Slaton Tigers To Scrimmage Tough Levelland On Friday

By DALTON WOOD

Coach Eddie Cook of Slaton, barely underway on a program to rebuild Slaton's football fortunes, this week prepared his young charges for a rugged scrimmage against Class AAA Levelland this Friday.

"It will be a tough scrimmage," Cook said. But the new Slaton coach continued to be high in praise of the attitude of the squad, and said the boys appeared this week to be picking up Cook's style of offensive and defensive play well.

The scrimmage at Levelland will begin at 7 p.m. for both the varsity and junior varsity. Cook told a meeting of Slaton Tiger Club in the Chamber of Commerce building Monday night.

After sorting out his players this week, Cook found 11 lettermen from last season returning. But a rundown of possible offensive starters as they now appear shows as many as five sophomores could be starting.

Charlie Haynes or Angelo Gonzales.

In the slot position, Ernest Gipson is being pushed by Kenneth Scott.

Along the front offensive line, a 1-2 depth chart (and line coach Tommy Boyd noted that these could be reversed at almost any position, or that other players may push themselves into the picture) shows:

At the Tiger Club meeting Monday, Freshman Coach Jim Bales reported he had 27 boys out for that team, and Coach Cook told the group the freshman-javvee and junior high teams would run the same basic plays as the varsity.

The club discussed fund-raising possibilities to help pay for filming of games and other activities sponsored by the booster club, and President Curtis Aycock later reported that the club would sell windbreakers as a fund-raising project.

The windbreakers will be available in about a month, he said, and will be red with black lettering reading "Tigers and Tigerettes". They will sell for $10 each, and will be available in all sizes for youngsters and adults, he said.

The Tiger Club will meet at 8 p.m. Monday, at which time films of the Levelland scrimmage will be shown and discussed by coaches.

The Tigers open their season at Colorado City Sept. 6 at 8 p.m. On Sept. 13 will be the first home game, against Dimmitt, and reserved seat season tickets are now on sale to last year's ticket holders for all home games at the school administrative office on S. 9th. Admission prices, set by the district, are $2 per game to all games.

The varsity roster:

Ends — Darrell Bednarz, jr., 162; Jesse Smith, soph., 160; Eiland Wood, jr., 134.

Tackles — Gary Basinger, sr., 205; Ricky Denzer, sr., 171; Mark Ethridge, soph., 149; Clifford Lacy, sr., 195; Ronnie Valadez, sr., 195; Geron Stricklin, soph., 180.

Santa Fe Installs Welded Rail

Santa Fe Railway has completed installation of its 5,000th mile of welded rail, maintaining a leadership position in the industry. John S. Reed, chairman and chief executive officer, announced today in Chicago. This historical segment is part of a 91-mile track relay project between Marceline and Eton, Missouri.

"Our welded rail program is a key element in the continuous effort to keep our track and roadbed in top-notch condition," Reed said. "Coupling it with a program of replacing 1 1/2 to 2 million ties a year, sophisticated electronic track checking equipment and routine maintenance procedures has produced a physical plant that enables us to regularly operate freight trains at speeds up to 70 MPH, and our Super C up to 80 MPH," he noted.

"In addition to the smoother ride produced, one of the prime advantages of welded rail is that the elimination of joints, which occur every 39 feet in regular track, removes the source of most wear and maintenance. With the welded rail we now have in place, we estimate that we have eliminated over 1,300,000 joints. If our rail program continues at its present pace of 350 to 400 miles per year, we will have completed welding all trackage on principal routes within the next six or seven

Visitor Sends Thanks

Hennie van der Riet, of South Africa, visited the Jim Gentry family of Slaton earlier this year. He was taking a bus trip through the United States and he stopped here because the country reminded him of his homeland.

Riet returned to South Africa after the two-month bus trip, and sent a thank you note to the Gentrys. They received it Friday, and it read:

"I am now back in South Africa, and want to thank you for the two days I spent with you. I think you are wonderful people and I will never forget you.

"I received the newspaper, and I think we two made a beautiful photo. I enjoyed the rest of my trip through the U.S. but Texas is the place I will always remember."

Riet refers to a picture of he and Gentry and a story of his visit which ran in the May 2 issue of the Slatonite.

