Second Victory at Post

The rejuvenated Slaton Tigers -- with a win under their belts and a chance at the 4-AA title still a possibility -travel to Post Friday to continue a rivalry with the Antelopes that has existed over many years. For the first time this season, the Tigers will be a strong favorite before kickoff time of 7:30 p.m. Friday. However, both have 1-4 won-lost records and both are 1-1 in the district standings. The Antelopes seem to always "get high" for the Slaton game, and they'll be celebratfactors which Slaton Coach Ernie Davis pointed out to his charges this week.

Davis reported the Tigers will all be ready to go Friday, although several are nursing bruises and sprains. These include halfbacks Randy Davis and Tony Martin, center Dan Butler, fullback Kenny Schuette and linebacker Tommy Walters.

The Tiger mentor said the starting lineups would probably be about the same as last week when Slaton recorded its first win of the season. After scoring only two touchdowns in four defeats, the Tigers tallied two against Frenship and threatened several more times.

Davis praised the entire team for a "great" effort in the victory last week. He said the squad had maintained "a fine attitude through the four-game losing streak" and they came through with a "big win" Fri-

The Tigers, defeated by Denver City in the opening 4-AA game, got new hope when Tahoka upset the Mustangs Friday by 10-0. By winning the remainder of their games, the Tigers could at least share the title.

After three losses in nondistrict, the Antelopes opened with a 23-6 victory over Ralls in 4-AA action two weeks ago, Last week Post lost a 33-0 decision to the league-leading Roosevelt Eagles. Non-district losses were to Hale Center Lockney (27-7) and Floydada (24-0).

Coach Bobby Davis, former Wilson coach now in his first year at Post, has seen numerous injuries handicap his squad this season, Leading the offensive attack for the Antelopes is fullback Robert Min-

A budget calling for expenditures of $496,106 for the fis-cal year 1971-72 was approved Slaton City Commission Monday night following a public

Despite the budget hearing-where only two citizens appeared -- the meeting was a relatively short one, starting at 7:30 p.m. and adjourning at 8:45.

The budget is in line with the past year, and it has flirted around the half-million mark for four years. The anticipated disbursements are up about $15,000 over the past year. Budget for the 1970-71 year was pegged at$480,888. City's fiscal year goes from Oct. 1 to Sept.

Most of the increase, according to city secretary Alex Webb. can be attributed to rising costs in supplies and maintenance. The budget provides for airport repair ($2,500), police radio ($1,100) and radar ($800), and a truck for the street department ($5,714).

However, the police are tabbed for one car this time in comparison to three last year, and seal coating of streets was cut in half, from $20,000 to $10,000. The city had an extensive seal-coat program the past year.

Anticipated revenues for the coming year total $479,300 -about $16,000 less than budgeted expenditures. Fund balances, however, total more than $45,000. Estimated property tax revenue is up only slightly over last year -- from $171,300 to $174,286. The city's one percent sales tax is expected to bring in about $62,000 the coming year. Other big income totals include water, sewer and sanitation services 781; franchise taxes, $19,000; and corporation court fines,

The city payroll is tabbed at about $200,000 and no salary increases are added to the budget. Amount on outstanding bonds totals $532,000 and the city will pay $71,924 on principal and interest this year.

The city tax rate remains the same -- $1.75 per $100 assessed value. Taxable valuation of the city is listed at $10.6 million. Delinquent taxes are listed at $7,500.

In other business Monday, the commission approved bills and tabled a discussion on a proposed Criminal Justice Building here. The commission had sought a preliminary sketch and estimate from an architectural firm, which in turn requested a contract.

Attending the session were Mayor Bland Tomlinson and all four commissioners -- J. S. Edwards, Otis Neill, R. J. Clark and Bart Diaz. Also attending were City Sec. Alex Webb, police chief Glen Farmer, City Atty. Harvey Morton, and two visitors -- Wayne Perkins and Harold Wilson.

