on Friday evening. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Werner Klaus, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Luker and Ernie, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Luker and two girls, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Drew and two daughters of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. John Grubkey of Adrian, Emil and Edgar Nieman of Wilson.

Sunday visitors in the Otto Klaus home were Mr. and Mrs. John Grubkey of Adrian, Mr. and Mrs. Werner Klaus and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Klaus and daughters, Tonda and Cindy.

Mike Mason and Darrell Wilke are working with the Sante Fe Railroad in Crowell, Mr. and Mrs. James Mason visited with the boys on Sunday.
William Petty from Sylvester, was the guest of the Southland Fire Church on Sunday.

PASTOR LEA

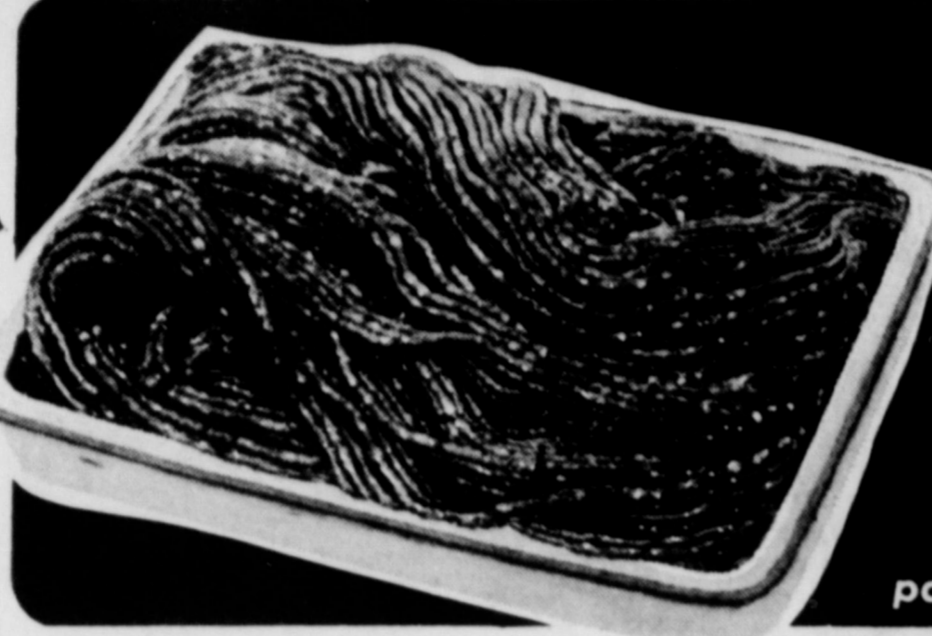

Rev. Jim Sharp, pastor of the annual Northwest Methodist Conference at past week, we say that he will be in Southland soon church in New Deal. Mrs. Sharp are a full couple and we will miss them!

Drivers under 25 were involved in much more than their share of auto accidents in 1969, according to a report from The Travelers Insurance Companies. One-fifth of all drivers are under 25. But, the under-25 group was involved in one-third of last year's fatal accidents.

Mrs. Hunter Is Rotary Speaker

Mrs. Virgie Hunter, principal of Stephen F. Austin School in Slaton, was guest speaker for the regular weekly luncheon meeting of Slaton Rotary Club last Thursday in the Community Clubhouse.

Her talk was primarily concerned with the summer Head Start program which is conducted for pre-school children from low income families. She said local teachers felt the program has been "highly beneficial" here and also a rewarding experience.

"The big asset is derived from social and health aspects of the training," Mrs. Hunter stated. The Head Start program starts June 8 this year and will be conducted at West Ward Elementary.

Mrs. Hunter was introduced by Howard Hoffman, program chairman for the week. J.S. Edwards presided at the meeting. Several guests and visiting Rotarians were introduced.

Nathan Griffin Leaves June 12 For Washington

Nathan Griffin, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Griffin, will be one of five students from this area who will depart from Lubbock June 12 on an 11 day trip, returning June 23. The all-expense paid trip to Washington, D.C. was awarded to Griffin for being the 1970 Oratorical Contest winner of a contest sponsored by South Plains Electric Cooperative, Inc.

There will be about 100 young people from all over the state participating in the sixth annual Texas Electric Cooperative Government-In-Action Youth Tour. Each has been awarded the trip through his or her individual achievement and contributions throughout the past year.

The Texas group, including six adult couples who will chaperone the group, will meet in Waxahatche to begin the Tour later joining approximately 1,000 others from across the nation who are also participating in the Government-In-Action Youth Tour.

Many historical sites will be visited enroute to Washington and on the return trip. Highlights of the Capitol Tour will include visits to the Smithsonian Institute, the Capitol Buildings, National Historical Wax Museum, the Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials, the Rural Electrification Administration, the Department of Agriculture and the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association.

