SUBSCRIBE FOR THE SLATONITE AND STAY AHEAD

nent of. iss Vera attend.

ve Price

groom

24th at 5 and 19

re, Sla.

of Kes. lially in-

see Mr.

2.5

IIS

nly

r est

ete

ind

es,

S

ock

00.

rns

out

95.

Adv.

The Slaton Slatonite EVERY FRIDAY IN THE INTEREST OF SLATON AND SLATONITES

BOOST SLATON AND WATCH IT GROW

Number 17

Volume XXVI

Y. Wyze Guye Seza

Uncle Ananias says we keep on fooling ourselves long after we have eased to fool others.

Of interest to the kids is the fact that Castor Oil is a "luxury."

The girl friend says the wife that used to kiss her husband goodbye on the doorstep every morning now has breakfast in bed.

Christmas holidays are "just around the corner." The yuletide spirit reigns supreme. Mistletoe, holly, and the pungent, fresh greenness of new-born Christmas trees will soon cheer millions of homes. Shop windows, chock full of all sorts of tempting gifts, bedecked with tinsel and trimmings, are exciting portents of the fun to come.

Adding to the general atmosphere, but in more serious vein, are the tinkling bells of the Salvation Army, and the double-barred cross, emblem of the Anti-Tuberculosis move us on the friendly little Christmas Eloise Eckert is doing likewise. seals that ornament our packages cheer.

Don't neglect either of them! They need your help, as do the

Slaton Teachers Spend Holidays With Relatives

PUBLISHED

The Teachers of the Slaton Public schools will visit widely separated areas during the holidays. Most of them will take advantage of the brief respite from classes to spend a few days with relatives in their "home town."

Superintendent David Lemon and family are planning to attend the Lemon family reunion in Sulphur Springs, Texas, and also visit with Mrs. Lemon's relatives there.

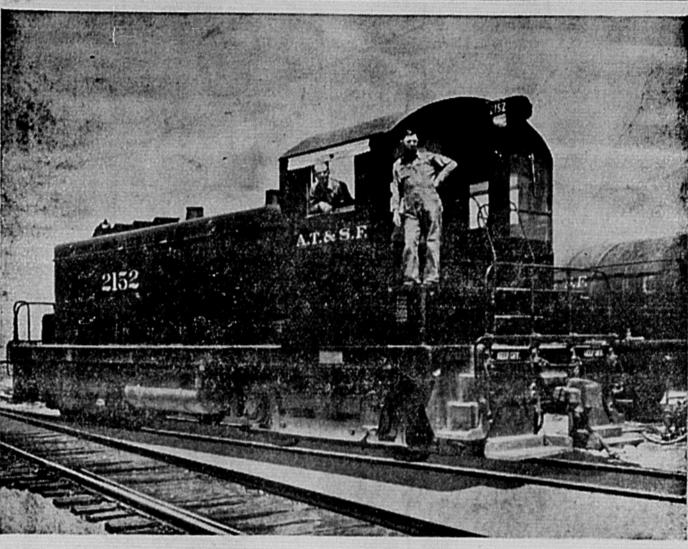

Phincipal Joe Webb dug into his jeans and bought a new Plymouth and will visit the old home town, Texarkana, and spend the holidays with relatives and friends there.

Melvin Sisk, after attending a Sophomore party at the club house, will go with his parents to El Paso and Juarez, Mexico. Miss Mary Harlan is planning a trip to San Angelo Miss Irene Armes will remain at home in order to be with her brothers, Woodson and Troy, who will come to Slaton for the holidays.

John Rayburn will remain at home unless he decides to go with a group of friends to Mexico City. Miss Eufa Tidwell and Mrs. Butler will spend the holidays with relatives in Pecos. Mr. and Mrs. Nash are planning their ment, which is so familiar to all of own Christmas dinner at home. Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton will express and cards. Both of them appear at their yuletide greetings to friends this time of year almost as magically and relatives in Ft. Worth and Abias Santa Claus himself-and equally lene. Mr. and Mrs. Strickland will go as indispensable as agents of good to Waco. Miss Dean will visit her father and sister in Perryton. Mr. Clyde Rowe and family along with Joe Hadden, will visit a few days in Cisco and San Angelo and return to

DIESEL SWITCHING ENGINE GOES INTO SERVICE

The first Diesel-electric switching engine to be used in the Southwest recently went into service in the Dallas yards of the Santa Fe Railway.

Slaton, Lubbock County, Texas, Friday, Dec. 17, 1937.

Using crude oil, the engine carries 600 gallons, sufficient fuel for four days of operation. The engine furnishes full-time switching service, with | of nine on the Santa Fe System.

routine weekly inspection its only time off duty. Other advantages are fast responses and accurate control of speed of switching operations and low operating cost. This unique 600 horsepower locomotive is operated by an engineer and fireman. The engine installed in the Dallas yards is one

Plains Sector Is Covered By Snow Early This Week

Snowflakes, sleet, rain and mist left Texas with few dry spots Tuesday and a new cold wave as just beginning.

Snow squalls over the South Plains made traffic slow down to a crawl, sleet-based highways receiving snow that increased in volume as the mercury skidded to 22.7 degrees in the Slaton area.

All points of the compass indicated conditions at Slaton were matched in the South Plains generally.

A variation of 59.3 degrees thus was established between Sunday's alltime December high of 82 degrees and the early Tuesday low, making for some of the most remarkable weather figures in the 26 year-old history of weather data at the Texas experiment sub-station east of Lubbock.

Checking with utility plants and communications companies disclosed no interruption of service due to sleet, rain and snow.

Moisture was needed, especially in the north Panhandle and north of Plainview, for wheat, since the surface was dry and a great proportion of planted acreage had not sprouted.

Reports were received last week of wheat beginning to show signs of rapid deterioration and, in a few instances, plants were reported dying.

Reports On Conditions Recent reports on conditions gave the following: Plainview, wheat growing but in need of moisture; Happy, moisture needed, some lateplanted heat not sprouted and rest not showing growth; Tulia, fair wheat pastures, but late wheat not sprouted; Lorenzo, rain needed; Amherst, wheat growing some; Ralls, wheat up to good stand, but moisture needed; pleted: Crosbyton, wheat in good shape; Idalou, still planting wheat; Kress, wheat fair, needs rain.

souls less fortunate than yourself whom they represent, and whom they strive each year to bring within the great fold of gaiety which envelops the nation during the Christmas season. * * * *

Believing that a warning about the nazards of fires at this season may save life and property, the National Board of Fire Underwriters has published a new eight-page leaflet entit led, "Keep Your Fires Friendly at Christmas Time."

The leaflet's cover displays a blazing Christmas tree. Inside a sketch pictures Santa Claus with beard and clothing afire. Additional sketches illustrate the hazards of nitro-cellulose film in home movie projectors, inflammable decorations, and flimsy costumes.

A fatal fire resulting from the careless act of a smoker near a Christmas tree is described, and each special holiday hazard is considered in turn. Included are fire dangers in homes, stores and public halls.

Reasonable quantities of the new neaflets will be supplied free by the National Board upon application to its New York office at 85 John Street.

Fire control during the holidays or any other season, is a simple mat ter-if you have the proper knowledge at your command. The National Board is performing a real public ser vice in publishing these leaflets, which will go a long way toward assuring a really Merry Christmas-by keep ing fire where it should be, in the furnace and under the turkey.

Mr. Nelson, the oldest Baptist Misionary, gave a lecture on the hardships and trials of South America at the First Baptist Church Sunday night at 7:15.

Mr. Nelson is traveling over the country making these personal lecture tours.. He went to South America in 1891 and has been in America for about a year. Most of these years were spent teaching the natives up and down the Amazon River.

Mr. Nelson left Sunday night for Tulsa, Oklahoma.

There was a moderate attendance and everyone enjoyed his lecture.

CORRECTION.

Two weeks ago an article stated that Mr. and Mrs. Madison Rayburn who worked there ere renovating the of Littlefield visited in Slaton. This cotton when it caught fire. should have read. Mr. and Mrs. Mad-

Slaton for the balance of the yuletide season.

Addie Lea Morrison will be at Commerce, Mr. and Mrs. Neeley will go to Frederick, Oklahoma. Mrs Ray Alysworth will remain in Slaton. Mrs. Pickens and Misses Edith Marrs, Minnie Lee McMurry and Fay Col tharp will stay in Slaton. Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Meading and family will go to El Paso. Miss Ruby Lee Waller at Morgan. Miss Erma Joy Weaver is to go to El Paso and Mr. and Mrs. John C. Jenkins will stay part of the holidays at Stamford and the rest here.

spend the Xmas holidays with their parents and relatives in Hillsboro and Chillicothe. Miss Inez McClenny will be in Liberty and Houston. Mr. and Mrs. Otis Gunter will spend the holidays with their parents in Gunter. Mrs. Nan Tudor will be at home. Miss Joan Drewry will remain at home.

Letter Compliments Methodist Pastor

"December 3, 1937. 'Secretary, Chamber of Commerce, Slaton, Texas.

Dear Sir: "Reverend J. O. Quattlebaum, re- and to this, the Manager was asked cently of Canyon, has moved to your to have a survey made and the ques community, as pastor of the Method- tionaire answered. ist Church. He has been with us for commend him to you and trust you ever in beautifying Slaton. Judges to be selected was left up will call on him to assist in your undertakings. It would be difficult to Manager Payne, and he got in

"With best wishes, I remain, Sincerely,

S. H. CONDRON, President Chamber of Commerce, Canyon.

fire alarm about 7:45 Tuesday morning, when the fire department rush to the Slaton Mattress Factory to extinguish a fire, resulting in about thirty pounds of cotton being burned Little damage was done. Two men

Mrs. Lula Loveless, mother of Dr.

