Jaycee Golf Tournament Plans Told

Slaton boys interested in entering the Jaycee Junior Golf Tournament in Lubbock June 23-25 should contact any member of the Jaycees, according to Ted Swanner Jaycee President.

Swanner explained that because Slaton has no golf course facilities, Lubbock Jaycees have issued an invitation for boys from Slaton to take part in the Lubbock tournament.

The tournament is open for boys who will not be 18 years old by August 15, and will be held at the Hillcrest Country Club.

Golfers will not have to qualify or pay an entrance fee.

Top three finishers in the tournament will get an all-expense paid trip to the state Jaycee tournament in Corpus Christi July 13-15.

Presbyterians In Midst of Bible Schools

The first of two weeks Vacation Bible School to be sponsored by First Presbyterian Church opened Monday this week at the Mexican Mission.

The second week of the school will be conducted at the educational building of the church, beginning at 9 a.m. Monday, June 16, according to the pastor, the Rev. C. N. Wylie.

Guest Speaker Planned for First Baptist

Rev. Gaze will be attending the Glorieta Baptist Encampment at Glorieta, New Mexico.

Parrish went to Wayland in 1955 from the pastorate of First Baptist Church in Marietta, Oklahoma. Previous to that he had been a practicing lawyer in Plainview, and served four years in the U. S. Navy.

As director of development at Wayland, he is assisting in a campus development program that is this year resulting in the opening of two new buildings, Brotherhood Hall for 50 young men, and Van Howeling Memorial Library.

Open House at New Bank Planned Sunday

Open House at Citizens State Bank's new building will be held from 4 until 9 p.m. Sunday, June 15, bank officials said this week.

The new building located at 100 E. Garza, was opened for business last week.

Completely air conditioned, banking facilities there are designed for the convenience of the customers, and have been built of materials and design which will make banking a pleasure.

Enlarged lobby facilities, enclosed teller cages, a drive-in window for motorists, and enlarged safe deposit box facilities are some of the improved services offered by the bank.

In addition to the banking facilities, a Community Room on the mezzanine floor is in the process of being completed. Future expansion plans will enable the bank to complete the basement area, giving enlarged storage facilities, as well as available room for future expansion.

Fixtures throughout the bank are of fireproof materials, designed for the maximum utility and comfort.

Mrs. J. S. Edwards Sr., widow of the founder of the bank, is president of Citizens State Bank. Vice presidents include J. S. Edwards Jr. and Howard T. Swanner.

Other officers are Claude F. Anderson, vice president, inactive; Bob Merrell, vice president, inactive; and T. A. Worley Jr., cashier.

Directors include C. F. Anderson, Clarence Basinger, Mrs. J. S. Edwards Sr., J. S. Edwards Jr., R. E. Edwards, Abe Kessel, Bob Merrell, H.T. Swanner and T. A. Worley Jr.

Rites Held For J. W. Hood, 82

Funeral services were held Friday at 2:30 p.m. for J. W. Hood, 82, in the First Baptist Church, with Rev. Ted Gaze, pastor, officiating.

A long time Slaton resident, Hood died Wednesday, June 4, at 9 p.m. in Mercy Hospital. He was born August 17, 1876, in Mississippi.

Hood was a retired lumberman, had been a member of the Masonic Order since 1931, was past worthy patron of the Eastern Star chapter, and was a deacon in the First Baptist Church.

Survivors include: two sons, Odie Hood, Lubbock, and R. M. Hood, Jacksonville, Fla.; four sisters, Mrs. Minnie Ward, Slaton, Mrs. J. O. Lane, Mrs. Effie Donaldson and Mrs. Charlie Preston, all of Comanche; and a brother, George Hood, Sylvester, Texas.

Burial was in Englewood Cemetery under the direction of Williams Funeral Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Q. W. Withers and boys of Hermleigh visited last week end in the home of Mrs. Withers' mother, Mrs. E. D. Robison. One of their sons, Travis, stayed and is spending the week.

Mrs. Scudder Performs for Local Rotarians

Local Rotarians heard Mrs. W. I. Scudder perform on her dulcimer at their noon luncheon Thursday. Mrs. Scudder was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Flora Mae Williams.

Program chairman was Alex Webb. Visitors at the meeting included Dr. J. E. Loveless of Lubbock, M. H. Lasater, and Don Boyd, both of Slaton.

Bonds for Street Improvement Sold; Commission Names Board Members

Sale of the $30,000 street improvement bonds was negotiated at the Monday night meeting of the City Commission.

