SET TREASURE HUNT AT POOL FOR SATURDAY

A treasure hunt is scheduled to begin at 3 p.m. Saturday afternoon, August 29, at the Slaton Swimming Pool. Tags numbered for prizes will be put in the shallow water from the rope to the south end of the pool. To give all children an equal chance and to avoid diving accidents, all participants will enter the pool and start from a standing position along the sides of the pool, according to Truett Fulcher, pool manager. Ten numbered tags will be good for 1 to 5 swims each, and twenty numbered tags will be good for concessions. If this week's hunt proves successful, a bigger and better treasure hunt with more varied prizes will be staged next week. The Slaton pool will remain open as long as the weather is warm enough for swimming. No definite closing date has been set.

Issues Reminder On S.H.S. Registration
John Gilbert, Slaton High School principal, this week issued a reminder that all high school students who have not registered should do so on Thursday and Friday, Sept. 3-4, at the high school building. Registration time will be from 9 a.m. until noon on both days. At those same times, those high school students who have already enrolled but wish to make changes in their schedules may do so, Gilbert said. High school classes will begin at 9 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 8.

COUNTY SINGING SET
A Fifth Sunday County Singing Convention will be held at the First Methodist Church beginning at 1 p.m., Aug. 30. Singers from all over Lubbock County and adjoining counties will be present. The church is air conditioned. Everyone is invited. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kitten and Joerita went to Hereford last week end to visit Joe Hoffman who is critically ill.

Talk Possibility Of Lifting Water Curbs
Because of the press of a telephone rate hearing and other urgent business, the Slaton city commission devoted but brief consideration to the water situation here at its Monday meeting, but announced plans to study the situation in detail at a special meeting called for 5 o'clock Monday afternoon, August 31. City commissioners A. M. Fry, Henry Bollinger and Ed Haddock all voiced the opinion that if additional rainfall is forthcoming this week, it's possible that existing water curbs may be entirely eliminated at the August 31 session. Under current regulations, anyone within Slaton's city limits is permitted to use water for irrigation purposes each day except Sunday between the hours of 7 a.m. to 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. to 8 p.m.

SW Bell Places Case Before Commission In Seeking Local Telephone Rate Increase
A quartet of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company officials Monday night presented the company's case to the city commission for a proposed increase in telephone rates here, offered detailed charts pointing out that Southwestern Bell lost $12,549 here on its 1952 operations, and told commissioners, "We ask only a fair return on the fair value of our property." City commissioners took no action on the company request, but asked for additional information and promised the request further study at future meetings. Lost $12,549 Leroy Deason, Dallas, Southwestern Bell accountant, presented a summary of local exchange operations for 1952 showing that the company collected $63,765, paid out $78,314, and thus lost $12,549 here in the past year. The company is asking that rates be boosted in Slaton from $2.50 to $3.25 a month for a four-party residence line, from $3 to $4 for two-party service, from $3.50 to $5 for an individual line residence telephone, and from $7.50 to $9 for a business telephone. Other Southwestern Bell officials present at Monday's meeting were Cecil Cale, Lubbock district manager, J. C. Oakley, Plainview, local manager, and Hugh L. Steger, Dallas, legal representative. Slaton residents present for the session included Mayor O. N. Alcorn, Commissioners Ed Haddock, A. M. Fry and Henry Bollinger, and W. B. Hestand, Sug Robertson, C. C. Cox and Harmon Thompson. Not So Simple Actually, the figures showing that Southwestern Bell lost more

Not Practical Explained Cale, "In order to credit Slaton with all long distance revenue collected here, it would also be necessary to charge Slaton with a portion of our long distance expenses and investments all over the United States, and that's a practical impossibility." He explained that local and long distance service share expenses and investment according to a division required by law under decision of the U. S. Supreme Court. Too, Cale explained, of all expenses here, a portion of these are assigned to long distance (not charged against the local exchange). The charts presented by Deason showed that of Southwest- ern Bell's total $112,553 in expenses here for 1952, $34,239 of that was assigned to long distance (not charged against the Slaton exchange), and the remaining $78,314 was charged against the local exchange. Law Says So Steger emphasized on several occasions that the division of expenses and revenues is not of Southwestern Bell's choosing, but is mandatory accounting procedure prescribed by federal law. Deason explained that the 1952 loss of $12,549, adjusted to today's cost levels, would result in an adjusted net loss of $8,295. Contributing factors, he explained, are increased wage expense, $2,836; additional net income required to cover excess replacement cost of plant, $2,671; increase in revenues (from phone rate boost granted here in October of last year), $9,671... a total adjustment of $4,254, resulting in an adjusted net loss of $8,295. -$4,564 Per Year Under the proposed rates, Southwestern Bell would realize an additional $19,431 in gross revenue here. Uncollectibles, gross receipts taxes, license payments and federal income taxes would reduce that, Deason explained, to $12,859. The adjusted net loss of $8,295, taken from the net increase of $12,859 from proposed rates, would leave an adjusted income of $4,564. Deason pointed out that should the company be able to realize $4,564 per year from the proposed rates here, the annual net would be less than 1 1/2% on the $320,000 investment Southwestern Bell has in Slaton. BREAKS HIP IN FALL Mrs. S. M. Cleveland fell in her room at her home at 630 S. 8th Street Wednesday morning early and broke her hip. She was taken immediately to the Mercy Hospital where she will undergo surgery as soon as her physical condition permits. Club membership is open to anyone who is interested and farmer members are especially welcome, according to Joe S. Walker, president. No invitation is necessary to attend meetings of the newly formed club, which has membership of about 30. The club meets on the first Tuesday night of each month.

Anticipate Record Response to Visit of X-Ray Unit Here Tomorrow and Tuesday

Everything is in readiness for the two-day visit here Saturday, Aug. 29, and Tuesday, Sept. 1, of the mobile chest X-ray unit of the Tuberculosis Division, Texas State Department of Health, it was announced Wednesday by Melvin Kunkel, local chairman. "It's our sincere hope that considerably more than the 1,251 people who were X-rayed here last year will avail themselves of this splendid opportunity to check up on the health of their lungs for their own benefit and for the benefit of the community," Kunkel emphasized. 1,251 Last Year The tax-supported X-ray unit has elicited favorable comment in the three previous years it has visited Slaton, and Kunkel said Wednesday he anticipates that this year's turnout will be even heavier than last year's record 1,251. The X-ray unit will be situated on both Saturday and Tuesday at the Southwestern Public Service Co., as in previous years. Examination hours on both days will be 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Kunkel pointed out the following important facts about the survey:

Football Season . . . Almost Here Now!
Football season is just two weeks away! The Slaton Tigers open their 1953 schedule here at 8 o'clock Friday night, Sept. 11, against Coahoma. Here's the complete Tiger schedule, and if you want to schedule your football week ends in advance, the 1953 schedule for the Texas Tech Red Raiders may be found on an inside page of this issue. Sept. 11—Coahoma, here Sept. 18—Seagraves, away Sept. 25—Ralls, here Oct. 2—O'Donnell, away Oct. 9—Amherst, here Oct. 16—Floydada, away Oct. 23—Spur, here Oct. 30—Post, away Nov. 6—Tahoka, away Nov. 13—Abernathy, here (* conference games.) All Tiger games are scheduled as night contests. District 6-AA, which last year included only Slaton, Post, Tahoka and Spur, this year also includes Floydada and Abernathy. Spur is favored to grab the district football title.

