New Record Is Set In Race At Indianapolis

Floyd Roberts Of California Wins Speedway Event

SPEEDWAY, INDIANAPOLIS, May 30 (AP)—Floyd Roberts, Van Nuys, California, roared to record-breaking victory in the 500 mile automobile race today. It was his first major triumph in 23 years of racing.

Roberts, driving the entire distance without relief and making only one 30 second stop, received a tumultuous acclaim of the huge crowd as he piloted his brick-red colored car across the finish line.

The winner finished about five miles ahead of Wilbur Shaw, Indianapolis, winner of the 1937 classic.

Roberts covered the 500 miles in 4:15:58.40 to establish the average of 117,300 miles an hour, smashing the record of 113,580 hung up by Shaw last year. Chet Miller of Detroit was third place winner.

Miller was close upon Roberts in the last 25 miles but was forced to stop for gas on his next-to-last lap and this cost him second place honors.

Spectator Killed
Roberts, never worse than fourth after the first fifty miles, moved up to third at 150 miles and was in the lead at 200 miles. He lost it temporarily to Jimmy Snyder, pace-setting, Chicagoan, but was back in command at 400 miles and stayed there.

In the closing miles of the race, Roberts, realizing victory was within his grasp, forced his four cylinder motor all possible to assure triumph.

The race was marred by the death of Everett Spence, Terry Haute, Ind., a 33-year-old spectator, killed when a wheel, flying through the air from a crashing racer, struck him while he was standing on a truck parked in the infield.

Emil Anderson, Chicago, driver of the cracked-up car, suffered a broken nose, a brain concussion and crushed chest. He was rushed to an Indianapolis hospital.

Ted Horn, Los Angeles, finished fourth, nearly seventeen miles back of Roberts.

Just a few seconds after the race finished, black clouds swept over the big racing plant, cutting loose with a downpour of rain.

Shaw's speed for second place was 115,800 miles an hour.

The rain drenched thousands of spectators making their exits and caused officials to flag the remaining drivers off the track.

The race was witnessed by a holiday crowd of less than 150,000.

Chet Gardner, Long Beach, Calif., was the last driver to finish, he came in back of Ted Horn, Los Angeles, who finished fourth.

Thirteen of the original starting field of 33 finished. Twenty one were forced out because of motor trouble or accidents.

Nation Pauses In Its Business Activity To Honor Memory Of Men Who Fell In War

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The nation muted the clamor of business and industry today to reverence the memory of the men who fell in its battles.

In traditional fashion, Americans devoted much of the seventieth observance of Memorial Day to solemn services at the graves of war dead and to parades commemorating deeds of United States armies, navies and auxiliary services.

In cities, towns and villages flags rippled, small arms cracked salutes, prayers were said and the notes of taps sounded a requiem.

President Roosevelt passed a relaxing day at his Hyde Park, N. Y. home, receiving but one scheduled visitor and making two short motor trips. He will return to Washington tonight.

At historic Gettysburg, Pa., site of crucial battle of the war between the states Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg (Mich-Rep) was the ceremonial speaker.

School children placed roses at the headstones stippling the Gettysburg cemetery. Veterans of all wars took part in the services at the national shrine.

marked Memorial Day were only a faint cloud of historical contrasts on the national shrine.

Jap Division Trapped By Chinese Foes

Forces Threatened With Serious Face-Losing Defeat

By The Associated Press
The entrapment of a famous Japanese army division today threatened Nippon's legions with another face-losing defeat in their invasion of central China—the stand-off development in the world's armed and unarmed conflicts.

Reinforcements Blocked
Reinforcements were blocked from reaching the beleaguered 14th division, under Lieut.-Gen. Kenji Dolhara, by Chinese troops which

TOKYO, May 31 (Tuesday) (AP)
Two airplanes believed to be Chinese last night cruised along the entire length of the western coast of Kyushu and caused declaration of a state of alarm for western Japan which was not ended until 1:45 this morning (10:45 a. m., Monday, C. S. T.).

