Activities About School Buildings

Give the Big Boy a Chance.

"Cotton is King," but kings have been overthrown or their despotism turned to Limited Monarchies. Cotton has drafted into his service the boys of our farms, doling out to them with grudging hands only a part of their school days in each year until they have become discouraged and abandoned the high ambition of securing an education. Upon the streets of Slaton may be seen scores of young men, yet in their teens, who have been sold to King Cotton.

Parents may ease their consciences by saying that these boys would take no interest and just wanted to quit. Give us your boys when the school opens and let them have a decent show with their fellows and we will show you who has interest. Your boy can't start two or three months late and do the work that the others do in the entire term. Of course he will quit.

Some of the best native ability in the world is in our farm boys. Have you a right, kind parent, to become an executive of King Cotton and thus deprive these fine fellows of the best there is in our civilization?

Negroes and cotton are indigenuous in the same climates. Our school boys can plant and cultivate to perfection but when they should be in school the "coon" should pluck the cotton. Give the big boy a chance next year.

The boys of the football team were so outdone by the results of the Ralls game that they are following the lead of some of the university teams and refusing to shave.

The girls of the high school and their teachers resented this to the extent that they left their "make-up" and braided their hair, using the good old fashioned hair ribbons. They failed utterly in displeasing the boys for all said that the fashions of twenty years ago as to "make-up" beat the present ten city blocks. Several mothers have promised their daughters to buy all and the best hair ribbons they want if they will continue the Wednesday plan.

Parties.

How far should our schools sponsor the social parties for our pupils?

The question is not raised by teachers, but forced upon them because parents sometimes refuse to take their part of the responsibility for providing proper social affairs for their children. These children will and do have their social activities and when not chaperoned quickly drift into gross improprieties.

When children are not allowed to have their young friends in their own homes they will plan to get off together without supervision.

Our young people are well behaved in the school and will give no trouble if their conditions are studied and their needs granted. Impromptu gatherings well chaperoned should be allowed occasionally, but formal and elaborate entertainments patterned after the social functions of the grown-ups are unnecessary and harmful. Let our young folks know they are young folks and that we may be depended upon to be absolutely fair with them. If we do this they will not disappoint us greatly.

Pupils are still coming in and some rooms are becoming crowded again. Everything will be done to handle the situation right. C. L. SONE, Supt.

Tigers 14, Ralls 20

The fast and snappy Tigers met the Ralls eleven in a brilliant defeat at the Ralls gridiron the eleventh. A great number of long end runs were made by Slaton and several good tackles behind Ralls line were made first quarter.

The game opened with Captain Miller of Ralls kicking to Slaton. James Burton received the ball and carried it to the 25-yard line. Marion Anderson was called through center twice for a gain of 8 yards. Joe Burton made an end run of 8 yards which made the necessary gains for first James Burton carried the ball netted another ten yards. Joe Burton made an end run of 10 yards. James Burton was running down the field for a long gain when a Ralls player covered the ball. Ralls completed a forward pass and by an end run made the necessary gains. A center rush fails to make gain. Olen Weaver tackles a Ralls player behind the line for 10 yard loss. Ralls punts and Slaton carries the ball to 20-yard line. Joe Burton goes through tackle for five yards. Hefner starts around end for a gain but fumbles ball and Ralls covers it. Hefner slips through the line and tackles Ralls for another loss. A forward pass nets 5 yard, center rush fails and ball goes over to Slaton. Anderson punts, Ralls' ball 15 yard line. A forward pass fails and by an end run the ball is carried to 10-yard line. By a line buck, Ralls makes a touch down. Try for point made by a place kick (score, Ralls 7, Slaton 0). Ralls kicks to Slaton, John Abel re-

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE NOTES AND ACTIVITIES AS REPORTED

By S. E. Staggs, Secretary-Manager.