Wednesday alternoon at 5:30 when one was hurt seriously returning home from Dallas. His car bany and Breckenridge.

The wreck tore the car up, but no a few days.

BOARD of CITY DEVELOPMENT and CHAMBER of COMMERCE NEWS A. J. PAYNE, SECRETARY

The Directors of the Board of City | spend the Xmas holidays with her and Development and Chamber of Commerce met Tuesday night and busi-Mr. and Mrs. K. S. McKinnon will ness was transacted with dispatch. President C. F. Anderson being ab- and THANKS AGAIN! sent from the City, Vice-President Fred H. Schmidt acted in his stead. Under the head, Communications: Letter was read from the Lankart Breed Seed Farms of Waco, in which was stressed the main feature of picking on one certain good cotton seed and all plant them, which would show much improvement over the hit and miss way of doing. They offered to send a man out here to explain all about their seed if needed, so we would be pleased to hear or see any one who may be interested in helping the grade of cotton out here on the plains. Letter was also read concerning a Dam across the canyon which was in answer to our former letter, Reports of Committees: Under this the past four years and we came to head Mr. Webber Williams Chairman regard him as one of our most valu- of the beautification Committee of able citizens. He took part in all the Chamber of Commerce, made hi worthy civic enterprises and was in- report on the lighting of Slaton for strumental in helping us build a bet- the Holidays. He was given the ter community. While we lost a Thanks of the Board and was compli valuable man, it is your gain and we mented as having done the best jo communication with Mrs. Clark M. to exaggerate his fine qualities. Mullican of the Garden Club of Lub-

Everyone was awakened by the

Mr. Stokes got several bruises and collided with another car between Al- cuts and will remain in the Hendrick-Memorial Sanitarium at Abilene fo at her expense, so you may know how good this made me feel not hav ing to ask for the vacation. THANKS

We are in deed proud of the way our merchants have decorated their stores and show windows, they far surpass last year in their decorations and then the superb lighting system makes our little City look like a fairy land at night. We especially call your your attention to the Santa Fe lighting showing their emblem in lights, go down and see this, something new and different.

The Slaton five gins report 18,848 bales as ginned to date. This same date last year was 7,724, a gain over lst year of 11,124. Posey has ginned 3,752, a gain over last year of 2,024.

In behalf of the Board of Directors of the Board of City Development and Chamber of Commerce and your Secretary-Manager, we wish you one and all a VERY MERY XMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR.

Financial report of Sec-Treas. A. J. Payne of the Slaton First Annual Poultry Show, December 2, 3, 4. Receipts:

From the V. C. D. _____ $50.00 From sale of ads in catalogue 110.00

> $160.00 Total

Disbursements: Premiums on poultry __ $44.25 Grain _____ 3.50 Ladies' Fancy Work 5.25 Canned Products ____4.50

Total $ 58.25 Catalogues Paper, Lumber and Hay -----

When a picture begins with the ring of the wedding bells, instead of ending there, it is an outstanding Abernathy, sowing of wheat not comiews event

Darryl F. Zanuck, 20th-Century-Fox production chief, decided on a different procedure than is usually the custom, took the combination of circumstances involving three modern people -the wife, who shared her husband's home but was unwilling to share his love, the doctor loved by two women and unable to give up either one, and the nurse, so intimately a part of the doctor's life-and wove it into a gay, sparkling drama in the mood of today.

The dramatic result is "Wife, Doctor and Nurse," witty, penetrating Twentieth Century-Fox hit starring Loretta Young, Warner Baxter and Virginia Bruce, whose talents are brilliantly blended together in one of the year's most exceptional pictures, Prevue Saturday and Sunday and Monday at the Palace Theatre.

"Wife, Doctor and Nurse" presents a new treatment of a situation which often arises in daily business life, where the wife finds that her husband has a feminine helpmate in his business or profession who, through years of close association, has become an essential part of his life.

With Loretta Young in the role of the wife, Warner Baxter as the outstanding New York surgeon, and Virginia Bruce as his head nurse and indispensable aid, the story moves along at a rapid pace with many tense situations, amusing moments and smart, sophisticated dialogue.

CORRECTION.

Last week we carried several articles of death, stating that they took place at the Mercy Hospital. We wish to correct this.

o'clock when he stepped to the side walk in front of the residence of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Wheatly, at 225 West Crosby, where he was rooming.

Mr. Lemons was born in Tennessee February 8, 1880 He married Mrs. Ethel Lemons and later moved here Slaton his been his home for the past 117 years.

Mr. Lemons has been employed by the Santa Fe for 28 years and worked made sled riding and snow-balling R. B. Galloway (Judge) _____$ 15.00 as chief clerk to the master mechanic very thrilling for the children. 40.00 here.

8.85 Thursday afternoon and the funeral and so it happens that Mr. H. H. Ed-7.25 will be held Friday, at 5:00 p. m., at mondson, Hyden and Bob got a nasty 1.25 1508 Avenue Q, with Rev. Childress, 5.65 pastor of the Baptist Church, officiat 2.50 3.00 ing.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. ditch. No one in the car was hurt, 6.15 Ethel Lemons, one son, Herman, two but it bent the top and smashed one Total _____ 89.45 daughters, Mrs. Graham Hennington side.

12.30 and Mary, and one brother, J. E. Driving over ice-covered roads is

On the F, W. & D. C. railway branch from Plainview to Dimmitt not all wheat had been sown and much of that planted had not had a good start. Around Silverton, Sterley and other points east of the Santa Fe railroad, moisture was needed.

Around Petersburg farmers were reported taking sheep off wheat fields because of the slow growth. Farmers feared grazing too closely would injure the wheat.

Cotton Picking Halted

Picking of cotton was stopped by the snow and many farmers indicated they would not resume harvesting of the crop until after Christmas holidays. Consensus indicated from 80 to 90 per cent of the crop gathered. Amount to be gathered when harvesting is resumed will depend on market conditions.

Mechanical harvesters and sleds, mostly the latter, will be used to harevst the greater portion of the cotton. Moisture will make the lint heavy.

Automotive concerns said antifreeze was "not going so fast, because most persons already had changed." Winterizing of oil, too, had been done earlier, in the main.

Sale of automobile heaters was not as brisk as had been expected. 'Because many of us almost had sold out before this spell," said one concern. "However, some places who have heaters are getting rid of them like hotcakes."

Ice-Covered Road Causes Accident

The snow that fell early Tuesday morning had its disadvantages as well as its advantages.

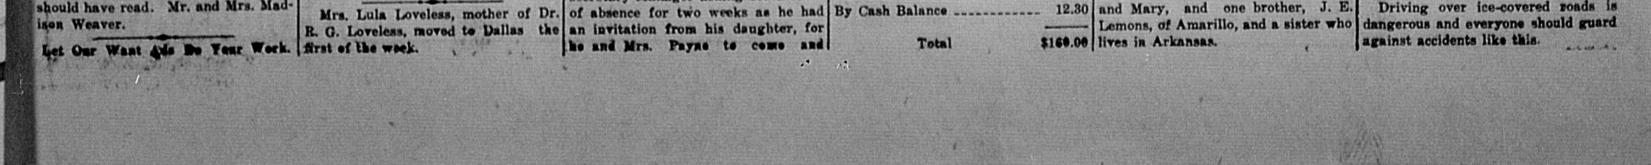

The air, festive with Christmas spirit, and then the snow, made everyone feel very good. Also the snow Still, amid all the pleasure and ex-His body was taken to Lubbock citement fate has to play her handspill on the Wilson highway near Edwards Gin. Mr. Edmondson lost control of his car and turned over in the bock, and she will see that three ladies will be down to do the judging some time between the 20th and 23rd Date will be known later. The prizes to be paid amount to $15.00, $5.00 and $2.50 as first and second prize on the best decorated Residence and the same of the Business, these prizes will be paid by our Treasurer, Fagan Genn, at Rockwell Lumber Co.

seconded by David Lemon that a two unanimously that same be given. This Labor _____ motion coming as it did saved your secretary-Manager asking for a leave

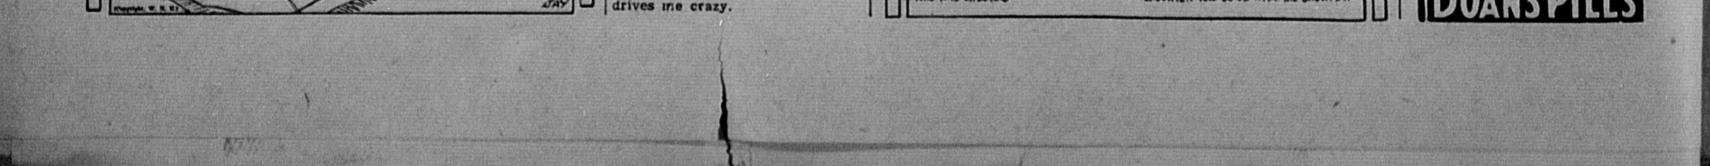

Under the head of New Business: Envelopes $3.75, Stamps 5.10 A surprise was given to your Secre- Ribbons _____ tary by a motion by J. M. Nelson and Leg and Rubber Band and Pins weeks vacation be given to their Sec- Wiring Bld. retary-Manager and it was voted Drayage _____