The views of Texas cotton farmers with regard to proposed Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) requirements for protective devices on farm machinery and equipment will be voiced September 4 at a hearing in Oklahoma City by Woodrow Hart of Sinton, Texas, cotton producer and Executive Vice President of the South Texas Cotton and Grain Association.

The decision that Texas cotton producers would speak with a united voice on the issue was made August 14 at a Dallas meeting of the Texas Association of Cotton Producer Organizations. TACPO is composed of seven cotton commodity groups in Texas representing growers of over 80 percent of the state's production.

It is also planned that a qualified, experienced agricultural engineer will accompany Hart at the hearings to back up TACPO's contention that some of the proposals, especially as they would apply to machinery already in existence, are both economically and physically impractical.

The requirements proposed by OSHA in the February 8 Federal Register would call for protective devices on power transmission, electrical and other farm machinery components, to be installed on all tractors, harvesters and other farm equipment, whether existing or yet to be manufactured.

Hart's testimony before the hearing examiners will reflect and expand upon sentiments already expressed to OSHA by Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. of Lubbock, TACPO's largest member organization. The PCG Board of Directors resolved on April 18 of this year that OSHA's final regulations for agricultural machinery should not be adopted until each requirement was determined beyond all doubt to be effective and practical and "that new protective devices be required only on new machinery manufactured after the publication of such final requirements."

PCG was among the many agricultural organizations and individuals requesting that hearings be held to determine the desirability and practicality of OSHA farm regulations. In addition to the Oklahoma City hearing, a hearing is scheduled August 22 in Washington, D.C., August 26 in Madison, Wisconsin, and August 29 at Phoenix, Arizona.

"Many of the measures proposed by OSHA would require customized protective equipment on each of the many makes and models of all types of machinery in existence," notes Donald A. Johnson, Executive Vice President of PCG, "which makes compliance with the proposed regulations impractical if not impossible. And we hope OSHA officials can be made to recognize this fact before issuing their regulations."

Wilson Herd Small, But Mustangs To Show Kick

By DALTON WOOD

There aren't as many horses in the herd as in some years, but there are some pretty good ones, and Wilson Head Football Coach Al Mitts thinks his Mustangs just may slip up on some people during the coming football season.

"Hustle and desire have been tremendous in early workouts, and attitude is excellent," Mitts said of his 21 candidates for the team. He noted that Wilson usually has several more boys than that out for the team, and this obviously makes depth a problem.

With a seasoned quarterback, Mike Bednarz, returning, Mitts is okay in that vital department, providing Mike stays healthy. But he only has four other backs for the other three backfield spots and all are inexperienced.

The coach, however, remains optimistic. "Inexperience and lack of depth in the backfield pose the main problem, but I think we'll be better off in that area as the season progresses."

Last year, Wilson was 5-4 in district and lost the only non-district game, giving them a break-even season. Mitts, in his eighth year at Wilson, and seventh as head coach, has had three district championship teams. "This is the type of ballclub that might win the whole thing, despite the fact that some other district teams are rated higher," he commented.

The Mustangs will scrimmage Lazbuddie at 7 p.m. Friday at Wilson, and will scrimmage at Shallowater the following Friday. These sessions will give coaches and fans a better idea of what to expect.

Wilson opens Sept. 6 at home with a tough one, Ralls, a Class A school which was Class AA last year. Then, on successive weekends, they play at O'Donnell, host Lubbock Christian High, then open district play at Ropesville, followed by Anton, at Meadow, at Amherst, Whiteface, at New Home and Sundown.

Wilson has seven returning lettermen, and these include six starters on offense and six on defense. Quarterback Bednarz, described by Mitts as a good passer, will be throwing on occasion to his brothers Greg and Phillip, who plays ends, and possibly at receivers Luciano Ortiz and Tony Arellano.

Wes Wilke, Richard Cedillo, David Ramirez and Mike Ramirez are working for backfield positions.

Mitts feels good about his line, both offensively and defensively, with good size and experience in the form of tackles Mark Brieger, 177, and Johnny Arellano, 195, and center Doug Savell at 182, and with Victor Ortega at guard. Some other players also are expected to see plenty of action, and could wind up as starters.

