Pilot Assumes Full Responsibility For German Steamer Dresden Wreck

KOPERVIK, Karmo Island, Norway, (AP)—The Norwegian pilot, Tucoogen, Thursday assumed sole responsibility for the wreck of the steamship Dresden, in which four women of 1000 German Nazis on a holiday jaunt, were drowned Wednesday night.

Survivors said but for his heroism the death toll would have been much higher.

With a gaping hole in her port bow, the Dresden was beached after the crash in a small bay on Karmoey island, where the other passengers and crew were taken off.

Type Lice Fall Before Kiwanian Attack 6 To 2

Newsies Lost In 1st Frame

Beasley Relieved By McMahan In Fourth Inning

The Kiwanis soft ball team jumped up a notch in league standings Wednesday by defeating a ragged Herald team 6 to 2.

The Type Lice played a poor game from the start, letting the Kiwanians get the jump in the initial inning with two runs. Anderson chalked up a run for the Herald in the second frame, but Edwards rounded the bases for the Clubmen in the same inning to put the Kiwanians out front 3-1.

Read smashed out a good hit for the Kiwanians in the third inning and crossed the plate for run No. four.

Neither team threatened seriously in the fourth, but it was then that Beasley, Herald pitcher, went wild on his tosses and was relieved by McMahan.

Johnson tabbed the second run for the Type Lice in the fifth inning to make the count 4-2.

The sixth inning was a devastating one for the Heralders. McMahan lost his control, filled the bases, and walked in one run. Another run had crossed the plate before the rally was stemmed.

The Newsies made a strong bid in the seventh but failed to scratch. Score by innings: 211 002 0-6 Herald; 010 010 0-2 Kiwanis.

The line-ups: Herald—Burleson cf, Arnold lf, McMahan sp-p, Ebbe 2b, Wilson 1b, Anderson ss; Glenn c, Cross rf, Johnson 3b, Beasley p.

Kiwanis—Ezell 2b, Reed lf, Madison m, Weatherford ss, Harris 1b, Edwards 3b, Rogers rf, Cowden ss, Gentry c, Gulkey p.

It has been kept somewhat of a deep, dark secret so far but it is about time that the National League closed the nominations and elected William H. McKechnie, boss of the Braves, as manager of the all-star team which hopes to turn the tables on the American League in the all-star game at the Polo Grounds on July 10.

It may be argued, with Bill Terry's world champion Giants still on top of the heap, that the pilot of the best club in the league should also be selected to direct the all-star proceedings. Bill, however, will be in the game as the first baseman for the second straight year and it would seem sufficient to let him focus his main attention on personal chores, with a bench manager with McKechnie's well known qualifications pulling the strategic strings.

There would be no harm in Terry acting as field leader, for that matter, but on the basis of seniority and an all-around record for shrewdness in handling players, the job of replacing John McGraw belongs to Bill McKechnie.

STRANGE TRENDS IN VOTING... There are several strange turns to the public balloting in this year's all-star poll, varying sharply in some instances with the actual performances up to date. They apply chiefly to the American League.

It's a trifle difficult to understand, for example, how Al Simmons can trail a bad fourth in the vote for American League outfielders when it is a fact that American League baseball men consider him the most dangerous of them all in a pinch. At the same time Ruth's name still looms big at the top of the list, with Averill and Manush both topping Simmons.

There's Lefty Grove piling up a flock of votes, too, when it seems a well known fact that the celebrated southpaw has by no means recovered from an ailing arm and has been thoroughly shellacked in nearly every start. And Jimmie Fox, the league's most valuable player, is not even within hailing distance of his Yankee rival, Lou Gehrig, in the first base voting. The only argument so far in the National League voting seems to center around a tussle between Wally Berger of the Braves and Mel Ott of the Giants for the third outfield job, along with Chuck Klein and Ducky Messick. All four are sure to be on the squad and likely to see some action.

ANSWER TO JOE'S PRAYER... John Joseph Broca, Jr. (pronounced Broka in the Yale Patois with a long "o" and a short "a") is living up to all advance notices, including even those announced by Broca himself, in a major league career which began less than three weeks ago. With a five ball which some observers rate second, only to Johnson's in the modern era, this young right-hander may easily be a large part of the answer to Joe McCarthy's prayer for pitchers.

Broca was born in Lawrence, Mass., in October, 1911, and had the good fortune to come under the coaching eye of the veteran Patrick Joseph Donovan while still in high school. Pat gave him the head needed to go with his fast ball, and young Broca became successively the best mound pitcher at Andover and at Yale, rivaling even the fabled Dutch Carter at New Haven.

