Slaton Tigers Drop 19-18 Heartbreaker To Floydada; Tangle With Unbeaten Spur Bulldogs Here Tonite

Twice Beaten Locals Draw Underdog Role; High-Scoring Game Predicted

Slaton's Tigers, victims of a heartbreaking 19-18 loss to an out-of-town Floydada eleven in their district 5-AA opener last week, bang against another unbeaten ball club at 8 o'clock tonight in Tiger Stadium when they take the field against Coach Sam Hawkes' powerful Spur Bulldogs.

It will be the first conference engagement for the invaders, with Floydada and Tahoka are being boomed as the District 5 powers. The Bulldogs have rambled to five non-conference wins and no defeats. They hold victories over Matador (13-12), Ralls (6-6), Haskell (20-13), Crosbyton (39-0), and Hamlin (20-19).

Tonight's tussle—expected to draw about 2,000 onlookers—will have an important bearing on district standings, and the Tigers will salvage this one to keep alive any hope of winning district. Area experts give the Bulldogs a 7 to 10-point edge.

Spur, loser of only one district game last year, has 10 capable players back from last year's squad, and is strong offensively. Most of the returning lettermen are backs, and Coach Hawkes' only major weakness is lack of experienced line.

His line is big, and probably will outweight the Tiger forward line by 8 to 10 pounds per man. Hawkes has few seasoned performers on his line.

The Bulldog backfield is another story. Hawkes has so many good backs he doesn't know which ones to start. His usual starting combination has Curtis Blair, 140-lb. senior, at quarterback; Don Bradburn, 155-lb. senior, and George Kater, 155-lb. junior, at halfbacks, and Charles Sonnemaker, 145-lb. junior, at fullback.

Kater is the boy who lost an eye in a rodeo accident several months ago.

Other good backs frequently inserted into the Bulldog lineup include James Kidd, Tommy Higginer and Boyce Rankin.

Big Tackle
Best "up front" men for the Bulldogs are Ralph Gibson, 130-lb. tackle, and Chester Lindsey, 175-lb. end who sometimes alternates guard.

The Bulldogs use a regular 1-formation mixed with a winged-T. In their five outings to date, they have been chiefly a running club. Blair can throw effectively, but the Bulldog aerial attack has suffered for lack of capable receivers.

Close observers of the District 5-AA race expect tonight's clash to be a high-scoring affair.

At Floydada last Friday, an overflowed audience saw the Tigers roll up more than twice as many yards as the Whirlwinds but drop a 19-18 decision when the breaks went the other way.

Fumbles, inopportune penalties, and a heartbreaking last-minute interception contributed to the defeat.

Winds Score First
The first important break which sent Floydada's way came about 10 minutes deep in the first period. With the Tigers owning the ball at midfield on a third-and-one situation, Tiger fullback Chester Kater bulldozed into the left side of the Spur line, but juggled the ball and Whirlwind tackle Stan Vickers snatched it away and lumbered to the Tiger 20 before he was tackled down by Jerry Reynolds.

Five plays later, Quarterback Jerry Harrison pushed over Don Barber's back on a keeper from 3 yards out to give the Whirlwinds a 4-0 margin.

The Tigers took the Whirlwind kickoff and banged back in nine plays to knot the count at 6-6 when Joe Sparkman cut outside right tackle and skittered 7 yards to score to climax a 70-yard sustained drive. Reynolds' attempted kick was blocked.

At tomorrow's get-together, campaign details will be outlined and each worker will be given his list of five names to contact for contributions.

No definite goal has been set for the Slaton drive. For the entire South Plains Council, however, the drive seeks to obtain $81,303.99 for the 1954 budget. The Council includes 35 communities of the South Plains and West Texas.

The Council conducts an independent campaign in all communities of its 20-county area except Lubbock, Plainview, Lamesa, Seminole and Matador, where the Council is a participating agency in their Community Chests.

Scouting officials have explained that it costs the Council approximately $12 a year to keep a boy in the Scouting program. Slaton has 159 boys in the Scouting program. The breakdown is as follows: Troop 28, sponsored by the First Christian Church, 35 members; Troop 29, sponsored by the First Methodist Church, 38 members; Troop 85, sponsored by the First Presbyterian Church, 19 members; Troop 300, sponsored by Evans School, 13 members; Cub Pack 29, sponsored by a group of citizens, 37 members; Cub Pack 128, sponsored by the Elementary P.T.A., 17 members.

A longtime Slaton resident, Mr. Lamb was a bridge carpenter for the Santa Fe Railway.

Survivors include his widow; three sons, Wayne and Calvin Lamb of Slaton, and James Lamb, with the U. S. Navy in Japan; and two daughters, Miss Jonell Lamb and Mrs. Dortha Faye Harris, both of Slaton.

Mr. Lamb's body was expected to arrive here by train from Topeka Thursday afternoon. Williams Funeral Home will be in charge of arrangements.

Funeral services have been tentatively set for 2 p.m. Friday at the First Methodist Church for J. R. "Jim" Lamb, 425 West Panhandle, who died late Tuesday at the Santa Fe Hospital in Topeka, Kansas, following an extended illness.

Touchdown Club membership for this year has reached 222. It was announced Monday night at the group's regular meeting by E. L. "Curly" Norris.

Norris, Touchdown Club secretary-treasurer, explained that the club is seeking a total of 300 members this year. Membership costs $1.

Speakers at Monday's meeting were Coaches Homer Tompkins and Willard Hedges, who reviewed Slaton's 19-18 loss to Floydada last Friday, and Coach M. W. Kerr, who reported on "What A Scout Looks For" and summarized junior high football here.

At the next meeting—set for 8 o'clock Monday night at the city hall auditorium—Coach Hedges will report on "How To Condition a Football Team," and Supt. of Schools Lee Vardy will report on athletic finances.

About 20 members attended Monday's meeting. Robert Huser presided.

PROMISE COMPLETION OF POST OFFICE BY DEC. 20

Construction of Slaton's new post office was expected to get underway sometime this week, it was announced Tuesday by Oran McWilliams.

McWilliams let contract Saturday to Norcross Construction Co. of Snyder to build the post office, which will be erected on property owned by McWilliams immediately south of Reed's Drive-In on the east side of the square.

The Norcross firm was low among 15 bidders, McWilliams said. The contract, for $16,780, calls for completion of the job within 60 days from beginning of construction.

"Mr. Norcross told me he believes the job can be completed not later than Dec. 20," McWilliams said.

The building will front west and will be 30 1/2 by 90 feet. It will have a modern brick glass front with the sides and back to be constructed of 12-inch concrete block.

Other features will include a cement floor with asphalt tile covering, air-conditioning, two ceiling heaters, three rows of fluorescent lights end-to-end throughout the building, two restrooms, janitor supply room, and burglar-proof doors and windows at the rear of the building.

The post office department will rent the building from McWilliams under a 10-year lease arrangement, and McWilliams has agreed to an additional 10-year option.

VETERAN ENGINEER RETIRES AFTER 48 YEARS' SERVICE

After almost half a century of service as a Panhandle and Santa Fe Railway engineer, Albert J. "Ab" Tucker retired from active railroading for keeps last week.

The date of his retirement—one which will undoubtedly be indelibly inscribed in the thoughts of the 72-year-old engineer—was Tuesday, Oct. 13.

A Slaton resident from 1914 to 1928 who now lives in Lubbock, Tucker had been a Santa Fe employee since 1905. Prior to his Santa Fe service, Tucker worked in Roswell as a boilermaker for the Pecos Valley and Northeastern Railway.

The veteran engineer remembers Slaton when there was little more here than a few boxcars near the depot site for construction crewmen to live in. That was in 1911, when the Santa Fe was building its line from Slaton to Sweetwater.