"I think we'll give anybody a good ball game," Mitts said.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE SLATONITE

AND DO SOMETHING WITH IT — That's what Wilson Coach Al Mitts is saying to Quarterback Mike Bednarz, only returning backfield starter from last year. (SLATONITE PHOTO)

LETTERMEN — These seven boys all lettered for Wilson High School in 1973 and are expected to be the nucleus of this year's Mustang club. # Crop Report Shows Feedgrain Shortage

When the latest crop report was issued by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, the word became official that feedgrains would be short this year. Yet, despite drought conditions throughout much of the midwest, the estimates for feedgrain crops were surprisingly low, contends a grain market specialist.

"The short crop conditions will put the pressure on prices through much of 1975," points out Roland Smith. "Feedgrain prices have moved up some in recent weeks in anticipation of the short crop outlook, so I don't expect a drastic jump in prices unless the demand picture changes. Total usage of feedgrains should be off sharply from last year due to the drop in cattle feeding from poor economic conditions and a better feedgrain balance abroad that may reduce our exports."

The national corn crop is expected to be less than five billion bushels, down more than 25 per cent from March estimates. This would make the 1974 crop less than the two previous crops and also less than last year's total corn usage figure, points out Smith. In contrast the Texas corn crop should be up almost nine million bushels.

As far as sorghum is concerned, national production is expected to be only about two-thirds of last year's crop, down some 318 million bushels. That same outlook echoes the Texas sorghum picture, where production is expected to reach only 295 million bushels, just over 70 per cent of last year's crop.

The nation's wheat crop is estimated at 129 million bushels short of the 1973 crop, or down 47 per cent, points out Smith.

The U.S. Soybean crop is also estimated as some 252 million bushels short of last year's production.

"The USDA estimates appeared to be below those expected by a majority of the grain trade despite the fact that much of the country's midsection has been hard hit by drought," notes Smith. Recent rains in some parts should help late crops, but for the most part, the moisture came too late.

Fair Tickets On Sale

Tickets are now on sale at four locations for stage attractions at the 57th annual Panhandle South Plains Fair, slated for Sept. 21-28 in Lubbock.

Steve L. Lewis, general manager, said tickets for all four Fair Park Coliseum shows are available at Dunlap's in Caprock Center, Luskey's Western Wear, Sears' downtown store and the TG&Y on the Brownfield Highway.

In addition, tickets will be available at the fair offices in the 200 block East Broadway until Sept. 1, when the box office in the coliseum will open. Mail order requests are being accepted by the fair at P.O. Box 208, Lubbock 79408.

Fair officials have carded four shows to span the eight-day format this year. The lineup includes Loretta Lynn, Sept. 21-22; Charley Pride, Sept. 23-24; Mel Tillis, Sept. 25-26; and the Emmett Kelly Jr. one-ring circus, Sept. 27-28.

Tickets for the Lynn and Tillis shows are $3, $4, and $5. Tickets for Pride, the top box office draw in fair history, are $4, $5, and $6. Circus tickets have been scaled down to $2 and $3.

Shows will be presented at 5:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. daily.

Premiums totaling nearly $45,000—an all time high—are being offered this year. The addition of a sheep show and a substantial boost in cash awards for the Parade of Bands accounted for much of the increase, said Lewis.

Grounds and facilities are being readied for the exhibitions, said Lewis.

Meanwhile, a select senate sub-committee is moving out with a broad study of invasion of privacy issues. Public hearings will follow initial staff inquiries into alleged improper surveillance by state agencies and non-governmental groups as well.

The sub-committee was appointed after Robert Pomeroy of Farmers Branch complained he was made the subject of a DPS intelligence agent's inquiry because he led opposition to a nuclear power plant at Glen Rose.

Many other rumors followed — including one that DPS had made checks on staff aides and some members of the joint committee on prison reform, and another that the agency had investigated job applications for private businesses.

DPS denied improper use of its investigation procedures and said its intelligence information is available only to local, state and federal law enforcement personnel.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe asked for a full report on why and how DPS conducts intelligence investigations and assurances that practices comply with state and federal law.

ALLOWABLE STANDS — The Texas oil production allowable was retained at 100 per cent of potential for the 30th straight month.

