Three Slatonites Contestants in 4-H Grain Sorghum Awards Program

Three Slaton area boys are contestants in the Lubbock County 4-H Club Grain Sorghum Contest Awards Program, according to Nathan Boardman, assistant county agent.

Boardman said that Roy Strube, Joe Bob Jones, and Boyd Duckett had entered the contest. Results and winners will be named at the awards program scheduled for Tuesday, April 22, at the S. E. Cone Grain and Seed Company in Lubbock, on E. Broadway.

4-H Club members who have entered the contest, along with their families, will assemble at the seed company at 5 p.m. April 22, Boardman said. Following a tour of the elevator, the group will be treated to a meal at Underwood's, after which prize money for the awards program will be given.

The prize monies, as well as the tour and meal are sponsored by the S. E. Cone Grain and Seed Company.

Two divisions are being considered in the contests, Boardman said, both irrigated land and dry land. All entries will be based on a measured five-acre plot. First prize in both divisions will be $75 plus a plaque. Second prize, $65; third prize, $50; fourth prize, $40; and fifth prize, $30.

All entrants in the contest will receive a medal, Boardman said; and in addition, each boy who completed his records will receive 25c per hundred bushels for the grain produced on the five acres. Eligibility in the contest is limited to those boys who turned in their entry and completed the records necessary on the crop.

Variety Show at Wilson Friday Will Benefit Band Boosters

Wilson area residents will have an opportunity Friday night to see local talent perform when the Band Boosters Club of Wilson presents a Variety Show at the Wilson High School Auditorium. Curtain time is 8 p.m.

Mrs. A. C. Cook is in charge of the program. Admission is $1 for adults and 50c for children under 12 accompanied by their parents.

Proceeds of the show will be used to purchase new equipment for the band and to put the band uniforms in good condition.

In connection with the admission charge, Mrs. Cook said that no family would be charged more than $5 total admission for the entire family.

Plans for Addition to City Presented Commissioners at Monday Meeting

Plans for a new addition to the City of Slaton were presented by C. A. Porter, local lumber man, and George Lemon, local attorney, to City Commissioners at their meeting Monday night.

In making his presentation, Porter stated that he, as developer of the Shelby Addition would post money with the City for the paving of streets in the new addition, as well as for the placement of water and sewer lines.

Development of the addition, he explained, would be dependent upon the 15-acre plot being brought into the city limits in order to have access to city water and sewage facilities. The acreage is located north of the high school building, just west of the present city limits.

Commissioners also took no action on a request for purchase of a walkie-talkie radio to coordinate work of a group of students who have been organized as watchers for tornadoes through the agriculture department of the local schools and the Chamber of Commerce. The estimated cost of $320 would be shared as follows: $160 by the federal government, $80 by the Chamber of Commerce and $80 by the City of Slaton. The radio would establish communication between the watchers and local police.

Canvass of the recent city election was approved, showing T. A. Worley receiving 27 votes and H. T. Swanner receiving 10 votes, with no opposition to either candidate.

Well, here I is . . . That's what the little chick said in the Slaton Farm Store ad, and it seemed as good a way as any to get the chatter started.

Anthony's have some perfectly beautiful squaw dresses. Have you seen them? I wish Mrs. Earl Foester would model one of them and let me get a picture of her. They come in eggshell, pink, white and turquoise.

Mrs. Bland Tomlinson has a request to make. Midge, the Tomlinsons' 15 year old Pomeranian has disappeared. She walked off in the rain last Friday night. If she is seen, won't you call Home Furniture Co. and tell Mrs. Tomlinson? Because of her age, the Tomlinsons fear that she is dead, but if she still lives, their concern is that she be taken care of. A fifteen-year old dog is the equivalent of a person probably over a hundred year of age.

An ad elsewhere in the Slatonite announces that Dr. Byrd, veterinarian, will be at the City Hall on April 24th, for the purpose of giving rabies shots to dogs and cats. The price is $2.50 per head and the time is 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. There has already been a case of rabies in Lubbock, and that was a cat. So let's be safe rather than sorry!

Practical joker John Fondy pulled a good one at Slaton Pharmacy the other day. He shook hands with Isabell Foster with a trick buzzer hidden in his palm. He scream lifted the roof about a foot, and what she almost called him wouldn't do to print!