The Board of County Commissioners at the regular meeting Tuesday awarded the contracts for a portion of the road work across Yellowhouse Canyon. G. T. Moore of Lubbock was the successful bidder for the work on the south bank contract; price $4,950, while K. K. Tudor of Slaton received the work on the north bank at $4,800. Contracts call for a 6 per cent grade, road to be twenty-four feet wide and hard surfaced. All to be completed within sixty days. The work within the canyon will be let later.

J. P. Markham, civil engineer of this city, has charge of the construction, which insures a good piece of work.

E. N. Twaddle is arranging to enclose the lot formerly used an air-dome on Texas Avenue. This building will be of brick construction 25 by 80 feet.

New residences: Forrest on Lynn street, also one on Panhandle Ave.; J. W. Baker on Eighth street; Tate on Stewart Ave.

Serious complaints are being made because the power and light company are curtailing their after midnight service.

Patrons of the Lyceum course, Croation Tamburics, at the Club House Tuesday night enjoyed a dollar entertainment at a thirty-five cent price. All told there were forty-three paid admissions. The course is now in the "red" $150, and two more to come.

Answer the Red Cross Roll Call today.

It now looks as if 6,100 bales of cotton would be about the limit.

If I Were a Boy.

If I were a boy
Of the modern times,
I'd spend all my nickels
And most of my dimes;
On the upper girls
So pretty and sweet,
That one may find
On most any street.

If I were a boy
I'd be ever so nice,
And before speaking
Always think twice;
Best manners and ways
I'd have them all
So that every girl
To my smile would fall.

If I were a boy
I'd be lively and dashing;
Never thinking of dad
And his wonderful threshing
Until by a mistake
I'd make a great blunder,
And then all my dashings
Would go to "thunder."

If I were a boy
I'd be different from the rest,
With a new frock tailed coat
Always looking my best;
I'd always be handsome
And the last word in style,
With a new derby hat
That would make 'em smile.

If I were a boy
I'd love my mother,
My uncles and aunts
Sisters and brothers;
And when I got married
As most people do,
I suppose I'd love
My mother-in-law too.
—Edith Marrs.

School Days.

Oh, school days; have passed me by;
Like shifting clouds, upon the sky,
Those days that brought me joy;
When I was once a barefoot boy.

Those joyous days in early spring;
That God alone has power to bring,
In times of sorrow and sickening grief
I think of school days, with quick relief.

The old school house with the shakely roof;
The rough made seats, and dirt packed floor,
Like a dream have they passed by
But in my memory will never die.

"Those days are gone forever."
—Miniard Abel.

Lonely.

When the fields are chill and white
And the camp fires dimly burn,
I sit waiting three days and nights,
Longing for your return.

As I sit there, I think of you,
I think of the things we used to do,
And of the things we used to say,
But these were of those happy yesterdays.

Oh! that we could hit the trail together,
As we did in the old days before,
But these are just memories of the days gone by,
That I sit and dream with many a sigh.
—Elsie McManus.

"TEL." PHILLIPS OFF TO AMARILLO ON BUSINESS

H. D. Phillips, manager of the Lubbock and Slaton stations of the Southwestern Bell Telephone system went to Amarillo Wednesday where he will confer with other officials of that company on important business pertaining to the stations in West Texas.

"Tel," as he is better known in Lubbock, is one of the most able business men of West Texas, and his friends here are numbered by his acquaintances. He has been very successful in carrying on the work of the company, and is looked upon as one of the best friends the city of Lubbock has, in that he keeps the telephone service far above par at all times.

Think about it for a few minutes. Did you ever live in a town the size of Lubbock where better telephone service was given? Frankly we never have, and the splendid service may in our opinion be attributed to the manner in which "Tel" Phillips conducts the work.—Lubbock Avalanche.

It's funny the Avalanche didn't say something about the splendid telephone service that Slaton has been getting. According to their statement, and we have every reason to believe it, their service is above par at all times. Wonder what percentage of "par" service Slaton is getting? From the many complaints heard about town we doubt if it is par-plus as in the case of Lubbock.

ORDINANCE NO. . .