Estimates Output Of New Water Wells
Two new city water wells which have been drilled just north of the city limits will mean about 200,000 gallons per day more water for Slaton, City Water Supt. Forrest Davis told city commissioners Monday night. Davis made the estimate during a discussion by commissioners of methods for tying the new wells into existing city water lines. Final decision on that matter is slated for Monday, Aug. 31. "Just how much help would that be next summer?" asked Mayor O. N. Alcorn. "In terms of customers the 2 wells would serve from 50 to 75 water customers under conditions of heavy summertime usage," replied City Secretary J. J. Maxey. The two new wells will boost to 17 the number of water wells serving Slaton. It's anticipated that they'll be tied in sometime next month.

Cost-Free Rides Those persons who will need transportation from their homes to X-ray headquarters may telephone 228 to have non-cost transportation arranged, Kunkel said. The Slaton Rotary Club, as in previous years, is sponsoring the mobile unit's visit here, and members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Slaton Volunteer Fire Department will serve as the telephone committee. According to information supplied by Miss Virginia Greenwaldt, executive secretary of the Lubbock County Tuberculosis Association, the incidence of TB is increasing in Lubbock County. Sixty new cases of TB were diagnosed in this county last year, and 53 new cases have been diagnosed already this year. Medical experts estimate that the disease will strike 115,000 new victims in the U. S. this year. Unknown Cases "The aim of the X-ray unit," Miss Greenwaldt pointed out, "is to discover unknown cases of tuberculosis here." "By unknown cases, we mean people who have the disease and are not under treatment, people who may be going about their daily lives innocently spreading the disease because they don't know they have it, people who are losing their health and endangering the lives of others," Miss Greenwaldt explained. She especially emphasized that many TB victims, seem healthy until the disease has reached an advanced stage, at which point treatment is long and costly. The mechanism to find the unknown cases and help check the spread of tuberculosis in this community will be brought to our very doors tomorrow and Tuesday.

City Sets Monday Session To Open Sewage Job Bids
A special meeting of the Slaton city commission is scheduled at city hall for 5 o'clock Monday afternoon, Aug. 31, to open bids on the new type sewage disposal system proposed for Slaton. Final plans for the project, which has been in the formative stage for almost three years, were given the commission's unanimous approval on Aug. 10. The new system—to be composed of oxidation ponds varying from less than an acre to approximately two acres—will replace the Emboff tank disposal system which has been in use here since the mid-1920's, and which is no longer adequate, according to Mayor O. N. Alcorn. Plans and specifications for the new sewage disposal system were prepared by the Lubbock engineering firm of Parkhill, Smith and Cooper. G. P. Parkhill, a partner in the firm, told the city commission recently that the entire project probably will cost "in the neighborhood of $22,000." Approximately $18,600 of that amount is on hand from a $50,000 water and sewer bond issue voted here in 1950. City Secretary J. J. Maxey has explained that the oxidation pond type of sewage disposal costs about half as much as the treatment plant type system now in use here. Oxidation pond systems are in use at a number of South Plains cities.

Grochowsky Rites Slated Saturday
Michael G. Grochowsky, 655 So. Twelfth, a resident of Slaton for 27 years, died in Mercy Hospital at 2 o'clock Thursday morning as the result of a heart condition. He had been a patient at the hospital since Friday night, Aug. 21. Grochowsky was born April 20, 1888, at Elbing, Kansas. He was a member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, and held membership in the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. He was employed as a locomotive engineer by the Panhandle and Santa Fe Railway. Funeral services will be held Saturday at Newton, Kansas, and burial will be in St. Mary's Cemetery there, it was announced on Thursday morning by Williams Funeral Home. Survivors include two sons, Vincent J. Grochowsky of Newton, Kan., and Michael Leon Grochowsky, Slaton; four daughters, Margaret Gronau, Gertrude H. Hawk and Delores A. Grochowsky, all of Newton, and Barbara J. Grochowsky, Wichita, Kan., and one brother, Martin Grochowsky, Kansas City, Missouri.

Seek Widening Of Ninth From Garza To Lynn
The city commission Monday night took under consideration a petition requesting the widening of North Ninth St. from Garza to Lynn by ten feet to allow for diagonal instead of parallel parking in the one-block area. The petition was presented by Hugo Mosser, who explained to commissioners, "Those of us who have stores in that block feel that angle parking would be a considerable help to business conditions." Explained Mosser, "Many people especially women—don't know how to parallel park very well, and just won't bother to try." Presented along with the petition was a detailed sketch by Arnold Maecker, Lubbock engineer. The sketch, in substance, calls for the sidewalk on both sides of N. Ninth to be indented by five feet, similar to the indentation on South Ninth in front of the First Baptist Church. Mosser indicated to commissioners that tenants and property owners along the one-block business area would be willing to bear "part of the expense." He suggested that if the city would share 50 per cent of the cost of the project, that such an arrangement probably would prove satisfactory to tenants and property owners in the area concerned. Mosser estimated that the entire job would cost approximately $2,000. The proposed change, he explained, would leave the same amount of driving space on the highway.

USE! BE SURE! GET A CHEST X-RAY...

TB, Statistics, and YOU . . .

Statistics normally are cold and uninteresting. Take the following one, for example: Tuberculosis will strike 115,000 new victims this year in the U. S., a national survey indicates. But stop and think of that statement in this light: you MIGHT be among those 115,000 victims.

It's convenient and consoling to think that TB's victims will be those "somebody else's" it's so natural for us to think about in reading over a list of disease statistics. But each of those victims is a real person. You MIGHT be among them.

The best way to find about the health of your lungs, at no cost to yourself, is to take the few minutes of required time to have a chest X-ray made when the mobile X-ray unit of the State Health Department is in Slaton on Saturday, Aug. 29, and Sept. 1.

It's not necessary to make an advance appointment. The entire process takes about five minutes. There's no disrobing, no embarrassment. No free sample you've ever been offered can approach this one in value. It might save your life.

And don't stay away because you're "feeling healthy." Tuberculosis when it strikes has no apparent symptoms. It allows most of its victims to seem healthy until the disease has reached an advanced stage. By the time TB shows its hand with obvious symptoms, the disease may have reached a point where the treatment will be long and costly.

So do yourself and your community a favor tomorrow or Tuesday and find out about the health of YOUR lungs.

Starting 'Em Young

Along with talk of increased insurance rates for careless drivers comes news of a younger generation benefitting by being thoughtful.

In sunny California, enterprising youngsters of the Tuesday Afternoon Club Juniors bought a trailer, renovated it, and interested children from 23 elementary schools in stocking it with 2,500 toys. Then they called it a toy library, and appointed a "toy-rarian" to run it.

But these youngsters were quicker off the mark than their elders who waited fully 50 years to institute telling penalties for road carelessness. From the first issue, "customers" were graded on their treatment of toys, and their borrower's cards marked accordingly. Good behavior, thoughtful care, and prompt returns rated bigger, more expensive toys, or even long-term periods to enjoy them.

Undoubtedly graduates of the toy library will exhibit increased appreciation of property and innate thoughtfulness to help direct their adult actions towards good citizenship.

Such projects, increased across the nation, could well begin training a thoughtful population at the earliest levels. And perhaps help to cut the road toll. The youngster who cares tenderly for a toy car is apt to respect the real thing later—his own or someone else's. — The Christian Science Monitor.