Upsets clouded the crystal ball this past week for many football prognosticators, but two entrants in the weekly Slatonite Football Contest tripped up on only five of the 23 games

Claudia Stephens and Terry Mize each missed five games, including one tiegame, and Mrs. Stephens came up with the $10 prize by coming closer to the total score of the Slaton game. She guessed 13 and Mize predicted 35, leaving him the second-place cash award of $5. Ironically, the two top en-trants missed different games, except for the TCU--Okla. State tie. Mrs. Stephens guessed wrong on Denver City, Abernathy, Wilson, and Texas. Mize was wrong with Littlefield, Lake View, SMU and San Francisco. Eight entrants missed six of the games, and Leon Moore earned the $2 prize for third place by guessing 24 on the tie

-breaker score. Actual total score was 21 in the Slaton-Frenship game. Behind Moore came Ernie Davis, Mrs. Doc Mize, Randal -- R. J. -- Jimmy, Don Heinrich, Paul Mercer, Kelly Copeland and Charles Didway.

Another 15 entrants missed 7 of the games. These included Sue Davis, Karla Kitten, Mike Speer, 1st period Civics class, 6th period Health class, David Elliott, Mark Nesbitt, Barbara Elliott, Allen Miles, Gay Benson, 3rd Period History, Gloria Ruiz, 2nd period History, Gary Schaffner and Pete Williams.

Another 32 entrants missed eight of the contest games, and 38 more missed nine games. Missing 10 or more games were 69 entrants. You never know when your picks might win a cash prize! Turn to the football page and enter this week's I'll have to tease them a little and ask whey they don't go ahead and take their senior son, Don, with them. He is the quarterback for Roosevelt and does a very fine job. I understand he plans to live with his grandparents until school is out.

Joking aside, though, the Jacksons will not only be missed at Roosevelt but in Slaton. Mary Jane was the most faithful at Roosevelt but in Slaton. Mary Jane was the most initial woman score keeper for baseball we have ever known. While Don was playing in the Slaton Little League, Mary Jane scored nearly every ballgame that was played for three years. Then at the end of the season, she made an individual scoring record for each 12-year-old player. She continued to score many more games for Babe Ruth as the next three years continued,

They have offered their time and talents in the form of a benefit show to be staged in the SHS auditorium on Saturday, Oct. 30 at 8 p.m. The group is well known all over the South Plains. They have not only traveled to many towns but now have their own television show on Channel 28 at 8:30 a.m. on

Citizens State Bank this week proudly salutes THE SLATON-ITE on the occasion of National Newspaper Week.

Knowledge -- through information -- gives each individual a freedom of choice, THE SLA-TONITE is dedicated to providing the community with accurate and complete information about Slaton and the area. The drama of living -- at every level -- is reported each week in your newspaper.

CSB salutes Mr. and Mrs. Speedy Nieman and all the staff of THE SLATONITE -- the only newspaper that REALLY cares about this community! Citizens State Bank, too, strives to serve the community. That's why -- for Slaton and area citizens -- it is "The Bank with a Heart".

Hello everyone! Things have been buzzing for the past week, including the mosquitoes. We have gotten everyone settled down, after having to do a little changing around. Newcomers to our home this week are Mrs. Ruth Scaborugh

SJHS students have been very busy this past week with fire prevention. Fire drills have been practiced regularly during the week, language arts classes have been listening to several speakers and watching filmstrips. We've also been writing letters to thank the men who came to speak to us on fire prevention. Writing themes and clipping articles from the newspaper about fire have been some of our activities.

Be PREPARED schedules have been set and the nine weeks tests began Wednesday. Stu dents have been reviewing all week for the tests.

Here are some opinions about nine weeks tests: Teresa Wright -- It doesn't really make that much difference, well. . . John T. Basinger -- I don't see why they give nine weeks tests, they should just give tests when they want to. Karla Kendrick -- they're rotten. Lisa Dillard--yuk!!