Sweat Gets In Eyes, Says Young Yank Star Twirler, John Broaca

plenty of "stuff." So, putting his proved courage—and the sweat that gets in his eyes to make him take his time—along with his wealth of curving talent, the Yankees are pretty sure they've got that additional starting pitcher they've been seeking since the collapse of several of their veterans as dependable starters.

Broaca, who in his first two weeks with the Yanks hurled a three-hit and a one-hit game, says the necessity for pausing to pull out a handkerchief and wipe the steamed-up glasses is just the thing he needs to keep him from working too fast.

And the St. Louis Browns are forced to agree with him. In his third big league start, just 12 days off the Yale campus, Johnny stopped the Browns with one hit while registering 10 strikeouts. It was the first time Roger Hornsby's sur-prising club had been checked without at least one run this season.

A Discouraging Debut... The chunky Lithuanian lad's debut in a Yankee uniform, just two hours after he arrived from New Haven on June 2, was discouraging. The Yanks gave him a four-run lead in the first, but wildness and three errors behind him caused him to lose that advantage within two innings and he was promptly yanked out of there.

But three days later Manager Joe McCarthy gave him another chance. In an exhibition game against a New Haven independent team. In these more or less familiar surroundings Johnny came through with a five-hit shut-out job.

His confidence restored, he started another league game for the Yankees four days later. Serious nervous but methodical, he held the Philadelphia Athletics—the same team which had ruined his first start—to three hits. But four costly bases on balls, along with a home run by Bob Johnson, cost him that game, 4-2.

Then came the one-hit triumph over the Browns, and even it was not without its tribulations for Johnny. He walked the first two men to face him and Catcher Bill Dickey glanced significantly toward the bench. The buzzer was pushed to start activity in the bull-pen.

Then Johnny remembered the handkerchief. He pulled it out of his hip pocket, polished his specs, and made the next batter ground into a double play. He fanned the next man for the third out, and was on his way to a hurling masterpiece.

All told, he walked six men—but his 10 strikeouts offset that. Broaca mixes sharp curves with blazing speed, and the boys who have batted against him say he has

THE BIG NEWS IS, THIS NEW "G

TEXAS TOPICS

By Raymond Brooks

Early in September, Texas will see an almost unprecedented number of resignations of state employees, whichever way the political cat jumps in the primaries.

It will just be getting ready for a new administration and a new lineup of administrative officials. The governor's office, lieutenant governor's and attorney general's offices will go into new hands. There are candidates opposing incumbents for all state offices except superintendent of public instruction and presiding judge of criminal appeals court.

Many of the "career" people in governmental offices will feel their best prospect is to get aligned with some successful candidate they have known. This will not be confined to the same offices in which they have worked, as some of those who have guessed right and had the ability to back it up, feel equally free to offer for work in any division of the government.

There is a big "if" of contingency hanging over the Texas highway department.

The same sort of thing bears as well on the board of insurance commissioners and other similar overlapping appointive boards, and upon the university and other boards of regents.

"If" C. C. McDonald should become governor, friends of the Ferguson administration would gain the majority on the highway commission to permit the reorganization that the governor officially demanded the legislature allow be made when she went into office. A complete withdrawal of all personal funds longer than the present biennium might be the result.

If Mr. McDonald is not the successful candidate employees and sub officials will breathe easier under the theory that nobody else will appoint officials who will join with the Ferguson forces to bring about the shake-up.

With respect to the board of control the new member will not be appointed until the middle of the incoming governor's term. Mrs. Ferguson has one member—one third the board. W. R. Ely will retire from the highway commission. Mrs. Ferguson appointed John Wood as member and chairman of the highway commission. She has appointed two of the nine members of the state board of education. Three more are to be named by Mrs. Ferguson before she goes out of office.

Facts about the relief administration's purchase of $40,000 worth of cod liver oil has simmered down to this: That last year manufacturers of cod liver and halibut oil offered the national relief administration a quantity of this material at cost—less than half the present cost—and the national headquarters presented it to the states, paying half the cost out of federal matched money.

The estimates for Texas were based on a supply for each child under six years of age in 26,000 families on relief for a six-month period. Miss Marie Dresden, present relief director, said:

The net cost of the material delivered in Texas was $30,000, half borne out of state and half out of federal funds. Miss Dresden said the supply was immediately passed.

ed on to the counties, at a time when many of the counties were operating commissaries.

The oil was figured into family budgets as food, and not as medicine, Miss Dresden said, and was taken into account in balanced rations to afford the children a diet rich in vitamins.