Education Pays Off

A big automobile insurance company is reducing rates for drivers 25 years of age who have successfully completed a high school driving course, according to Changing Times magazine, in the hope that more schools will be encouraged to set up such courses.

There can be no doubt about the need for such courses. The insurance people apparently are boiling down to a dollars-and-cents basis the things safety experts have been saying for a long time—that driver education courses reduce accidents.

The importance of reducing accidents perhaps doesn't seem close to home, until you realize that 300 school children are among the 2500 Texans killed annually in traffic accidents. Another 9000 school children are among the 100,000 Texans who suffer injuries in traffic accidents each year.

If establishing driver training courses in every high school in the state saved no more than one life, we believe it would be worth the effort and expense. And we are confident that such courses would save many lives.

If we don't teach our children to survive in this world of 150-horsepower cars, the things we do teach them will make little difference.—The Texas Outlook.

Conserving Resources

Our American natural resources are being drained away at an alarming rate, announces the Population Reference Bureau, Washington, D. C. (This is not a government bureau, but one supported from private sources.)

It's an old refrain. There is a lot in it. The warning should be heeded. Yet the warning does not have the same meaning that it had on the basis of conditions that existed fifty, twenty-five or even ten years ago. The big difference is that the progress of chemistry is discovering new resources in materials that we have hitherto considered valueless.

The Population Reference Bureau takes cognizance of this in its reference to "rock-sea-water-sunlight economy." This refers to the economy that may exist some day when we take our minerals out of the sea and get our energy from nuclear fission, the hydrogen bomb or sunlight. The reference bureau says that it won't get here in time to keep us from starving to death if we continue to drain our resources at the present rate.

We must conserve our resources more thoughtfully and more consistently, even in the old sense. By the old sense is meant saving resources known to exist by using them as economically as possible. But we should not overlook the far greater field of conservation that lies in chemical and physical research. When we turn hitherto useless sawdust into screwdriver handles, wine glasses or fine fabrics, then we are conserving resources in a big way. And that is the kind of conservation that will serve us in the future.—The Dallas Morning News.

A LONESOME VOYAGE

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

There is growing Washington concern over increased business failures. With more than 700 firms a month going to the wall, failures now exceed 1950 before Korea.

Naturally, there are many differing schools of thought in Washington on the problem. Economists imbued with Big Business reasoning, seek to sell the very keener competition, lack of experience or capital is major failure reason.

But facts do not agree.

Normally, business failures are due to lack of trade, with retailers hit first. But in the present situation, wholesalers show biggest failure increase.

This is an important fact because wholesalers, by and large, are not shoe string operators. The very nature of the wholesaling business requires considerable capital and experience.

This condition was inevitable.

There are two major reasons.

One is wholesalers must stock goods made by firms who closely control supply and prices.

But many wholesalers, instead of representing these manufacturers, find they are actually competing with the manufacturers on a different price basis.

Manufacturers are more and more putting in their own retail outlets who buy direct from factories on favored deals, and undersell the wholesaler's own customers. In other cases, big retailers are sold direct.

Sometime ago, in tire discount case, Federal Trade Commission National Federation of Independent Business mission made ruling to eliminate double dealing.

But due to behind scenes shuffle in Washington, this ruling has yet to be enforced.

The other reason is taxes.

Many wholesalers are taking less "take home pay" out of business, yet assets are bigger.

Wholesalers, to do business, keep warehouses filled. Yet replacement stocks keep creeping up in price. This in itself dissipates working capital, but tax situation bites more heavily.

Taxes are assessed on net worth of the business, and actually bear no relation to the amount of liquid cash. Thus, a warehouse stocked with merchandise can be in one tax bracket. But if that stock is sold, and the wholesaler restocks at a 5% price increase, his net worth has increased 5%, which is taxable, even though his cash position has deteriorated.

Then when government failure to enforce anti-trust laws permits the manufacturers who sold the wholesaler to dump goods direct, there is chaos.

In addition, in city after city, warehouse inventories are taxed yearly, even though goods in a wholesale warehouse are actually goods in transit.

It is also significant in heavy percentage of current business failures, a principal unpaid creditor is Federal Government for unpaid taxes.

The problem is serious, but not without solution.

But to forestall the economic Golgotha now building up, government officials must quickly recognize true nature of the problem; take immediate steps to correct it.

Birth Certificate Is Vital Necessity

Do you have your birth certificate? Have you a certified copy in a safe place? Does it give accurate information as to sex, date of birth, and name of parents? If yours is in acceptable form how about those of your children?

Many schools require a copy of the birth certificate for enrollment. Mrs. Eloise Johnson, family life education specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, suggests you check to see if your child's birth certificate is recorded correctly.

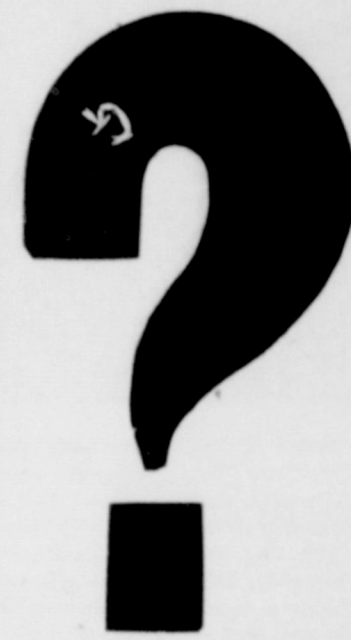

Although everyone recognizes the importance of birth certificates, the specialist says a third of the nation's citizens have none. A person who can not produce a certificate or its legally acceptable equivalent, is stateless, ageless, and often jobless as far as government and many business firms are concerned. In this day of widespread military service, world wide travel and international youth exchange programs, a birth certificate is not only a convenience but a vital necessity. Adults and older people need proof of age and citizenship for retirement, payment of pensions, annuities and social security. This makes the certificate a most valuable piece of paper.

Birth registration is now standardized and compulsory anywhere in the United States. These records become permanent and accessible to those who may be interested. However, now and then, errors occur which cause difficulties later. Parents can take precautions against these errors by making sure the doctor spells all names correctly and fills in all pertinent facts, including the exact date of birth of the child. It is wise, too, for parents to obtain a certified copy of the record, and file it carefully with other personal documents and papers.

If you have no birth certificate, write the county clerk at the county where you were born, state health officer or state registrar of vital statistics to request a copy. If none is registered for you, one of the best proofs is legally executed, notarized affidavits from relatives and close friends who will swear to the date, place, and your parent's names. Another widely used proof is to check Federal Census rolls for your official record in the first census after you were born.

Check your family files to see that every member has at least one certified copy of this important family record—the birth certificate.

are many self-employed between the ages of 65 who should file an application for social security benefits because net earnings have dropped far below earnings for 1951 and 1952. To John G. Even though these are continuing to operate businesses and will make $1,800 in self-employment in 1953 it is still important that an application be filed to establish benefit based on net earnings in 1951 and

All persons who are past 75 should file an application whether they are working for wages or are self-employed since these people may draw their social security no matter what their earnings from wages or self-employment income. Gerald L. Schantz, Field Representative from the Lubbock Social Security office will be at the Red Cross Room, City Hall in Slaton at 2:30 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 3rd to assist in all matters pertaining to social security. Self-employed individuals should bring their copies of their 1951 and 1952 self-employment tax returns when discussing their cases so that more accurate information can be furnished in each individual case.