Railroad Commission Chairman Jim Langdon said all states must "maximize" efforts to solve energy needs.

"Texas is continuing to strain to do its best for the state and the nation to meet the demands for energy," said Langdon. "We need the total cooperation of the entire nation to meet goals."

The commission chairman suggested states which have oil offshore should drill for it and those which can build offshore facilities to handle supertankers should be willing to do so.

Broken Leg, Typing Cause New Career

KENNETH W. WARSHAW

Kenneth W. Warshaw of Slaton became battery clerk of Lone Star Battery, 1st Battalion, 18th Field Artillery at Ft. Sill, in a roundabout way.

Warshaw had already served with the Army from 1966 to 1969 so he knew what he wanted. In June 1973 he enlisted under the Army's station of choice option, which guaranteed him 16 months at Ft. Sill.

While taking basic training at Ft. Ord, Calif., he stepped in a gopher hole, fell and broke his leg. Because his leg was temporarily weakened, he couldn't perform the strenuous tasks required of a cannoneer at Ft. Sill as he had planned.

So the Army retrained him as a supply clerk and sent him on to Ft. Sill. Later his battery commander discovered that he could type, and he quickly became battery clerk.

The 27-year-old specialist four is the son of Mr. and Mrs. K.E. Warshaw, Wilson.

Warshaw received his high school diploma in 1967 while serving in Vietnam. He and his wife, Beverly, now live in Lawton, Okla.

When asked why he came back in, Warshaw replied, "I like it and it's great being in a unit of soldiers from my home state."

Lone Star Battery was organized in July 1972 and is one of three home states batteries at Ft. Sill. The main weapon of Lone Star Battery is the 155mm self-propelled howitzer, but Warshaw's main weapons are his typewriter and regulations.

PRaise The Lord

By LENDA WOOD

God Can Be Seen And Heard

God has a voice. He speaks to those who walk close to Him. Many times He appeared and spoke to Abraham. In the 18th chapter of Genesis:

"And the Lord appeared unto him in the planes of Mamre: and he sat in the tent door in the heat of the day; And he lift up his eyes and looked, and, lo, three men stood by him: and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself to the ground, And said, My Lord, if now I have found favour in thy sight, pass not away, I pray thee, from thy servant: Let a little water, I pray you, be fetched, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree: And I will fetch a morsel of bread, and comfort ye your hearts; after that ye shall pass on: for therefore are ye come to your servant. And they said, So do, as thou hast said. . . . And he took butter, and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree, and they did eat."

Now, could it be that in this story, that the "three men" were God and two angels? Read this scripture carefully. If this is true, God and the angels look so much like men, that Abraham called them "men", washed their feet, let them rest, fed them—everything you would do for men. When Abraham spoke to them he addressed them (or one of them?) "My Lord".

Remember, in the very beginning, God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness."

In Genesis, chapters 18 and 19, it goes on to tell about the Lord planning to destroy Sodom because of the utter wickedness of the people there. This is when Abraham began to plead with the Lord to spare them. "And the men turned their faces from thence, and went toward Sodom: but Abraham stood yet before the Lord."

Genesis 19:1: "And there came two angels to Sodom even."

So it seems that these three men were God and two angels, because the Lord tarried with Abraham and talked with him face to face, and the two angels went on to Sodom, as the scripture says.

Abraham pleaded to the Lord that if there were 50 righteous men in Sodom it would be spared, and finally the number got down to 10. The Lord agreed that He would spare Sodom if only 10 righteous souls were found in Sodom.

"And the Lord went his way, as soon as he had left communing with Abraham."

In other scripture, the Bible says that the Lord spoke to Moses: "And the Lord spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend." (Exo. 33:11.)

Hi! I'm back again with more news. Everything is going just great.

I want to thank Mrs. Milton Piwonka for giving the home so many beautiful and delicious cantaloupes. Our residents really enjoyed them.

Children Learn ABC's Of Mental Health

Before a child ever goes to school, he or she is already well on the way to learning an important lesson — the ABC's of mental health.

"Affection, balance, communication, development and expressiveness are reflected throughout a person's life, but they begin with a good parent-child relationship," said Dr. Jennie Kitching.