Calling Fondy a practical joker, reminds me of this fact. He is also a practical business man, and his Western Leather Shop is growing right along. Since he moved his shop into the new building he has added to his stock and taken on new items. Like the western hats you will see in the window. It is a Bandera hat, retailing for $11.95, in "Brahma Gray." The Slaton Rangers are wearing them, too. I'd like to tell you about the ladies belts, too, that is a new item. They are of perforated leather, contour style, very fancy, that would be very lovely with those favorites of mine, squaw dresses. They retail for $4.50.

I hope everyone notices the Burn Cycle ad. It reads: Business is Good—at Lawn Mower Headquarters! What a refreshing thing to read. What a treat to have a man admit that his business is good; a man who will admit that his advertising helps his business; that he doesn't feel that he is making a charitable contribution to support his hometown paper.

Slaton Students Place At Literary Meet

Slaton High School didn't come home with the sweepstakes from the District 4A Literary Meet held in Floydada last week end, according to J. M. Gilbert, Slaton High School principal, but they did place in seven events.

Gail Huser placed first in spelling; June Johnson won third in senior girls declamation; Russell Cummings, third in senior boys declamation; Dorothy Heaton, second in poetry reading; James Murphy, second in boys extemporaneous speaking; Louise Moore, third in shorthand; Bill Clark, third in number sense.

Shoes, Clothing for Children Needed at Welfare Center

Slaton's Welfare Center is desperately in need of children's clothes and shoes, according to Mrs. C. N. Wylie, chairman of the welfare workers.

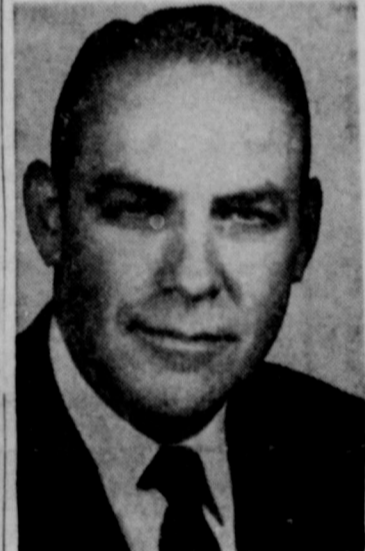

Calls are coming in for these items, but the supply has been exhausted, Mrs. Wylie said. She requested that persons having clothing and shoes which their children have out grown bring them to the Center for distribution.

The Center is open each Saturday from 9:30 until 11 a.m., but clothes will be accepted at any time by Mrs. Wylie, or at The Slatonite.

Masons Schedule Degree Work Tonight

Work in the Entered Apprentice degree will be held at Slaton Lodge 1094, AF&AM, at 7:30 p.m. tonight, according to W. P. Brown, secretary.

Brown also stated that Obligation Night would be held Tuesday, April 29, as requested by the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Texas.

Slaton Boys Score in International Track Meet at Monterrey Mexico

Two Slaton boys, Jerry Reynolds and Don Wright, both students at McMurry College, Abilene, recently took part in an international track meet between McMurry and four Mexican colleges. The meet was held at Monterrey, Mexico.

Reynolds scored 15 of the 88½ points marked up by the McMurry team when he won the 200-meter and 100-meter dashes, and ran a leg of the winning sprint relay team.

Wright won the 16-pound shot with a toss of 46 feet, and also placed third in the hammer throw.

Mexico University of Mexico City eased McMurry out of first place in the meet by five points, mainly on the strength of its first place win in the 400-meter run and a first and third in discus throw.

Other teams competing included Monterrey Technological School, Venados Athletic Club of Mexico City, and Politecnico Instituto of Mexico City.

PONY League Registration Open Until Try-outs April 28-30

Registration forms are still available for boys wanting to take part in PONY League baseball this summer, according to league officials.

Some 27 boys signed up for play at the registration held Monday night. Player Agent James George said this week that all Slaton boys still wanting to register could pick up registration forms at Dr. Joe Belote's office, have the forms signed by their parents, and return the forms to Dr. Belote.

Southland boys wanting to register may obtain forms from Sam Ellis, league president, at Southland Hardware Co.

Boys whose birth certificates are not on file with the Pony League officials must have them attached to the registration forms when they are returned.