AROUND AND ABOUT Seventh grade language arts teachers are preparing a school newspaper for which students are gathering articles. This paper will be sold at JHS sometime in the future. Mrs. Smith's language arts classes have been splitting up in two groups and teaching the class. Her 6th grade class had a pet show and Mrs. Berkley's 6th grade language arts claaes have been reviewing for tests.

Among the students in the 6th grade, we have Frank Gal-lards and Stella Hernandez. We wish to welcome them to JHS. Citizens of the Week in Mrs. Berkley's room are Kevin Kern, Pam Ford, Jimmy Steffens and Peggy Morgan.

We all miss Pauline Morris who recently moved to El Paso. Mrs. Carnes' language arts classes read three articles in Tuesday's A-J about Coach Carlen and booing, then members wrote short essays on booing.

* Winning Letters

Following the speeches by Bob Kern, Charles Marriott, Don Kendrick and Wayne Edwards to eighth grade students at Slaton Junior High School, the students wrote letters of thanks to show their appreciation for speaking to them on fire prevention.

Following are two of the letters judged as being the best:

Dear Editor: On October 6 & 7 at Slaton Junior High School, four men, Don Kendrick, Bob Kern, Wayne Edwards, and Charles Marriott, gave us a very important message about fire and fire prevention. We were asked to take notes. I didn't know so many lives and property were lost in fires. What really got my attention was when Mr. Kendrick explained about Slaton's Fire Department, I think that Slaton really has something to be thankful for. Every man in the fire department has someother job or place of business. They're ready at any hour.

In these two days I have learned so much about fire. Thank-you, Mr. Kendrick, Edwards, Kern and Marriott. Sincerely Yours,

Kenneth Dixon

Williams Leads Panel Pickers

Pete Williams held onto a slim lead as top man of the Forecasters last Fearless

Nieman picked 8 of 12 last week, while Williams and Jim Newhouse trailed with 6-6 marks. Bill Ball had a 5-7 mark on the 12 games, and Dee Bowman slipped badly with a Slaton and Cooper were the only winners picked by all of the panel members, and all the forecasters missed the Tahoka upset over Denver City, and Olton's win over Littlefield. Williams was the only one to pick Lockney over Abernathy, and Nieman was the only one to pick Oklahoma over Texas.

The panel has eight schoolboy games and four college battles to forecast this week. Williams leads the way with a 38-22 mark on the right-wrong predictions. Nieman and Newhouse follow with 37-23 records; Ball is 36-24, and Bowman 35-25. The concensus senior Darrell Eastman went all the way as defensive safety and turned in a great effort. But Bartley and Davis provided the offensive power, recording 196 yards rushing. Davis had his best night of the season, gaining an even 100 yards on 16 trips with the ball. Bartley, with great second effort, was close behind with 96 yards on 22 rushing attempts. Fullback Kenny Schuette played a vital role as he led the blocking for the two halfbacks.

The Tiger offensive line deserved much credit, too, open-ing holes in a tough Frenship which had held Tahoka to only three first downs the previous week. Tackles Bobby Hopper and Brad Winchester and guards Steve Mosser and Stanley Jaynes were key menup front.

The defense had only one real "breakdown", and that was the 39-yard touchdown play by Frenship. The "blue" Tigers got to the Slaton 17 as the first half ended, but that came against a "prevent" defense thrown up by Slaton.

The defensive standouts were numerous for Slaton, too. Winchester had a fine night as usual, while Bobby Hopper perhaps turned in his best performance of the season. Gary Dillard made some outstanding plays at defensive end, as did Mosser on the other side. Dwayne Buxkemper, a consistent performer, was a stalwart on one side of the line.

Bartley, a tough two - way performer, made many tackles from his linebacking post, and Rodney Simmons and Eastman were high on the "tackle chart" of the game. End Tom Roche gave the Tigers a scoring opportunity in the first half when he blocked a Frenship punt on the Bengal 35, but Slaton didn't cash in that time.

