Burglars Strike In City Again

Four burglaries and several thefts were investigated by Slaton Police Dept. during the last week, but only two minor traffic accidents were reported in the city.

Four Admiral television sets Monday were reported stolen from Self Furniture, 235 W. Garza, but one of these later was recovered, and officers were investigating some possible leads toward recovery of the others and apprehension of the suspects. The intruders broke a lock to enter Self's. Contents of an unlocked safe had been dumped on the floor, but nothing other than the TV sets appeared to be missing. One of the missing sets was found behind Slaton Clinic. Value of the other stolen sets was put at more than $1,000.

Union Compress was burglarized over the weekend, with a number of tools and a battery stolen. No value was set on the missing items.

On Saturday, a report was filed on a break-in at Cloverleaf Liquor Store on S. 9th St., with $258.50 missing after entry apparently was made through a window.

Lock Broken

Burglary of a home at 325 Texas Ave. was reported by Arturo Vergera Sunday, who said a lock and hasp had been pried off the front door. Missing were two stereo units, with speakers, total value set at $700. Clothing and tapes and records also were scattered over the house. The same man made another report Monday which said someone had slashed the tires on his 1972 auto. He named two suspects.

Police made several arrests on charges of drunkenness and other liquor law violations, including the arrest of a man who came into the police station to tell officers that someone with a long white tail was prowling around his house and he couldn't sleep. He was provided a cell to sleep in.

Purse Stolen

On Tuesday, Kathy Hart of Rt. 1 told police she had a purse stolen from her car, and that the main item missing was a check for $62.17 from the Internal Revenue Service.

Newspaper vending machines and racks were stolen from in front of United Super Market, Slaton Bakery and Ham's. Total of change in all three machines was estimated at $23. Each of the racks was valued at about $70.

Don Stelzer of Post reported that tape player valued at $50 was stolen from his 1974 pickup while it was being repaired in Slaton.

Two wrecks last week involved parked cars. On Wednesday a 1968 car owned by Francisco Hernandez, 945 S. 11th, was struck at that address by a 1969 car driven by Irma Mann Pohl, 725 S. 10th. A parked 1969 auto in control of Anita Bann Pugh, 1550 W. Lynn was involved in a collision Friday with a 1969 car driven by Paula Stolle Field of Lubbock. Damage was minor.

Sales Tax Payment Smaller This Month

AUSTIN — Comptroller Bob Bullock sent checks totaling $11.4 million Tuesday to Texas towns and cities for their monthly July city sales tax payments. Slaton received $2,257.23 for the month.

The total July payments were smaller than the June rebates, Bullock said, because the June payments included "clean-up" allocations of money carried over or coming in late from the last round of quarterly tax payments received from merchants.

"We have now refined our system such that not a penny of city sales tax money can stay in this office longer than 45 days before being sent back to the city," Bullock said. "This is a far cry and a grand improvement from the old

Exchange Student Finds New Experiences In Slaton

By JUANELL WOOD
"I learned to speak English, but I did not learn to speak Texas English!" said Swedish exchange student Anders Thool on his second day in Slaton. Thool, 16 years old, is from Gavle, Sweden, a town with a population of about 90,000, and he has been in the United States five weeks, as part of the International Lions Club exchange program. He will leave today at noon, but says he would like to come back some day. Anders' parents and 9-year-old sister live in Gavle where his father, Lars Thool, owns a restaurant. According to Anders, Sweden has a population of about 8 million people, of which almost 100 per cent are white. The country is mostly mountainous with forests, and the temperature ranges from 10-20 degrees in the winter to 65-70 degrees in the summer. Anders arrived in the States on June 13 where he stayed two days in New York before coming to Slaton. He stayed with the Truett Bownds family while here, thereby gaining first-hand knowledge of life in Texas, including his first black eye. He received this "new experience" accidentally in a friendly scuffle with Landy Bownds, son of Truett. Among many other activities, Anders saw the Palo Duro Canyon production "Texas" and spent the night in Hereford with the Speedy Nieman family, formerly of Slaton, enjoyed his first barbecue meal and horse ride at the Swenson Ranch in Spur while visiting Larry and Kathy Bownds, went on a skiing retreat at White River with the First Baptist Church youth, went to the Coaches All American football game, and was an avid fan of Babe Ruth baseball games. The Slaton Lions Club presented him with a pair of cowboy boots which he says he "really likes" and he bought himself a cowboy hat to go with them.