Affection is an integral part of good mental health. Children who are comfortable with adults and children and enjoy their company — who are generally at ease with people — are showing this trait.

There's something about the child that makes it important to get close to the people because that's the way he or she can receive and give affection, Dr. Kitching noted.

A child soon begins learning to balance his own wishes against the needs of other members of his family. Sometimes other children take advantage and the child has to protect himself. Learning balance in relations and needs is part of growing interdependence.

"All children communicate. A child has her own interests to talk about and says spontaneously what is on her mind. At times a child may be stubborn or irritable as well as pleasant. But he usually is aware of what other people are saying," Dr. Kitching said.

He can communicate in several ways — he talks,

Think of the lilies. . . . If that is how God grass, . . . how much more will he clothe you with faith you have! (Luke 12:27-28)

Yesterday I planted bulbs that will bloom in two weeks ago I dug other bulbs and dried them in storage indoors.

Those bulbs which delight us with their color stimulate the growth necessary for full bloom. cannot survive the cold and freezing, and the different conditions to reach their full beauty.

It is obvious that God makes the flowers provide different experiences for them to reach purpose. Is it not reasonable for us to assume also make His children different and provide Christ necessary for us to grow to His purpose?

God does not love us less, or more, because all had the same experiences. Some persons are ones; others can know Christ in simple, every. We require different conditions to reach potential.

PRAYER: O God, we thank Thee for this day, gifts and opportunities. Help us to give ourselves Thy purposes. In the spirit of Jesus. Amen.

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health

Accent on Health

J.E. PEAVY, M.D., Commissioner of Health

Swimming is more than a sport in Texas — it's a way of life which the Texas State Department of Health recognizes and has a part in through training of swimming pool operators.

Thousands of new pools will be constructed this year throughout the nation. In Texas at this moment, well over 50,000 pools are attracting swimmers like bees to a flower.

This is all to the good, because swimming lends itself to social adjustment. It teaches coordination and builds stamina and character. A child who overcomes fear of water has learned courage.

But there are also elements of risk. This accelerated interest in swimming creates hazards to life and limb, and dangers of disease transmission. That's why the State Health Department's regional offices conduct courses to teach pool operators the various skills of their jobs.

"Short schools" for pool operators are concentrated during the months of spring and early summer, the intention being to enroll as many operators as possible before hot weather and overflow crowds make it hard for them to get away from their work.

Co-sponsored by regional and local health departments, courses consist of six hours of intensive technical and practical instruction. It a.m. Saturday at Buffalo Springs Lake when the pickup she was riding in hit loose gravel and overturned.

Mrs. Harvey was married April 14 to Wickie Harvey who is in St. Mary's Hospital in critical condition with head and internal injuries.

Others in Methodist Hospital are Roy Smith who is in critical condition in the intensive care unit with multiple facial lacerations; Dennis Walker who is in serious condition with multiple injuries, and Doyle Dean Roach is in satisfactory condition from multiple injuries.

NEWS BRIEFS
Lynda Hall hosted a back to school surprise "come as you are" breakfast Thursday morning. Those dragged from their beds were Sandra Patschke, Betti Park, Cam and Pam Probasco, Tina Belcher, Brenda Reynolds and Kay McMellan.

Marvin Powe, a 1974 graduate of Roosevelt, underwent knee surgery Wednesday in West Texas Hospital. Marvin sustained knee injuries at buckout practice Sunday afternoon, Aug. 11.

Walter Perry spent the weekend fishing at Lake Amstead. RHS junior Brenda Reynolds and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Reynolds, spent the weekend visiting relatives in Houston.

Mrs. Ronnie Roberts, the former Georgine Perry, is recuperating in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Perry. Georgine was released from the hospital last week after being ill with a light case of hepatitis.

Swimmers, too, have a responsibility toward pool cleanliness. Like most public places, a pool quickly assumes the character of its least desirable patron.

But when state and local health authorities, pool operators, and pool patrons join hands to make swimming what it should be — wholesome, safe, and fun — the results can be highly beneficial. That kind of cooperation is now going on throughout Texas.