All available reports agreed the planes dropped no bombs, and apparently they ended their reconnaissance of the Kyushu coast without molestation and turned homeward. It was the second bloodless "air raid" on Japan proper in ten days.

had engulfed that advance element of the westward drive along the Lunghai railway. It was trapped northwest of Lanfeng.

Dolhara, known as the "Lawrence of Manchuria" for his politico-military activities before and after the creation of Japanese-protected Manchoukuo, is an outstanding army leader.

Defeat for Dolhara would be a loss of face akin to that suffered by Japanese forces early last month at T'ai-erhchwang.

In Spain insurgent gunners shelled Madrid for two hours. At least three persons were killed.

Insurgent troops marched down the Teruel highway toward Valencia, flanking the government's mountain stronghold, Mora de Rubielos, about 55 miles northwest of the former provisional capital.

Europe looked to peace parleys this week between the Czechoslovak government and Nazi leadership as disident Germanic minority for assurance against the possibility Adolf Hitler might march into Czechoslovakia to "protect" the Sudeten Germans.

Yesterday's communal elections in Czechoslovakia, the second of three sessions of voting, showed, as previously, that 80 to 95 per cent of the vote in German communities was solidly behind Konrad Henlein, the Sudeten "fuhrer."

Vienna whispered of mystery surrounding the whereabouts of Kurt Schuschnigg, chancellor deposed before the March 13 absorption of Austria into Germany, and since then a prisoner in Belvedere castle.

He was whisked away from the castle Saturday night and taken "somewhere north" by the Gestapo (secret police). One unofficial opinion was that he had been taken to Leipzig to face trial.

WINNERS IN 'STORK DERBY' GET CHECKS
TORONTO, May 30 (Canadian Press)—Four mothers designated as winners of the fantastic "stork derby" were enriched today by checks for $75,000 each.

Executors of the estate of Charles Vance Millar, eccentric lawyer who instigated the "derby" with his will, said checks given to the four women represented only a "first payment." Part of the estate remains to be liquidated.

The payments went to Mrs. Kathleen Nagle, Mrs. Annie Smith, Mrs. Isabel MacLean and Mrs. Alice Timelock, each of whom gave birth to nine children in the 10-year period after Millar's death on Oct. 31, 1936.

Headless Body Of Levine Boy Found In The Water

12-Year-Old Lad Had Been Missing Since February, Father Offered Ransom; G-Men Busy On Case

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y., May 30 (AP)—One hundred local police and G-men searched nearby shores today for remnants of the body of kidnaped 12-year-old Peter Levine, whose wire-trussed torso was yielded up last night by the waters of Long Island Sound after three tragic months.

Scores of residents joined the search. Dozens of small volunteer boats patrolled the coast, seeking evidence that might point somehow to the killer.

Detective Lieutenant George Reifenberger expressed belief that the boy, cruelly cut by the wire that bound the body, had been tossed into the sound—whether alive or dead—from a boat, perhaps in the vicinity of Eye or Mansueth, seven miles above New Rochelle.

Police and federal agents, headed by J. Edgar Hoover, FBI chief, and Reed Vetterli, veteran head of his New York staff, spent the night studying charts of wind and tide movements, trying thus to locate the approximate scene of death.

Discovery of the body, identified by clothing, was the first development in the case in several weeks and confirmed the growing dread in his family that he would never be returned alive.

Ransom notes had been found and answered; Murray Levine, the father, had publicly offered to pay $50,000.

There was no conclusive answer from the abductors, and the whole case of missing Peter Levine had been all but forgotten until, just after dusk last night, a woman telephoned the police:

"There's a body out here!"
They found, then, what was left of Peter Levine—a wire-bound torso only, the head gone, the hands and feet gone, and only a patched sleeve, a red wristbreaker and a shirt, with the name "Peter Levine" stitched in it, to make the identification certain. The body had come ashore on an estate bordering the sound not far from the boy's home.

Dr. Amos O. Square, Westchester county medical examiner, said it would be almost impossible to tell just what had caused Peter's death—knife, blow or drowning—but added that his preliminary examination indicated the boy had been slain and his body tossed into the sound.