The jumbo-sized glasses of iced tea which have been a supperable tradition at our nouse all summer are beginning to appear less frequently. Instead, my favorite brunette is serving hot coffee. It's a sign that fall and football are just around the corner.

Just fourteen days from now, the Slaton Tigers open their 1953 grid campaign here against Coahoma.

It's way too early to be making any sort of semi-scientific predictions about the football season. But athletics, like the newspaper business, have sorta gotten all mixed up in my blood stream. My crystal ball is still a little foggy from all the rain we've been having lately, but it tells me that Baylor ought to be a good bet to win the Southwest Conference this year.

I agree. The Golden Bears' backfield this fall will include Cotton Davidson at quarterback, Jerry Coody and L. G. Dupre at halfbacks, and Allen Jones at fullback. That's a quartet which will compare with any in the nation. Those who saw Dupre run against Texas Tech at Jones Stadium last fall are familiar with his tremendous breakout possibilities.

Of the 29 gridgers who were awarded Baylor letters last year, 20 are coming back this fall. So there should be plenty of poise and experience in the forward wall.

Most of the dopesters are picking Baylor to finish behind Texas and Rice, and possibly SMU, TCU, Arkansas and the Texas Aggies are figured to bring up the rear in that order. As usual, it's a sentimental choice with me.

Baylor hasn't won a Southwest Conference crown for 29 years. We'll know more about just how potent the 1953 Baylor Bear is on Sept. 20, because Coach George Sauer's big Baptist squad travels to Berkeley on Sept. 19 to open the season against California, one of the pre-season favorites in the Pacific Coast Conference.

We have heard several folks here express the hope that Post's Jack Kirkpatrick will pull a lot of quarterbacking duty for the Texas Tech Red Raiders this fall. Whatever Kirkpatrick's grid fortunes, the Raiders figure to do considerably better than the Won 3-Lost 7-Tied 1 record they compiled in 1952.

Been gloating over the 10% decrease in personal income taxes projected for January 1? I had, too, until an ugly little notice that came in the mail the other day reminded that Social Security taxes will rise from 3% to 4% on January 1, 1954. Employees will then pay 2% of their wages on Social Security each month and employers will pay 2%. As in the past, this applies on payroll payments up to $3,600. Self-employed persons will pay 3% on earnings up to $3,600, instead of the present 2 1/2%.

The experts estimate that this boost in the rate for support of the old age retirement program will add one billion dollars to the tax bill of the nation and will wipe out any savings from the 10% decrease in personal income taxes projected for January 1. Since the billion is earmarked for Social Security, however, it will not reduce the national debt.

Was talking to Mayor Alcorn the other day, and he tells me that a "right turn only" out of post office lane will go into effect just as soon as the building project on the former Forrest Hotel site is near enough completion that the present catwalk can be removed.

Aside from the fact that my favorite brunette is a school marm, my sympathy was with the teaching profession when it sought (and was refused) a pay increase from the last Texas Legislature. These teachers, with from four to seven or more years of highly specialized college education, have the tremendously important job of educating the nation's young people. Responsibility? Taken seriously, there's none any weightier.

Outside of the classroom, the typical classroom teacher spends countless hours preparing work programs for the next day and the next week, grading endless stacks of papers, pondering some way in which she could guide Johnny in to a more serious study of his arithmetic, puzzling over how she could make Susie understand that she is only one in a class of thirty-four.

To such a faculty member, Texas has seen fit to grant a minimum base salary of $2,400 annually. From that, the school marm pays a heavy income tax, is subjected to a teacher retirement plan from which she bears no fruits unless she stays with the teaching profession until she's so old she can scarcely determine in which direction the sun rises, is expected to be dressed in the latest vogue as an example of neatness and cleanliness, buys Christmas presents for each of her students, takes them on several picnics each school year, supplements from her own pocketbook the classroom supplies she needs but cannot get through the school system, pays mandatory dues to half a dozen teacher organizations, pays her own tuition to take the advanced college courses necessary to maintain her teacher tenure, contributes cheerfully to all good things, and in her spare time, undoubtedly indulges in the hope that the fading custom of "an apple for the teacher" may someday return as a practical supplement to her continued existence.

Yet to an individual who may have been fortunate enough to puzzle his way through the sixth grade but who since has learned the magic of laying one brick on top of another, or fitting two threaded pipes together, society plunks out something like $2.50 an hour for "skilled labor." I guess the explanation is that the thanks come in a child's eyes.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ladymon of Brownwood visited Thursday of last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Davis. The Ladymons were returning from a vacation in Montana. Mrs. Davis' sister, Mrs. A. R. Ellis, and daughter, Mary Elizabeth, of Lubbock ate lunch with the Davises Thursday.

A dinner party honoring their son, Joe Davis, of Lubbock was held Wednesday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Davis.

Recent visitors in the John Crawford home were Mr. and Mrs. Horace Spray of Dallas. The Sprays were on their way to northern New Mexico for a vacation and were to meet their nephew, Wendel Spray and wife in Lubbock.

will be "limited" to $1,500. Quote the release: "Federal funds will be used only for those practices which the farmer or rancher indicates he would not otherwise carry out with his own resources." I wonder if anyone in the U. S. Department of Agriculture believes that?

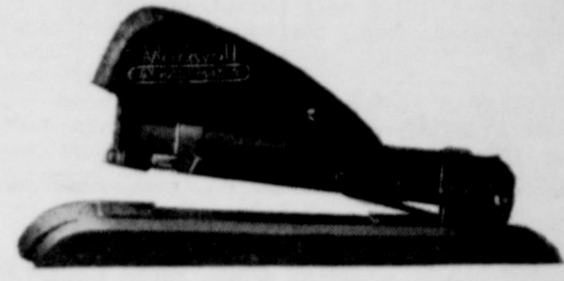

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Young, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Akin, Mr. and Mrs. Pete King and children, Cliff and Cathy, left Sunday for Colorado Springs. The Akins and the Kings returned Thursday. The Youngs will visit in South Dakota with Mrs. Young's cousin, John Caldwell.

Agricultural producers of the state are advised to be on the alert for damaging invasions of their crops and pastures by worms. They are bad in many sections of the state at the present. Fall army worms and cotton bollworms are two of the chief culprits. Cotton leafworms are also spreading.

Look what your FORD dollar buys !

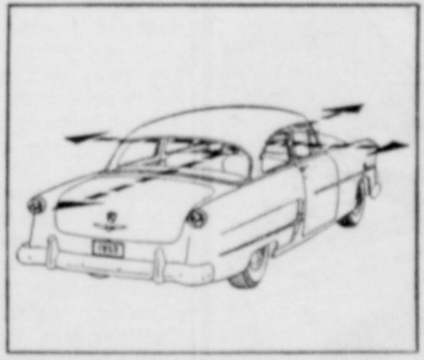

Check the features below against any car in the low-price field and you'll see why Ford's worth more when you buy it...worth more when you sell it.