The first $10,000 of the bonds were sold at 3 per cent, with the remainder sold at 3½ per cent.

The sale was made with unanimous consent of the commission, which expressed the opinion that equally favorable terms of sale could be accomplished through negotiation of the sale rather than through advertising for bids on the relatively small amount of bonds.

Contracts for the street repair work were expected to be let in about 30 days.

In other action, the commission appointed members of a Zoning Board, three members for two-year terms, and two members for one-year terms.

Those appointed with terms expiring in April 1960 included J. S. Edwards Jr., Don Crow, and Jack Smith, Joe Walker Jr.

and R. H. Todd Jr. were appointed with terms expiring in April 1959.

Board members were invited to consult with the commission during the time the zoning ordinance was being written. To date no action has been taken toward passage of such an ordinance. Sample ordinances from other Texas cities have been received for guidance in preparation of the local ordinance.

Approval of a low bid of $90 for four tires for the police patrol car from the Gulf Oil Company was made.

Water superintendent George

Willis was authorized to add one man to his department for the summer months to help alleviate the extra work in that department.

Purchase of a 1955 Ford pick-up from Doc Crow Chevrolet was approved. Bid was $650 plus trade-in of a 1948 pick-up now operation by the city.

Commissioners present at the meeting Monday included Howard Swanner, T. A. Worley, B. A. Hanna, Chester Williams, Mayor O. N. Alcorn, and City Secretary J. J. Maxey.

Cotton Contest Rules Announced for County 4-H Club Members, Prospects

Members of the Lubbock County 4-H Club, as well as other youth between the ages of 9 and 21 are eligible to enter the Lubbock County Cotton Yield Contest, according to Nathan R. Boardman, assistant county agent.

Boardman said this week that entries in the contest must be received at the county agent's office not later than July 15. Non-members of the 4-H Club will become eligible to enter the contests upon applying for membership in the club.

Two divisions in the contest, which is sponsored by the Lubbock County Farm Bureau in cooperation with gins, banks, and other businesses, make both dryland farmers and irrigated farmers eligible.

In both divisions, prizes of $75 and plaque will be awarded for first place. Second place prize will be $50; third place, $40; fourth place, $30; and fifth place, $20.

Additional prizes of $35 and $25 will be awarded the boys from the Slaton area who place highest in each division.

Each entrant will be allowed to enter five acres of cotton in either dryland or irrigated, but not both. At least 50 per cent of the crop must belong to the contestant. The five acres must be designated or marked off by stakes or some other means. Boardman said that free planting seed would be furnished by the Slaton Coop Gin to boys living in this area who wanted to enter the contest.

He stressed that boys attending any school were eligible to enter, so long as they had, or would obtain membership in the Lubbock County 4-H Club.

Additional information concerning the contest is available from F. A. Strube, adult adviser in the area, or from Roy Strube, Junior 4-H Club leader.

Braves Leading Pony League Play

With standings figured through Monday night, the Braves were in the lead in PONY League play, with the Cubs and Tigers not too far behind.

The Braves have won four games, lost one. Both the Cubs and Tigers have won two and lost two, while the Red Sox, in last position have won one game and lost three.

The Red Sox went down in defeat at the hands of the Cubs last Tuesday, 10-7, with Caldwell getting two hits and Smoot, M. Kitten, and Crawford one each for the Cubs. On the Red Sox side of the scorebook, Enloe, G. Hernandez both got two hits, and Davis, Bain and Gregg, one each.

Thursday night the Tigers took the Red Sox 16-8. J. King and R. King lead the winners with three hits each, with R.

King getting his first home run of the season. For the Sox, Williamson, Bain and G. Hernandez got one hit each.

Monday night the Braves moved further out in the lead when they defeated the Red Sox 17-3. With two hits to their credit, Enloe, Gill and R. Hernandez topped their teammates. Bain and Caldwell, who got one hit each. For the Braves, Keys, Ellis and Cummings got two hits each, while Teftiller and Holley got one hit each. Both of Cummings' hits were home runs.

IT'S PAVED NOW—This view of South 21st street in Slaton is typical of many streets in town now. Paving is being completed on the 22½ blocks over town in rapid succession. Intermittent rains throughout the spring and early summer had caused delays in completion of the paving, but hot, sunny weather for the past few days has enabled workmen to come in and make headway toward completion of the projects. SECURITY FOR WHAT?

Whenever the nation is at war, various individual rights and privileges are curtailed or withdrawn for the duration. Citizens accept this as a necessary evil. They also expect their rights to be restored in full when the fighting is ended.