Try-outs for boys who have not previously played Pony League ball will be held April 28, 29, and 30 at Pony League Park, beginning at 5 p.m. each evening.

All boys who participate in the try-outs must be registered and wear the blue registration number displayed on the front of a white "T" shirt.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Townsend had as guests last week end their grandson, Airman 2/c Loyd White, Mrs. White and daughter, Sandra, from Shreveport, La., and their son, Carl Townsend, Mrs. Townsend, Genevieve and Glenda from Odessa. Mr. White and his family were en route home after having visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. White, in Bakersfield, Calif. Sandra is the Townsends' only great granddaughter.

BUDDING YOUNG SCIENTISTS—These five members of the WWK Science Club received a First Award at the Regional Science Fair held this past week end in Lubbock. Their exhibit dealt with the way seed develop and grow, and the parts of a seed. All are pre-school

BEFORE IT HAPPENS

There are two intelligent ways of dealing with trouble. One way is to do something about it when it happens. The other way . . . and this is greatly to be preferred—is to do something to prevent it.

This generality applies with particular aptness to medicine. Doctors have learned how to cure or alleviate many conditions. Their efforts along these lines have won very widespread public acceptance. Doctors also have learned much about the prevention of illness, but preventive medicine has not been wholeheartedly accepted by the public.

The trouble, as in most such situations, lies in a lack of understanding. The public simply does not know enough about preventive medicine to take fullest advantage of what it has to offer. Yet there are reasons to believe that the great medical advances of the next few decades will be in the preventive field.

Doctors themselves are not entirely blameless. Some of them shy away, for one reason or another, from making healthcertains routine tests that show up disease early enough to permit cures. The famous Papanicolaou test for detecting cancer, for example, is not applied on the broad scale that is necessary if it is to be most effective. It is a highly accurate test, yet many women are not getting the benefit of it. In this case, the blame seems to rest mainly with doctors.

Blame should not be the key word, however. Education is the key word—education of the public, and in some instances education of doctors, to develop understanding of the tremendous role that preventive medicine could and some day surely will play in maintaining good health.

A BANK OF DIRT

This was an empty lot, a low place partly filled in. At the edge of the lot there was a bank of loose dirt. The setup, as any boy under the age of 12 would know without being told, was a natural.

There were some boys, four or five of them. They would skip and gyrate at the edge of the earth bank and then leap with wild cries down onto the slope. They would hit the dirt feet first and grind to a spectacular halt—unless, perchance, they slipped and rolled sideways on down the bank. Sometimes they hit sideways on purpose to take full advantage of the slope.

They also discovered that the dirt—nice, soft clods of it—could be thrown with delightful effects. So for half an hour they danced and leaped and rolled, and threw clods at one another, and in general had a whee of a time before going on to something else.

And some mothers still wonder how Johnny can get so dirty!

THE TOOL OF READING

There has been a lot of talk in recent years about a lad called Johnny, who can't read. When people ask (often with indignation) why Johnny can't read, they usually are asking why he can't read better, or faster, or with more comprehension. Rarely do they imply that, after years of schooling, Johnny really can't read at all.

Set that up against the momentous fact that almost half of the world's adult population cannot read. Moreover they cannot write. They are not merely slow readers or stumbling, uncomprehending readers, like various Johnnies. Quite literally, they cannot read at all. And they cannot write their own names.

This is a measure of the tremendous worldwide educational task that needs to be done. It also is a measure of one more of the many privileges that we in this country enjoy.

Our educational system, for all its faults, provides virtually everyone with that basic tool of learning and understanding, the ability to read. Some of us make better use of the tool than others. Some keep it bright and shiny with use; others let it rust. But almost all of us in American society do possess the tool with which we can, if we but will, unlock the treasures of the mind. Happily, it is one of those rare tools that becomes sharper with use.

According to Khrushchev the Soviet armed forces are being equipped with "the most terrifying weapons of all time." A whole hearted expression of the spirit of peace if we ever heard one.

Ability to Answer Safety Quiz Questions Could Prove Difference Between Life and Death for You

Do you know: (1) how to tell whether or not you are over-driving your headlights? (2) if it is safer to hit a fixed object or roll your car over, at given speeds? (3) how to maintain control of your car when a tire blows out?