Dr. Squire and his assistants took every possibility into account. Dr. Robert Latimer, assistant city physician of New Rochelle, said one of the first medical tests ordered was to see whether poison might have been a factor in death.

Toxic traces, he pointed out, might last in a body indefinitely. "This," said District Attorney Walter Ferris, "is a clear case of murder."

Murray Levine, a New York lawyer who had put aside everything in his vain search for the boy and had appealed in every manner to the abductors to "make contact," was so utterly crushed by the news that he scarcely was able to talk.

In the boy's trouser pocket were found a jack-knife and a toy airplane.

The medical examiners were unable to tell without further examination whether Peter's head was cut off by the abductors or a boat striking the body had caused the mutilation.

The most substantial clue to the whole crime, inconclusive as it was, was the sinister coil of copper wire with which Peter's body had been wrapped. Federal agents immediately set about trying to trace it—where it was bought, by whom, and when.

The boy disappeared last February 21, on his way home from school, and the dread, familiar kidnap checking routine set in immediately.

The first ransom note—which, like all others, appeared to have been written on a cheap typewriter—demanded $50,000 and Levine, a slight, earnest, typically middle-class lawyer of no great wealth, set about sadly to try to raise the money.

On Feb. 23, the father received a note, scrawled in a school-boyish hand, on a scrap of newspaper, signed "Peter," and begging "dad" to pay what had been asked.

Four days later, while the Levines waited in their two-story stone home with blinds drawn and intermittently appealing to the police and public to keep "hands off," Levine disclosed that $50,000, demanded in another ransom communication, was ready.

Ten days went by with no significant development and on March 14 the Federal Bureau of Investigation openly entered the case by dispatching circulars all over the country. They described the missing boy in detail—a little, black-haired, quick-smiling, quick-minded and imaginative boy who had stood high in his classes.

By March 18, the first of several persons accused of extortion—by attempting to "chase in" on the tragedy—had been arrested. In their accustomed shadowy fashion, intermediaries moved in and out of the case, vainly trying to help the distraught parents.

On April 20, Levine had become so sadly certain that his son was dead that he offered a new reward—$25,000 for the boy's recovery but, more significantly, $5,000 for information disclosing his body.

GERMAN GROUP IS JEERED BY ANTI-NAZIS

SAN FRANCISCO, May 30 (AP)—

Hundreds of uniformed sympathizers of Adolf Hitler, meeting here for a two-day convention of the Pacific coast German-American Bund, were jeered and hooted by 2,000 marching anti-Nazi demonstrators.

The demonstration last night twice threatened to get out of the hands of 65 police led by Police Chief William Quinn. Four men were arrested on peace disturbance charges. Two fist fights were halted.

As a turbulent crowd milled outside California hall, the bund's opening session was called to order by Henry Lage, San Francisco bund president. A band played German music. The Nazi salute became almost unanimous. Swastikas and American flags on the platform pled for honors.

Herman Schwinn of Los Angeles, Pacific coast bund organizer and principal speaker, said the convention was called to "give you an idea of the greatness of our movement."

"The German element is worth more to the United States than all the gold that has been found in California," said Schwinn. "Germanians helped elect Lincoln and fought in the civil war. And it was the 30 per cent of German blood in the United States army, said to say, that finally defeated Germany in the World War."

"No decent, full-blooded man can criticize us for showing respect to our fatherland, our fight against communism in this country. Germany does not want to give the blessings of national socialism to this or any other country."

NEWSPAPER MAN IS CLAIMED BY DEATH
FORT WORTH, May 30 (AP)—The body of A. H. Montford, Jr., 77, Star-Telegram reporter who died in Austin yesterday, was to be taken to Bridgeport today for burial after morning funeral services here.

Montford, a reporter for the Star-Telegram since 1927, had been on a leave of absence to assist Attorney General William McCraw in publicity work during McCraw's campaign for governor. He had been here for several days.

McCraw canceled his Memorial Day speeches in Freestone and Leon counties and announced his staff would attend the ceremonies at Bridgeport, Montford's home town.