"I remember that I paid a dime a glass for water, and was mighty glad to get it," Tucker recalls.

Since 1914
At the time of his retirement, Tucker was the oldest engineer on the Slaton Division. He had worked in the Slaton Division since 1914, and has been in yard service at Lubbock since 1929, except for 18 months of similar service at Plainview.

Born March 27, 1881, at Corsicana, there's little that the jovial Tucker doesn't know about railroading. He has worked as a shop handyman, boilermaker, fireman, engineer, and what-have-you.

"There's more pleasure in railroading now that the diesel engines have come along," he believes. "And they're considerably more economical to operate." Tucker has been operating a diesel the past four years.

But the longtime engineer says a 5,000-class steam engine "has a diesel beat in the mountains."

One Of Nine
Tucker was originally one of nine children. Living now are only he and Mrs. Tom Harris, former Slaton resident who now lives near San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Tucker have four children. They are W. J. and Bob Tucker, both of Clovis, N. M.; Jimmy Tucker, Durant, Okla., and Mrs. C. A. Pierce, Slaton, Rt. 2.

Tucker recalls a couple of close calls he has had.

One was in 1913 at Amarillo during a raging Panhandle north-er. "The wind was blowing about 85 miles an hour, and it was snowing so hard you couldn't see a headlight 15 feet away," Tucker remembers.

"I was turning in to go home. I came down the turn-in track, and I knew I was about at the switch. See Retired Engineer—Page 5

Figures on Thursday morning's torrential downpour in one rain gauge—in the yard of Norman Spears, 515 W. Crosby—measured 3 3/4 inches.

The heaviest rain, most of which fell between 9 and 10 a.m. caused the roof to collapse over the rear portion of Jack's 5 & 10c Store, 117 W. Lubbock.

Funeral services for Joseph R. White, 56-year-old Slaton drive-in operator, were conducted at 3 p.m. Saturday in the Slaton Church of Christ, M. E. Blake, pastor, officiating.

White, who lived in Slaton for 25 years, died suddenly about 9 p.m. Thursday while on a fishing trip at Possum Kingdom State Park.

Survivors include his wife; two daughters, Mrs. William E. Lyons, Lubbock, and Mrs. Billy L. Brackeen, California; and two grandchildren.

Burial was in Englewood Cemetery under direction of Williams Funeral Home.

Palbearers were Billy Leake, James Brake, Jim Bates, T. A. Bownds, Joe Bradshaw and Ted Melugin.

Slate Halloween Funfest Thursday

Slaton's annual Halloween Carnival will be held Thursday night, Oct. 29, at West Ward School, it was announced this week.

Activities will get underway at 6:30 p.m. with a Mexican dinner to be served in the school cafeteria by the P.T.A. The dinner will cost $1.

Also available will be hot dogs, pie, cake, coffee and cold drinks.

Each room at West Ward will sponsor some sort of concession or amusement booth. The booths will open at 7 p.m., and all proceeds will go to the Elementary P.T.A.

Profits will be used to help redecorate the West Ward Auditorium.

The carnival last year attracted an estimated 1,500 people.

GAS USERS TO GET REFUNDS

Remember the $10 deposit you put up with the West-Texas Gas Company?

You're going to get it back this month, with interest.

That was the word Tuesday from John T. Sims, local manager for West Texas Gas.

Gas consumers in Slaton may expect to get their checks sometime before October's end, Sims said. The average check to be mailed to each customer will approximate $10.40, including interest.

Checks to rural customers will be mailed at the same time checks go to towns in their areas. Sims said checks to be mailed to gas users within Slaton's city limits will total $14,805.

According to an explanation by C. I. Wall, company president, the company has been paying six per cent interest on the deposits. It now can borrow money at lower interest rates than it is paying on the deposits.

Mailing of refund checks was started in August to the company's 85,000 customers all over the Panhandle-South Plains area. During this month, consumers will receive checks in Abernathy, Lubbock, Shallowater, Wolfforth, Idalou, Lorenzo, Ralis, Crosbyton, Slaton, Southland, Post, Wilson, and Tahoka.

Most of the deposits have been made in recent years during which the company and the towns it serves have undergone tremendous expansion and growth, but a large number of the deposits have been held by the company since 1927 when it first started service in this area.

Scott also showed the Rotarians a stream of electrons "bombarding" the face of a cathode ray tube with green light, and how these electrons are magnetically controlled to form the television picture.

The program also included a demonstration of how the audible part of a television program, as well as long distance telephone conversations, are amplified along the way.

The program was arranged by J. C. Oakley, local manager for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

Business visitors in Slaton last week end were Charles McCarey of Corpus Christi, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. James Allen of Dallas, and A. W. Bowen of Fort Worth.

Col. Bill Johnson visited Pearl Pinckert over the week end. Col. Johnson is Wing Commander of a TAC. RECON. Wing.

ROBERT WHITE FUNERAL HELD

Funeral services for Joseph R. White, 56-year-old Slaton drive-in operator, were conducted at 3 p.m. Saturday in the Slaton Church of Christ, M. E. Blake, pastor, officiating.

SHOWS ROTARY HOW TV WORKS

How network television is brought to Texas from all parts of the nation by co-axial cable and microwave facilities was demonstrated to members of the Slaton Rotary Club at their Oct. 22 luncheon meeting by Glenn E. Scott of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

Scott "piped" a television picture across the stage through co-axial cable to a television receiver screen, and sent an image through the air over a miniature microwave radio system.

He demonstrated the strange behavior of microwaves, which travel only in a straight line, "bounce" like a ball, and can be reflected from the palm of the hand. The audience was shown how these waves pierce a thick rubber mat, but cannot penetrate a single sheet of tinfoil.

Scott also showed the Rotarians a stream of electrons "bombarding" the face of a cathode ray tube with green light, and how these electrons are magnetically controlled to form the television picture.

The program also included a demonstration of how the audible part of a television program, as well as long distance telephone conversations, are amplified along the way.

Who'll Teach 'Em In 1960?

A projected estimate of the scholastic population for 1959-60 shows that Texas will have at least 1,950,000 children attending school by that time. That is an increase of more than 325,000 over the present scholastic population.

According to these estimates, by 1960 Texas will need 11,000 more teachers than we have now. Will the schools be able to hire that many additional teachers during the next seven years?

The answer to that question should shock the citizenship of Texas into action, for the truth is that the state might have even fewer teachers in 1960 than it has in 1953 unless the material rewards of the profession are increased.

More than 4000 teachers left the profession during the 1952-53 school year. At the same time, the state's population growth created the need for an additional 2000 teachers, raising to 6000 the total number of replacements needed.

Texas colleges graduated only 4000 students in 1953 who could be certified to teach. Approximately 30 per cent of those were lured away from the profession, primarily by the much higher salaries offered by industry. The schools were able to hire only about 2500 new college graduates.

What sort of beginning salary did the teaching profession offer these college-trained youngsters?

The beginning teacher with a bachelor's degree is assured $2403 a year. If the teacher is single, $332 of that goes for federal income tax. An additional 5 per cent, or $120, is deducted for teacher retirement, leaving $1951 in take-home pay.

The purchasing power of this take-home pay is slightly more than 50 cents on the dollar. That means the beginning teacher, going to work at the minimum salary, has less than $1000 in actual buying power in terms of the 1935-39 dollar.

The pay of the average Texas teacher shows why many are leaving the profession.

The average 1951-52 teacher's salary provided by the Minimum Foundation Program was $2860 based upon training and experience. The income tax reduced that amount by $438 and retirement deductions amounted to $143. That left a take-home pay of $2279 which has a purchasing power of $1150 in terms of the 1935-39 dollar.