Slaton took the opening kickoff and started from the 24. Nieman got 6 and Davis 9 for a quick first down, but the drive bogged down and Nieman overshot Lamb on a third down pass attempt.

Lloyd Kitten, who punted three times for a great 42yard average, kicked the ball to Frenship's 21. Slaton held and Frenship punted it back. Bartley picked up a first with an -yard burst, but three plays later a handoff from Nieman to Davis went astray and was kicked behind the Slaton backs. Nieman retrieved the ball, but was jarred loose and Frenship took over on the Slaton 39.

On the very next play, Rogans blasted through a big hole on the right side, shook off a couple of tacklers and raced all the way for a touchdown. Roy Cuellar's kick made it 7-0 for Frenship with 6:16 left in the first period.

Slaton started from the 20 on the ensuing kickoff and marched 80 yards for the tying score. Bartley and Davis gouged out a first down, then Nieman hit a third-down pass to Davis for 15 yards and another first down. On the next third-down play, Nieman couldn't find a pass receiver and scrambled for 20 yards to set up a first down on the Frenship 24.

Davis, Bartley and Schuette got short gains for a first on the 12. Davis got 6 yards in two tries as the first period ended, then Bartley followed a block by Schuette around left end for the score on the first play of the second stanza. Daviskicked the point-after and it was 7-7 with 11:55 to go in the first

Frenship couldn't move on its next try, and Roche went charging through to block the punt, and Slaton had it on the 35. Nieman's long pass to Melcher was short then a pass for Lamb was off his fingertips. A screen pass to Schuette was stopped for a two-yard loss, and Nieman was trapped for a loss on fourth

Frenship made one first down and faced another punting situation. The snap was low, however, and the punter couldn't get the kick away. He was downed by Winchester and Speer on the Frenship 49. Davis and Bartley ripped off good gains to move the ball to first down on the 22. Bartley ot 4 then Frenship stopped Davis for no gain. Two pass attempts missed the mark and Frenship took over on the 18. Frenship couldn't move and punted to Slaton, where the Tig-ers started another drive from the Slaton 45.

This time it took four plays to cover the 55 yards. Nieman got 9 yards on the option, but Bartley lost two on a sweep. Bartley hit for 6 to get a first down, then Davis broke on the counter play off right tackle, cut to the outside and raced 42 yards for a touchdown, Davis' kick was good again, and it was only 37 for the visitors. Nieman 14-7 with 59 seconds left in

The teams exchanged fumbles in the third period, each one losing the ball twice. Slaton launched a drive near the end of the quarter, starting from the Tiger 25. Slaton got one first down, but Frenship "blitzed" on a third-down play and got Nieman for a loss of 8. Kitten punted, but Frenship was penalized 15 for hitting the Slaton then continued the drive with Bartley, Ford and Schuette getting most of the yards. Nieman hit Ford with a 17-yard pass as the Tigers moved to a first down on the Frenship 27. Ford had re placed Davis, who injured a knee late in the third period.

Frenship stiffened on de fense, holding Slaton to 4 yards in three tries. Nieman was downed again when the Tigers tried to pass on fourth down, and Frenship took over on the 30. Frenship couldn't move and punted to the Slaton 36.

Nieman hit Bartley on a pass for 21 yards as the Tigers moved back into Frenship territory. However, Nieman was caught again on a third-down blitz, then Kitten got off a 45-yard punt that backed Frenship up to its 12-yard line.

Frenship hit two "quickie" passes just over the line that picked up 27 yards, then quarterback Doug Moerbe found Rogans on a 22-yard pass play that carried to the Slaton 37 with about 2 minutes left, Winchester jarred the ball loose from Rogans two plays later, however, and Slaton took over on the 38.

Slaton used up as much time as possible, then kicked to the Frenship 29. The visitors had time for one play, but Dillard killed that chance by tackling the quarterback for a 14-yard

JV Defeated, Freshmen Win Over Frenship

Slaton High's two non-varsity teams posted a victory and a loss in games at Frenship and Lubbock last week.