The price paid for the oil meant that a quart ration was secured at the price of a single small bottle at retail.

"It isn't fair to compare this quantity of cod liver oil, purchased at cost, and figured as part of the diet of children on relief, with the very small quantity bought by the state for its wards, who are supposed to be given good food in full quantities, and very few of whom are not adults," Miss Dresden said. "Furthermore," she added, "we have found out that the supply of cod liver oil the board of control bought is not the kind intended for human consumption anyway, but most of it is a kind designed and bought for stock at the various institutions."

Miss Dresden, who came into office long after the federal government and manufacturers got the relief administration so heavily into the cod liver business, said she doubts the requirement of such a quantity, for the reason that "this Texas sun affords lots of vitamins, and children here do not need such quantities of this element supplied in food as those in regions of rigorous winters."

TRANSIENT BUREAU

Texas Transient Bureau, Big Spring Division, 109 Main Street, Big Spring, Texas, June 20, 1934. Rev. C. A. Hickley, Rev. R. E. Day, Rev. Woody Smith, Rev. Melvin Wines, Rev. John Thorns, Rev. S. J. Shettleworth.

Gentlemen: I would appreciate very much your announcing from the pulpit to your congregation this coming Sunday that the Government is providing food and clothing to transients, and is therefore requesting that citizens of Big Spring refer any cases to this Bureau, located at 109 Main Street.

The purpose of this Bureau is to provide 24-hour service or longer, as the case may be, to non-residents, and thereby relieve all citizens of Big Spring from the necessity of feeding, clothing, or caring for such individuals. As soon as these individuals learn that back-door begging or street soliciting is frowned upon, the quicker the city will be relieved of such characters.

As Executive of the local Bureau, I will be glad to explain the details to any individual who would interest himself, or herself, to make a visit. The success of the Government's plan can only be made possible through the hearty cooperation of the citizens in each locality where a Bureau exists. No doubt there will be criticisms, but if the public in general understands the methods used by the Government with these people, there will be less confusion in the minds of all citizens.

Very truly yours,
E. V. CONWAY,
Executive Sec'y.

UNIVERSITY TOUR

Editor, Herald, Big Spring, Texas. Dear Sir: While completing the travel schedule for the University of Tours 1934 summer expedition, I notice that a unit of this tour will be routed through your city.

Because we wish to arrange our itinerary so as to include a visit to the points of major interest in your vicinity, I am asking that you write to us in Chicago and advise us to what we should visit in your community and how much time we should allow for this stop. If you have heard of University of Tours before, you know that it is a national organization for teachers operating as a regular summer school division of Oklahoma City University. The tour membership numbers about 800 teachers from about 40 states which will divide into the eastern and western expeditions at Chicago on July 1. Two full months will be spent by these teachers in a first-hand study of America.

Please send this information of Tours, General Delivery, Chicago, Illinois, as quickly as possible so that we may complete our itinerary and allow adequate time for visiting the major landmarks in your vicinity. A report of this visit will be published in the University Tour News, regular monthly publication of the University of Tours with a circulation of 35,000 teachers.

Any literature you can send us of your city and points of interest, will serve a useful immediate purpose and will find a permanent place in our files. We are writing the chamber of commerce and to the largest newspaper in your city asking cooperation in this visitation. I shall look forward to meeting you personally if you are in the city at that time.

Sincerely,
HAROLD L. DOBBSON.

Golf, too, has its Business Moments

"HEAD DOWN, eye on the ball." When this admonition to yourself brings the reward of a zinging drive up the fairway, a beautiful mangle shot to the green or a twenty-foot putt right into the cup . . . it's then that the real thrill of the game begins to seep into your veins; the worries of state give way to the pleasant concern of lowering your score; while the fresh air and the exercise pay dividends in health and mental fitness for the battles of life.

"Head down, eye on the ball." But keep your eye also on that other phase so productive of added pleasure—the possession of up-to-date equipment.

August is golf's mid-season. Sale of golfers' requisites are on or imminent. That set of matched irons, that swanky new-fangled bag, those comfortable spiked moccasin-tops, or those look-the-part-of-a-golfer-togs—all are beckoning to you from the stores in this city.

Keep your "head down"—and keep the cost of your golf down too. Keep your "eye on the ball"—and on the golfing-supplies advertisements in this newspaper. Shrewd buying—the business phase of your golf—is at hand. Cash in.