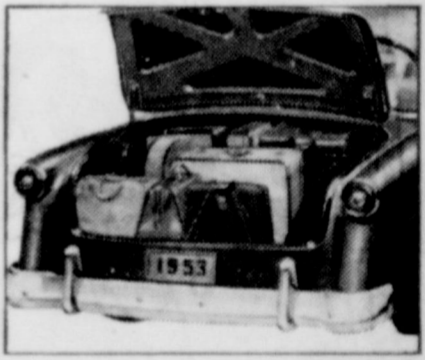

V-8 POWER is yours in Ford—but not in other low-priced cars. It's the product of Ford's experience in building over 13,000,000 V-8's! Ford's high-compression, low-friction Mileage Maker Six with Overdrive, is the Economy Sweepstakes winner.

ROAD-LEVELING RIDE reduces front end road shock alone up to 80%. Wide front tread, diagonally-mounted shock absorbers take tilt out of turns. You'll discover in the '53 Ford that a car need not be excessively heavy to ride smooth as silk.

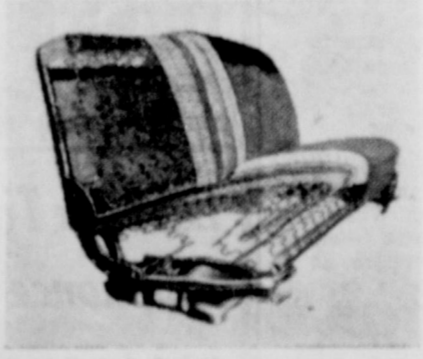

FULL-CIRCLE VISIBILITY is yours in Ford. With huge, curved, one-piece windshield, car-wide rear window and "picture windows" all-around, Ford has more "look out" area than any car in the low-price field. I-REST tinted glass also available.

ROOMY TRUNK is one suitcase bigger . . . bigger than any other luggage compartment in Ford's field . . . bigger than you'll find in many of the expensive cars. With Ford's Center-Fill Fueling, there's no long gas-fill pipe to eat up your trunk space.

SUSPENDED PEDALS make braking and clutching easier . . . allow more clear floor space . . . eliminate dusty, drafty floor holes. This feature, exclusive to Ford in its field, permits dash-mounting of brake master cylinder for easy accessibility.

FOAM-RUBBER CUSHIONS over non-sag springs in Ford's sofa-wide seats make even long trips a treat. And you'll find that only Ford in the low-price field offers this fine-car feature as standard equipment on both front and rear seats in all models.

FORDOMATIC DRIVE—an optional extra—is really two automatic drives in one. It has a fluid torque converter for smooth, steady power flow. It has automatic gears for greater "get-up-and-go." Ford also offers you Overdrive and Conventional Drive.

MASTER-GUIDE POWER STEERING—an optional extra on V-8 models—gives you the natural "feel" of steering on the straight-away yet takes the work out of turning. Absorbs road shocks before they reach the steering wheel—adds to safety.

Roy Dale Meyers Has Infected Eye Caused By Vapors Of Poison

Roy Dale Meyers, 605 So. 7th St., has suffered an eye infection that will mean a move from this part of the country for the Meyers family. Mr. Meyers drove past a field that had been sprayed for two-spotted spiders. The poison used on this insect is a deadly poison that requires great care in handling. Mr. Meyers did not come into contact with the poison, but the vapor was enough to cause an infection. He had a detached retina last year, and although it healed straight, thereby saving his sight, it left the eye sensitive.

Meyers got a little of the poison last year. It is not a thing that builds immunity, but rather each dose makes the victim more susceptible. Mr. Meyers has been told by his doctor that another contact with this poison might be fatal. He is to leave the area where it might be used at least for awhile. Mr. and Mrs. Meyers and their daughter, Dalene, will move to San Angelo as soon as the doctor releases Mr. Meyers. A search was made for an antidote for the poison, but none was found.

Mrs. Meyers says, "This has been a blow to us. We like living here and like the people here, and Dalene hates to change schools. But we can be thankful it wasn't worse. If he had gotten it in his mouth and lungs it would have been fatal."

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hogue accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Edd Caldwell left Wednesday of last week for Ruidoso, N. M. The Hogues had just returned from an eight-day vacation trip to California, where they visited Mr. Hogue's parents at Willows, and went sight seeing on the coast.

Bears, All-Stars Sweep To Victory As Jungle Softball Draws To Close

The Bears nailed down first place honors in regular league play and the All-Stars annexed the second and third games of a three-game series with the Tigers as Junior Jungle League softball play drew to a close this week.

The Bears banged out 21 hits Saturday in scoring a narrow 14-12 win over the Tigers with whom they were tied for first place going into the final contest.

Jerry Wilson hit for the circuit and batted in three runs to pace the Bear cause. Dale Gordon, Clay Foster and Bob Moore each had home runs for the winners. Manuel Trevino batted in two runs for the losers, one of them on a bases-empty homer.

The Tigers tallied their 14 runs on 21 hits and 4 errors. The Tigers counted 12 times on 9 base hits and erred five times afield. Gordon hurled for the winners, and Randy Sanders was his batterymate. Ramon Hernandez and Mundo Guzman composed the Tigers' battery.

The All-Stars, after dropping a 9-7 decision to the Tigers in the first meeting of the two clubs on Aug. 14, bounced back to knot the series last Friday with an impressive 13-6 triumph. Larry Wilson, Russell Cummings and Alfred Blisard each batted in a pair of runs to pace the Stars' win. Manuel Trevino had a pair of RBI's for the losers. Dale Gordon and Clay Foster composed the Stars' battery. Ramon Hernandez was on the mound for the Tigers, and Mundo Guzman handled the backstopping assignment.

The All-Stars, though outhit and shaky afield, edged past the Tigers again on Monday, Aug. 24, to capture the bacon game in the three-game series by the narrow margin of 12-9. The Stars counted their dozen markers on 9 hits, and erred 8 times. Their Spanish-American opponents had 12 hits, and bobbled 9 times in the field.

Dale Gordon paced the Stars' win with five RBI's, three of them by virtue of a timely home run. Larry Wilson clouted a two-run homer to help the All-Star cause. Gene Talbert, shortstop, and Randy Sanders, second baseman, played outstanding defensive ball for the winners. Dale Gordon did the hurling, with Jim Sikes behind the plate.

Wally Aguirre batted in a pair of runs for the losers, and scored three times himself. Ramon Hernandez handled Tiger chunking chores, and Ams Franco held down the catching job.

Monday's game concluded Junior Jungle League softball play, according to Dick DeMoos, league director. Final league standings included Bears 12-4, Tigers 11-5, Wolves 8-8, Lions 7-9, and Bobcats 1-13.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon C. Vaughn, Billy Jess, Jimmy and Charlotte, and Ronny Bagby, and Lynne Wideman from Lubbock, recently went on a campout to Roaring Springs. They climbed hills and slept out on the ground. The next morning they killed a rattle snake where they had been sleeping. The boys killed the snake with their bows and arrows. On their return trip they stopped at Silver Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marriott and family spent the week end in the mountains of New Mexico at Porvenir, New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wilke and daughters, Donna and Barbara, visited with Mrs. Wilke's parents in Whiteface, Sunday.

WORM TREATMENT IS NEEDED NOW

The poultry-raiser preparing his flock for the laying house naturally thinks of worming at this time. This is an essential part of placing a healthy, productive pullet flock on the "production line."

Pullets should be wormed because of the opportunity they have had to pick up worms on the range. These parasites will multiply and infect the entire flock in a short time. They will seriously hinder feed assimilation, growth, and laying, and will weaken the bird against the attacks of other disease.

