Plan, Funds for City Square Parking Area Presented City Commission

A plan whereby off-the-street parking for some 72 cars could be obtained for Slaton was presented the City Commission Monday night by members of the Slaton Chamber of Commerce and Junior Chamber of Commerce.

B. M. Pember, Don Crow, Paul Melton and John Schmidt appeared before the commission to present a plan for construction of parking facilities on the City Hall square. Also placed at the commission's disposal were $2,000 in funds donated by merchants and landlords of stores on the square and $2,000 of Chamber of Commerce funds, with which construction costs could be paid.

The plans called for parking areas to be paved, with one row of parking space around the square. One-way traffic within the parking areas would facilitate flow of traffic.

Primarily the parking area would be for use of store owners and their employees, in order to leave parking space nearer the stores available for customers.

As presented to the commission, the plans called for the paved area to cover a strip 30 feet wide around the entire square. Entrance to the parking areas would be from the four corner entrances to the square now in existence.

Curbing around existing trees would protect the trees, and not necessitate their removal. Store and building owners making donations toward construction of the parking area included the following:

Slaton Pharmacy, Mrs. S. H. Adams, Kertan Studio, Dr. J. W. Belote, Lemon Barber Shop, Mrs. J. D. Norris, E-Z Wash Laundromat, Brewer Insurance, C. R. Anthony, The Slatonite, Wheeler's.

Dr. Don Hatchett, Howard Hoffman, Teague-Walton, Southwestern Public Service Company, Lasater-Hoffman, Slaton Steam Laundry, McSweeney Clinic, B. G. Guinn Estate, Ben Franklin Store.

O. Z. Ball & Co., Bain Auto Store, Slaton Gift Shop, Palace Barber Shop, Teague Drug, Western Auto Store, Champion Jewelry, Masonic Lodge, W. E. Smart, Walton Drug, Claude Anderson, Citizens State Bank.

Oran McWilliams, Oree Glasscock, Marinell Studio, Eaves Grocery, Slaton Farm Store, and Reed's Drive-In.

Estimated cost of construction will be about $6,000, Pember said. Funds furnished the City Commission would take care of the majority of cash expenditures necessary, with the remainder of the cost coming in labor and materials available to the City.

Traffic Safety Improvements Planned on Road

The Texas Highway Department will spend $200,000 for traffic safety improvements in Lubbock County during 1958, D. C. Greer, state highway engineer, has announced.

This amount is in addition to the regular construction and maintenance program.

An unprecedented $25 million was appropriated exclusively for safety improvements designed to give Texans safer traveling on high-traffic volume roads. The new program is formed from an engineering study of accident rates against the state's average fatal-plus injury rate of 70.1. Those spots in the state highway system that average higher than that rate are the ones being earmarked for work under this program.

Greer stated that the Traffic Safety Program would be directed toward 918 miles of highways in 104 counties. The 158 projects scheduled will be on highways which carry traffic volumes of from 600 to 3,000 vehicles per day.

Narrow pavements will be widened and shoulders improved. Culverts and structures at hazardous locations will be widened, and dangerous curves flattened. In addition, other safety features were programmed—channelization of traffic, control of access with barriers along hazardous sections, control of access with frontage roads at points of congestion and similar work.

Projects for Lubbock county include work on Farm Road 400 from the Hale County Line to US Highway 82, a distance of about 11.2 miles, with reconstruction of base and surface and surface shoulders.

Police Investigating Thefts; Jail 11 Persons During Week

Some 43 calls were received by the Slaton Police Department during the past week. Three reports of hub caps were made, along with reports of theft of fender skirts, mirrors, spare tires, and two batteries.

One set of hubcaps which was stolen from a local car was recovered in Post this week.

Two Slaton youths were being questioned this week in connection with theft of a toolbox and tools Saturday night. No charges had been filed at mid-week.

Eleven persons were jailed during the week. Charges included drunkenness, attempt to pass a forged instrument, and drunk in car. One man was fined $85 on a charge of indecent exposure and drunkenness.

Eleven traffic tickets were issued. Violations included running a red light, failure to grant right of way, driving without an operator's license, and speeding.

Millions have seen Grabel in action and look back with pleasure on the thrilling and memorable entertainment he has given them.

Grabel is respected as the world's greatest illusionist, and is an elegant performer with the most elaborate Mystery Review in the nation, involving tons of illusions and scenery.