THE SLATON SLATONITE

Friday, December 17, 1937

Friday, December 17, 1937

THE SLATON SLATONITE

For generations, fine cooks throughout the South have preferred Jewel Shortening. A Special Blend of choice vegetable fats and other bland cooking fats, Jewel actually the thrill of thrills is the widespread to embellish these lovely at-home use of rich wool materials for the flannels with glistening trimmings and bright metallic touches also lav-If you have the right slant on that ish embroidery, beading and fringe which is truly high style you will that contrasts to perfection the smooth richness of the fabric. For wear over your prettiest formal gown to the opera, horse show, or to your closings all the fashion world loves favorite dine-and-dance rendezvous, the new decorative slide fasteners a floor length cape (three-quarter that run the full length of the garlength if you prefer) of broadcloth, ment. See centered in the group the duvetyn, or nubby tweed or even slender sculptured lines of a fitted fine jersey, as some few Paris de- woolen robe in rich blue flannel enlivened with contrasting tri-colored For the more casual and workman- bands that make a perfect setting for the neck-to-hemline slide nels are shown in gay young stripes, fastener that gleams so brightly checks and geometrical designs that against its gaily colorful back-festive and so will you in the model at the left in black moire. This is a very young frock and not a little flattering to the debutante figure. It has a skirt that's built for dancing, and the oh, so slender waist is no drawback (take it from one who knows). Be sure, young lady, to have your version ready to go when the invitation to celebrate comes flash-

Pattern 1397 is designed for sizes 12 to 20 (30 to 40 bust). Size

1396

Pattern 1396 is designed for sizes 32 to 44. Size 34 requires 1% yards of 39-inch material for the blouse; 1% yards of 54-inch material for the skirt.

Send your order to The Sewing Circle Pattern Dept., Room 1020, 211 W. Wacker Dr., Chicago, Ill. Price of patterns, 15 cents (in coins) each.

New Pattern Book.

Send 15 cents for the Barbara Bell Fall and Winter Pattern Book. Make yourself attractive, practical and becoming clothes, selecting designs from the Barbara Bell well-planned, easy-tomake patterns.

@ Bell Syndicate. -- WNU Service.

ing over the wire.

creams faster, makes more tender baked foods, than the costliest types of shortening. You get better results every time. Look for the red carton.

From Millions to Billions

There was paid to factory wage earners in America in 1869 the comparatively small total of $620,-467,474. Because of an increased demand created by advertising for factory products the amount paid to workers had grown to $11,620,-973,254 in 1929.

Skin. Firms and Smooths Complexion -Makes Skin Look Years Younger.

Get rid of ugly, pimply skin with this extraordinary new remedy. Denton's Facial Magnesia works miracles in clearing up a spotty, roughened com-plexion Even the first few treatments make a noticeable difference. The ugly spots gradually wipe away, big pores grow smaller, the texture of the skin itself becomes firmer. Before you know it friends are complimenting you on your complexion.

SPECIAL OFFER -for a few weeks only

Here is your chance to try out Denton's Facial Magnesia at a liberal saving. We will send you a full 6 or. bottle of Denton's, plus a regular size box of famous Milnesia Wafers (the original Milk of Magnesia tablets) ... both for only 60cl Cash in on this remarkable offer. Send 60c in cash or stamps today.

like modes, smartly patterned flanyield to flattering tailored treat- ground. ment emphasizing square-shouldered lines with mannish details to accent, by way of contrast, the femininity of the beautifully molded silis of deep wine flannel with a smart white pin stripe, the same distinctively tailored in a wraparound robe It has broad padded shoulders, slit at the neck for flattering effect. pockets and tailored shawl collar

STREAMLINE GOWN

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Streamliners are what they call the stunning party dresses that made their bow with the opening of evening apparel.

signers now sponsor.

A diagonal zipper glittering with gold sequins is striking against the jet black of a gracefully draped robe in soft lightweight flannel, as houette. To the left in the picture shown to the right in the group. you will see just such a garment. It From a slender, high-built waist the wraparound skirt falls in soft flowing lines and the well-cut sleeves are slightly puffed at the shoulders. which is at once chic and practical. Silk cord with gold pointed ends ties C Western Newspaper Union.

DESIGNER SETS OUT FASHION SIGNPOSTS

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

From no less an authority than the renowned Schiaparelli comes this foreword in regard to fashions on the way. Says this distinguished style creator: "Signposts signal a new class distinction for black tailored suits, giving them first place in fashion's relay."

They flash "go" to innumerable jersey stockings to match sports blouses in same material; pailletted bowknots; all the tinsel decorations of a Christmas tree directed in fashion channels.

The signals tell us the road lies straight ahead to long legs, a higher waistline and a covered throat, to draped sleeves and draped blouses, to bust length jackets, to jewels you never saw before made to flash from jacket lapels and so the story of fashion unfolds.

Coat Silhouettes Varied

in Fashions for Winter

Coats for the coming winter have refused to conform to any one silhouette. Paris designers show sheath-like tubular coats that are sometimes edged with a band of fox at the bottom; straight, loose coats that are full-length and occasionally made with extra fullness in the back; or of classic lines, nipped in at the waist and flared to the hemline.

Generally speaking, broad shoulders have given way to a more natural line, waistlines frequently are accented, and plain, close-fitting necklines are new. Fur panels often give importance to straight-cut

Paul was imprisoned for the gospel's sake. Did that stop him? no; he made the very guards who were assigned to watch him in his house into missionaries of the cross. He won each one as he took his designated period of service and sent

Christian give himself in like meas-

Paul, in the verses of our lesson, shows that spirit and boldly declares that he follows Christ regardless of trying circumstance-he does so now, "in the body," not later in glory. And it matters not whether it be by life or death-

"Christ shall be magnified."

I. "What Then?" (v. 18).

ure for Christ and his holy cause?

the rest" (v. 13 R. V.). Then, some of his Christian associates taking advantage of the fact that he was imprisoned, went out to preach just to show that they were as good as he. They made their very preaching an expression of their envy of his popularity and hoped to heap more sorrow upon him. Did he get angry and bitterly fight back? No; he thanked God that Christ was preached. We need more of that spirit in our day.

him out as a testimony to "the whole practorian guard and to all

II. "In My Body."

One of the glaring fallacies of human thinking is the idea that at some favorable time in the future we shall be able to enjoy life, do mighty deeds or serve the Lord. For example parents fail to enjoy their children because they are always looking forward to the next stage of their development. The time to enjoy and help our children is now. The time to serve the Lord Jesus is now. The day will come when we shall be glorified with him, but it will then be too late to speak to our neighbors about Christ. III. "To Live Is Christ and to Die

Is Gain" (v. 21). Humanly speaking when a matter is one of "life or death" it is a question whether death may not intervene. The hope is that this may not be the case and every effort is made to prevent it. How different with Paul. He rightly points out that to a Christian death means entering into perfect fellowship with Christ and unlimited service for him. Every human limitation will then be put aside-knowledge, service, communion, will all be perfect and complete.

He would not, however, turn away from his present privilege and duty. Since it is God's will that he should abide in the flesh he will do it in such a way as to make it literally true that to him "to live is Christ. Every life has a purpose and that ruling passion which controls and directs a life is what should be written into the sentence, "To me to live is . . " What is it-money, position, pleasure, sin? Or is it Christ? If he is your life, then Spic 'n' Classic.

There's always a "morning after," and that's when you'll be glad to have a spic and classic frock like the one above, center. It is suitable to take back to school to rouse the roommate's envy and, pleasantly enough, it's so easy to cut and stitch, a freshman can't go wrong. Make one version in flat crepe and a carbon copy in sheer wool-it is superb both ways.

How about a two-piecer of lame and velvet for that rousing family reunion over the holidays? The model above, right, is two pieces, but it's one with chic and figure flattery. You'll have your aunties making ohs and ahs and the bright young cousins calling you 'the duchess''! What's more you'll look the part-a stunning compliment to your family as well as to the New Year.

Pattern 1330 is designed for sizes 12 to 20 (30 to 40 bust). Size 14 requires 4% yards of 39-inch material plus 6 yards of grosgrain ribbon to trim as pictured.

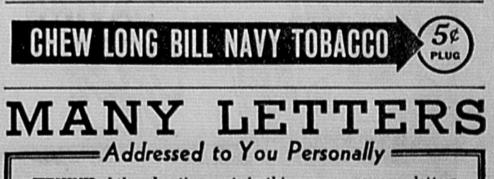

Sioux City. lowa

Sacred Abuse To Create If you would create something The older the abuse the more you must be something .-- Goethe, sacred it is .-- Voltaire,

The Slaton Slatonite Published Every Friday By The Donald & Donald Publishing Co.

Slaton, Lubbock County, Texas.

Blaton Times Purchased Jan. 20, 1927 Entered as second class mail matter the postoffice at Slaton, Texas. Mrs. Bessie May Donald __ Publisher W. D. Donald ____ Managing Editor

ADVERTISING RATES column inch to aii agencies, with Me" during the ceremony. usual discount.

LOCAL READERS-set in 8-pt., 10c per line of Five Words, Net. To Agencies, 10c per line, with usual discount.

CARDS OF THANKS-50c.

er line. SUBSCRIPTIONS IN ADVANCE Lubbock, Lynn, Garza Counties__$1.50

dress.