PLANS MAPPED TO CUT WHEAT ACREAGE
WASHINGTON, May 30 (AP)—Wheat farmers may receive a bounty of 20 to 25 cents a bushel on their 1939 grain, officials said today, if they cooperate with the Agricultural Adjustment Administration in drastically reducing next year's crop.

Because of prospects for the largest wheat surplus on record, the AAA is preparing under the new farm law to reduce plantings from 80,000,000 acres for this year's crop to 50,000,000 acres or less for 1939.

SUMMER HITS WITH A BANG; 104 RECORDED

Summer had come in with a vengeance in this section of West Texas today.

Big Spring residents who complained of extreme heat Sunday had just cause as they glanced at thermometers and found that the mercury had jumped to the highest mark on record for May. At 5 p. m. yesterday the instrument at the department of commerce weather bureau recorded a top of 104.2 degrees. It was a real jump, because for weeks the mercury had been going no higher than the mid-nineties during the afternoon.

Monday followed along with more warm weather and continued fair weather was forecast for West Texas.

Midland was the hottest spot reporting in the state Sunday, with a record shattering high mark of 106. Lubbock reported 104 as a new top reading for May. The mercury went in the 90's at many other Texas points.

Third highest mark was at Vernon, where 99 degrees was recorded. Wichita Falls had 97 degrees, Amarillo and Abilene 96, Corsicana 95, El Paso 94, Fort Worth 93, San Antonio 92, Dallas 91, and Paris 90. Most of the marks were the highest of the present season.

MOVIE EXTRAS FIND SWIM TEST IS TOO MUCH FOR THEM
HOLLYWOOD, May 30 (AP)—Nearly 200 film extras, including one-time Olympic hero Jim Thorpe, were rescued by lifeguards while trying to swim their way to jobs in a new picture.

Mc-G-M, planning to sink a gambling barge at sea for a picture in Clark Gable's "Too Hot To Handle," put on a rigorous test for prospective players yesterday at Hermosa beach.

About 600 extras, all of whom said they could swim, were told to paddle a half-mile course around the pier. Many became ill with the 60-degree water, others in street clothes were exhausted, and 30 life guards had a busy time pulling them out.

Thorpe said a leg cramp forced him to quit. Three hundred forced passengers on a liner destroyed by fire, an incident similar to the Morro Castle disaster.

U. S. IS ACTIVELY TIGHTENING LATIN-AMERICAN RELATIONS
WASHINGTON, May 30 (AP)—Students, soldiers and ship captains are joining the official envoys of diplomacy in the administration's broad program for making close friends of "good neighbors" in Latin America.

State department experts said today that officials in a dozen government agencies are striving to knit the Pan American nations into a strong and sympathetic unity.

Together, they said, these officials will carry the "good neighbor" policy beyond the mere avoidance of actions that might injure other American countries to positive efforts for economic and cultural progress.

Some of the steps approved in the last few weeks include: Telegrams from President Roosevelt are in the hands of chief executives in Bolivia and Paraguay, urging them in the "strongest and most friendly manner" to accept the terms presented by the peace conference at Buenos Aires for guiding an end to their grain embargo.

THE SPORTS PARADE

By HANK HART
Celebrating?

If some of the members of the Big Spring Baron baseball club could choose some other night besides Saturday to throw off their cares, they might look a bit better on Sunday.

The club plays commendable ball on every day but Sunday, looks exceptionally bad then. And that's when it counts the most.

They shaped up worse than usual yesterday against Clovis, will probably look more like a professional crew today against Lubbock.

The announcement of Wesley Rau's release did not come until just before game time Sunday. Rau was out loose when LeBarron, second sacker was signed. The new keynoter swung into action his first time out. Decker moving to third and Hank Henderson going to the bench.

LeBarron was the unanimous choice as the WT-NM league's second sacker last year, going up to Mustangs at the end of the season. Bobby in still fighting, collected five total bases in two trips Sunday and driving in a pair of runs. He didn't relish the change but performed capably.