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING ORDINANCE NUMBER 16, REGULATING THE OPERATION AND PARKING OF AUTOMOBILES WITHIN THE BUSINESS SECTION OF THE TOWN OF SLATON, TEXAS; AND PROVIDING A PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF SAME.

Section 1. The following streets or parts of streets within the town of Slaton, Texas, are hereby named and designated as constituting the "business section" of said town, to-wit: All of that portion of Garza street between 8th and 10th streets; all of that portion of Lubbock street between 8th and 10th streets; all of that portion of 9th street between Lubbock and Lynn streets; all that portion of 8th street between Lubbock and Lynn streets; all that portion of Panhandle Avenue between blocks 61 and 62; all that portion of Texas Avenue between Crosby street and the intersection of the Texas Avenue with the public square.

Section 2. Hereafter it shall be unlawful for any person to drive or operate or cause to be driven or operated within said business section of the town of Slaton any automobile or truck at a greater rate of speed than 12 miles an hour.

Section 3. Section 4. Hereafter within said "Business Section" no automobile or truck shall be parked lengthwise of the sidewalk or curbing, but in parking all automobiles or trucks shall turn to the right and come to a stop at an angle of forty-five degrees with said sidewalk.

PARENTS' HOPE IS IN THE FUTURE OF THEIR CHILDREN

You would be a very unnatural parent if you did not wish to give your boy or girl the best educational advantages that are in your power—a very thoughtful parent if you sent him to the first school that mailed you a catalogue, and an unpardonable parent if you entered him in a school without first investigating its location, equipment, character of student body, faculty, system of discipline, and above all the moral surroundings. Yours is the duty of investigation, comparison and ultimate decision.

Your boy or girl is the hope of your life. In him or her is centered your most cherished ambitions. His or her worth to you cannot be measured by dollars and cents, but must be measured by the training received in the home and at school.

SIXTH ANNUAL ROLL CALL

ARMISTICE DAY
NOVEMBER 11

TO

THANKSGIVING DAY
NOVEMBER 30

Answer "Yes" when your Chapter calls your name.

JUNIOR RED CROSS MAKES GOOD CITIZENS

Through It Children Learn Patriotism, Altruism and Generosity.

The Junior Red Cross exists for the purpose of making good American citizens. This statement was made by an eminent authority in a recent answer to the question, "What is the Junior Red Cross?" In the United States there are 5,000,000 members of Junior Red Crosses and in the Southwestern Division the membership of children in this organization numbers 434,576 and here is some of the work these children do.

They support work in Europe to children who are in need. They send Christmas boxes of goodies to children who do not have them. They make shipments of garments abroad to the destitute children of war-crippled Europe. But this is not as interesting to Americans, perhaps, as the work which the Juniors do at home. One of the biggest problems in America today, according to experts, is the tremendous amount of malnutrition found among the children of this country. One-third of the children of America are malnourished, according to actual counts. The Junior Red Cross, through its school auxiliaries and growth classes, is seeking to eliminate a large part of this malnutrition and has succeeded to a very gratifying extent.

The Junior Red Cross also is answering the question of how to eliminate individual, group, racial and international hatreds which exist among people today. The polyglot character of the personnel of the average American school gives an excellent field for work of this kind and foreign children, as well as native-born Americans, learn what good citizenship is in their Junior Red Cross activities even more than they do in the patriotic exercises of their school room work. Loyal and serviceable citizenship, that absolute essential to a great democracy, is being created in the breasts of these little foreign-born Americans through the Junior Red Cross activities as it never could be otherwise.

One of the helps to this is the work the children are doing for the disabled ex-service men in hospitals, for the sick and crippled children who need help and cheer, in equipping playgrounds so that sad-eyed little children of the congested districts are taught the joy of a normal childhood. By learning to serve others in these and many other ways, lessons of community spirit and co-operation are taught the growing boys and girls of this country.