Individual Worming

Worming is particularly appropriate at housing time because the birds are being handled, anyhow. Therefore, an individual (tablet) treatment can be easily given. This type of wormer assures an accurate dosage and maximum efficiency.

Individual treatments are available to remove large roundworms, cecal worms, tapeworms, and intestinal capillary worms. Some products combine the drugs that are effective against these species. The wormers are carefully controlled to prevent ill effects on the chickens. Of course, only healthy birds are recommended as subjects for worming.

If you are planning to cull birds as you house them, it is a simple matter to arrange an individual worming treatment for the birds you select. Just insert a tablet back of the tongue of each bird and see that it goes down the gullet. With a little experience, worming of even a large flock is rapid.

Flock Worming

Flock treatments continue to be popular with poultrymen because of their convenience. When help is not available, a flock treatment may be the best solution. It requires only a part of a day, and wormers are available which will remove the various species of worms.

Ideally, growing pullets should be wormed regularly during the range period and following housing. But, whether or not your flock has been on a worm-control program, give them the benefit of worming at housing time.

Completion Date Set On Corner Building

December 1 is the projected completion date on the modern one-story building which is being constructed on the former Forrest Hotel site at Ninth and Lubbock. Don Britt told the Slatonite Monday. Brickwork was slated to get underway this week. The one-story structure will house three separate buildings. The northernmost of these, adjoining C. R. Anthony Co., will be built to post office specifications should the federal government decide upon that site for a new post office here, Britt has explained. Decision of the location of a new post office for Slaton is expected to be forthcoming within a few days. The other two buildings, Britt explained, will have approximately 24-foot frontage. No announcement has been made concerning a tenant for either building.

TDA Announces New Seed Testing Fee System At Lubbock and Austin

SLATON

It will live in your heart forever!

Walt Disney's PETER PAN

BEAR COUNTRY

COMING!!

SUN. - MON. SEPT. 6 - 7

AUSTIN—A new seed testing fee system will be put into effect Sept. 1, by the two seed laboratories operated by the Texas Department of Agriculture in Lubbock and Austin, Commissioner John C. White announced this week.

A complete test of all seed will be made for $2.50 with the exception of chaffy grasses, native grasses, mixtures and trashy seed. This fee can be broken down to $1 for germination tests or $1.50 for purity analysis.

A fee of $5 will be levied for purity and/or germination tests of the four exceptions — chaffy, native, mixtures and trashy seed. During a rush season, however, trashy seed may be rejected for testing purposes, White added.

Noxious weed seed will be examined for $1 per sample.

Analysis of seed by an accredited laboratory is required before Texas Tested Seed Tags can be issued, White explained. No seed can be legally offered for sale without the tag from the Department of Agriculture.

Charge for a seed tag has been increased from 1 to 2 cents. The Texas Seed Law requires that one tag be attached to each container or bag of seed sold or exposed for sale in the amount of 100 pounds or a fraction thereof.

Money for the tests must accompany the samples. Checks or money orders should be made to the Texas Seed Act Fund. Charges will be effective on all samples which reach either of the two laboratories after Sept. 1, regardless of the postmark date, White said.

This will be the first year the Texas Department of Agriculture has charged for seed tests. The fees are the result of a new plan to make the department more nearly self-supporting and less dependent on the taxpayer's money.

Commissioner White said he had not asked the Legislature to appropriate tax money for this project for the next two years. The fee system was initiated so that the expense would be borne by those who benefit from the service.

Miss Betty Jane Clark of Rotan, Texas, spent last week in the Bill Layne home visiting with Miss Betty Sue Layne.

Mistaking dynamite sticks for firecrackers, Frankie Joe and Ronnie Lee Skagg, Sunday lighted fuse and escaped the resultant explosion with relatively serious injuries.

The boys, sons of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Skagg, Route 2, Brownfield, were playing Sunday morning in their father's pickup. The dynamite, in the pickup, was ignited by a match the boys found on the floor of the truck. Both were blown out of the truck by the explosion.

The bearded brotherhood is with us again. Jaycees are calling upon citizens to join them in a beard-growing contest to advertise the Second Annual Jaycee Rodeo, to be held Aug. 27-28-29.

Upon pain of being thrown in a horse tank full of water to be set up on the city square, alert citizens are setting aside the razor for the next two weeks. Those who desire to go clean shaven may purchase an official Shave Permit from a Jaycee at a cost of $2.00. Those who prefer to court "disaster" may continue to shave—without a permit!

Funds raised through the sale of Shave Permits will go to finance the annual rodeo and the swimming pool.

Maybe things really look more promising to the drought-ridden cotton farmers, ginners and others vitally interested in the cotton crop for 1933—but folks are getting downright optimistic about the prospects for a good yield of the fleecy stuff this fall and winter in the Hamlin territory.

If there are any readers who do not already know, let us point out that it has been three years since even a fairly good cotton crop has been harvested hereabouts due to the drought. Following the 4 1/2-inch rain of July 17, the little straggling cotton of the territory took on growing pains that won't quit. Of course, several additional showers—which in a few spots have added up to seven more inches of moisture—have kept the growing and fruiting periods well underway. Fields look like real cotton country, and estimates already are flying that yields will average as high as half a bale per acre in the Hamlin section. Numbers of fields will make a bale per acre, some folks declare.

—The Hamlin Herald

Although the disaster relief program for distributing concentrated feeds to Floyd county cattle and sheepmen is pretty well in hand so far as corn and oats are concerned, the PMA office is far behind on orders for cottonseed meal pellets.

West said the distribution of the pellets is far behind applications despite the fact that two carloads of meal and one carload of pellets was on the railway tracks at that time. The committee also has acknowledgment of orders on three more cars of pellets due in momentarily.

Petersburg and area was gasless all day Tuesday, all being caused by a break in the transmission line near the Jim Fitzgerald farm west of town. The break occurred when a road maintainer hooked the line and cut a gash in it. A crew of men came out of Plainview and repaired the break as quick as possible. When such an accident occurs every meter in town has to be turned off and then the break is repaired. Men have to go around and turn on each meter and check the home or business house to see there are no open jets. This takes considerable time, but is a safety measure all users should and do appreciate.

Everything came to a standstill Tuesday, more especially business houses such as the Journal and Bakery that cannot turn a wheel when the gas is off. The gas was turned on in Petersburg on December 31, 1930, and we believe this is the first major shut down since that time, which speaks well for the gas company.

Marfa is going to have a bit of the Alamo. Each county in Texas will get a piece of stone from the Texas shrine where 155 out-numbered Texans, commanded by Col. W. B. Travis, fought in 1836 until death rather than surrender to Mexican forces.

Facsimile copies of a Travis letter in which he wrote, "We shall never surrender or retreat," will be sent with the stone pieces.

The Texas Memorial museum and the Texas Heritage foundation are cooperating on the project.

Views and Comments—

That you can and might price yourself out of business is an old business adage that is entitled to serious thought on the part of working peoples' organizations. We note in particular interest, strike talk and strike vote among some of the telephone workers. If the public gets in mind that part of their troubles with the telephone companies stem from the companies' troubles with their employees it would not be too good public relations, especially if the demands of the employees appeared to be above and beyond good common sense. The trend of the times for prices is down, not up. The steel makers, to illustrate, keep wanting the public to pay higher and higher prices. Among the few industries which can justify an increase in whole or part, that we know about, are the oil people and their one-cent increase. A large part of the price one pays for gasoline is a sales tax under a pseudonym.