Who will teach Texas children in 1960 if the teaching profession is able to attract only 2300 qualified college graduates each year and continues to lose 4000 experienced teachers annually?—Texas Schools.

It Was A War

The police action in Korea was a war. The Supreme Court of Texas says so. Congress didn't say so, and only Congress has the power to declare war. United Nations didn't say so, for U. N. is solemnly dedicated to ending wars. China didn't say so, for, according to China, volunteers over whom China has no control simply took up arms and demanded to be included in the forces of North Korea. North Korea doesn't say so, for, according to North Korea, she was invaded while retreating forward into South Korea territory.

But the Supreme Court of Texas says that it was war. There was shooting. There were armies. There were casualties by the hundreds of thousands. It was the fourth bloodiest encounter this country has ever had—and it wouldn't have to go on much longer to surpass the losses of the Civil War. That kind of police action is war, the court says.

Thus it comes about that an insurance company wins a lawsuit on a policy that included a war clause. Ordinarily, insurance companies have hard sledding in Texas courts. But when the company claimed that a war is a war, the court took the company's view. What the Supreme Court of the United States would say about that might make an interesting question. Did President Truman violate the Constitution when he waged war for U. N.—or did the U. N. Charter amend the Constitution of the United States? If so, how much?—Dallas Morning News.

Old Asia, New Face

Vice President Nixon is engaged in an exploratory mission to the Far East, where radical changes have occurred in ancient China during the four short years of the "people's republic."

The fourth anniversary of Red domination of China was observed only a few days ago in Peiping, where Mao Tse-tung reviewed 400,000 Chinese Red soldiers. That demonstration was an awesome reminder of the emergence of Communist China as a major military power.

A sardonic detail of the Red celebration in the Chinese capital was the release of hundreds of doves over the "Gate of Heavenly Peace." Yet under the sway of communism, one may expect such double-dealing as waving the olive branch at the end of a bayonet. The Peiping demonstration was a further occasion for voicing the Red hymn of hate against the non-Communist world. This radical change in the Chinese character is, perhaps, one of the most ominous signs of the Red "liberation."

The Nixon party will only skirt Communist China. The observers will stop at strategic Formosa, where the Nationalist force is gradually aging. They will visit Japan where the problem of rearming is being forced by the spread of communism on the continent of Asia.

The future of freedom in that part of the world will depend upon Japan's resurgence as a world power. Japan is threatened by both Russia and Red China. The same danger impends for Indochina, Malaya, India and Indonesia. The report of the Nixon mission may well have a bearing on the future of the Far East—the ancient Asia which revolution has moved from the ways of peace into a new barbarism equipped with modern arms and the philosophy of the jungle.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

Slaton's 19-18 loss to Floydada was one of the most heartbreaking ball games I have ever seen. The Tigers outlasted and outplayed the Whirlwinds in every department, and fully deserved a victory, but didn't get it because the breaks went the other way.

The Tiger line played an inspired, heads-up game that far outshone the performance of the much heavier Whirlwind line (despite Mr. Art Gatts' comments about the game), and Jerry "Flea" Reynolds was head and shoulders better than the Winds' highly-touted quarterback, Jerry Bob Harrison.

The undeserved loss may take all the whoop out of the Tigers, but one thing is certain, and that is that they have nothing to be ashamed of. They're a two-touch-down better club than the Whirlwinds, who are just now beginning to breathe normally again.

One observer put in about right when he commented, "Getting beat is one thing, but losing to an outfit that hasn't the team you have is mighty hard to take."

Old Man Psychology will play a big part in the remaining four district games the Tigers face. How they'll fare depends on whether 'he mad excess' the hurt over this Floydada thing. For my part, I'm 'etting on the mad. We'll know shortly after 8 o'clock tonight, when the Tigers take the field here against the unbeaten Spur Bulldogs.

It's quite possible that Texas Tech may meet more Southwest Conference foes in Jones Stadium in future years as a result of the fact that 26,114 people paid their way into the stadium to see the Red Raiders perform against Texas A&M before last.

Speculation concerning Tech's ability to "draw" at home undoubtedly has been one of the main stumbling blocks, too, in Tech's inability to gain entry into the Southwest Conference. The more than 26,000 paying customers who saw the Raider-Aggie clash look pretty good from a boxoffice standpoint when you consider that the same week end 10,000 saw Kansas State down Iowa State at Ames, 20,500 saw Pitt jar Nebraska at Pittsburgh, 15,000 saw Washington State jostle Oregon at Pullman, 13,000 saw Harvard fopple Colgate at Cambridge, and only 8,000 watched Stanford down Oregon State at Portland.

In case anyone hasn't heard, the deal has fallen by the boards to erect a modern motel on the site where the unused migratory labor camp is now situated. It boils down to the fact, so I'm told, that the Dallas firm which was promoting the project couldn't lay its hands on the cash to do the job. Folks who know more about such things than I do say the "squeeze on money" caused the project's failure, and that it probably would have materialized had it been proposed about three months earlier.

A shaky handful of grid predictions for this week end:
Slaton over Spur
Abernathy over Floydada
Mississippi over Arkansas
Baylor over Texas A&M
Rice over Texas
SMU over Kansas
TCU over Penn. State
Notre Dame over Ga. Tech

If any of you can pick all seven of these correctly, you shouldn't have much trouble getting Grantland Rice's job.

Ella Wheeler Wilcox once opened a poem with the following cosmic line, more or less typical of her style:

"My soul is a lighthouse keeper . . ."

But when the printer, apparently a bit of a critic, got through with it, it read, to the author's permanent chagrin:

"My soul is a light housekeeper . . ."

I think most people are a lot more self-conscious than their exterior appearance would have you believe. They place plenty of emphasis on the glint of a smile, the trace of a frown, a word or two. They can be deeply hurt or thoroughly pleased by what would seem a meaningless incident. But they would never have you know it. People seem to spend a lifetime building up an outer appearance capable of giving no clue to their inward feelings.

And probably the big braggarts, the "I can do anything better than you and here's the chip on my shoulder if you don't believe it" individuals are right at the top of the class of self-conscious people.

There is hardly a more admirable goal than striving for a better understanding of the other person. But today's razzle-dazzle business world of "I'm for me and you're for you, and if you don't make the grade, it's rough" doesn't allow much time for attention to a goal like that.

Or does it?

Random note from one of the dozens of U. S. Department of Agriculture publications which are sent to us: "Last week USDA donated 50 million pounds of cheddar cheese to welfare organizations, most of it for disposal abroad."

I've heard folks say that color television is not going to be expensive. But that's not the case, according to a note in the current Pacific Finance Automotive Digest:

Screen size of color TV receivers will be relatively small at first . . . will range from 14 to 17 inches. Color tubes are expected to cost about $200 compared with only $26 for black and white tubes. First color television receivers will take about twice as many electron tubes as today's black and white sets . . . cost of initial color receivers will range close to $1000. Thus it seems that volume market for color TV may be two or three years away . . . will be delayed until it is possible to reduce costs substantially, attain higher degree of perfection.

The magazine also says that you can expect only Cadillac, Olds mobile and Buick to make major body changes for 1954 models.

If the Texas Aggies should upset Baylor this Saturday, you can look for Phil Brewer next week about 10 feet up off the ground somewhere.

Medicine Men

Man is a contrary animal. He is positive that he knows more about what ails him than his doctor, but he will part with a hard-earned dollar any time he hears the spiel of the medicine man.

This quirk of human nature has made many a fortune. A few of the current "medicine man" bonanzas are insecticides, liquid fertilizers, and mail-order plant bargains.