P. S.—There are good bargains, too, in equipment for toasts, swimming, camping, fishing, touring.

Emergency Loan Limit Raised In Drought Sections

The Maximum amount that may be loaned to one individual from the emergency crop loan fund of 1934 for the purpose of summer fallowing and for seed for winter wheat has been raised from $250 to $400 in the drought areas of 25 mid-western states, according to a statement made here by R. M. Garwood, production credit commissioner of the Farm Credit Administration.

A farmer or stockman who has already obtained an emergency crop loan and has satisfactory security may secure a supplemental advance for summer fallowing or for seed for winter wheat provided his total loan does not exceed $400.

Texas: Moore, Sherman, Deaf Smith, Potter, Hartley, Odham, Dallas, Randall.

Field supervisors, county committees and security agents in New Mexico, Texas, and Arizona, have received the following explanation:

If an applicant has borrowed nothing in this year he may apply for a loan of $400 for summer fallowing and seed for winter wheat.

If the applicant secured an emergency crop loan, he may apply for the difference between the amount previously borrowed and $400. Example: Applicant has an emergency crop loan of $250; he may apply for an additional sum of $150 for summer fallowing and or seed for winter wheat.

In other areas, that is those counties that have not been designated as "emergency areas," the regulations have not been changed as to the maximum limit.

New Park To Be Dedicated

Midland Colts And Championship Odessa Team To Play

MIDLAND—Dedication of Midland's new municipal baseball park will be formally held Friday afternoon at 2:30 prior to a special game between Midland and Odessa.

Mayor Marvin C. Ulmer will make a short speech delivering the park from the city to the people and his daughter, Ann, will break a bottle of grape juice on a grand stand pillar to christen the park.

Dr. John B. Thomas, long time fan and school board president, will throw the first ball.

Manager Joe W. Pylon, President Clarence Ligon and Treasurer John Butler asked Mayor Ulmer to speak representing the city because it was largely through his efforts, supported by the council, that the city acquired land for the park and a new grandstand was built.

Business houses here will close for the game and the park is expected to be crowded to capacity.

Aged Women, Attacked In Cross Cut Home Early Thursday, To Recover

CROSS PLAINS, (UP)—Three men were held at Brownwood late Wednesday in connection with a brutal attack on two aged women at Cross Cut, seven miles south of Cross Plains before daylight, and the theft of $40 from the mattress on which one of them slept.

No charges were filed against the men and officers were not certain they were implicated in the case. Only one man was seen in the home in which both women lived.

Mrs. Lige DeBusk, 82, was beaten severely and Mrs. Abbie Hounshell, 83, was knocked to the floor by blows from a pistol in the hands of an unidentified man.

Physicians treating them at their home said tonight they were improving normally. Mrs. DeBusk suffered seven gashes about the head and three on the arm.

The women had retired at the usual hour last night in different rooms and three hours later Mrs. Hounshell said she heard Mrs. DeBusk scream. "Oh, they're beating me to death."

Mrs. Hounshell said she started toward her companion's room but was met at the door by a man with a flashlight. He struck her on the head twice and she fell to the floor unconscious.

The man apparently attacked Mrs. DeBusk as she slept and, after knocking her unconscious with his pistol, pushed her off the bed and picked up $40 in cash under the mattress.

A couple living nearby heard the women scream and hurried to their aid but the man had fled, apparently through a window. Officers found tracks of a man in the yard and in a field.

List prices of commercial cars quoted are f. o. b. Flint, Mich. Special equipment extra. Prices subject to change without notice. Compare Chevrolet's low delivered prices and easy G. M. A. C. terms. A General Motors Value.

In the face of the biggest demand in years, right when the trend toward Chevrolet is at its peak, Chevrolet reduces prices! No wonder America was startled when this news flashed across the country just a few days ago. And now that the public has had a chance to figure out what this price reduction means in terms of greater value, the news becomes even more important than before. Because it means that Chevrolet now offers you a big, substantial, quality car with the famous valve-in-head engine for as little as $465, f. o. b. Flint, Mich.—making it by far the lowest-priced Six in the world. It means that you can get enclosed Knee-Action, Blue-Flame performance, cable-controlled brakes, and all the other big advancements of the day, for as much as $35.00 less than before—and Chevrolet's former prices were already among the lowest of the low. It means, in short, that Chevrolet now presents America with the finest buy the low-price field has ever seen.