Anders was very impressed with the friendliness of the people here, saying, "Everybody waves at me whether I know them or not!"

Schools Different

Schools are different in this country and Sweden, according to Anders. In Sweden a student must go nine years, then may attend two, three, or four years of "upper" school. After finishing school, the males must go into the army for one year of military service. Some of the foods are different, too, although Anders says they have a McDonald's in Sweden. He plans to take home a jar of Nestea, and some cornbread mix, and a barbecue mix, but no bologna, since this is one American food he did not like.

Some of the Swedish eating habits are a bit different, too. Anders says he likes buttermilk on his corn flakes.

Anders attends a private boarding school in Sweden located in a forest about 18 miles from any town. He plays soccer, volleyball, ice hockey, can snow ski, and belongs to a rowing team. He speaks three languages including Swedish, English, and a little French, and can understand Danish and Norwegian. He plans to take German next year in school. Besides the United States, Anders has traveled to the Netherlands, Austria, Switzerland, Greece, Spain, Bulgaria, Denmark, Finland,

THAT it's too late for us to do about it, I know something important to rear my family. I pass this along to others who may just now be in the process of figuring out what to do with those little kids they have running around the house.

one to be a doctor, one to be a grocer, one to be a TV repairman, one a lawyer, one a gasoline mechanic, and one to fill out his or her entire life to filling out don't have this many youngsters, you have to be selective, but whatever you do, make sure that one knows how to fill out who has anything to do with the government (and that's just about everything), who farms, owns a business, who goes off to college or just tries to mind his own business, who is frequently faced with the task of filling out some totally illegible forms. Consequently, every form should include someone who can fill out forms in such a way as to accomplish what you're trying to do.

train a child to start filling out forms the time he can hold a pencil, maybe you should have someone around who can help the rest of the family the agony of filling them out. So far as deciding what your child should saddle with this life's work, we'd suggest you give your children some kind of testing. In your career you should choose either a brilliant, preferably a super-genius, or a complete idiot, for these are the only kind of people who can handle most forms.

have an extra child left over after all the occupations have been filled, you should have one to be a millionaire.

The company I work for has a retirement plan and although I could participate in it rather have my own. Is this possible? Yes, it's possible but not very practical. Under the entire contribution...under most companies plans, the employer contributes most of the money toward the pension plan. An employer-designed plan accomplish more because of the reduced administrative per individual participant. It would seem you may be willing to trade a lot of benefits for the sake of the employer's pension plan automatically takes care of the paperwork, time and money needed to set up a comprehensive retirement pension plan.

ary answer was needed too. With this short-range picture in mind, one bill (SB 491) called for the formation of a temporary insurance company called the Texas Medical Liability Insurance Underwriting Association. This is the formal name for the "Texas JUA," as it is often referred to in the news. JUA stands for "joint underwriting association" which applies because nearly every Texas company writing liability insurance, whether or not they write medical liability (and most do not), participates on a joint basis.

A nine member board of directors was appointed to put the Texas JUA in operation by September, a difficult task given the magnitude of the problem.

Though the bill was signed only on June 3, the Texas JUA has already submitted a plan of operation to the State Board of Insurance, which in turn will seek input from other interests. Then, when general approval is reached in the next few weeks, the Texas JUA will be in business.

"Medical malpractice is a complex, difficult area," Texas JUA board chairman Oran Needham says. "The problems we're facing today are long-range and our JUA offers only a possible short-range solution."