Now the Senate subcommittee on internal security wants a law to punish acts, done in peacetime, which would be treasonable in time of war. The proposal is far out of step with the American tradition of maximum peacetime liberty for all citizens.

Americans submit to all sorts of restrictions, both explicit and implicit, when the nation goes to war. They submit because this is necessary to prosecution of the war. But unless Americans have lost a lot of their native gumption, they will loudly balk at submitting to curbs on liberty during the present cold war.

Many acts that would be treason in time of war—doing business with our adversaries, for example, or even talking with them—are not treasonable at all in time of peace. Some Americans have been severely punished in wartime for lambasting government policies. Who is to say that adverse criticism of the government, as long as it does not advocate illegal overthrow of that government, is now to be silenced though the nation is at peace?

The members of the Senate subcommittee have a colossal nerve, recommending laws that might well lead to just such a denial of free speech—and in the name of internal security, at that. Internal security, one might ask, for what: for a society marked by cringing, whispering and double-talk, where no one peaks without a glance back over his shoulder? The zealous senators have gotten themselves into a posture that invites mirth. But the whole business is really not very funny.

'SWONDERFUL!

Many a keen (and perhaps tear-misted) male eye has observed that some of the lineless, low-belted dresses seen on women these days bear a dismal resemblance to certain unlamented styles of the 1920s. Another similarity between our time and that frenetic period has attracted less notice.

Once again we have efforts to exercise economic devils by uttering jolly variants of "Everything's great!" The exclamation point is important; without proper enthusiasm, it is supposed, such attempts are sure to fail. There's a new club, for example, the Life's Wonderful Club. Members wear a button that carries the message, "Life's wonderful . . . and so is business," and they are expected to intone this magic formula daily.

We agree with them on one thing. Life's wonderful, all right.

BEYOND THE FIRELIGHT

What do the young want? What are the desires and aspirations of those now leaving classroom and camp, us to enter a world they never made?

They want a place in that world, to be sure. They want a job, a home, the kind of security that our way of life makes possible of you are strong enough or lucky enough to grasp it. They want the friendship of good neighbors, the feeling of being needed; they want the comforting certainty that their fellow men think well of them.

Those are not bad things to want. If obtained at not too great a cost, those could make a contented life. Unless, that is, the young man or woman begins to understand—or even to seek understanding of—the vast realm of life that extends beyond the pleasant little circle of security. It is out there, in the darkness unlighted by the campfire of our small lives, that the great challenges, and the great prizes, lie.

The things we see dimly out there in the dark are often frightening. The hungers of mankind, the hunger for enough to eat, for liberty, for a chance to walk in dignity and peace; the hunger for knowledge and wisdom, for answers to the great abiding mysteries of existence—these are awesome shapes when glimpsed from afar. But there is beauty and splendor in these aspirations, too. Once caught by a sense of that, no can ever again be content with the firelight of security alone.

Some young people have been captured by this sense of what lies beyond the life of minimum challenge. Others will be caught up in the vision of all that needs to be done for humanity. That is good. For this is the prerogative of the young; to think long thoughts and dream of bettering this world they never made.

VACATION TIME
Text: Mark 6:30 - 31

"The apostles returned to Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. And he said to them, (Come away by yourselves to a lonely place, and rest a while."

After strenuous and confining labor it is well to take time for relaxation. For renewing of energies, for re-evaluation of time and efforts.

All this presupposes that one has actually expended himself in valuable effort. The physical body needs time to recuperate.

If, however, it is a mere extension of a period of non-activity or the getting away from responsibility — not for the purpose of being more able to do the job, then supposed vacation—is sometimes a mere squandering of TIME.

Many really and truly need a vacation. Need the time to relax and to release tensions that have been building up through strain and driving of self.

The when to take a vacation is an individual proposition. One's work, his program, his opportunities, etc., determine the time.

Some suggestions for those taking vacations: Remember that much of life must go as always. The home must be kept sacred. Honor and virtue must always be guarded. The Christian ideals are not to be let down. Health should be considered. Safety watched, and above all remember—God is still in heaven watching over all.

Take along your Bible—have a devotion each day. See that your task in the church has been cared for. Do not forget that the work of your local church must go on. You will be missed, the job you have been doing will either have to be done by another or left undone. The finances you contribute should be sent to the church treasurer, and pray for local church work while you are away.