In addition, the Texas group will also be visiting Arlington National Cemetery and place a wreath on the grave of the late President Kennedy. On Wednesday, June 17, the Texas group will join more than 1,000 students from other states for a program sponsored by the National Rural Electric Cooperatives Association and the Rural Electrification Administration. The program will feature presentations by officials of these organizations and other Washington personalities and possibly the Presidential staff. This eventful day will end with a chartered cruise down the Potomac River which will include entertainment and refreshments. The Texas group will spend four full days in Washington and will be traveling on chartered busses throughout the tour.

Excessive speed was the major factor in 1969's tragic highway record, according to an annual survey by The Travelers Insurance Companies. More than 56,000 persons were killed last year, and more than 4,700,000 injured.

56,500 lives were lost on America's highways in 1969, according to an annual report from The Travelers Insurance Companies. In addition, more than 4,700,000 men, women and children were injured.

Living Longer Since World War I, the number of persons living beyond age 85 has increased nearly 1,000 per cent.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

KNOW YOURSELF

Make a positive evaluation of your approach to living. Do you practice the Golden Rule? Do you avoid sin in all its forms and disguises? Do you love God—and your neighbor, as well.

Once you have determined what kind of a life you lead, you may then proceed to make it a better life. You will not be content merely to avoid evil; you will strive to put more goodness into your life. There are many ways in which this may be accomplished.

There is joy in doing a job that needs to be done. There is satisfaction in lending a helping hand to the needy. Spreading cheer with a smile is worth the little effort it requires.

Remember, there is great strength in the love of God. It is a strength of awareness. Love God and you will love the world and all the good it contains. Love God and your life will be patterned for joy and happiness.

COTTON TALKS

FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

Post Office and Civil Service Committee. Henderson has requested that READER'S DIGEST give him space to rebut the article in a future issue, pointing out "the distortions and inaccuracies."

He also announced on the floor of the House recently that he will raise some questions before his committee about "the propriety of the second class postal subsidy being paid indiscriminately to all publications in a certain class regardless of content."

Henderson's activity in re-nouncing the infamous mouthings of the Reader's Digest's Eugene Methvin is only another small move toward reversing the tide of adverse publicity leveled against agriculture almost daily, much of it without regard for truth. But his is a well taken position and may well serve as a spring-board for future action.

The Reader's Digest article characterizes payments as being made to farmers "not to grow cotton, wheat and feed grains", and this is a far cry from the truth. More nearly true would be to state that under present conditions farmers cannot continue to grow these crops without payments. Therefore they are the exact opposite of what Mr. Methvin would have his readers believe.

But the majority of those who will read the article are not versed in agriculture, farm programs or their objectives. They have not been made to understand that farm programs benefit the general public by assuring adequate supplies of food and fiber at the world's greatest bargain prices.

Methvin's treacherous tale, in fact, states that the $3.5 billion of annual payments "is only part of the cost, for they also boost the prices that we consumers must pay in the market." How ridiculous can you get?

Farm program payments make up the difference between the cost of producing cotton, wheat and feed grains and the prices for which these commodities sell on the market. Without the payments, consumers would pay a much higher market price, or else be obliged to do without these commodities altogether. Donnell Echols of Lamesa, president of the Lubbock based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. and member of the Board of the National Educational Association for Agriculture, recently said "It is imperative that through PGC, NEIA and every other group at our disposal we let the public know the facts about farming and farm programs. In no other way can we repair the damage done by the erroneous and misleading stories being circulated by national magazines, in Congress and elsewhere."

As an example of PGC efforts to combat the false image being painted of agriculture almost daily, Echols points to "rebuttal information" being supplied to Congressman George Mahon (D-Tex.), NEIA and others.

Included in the data being supplied to Mahon, which hopefully will be inserted in the Congressional Record, is a table showing the investment, production costs, income from crop sales, income from government payments and after tax net profit or loss for six High Plains farmers in the years 1967, 1968 and 1969.

The actual figures, taken from the files of a local accounting firm, conclusively show that no one of the six farmers could have stayed in business and continued to produce over the past three years if he had been solely dependent on crop sales for income. Without price support programs under government programs, production costs alone, with no regard for return to investment, labor and management, exceeded income from crop sales by an average of $17,193 per year per farm. Crop sales covered production costs on only one of the farms for only one of the three years.

The farmers, selected at random from Lamb, Lubbock and Hale Counties, farm an average of 356 acres. Average investment in land and equipment per farm comes to just over $215,000. Government payments per farm averaged $31,678, and when these payments are added to crop sales the average net income after taxes was $12,014 per farm -- a return of less than 5.6 percent on investments, with no allowance for management and labor. How, then, can farm program payments be characterized as "additions to already sizeable incomes"?

The farms included in the table range from 157 up to 640 acres. Program payments go from below $17,000 up to almost $67,000, and the maximum dollar return to any farmer in any year was $20,649. That was on a 640 acre farm where investment in land and equipment total $209,320.

What Mr. Methvin and other detractors from farm programs should understand is that the present level of farm program payments, without any form of payments limitation, is barely enough to keep farmers farming.

Once they understand that fact, Echols says, they should ask themselves whether they or the nation can survive without agricultural products. And if they give an honest answer to that question they'll be far more inclined to "tell it like it is" in the future."