MURDER AT MOCKING HOUSE

BY WALTER C. BROWN

Chapter 36
DUPRESNE AGAIN
 Harper leaned forward. "Now, Mrs. Croymen, I would like to know more about the servants in this house. Has there been trouble with any of them in the past, or any trouble between themselves? I don't mean petty squabbles."
 For the first time Aline Croymen hesitated, and Harper felt the lowering of an imperceptible veil of aloofness. With her hands lying motionless in her lap she studied the detective's face with cool gravity. In all the house there was no sound at that moment.
 "I am afraid there is nothing I can tell you that would be relevant to the issue you hold," she answered at last, quietly.
 "What about Andrews? I gather that he is greatly in Mr. Dupresne's confidence."
 "Andrews has spent his whole adult life in the service of the Dupresne family, starting with Mr. Dupresne's father. Naturally, he is treated almost as a member of the family."
 Harper thought that over. "How long have the Whitmores been employed?"
 "It must be about ten years. We wish we could find some one half so efficient and conscientious for our own house."
 "What about Donaghy, the chauffeur?"
 Mrs. Croymen shot him a quick, penetrating look, which the detective did not miss, and as she thought over her reply, she kept turning that unusual ring around and around on her finger.
 "Joseph is considerably younger than any of the others," she answered at last, "less settled in his habits - I do not doubt he has more outside interests. But he is courteous, prompt, and obliging, and I believe there has been no question at all as to his conduct either on or off duty."
 "Then there has been nothing in the nature of friction or bad feeling between Andrews, say, and the Whitmores? Or between Donaghy and Andrews?"
 "No, indeed."
 "What of the housemaid who was here last year, Ellen Becker? She left rather suddenly, I believe. Was there an undeclared reason for her departure?"
 "I think not. Ellen never fitted in very well here. She was a reserved, rather melancholy girl, and what I saw of her, I'm sure is left of her own accord. My sister would have said something if she had been otherwise."
 "How old was this girl?"
 "Thirty, or perhaps a year or two older. Not an attractive girl at all," she added, "and a rather sullen demeanor that did not improve her any."

RECORD-BREAKERS SHAKE HANDS

As one world champion to another, Glenn Cunningham (left) shook hands with "Blazing Ben" Eastman after their dazzling victories at the invitation track meet at Princeton, N. J. Cunningham set a new world record of 4 minutes, 4.7 seconds in the mile run, and Eastman shattered all previous marks for the half-mile by his time of 1 minute, 19.8 seconds. (Associated Press Photo) tenacity. Aline Croymen leaped up in her fright, her hands clasping each other and her ring still flashing its multicolored sparks.

 But Pierre Dupresne went on quietly taping his cigarette against the platinum case. There was mockery and defiance in his glittering look, and Harper caught a faint reek of brandy on his breath.
 "Don't let us stop you!" he sneered, "but I'll be damned if we wish you any luck!"
 Lafferty looked through the pocket lens at the crystal body of the goblet and then again at the sheet of yellow letter paper far-ber held out for his inspection. "It's a sneaky print," he stated, "but ment."

 "It would have come out long ago," Lafferty grumbled. "If Dupresne hadn't opposed the finagling of the staff. Come on, let's put the screws to the old boy. I'm going to enjoy this."
 "Not so fast, Jack, not so fast. There's no profit in going off half-cocked. Nobody's going to run away while we figure things out. It might be a help if some one just," he added as an afterthought.
 Lafferty threw his superior a sardonic look. "You're hard to convince," he protested. "What are you holding out for now, a hand-written confession from the murderer?"
 "No, but we're not a couple of rookies out after big game for the first time. If we made an arrest every time we struck a clue we'd have Mrs. Dupresne locked up because she went out last night and Dupresne because the gun disappeared from his room this morning. Before we tackle Andrews let's have a good look at these letters. We've been so busy with other matters they haven't had the attention they deserve."
 "The first thing that is apparent," he went on, "is that each was mailed downtown. That gives us no help with everybody at the Australia except the Whitmores. The first four were exactly one week apart, then came a gap of eleven days with the last four somewhat irregular. Dupresne placed them before Director Connors on the 4th of January. On the morning of the 7th came the last letter, at least up to the present."
 "At least? Do you think there are going to be any more of them?" Lafferty questioned.

now pending in Chicago in the lower court after the only visible chance of a test of the law before the highest tribunal. Despite congressional rebuffs the AAA boys think they are sitting pretty.

Tydings—officials are plumbing the Maryland gubernatorial situation deeply in search of possible ulterior motives on the part of the Roosevelt administration.

Some of Governor Albert Ritchie's closest friends think George L. Radcliffe, Baltimore financier, was tossed into the Democratic primary contest against Ritchie and Mayor Jackson of Baltimore as a deliberate method of spanking another of Mr. Roosevelt's opponents at the Chicago convention. Radcliffe is a close personal friend of the president and Ritchie was a leader of the 1932 Stop-Roosevelt movement.