He is a native of Portland, Oregon, and moved as a young man to California. That state is his headquarters for his tours.

In 1936 he received a Houdini award for showmanship skill, and in 1940 portions of his review were featured at the San Francisco World Exposition.

Grabel is assisted on stage by a full company of assisting artists, featuring Glamorous Helene. The show's experimental theater and workshops are located in the San Ramon Valley outside San Francisco.

Critics have agreed: "For the treat of your life, for an unforgettable experience—see the Great Grabel and Review."

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Bennett and their children, Donnie and Sherry, of Abilene visited Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Bennett's aunts, Mrs. C. E. Warder and Miss Murlie Holdren.

Poll Tax Deadline Friday Slaton Sales Slow

Nearly 500 poll taxes have been issued by the local tax assessor-collector, Mrs. F. A. Drewry, according to a report from her office at mid-week.

Final deadline for obtaining the poll tax receipts is Friday, January 31.

All voters must possess poll tax receipts in order to vote, whether it be a regular poll tax or an exemption.

This may be common knowledge to others, but it's strictly new to me. It sounds a little ridiculous at first, but some say it works. If you suffer from asthma, you might give it a try and find out for yourself whether or not keeping a Chihuahua dog in your bedroom relieves the asthmatic condition.

I was discussing the pros and cons with Mrs. McClanahan, and she tells me that the meaning of the word Chihuahua is supposed to be "medicine."

At any rate, there are many Slatonites who already own the minute dogs, and one thing is for sure. They love the little creatures. Mrs. Pettigrew, the girl scout leader, has one. Mrs. Cooper at the Slaton Pharmacy owns one. The Rush Wheeler family has one. The C. E. Hogue family has one.

Rumor or Fact? I don't know and might have let it pass at that, but I picked up The Andrews County News and read an account about a man that sells the dogs chiefly to asthma sufferers. The story in part: "It's a special breed of dog that he is selling... the female must weigh a minimum of four pounds before whelping a litter—the males must never be over two pounds." "Maybe its strictly psychological—but one sure thing—it sells those dogs."

Sixteen Candidates Named for Chamber Board of Directors

Sixteen men have been nominated for directors in the Slaton Chamber of Commerce. Balloting closed last Monday for the nominations.

The directors named in the election to be held at the annual Chamber banquet February 10 will serve for a three year term. Five men will be named to the board.

Candidates will include R. E. Ayers, Joe Belote, Vasker Browning, Bob Clodfelter, Robert H. Davis, A. H. Grigsby, Melvin Kunkel, M. H. Lasater, Wayne Liles, Dr. John Locke, Bill H. Smith, Joe Teague III, Bland Tomlinson, Lee Vardy, Charlie Walton and Rush Wheeler.

Retiring directors include Bruce Pember, Don Britt, Leroy Holt, Francis E. Perry, and Earl Reasoner.

Hold-over directors are Truett Babb, Sherrill Boyd, Don Crow, Bill Ball, Clark Self Jr., Ray Belt, M. G. Davis, Don Hatchett, John Schmidt, and Ted Swanner.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Layne Jr. and their little son, David, arrived in Slaton last Thursday for an extended visit with Mr. Layne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Layne. The Laynes have been living in Grand Haven, Michigan where he has operated an air port. He has sold his business and plans to find another location.

Rotarians Hear Classification Talk Thursday

Rush Wheeler, owner of Wheeler's Department Store, presented his Classification Talk before the Slaton Rotary Club last Thursday. W. C. Williams was program chairman for the day.

Following a discussion of his classification, "Department Store Owner," Wheeler presented three vocal solos, "Without a Song," "Old Man River," and "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You."

Guests included Abe Kessel, Dallas, and John Whitcomb and Howard Collins of Lubbock.

Long Lines Anticipated In Auto Inspection Rush

Texas motorists may be lined up for blocks before neighborhood automobile safety inspection stickers for cars and trucks, Major R. A. Crowder, Commander of Region 5 of the Texas Department of Public Safety, announced today.

"Of the half-million vehicles in the Department of Public Safety's Region 5, only 125,000 have received state inspection stickers," said Captain Alan Johnson, Commander of Motor Vehicle Inspection Service of Region 5. "Eleven weeks remain in which to obtain 1958 stickers and there are 375,000 vehicles still to be inspected in the 60 counties of Region 5."