Others continue to seek a long-range answer, but the Texas JUA will soon make available insurance for those doctors and hospitals otherwise unable to obtain coverage. "This will provide some immediate relief for many," Needham says. The crisis didn't come overnight. It just appeared that way when it reached the boiling point.

In California, where a good deal of the problem first surfaced, medical association members began showing concern as early as 1968. The roots of the crisis, from the insurance company view, go back even further.

Medical malpractice insurance — and, indeed, the whole field of professional liability insurance — was a minor and almost insignificant part of the casualty insurance business in the early 1960's.

Many insurance companies competed for the business, but increases in the number of claims and sizes of jury verdicts eventually led most companies to quit offering this insurance line.

Medical malpractice experience began to worsen nationwide.

One leading insurance company had one claim pending in 1969 for every 23 doctors it insured. By 1974, there was one claim for every 10 doctors it insured.

The number of cases going to court alleging medical malpractice continues to rise.

In Texas, according to the Texas Medical Association, the situation is little different from the national picture. In 1963, it was figured that one out of every 15 physicians would be faced with some type of threatened or actual professional liability action at some time during his professional career. This figure has gone up to one out of at least every seven. In some of the more densely populated parts of the state, surveys have placed the incidence as high as one out of every four.

Permits Are Necessary For City Garage Sales

Summer is the season for garage sales, porch sales, yard sales and carport sales. Whatever it's called, the sale is basically the same thing — one, two or more families clean their closets, attics and basements and decide to sell the junk they don't have the heart to throw away.

On any given weekend in Slaton there is usually one or more garage sales in progress. Sometimes a garage sale can be a lucrative venture or it can be a total failure.

Garage sales, like any soliciting or selling, is governed by city laws. Unfortunately, many people are not aware of these laws and are in violation of them. Police Chief Larry Williams told The Slatonite that his officers are checking for garage sale permits. "We will enforce the law. These sales are governed by city ordinances, and we will enforce them."

Alex Webb, city secretary, said the city law states that anyone giving a garage sale must have a permit to do so. The permit should be applied for five days in advance of the sale, and each permit is only valid for 48 hours.

Also, the city ordinance limits individuals to only two sales a year. Each permit costs $3 and can be obtained in city hall.

Anyone who is giving a garage sale should have his permit on the premises. Police officers have the right to ask to see the permits, and anyone having a sale without one can be fined up to $200.

A spokesman for city hall said there is no information available on how much revenue the permits bring in. The ordinance has been in effect for a few years, but many people are unaware of it.

Garage sales and garage sale going are popular summer pastimes and many city residents participate in the sales. To make sure your sale isn't closed down by the police, go by city hall and obtain a permit. It could make the difference between a lucrative venture and a total failure.

Association To Honor Wilson Ag Instructor

Bobby G. Lee, vocational agriculture teacher, Wilson High School, will be honored by the Vocational Agriculture Teachers Association of Texas in Houston July 29, according to Albert Timmerman, Jr., Rockdale, president of the organization.

Lee is being recognized for his 20 years of service to the Vocational Agriculture Program in Texas. He graduated from Sundown High School and received his B.S. and M.S. degrees in agriculture education from Texas Tech University. He also attended Ranger Junior College and Colorado A&M. He is the proud recipient of the honorary State Farmer Degree in the Future Farmers of America.

The award will be presented at the annual awards program of the association. The awards program is held during the statewide in-service education workshop of Vocational Agriculture Teachers.

This year's conference will emphasize the implementation of new approaches in Vocational Agriculture Education. Leaders in agriculture and education from throughout the state and national will take part in the four-day in-service meeting. Education features of the meeting will be under the direction of J.A. Marshall, director of Agriculture Education, Texas Education Agency, Austin, Texas.

Under Lee's supervision the Wilson FFA Chapter members and Vocational Agriculture students have participated in many leadership and judging contests and livestock shows taking their share of the honors and awards presented. These banners and trophies are on display in the Vocational Agriculture Building at the high school. Thirty-seven members of the FFA Chapter have worked for and earned their State Farmer Degree, the highest honor on the state level for the members. One member has worked for and earned his American Farmer Degree, the highest honor on the national level for members.