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLD TIMER

From Lucille Holmberg, Ames, Iowa: I remember when the motto of every household was, "Use-it-up, wear-it-out, make-it-do."

Everyone I knew saved everything that came to the house or barn.

Even the well-to-do had this feeling about saving things, and it had something about bad or good luck that could happen to a person associated with it. This bad or good luck feeling was handed down from family to family, a superstition, I suppose.

Some antiques, even now, are said to have a story behind them, some haunting power that brought the owner good or bad luck. Such a story is told about the world famous Hope diamond. Most people would LOVE to possess it -- others, who believe the stories of the terrible things that have happened to its former owners, would have nothing to do with it.

It's been said that, "Time changes, and we with time." We moderns have surely changed, for our whole pattern of living is geared to throwing things away and buying new.

Take time, if you can to visit some of the Historical Houses, when you travel. I am looking forward to visiting such a place in Nebraska where may be found many of the old, useful articles of another era. There are milk cans, soap kettles, spinning wheels, candle making kits, all sorts of home made tools and my grandfathers' sleigh bells. Sleigh bells actually worn by horses as they pulled those open aired buggies over the hard ground every winter.

Study the Facts of Life (economic)

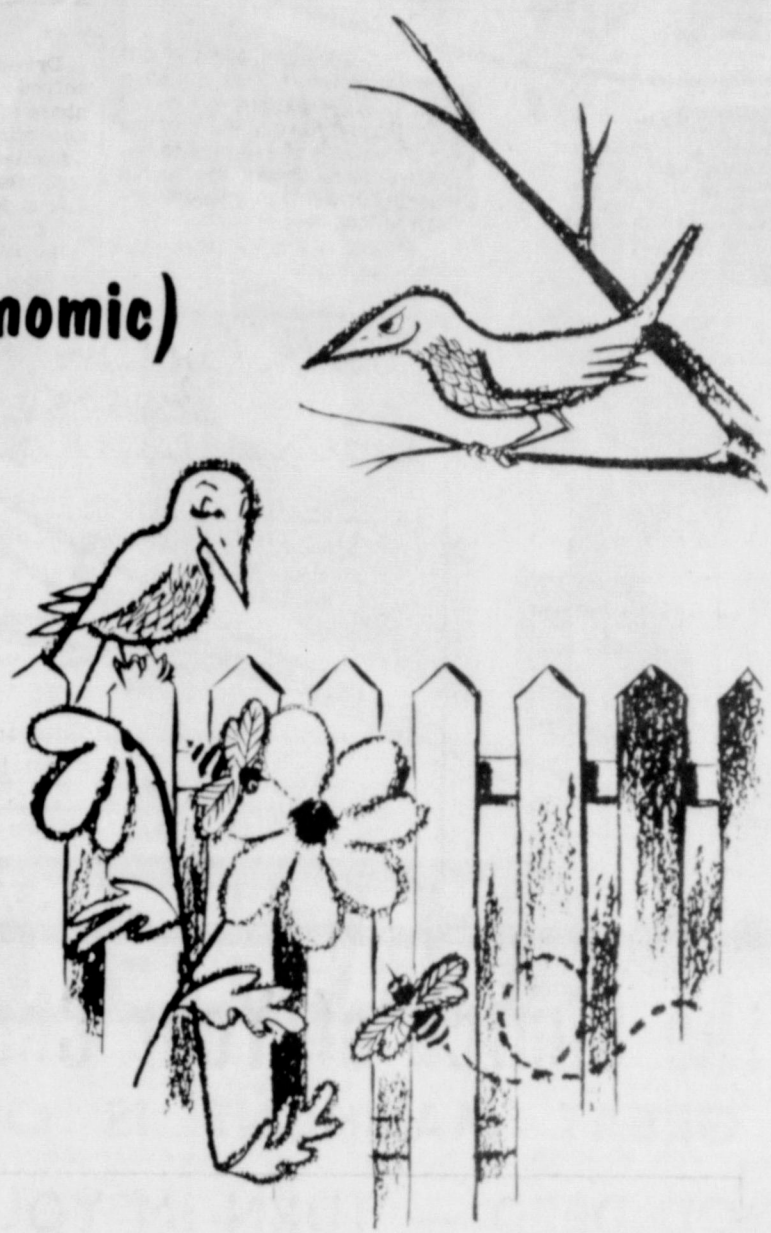

A community such as ours is built . . . and maintained . . . and prospered by the trading that goes on within it; not by the dollars which we allow ourselves to be persuaded to send off or carry off to some other community.

- Our schools . . . our churches . . . most of our homes and jobs or businesses . . . the number and sort of neighbors we have . . . the ability of our stores and service establishments to take care of our daily and emergency needs . . . all of these depend upon local trade . . . money spent here at home.

- One of the cold facts of life (economic) is that the prosperity and better life which our dollars naturally help to pay for in the community where they are spent can be far more valuable than the goods or service those dollars buy for us.

- But an equally undeniable fact of life is that we don't share in the enjoyment of these more important things paid for by our money . . . unless we spend it at home.

Buy . . . where your trade helps to support your way of life