Those of this mind point out further that Federal Relief Administrator Hopkins suddenly put Maryland on a fifty-fifty basis at just about the time Radcliffe first was being impounded to run. To arrange for the Free State's share of her relief Ritchie may have to call a special session of the legislature—always dangerous in the heat of a campaign.

On the other hand it is well known that Senator Millard Tydings is pulling the strings of Radcliffe's campaign. Tydings has been trying to force Ritchie to run for the senate to take Phillips Goldborough's place.

Many are convinced Tydings wants first to be boss of Maryland, and second to eliminate Ritchie as a possible opponent when he himself comes up for reelection in 1938.

They argue, with merit, that Ritchie could do the Roosevelt administration more harm in the senate than in the governor's mansion at Annapolis. Therefore, they fall to see the hidden hand of the White House in the gubernatorial free-for-all.

Fireside—The president's advisers say he is about fed up with the obduracy of big business in refusing to concede the right of untrammeled collective bargaining to the workers. They predict he is about ready to do some cracking-down on his own account.

To do so he must have public sentiment behind him. Listen carefully to what he says in that important "fireside talk" he plans to deliver over the radio just before embarking on his ocean vacation tour.

Aged—One of our best crystal-gazers envisages a march on Washington within a year that will pale the first trek of the bonus-seekers into insignificance. Hope held out by both Democratic and Republican parties for ultimate inauguration of federal old age pensions is predicted as the magnet to draw another army to the national capital.

Approximately 10,000,000 people in the country are over 65 years of age. There are more than that of course, between 35 and 60 who would be extremely interested. It may make you blink but there's a report the morticians, among others, are pushing the idea. Bigger and better services suggest themselves as a natural.

Even though the administration is not hostile to the old age insurance proposition eager supporters are taking no chances. Real money has been spent circulating petitions and getting them to congress in recent weeks.

Notes—Col. Horatio B. Hockett succeeds Robert D. Kohn as head of the Public Works housing division. This job should not be confused with the broad housing program under HOLC. All but three Democratic congressmen out of 145 who have stood before primaries have been renominated. Nearly 4,000,000 young citizens who didn't pass judgment on Hoover and Roosevelt will have votes in 1936. Most of them are jobless. Senate Republicans walked along a razor edge on labor legislation. They didn't want to help FDR and they didn't want a strike.

NEW YORK BY JAMES McMULLIN Germany—Informed New York calls the German moratorium on medium and long-term foreign debts a prelude to outright default. It will be camouflaged as long as possible to try to protect German commercial credit but experts can't see how the Reich will be either able or willing to resume payments six months from now.

Also—despite Dr. Schaefer's vehement protestations—Schaefer is confident mark devaluation is only a matter of weeks. That would mean chaos with a capital C in internal German affairs and quite possibly the beginning of the end for the Hitler regime.

Local bankers are sore at the "local of faith" but can't see that there's anything to be done about it. They will not lift their voices in public protest—figuring it would be futile and might invite congressional scrutiny of their part in marketing the Dawes and Young bonds to the American public. Not that the bankers feel guilty about it—they just don't crave any more contacts with congress than they can help.

Bag—As usual Uncle Sam will be bagholder-in-chief. Germany's European creditors must buy more from Germany than they sell to her and can arrange to seize German trade balances as a partial offset. This procedure dims the chances for American holders of German bonds to collect anything.

New Yorkers comment it's the price we pay for the favorable balance of trade with Germany in which we took such pride. Switzerland and Holland—with

ROADS CONSTRUCTED INTO FAMOUS GORGE

With the details of an elaborate entertainment program already worked out, through the assistance of chambers of commerce in scores of towns throughout the Panhandle Plains, everything is in readiness for the formal opening celebration July 4 of the Palo Duro Park, which is being developed by the National Parks Service. The park is located only 33 miles southeast of Amarillo and is reached over a paved highway via Canyon.

Due to the distinctively different type of scenic beauty offered only by the new park, it is attracting attention throughout the entire Southwest. D. E. Colp, chairman of the State Park Board, predicts that as many as 100,000 persons will visit the project during the opening event.

Can Stay Overnight—Although the lodge is still under construction and cottages are yet to be built, inviting camp sites, with abundant fresh water, are available at no extra cost to those desiring to stay overnight in the canyon.

One feature of the varied five-day entertainment which will appeal to all true westerners is the rodeo which is to be staged daily under the supervision of the veteran Leonard Stroud. According to Mr. Stroud, some of the country's wildest horses and best riders will be in the show.