Then when the vacation is over you should come home refreshed and with new vim and vigor to see that a better task is done. If your better efforts

Education Research Topics Under Study by School Study Council

A series of new topics for education research will be considered at a meeting of the West Texas School Study Council slated at Texas Tech June 25. Dr. Berlie Fallon, executive secretary of the council, said the WTSSC is rounding out its first year of operation with 23 research bulletins published for the benefit of member schools.

Lee Vardy will represent Slaton Schools. The council, which was founded last year with 12 South Plains school systems and Tech as charter members, will continue to conduct research on local and regional education problems, said Fallon, who is a Tech associate professor of education.

Studies accomplished under WTSSC sponsorship this year included research on standardized testing programs in nine West Texas schools, material about educating gifted children, teacher efficiency rating, educational TV, extended school year, and school attendance and withdrawal problems.

"One of the member schools said that the materials which the WTSSC collected in only one study—about gifted children—would have cost the school more by having its own staff do it than the cost of one year's membership in the council," Fallon noted.

Tech graduate students in education assist in doing research for the council.

Up for consideration for possible bulletin subjects in the academic year beginning Sept. 1 is research in guidance, in-service training, public relations, superintendent-school board relations, curriculum, teacher evaluation, personal administration and school-agency relationships.

Selective Kill of Rough Fish Planned at Possum Kingdom Lake

Plans for a selective kill of rough fish on Possum Kingdom Lake late this summer are progressing as rapidly as possible, it has been announced by the Director of Inland Fisheries of the Game and Fish Commission.

A biologist has been working there for a week with a recording fathometer to ascertain the depth of various areas. With this information, it will be possible to make experimental treatments. This will determine the amount of chemicals necessary to knock out the noxious fish, such as carp and buffalo.

The possibility of applying the chemical treatment of the lake from planes by experienced crop dusters also is being considered. Kenneth Jurgens, Aquatic Biologist, has been conferring with crop dusters who say they can do the job cheaper and more effective than can be done from power-equipped sprays on fast boats.

The Possum Kingdom treatment will be the largest ever attempted. A careful survey is being made of all details of the treatment program to make it most effective in eliminating the over supply of rough fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shelton and Michael of Carlsbad, New Mexico, visited last week in the home of Mrs. Louis Mosser. LONG DISTANCE CALLS BY NUMBER
How many times have you seen ads asking you to place your long distance calls by number? I sometimes think you may get a little tired of hearing the same old tune. Actually, there are good reasons for calling this fact to your attention that will make your telephone service better for you personally. Did you know, for instance, that on many occasions your operator in Lubbock can dial the distant number you have given her without any assistance from another operator? If you had not known the number, she would have had to dial the distant city twice. The day is not too far away when you as a telephone subscriber will be dialing your own long distance calls. I am sure you will then be very aware of the value of knowing the distant number.

FOR PARENTS ONLY
Now that summer is here and the children are out of school, I imagine the family's telephone service is getting an extra-good workout. I guess teenagers, and even the smaller fry, need the telephone more often during vacation months. They use it to line-up sand lot ball games, swimming parties, movie dates, and a good many other things, as we all know. It would be hard to find a better time than now to order an extension for the youngsters. They'll enjoy the privacy and so will you. Best of all, you'll save yourself no telling how many dashes to answer incoming calls that always seem to be for them. To order an extension, just call the telephone business office, VA 8-4591. The cost is only $1.00 a month for a residence extension, plus tax and installation.

MEMO TO BUSINESSMEN
I heard a businessman remark recently that he's going over his operations with a fine-tooth comb to trim unnecessary expenses. And one item he planned to cut was Long Distance. I wonder if he wasn't making a mistake. I can understand the desire to cut costs. But, rather than cut Long Distance, he should use his telephone even MORE for out-of-town calling. Many businessmen have proved it for themselves, and here's how: Instead of you or your salesmen taking a day to visit several prospective customers in other cities, call them Long Distance. It saves travel on the highway, and turns travel time into selling time. And a telephone call is almost as personal as a visit and just as appreciated. Try it yourself and watch the results. I think in the end you'll agree with our belief that Long Distance doesn't cost, it pays.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

At any rate, all the families must have like eggs!

Seriousness of Farm Labor Under Study by Area Cotton Organization

An already serious shortage of farm labor is mounting daily throughout the Texas High Plains and the handicaps now imposed by the Texas Employment Commission on the recruiting of Mexican Braceros is being viewed with grave concern, W. O. Fortenberry, president of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. said last week.