Before the year is over, Health Department instructors will have provided instruction to some 1,000 operators of public and semi-public pools at approximately 18 schools. The Department welcomes owners of private pools to the instructions if they desire to attend. But most of the emphasis is — understandably — on pools which serve the public.

How important are swimming pools as links in the chain of disease transmission? Eye, ear, nose and throat, skin and intestinal infections are among the most common conditions spread in swimming pools. Typhoid fever and diarrheal diseases have been traced to neighborhood pools.

Most prevalent, however, is ringworm of the feet, commonly called "athlete's foot." It is not contracted in pool water, but by walking on wet walks and floors on which the spores of the infection flourish.

In well operated pools there is little chance of contracting any of these conditions. That's the reason for the Department's emphasis on swimming pool sanitation.

Fort Worth, Plainview and Irving.

And, of course, when operators apply the principles of sanitary swimming pool maintenance and service, it is the swimming public who benefits. That is exactly how the State Health Department intended it to be.

Monday night, Aug. 26, at 8 p.m. at the high school. Everybody is urged to attend.

Finding Security In Retirement

For the first time in history, the part-time job is gaining full-time recognition in the American workplace.

And women are primarily responsible for this — demanding that part-time work be meaningful — and lucrative, as well.

Once shunned by big business and industry, the part-time job is acquiring a place of stature — accepted and its value attested to — in all phases of the economy.

In 1963 there were about 7.3 million Americans working in part-time positions. By 1973 that number had climbed to over 11.8 million — or an increase of 62 percent.

Last year, slightly over 6.3 million of these part-timers were women over 20 years old — whereas the comparable figure for men was only about 2.3 million.

No longer is that less than 35 hour a week job a mere cure for a housewife's boredom — or simply a little extra spending money for a family. Rather, it is becoming firmly entrenched as a highly important part of the work world.

Most part-time working women include:

— Recent college graduates who do not want to immediately become "9-to-5ers." Part-time employment offers them an opportunity to go to graduate school and to contemplate permanent career decisions.

— Mothers. Obviously, part-time jobs enable them to spend time with their children while simultaneously participating in the business and professional community.

— Retirees. A number of older women express dissatisfaction with retirement, especially if they have had years of full-time active work. Their answer: a part-time job.

Unfortunately, there are many women who did not plan adequately for their retirement years and find themselves forced to work part-time to meet their expenses. Often this is the case for widows whose husbands failed to provide adequate insurance coverage for their families.

Safe, Many Vehicles On State Auction List

Austin, Tex. — The Board of Control sponsored 20th State of Texas Surplus Property Auction will not suffer usual August doldrums, Homer A. Foerster, Executive Director, State Board of Control, said as he announced the August 24 date for the auction at the Austin City Coliseum. Foerster reported he expected lively bidding on such items as a large office safe, miscellaneous snack bar equipment, and ice machine and an electric range from the Senate; metal storage cabinets, plus more than 155 automobiles, pickup trucks, vans, carryalls, and a town wagon. Past auctions have attracted thousands of bidders and have returned more than $2.2 million to the State's use, the Board of Control Director remarked. Automobiles from the Department of Public Safety total 112 and include 1968-1971 model Plymouths, 1970-1972 model Dodges, 1971 Matadors, and one each 1966 Pontiac, 1966 Lincoln, and 1946 Chevrolet. The 25 pickups offered by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department include 1965-1968 model Fords and Dodges. The Department of Agriculture is offering a 1969 model pickup, a 1970 Dodge van, and two 1971 Ford vans. Those looking for trucks may be interested in a 1967 2½-ton cab and chassis or a 1967 2½-ton LWB with flatbed stake on body. Foerster noted hundreds of persons have attended all of the auctions since the first one during April, 1970, and he expressed his thanks to these loyal bidders and extended a welcome to all persons interested in owning some of the useful items to be offered Saturday, Aug. 24. Miscellaneous equipment includes shop equipment, desks, chairs, tables, rotary and printing calculators, adding machines, a fine selection of typewriters and film printers, a projector, and dictating equipment. Equipment to be sold may be inspected prior to the date of the auction, Monday through Friday between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. by contacting the various agencies selling equipment. A list of these agencies, their location, and the type of items may be obtained from the Board of Control, P. O. Box 13047, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711. Foerster reminded bidders the surplus property items may not be inspected on Friday before the Saturday auction because it will be in the process of being moved to the Austin Coliseum location. Nelson International of Dallas will again be in charge of the Auction. All items may be inspected beginning at 7:00 a.m. on the day of the sale. Bidding will get underway at about 9:00 a.m. Nelson Auctioneers estimate one minute for each numbered item to be sold. Thus, if the item one is interested in is number estimate 1 minutes or 10:26 a.m. Terms of the day Foerster reminder bidders the day of the sale space and space in the Austin City are not available following day