Texas has many reputable manufacturers and dealers of these products. Because they are reputable, they make only claims which their own research has confirmed.

These manufacturers and dealers are careful to register their products under the state law and to comply with the letter of the law.

WHEREAS, the County of Lubbock is now the owner of houses and improvements located on right-of-way acquired by the County of Lubbock for the purpose of widening U. S. Highway 62 from Idalou, Texas, east to the Lubbock County line; and,

WHEREAS, the County of Lubbock desires and herewith offers for sale under the following terms and conditions the hereinafter described houses and improvements; and,

WHEREAS, the County Commissioners' Court of Lubbock County, Texas, herewith and by this order designates and appoints Ottis Isom, Special Commissioner with full power and authority to sign a bill of sale or release of the hereinafter described houses and improvements to the highest bidder at public sale; and,

WHEREAS, it is the desire of the Commissioners' Court of Lubbock County, Texas, to have as wide notice and publicity about the coming sale of the houses and improvements;

IT IS ORDERED BY THE COURT that this complete notice be published once a week for three consecutive weeks, the first notice to be published during the third week of October, the second notice to be published during the fourth week of October and the third and last notice to be published during the fifth and last week in October; and,

WHEREAS, it is the order of the Commissioners' Court of Lubbock County, Texas, that this notice in its entirety be published in the Lubbock Avalanche Journal of Lubbock, Texas, the Idalou Beacon of Idalou, Texas, the Lorenzo Tribune of Lorenzo, Texas, and the Slaton Slatonite of Slaton, Texas, at the above described dates;

IT IS HEREWITH ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Commissioners' Court of Lubbock County, Texas, all members being present, and by unanimous vote, that on the 7th day of November, 1953, being Saturday at 10:00 A.M., the following described houses and improvements shall and will be offered for sale at public sale by Ottis Isom, Special Commissioner hereinabove appointed and herein confirmed:

House No. 1, the W. F. Houser house and all improvements located on the W. F. Houser Tract one-fourth mile east of Idalou, Texas, on the south side of U. S. Highway 62, being a five room brick veneer house complete with bath facilities and carpeted floors and all outbuildings, garage, barns fences located thereon excluding therefrom the water pump which supplies the house and which is not owned by the County of Lubbock and is not included in this notice.

House No. 2, located on the Monroe DeBusk Tract being 2-1/4 miles east of Idalou, Texas, on the south side of U. S. Highway 62, and being a three room frame house without plumbing and bath facilities.

House No. 3, located on the Well-ton Gordon Tract, 3-1/4 miles east of Idalou, Texas, on the South side of U. S. Highway 62, and being a six room, bath and a half stucco house with Austin Stone trim, double garage and a porch, carpeted, central heating with approximately 1500 square feet in the living space.

PLACE OF SALE OF THE HOUSES: The houses and improvements shall be sold on the ground as they are now located. The sale will begin at 10:00 A.M. on the 7th day of November, 1953, at House No. 1, as hereinabove described. After the house and improvements have been sold, the sale will move to House No. 2, as hereinabove described. After House No. 2 has been sold, the sale will move to House No. 3, as hereinabove described.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED

They welcome tests of their products by the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Yet, many a home gardener and farmer ignores the facts. They fail to take the advice of those state men whose salaries are paid by taxes just for the purpose of knowing such things. Instead, the consumer harkens to the siren song of the medicine men who make claims like this:

"My fertilizer contains valuable radioactive materials which have magical properties..."

If that were true, all fertilizers would have these "valuable radioactive materials"—and they would cost about $1,000 a ton. This is just a modern version of the "Old Indian Remedy" routine.

Or the medicine man declares, "This wonderful new insecticide will rid your crop of all harmful pests with just one application."

That depends upon what insects the huckster is talking about. No present insecticide I know of is that the above described houses and improvements be sold for cash only at the above described time and place to the highest bidder on each improvement. The County of Lubbock herein reserves the right to refuse to accept any and all bids which are not being satisfactory and to the best interest of the County.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED by the Commissioners' Court that as a condition of any sale and purchase of the above described improvements, the highest purchaser at public sale shall understand, promise and agree that he will remove the purchased improvement from the right-of-way tract within and not later than thirty days from the date of sale, the same being the 7th day of December, 1953, and that if the improvements as purchased are not removed from the property where situated by the 7th day of December, 1953, the said sale to said purchaser shall be deemed null and void for all intents and purposes and the County of Lubbock shall have the right, power and authority as legal owner of the property to remove the improvements as the Commissioners' Court shall deem to the best interest of the County.

Read and passed on this the 12th day of October, A. D. 1953, Lubbock County Commissioners Short, Green, Isom and Stokes voting "Aye," None voting "No."

REYNOLDS ROMPS — Tiger quarterback Jerry Reynolds romped wide around his own right end for an 11-yard pickup and a first down at the Tiger 48 on this play early in the fourth period of the Slaton-Floydada game Friday night. Helping clear the way is David Collins (No. 55). Tiger right guard, The Tigers scored their third and final touchdown three plays later. Identifiable Whirlwind pursuers are Gordon Joiner (No. 40), Jimmie Dunn (No. 82), and Don Barber (No. 42). The Whirlwinds won, 19-18. Slatonite Staff Photo

SLATON TIGERS—
pass to Ronald Smith for the PAT was battled away.
The Floydadans got another king-sized break early in the second quarter when Jerry Reynolds, attempting to skirt end, fumbled and Jackie Jarrett recovered for the Winds at the Tiger 20. Five plays later Floydada sent Harrison piling thru the middle on a keeper play good for two yards and a score. Barber's placement attempt—which was later to prove the winning margin—split the uprights and the Winds led 13-6.

Tigers Claw Back
Midway in the second canto, the Bengals swapped fumble recoveries with the Winds and finally took possession on the Floydada 46 when Harold Trout covered a Harrison fumble. With Reynolds and Ronald Smith skirting the ends, the Tigers moved to the Floydada 2 in five plays, and Reynolds flipped a perfect pass to Harold Trout for the score. Reynolds was hit down short of the double stripe on the PAT try.
The Winds narrowly missed scoring again just before halftime when Harrison careened from his own 30 to the Tiger 8 with the kickoff before he was hauled down from behind on a shoestring tackle by Joe Sparkman, and the half ran out with the Winds owning a narrow 13-12 lead.
Penalties and a high wind which played havoc with Bobby Tefer-tiller's kicking hurt the Tigers in the third period, and late in the quarter Halfback Cloyd Stephens took a pitchout from Harrison and ran wide around end to score from 28 yards out, shaking off several Bengal defenders on his way to paydirt.

Reynolds Romps
The Bengals narrowed the margin to 19-18 early in the fourth period, climaxing an eight-play, 80-yard sustained drive when Reynolds cut wide around right end, miraculously eluded four defenders, and scored standing up. Fondy dropped Reynold's pass on the PAT try, and approximately five minutes remained.
The Tigers held, and took possession at midfield after Harrison's short kick. They moved to the Floydada 21, and on a fourth down and one situation, sent Sparkman over right tackle for the necessary first down yardage, but the play was nullified when the Bengals drew an offside penalty. That infraction, many observers believe, cost the Tigers the ball game, because on the next play—fourth down and 6 to go at the Floydada 26—Reynold's pass was too wide for Darrell Wiley at the Floydada 8.
The Tigers again held and took possession at their own 44 with two minutes remaining.