Another thing the Juniors are doing is assisting in the promotion of health in their communities by clean-up campaigns and other civil undertakings. On the whole, one of the most constructive pieces of work done in the Southwestern Division, American Red Cross, during the year, in the opinion of those who have studied the situation, is that among the children, which has been carried on through the Junior divisions of Red Cross chapters and the school auxiliaries of Junior members.

HUPMOBILE POPULAR WITH LADIES

—Even the beautiful Collie seems perfectly satisfied with the car chosen by his mistress as he takes his place on the running board preparatory to a spin over the Fort Worth boulevards.

—A beautiful car, a beautiful dog, a beautiful home, and the ladies—well, judge for yourself. Just another reason why J. R. Overstreet is selling so many Hupmobiles; it's beauty, reliability and ease of handling make it the ideal "ladies' car."

Although J. R. Overstreet, West Texas Distributor of Hupmobile cars, attributes a large part of his phenomenal output of Hupmobiles this season to a consistent campaign of newspaper advertising, the fact remains that did not Mr. Overstreet have a real piece of merchandise to sell his advertising, while it might produce a great amount of interest, would not result in the large number of actual sales he has made this season.

—There are a great many reasons why the Hupmobile has, for years, been considered "standard." The

"Hup" through years of consistent performance, has proved that it can stand up under the hardest kind of wear and continue to give good service. For power and speed the wonderful "Hup" motor has long been known to lead all light "4's" and the easy riding qualities; the beauty of outline and the luxuriance of finish and fittings are other reasons why the Hupmobile has come to be known as the "Car of the American Family."

But one reason, and by no means the least in importance for the Hupmobile's great popularity, is the fact that while it possesses all of the power, pep and speed to make it a real

"man's car," its easy riding qualities, its simplicity of operation, its absolute dependability and ease of handling, have popularized it among the fair sex to the point where if it is left to "wifey" to decide on what the next car shall be, a Hupmobile is pretty sure to be the decision.

Mr. Overstreet recently reported a most phenomenal gain in Hupmobile sales for his territory, stating that the month of August of this year showed an increase over August 1921, of two thousand per cent—a record that Mr. Overstreet believes will stand unequalled in the automobile world for many years to come.

Esthetics and Health.

Since it is recognized the world over by dentists and physicians that sixty-five per cent of the people who die, die with diseases caused from the teeth and surrounding tissue, it is very important that the mouth be kept in a hygienic condition by having all tartar removed, cavities filled, lost teeth replaced. If lost teeth are not replaced health is impaired by the adjoining teeth tipping and other teeth migrating to such an extent it is impossible to masticate food, therefore inviting infection resulting in pyorrhea, focal infection to all parts of the human body.

The teachers of our public schools have a very good knowledge of the human mechanism and should be interested in the general welfare of the pupil not only in book learning but in its individual health. However, there was a time not many years ago, when some of the parents did not take kindly to the teacher who gave much attention to cleanliness in a general way and mouth cleanliness or mouth hygiene was not considered at all. But as the teacher's knowledge and influence became more recognized and appreciated, the scope of her mission and usefulness has been broadened, and her responsibility to humanity more and more apparent.

No matter what profession or vocation we may be engaged in we must give due consideration to those entrusted to our care and realize that they are entitled to our very best efforts in every possible way.

We must concede the fact that it is essential that the child have a sound body, that its mind may be developed as it should, and the teachers having a general knowledge of the condition of the body are able to recognize some of the more palpable defects and abnormalities that they may be able to train and develop that mind to the best possible advantage.

Children starting to school as they do in the receptive, impressionable stage of life, both physically and mentally, slight defects are more easily and quickly corrected than could be possible in later life; in fact some of these may never be corrected if deferred to later life. Years ago the efforts of the healing art were directed toward the curing of disease, but in later years we have learned it is much better to prevent, correct, or if that be possible, alleviate the condition early, that the least amount of damage be done. Every organ in the human body is dependent to a greater or less extent upon every other organ; and that it may function properly the mouth as well as all other organs must be kept in a normal condition. ST. LOUIS RAILROAD MAN INTERESTED IN SLATON

J. M. Griffin, Division Passenger Agent of the Missouri Pacific Railroad, with headquarters at St. Louis, who is a close friend of George Marriott, writes as follows:

The Slatonite: Attached please find my personal check for $2.00 to cover subscription to your paper for one year. I was in your town last week and saw a copy of your paper and was much impressed with its new layout, and decided if I was to keep up with things going around Slaton I would have to get your paper regularly.