The passing of Rau is regretted. He has a world of stuff and, when he gains a little speed, he's going places, but—The wrong hander said he intended to go back to Washington and play semi-pro ball for the remainder of the season, then try it among the pros again next season.

Close Fight For WT-NM Positions

The way things are shaping up now, its going to be a six-way battle for the top spots with Lubbock and Hobbs fighting as the strongest teams.

Big Spring still needs a power hitter and could use a twirler or two. Midland needs a better general attack while age will begin to tell on Wink when July rolls around. Clovis looks much better than when they were here before.

The Pioneers didn't keep Red Cowley, the kid second sacker from San Angelo, long. He stayed four or five games, then was released due to light hitting. He should spend this season in semi-pro ball, swinging the bat as much as possible, then really go to town next year.

Stuart has replaced Gagliardi behind the plate for the New Mexicans, the move being necessitated when the little Chicago dago was hit in the head by a pitched ball. He was left in Clovis during the Pioneers' swing around the circuit.

Stuart is not the mittman that Gagliardi is, should be in the outfield. Ratliff, the regular right fielder could have been pulled in for duty. Ratliff is a former Texas leaguer.

FRANCES HICKS RECAPTURES BS WOMEN'S GOLF TITLE

Defeats Alice Phillips Over 36-Hole Route

Odessa Fights Off Great Morning Challenge

Mrs. Theron Hicks' bid for the Big Spring Women's Invitational golf title proved successful Sunday afternoon as she turned back the determined challenge of Mrs. Gordon Phillips, 4 and 3, over a scheduled 36-hole route at the country club. The Odessan's fine play restored her to the throne she lost last year in the final round to Elinor Jones, Albuquerque, N. M.

Both women exhibited sparkling brands of golf, especially during the morning round at which time both were under par. Mrs. Phillips ran into trouble on the sixth hole after the rest period and never quite recovered.

Both had 77's at the finish of the first 18 although Mrs. Hicks boasted a hole lead. Alice won the first with a par, lost the fourth when the Odessan birdied. They made the turn all square and played ten before Mrs. Phillips again ran into trouble. She found the rough twice to go two down going onto thirteen, finally recovered with an array of beautiful approaching on 13 and 14 to cut the entire disadvantage away.

Hallies Strongly

They halved 15 with pars and it began to look as if they would go to the clubhouse even-Stephen when both contributed magnificent tee shots on 16. The approaches were alike in distance and Alice played her next shot safely, putting the ball up near the cup for a pinch par but "Fran" took her chances and made good. Two feet off the green, the Odessan chipped in perfectly to find the hole.

Mrs. Hicks missed a ten-foot putt on 18 to miss out on another chance.

Both were playing great golf as they began the afternoon round, splitting honors on the first five holes but Alice signalled her downfall by driving into the ditch on twenty-four. Mrs. Hicks played her game down the middle to win, then went three up on twenty-seven when Mrs. Phillips ran into an impossible lie.

Alice made the turn by recovering momentarily and halving the twenty-eighth with her opponent but her tee shot crashed into the trap on twenty-nine and she lost the honors there. From that point Fran ran out the match with a string of pars to gain the title.

Mrs. W. N. Thurston, Big Spring, edged out Mrs. A. Swartz for top honors in the first flight, winning 4 and 3.

BARONS DEFEATED AGAIN BY CLOVIS PIONEERS, 12-4

Trantham Is Victim Of Uprising

Local On Road; Ta Returns Sunday With Lubbock

Even "Poa-Vine" Trantham failed to stop the onslaught of the rejuvenated Clovis Pioneers in Baron park Sunday afternoon as the celebrities swept the short series from the Big Springers, winning easily, 12-4.

In contrast to the Saturday game, the Barons never put up much of an argument. They trailed from the first inning when the visitors tallied twice and did not dent the plate until after the Pioneers had counted nine of their runs.

Trantham last less than five innings against the New Mexicans. He gave way in favor of Douglas Harkey in the fifth who pitched fairly creditable ball the remainder of the distance.