Do-Or-Die Effort
Passes to Sparkman, Smith and Fondy moved the ball quickly to the Floydada 34, but a last minute do-or-die heave by Reynolds—which was "right on the money" to Darrell Wiley at the Floydada 20—went for naught when J. E. Waller, second string Whirlwind halfback, came up fast to move in front of Wiley and intercept the pass that might have meant a Tiger victory. The game ended one play later.
Reynolds and Ronald Smith turned in outstanding performances offensively, and Harold Trout, James George, Darrell Wiley and Chester Fondy bulwarked the Tiger defense. Trout, especially, turned in a brilliant performance—time and again bottling up thru-the-middle thrusts by Harrison and Jarrett.
Jarrett and Stephens sparked the Whirlwind attack, and Gordon Joiner, Glad Norman and Don Barber spearheaded the Floydada defense.

Something really Special - in power, room, ride, price

WE picture here a car that keeps our order book pages turning quicker than quick.

It is the 1953 Buick SPECIAL 4-Door Sedan—the bargain value that doesn't stay long on our showroom floor.

For this is the best-selling Buick in the land—snapped up by eager buyers who know something really special when they see it.

For your information, we present some SPECIAL facts.

It has a Fireball 8 Engine with the highest power and compression ratio ever placed in a Buick SPECIAL—plus, if you wish, the instant getaway response and utter smoothness of Twin-Turbine Dynaflo.*

It has easy-sitting-room for six adults—as much room as you'll find in cars costing hundreds of dollars more.

It has a ride unique among automobiles. The Buick Million Dollar Ride. The soft and steady and ever-level ride that comes of coil springs on all four wheels—a full-length torque-tube drive—a massive X-braced frame—a solid and substantial roadweight poised with meticulous balance on broadly spaced wheels.

But what makes the Buick SPECIAL so extra special is the low delivered price it carries.

It is a price just an easy step above the so-called "low-price three"—and a price that gives you more room and power and ride-comfort for your money than you get in any other car, except another Buick.

Wouldn't you like to see, sit in and drive one of these great-powered Buicks—look into its beauty, its luxury, its handling ease—and judge for yourself how small a price tag it wears?

Phone us this week, or drop in. We'll be happy to arrange a demonstration.

"Crowder got out on the bottom step of the engine to have a look around, and just about the time he got down there, a fellow named Paul O'Brien was heading out an engine from the upper run-around and was up to probably 18 miles an hour when he hit us.

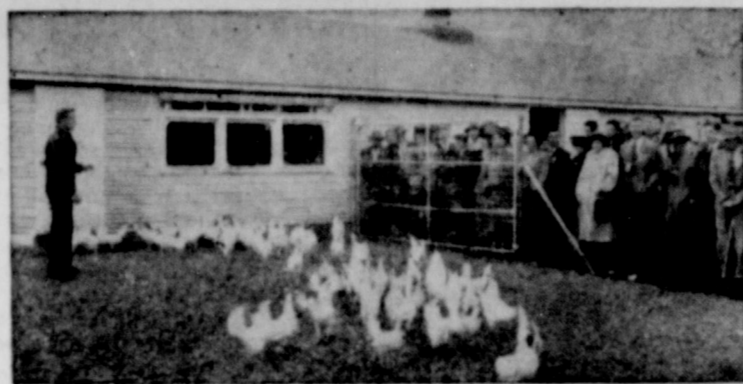

"In those days all engine cabs were wood instead of steel, and he hit our water tank and knocked it on top of the boilerhead, busting off the steam pipes at the fountain.

"The meal tank fell on top of me, and I was in the hospital for about seven weeks for treatment of deep scalds and for lung treatment. If I hadn't been able to hold that tank up with my hands to keep it from falling completely on me, I might not be around now to retire," he laughingly comments.

remembers a narrow escape in 1904 at Canyon.

"We were stopped downgrade at Canyon, and the engineer and conductor had gone to the depot for orders. I was working as a fireman then, and was under the engine hauling out the ashpans. Well sir, the engineer had not set the brakes, and about the time I got under the engine, the train started moving. I saw it moving and hollered just as loud as I could, and it was just a darn lucky thing that the engineer was on his way back and heard me. He jumped aboard and set the brakes in time for me to get out safely."

Tucker grinningly recalls that he gave the fellow "a pretty fair country talking-to."

Another memorable incident was in 1916. Tucker was pulling the train up the hill in the yards at Slaton, when two of the four draft rods in the old-style coupling between engine and water tank came loose and caused the engine to separate from the tank.

"It caused my fireman, Bill Tolar, to fall, and I knew that if the air hose broke it would probably kill him," Tucker remembers. By the hair and the collar, I pulled him up over the end of the tank, and swung him partially out of the way. I had enough foresight then to shut off the engine, apply the brake, pull the throttle out, and pull the quick release to keep any air from going to the brake cylinder on the engine. Luckily, the air hose did not break, which was a real miracle. That fellow Tolar was just hanging by one arm, and if the air hose had broken, he would have been cut in two."

The incident caused Tolar to resign from railroading and enter the ministry. "I believe he's preaching in Amarillo now," Tucker says.

What will Tucker do now that he has more time of his own? "Well, I've got plenty of things lined up to keep me busy," he says. "I had hoped to take a trip to England, but my wife, May, is not in good health now, so we're not going. But I'll be plenty busy."

We wouldn't be surprised if Ab spends parts of that spare time around the railroad yards.

Slaton Men Join Protest Against Unethical Practitioners Of Law

Attorneys from this area served notice Thursday, Oct. 15, during a meeting at Lubbock that they plan to protect the public from illegal practitioners of law.

Present from Slaton were Nat D. Heaton and Claude Cravens. Ninety-nine West Texas attorneys attended the day-long Public Protection Institute at the Caprock Hotel. They discussed means of stamping out unauthorized practice of law in this area.

Seven widely-known speakers talked under the auspices of the State Bar of Texas. They outlined how the lawyers present can aid in the State Bar's current campaign against illegal practitioners.

R. A. Kilpatrick of Cleburne, a keynote speaker, said: "The public is the big loser when documents—deeds, leases, contracts and wills—are improperly drawn by persons with little concept of proper legal procedure. These improper documents often lead to extensive and unnecessary legal action in an attempt to clear them."

Kilpatrick said much unauthorized practice was done through real estate brokers, banks, notaries public, insurance firms and abstractors, "even though Texas statutes prohibit them from practicing law unless they are members of the Bar."

To halt such illegal practice, the State Bar plans to seek injunctions, added Kilpatrick, who is chairman of the State Bar's Committee on Unauthorized Practice of Law.

Other speakers included: Everett L. Looney, Austin, president, State Bar of Texas; Adrian A. Spears, San Antonio; Melvin F. Adler, Fort Worth; Associate Justice Clyde E. Smith, Supreme Court of Texas; Vernon B. Hill, Mission, and W. J. Rochelle, Jr., Dallas.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Martin and children, Linda and Judy, over the week end were Mrs. Martin's mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson of Littlefield.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Fox were in Arkansas City, Kan., over the week end in connection with his parents' fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Mrs. J. W. Simpkins of Rule, Texas, is spending a week with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Allred.

Mrs. Lee Green left Saturday morning for San Angelo where she attended the golden anniversary celebration of one of her sisters. She returned home about the middle of the week.

Mrs. Willie Etheridge of Shawnee, Okla., is spending two weeks in the home of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Stafford.

Honor To Dead, Service To Living Victims Of War Found In Poppy

Advance preparations are underway for a Poppy Day to be held in Slaton Nov. 7 under sponsorship of the American Legion Auxiliary. Co-chairmen in charge of poppy sale arrangements are Mrs. Pearl Pinkert and Mrs. Alvin White. They give the following explanation of the significance attached to the poppy and its yearly sale on the streets of Slaton.