"Texas law requires that motorists have the safety stickers on all registered motor vehicles by midnight, April 15. In addition, all trailers registered in Texas which exceed 4000 pounds gross weight must have safety stickers," Johnson said.

Last year, thousands of motorists lined up at motor vehicle inspection stations after waiting until the "last minute" to have automobiles, trucks and trailers inspected.

Captain Johnson pointed out that almost every town in the state has a number of motor vehicle inspection stations and he added that motorists will be able to get quick service and avoid the last minute rush by having vehicles inspected early.

The Motor Vehicle Inspection Program, since its inception in 1952, has reduced the state's traffic accidents by 10 per cent, Johnson explained.

"Before the Inspection Program was started, mechanical defects in vehicles was a causative factor in 13 per cent of the state's traffic accidents. However, only three per cent of the state's traffic accidents are caused by mechanical defects now," Johnson said.

There are 600 motor vehicle inspection stations in Region 5, an average of 10 stations per county for the Region's 60-county area, and some of the larger cities have up to 60 stations.

"But even with all those inspection stations," Johnson warned, "there will be long lines of cars and trucks waiting for inspection during the last few days before the deadline for obtaining safety stickers—that is, unless many motorists remember to have their cars inspected soon."

An almond tree usually reaches a height of 20 or 30 feet.

NEARLY GROWN UP—What nicer party could one have for a group of little girls than a "dress up" party with lipstick, high heels and long dresses? These little ladies, members of Girl Scout Troop 99, met for just such a party at the home of their leader, Mrs. W. L. Roche, Monday afternoon. Seen in the picture are Pamela Davis, Marilyn Edwards, Nancy Edwards, Carla Fondy, Darlene Gill, Janis Henry, Shirley Hodges, Linda Longtin, Barbara Meeks, Janice Mosley, Melody

Polk, Patricia Rackler, Vicki Roche, Donna St. John, Cindy Sherwood, Jane Tefertiller, Margaret Tillery, Kay Tumlinson; two guests, Judy West and Sherron Jene Jones of Plainview. Three members of the troop were not present for the picture. They included Karen Caldwell, Judy Dawson and Sharon Walters. Leaders at the party were Mmes. J. E. Gill, M. E. Mosley, Jack Sherwood and Roche.

POLITICAL OPPORTUNITY

In the unlikely event that the fact has escaped anyone's attention, let it be noted that 1958 will be a year of heavy politicking. Some may naively have supposed that, because of the urgent need for unified action to shore up our defenses, politics would be held somewhat in abeyance. On the contrary, the chances seem good that the political shillelghs will be swung with a will.

Any who retained doubts on this point must have seen the way of it when Republican leaders came out fighting at "Salute to Eisenhower" dinner across the nation—and when Democrats promptly retorted in kind. Despite President Eisenhower's call for a political truce, at least with regard to the issues of security and peace, the warriors are entering the lists with visors down and lances at the ready.

This was more or less to have been expected. Politicians do not easily shed their combative instincts in an election year. Even while acknowledging that the times demand a concerted assault to meet Russia's challenge in science and technology, the politicians will not resist the temptation to blame the opposition for real or imagined past shortcomings.

This is a matter of great public concern. It is important, not only that there be substantial unity in dealing with problems of security, but that political debate be carried on at a high level. The year 1958 gives America an unmatched opportunity to show the world that the people of a free nation can debate the great issues of the day and still do, in reasonable harmony, what needs to be done. It is an opportunity not to be muffed.

CULTURAL GROWTH

Editorial duty, not to be shirked, calls for an occasional whack at sorry aspects of American culture. This does not mean that one must be blind to the positive side of the picture. Herewith, an accent on the positive.

In spite of such distressing things as the spate of trashy magazines, television programs at the adolescent level, and rock 'n' roll music, there are indications that the United States is moving toward some cultural maturity. No longer can it be said that when it comes to painting, literature and music we are merely a branch on the European tree.

Madison Square Garden in New York City has just been the scene, for example, of a huge exhibition of American painting and sculpture—some 1,500 items from 40 states. Though quantity is no guarantee of quality, such a show at least suggests a healthy state of activity in the visual arts.

Not long ago Leonard Bernstein took the baton as permanent conductor of the New York Philharmonic. He is the first American-born conductor to ascend that renowned podium, and he is one of the shining lights of the international world of music. Then there is the fact that "Vanessa," an opera by the American composer Samuel Barber (libretto by Gian-Carlo Menotti), received its world premiere recently at the Metropolitan Opera House.