Decker Clouts

Bobby Decker, who was stationed at third base in a move that put LeBarron on second and benched Hank Henderson, celebrated the change with a double and triple in four trips to the plate, scoring one run and accounting for two others but Al Christie, Clovis' righthander, lamed most of the other Barons bats. He gave up only seven safe hits and was never in serious trouble. His "hambone" wasn't his best weapon, however. He raked the offerings of Trantham and Harkey for three licks during the afternoon, collecting a home run, double and a single in five trips to the dish. He batted in four runs.

McDonald, hefty first sacker, also walloped a home run in the fifth, the inning that Trantham went showerward.

The defeat sunk the Barons' season record to below .500 again. They hit the road today, appearing in Lubbock two days before moving onto Wink, then to Hobbs, N. M. They will return next Sunday with Lubbock as an opponent.

CECILLO VILLAGES

MEXICO CITY, May 30 (AP)—The defense ministry today announced capture of three villages, termed the last important strongholds in San Luis Potosi of the rebel general Saturnino Cedillo.

The state has been restored to virtual normalcy since Cedillo rebelled May 20, government spokesmen insist.

The orange was introduced into Europe by the Moors in the 11th century and brought to England by Sir Walter Raleigh in the 16th.

Trouble Lurking For Oz

By HUGH S. FULLERTON

Associated Press Sports Writer

You can look for trouble around the Cleveland Indians' wigwam almost any day now.

The Tribe has benefitted by good luck as well as good baseball in its march to the top of the American league standing. Barring a couple of headaches when rolling back Rollie Hemsley strayed off the reservation, Manager Oscar Vitá has escaped the injuries and other difficulties that have beset his rivals. But now it looks as if hard luck finally has reached Cleveland's doorstep.

Hemsley suffered a broken finger on his right hand yesterday at St. Louis and will be out of action 10 days or more. Bob Feller, to whom Rollie has been a great help this season, has been troubled by a strained back for more than a week. And the question seems to be "who or what?"

The schedule shows one "next" to be a two-weeks tour of the East, where the next three teams in the standing are lurking, after today's holiday doubleheader against Chicago's hard luck champs, the White Sox. A healthy Feller-Hemsley battery would come in very handy on that jaunt.

The Indians lost yesterday's game to the Browns and Buck Newsom, 3-6, Boston lost 5-3 to Washington's fast-climbing Senators.

place as Wes Ferrell pitched expertly to gain his seventh victory of the year. The New York Yankees dropped an 11-9 slugfest to the Philadelphia Athletics.

Boots Poffenberger gave Detroit its third straight over Chicago, 2-1. The New York Giants beat out the Phillies, 7-4, to gain their fifth straight triumph.

The Cubs lost, 3-1, to Pittsburgh's Pirates as Arky Vaughan's homer and double accounted for both Buccaners tallies in an elbowing argument between Red Lucas and Larry French.

Fred Fitzsimmons outpitched Lou Fette to give Brooklyn a 13-inning 1-0-0 triumph over the Boston Bees.

The St. Louis Cardinals whipped Cincinnati, 3-0.

Sweetwater In Win Over Aces

SWEETWATER, May 30—The Sweetwater Independents clouted the offerings of Allen Batts justly to gain a 15-5 victory over the Big Spring Aces here Sunday afternoon.

The Aces were limited to five hits by Hanna, Sweetwater twirler.

Red Womack and Jimmy Myers hit home runs for Big Spring.

The cost of living in Great Britain on April 1, 1938, was approximately 84 per cent above the level of July, 1914, states the "Ministry of Labor Gazette."

Smith Stars At Bat; Texon Opponent Next Sunday

FORSAN, May 30—Forsan's mighty Continental Oilers stormed through the Trent defenses here Sunday afternoon, winning, 23-13, despite terrific hitting on the part of the visitors in the early part of the game.

It remained for Maxie Beard, the Oilers' No. 1 chunker, to stop the Trent outfit after both Tip Gressitt and Bill Brown had failed, but stop them Beard did. He gave up but one hit in the four innings he worked and struck out nine men.