Special Programs—Each day of the celebration has been set aside for a special type of program, and religious, civic and fraternal organizations throughout the Panhandle Plains area are planning to participate.

July 4: Dedication and citizenship day. The State Park Board will dedicate the Park. Following will be political speeches, all candidates are invited and each will be permitted his own rally—the park is big enough for all band concerts; National Guards, American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars activities.

July 5: Church-Sunday School Day. A one-day combination chauntauqua, convention and picnic. A massed chorus selected from the entire territory will be a feature of the day's program. A full orchestra will be presented along with other entertaining features. Program under direction of John Josey.

July 6: Goodnight Trail Dedication, Pioneers' Day, Boy and Girl Scouts gathering.

July 7: Civic Clubs Day. All civic clubs, Federated Women's Clubs, Business and Professional club of the area are invited to meet at the Park on this day.

July 8: Palo Duro Canyon State Park Day. A day filled with interesting events and especially set aside for picnic parties.

The State Park Board is making provisions for amusement and refreshment concessions and, according to Mr. Colp, prices will be most reasonable. No charge will be made for the rim drive or for a visit to the lodge site on the brink of the canyon. Admission to the canyon drive is 85 cents per car of five persons or less, and 5 cents each for additional passengers. Admission for motorcycles, 25 cents each. Admission to the rodeo will be 35 cents for children and 75 cents for adults.

Shock Of Being Suspended Above Gorge 6 Hours May Prove Fatal

Otto Knight Given 3 Years For Robbery

Pleads Guilty In Federal Court At Lubbock Wednesday Afternoon

Otto Knight, charged with burglary of the Wilson, Texas, post office, entered a plea of guilty Wednesday afternoon in federal court at Lubbock, and was sentenced to three years on one count, and five years, sentence suspended for five years, on the second count.

He was arrested here last summer by city police in connection with the robbery. Chief of Police J. T. Thornton and Policeman L. A. Coffey went to Lubbock the fore part of the week to testify in the case, but Knight did not appear.

Knight was arrested with Albert Brooks, who received a heavier sentence for his part in the burglary.

Local police were notified of the conviction by C. H. Rose, post office inspector, who investigated the case.

V. F. W. Names Officers At Fort Worth

Dr. C. W. Deats Of This City Elected Department Surgeon

At the fourteenth annual encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, held in Fort Worth June 17-20, the following officers were elected:

Department Commander—E. H. Heil, San Antonio.

Senior Vice Commander—A. W. Pliggott, Brownsville.

Junior Vice Commander—E. E. Wiseman, El Paso.

Quartermaster—A. W. Booth, Bartown.

Department Surgeon—Dr. C. W. Deats, Big Spring.

District Commander For District 7, which includes Abilene, Sweetwater and Big Spring—J. H. Jones, Abilene.

National Commander James Van Zandt and Adjutant General R. B. Hardy Jr. and Mrs. Grace Davies, national secretary of the Ladies Auxiliary, were in attendance at the encampment.

National Commander Van Zandt made the principal address before the encampment, and was broadcast over WJAP and KTAJ. The address pertained to the Americanization program of the V. F. W. for the ensuing year.

The encampment, according to local people who attended the affair, was well attended and much business was attended to.

Corpus Christi was selected as the next host city for the encampment.

Mrs. Dorothy Hull of this city is a member of the council of administration members, and Miss Ruby Bell, also of Big Spring, is flag bearer.

Entertainment By Lions Club Well Attended

Lions Wednesday staged their ladies' night program with a full evening's entertainment.

Initial feature of the celebration was the exhibition soft ball game between Linck's and Lions on the City Park diamond.

Linck's plastered a sharp defeat to the Jungle Kings, 8-5. Both sides got off to a good start and played a tight ball. The Groceries were the first to break the ice, scoring on Lion misplays and timely hits.

Lions made a comeback but the rally fell flat with only one run scored. Linck's staged a 5 run rally when the Lion infield went berserk and outfielders made poor throws, but Lions drove in three in the final frame.

After the game, spectators and players thronged the park and enjoyed a sumptuous chicken barbecue with all the "trimmings."

Beginning at 9:30 p. m. a frolic was staged at the County Club with Johnny Lochaby and his music playing the engagement. A large crowd attended and enjoyed a floor show given under the direction of Robert Biagal. Participating in the floor show were Dean Miller, tap artist, Mary Ruth Dixie, tap dancer, Mary Ann Dudley, tap specialist, Mrs. and Mrs. Riegel who appeared in the "Carolina" and Justice Doe who executed a rhythm tap.