Insignia Familiar

The "Minute Man" — symbol of those who laid aside their plowshares and took up guns to defend our spawning nation — has been the insignia of U.S. Savings Bonds since 1941. And this year marks the 33rd birthday of the best-known program of thrift. When Daniel Chester French carved a frog out of a turnip on his Concord, Mass., farm at the age of 19, little did he realize that one of his sculptures would be reproduced millions of times over. Yet, that is the story of the first life-size statue he ever created — the "Minute Man of Concord".

French received the sum of $1,000 for his "Minute Man" statue, which he began fashioning in 1873. The statue was unveiled two years later, and has become one of the most celebrated of our national monuments.

There is a certain similarity between the "Minute Man of Concord" and those community leaders everywhere who are spearheading the 1974 "Take-Stock-in-America" campaign; to sell more Series E Bonds via the Payroll Savings Plan. In each instance, they represent volunteered services in behalf of the community, the state and the nation.

The "Minute Man" is woven into every fabric of the Bond Program. The statue appears in newspaper and magazine advertisements, on bill-boards, posters, carcards, in motion pictures, on television screens, in leaflets, folders and mailing pieces, as well as on Treasury citations and medals to volunteers who have rendered outstanding patriotic service.

Since the Savings Bonds Program got under way on May 1, 1941, the "Minute Man of Concord" has become synonymous with thousands of volunteers who have taken up the task of selling America to Americans through U.S. Savings Bonds.

A community is a larger family of families. Each one contributes to the situation that affects the generalized welfare of all families within the community.

Ever wonder what soy protein is like? It depends on how it is processed. One form, textured protein, is made by extrusion, spinning or other restructuring technology. The textured protein is flavored, colored, then formed into slices, chunks, chips or cubes.

The Consumer Alert

by John L. Hill
Attorney General

It may be easier for Texans to make responsible choices should the need arise if they have gathered sufficient information in advance about legal requirements, alternatives to the traditional funeral service and burial, and what questions to ask when arranging a funeral.

As for legal requirements, contrary to what many think, there is no Texas law that says a casket or other burial container must be placed in an airtight vault before final disposition, although some cemeteries — both municipally owned and private — do have such a requirement.

requiring embalming, although in most cases it is a practical necessity.

The State Health Department, the agency with the authority to set regulations in this matter, requires only that a body held more than 24 hours either be embalmed or refrigerated, unless death was due to communicable disease, in which case it must be embalmed.

If a body is to be shipped by common carrier, it must either be embalmed or enclosed in an airtight metal casket encased in a shipping case, or in a casket encased in an airtight metal casket encased in a shipping case, or in a casket encased in an airtight metal or metal-lined shipping case.

There is also no Texas law that says a casket or other burial container must be placed in an airtight vault before final disposition, although some cemeteries — both municipally owned and private — do have such a requirement.

As a matter of fact, as the Texas Funeral Directors Association points out, there is nothing in Texas law that requires a family to use the services of a licensed funeral director. The specific requirements of the public health and vital statistics laws of the State would make it extremely difficult, if not impossible, however, for an untrained person to handle, transport, or bury the dead. And any person performing such services for the public or for a fee must be licensed as a funeral director or embalmer.

A growing, although still decidedly small, segment of the population is investigating and choosing alternatives to the traditional funeral service and burial, according to some studies.

Some persons choose cremation, others donate their bodies to medical schools, or will certain organs such as kidneys or eyes to organ banks. Still others join memorial societies which handle the details of burial, cremation, or body donation at a lower than average price for members who pay a fee to join.