Approximately 1500 Vocational Agriculture Teachers and friends are expected to attend the Houston conference.

WILSON SEEKS POLICE CHIEF

Applications are being taken for the job of Chief of Police in Wilson. Forms can be picked up at the city office or call 628-2621.

FAMILIAR SIGN — Handlettered signs pointing the way to garage sales are familiar sights in the city on weekends as various families get together to sell their accumulated miscellaneous items. City law governs garage sales and states that a permit must be obtained before a sale can be held. The permit can be purchased for $3 at city hall. (SLATONITE PHOTO)

The first four innings were a close game and then in the fifth Slaton broke the game open. They had only five hits but walks and errors dominated the game. Tim Bourn, Steve Wood and Barry Copeland had stand up doubles, Vaughn Gentry a single, and Steve White had a 3-run home run. Copeland was the winning pitcher for Slaton.

Morton beat Lubbock West in the second game 10-2 in the Morton tournament.

Tuesday night Levelland eliminated Lubbock in the early game 17-12. Slaton beat Morton 7-6 to gain the finals. Ed Kitten was the winning pitcher.

Slaton was ahead 6-2 going into the bottom of the seventh. Morton had a base hit and three walks and they tied the score on an error and the game went into extra innings.

New Tractor Rules Become Effective

Roll-over protective structures for farm tractors are on the way, and will introduce a new set of regulations in October, 1976.

Joe L. Smetana, Texas Safety Association Vice President for Farm & Ranch Safety, reminds Texas farmers and ranchers, however, that some safety provisions became effective June 1, 1975.

Current safety rules cover nine employee operating instructions:

1. Securely fasten your seat belt if the tractor does have a roll-over protection structure.
2. Where possible, avoid operating tractor near ditches, embankments and holes.
3. Reduce speed when turning, crossing slopes, and on rough, slick, or muddy surfaces.
4. Stay off slopes too steep for safe operations.
5. Watch where you are going; especially at row ends, on roads, and around trees.

6. Do not permit others to ride.

7. Hitch only to the drawbar and hitch points recommended by tractor manufacturers.

8. Operate the tractor smoothly, with no jerky turns, starts, or stops.

9. When the tractor is stopped, set brakes securely and use park lock if available.

Accidents involving tractors were among the leading cause of fatalities on Texas farms and ranches. In 1973, tractors were involved in 26 deaths. However, in 1974, tractor accidents resulted in 34 of the 285 Texas farm and ranch fatalities, according to Smetana and the Texas Safety Association.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe, in declaring July 25-31, 1975, as Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Week, encouraged "individual responsibility for alertness and safety precautions" by Texas farm and ranch residents.

TEXAS TALK
By FRED MYERS

Protein potency is one of the terms being used to describe the positive aspects of beef promoters' arguments supporting the favorable factors of beef protein versus plant protein. The beef backer with one of the most impressive data accumulations to support the meat producers position is Dr. Bruce Taylor, an animal nutritionist at Arizona University. Dr. Taylor says one of the most important aspects of judging protein is an evaluation of the amount of protein actually utilized by the body compared to the amount of intake. Using a scale with egg protein rated at 100, Dr. Taylor says beef would rate at 80 and corn and milo at 56. Citing statistics based on feeding out a 650 pound steer with a ton of grain, Dr. Taylor says the human body would actually utilize exactly the same weight of protein whether consuming the 160 pounds of protein in the feed or the 112 pounds in the finished steer. His final conclusion... a choice between corn and milo or beef.

BICENTENNIAL BITS

By NEWMA CARNES

Some copies of the Souvenir Calendar have a misprinted page. Juanita Adams brought this to light when she reported that her School Store ad was not in her calendar. Investigation resulted in discovery of fourteen unsold calendars with the November page overprinted with October names. If the calendar you bought contains this error, please return it to the Chamber of Commerce office for exchange. If you have not purchased your calendar yet, get it at the C of C for $1.00.