These events give promise that the United States will gradually find an honored place in the cultural galaxy. That is heartening, because cultural strength and maturity are important to full national development.

TRIPLE-ACTION MESSAGE

Anyone who feels that American ingenuity is on the wane can restore his faith by browsing in the reports issued by the U.S. Patent Office. Articles on which patents were recently issued include, for example, a mechanical horse and calf for training ropers, a new device for giving oneself a haircut, a switch system intended to replace the auto ignition key, a triple-action mechanical message table, and an instrument for detecting insect pests in grain.

These items are not mentioned with the thought that readers will rush out to buy one of each. Isn't it heartening, though, to know that folks who must go through life without a cow pony and a calf to practice their roping can now acquire mechanical substitutes? And won't it be peachy, after a session with same, to crawl up onto that triple-action message table for a soothing treatment? We may not have sputnik, but look what we do have!

A 2,400-mile undersea telephone cable is now in service between the U.S. and Hawaii, assuring conversation service without danger of satellite travelers listening in.

GOD'S ACADEMIC CROWNING

FFA Chapter Has Busy Month

Giles Smith was chosen as FFA "Boy of the Month" for December at a recent FFA meeting. He was chosen on a basis of points of which he had 37. These were received for his activities in various activities.

Smith won his points by attending the officers' meeting and the regular FFA meeting; helping pull the FFA cotton and listing the land after the cotton was pulled. Six hours were spent on this project. He was on the senior chapter conducting team which won second in the state and he added a home library during the month of December.

Officers Meet

Officers of Slaton Future Farmers of America held an official business meeting at Underwood's in Lubbock early in January.

At the meeting, led by Trust Babb, advisor of the local chapter, the group discussed upcoming events in the local chapter. It was decided to present the idea of holding a project tour, having a scrap iron drive and attending the Southwestern Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth the last of this month before the regular meeting.

Regular officers, the advisor and one guest, Jerry Allen, attended the meeting.

Regular Meeting

The regular meeting of the chapter was held in the VA room on Tuesday, January 14 with the opening and closing ceremonies.

Twenty-three members attended the meeting and decided to have a project tour and a home library check within the next week. They also voted to have a Father-Son banquet, the time to be decided at a later date.

Leadership Training

Leadership training and parliamentary procedure have been stressed during the past semester. According to Babb, this is a subject of vital importance to vocational agriculture students. In addition to being valuable training for adult life it prepares students for conducting meetings while they are in high school.

As a part of FFA leadership program, contests are held in chapter conducting, Farm skill demonstration, FFA quiz and farm radio broadcasting.

Slaton's two chapter conducting teams this year won two second places in the state meet. This was the first time Slaton has ever placed at state and the second time Slaton has been represented at the state meet. Boys who participated in the contests this year are ineligible to enter next year.

Mrs. J. W. Gentry from San Angelo spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hodge, and family.

STRENGTH FOR THE WEEK

By Bryan Ross
Westview Baptist Church

There are many promises in the Sermon on the Mount. One of these is also found in the 21st verse of Luke 6. "Blessed are ye that hunger: for ye shall be filled."

The persons referred to here are those who have kept spiritual appetite for righteousness. These are the ones, who like the rich young ruler, run eagerly to "know what they must do to inherit eternal life." These are the folks who are earnestly desirous of gaining the favor and likeness of the Lord.

Naturally the honest and right thing for man to do is to seek God. God has given to us all that we are and all that we have. To be blind and deaf when He is calling is to be foolish indeed.

Seeking God is the noble thing to do. To seek, hunger, and thirst after him and his righteousness, is the true heritage of our manhood. Surely there should be sympathy for the one who does not hunger for righteousness.