Knowing the answer to questions such as these and reacting correctly when confronted by such situations could save your life.

A. Ross Rommel, President of the Texas Safety Association, reminded motorists of this fact, today, as he urged them to learn to drive defensively. He spoke in behalf of the defensive driving program which TSA is conducting throughout Texas.

Rommel explained that the defensive driver is one who drives in such a manner as to avoid accidents by expecting the unexpected.

"He realizes that in addition to turning in a safe driving job himself, he also has a responsibility to make up for the shortcomings of others. Such an attitude comes naturally to persons accustomed to accepting their moral responsibilities in other areas of daily living, and pedestrians are not the only hazards that may confront the defensive driver," the TSA president warned. "He must also be alert to the dangers presented by the unexpected."

In answering the questions above, Rommel gave the following solutions:

1. When driving along a little-traveled road some night, and after making certain you will not interfere with traffic, look for hazards such as livestock along the shoulder. When you see such a hazard, bring your car to a stop. If your car does not stop before you reach the hazard, you certainly were over-driving your headlights, and you will be wise to alter your driving habits accordingly.

2. According to the Texas Department of Public Safety, "The energy of a moving car increases in proportion to the square of its speed. Between 35 and 40 miles per hour, this energy increases to such an extent to be extremely dangerous, while at lower speeds a car might be demolished yet the occupants may not be killed. Above this range, however, it is believed that the safest maneuver would be to side-swipe a fixed object or, if possible, miss the object by rolling the car over. In either case, always decelerate the car as much as possible."

3. The only thing you can do here is keep a firm grip, with both hands, on the steering wheel and try to hold a straight course. Use brakes cautiously and do not touch the clutch. Disengaging the clutch causes loss of traction, directional control and deceleration force of the car's motor.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN, Tex. — Next summer's campaigners are tuning up to play from a familiar score — the conservative vs. liberal melody Texas voters have been hearing for years.

But, like the rock 'n' roll version of a Stephen Foster song, it may sound different. Campaign pitches will have to keep time to the fast beat of 1958's new issues. Such as "curing the recession" and "catching up on education."

On the federal level, talk is of cutting taxes to give the people more money to spend. Here in Texas, it's raising taxes to give the state more money to spend.

In a situation like this, a voter can get confused. For each issue, there'll be several choruses — more or less drowning each other out. Some will chant of searing away recession with large-scale government spending. Others will say the only way is to give business a break.

For schools, some are calling for a nationwide program to require more work from students, provide better teachers at better pay, more lab equipment, scholarships for promising students, etc. But many Texans say "never" to any scheme that would eat away at local control over schools.

On how to get money to bail out the state treasury, there are already a number of tunes being struck up — sales taxes, income taxes, corporation taxes, more economy in government — but no prospect of close harmony.

COWBOY HAT IN RING — One morning, in between pouring his coffee and finishing his bacon, William A. Blakely decided to run for the U.S. Senate.

Blakely served as junior U.S. senator for four months last year as the appointee of former Gov. Allan Shivers. He was not a candidate in the special election when Ralph Yarborough was named to succeed him.

Son of Oklahoma homesteaders who had to "work out" for other farmers, Blakely parlayed a little grit into a lot of money — in law, banking, real estate, ranching, oil, gas, insurance and an air line.

He'll not be troubled by most candidates' sorest problem — raising campaign funds. Incumbent Yarborough has made statements leaving the door open for either of two courses — running for another Senate term or a fourth try at the governorship.

PURSE-WATCHER NEEDED — Texas' governor should have some power to keep a hand on state purse strings after the Legislature leaves.

So says Vernon McGee, director of the Legislative Budget Board. McGee heads the board with responsibility for studying the fiscal needs of all state departments and making recommendations to the Legislature.

Under present system, McGee pointed out, after the Legislature makes its appropriations, only the individual department heads are responsible for how the money is spent.

Many administrators are admirably "tight-fisted," McGee said, but others will spend money, that could be saved for later needs, just because they have it.

McGee's recommendation gives the governor authority to ask for periodic reports from departments and to cut from their budgets items no longer necessary.

Most other states have this system, said McGee. STILL TOO MUCH OIL — Despite severe cuts in production, Texas is still producing more oil than anyone wants to buy.