The following contributions to the Bicentennial Committee were reported as a fourth of the profits earned on July 4th: Slaton Jaycees, $36.50; T Jaycees, $36.50; TOPS, $5.80; Women's Division of C of C, (Rockathon), $29.00; Mary Louise Ruiz and Company, $19.03; Trinity Evangelical Methodist Church, $5.20; C of C coin auction, $28.00; Boy Scout Troop 123, $22.50; Athenians, $15.10; Catholic Daughters $40.38; Souvenir Calendars $18.00. These same groups and individuals contributed double or more these amounts to Mercy Hospital.

Special acknowledgement is hereby given to: Raudin McCormick, who almost single-handedly built the brush arbor; Sandy Martin, who spent the Fourth at the park with her camera and provided the Slatonite with last week's fine coverage of the event; and the Scouts who kept the park clean.

If you didn't go into the Clubhouse on the Fourth, you missed some excellent displays and demonstrations: the Jolly Quilters sewing on two lovely quilts prepared for quilting by Mrs. Corley; china painting by Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Tunnell; decorative candles

Home Decorating News
BY CLARK SELF, JR.

HOW LONG should a new carpet last? Well, obviously it's impossible to pin that down for every different situation. A home, office or store that sees a lot of traffic will wear out any carpet faster than a house in which, say, only an older couple live.

Another imponderable in carpet wear is the type of fiber in relation to its use. Best wear comes from choosing the right carpet for a particular purpose, and here the advice of a carpet specialist can be invaluable.

However, there is a working "rule of thumb" often cited in the industry. Generally speaking, you can figure on about one year of wear for each dollar-per-square-yard you spend on carpeting. In other words, a good average would be 10 years of wear for a carpet cost around 10 dollars per square yard.

A lower-priced carpet will ordinarily not last as long (though it may still be good value for your needs). A higher-priced carpet, properly chosen, will stay beautiful and thick even longer than the dollar-per-yard-per-year average.

We'll be glad to talk over the choice of carpet that will give you the best value... and the right colors and textures to complement your home and furnishings. Come in!

PRaise THE LORD

By LENDA WOOD

If we have put our trust and faith in Jesus and are living with and for Him on a daily basis, it just comes as natural as breathing that our faith will be multiplied back to us in such a way that our every need will be met. This is true because Jesus is our source of supply. This faith that we have in

Him has to be stirred up, as the Bible says in II Tim. 1:6: "I want to remind you to stir into flame the strength and boldness that is in you." And again in verse 8: "You stir up this inner power."

Our faith has to be kept alive and healthy in much the same way that farmers tend to their crops. We don't merely take the first step and accept Jesus as our Lord and sit back and do nothing else. Neither does a farmer plant his seeds and sit down and wait for the harvest. Weeds have to be gotten rid of, the soil has to be tilled and cared for.

After establishing faith in Jesus, it's not just for me, but it's to be shared with others so that others may come to know the joy of being saved. Then if the Lord sets me free from a certain sin that had me bound, it's not only so I can enjoy this wonderful freedom, it's also to be shared with others so that they may find victory.

As is pointed out in the parable of the seeds, our faith (if it's healthy and alive) reaches out to others maybe even a hundred other people ("This good ground represents the heart of a man who listens to the message and understands it and goes out and brings 30, 60 or even a hundred others into the Kingdom." Matt. 13:23.)

It's not you or me that can do anything for the Lord

Home of the Soul

"How beautiful Heaven must be!" These words we often express in song. But how weak they are and how feeble is their attempt to picture Heaven.

Just how beautiful is the home of the soul? How lovely is that eternal dwelling which the Father has prepared for those who faithfully obey his will? Of course there are no words known to human minds which can describe such infinite grandeur. Perhaps John in the book of Revelation has done as good a job as could be done within the limits of language to describe the mansions Jesus has gone to prepare. His words are only suggestions, of course, but they serve to remind us that all joy, peace, love, beauty, happiness and bliss will be the lot of those who go there.