While any of these alternatives generally will be less expensive than a traditional funeral and burial, many people choosing them do so not only for economy but for reasons of personal preference. It's worth noting that persons who donate organs still have the option of a tradition funeral and burial.

For that majority of Texans who still favor the traditional funeral and burial, our Consumer Protection attorneys strongly advise acquiring information in advance when there is time to think logically about such matters. They suggest that you consider, or have others consider, the following when making funeral arrangements:

*Are you or your friends and family familiar with the funeral home and its reputation for good service?

*What is the least expensive service offered by the funeral home and what does it cover? What is added to this for a more expensive service? Do you consider the additional items worth the extra cost? *Inquire about the price of the casket, services, and other charges before discussing any insurance, pension, or government death benefits due to the family of the deceased.

*Ask what is included in the total cost of the service. Be sure you know about services or goods that will result in extra charge (newspaper notices and police escort are often considered "extra").

*Find out about cemetery charges. In addition to the plot or mausoleum space, there usually are charges for opening and closing the grave or crypt, and there may be charges for maintenance or "perpetual care." If you buy a plot or crypt in advance, there may be additional charges for transferring or selling it if you move or decide you don't want it. Some cemeteries require an airtight vault, an extra cost. Others require a certain type of marker or monument, which is also additional.

The recent Federal Trade

Commission study of funeral pricing in Washington, D.C. revealed that persons making funeral arrangements need more information about prices, options, and policies for particular funeral homes and more comparative information for different funeral homes in order to make informed decisions in selecting a funeral home and making arrangements for a service.

Our attorneys say the only way to acquire this information at present is to ask specific questions, either in advance or at the time of arranging a funeral.

GSPA OFFICIAL RAPS EXPORT CONTROLS

WASHINGTON — Restrictions on the export of U.S. agricultural products would have detrimental results "economically, morally and politically," according to Elbert Harp, executive director of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association, headquartered in Lubbock.

Harp testified Aug. 15 before the Senate Agriculture Committee which is considering export restrictions after a severe drought throughout the High Plains reduced grain supplies.

The GSPA official acknowledged there will be a tight grain supply this year and that the livestock industry will curtail its feeding because of inadequate supplies. "But let me hasten to point out that within the U.S., Asia and Europe, there is a surplus of livestock. Because of this surplus, we don't believe there is or will soon be any real scarcity of food in this country," he said.

Head Start Open Now

The Head Start Full-Day Care Centers began accepting applications for enrollment Aug. 19, 1974. Eligibility requirements are family income guidelines. Both parents must be working or in job training and the child must be four or five after Sept. 1, 1974.

The Head Start program provides children with a breakfast, lunch, and snack every day so that all the children are well nourished. The daily program also provides the children with learning experiences that will help and prepare the child in their school years.

The full-day Head Start program is open from 7:45 a.m. to 5:15 p.m. Monday through Friday. There are three centers in Lubbock and one in Slaton. For more information on the program you may call 763-5277, or go by the Slaton center at Evans Head Start Center, 1000 East Geneva, phone 828-5131.

48 RURAL MISHAPS ARE INVESTIGATED

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 48 accidents on rural highways in Lubbock County during the month of July, according to Sergeant O.C. Guthrie, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in 24 persons injured, but no deaths.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first seven months of 1974 shows a total of 243 accidents resulting in 14 persons killed and 154 persons injured.

Pvt. Lowe Assigned

Army Private David L. Lowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam N. Lowe Sr., Slaton, is assigned to the 31st Infantry at Ft. Sill, Okla.

Pvt. Lowe is a cook in Headquarters Company of the infantry's 4th Battalion. His wife, Sandra, is with him in Oklahoma.

A new fabric—60 per cent cotton and 40 per cent polyester—is being marketed for knit outerwear. This blend combines the comfort, aesthetics and performance of the natural fiber, with resistance to abrasion and recovery characteristics of the synthetic.

Anyway, Every Other Year...

Southland ex-students will meet every other year, on the second Saturday in August, at Slaton Club House.

Last week's Slatonite said they would meet bi-annually, which the dictionary says is twice a year. And the woman who reported the story to the newspaper wants it understood that the error was the paper's, and not hers.

The error was not hers. She correctly had written bi-ennially.