It could mean even deeper cuts and more idle drilling rigs next month.

Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson noted an increase of 1,208,000 barrels in stocks of crude oil. It shows, he said, that April's lowest-in-history, 8-day production pattern was needed.

He suggested that new wells coming in may make an even lower pattern necessary for May.

SET TO GO — Texas Highway Department is poised for a $36,000,000 speed-up in road building if a new stepped-up federal aid bill becomes law.

State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer said the bill, sent to the President by Congress, would enable Texas to avoid a summer lull in highway construction.

Texas has already planned the projects in anticipation of the money, said Greer. Designed as an anti-recession measure, the bill specifies the extra money must be spent within 12 months.

It won't put all the unemployed people to work, said Greer, but it will stimulate the economy. And, he added, it's not a "leaf-raking job."

SCIENTISTS MUST EAT — With all the emphasis on scientific education, importance of training farmers and ranchers should not be neglected, said Gov. Price Daniel.

Speaking to a Future Farmers group, the governor said food is as necessary to the nation's defense as development of better weapons.

Texas' farm population, he noted, has declined by more than one-half since 1933. PINCH ON SMALL SCHOOLS — Small schools are going to have to help to meet higher state standards in math and science, says Sen. Crawford Martin of Hillsboro.

17% Increase In Juvenile Delinquency Past Year

Juvenile crime increased 17.3 per cent in Texas for the year 1957, said Lubbock County Juvenile Officer Tom Cannon Thursday noon as he spoke to Slaton Rotarians. The speaker was introduced by Slaton Police Chief Bill Daniel. Jack Berkley was in charge of the program for the day.

Mr. Cannon brought as his guest Tom Porter of Lubbock, the Juvenile Parole Officer. Mr. Porter gave many interesting statistics of juvenile delinquency. A few are: 46 per cent of all major crimes are committed by juveniles, of these 85 per cent by boys and 15 per cent by girls, there were 703 cases in Lubbock county last year. The per cent according to races is 85 per cent Anglo American, 15 per cent Latin American and 5 per cent colored.

Mr. Cannon told the audience of specific cases and the problems that office has to deal with.

"We have two basic functions to perform," he said. "This is to protect society from juveniles, and secondly, to protect juveniles from society." Last year 50 per cent of the burglaries in Lubbock county was by juveniles, he said.

To improve juvenile delinquency, he stated that what was needed was good churches, good Boy and Girl Scout programs, good youth programs and adequate police personnel.

President M. G. Davis announced that the Rotary meeting next week will not be at noon, but Thursday night as the club was to have its annual ladies night program.

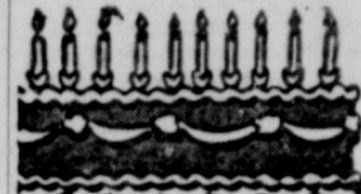

observed, "but a lot lack laboratories." SHORT SNORTS — Deaths from industrial accidents dropped from 167 for the first three months of last year to 152 for the same period this year, reports the Industrial Accident Board. . . . Named by Governor Daniel to the Texas Civil Judicial Council: John Peace of San Antonio, Emil Rasmann of Midland, Chief Justice T. C. Chadick of the Texas Court of Civil Appeals and Baylor University law dean Abner V. McCall of Waco (reappointed). Council is to advise Legislature on civil court matters. . . . Other gubernatorial appointments: George Dahl of Dallas and Louis Page of Austin to the Texas Board of Architectural Examiners, Mrs. James L. Moore of San Antonio to the State Board of Cosmetology. . . . Unemployment claims inched up slightly — from 89,326 to 89,786 — in latest weekly report, but Texas Employment Commission officials expressed confidence that the month as a whole would show a drop in number of jobless. . . . Texas' traffic fatality score for 1958 looks better than this time last year — 444 compared to 506 in 1957. But Texas is still apparently a pretty dangerous place for driving, second only to California in road fatalities, says the governor's traffic safety director, Brad Smith.

'Delinquent' Label Often Applied When Youth Short of Expectations

By Dr. Elmer M. Knowles
Head Department of Child Development and Family Relation Texas Technological College
(First in a Series of Three Articles)

Juvenile Delinquency is a label stamped on youth by others, sometimes justly and other times unjustly. Americans are quick to label people as well as things, such as: "Inferiority Complex," "Crazy," "Square," "Misfit" and so on.