I feel that our family could be considered among the pioneers of Western Texas. My father thought well enough of prospects of this great State to purchase Texas land in 1878. My brother, sister and myself are still interested in Sec. 3, block J of Lynn County, Texas. This section is only six miles from Slaton, and as stated above I made a recent visit to Slaton with a view of seeing what was doing around that country. To say that I was pleasantly surprised would be putting it mildly. Your country has developed wonderfully within the last four years (the time of my former visit).

I am figuring on developing our section which will no doubt be a valuable piece of land in a very few years. In fact I think it is the best section in Lynn County, and having the Santa Fe Railroad running thru the northwestern portion which makes it very convenient as well as valuable. I myself am strong for Texas. In my position as Division Passenger Agent of the Missouri Pacific Railroad I have induced quite a number of people to locate in Texas, and will continue to do so.

With best wishes for continued success of the Great West Texas, I am,
Yours very truly,

Foster's Weekly Weather Bulletin

Washington, Nov. 15.—One of the greatest storm periods within a year will occur during the week centering on Christmas day. In that great storm all the radical causes—and then some—that terminated in that destructive tornado in the middle Southwest Nov. 4, will be combined in the besom of destruction that will sweep the country during the holidays. The principal cause centers on Christmas day, but as there will be five causes from Dec. 23 to 26 the exact date and place where and when the great storm will break cannot be determined. These great destroyers are of the same nature as a thunder storm, with clouds rushing toward a center armed with their thunder bolts. Neither can the kind of storm now be determined; much depends on where it strikes. It may be a blizzard or a flood, a tornado or a hurricane. The season suggests a great winter storm, with the piercing arrows of the blizzard in one section and the balmy day of an autumnal Indian summer in another. But prepare for great weather extremes during the Christmas holidays. Local forecasts follow:

Sec. 1. North of 47, between 90 and Rockies' crest; lowest temperatures Nov. 20 and 27, highest 25 and 30; average near normal; most severe storms and most precipitation near 26; about normal precipitation.

Sec. 2. North of 47, east of 90; lowest temperatures 22 and 29, highest 26 and Dec. 2; average warmer than usual; most severe storms and most precipitation near 28; normal precipitation.

Sec. 3. Between 39 and 47 and between 90 and Rockies' crest; highest temperatures 18 and 24, lowest 21 and 27; average warmer than usual; most severe storms and most precipitation near 24; normal precipitation.

Sec. 4. East of 90, between latitudes 39 and 47; highest temperatures 19 and 23, lowest 21 and 25; average warmer than usual; most severe storms and most precipitation near 29; about normal precipitation.

Sec. 5. Slaton and vicinity. South of 39, between 90 and Rockies' crest; lowest temperatures 20 and 30, highest 24; average near normal; most severe storms and most precipitation near 26; near normal precipitation.

Sec. 6. South of 39, east of 90; highest temperatures 18 and 27; lowest 22 and Dec. 1; cooler than usual; most severe storms and most precipitation near 27; normal precipitation.

Sec. 7. North of 43-1-2, west of Rockies' crest; lowest temperatures 18 and 25, highest 22 and 29; average warmer than usual; most severe storms and most precipitation near 24; near normal precipitation.

Sec. 8. South of 43-1-2 to Mexican line; west of Rockies' crest; lowest temperatures 18 and 25, highest 22 and 28; average unusually warm; most severe storms and most precipitation near 23; normal precipitation.