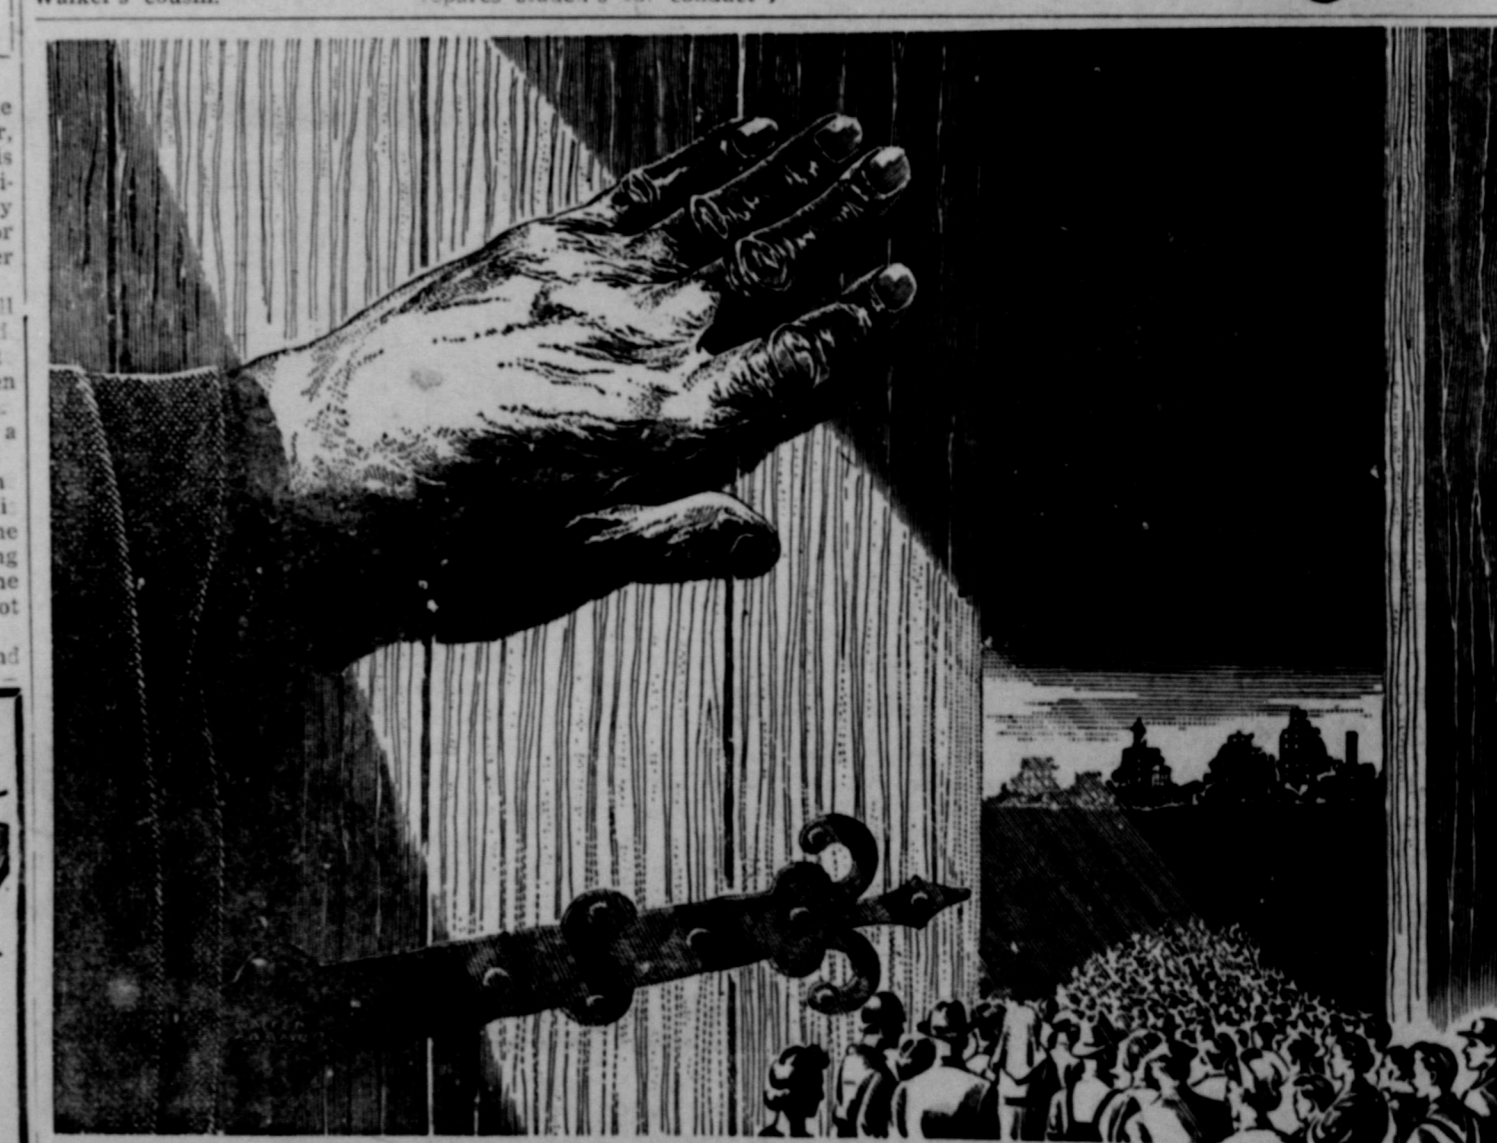

The promise is that if we will hunger, that we shall be filled. Surely no earthly joy is going to fill our souls. We might even gain all that earth has to offer, but find that there is still a craving for something more.

The love of God and the spending of our time in His service is that which fills the heart with a restful and abiding joy, and which brightens the life with a light that does not fade.

As we grow older we find that many of the joys of childhood, and early adulthood fade away, but the fullness of joy that the Lord gives becomes more and more precious still. "Blessed are they that hunger: thus: for they shall be filled."

Mr. and Mrs. Webber Line from O'Donnell, Texas, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Walker Sr. Sunday. Mrs. Line is Mrs. Walker's cousin.

Light Leads Our People

Each day a new door opens. What it reveals on the other side, for the people who must pass over its threshold, depends upon the conditions under which they lived their yesterdays.

Those in some countries look through the door upon a new day shadowed with oppressions, where there are few freedoms, tyrannies abound and living is hard and cold.

Those of us in America are more fortunate. Opening the door each day, we are met by the light of freedom which has led our destiny for many years. Protecting that freedom has been — and always will be — a Press that will not succumb to dictation or overpowering despotism.

For the light that leads to all freedoms is Freedom of the Press: Education . . . information of all kinds . . . news of all that transpires . . . and the open discussion of opinions and ideas that sharpens understanding.

Complete freedom of speech and of the press is the light that builds understanding, helping all mankind to advance onward and upward through the opening door of each tomorrow.

Teague Drug Monthly News

A message from Teague's Drug, "Your Pharmacist"

WHEN YOU BUY VITAMINS, you want to be positive that they are high quality, formulated to give you the proper dosage, dependably fresh and fairly priced.

THEREFORE, IT IS NOT WISE to gamble with your health, by permitting untrained and often unknown door-to-door salesmen to influence you to buy vitamins, usually made by firms who have no long standing as reputable pharmaceutical manufacturers.