Fortenberry said that the labor shortage could greatly impair crop production on the High Plains this year, especially with vegetable farmers at present and even with the cotton producers as the cotton crop progresses.

Much labor is needed now by many cotton producers to help chop and weed control fields, however uncooperative help from Texas Employment Commission officials has allowed only a trickle of farm labor.

Tuesday (June 3) the Bracero Committee of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. composed of W. T. Millen, Muleshoe; W. G. White, Lamesa; P. A. Nafzgar, Olton; J. T. Fulford, Brownfield; and J. D. Smith, Littlefield, met and adopted two resolutions pertaining to the labor situation.

The Committee endorsed the position taken by the National Farm Labor Users Committee favoring extension of Public Law 78, which governs the use of Mexican Nationals for farm labor.

Proper administration of present provisions of Public Law 78 will work satisfactorily, thus farmers favor its extension, a spokesman explained.

In the other resolution adopted by the PCG Bracero Committee, it was stated: "It is the consensus of this group that the intent of Public Law 78 is being circumvented through administrative actions of local and regional agents of the U.S. Department of Labor and Texas Employment Commission.

While no specific details were announced, Chairman Millen said specific examples of misinterpretation of some of the rules under Public Law 78 have been gathered and would be presented in Washington, D.C. June 9-14 when representatives attend hearing on Public Law 78.

The Committee charged that the labor shortage in West Texas was triggered by a Department of Labor ruling that domestic labor resources must be exhausted before Mexican Nationals can be imported.

"However in practically all instances where domestic labor has been contacted, such labor has refused to come to the High Plains area and work in agriculture, yet the Texas Employment Commission continually refuses to certify our counties and organizations so that Mexican Braceros can be obtained," Chairman Millen explained.

Representatives who will probably accompany Millen to Washington include Otho Smith, Littlefield; White and Nafzger in addition to George W. Pfeifferberger, Executive Vice President of the PCG.

Card of Thanks
Our sincere thanks and deep appreciation goes out to those who offered expressions of sympathy at the passing of our father, Jess L. Vaughn. The floral offerings, words of sympathy, and prayers have made our loss easier to bear.

Rental rates for Post Office boxes are going up, according to an announcement issued this week by T. E. McClanahan, acting postmaster. It's doubtful though, that many can remember when box rental rates were raised the last time.

Advertising apparently pays. That's what Ollie Baxley and D. Geer must be thinking. Prior to and during Saturday's formal opening of Geer & Baxley's Phillips 66 Service Station, the one-day celebration was advertised extensively a five column ad in the June 5 Slatonite, Slatonite-printed circulars distributed throughout the city, loud speaker ballyhoo, and a couple of minutes of TV. With what results? Baxley reported that the station sold 6,002.9 gallons of gasoline during the one-day grand opening. That's more than $1,500 in gross business. The amount does not include the several hundred coupons given by the station good for five free gallons of gasoline.

Slaton residents are using too much water. So much, in fact, that if a large-scale fire should come along, there probably would not be sufficient reservoir of water to fight the blaze effectively. That in a nutshell, is Slaton's water situation during the current drought, as explained Tuesday by Forrest Davis, city water superintendent. Record breaking temperatures for May were recorded at Tulia the past week. Two records after the mercury dipped to the near freezing point, it zoomed past the century figure—the first time in history at this time of year.

Santa Fe Railway officials in Amarillo announced last week that the railroad is recalling 50 carmen to service immediately to supplement the regular staffs in the mechanical department on the Western lines.

The forces being recalled were let off several months ago when there was a marked seasonal drop in freight traffic.

The additional forces are needed now to assist in co-operating freight cars for the grain movement, the Santa Fe said.

The railroad is recalling eight men at Slaton, 16 at Amarillo, 19 at Wellington, Kansas, and seven at Waynoka, Oklahoma.

Although the Slatonite has made several surveys in the past few years on the population of the town, most people consider Slaton much smaller than it really is. However if the number of people in Slaton have increased in proportion to the public service companies then Slaton at present has between 6200 and 6500 which would make this town not far behind Littlefield, Levelland and Brownfield.

Veteran Jurist Seeks High Court Position

The importance of the functions and responsibilities of the state's highest court was emphasized Wednesday by District Judge Wilmer B. Hunt.

Judge Hunt is a third generation Texas lawyer seeking the Position One post of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas to be vacated December 31 by St. John Garwood of Houston who is not running for re-election.

"The impact of decisions of the Supreme Court of Texas now and in the years ahead are of increasing vital concern to Texans in every walk of life," Judge Hunt said.