The Tiger junior varsity lost to a strong Monterey sophomore team by 38-6 at Lubbock Thursday afternoon. Slaton trailed by only 8-6 just before halftime, but Monterey scored again and rolled up 22 points the second half.

Ray Basinger scoredSlaton's touchdown on a 20-yard run. Greg Sokora was a standout linebacker in the game.

The Slaton freshmen rolled over Frenship by 26-12 Thursday afternoon with fullback Simon Gonzales scoring all four touchdowns. Craig Nieman passed to Bobby Hightower for a two-point conversion.

Gonzales got two scores on long runs and dashed in from short range on two. Hightower broke for one touchdown run but it was nullified by a penalty. Linebacker Tony Leake was a defensive standout.

The junior varsity takes or Lubbock Dunbar JV at 4:30 p.m. today and will be seeking its first win after three defeats. The freshmen will host Post at 6:30 p.m. The Tiger frosh have a 3-1 won-lost reomore Jerry Tyler, a slick little ball handler, and top halfbacks include Kyle Josey, Johnny Minor and John Johnson. Slaton's probable starters on offense will be Brad Lamb and Leslie Melcher at ends, Brad Winchester and Bobby Hopper at tackles, Steve Mosser and Stanley Jaynes at guards, Mike Speer at center, and Nieman, Davis, Schuette and Bartley in the backfield.

The defensive line will have Gary Dillard, Mosser, Dwayne Buxkemper and Hopper, Jaynes and Winchester in the trenches, Bartley and Speer as lineback-ers, and Lloyd Kitten, Rodney Simmons, and Darrell Eastman in the defensive secondary.

Davis and Bartley led the offensive attack last week with 100 and 96 yards, respectively. Bartley is the top gainer for the season with 245 yards on 78 trips with the ball, and Davis has 150 yards in 36 rushing attempts. Schuette follows with 55 yards on 28 carries.

Nieman, who went all the way on offense in the Frenship game, has hit 11 of 24 pass attempts for 127 yards, with no inter-ceptions and no touchdowns. Eastman has completed 13 of 40 for 196 yards, with four interceptions and two touch-

Demonstration Talks Cover Many Fields

The students in Speech I this week learned how to fly an airplane, how to be an expert quarterback, how to make a punch - needle rug, how to throw knives, how to finish Plaster of Paris statues, and 25 uses of toilet paper.

Weird? No, just demonstration speeches to practice bodily expression.

The JROTC girls have chosen panies.

Pam Martindale, captain; Vic-Pina, first lieutenanta; Brenda Luman, first sergeant; Mary Lou Yabara, second lieutenant; Shiela Fox, sergeant first class; and Mary Martinez, sergeant first class.

Moore, captain; Frances Honzoles, first lieutenant; Sarah first sergeant; Emma Gonzales, second lieutenant; Janie Pachio, second lieutenant; Josie Jaramillo, ser-geant first class; and Glenda Tuggle, sergeant first class. In Co. C the leaders are Ellyn McAlister, captain; Linda Winters, first lieutenant; Arlene Buxkemper, first sergeant; Linda Young, second lieuten-ant; Regina Cline, second lieutenant; Sonja Brown, sergeant first class; and Mary Lou Riojas, sergeant first class.

ELECTED BY FFA -- Bobby Hopper was elected president of the FFA Chapter at Slaton High recently. His sister, Susan, was re-elected this year as the chapter's sweetheart. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hopper. Bobby is a senior and Susan is a sophomore.

vocational course, Industrial Cooperative Training. This new course is instructed by Leon Corruthers.

ICT is offered to students who are juniors or seniors who have enough credits that they can afford to work part time. They may receive as many as three credits for the course.