Old Inky Says—

Local pharmacists tell us that all three local medicos write pretty legible prescriptions.

But Bob Turner was telling about a doctor who wrote a prescription to one of his friends.

The patient used it for two years as a railroad pass. Twice it got him into Radio City Music Hall, and once into Ebbets Field. It came in handy as a letter from his employer to the cashier to increase his salary. And to cap the climax, his daughter played it on the piano and won a scholarship to the Curtis Music Conservatory.

Mrs. Grady Williams, knowing her 4-year-old son, Butch, disliked to attend church, asked him, "Butch, why don't you like to go to Sunday School? You are always so good when you are in God's house, why don't you like to go there?"

"Where's God's house?" Butch asked.

"The church where you go to Sunday School," his mother replied.

"Well, he isn't ever at home," said Butch.

We can't wax frothy over the American GI's who deserted to the communist ranks in Korea. In the first place, all Americans are entitled to choose their political affiliations without reprisal. We think they are entitled to renounce their citizenship and their birthright—that goes with the privileges we Americans reserve to ourselves. In the second place, it gets just that many cruds out of our midst. We've got enough loyal and disloyal riff-raff to contend with now, and the commies have done us a great service in engaging the talents of these people. For our part, we favor making it mighty easy for similarly inclined citizens of this country to get out of it and into one they consider more desirable.

It's confusion, by gum! Seminole softball and damyankee baseball just get into the heat of battle and up crops a pair of all-star grid games to sneak in and break up our line of thought. The Cracker Barrel—

While dining at the Western Hills we overheard two elderly women at the adjoining table discussing their domestic trouble, which had to do with dog food. "Tootsie just doesn't have an appetite anymore," one dowager commented to the other. We thought of suggesting that we ship her one of the purebred mongrels that roams the streets of Olton. They'll eat anything including each other.

Pity the poor federal government—they now own only 450 million acres of land and water inside the United States. No wonder we have such trouble yanking a tide-land or two out from under them—they've barely got room now to turn around without knocking the hide off their elbows.

The Fifth Plate

The present birthrate in the United States indicates that one extra person will be sitting at every American table for four by 1975. People are now asking: "Where is the food coming from to fill this fifth plate?"

If population forecasters are right, our agricultural production will have to increase 20 per cent to feed the next generation as well as we are eating now. This means a big demand for additional food.

In the past, such demands have led to drastic changes in the lives of many people. When the Irish potato crop failed in 1845, hundreds of thousands left their native country to find homes in the United States. As the population increased in the eastern states, people moved west, opening new land and advancing the frontier.

In World War I, American farmers expanded their production by putting vast acreages of land into cash crops. And you all know the years of distress that followed when the war-time market collapsed in the 20's.

When a second World War again demanded the utmost of the farmers, they increased production by nearly one-third. This was about the limit of our production capacity at that time.

Today, each farmer now raises enough to feed himself and about 15 others. And there are 7,000 new babies to be fed in the United States every morning of the year. New farmers and new farms can't be created fast enough to keep the ratio balanced.

If we have to raise our sights to feed a permanently expanding population, where shall we turn this time? There are no new frontiers of first-rate land to be opened up. Only a little more than one-fifth of our land area is now being used for crops, so millions more acres could be put into cultivation—but the investment for irrigation alone would be staggering.

The problem is not a new one. About 150 years ago, Thomas

Malthus, a brilliant but rather short-sighted English economist forecast starvation for the human race because the world population, he said, was outstripping agricultural production. But Malthus was wrong. He underestimated the farmer's ingenuity in constantly improving his crop raising methods.

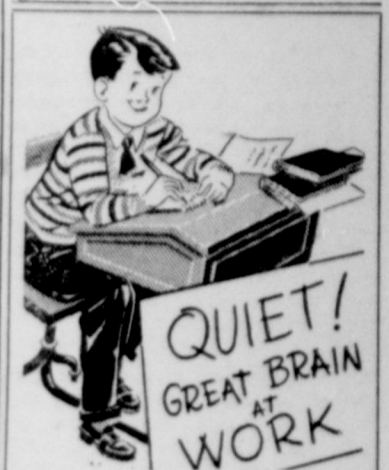

The answer, then, lies in a greater application of science to agriculture. We must find new ways to apply research to agricultural production and teach approximately the present number of farmers to use new scientific knowledge on approximately the present area of cropland.

We have nothing to fear from the "fifth plate" as long as the farmer continues to increase his per-acre yields, improve his soil conservation practices and work for better plant and animal breeding.

Methodists Seek Usable Clothing For War Victims

A "Clothes for Korea" drive, sponsored by the Methodist Men's Fellowship, will begin here Tuesday, Sept. 1, and will continue through Sept. 15, it was announced this week by Alex Webb, president.

Being sought are all kinds of usable clothing and shoes (except high-heeled shoes), it has been explained by W. L. Holloman, drive chairman.

Those who wish to make clothing contributions may deliver the clothing to the Eighth Street entrance of White Auto Store, or may call the Slatonite (phone 201) to have the clothing picked up.

"We sincerely hope that members of all denominations will join with us in working toward a goodly number of contributions for a very worthy cause," Holloman commented. The Slaton campaign is part of a districtwide Methodist Men's Fellowship drive to obtain clothing for needy Koreans.

Other drive committeemen include C. A. Womack, A. C. Burk, W. T. Wyatt, B. H. Guest and Francis E. Perry.

The Methodist Men's Fellowship has scheduled a church banquet and work night for Monday, Sept. 21, to repair and pack the clothing, Webb said.