Tax Payments Continue To Go Upward

$7108.53 Paid In County Collector's Office Today By Oil Companies

Payments of taxes continued to increase Thursday. Tax collector Mabel Robinson said.

Magnolia Pipe Line company, Magnolia Petroleum, Coston Oil corporation paid in the bulk of $7,108.53 received at the collector's office Thursday.

Most of the tax money was for 1933 taxes.

Delinquent payments showed a slight increase Thursday, warning up to the last minute rush to take advantage of savings to be had by paying before July 1.

The school tax office, which has experienced by far the most notable success in collections, Thursday afternoon was getting out its last tax statements.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Pickle Hosts At Barbecue For House Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Paul More of Paducah, Ky., were guest guests at an enjoyable chicken barbecue Wednesday evening in the city park, given by Mr. and Mrs. Gus Pickle, Mr. and Mrs. Moore are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pickle.

Barbecued chickens with all the accessories was spread out in family fashion and a merry gathering took place.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Randall Pickle and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Cunningham and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Pickle, Joe Pickle, Miss Jennetta, Hattie Mae and Judith Pickle, Mrs. W. D. McDonald, Mrs. J. L. LeBlau and the honor guests.

Four Texans Hurt In Auto Accident

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo.—Four Texans—Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Charninsky and their child of Dallas and Will Grace of Sweetwater—were painfully injured Wednesday when their automobile collided on the Denver highway nine miles north of here.

The accident occurred at Grace, was driving south, but control of his machine when a tire blew out and swerved into the path of the northbound car driven by Charninsky. The injured were brought here by J. E. Carroll, officer of the state motor vehicle department.

Moving Pictures Of Bathing Beauty Revue To Be Shown In City

Manager J. E. Robb of the Ritz Theater announced Thursday that moving pictures of the formal opening of Lake Sweetwater, which includes the Bathing Beauty Revue, in which Miss Virginia Cushing, popular Big Spring young lady, was awarded first place, will be shown at the Ritz theater here next Tuesday and Wednesday.

Robb stated that the picture is being held in Sweetwater for four days and will come to Big Spring immediately thereafter.

The earliest known description of the Maya ruins in Yucatan, dating from about 1650, was found in the Vatican library.

"What are you trying to pull?" The candidate, surprised, glanced at the card.

"It's . . .", he explained. "It was a card a brother candidate had given him."

How Much Fat Did You Lose Last Week?

Fat is a burden—it's unnecessary—it's unsightly—get rid of it while not asking gossiping friends for advice—you can do it—read this.

"I heard about Krusen's Diet. I thought I would try it—and they sure are good. I am losing weight—and never felt better in my life and I have so much gas in my stomach and it is all gone. I lost 5 lbs. last week. I say they will not hurt anyone." Miss Grace H. Head, LaPorte, Ind.

If you are breadbasket enough to take a half teaspoon of Krusen's in a glass of hot water every morning for a week, you will not only lose fat but will feel much younger—enjoy your friends when your fat has vanished and you have gained physical attractiveness.

A few days a week—get rid of fat. This Diet, or any diet, is the world's—adv.

The manner in which those states in the corn belt having warehousing acts handle "sealed corn" is a general tip-off on what the national administration has in mind.

Secretary of Agriculture Wallace has dropped a few hints of the plan in various spots about the country where he thinks they will do the most good.

Our federal farm directors would prefer to have a demand for such action originate in the grain-growing regions rather than sponsor it cold themselves. They believe a little cooperation from the farmers would give their bill clear sailing in congress.

The big problem is to draw up a plan of government surplus holding that would NOT affect current market prices.

Federal granaries would be built or leased. Each year, dependent upon the yield of the previous season, acreage allotments would be made for the following planting to take care of domestic consumption and export—plus enough extra to keep a continual surplus in those granaries against such calamities of nature as this year's terrific drought.

Farmers would sell their allotted surplus grain to the government or seal it up on their own farms in exchange for a federal loan as in done now in the corn belt.

Wallace is convinced that man can overcome the vagaries of nature and keep his crops on a sufficient-by-even keel to avoid price-wrecking surpluses on the one hand or possibility of famine on the other.

Licensing—Meanwhile the AAA, according to those on the inside, intends to keep right on sawing wood with its present program of licensing. The Wallace-Tugwell-Davis combination is satisfied it has sufficient power under the original Agricultural Adjustment Act. They elude the strengthening amendments were asked of congress merely to head off possible "lawyer's arguments."

Five cases involving the right of the Triple A to license producers and distributors have gone into court. The government won four outright and the fifth in the Court of Appeals.

The time has expired in which any of the five can be appealed to the supreme court. A milk case