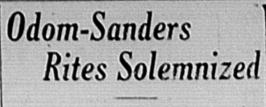

THURSDAY CLUB HELD MEETING Satin. WITH MRS. J. A. KLASNER

Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Klasner served luncheon at 1:00 to all the members present which was followed by an afternoon of and Mrs. H. G. Sanders, also a gradubridge.

The table decorations carrying out A. & M. Military College and Texas as a pond with reindeer around it and Silver Key fraternity. He is at preschurches, houses, barns, etc. On the here. buffet were evergreens and blue! room was a huge Christmas tree with points in Mexico. a large stick of pepperment candy for all the guests.

and a merry time was had by all.

In an impressive ceremony Tuesday merning at 8:00 o'clock Miss Maxine Robertson of Plains and Mrs. Ray Odom became the bride of Greely Darwin of Dallas. Sanders in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Odom at 420 Wost Lubbock Street.

The Rev. J. O. Quattlebaum, pastor of the First Methodist church, officiated with the ring ceremony, before an arch altar made of fir pine and ferns under a silver bell, tall white tapers in crystal stood at each side of the altar. The bride entered the living room on the arm of her father to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Mrs. Allen DISPLAY ADVERTISING-35c per Farrel, who also played "O Promise

The bride was reared in Slaton; graduated from Slaton High School and attended Texas Christian University in Ft. Worth. She studied dancing in the Sproule School of Dance at RESOLUTIONS, Memoirs, or Obit- Lubbock seven years, and under the uaries, (excepting accounts of famous Russian instructor, Elexander deaths, news originating in this of Ormansky of Et. Worth For the past tice), 5 cents per line. Poetry, 10c Ormansky of Ft. Worth. For the past year she taught dancing in Slaton and Post.

your OLD as well as your NEW ad- of white carnations, lillies and maid- sided over the business session. en hair fern with streamers of white,

The Thursday bridge club met at Sanders, wore a grey wool ensemble Champion and Mrs. J. E. Webb.

Edwin Haddock was best man. The groom, who is the son of Mr. ate of Slaton High School attended the Christmas motif with a reflector Tech, where he was a member of the lights peeking through. In the living the happy couple left for El Paso and members will exchange gifts.

After a weeks vacation they will be at home at 640 Tenth Street. About Gifts were exchanged by members forty close friends and relatives at-I tended the wedding.

DADER

Mrs. J. Posey, Mrs. V. N. Dillard, Mrs. MET WITH MRS. RAYBURN Thurman Whitis and son, Mr. and Mrs. Misses Doris Minor, Katrina Brewer, Rayburn at 615 south 12th Street. Doris Peavy, and Florence Baldwin

HOSPITAL NEWS

J. C. Horton, Post, medical, December 14.

Claud Blassingame, Slaton, pneunonia, December 12.

Doyle Busby, Wilson, medical, Deember 14th.

Tom Elder, Slaton, surgical. Mrs. J. C. Rice, Slaton, surgical. Mrs. R. E. Conaster, Odessa, medi

M Abernathy, Slaton, surgical. . T. Hancock, Slaton, surgery.

For Radio Batteries and Tubes sea Elliott Radio and Electric Shop Our charges for Radio Service are the lowest.

SENIOR CIVIC AND CULTURE CLUB MET DEC. 11

The bride was dressed in a green met in regular meeting Deceber 11, Beyond 6th Postal Zone _____ $2.25 wool suit with fox collar accessories in the home of Mrs. W. E. Smart. in changing your address, please give in rust and carried an arm bouquet The president, Mrs. R. H. Todd, pre-> west," was led by Mrs. J. A. Elliott. The maid-of-honor, Miss Virginia She was assisted by Mrs. R. M.

the home of Mrs. J. A. Klasner last with burgendy accessories with a Titles of parts given were, "Grand shoulder corsage of white cornations. Canyon of Colorado," "Carlsbad Cavern," and "Enchanted Mesa, The City of the Sky."

After listening to this very interesting prorgam, the club adjourned, and the hostess served a delicious refreshment plate.

The club will meet in the home of a miniature village consisting of ent engaged in the grocery business Mrs. W. P. Florence on December 18, at 3 p. m. There will be a Christmas Immediately after the ceremony program, and a Christmas tree. The

W. M. S. MET MONDAY

Mrs. R. C. Ayers was hostess to the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Christian Church on Monday afternoon of this week.

Mrs. H. H. Edmondson was leader of the devotional, in which she was assisted by Mesdames Smith, Shelton

Out-of-town ghests were Mr. and PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY The auxiliary of the Presbyterian Baxter Bardwell, Mr, Troy Pickens, church met at the home of Mrs. Jas.

The meeting was an unusually inof Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Johnie P. teresting one, and they had a very good attendance. The reports showed a good financial condition, and plans were made for oversea hospital sew ing. The auxiliary also decided to quilt a number of quilts after the holidays.

The next meeting will be the second Monday in January.

EASTERN STAR PARTY WILL BE HELD FRIDAY

The Eastern Star party will be held at the hall at 7:30 Friday, December 17th. Each one is to bring a gift. All members are urged to come.

JUNIOR CIVIC AND CULTURE CLUB ENTERTAINS HUSBANDS

The Junior Civic and Culture Club entertained their husbands and friends Tuesday evening, Dec. 14, with a turkey dinner served at the Harvey House.

After the dinner the group went to the beautifully decorated home of Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Crow, for a Bingo The Senior Civic and Culture Club party and Christmas tree. Following > LUMBER BARGAINS!! SAVE $25.00 per thousand on GOOD Used Timbers. Big Savings on many other building items-including Cypress and Steel Tankspriced low!

Murphey's Pioneer Lumber Yard North "H" Lubbock

FOR XMAS Royal Portable Typewriters $39.50 - - $54.50 $64.50

May be purhased on monthly payments if desired.

BILLFOLDS, BRIEF CASES, ZIPPER BINDERS AND CASES.

Your Name Stamped in Gold. FOUNTAIN PENS, PENCILS

the custom of the club, gifts of toys | nathy; Mesdames Tess Bruner, Ray were exchanged. After these were Darwin, Aylsworth, and Misses Gerunwrapped and admired, they were re- trude King, Fae Coltharp, Minnie Lee placed on the tree, to be distributed McMurry, Ina Binion, Inez McClenny, later among underprivileged children Ruby Waller and Audrea Mariott. of Slaton.

Mrs. C. C. Hoffman won high Bingo prize for the women and Mr. Crow for the men.

Those present were: Messrs, and Mesdames Jack Shepard, Curtis Hamilton, C. C. Hoffman, V. L. Browning, Louis Ayres, O. O. Crow, Walter Hord, J. Bob Stevens, Marvin Aber-

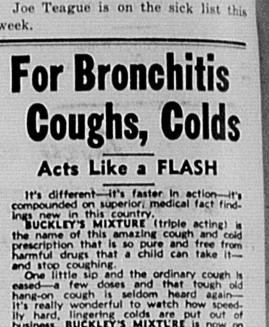

> Don't put up with useless PAIN

> > Get rid of it

When functional pains of menstruction are severe, take CARDUI. If it doesn't benefit you, consult a physician. Don't neglect such pains. They depress the tone of the nerves. cause sleeplessness, loss of appetite, wear out your resistance.

Get a bottle of Cardui and see whether it will help you, as thousands of women have said it helped them.

Besides easing certain pains, Cardui aids in building up the whole system by helping women to get more strength from the food they cat.

The next meeting will be in Jan.

business. BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE is now on sale at all good stores-over 9 million bet-ties have been sold in cold-wintry Canada.

TEAGUE DRUG

NO PLACE CAN BE MORE APPROPRIATE THAN

The program on, "The Great Southfidence that you are wearing clothes that you can be proud of in any company... clothes that have enduring individuality and a greater length of service. A Park Fifty suit is always worth more than it costs ... Invest in yourself this season. PARK FIFTY SUITS $50

IT'S HERE-just in time for Christmas, too. We con dially invite you to our office to see this remarkable, new Westinghouse Refrigerator that is kitchen-proved to give you kitchen-proved economy. Again, Westinghouse leads the field in value. To make Christmas shopping easier on your pocketbook, any refrigerator may be bought on convenient terms.

Texas-New Mexico

Large Assortment Xmas Candies Fine Fruits Roast of Beef Pork Roast Choice Meats of All Kinds

THE SLATON SLATONITE

Friday, December 17, 1937

News Review of Current Events

CONFUSED CONGRESS President Returns to Find His "Must" Measures Are Facing Failure of Passage in the Present Session

Pictured above from left to right are Senator William Borah of Idaho, Senator Edward R. Burke of Nebraska and Professor Henry W. Edgerton of Cornell university and formerly of the antitrust division of the Department of Justice, as the professor was about to appear before a subcommittee of the senate judiciary committee. The committee examined the professor to determine whether they believed him a fit appointee to the United States Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia. He was suspected of not believing in the right of courts to declare legislative enactments unconstitutional. But he declared he now regarded such judicial review as a legitimate part of our constitutional system.