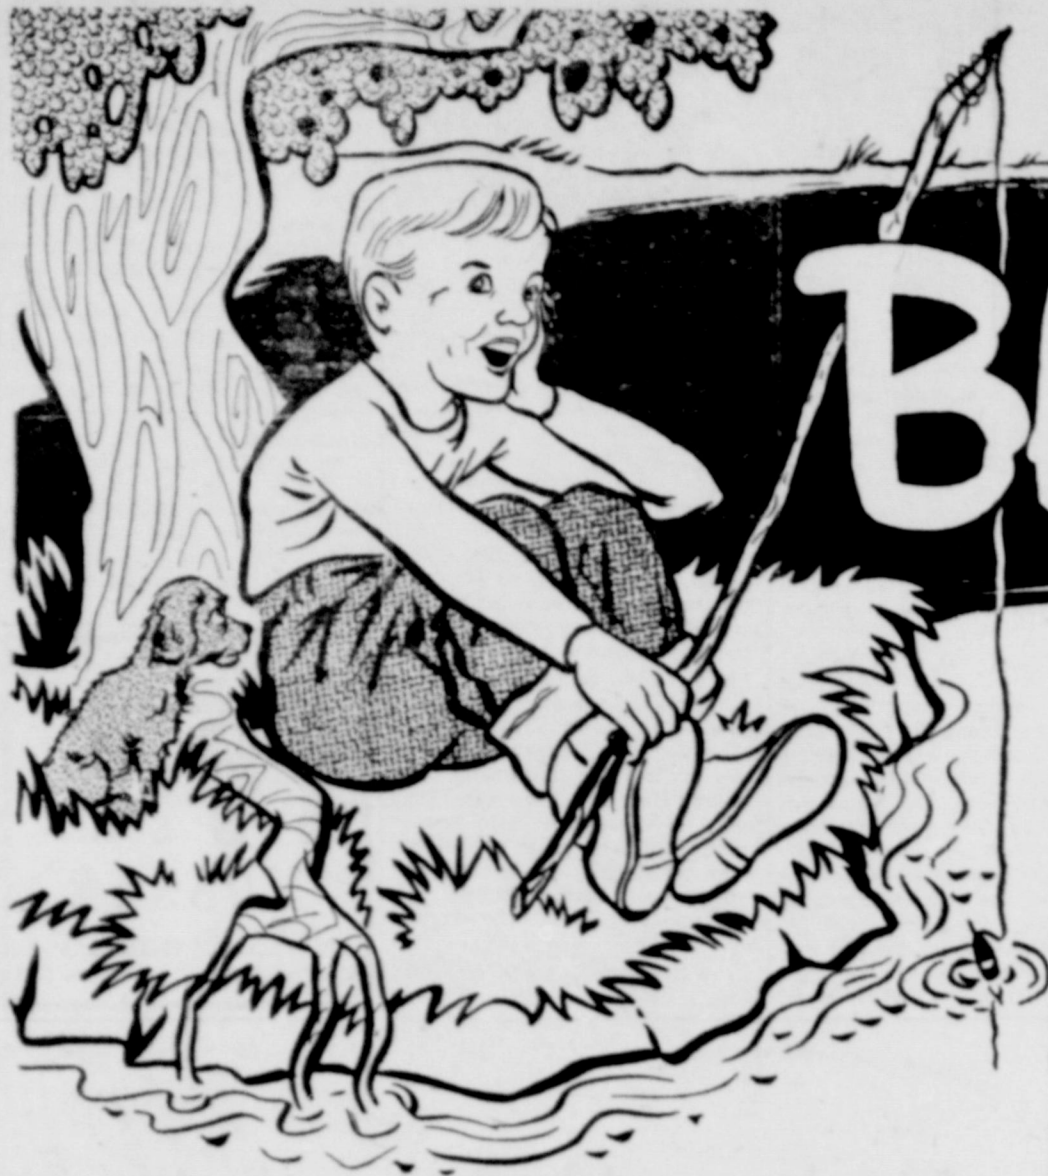

GRIDDERS LIMBER UP

Slaton High School grid hopefuls began non-supervised workouts this week at Tiger Stadium. Among the swimsuit-clad Tigers taking part in the limbering-up drills this week are Darrell Wiley, Joe Sparkman, Stan White, Jerry Reynolds, Bob Tefertiller, Dean Goad, David Collins, Tommy Shearer, Ronald Woollever, James George, Roland German, Don Wright, Dale Kincer and Dickie Thomas. Supervised workouts will begin on Tuesday, Sept. 1.

QUELL TRACTOR BLAZE

Slaton volunteer firemen about 7:30 o'clock Wednesday morning were called to the Leon Walston farm 3 1/2 miles northwest of Slaton to extinguish a tractor fire. Damage was not extensive, according to Fire Chief Elbert Wilson. The blaze reportedly started when a Negro farm worker was filling the tractor with gasoline while the engine was running.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bruce and children, Betty Ann and Becky of Snyder visited with Rev. and Mrs. Ed Goron Sunday. Mrs. Bruce and Mrs. Goron taught school together down in the Valley about seven years ago, and had not seen each other since.

Midwinter Market Features Festive Holiday Fashions

Mr. D. P. Gentry attended the Midwinter Market and Holiday Fashion Association's winter and holiday market in Dallas this week. Over 5,000 buyers filled the Dallas hotels to overflow during the Women's Apparel Market August 16-21.

The two breakfast clinic style markets held August 18 and 19 in the ballroom of the Hotel Adolphus set the gala Christmas theme for the market. The shows, entitled, "Momentous Holiday Season—Moments That Bring Big Business," emphasized selling for the occasions which start with the Thanksgiving week end and end with New Year's Eve.

Festive holiday fashions shown in the runway were chosen from the Midwinter and Holiday lines and were shown in the market. The clinic was under the direction of Mrs. Evelyn Lambert who also commented.

The American Fashion Association, comprised of 500 manufacturers, representatives, displayed over 100 lines of women's and children's apparel at the Adolphus and at the next market week will be in Dallas October 25-30 and feature Resort and Advance Dressing Fashions.

Mrs. Gentry says she saw no extra short skirts, neither at the market nor in downtown Dallas. Most of the dresses and suits were of the current length.

Mrs. Gentry, who is not in agreement with Dior's idea for changing the fashion picture, says she wants women in this area who want to wear knee length dresses to have to buy the longer styles and shorten them.

CAMPBELL-WILKE VOWS READ AT WILSON CHURCH SATURDAY NITE

The First Baptist Church at Wilson was the scene Saturday night when Miss Mary Frances Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Campbell of Wilson, became the bride of Carlton Wallace Wilke. Double ring vows were read by the Rev. John A. Martin at an altar of white gladioli and lemon leaves under an archway of gladioli and candles.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben O. Wilke of Wilson are the bridegroom's parents.

Mrs. John T. Sims, organist, offered traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Floyd Foerster, who sang, "O Promise Me" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original model gown of white nylon tulle over taffeta designed with a portrait neckline outlined with embroidered applique. The fitted bodice had small shirred sleeves and was joined to an immense shirred skirt of tulle, encircled at the hipline with a band of applique, which swept into a chapel train.

From a tiara-type cap fell her veil of silk illusion. The cap was trimmed with iridescent sequins and pearls. She carried a cascading bouquet of white stephanotis.

Mrs. Leonard Brieger attended the bride as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Joyce Lou Gooch of Earth and Miss Mona Ruth Campbell of Lubbock. The identical dresses of the attendants were of green net over taffeta. Velvet ribbons were tied around the waistlines. They wore net headdresses and carried bouquets of pink asters.

Candles were lighted by Miss Sue Campbell of Wilson and Stanley Krause of Tahoka.

Curtis Wilke served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Leonard Brieger, Pete Bruedigam and Theo Campbell of Wilson and Welton Becker of Slaton.

Rainbow Sweetheart Contest Nears Close; Talent Show Planned

"Who will be the Sweetheart of the Rainbow Girls? Well, your guess is as good as ours, but we'll all find out at the big Talent Show and Coronation to be held Friday, Sept. 4, at 8 p.m., in the Slaton High School auditorium."

Card of Thanks

I want to extend my humble thanks to all the people of Slaton, to Mr. and Mrs. Ley Berry who offered me a home and with whom I spent during my daughter's confinement at the hospital, to all people in whose homes my mother-in-law and I dined, to the ladies who loaned night gowns, to the ladies who brought candy and cake to the hospital, to the ladies who brought me to all the Spanish speaking people who offered me their home with whom I dined and for their donation of money; to the Pro Iglesia, to the Amigos Guadalupeans who also helped money; to Mr. Savina and to their donation of blood and the many offers; to Mr. Arto to the doctors and the staff of the Mercy Hospital and to many more whose names I cannot get. I will be forever grateful. Also to Mr. and Mrs. Thertford and the Robinsons who, although their mother sister were seriously ill never stopped looking out for our welfare. May God bless each and every one of you.