I know of a vast change in crop-weather that will greatly affect agricultural interests of nearly all of North America in 1924, but I am not yet able to see how I can best deal with that important matter. There are several large sections of this continent in which farmers have become discouraged and are preparing to make a change; some of them will change at the wrong time and they will move into other sections that have been prosperous, but, in the great change of 1924, will meet with disaster on account of crop failure. I sincerely wish that the agricultural departments of America and Canada knew what I know on this subject. They could save much loss and many disasters. I have no well matured plans on this matter. Governments usually persecute rather than aid independent science, while great discoveries are made almost entirely by independent scientists.

THE TRAFFIC ORDINANCE.

Slaton has a new traffic ordinance. It is published elsewhere in the Slatonite. Familiarize yourself with it so that when you are called upon to face the City Recorder you will understand why you are there.

It is not our desire to be placed in the attitude of a critic, but—Why in the sam hill didn't the city attorney, when he drafted this ordinance, include tractors, motorcycles, bicycles, carriages, buggies, wagons, or any other vehicle?

Does a person driving a team, a huge tractor, motorcycle or bicycle have any more right to turn in the middle of a block, drive on the left side of the street or park alongside the curb or sidewalk than a person driving an automobile or truck?

It occurs to us that the city attorney in drafting this ordinance has discriminated against persons driving automobiles and trucks, and grants special privileges to drivers of tractors, motorcycles, bicycles, wagons, buggies and carriages.

Under the terms of this ordinance it would also be impossible for a truck to back up to the sidewalk in order to unload without violating the law.

Neither does it make provision for reservation of space in front of business houses.

Neither does it include the obstruction of fire plugs.

Under the terms of this ordinance "parking" would mean to stop your car at any given point for any length of time. In that event a person would violate the law when stopping alongside the curb or sidewalk at a filling station to get his car filled.

It's true that Slaton has long ago shed its swaddling clothes and is fast assuming the airs and proportions of a grown-up city, and we need lots of legislation, but let's not legislate in favor of one class and against another.

A little legislation to keep members of the whittle and spit club from parking themselves on ledges of show windows about the business houses would also be a law that would immortalize the city dads for all time to come.

SWEETWATER HAS BARRED TENT SHOWS FROM CITY

The Sweetwater City Commission has passed an ordinance barring tent shows. The board also voted $50 a month for the support of a bandmaster. Efforts will be made by the city to reduce the cost of lighting the streets. Street lights are now costing about $3285 a year, or about one-fourth the city's income.

"Almost any man can start a newspaper or a family, but it takes a hustler to keep either of them going," is an exchange paragraph that caught the eye of the editor.

ARMISTICE FITTINGLY OBSERVED IN SLATON

Last Saturday, Armistice Day, was observed by practically the entire citizenship of Slaton and surrounding communities. In the morning the Parochial School of St. Joseph's Catholic church rendered a patriotic program, which continued until afternoon. The Catholic ladies served a dinner at the school building that was very elaborate, and a neat sum was realized from same.

At 3 o'clock in the afternoon the general public, regardless of religious creed, met at the Wilselma Theatre, where a fitting program was rendered, lasting until after six o'clock. This program was an Armistice Day celebration as well as an annual Red Cross Roll Call. Quite a few nice contributions to the Red Cross were received at this meeting, but a committee will call on you later. Do not turn them down, but take at least an annual membership in the Red Cross.

Amusements.

"THE DEVIL WITHIN."

"The Devil Within," by George Al- In England, has been adapted to the screen as Dustin Farnum's second photoplay of the season for Fox. It is a powerful picturization of a brutal sea captain's downfall and his atonement for his past. The captain, portrayed by the star, is followed by a seeming curse. He settles down to a life of normalcy only to lose his wife and child. Then, as if this were not enough punishment, his sole remaining interest in life, his nephew, turns out to be as brutal as the captain once was. The nephew is deprived of his brute strength, and the old seaman first finds peace in the regeneration of the young man.

The captain is an excellent character study, and was well chosen for Dustin Farnum. Bernard Durning directed the famous star. The story is one that should appeal to everyone—but this will be best determined when it comes to the Wilselma Theatre on Dec. 2nd. Watch for it.