THE VITAMINS WE SUPPLY are made by the reliable drug firms who provide us with our prescription medicines. Every ingredient is assayed for purity and carefully controlled by every possible safeguard for accuracy and proper potency. Physicians recommend them. They are also fairly priced to give you honest value.

FEBRUARY'S CHANGEABLE WEATHER often lowers your body's natural energy. A good vitamin can be helpful. Have you visited our vitamin department lately?

A Tuesday visitor in the Slatonite office was Fred Higbee, who says he and his parents were the first residents of Slaton. The Higbees moved here from Lubbock in 1909, and started the Slaton post office January 10, 1910. Fred's father, George Higbee, was Slaton's first postmaster. After Mr. Higbee's death, his wife, Annie F. Higbee, became postmistress and served in that capacity until 1919.

It was George Higbee, Fred recalls, that named Slaton. The senior Higbee, according to his son, originally submitted the name "Slaton", had that name rejected by governmental authorities, and changed it to "Slaton."

Fred Higbee recalled that Slaton's first bank was originally in the building now occupied by the Slatonite office, that he hunted ducks and coyotes in the vicinity of the old Santa Fe lake and one winter made a "whopping good $14 on the sale of coyote pelts." Among his early acquaintances here, he said, were Joe Teague, Deacon Henry, Fred Whitehead and Claude Anderson.

Conservation Practices Are Installed Here

In conservation work being accomplished by the Soil Conservation Service recently A. A. Winamer of Rt. 1 Slaton, is installing terraces on his farm 3 1/2 miles west of Slaton.

Winamer was assisted by SCS technicians in running the terrace lines. Half of the 320 acre dryland farm was terraced last year with such good results that Winamer is now terracing the remainder of the farm.

Monetary assistance for installation of the practice will be made by the Agricultural Conservation Program.

James Williams, who farms north of Acuff this week leveled part of his land for more efficient use of rainfall and irrigation water.