Stormy Days in Capital

R ETURNING from his fishing trip in Florida waters with an infected gum, President Roosevelt was confronted with a situation that was decidedly disconcerting. What has been called the Roosevelt depression was becoming still more depressed and congress seemingly couldn't make up its mind what to do about it. The demand for tax revisions that would assist business out of the slump was insistent, and so was the necessity of balancing the budget. Passage of the four turned to the United States. Preadministration "must" measures appeared to be impossible during the holidays at the home of Mrs. the extraordinary session. All of them were opposed by various blocs the Republican minority.

standing between utilities and the administration, Wendell L. Willkie, president of Commonwealth and Southern corporation, proposed a general truce between business and the Roosevelt administration. Willkie's company has been involved in some of the bitterest controversies with Washington.

Lindbergs Come Back

A FTER two years of selfimposed exile in England, Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh resumably they came over to spend Lindbergh's mother, Mrs. Dwight Morrow, in Englewood, N. J. Disof the majority party as well as by patches from London said the colonel also had some business to The senate's farm bill seemed to transact in America. He is assohave the best chance to get through, ciated in an advisory capacity with Pan-American Airways. The landing of the Lindberghs at New York was accomplished with such secrecy that they almost escaped the notice of reporters and news photographers. One of the officers of the liner on which they came said they planned to return to England immediately after Christ-

DEL RIO, TEXAS .- According to the scientists, who have a great way of naming earthly phenomena without inquiring into the wishes of the phenomena, we are now living in a terrestrial era known as the Hollocene period.

This will be news to a lot of people who rather suspected we were living through a stage which might be called Chaos. Still, it's no wonder that the word hasn't got around generally yet, because this present era is quite a young era as eras go. It's merely a few, million years old, which, to our true geologist, is the Irvin S. Cobb same as yesterday.

Mention a few million years to him and he'll say "phew!" and just snap his fingers-like that.

I wonder if the authorities would pardon a suggestion from a poor ignoramus whose acquaintance with geology is largely limited to two of its surface phases, namely: Regular paved roads and those derned detours. When we consider most of the humorous illustrations and the bulk of the humorous text printed in the average smart magazine of today, and the even spicier lines heard in smart modern plays, wouldn't it be more fitting to call it, not the Holocene, but the Obscene period? . . .

The Law's Long Arm.

THE long arm of the law-it's a grand phrase, isn't it? So mouthfilling, so satisfying to the honest citizen's soul!

It conjures up visions of unrelenting warfare against crime, inevitable punishment for the guilty. It's the bunk!

It's the bunk because of crooked lawyers; venal policemen; compla-

HARVEST

By ALSON SECOR in Successful Farming

O LD SANTA CLAUS_ Some don't believe in him because He makes them spend. They like to borrow, but never lend That Christmas cheer Which permeates this time of year.

They are tight-fisted cynics, these. They never know how presents please The little kids, and others; The sisters and the brothers; The care-worn dads and weary mothers.

Alcorn Transfer AND STORAGE WAREHOUSE Local and Long Distance Hauling Phones 80 - 278J ALL KINDS OF STORAGE

ROCKWELL BROS. LUMBERMEN Phone 15

LUBBOCK Sanitarium & Clinic Medical, Surgical, Diagnostic

General Surgery Dr. J. T. Krueger Dr. J. H. Stiles Dr. Henrie E. Mast

Eye, Ear, Nose & Throat Dr. J. T. Hutchinson Dr. Ben B. Hutchinson Dr. E. M. Blake

Infants and Children Dr. M. C. Overton Dr. Arthur Jenkins General Medicine

Dr. J. P. Latimore Dr. H. C. Maxwell Obsterics

Dr. O. R. Hand Internal Medicine Dr. R. H. McCarty X-Ray and Laboratory Dr. James Wilson

Resident Dr. J. K. Richardson J. H. Felton C. E. Hunt Business Mgr. Supt.

> X-Ray and Radium Pathological Laboratory School of Nursing

FOR CHOICE EVERGREENS

Shrubbery, Elms, Fruit Trees, etc., see my stock at 1707 Broadway

J. W. SIMMONS

DR. ROGER, Dentist

Where Slaton people secure their Dental Needs at surprisingly low fees

Asleep or Awake Extractions COME ANY TIME

Conley Building

FOSTER

FUNERAL HOME

SLATON, TEXAS

Embalming and Funeral Directing

Ambulance Service

Phone 125 - Day or Night

MADISON RAYBURN

ATTORNEY AT LAW

Citizens State Bank Bldg.

of

th

se di

ca ci sh he te be pr

ar tu Fe he whe W

ru at to path at gath

nor kno the the Sh Co ho stath

Corner Building Texas and Broadway decorations. Sighed, and also felt ashamed. For why should she be lonely, with two fine grown sons, They never learned to live Because they never learned to give. You've got to plant before you reap. If all you get you keep Your soul gets barren, sterile, sour, It takes the power Of cheerful giving To give a zest to living.

but it differed so radically from the house measure that it was certain a conference committee would have to try to find a common ground.

Secretary Wallace was reported dissatisfied with both senate and house bills. One official close to him said Wallace might urge President Roosevelt to veto any bill finally enacted which approximated either the senate or house measure.

Democrats were so badly split over the wage-hour bill that hope of passing it before the regular session of congress was about abandoned. Labor, too, was divided concerning Malin Craig, chief of staff of the this measure, the A. F. of L. opposing it and the C. I. O. advocating its passage. The federation offered its own version, calling for a flat 40 cents an hour minimum wage and a 40 hour maximum work week. The house bill was finally rescued from the rules committee by petition. House Majority Leader Sam Rayburn, Democrat, Texas, went ahead with plans to whip administration support behind the house measure. He said that fewer than 100 votes would be cast against the bill in its present form but warned that amendments which would make its wage-hour provisions more rigid might shunt the measure back to the labor committee and delay a vote indefinitely.

----Tax Setup Needs Revision

DANIEL C. ROPER, secretary of commerce, says the entire tax structure of the United States should be revised. He was speaking at a banquet of the Busi-general approval. "A general revision is necessary to simplify determination of tax liability. to distribute the burden of taxation more equitably, and to ness Advisory council in Chicago, and his statements appeared to meet with

Sec. Roper broaden the base of taxation to include a larger percentage of our earning population," Secretary Roper said.

He asserted that the undistributed profits tax had not entirely fulfilled its proponents' expectations that it would "bring about a higher velocity of money through larger and more widespread distribution of corporate earnings." ..

Mr. Roper expressed confidence that a "constructive approach will be found to the solution of the utilities dilemma and that significant results will be forthcoming.'

That this confidence has a sound basis was indicated by two announcements made the same day by prominent utility executives.

Floyd L. Carlisle, chairman of the Consolidated Edison company, told the New York state public service | Ltd., of London for $800,000. It will commission that his company plans | go to England under its own power a $25,000,000 expansion program. and will be junked.

-*--Infantry Comes First

mas.

IN WAR operations on land the infantry is still the most important branch of the service, says Gen.

army, in his annual report. Lessons learned by skilled observers of the civil war in Spain and the Chino-Japanese war have modified the American defense program, but, says the general, it is still the infantry that renders the decision in the final analysis. Airplanes and tanks are valuuable auxiliaries to the infantry, but they cannot bring about a decision in land operations.

General Malin Craig

Inventories of armament, motorization, mechanization and equipment, in the light of the lessons abroad, show several vital needs of the first line forces, General Craig declared. These include better weapons to combat aircraft and tanks, as well as more efficient guns for the planes and tanks.

Edgerton Backs Water

CONFIRMATION of the appoint-ment of Henry W. Edgerton of Cornell university as associate justice of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals was endangered because it was thought from his writings that he did not believe in judicial review. However, he appeared before the senate sub-committee, consisting of Senators Borah, Burke and Van Nuys and repudiated his previous utterances. Of the power of courts to declare legislative enactments unconstitutional he said: "I regard it as not only thoroughly established as a legitimate part of our constitutional system, but which was intended by the great majority of the men who framed our Constitution. I think it was properly established by John Marshall and I haven't the least criticism of any court for any declaration of the validity of that part of our constitutional system.'

Leviathan to Be Junked

I APAN made a bid for the Leviathan, huge liner seized from Germany in the World war, but the United States Lines rejected it and sold the vessel to Metal Industries,

The development came during hear- The Leviathan cost ten millions to cent prosecutors; soft-hearted or corrupted jurors; witnesses, bribed or intimidated; the law's delays; reversals of fair verdicts on foolish technicalities; a false sentimentality which forgets the widow and orphan of the victim and thinks only of the family of the killer; most often of all, abuse of the powers to commute and to pardon and to parole.

These days, when I see a sentenced offender handcuffed to an officer, I find myself saying to myself, "Chances are that fellow, literally or figuratively, is wearing that decoration only temporarily." . . .

The Passing Years.

LVERY newborn year is a rosy L prospect just as nearly every dying year is a dun-colored disappointment. But without revived hope what could we look forward to except being measured for a shroud?

It seems only yesterday when 1937 was busting in, a radiant, bouncing baby-child, his arms burdened with promises, bless his little soul! After several false starts, happy days were here again. Nobody was aiming to remodel the Supreme court. Senator Ashurst told us so, and didn't he know? He didn't.

Secretary Wallace, slightly assisted by Divine Providence, would immediately have the crop situation well in hand. Grass would grow only in the street leading to the almshouse. The Wall Street boys were expecting two suckers in every pot. And the song of the Bulbul was heard in the land-ah, the bullbull!

Within the 12-month the Republican party again would be a going concern. Well, if it's a going concern, the question is, where?

And now, laden with future gifts, comes 1938. How time flies! Why, before you know it, Sistie will be old enough to take a job with the radio and Buzzie will be signing testimonials.