Little do those who so freely label others realize that a person labeled as a juvenile delinquent, for instance, may actually try to live up to the label stamped upon him — even though it may be an undesirable tag.

Labels Stick
As a person grows through childhood, he "identifies" with many many people and learns numerous roles, some good and perhaps some bad. For instance, a well meaning parent purchased a photograph record of "Cinderella" for her daughter who in turn played the record over and over again for some months. The mother thought her daughter was only identifying with Cinderella. She found out eventually — to her complete amazement—that her daughter

Grand Saline Minister Will Hold Revival

The Rev. Wayne Mote of Grand Saline, Texas, will preach for a revival at Trinity Evangelical Methodist Church, 215 S. 4th, beginning Sunday, April 20, and continuing through Sunday, April 27.

Both morning and evening services will be held daily. Time for morning services has not been announced, according to the pastor, the Rev. Weldon Thomas. Evening services will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Rev. Mote attended school in Brownfield, and lived in the Cooper community during his youth. He has attended Texas Tech and McMurry Colleges, and spent time as a home missionary in Bayou county of Louisiana.

was becoming more like the characters portrayed by Cinderella's sisters!

Good and bad are themes that are present in almost every story, play, radio or television program. A "cowboy" movie is a good example. A child who views any western sees both sides, the good and the bad. He learns both roles—the hero's and the villain's. What happens in most cases is that the child favors the hero and spurns the villain's role.

Favor Bad
But, there are children who reach youth and find the role of the good boy less favorable than the bad one. What happens is that at times he's good and other times he may be bad or deviant. The degree of deviancy and the amount often determines the difference between a delinquent and a non-delinquent.

It is difficult to see which role—good or bad—many children will favor until it is too late. By the time a youth gets branded a delinquent, the real damage is done. The youth is often well set in a pattern of delinquent tendencies before we make an honest-to-goodness diagnosis.

Early Treatment
Like cancer, the sooner delinquency can be spotted and treated the better. Yet, many well-meaning persons are prone to overlook early delinquent traits with the statement: "He's only going through a stage, he'll

June Grads Face Tough Competition For Jobs

June college graduates won't wallow in as many job offers this year as they did last. A general lag in the employment market has taken some of the frenzy out of campus recruiting, according to a copyrighted story in the April issue of Changing Times, the Kiplinger Magazine.

Last spring competition was so hot that companies had to make about four offers for every technically trained student hired and nearly two offers before they could sew up a nontechnical man. This year competition will continue, says the magazine, but not at such a strong pace.

Last year the average starting salary for technically trained men was around $465 a month. This year it will go to $485. Aeronautical and electrical engineers and engineering physicists received the best pay last June. But cutbacks in aircraft and electronics may hold demand down somewhat for these men this year.

Nontechnical graduates got about $400 a month last spring. That will be up to about $425 this year. Accountants, however, will start at about $465; and insurance, banking and retailing may command above average pay, too.

Mrs. Paul Randolph and Randy of Lubbock are spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Atnip.

The Lady was Willing

Recently a service station attendant changed the oil in a car with 23,000 miles on the speedometer. He noticed that a lubrication job was also badly needed, so he politely suggested it to the driver. She replied, willingly enough, "Go ahead if you want to... but I thought all that was done at the factory!"

Of course, this couldn't happen to you, but with cars getting more and more complicated every year, proper and frequent lubrication is more important than ever.

Phillips 66 Dealers specialize in lubrication. They have complete charts and specifications for all makes of cars, and what's more, they use them! Stop in next chance you get and watch how thorough Phillips 66 attendants are when they lubricate a car... it's a pleasant surprise for most motorists!

BELL TELEPHONE LABORATORIES

For your information the radio used to transmit signals from the U. S. Vanguard Satellite to Earth is powered by Solar Batteries of the type invented by Bell Telephone Laboratories. Also in the Vanguard Satellite are transistors, invented at the laboratories.

The solar battery consists of a number of individual silicon cells. These convert sunlight directly into electrical energy. The invention of the Bell Solar Battery was announced in April, 1954.