"The idea of the poppy as a memorial flower for the World War dead sprang up as naturally as the little wild flower itself grows in the fields and France and Flanders. The flower was the one touch of beauty which survived amid the hideous destruction of war. Along the edge of the trenches, beneath the tangled barbed wire, about the ragged shell holes and over the fresh graves it raised its brave red blossom. It seemed to be the one immortal thing in that region where death reigned. The soldiers of all nations came to look upon it as the living symbol of the sacrifices of their dead comrades.

"It was a poet who first gave expression to the idea. Soon himself to lie beneath the poppies, he wrote: 'In Flanders' fields the poppies blow, between the crosses, row on row.'"

"Even before the men had returned from the war, the perfect little poem of Colonel John McCrae had winged its way around the world carrying the picture of the poppies. Returning soldiers brought the vision of the poppy fields back with them, engraved indelibly in their hearts with the memories of the comrades they had left on the battle-front. Spontaneously the poppy took on a sacred significance. It became the flower of remembrance for the men who had poured out their life's blood around the roots of the little plant.

"Memories of the war dead always bring thoughts of those who did not die but came back doomed to years of hardship and suffering, sometimes worse than death. In the poppy was found a way to link the honoring of the dead with service for the living victims of war. Soon after the war patriotic organizations in different countries began to conduct sales of poppies made by disabled veterans, to raise funds for relief work among suffering ex-service men and their families. A double significance became attached to the poppy. Wearing the little flower came to mean honoring the dead and helping the living."

At its National Convention in Cleveland, Sept. 27-29, 1920, the American Legion adopted a resolution making the poppy its memorial flower. When the American Legion Auxiliary held its first National Convention, in Kansas City, Mo., in October, 1921, one of the first actions was to adopt the poppy as the Auxiliary's memorial flower.

The crepe paper poppy was selected as the official poppy of The American Legion and the maximum of work for the disabled men, with the minimum expenditure for materials.

By 1924 it was seen that the poppy program lent itself more naturally to the work of women than of men, and the Legion gave the Auxiliary complete charge of the national program. This was a heavy responsibility. Wearing the flower was the nation's annual tribute to the war dead. From the distribution of the flower came a large proportion of the welfare and relief funds of both organizations. Seldom has such gigantic enterprise been placed solely in the hands of women.

How well the auxiliary measured up to the responsibility placed on its shoulders is shown by the development of the poppy program. Each year approximately twenty-five million Americans wear the Legion and Auxiliary poppies in tribute to the war dead, contributing nearly two million dollars for the welfare of the war's living victims.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Tate returned home Monday from a four day visit with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ferguson of Rowell, N. M.

"I LIKE Everything ABOUT MY 'ELECTRIC RANGE'" says MRS. C. A. GORDON OF 1923 HARRISON, AMARILLO, TEXAS

"It's so nice to be able to put a meal in the oven, go out and then return to find it all cooked and ready to eat," Mrs. Gordon says. "Another thing that always amuses my guests—I use the warmer drawer of my electric range to hold the plates and the home freezer top to hold the food. This gives me a regular serving center for buffet meals. At first some of my friends just couldn't believe that a kitchen could be clean enough to serve buffet luncheons. But when I explained about my clean-cooking electric range, they saw the point."

"There's just nothing to it, it's so easy, this modern electric cooking. And it's easy because it's so clean. Just look at this pan, there's no blackening of the bottom," Mrs. Gordon says. To tell folks about the cleanliness of electric cooking.

For roasting or broiling or cake baking, you can't beat an electric range. Like Mrs. Gordon says, "Everything I bake, roast or broil always turns out so good." Your roasts, cakes or broiled steaks would turn out the same way if you were cooking electrically.

Mrs. Gordon uses her wall cooker often. One thing she emphasizes, "My vegetables never have that wilted look when I cook them in the wall cooker." Because so little water (just half a cup) is needed when cooking vegetables the electric way, you're sure of holding vitamins, too.

Cake baking is one of Mrs. Gordon's pastimes. She likes to bake cakes. Since cakes should have long, Mrs. Gordon particularly likes the fact that her electric range requires no double boiler for 7 minute icing. The constant, controlled oven heat makes the difference.

There's no question about an electric range being modern. It has everything Mr. Gordon suggests. Plenty of storage space, too. Notice the large pans which Mrs. Gordon stores in the top drawer. And, there's more storage in the bottom drawer, as well.

"Bigger pies, not smaller slices"

We ran across a new word the other day... "demographer." That's a research man who studies statistics on births, deaths, populations.

Well, it seems the United States will have 20 million more people aboard by 1960, or thereabouts. Logical enough. We gained 20 million people in the forties.

Bigger pies are the order of the day. In the electrical industry, for instance, men with sharp pencils have figured that demand for electric power will have doubled during the decade ending in 1960. More power equipment is therefore needed. More electrical machinery for industry.

And better pies. Americans insist on better products, year by year. Somebody has to pioneer things. Looking ahead for five, ten, fifteen years—creating new and better products and improving old ones—that is the business of General Electric. For seventy-five years progress has been our most important product.

The babies who come into the world today won't want smaller slices of the world's goods and opportunities. Or even the same slice. They'll want more. Wait and see. Nothing less is worth planning for by the people who must organize for the future. It's no job for pessimists.

You can put your confidence in—

MANY OPPORTUNITIES OFFERED IN CIVIL SERVICE SAYS WORLD TRAVELED TEACHER

This picture of Mrs. Bertha O'Keefe was made recently in Germany during her tour of duty there as a civil service teacher with the Eighth Army Command.

She has seen the world and she didn't join the Navy to do it. Mrs. Bertha O'Keefe has traveled in every European country where travel with a visa is permitted with the exception of Finland and Portugal, has had two peeps behind the iron curtain, has traveled extensively in Japan and the islands.

When Mrs. O'Keefe returned to the U. S. this summer she brought her car with her and drove from New York to Texas with only her car radio for company. She had a difficult time getting used to the commercial interruptions during programs. She was used to listening to A.F.N. (Armed Forces Network) in Europe. There are no commercials on A. F. N. Mrs. O'Keefe is teaching third grade at West Ward school this year.

Her world travels began in July, 1947, when she sailed from San Francisco to begin her work as a civil service teacher. Since then she has made six trips across the ocean. On her first trip she spent five days in the Hawaiian Islands, making tours of the islands. Her first tour overseas was in the Far East Command. She spent her first year on the Island of Guam, where she taught English and elementary arithmetic to 80 girls between the ages of 17 and 21. Guam was under Naval Government and the Navy recruited girls from 14 island groups that belong to the Japanese but are under our trusteeship, to study nursing so they could go back to their own islands to work in dispensaries and improve sanitation and health. They came from Yap, Truk, the Mariannas, etc.

There were four or five girls from each island. Those from one island couldn't understand the dialect spoken on another. Japanese was the only language common to them and Mrs. O'Keefe couldn't understand a word of Japanese. The class was a challenge, but the girls were so interested in their jobs and worked so hard that she enjoyed it. Because they worked and studied in Guam Memorial Hospital, Mrs. O'Keefe learned much about medicine and hospital procedure in keeping up with their classes. She has letters written by her graduates and they have wonderful vocabularies.

After Guam she got to spend three days in the Philippines, then sailed Aug. 1, 1948 for Japan. She toured some islands on the way, but didn't get off the ship at Okinawa because they were getting ready for a typhoon "as usual."

She arrived at Yokohama about Aug. 14 and with three other early arrivals went sight-seeing in Japan before the other teachers came and they were sent to their stations. It was the first year we had Civil Service teachers in American schools in Japan. Mrs. O'Keefe was assigned to the Eighth Army and had a pick of stations. She chose Nara, Japan, the first capitol and ancient cultural center, located in central Honshu, with easy travel in all directions. She enjoyed good traveling on electric trains that ran on time, stopping at the luxurious rest hotels that the army had taken over in Japan. She taught third, fourth and fifth grades and had 14 students.