The invaders did their worst damage in the first three innings, counting three tallies leading off and five times two innings later. The Oilers' six runs in the initial stanza proved good enough to give them an early advantage but they needed four more runs in the fourth and three in the sixth to really get out in front. An eight-run uprising in the seventh "iced" the decision.

Harvey Smith, clouting four bingles in six trips, paced the Forsans' batting attack.

The Conoco aggregation is scheduled to play at home again next Sunday, opposing the Texon Oilers.

READING AND WRITING

"TO BEG I AM ASHAMED," by Sheila Cousins; (Vanguard; $3). Some time ago one of London's quite respectable publishers, George Routledge & Sons, published a book called "To Beg I Am Ashamed."

Which was all very well—but the police took a hand. Three days before the publication date the guardians of British modesty arrived—

There are some surprises in this last, by the way. Apparently she feels that she now has a "job" and that it has as much future, she believes, as the average stenographer's job.

Navy Watches For Yacht Taken By Three Youths

SAN PEDRO, Calif., May 30 (AP)—Navy eyes watched the Pacific horizon today for the sails of the missing yacht Tira, believed commandeered last Thursday by three youths bent on a hunt for pirate treasure.

Acting on an appeal from the anxious parents and the mayor of Santa Cruz, Calif., Admiral Claude C. Bloch ordered all ships of the United States fleet when at sea, to keep a lookout for the "borrowed" $20,000 ketch.

When Lyle Tara, 17, William Grace, 16, and James Henninger, 17, disappeared silently from Santa Cruz, they were reportedly equipped with navigation books from the public library, charts, a compass and food.

Baylor Awards 317 Degrees

Houston Attorney Delivers Address To Grad
WACO, May 30 (AP)—Degrees went to 316 Baylor university graduates today at the 93rd annual commencement exercise.
Clarence R. Wharton, Houston attorney, told the class that although one-third of the human race is enslaved by dictators as absolute as Genghis Khan; another third, the Chinese, are locked in a death struggle with "crafty, cunning and cruel Japan," and although integrity of character lags far behind ingenuity of intellect, the world situation is far from hopeless.
Karl Hobbitselle of Dallas and Dr. J. T. Harrington of Waco were presented as guests of honor.
Each year since he became president six years ago President Pat M. Neff has invited two citizens of the state to be honor guests, in recognition of their services to society.

"Great things seem just ahead of us," Wharton observed in his speech. "We can vaguely see them, but like the mirage they move away and we see, instead, a world of confusion and wretchedness; war and rumors of wars; loud, vulgar swashbuckling dictators standing astride a war weary world shouting dirty defiance to all decency; our own land sweltering in disorder; time-serving demagogues throwing money to the multitude to appease its wrath; men, women and children dying of want in lands of plenty. The muttering thunder of mass revolt threatens the very foundations of human society. x x x Human intelligence has far out-run integrity. The mind of man has developed faster than his character. Mentally the race is solvent; morally it seems almost bankrupt."

Leader Too Good For His Brother Bear Cubs

DENVER, May 30 (AP)—This is a story of three black bear cubs in a game of follow-the-leader.
Rascally Rustle, the leader, enticed his city park zoo brothers, Hustle and Bustle, into such a desperate situation Zoo Supt. Clyde Hill had to call firemen to rescue them.
Ingenious Rustle yesterday discovered a way to get by metal guards Hill recently placed on trees on the cubs' island home to halt their climbing exploits. He bounced up and down on a branch until he could catch hold above the guard.
Hustle and Bustle followed. Rustle came back down. Hustle and Bustle dared not pass the metal guard. Marooned in the tree, they cried piteously.
Cocky Rustle went back up and back down again and again, but his brothers would not follow.
Finally Hill summoned firemen with ladders. Firemen facked a gunny sack over the guard.
Then Hustle and Bustle came down, and rushed to the safety of their den.

ALLOW US TO PRESENT KENNETH KELTNER, THE AMERICAN LEAGUE'S NEW SENSATION

By DILLON GRAHAM AP Feature Service Writer

The Cleveland hitters were having a gosh-awful time the other day swishing their bats fruitlessly through the air as Emil Leonard's dippy knuckle-ball fluttered crazily past.