Transistors are also contained in the Explorer Satellite, launched last month by the Army at Cape Canaveral, Florida.

Bell Telephone Laboratories scientists are not only working to serve you with the best telephone service but also working for you in serving the needs of our great Nation.

SPRING HOUSE CLEANING

Is spring house cleaning under way at your home? And are you planning to do a little redecorating, too? I have a suggestion that will help add a little color to your home whether you're cleaning or redecorating. It is this: Put some color telephones in your home.

We now have nine attractive colors plus black. The colors are: white, cherry red, pastel yellow, ivory, moss green, rose pink, aqua blue, light beige, light grey.

From this variety you can choose one or several to blend or contrast with any colors in your home.

Color extension telephones are practical, too. You'll be surprised at the steps they save: No more running from one end of the house to the other to answer. And, an extension telephone will give you more privacy on calls.

Color extension telephones are economical, too. Here in Slaton they cost only $10.00 (one-time charge) plus a small installation charge. The monthly extension charge is only $1.00 a month.

GOING SOMEWHERE?

Some people I know have started planning their vacations because they know planning ahead can make vacation more fun.

They've found, too, that calling ahead makes a vacation even more fun. No worry about whether you'll find accommodations. No guessing as to whether the people you want to visit are home. Calling ahead on your vacation trip or on any trip makes it more fun, gives you more peace of mind.

And, don't forget that the people at home like to hear from you, too. A telephone call is a personal, easy way to keep in touch.

Next time, call. Take the worries out of travel.

Call by number. It's faster on land.

Committee Work Underway in Search for New College Head

The Policy Committee of the Board of Trustees of McMurry College appeared ready late last week to begin screening persons who may be considered in filling the presidency of the Methodist school.

Action on the screening process developed in a meeting of the policy committee Thursday on the McMurry campus. Although no date has been set for the next session, it will be held in Lubbock.

Dr. Gordon Bennett, executive vice president of the school, was named acting president in the interim of a search for a successor to Dr. Harold G. Cooke, who died March 17.

An announcement following the Thursday meeting stated that the policy committee "will meet at a future date in Lubbock to continue reviewing people who will be considered for the presidency."

The group also stated that no time schedule has been adopted in naming a successor to the late Dr. Cooke, and reemphasized that the Board of Trustees will not accept applications for the position.

A recent executive committee meeting in Lubbock delegated the policy committee with authority to establish criteria for the selection of a new president. The policy committee, however, will make recommendations only, to the board. The new president can be elected only by a vote of the trustee panel in a regular session.

The policy committee also reviewed Thursday policies relating to administrative functions of the college, with special emphasis on job analysis and policies regarding the president's office.

Chairman of the policy committee is Dr. J. M. Willson of Floydada, who also is chairman of the Board of Trustees.

Notice of Coming Checks on Drivers Licenses, Inspection Stickers Given

An effort to rid Texas highways of unlicensed and unsafe drivers was revealed this week by Major R. A. Crowder, Region 5 commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety. At the same time, Crowder pointed out that 16 per cent of all rural fatal accidents in Texas during 1956 involved an unlicensed driver.

Officers of the DPS will begin conducting drivers license checks in the immediate future on all travelled thoroughfares in the region and throughout the state. All motorists that are stopped will be required to exhibit their licenses to the officers.

Crowder said that thousands of Texas motorists are operating motor vehicles on expired drivers licenses or have never been licensed at all.

"It is not our desire to surprise motorists without a forewarning," Crowder said. "So we would like to take this opportunity to advise them that they may expect these checks at any time in the future," he continued.

The commander stated that the drivers license law in Texas is nearing 22 years on our statute and "we feel that no driver has a legitimate excuse for not having a valid drivers license."

This law requires any operator of a motor vehicle who resides in Texas or has gainful employment in the state to be licensed as an operator, commercial operator, or chauffeur. The drivers license checks will be made on a full enforcement basis, and vehicle safety inspection stickers will also be checked. Motorists not having a valid drivers license or current inspection sticker as required by law will be cited into the proper court.

Crowder is requesting all city police departments and county sheriff departments to assist in the effort.

Any questions concerning drivers licenses, including the date of examinations, should be directed to the nearest sheriff's Department of Public Safety office, police department, or facilities Crowder said.
