brilliant lightning and marblesize hail. The storm was brief, however, and no damage reported. A twister was reported near Ralls shortly after the storm passed through the Slaton area.

About 1 inch of moisture was recorded here Sunday as the rainfall started about 1 p.m. and continued at intervals during the afternoon. Light hail was reported in some areas around the town. The rain appeared to be heavier north and east of Slaton.

Funnel clouds were reported in the Muleshoe area Sunday, but no twisters were confirmed and no damaging winds reported.

Slaton and the area had welcomed dry, warm weather for several days before the new thunderstorm activity started Sunday. The previous week, the area had recorded eight straight days of evening thunderstorms and showers.

Area farmers, trying to get cotton up to a good stand, were ready for some hot, dry weather. A number of farmers had to replant cotton crops following heavy downpours of rain and hail,

Despite the rains, the temperatures climbed into the 90's this week. High Sunday was a reading of 89 degrees. The mercury was expected to climb near 100 degrees this week.

Slaton City Commission, in regular session Monday night, delayed opening of bids on three items, discussed future water, sewer and sanitation needs, approved a firemen's pension proposal, and heard a report on police certification require ments from a representative of the South Plains Association of Governments (SPAG).

The possibility of an increase in water, sewer and sanitation rates was mentioned during the session. The rate question was introduced after the commission discussed needs of the three departments.

It was pointed out that engineers recommended the rate increases several years ago in order to take care of replacement of equipment, capital improvements and rising costs in operating the three departments.

The commission took no action on the rate question, but it will be under study in future sessions. One of the rate proposals which engineers had previously submitted was to increase the minimum water rate from $3,50 to $4.75, and to increase the sanitation and sewer rates from $1.25 to $1.75. Bids on a front-end loader were delayed until the commission could discuss the machine with the street superintendent, Bids on a city hall roofing job were delayed until a check could be made with the contractor performing the last repair job. Bids on a proposed fire station remodeling job were held up to see if other bids are submitt-

Dick Lewis, representing the law enforcement agency of SPAG, visited with the commission to inform them of a law which goes into effect Sept. 1 concerning training of police officers. Chamber Studies Building Plans, Names Director

The report of the beautification committee and discussion on two building projects highlighted a regular monthly meeting of the Slaton Chamber of Commerce board of directors Tuesday morning at the Carnation House.

President Robert H. Davis also announced that Dee Bowman has been appointed to fill out the unexpired term of Carroll McDonald, who recently was transferred to Hereford, Bowman is a former director.

Glen Akin reported that the study of a civic center facility in Slaton was still in progress. After discussing the project, directors voted to obligate the Chamber for a minimum of $6,000 toward the project if local support is assured.

Directors also discussed the costs of remodeling the Whitehead building on the northwest corner of the square, but no action was taken. The building has been offered to the Chamber for its use, and directors are considering remodeling the structure for use as the Chamber office.

Tommy Wallace reported that Mayor David Hughes has proclaimed the week of June 15-21 as clean-up week in Slaton. The beautification committee, headed by Jonas Cain, is spearheading the campaign and has also initiated a "Yard of the Month" in each city ward.

Officer Speaks To Local Lions

Slaton Patrolman Gene Noble was guest speaker for the weekly luncheon meeting of the Slaton Lions Club Monday in the Clubhouse.

In other business, Lions elected Larry Smith as the club's new "tail twister", and signed "loyalty oaths" which Lions Club over the South Plains are sponsoring in an effort to promote respect for law and order.

The Slaton club sponsored a page in The Slatonite last week which included "loyalty oath" forms for citizens to sign and mail to their mayor. The forms are to be forwarded to the governor and then to the President. The Wilson Lions Club is sponsoring a page this week.

On the page this week, citizens are invited to send or take the forms to the Wilson mayor -or to the Slaton mayor.

In his talk, officer Noble said he felt the "greatest threat to our nation today is apathy." We hear too much about a "sick society", he said, and no one cares enough to do anything about the problems.

The patrolmen said a "lack of respect and support for three important professions has led to many of our problems." The professions, he added, were teachers, ministers and law officers.

"At a time when we should be teaching our children the values of pride, self respect and personal honor," he stated, "we find too many parents who are not accepting the responsibilities themselves."

The tree is about 16 years old and was about three feet high when planted. Mrs. McCain, who is admiring one of the blossoms which measures 11 inches in diameter, says the tree blooms from May through August.

3. Added building maintenance and depreciation would increase costs, as would added salaries for teaching personnel.

To seek answers to these questions, Texas school systems are authorized by state law to try the "extended year" idea as a pilot operation -- either on a four-quarter, or on a tri-semester basis.

The Legislature in 1967 authorized pilot four-quarter programs, and in 1969 authorized three-semester pilot programs in schools that operate 12 months.

Only two Texas school districts are known to be experimenting with the new plans. One high school has been "piloting" a tri-semester program for the past two years. Another high

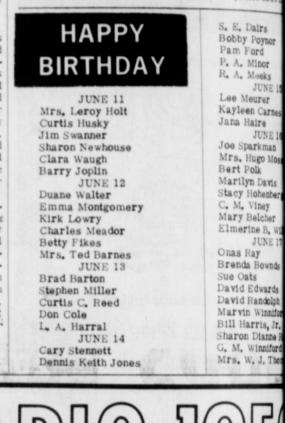

Meanwhile, many Texas school buildings will be used for part of the summer. In 1968-69, nearly 117,000 youngsters attended summer school classes in 418 Texas school districts, and 63,565 took driver education. The figures probably will be higher this summer. These classes were financed by tuition charges and local and federal funds. No state funds are available for summer school operation.

An interim committee authorized by the 61st Legislature is now studying the feasibility of four-quarter public school operation. Members are Representatives Jack Blanton, Carrollton, chairman; Delwin Lubbock; and Dan Jones, Kubiak, Rockdale; and Supt. H. M. Landrum, Big Spring 100; Leon R. AIr Conditioning ? NO QUESTION ABOUT IT !!!

OVER 30 YEARS OF PROVEN DEPENDABILITY

Just like your refrigerator, electric air conditioning uses the same experience-proven method of cooling. A dependable compressor keeps on cooling no matter how high the outside temperature.

LOW OPERATING COST

Before you buy, be sure you have complete information. Electric air conditioning saves you money when you buy and because it uses only electricity and free air, your operating cost is low ... no extra installation costs. either!

NO LOSS OF EFFICIENCY BECAUSE OF ALTITUDE

Our area is several thousand feet above sea level yet electric air conditioning is not adversely affected. It does its cooling job as efficiently as if it were at sea level. An important point to consider when buying.

CHOICE OF BRANDS

There are 58 manufacturers of electric air conditioning and all major brands are available in our area. Brands in your area are listed in the Yellow Pages or identified on your neighborhood dealer's store front.

CHOICE OF SIZES

Only electric air conditioning offers the right size for your cooling job. Too large a unit makes your first cost unnecessarily high; too small runs up operating cost. Electric air conditioning can save you money on both counts.

COMPLETE SERVICE

The principle of electric air conditioning is so well understood and the parts so easy to change that any air conditioning man can give you service quickly should you ever need it.