. . . Gambling Houses.

ONCE famous card-sharp-not A reformed, but retired-said to me

"Show me a professional gambling house where the roulette wheel isn't crooked, where any other mechanical device is on the square, where the operatives from the bosses on down won't skin a customer-call him a sucker, if you want to; the terms are interchangeable-and I'll drop dead from shock, because no such outfit ever existed nor ever will, not so long as games can be tricked, as all of them can, and gamblers are out for the coin, as they naturally are, and the hand is quicker than the eye, which it is." "But how about the mathematical percentage in favor of the bankisn't that enough?" I asked. "How about the mathematical percentage of crooked law-enforcement officers who have to be bribed?" he countered. "There's successful enough to satisfy any mother?

Christmas

Present

Waterman

RS. GREENE sighed as she rummaged through the old trunk for the Christmas

But Mrs. Greene missed her tousled-headed lads, and as she fingered the battered drum, the outgrown mittens, the books and souvenirs, she felt a deep pang that no one needed her any longer.

She found the decorations and bustled down. Mary, the housekeeper the boys provided, had finished. There was really nothing left to be done. She thought of other only had a bicycle. tired Christmas eves, and could stand the oppression of memories no longer. "I'm going out," she said, and with no other explanation set out into the night.

It was crisp and starlit, and she walked far. The light and warmth of a cafe attracted her, and she stopped for tea. Over the rim of her teacup her eyes met those of a small boy just outside the window. He drew back shyly, leaving a moist spot where his nose had touched the pane. He looked very hungry, not just the healthy hunger which her sons had brought home from school, but as though he were really in need. Mrs. Greene smiled and beck-oned. "Come in," she invited. The boy shook his head, started to go, but the temptation of warmth and food was too much.

"That's better," Mrs. Greene approved, when he was seated opposite her, with a great bowl of soup. "I just needed someone to talk to." And before long she had heard the boy's whole story. Having no folks, he lived with an uncle, but he wanted to get out on his own. There were so many little ones, and after all, he didn't really belong. He'd get by. He knew where he could get a paper route right now, if he

"I know where there's a bicycle standing useless in an attic corner," said Mrs. Greene. "It belonged to my sons. You shall have it." His shining eyes made the whole

There was more than the bicycle.

It seemed a shame, Mrs. Greene said, for mittens not to be used, and these books, now, and-well, why not? Mary would be scandalized, and her sons might not understand-but there was their room, never

SLATON, TEXAS General Practice of Law in All Courts

Typewriter, Adding Machine Cash Register Repairs, Services-All Makes 15 years experience Work Guaranteed Local References BILL CONWAY Leave calls at Slatonite Office

WALTER H. JONES

CHIROPRACTOR College trained, plus two years interneship. 513 MYRICK BLDG.

E. ALTON BOONE CHIROPRACTOR Office in Benton Building (South of Palace Theatre) Hours-8:30 to 11:30 A. M.

> DR. F. W. ZACHARY VENEREAL CLINIC 503-4 Myrick Bldg. LUBBOCK

F. B. MALONE, M.D. EYE, EAR, NOSE & THROAT 1214 Broadway Lubbock, Texas Office Phone 2801 Res. Phone 15 JOHN L. RATLIFF

LAWYER Brown Building, West Side Square

"Listen, lad," she said. "I've been aching my heart out for a son. And you need a home. Couldn't we give ourselves to each other for a Christmas present? Won't you be my son?" "Geel" cried the boy, voicing a wonder of love and gratitude. "You can sure have me, and Merry Christmas! Merry, Merry Christmas, Mother!"

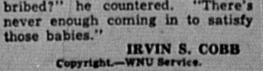

opened now-

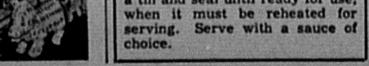

ENGLISH PLUM PUDDING

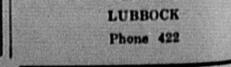

C Western Newspaper Union.

HERE are those to whom Christmas dinner would not be Christmas dinner without ending with plum pudding. Scald 2½ cups stale breadcrumbs with 1 cup cream. Cream 1/2 pound beef suet and add to it 1/2 cup brown sugar, 1/2 cup corn syrup, 5 well-beaten eggs, ½ pound chopped citron, ½ pound cur-rants, 2 teaspoons baking powder and 1/2 cup brandy or rum. Turn into a buttered mold and steam for 24 hours, 12 hours one day and 12 hours the next. Turn into a tin and seal until ready fo ings concerning a proposed $30,000,- build and the American government spent more than eight millions 000 bond issue. Back from submitting to the Pres- | to recondition it; and also paid Gerident a formula for better under- | many $16,688,000 for its seizure.

Friday, December 17, 1937

THE SLATON SLATONITE

Under Pressure By George Agnew Chamberlain C George Agnew Chamberlain

WNU Service

SYNOPSIS

Joyce Sewell, on the eve of her twentieth birthday, rebels at her lot, dependent on her detested stepmother, Irma, and full of tragic memories of her mother's murder twelve years before and her father's death six months ago. Irma calls in Helm Black-adder, an admirer, to help her persuade Joyce to marry rich, young Michael Kirk-patrick. Mike, sent up to Joyce by Irma and Blackadder, demands a showdown on his proposal and is rejected. Joyce real-izes that La Barranca, a Mexican hacienda which her father had owned, legally be-longs to her. Later, she receives a letter enclosing a warrant on the United States Treasury for $10,000 compensation for her mother's murder at La Barranca. She con-fers with Mr. Bradley, a banker and only remaining friend of her father's. She con-fdes that she wants to make a secret journey to Mexico. Bradley arranges all details for her. She departs by plane un-detected. Dirk Van Suttart, second secre-tary of the American embassy in Mexico City, gives Joyce a chilly reception and the hoses her temper. She finds a Mexican City, gives Joyce a chilly reception and she loses her temper. She finds a Mexican woman lawyer, Margarida Fonseca, who takes her to General Onelia, right-hand man to the Mexican minister of war. Margarida reminds Onelia that the usurper of La Bar-ranca is his dangerous enemy, General Do-rado. The two make plans to send Joyce with a few picked men under Pancho Buena-ventura to drive Dorado out. Adan Arnaldo. young man who runs El Tenebroso, a aight club, knows Dorado's present where-abouts, so they take Joyce there that night, where she notices Dirk. General Dorado play, the lights go out and Joyce is left alone. Adan Arnaldo whisks her out and takes her home. The following morning Joyce drives off to Toluca with Pancho. Back in Elsinboro, Joyce's disappearance has been discovered. Blackadder upbraids Irma, but succumbs to her helpless charm and places to margin her. Blackadder get and plans to marry her. Blackadder gets the secretary of state to wire the embassy at Mexico City to locate Joyce. Dirk is delegated for the search. Dirk, getting no information from the lying Onelia, goes to El Tenebroso and interviews Arnaldo. Ar-naldo bids Dirk follow him. Meanwhile Joyce and Pancho reach La Barranca. Pancho and Eusebio, one of his band, leave her and at dawn climb the wall. Suddenly shots ring out.

CHAPTER VI—Continued

Igr.

., 500

heir

ns

adway

E

ecting

Courts

ine

kes

Office

S

NE

ng

re)

M.

.D.

ROAT

hone 12

FF

She sprang through the first zagtan and ran across the second court. She reached the second zaguan, entered the inner patio and plunged through odorous blooms to trip and all but fall over a dead body. Here also everything was silent-not the stillness of peace, the silence of terror and death. Every door on the lower floor was tightly realed. She dashed up one branch more furiously than ever. The other hand added its grip to the first. Now she could see his waist, the whole body, his shattered and bleeding thigh. He looked up and instantly she knew he was asking for no aid. The single thought in his eyes was as clear as if he had shouted it. He wished to pull her down, transfer his grip from her ankle to her throat and kill her before he died-all this for mi General Dorado. Then her voice came backnot her familiar grown-up voice but the voice of memory uttering a cry of the past.

"Luz! Luz! Luz!"

CHAPTER VII

Dirk followed Arnaldo around the crowded dancing floor, retrieved his overcoat and hat and a moment later the two men sprang into the same car that had rescued Joyce from the same spot four nights before. Adan barked a direction and the tone of his voice was sufficient do. to send the chauffeur tearing along through one street after another, skidding around corners and ignoring lights until he drew up with a squeal of brakes at an apartment house shrouded in darkness. On the third from he stonned at

Dirk rose. "I'm leaving for To- | tear-wet cheeks. "Luz! Oh, Luz! luca in half an hour," he stated. "What about it, Arnaldo? Any chance of your coming with me?" "No," said Arnaldo, snapping out of his daze. He turned to Van Sut-tart. "Sit down." Dirk obeyed. "What do you suppose I'm thinking about? Do you know Dorado? No. Well, I do. We're too late-too late by hours. To make the trip would be a mere sentimental gesture." "Just the same I'm going," said Dirk.

"To take a fall out of a windmill," asserted Arnaldo impatiently. "Have you any idea what a Mexi-can hacienda is like?"

'No."

"It's a fortress. Don't be a fool. If you insist on making a journey to bring back the remains wait until you can take a hearse and a troop of cavalry along with a battery of seventy-fives to help you. If your ambassador can't get them. come to me and I'll see what I can

"No," said Dirk. "You don't understand. He gave me a job and if I tried passing the buck back to him he'd be through with me for keeps and I wouldn't blame him. Do you mind dropping me at my place?"