But Kid Keltner wasn't flustered. He got his "4 for 2" against the Washington twirler.

"Trouble with those guys (meaning Trosky, Averill and other Indians)," Keltner explained, "is they're trying to lay back and sock one."

"That knuckle breaks right in front of the plate. You gotta step up front in the batters' box and crack it before it starts to flutter." The kid's pretty smart, already.

He's so smart and good that he's grabbed Cleveland's third base job. He's the early-season rookie sensation of the junior circuit.

Furthermore, he is just about the No. 1 reason why the Indians are striking a speedy stride in the pennant race.

Kid Ken Keltner, the 21-year-old Milwaukee boy, is one of the leaders in runs batted in, hitting and home runs.

Third Year As Player

He is six feet tall, weighs 180 pounds, has brown eyes and a brown pompadour and wears a serious expression around his mouth, as though he were puckering up his lips to whistle.

Two years ago he broke in as a fence-buster at Fieldale, Va., in the Bi-State league. Last season he bruised the ball for Milwaukee. He tied for the home-run leadership both seasons, with 35 at Fieldale and 29 at Milwaukee.

"He puts on weight as quickly as a fellow sitting around a beer pub. The kid weighed 200 when he reported to Cleveland's spring training camp and Big Chief Oscar Vitt of the Tribe fox trotted into an Indian war dance.

"I calmed him. I knew I could shake those pounds as quickly as I put them on," Ken said. Keltner wouldn't have given a silver dollar for his chances of sticking with the Indians when he went to camp. "But Sammy Hale had his tonsils yanked and the other guys didn't look so hot, so I went to work."

He quit school shortly after the grammar grade.

"I'm pretty smart"

"If I wasn't playing baseball I guess I'd be digging ditches," he said, quickly adding: "But I'm not dumb. I'm pretty smart."

He has no desire for further education. Says he doesn't need it in his business. He spent three years in a trade school learning cabinet-making.

He comes from Milwaukee's German colony but prefers spaghetti to sauerkraut... likes beer... smokes half a package of cigarettes a day and an occasional cigar... is unmarried, but has a "steady" and some high hopes... likes movies but dislikes the theatre... devours sport pages, but never reads the front page... isn't interested in national or foreign news... "to hell with that stuff," he says...

The chief difference he finds between the majors and minors is that it costs more to live in the top leagues. "You're a heel if you don't tip well and often. Everywhere you turn, it's money," he says.

He doesn't think the big league players are much smarter, except the pitchers. "In the minors you face a good pitcher only about once a week; up here you get one every day."

The Indians think they found a gem in Ken.

Memorial

It would adopt Memorial Day to pay tribute to all its fallen soldiers. Memorial Day was observed here Sunday in two radio programs and a ceremony at the city cemetery.

Several score people turned out at the cemetery to hear a brief memorial service led by Dr. C. E. Lancaster, First Baptist pastor, as an appropriately decorated spot in the new Masonic section. Throughout the day families of the dead came to the cemetery to place flowers and greenery on the graves.

Monday, with the exception of the closing of the banks, there was no further observance of the day.

One radio program and the cemetery ceremony were arranged by organizations of ex-service-men. The radio station featured two Civil War veterans, W. C. Brooks and Can-Fowell, in a "reunion" broadcast.

but never punched by an operator.

He said he remembered a little about Santa Barbara, that he spent some time in Los Angeles but has only a hazy recollection of that, and that he arrived in Tucson about two weeks ago by bus.

He said he did not know why he chose Tucson, but that he remembered everything that happened since his arrival and had been trying to get a job here. Last Wednesday he fell in the lobby of his hotel and was unconscious for a time, he said, and since then memory has slowly returned. He said he thinks he has a wife, he cannot remember his father, but believes his mother is dead. He may have been a school teacher, he said, but he also thinks he may have been a traveling salesman.

He said he had no recollection of having worked recently and he still has a little money, but he believed he was robbed of a watch, a North Carolina University ring and possibly a car which he thinks he had in the past.