There were four American teachers in the school and they had four other American girls who lived in a large Japanese house in the Japanese fashion. The eight girls had five Japanese maids who were wonderful to them.

Because she got in on the ground floor, Mrs. O'Keefe was one of five eligible to transfer to Europe after having served two years in that command. She spent two weeks in Texas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lieske, of Southland, and then sailed to Bremerhaven, Germany.

She spent a week at Bad Nauheim just out of Frankfurt, a resort where F.D.R. went several times for the baths. One of her tours was a yacht trip down the Rhine river on Hitler's yacht, presented to him by the City of Cologne. There were castles on every bend of the Rhine and she took many pictures.

Her first assignment was Straubing in Bavaria on the Danube, beautiful country but not far from the border of Czechoslovakia, which had just become communist. They had to be careful in traveling. Not to go too far because the boundaries were not well defined. She taught first and second grades in a two teacher school and had about 30 children of commissioned and non-commissioned American officers. It was the second year for civil service teachers there and the program was well established. Each American teacher had a German assistant and school secretaries, PX, snack bar, beauty shop and filling station employees were German. There were thousands of refugees who had lost their jobs and there weren't enough jobs in the German economy to go around so the Americans provided as many as possible, their salaries being charged to occupation costs.

Living quarters were provided by the army, as well as maids until last July when the peace treaty was signed; then they hired their own maids. Mrs. O'Keefe lived in a hotel, paying $8. per month for room and maid service. Army gasoline was tax free so she bought a new Chevrolet in 1949 through the European exchange and did a lot of driving. She didn't come home that summer, but stayed over to travel and was head of the American Youth program.

She transferred to Heidelberg, a beautiful city which was not destroyed during the war as most of the larger cities were. She stayed three years there, the choice spot of Headquarters Area Command, teaching first grade two years and fifth grade one year, with an average teacher load.

Most teachers on civil service go overseas because they are interested in traveling, and they make the most of their school holidays. They go on 12 month contracts and can work or travel during their time off.

During both long and short vacations, Mrs. O'Keefe traveled whenever possible. She toured Bavaria, Austria, other Scandinavian countries, Norway and Sweden. She flew to England, Ireland and Scotland. She was in Holland twice during tulip time and has been to Pelguim, Luxembourg. She drove through France in her car and has been to Paris several times and to the Riviera. She went to Spain, to Italy twice and to the Island of Sicily. She visited Switzerland several times and spent many week ends skiing in Bavaria and Austria. She toured under guard on military trains to Russian Berlin and Vienna. She has been to North Africa, Algiers and Tangiers, to Egypt, the Holy Land and Palestine. She landed on Malta, Cyprus, and other islands while traveling by plane. She took an eleven day cruise on the Mediterranean.

After traveling by plane, train, ship and car over most of the world, Mrs. O'Keefe observed that women born in the United States are very lucky. She says women of other countries work harder, often in the fields, and with old-fashioned tools and methods. They don't have the privileges and conveniences that we have. And the women she saw in Paris were not as chic and fashionable as one might expect from reading the fashion blurbs.

Mrs. O'Keefe enjoyed her years spent overseas and made many friends among the natives of the different countries. Even on her tours she met the people, went to homes, ate at the restaurants where the natives ate, checked the entertainment they enjoyed, went into the small villages and out in the country, instead of seeing just the tourist attractions.

She found Switzerland beautiful, but catering very much to tourist trade; Austria had the same scenery, very friendly people and much cheaper traveling. The Scandinavian peoples were wonderful, but most fascinating were the cultures so different from ours, Africa and Egypt.

In Europe the guild system still prevails and the local women were amazed that a woman who teaches school would also sew for herself.

In Europe borders are close and you change money and language every few minutes it seems. Most of the people speak English and French as well as their native tongue. Two foreign languages are required in German schools; one must be studied seven years and one five years. They have more use for languages than we do because of their close boundaries and their tourist trade. Mrs. O'Keefe studied German while in Europe and Japanese while she was with the Far East Command. She thought she had mastered the Japanese language, and then she was told that she knew only the formal address and different forms were required in addressing members of different classes, with shadings and voice tone important in that very polite society. She finally settled for sign language.

One of her German friends worked for a weekly magazine, and the German girl's greatest desire was to come to the States. She liked everything about Americans. They used to go together to the Weinstube, the Red Ox was their favorite, because German girls could not go alone or with another German girl. It was all right to go with an American friend because the Germans recognized the greater independence of American women and accepted their driving alone and going alone to places forbidden to their own women. In fact the German women in the towns where there are a lot of Americans are becoming a little more independent. The Weinstube are

Slaton Sailor Wins Prize In Football Guessing Contest

Slaton's first winner in the RCA "Pick-the-Victor" contest is Eugene German, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. German, 100 So. 5th.

The 20-year-old sailor, who was home recently to attend the wedding of his sister, correctly picked all 10 grid winners on a Pick-the-Victor card for games of Oct. 10, and won ninth place in the contest, which includes all of Oklahoma, the Panhandle and South Plains of Texas, and a small part of New Mexico.

His prize is a 45 rpm. RCA Victor record changer. It was presented to the boy's father, M. L. German, because Eugene has returned to Long Beach, Calif., where his ship, the U. S. S. Telfair, is in dry dock.

The presentation was made by Freddie Schmidt of Slaton Hardware, local sponsor of the Pick-the-Victor contest.

There are 17 winners in the contest each week.

Mrs. O'Keefe ended her career as a civil service teacher overseas when a favorite nephew lost both his parents in an accident. She returned to her family to help care for the boy. She has a wonderful collection of pictures taken during her travels, and has shown her slides for several organizations here.

AYERS SUPREME EGG MASH
Featured At Slaton Farm Store
EXCEPTIONAL RESULTS AT NO EXTRA COST
FEEDING FOR MORE EGGS
The average sized hen consumes about 64 pounds of feed per year just to maintain her body and about 9/100 of a pound of feed to produce one egg. Thus hens laying 250 eggs per year will consume an average total of 96.5 pounds of feed (mash and scratch), or 4.15 pounds of feed for each dozen eggs. Now compare these figures with the consumption of a hen that lays only 100 eggs per year. She will consume a total of 73 pounds of feed, but this amounts to 8.8 pounds of feed per dozen eggs— or 4.65 pounds more than required by 250-egg hens. This clearly shows the profit-value of high producing hens that are fed properly. USE AYERS SUPREME 20% PROTEIN EGG MASH.

Developing a good pasture from "worn-out" cropland is a rebuilding process. Trying to establish a good permanent pasture on soil low in minerals and organic matter is like attempting to put up a strong building without the proper foundation.

Farmers received about $17.7 billion from marketings the first eight months of 1953—6 per cent less than a year ago. Average prices were down about 10 per cent with total volume of marketings slightly higher.

AT SELF'S SERVICE STATION

One of our customers asked this column to explain why men wear big watches and women wear little ones. We dunno, unless it's because men like to have big times.

He said the old timer used to go in for art a lot, but that was in the days when a man got an actresses' picture with each pack of cigarettes.

He doesn't want this column to suspend publication, is opposed to legalized killing of idiots.

He asks this column to deny the rumor that banks will pull down the shades at three o'clock so the employees can change their clothes.

He said we may not know too much about writing columns but that we do give him the kind of service he likes for his automobile . . . fix his tires, wipe his wind-shield, put water in his battery and pleasant smiles and fast service.