Are you planning to go to Heaven when you die? Heaven is only for those who make adequate preparation (Heb. 5:8, 9). Obey the gospel of Christ (Mk. 16:15, 16) and daily live for Him that you may know the untold joys of eternity.

A sincere welcome is yours at every service of the church of Christ:

Read John 10:7-11

"I am the door; if any one enters by me, he will be saved, and will go in and out and find pasture." (John 10:9, RSV)

In this fast-paced world, it is sometimes hard to think and act in terms of the personal, the individual. Everything is so big. We have come to accept being a part of a group — a club, a corporation, a nation. We think today in terms of the several, the many, the masses. We have lost touch with the persons we are — you and me; we have lost touch with each other — our friends and neighbors; and we have lost touch with God.

If we do not understand who we are, we cannot know and understand others; if we do not know God, our lives have no meaning or purpose that is lasting, no goal that is truly worthwhile. Since God made us in His spiritual image, only He can satisfy the hunger of our hearts.

St. Augustine spoke for all of us when he said, "Thou hast formed us for Thyself, and our hearts are restless till they find rest in Thee."

PRAYER: Dear God, we open our hearts to Thee. Enter and be welcome. Make us Thy followers and effective Christian witnesses today. We pray the prayer Thy Son, our Savior, taught us. "Our Father who art in heaven . . . Amen."

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: God's love is channeled not just to us but through us.

HOW'S The Electric Company DOING?

Let's ask Don Webber, transmission line foreman . . .

"What's going on here, Don?"

"We're putting in a new 115,000 volt line . . . gives us another feed to back up our dependability . . ."

"Cost us about $14,000 a mile two years ago, now it's $30,000 a mile"

Higher costs to keep your electric service dependable . . . part of the reason your electric bill may be higher these days. But without dependability, electricity wouldn't be worth much . . . would it?

WESTERN TRADITION NOW NATIONWIDE FASHION CRAZE

'Go West' is the fashion cry for the 1975 spring and summer seasons!

City-slickers who have long looked to Paris and New York for fashions to fit their fancy, are now following the lead of cowboys for the latest in stylish footwear, a veteran western bootmaker believes.

"Boots have never been in greater demand," says the 81-year-old Miss Enid Justin, founder and president of The Nocona Boot Company, one of the nation's largest manufacturers of quality western footwear.

"Today, more and more people—national leaders, entertainers, businessmen and professional people—are discovering that you don't have to own a horse or live in Texas to enjoy western boots."

And you can bet your boots Miss Enid knows what she's talking about! Now celebrating her 50th anniversary as the world's only lady bootmaker, she's no greenhorn. She knows her boots for a sole up and has developed a keen sensitivity to consumer demands.

Miss Enid cites young people and women as the two newest groups to "go western."

"With the current interest in nostalgia and the jean craze that prevails today, western boots are a natural among students and other young people," she believes.

And what prompted boot interest among the ladies? Miss Enid credits "women's lib," in part.

"Women are finally coming to their senses and are dressing comfortably and practically. They've finally realized that durable clothing is essential for outdoor sports and other activities. And nothing can take rougher treatment than western boots," she feels.

In addition to changes in consumer attitudes and life styles, Miss Enid attributes the increasing appeal of western boots to industry changes. She points to the advent of the round-toe boot as a milestone in western boot fashion.

"For years nothing but the sharp-pointed toe could be found, but then the round-toe boot was introduced. It's the perfect partner for the most tailored business suit as well as for a lady's pant suit."

The silver-haired boss lady also notes that boot manufacturers offer a wider variety of boot styles today.

"When Nocona first opened shop, we only made a few styles in brown, black and tan. Now we offer 52 styles, including 12 for the ladies. They come in some real snappy colors like red, green and blue, and such exotic leathers as lizard, antelope and ostrich."

Admittedly, the boot industry has taken great strides during the past 50 years, as witnessed by Miss Enid. And she's pleased with the acceptance they've gained.

"It's good to know who's wearing the boots in these American families these days. 'Everybody!'"