Persons interested in land leveling, terraces, laterals and other conservation practices are urged to contact the Soil Conservation Service office in Lubbock.

ness College.

Coach Polk Robison's Raiders have their work cut out for them at College Station. After a slow start, the Aggies were good enough to defeat Southern Methodist, the team that beat Tech in Lubbock.

Tech looked ragged while pulling into a second place tie with Rice, A&M, and SMU, with a 74-60 win over Baylor in Lubbock Saturday night. Much of the Raiders' erratic play could be charged to the 12-night lay-off and the strain of examinations, but Coach Bill Henderson's Bears did an outstanding job of breaking up Tech plays.

Pacing the Raiders was their one-two punch from Sudan, Leon Hill, with 22 points, and Charlie Lynch with 21.

Slaton Women Give Their Favorite Tested Recipes

A woman surrounded with Mike, 15; Bill, 14; and Pat, 8 men is Mrs. Rush Wheeler. When questioned as to her position in a household filled with men, Mrs. Wheeler laughed and remarked, that "like everything else, has its advantages and disadvantages." She left the impression, tho, that she rather liked the attention she received from the admiring males.

The Wheeler family moved to Slaton six months ago from Floydada. They are enthusiastic about Slaton as their hometown. Mrs. Wheeler pointed out the advantages for her boys, Tiger Town, for the teenagers, Mike and Bill, and the Pony League that Pat will be able to enjoy next year; also the swimming pool for their summer fun and the skating rink to be enjoyed all the year around.

The newest member of The Daughters of Pioneer Study Club, Mrs. Wheeler collects milk glass and "dabbles at art and painting." Her home is filled with lovely things that she has made using old picture frames, and artificial fruits and flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler are members of First Methodist Church, and both work with the young peoples group. They are also interested and have been active in PTA work, having served in Floydada PTA as president and co-president of that organization.

Favorite Recipe

One hen cooked until tender. Remove hen from broth and cool. Save broth, cut chicken in small pieces. In a covered sauce pan put 1/2 cup Crisco, add chopped, 1 large onion, 2 green bell peppers and 1 stalk celery. Cook until clear but do not brown. Add 2 cans tomato paste. Add chopped chicken and cook slowly for a few minutes. While this is cooking, cook one package of long spaghetti in broth. Just before ready to serve add chicken mixture to spaghetti and also 1 bottle of cut stuffed olives and 1 cup grated cheese. Keep hot until ready to serve.

You'll never beat this offer. Name your own price for three days at Home Furniture.

Home Mortgage Plan Will Benefit Applicants

If a person is qualified from an income standpoint, it is definitely to his advantage to obtain a 20-year FHA mortgage rather than a 25-year, explained C. J. Hermann, Executive Secretary of the Voluntary Home Mortgage Credit Program for Region XIII, covering the states of Texas and New Mexico.

Hermann explained that the difference in the monthly payment is only 74¢ per thousand dollars, or $8.88 per year. For this small increase in monthly payment, there is a saving of $207.00 per thousand dollars of loan amount. For example, if an individual desired a $10,000.00 loan, and could afford to do so, he would save $2,070.00 by making a 20-year rather than 25-year loan. It would increase his monthly payments only $7.40.

Hermann stated that he had received numerous applications from individuals seeking 25-year loans who later refused a 20-year offer for a mortgage lender, even though they were financially capable of making the increased payments. Although FHA in many instances was willing to insure up to 25 years, the lending institution desired for one reason or another to limit the term of the loan to 20 years.

The Voluntary Home Mortgage Credit Program, which Hermann directs for Texas and New Mexico, is designed to provide the mechanism for private lending institutions to make available FHA loans in small towns and remote areas where they are not generally available. The VHMCP charges no fee or commissions, and simply seeks to serve as a clearing house to bring together the qualified applicants and the willing lenders.

Hermann stated that in spite of the still tight mortgage market, there are quite a few lending institutions still affording the Program their assistance. An individual seeking to buy an existing home, or those who desire to build a home under FHA specifications and who are unable to obtain local financing, may well find that VHMCP is the answer to their problem.

Hermann further explained that while VHMCP is certainly not the answer for every financing problem, it has enabled thousands of individuals to obtain an FHA loan, who, without the assistance of the Program, would have been unable to do so.