Lily Forson of Slaton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bingham of Loop, Texas, and George Baugh, Slaton, were married Sunday, October 18, at 2 p.m. in the home of the bride's sister, Bland Tomlinson. The Rev. Mayhew, pastor of the First Methodist Church, officiated at the single ring ceremony. The bride wore an original dress of black lace over sky blue tulle with black accessories and a spray of pink asters. Miss Irene Tomlinson played the national wedding music. The ceremony was decorated with fall flowers and pyranantha. The reception was held immediately following the ceremony. The ceremony was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with white frosting and bride and groom figurines decorated with pink rosebuds. The punch and served by Miss Georgie Ann Liles and Mrs. Kelly. Mrs. Leo Henzler assisted with hospitalities. Approximately fifty guests attended. After a wedding trip to Ruidoso, El Paso and Juarez, the couple will be at home in Slaton, where Mr. Baugh is employed at Palace Barber Shop. They also traveled through the James Mountain Range and the Sangre de Cristo Mts. near Espanola and visited the art galleries in Santa Fe. Vacationing in this part of the country during October is ideal according to Mrs. Anderson who describes the Rio Grande as a blaze of golden red, the mountains purple and snow-tipped, and the quaking aspens yellow. They also viewed the Indians sitting in front of their bright colored adobe houses stringing red, blue, and yellow Indian corn as peppers were strung.

TIGERS TALLY—Joe Sparkman (with ball), scored Slaton's first touchdown against Floyd's Friday night when he took a handoff from Jerry Reynolds, cut away to the right, then sliced back through his own right tackle slot and bulled his way 7 yards for a score. Picture shows that Sparkman pretty much had to "got it alone" once cleared past the primary line of defense. Joe's scoring scamper evened the game at 6-6. (Slatonite Staff Photo by Richard Perry)

A COMPLETE AUTO SERVICE FOR WILSON

You'll get more than you expect

In feature after feature, Ford matches the finest . . .

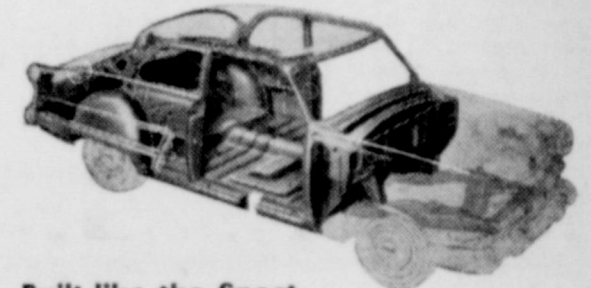

with fine car ride . . . fine-car build . . . and fine-car V-8 GO!

Check these fine car features that are yours when you buy a Ford, the one fine car in the low-price field. You get glass area galore . . . the most in Ford's field. You get more usable inside space than in any other low-priced car. Seats are foam-rubber-cushioned both front and rear. You get such Ford advances as convenient Center-Fill Fueling and suspended clutch and brake pedals. But here are the big reasons why Ford is worth more when you buy it and when you sell it, too!

Up to 80% less road shock

Ford has reduced front end road shock (the kind you notice most) up to 80%. And by a perfect teaming-up of rear springs, diagonally-mounted rear shock absorbers and tailored-to-weight front springs, Ford has proved that a car can ride smooth as silk without gas-eating extra weight.

Built like the finest

Ford's hull-tight body is sealed against water, dust and draft. Body panels are made of steel of the same quality and thickness as that used in the costliest cars. Ford's rugged box-section frame has five strong cross members including a special K-bar member which adds extra twist resistance . . . gives longer car life.

V-8 or Six power

Only Ford in its field offers you a fine-car high-compression V-8 engine . . . the result of Ford's experience building more V-8's than all other makers combined. And Ford's high-compression, low-friction Six is the most modern Six in the industry. Both engines have Ford's exclusive Automatic Power Pilot which squeezes the last drop of power out of every drop of gasoline.

Master-Guide power steering

Ford Master-Guide is the last word in power steering. It does up to 75% of the steering work for you when you need it . . . yet it leaves you with a natural feel of steering on the straight-away. And it helps you control the car on rough, rutted roads. Available on all V-8 models.

Fordomatic Drive

It's the finest, most versatile of all automatic drives . . . combines the smoothness of a fluid torque converter and the "Go" of automatic mechanical gears. Ford also offers you Overdrive and Conventional drive.

COLD SEASON

CALLS FOR CARE

It is doubtful if any human needs to be reminded, but the cold months are time for respiratory troubles. This is equally true of poultry, for fall and winter are the seasons when chickens get "colds."

In chickens, a cold may be due to various causes, but one of the commoner types of cold is caused by a bacterium, Hemophilus gallinarum. This tiny-germ causes the readily condition known as infectious coryza. This disease is marked by sniffling, sneezing, and mucous discharge from the nostrils. It is also characterized by sinus swellings of a soft or fluid nature.

Not Same As Roup

Infectious coryza is not the same as so-called roup. The latter is usually a complication of a cold, with marked swelling of the face in the eye regions. The swellings of roup are hard, nasty-looking, and destructive. Coryza swellings, on the other hand, may disappear rapidly if treatment is promptly given.

A specific treatment for infectious coryza is sulfathiazole, which acts directly on the bacteria and usually controls the disease within a matter of a day or two. In its sodium form, sulfathiazole may be placed in the drinking water and easily administered to sick birds.

Other Types Of Colds

The drug is not effective against all types of colds or against roup. Many cold conditions involve other bacteria or viruses, perhaps, and it is more difficult to control them directly. The poultryman must rely on sanitation chiefly in controlling these conditions.

Good management is essential in preventing respiratory troubles in the laying house. Many houses are not constructed to prevent respiratory troubles, and even the better houses (from a construction standpoint) often give trouble because the ventilation is not adequate. One of the most essential—and without a doubt the cheapest—materials which the poultry-raiser can provide is fresh air. Yet, many poultrymen are afraid to allow their birds enough air, thinking that this will cause colds. Usually—excepting drafts or other pronounced changes—the opposite is true, and birds which are confined in a too-tight house will have respiratory troubles.

Mr. Shevnan says: The Zoetic Shield is a tremendous improvement over all former methods, effecting immediate results. It will not only hold the rupture perfectly no matter the size or location but it will increase the circulation, strengthen the weakened parts, and thereby close the opening in ten days on the average case, regardless of heavy lifting, straining or any position the body may assume. A nationally known scientific method. No under straps or cumbersome arrangements and absolutely no medicines or medical treatments.

Mr. Shevnan will be glad to demonstrate without charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Johnson had as a guest, Miss Virginia Lampke, who visited several days with them last week end. She is a field nurse with the Department of Interior, working on an Indian reservation.

WILSON—The Wilson FHA was to attend a District 3, FHA meeting at Lamesa, Oct. 17. A group of forty girls from Wilson were to attend the meeting. A skit by a group of girls was presented at the meeting. Sylvia Montgomery is the Chapter's candidate for District Vice-President, and Myrna Kaatz is nominee for Area Recording Secretary.

Friday: A half time performance at the football game will be presented by the FHA. Saturday: This day has been designated as "Good Deed Day."

Jimmy Schneider was elected as the Wilson's FHA Sweetheart. Schneider was chosen because of his winning personality, his ambition, and his willingness to take part in all activities.

The Wilson Club was well represented in the Panhandle South Plains Fair. Joyce Verkamp placed second in the Youth Division, having the second greatest number of points in that division.

Mrs. Everett Young left Sunday for her home in Oakland, Calif., after spending three weeks in Slaton visiting with her aunts, Mrs. Jessie Prosser and Mrs. L. T. Arthur. During her visit she and Mrs. Prosser spent one week visiting in Pampa, Texas and Norman, Okla.