Joyce stared down in horror at the wreck of a man at her feet. Reason told her since he was mortally wounded she must be stronger than he, yet she was not-all her strength had turned to water. From the waist up he was terribly alive. His right hand was still clamped on her ankle so tightly that circulation had almost ceased and with his left he had managed to seize her skirt. Rather than have it dragged off her she sank to one knee, straining her head back from the sight of his face.

"Luz!" she cried in a last despairing wail.

A bar clattered on the far side of the patio, a door opened and the figure of a woman stepped forth. She hand. A toddling infant closed the was ageless as are all peons once long procession, 500 strong. Joyce the bloom of youth has passed, but eyes. The instant they beheld Joyce their expression underwent a startling transformation. It did not oc-babe she had nursed at her breast;

what she thought she saw was that

She dashed to the rescue, screaming as she went: "Senor Maximiliano! Julio! Leonardo! Plutarco! Ri-

As the last cry for help left her lips she sprang through the air to pounce like a cat, claws out, on Joyce's assailant. Heedless of the shattered hip which was uppermost she dug knowingly under his other thigh and presently tugged into view a sheath knife with a glittering blade a foot long. Gripping the handle with both hands she raised it on high. The man promptly gave up.

He released his hold on Joyce, rolled over and with a sigh of relief exposed his breast to descending death. But he counted without Joyce. She seized Luz's wrists and

At Luz's call doors had opened on every side and people were coming on the run. As the wondering group gathered Luz looked up, her face distorted in bewilderment. An instant later she dropped the knife, threw herself on her knees, bowed her head to the ground and began kissing Joyce's feet with a fervor interrupted only by elucidating

"Joycita! Cita! Ciquita! My baby! At my breast-my own breast!"

She looked up at the crowd through streaming eyes. "Our baby has come back to us!"

Joyce lifted her up and kissed her wrenched them upward.

"No, Luz, no!"

wails.

babe's mother to the very life.

quieta! Nataniel!"

But we can't talk now; we must get a doctor.

"What for?" asked Luz.

"This poor man-we must try to save him." "He's dead," said several of the crowd in unison. "Wait!" called a sonorous voice.

"Wait for me." Joyce looked around and memory, not quite sure of itself, stirred in her breast. An imposing figure was approaching along the gallery of the patio with carefully measured steps accompanied by the regular thump of a rubber-tipped staff. "Who is he?" asked Joyce hurriedly.

"You have forgotten Don Jorge, Senor Maximiliano?" asked Luz. "Because he became blind," she explained, "they left him life." "Of course," said Joyce, remembering. "Maxie, the superintendent. But blind!"

Luz stepped forward, caught Senor Maximiliano's free hand and kissed it with respect. She explained the baby of long ago had returned. He let fall his staff, reached out and laid-hands on Joyce's shoulders. "Maxie," she breathed, "I used to call you Maxie."

He wrapped his arms around her and held her close for a long mo-ment of silence. "The babe is be-come a woman," he rumbled, "but she will always be a child to me. Welcome back to your home and to 'our hearts. Leonardo!" "S e n o r," answered Leonardo, stepping forward.

"Summon the people; let them greet their mistress."

There was no need for Leonardo to issue a call since men, women, and children were already swarming into the precincts of the inner patio. They came from the outer court, the tienda and the scattered houses beyond the gates. Silently, their black eyes staring in wonder, they passed before Joyce, each pausing with bent knee to kiss her

HOW., To, SEV

Making Over a Chair of the Ginger-Bread Era.

The padding at the back was re- the covering. moved entirely and replaced by a fiber board which was covered a copy of Mrs. Spears' new book, by a loose cotton filled cushion SEWING. Forty-eight pages of tufted like an old fashioned bed step-by-step directions for making comfort except that the tied slipcovers and dressing tables; thread ends of the tufting were restoring and upholstering chairs, left on the wrong side.

by using a strip of heavy cardboard to keep the tacks from pulling through the fabric as shown

Preparing Starch .- Stir a piece

O modernize the old walnut | here for tacking the box pleated I chair at the right the pieces ruffle around the seat as at A. under the arms were removed and A plain rust colored heavy cotton most of the carving covered up. upholstery material was used for Every Homemaker should have couches; making curtains for ev-This back cushion was fastened ery type of room and purpose. in place with tapes that slipped Making lampshades, rugs, ottoover the knobs at the ends of the mans and other useful articles for upper carving. If the knobs to the home. Readers wishing a hold the cushion had been lacking copy should send name and adit could have been tacked in place dress, enclosing 25 cents, to Mrs. along the top on the under side Spears, 210 South Desplaines St., Chicago, Illinois.

Rising Tide

A new magazine has made its appearance on the newsstands of the country. It is pictorial in character under the name of the "Rising Tide," originally issued in England and now being prepared for distribution in eleven countries under nine different languages. The magazine is reported to be a non-

of the double stairway which led to the balcony above. Fury still possessed her to the exclusion of all fear. Murder was being done on her account-murder before her very eyes.

Again shots pierced the silence, but they were rhythmic, punctuated. They came from the formal dining room. She dashed along the balcony and entered upon a scene so astonishing it brought her to an instantaneous halt. Her eyes were riveted on a figure as hideous as a gargoyle which stood as if crucified against the wall beneath one of the sconces.

She recognized the visage of General Dorado, now twitching with terror as the rhythmic shots shattered one by one the lusters dangling over her head. Two other men were in the room, Eusebio and Pancho, both seated. The jumpers were gone, disclosing what had caused the bulges-bandoliers still half full of cartridges. Eusebio was rolling a cigarette, Pancho was doing the shooting and Dorado, wondering why he was being spared, had his glittering eyes fixed on his tormentor.

"Pancho!" cut in Joyce's voice between two shots. "You lied. You promised Gen-"

In one movement Pancho sprang up, snatched off his big sombrero and swung it backward at a venture, striking her across the mouth. For an instant Dorado stared at her with unbelieving yet consuming eyes, then his paralysis passed and he made a leap for the nearest door. With a double bloodcurdling yell Eusebio and Pancho were after him. Half knocked off balance by the rush of their passage Joyce was yet able to reach the balcony in time to watch the pursuit through the patio, across the visible section of the great court, through the zaguan at its far side and out by one of the gates into the limitless freedom of the prairie.

Joyce turned, went out and descended to the patio with a firm step. She must do something, summon aid. But first she wished to orient herself, revisit the spots she knew best. She glanced toward her one time playroom and saw that the huge key was on the outside of the lock. A moment later she had turned it and thrown open the door. She stood transfixed. It had become a stable—a pig-pen. Two horses turned their heads and stared at her as though startled and three fattening hogs, penned in one corner, grunted low as if only mumbling. She closed the door hurriedy and stepped back against a bush. The bush moved and she thought t was because she had touched it but the next instant her ankle was eized in an unbreakable grip. She ooked down and saw a brown hand, brown hairy arm.

She opened her mouth and er throat. She dragged back with garida curiously.

"He's Dead," Said Several of the Crowd in Unison.

lighted a match to examine the name card, then rang the bell with one hand and knocked with the other.

"Who is it?" asked a deep voice presently. "What do you want?"

"It's I, Margarida-Adan Arnaldo. Open the door. Something terrible has happened."

The latch clicked and the door swung back, revealing Margarida Fonseca.

"What do you want?" asked Margarida.

"Information."

"Take your hand off the gun. Do you think I'm an idiot?" "Oh, I wouldn't shoot; I'd just tap over and around your brainsharder and harder." "If I weren't amused I'd scream for help."

"You'd get it all right; the police are downstairs."

"What police?"

"Why do you suppose I'm running around with a gringo secretary of embassy?" countered Arnaldo. "Don't you know a friend when you see one? Answer my questions and tell the truth or you'll go to jail in a nightgown."

"For what?"

"Abduction of a minor." "What is it you wish to know?"

"Where is the girl?" "She's gone to La Barranca." "What for?"

"La Barranca is undoubtedly her property; I had to admit that much.

Since I explained why the courts can do nothing she has gone there to plead with General Dorado to hand it back to her."

"I don't believe it!" said Arnaldo. "She told me she never wanted to see Pepe's horror of a face again."

Margarida smiled pityingly. "I'm the one who's telling the truth. The girl is at La Barranca. I swear it by every hair on the head of my dead mother."

"Where is La Barranca?" Dirk asked. "I mean how to you get there-by what road?"

"The road to Toluca," said Ar-naldo out of a half daze. "The hacienda is southwest of Toluca. Once to say is La Barranca to the first man you meet and he will point out the trail."

creamed but no sound issued from La Barranca, Adan?" asked Mar- States, said: "Its technical name snatched up the baby and faced the strong with the toughness of rawthrong. hide. Her leathery face would have "As this child is one of you," she been expressionless had it not been called, "so am I. Boundaries difor the brilliance of cavernous black vide peoples; they can't divide the human family. Love me and I will serve you; serve me with faith in your hearts and I will love you." cur to her she was staring at the She turned to Senor Maximiliano and laid her hand on his arm. "Was that all right, Maxie?"

"Your father might have spoken the words," said Don Jorge, "and I know no greater praise. But I am confused. Let us go insideyou and Luz and I-and talk."

Don Jorge Maximiliano de la Sierra was a gentleman, a scion of a collateral branch of the family which had originally owned La Barranca.