The FHA rate of 5 1/4% is becoming more and more attractive to the lending institutions with the leveling off of interest rate on competitive investments. Unfortunately, the 4 1/4% VA interest rate has eliminated the lending institutions under VHMCP from the VA market entirely.

Those seeking further information or assistance may write for application forms by addressing the VHMCP at 1114 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas.

Walkers Return From Soil Meet

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Walker Sr. returned home the last of the week from attending the Texas Soil Conservation District Supervisors Meeting at Corpus Christi. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Judge Smith and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Legg. Others attending from this district were Mr. and Mrs. Finas Griffin of Union and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grey of Lubbock.

Mr. Walker reports that this was one of the best meetings they have ever attended. Highlighting the meeting was an address by Marion Monk, president of the Louisiana Association of Soil Conservation District; and an address by Gov. Price Daniel, governor of Texas.

Mr. Griffin was one of 25 from the 172 districts in Texas to receive the high award for "Outstanding Conservation Work" on his farm.

Mrs. Bennie Johns and son, Cal, from Lubbock spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Delma Hodge. Her husband, who is stationed at Reese Air Force Base, was on a cross country flight to Miami, Florida.

Sense of Belonging Termed Necessary in Combatting State's Juvenile Delinquency

(Ed. Note: This is one of a series of articles on the state's growing problem of juvenile delinquency by one of Texas' foremost authorities on the subject, District Judge Sarah T. Hughes of Dallas.)

Real love in the life of a child, so necessary in combatting juvenile delinquency, is not trying to "possess" him, not just giving him material things. It is giving him a sense of his own significance in his home and among his friends.

Real love does not over-indulge him, give him too much in the way of material possessions or passing pleasures, excitements, stimulations. Instead it provides understanding and emotional security as he runs up against the hard knocks life hands us all from time to time.

No Sense Of Belonging

A little girl 4 years old was in my court a number of years ago. The subject of a custody suit. At the end of the day I took her in my office and told she she would stay with her mother that week-end.

She looked up at me and said, "Which mother, my old mother or my new one?" You see, Patsy had two mothers and two fathers. She has been shifted from one to the other, been involved in several custody cases and consequently had no sense of security, of belonging, such a necessary part of love in the life of a child.

They Would Be There

On the other hand, a young soldier taken prisoner in Germany kept his sanity by remembering his room at home, mentally counting the things in each drawer of his chest.

He knew the accustomed place of each and felt a security in the certainty that they would be there when he returned home.

And of equal importance is the need for love to include guidance for future living as an adult. The child should learn at an early age that there are rules to be obeyed and limits beyond which he cannot go.

Hold To Limits

A little girl I saw in a grocery store was amusing herself by taking things off the lower shelves. Her mother threatened her with a spanking, bed, and several other things, but the child paid not the slightest attention.

Evidently she was sure her mother did not mean what she was saying. She had not yet learned of any limits beyond which she could not go.

They Want Guide-Posts

Children really want to be made to observe rules. They may act like they don't and undoubtedly they will see how far they can go, but in a recent youth forum discussion it was the consensus of opinion that boys and girls want their parents to set up rules for them to follow, to provide them with guide-posts.

To put in another way, we should keep actively helping the child learn to swim, or standing by to give help if he flounders, until it is plain that he can now swim as well or better than we can. We should never do what some of us do, in our role as parents or simply as members of the community. We should never throw a child into deep water before he has learned.

Bad Examples Confuse Youth

Modern living conditions, with cars, taverns, easy money, and a multitude of bad examples to confuse the child on every hand, are indeed "deep water;" it takes real swimming to keep from going under. What many people have misunderstood as "progressive education"—allowing the child to do as he pleases in order to "express himself," so as not to "warp his personality," is throwing him into deep water before he can swim.

He may fight against guidance, but subconsciously he counts on it to stop him whenever he is not strong enough.

Responsibility Of All

While guiding young people is principally the job of parents, those who have no children likewise have a responsibility. We all come in contact with children in situations which put us in varying degrees of responsibility towards young people not our own.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Dial left Monday for Albuquerque, N. M., where he will undergo a physical check-up. Mr. Dial has been suffering from a heart ailment and has been hospitalized several times at Mercy Hospital.

Card of Thanks

We want to thank our many friends who were so thoughtful and helpful to us while we were in the hospitals following our wreck. Especially do we thank Mercy Hospital staff and the Methodist Hospital staff, the doctors and all those who gave us help in our time of need.