"It is therefore important that Texas voters weigh carefully the qualifications of those candidates seeking election to this high post," the veteran jurist added.

"During the course of this campaign it is obvious that there will be many voters whom I will not personally be able to meet to discuss my own qualifications for the office despite the fact that by election time I will have extended my campaign into every part of the state," he continued.

"For the benefit of those I may not meet, I offer the record of my 19 years in the general practice of law and my 11 years service on the district court bench as the basis for my candidacy," the judge said.

The veteran jurist presides over the 133rd District Court in Houston where he has been re-elected three times since 1948 without opposition.

He was first elected a special district judge in 1946 in a special election held by the Harris County Bar Association to name a temporary successor to the late Judge Roy Campbell who was ill at the time.

In 1947 Judge Hunt was appointed judge of the newly created 133rd District Court by Governor Beauford Jester.

Hunt received his B.S. degree at Georgetown University in Washington and his LL.B. degree

Slaton Men In Service

PFC Mike Haddock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Haddock, returned to Ft. Lewis, Washington this week after taking part in Exercise "Indian River," a giant maneuver testing the Army's new pentomic concept of battle.

The exercise pitted Haddock and other 4th Infantry Division troops against "aggressor" forces in an 18,000-man battle fought the past two weeks at the Yakima Firing Center. The Firing Center spreads across 267,000 acres of central Washington north of Yakima.

PFC Haddock is assigned to the divisions 2nd Battle Group, 47th Infantry as an automatic rifleman.

Troops in "Indian River" were involved in every phase of modern warfare — atomic, electronic, chemical-biological-radiological-psychological and even guerrilla fighting. The pentomic organization enables fast movement and wide dispersion to cope with such weapons.

Simulated atomic blasts and devices which harmlessly simulate radioactive fallout and detection added realism to the training.

During the early stages of the maneuver, an entire infantry battle group was airlifted from Ft. Lewis to the Firing Center. The men boarded Air Force planes at nearby McChord AFB for the trans-Cascades flight.

Candidate for Lt. Governor Draws Backing

Eleven daily newspapers representing all sections of the state already have announced support of Ben Ramsey of San Augustine, for re-election as Lieutenant Governor, Ramsey's headquarters reports.

"The soft-spoken East Texas has drawn strong backing from Texarkana to El Paso, and Ft. Worth to Victoria," says the announcement.

"Often, the electorate pays but little attention to the important office of Lieutenant Governor, often not considering the candidate as a potential governor," the Marshall News-Messenger commented. "In the case of Ben Ramsey there will be no fears. He is capable, efficient and his long, solid record has been built on honest, diligent and intelligent efforts. The Lieutenant Governor should encounter no difficulties in returning to high office. He is one person in public life whose strong record has made him a favorite of the people."

Other newspapers supporting Ramsey include the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, Texarkana Gazette, Dallas Morning News, Victoria Advocate, Houston Chronicle, Nacogdoches Daily Sentinel, Kilgore News Herald, El Paso Times, Lufkin Daily News, and the Houston Post.

The Texas Mohair Weekly commented that Ramsey's "economic approach to state government is vital to Texans."

Mrs. Paul V. Keen Jr.
... the former Barbara Jochetz ...

Twin Ring Vows Made By Barbara Jochetz-Paul Keen

Altar vases filled with pale pink peonies, baskets of pink throated gladioluses, "sweet pink" tapers in bronze candelabra banked with Salal formed the background for the exchange of wedding vows for Miss Barbara Jean Jochetz and Paul Vincent Keen Jr. Dr. J. Chess Lovern read the twin ring ceremony in Bowman Memorial Chapel of First Methodist Church in Lubbock, Sunday June 8, at 4 p.m.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an original model of imported French lace and tulle over net and taffeta. Designed with portrait neckline formed with folds of tulle embroidered with iridescent sequins, the molded bodice had short sleeves complemented with lace mitts and terminated with point at center front waistline. From this stemmed a magnificent skirt made of tulle over ruffled net encircled with applique points of scalloped lace. Her cap of tulle covered with orange blossoms held a fingertip veil.

She carried pink Rubrum lilies with French ivy leaves entwined in a cascading arrangement.

Attendants
Miss Pat Fleming of Fort Worth was maid of honor. She was attired in a gown of starched point de Sprit in ice pink. Fashioned with a Sabrina neckline that dipped to a low-V in back, the fitted bodice was highlighted with a satin cummerbund that held a bustle-like bow