ICT joins with DE in helping the students find work. Even though these two departments aid students in finding work, there is a bisic difference in the two, a difference in what jobs certain youths will recieve. The basic difference in the two is: In ICT students are taught a trade or skill; whereas, DE deals mostly with buying and selling. A person in ICT may work in a machine shop, learning to be a machinist; and one taking DE would work in a grocery store.

Those in the ICT program now holding jobs are Russell Hoffman at Wendel's T.V. and Appliance Center; Cindy Locke at Kertan's Studio; Roger Kirby is with Slaton Aircraft Service; Richard Magallanes at Bourn Cycle Shop; Fred Roberts at Roberts Cement Contracting; David Solis at Bownds' Body Shop; Nelson Reed at Crawford Chevrolet; Martin Davila at Gaydos Texaco and Garage, Also Jim Melton at Quality

The Post Antelopes will be the year, by downing Frenship host to the Slaton Tigers at 14-7.

The Tigers showed a dangerous offensive attack amassing almost 300 yards total offense. The Tiger defense also put in another fine performance holding Frenship to five first downs. The offense, which showed fire against Denver City a week ago, came through completely dominating the ball and the excitement. Frenship struck paydirt first when Joe Rogans swept end for 39 yards. But Slaton was not to denied in the first minute of the second quarter when Kenney (Bull) Schuette threw a key block and Ron Bartley scored from eight yards out. Randy Davis knotted the score with the PAT. In the same quarter, the Tigers scored on a 42yard scamper by halfback Davis. He also added the PAT which made the score 14-7. The second half was dominated by Slaton on penetrations penetrating the Frenship 35yard line three times. Frenship didn't make a threat after their lone score.

"It was a great team effort on behalf of the Tigers. Everyone did his job well," com-mented Coach Ernie Davis. Davis and Bartley showed good running potential with 100 yards and 98 yards, respectively. Jackey Ford also did a fine job after Davis injured a knee.

The Tigers are still in the district race although being beat by Denver City, Tahoka scored an upset over the D. C. Mustangs. If Slaton wins the remainder of its games, they will at least share the title.

Carl Gicklhorn Gins First Bale At Wilson

Carl Gicklhorn of Rt. 1, Wilson, ginned the first bale of cotton for the Wilson area Thursday at Wilson Co-Op Gin. The 535 pound bale came from 2220 pounds of lint cotton, and produced 900 pounds of seed.

The Pamcot 788 was planted May 2, and was watered twice through the summer. The bale was pulled Monday on the Gicklhorn farm, one mile west of Wilson, and was ginned Thursday. It was pulled from one acre. Gicklhorn also brought in the second bale for the Wilson area Thursday.

The first bale for Gicklhorn will merit free ginning, and 50¢ a pound, according to Wilson Co-Op manager, Don Caraway.

The tough Mustang defense held off the Class A Lions for three quarters, with Wilson holding an 8-0 lead. Wilson had taken the lead in the second quarter when David Hernandez plunged over from the 2, then ran the extra points. Wilson controlled the game in the game, the Lions broke Eliza Darty for a 30-yard touchdown run. The conversion attempt failed, and Wilson still held a 8-6 advantage. With 2:15 left in the game, New Deal's Bill Bigham kicked waged a defensive struggle in a 26-yard field goal to put the Lions ahead by 9-8. A Wilson pass was intercepted moments later, and the Lions broke Darty on another touchdown run of 35 yards to insure the victory. The Wilson defense was headed by Danny Trotter with 17 tackles or assists, followed by Danny Crowson and Darrow Talkmitt with 16 each. Hernandez sparked the Wilson offense with 54 yards on 10 carries, and Arturo Vergara recorded 46 yards in 19 trips.

My times are in thy hand -Psalms XXXI, 15

The infant sleeps, nourished and warm, unaware that continued existence depends upon the assurance of tender love and care. These needs shall be fulfilled. The child will grow, and learn to do, to crawl, to walk, to run. We should not forget, those of us who are known as parents, that the need for love and care remains long after the child has become independent in many human functions. In years to come, the guiding hand of love shall yet be required.