Seated in the little room which had been her mother's boudoir, with Luz standing before them, Joyce told Don Jorge of her father's death and the dreary years culminating with the arrival of the warrant for $10,000. Then, interrupted by several sharp questions, she gave him the exact facts as to what had happened in the week since she had returned to Mexico.

"Let's say farewell to the past," said Don Jorge, "and face the present. What you have told me about Onelia troubles me profoundly. Why did he accede to your request? Why did his men kill Dorado and then abandon you?"

"They didn't," said Joyce quickly. "What!" cried Don Jorge, straightening in his chair. "Are you sure, my child?"

"Quite sure, Maxie. Didn't I tell you Onelia told Pancho Buenaventura that Dorado mustn't be killed at any price? They chased him away-I saw them with my own eyes-but they didn't kill him." (TO BE CONTINUED) of lard about as big as a five-cent piece into your starch while it is boiling. Your clothes will take on a nice gloss, and the iron will not stick.

For Meringues .--- Eggs that are several days old make better meringues than fresh ones. . . .

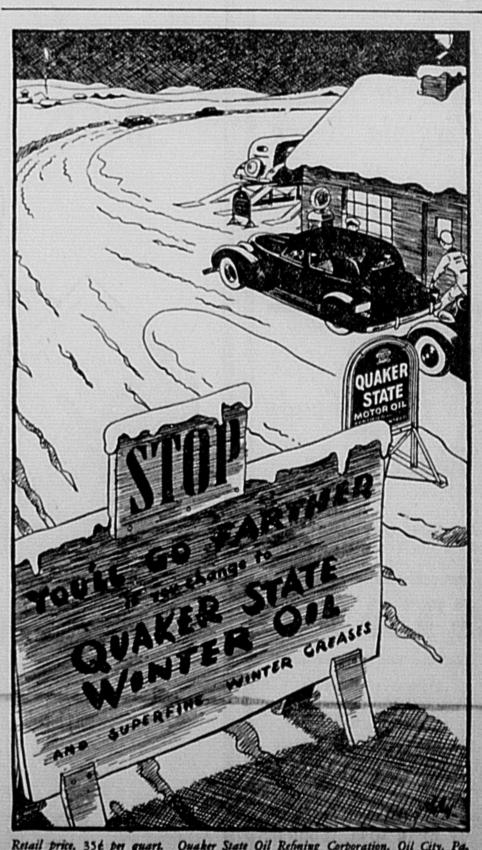

For Cooling Cakes .- An ordinary wire dish-drying rack makes a good cake cooling rack when turned upside down.

Preserving Stockings .- Because perspiration acids are among the worst enemies of good hose, clothing experts advise washing stockings after each wearing-in lukewarm water with mild soap.

Watering House Plants .-- Rinse water from milk bottles will make house plants healthy and vigorous.

profit publication carrying no advertising but such matter that is of interest to the people of the world who are seeking answers to their own problems. It is said that these problems are covered without regard to race, class or creed.

"Norway Pine" Misnomer; Forest Service Orders It Shall Be Known as "Red Pine" decreed that hereafter the Norway pine, so common to the Lake states, have been sent to all National forest custodians.

The name "Norway" has been in common usage with us although it is a misnomer. According to authorities the name is wholly out of place, for the tree is not a foreigner but a native of North America. It is related that the name Norway pine was given the tree by a Spanish captain who first found it here. Its close resemblance to pines he had vantage over white for reforestation seen in Norway caused him to supyou've passed the city all you have pose it identical with such as he had seen growing there, which undoubtedly were Scottish pines.

Simon B. Elliott, in his work on "How do you know so much about | important timber trees of the United also is inappropriate. Pinus resi-

The Federal Forest service has | contains less resin than any other hard timber pine is very strange." The name red pine is appropriate shall be known as, and called, the for this tree and is quite generally red pine. Instructions to this effect | recognized throughout its eastern range. The bark and wood are reddish, the winter buds red-brown, the staminate flowers scarlet or reddish purple and the scales of the pistil-late flowers scarlet. The red pine, next to the white pine, used to be the most important timber tree of the lake states. Today it is planted as extensively as white and jack over state and federal reservations. It has one adpurposes-it will take root and thrive in soils too sterile and light for white pine, and for this reason is found in extensive stands on the sandy plains of the North.

Name of Labrador

A venturesome Portuguese namea

all her might. Another hand came "For my sins I went to one of nosa, which it is called, means resin Labrador discovered and gave his forward and then appeared the Pepe's shooting parties," said Ar-Retail price, 35¢ per quart. Quaker State Oil Refining Corporation. Oil City, Pa. shoulders of a man. She tugged | naldo. still in a half darey be given that name when its wood | ada.

FOR SALE: 3 adjoining lots on 12th St., near High School. $50 if sold this week. Apply at Slatonite.

FOR RENT: Nice bedroom, next to bath. 125 North 5th. Mrs. Lowry.

FOR SALE-2 Bicycles, good condi tion. J. H. Brewer, phone 17.

For RENT: Garage, close in. 125 North 5th. Mrs. Lowry.

DON'T SCRATCH: Paracide Ointment is guaranteed to relieve any form of eczema, itch, ringworm or itching skin trouble within 48 hours or money refunded. Large 2 oz. jar 50c at

RED CROSS PHARMACY

FOR SALE or Trade: Several farms in Hockley Co. Sandy loam. Crop payment plan. Small down payment. Will take cotton at 10e lb. Will rent by selling equipment. Write or see: M. F. Guetersloh, Rt. 1, Levelland, or W. C. Guetersloh, Rt. 1, Slaton. 4tp

FOR SALE: 196 acres 11/2 miles North of Posey, 190 acres in cultivation; b room house, barn and outhouses, well and windmill.

115 acres 5 miles South of Slaton, 4 room stucco house, barn, well and windmill. All in cultivation. Terms. See or write John F. Schriever, San Acgelo, Texas, Rt. 2; or Walter Jocketz, Rt. 2, Siaton, Texas 2tp.

FOR SALE: Choice, milk-fed Turkeys. Supply limited Get yours at once. Mrs. James S. Bates. 2tp

MANTED: Man for Rawleigh Route. Route will be permanent if you are a hustler. For particulars, write Rawleigh's, Dept. TXL-695-103, Memphis, 1 # 3 號 题 1 Tenn.

SHOWER IS GIVEN FOR MRS. BROWN

A miscellaneous shower was given or Mrs. J. D. Brown, nee Vaga Scott, Friday, December 10, 1937, at the home of Mrs. E. E. Culver, 305 West Panhandle. There were forty present and several gifts were sent. Miss Tommile Reed preseided at the bride's book. The program consisted of two readings by Miss Reed and Mrs. T. K.

Martin. Little Sonny Baker, the bride's nephew, was Santa Claus and presented the gifts.

Cake and coffee was served and all enjoyed the evening.

75TH BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR J. C. HORTON

Mr. J. C. Horton of the Hackberry community was entertained with a birthday party Thursday night at 7 at his home, where a big turkey dinner was served to about thirty guests. The house was decorated in the Christmas motif.

A good time was had by all as everybody told of incidents of many years gone by.

Have your prescriptions filled at TEAGUE DRUG STORE by a Registered Pharmacist

FOR RENT-Choice unfurnished apt. on pavement. Apply R. M. Shepard, 435 E. Lubbock.

MEMBER OF THE FAMILY

The Slaton Slatonite, Friday, December 17, 1937

CHRISTMAS TIME AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Have your prescriptions filled at

TEAGUE DRUG STORE by a

Registered Pharmacist

F. A. Lorall Let Your Gift Express Your Personality Make it something useful

We have just received a large stock of complete Christmas selections, gifts for Him, Her or the Kiddes, gifts that are useful, that will endure. Your selection will be made easy from our big stock.

For the Men:

MILITARY SETS, PACKARD ELECTRIC RAZORS, SHAV-ING SETS, LEATHER GOODS, SMOKING SETS AND SUPPLIES AND MANY OTHER THINGS

For the Ladies:

DRESSER SETS, PERFUMES, BOUDIOR COMBINATIONS, FINE CANDIES, TOILET PREARATIONS, FITTED CASES

For the Kiddeis:

CUNNING CUDDLY TOYS AND MANY MORE NEW CREATIONS

MAKE

Sunday morning, Dec. 19, text: 'Unto Us A Child Is Born". Sunday evening: A Candle-lightng Service, 7:30. Tuesday: Party for children, 4:00.

Tuesday night: "Average 56" Sunday School Class, 8:00.

Let Our Want Ads Do Your Work.

YOU CAN THROW CARDS

IN HIS FACE

ONCE TOO OFTEN

WHEN you have those awful cramps; when your nerves are all on edge-don't take it out on the man you love. Your husband can't possibly know how you feel for the simple reason that he is a man.

A three-quarter wife may be no wife at all if she nags her husband seven days out of every

For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smil-ing through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system.

thus lessening the discomforts from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three ordeals of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood, 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Ap-

Don't be a three-quarter wife, take LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND and proaching "middle age."

month

TEAGUE DRUG STORE your XMAS headqugrters

Before you even approach your cold car, OIL-PLATING is already up to the top of your engine, left there by Germ

This slippy PLATING of oil eases the job for starter and battery ... wipes out ruinous Winter warm-ups for you. Your Conoco Mileage Merchant OIL-PLATES your engine with your correct Winter grade of Germ Processed oil and it goes

S. Company and

11